

UN Blasts Israel Action

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council unanimously condemned Israel Sunday night for last week's attack on Arab guerrilla bases in Jordan. But Israel brushed aside the rebuke and insisted it acted in self defense.

The 15-nation council voted as the guns of Israel and Jordan opened up anew along the Jordan River frontier.

The council resolution also deplored "all violent incidents in violation" of the 1967 Arab-Israeli cease-fire. But Arab delegates challenged the U.S. view that those words applied to Arab terrorist raids into Israel.

The resolution further deplored loss of life and property from the attack. It declared that such actions could not be tolerated and that the council

"would have to consider further and more effective steps as envisaged" in the U.N. charter to prevent their repetition—a hint at economic and military sanctions. It called on Israel to "desist from" mistreating Arabs in occupied territory.

The council acted at its eighth meeting in four days on complaints filed by Jordan and Israel against each other.

The compromise resulted from negotiations between the meetings. Ambassadors Arthur J. Goldberg of the United States and Muhammad H. El-Farra of Jordan called it down shortly before the vote.

The agreement to deplore "violent incidents" made possible passage of the resolution. India, Pakistan and Senegal had submitted a resolution Saturday night containing such a condemnation. But on Arab advice they left out a provision Goldberg had demanded—deploring "all violent incidents and other violations of the cease-fire."

Because of this, their resolution was sure of getting only seven of the nine votes necessary for adoption—those of the sponsors plus the Soviet Union, Hungary, Algeria and France.

India then suggested a compromise formula—deploring "all violent incidents in violation of the cease-fire."

Arabes insist that individual Palestinian Arabs setting bombs in Israel do not violate the cease-fire because the council's cease-fire resolutions for last June's Arab-Israeli war are addressed not to individuals but to governments.

El-Farra and Goldberg accepted the compromise formula and the pending resolution was revised.

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah said Israel could not "accept the condemnation of the actions which the Israeli forces were compelled to take against the terrorist bases in Jordan... in self defense."

Tekoah said that if the Arabs failed to fulfill the cease-fire, Israel would "maintain its right and duty to take all measures necessary for the security of the territory and population under its responsibility."

Goldberg said he voted for the resolution because it "takes into account all types of violence in violation of the cease-fire—acts of terrorism" as well as "military counteractions."

But El-Farra said, "no power has the right to inject something which is not in the draft."

By condemning Israel," he said, "the council has in effect rejected all its allegations and claims against so-called individual incidents of terrorism."

And Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik said the council "can't force the Arab people who are under the heels of the occupier to bow their heads."

The Israeli-Jordanian exchange of fire across the Jordan River was the fourth since last

LBJ Calls On Labor For Help

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson said today his administration has built mighty foundations for American society "and we are not going to sit by and let them be torn down in a partisan, political election year."

He told a loudly cheering labor audience that the nation can meet its social problems at home and its obligations in preserving peace in the world.

Johnson said the United States has never been found wanting in previous wars "and we're not going to be found wanting now."

The President told several thousand delegates to a legislative conference of the AFL-CIO building and construction trades department that the nation's social problems are like "smallpox down the block."

Poverty, crime, disease and hunger "cannot be quarantined," Johnson said. "It will get to your house too," he said in urging labor's continued help.

Johnson did not refer to his opponents for the Democratic presidential nomination, but said, "I sometimes wonder why we Americans enjoy punishing ourselves so much with our own criticism."

Johnson is expected to retain heavy labor support in his anticipated fight with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., for the nomination.

The labor delegates staged a mock political convention demonstration as Johnson started speaking. Delegates raised signs that said "All the Way with LBJ," "Support our Boys," and "Wanted: Place to Hide—Chicken Senator."

Top Firms In Accord On Copper

WASHINGTON (AP)—All four of the nation's giant copper producers have now reached tentative wage-hike agreements with their unions but it still is not known when thousands of workers will return to their jobs, ending an eight-month strike.

Anaconda Co. and American Smelting & Refining Co., announced Sunday tentative settlements covering more than 15,000 strikers. But they said local issues still must be ironed out at their 28 mines and factories spread over a 14-state area.

In addition, ratification of the new pacts has yet to be voted upon by 15,000 Anaconda-American Smelting workers or by 10,000 others at Kennecott Copper Corp.

Contributing to the uncertainty of when production will be resumed on a wide scale, settlements also must be reached covering another 10,000 workers at Kennecott and Anaconda plants.

A total of 28 unions a wide variety of skilled jobs are involved in the complex strike.

"I don't know when they're going back to work," said an in-

245 Supply Sampan Hit by U.S. Planes

SAIGON (AP)—American helicopter gunships and fighter-bombers have smashed 245 sampans carrying weapons and food to Viet Cong troops in the Mekong Delta in the last three days, the U. S. Command said today.

Gunships destroyed 114 sampans and damaged another 50 Sunday at an enemy base camp near the Cambodian border, headquarters said. Pilots spotted the flotilla while flying support missions for South Vietnamese civilian irregulars and their U.S. Social Forces advisers fighting the Viet Cong 116 miles southwest of Saigon.

Headquarters said 20 Viet Cong soldiers were killed and 43 huts destroyed. It reported two civilian irregulars wounded.

Earlier Sunday, South Vietnamese infantrymen spotted a force estimated as a battalion moving in sampans near the delta city of Sa Dec, 80 miles southwest of Saigon, and called in air strikes. U.S. pilots reported sinking 38 sampans and said the enemy fled into nearby woods.

Numerous secondary explosions have been reported after the recent attacks on the sampans, indicating they were carrying ammunition or fuel.

U.S. officials said the volume of war supplies, presumably coming from Cambodia along many rivers and canals, has increased considerably in recent days.

This indicates the Viet Cong may be replenishing supplies depleted during their lunar new year offensive for possible fresh attacks in the delta. U.S. officials said the allies have begun a major effort to stop the sampan traffic.

On South Vietnam's northern frontier, North Vietnamese gunners shot down two U.S. Marine helicopters near Khe Sanh. One, a gunship, was attacking an enemy bunker complex two miles northwest of the Marine fortress. Its four crewmen were rescued but suffered burns when the chopper crashed.

A Marine patrol had called for gunships and artillery support after clashing briefly with the enemy. It reported 31 North Vietnamese soldiers and five Marines were killed and four Marines wounded.

Enemy groundfire also hit a big CH-53 Sea Knight helicopter landing with cargo five miles southwest of Camp Carroll, the artillery base to the east that supports Khe Sanh. Although moderately damaged, the helicopter landed safely and the crew was uninjured, spokesmen said.

About 100 shells hit the Khe Sanh base Sunday, a sharp drop

12 Bodies, Wreckage Found In Irish Sea Airline Crash

FISHGUARD, Wales (AP)—Searchers found today the bodies of 12 persons and bits of the wreckage of an Irish airliner that plunged spinning into the Irish Sea Sunday with 61 persons on board.

Some of the bodies were badly mutilated. One—that of a woman—was sighted floating in a sitting position, apparently still strapped in her aircraft seat.

The bodies bore no lifejackets, indicating there was no time for the passengers and crew to put them on as the plane spun out of the sky.

Hope has almost been abandoned for finding any survivors.

Wreckage was found, too, about eight miles off Rosslare Point, Wexford, Ireland.

The last cryptic message from the pilot said "...at least 1,000 feet...spinning rapidly."

Lifeboats from Kilmore and Dunmore on the Irish coast put to sea and an Irish Army helicopter joined the search for more bodies and wreckage.

On shore, squads of police from Wexford and Rosslare patrolled the beaches, should anything be washed up there.

The British navy frigate HMS Hardy reported she would put into Rosslare harbor tonight with three bodies and some wreckage.

The finding of the bodies, closer to the Irish coast than expected, drew an armada of vessels which had been concentrating the search nearer the British mainland.

Royal Air Force Shackleton aircraft also moved in to help.

Investigators urgently needed wreckage from the Aer Lingus British-built Viscount airliner to provide clues as to the reason for the crash.

The British navy frigate HMS Hardy reported she would put

Chapman Says Bombs Useless on Khe Sanh

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Marine Corps commandant says the Communist North Vietnamese "can't force us out" of besieged Khe Sanh by bombarding its airstrip into uselessness and preventing its resupply.

Gen. Leonard F. Chapman Jr. said, "We've got ample helicopter capability which doesn't need an airstrip and we also have an air-drop capability."

The 15,000 or more Communist troops threatening the Marine-held bastion in northwestern South Vietnam have intensified their bombardment of Khe Sanh in recent days.

Also, there are reports of anti-aircraft artillery which could seriously threaten American planes and helicopters supplying and protecting the base.

Chapman, who took over leadership of the 300,000-man Marine Corps Jan. 1, said in an exclusive interview that if the North Vietnamese intend to assault Khe Sanh with infantry "they are going to have to hurry because the weather is running out on them."

He said "they not only have to have bad weather to assault it, but they've got to have bad weather to hold it" in the face of U.S. air and artillery power.

Critics have argued Khe Sanh is not worth the blood and resources being spent to hold it.

Chapman disagreed, saying the position sits astride main infiltration routes—"as long as we hold them, they can't use them."

"Of course, there is also the psychological aspect of the thing as it is now built up," the Marine chief said, meaning that Khe Sanh has taken on a symbolic quality akin to Dien Bien Phu, the French outpost overrun at the end of the French-Indochina war.

On other points, Chapman also:

—Opposed any change in basic U.S. strategy in Vietnam and voiced confidence the United

Widow Asks Court To Jail Powell

NEW YORK (AP)—The attorney for a widow who won a defamation suit against deceased congressman Adam Clayton Powell moved in court today to get him into jail.

Powell returned from an 18-month self-imposed exile in the Bahamas and paraded through Harlem in triumph during the weekend after a judge paroled him for two weeks on contempt charges growing out of the defamation case.

Attorney Raymond Rubin, representing Esther James, the widow, filed action in Manhattan Supreme Court seeking to revoke the parole.

At a news conference Sunday, Powell predicted a civil war by young people over the race situation but said he did not envision a race war this summer.

But, Powell added, he believed that both white and black youths would join in battling "white power" structure.

The 69-year-old Powell, who returned Friday night to a tumultuous welcome in Harlem, said he came home to purge his district of "Uncle Toms."

Meanwhile the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said at a news conference in Harlem Sunday that he is still committed to nonviolence "and I think the vast majority of Negroes think that way."

The Nobel Peace Prize winner said he was reluctant to predict riots this summer because "predicting them is like inviting them."

Powell also delivered a short sermon at the Abyssinian Baptist Church, where he has been pastor for many years.

Powell, a Democrat, was ousted from Congress on charges of misusing public funds, and charged with contempt in defying New York courts over full payment of a libel judgment against him. When he returned to New York he was released on parole pending appeal of his conviction. He promised a judge he would obey all future court orders.

Powell, when asked whom he supports for the presidency, replied, "Only A.O.P."—meaning himself.

King spoke at the New Canaan Baptist Church of Christ in Harlem, where he attended ceremonies marking the installation of the Rev. Wyatt Tee Walker as pastor. Walker formerly served with King in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

King criticized President Johnson's Vietnam policy, saying Johnson was "so emotionally involved in the war and so concerned about saving face

Quarters Of Robles Smashed

PANAMA (AP)—National Guard troops smashed the headquarters of opponents of President Marco A. Robles today and arrested an opposition leader after the National Assembly swore in a new president—an action Robles ignored.

The troops moved in two hours after twice-deposed ex-President Arnulfo Arias called for nationwide civil resistance—understood to mean a general strike—in support of the assembly's decision to convict Robles of unconstitutional political activity and suspend him from office.

A make-or-break showdown seemed imminent. The National Guard, the nation's only military force, already had announced it could not obey the assembly decision and said it would await an opinion from the Supreme Court, due to reconvene next Monday.

Witnesses said the guardsmen smashed windows and doors and moved in behind a barrage of tear gas bombs shortly after 2 a.m. at the two-story headquarters of the National Union, a five-party coalition opposition to Robles' government.

Hildegardo Nicolas, the union's secretary-general, was

by John Gruber

Opera started out, about 1600, as an attempt to revive the classical Greek drama.

The Florentine amateurs who made the first attempts to revive the classical Greek drama...

You may not know what happened to Iphigenia on the island of Aulis...

Producers of these opera were generally in palaces, and the ordinary people never saw them.

Although the novel originated in France, it proliferated in Italy, hence the name "romance."

Romantic opera is still, perhaps, the most popular operatic fare, even though it had begun to wane by the Gay Nineties.

Next day he was disturbed by the same piece, this time at a very fast clip.

Verdi was generally resting on his laurels, though he was to die until 1901 at the age of 88.

He was known as the "virtuoso" school, meaning "true to life."

Nevertheless, classical drama continued to be the basis of the majority of opera right up to the time of Napoleon.

The Revolution brought the hot polio to the theater, and in earlier England, they hadn't the foggiest notion of what was going on.

The Revolution promised pie in the sky to most of the people at that time.

It was not until the late 19th century that the opera company was a 20th century opera based on a Sophocles drama.

Andover Church Asks Contribution For Project

The Stewardship Committee of the Andover Congregational Church has made a special appeal to members and friends of the church for financial support to complete maintenance and renovation projects on the church buildings.

The church buildings, they have now repeated the appeal and expressed the hope that contributions can be made by the end of March.

The need for extra funds is explained by the fact that annual pledges, although increasing year by year, have not kept up with costs of operation.

No one will call on possible contributors. Those who wish to give are asked to send cash donations to Mrs. Richard Adams, Hedges Rd.

Sheinwold on Bridge

IF YOU'VE EVER LIKED A MAN YOU MUST LIKE LAWRENCE SHEINWOLD

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD. It's reasonable to bid a slam when you have a strong hand.

When today's hand was dealt in Buenos Aires, Italian star Camillo Fabris-Tico bid it like a man but played it like a girl.

He took dummy's ace of clubs, discarding a diamond, drew trumps and then led the ace of diamonds and a low diamond to dummy's queen.

What do you say? Answer: Bid three spades. When you have enough high cards for a positive response, you can bid three small trumps as sufficient trump support for a raise.

Top Firms In Accord On Copper

(Continued from Page One) duty spokesman after the new agreements were announced. The four big producer Phelps Dodge, reached agreement last week with 8,500 workers and they are the only strikers back on the job at major plants. Several smaller firms negotiated earlier with a total of about 10,000 employees.

The Phelps Dodge pact provides a 40-cent hourly pay hike over 40 months plus fringe benefits which bring the hourly rate to $1.13. The new agreement is in this range. President Johnson summoned both sides to Washington three weeks ago for White House talks aimed at settling the prolonged industry strike.

Wages were 20 cents above $2.28 hourly for copper miners and 22 cents for wire and cable-fabricating workers. The White House declined comment on Sunday's tentative pact. Negotiations are to continue on the unresolved local issues.

Police Arrests

Nelson W. Lewis, 18, of 137 Sunnyside St., was charged with two counts each of breaking and entering with criminal intent and larceny. He was arrested on a warrant shortly after midnight Saturday. Police say the arrests were a result of two break-ins at 709 Main St. in January. A total of $1,215 in bills, including a $100 bill, were stolen.

Contest officials said 55 different breeds of dogs were shown and in the junior hounds' contest 17 different breeds were displayed by the 17 entrants. Competition for "best of breed" was most stringent in the German Shepherd category where 31 dogs were entered. Going going compared to that of the other breeds. A Newfoundland and Belgian Sheep Dog were the only entries each was listed.

In the working group, top spot went to a Doberman Pinscher "Newmark's Moon Spotted," owned by William Schuler of Wapping. Second place awarded to a German Shepherd "Gullulari Denzella Allegria" owned by Carol Miller of East Hartford. Third place awarded to a Miniature Poodle "Fretzie Portie of Su-Crest" owned by Hazel L. Perkins of Waterford.

Three Convicted In Area Breaks Try to Escape

Three boys who were given 180 days in the Connecticut State Reformatory for Youth in Superior Court Friday, tried to escape from their cell in the reformatory. They were caught by sheriffs as they were being taken from Tolland State Prison Saturday morning. The trio, James E. Dezzo, 17, of Phoenix St.; Gary W. Argente, 17, of North Street; and LaChapelle, 17, of Phoenix St., were handcuffed together, State Police said.

All three were among ten boys arrested recently and breaking and entering and larceny. The breaks occurred over a period of several months in their primary fight for Democratic delegates. Another UConn junior, Joseph J. Stoddard, was arrested Saturday morning. He was charged with breaking and entering and larceny. Pro-McCarthy Students Visit Town Homes

A group of eight Connecticut students were in Hebron this weekend to campaign for Sen. Eugene McCarthy's bid for the presidency and to help the town's pro-McCarthy forces in their primary fight for Democratic delegates. The students are part of the Students for McCarthy movement which first came prominently into the news with the New Hampshire Democratic primary.

The students faced two cold days of rain and wind and often returned soggy and covered with mud. They were not deterred by the weather. They were returned to the fall and then taken to Cheshire without incident. Record Turnout Seen for Meeting

A record attendance is expected at tomorrow night's town meeting to determine the future of the proposed middle school building. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

The 50 signers of the petition have called for a halt to work on plans for the middle school in favor of preparing cost estimates for additions to the existing schools. The cost estimates are to be reported back to the town within 30 days, according to the petition.

The Middle School Building Committee has stated that it would take about 18 months to accomplish because of the need to prepare plans and specifications, have them approved by the State Board of Education, and prepare working drawings and site work before the cost could be estimated.

There are reports that some of the petition advocates will now propose building an elementary school instead of a middle school. The petitioners are primarily seeking the most economical means of providing for the expected influx of pupils.

Work has already started on 20 home subdivisions, another including 80 homes. Tolland has averaged 2 1/2 children per house in its previous growth. These new homes have not been considered in the figure of 500 children without classroom space.

Figuring two children per house and 180 houses, an additional 320 children at least can be expected on top of the 500 predicted by the school administration and the Building Committee.

Building permits have already been applied for the start of construction on some subdivisions in each of the subdivisions. 500 by September.

Tolland is one of the fastest growing school systems in the country, according to Cook and Superintendent of Schools Robert Brautigan. It is the fastest growing in the state, according to the State Department of Education.

Starts Series Garden Series Tuesdays

The first program in the "Home Gardens' Clinic" series sponsored by the Manchester Adult Evening School, will be held tomorrow at 7 p.m. in Room A-7, Manchester High School.

Dr. Stanley Papanicolaou, county agricultural agent from the University of Connecticut, will speak on "Lawn Development and Care."

The session is open to the public without charge. Other programs in the series, also featuring specialists from the University, will be held on consecutive Tuesdays at the same time and place.

Announced topics are as follows: April 2, "Fruit Trees in Your Own Back Yard"; April 9, "Ornamental Trees and Shrubs for Yard and Foundation Plantings"; April 16, "The Back Yard Vegetable Garden."

Under proposals made Friday by the State Commission on Aid to Higher Education, the 44 local colleges would receive $15,150 for laboratory and other special equipment.

The commissioner's recommendations now go to U.S. Education Commissioner Harold Howe plans and trains home movies who awards grants under terms of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

Forecast that in the long run the net effect of this action will be favorable to us because of Communist violence against Vietnamese civilians.

The commander, who has been deeply involved in administrative discussions over policy, refused comment on the possible scope of a new buildup or whether it will necessitate a reserve callup.

16,150 Proposed For MMC Grant

Manchester Community College is among 16 institutions of higher learning in Connecticut recommended to share in federal grants for new equipment totaling $16,150.

The commander, who has been deeply involved in administrative discussions over policy, refused comment on the possible scope of a new buildup or whether it will necessitate a reserve callup.

He also addressed comment on the possible impact on the course of the war of Communist denial of Communist troops in the northern provinces, and thus taken them south from the Saigon and Central Highlands areas.

Q. It would be a mistake to call that a tactical matter that Gen. William C. Westmoreland has said that it sits astride north-south and east-west routes into the northern provinces. These are main routes. As long as we hold them, they can't be used to use routes further west in Laos which is one period of the around there. Our support of the hardenings of West War II in terms of quantity of weapons dropped and fired.

Q. And yet they seem to be closing in on the perimeter. A. They haven't massed yet. They have to mass before they can assault. And when they mass, they are fair game.

Vernon Court Denies Zone Appeal

A memorandum of decision filed in the Tolland County Court of Common Pleas has denied Roche M. Passero and John Terzillo an appeal on a decision of the Vernon Zoning Commission.

The plaintiffs had originally asked for a zone change from C-1X to C-2 for some 13 acres of land located on Rt. 30, east of the Vernon post office, where they wanted to erect a service station.

When the zoning was denied, the plaintiffs asked for a hearing last November. It was this decision which the two men appealed.

Judge Joseph P. Damshy, who filed the memorandum, said that regulations presently in effect require that a development submit plans in detail of what he proposes to the Planning Commission.

The judge pointed out that the Planning Commission recommended the request be denied because there was insufficient information received on the proposed plans. The judge said that he was advised at the very fact of the public hearing that the Planning Commission had denied the request.

Q. I would have to say, first, that that's a tactical matter that Gen. William C. Westmoreland has said that it sits astride north-south and east-west routes into the northern provinces. These are main routes. As long as we hold them, they can't be used to use routes further west in Laos which is one period of the around there. Q. And yet they seem to be closing in on the perimeter. A. They haven't massed yet. They have to mass before they can assault. And when they mass, they are fair game.

Q. What is the current estimate of North Vietnamese strength in the area threatening Khe Sanh? A. You see figures anywhere from 18,000 to 20,000. The larger numbers are throughout the DMZ area and don't directly threaten Khe Sanh. The figures around Khe Sanh I've seen figure from 18,000 to 20,000. The impression gives that the numbers are 2, 3, 4 or 5 in and around those hills. They ever do mass, as I say.

Vernon Court Denies Zone Appeal

A memorandum of decision filed in the Tolland County Court of Common Pleas has denied Roche M. Passero and John Terzillo an appeal on a decision of the Vernon Zoning Commission.

The plaintiffs had originally asked for a zone change from C-1X to C-2 for some 13 acres of land located on Rt. 30, east of the Vernon post office, where they wanted to erect a service station.

When the zoning was denied, the plaintiffs asked for a hearing last November. It was this decision which the two men appealed.

Judge Joseph P. Damshy, who filed the memorandum, said that regulations presently in effect require that a development submit plans in detail of what he proposes to the Planning Commission.

The judge pointed out that the Planning Commission recommended the request be denied because there was insufficient information received on the proposed plans. The judge said that he was advised at the very fact of the public hearing that the Planning Commission had denied the request.

Q. I would have to say, first, that that's a tactical matter that Gen. William C. Westmoreland has said that it sits astride north-south and east-west routes into the northern provinces. These are main routes. As long as we hold them, they can't be used to use routes further west in Laos which is one period of the around there. Our support of the hardenings of West War II in terms of quantity of weapons dropped and fired.

Q. And yet they seem to be closing in on the perimeter. A. They haven't massed yet. They have to mass before they can assault. And when they mass, they are fair game.

Q. What is the current estimate of North Vietnamese strength in the area threatening Khe Sanh? A. You see figures anywhere from 18,000 to 20,000. The larger numbers are throughout the DMZ area and don't directly threaten Khe Sanh. The figures around Khe Sanh I've seen figure from 18,000 to 20,000. The impression gives that the numbers are 2, 3, 4 or 5 in and around those hills. They ever do mass, as I say.

Record Turnout Seen for Meeting

A record attendance is expected at tomorrow night's town meeting to determine the future of the proposed middle school building. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

The 50 signers of the petition have called for a halt to work on plans for the middle school in favor of preparing cost estimates for additions to the existing schools. The cost estimates are to be reported back to the town within 30 days, according to the petition.

The Middle School Building Committee has stated that it would take about 18 months to accomplish because of the need to prepare plans and specifications, have them approved by the State Board of Education, and prepare working drawings and site work before the cost could be estimated.

There are reports that some of the petition advocates will now propose building an elementary school instead of a middle school. The petitioners are primarily seeking the most economical means of providing for the expected influx of pupils.

Work has already started on 20 home subdivisions, another including 80 homes. Tolland has averaged 2 1/2 children per house in its previous growth. These new homes have not been considered in the figure of 500 children without classroom space.

Figuring two children per house and 180 houses, an additional 320 children at least can be expected on top of the 500 predicted by the school administration and the Building Committee.

Building permits have already been applied for the start of construction on some subdivisions in each of the subdivisions. 500 by September.

Tolland is one of the fastest growing school systems in the country, according to Cook and Superintendent of Schools Robert Brautigan. It is the fastest growing in the state, according to the State Department of Education.

Task of Reviving to Larry Shepard

PORT MEYERS, Fla.—Freshman Manager Larry Shepard has been given the task of reviving the Pittsburgh Pirates back to respectability in the National League.

Last spring at this time, the Pirates, then managed by Harry Walker, were the best bet among the men who know the better to win all.

High Optimism
Optimism runs high in every camp and Shepard reported, "We have excellent chances to make a run for it."

Emotional Upset
The Pirates sadly need a much better defense behind him.

Weekend Exhibition Baseball Roundup

Southpaw Hurler Paces SF Giants

MIAMI (AP)—This is the kind of exhibition baseball season it's been for Manager Bill Rigney, about the only thing he had to comment on lately is what pitcher has looked best in shutting out his California Angels.

Big Question
"Pitching is the biggest question mark," Shepard added.

Just Too Much
Les Belderman, a Pittsburgh baseball writer for 21 years, said now a full-time resident of Connecticut, offered this thought as to why the Pirates have been also-rans and not winners in recent years.

Red Sox Having Troubles, Joe Foy Making Dick Happy

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP)—The Boston Red Sox have had their troubles this spring, but Joe Foy is one player who has made manager Dick Williams happy.

Outstanding Player Award Goes to UCLA's Alcindor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lowering Low Alcindor was named today as the outstanding player in the national collegiate basketball championships after leading UCLA to its fourth title in five years.

He is the fourth player in history to be voted the honor two years in succession. The others are Bob Kurland, Oklahoma State, 1946-47; Alex Groa, Kentucky, 1947-48; and Larry Lucas, Ohio State, 1960-61.

Three other Bruins were named to the all-tournament team. With Alcindor on the select five were Mike Warren, Laticus Allen and Lynn Shackelford. The fifth man was North Carolina's Larry Miller.

CO2 Pistol Hurts Youth

A 16-year-old youth was injured yesterday afternoon when a CO2 pistol accidentally went off and he was shot in the chest. The youth, Loren Carr, of 129 Main St., was treated at Manchester Memorial Hospital for a cut across his chest and was released. The pistol did not lodge, a hospital official said. Carr told police he was putting the gun into the holster when it went off. Police say the pistol has a defective safety.
