Women Told to Help Solve Crisis Facing Nation Today

"An urgency faces our country today," Mrs. Robert B. Gates, vice president of Church Women United (CWU) of Connecticut said Friday at a May Fellowship Day observance at Trinity Covenant Church. "A nationwide call has come for Church Women United to use every neighborhood, in every town, to help solve the crisis facing this nation," she added.

Mrs. Gates, the wife of a Baptist minister in Myrtle, spoke to about 40 women. She quoted from the U.S. Relief Commission Reports that white institutions are responsible for white racism because "they make it, are implicated in it, maintain it, and condone it. Our apathy," she added, "is responsible for the poverty and tension that is part of it. We have legislation to promote social justice, but not the will or courage for implementation of true equality and dignity for all."

She reminded her listeners that CWU is ecumenical and inter-racial, and called upon them to be a movement with a mission, and influence for change in the world, to encourage all church women to come together, to go out together in every neighborhood, in every town as an instrument for His reconciling love. "That," she said, "is our responsibility as Christian women today. We have an choice—we must act."

The offering taken at the service, $26, will benefit the work of local and state councils of the CWU. Manchester's share will be used to start an organization called FWRB (the ancient symbol for a Christian) which provides Good Samaritans who respond to any emergency without cost.

Mrs. Pat Lord and Mrs. George Thurber, both of Second Congregational Church, and Mrs. Jesse Carpenter of South Methodist Church were in charge of the nursery.

French Aide Sees Broad Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville expressed the view today the United States and North Vietnam will hold broad peace talks in Paris on ending the Vietnam war and not limit their contacts to halting U.S. bombing of the North.

Couve de Murville told the French Cabinet it was his belief that the talks, scheduled tentatively for Friday, will consist of both preliminary talks and true negotiations. He said there are no plans to change the conference site of the negotiating teams for the two stages.

Couve de Murville's remarks were reported to newsmen by Information Minister Georges Corne.

When Hanoi proposed Paris as the preliminary talks site, he said they should be "to determine with the U.S. side the unconditionality of the U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war" against North Vietnam.

Then, Hanoi said that the U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war against North Vietnam. Then, Hanoi said that the U.S. bombing raids and all other acts of war against North Vietnam.

Rivals Deny Kennedy Clear Indiana Winner

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has proved his potency at the polls with victory in the first test of his White House campaign, but his rivals today denied that there were any clear winners or real losers in the Indiana primary.

The New York senator preserved the family record of election day invincibility by capturing 42 per cent of Tuesday's Indiana vote, and said it gave his campaign impetus for the primary races ahead.

Gov. Roger D. Braunlin, the salty, tough-talking favorite son who claimed neutrality but leaned toward Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, ran second with 31 per cent of the vote; Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy ranked third.

But McCarthy insisted he was not distressed at his 27 per cent showing, claimed he is the real front-runner in the fight for the nomination, and said he would do battle another election day.

That day won't be long in coming, for he meets Kennedy again next Tuesday in Nebraska.

In a two-man race with Kennedy, McCarthy claimed many of the Braunlin voters would have gone to him.

"I'm very, very pleased," McCarthy said. "I thought I'd have a difficult time doing well here." He said he came to Indiana against the advice of a popular politician to tackle a unpopular governor they rated unbeatable.

"To come in here under these circumstances, to be able to do this well is very encouraging," Kennedy said.

McCarthy, Braunlin forces and promoters of the Humphrey campaign all said that Kennedy's was a minority victory.

Kennedy smiled. "I think it's better to win than to come in second or third," he said.

And by winning, he kept intact the chain of family election victories begun by his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, and shared by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

2,002 of Enemy Killed In Latest Saigon Fighting

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today that 2,002 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers have been killed in the past three days of heavy fighting in and around Saigon.

But despite his heavy losses, the enemy fought on for the fourth day in streets on the capital's western edge.

The government put a 24-hour curfew on the western half of Saigon to aid its forces.

In comparison with the 2,002 enemy killed, the U.S. Command said allied casualties in the first three days of the new wave of attacks on Saigon totaled 211 killed and 81 wounded — 39 Americans killed and 225 wounded, 181 South Vietnamese killed and 608 wounded.

There isn't much going on today," a senior U.S. officer said. "The key is whether the enemy will be able to reinforce

Pope Set To Visit Bogota

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI announced today he will make a two- or three-day visit to Colombia in August to attend the 8th International Eucharistic Congress in Bogota and to open a Latin-American bishops conference in Medellin.

It will be the longest trip in the 70-year-old pontiff's reign and the first by a Pope to Latin America.

He made no mention of visiting other Latin-American countries that have invited him but there was a possibility of airport stopovers.

His announcement to a crowd of pilgrims at his weekly general audience in St. Peter's Basilica brought cheers.

The trip will be Pope Paul's sixth journey abroad since he became head of the Roman Catholic Church in June 1963.

Transplant Patient Dies in Houston

Book Review

THE COLONEL'S LADIES, by Eric Hatch, Crown, $4.95. Dr. Eric Hatch's "Barney," a history professor at Northbridge, is a huckster quite immune to the cruelties which his students regularly develop on him.

Until, that is, a student named Alice Thorne digs up the fact that an old Connecticut law makes it possible for a private citizen to raise a military force of his own.

He promptly develops a split personality—Dr. Barney, the mild academic, and Col. Barney, the dashing commander of a handful of his cronies who discover the thrills of a military hobby.

Barney acquires a handsome replica of Lt. Tomerke, a Napoleon II-pound cannon, and from there on the First Northbridge Regiment of Horse-Dragoon, Mounted Artillery—with Alice as a gaudy bearer—begins a series of capers that stir up the whole campus.

Alice also is the key to a further complication in Dr. Col. Barney's life. Her not-so-old mother arrives on campus with word that she is getting a divorce. Barney suddenly realizes that he is becoming involved, with both daughter and mother. The author, Eric Hatch, is a Godfrey, and other non-sensational whimsy, has concocted here a bit of comedy that is becoming the mid of its amusing twist.

Opening lead five of spades.
South played a low spade from dummy at the first trick, losing to the king. East returned the jack of diamonds to dummy's ace, and declarer drew trumps.
South then led a heart, losing the king to East's ace.
South lost two hearts, one trump and one diamond, going down one at contract he should have made. The king of spades and the ace of hearts were placed unfavorably from South's point of view, but the lucky location of the queen of hearts should have given South his con-

Mom Is the Sheriff, Dad Still Runs Show

JOHN STERLING, III (AP) —
The sheriff of Brown County,
Ill., has had two major problems since taking office last year: recovering a house trailer stolen from the county prosecutor and having a baby.

"For most sheriffs having the baby would be much more important than finding a stolen trailer, but not for Mrs. Wanda Busen, 37-year-old mother of an eight children ranging in age from a few days to 18 years.

"I guess the biggest case
we've had since I've been sheriff was when that guy stole (state's attorney) Robert Ulster's trailer."

"And funny thing is, we found it in Wisconsin in a county with a woman sheriff."

Mrs. Busen was elected by a Republican opponent in 1966, when she took over the office and promptly fired the former sheriff, her 44-year-old husband Jim, as chief deputy. During her campaign, Mrs. Busen stressed the idea that if she eligible for re-election.

BLISH HARDWARE CO.

Another Charter Unit Shelled by Directors

The Board of Directors, by a unanimous vote last night, tabled indefinitely the appointment of a new Charter Revision Commission (CRC). The commission, if and when appointed, would be charged with a study of Manchester's manager-council government, leading, possibly, to a recommendation for a change to a strong-majority government.

Last night's action to table was on a motion by Republican Harold A. Turkington, seconded by Democrat Francis Mahoney. Both are former mayors.

The motion passed without any board discussion, after Turkington said that proposals for a possible change in government "need lots of study before a decision is even made to reactivate the Charter Revision Commission."

In April of last year, the Manchester YR's (Young Republicans) had recommended to the 1967 Charter Revision Commission that it consider two changes in Manchester's government—a change to a strong-majority government, with a full-time mayor; the town's administrative officers and a change to election of the Board of Directors by districts.

At present, Manchester operates with a town manager as the administrator and the Board of Directors as the policy-making body. The directors are elected at-large.

The CRC, after reviewing the YR recommendations, rejected them, on the basis that they required lengthy study. It so informed the board in a report dated Dec. 5, 1967.

The item for appointment of a new Charter Revision Commission, was placed on last night's agenda by the board's Republican majority.

Although the proposal was not discussed at length by members of the public attending the meeting, Former Police Chief Herman Schendel and Riegel insisted that the question deserves another vote, because it won't yet lost by a technicality.

The proposed appointment of a new CRC was opposed last night by Mrs. Israel Levine and Mrs. Allan Thomas.

"It is time to give our charter a rest and I see no valid reason to study and possibly change it," Mrs. Levine said.

She warned that "the change being recommended could be a step back into the 19th Century."

Mrs. Thomas urged the board, "First show us that there is a need for a change—then show us that a strong-majority government is the best."

The board, in favoring the proposed change, has no indication when it will reconsider the item.

Andover Five Permits For April At $55,200

Building permits for two new houses and extensive additions and such to three existing houses brought the total assessed value of the five permits issued in the month of April to $55,200. In March no permits were issued.

Valerie and Edward Jurvaty were given a permit to build a house on Jurvaty Rd. valued at $18,000. Lawrence Merryman will build a house on School Rd. with a given value of $16,000.

Wheeler Heas, Lake Rd., has a permit for a $17,000 addition to his present home. Katherine Pratt will make a $4,000 renovation to the cottage on Bear Swamp Rd. Harold and Elsie McGary of Wales Rd. have a permit for $20 to cover screening in of a patio. A sign permit of no value was given to the Andover Kitchen, Rt. 6 and Hendee Rd.

Property transfers were few in number in April. The town clerk's office recorded the sale of two houses and pieces of land.

Orra Strickland, trustee, sold house on Boston Hill Rd. to Arthur D. and Joan W. Cushman. Ralph M. and Irene R. Bolger sold house on Wales Rd. to Peter C. and Anna Marie Vincenzo. Sales of land only were made by Joseph R. and Dorothy S. Cahill, on Webster Lane, to Nelson L. and Beverly K. Chamberlain and by Percy B. and Elizabeth E. Cook to Edw. F. and Mary Anne Sharp to the rear of the Sharp home on School St.

Getting a Look at Manchester's Past

Hundreds of historical items owned by the Manchester Historical Society and Late Junior Museum were displayed Sunday at a "Show Program" for society members in the Illing Junior High School library. Illing students, shown here engaged in aerial photographs and maps of a by-gone Manchester, received an unexpected dividend Monday when social studies classes were permitted to visit the exhibit. Among the items on display was a hand-carved oak seal given to this town by the Lord Mayor of Manchester, England, upon the occasion of his visit here in 1831. That visit will be the subject of the historical society's next "Past Places and People" article, to be published in The Herald May 15. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Program Slated On Vet Benefits

Many veterans discharged since Jan. 31, 1965, have not taken advantage of the educational and training benefits awaiting them under the "Cold War G.I. Bill," according to Veterans Administration officials and educators.

As a service to these veterans and the community, Manchester Community College is sponsoring a special program on "Educational Benefits for Veterans" where first-hand information and guidance will be provided by leading area authorities on all phases of the veterans' benefit program.

All veterans discharged since Jan. 31, 1965, are invited to attend the program on Thursday, May 16, at 8 p.m., at Howell Cheney Technical School.

On-the-job training, apprenticeship, vocational, two- and four-year college benefits are waiting for veterans to apply for them, according to the Veterans Administration authorities. The MCC sponsored program will provide all the information veterans need to get these benefits.

The speakers and their subjects will be William F. Hill, veterans employment representative of Connecticut; "On-the-Job Training"; Terry Sechrist, Veterans Administration; "Vocational Schools"; C.E. O'Neill, Regional VA Office; "Veterans Educational Benefits"; John V. Gannon, MCC director of student personnel; "Two- and Four-Year Colleges." An authority on "Apprenticeship Program for Veterans" will also speak.

A question and answer period will follow the talk.

To be eligible for educational benefits under the "Cold War G.I. Bill," a veteran must have served on continuous active duty for at least 181 days, any part of which may have occurred after Jan. 31, 1965.

The program is being coordinated by Charles F. Regan, MCC counselor and Gannon.

TRUCK FLAPS FLOPS
ELLIS, Kan. (AP) - Strong winds battered western Kansas Monday afternoon - just ask Earl Hopp, 45, of Navajo, Calif. Hopp was pulling a camper trailer behind his car west of Ellis when a gust of wind knocked the trailer on its side. Moments later a gust from the other direction flipped the trailer back on its wheels. The only damage was a broken window and a bent trailer hitch. The Kansas Highway Patrol confirmed Hopp's story.

Renewal Agency Postpones Decision on Use of Parcel

The Manchester Redevelopment Agency spent several hours last night trying to decide which to choose of three use proposals for the 50,000 square foot parcel on the southeast corner of Main and Woodbridge St. But no decision was made.

The MRA wants more information on finances and exact site information from the three Manchester proposals, according to Edward Rybzyk, executive director.

The three proposals are: a 12-unit apartment house at 172 E. Center St. proposes a two-story house of 11 apartments and

PEPPER ransom of kings

The romance of pepper is a story of intrigue, discovery and fabulous adventure. For centuries pepper was considered the most precious of all commodities.

The Bible refers to kings who held pepper for ransom for five bags of pepper. Some 1500 years later, Columbus risked his life and fortune to cross an ocean in search of spices and discovered a new world instead.

Pepper is a small berry that grows in miniature "ear of corn" clusters. The larger berries at the top can be shelled off individually. These are the "pepper corns" which are used in pepper mills. As with coffee, to enjoy the fullest, richest essence of pepper only fresh ground pepper should be used.

To add this gourmet touch to your food, choose from a collection of pepper mill sets at Your Gift Gallery which includes the Olde Thompson models shown here: (A) Paul Reverse pepper mill-salt shaker set in pepper $17.95. (B) Imperial milk glass grape set fitted with Olde Thompson mill and shaker top $10.95. (C) Olde Thompson mill housed in imported Dutch blue delft ceramic $10.95.

Land Purchase by Town May Need Legal Opinion

An action by the Board of Directors last night, authorizing the purchase of 14.5 acres of land from the Hartford Electric Light Co. may require a legal opinion from the town council.

The board voted to spend $9,000 of Water Department Reserve funds for purchasing Charter Oak Well 3.

The legal opinion is needed because the town electors, on April 30 approved a charter change which requires that the sale and purchase of town land must be by ordinance. Certified copies of the April 30 vote are already have been filed with the secretary of the state's office.

The town has an option on the property, in the hopes that it could find a water supply there. Boring has produced no water, but the parcel may be used for a recreation area, to replace Charter Oak Field and Mt. Nebo, to be lost to Rt. 6 relocation.

Town Manager Robert Weiss said last night that the Water Department Reserve Fund would be reimbursed the full $9,000 with payments for land acquisition.

The board last night approved also the following financial transactions, all by unanimous vote:

1. A $517 wash-out appropriation to the Board of Education, to be financed by an equal state grant.

2. A $3,482 appropriation to the Board of Education, to cover the period to June 30; and another for $35,562, for the period July 1, 1968 to June 30, 1969, both wash-out accounts and both to be financed by an equal federal grant.

The funds are for "Project Outdoors," a program to be managed and operated by Letz Junior Museum.

It is for educating area teachers in natural science subjects and in the use of the outdoors. The funds will pay the salaries of three instructors and will pay the salaries of the substitute teachers who take over the classes of the trainees, on the day they are attending "Project Outdoors" classes.

3. A $4,410 additional appropriation to the Cemetery Department, to be financed from unexpended state aid funds.

The $4,410 represents 1,800 hours of work for five men over the next nine weeks, to clean up town cemeteries and to prevent a repeat of last year's criticism of the condition of the cemeteries. The men will be hired from "Manpower, Inc."

4. A $10,000 additional appropriation to the Police Department, to pay for special services and overtime and to be financed by an equal increase in current services revenue.

The special services and overtime, in conjunction with North End Renewal and Rt. 6 construction, is paid for by the post office for town funds - four contractors for the projects.

5. A $12,000 transfer from the Water Department Reserve Fund, for conversion and renovation of the first floor of the

Tollard Weeklong Program on Love Set Next Week for Young

Project Challenge — A new approach to life and love is being billed by the two local churches as a challenge to Hugh Hefner and the "new moral board office" at Hols Memorial School.

Also to be considered is a request by the Tollard Education Association for a weekend mass prayer for Memorial Day week-end.

The program, to be held next week, is aimed directly at the Tollard teenager in Grades 7 through 12, his parents, and other adults involved in working with youth.

The project is jointly sponsored by the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine of St. Matthew's Church and by the Christian Education Board of the United Congregational Church.

The sessions are open to all parents of local children regardless of age, and to adults who are interested in working with youth from surrounding towns as well as Tollard.

Los Angeles Times Washington Post News Service WASHINGTON — It was like a Groucho Marx movie when a white-masked service team prepared the wife of one of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's former aides for an operation here 10 days ago at Sidney Hightower.

On the operating table was Mrs. Herbert J. (Jack) Miller, whose husband was chief of the Justice Department's Criminal Division when RFK was Attorney General.

Car Insurance Probe
Approved by House
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House approved a two-year governmental study of the auto insurance industry.

The Department of Transportation will conduct the $2 million probe under a proposal by President Johnson. The Senate has approved legislation authorizing an 18-month study.

Prime subjects of the study will be the insurance companies' policies regarding rates and cancellation of policies.

Wheeler Hearing Asked
WASHINGTON (AP) — An Illinois Republican says hearings should be held before Congress decides whether Gen. Earle G. Wheeler is to be named as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff should be extended.

Rep. Paul Findley said the House Armed Services Committee should find out whether Wheeler favors what Findley termed a policy of gradualism in Vietnam. He said that during Wheeler's chairmanship of the Joint Chiefs, the size of the U.S. force in Vietnam has grown from 20,000 men to more than 500,000 without ending the war.

Opposing Findley's stand, Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C. of the Armed Services Committee urged the House to pass a bill extending the general a's term for one year. Rivers said that while he could not explain Wheeler's views on war policy, he never saw a soldier who did not "want to win the battle once he is in it."

But Findley's move automatically means the bill will have to go through the regular parliamentary routine—including hearings.

Capital Footnotes
President George Meany of the AFL-CIO has endorsed a $4 billion federal program to create one million public service jobs for the hard-core unemployed. But the chief sponsor of the bill, Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., said he doesn't plan to seek action on the measure this year. The comments came at a hearing of the House Labor subcommittee.

Property Group Opposes Waiver of Garbage Bids

The Manchester Property Owners Association (MPOA) executive board has voted to oppose a waiver of bids for a new, three-year, garbage and refuse pickup contract, as recommended by Town Manager Robert Weiss.

That information was relayed to the Board of Directors last night by Burton Pearl, of the MPOA executive board.

Pearl said that a negotiated contract with the Sanitary Refuse Co. of the present contractors, might close the door to a possible saving in a new contract. The present contract expires June 29.

He said that his group has received inquiries from Pearl and interested in open bidding.

The MPOA objection to a negotiated contract was expressed by Charles Hiegel who said, "based on the good service we have had the past three years from the present contractor, we are entitled to a new contract pickup of garbage."

Director of Public Works William O'Neill is recommending a new contract providing for

The two assistant chairmen, Peter Durisko and Joseph Gledhill, were also re-elected, with Durisko representing District 1 and Gledhill, 2.

Following a directive from State Chairman Howard Huseman, the local committee has taken no stand on the Presidential election but last month it endorsed Edwin May for Senator.

Pioneer Earnings Expected to Gain

Earnings of Pioneer Systems, Inc., whose principal offices are in Manchester, are expected to gain 50 percent over 1967 during the current year, Miles L. Rubin, president and board chairman, told stockholders at Pioneer's annual meeting in New York City yesterday.

The company's 1967 net income was reported at $1.5 million, or $1.43 a common share, on sales of $27.7 million an increase of 41 percent over the preceding year.

Rubin also announced that Pioneer is negotiating to acquire two companies for about 100,000 shares of Pioneer common for $500,000.

He said one company is in textile processing and the other in decorative arts and home crafts. Pioneer has started another company in the decorative arts field, Rubin said.

Stockholders approved a proposal to increase authorized common shares from two million to four million, and authorized preferred shares from 100,000 to 500,000.

They also approved a proposal to change the company's name to Pioneer Systems, Inc. The change, which drops the word "Aerodynamics" from the previous title, was at the request of management in order to more fully reflect the nature of the company operations.

Police Charge Illegal Turn Caused Crash

An East Hartford man was charged with failure to yield the right of way while making a turn at an intersection yesterday at 4:18 p.m. after being involved in an accident that sent himself and a Manchester woman to the hospital emergency room for treatment.

Francis D. LaFoe, 37, was charged after his car was struck by a car operated by Linda M. Clarke, 26, Main St., at E. Center and Woodbridge Sts. at 4:10 p.m. yesterday.

LaFoe was allegedly making the turn from E. Center St. to Woodbridge St. when his car was struck by the Clarke vehicle that was eastbound on E. Center St.

Both drivers were treated for minor injuries at Manchester Memorial Hospital and discharged. LaFoe will appear in Manchester Circuit Court on May 20.

Steven L. Keith, 19, of Plainville, was charged on 10 last night with evading responsibility in connection with a traffic accident, after police investigation revealed that he was allegedly the driver of a car that earlier struck a parked car belonging to Arthur J. Ward, 28 Packard St., on Cooper St. near Ridge St. at 7 p.m. A piece of chrome found at the scene matched one missing from Keith's car, police said. He will appear May 20.

Kenneth J. Flanagan, 17, of Glastonbury told police yesterday that his car was struck at 11:46 p.m. and that the driver of the vehicle turned out his lights and fled the scene. The incident occurred on Gardner St.

Club Request On 9-Hole Play Being Reviewed

A request by the Manchester Country Club, for Board of Director's authorization in restricting Manchester residents from playing nine holes of golf daily, from 4 to 6 p.m., tabled by the board last night, pending a review of the club's lease by Town Council John Shea.

The country club's golf course is on town land, under a lease which spells out protections for Manchester residents.

The club's lease already gives the club the right to restrict nine-hole play, at its own discretion. The club has given its golf pro, Alex Hackney, the authority to decide when to exercise that discretion.

The club's Board of Governors asked for the town action to strengthen the restriction and to strengthen Hackney's authority to exercise that restriction, because several players have questioned his right to do so.

The 4 to 6 p.m. restriction would be for nine-hole play only, and would be for weekdays only. Golfers playing 18 holes would not be affected.

Shea's review of the club lease may indicate that the country club already has the restrictive authority it is requesting.

Old House Doomed, Saving It Too Costly

Attempts to save the historic Rogers House at 65 Prospect St. from demolition by moving it from the site, R. G. construction have failed, and the 16-room Victorian mansion will soon be lost to a memory, state community officials report.

A proposal to move the house and use it as a temporary addition to Manchester Community College has been shelved because of time and cost factors and uncertainty over a potential site, according to Dr. Theodore Powell, chief executive officer for the state community college system and Manchester resident, made the proposal to save the historically valuable structure in late April, after reading a Herald article about its impending destruction.

He and Dr. Frederick W. Lowe, president of Manchester Community College, had been seeking ways the house could be used for faculty offices and a library until the college trustees at its permanent campus, and then possibly be turned over to the town.

Study of his idea to move the house northwest across Prospect St. to a state-owned site adjoining Rt. 4 now indicates the cost would be prohibitive, possibly exceeding $100,000, Powell told The Herald.

"In addition we weren't certain the site would be large enough to meet town requirements or whether we could afford more land," he said.

There would be only about 80 feet frontage on the proposed site adjoining discontinued Thorne St. The two-story, flat-roofed house is 60 feet wide, Powell said.

The contractor for the section of highway that will go through where the house now stands, Eugene and Gervanna, Construction Co. of Torrington, had agreed to donate the building and to "work around" it temporarily, but had set a June 1 deadline for removing it.

Powell and Lowe remarked that they were "very sorry to see the house lost." Both felt it would have been an asset to the college and to Manchester.

The structure, which is Norwiche State Hospital for treatment of a cupola and has unique, arched exterior columns. She was recently released.

Some Error In Story of LSD Arrest

The Herald's account of the circumstances involving the arrest of Elizabeth A. Cone on the charge of illegally possessing the drug LSD printed in yesterday's edition was inaccurate in several details.

The following is accurate as verified by police officials:

Miss Cone, 17, of 19 Trumbull St., became ill during one of her classes at Manchester High School on Jan. 28 and fainted. Police were phoned by school authorities and went to the scene.

Miss Cone's parents were informed and she was taken to a private physician for examination. She was not hospitalized at Manchester Memorial Hospital or at Norwich State Hospital, and has been attending school regularly since the incident.

It was as the result of their investigation of the incident that police lodged the charge of illegal possession of a controlled drug.

Powell and Lowe remarked that they were "very sorry to see the house lost." Both felt it would have been an asset to the college and to Manchester.

Guaranteed Income Topic Of Vizard Before Kiwanis

Richard Vizard, economics instructor at Manchester Community College, told Manchester Kiwanians yesterday that "many people negate the idea of guaranteed annual income because of specific cases of abuse of our welfare programs." He said, "We should strive for income efficiency in administering welfare programs, but we must not give them up because of a few imperfections."

Speaking at the Manchester Country Club Kiwanis luncheon, Vizard said, "The 'dole' tended to remove work incentives for some people and injured the pride of others. However, there are millions of poor people (defined as a family of four with an annual income of less than $400) such as fatherless families, the blind, the educationally underprivileged, and minority groups that have no control over their own economic destiny. These are the people that the guaranteed annual income program is designed to help."

The negative income program suggested by Vizard provides that everyone submit income tax forms. "Those who do not earn some established minimum income would receive a negative income 'tax' payment from the government while others would have to pay taxes as usual. The tax subsidy would be reduced by some fraction of any income earned in order to maintain work incentives. The total cost of the program would be about $11 billion a year. This would amount to about $100 additional in each family's income."

The divorce was officially separated since October 1966. The decree was granted on grounds of cruelty. Mrs. Andrews waived alimony.

You can have it on any Camaro or Chevy II Nova 6-cylinder model (or on any 4-cylinder Nova).

Tax Hike Basking in Panel's OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's income tax bill, which would raise the top rate to 70 percent, is basking in the relative warmth of the party's qualified endorsement.

But the congressional fight has escalated over the size of a proposed spending cut tied to the tax boost.

Making its first formal decision on the $10 billion income tax increase request, the committee voted for the hike Monday provided federal spending is cut at least $4 billion.

The House Appropriations Committee had previously recommended this figure and Johnson has said he would accept it, although reluctantly.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, ranking Republican on the Ways and Means Committee called the panel's action "a surrender and a capitulation" in the face of White House urging.

The committee's vote for the tax bill was 17 to 6, with 18 Democrats and 4 Republicans supporting it. Byrnes and other Republicans opposed it.

As for the committee's setting a $4 billion minimum in spending reductions, Byrnes said: "That's their way out to accept $4 billion. For all practical purposes, $4 billion is now the ceiling as well as the floor for reductions."

Byrnes and other Republicans want a $6 billion cut, and the Senate has voted in favor of the larger amount.

The Ways and Means Committee's vote for the tax hike is a deeper cut in the Senate-House conference committee which is trying to hammer out a compromise tax-spending bill.

It was largely Mills' insistence on substantial cuts in the President's budget for the coming fiscal year starting July 1 that kept the 10 per cent tax surcharge measure in his committee until there were solid signs of action on a spending cut.

Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, the chief Senate Republican conferee, said he would hold out for $6 billion and expects the Senate to back him. He suggested Mills could carry the House conferees along on a similar stand.

There has been speculation Johnson might veto a bill that required cuts as deep as $9 billion.

There were reports on Capitol Hill that a high administration official was telling lawmakers a $6 billion cut would require slashes in programs enjoying much congressional favor.

For example, this official said, funds for the Hill-Burton construction might be cut from $24 million to $20 million and $100 million might be trimmed off the federal contribution to state welfare programs.

Rep. Melvin J. Laird, R-Wis., an Appropriations Committee member who has been predicting a $5 billion compromise in an interview he still thinks this will be the outcome.

Offers Made In Junk Mail Tax Credibility

By JACK SMITH
The Los Angeles Times
We got a lot of junk mail informing us that we have already won a "valuable" prize. Our name has been selected by computer. No strings. All we have to do is send in the attached coupon.

At the same time, we are also invited to send for the first free volume, or apply for membership in something, which is described as such a great bargain as to tax credibility.

Usually I throw this mail away. Last summer, though, we decided to claim a couple of prizes we had already won, just for fun.

What hooked me was a letter beginning "Congratulations! You have already won a 'genuine original oil painting by Rembrandt'."

My heart skipped. An original Rembrandt!

But then the letter went on to say that if we hadn't actually won the Rembrandt, then we had certainly won a "genuine original oil painting by Rembrandt" or a "genuine original lithograph by Chagall" or a "genuine original reproduction of a Gainsborough" or "at the very least, you have certainly won a full-color reproduction of a Gainsborough."

"Let's send in," I told my wife. "Who knows? Maybe we have actually won the Rembrandt."

"You know what we'll get," she said. "The Gainsborough."

I suggested she was right. The Gainsborough was the catch. It was on a "genuine" reproduction, of which millions could be made for a few cents each or less.

Still, the chance of winning an original Rembrandt—however remote—was not to be passed up. We mailed in the coupon.

At the same time we sent in our claim for another prize we had already won.

"Congratulations!" that letter had begun. "What maybe... not perhaps, but definitely, you have already won a check for $1,000 instant cash."

Months went by. Then one day in the mail we got our instant cash.

"Dear Homeowner," the letter said. "Enclosed is your instant cash check worth 10 cents. I wish everyone could have been a $1,000 winner. I'm glad that you won a consolation prize."

The check for 10 cents was drawn on the First National Lincoln Bank of Louisville, Ky., and signed by George Howard, Treasurer.

Months went by. Then, just the other day, we finally heard about the Rembrandt.

"Dear Friend: When you entered the great art treasure giveaway we promised that everyone who participated would win a prize. You are a winner, hopefully, of a 'big' prize like the 'genuine original oil painting by Rembrandt' or the 'genuine original oil painting by Rembrandt' or the 'genuine original lithograph by Chagall' or the 'genuine original reproduction of a Gainsborough' down to smaller room for it."

"Meanwhile, we have framed the 10 cent check from the First National Lincoln Bank of Louisville. I hope this won't throw their books out of balance."

MAJOR CRIME UP
CHICAGO (AP) — A national survey of 42 American cities reveals that major crime is growing, with larger metropolitan areas experiencing a rapid increase.
Police departments were asked by a radio communications firm about the status of community relations, "crime rate and police staffs."
The survey shows that the overwhelming majority of communities has no program for promoting community-police understanding for lessening inter-racial tensions.
During 1967, 41 per cent of cities over 100,000 population reported some form of racial disturbance; towns under 100,000 were almost free of racial incidents of any kind.
The typical city has one police officer for every 300 citizens. The percentage of full-time, trained officers has increased. There has been a steady decline in volunteer and part-time forces.

Sealed Indictments Issued In Deaths of 2 Secretaries

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A grand jury issued sealed indictments Tuesday in the brutal murder of two former California secretaries who were killed by a man who later was charged with the crime.

A statewide pickup order went out for Jack "Murt" the Surf Murphy, a beachboy-turned-killer, and Jack Griffith, a karate expert. The order said first degree murder warrants had been issued in Broward County for the men.

"I'm sure both will surrender in due time," said Miami attorney David Russell, who said he represented Griffith. "There's no place to run. It's just a question of getting your teeth brushed and your extra pants and getting ready to go to jail."

The slain young women were Terry Rae Kent Frank, 23, and Annalie Marie Mohr, 21. Mrs. Frank was from Amblerley, Ohio, a Cincinnati subway, and Mrs. Mohr was a German native.

Their bodies, weighted with concrete, were found in Whiskey Creek near Hollywood Dec. 4.

South Windsor Cuts in Town Budget Scored

By CATHERINE MAY
More than 50 residents were present last night at a public hearing on the general government budget held by the Town Council. Mayor Howard Fitts said that the group is now studying the budget for 1968. He said that the group will go through South Windsor, and have a very serious discussion of the budget.

When the Sewer Commission requests were discussed Mayor Fitts said that the council had to provide for the sewer system, and that the budget will be increased by $200,000. He said that the council will take action on the budget at the regular meeting on May 20.

Robert Nathan, an attorney representing 45 Northview Dr. area families, spoke at the hearing on the need for sewerage. Since at least 1955, said Nathan, the area has been unable to pay for the sewer system.

At one time it was necessary to have a sewer system in order to be able to receive federal funds, said Curcio. State laws on pollution will be violated, said Nathan, if sewers are not installed in the Northview Drive area.

Mayor Fitts said that the council will take action on the budget at the regular meeting on May 20.

They had been told was barred to them. Amid rising tensions, a police officer let the students move closer to the Sorbonne, but heavy ranks of helmeted police kept them back from the building.

There and there violence broke out, with students hurling stones and the police coming back with tear gas and clubs. The students threw up a barricade with planks from a construction site.

Shortly after midnight the first major police charge was ordered. After a barrage of tear gas grenades, the police forced the students back about 300 yards from the barricade.

Top O' the Mark Past and Present Drama Glamour at No. 1 Nob Hill

By JERRY HEUSE
The Los Angeles Times
SAN FRANCISCO — No. 1 Nob Hill: Once the most exclusive address in San Francisco.

Ladies in evening gowns were delivered to the door in chauffeur limousines. Gentlemen in black tuxedos accompanied them. From the street and sidewalk the curious watched. It was the side of the city's most fashionable hotel, No. 1 Nob Hill.

This was before television when the nation still listened to radio. The announcer's voice reached out across America from "High atop Nob Hill in the city by the Golden Gate."

Off Junior League met at the elegant Grand Rapids and Twin Falls grand old hotel and it was a sup- and hundreds of other small towns and big ones, wide-eyed youngsters and more than a few adults wished secretly they could be in San Francisco at the No. 1 Nob Hill. Across America audiences imagined the excitement of San Francisco and the magnificent skyscraper.

By now you've guessed: No. 1 Nob Hill is the address of the Hotel Mark Hopkins. In the days of radio the room at the top was known as the "Top O' the Mark." It still is. There, high above the Golden Gate many a GI during World War II drank a final toast to destiny before shipping off to the South Pacific.

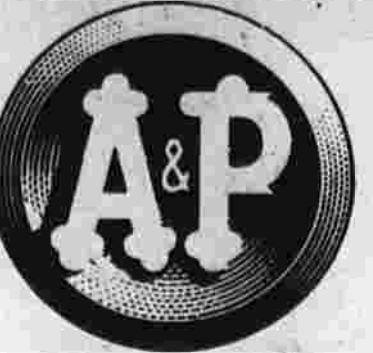

Wives and sweethearts smiled, misty-eyed. Somewhere a piano played. "I'll be seeing you." There was something about the uncertainty of the future and the magnificent view. Life seemed so brightly real. Romantic and sad, too.

Finding oneself up in that heavenly pub was like walking straight into a real-life film. To every GI's the Mark was a landmark memory to carry off to the battlefield. If you had to go to war, to say that bitterly unhappy word to someone you loved, goodbye, you couldn't pick a more moving setting. Mem- ber of the Air Corps (that's what they called it then, before they called it "Army") kept a "Garden of Eden" at the bar. Any foboy was entitled to a free drink. All he had to do was sign his name and pour. If he swallowed the last drink it was up to him to replace the bottle. "Sure, sure. But it was dramatic," said those days. Every guy was Humphrey Bogart and his girl was Jennifer Jones and the future was the moment.

Up in the Top O' the Mark you were caught up between the stars overhead and the lights below. There were other sights and sounds: at sunset a ship disappearing under the Golden Gate... after-dark fog horns moaning in the bay... and the piano man playing. "I'll be seeing you..."

After the war when San Francisco was chosen for the birth of the United Nations, Britain's Anthony Eden came to live at the Mark... and each morning, before the meetings, he would go to that same rooftop pub and sit at one of the tables and inhale the beauty of the bay and boy! hair must not reach during his tour of the United States. The Astors and the Yans derbills have been guests, no longer than to the top of the ear lobe.

What is A Mother?

To her family, she's special. She's understanding, a banquet chef, a short order cook, a fountain of love, a chauffeur, warmth and security.

She's clean socks, starched dresses, a mender of hurts. She's scrubbed ears, a tender nurse, a maid, a queen.

She deserves a day of honor and tribute. She deserves the love of those she loves.

Yes, she's very, very special. This Sunday, you'll tell your mother how much you care. We'd like to tell all mothers, "We Care, too!"

Compromise Said Near On Lincoln School Plan

School officials and the Town Building Committee are nearing a compromise agreement on an alternate plan for the proposed new Lincoln School in Center Springs Park. The compromise is being held out for additional plan refinements in an effort to reduce costs through further space reductions.

Arnold Lawrence, architect for the project, was asked at the close of another plan study last night to attempt further square-footage reductions, possibly by eliminating a sheltered play area, proposed in the various current alternate plans for the school's southern exposure facing Center Springs Pond.

Lawrence reluctantly agreed to try to meet the committee's request, but said he felt the play area was "ideally suited for summer recreation activities during inclement weather" and that it had been incorporated in his plans "only after serious thought" concerning educational requirements for the school and study of site problems.

The educational specifications set forth by the Board of Education envision the school also being used for community and summer recreational activities.

The site selected by the TBC for the school is a sloping plot near the pond south of Hemlock St. and east of Lodge Dr.

The original L-shaped plan (plan A) and two similarly shaped alternatives (Plan A-1 and Plan C) drawn by the architect all call for a basic two-level structure utilizing that slope, with a third, or sublevel, consisting of the covered play area, formed partially by the overhang of the second level.

Lawrence estimated that he can come up with further refinements by May 20, and that date was set for another TBC session.

Truman Crandall, committee chairman, said members have informally agreed with school officials that Plan A could be suitable compromise, provided it could be reduced to the size of Plan C.

Plan C is some 10,000 square feet smaller than Lawrence's Plan A, which requires nearly 60,000 square feet.

As it presently exists, Plan A-1 requires 60,000 square feet. A 10,000 square-foot saving could reduce the building's cost approximately $200,000, the TBC estimates.

Preliminary estimates are that the cost of the school will approximate $1.5 million.

A proposal to place the school on the existing site, at the April 30 referendum had to be called off when agreement on a preliminary plan was firm. Cost estimates could not be completed in time.

School officials want the proposed new Lincoln constructed with spaces more generous than are usual for the conventional elementary school, to permit greater flexibility.

According to Assistant Superintendent of Schools Ronald Root, the building may some-

Manchester Area Coventry Man Hurt in Crash

A Coventry man was taken to Windham Memorial Hospital last night after he lost control of his motorcycle on Daly Rd. in Coventry.

Paul Martin, 21, of Rose Ave., was reported in good condition this morning. He received arm and leg injuries.

Spiritelli backed out of a driveway into the other car. There were no injuries and both cars were driven away. Spiritelli is scheduled for Manchester Court, May 27.

Pope Set To Visit Bogota

The Bogota conference, an international meeting of Catholic prelates to honor the Eucharist—the central mystery of the Catholic faith—will be held Aug. 15-20.

There had been rumors here for months that the Pope was considering attending the conference. But until now the trip was in doubt because of the Pope's health.

He has appeared not fully recovered from his prostate gland operation last November. He seemed fatigued during Easter week activities, but in more recent appearances seemed to have regained strength.

The trip to Bogota will be the longest for the Pope since he became the first pontiff to use jet travel. His previous longest journey was to Bombay in 1964 for the last Eucharistic Congress.

The Pope had already named his official representative to the congress—Giuseppe Cardinal Lercaro, former archbishop of Bologna.

What's a Maxi-Mom?

To a baby, she's the whole world. To a toddler, someone who understands; to a teen, someone who doesn't. To a graduate, she's the one beaming; later, she's the friend and maxi-grand-mom. No age or shape or relationship defines her. The one woman dearest to you is Maxi-Mom.

He said additional problems might be encountered, such as a need for constructing extensive retaining walls and shifting driveway grades, or having to move the building further south toward the pond.

To place the school back on the Valley St. side of the park, the site originally identified by the school board—would only accommodate these problems, Lawrence said, because the slope there is even more severe.

Concession, Tough Reaction Meets Student Rebellions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Student demonstrations won't be taken into account by the Central Intelligence Agency.

At Champaign (Pa.) State College students occupying the school's administration building said they would stay put pending the arrival of state investigators to hear their grievances.

The students have complained about the state of their college financial accounts and also about their grievances.

Officials of Stanford University announced possession of an administration building occupied by 400 students. The sit-in in Boston, Northeastern University agreed to meet 13 protesters, agreed to force their way back into classrooms. Matt Green, spokesman for a Negro organization called the Black Inmate Action Committee, told the school board the pupils would return "whether you give your permission or not."

Walks Aid Eagles In Downing South

Outfit hit not outscored was the case with East Catholic High's baseball team yesterday afternoon as it notched its second straight HCC triumph with a 9-8 conquest over South Catholic High in Hartford. Runners were in the lead in the seventh inning when the home team's pitcher, Bob LaMontagne, struck out the batter, Jim O'Neil, to end the game.

The Eagles managed only seven hits in their 13 during the nine-inning contest, but made them timely and also capitalized on 14 base on balls issued by Rebel hurler. Right fielder John Socha's two runs came behind RBI clout.

Bob LaMontagne pitched seven innings and struck out seven batters. He walked one and pitched 100 pitches. Terry Richter accounted for two more when he hit the grounder that was thrown away on an infield error. John Socha's two runs came behind RBI clout.

Coming from behind, Cheney Tech Beavers tied the score at 4-4 in the fifth inning on Roger Flavell's three RBI out, only to see Woodstock Academy score three in the seventh for a 6-4 win. Cheney went down to its fourth straight loss yesterday at the local field.

Big Bob Burnham hurled the distance for winless Cheney, allowing six, and limiting four walks, allowing only three hits.

Reliever Larry Parker notched the win, striking out two and walking three in two innings. Only one Woodstock run came on an RBI as Cheney committed six errors giving poor support to Burnham's stirring effort.
