Laird Cutting Military Another $613 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird, moving to cut military spending another $613 million, announced today plans to reduce B62 bomber sorties and trim several naval ships in the Vietnam war. Laird also told the House Armed Services Committee he is postponing purchase of a missile call SRAM until tests show whether it will work. These actions, representing about half the $813 million, brought to more than $1.1 billion the amount of spending pared by Laird from the Johnson administration's final defense budget for fiscal 1970. The new total stands at $77.9 billion for the bookkeeping year starting July 1. Pentagon officials indicated more slashes are under study. Laird made it plain the fresh spending reductions were related to President Nixon's call for income tax surcharges. "The nation is confronted with an extremely difficult and dangerous economic and fiscal situation," Laird said. He noted...

In Today's Herald

The first of three articles on the drug problem in Manchester is printed in today's Herald. It was written by Robert Dixon, coordinator of youth activities for the town. It tells how the problem came to Manchester and what the town is trying to do about it. Look for it on page 2. On page 7 the Herald carries the second of five stories on the life of Dwight D. Eisenhower. Today's story concerns the influence of Gen. Rex Connor on the young military officer who was to become the president of the United States.

Heart Attack Kills Judge In Ray Trial

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Judge W. Preston Battle died of a heart attack, making the possibility that James Earl Ray may get the trial by jury he now says he wants. The 60-year-old jurist was found dead in his chambers Monday night. On March 10 he had accepted Ray's plea of guilty to the murder of Martin Luther King Jr. and sentenced him to 99 years in prison. Later Judge Battle disclosed Ray had written from the state penitentiary advising that he wanted to withdraw his plea and stand trial.

Rumor, Ky Others Pay Nixon Visit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prime Minister Mariano Rumor of Italy led a day-long procession of foreign leaders into President Richard M. Nixon's oval office today. Rumor was the first of a dozen foreign officials who were holding individual, private sessions with Nixon at the White House. Another was South Vietnam's Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky. The guests were getting a red carpet welcome at the diplomatic reception entrance on the south side of the executive mansion, after driving through the grounds between ranks of a saluting military honor guard. From the arrival point, they were escorted to their appointments in Nixon's office.

Navy Considering New Missile Sub

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary John H. Chafee disclosed today the Navy is considering a new long-range submarine missile system to meet the increasing threat from the Soviet Union in the 1970s. Chafee told the Senate Armed Services Committee of plans for the new, multi-billion dollar system, even as work is beginning to convert the first of 31 ballistic missile submarines from the Polaris to the new multi-warhead Poseidon. His testimony was given to a closed committee session but was made public. Chafee said "It is quite clear that the Soviet Navy presents a serious and growing threat to our continued supremacy on the seas," including a nuclear threat that "has grown more rapidly than expected, both in quality and in number." He cited the possibility of an extensive Soviet submarine warfare effort against the U.S. fleet of 41 Polaris and Poseidon submarines and said "In preparation for such Soviet efforts, we are examining a long-range submarine launched missile system."

Easter Series 2 Idea of Afterlife Baffling to Man

EDITOR'S NOTE—Even the apostles could hardly believe the phenomenon of Christ's resurrection, and so did you. In the stark darkness, she encountered a grandeur she had never realized existed. It was as if she had entered a strange and unknown environment, where there was only hazy gloom, but instead she beheld astonishing glory. In a way to those associated with Jesus, death was like that. They had resigned themselves to the work. They had given up, but instead they plunged into an alien midnight. (See Page Two)

First Time Since 1956 Chinese Communist Party in Session

TOKYO (AP)—The congress of the Chinese Communist Party opened today in Peking. Premier Liu Shao-chi, Deputy Premier Chen Po-cheng, Chen Po-sa, and Mao Tse-tung gave an important address. Peking radio reported. Red Chinese broadcasts have been saying for some time that the congress—expected to approve a new constitution drafted at Mao's direction—was forthcoming. "It makes no difference at all," Burnett said, adding that a petition of this kind could be filed with another judge. Criminal Court Clerk James W. Preston Battle

Ike's Burial in Abilene Tomorrow Hushed Crowds Gather To View Funeral Train

Abilene, Kan. (AP)—Past hushed clusters of townsfolk who had called him Ike, the body of Dwight David Eisenhower was borne today in a black hearse toward burial at Wednesday in his home town of Abilene, Kan. In groups of hundreds and crowds of thousands gathered at towns and crossings throughout the long night-time pull across Virginia, through the Alleghenies and over the Ohio. Americans paid silent homage at the trackside to the 24th American President. Only a handful waited when the 10-car train reached Cincinnati's Union Terminal in a steady rain, here to transfer from the Chesapeake and Ohio tracks to those of the Baltimore and Ohio—the steel ribbon across the plain taken by the funeral train of Abraham Lincoln 84 years earlier. A memorial service at the terminal planned by Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes and the dignitaries of nearby cities had been canceled at request of the widow and family, worn by the tears and strain of three days of funeral pomp and homage in the nation's capital. Instead, the rust-flecked and nut-atreaked baggage car was who died in infancy, will be

High Court To Decide Civil Rights Question

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court, in a major civil rights move, agreed today to decide whether Negroes have a right to use all-white community parks and swimming pools. The case-setting case comes from suburban Fairfax County, Va., where a Negro family renting a house from a white family was forbidden to use the subdivision's recreational facilities. Both families sued and claimed violations of their civil rights. They said the 1968 civil rights law, which the court has said is unconstitutional in private housing sales, also protects the Negro family's right to use the facilities. Last June, acting on an earlier appeal, the court directed Virginia state courts to reconsider rulings against the two families. The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, October, turned the case down on procedural grounds. Now the high court itself will settle the issue, in a ruling that undoubtedly will have broad racial implications. Last term's decision assured the Negro family that it was not to be suspended from the union for a year while it was found that they, and other members, had exceeded the production ceiling for piece workers. Half the production workers at the plant are paid on a piece work or incentive basis. The union rule, enforceable since 1944 by fines and expulsion, allows members to produce as much as they like each day but sets a ceiling rate for how much pay they may draw on a particular day. Their overproduction is "banked" by the company and works out for it are paid to the worker on days when the production ceiling has not been reached. (See Page Eight)

Over 150 Trapped In Mexican Mine

MONTERREY, Mexico (AP)—A fiery blast of methane gas trapped 145 to 166 men 1,700 feet down in a Mexican coal mine today and officials reported it may take as long as 16 days to reach all of them. Mine company officials in Coahuila State were checking the two mine shafts where, according to work list data, supposed to be working. The 166 men went down into the mine before the explosion Monday afternoon. The blast showed 42 miners trapped in the No. 3 shaft, where the explosion occurred. Officials said it was probably caused by a short circuit. Another 128 were trapped in the nearby No. 2 shaft, officials said. All were believed to be at a depth of about 1,700 feet. Troops were rushed out to control "victor families who were trapped at the tunnel entrance. The crowds called down later. The mine is at Barraterra, with a population of 6,000 people, about 75 miles southwest of the Texas border town of Eagle Pass. "It was a tremendous explosion blowing parts of the mine entrance into the air," said Dr. Emilio Lopez of the Barraterra hospital, who witnessed the blast. "We have no injured. They were either all killed at the entrance or trapped below. The lucky ones had left. They were able to take out a boiler of some of the dead miners because they were on their way up and near the exit." The mining company is one of (See Page Eight)

Such a vote was taken only once, on April 12, 1967, and the proposal lost by almost a 2 to 1 ratio, with slightly more than one fourth of the 648 eligible voters casting ballots.

Police said the fire badly damaged the bedroom of the home and caused lesser damage to the other rooms.

Socks Out for Ken Except as Batter

WINTER HAVEN, Fla.—Socks are out with the American League's Beau Brummel except when he's facing opposing pitchers. Ken Harrelson, who took his first big league job as a coach with the Red Sox, is by far the fashion plate in the junior loop and perhaps in all baseball as well.

With a baseball bat in his hands is the easiest way for the hawk-faced first baseman to make money, and he's been making good money since he got into the Red Sox two years ago.

Without question, he's the most popular player in the Red Sox camp and one of the biggest attractions on the Grapefruit League spring.

Speaking of swinging, Harrelson swings a pretty good bat, one which was him Player of the Year honors as well as the AL's runs batted in title last season.

KEN HARRELSON

"I've received thousands of letters from people and all but a few favor long hair," he added, "I wear my hair in a becoming, popular around Boston. Barbara now give Harrelson a haircut."

For the benefit of the uninformed, the popular Harrelson wears bangs and wears his hair long on the top and down over his ears and neck, like some of the better players in the league. He is becoming popular with the younger generation. "I've gotten a haircut," he said, "I don't wear my hair like I used to, but I like it a little better and I wear it as light as 32 ounces."

"This game," he paused to say, "you must make changes from time to time or you will start to finish. Pitchers today have too many good arms, and I can't use the same bat as I used to. As we were talking, a block in the stands yelled out, 'Hey, Harrelson, why don't you get a haircut!'"

"Look at the guy," a second-looker said, "had an haircut but he wished that he had my hair."

"One of these days I'm going to have a little fun when some boy holds a bat about my hair. I'm going to buy a wig (wig) and take it over and give it to him. I'll bet he'll be surprised!"

"Why do you wear your hair so long?"

"Why do you wear your hair short?" he answered.

"I like my hair this way and you like yours that way."

Rates Second Look

Nehru jackets may be out but the potential home run rate is estimated at $50,000. He helped the Red Sox win the 1967 pennant, made the All-Star team last year, and his $30,000 salary contract torn up and was given a big boost.

Harrelson's new haircut is a second-look. Built at a cost of $1,000, it's a four-wheel, dignified beach-buggy, a striking lavender with the letters Hawk inserted on the hood as well as a decal picture of a Hawk. Harrelson lives in a Brookline apartment, has a golf course and has recently ventured into a five-story haberdashery on the hood as well as a pair of trousers in it. Turtle-necks are in but Nehru jackets are out, except for a few me. Lavender is my favorite. He needs one.

St. Louis Releases Glamor Boy Bo Belinsky Red Sox To Start from Scratch

With the opening of the major league baseball season a week away, the Boston Red Sox are starting from scratch. So is Bo Belinsky.

Manager Dick Williams, complaining his Red Sox were "spoiled" up and not playing baseball," yanked his players from the field Monday during an intrasquad game and let them know who's boss.

"We'll start from scratch," he said after a 45-minute lecture in the clubhouse.

Baltimore, the playboy pitcher who has bounced around four major league clubs, found out the hard way when he was released by the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cards asked waivers on the 25-year-old left-hander and said they'll decide today or Wednesday whether to assign one of five cancellations because of the national day of mourning for the late President Kennedy.

Also canceled were Philadelphia's Mike Cuellar, who was traded to the Mets; Pittsburgh's Steve Largent, who was traded to the Browns; and Oakland's Fred Davis, who was traded to the Yankees.

Belinsky, who was released by the Cardinals, was traded to the Red Sox. He is expected to start from scratch.

'Humble Servant' Hangs Gloves Up Clay Quits Ring, Follows Religion

MIAMI (AP)—Former heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, known as the "humble servant" of his religious leader, says he won't talk any more about a boxing comeback.

Clay, who professed to be a Muslim, was slapped down by Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Nation of Islam, after he said he wanted to fight again to pay some bills.

"I'll be a Muslim until the day I die. I only pray that he will forgive me and let me back."

Clay, who professed to be a Muslim, was slapped down by Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Nation of Islam, after he said he wanted to fight again to pay some bills.

Brock Beats Throw—St. Louis Cardinals' Lou Brock slides successfully into second base ahead of the ball as Phillie's shortstop Bobby Win reaches for the ball, but is too late to make the putout on Brock. The man in blue covering the play is Paul Pryor.

Each spring there are fewer and fewer night games scheduled. One manager, Gene Mauch of the Los Angeles Dodgers, says he will work in the sun to get into shape in cool weather. He will have to work in the sun to get into shape in cool weather. He will have to work in the sun to get into shape in cool weather.

Murcer, Kenney Future New York Stars Yanks Change Style Power Hitters Gone

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Baseball, New York Yankees style, will be just a bit different next year — there'll be fewer home runs and more short-stroking.

The transition from a team of thunder and lightning that relied on the home run as its major weapon likely will become complete with the retirement of slugger Mickey Vernon, who has been hitting home runs with just one legitimate homer since Joe Judge's arrival.

Although Manager Ralph Houk realizes what Mantle's loss could mean to the Yankees after 18 years in the lineup, he does maintain that psychologically it could be an asset rather than a debit.

"Maybe the players will think how much it's up to them now," Houk offered. "Maybe they've relied on Mantle too much. The younger guys now have a greater opportunity to say: 'I'm going to have to do it.' And that's exactly what they'll have to do."

The key here is Houk's three-shortstop lineup, consisting of Tom Tresh, Jerry Kenney and Bobby Murcer. Tresh, who last year made the transition from the outfield to shortstop, is trying now to prove he can handle the job while hitting major league pitching at the same time. Tresh batted only .185 last season.

Numerous Injuries Caused Atlanta Braves' Downfall

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—In some measure, the trouble with the Atlanta Braves last season was the mystery team last season. Their pitching was sixth best in the National League on the important earned-run basis, and in team hitting they were the best. The Braves were a bit of a mystery team last season.

Ask Manager Ralph Houk about centerfielder Jerry Kenney, who was hit by a pitch on a Christmas tree. "He's going to be a great one," Houk insists. "But only because of his makeup."

Day's best cup? "How you feeling, Casey?" a writer asked Kenney. "I'm feeling like a 78-year-old Casey about now. I've got a lot of people my age who are feeling like that."

Yale Recruiting Very Successful

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale University's football coach Carmine Cozza says three fact-finding trips to recruit players for the freshman class which will start in September.

One of the success of Yale football the past two seasons. The second is the high regard in which the Yale football players. Three were chosen in the third round last month ago.

The third reason listed by Cozza is the fact that Yale's coaching staff has been the best sales pitch of all.

Wilt Chamberlain Dominates Lakers' Offensive Attack Los Angeles Breezed by Warriors

WILT IN ACTION—Los Angeles' super star Wilt Chamberlain (13) bats ball away from San Francisco Warriors' Rudy LaRusso (85) in the first half of National Basketball Association playoff action at Oakland last night. The Warriors' efforts, behind Chamberlain's easy defeat of the Lakers 116 to 98.

Bill Russell Praises Team's Effort Celtics Favored Tonight, Barnes Returns to Lineup

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Celtics, who experienced trouble with Philadelphia in the Western Division semifinals, are seeking to wrap up the 116-98 victory in the National Basketball Association Eastern Division semifinals.

The Celtics, whose nine-year NBA championship record was interrupted last year by the 1967-68 season, are strong favorites to complete a sweep of the best-of-seven series in the fourth game at the Garden.

Despite a fourth-place finish in their division, the Celtics are flying high once again, determined to make a deep run in the NBA's 25-year history.

The Celtics, who won their last four scheduled games before taking on Philadelphia, are confident of their chances. "Everyone's doing the job. We're getting a team effort."

However, Russell spoke with guarded optimism. He recalled last spring, when the Celtics trailed Philadelphia 2-1 in the Eastern Division semifinals and then came back to win on route to the NBA championship.

The Celtics rebounded a year ago in the fifth game at Philadelphia after the playoffs. Walker was replaced in the role of center by Elgin Baylor, a swing man normally used in the backcourt, or veteran center Elgin Baylor.

Philadelphia Coach Jack Ramsay took a deep breath and said, "I'm not sure."

He also admitted the 76ers are lucky they're playing in a best-of-seven series.

If a fifth game is necessary, the two teams will play in Philadelphia Friday night.

Machine Unburied Once World's Best

PENDINE, Wis. (AP)—A racing car called Babe, buried 42 years ago after a fatal attempt on the world's fastest record, has been unburied from its grave under a Welsh sand dune.

One of a half ton Babe—owned by the late Sir Malcolm Campbell—crashed at more than 170 miles per hour on Pendine Sands, Carmarthenshire, in 1927.

World champion driver Jeffrey Parry Thomas was trying to set a land-speed record when the car's chain drive broke. In the crash the chain derailed.

Villagers from the nearby village of Pendine buried the car under a sand dune and it became something of a shrine.

This year people were angry when Owen Wynne, a Welsh lecturer, wanted to recover the wreckage and restore it after 42 years.

He was granted the record at 164 m.p.h. on the seven-mile stretch of sands. Two years later, he pushed the speed up to 150 m.p.h.

On Sunday a mechanical digger buried the record in concrete under which Babe was buried for 42 years.

The blue and white car, 30-feet long and with a 400-horsepower aero-engine, was found in the rubble.

Injury Prone Rick Barry Wins ABA Scoring Crown

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Only field goals with a percentage of the field goal and free throw success rate are undecided with four days left of the 1968-69 American Basketball Association season.

League statistics released Monday showed Oakland's Rick Barry, who has missed over half the season, has a 50.9 percent field goal percentage.

San Diego Plans Running Game Against Overpowering Hawks

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Lester, San Diego's rookie guard, "If they run with us, we can beat them."

Coach McKeheon's game plan is to run with the Hawks. He said with frustration, "We're not getting the ball. We're not getting the ball. We're not getting the ball."

Connecticut Dragway Opens Strip Sunday

Frank Maratta will open the curtain on the 1969 racing season with a two-day opening speed show at the Connecticut Dragway in East Haddam on Sunday, April 6.

"It will really be getting off to a flying start," said Maratta, referring to an impressive lineup of cars.

He said the mile-long dragstrip weathered the winter with only minor damage and that crews are at work readying the facility for the next successive year of action.

Maratta said the coming season will be highlighted by three three-day drag shows on the long weekends of Memorial Day, the first of July and Labor Day. There will be shows every afternoon through mid-November and the top names of drag racing will be featured. There will be particular emphasis this year on funny cars, supercars and AA/BB dragsters.

The dragstrip promoter said the "hlers this year will be more spectacular than ever, with 'plenty of smoke' to delight spectators. These powerhouses will be making an excess of 220 miles an hour while standing still at the starting line.

Time trials will start at 12 noon and the main event will get underway at 2 p.m.

Alcindor Turns Down ABA Attractive Offer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Low Alcindor is putting all his chips on the National Basketball Association.

For the first five years of his professional career it could cost him just under $2 million.

The 21-year-old, three-time All-American UCLA center turned down a $1.25-million five-year contract offer from the American Basketball Association to negotiate with the NBA which has offered him just more than a million dollars for a similar period.

"I was delighted to fulfill my moral obligation given in New York to the NBA club," he said, "my only comment Monday of his adviser, Sam Gilbert."

Gilbert, a Los Angeles contractor, said Alcindor would begin private negotiations with the NBA and the Milwaukee Bucks turned down the offer.

Alcindor said the decision to rule out the ABA offer was made Monday after Alcindor received a telegram from ABA Commissioner George Mikan.

The telegram, Gilbert said, was a similar period.

Mikan detailed the ABA plan to buy out the Milwaukee Bucks for $2 million.

Pittsburgh Looks for New Coach

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Penguins, trying to create a winner in the National Hockey League, are searching for a new coach.

Red Sullivan was fired as coach Monday but it wasn't a surprise—ever. "It didn't come as a shock," said Pittsburgh's general manager, "Everywhere I went for the last year, it was rumored in the newspapers."

Last year, in their first season in the NHL, the Penguins finished sixth out of first place, but still missed a playoff spot.

This season they barely made fifth place and wound up with a 20-45-11 record. They're the only expansion team that never made the playoffs.

Attendance dipped this season more than 50,000 and a club spokesman said the Penguins lost $400,000 this year. Last year they lost $250,000.

The Penguins offered the fiery Sullivan a job as head coach, but he said he wants a few days to think it out.
