SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By LUCRECE BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Claus, a toymaker and Tweekidness, an elf, aided by four magic gifts, set out to find and destroy the Pigwidgen who has placed a sleeping curse on all the children of the world.

Chapter Seven
The Giant
What did it matter, thought Claus, if the magic of the elves' marvelous gifts would work but once? Each weapon was so powerful that it alone could destroy the Pigwidgen!

With a great bellow, the giant raced after them. Tweekidness turned and glared down at the hump far below. 'I'm not afraid of giants,' he bragged. 'In fact, I think I'll just finish off that giant before he gets to me.'

Student Head At Albertus Resigns Post

NEW HAVEN (AP)—A top student leader in the new provisional campus government at Albertus Magnus College, one of a recent student boycott, has resigned her post. She charged that the administration of the all-girl Roman Catholic college has broken faith with the students.

In an open letter of resignation, Deborah Hawkins, a 21-year-old senior, said she questioned whether she was right in taking the rational, moderate way in negotiating the recent dispute over tuition and dress that led to the suspensions of 23 students.

CAREFUL MANAGEMENT OFFERS BAD BREAKS BY ALFRED SHAINWOLD

Most bridge players may be classified either as wallers, who complain about bad breaks, or as men of character, who lay down uncomplainingly. Only a few players are unclassified: They don't complain because they find a way to survive the bad breaks.

Opening lead—queen of hearts. When today's hand was played in a recent team match, the contract was six spades at both tables. The first declarer took the king of hearts, drew four rounds of trumps, discarding a heart from dummy, cashed the ace and ruffed a club.
