Eleven persons, including the superintendent for the Rham school district, were named defendants today in a half-million dollar suit in the slaying of a girl at Rham High School in Hebron Sept. 12.

The girl, Alice Rudko, 17, of Hebron, was stabbed in the back while waiting in a hallway for a class to start. A 15-year-old student at the school John Bagdonis of Marlborough, is being held in the slaying.

The suit was filed by Ihor Rudko, the girl's brother, in Toland County Superior Court in Rockville. The girl's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rudko, both immigrants from Germany.

The defendants were summoned to appear at the court Feb. 4 to answer the suit, which charges various people named with negligence, failure to control the boy, failure to suspend him from school because of his emotional problems and failure to enforce school rules.

Those named in the suit are: Bagdonis, who is presently at Norwich State Hospital undergoing tests before juvenile court takes action.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bagdonis of Marlborough, his parents.

Aram Damarjian of Hebron, Rham regional superintendent of schools.

Dorothy Colgan of Hebron.

chairman of the Rham school board.

P. Colin Pushe of Middlefield, principal at Rham High School.

Robert Sernofsky of East Hartford, assistant principal.

Heleen McDonald of Glastonbury, supervisor of the Hebron rural office of the State Board of Education.

John LaBoc of Montville, guidance counselor assigned to Bagdonis.

Brenda Curran of Willimantic, a Rham teacher.

David Mordovskiy of 380 Vernon St., Manchester, a Rham teacher.

The suit charges that Mr. and Mrs. Bagdonis failed to "exercise reasonable care in controlling" their son and failed to "restrain him when they knew or should have known that he possessed dangerous and harmful tendencies."

It also charges that they were "careless and negligent" in allowing him to attend a public school because they created "an unreasonable risk of bodily harm to other pupils."

Bagdonis had been under pay. (See Page Twenty-Two)

Stiffer Law Asked On Drunk Driving

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut's law against drunken driving needs to be tightened up, says the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety.

State law defines lower limit of intoxication as an alcohol content of .15 per cent in the blood. The IIHS says this should be revised to .10 per cent.

The institute also is calling for mandatory periodic inspections of motor vehicles, periodic re-examinations of drivers, improvements in driver education programs and establishment of a state bureau for analysis of accident statistics.

California's Skies Clear, Death Toll 91

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern Californians awoke to clear skies and sunshine Monday following a nine-day storm that left 9,000 persons temporarily homeless and $55 million in property damage.

The 9,000 persons were evacuated from homes destroyed or damaged by the state's worst flooding in 31 years. Storm-related deaths mounted to 91.

A cold front moved in from the north, blocking off Southern California from the low pressure system that has hovered off the coast. Cool, dry weather was forecast for the next five days, with a possibility of showers in the mountains.

Of the deaths, 55 persons were killed in rain-related traffic accidents, 11 in mudslides, 19 by drowning, four in plane crashes blamed on the storms and two by heart attacks during floods.

The storm, which dumped 34 inches of rain in some portions of the state, left $30 million damage, by Gov. Ronald Reagan's estimate, and some major health problems.

Sewage disposal plants were destroyed or damaged in some communities and water lines to other communities were out of commission. In hillside areas, residents were warned not to drink tap water without first boiling it.

President Nixon and Reagan declared the state a disaster area, making federal and state funds available to help pay for the mammoth task of cleaning up and to provide low interest loans to businessmen and homeowners for rebuilding their property.

"I am saddened by the loss of life and the suffering in the stricken areas," Nixon said upon making $3 million in emergency funds available to his home state.

The storm knocked out telephone communications, halted railroads, and washed out roads including the Pacific Coast Highway, a major north-south route. Seven major bridges were washed out in three counties, and there were warnings that the banks of rain-choked flood canals could still give way and spill new destruction.

Although the sun appeared in parts of the state Sunday, rain continued in isolated areas and (See Page Ten)

Nixon Pledges New Efforts On Vietnam, Mideast Accord

White House Jammed for Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon promised today "new tactics" in the quest for a Vietnam settlement and pledged an urgent effort to cool the Mideast situation lest it lead to "confrontation of the nuclear powers."

Nixon, at his first White House news conference, recalled his oft-stated observation that the nation can have but one president at a time—and made clear, now that he is the man, every facet of the government is under Republican scrutiny.

He stood before a single microphone in the White House East Room, right hand often in his coat pocket, left hand gesturing for emphasis, and declared his new team "will re-examine all past decisions" left by the Democrats.

The White House said 450 newsmen attended the conference. Mrs. Nixon and their older daughter Tricia watched it on television elsewhere in the executive mansion, a spokesman said.

Vietnam was the most frequently raised topic as Nixon answered 15 questions in 28 minutes. But he spoke with urgency too, of the Mideast threat.

Nixon said that region is a powder keg—and if another explosion occurs there it could pit the interests of the United States and the Soviet Union one against the other.

"I believe we need new initiatives and new leadership on the part of the United States in order to cool off the situation in the Middle East," Nixon said.

He said next Saturday's session of the National Security Council will be devoted to the problem.

Nixon pronounced the new administration's efforts at the Vietnam peace talks in Paris "not a good start."

"Now, of course, what is involved is what happens on the other side," he added.

Nixon said, instead of putting a "laundry list" of proposals on the Paris peace table, the United States, represented by his negotiator, Henry Cabot Lodge, has sought to present specific proposals.

He mentioned the new administration's formula gain in suggesting that talk at Vietnam cease-fire is not really helpful in the peace effort.

Nixon said a cease-fire "may be meaningless" because the enemy might prove unable to control their own guerrilla forces.

Instead, he said, "the better approach" is the one Lodge set forth at his instruction: Mutual withdrawal of a guaranteed basis.

And, as his news conference neared an end, Nixon said he has never talked of Vietnam in terms of a settlement in six months, a year or even three.

He said overly optimistic statements "may impede" the Paris negotiations.

"All that I will say is this," he said. "We have a new team in Paris. . . . We have new directions from the United States, we have a new sense of urgency with regard to the negotiations, there will be new tactics."

"We believe that those tactics may be more successful than the tactics of the past," Nixon added.

But he said "that hard, tough grind" of negotiations on such matters as mutual withdrawal, self-determination for South Vietnam and a prisoner exchange all lie ahead.

"This is going to take time, but I can assure you that it will have my personal attention."

Nixon dealt also with a variety of domestic questions, free (See Page Twenty-Two)

Reprisals by Israel Threatened

Eshkol Denounces Iraq Hangings

JERUSALEM (AP)—Prime Minister Levi Eshkol held the world responsible today for the hanging of nine Jews in Iraq and for the plight of Jewry throughout Arab lands.

He demanded international action to save Jews isolated in the Arab world.

In a speech to the Knesset, Israel's parliament, Eshkol disclosed U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant, along with other states, personalities and religious leaders, had appealed to Baghdad for mercy of Israel's urging.

"I cannot help but reach the sorry conclusion that the world and all its institutions have failed to master the necessary determination in this matter—and the matter of Jews in Arab lands in general."

"Last-minute appeals and smokescreen with hypocritical replies will not relieve from the awesome responsibility and turning of a blind eye to the fate of Jews in Arab countries. . . ."

"From this rostrum, I demand that the entire world should act, each one to the best of his capacity, in order to avert further acts of murder, to save the families and to protect the Jewish remnant."

Eshkol said the charges of espionage were "entirely baseless." He began his condemnation with a quotation from the bible: "O daughters of Babylon (Biblical Iraq), that art to be destroyed, happy shall be he that repayeth thee as thou hast served us."

The prime minister added another biblical quotation: "The Lord shall avenge their blood." Israeli newspapers were outraged by the executions.

Knesset member David Petel, chairman of the Society of Iraqi Jews in Israel, said: "There are no words to describe this crime."

The newspaper Maariv said in an editorial: "The nine were not entirely without guilt . . . for their one crime was heavier than they could bear. They were Jews, and to be a Jew in a serious crime in the eyes of the Baghdad regime . . . For this heinous murder, the Iraqis will pay the full price."

Yediot Aharonot wrote: "The enlightened world is as low as (the Iraqis) are. It went out of its mind when a few planes in Beirut were hit, but now it is nowhere to be seen or heard. . . ."

"They are termed the noble Arab people. Why? Where is their nobility?"

Destruct Gear Installed Following Pueblo Attack

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy says that improved destruct equipment was installed in the sister ships of the USS Pueblo after the intelligence vessel was captured by North Korea just over a year ago.

The acknowledgment came after Pueblo Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher told a Navy court of inquiry in California last week that he had been denied such equipment on two occasions "because of money and time."

The court of inquiry, which has been taking testimony in the Pueblo case, has generated heated controversy over Bucher's statements that superiors twice rejected his requests for a system for swift destruction of secret intelligence equipment and documents.

Asked why the Pueblo was not provided with this equipment, the Navy said the subject is being covered by the court of inquiry, thus indicating it would not comment on Bucher's testimony.

However, the Navy did say that "improved destruct equipment has been installed in all ships of the Pueblo class," and that this was accomplished after the Pueblo was seized Jan. 23, 1968.

"The improved destruct equipment will permit more rapid destruction of classified equipment and publications," the Navy said.

"It also can be actuated by fewer personnel and with greater reliability than previous destruct equipment."

No technical details were given, but the gear presumably involves explosive devices.

Bucher told the five-admiral court last week that his ship had only fireaxes and sledgehammers to break up equipment and an incinerator for burning papers.

There are two other ships in the Pueblo class, the Banner and the Palm Beach.

Although the Navy was asked questions about improvements in terms of all U.S. ships performing intelligence functions, it chose to limit its reply to the Pueblo class.

The Navy customarily avoids identifying intelligence ships. (See Page Twenty-Two)

Czech Police Detain 200 After Fights

PRAGUE (AP)—Two hundred persons were detained today after clashes with police in St. Wenceslas Square, near the spot where Jan Palach set himself afire 11 days ago, Radio Prague reported.

It said 41 of those taken into custody were students.

The broadcast quoted the public security commander as saying three policemen were injured in clashes that began Sunday night and continued into the early morning hours.

As one of the youths was clubbed, the crowd surged around the police, shouting, "Russian stooges!" and, "Gestapo!"

"We are just following orders," one young policeman explained.

"Your duty is to be humane," a student countered.

The students were protesting removal by the police of candles, flowers and signs placed against the statue of St. Wenceslas in tribute to Palach, the 21-year-old student who burned himself to death to protest the Soviet occupation. He was buried Saturday.

Earlier Sunday, about 100 police used tear gas to break up a crowd of 2,000 that had gathered near the statue in Prague's main square.

One student who produced a portrait of Palach from under his coat was grabbed and escorted away. Other students tried to divert police attention while their companions dashed up to place candles on the statue.

A dozen officers mounted an all-night guard to prevent anyone from putting up new candles or signs. More police—many brought in from outlying areas for the tense funeral day—waited in two buses and in patrol cars parked near the square. (See Page Three)

Civil Courts Barred from Church Rules

WASHINGTON (AP)—A unanimous Supreme Court today prohibited courts throughout the land from deciding matters of church doctrine.

The far-reaching ruling said the Constitution forbids civil courts from reaching to "the very core of a religion" and determining if a church is adhering to its doctrines.

The immediate effect is to bar courts from settling property disputes that hinge on controversies over religious doctrine and practice.

It is likely to forestall breakways by dissident local churches whose congregations disagree with the philosophy and policies of the parent church bodies.

The ruling directly involved the million-member Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern) and its dispute with two local churches in Savannah, Ga.

In 1966 the membership of the local churches, Hull Memorial and Eastern Heights, voted to withdraw from the general church and reconstitute themselves as an autonomous Presbyterian organization. The congregations objected to various stands taken by the parent church, including support for civil disobedience as a last-ditch means of achieving civil rights.

Other issues in dispute were the parent church's approval of the ordaining of women as ministers and its support for the removal of Bible reading and prayers by children in the public schools.

The local churchmen left with the local churches' property and sued in superior court of Chatham County, Ga., to enjoin the general church from "trespassing."

The ruling has wide implications for churches generally. The Methodist Church, for instance, is also faced with a breakaway caused by a difference in policies in Alabama and South Carolina. In Detroit, meanwhile, members of the Mayflower church had claimed property on grounds affiliation with the United Church of Christ is contrary to their Congregational tenets. (See Page Three)

More Unrest Plagues Church

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Reports of a postponed consistory, the arrest of two American priests and a proposal for a schism in Holland over the weekend underlined the continuing ferment in the Roman Catholic Church.

The Vatican's official spokesman called it "stupid," but reports persisted Sunday that Pope Paul VI postponed a winter consistory after two or three bishops turned down a cardinal's red hat because they differed with his policies dividing the Church.

The reports, carried in some French and Italian newspapers, said the issue most likely to cause any churchman to reject elevation to the cardinalate would be birth control. A wave of dissent has rocked the Church since Pope Paul published his encyclical last July reaffirming the church's ban on mechanical and chemical contraceptive devices.

"There is no truth to this," said the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fausto Vellano, the Vatican's official spokesman.

But a Vatican source said a consistory to fill vacancies in the College of Cardinals, which now is down to 102 members, definitely was in the making in December and had been expected to be called this month. It now is expected between Easter and June, the source said.

One account said Pope Paul changed his mind after 40 well-known theologians published a request for changes in the conservative Vatican Curia, the central administration of the church.

Pope Paul has called two consistories in his 5½-year reign, the last on June 26, 1967. It increased the number of cardinals to a record 118.

Among the leading candidates for red hats now are three archbishops whose posts are normally filled by cardinals, Terence

The Rev. Bernard L. Meyer sits on the sidewalk outside of St. John's Cathedral in Cleveland, Ohio, early Sunday after he was carried from the church by police and detectives, who surround him. Standing behind Father Meyer is the Rev. Robert V. Beggin, who also was forced to leave the church when the two Roman Catholic priests led a demonstration up the center aisle and tried to conduct an unauthorized Mass. (AP Photofax)

In mountain areas, heavy snows isolated some villages. The homeless were lodged in churches and schools throughout the state. School children were put to work eroding mud slides by buttressing rising hillsides.

There were scattered reports of looting throughout the state, and most law enforcement agencies had their entire forces working overtime.

Fire companies and rescue units were so pressed for a time that they would come to the aid of only those people in immediate danger of their lives.

"My babies are in the front room. Save them," Mrs. John Gornale pleaded with rescuers freeing her from wreckage of her home which slid down a hill in Highland Park, a Los Angeles suburb. Her sons, Joe, 5, and Steve, 10 months, were dead under the mud.

In Carpinteria, a coastal community north of Los Angeles, three streams turned into raging torrents, inundating the town and forcing more than 1,000 to flee. "Everyone whose home is still intact has taken someone else in," said City Manager Jack Arnold.

A young West Los Angeles housewife, Mrs. Pat Fricke, said at a hilltop police command post, "The whole back of the house is coming down. It buried the car... My husband is out there trying to divert the water. The house probably will go soon. But the police can't help. No one can now."

A southview of the Northview Ski Slope clearly shows why there was no demonstration of slalom and downhill skiing at the dedication ceremony Saturday. To the right of the young spectators is the rope tow leading to the summit. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Air Balm As Slope Gets Name

A small break formed and was running down Hercules Dr. through the mud, around the backs of delighted children and under a truck where stood Manchester Mayor Nathan Agostinelli who remained in the 40 degree weather. "We should be dedicating a swimming pool, not a ski slope by the look of the weather."

The weather was damp, but the spirits of about 100,000 interested people were not as the new town ski slope was officially dedicated Saturday afternoon. The high point of the ceremony was the announcement of the winning name for the slope by Ernest Turcek, MC for the event.

Northview Ski Slope was the winning name submitted by Mrs. John R. Fitzgerald, 45 Ballin Rd. Mrs. Fitzgerald remarked over the telephone this morning, "I never expected to win. I thought there were a several names much better than mine, some of the Indian names were especially good. I thought, but I guess someone thought my name was good."

Mrs. Fitzgerald who is not a skier, said first prize—a pair of skis donated by Naamit Arms would go to her son, Gordon L. Bean, 10 Frederick Rd., was the second prize winner. For his entry, Valley View Ski Area, Bean will receive skis boots, donated by the Charter Oak Sports Shop.

A plaque was presented to the local ski club from the National Ski Patrol which named the hill as a slope recognized by the national organization. Arthur Jenks, of the National Ski Patrol said the plaques were given only to those clubs which put qualified men on their slopes.

Christening the new slope with a bottle of champagne, was Joseph Sylvester, chairman of the Recreation and Parks Commission. Town Manager, Robert Weiss, during remarks on the history of the slope development, said that this was the only municipally-owned slope in Connecticut, and one of the few in New England.

A demonstration of downhill and slalom skiing was to conclude the ceremony, but the rainy weather canceled the event.

After three tries, Joseph Sylvester finally succeeded in breaking the champagne bottle, officially christening the new town ski area as the Northview Ski Slope. The name was selected from 338 entries in a name-the-hill contest. Mrs. John R. Fitzgerald, 45 Ballin Rd., was the winner. Behind Sylvester are three members of the Park and Recreation Commission which Sylvester heads, from left to right, Robert Bleiler, John Hannon, and Chester Bycholski. At extreme right is Ernest Turcek, park superintendent. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Fire Calls

At 7 a.m. yesterday, town firemen were called to Monetary Bros. service station, 318 Center St., to wash down some spilled gasoline. A call was received by town firemen this morning at 8:30 a.m. at 108 Cooper Hill St. A delayed ignition on an oil burner was the reason for the call. No injuries were reported.

State Rollers Capture Top Five Places

Feeling right at home, Connecticut bowlers took home the top five awards in the 85th annual United States Women's Duckpin Classic last Saturday at the Holiday Lakes in Manchester.

The highest single of the payoff money, $600 went to winner Pat Price of West Hartford. She rolled two five-games bowls totaling 1,941 to top a field of 107.

Mia Price, who bowls in six leagues each week, averaged 184.1 in carrying off top honors. Finishing a strong second, 22 pins behind, was former winner, Maureen Walsh of Hartford.

Nutmeggers following were Nancy Andros of Danbury, third with 1,285, Mabel Korolowski of Waterbury, fourth at 1,266, and Mary Ann Mitchell of Avon, fifth, with 1,260.

Breaking the Connecticut stronghold was Jean Harrard of West Hartford, who placed sixth. In Washington, D.C. who placed sixth.

Among the money winners was Cindy Dyak of Manchester, who tied for 16th place with 1,238. She is the current No. 1 high average roller in the country among the fairer set.

The No. 1 pinner, Sue Brown of Silver Springs, Md., just made the money list, getting 19th place with 1,237.

Nation's Best College Fives Face Trouble

The Top Ten teams in college basketball put up a perfect defense of the high ground last week, but several of them might find it more difficult protecting themselves this week.

Last by undisputed king-of-the-hill UCLA and its victories over Northwestern and Chicago Loyola, the Top Ten rolled up an 11-0 record last week, making any rating changes doubtful in the weekly Associated Press poll.

But seventh-ranked New Mexico State, carrying a 10-0 record, will be the first to try to break the streak in the next six days.

The Aggies must put their high position in jeopardy by losing to the line twice against cross-state rival New Mexico State in the next six days.

Utah, No. 8, after easily beating back 150-ranked New Mexico State, could have as much difficulty as Utah in its game with 15th-ranked Big Ten rival Ohio State, 11-2, Tuesday and at home against Wisconsin Saturday.

Duquesne, which protected its No. 10 ranking by coming from behind triumph over tough St. Bonaventure 84-69 Sunday, must face Spencer Haywood and Detroit at home Thursday.

Davidson, No. 4, after playing at Georgia Washington Tuesday, must take on Iowa at Chicago Stadium Saturday; Kentucky, No. 5, expects easy victory at Alabama tonight, but then closes at home Saturday against Vanderbilt, and St. John's, No. 6, hosts tough Temple Saturday.

Only the top three teams of UCLA, North Carolina and Santa Clara, and ninth-ranked Louisiana State, are scheduled to play in the Big Ten and Big East conferences.

The Bruins extend California and Stanford during the week-end by playing at Wake Forest Friday, LaSalle is at St. Francis, Pa., Tuesday before hosting Loyola, La., Saturday.

HAWK ON PIGEON'S TAIL—Black Hawk defenseman Pat Stapleton puts up with a lot in a hockey game but he didn't expect to be called on for extra duty to skate a pigeon off the Chicago ice so that the game could start.

Bruins Extend Unbeaten String to 14 Flyers Get Dividend From Penalty Killer

NEW YORK (AP)—The Philadelphia Flyers are getting their two minutes worth . . . and then some . . . from penalty killer Dick Cherry.

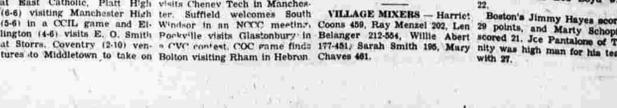

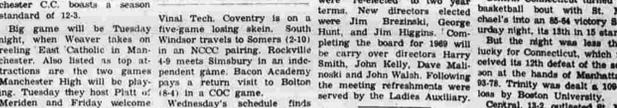

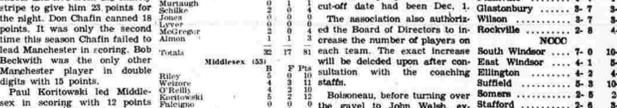

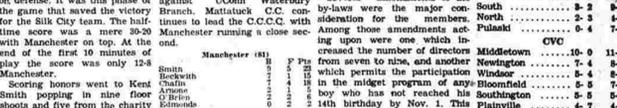

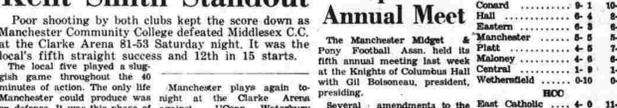

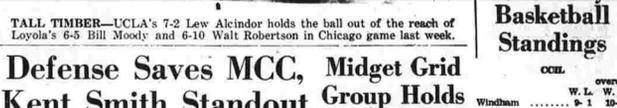

Cherry, a 31-year-old National Hockey League newcomer, scored two goals in the final 10 seconds of the first with Philadelphia's 8-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Penguins Sunday night.

The goals were the second and third of a brief NHL career for Cherry, who had a six-game tryout with Boston 15 years ago.

Seagren Celebrates With New Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Seagren celebrated the anniversary of his world pole vault mark Saturday by shattering it—while a pair of awesome Aussies did some record-breaking of their own as the indoor track season blossomed on six continents last weekend.

Seagren, the U.S. Olympic champion, smashed the three-meter mark Saturday at the Los Angeles Invitational and Australian High Jump, another Olympic Gold Medal winner broke the 80-year standard in the same meet.

The other Aussie, Ron Clarke, smashed the three-meter mark Saturday at the Athens Invitational in Oakland, Friday night. And at Houston's Astrodome, six world's best marks were accepted at the Federation National Championships.

The Astrodome records, run on a five laps to the mile track, however, are not recognized as records by the Amateur Athletic Union. The AAU requires that a track be at least eight-tenths of a mile long.

The Federation marks were set by Lennox Miller, Southern Cal, 4.4 in the 100-yard dash; Oleg Stepanov, U.S.S.R., 1:12.4 in the 1200-meter; and Ron Clarke, 3:58.4 in the mile; and Ron Clarke, 3:58.4 in the mile; and Ron Clarke, 3:58.4 in the mile.

Seagren of Southern California, who set his own mark of 16' 4 1/4, which he set at the Waukegan-Milwaukee Games in New York Sunday, broke the 80-year standard in the same meet.
