SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese soldiers fighting in the heat and mud of the Mekong Delta badly mauled a Viet Cong force of about 1,500 men and won the greatest one-day battle of the delta war, military headquarters said today.

The battle against three Viet Cong battalions began Friday morning and cost the enemy 306 dead before the day was out. During the night, the Viet Cong slipped from the battlefield in small units but after sunrise today turned again to fight closely pursuing South Vietnamese rangers.

Only sketchy details, and no casualty figures, were available on today's fighting.

Initial battle reports said 60 government soldiers were killed and 102 wounded Friday before the enemy was encircled by armored columns and pinned down after being flushed from the sanctuary of the U-Minh forest 100 miles south of Saigon.

Three American advisers with the Vietnamese troops were reported wounded. Normally about three Americans accompany a South Vietnamese battalion on field operations.

The U.S. Military Assistance Command Vietnam (MACV) was exultant over the showing of the frequently criticized South Vietnamese army. Today's MACV communique said, "The ARVN (Army of the Republic of Vietnam) had a smashing victory in the delta yesterday. It was the biggest single day in delta history."

Rejection Of Heart Suspected

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Routine tests on Louis Washansky have shown "seems signs which may be interpreted as rejection" of the heart he received in an historic transplant operation, a doctor at Groote Schuur Hospital said today.

At this stage it is no more than a suspicion and further tests are being carried out, said Dr. T. O'Donovan, a member of the transplant team of doctors led by Prof. Christian Barnard. Barnard has decided to intensify the treatment to counter the natural tendency of the body to reject the heart because it is a foreign tissue, he said. Doctors had warned this weekend would be a crucial time in the struggle against the rejection.

Earlier Barnard said that Washansky could survive a slight rejection.

Drugs are being used to lessen the body's tendency to reject.

4 Soviets on Trial, Coup Try Charged

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has brought four young intellectuals to trial on charges of being part of an armed terrorist network trying to undermine or overthrow the Communist state, informed sources said today.

An information blackout made independent confirmation of the report impossible, but the sources said the case was regarded as so serious that the Soviet Communist party's ruling Central Committee met secretly to discuss its implications.

With the arrest of the four in Leningrad, the scene of the trial, secret police discovered

The communique said no American ground units were involved, although American pilots flew more than half the day's 50 air strikes that accounted for about one-quarter of the Viet Cong casualties.

The South Vietnamese troops came from the 21st Division, one of the army's best rated units, and a reserve striking force of rangers. At the peak of the fight there were about five South Vietnamese battalions in the battle—about 2,800 men.

They were pitted against veteran Viet Cong units that evidently had been fleshed out recently by young recruits. South Vietnamese headquarters reported that many of the Viet Cong bodies found on the battle-

Airplane Crash Kills 1st Negro Astronaut

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Maj. Robert H. Lawrence Jr., America's first Negro astronaut, has been killed in the crash of an F104 Starfighter jet as it landed after a routine training flight.

An Air Force spokesman called him "one of those young bright guys with everything going for him."

Lawrence, 31, was preparing a project for the Defense Department to orbit two men on a space laboratory in 1970.

The Chicago-born Lawrence was the ninth U.S. astronaut to die. The others were assigned to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Five died in accidents earlier this year.

The F104, "a missile with a man in it" which travels twice the speed of sound, smashed onto a runway after the flight Friday at Edwards Air Force Base and spurted "a little fire," an Air Force spokesman said.

A second occupant, Maj. Harvey J. Royer, was injured. Royer, 36, chief of operations for the Air Force's Aerospace Research Pilot School, was hospitalized with undisclosed injuries.

The Air Force appointed a board of officers to investigate. No other details of the crash were made public.

Lawrence, selected as an astronaut-designee in June, was one of 18 military officers in training for the MOL Project, the Manned Orbiting Laboratory program. The group was made up of 12 Air Force officers, three Navy men and one Marine.

Lawrence's widow, Barbara, and their 8-year-old son, Tracey, live at the base.

Stocks Post 5th Straight Weekly Rise

By ED MORSE
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock Market volume soared to near-record levels this week as the market posted its fifth straight weekly advance.

Wall Street seemed to be rolling up its sleeves and flexing its muscles for what brokers call the "traditional year-end rally."

The market, though working higher every week, has not been running away with itself.

On average, the market has moved up steadily, taking ample time to correct itself. Some of the more favored issues, however, have done better than the market as a whole.

The heavy trading, sometimes turbulent, was the impressive phenomenon.

Volume was 59,832,730 shares compared with 51,100,650 the previous week. It was the greatest turnover since the record 60.8 million shares traded in the week ended last Aug. 5. The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 8.09 to 887.25. This was only a moderate gain.

The Dow industrials gladdened the hearts of chart followers and other technicians on Wednesday when they finally managed to crumh through the tough area of overhead resistance between 885 and 890. Theoretically, this signaled a further advance to the equally tough 900 line. But the advance petered out, some thought temporarily.

The Associated Press average of 50 stocks this week rose 2.1 to 317.2.

Of 1,630 issues traded, 657 fell and 877 rose.

The week was noteworthy because of records for "breadth of market"—the total number of issues traded, were broken on Monday with 1,512 and again on Tuesday, with 1,531.

Obviously, the list was being churned up, and many new favorites seemed in the process of being brought to the fore, hopefully for a good rise in 1968, for the short term, between now and New Year's day.

Some of the oldest favorites were among the best performers, however. Outstanding among them was IBM which made a series of new highs and ended the week with a gain of 2 1/2% at 64 1/2. IBM, analysts said, was simply responding to heavy investment buying by the many who believe the computer age has hardly begun and has an even richer future. As the biggest factor in the computer industry, IBM rose in lively fashion.

14th White House Bride

LBJ Ready to Give Lynda Away

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson walks his daughter, Lynda Bird, down the red-carpeted, marble halls of the White House today into the history books as the 14th White House bride.

The great presidential mansion was aglow with red and white flowers, mistletoe and a Christmas atmosphere for its first wedding in 53 years.

In the great gold and white East Room, 240 twinkling white candles sparkled amid an evergreen backdrop for a simple white altar that waited for Lynda, 23, and her bridegroom, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb 28, to exchange vows of holy matrimony.

It was as romantic a setting as any girl could want and hundreds of persons—from cooks to carpenters—had helped make it possible.

The bride-to-be had said she wanted to sleep late this morning, but the White House had a pre-dawn starting schedule for the big wedding day.

Everything about the 4 p.m. EST wedding had been rehearsed—even the kisses of the bride couple. But there were scores of last-minute details to be attended to.

The week-long round of pre-nuptial partying had left Lynda and Chuck a bit exhausted.

The windup wedding-eve dinner dance given by Robb's parents lasted until a bit past midnight. But it provided the bridal couple with a gay, musical version of a wedding and some of the pitfalls of married life.

Broadway stars Carol Lawrence and Gordon MacRae, dressed in bridal attire, sang excerpts from the musical "I Do, I Do" for Lynda's bridal party in the candle-lit atmosphere of a private Georgetown club.

When the stars finished their numbers, including some showing the typical kiss-and-make-up squabbles, Lynda, laughingly asked Miss Lawrence: "Is that what it's really like?"

President Johnson, who said he was quite nervous, like any father of the bride, provided a humorous and sentimental champagne toast at the party that brought tears to Lynda's eyes.

He still had to attend to business amid the romantic takeover of the White House and excused himself from the party to get back in time to meet a midnight deadline for a bill awaiting his signature.

It hardly seemed that presidential business could go on amid the wedding atmosphere, with 450 reporters, photographers and technicians gathering like bees around the White House.

They had come to report for the world the historic scene from the 600 wedding guests to the six-foot wedding cake.

The White House was so jammed there was standing room only for the elaborate drama: —The grand stairway descent of the bride party to dramatic trumpet music played by the scarlet-coated Marine Band chamber orchestra.

Four Americans Believed Dead

Andes Airliner Crash Kills All 67 Aboard

HUANUCO, Peru (AP) — 155 miles to the north. Farmers who heard the crash later led police through thick vegetation to the wreckage scattered near a forest highway.

"Most of the bodies were burned and the others completely destroyed," said Col. Carlos Farje Allende, who led the first party to the shattered liner. Identification was difficult, he reported.

There was no explanation for the crash.

A spokesman for Faucett said the plane was believed to have carried 57 persons—six crew members, 45 passengers from Lima and 16 who boarded in Huanuco. Although all were booked to Tingo Maria, the airline said it had not determined if anyone left the plane here.

The aircraft was packed because of the Roman Catholic holiday of the Immaculate Conception. All stores and offices in the country were closed and many persons took advantage of the three-day weekend to travel.

Included in the passenger list was 17 foreigners—the four Americans, an English diplomat and his wife, four French nationals, two Belgians and five Italians.

The Americans were identified as Joseph Newman, 69, of 3084 Klammer Drive, Las Vegas, Nev.; Evelyn Craig, 47, and Robert and Corina Houk. No home addresses were available for the latter three.

The British Embassy identified the diplomat as John White, 40, the embassy's first secretary and consul. His wife, Vivian, was flying with him.

British Ambassador David Muirhead said the Whites were on local leave and were traveling in Peru. Muirhead planned to fly to Huanuco today to aid in identification.

Rockefeller Insists He's No Candidate

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Confessing he is being pressed harder than ever before, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says he hasn't opened the door even a crack wider to a possible draft for the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller laughed off, in an interview, a suggestion by Oregon Gov. Tom McCall at the GOP governors conference here that a national committee be formed to circulate petitions urging the New York governor to get into the nomination race.

McCall guessed that 15 million signatures could be assembled.

"Are they all going to be delegates to the nominating convention?" Rockefeller asked. Told that obviously they would not be, the governor replied: "That's it. Now you've got it. That's what counts."

Rockefeller, who is expected to be designated a favorite son by the New York delegation, conceded he is being pressed harder at this meeting than ever before on his noncandidate stand.

McCall, who claims that at least 15 GOP governors would be happy to have Rockefeller head the 1968 party ticket, said subsequently he will not push his proposal.

Informed that a statement he made at a Friday news confer-

'Deceptive Calls for Unity'

McCarthy Raps Cabinet

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says Cabinet spokesmen go around the country defending the Johnson administration while troubles pile up in their own departments.

The Minnesota Democrat, who says he will contest President Johnson in at least five state presidential primaries, told the Minnesota Concerned Democrats Friday night the Vietnam war has gone to far. "... in terms of cost and what possible good could come of it."

Today Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey addresses Minnesota's Democratic-Farmer-Labor State Central Committee and is expected to answer some of McCarthy's criticism of the administration.

McCarthy said administration spokesmen have made "deceptive calls for unity" and suggested that the war issue be put to a vote in a national referendum.

Much of his address was aimed at the many youths in the crowd of 2,000.

"There is nothing wrong with the young people today if someone says to them," here is the challenge, and here is the way to respond," he said.

He said the language of politics has become sullied with the word "war."

"There's a war on poverty, war on inflation, war on pollution," he said. "I'm afraid they may soon announce a war on youth."

That prompted cheers and applause and hoisting of signs, some with sketches of doves, declaring "McCarthy for President," or "Fresh Start, Vote for Gene."

He told the audience, "this is not the time for the stifling of dissent or for a response to the deceptive calls for unity."

"At no time in the 20 years that I have been active in our party have our national officers and Cabinet members cried for unity and denounced dissent in anticipation of either conventions or primaries."

He made these criticisms of Cabinet members:

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has denounced protest while the parity index of farm prices has gone down.

Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz has complained about the way the press treats the administration, while the copper strike is in its fifth month and there is the threat of another walkout in the auto industry.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk calls for an end of criticism while refusing to appear at public hearings on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Students Plan to Fast
LIBERTY, Mo. (AP)—Many students will be going hungry this winter at William Jewell College. They want it that way. They're demonstrating with fasts to call attention to the problem of world food supplies.

More than 80 have volunteered to stage an unbroken chain of fasts leading up to a population conference planned for March 29 in Kansas City.

Plans call for as many as three students at a time going without solid food for 24-hour periods.

McCarthy Accuses Cabinet

Henry Fowler, speaking for the administration, has been unable to get Congress to pass major tax legislation.

And Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien "has been making speeches asking for party unity while the postal service deteriorates."

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey challenged Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and other critics of the administration today to step forward with clear ideas on how to do the job better.

Humphrey's remarks were prepared for delivery at a meeting of the Minnesota Democratic-Farmers-Labor party State Central Committee.

Friday night McCarthy told the Minnesota Concerned Democrats the Vietnam war has gone too far "in terms of cost and what possible good could come of it" and said Cabinet spokesmen spend their time defending the Johnson administration while troubles pile up in their own departments.

Humphrey said he was addressing all his fellow Democrats—"regular, irregular, liberal, conservative," agreeing, dissenting—and "Concerned."

He added, "I do not think being 'concerned' is the special prerogative of any single party or group."

"I believe 'concerned' is also an accurate description of the leadership which the Johnson-Humphrey administration has given our country."

"But we have been more than concerned. We have acted on that concern."

ence was being interpreted in some quarters as a softening of his stand against a possible draft, Rockefeller said this just wasn't so. "I have not changed my position one iota," he said.

In response to a question at the news conference of whether he was "draftable," the governor had replied: "That is a hypothetical question. It's an iffy question. I haven't faced it because I don't think it is a reality. If the party presents you with that fact, and I don't think it will, then your have to face it."

While McCall said he thinks Rockefeller "is moving a little" toward a possible candidacy, Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland counseled others who want the New Yorker for a candidate against forming any draft organization. Agnew said it was too early.

Gov. John H. Chafee of Rhode Island, incoming chairman of the GOP conference, said that if developments should bring Rockefeller into the picture he does not think that convention delegates would reject the New Yorker despite the fact that a majority of them are likely to be conservative.

Chafee, a supporter of Gov. George Romney of Michigan, said he thinks the New Hampshire and Wisconsin primaries might "break" a losing candidate but would not necessarily give the winner an inside track toward the nomination.

Chafee torpedoed a short-lived revolt against his taking over the conference chairmanship by assuring the governors in a closed session that he would never use his position as chairman to advance Romney or any other candidate.

Florida Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr. and Oklahoma Gov. Dewey Bartlett contended that Chafee couldn't be a neutral chairman while being the drums for Romney. Following Chafee to the outdoor news conference rostrum, Kirk said he thinks the Rhode Island governor "will be a very neutral chairman."

In a closed session, the governors voted to recommend the appointment of Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania as co-chairman with Sen. Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois of the 1968 convention platform committee.

Dirksen, who opposes sharing the top job, told a news conference he welcomes aid from the governors in drafting platform plans. He indicated he would be willing to name some of them to lead subcommittees.

Associated Press service said he did not see that a congressman's putting a relative on his payroll was wrong in itself. The sole question, he said, was whether the person hired was capable and did the job properly.

180 Seconds with Groucho

By JOAN CROSBY
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Groucho Marx walked across the bare floor of the rehearsal hall, sat down and said, "If you have anything worthwhile to say, you'd better say it now because in another three minutes I'll be back up there."

It was suggested that, during the 180 seconds available before he went back to rehearsing "A Taste of Funny," to be seen on NBC-TV on the "Kraft Music Hall" on Wednesday, he might be the one to say something worthwhile. He said:

"This is an arduous job. Do you realize that we are doing in six days what Broadway takes three months to do? Why did I take the job? A kind of lunacy. The moon was irregular that night. It's a kind of challenge and occasionally you have to accept them. There won't be many more—I'm about to quit. "I'm going to be doing my first Public Broadcasting Laboratory show soon. It will probably be with John Lindsay or Senator Dirksen. What kind of show will it be? Disastrous. I'm doing the PBL shows because I believe in it. I'm not getting nearly the money I usually get. But I think we need another network."

Groucho paused to listen to a chorus rehearsing a song. "Listen to that. You only hear singing like that in Rheims Cathedral.

"Because I'm going to do a political interview, it doesn't mean I'm as interested in politics as I was 20 years ago. All they have done is change the clowns. I had an offer to run for governor of California. I asked how much the job paid and it was so much less than I make I turned it down. I'm serious about this—they really wanted to know if I was interested.

"You know, Bobby Kennedy ought to get a haircut. That was fine when he was 30, but how old is he now? When a man is over 40 he should stop looking like Veronica Lake. I like him but I think he looks ridiculous. The man's got 10 kids, he's a prominent senator and he looks like the rear end of William Jennings Bryan."

And the 180 seconds were up.

Making A Deal For A Deal

NEW YORK — (NEA) — "Let's Make a Deal" may be headed back to the nighttime television screen. NBC wants it in January (to replace "Accidental Family"?) and the only hang-up now is price.

Monty Hall, co-producer as well as MC of the long-running (four years) game show, says that the network has made an offer and they have made a counteroffer and there's still some haggling to be done. You would think Hall would be happy about being in demand.

"I should be a happy man," he says. "I'm one of the top men in my field, I have a hit show, plenty of money. But I'm not happy. There are frustrations. What I'd really like to do is MC a talk show, and I'd like to act, too."

But, so far, nobody will give him a crack at those two fields. He is always greeted with snorts of disbelief when he says he can act.

"Why is everybody surprised

NEW YORK (AP) — Ivan

Tors, who in "Daktari," "Flipper" and "Gentle Ben" has created more animal stars than most producers ever achieve with humans, plans to move into a world more dangerous than the African jungle—daytime television.

In that world of specialty programming, soap operas seem to go on forever. Then there are the reruns of old nighttime programs. And finally, there are the game and panel shows. These are the shows that, unlike the soaps, are given little time to stay around and build an audience. And it is a game show that Tors and his associates will unveil on ABC Dec. 18.

Tors' maiden daytime effort is called "Treasure Isle," and claims to be played out in the most expensive "set" ever created for television—a man-made island and "lagoon"—really a pool loaded with electronic gadgets for special effects.

"Daytime television," said Sherman Adler, an executive of the production company, "is completely dominated by shows made inside studios. This one will be completely taped outside of studios."

That is important, Adler thinks, because he did some research and found that programs shot on location almost invariably received good audience ratings.

The island and lagoon were built near Palm Beach, Fla., and contributed by John MacArthur, millionaire owner of a nearby resort hotel and other real estate. It cost more than $500,000. This has been dictated less by love of show business than a desire to promote the location and the hotel—and to help attract more show business from New York and Hollywood. Tors has been a Florida booster for several seasons and has been producing both feature movies and TV series in studios near Miami.

In a fancy setting, contestants will play a rather routine TV game—encountering obstacles, bumping into each other in boats, following clues and, finally, digging for treasure.

"It can't miss," said Adler. "It starts in winter and all those people in cold climates will just love looking at tropical Florida."

Suppose they like the palm trees and lagoon but hate the game?

"Well," said Adler, "I really don't have much time to watch TV but I think it's a great game. It will bring people to Florida and show business to Florida."

Movin'

NEW YORK—"If it's not going to be me, I might as well phone it in," said Nancy Sinatra.

She was talking about her "Movin' with Nancy" special to be broadcast on NBC Monday 8 to 9 p.m.

"A special has to reflect the performer, the person," she explained. "Otherwise, there's no reason for me to be here at all."

"Guest shots on other people's programs are different. The star sets the mood, the personality of the show. You're hired, you're paid to sing one or two songs, you do what you're told to do and yourself doesn't become particularly involved."

Nancy explained how and why she arrived at the format for her own special on TV, which required more than a month to film against various scenic backgrounds from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

"So we decided to shoot the special like it was a musical motion picture, with a prevail-
