Earnings in May Increased Despite Living Cost Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The purchasing power of some 45 million bank and file workers rose in May despite the year's biggest jump in living costs, the government reported today. The report, from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said that the average worker's pay check rose $14.46 per week last month, up $106 or six percent from a year ago. "After adjustment for price increases, gross weekly earnings were six-tenths of one percent (67 cents) above the April level and 1.5 percent above May, 1970," the report said. It also said it was the fifth straight month that workers' purchasing power was higher than year ago levels, although the May figure was still nearly two percent under the record high of September 1968. The report said the rise in earnings in May was due to an increase of two cents an hour in average earnings and a slight increase in the length of the average work week. The government reported Monday that living costs rose five-tenths of one percent in May, largest increase since an equal jump last December, and were 4.4 percent above a year earlier. Earlier today, AFL-CIO President George Meany said that living costs and unemployment are still rising despite "bluebird" predictions of the Nixon administration that the economy is recovering. "The Nixon administration must respond and do something," he said. (See Page Eight)

Colonel Testifies In Medina Case

FT. McPHERSON, Ga. (AP)—A judge advised today that the Army decided not to have Capt. Ernest Medina testify in an earlier My Lai trial so that it could prosecute the captain. "I don't believe there was any intentional discussion at this point," Col. William Bradford Huie testified at a pretrial hearing for Medina, charged with murdering 22 villagers at My Lai, a village in South Vietnam, in the case of Sgt. Charles Hutto in order to strengthen the prosecution of Medina. Huie, acquitted of a charge of assault with intent to murder six My Lai villagers, said that Medina ordered him to kill. Medina's defense attorney said that the captain was never permitted to refute this testimony. The attorney, F. Lee Bailey, said that the Army deliberately diluted the case against Huie in order to strengthen the prosecution of Medina. (See Page Eight)

Senate Set For Vote On Pullout Date

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon is insistent on continuing the draft, Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, charged today. "He wants to keep open the option of moving to the defense of South Vietnam, Cambodia or Laos if it should appear any of these governments might collapse in 1972," Gravel said. Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., predicted that because of the filibuster they are leading against the military commander today, it includes a draft law from being renewed at midnight June 30. Gravel and Cranston held a news conference as the Senate moved toward another vote. The closest yet of a compromise amendment to set a date for a pullout from Indochina. The bipartisan proposal would require that all U.S. forces be removed from Indochina nine months after enactment, provided agreement is reached in 60 days. Gravel and Cranston present. Meskill Says: State May Have to Forfeit Nearly $1 Million in Grants

HARTFORD (AP)—The state may have to give up nearly $1 million in federal anti-poverty grants if there is no balanced budget enacted by July 1, Gov. Thomas J. Meskill said today. The Republican governor had warned Monday night that failure to reach agreement on a budget and tax program before the beginning of the new fiscal year would also mean curbing thousands of state employees and cutting the work weeks and paychecks of others. Meskill's contention is that he will not allow the state government to keep on depending its other countries. (See Page Eight)

U.S. Army Colonel Quits; Blasts Vietnamization Plan

By RICHARD PYLE and RICK McPHERSON Associated Press Writers SAIGON (AP)—A much-decorated U.S. Army colonel, quitting in disgust, has blasted the nation's Vietnamization plan and the Americans trained it and the Vietnamization program. "If we were going to get involved, and I think we never should have," said Col. David H. Hackworth, "we should have come over and organized the South Vietnamese army into a guerrilla posture, instead of as a direct reflection of the U.S. Army with its divisions and all that junk..." Hackworth, who was wounded four times in Korea and four more times in 6 1/2 years in Vietnam, said in a wide-ranging interview he found a great difference between the Saigon government's troops and their Vietnamese advisers. The North Vietnamese or Viet Cong soldiers are "properly prepared for war," said Hackworth. "Most of their training is on political indoctrination, which results in a highly motivated soldier who really believes in what he's doing." By comparison, he continued, "these jokers in the South Vietnamese army are motivated by a new Honda, a Rolex watch, a refrigerator, a car, or how many puppies you can get them from the PX. That's it—not, 'we're going to win this thing because it's important.'" Hackworth called Vietnamization, the Nixon administration's plan of turning the fighting over to the South Vietnamese so U.S. combat troops can pull out, "a public relations man's dream." "I just don't see the prospect of the everyday wise man," he said. "Maybe I am just too close to the trees and can't see the forest. I think it's a two-day black boycott of white businesses was urged at a rally sponsored by the Afro-American Police League. The league denounced the slaying of a 20-year-old black youth Monday. Police said the slaying had nothing to do with the war of violence, however. The league also said it would not stand by and let the killing of Willie Osborne go unpunished. Osborne was shot by police. Authorities said he ran from them during a high-speed chase. Police said they sought to question him in the holdup of a grocery store. Civil rights leader Hosea Williams, who urged Columbus black leaders to adhere to the plea of nonviolence, called the slaying of Osborne a tragedy." (See Page Eight)

U.S. Officer Sought Power To Use Nuclear Arms in Viet

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Globe printed today what it said were excerpts from a Pentagon study on the Vietnam war, it includes a report on a high-level meeting at which a top U.S. officer demanded that commanders be given the freedom to use tactical nuclear weapons in Vietnam. The report, taken from the 47-volume Pentagon study of the war, said that at a meeting of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Honolulu in June 1964 Adm. Harry D. Felt, then commander of the Pacific forces, demanded the option to use nuclear weapons "as had been assumed under various plans." There was no mention of the various plans. The Globe is the third U.S. newspaper to publish excerpts from the massive Pentagon study detailing American involvement in Vietnam. The New York Times and The Washington Post published excerpts last week, but the Justice Department was a temporary restraining order against the newspapers on the grounds that publishing the classified report was a national security risk. In an editorial today the Globe hinted at more documents to come, saying the newspaper "has come into possession of many of the classified Pentagon papers, some already published and some not. It has decided to begin publishing them today as a public service in support of the people's right to know." Also present at the JCS Honolulu meeting were Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara; Secretary of State Dean Rusk; Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge; Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs, and John McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency. The discussion about the use of nuclear weapons in Vietnam arose, the Globe said, on the question of whether the Chinese Communist forces would enter the war. "Secretary McNamara went on to say that the possibility of major ground action also led to a serious question of having to use nuclear weapons at some point," the Globe quoted the report. "Admiral Felt responded emphatically that there was no possible way to hold off the Communists on the ground without the use of tactical nuclear weapons and that it was essential that the commanders be given the freedom to use them as had been assumed under various plans," the report said. Emergency Declared In Georgia City

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—A state of emergency was declared by Mayor J. R. Allen today, as approximately 10 state troopers moved into the city to bolster local police after three days of fire bombings and other violence. Allen, authorized to institute emergency measures by the City Council on Monday, ordered all bars, liquor stores and stores selling guns and ammunition closed. The City Council called another special session today. Meanwhile, a two-day black boycott of white businesses was urged at a rally sponsored by the Afro-American Police League. The league denounced the slaying of a 20-year-old black youth Monday. Police said the slaying had nothing to do with the war of violence, however. The league also said it would not stand by and let the killing of Willie Osborne go unpunished. Osborne was shot by police. Authorities said he ran from them during a high-speed chase. Attorney General Will Seek Ban On Globe Series

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said today he will seek a court order to halt the Boston Globe from publishing more secret Pentagon papers. Meanwhile, Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird directed the Pentagon to declassify as much of the contents of the papers as it feels is possible. Federal appellate courts in Washington and New York are considering whether to continue orders that have halted publication of the documents in the New York Times and Washington Post. In Boston, the Globe rejected a government request to stop the printing voluntarily. The Globe said "total federal pressure" had been applied to stop its series which began today. Editor Thomas Winship said Mitchell had requested a telephone call that publication of the articles cease. "He asked if we intended to go ahead," Winship said, "I told him that we did." Winship said Mitchell "said most respectfully that they would bring injunctive proceedings against the Globe." Laird said in Washington he had directed Pentagon censors to declassify as much of the report as possible where security permits and estimated it would take 90 days. The Justice Department appealed both decisions to appeals courts, which continued temporary restraining orders pending hearings by full appellate panels. The Baltimore Sun reported. (See Page Eight)

Nixon Seeks AMA Support For Program

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—President Nixon today solicited support for his health insurance plan by suggesting on Monday, D-Calif., chief architect of the program, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy would cost $7 billion a year 36 months hence. Nixon, in an address prepared for the annual AMA convention here, never mentioned the name of the Massachusetts Democrat. However, there was no doubt that Kennedy's insurance proposal was his target. The President actually had little to say about his own recommendation that employers and employees share health insurance costs while federal money would foot the bill for low-income families. The AMA, which represents about half the nation's physicians, is cool toward the plan. The papers cover features of former President John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson. Kennedy's reservations came, McCloskey said, when the State Department was arguing that the United States could not save South Vietnam with Diem in power and the Pentagon arguing Diem was needed to rally South Vietnam. "Kennedy said if we can't win with Diem and we can't win without him then why don't we disengage," McCloskey said. (See Page Two)

RFK Advised U.S. Pullout: McCloskey

By JIM ADAMS Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Paul McCloskey Jr. says a secret report says Robert F. RFK Advised U.S. Pullout: McCloskey

The papers leave no question, McCloskey said, that U.S. officials in Saigon were working with coup leaders.

"These generals (South Vietnamese coup leaders) were asking for our commitment," McCloskey said.

The congressman said last week Professor Daniel Ellsberg, a Massachusetts Institute of Technology researcher who worked on the Pentagon study, had given him some papers.

But he said Monday he would take precautions not to identify the source in trying to make public the papers in which Kennedy was mentioned. It is not sure what his papers are. He said they are not the New York Times and the Washington Post start of the Vietnam War, but related to the Pentagon study.

McCloskey said he notified Ellsberg Monday he plans to try to put his papers on record.

He said he will try to avoid identifying Ellsberg, but he said he had seen nothing in his papers that would appear to do so.

"These papers disclose such a deliberate pattern of deception that it seems almost to me that it would be almost to release them."

MOST PLAYERS VOTE FOR ACE OF TRUMPS

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

If you took a poll among your bridge playing friends you would probably learn that most of them would rather have the ace of trumps than a punch in the nose. Still, it isn't enough to have the ace of trumps; you must know what to do with it. It's alarmingly easy to fail this test.

South dealer. North-South vulnerable. Opening lead — Two of Spades.

East was the man unlucky enough to have the ace of trumps, but let's look at the hand first from the point of view of the declarer. We were sure to lose the ace of diamonds and might also lose two club tricks. (In fact, East's bid made it seem rather likely that the ace of clubs was in unfavorable position.)

It would be pleasant, but dull, to report that South gave up like a gentleman. South actually led a heart to dummy's ace (after winning the first trick with the ace) and returned a low trump from dummy's position.

It's all right to turn your attention now to East. If he stepped up with the king of diamonds he might find his partner's singleton king on the trick. Few defenders enjoy this kind of experience.

South made his routine play, even as you and I. He played a low trump. East patted himself on the back for his play on the fact that he played the king of diamonds, cashed the queen of spades, and then led a heart to dummy's king. When the jack fell, declarer continued with a low heart from dummy.

East discarded a spade, and South won with the queen of hearts. The situation was now clear, so South led the queen of diamonds to force out the ace. And there it was — a trick, and if East returned a spade, dummy would win with the king.

Do you still want to vote the same way on that point?

Parents Protest Wapping School Phaseout

A second day of picketing was staged today by mothers and children protesting the proposed phaseout of Wapping Elementary School.

Petitions in opposition to the plan are also being circulated by various individuals in town.

The plan, which was put forward by the School Facilities Study Committee, calls for the closing of high school students in the building during the three-year phaseout, thus mitigating the older students with elementary school children. The aim of the plan is to ease overcrowding in the high school.

The report was some nine months in the making and has been in the hands of the board for a number of weeks. It was made public at the June 16 meeting of the Board of Education by Study Committee spokesman Alan Cadmy.

Another member of the committee, William Scott, told the board that the school plan was not the favored one, he felt it deserved consideration.

He proposed that a 6-3 plan be utilized, leaving the ninth grade out of the high school and put the students into the Timothy Edwards school.

Meeting Called On Silt Problem

A meeting was scheduled this afternoon between town officials and representatives of Manchester Sand and Gravel Co. to discuss the silting in the Hookama River due to cleanup operations at Union Pond.

M&G uses water from the Hookama River for washing operations. William O'Neill, director of public works, today he hopes that this afternoon's meeting would be directed toward finding an alternate water supply for the company until the situation clears up.

The entire pond has been drained except for the river, which runs through the pond and then through a culvert in the dam. Along the river is a large area several feet deep of silt.

O'Neill said the problem was unexpected. The pond was drained for dredging operations at the southern tip and for the repair of the dam. The silting which was noticed when this was originally expected to clear up in about a week. Now it is expected that the town may last several weeks.

Town Manager Robert Weiss said today that the town may be notified of imminent legal action by M&G.

A 6 1/2% SALES TAX ON INSURANCE PREMIUMS WOULD HIT YOUR HOME, YOUR CAR, YOUR JOB, YOUR FUTURE

Governor Meskill's proposal to levy a 6 1/2% sales tax on property and casualty insurance premiums would place an unfair burden on every family and every business in Connecticut. It would tax:

- Your fire insurance.
Your homeowners' insurance.
Your auto insurance.
Workmen's compensation insurance.
Automobile fleet insurance.
General liability insurance.

A BACKWARD STEP

A family paying $150 a year for homeowners' insurance would have to pay an extra $9.75 in tax.

A one-car family paying $400 a year for auto insurance would have to pay an extra $26 in tax.

A two-car, two-teenager family paying $850 a year for auto insurance and $150 for homeowners' insurance would have to pay an extra $65 in tax.

Connecticut business and industry would face a new tax of up to $20 million.

This is a tax on necessities of modern-day Connecticut life.

It would hurt people who can least afford to pay it.

It would hurt our state's economy, already hard pressed by inflation and a recession.

A DISASTER FOR THE INDUSTRY

The Connecticut insurance industry accounts for 10% of the work force in the state. These jobs would be jeopardized as policyholders seek to evade the tax by buying insurance out of state, car owners go uninsured and large employers shift to self-insurance.

Four State Men Believed Lost In Plane Crash

FISHERS ISLAND, N. Y. (AP)—The Coast Guard, severely hampered by thick fog, probed a small area of Block Island Sound this morning for a plane that was thought to have crashed the night before with four middle-aged Connecticut men aboard.

Two cutters were sent from New London, Conn., and a utility boat was sent out from Fishers Island. The last plane to have left took off at 8:15 p.m. for an air taxi flight to Groton. Fog was already beginning to come in, Grebe said. Grebe made his comments in an interview with radio station WERI of nearby Westerly, R.I. Witnesses reported hearing the plane crash into the water.

Car Crash Kills Three From State

MANCHESTER (AP)—Three youths who reportedly had left their graduation party to pick up more food were fatally injured early Wednesday morning when their car crashed into two trees. A fourth occupant of the car was injured and was reported in a nearby hospital in Willimantic. The car, hit the trees along Route 105 "with such force that the car disintegrated into several pieces," said Sgt. Stanley Nasiatka.

The state police sergeant said all four of the teenagers had graduated Tuesday night from Windham Vocational-Technical school in Willimantic. "They apparently were celebrating their graduation" with several other classmates at a party in a "field near a cemetery," Nasiatka said. The crash occurred about a mile from the party site after the four youths had left for food.

Life Term Drawn By George Sams

NEW HAVEN (AP)—George Sams Jr., the key witness in Connecticut's unsuccessful kidnapping-murder case against Black Panther Chairman Bobby G. Seale, was sentenced today to life in prison.

Sams, Dec. 1, 1969, had pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in the slaying of Alton Reekley, a New York Black Panther whose death Sams said Seale and a confederate, Mrs. Erluka Huggins, were cleared of capital charges last month when a six-month trial ended in a hung jury and Superior Court Judge Harold M. Murray dismissed the charges the next day.

Conviction of second degree murder carries a mandatory life sentence in Connecticut. "It's a sad thing, but I must sentence you to state prison for the rest of your life," Judge Murray told Sams, 25. Another Panther who pleaded guilty to second degree murder in the case, Warren Kimbro, was to be sentenced later this afternoon.

Both Kimbro and Sams turned state's evidence after they changed their pleas to guilty. Seale pleaded innocent of all charges.

Meskill Meets With Democrats On Tax Package

HARTFORD (AP)—Democratic legislative leaders met briefly with Gov. Thomas J. Meskill just before noon today and, at the governor's request, agreed to recheck their estimates of how much money the Democratic tax package would bring in.

Although he had invited only the top Democratic leaders—Senate President Pro Tem Charles T. Alfano and House Speaker William Ratchford—Meskill indicated that others would be invited back to the bargaining table at the next session.
