WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's administration proposed today to tax the spending of the American tourists outside the Western Hemisphere above a $7-a-day level.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler made the proposal to the House Ways and Means Committee as a keystone of Johnson's effort to reduce by $500 million the net outflow of dollars resulting from tourist travel.

The administration also proposed extending the 5 per cent excise tax now charged on air tickets within the United States to foreign air traffic and to water transportation outside the Western Hemisphere.

The custom-free bringing back of purchases made abroad would also be sharply restricted.

Fowler told the committee this particular method was adopted so that the tax would "not fall heavily on those with

Whale of a 'Tail'

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—While taking photographs 70 feet below the ocean's surface, Rick Grigg couldn't resist the impulse to pat a 25-foot migrating California gray whale.

The whale responded with a flip of its tail that knocked the stripes from Grigg's mouth, pushed his face plate to his shoulders and slashed his forehead.

Another diver helped Grigg to the surface after the encounter Saturday. Grigg's injuries were minor.

State News Couple Die In Newington House Fire

NEWINGTON (AP)—Two persons perished in a fire that swept a home early today.

The victims were identified as Howell G. Rees, 66, and his wife Dorothy, 57.

The blaze broke out after 1 a.m.

Police said Mrs. Rees was pulled from the house by neighbors but was dead on arrival at Hartford Hospital. Rees' body was found in the wreckage.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

A report from a neighbor, who said flames were shooting through the roof, brought all four of the town's volunteer fire companies to the 5-room ranch house at 143 Reservoir Rd.

The roof and back of the house were wrecked. Mr. and Mrs. Rees lived alone there.

One fireman was hurt when an ambulance, moving into the area, caught a hose being assembled by firemen. The fireman was spun around and tossed against a truck. He was taken to Hartford Hospital, where he was released after an examination. He returned to the scene to continue fighting the blaze.

Report of Pueblo Agreement Unconfirmed in Washington

Dean Rusk and Robert McNamara during discussion of Far East events on 'Meet the Press' last night.

No Progress Is Reported By Bundy

SEOUL (AP)—The newspaper Chosun Ilbo said the United States agreed today to apologize to North Korea and the North Koreans agreed to return the 83 crewmen of the seized intelligence ship Pueblo. This was denied in Washington.

"We have no confirmation on that," William P. Bundy, assistant secretary of state said. "As of this moment we cannot report any progress."

Bundy added that meetings between the United States and the North Koreans are continuing.

Quoting an unidentified South Korean government source, Chosun Ilbo said the agreement was reached at the third secret meeting of U.S. and North Korean representatives held at Panmunjom, where the Military Armistice Commission meets in the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea.

The report said the United States agreed to a Communist demand that it sign a note of apology admitting that the Pueblo violated North Korean waters.

U.S. officials in Seoul said they could neither confirm nor deny the report.

Earlier South Korean sources had reported the meeting at Panmunjom today and said the North Koreans offered to release the body of one dead American and "several" injured if the United States would admit the Pueblo was trespassing.

A Seoul radio station said three helicopters were waiting at the conference building at Panmunjom in expectation of

Nixon and Romney Press Campaigns

Nixon

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Richard M. Nixon moves into Wisconsin today, opening one of the most critical battles in his fight to win the Republican presidential nomination for a second time.

This is the second leg in Nixon's drive.

He finished three days of intensive campaigning in New Hampshire today and one of his aides, commenting on the receptions to his appearances, said "It was all and more than we expected."

New Hampshire holds the nation's first presidential primary election on March 12, followed by the Wisconsin primary April 2.

Nixon is counting heavily on destroying his "loser image" by winning decisively in six primaries—and especially the first two.

His lieutenants see New Hampshire as ultra important

Romney

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Gov. George Romney said today Richard M. Nixon realizes now his opponent is no pushover in the New Hampshire presidential primary. And Romney renewed his demand that the former vice president face him in campaign debate, saying the voters won't settle for "hide-and-seek" tactics.

"I think he realizes he's in a contest," the underdog Romney said of Nixon. But Romney said his program has forced Nixon to change New Hampshire strategy.

"Whoever was responsible for the early strategy thought it was pretty much of a pushover," Romney said. He said the Nixon forces realize now that is not the case.

Nixon originally planned no more than six days of New Hampshire campaigning, but plans now to put in more time in the state, Romney said.

Police Make New Arrest In Robberies

Further investigation by Manchester and State Police has resulted in another arrest connected with the Jan. 20 looting of a Manchester Sears-Roebuck store and the robbery of a Caldor Department store in Brookfield in December 1966.

Leslie W. Feldman, 32, of Jamaica, N. Y., was arraigned in East Hartford Circuit Court today on charges of receiving stolen goods and larceny in excess of $2,000. His case was transferred to the Danbury Circuit Court 3 on Feb. 19.

Feldman was arrested by state police late Saturday after being transported from his New York home for questioning by detectives of the Manchester and State Police departments.

The present charges filed are those connected with the Brookfield robbery. However, similar charges will be filed in SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Marines beat off 200 to 300 North Vietnamese troops attacking a hill overlooking the northwest fortress at Khe Sanh today. The Viet Cong opened a fresh heavy attack in Saigon while fighting continued in Hue and other targets of the Communist offensive against South Vietnamese cities.

Police reported about 400 Viet Cong overran a police substation in Saigon after nightfall and launched a heavy assault on a main police precinct in the city. The attacks came after allied officials reported the Communists would open a second big attack on the capital.

After 90 minutes of fighting, the Viet Cong had the main precinct in flames. The police abandoned it and headed for the center of Saigon. Police said they refrained from using heavy return fire because of the danger to the heavy population in the area.

It was too early to know whether the 3½-hour ground assault on Hill 861A, accompanied by a heavy artillery attack on other positions at Khe Sanh, northern sector to back up 40,000 Marines already there. Intelligence officers estimate at least 35,000 North Vietnamese troops are massed in the frontier region.

The North Vietnamese attacked a Marine company holding Hill 861A with Bangalore torpedoes, explosive charges and bazooka-type rockets. The hill is a bald patch of scarred earth that dominates the northwestern approach to the Khe Sanh Marine base three miles away.

AP correspondent John T. Wheeler, with the Marines at Khe Sanh, reported that the Leathernecks crushed the attack with the help of artillery and jet air strikes that sent the Communist assault waves reeling back.

Six North Vietnamese bodies were found inside the company's perimeter and about 150 more were just outside. The Marines also reported capturing two prisoners and 64 weapons. The company defending the hill

Herald Begins New Service

Starting today the Los Angeles Times/Washington Post News Services will provide The Herald with a comprehensive, daily news report from key centers, both domestic and abroad.

This news service, the first in the field since World War I, combines the editorial efforts of the Times, the largest and most influential newspaper in the West, and The Post, the leading newspaper in the nation's capital. Since its inception in 1962, the Times/Post Service has been serving more than 190 newspapers in this country and around the world.

The emphasis will be on developments in the key hot spots of the world, Washington, D.C., and domestic points where the news is urgent.

From Times and Post bureaus around the globe there will be dispatches going behind the day's developments, providing insight into events in Europe, Africa, Latin America and Asia.

Joanne O'Neil receives teacher's congratulations at ECHS.

ECHS Senior Named Junior Miss

By BILL COE

For the second time in three years, a student representing East Catholic High School has been selected as Connecticut's Junior Miss.

Vivacious, 17-year-old Joanne O'Neil, an ECHS senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil of 4 Murray Rd., Westport, won the 1968 title at last night's pageant finals at the State Armory in Hartford.

A crowd of more than 1,000 watched as Joanne was selected the winner from among 16 finalists and crowned by last year's Junior Miss, Deborah Luben of Bristol.

Joanne's victory makes her Connecticut's representative in the National Junior Miss finals to be held in March in Mobile, Ala.

In 1966, another girl from East Catholic, Miss Patricia Rioux of Glastonbury, was chosen Connecticut winner of the event.

The finalists are judged for poise, appearance, alertness, and creative ability, in three nights of competition.

Two of the runners-up in this year's contest are also seniors at East Catholic: Eileen P. Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sullivan of 93 King St., East Hartford; and Kathleen Michalak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Michalak of 275 Hackmatack St., Manchester.

Miss Sullivan was named first runner-up and first in the talent portion of the contest. Kathleen Michalak, the third runner-up, won the judges' trophy for poise and personality.

Other runners-up were Deborah

No Mood to Be Milked

Farmer Udderly Fed Up Over Cow

Los Angeles Times
Washington Post News Service

CORYDON, Iowa, Feb. 4—An Iowa farmer was in no mood to be milked of $182.50 dollars by a bossy federal government for a big black cow he had never seen. And therein lies a story of a cow the United States of America has lost.

The government contends that Jack N. Moore bought the cow. This displeased the government because it has a lien on the animal as the result of a farm loan.

So the government, acting through J. Everett Jose of the Farmers Home Administration in Columbia, Mo., sent Moore a letter.

It warned Moore that he had no right to buy a cow owned by the United States. The letter told Moore either to return the cow or pay for it.

Moore says he doesn't have the cow, never has seen it, doesn't want it and won't pay for it. Furthermore, he demands an apology from the government "for being so damned rude and acting before they found out what the hell the score was."

Moore, 34, who farms 240 acres near here in Southern Iowa, first heard of the cow on Jan. 18 when he received a letter from Jose. "It was official, you could tell by the formal stationery and the neat typewriting those government offices use," Moore said. "Jose fella thought he knew he was talking about the way he's signed his letters. His signature was full of flourishes."

The government made its position clear: "We have been advised," the letter said, "that on or about April 15, 1967, you purchased from Dennis R. Starnes, Unionville, Mo., through the community sale at Center-ville, Iowa, one black cow for $182.50 dollars."

"This is to advise you that this property was under lien to the United States of America. This property was sold without the knowledge or consent of the government."

"Demand is hereby made upon you for the return of the property described above or $182.50 dollars, which represents the fair market value of the property on or before Feb.

Moore read the letter, then headed for town to talk the matter over with friends. "They told me to tell the government to go to hell," Moore said. "But in the back of my mind, I knew that you just don't tell the federal government to go to hell and get away with it. Besides, I figured if I didn't get it straightened out, they'd send the sheriff after me."

So Moore paid the county attorney two dollars to write a letter answering the government. He denied having purchased "said black cow."

The payment deadline has come and gone and Moore has heard nothing more from the United States government.

The engagement of Miss Paula Constance Adams of Manchester to David L. Nelson of Far Rockaway, N.Y., formerly of Manchester, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Adams of 15 S. Hawthorne St. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Howland of Newington.

Miss Adams is a graduate of Manchester High School and Vassar College, where she received a B.A. degree in education and a Phi Beta Kappa honor. She also attended Columbia University.

Mr. Nelson is a graduate of Manchester High School and received a B.A. degree cum laude from Boston University, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He is a pilot with Pan American Air Lines.

The wedding is planned for March 2.

Coventry Minister Installed

The Second Congregational Church of Coventry was the scene of a service of installation for the new minister, the Rev. Robert K. Bechtold, last night.

Taking part in the service were the Rev. Nathaniel Dupuis, conference minister; the Rev. Leonard Kolthoff of Middletown; the Rev. William E. Beldan Jr., pastor of the First Congregational Church of Coventry; the Rev. Raymond H. Bradley Jr. of Andover; the Rev. John Lacey of Vernon; the Rev. Martin Butney, deacon of the host church and the Rev. Everett Frost, retiring deacon of the host church.

Prior to the evening worship service, there was an Ecumenical Council of delegates from all the churches in the town, held at the town hall.

Bolton Plan Outlined to Aid Eastern Area

Conservation oriented plan to aid the rural character of the 40-town Eastern Connecticut area last week heard plans for a grant to develop a conservation program out of the state's Department of Agriculture.

The plan, announced at a dinner meeting at the University of Connecticut, is to be developed by the Connecticut State Department of Agriculture and the Eastern Connecticut Conservation Council.

The meeting was attended by 150 state legislators, mayors, selectmen, planning and zoning officials and interested citizens from each of the 40 towns.

The basic premise of the plan is that the rural character of the area will be preserved and the conservation and multiple use of woodlands improved.

Review Set Tonight of School Plan

The Board of Education will meet in open session tonight to review and act on educational specifications for the proposed renovation of the North End school. It will then go into executive session to discuss the salary proposal by the Bolton Education Association.

The specifications for the conversion of the present elementary school into a middle school have been requested by the Bolton Planning Board. A discussion of the specifications will be held at the regular board meeting next Monday, but the discussion has been moved up a week because of the PBC request.

The school board has asked that an estimated amount for the renovation be put on the town meeting call, which will include a request for money for the new elementary school.

Coventry Grand List Increased $1,457,305

The town's Grand List as of Oct. 1, 1967, according to works compiled by Assessor Samuel P. Allen, shows an increase of $1,457,305, or 27.08 percent, as compared to the Grand List of October 1, 1966, of $5,360,100.

To arrive at the net figure of $1,457,305, exemptions allowed against the gross figure of $6,817,405 included 480 veterans' exemptions to a total of $894,410, as well as 100 exemptions for the elderly totaling $150,945.

The breakdown of the gross list as submitted by Assessor Allen, follows: 2971 houses valued at $16,232,335; 1902 barns, sheds, garages at $1,009,071; 667 house lots at $1,171,325; commercial buildings and lots at $553,825; and 19,852.4 acres of land at $1,862,225.

Reagan's Budget Seen Less Rigid

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The president in this election year.

The assembly is a 42-38 Democratic vote, and the senate is split 20-20. It takes a two-thirds vote in each house for budget passage.

On health and welfare, which cost 20.9 cents of every budget dollar, Reagan proposed the medical spending be limited by the legislature to $200 million—$82 million more than the estimated expenditures would reach $400 million under the current formula.

The Reagan plan would cut hospital and doctor bills for 1.5 percent of the total, and the rest would be paid by the state.

Reagan said the state's share of weight programs in the budget would be $460 million, "if left unchecked."

Reagan's budget would cut $450 million and said he would make changes in the welfare budget for open spending that there would be no tax increase.

He conceded the budget, which totals $2,600,000,000—$1.7 billion less than the state's spending this year. He said this largest proposed spending bill in the history of any state is a tight budget, one that would provide for the needs of a population that will hit more than 10 million in the next year.

Although his economies are less rigid than last year's, they are still expected to draw the opposition of Assembly Speaker Joseph M. Dure and other legislative Democrats. They charge Reagan is trying to force his great welfare policies as ammunition for a possible run at the White House.

MRS. WILLIAM L. FERRAIOLI

The marriage of Miss Helena Ferraioli to William L. Ferraioli, both of Manchester, was solemnized Saturday morning at St. James' Church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Deary of 17 Huntington St. The bridegroom is of 571 Hartford Rd.

The Rev. Thomas Barry of St. James' Church performed the ceremony and was celebrant at the nuptial Mass. Mrs. Neil McKeever, all of Manchester, was organist and soloist. Bouquets of white flowers were given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of Belgium lace. Her full-length veil of silk tulle was arranged from a matching lace domed headpiece. Her corsage was a cascade bouquet of gitanillas.

Miss Andrea J. Deary of 200 Main St. was maid of honor. She wore a full-length gown of emerald and gold colored brocade trimmed with dark silk. She carried a matching spiral pillow bag accented with miniature orchids and also carried a matching brooch. Her bridesmaids were Miss Deary, Miss Donna M. Mason of Storham, by Polytechnic College, is attending Connecticut College, and Miss Carol Kompanski, of West Windsor.

Beauty MAGIC

MR. GARY MISS NANCY

Like many animals, we shed a certain amount of our hair regularly. The average person loses from 50 to 75 hairs every day. This natural loss is automatically replaced by new growth and is no cause for alarm. Hair which becomes spots, however is a different matter. The major cause of baldness is the restriction of blood circulation to the scalp. This can result from sleeping with your hair wound overly-tight on your head, or from such things as pony tails, braids and chignons are equally serious offenders. If you are guilty of one of these errors, you should correct it immediately.

If you want to correct your present hair style or just come to SPILLER OF BEAUTY, Latin American, African and Asian hair styling and coloring. Private Wig Fitting and Coloring Rooms. Open: Mon., Tues., Wed., Sat., 10-5; Thurs., Fri., 9-5. HELLFUTHER: A woman-of-the-earners plastic tabcloth has plenty of good yardage left in it for some pretty book covers.

Meeting Slated By Garden Club

Manchester Garden Club will have a demonstration of flower arranging and a silver tea Monday, Feb. 12, at 1 p.m. in the Woodruff Hall of Greater Connecticut Church. The event is open to all women interested in flower arranging.

The Charter Oak Council, Boy Scouts of America, according to Charlie K. Borman of West Hartford, the council president, has set a goal of enrolling 3,000 new scouts before the end of 1968 as a part of the national three-year "Breakthrough for Youth" program which continues until 1970.

The Charter Oak Council now has an all-time high membership of 16,000 boys registered in scouting and expects to enroll 3,000 new scouts before the end of 1968 as a part of the national three-year "Breakthrough for Youth" program which continues until 1970.

President Borman has appointed Norman F. Larson of Manchester to direct the new "Program of Emphasis," and Arnold E. Squires of West Hartford as council chairman and Charles J. Borman as extension committee.

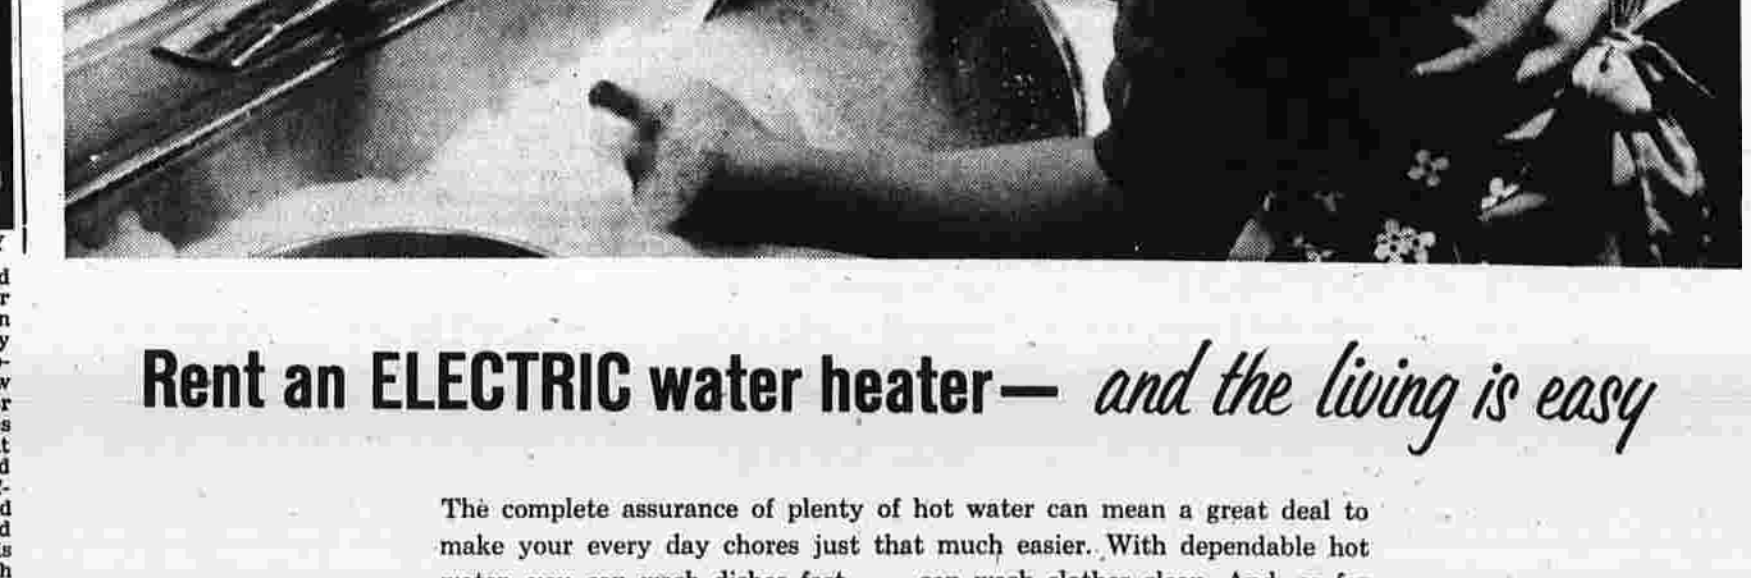

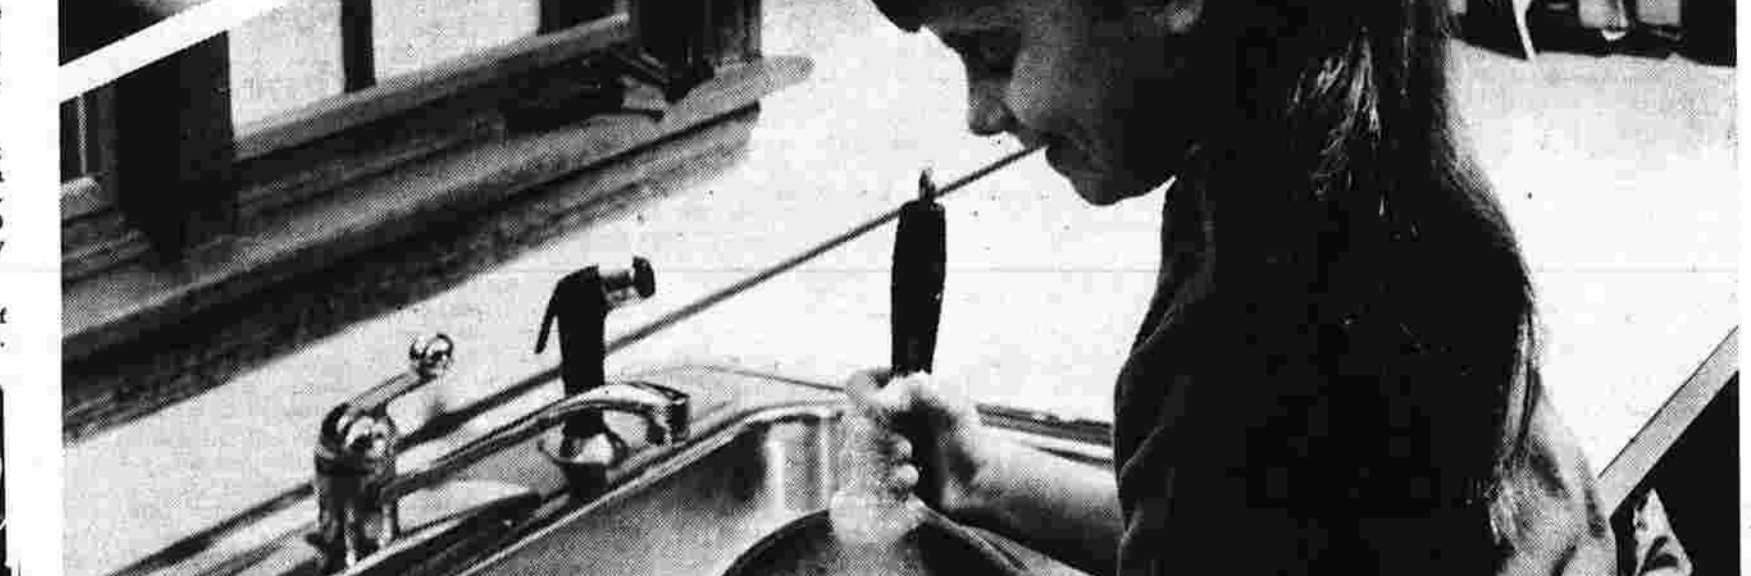

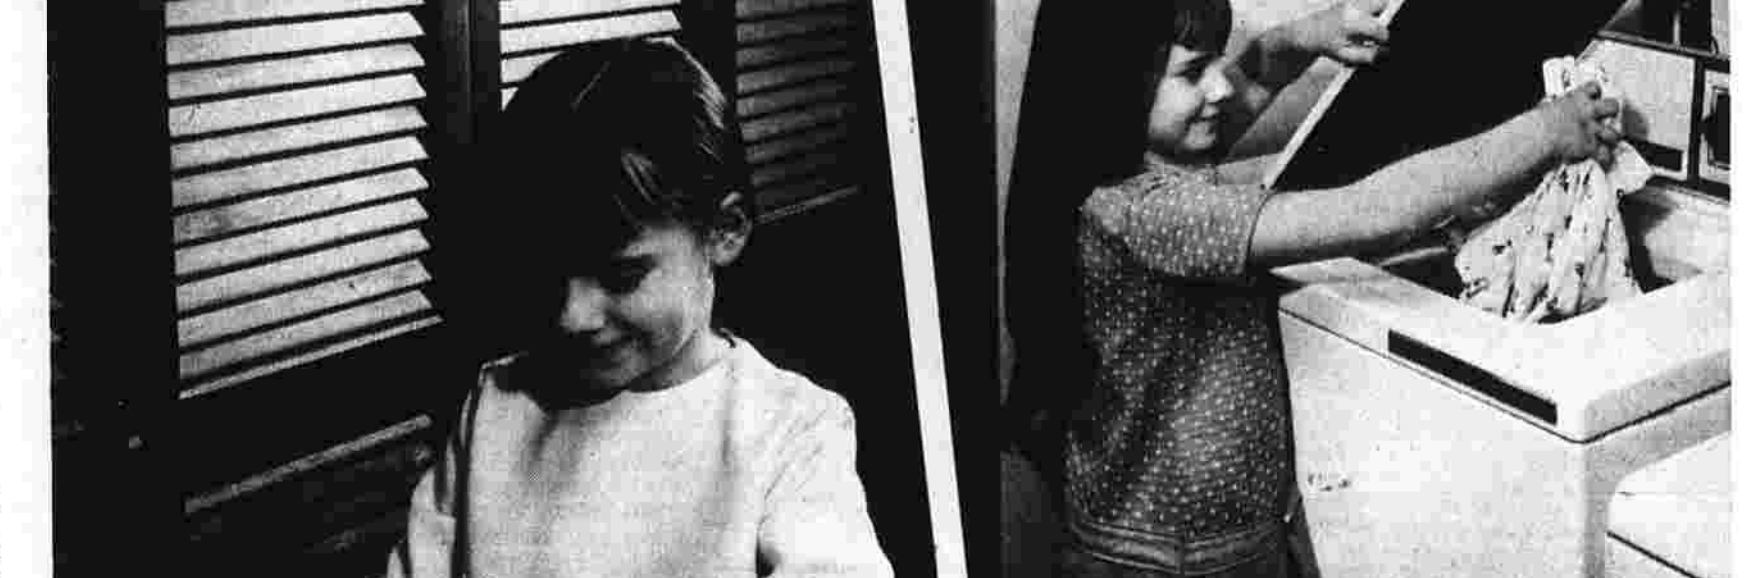

"Breakthrough for Youth means that scout leaders are determined to use scouting's great potential to build a new generation of American boys," Borman said.

He pointed out that a recent study of school dropouts shows an almost complete lack of skills and either a total lack of confidence or a misguided confidence not backed up with ability.

Secret Pueblo Talks Spur Seoul Dismay

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea's National Assembly adopted tonight a sharply worded resolution expressing "national indignation" at current secret negotiations between the United States and North Korea on the state of the US Pueblo and its crew.

The resolution, reflecting widespread Korean dismay at the American attitude in the crisis, insisted that the attack by North Korean commandos assigned to assassinate the Pueblo in the sea was more important to South Korea than the Pueblo incident.

The legislators asked the government to take "punitive measures" if necessary, "against Communist provocations, and suggested that "military reprisals would be the best measure" since the record of the North Koreans "proves they do not stick to diplomatic agreements."

Many in this country feel the Pueblo incident endangers U.S. relations with its strongest ally in Asia. As one legislator put it, "We are disappointed, and although it is not yet distribution, we are frightened."

The fight, he explained, grew out of a feeling that the United States might sacrifice the interests of South Korea for American global interests and for the sake of furthering a thaw in U.S.-Soviet relations.

An atmosphere of tension was heightened on an anti-American note only a few days after the Pueblo incident.

Whole large-scale assault in Vietnam, Laos and even Cambodia have intensified the crisis that, perhaps, made it look graver than it is.

One question is central: Are the actions across a 3,000-mile front a coordinated attempt to force the United States to reduce its commitment in Asia?

But other puzzles abound within the Pueblo predicament. What inspired the North Korean assault on an American cargo ship, though built in Korea, was built in the United States?

What do the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese hope to gain by the simultaneous attacks on the United States?

On balance, it appears that coincidence, effectively exploited rather than meticulously planned, binds the attacks.

The Communist regimes on the periphery, already alienated from Peking, appear to have taken advantage of China's preoccupation with the great proletarian cultural revolution to stage actions that Peking's strategists—Maoist or anti-Maoist—would characterize as "adventurous."

Richard M. Nixon said a cheer "They've done that to themselves. They've done that to themselves. They've done that to themselves."

When he finished, Nixon and his wife, Pat, were invited to operate a papermaking machine. Appleton is in the heart of the papermaking industry.

Nixon planned the responsibility for this on President Johnson's administration while the "blue chips" have gone down the drain. He referred here to what he said was the unraveling of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The former vice president began his second day of campaigning in Wisconsin with a broad scale attack on the administration. He spoke informally, and his remarks were taken from a number of different statements he has made previously.

Viet Devastation Widens

SAIGON (AP) —Attack and civilians streamed from shacks derelict jet and a North Viet DMZ told of fierce fighting about South Vietnam's northern frontier, where senior American commanders expect an even bigger Communist offensive than the one in the past week that dealt severe blows to provincial capitals and cities.

One report, withheld for security reasons, disclosed a 15-day-old operation by U.S. paratroopers and air cavalrymen in an area 25 to 35 miles south of the DMZ to take some of the pressure off threatened Quang Tri and Thua Thien provinces. U.S. headquarters said the Army troops have killed 573 of the enemy and captured 89 weapons.

While U.S. losses were put at 23 dead and 144 wounded, Headquarters also reported that U.S. Marines killed 200 Communist troops and captured 116 weapons in a two-day fight seven miles below the eastern edge of the DMZ, while 38 Marines were killed and 164 wounded.

U.S. planes flew 73 missions against North Vietnam and the DMZ last week. The U.S. Air Force said the planes were used to destroy Communist targets and to provide air support for ground troops.

U.S. Marines captured the Thua Thien Province headquarters building in Hue, the old South Vietnam capital, and their fresh mortar and ground troops on government district headquarters in Quang Tri.

Far East Crisis

Seizure: What Significance?

By ROBERT S. ELEGANT The Los Angeles Times

HONG KONG—The seizure of the Pueblo has crystallized the confrontation in the Far East. By coincidence or design, aggressive Communist action has spread across a wide front and only Communist China, the customary center of the eastern political storm, has remained detached.

Whole large-scale assault in Vietnam, Laos and even Cambodia have intensified the crisis that, perhaps, made it look graver than it is.

One question is central: Are the actions across a 3,000-mile front a coordinated attempt to force the United States to reduce its commitment in Asia?
