

Snowmobiles Banned About Town At Wickham Park

All operation of snowmobiles in Wickham Park will be banned starting Saturday, John L. Broder, park superintendent said today.

"Cross movement" by operators of the fast-moving machines is "literally tearing up the park," Broder said. "In the past, there have been about 50 snowmobiles in the park at any one time, and they have been tearing up the park, and as long as they kept tearing up the park, we didn't mind, but now things are really out of hand. Walls have been torn down by them."

Broder said that operators of the speedy craft, especially those of the "big" type, are a great danger to children on sleds and to park skiers.

"Last year it wasn't as bad," Broder said. "We had about two or three people using the park, and as long as they kept to the fields we didn't mind, but now things are really out of hand. Walls have been torn down by them."

Sheinwold on Bridge

KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN TO COVER WERE DANGER AT THE BRIDGE.

By ALBERT SHEINWOLD

You might think that leaping into the dark is a specialty of the brave or the foolhardy, but you're overlooking the thoughtless. Even tried and tested bridge players have their moments of thoughtlessness, as we see in today's hand, taken from last year's British national team championship.

East-West vulnerable. Opening lead king of spades. West opened the king of spades, and East played the king. West then shifted to the right of clubs, and South won with the ace. South returned a spade, and West took the ace. West continued to lead spades, and South ruffed. Now South "cautiously" ruffed a low spade with dummy's ten of hearts. Only two trumps left in dummy's hand. Down went East's hand.

Alaska Reindeer To Be Flown To South Korea

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Alaska reindeer—20 of them—will be flown this week in a Boeing 707 jet from Anchorage to the South Korean island of Jeju. The animals have been flown to Anchorage from their summer Arctic home near Nome. Later this week, probably Saturday, they will be loaded on the jetliner for the trip across the Pacific.

South Korean businessmen are paying for the experiment, hoping the reindeer can adapt to the Korean climate and feed. They will be used for food and medicine.

Jung D. Wang, one of the businessmen, said parts of the reindeer horns can be mixed with herbs as a tonic "something on the order of vitamins."

Laplanders and some Eskimos depend on the animals for meat, milk clothing and hauling groceries.

John Aumstein of Redmond, Ore., known as king of the reindeer ranchers, was hired by the project.

Summit will fly with the reindeer.

Red Spacemen Switch Crews

The spacecraft "continue the flight in this coupled condition" and the program of scientific experiments is being successfully implemented. The spacecraft Soyuz 4 hurried into orbit Tuesday and Soyuz 5 followed a day later.

The two ships docked over the territory of the Soviet Union, Soyuz said, after making an approach to within 100 yards, controlled by radio signals from the ground.

"After the docking, there was a mutual mechanical coupling of the ships," Soyuz said, "and they were rigidly tied together and their electrical circuits were connected."

The docking occurred at 3:20 a.m. EST, and was announced by the Soviet space agency. "The flight of the experimental station continues," Radio Moscow said. "All communications are being excellent."

Moscow television, containing its close coverage of the Soyuz mission, showed a docking in progress in Moscow that the Soviet approach and docking. Soyuz 5 could be seen slowly getting closer to the Soyuz 4 camera mounted outside Soyuz 4.

In the past 22 years we have Re-Insulated Over 6,500 New Homes in the Connecticut Area.

The main reason for re-insulating was because of inadequate insulation. The owners wondered what was wrong and even went so far as to blame the Oil Man and the Gas Company for their high fuel bills. Finally we stopped this waste with a thorough Fiberglas Blow-in Insulation job, thus eliminating all drafts. You also can remedy the cold and drafty discomfort of your home by calling us soon to check and see if it was properly insulated when built.

Tolland County Miller, Beck Support Bill On Abortion

Tolland County's two female legislators have endorsed the controversial bill calling for the legalization of abortion under certain conditions. The bill was submitted by Glastonbury's State Rep. Jean Thomson.

Rep. Dorothy Miller, Bolton, and Rep. Audrey Beck, Danbury, were among the 17 women legislators endorsing the bill.

Under the terms of the proposed bill, which is essentially the same as one proposed last session, abortions would be legalized when hospitals have documented evidence that continuing pregnancy would threaten the mental or physical health of the mother.

Other conditions would be that when the child may be born with incapacitating physical or mental deformities and when pregnancy resulting from rape or incest constitutes a threat to the mental or physical health of the mother.

Seventeen of the legislature's 30 women legislators endorsed the bill.

PROGRESS REPORT

NORTH END RENEWAL PROJECT

1962

1968

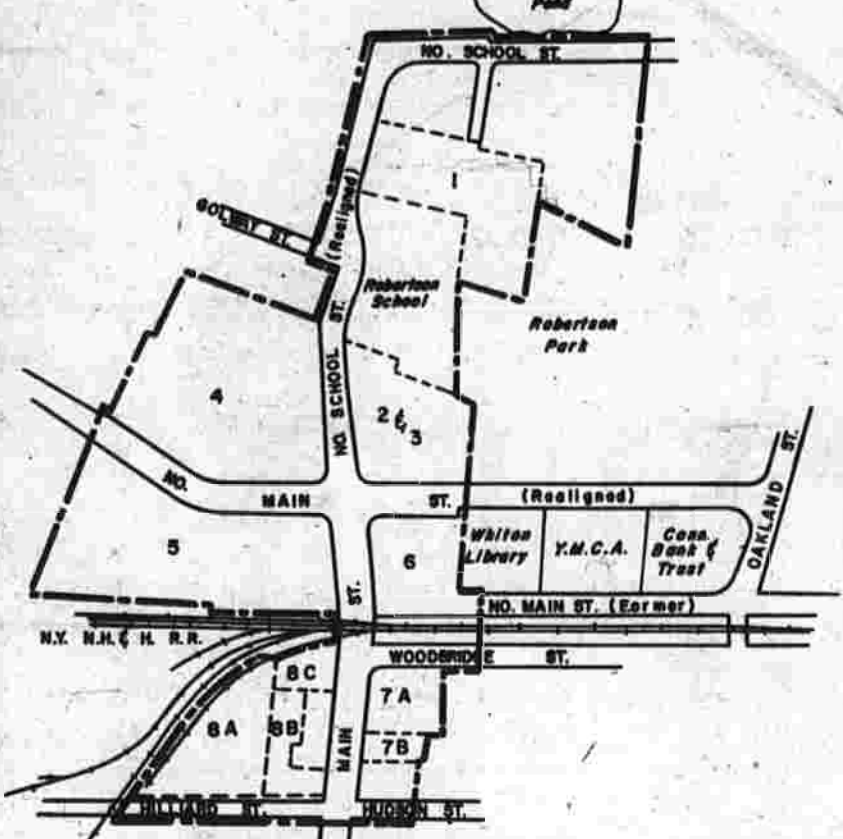

TOMORROW IN NORTH MANCHESTER

To the Citizens of Manchester, Connecticut:
The Manchester Redevelopment Agency wishes to take this opportunity to report on the progress of the North End Renewal Project.
In May of 1964, the Redevelopment Agency prepared a brochure, the cover of which is shown at the left, outlining the proposed plans for rebuilding the north end area. As we look back to that time, we are proud of our accomplishments to date in rebuilding the "Tomorrow in North Manchester."
Although the North End Renewal Project seemed to proceed at a very slow pace at times, it should be noted that this project is well ahead of the average completion time for similar size projects in the entire country. Many complex problems are encountered in rebuilding an area and many months of planning and study have to be spent in reaching solutions to these problems.
Credit for the success of the North End Renewal Project to date has to be given to those individuals, families and business concerns directly involved with the rebuilding process who showed much patience and understanding; to the general public who showed much enthusiasm and to those officials for their guidance and counseling.
We look forward to the year of 1969 for the start of construction of all the remaining buildings to be constructed in the project area.

Vernon CofC Seeks Bill on Road, MV Office

Two bills will be suggested by the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce for introduction by State representative Gerald Allen.
The directors agreed, at a meeting held Tuesday, to push a bill for an access road from the Wilbur Cross Highway to the redevelopment area in the center of Rockville.
The second bill to be promoted will be one to establish a motor vehicle branch office in Vernon. The need for this was determined previously as far as other town officials are concerned. The nearest office at present is in Willimantic and Waterbury. The legislative action committee headed by Allen is working on the two suggestions.

Comment Session

A 9:30 to 10:30 comment session is being conducted tonight by the Manchester Board of Directors. It is in the town council's office in the Municipal Building.
Those who appear are granted anonymity and their suggestions and comments are relayed to the town manager's office, for study and possible action.
Richard Crowl, executive director of the chamber, reported on the status of the proposed abandonment of the New Haven railroad line into Vernon and Rockville.
Crowl said that he has contacted Harvey Kendall, chairman of the State Transportation Authority, and a time table for filing objections has been agreed on by both.
At the last meeting the directors went on record as being opposed to the abandonment of the line and the Public Utilities Commission has been informed of their position.
Crowl said that at the proper time, prior to the setting of the date for a hearing on the matter, the chamber will state its objections to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Senator Abraham Ribicoff and Congressman William St. Onge.

Powell Dinner Slated Tonight

Friends and colleagues of Dr. Theodore Powell will hold a memorial dinner in his honor tonight at the Terrace Room of the Hartford Hilton Hotel.
Powell was the executive officer of the State Board of Trustees of Regional Community Colleges from 1965 until Jan. 3 when he assumed duties as president of the new Southern State campus of the Chicago City College.
In charge of the dinner are Henry Pagan, chairman of the board; Dr. Frederick Love Jr., president of Manchester Community College; Bernard Egan, the board's academic officer, and T. H. Leach, the board's fiscal officer.

Food Processors

YOKO—Food processing in Japan, although a growth industry, is still done largely by small, often household "cottage type" firms. There are nearly 100,000 manufacturers of food and related products in Japan, one for every 1,000 persons. Only about 50 have more than 1.0 employees.

Why Beards?

A Japanese magazine, Shukan Anba (Flying Ban), conducted a survey and came up with a variety of explanations, including one that beards help ward off colds.
Kono Masamu, 50, a famous Japanese actor, says he has used to catch colds regularly until he grew a beard and moustache several years ago. He explained: "I don't need a muffler now because my beard keeps me warm."

Coaches' Corner

By PAT MISTRETTA
MANCHESTER COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Reviewing the first half of the basketball season, I have found that the first 12 games we played have been extremely successful.

Through our last three games, I have been very pleased with the play of the boys as a team. Their dedication and hard work has paid off dividends in the nine games we have won.

One Coach, a boy with more natural talent than most in the Community College basketball circle, has been our premier performer, not only as a team player, but as our top rebounder, set, ball handler, passer and a team leader.

Bob Trachten, the boy who went to Rockville High but was limited action, has been extremely instrumental in our first nine wins.

He has provided Chaffin a 2.0 backcourt with ample support and has been the most improved player on the team and has been averaging 10 points a game.

Coming off the bench to take over a starting job is a difficult task in the pressure-packed game of basketball. Jack Adams, the 5-11 guard from Wilton, has done a superb job of coming off the bench to take over a starting job.

Ski Slope Open to Townspeople

Plan Contest To Get Name, Area Popular

By EARL YOST

Skiing facilities, when sufficient snow covers the ground, will be open to any and all Manchester residents at the new Hercules Dr. site. There is no fee.

That was the word today from William O'Brien, public works director.

This should clear up any misunderstanding anyone may have following an announcement earlier in the week that the public could use the area, when conditions permitted, only on certain nights.

At present the 1,000-foot ski slope is open evenings from 7:30 until the stars have laid their fill, usually around 11 o'clock. The hill is twice the size of the old, New Area.

The Manchester Ski Club will supply the patrol and will provide free lessons at one side of the facility.

Formal dedication of the site, O'Brien said, will be Saturday, Jan. 20, at 10:30 a.m.

Meanwhile, a "name the hill" contest is underway. Suggestions are being received by Ernest Turck, park superintendent, at the Town Hall.

The contest will close on Jan. 20. A three or four-man committee will be named to judge the entries.

The area boasts a double top-gunner and strong freestyle skiing. It is a good skier's area, but I'm looking forward to using it more as the season progresses.

Jim Loyer, who hasn't seen much snow at this stage of the season, has good size, 4- to 6-inch snow, with improvement expected by the end of the season.

Bob Lombardi has also been active in the area. He has been working on the ski lift and has been very helpful in the area.

West AFL All-Stars Even Match for East

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Hank Stram wouldn't dispute for a minute that Joe Namath is a great quarterback, but he doesn't think that gives any edge to the East team in Sunday's American football league All-Star game.

"We think we have two great quarterbacks," Stram said. "We have Tom Bradshaw and Joe Namath. Both are great. Both are going to be in the game."

Stram said he was not sure who would win the game. "It's a toss-up," he said. "Both teams have great players. It's going to be a close game."

Cheney Hopeful of Tournament Berth

Impressive With Win

Not only is there talk about a winning season at Cheney Tech these days but there is also hope that the basketball team can qualify for the annual post-season tournament.

It's been a long time since any Cheney team made the CIAC play in fact the last time was in 1941—26 years ago.

Now the Mechanics posted a winning record.

Yesterday afternoon the locals soundly whipped Wethersfield Tech, 78-57, at home for their fourth win in nine starts.

There are eight games left which means the squad must win the last three to qualify for the tournament.

A school must win 31 per cent of its games to qualify for the tournament.

Coach Jack Kraft doing a slow burn after the unheralded Quakers upset the fifth-ranked Wildcats 32-30.

The only other team in the Connecticut Top Ten to see action was the fourth-ranked Davidson Wildcats.

They scratched out a 30-21 triumph over the second-ranked Quakers.

A long jump shot by sophomore Steve Hinkley with three seconds left gave Penn its dramatic victory and added Villanova to its second loss in 12 starts.

The Quakers from the ball court of Villanova's high-scoring Howard Porter, who managed only three points all night, missed a free throw with 38 seconds left.

Cheney Tech (17) led Penn 18-13 at halftime and 38-34 at the quarter break.
