

Priscilla Doyle—Miss Connecticut

Judges Find Our Priscilla Loveliest Gal in the State

Priscilla Anne Doyle wore the crown of Miss Manchester for only three months and three weeks before she turned it in for a new one Saturday night. But she and the people she represented are probably just as proud and excited that she wears the Miss Connecticut crown instead.

Relaxing for a moment at home today — rehearsals for the Sept. 11 Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N. J. begin tomorrow — the 23-year-old Miss Doyle recalled the drama of the three-day competition and her first official appearances.

"It was tiring, but I'm awake now," she said this morning, noting that the phone has been ringing constantly, and she has been catching brief naps between calls.

Nervousness was a factor only Friday afternoon, the new Miss Connecticut said, and at that time she was afraid she'd never make it to the finals.

The rehearsal for her talent presentation, a flamenco dance, was scheduled for noon and her personal judges' interview for 3:00. Because rehearsals were running late, it was 3:00 by the time she returned to her room at the Birchwood School to change, only to discover she was locked out.

Collected Clothes
With the help of some of the 17 contestants rooming near her, she collected some clothes to wear but still it was necessary to send a note to the judges saying she would be late.

"I was afraid to think what they were thinking about me," she said, laughing.

But the 9:30 Miss Manchester maintained model's poise, and won first the preliminary swimsuit competition Friday night and received the state crown around midnight Saturday from Miss Connecticut 1970, Cynthia Ann Fowler of Cheshire.

The new title holder, a brown-eyed brunette was a lovely contrast to her blonde blue-eyed predecessor. For her victory walk, she wore a stunning off-white empire macramé knit gown, accented at the waistline and cuffs with gold jewel trim.

"I don't know exactly what the wardrobe plans are for Atlantic City," Miss Doyle said, "but I'm taking my gown along for luck."

The pageant prizes, including two trophies and more than $3,000 in scholarships for Miss Connecticut, were awarded at a special breakfast Sunday morning in Southington.

Also involved in the ceremony were officials of the Miss Connecticut Scholarship Foundation, including Richard Landino, executive director and Miss Doyle's new business manager; Robert H. Carr and Mrs. Honora Bucowski Kenney, Miss Connecticut 1964, producer and associate producer, respectively, of the state pageant.

Miss Doyle received numerous other gifts including a Norwegian fox fur from Connecticut Furriers; a sewing machine from Carol Ann Croteau Gellish, Miss Connecticut 1968; oil products for a year for her 1971 Chevrolet convertible; wardrobe and jewelry items; official swimsuits from the Robby Len/Lee Beachwear Co., and four separate scholarships.

Four Runners-Up
Besides Miss Connecticut, four runners-up and a Miss Congeniality were named. The latter

Strikes Easing—A Little

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Contract talks involving 650,000 union postal workers continued today past the Sunday midnight deadline set for summing arbitrators, but no progress was reported in strikes against the Bell Telephone System, two railroads and West Coast shipping firms.

A tentative contract agreement with seven striking unions was reached Sunday by a major copper producer.

Charles Caldwell, a Labor Department spokesman, said bargainers for the new U.S. Postal Service and several AFL-CIO unions were making "some progress" in round-the-clock talks in Washington. Cautious optimism was the expression used by a union leader.

The Postal Service and unions earlier set Sunday midnight as the deadline for calling in arbitrators, but the deadline was ignored as talks continued through the morning with only a one-hour break.

The tentative copper contract was reported by the Magma Copper Co., largest independent among a number of struck producers.

Announcement Sunday of the proposed three-year Magma contract was the first breakthrough in the 18-day nationwide copper strike that has shut down mines and smelters throughout the West and idled some 35,000 workers.

It calls for an average hourly wage increase of 92 cents, a 50 per cent increase in the pension program and an unlimited cost of living escalator clause. The latter had been a major issue in the bargaining.

Current averages wages range from $3.91 to $4.33 an hour. The Magma contract would affect about 3,000 workers.

A spokesman for the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America, largest of the seven unions, said talks would be held this week with Anaconda and Kennecott, the largest producers.

Magma is considered an independent firm because it has mines only in Arizona. The four largest producers have mines and operations in several states.

Aloha

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When two wailing fire trucks stopped in front of his house at 5 a.m., James Jimenez explained that he had a permit for the 20-foot-high fire in his backyard.

It was to heat the Hawaiian lava rocks.

And yes, his neighbor had given permission to cut all the leaves for her banana trees.

"They were to wrap the pig in."

Neighbors who had called the fire department found out later Sunday that Jimenez was only cooking. A Filipino and chairman of the Polynesian-American Unity day luncheon, he was roasting a 220-pound pig with 150 pounds of yams and pork chunks in a 3-by-6-foot hole.

Dinner for 400 was ready after 8½ hours on the rocks.

Diplomats Lined Up For Rogers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign envoys queued up to see Secretary of State William P. Rogers today for clues to how President Nixon's Peking trip may affect their countries.

Most concerned were Asian ambassadors from nations whose defenses are linked to the United States.

"Just what is the meaning of 'old friend'?" asked one Asian diplomat privately as he waited his turn on Rogers' overflowing appointments schedule.

Nixon used the term in his brief trip announcement Thursday, trying especially to reassure America's allies on the Communist mainland rim from South Korea to Thailand.

"Our action in seeking a new relationship with the People's Republic of China will not be at the expense of our old friends," Nixon said.

But the Asian allies want to know more as they assess how heavily they want to lean in the future on Washington commitments stemming from cold-war days when Peking was rated here as a militant threat to its non-Communist neighbors.

Nixon's journey is widely seen

SNET Talks Last Into Morning

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Negotiations between the Southern New England Telephone Co. (SNET) and the striking Connecticut Union of Telephone Workers (CUTW) resumed Sunday and continued early today with several major issues still in dispute.

Meanwhile, the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. (AT&T) reported progress in negotiations with the Communication Workers of America (CWA).

The telephone strike, which began last Wednesday has idled 1,200 CUTW members in Connecticut and 500,000 CWA members across the nation. AT&T and the CWA set the pattern for negotiations on wage increases at the local level.

The latest discussions between SNET and the CUTW, held at the New Haven Motor Inn, are centered on local issues which differ widely from the national pattern.

"Several major areas are still in dispute," a union spokesman reported at 10 p.m. Sunday. "The CUTW strike is still continuing." The spokesman declined to mention the issues in dispute.

Sunday's meeting was the first since the company and the union conferred for less than 90 minutes last Tuesday night in a

Agnew Out On News Of Peking Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon gave Vice President Spiro T. Agnew no advance word of his plan to visit Communist China, says an informed White House source.

Agnew, according to the informant, was excluded from all advance planning and knew nothing of Nixon's dramatic move until Thursday night when the President publicly announced his intentions.

This may account for Agnew's refusal to comment when first contacted by newsmen about the announcement. The vice president was in Africa at the time on one of the final legs of a month-long around-the-world trip which took him away from the councils of government during final negotiations on an agreement for Nixon to visit Peking.

Agnew is known to have displeased the White House earlier this year when he described the visit of an American table-tennis team to Peking as a disaster for the United States and a propaganda victory for Red China.

Nixon set up separate meetings today with bipartisan leaders of Congress and Cabinet members to report on his diplomatic approaches to mainland China.

Iron Workers Agree to Pact

PROVIDENCE (AP) — A week long strike by some 400 iron workers in Rhode Island, southeastern Massachusetts and Eastern Connecticut ended Sunday night as union members voted to accept a one-year contract with a 45-cent an hour wage increase and 90 cents an hour in fringe benefits.

Martin T. Byrne, president of Local 370 of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers, said the union members approved the contract by a vote of 177 to 3 at the local headquarters in East Providence.

Meskill Calls GOP To Dinner 'Caucus'

By SOL R. COHEN
Herald Reporter

Although it is not being billed as a Republican Caucus, the 6:30 dinner tonight at the governor's mansion for the 78 Republicans in the House and the 17 in the Senate has all the earmarks of one.

Gov. Thomas Meskill, over the weekend, invited the GOP lawmakers to what he called "a discussion of the developments over the state income tax issue."

The rank and file will be briefed on what comes out of a meeting this afternoon between the governor and legislative leaders of both parties.

The afternoon meeting is to determine whether the Connecticut General Assembly will be reconvened—

Both were on vacation last week and haven't had a chance to study the alternate proposals.

"Sit and Listen"

Genovec, who had voted for the income tax proposal, remarked, "I will sit and listen if a fairer and more equitable program than previously offered is proposed, then I may be in favor of it. However, I find it very difficult to support the 7.5 per cent, or even the 7 per cent, sales tax proposal. I am not opposed to a recall session. I'm just not sure it can accomplish anything."

Odegaard, who had voted against the income tax proposal, said he favors the recall session. "I am for repealing or amending the state income tax," he said. "I am leaning toward repeal, but first, I would week and — both said they

State Reps. Francis Mahoney and N. Charles Boggini, Manchester's other two legislators and both Democrats, could not be reached for comment today.

HARTFORD (AP) — Gov. Thomas J. Meskill predicted Monday that the General Assembly would approve his 7½ per cent sales tax as an alternative to the recently enacted income tax if there is "no arm twisting."

At his morning news conference the governor said he is convinced that the public supports his sales tax.

"They have never favored an income tax," he said. "They don't favor it now."

Cease-Fire Bid For Viet Voting

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government today renewed its proposal for a cease-fire and the reunification elections with North Vietnam that President Ngo Dinh Diem refused to hold 18 years ago.

Although both the government and a U.S. Embassy spokesman said it was a reaffirmation of proposals made in 1969 and July 8, by South Vietnam, the renewal of the bid took on new significance in light of other moves aimed at a peaceful settlement.

These include a new seven-point peace package put forth by the Viet Cong at the Paris peace talks July 1 and President Nixon's forthcoming visit to mainland China to confer with Red Chinese leaders.

At the daily briefing for news correspondents, U.S. Embassy spokesman Roy W. Johnson was asked if the United States saw anything new in the South Vietnamese proposal.

"So far, we haven't found anything new in it," Johnson replied. "It is a reaffirmation of a statement made in 1969. It is also a reaffirmation of two points of the five-point proposal made July 8 in Paris. We see nothing new in it."

There was no immediate comment from the State Department in Washington. However, sources familiar with the peace negotiations said they expect North Vietnamese and Viet congress envoys to rebut the Saigon proposal.

The latest South Vietnamese statement was made in a communiqué issued by the Foreign Ministry to mark the 17th anniversary of the 1954 Geneva agreements that ended the French war in Indochina, divided Vietnam at the 17th Parallel and provided for reunification elections. The South Vietnamese government refused to sign the agreements but observes the anniversary as National Grief Day.

The communiqué today called for "reunification of the two zones by means of general elections in both North and South Vietnam under international supervision."

"While waiting for reunification," the communiqué said, "the two sides can meet to explore the development of relations between the two zones."

"Pending the reunification of the country, which would take some time to materialize, at least the two zones should be able to coexist peacefully to promote welfare and happiness for all the people."

The South Vietnamese government "solemnly requests the North Vietnamese authorities to end their negative attitude and start immediately serious negotiations without any precondition."

Weekend Mishaps Claim 6

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Six persons died in accidents in Connecticut during the weekend, four in traffic mishaps, one who drowned and another who was hit by a tree that had just been hit by lightning. In addition, a 58-year-old woman died Saturday of burns she received in a fire Friday.

A 52-year-old New York City man who maintains a summer home in Danbury was killed Sunday when his car veered off Route 1 in Wilton and crashed into a tree. He was identified as Joseph Sevencant.

A 27-year-old Englewood, Calif., man, Carl E. Sealey, was killed Sunday when the motorcycle he was riding struck the median divider on Rte. 2 in Waterford, authorities said.

Margaret Kimball, 13 of Bridgeport, drowned Sunday afternoon while swimming in Lake Waramaug at Warren.

In Washington, Conn., a 27-year-old Waterbury woman, Mrs. Kathleen J. Lee, was killed when the tree fell on her. State police said she was picnicking at Steep Rock Park with her husband and another couple when the accident occurred.

In North Stonington, Ronald G. Shaver, 36, of Westerly, R.I., was killed in a two-car wreck Friday night on Rte. 2. The driver of the second car, Peter Zarkowski of North Stonington, was charged with misconduct with a motor vehicle, police said.

Kenneth Goshea, 32, of Cheshire was killed early Saturday when his car ran off the road and struck a tree, police said.

The fire victim, Helen Schmidt of Branford, died at Yale-New Haven Hospital. Her husband John was in fair condition. The couple was pulled from their burning second-floor apartment by firemen.

Guerrillas Controlled, Jordanian Contends

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Prime Minister Wasfi Tell of Jordan declared today the Palestinian guerrilla movement is now completely under government control and any of its leaders caught in Jordan will be placed on trial.

He told a news conference in Amman that 2,300 guerrillas captured during last week's fighting were now held in a camp "in a rear area." They apparently were taken there from the Jordan Valley, where they had taken refuge from King Hussein's troops.

Investigation teams were interrogating the guerrillas, looking for about 320 men accused of cooperating with Israel, Tell said.

Another 500 were wanted for criminal offenses, he added, and about 450 had been arrested for activities against the security of the state.

"Decent commandos will be taken back to bases to be decided upon later, where they can undertake genuine liberation activities," Tell said.

Earlier Iraqi broke relations with Jordan as the Jordan army mopped up the guerrillas. Jordan, however, did not regard Baghdad's decision as a diplomatic break.

"Our brothers in Iraq were wrong in their decision, possibly due to the fact that they were misled," an official spokesman said today in Amman, capital of Jordan.

"We hope they will reconsider their decision which does not unify the Arabs in the battle against Israel."

Officials in Amman professed to be unworried by other Arab reaction. But Sudan denounced Jordan's campaign against the guerrillas. A Cairo newspaper accused Hussein of being "an obedient tool" for Israel.

Both Iraq and Sudan appealed to other Arab nations to isolate Jordan. But there was no official statement from Egypt, where President Anwar Sadat has been trying to mediate the Jordanian conflict and avoid

East Hartford Fire Origin Said Suspicious

Firemen battle a general alarm fire that destroyed part of a building and some of its contents at the Davis and Bradford Lumber Co., 200 Tolland St., East Hartford last night. The first alarm sounded at 8:15; and the fire, contained to a building near the railroad tracks, was brought under control three hours later, fire officials said.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE

Although there is a work stoppage, we are doing everything possible to provide uninterrupted service. Because of the greatly reduced work force, there may be serious delays on operator-handled calls. Here are some suggestions to help you get the best possible service:

- Dial your own long-distance calls if possible. Don't make calls requiring operator assistance.
• Please look in your telephone directory for local numbers. Don't call Directory Assistance (411).
• Please call our repair service and business office only in emergencies, since telephone installation and repair work will be greatly curtailed.
• Keep your fire, police and other emergency numbers readily available.

We regret this temporary inconvenience to our customers, and are doing everything we can to serve you as well as possible.

Some of us are willing to be part of a system which takes another human being's life; some of us are no longer willing to accept that responsibility.
 Obviously, there is no easy bridge between these two groups of belief and feeling. There is no compromise, for instance, about capital punishment. But in the general conduct of our system of criminal justice there may, and should be, in our opinion, some statement of a middle ground, between the views of the Warren Court and those of the Burger Court, in which we keep justice workable, but do not quite concede that law has no flexibility in the synonym or guarantee for justice.

When "Secret" Is "Secret"
 Quite obviously, if we are going to understand one another in our discussion of what is going on in the world, we need to have a re-definition of the connotations of the word "secret."
 It is being used in a careless, expansive way which denies it its own proper meaning.
 We read, for instance, that a certain American diplomat has just completed an "11-day secret mission to Cairo." How could it be a secret mission when the fact that it was taking place was openly admitted?
 And we read, the other day, of one more "secret" operation in the "secret" war. The C.I.A. has been "secretly" managing, to these many years, in Laos. What's secret about that?
 Or take "secret" papers or documents. So far as we can discover, they have become any and all documents that are published. Who's interested, if they are not secret?
 All this is a downgrading of the word "secret."

Fortunately, we have had a sample of what really "secret" means. Really secret is like Dr. Kissinger being in Peking while everybody thought he was in Pakistan.
 And keeping that secret a secret was, as we all may have realized later, when we examined our own reactions, much more dramatic in itself than the nature of the news which issued from it. To have a President going to Peking, in future pomp and ceremony, is much less of a coup than the feat of getting Dr. Kissinger in and out of Peking without having anybody tell the world about it before the President himself did.
 That, as even those who object to any kind of governmental secrecy at all were grudgingly forced to admit, was at least a real "secret."

Schools Of Justice
 We are all, in various and varying mixtures, the product of our own chromosomes in our own particular experience in our own particular environment.
 Attorney General John. Mitchell, by such development processes, has become the kind of man who can go over to the American Bar Association Convention in London and declare the following:
 "We face in the United States a situation where the discovery of guilt or innocence is in danger of drowning in a sea of legalisms."
 We can feel, in such a statement, the resentment of the rulings of the old Warren Supreme Court which went out of their way to see that the law itself was a stickler for the finest points of the law in dealing with alleged criminals.
 We can feel, from the words as from the man, the assurance of self-righteousness which enables this particular man to feel that to have the right man following the right main line of judicial policy must always constitute, in spite of some potential margin of very occasional error, the only sound and workable ideal for a system of justice.
 As we can read and feel the particular individual who is John Mitchell explaining this, we realize that, a few decades ago in American life, there would have been no possibility of a "Warren Court." There was, instead, almost universal acceptance of the point of view and the philosophy Attorney General Mitchell expresses. It was, not many years ago, the safe, formidable, deeply entrenched normal way of thought. Most American citizens, lawyers or not, were willing to make themselves part of the self-righteous process in which the good and proper people sat easily in judgment on the cases of those inferior specimens of humanity who were probably guilty of the crime of rape, or otherwise why would they be in court?
 What has happened in the interim is that, somehow, inexplicably, some new combinations of chromosomes and experience and environment have been creating some strange new breeds of Americans, some of whom even got themselves appointed to the Supreme Court where they held for a time, a majority.
 These are soft, self-questioning, code-questioning, tradition-questioning, Americans who are no longer quite so sure of their own capacity to sit in judgment on their own human beings, and who have allowed themselves to be convinced, to what some people think an excessive degree, with the possibility of stray error and injustice in the operation of the traditional system of justice.
 These softer, more irresolute Americans are likely to think that many of the "legalisms" which Attorney General Mitchell complains about are long overdue protections for people who had hitherto been consigned to a second class citizen kind of treatment in the system of justice. They are even willing to avoid such miscegenation of justice for some insignificant, unfortunate, to impose heavy additional difficulties for the process of obtaining convictions of a dozen other characters who are surely guilty of some crime.
 Probably the easiest touchstone to use for the separation of the self-righteous tough Americans from the soft, irresolute conscience-worrying Americans is the issue of capital punishment.

Inside Report
 The White House And CBS

By Rowland Evans Jr. and Robert D. Novak
 WASHINGTON — The abrupt switch by Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan, the House Republican leader, that doomed the contempt of Congress citation against the Columbia Broadcasting System was dictated by the White House.
 Senior Presidential aides felt it would be most unwise to prosecute CBS and its president, Dr. Frank Stanton, for refusing to give the House Commerce Committee unedited film shot for the documentary, "The Selling of the Pentagon." Consequently, they convinced Ford he should oppose the citation, including some who had earlier endorsed that switch, combined with equally unexpected opposition from House Democratic leaders, killed the contempt citation which had been considered a certainty.
 Stemming from this is deep bitterness among rank-and-file Democrats of both parties who feel their leaders needlessly humiliated the contempt citation. Whether this becomes a vendetta between the House Commerce Committee and CBS remains to be seen. Ford's switch may have made the difference. All but one of his fellow Michigan Republicans voted against the citation, including some who had been most vocal in the cloakroom in voting against CBS.
 A footnote: Despite the defeat of the contempt citation, anti-CBS feeling is running high in Congress — particularly after what was regarded as an arrogant victory statement by the network. Whether this becomes a vendetta between the House Commerce Committee and CBS remains to be seen.

Erickson's Statement
 To the Editor:
 I am deeply disturbed by the article appearing in the July 12 Herald entitled, "Tolard Village — a CUD Type Development," as it is a gross misrepresentation of the CUD concept as adopted by our local Planning Board. Hopefully, the general public, and more importantly, the Planning and Zoning Commission are aware of the vast difference between the two. However, I am sure very few people are aware of the fact that to date, opponents of the CUD have been unable to have their "Letters to the Editor" published, on the gase that your paper wished to remain neutral. Obviously, your July 13 article eliminates your neutral stance, and now we, as CUD opponents, hope to be heard in power! On the battleground of a man's life, Christ met and defeated Satan. A silent man was granted the gift of speech. As with the dumb man, our lives are also battlefields. We may not be speechless, deaf, or blind — at least not in a physiological sense. But somewhere in our lives there is likely to be a contested territory where Satan is struggling for control.
 Most of us do not have to be reminded that there is sin in our lives. We are all too aware of that fact. The truth that must penetrate that awareness is that God is able to deliver us from all sin. All of his great power is ours to use. There is no limit to what he can do for us.
 We thank you, God, that Christ has completely defeated Satan. May we see this power at work in our lives today. Amen.

South Windsor Forced Draft Burning Rule Becomes Effective Sept. 1

Starting Sept. 1, forced draft ventilation will be required for brush burning and other open burning operations. The operation will involve the use of a power driven fan or blower to furnish an increased supply of air to the fire. Lanning said that with forced draft, brush burning will be more complete and reduce the amount of pollutants released into the atmosphere.
 According to Lanning, contractors have three alternatives. They can obtain burning permits and comply with the forced draft requirements, or they could be used to dispose of the brush. They also could arrange to have brush hauled and trucked to a suitable disposal area.
 The draft ventilation requirement is not intended to affect private landowners as no permits are issued for burning of brush or rubbish or grass and leaves in the maintenance of individual property.
 Girls' Softball League

First Americans

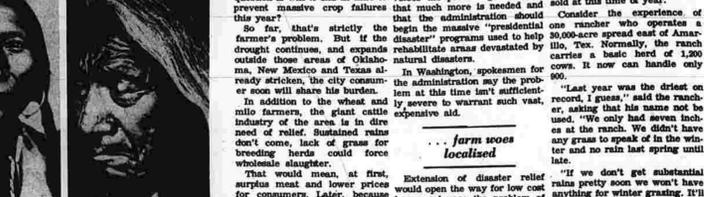

But forgotten for years, the American Indian is being rediscovered as a not only colorful but often tragically treated part of our past and as a rising force in the present. A living link with the past is George Sperry, 68, an elderly, well-known as Chief Running Water, who claims 111 years to have been the original model for the durable Indian-head nickel and to be the son of the great Sioux medicine man Sitting Bull. The undated photo of George Sperry, left, is from government archives. Also from government collections is the memorable gallery below: The great chief Joseph of the Nez Perce, far left; the great chief Geronimo, center left; Lone Wolf at the Kiowa center right, and the aged Sioux, Red Cloud.

Texas Farmers Maintain Grim Humor About Drought

By DON KENDALL AP Farm Writer DELHI, Tex. (AP) — There is a grim humor about drought and hardship among the men who farm the old Dust Bowl area where 30 years ago spring on a bumper crop in the fall. Drought has taken its toll of tons of topsoil from the brink of failure. The drought in the Southwest was extended and deepened by the area's farmers and ranchers, who have lost millions of dollars in livestock and crops. SALT Talks Don't Ripple Surface of Finnish Life

By FRANK CHEPEAU Associated Press Writer HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — The intense negotiations between the United States and the Soviet Union to limit the world's potential for self-destruction cause hardly a ripple on the surface of Finnish life. The strategic arms limitation talks—SALT—have become old hat to the Finns. More important, the "summer Finn" has returned to his normal life. The actual meetings once or twice a week involve 11 to 14 persons on each side. They alternate between the Soviet and American delegations. The American Embassy staff numbers about 40 and the embassy is too small to accommodate the SALT delegation, experts, advisers, secretaries, translators and Marine guards for a total of about 70 persons.

Holmes Named by Meskill To State Insurance Unit

James B. Holmes of 37 Elizabeth Dr. has been named by Gov. Thomas Meskill to a four-year term on the State Insurance Purchasing Board. Holmes, a Democrat, succeeds Republican Donald G. Vaughan of Groton on the seven-member board, which has State comptroller Nathan Agostinelli as its executive director. Holmes is active in civic affairs and in the Knights of Columbus. He is a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee and the Connecticut Community Development Action Plan Task Force on the Government and Personal Communications.

Migrant Tobacco Workers Get New Hospital

Despite a marked recent decline in the Connecticut Valley shade tobacco industry, its major organization of growers has reaffirmed a commitment to provide modern health care for its migratory farm workers.

The industry's principal organization, the Shade Tobacco Growers Agricultural Association, has constructed entirely with its own funds and today dedicated an all-new 30-bed hospital for its workers.

The $350,000 fireproof structure will serve the hundreds of farm laborers imported seasonally by the association from Puerto Rico and the southern U.S. to work and harvest its crops, used in the manufacture of cigars.

Present for 11 a.m. ceremonies marking the dedication of the Agricultural Workers Hospital were leaders from government and agriculture.

Cutting the ribbon were Connecticut Labor Commissioner Jack A. Fusari and Mrs. Genevieve Schiffmacher, deputy commissioner of labor and industry from Massachusetts.

The Hon. Julia Rivera de Vincenti, secretary of labor for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, was scheduled to be the principal luncheon speaker.

Remarks prepared for the luncheon, association president Joseph B. Thrall said, "Once more the shade tobacco growers of the Connecticut Valley are taking the lead in bringing about better conditions for the workers in all of agriculture throughout the nation."

Thrall recalled that the first association-sponsored hospital in Windsor Locks was replaced by the new facility in 1963.

With the founding, he said, the association "pioneered in recognizing the right of its employees to have available the high quality of medical care which they are entitled to receive."

In the 18 years it has existed, the hospital has proven to be a sound business investment benefiting the growers as well as the workers, he said.

The new hospital, with a staff of 4 doctors and 12 nurses, is the only state-licensed facility of its kind for migratory farm workers in the nation.

The new one-story building, of brick and masonry construction, is on landscaped grounds adjoining association-maintained housing for laborers on River St. in Windsor.

The housing, a CCC camp in the 1930s, has been completely rebuilt over the years and has been cited nationally as a model for farm workers.

The hospital's 30 beds are arranged no more than four to a room; there are private rooms for critical or contagious cases.

A major improvement over the old quarters, according to Mark R. Kravitz, the association's executive director, is the extra space provided for expansion of outpatient services.

There are separate rooms for the examination of inpatients and outpatients, a special treatment room for physical therapy, X-ray facilities, a nurses' lounge, doctors' consultation room, manager's office, patients' partitioned dressing rooms, separate toilet facilities for outpatients, and a comfortable waiting room.

Ground for the new hospital building was broken Dec. 6, 1970. Architect was Philip DiCorcia Associates of Manchester, and the construction was by industrial Builders of Bristol.

Anthony Amella, executive assistant to Kravitz, is the hospital director.

Kravitz, a resident of Manchester, lives at 22 Wyllys St.

Light Rain Falls During Ceremonies

Braving a light rain, state labor officials from Connecticut and Massachusetts this morning snipped the ribbon to open the new $350,000 Agricultural Workers Hospital in Windsor.

The hospital was built by the Shade Tobacco Growers Agricultural Association, a two-state area.

More than 100 leaders from government, agriculture, farm labor and health groups attended the ceremony, a tour of the hospital and luncheon followed in the dining hall of the association's adjoining camp.

Cutting the ribbon were Connecticut Labor Commissioner Jack A. Fusari and Mrs. Genevieve Schiffmacher, deputy commissioner of labor and industry from Massachusetts.

Mrs. Schiffmacher, in brief remarks, praised the creation of the new hospital and noted that one third of the agricultural workers in her state who are recruited by the association will benefit by the facility.

Fusari also lauded the hospital's creation "a labor of love."

The principal luncheon speaker, Julia Rivera de Vincenti, secretary of labor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, said the dedication of the hospital "is a landmark in the continuing good relations with the Puerto Rican seasonal agricultural workers and the interest in their health and well being."

She expressed hope that the example set by the shade growers would be imitated by other farm associations and employers who are part of her department's farm placement services.

"This hospital is a step forward and can serve as a pattern for adequate and complete health services that should be given to the migrant workers of the nation," she said.

This year through July 7, the Puerto Rico Department of Labor had referred 2,333 seasonal laborers to work under contract with the shade tobacco growers, and the construction was by industrial Builders of Bristol.

CBT Forming Leasing Unit

HARTFORD (AP) — The Connecticut Bank and Trust Company has announced the formation of a new subsidiary called CBT Leasing Corp.

The new firm will engage in the leasing of commercial and industrial equipment, James F. English Jr., chairman of CBT Corp., said today.

The English said under initial consideration by the company for leasing are such items as pollution control equipment, computers, store fixtures and modular buildings.

James F. McNally, executive vice president of Connecticut Bank, was named president of the leasing company.

Churchgoers Dissent

HUNTINGTON, N.Y. (AP) — When Central Presbyterian Church members learned that the Presbyterian Board of Christian Church and Race had allocated $10,000 for the defense of Angela Davis, a number of them became incensed and threatened to curtail donations and possibly leave the church.

This year through July 7, the Puerto Rico Department of Labor had referred 2,333 seasonal laborers to work under contract with the shade tobacco growers, and the construction was by industrial Builders of Bristol.

Manchester Area Police Blotter

Columbus Gibson, 33, of 90 Brooklyn St., Rockville, was charged Saturday night with operating a motor vehicle without the influence of liquor or drugs and resisting arrest.

Gibson was allegedly involved in an accident on West St. in Rockville. The other car was driven by Pauline Bury of White St. Police said damage to both cars was minor. Gibson was released on a $500 non-security bond.

Early Sunday morning, Ludwig J. Plourde, 41, of Stafford Springs, was charged with operating a motor vehicle without the influence of liquor or drugs and evading responsibility.

Police said the first charge was placed against Plourde when he was stopped after being observed driving in an erratic manner. The second charge came after police discovered the Plourde car had a allegedly struck a utility pole on Union St. He was released on a non-security bond.

At 4:30 a.m. yesterday, Mrs. Pauline A. Reed of 32 Village St. was arrested and charged with injury or risk of injury to a minor. Police said the arrest was the result of a complaint received that the Reed children were being left alone. She was released on a $500 non-security bond.

Alan A. Garbich, 37, of 195 Union St., Rockville, was arrested at 6 a.m. Sunday on warrant issued by Circuit Court 12 charging him with non-support of his wife and minor children. He was unable to post a $500 surety bond and was held for presentation in Circuit Court at Manchester, today.

Mary Horvick of Laurel St., Manchester, was charged yesterday with operating a motor vehicle with a suspended license. She was released on a non-security bond.

Exchange Club To Hear O'Neill

William O'Neill, Manchester director of public works, will be the guest speaker Wednesday night when the newly formed Exchange Club of Manchester holds its July dinner - meeting.

O'Neill's topic will be "The Proposed Acquisition of the Manchester Water Co."

The dinner-meeting, to begin at 6 p.m., will be at the Lantern House, E. Center St.

William Diana, acting president of the club, said today that the embryo organization has about 30 members at present, but hopes it will have the 50 needed for a national charter by Wednesday's meeting.

Diana said his group has a certificate of authority from the National Exchange Club, legalizing its creation as an Exchange Club of Manchester and permitting it to transact business without a constitution or bylaws. Those will be drawn and adopted when a charter is granted, he explained.

Population Decline

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A U.N. Secretariat paper on Pheicairn Island in the South Pacific says it has lost 70 people in a decade and now has only 50 descendants of the British sailors and Tahitians who settled there in 1793 after the mutiny on the Bounty.

However, the paper adds, Norfolk Island far to the west has nearly 600 descendants of Pitcairn Islanders.

Estes Overcome By Reception

ABLENE, Tex. (AP) — The wife of Billie Sol Estes says he was "just really overwhelmed" by a reception at their home attended by about 600 friends and well-wishers.

Estes was released on parole last week after serving more than six years of a 10-year sentence to federal prison. He was indicted for fraud in connection with the collapse of his activities as a fertilizer magnate and farm financier.

"We know now we still have a lot of friends," Patsy Estes said Sunday. "They came from seven states and some drove over 400 miles."

The reception Saturday night also celebrated the Estes' 29th wedding anniversary.

'All About Eve' Debuts Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — In the 1950 film "All About Eve," Anne Baxter played the unscrupulous ingenue Eve Harrington who schemed to use her friendship with a fictional star actress, Margo Channing, to become a star herself.

Tonight, Miss Baxter takes over the role of Margo Channing in the musical based on "All About Eve."

Miss Baxter is replacing Lauren Bacall, who will soon go on tour in the role also originally played by the musical.

last-ditch effort to avert a strike after four months of negotiations.

Negotiations on a new contract started March 2 and the old three-year contract expired May 4, although it was extended by mutual agreement on a day-to-day basis up until the day of the walkout.

About 3,200 non-union employees are manning the switchboards to take operator-assisted calls and work as installers, repairmen, billing clerks and in the walkout.

The 290 other tour operators are all selling the same thing: Sun on the cheap.

On one packaged tour you can have eight days on Spain's gold coast for $74.40 with transportation, hotel, food, and normal tips thrown in, plus free beach entrances and holiday bonus vouchers to help beat minimum prices even more.

The air fare to Barcelona, the airport for this tour, is $79. That leaves you at the airport.

A spokesman for the travel agents explains: "The package operator can charter planes cheaper because the plane owner or knows the pilot will be out of the country for the same thing at hotels. There's the basic edge right there."

The setup isn't exactly this rosy, of course. There are sudden cancellations. The hotel may be so cold it is better to sleep with a blanket. The champagne may seem like cider with a fizz, and the restaurant held together with tape—or at least some disgruntled clients alleged.

Every summer the British newspapers bloom with stories about hapless early travelers who arrive at an incomplete hotel, described in the brochure as a luxury establishment or find their cruise liner something of a floating slum though represented as a seagoing palace.

For years Edward Mills, a member of Parliament, has been gunning for irresponsible tour operators. The good operators try to live down the reputations of the bad ones, and more and more Britons buy their sun packages. Most of the package buyers come home reporting they were burned only by the sun. This, they point out with some reason, would be a mighty difficult burn to get in Britain.

Migration In Search Of Sun Starts

By KENNETH L. DAVIS Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — The Annual British migration in search of the sun is starting.

The kids are out of school and they along with their parents will be wrapped up in a tour package and delivered to some hotel on the Mediterranean where the sun shines more, hotter and cheaper.

Last year 6.75 million Britons went abroad for their vacations. And 2.2 million of them went on one of the hundreds of packaged holidays offered by tour operators.

The reason is simple, says a spokesman for the Association of British Travel Agents. "The cost of the package is just a little more than for the cost of the air fare if you buy it yourself."

Tom Gullick, managing director of Clarksons, is a prime case of packaged sun. Clarksons is the largest of the British tour operators. Gullick in 1969 carried 1,800 Britons to foreign vacations. Now 13 years later Clarksons figures to carry 74,000 Britons abroad, all packaged for sunshine and fun.

The 290 other tour operators are all selling the same thing: Sun on the cheap.

On one packaged tour you can have eight days on Spain's gold coast for $74.40 with transportation, hotel, food, and normal tips thrown in, plus free beach entrances and holiday bonus vouchers to help beat minimum prices even more.

Vernon Town Council Holds Rare Summer Meeting

The Town Council will hold one of its few scheduled summer meetings tonight at 7:30 at the Administration Building. The Council faces a lengthy agenda with more than 20 items scheduled for discussion.

One of the agenda items will call for setting a date for a referendum on a $2.5 million sewer installation program. This includes sewer lines for the Skinner Rd. and Thrall Rd. areas. The project has already been approved by the Planning Commission. It is expected the referendum date will be set for some time in August. If approved, it will put the town one step closer to completion of the sewer system.

A subcommittee appointed several months ago to investigate sites for construction of a new firehouse will report tonight on its findings. A proposed ordinance concerning construction of a new firehouse will be presented. This will also have to go to a referendum for approval.

A report will be given on a pilot sewage treatment plant installed and tested several weeks ago by Zimpro Co.

Other reports to be heard tonight are: Insurance advisory report for the fiscal year; financial reports for the fiscal year; June 30, 1970 and building department report for June.

Also to be discussed is a lease between the town and Roy P. Davis; auditor's recommendation concerning cemetery funds; Town Planner vacancy and appointment of a subcommittee; tax refund requests; possible land acquisition; proposed ordinance on Revolving Sewer Fund; the project has already been approved by the Planning Commission. It is expected the referendum date will be set for some time in August. If approved, it will put the town one step closer to completion of the sewer system.

Strikes Easing—A Little

In the telephone strike, there was a marked decrease in reports of sabotage and vandalism as the walkout by 400,000 members of the AT&T Communications Workers of America ended last night.

One Bell reported three cables cut Sunday in the Canton area. Southern Bell reported three cables snipped and a building set fired through a fourth, bringing to 41 the number of acts of vandalism in the Miami area.

Negotiations continued on both the national and regional levels and local issues. The current average hourly wage is $4.4. Service continued to be virtually normal.

Western Electric, the Bell System's manufacturing subsidiary, made a new offer to the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which is not on strike.

The strike against Western Union went into its 28th day with no reports of progress from the company unless the United Telephone Workers—representing 20,000 workers—agreed to a proposal that he made in February was rejected almost unanimously and overwhelmingly by the legislature and the public, said William R. Ratchford, speaker of the House.

Ratchford said Meekill's high proposal might be an effort to settle a compromise at a late date.

In the rail strike, railroad officials accused the United Transportation Union of inciting new, insurmountable demands in the talks aimed at ending the walkout against the Southern and Union Pacific lines.

Union President Charles Lane replied that the settlement was "a classic example of recent railroad tactics to drive all else out of Congress and to force collective bargaining to hell."

Both struck railroads continue curtailed operations with supervisory personnel but without the dispatching and train crew members by the lines.

Although only the two lines are affected by the walkout of some 40,000 union members, the outcome of the bargaining affects all major carriers. At the heart of the dispute is the operators' demand for work rule changes.

The strike by 15,000 West Coast longshoremen continued to tie up shipping in 24 ports along the West Coast to the Mexican borders. The walkout began July 1.

Andover Karen Person Begins Week As Intern in Washington

Leaving today for a week-long stay in the nation's capital as an intern is Miss Karen Person, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Person of Pine Ridge Dr.

Miss Person, who was recently appointed as the secretary to the board of selectmen for a one-year term, is a June honors graduate of Rham High School. She was selected by the Republican Town Committee to participate in the intern program sponsored by Senator Lowell Weicker and Rep. Robert Steele.

Miss Person, with other young people from Connecticut, will have the opportunity of visiting the different government buildings and seeing various branches of government in operation. She will listen and speak with members of Congress, committee members and other officials.

The League of Women Voters in Andover requested from Miss Person a capsule version of her trip when she returns, as has the Republican Town Committee, which is financing the trip.

A recent winner of the Richard N. Coughlin scholarship, while in high school, Miss Person was a member of the Student Council for two years and a member of the Latin Club for three years. She was the recipient of an academic award in history, while a junior, she was a member of the Daily Owl and served as editor-in-chief of the Rham Horn. Also in her junior year she was a Laurel Girls' State Representative and winner of the Bertha Farrington Award.

While a senior at Rham, Miss Person was the Hartford Court's Parade Footcandle coronation. She has also long been active in local 4-H affairs, this year serving as President of the Tolland County Fair Association.

She has been a 4-H member for eight years and is presently a junior leader of the Andover Craftsmen 4-H Club. She has been selected as a delegate to the regular playing season of the National 4-H Congress in Chicago to be held this fall, marking the 60th anniversary of its founding.

Miss Person has attended the 4-H camp for the past five years and has been nominated an Honor Camper two years.

Interested in civic and political affairs, Miss Person expressed her delight with being chosen for the intern program. She said she plans to keep a diary of events while at the capital in order to have a permanent record of her stay for future reference.

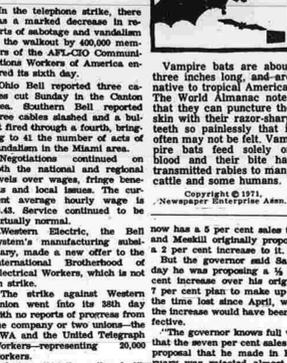

Bridge Results: Results of last Friday's duplicate bridge game were as follows:

First place: Mrs. Katherine Horigan and Robert Campbell; second place: Mrs. Rosemary Wadsworth and Mrs. Howard Boyd; third place: Mrs. Francis Haines and Mrs. William Radzewicz.

Winner of Bermuda Trip: Lucky winner of the all-expense paid trip for two to Bermuda for a full week was Lawrence Tabbets of Brown.

The trip was a prize won at the twenty-third annual Carnival sponsored by the Andover Volunteer Fire Department.

Week-end Fire Calls: Firemen transported an accident victim to Manchester Memorial Hospital early Sunday morning, after he was brought to the firehouse.

award went to Miss Wallingford, Diane Mendes.

Among the runners-up was Miss Stafford, Valerie Ann Larson, a 1969 graduate of Manchester High School, who now lives in Westfield, N.J. She attends the University of Connecticut.

The other winners were Miss Wolcott, Kathleen M. Kane, first runner-up; Miss Danbury, Wendy Lois Vecchiarini, third runner-up; and Miss East Lyme, Linda Lee Karpal, fourth runner-up. Miss Larson was second runner-up.

Miss Doyle, the daughter of Mrs. Celeste Doyle of 164 Highland Ave., Rockville, returned "home" yesterday for a celebration parade the length of Main St. Thousands of people were working with an instructor at the Hartford Conservatory to polish up her dance routine for the parade.

In her first official act back in Manchester, Miss Doyle crowned her mother, her twin sister, Kathy Bombard of Windsor, and Miss Manchester, Miss Bombard.

After Miss Doyle's coronation, Mayor James Farr extended congratulations and wished Miss Doyle luck in the national contest.

A sign lettered "Manchester is a two-crown town" was carried by the parade. It was the victory declaration, the result of other signs urging victory and displayed prominently in the parade.

Miss Doyle indicated that she was overwhelmed by the support of the local contingent who cheered her every appearance on the stage in the stifling hot Southampton High School.

"I only heard them Friday night," she said, "but I saw the signs and the straw hats Saturday. It was a beautiful scene and no bitterness."

One sign in particular caught her eye, she added, said, "You're the first page in our diary, Priscilla." The sign referred to the theme of the page, which included a huge diary on stage prepared by Mrs. Mary and conspirator with the Imperialist Israeli design in the Middle East. The Egyptian government announced that representatives of President Sadat, and Saudi Arabia's King Faisal will meet in Damascus on Tuesday with Damascus' Hafez Assad to discuss the fighting in Jordan.

In Washington, diplomatic sources said Assistant Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco will travel later this month to a further U.S. effort to promote an Egyptian-Israeli settlement. Sisco was expected to leave for Jerusalem in about a week.

Israel's military command reported that two Egyptian fighter planes flew over Israel positions along the Suez canal on Sunday and Israeli anti-aircraft batteries fired at them. A spokesman said the Suez 70th anniversary was on the 70th anniversary of the 1948-49 Arab-Israeli war.

At least 50 of the Palestinian fighters who were captured by the Jordanian army in the West Bank were being held in the West Bank. The Jordanian army spokesman said the army had plined down about 100 soldiers had been killed in six days of fighting, and he estimated guerrilla losses at more than 200.

Also in the audience were Miss Maria Cristina Galarraga, first runner-up for last year's state title, and numerous members of the press corps.

In addition, on hand to support their favorite were Miss Doyle's mother, her twin sister, Mrs. Marshall David Jr. of Ledford, who shared a beauty title with the reigning queen in 1965 at Ocean Beach, New London, and a special friend and steady date, John Heardon of New York.

Noting that one of the primary reasons for competing for the title is the scholarship money involved, Miss Doyle said that she definitely will continue her studies at Manchester Community College but with a lesser work load.

After Miss Doyle's graduation, she plans to continue to work toward a bachelor's degree and then to attend a fashion institute in Southampton Saturday night.

Mayor Greetings: Both girls received large floral arrangements from the Jaycees. The new Miss Manchester donned her crown and official sash and cradled a bouquet of roses. Mayor James Farr extended congratulations and wished Miss Doyle luck in the national contest.

Meskill Calls GOP Caucus

Meskill was scheduled to meet with legislative leaders of both parties later Monday to discuss possible repeal of the legislature and compromise revenue-raising proposals.

The governor said if the legislators come back and start to "fool around with the rates under 11, children's income tax, domestic fuel oil, automobile license, and insurance and insurance premiums."

The governor did not say what he would do if the legislature failed to act on the proposals.

Ratchford said a 7 1/2 per cent sales tax would give the Connecticut taxpayer higher annual taxes than the one now being considered by the General Assembly during the past six months.

Petition Shunned By Meskill, Sent On to Ratchford

HARTFORD (AP)—Asst. House Majority Leader John Prete came to the State Capitol Monday with an anti-income tax petition he said contained about 50,000 signatures.

The West Haven Democrat tried to present the petition to Gov. Thomas J. Meskill but one of the governor's aides told him, "The governor says it's not convincing."

The aide, Colin Pease, then took the petition to Ratchford's office. The Danbury Democrat has been a strong supporter of the state income tax.

Prete, who is running for the state Senate next November, held the petition for a four-day period and additional petitions were still being circulated.

The petition said the signers were opposed to the income tax because it puts an "intolerable and oppressive burden on the taxpayers."

Allen said the group has not recommended any alternative plan of taxation.

Hebron Jets in Baseball Playoff; First Game Slated Tonight

For the first time since the Hebron Jets entered the Windham, Tolland and New Britain County League about seven years ago, the Pony team will play in the playoffs this evening at 7 o'clock in Franklin.

Organized under the Hebron Outdoors Association for Hebron, the Jets had an impressive record of 11 wins and three losses, putting them in second place in the Western Division of the League.

They posted wins against Colchester No. 1, Colchester No. 2, Marlborough (2), Lebanon (2), Salton (2), and Colchester No. 3 (2) and lost to Colchester No. 1.

Pitching chores during the season were handled by Ray Crosby, Jimmy Lunt and Donny Grillo. Chuck Berk was behind the plate and Eddie Grillo also played at first base.

At second base for the Jets was John Stamp and at third base was Jimmy Franchella. Edgard stop duties were assigned to Ed Gardiner.

Clayton Kimer and David Higgins were used as utility fielders.

The Jets team this evening will be against Coventry.

Sign Up For Footbal: William Heagahan, president of the Midget and Pony Football League, announced that 37 boys are registered for the Midget team and 10 for the Pony team at last week's sign-ups.

This is the first year a Pony team, for boys aged 13 to 15, is being organized for the fall.

English Stars Wed in Chelsea

LONDON (AP)—Actor Nicol Williamson, 34, and actress Jill Townsend, 26, have been married in a civil ceremony at the Chelsea Register office.

The ceremony Saturday was an informal affair with Williamson dressed in a short-sleeved white T-shirt with blue stripes. Miss Townsend wore a floral maxi-skirt, blouse and floppy sandals.

Veeder Reports Earnings Down

HARTFORD (AP)—Veeder Inc. has reported a decline in earnings for the second quarter of 1971 of $10.6 million, down from $11.8 million for the same period last year.

Net income for the period was $1.64, or 11 cents a share, compared with $1.37 million, or 11.1 cents a share last year, a company spokesman said Monday.

Net income for the second quarter of 1970 including extraordinary credit was $1.4 million because of a reduction of foreign income taxes, the spokesman said.

Bucs' Walker Misses Gem, Lead-Off Homer Spoils Bid

NEW YORK (AP) — Luke Walker walked into the Pirates' locker room after having come within three outs of hurling the first no-hitter in Pittsburgh in 64 years.

Steve Blass, another member of the Pirates' underdog pitching staff and the club's top corner, shouted across the crowded room, "Walker, you know the solution for you—start every three weeks."

It wasn't to be funny, but it wasn't to Walker. The 27-year-old left-hander, the Pirates' big winner last season with 15 victories, hadn't started a game since June 29, until he faced the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday.

Walker enhanced his chances of regaining a regular starting berth—and nearly pitched himself into the record books—by handing the Dodgers on one hit—Joe Ferguson's lead-off homer in the ninth—so the Pirates completed a doubleheader sweep with a 7-0 victory, extending their winning streak to 11 games—long in the majors.

The Pirates, who increased their National League East lead to 1 1/2 games over the place Chicago, won the opener 7-0.

Elsewhere in the National League, Chicago trimmed the Braves 4-1 in a no-hit game never won in 61 years. They pitched three live innings Sunday, winning the opener 5-4 in 12 innings and losing the nightcap 4-1. Philadelphia and Houston also divided, the Phillies breaking a 1-0 tie in the ninth and Bill Mazeroski was intentionally walked and need home with the winning run on Steve Cline's bounce to second base.

PIRATES' DOGGERS — Walker had no regrets about losing his no-hitter and Ferguson had no remorse about breaking it up.

"Sure, I've dreamed of a no-hitter," said Walker. "I'm sure every pitcher does. But there's nothing to be had about it. If my homer had won it, then it would have been a no-hitter. I'm sure the Pirates would have bid to become the first hurler to throw a no-hitter in Pittsburgh since Jim Hickman's sacrifice fly driving in another. Don Keshen, Brown Dodgers on one hit Sunday in a 2-1 victory at Edgewater Park, had allowed only three baserunners until Ferguson slammed the first pitch in the ninth over the left field wall for his first major league homer.

The Pirates moved into Forbes Field on June 30, 1909, and to a no-hit game never won in 61 years. They pitched three live innings Sunday, winning the opener 5-4 in 12 innings and losing the nightcap 4-1. Philadelphia and Houston also divided, the Phillies breaking a 1-0 tie in the ninth and Bill Mazeroski was intentionally walked and need home with the winning run on Steve Cline's bounce to second base.

CUBS' EXPOS — Cubs' rookie Ray Newman pitched perfect relief over the last five innings and gained his first major league victory as Chicago pounded Montreal with a 7-0 win.

Crampton Wins Western Despite Sand Traps, Fairway Miseries

CHICAGO (AP)—Bruce Crampton, 35-year-old Australian, is a philosophical golfer who believes if you are destined to win a tournament, you will do it, no matter what.

He was in four traps, missed seven fairways with his tee shots and was among those about as much as a lumberjack on the course. He won the Westchester Open, a 72-hole tournament, with a score of 283 and a 22-hole lead.

In the next month and a half, Crampton will have the strains of a pair of $50,000 winning plum. He defends his title at the $250,000 Westchester-r richest tournament in the world—this time coming to the shores in 1971 and has passed a half million dollars in winnings.

The Western, however, was his first victory since taking the $50,000 jackpot in the Westchester Open a year ago. His best finish previously this season was a runner-up in the $25,000 Westchester Open.

"I'm all excited about this victory and will get a lot of publicity," said Crampton. "When this phase passes, then I'll be ready mentally to take the 17th to close with 36 for a total of 71. I shared Young Jory Heard and Tommy Aaron, each with 71, shared third place with 252 and collected $1,500. Dick Lott, who made an eagle on the second hole and then flew up, wound up with 75 for 283 and fifth place with $1,500.

He won $570 and gave his buddy $200.

Robby Nichols added to a 38 on the front side and came back strongly before bogeying the 17th to close with 36 for a total of 71. Soccer's 'Black Pearl' Pele Retires from National Team

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — With a tear-stained face and the tribute of 238,000 fans ringing in his ears, the man considered the world's greatest soccer player, Pele, announced his retirement from Brazil's national team.

Pele, the Black Pearl who checked 1,086 career goals, was choked with emotion as he told newsmen he decided to retire after his 110th game to give his nation a chance to develop younger players.

"It is all too overwhelming," he said, "but I must say farewell. I had tried to imagine what this would be like, but it surpassed anything I could think of."

He was not left soccer fever and he is not going to retire as he is trotted around the field.

Thousands of spectators wept openly and shouted for Pele and Santos, his professional team. Pele played the first half of the match against Uruguay and then sat out the last 15 minutes because of a 2.5 injury.

Robinson Does Best, Birds Wallop Oakland

NEW YORK (AP) — Brooks Robinson expects the Oakland A's to be one of the teams in the American League playoffs, but he's not so sure about his injury.

"If we make it," says Baltimore's stick third baseman, "I'll be in a row after Rick Rollins' good players not to win."

Robinson is doing his best, though, to help the Birds land down an A's. Division berth, and stole home. The fourth, third and second base, scoring three runs in the eighth.

Rico, Scott Hit Successive HRs, Brewers' Bloop Hits Stop Red Sox Power

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, their four-game winning streak snapped in a frustrating 6-4 loss to Milwaukee Sunday, sought to snap back in an afternoon finale of their weekend series today.

After beating Minnesota Thursday and Friday nights, the Red Sox swept a day-night doubleheader on the Brewers Sunday.

Manager Eddie Kaack named Eddie Lincecum, who has pitched well since his debut, to start the ninth inning against Milwaukee's Roger Donohue (2-0).

The Brewers jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first inning Sunday without a solid hit. Tommy Harper singled, however, driving in one run, then stole second and eventually scored on a single by Kosco to make the score 2-0.

Meskill Calls For Tax Hearings
HARTFORD (AP) — Gov. Thomas J. Meskill urged Democratic legislative leaders today to conduct public hearings across Connecticut before taking further action in taxation for the current fiscal year.

The Republican governor's recommendation, contained in a letter to Senate President Pro Tem Charles T. Alfano, came a day after leaders of the General Assembly informed Meskill the legislature would reconvene August 1 to consider the controversial state income tax law now in effect.

Citing what he called "violent reactions" from the public to the income tax, Meskill urged: "Our citizens really care about how revenues are raised in this state. I am confident that there would be great interest in public hearings which would give our citizens an opportunity to tell their representatives how they feel about the sales tax, the income tax, pay, the deficit, and college tuition at state colleges and the university."

Meskill has recommended replacing the income tax with a broader 7.5 per cent sales tax. The governor had proposed a figure 5 per cent above his original proposal to offset the loss of new revenues while the state continues its 5 per cent sales tax.

Alfano, questioned about Meskill's proposal, said he did not object to public hearings but would recommend to the chairman of the legislature's Finance Committee that they arrange more sessions.

Attacks Break Lull In Viet War
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. 802 bombers dropped 60 tons of explosives on suspected North Vietnamese positions along the demilitarized zone today as enemy gunners broke a lull of more than three weeks with new attacks on South Vietnam.

The 802 bombers were with a lull in a of the buffer zone and it was the heaviest concentration of raids in nearly two weeks.

The North Vietnamese gunners had slammed 82 mortars and rockets—including 240mm rockets—at three bases and one field position, but the South Vietnamese command said the shelling caused no casualties.
