

New Wave of Riot Explodes in Belfast

By COLIN FROST Associated Press Writer

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—Fresh rioting exploded in central Belfast today an hour after Prime Minister Brian Faulkner imposed internment without trial on guerrillas of the outlawed Irish Republican Army.

The death toll in a long weekend of fury rose to five, including a British soldier. The sharp crack of nail bombs, the woom of gasoline bombs, an occasional burst of automatic gunfire and the crackle of burning buildings filled the air.

The Civil Rights Association incited by the internment order, called for a general strike and "immediate public demonstrations throughout Northern Ireland."

Life was nearly at a standstill. No buses ran, thousands of workers hid in shuttered houses and British troops ramped the streets in search of snipers and bombers.

Protestant and Roman Catholic mobs hijacked automobiles and trucks. They formed barricades behind the overturned vehicles, threw stones and bombs.

Troops charged behind riot shields using rubber bullets. Two men were shot to death in today's rioting. Friends said it was a Protestant sniper, not the army who shot Patrick McAdorey, a 25-year-old IRA officer. A British army spokesman said the other man was shot following fights with rioters. It was not clear whether he was shot by troops or a civilian.

IRA guerrillas hijacked the ambulance carrying McAdorey's body and placed the body in Holy Cross Catholic School. Hundreds of people filed by the coffin.

British troops were reported to have arrested more than 300 Republican and leftist leaders in house-to-house searches during the night, and officials said more arrests would follow.

The prime minister also banned the annual religious parades which for the past two years have inflamed the communal passions of Protestants and Catholics.

Faulkner's ban on parades meant that the Protestant Apprentice Boys of Derry, scheduled to march Thursday in celebration of victory over Roman Catholics in 1689, would not be able to take to the streets. The ban is in effect for six months.

Astronauts Begin Debriefings

By HOWARD BENEDICT AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—Apollo 15's astronauts started a long series of debriefings today to give scientists, engineers and doctors the minute details of their historic moon journey.

In the lunar receiving laboratory, geologists are preparing to open the first of the moon rock boxes that the astronauts collected at Hadley Rille.

David R. Scott, James R. Irwin and Alfred M. Worden began the day early with a four-hour medical examination. After lunch they shift to technical sessions to answer questions about the 12-day voyage that took Scott and Irwin to the surface of the moon for 67 hours of exploration among the moon's highest mountains and along a deep canyon.

They are expected to continue the debriefings for about three weeks.

Following splashdown Saturday, doctors aboard the recovery carrier Okinawa pronounced all three adventurers in good condition.

An Air Force C141 transport flew the astronauts from Hawaii to nearby Ellington Air Force Base Sunday night, and the men rushed into the embrace of their families—a first for a moon-landing crew.

The three previous crews had to spend three weeks in quarantine, but experts concluded that moonmen bring back no harmful germs and eliminated the isolation for Apollo 15.

So Scott and Irwin rushed into the arms of their wives and daughters. Worden, who is divorced, clutched his two daughters. It was the first time the astronauts had been with their families since the Fourth of July weekend.

A crowd of about 2,500 who braved a drizzling rain cheered and waved banners and flags while a band in Scottish kilts played "Fly Me to the Moon."

Scott told the assemblage that he saw the full moon from the Okinawa Sunday before dawn.

"As I looked at it, I felt a little homesick," he said. "If you go some place as beautiful and as fascinating as that and you spend three very intense days, you really get attached to it."

Irwin told the crowd, which included several Space Center workers, that he thought often while in space of "the genius that created such beautiful machinery, the people who put it all together and the ground who helped us operate it."

"Without these, we could not have done it," he said, "and I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart."

Worden said he saw a lot of people there who had been at Cape Kennedy when Apollo 15 was launched July 28.

"I guess everybody got back before we did," he joked. "We kind of took the long way home. It's a treat to be back."

Arriving with the astronauts were about 100 pounds of moon rocks, sealed in airtight containers. The first 75 pounds came here on an earlier plane and were transported to the Lunar Receiving Laboratory.

Scientists plan to open the first of the boxes in a day or two to begin the years-long examination which might provide clues to the origin of the moon, earth and solar system.

Included in the collection is a so-called "Genesis rock" which Scott and Irwin picked up at Spur Crater. They described it as crystalline in composition and believe it may date back 4.6 billion years to the birth of the moon.

Congratulations for the astronauts also came from abroad. Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny messaged President Nixon to "convey congratulations and good wishes."

Pope Paul VI said in a telegram to the President that he hopes the moon exploration will lead to "progress, peace and understanding among peoples."

President Georges Pompidou of France followed the event "with much interest and emotion," his office announced. He sent President Nixon a telegram reading: "I wish to express all my congratulations for the immense success of American science and technology and render homage to the valor of the crew of the Apollo 15, whose exploit goes down in history as a benefit to all humanity."

The Ellington ceremony was the astronauts' second welcome of the day. Earlier they flew by helicopter off the recovery carrier USS Okinawa to Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii.

They stepped from the helicopter onto a red carpet, and three girls wearing brightly colored muumuu draped red carnations led around their necks and kissed them on the cheek.

Scott told the audience of close to 5,000 it was "really

Tax Hearing In Hartford Draws 200

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—A quiet crowd of about 200 filed into the Hall of the House today, prepared to speak their minds on the state's chaotic tax situation.

As the hour approached for the afternoon hearing to begin, there was a long line of persons waiting to sign the speakers sheet.

Demands abound that something be done about the new state income tax law that has sparked what some call a taxpayer revolt, but agreement on an alternative to the income levy has proved elusive.

The Finance Committee of the General Assembly is expected to meet in executive session after the hearing and either support one of three proposals to be discussed at the hearing or draw up a bill of its own.

The committee will present its recommendation to either the House or Senate, but the legislature may amend it.

The current special tax session of the General Assembly already involves two official tax proposals that would replace the controversial income tax with a higher sales tax and other taxes.

The levy on incomes, which was passed in the waning hours of the past legislative session, has aroused a storm of protest, with critics contending it digs too deeply into the pocketbooks of lower and middle bracket residents.

Gov. Thomas J. Meskill has proposed that the tax be repealed and replaced with a 7 1/2 per cent sales tax that would eliminate several exemptions in the present 5 per cent sales levy. Meskill proposed a similar plan, based on a 7 per cent sales tax, in February.

The second proposal is a multiple-tax plan supported by Senate leaders of both parties and would rely most heavily on a 6 1/2 per cent sales tax.

Other suggestions call for keeping the income tax but revising its tax rate.

Under Meskill's proposal these items would no longer be exempt from the sales tax: Meals under one dollar, full price of automobile trade-ins, children's clothing, magazine subscrip-

India and Soviet Union Sign 20-Year Peace Pact

NEW DELHI (AP)—India and the Soviet Union signed a 20-year treaty of "peace, friendship and cooperation" today which in effect put the Russians firmly on the side of the Indians in their potentially explosive dispute with Pakistan.

Foreign Minister Swarn Singh said the treaty should provide a "stabilizing factor in favor of peace" in Asia. "It is also a treaty of nonaggression," he told cheering members of Parliament when he informed them of the pact signed two hours earlier by him and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

The 12-article treaty does not commit either country to give military aid automatically to the other in the event of an attack by a third nation. Instead, the key ninth article says:

"Each high contracting party undertakes to abstain from providing any assistance to any third party that engages in armed conflict with the other party."

"In the event of either party being subjected to an attack or a threat thereof, the high contracting parties shall immediately enter into mutual consultations in order to remove such threat and to take appropriate effective measures to ensure peace and the security of their countries."

Singh told Parliament: "This should act as a deterrent to any powers that may have aggressive designs on our territorial integrity and sovereignty. It is, therefore, in essence, a treaty of peace against war."

But with tensions between India and Pakistan mounting steadily over the Pakistani army's repression of the independence movement in East Pakistan and the flight of 7 million East Pakistani refugees to India, the treaty could set the stage for a new confrontation in which Russia would side with India and Communist China with Pakistan.

Indian officials, in briefings with newsmen, have made clear that they expect the United States also to back Pakistan, an ally with America in the Central Treaty Organization and the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Pakistan and Peking have maintained close relations ever since China's 1962 border clashes with India, while the Soviet Union has been close to Pakistan.

Mistrial Declared In Newton Case

By BERNARD D. HURWITZ Associated Press Writer

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Black Panther cofounder Huey P. Newton, whose retrial on charges stemming from the killing of an Oakland policeman has ended with an 11-1 hung jury, goes before a new judge Tuesday to learn if he must stand trial a third time.

After six days of deliberation, a jury of 10 women and two men told Superior Court Judge Harold Hove Sunday that it was deadlocked.

First jurors had sent out a note asking they be taken for dinner, but another note followed saying: "One of the jurors no longer wishes to deliberate."

Some were near tears as the judge dismissed them and directed Newton to appear before the criminal calendar court for setting of a new trial date. He remains free on $50,000 bail.

There was no immediate indication from prosecutor Donald Whyte whether the state will again seek to try the 28-year-old Newton on a charge of voluntary manslaughter in the shooting of officer John Frey on Oct. 28, 1967.

Newton was charged with first-degree murder in his first trial and was found guilty of the lesser charge of voluntary manslaughter. The jury's verdict in that trial later was overturned, however.

"A black woman kept me out of jail," said a smiling Newton, indicating he believed the only black juror, Ruthie A. Ellis, was the one of the 11-1 vote.

The jury did not indicate whether the vote was for acquittal or conviction but both Newton and defense attorney

Coast Guard Intercepts Stolen Yacht

HONOLULU (AP)—A Coast Guard cutter armed with machine guns intercepted a millionaire's hijacked yacht about 300 miles southwest of here today and ordered the three armed men aboard to head back to Honolulu.

The yacht changed course as directed but the Coast Guard said there would be no immediate attempt to board it. The Coast Guard said the hijackers, armed with knives and pistols, seized the $150,000 yacht Friday night from its Honolulu berth and later set the three-man crew adrift 140 miles at sea.

A freighter picked them up the next afternoon—the first word, the Coast Guard said, that the yacht was stolen.

The yacht, the 73-foot motor-sloop Ketch Kamalii, was spotted by search planes Sunday as the hijackers attempted to hide behind a squall. The plane's crew dropped a message ordering the boat to return here. The hijackers were seen to pick up the message but they continued on a course toward Tahiti. The much faster cutter overtook the yacht just after midnight and began escorting it back to port.

Rifles reportedly were kept on the yacht, which competed trial and was found guilty of the lesser charge of voluntary manslaughter. The jury's verdict in that trial later was overturned, however.

"A black woman kept me out of jail," said a smiling Newton, indicating he believed the only black juror, Ruthie A. Ellis, was the one of the 11-1 vote.

Apollo Astronauts Spared Three-Week Quarantine

By BILL STOCKTON AP Science Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—Because no moon bugs have ever been found, the Apollo 15 astronauts are being spared the three-week quarantine that faced the past moon explorers.

But the 175 pounds of rocks David R. Scott, James B. Irwin and Alfred M. Worden brought back from the moon face a thorough analysis to make certain there is no health hazard. And they will be probed to learn more about the unknown factors in moon rocks that seem to kill earthly microorganisms and spur or retard some plant growth.

The factors, which still aren't understood, were discovered in moon rocks returned by Apollo 11 in 1969. Samples returned by Apollo 12 and 14 also have shown biological activity.

A variety of plant species that have shown a reaction to previous lunar material will be studied.

These include celery, cabbage, brussels sprouts, pepper, carrot, lettuce, radish, spinach, club moss, fern, liverwort and algae. Tissue cultures of other plants and seedlings of lime, cotton and corn also will be studied.

When the space agency decided to eliminate the elaborate quarantine with Apollo 15 because scientists decided it was unnecessary, a "preliminary biomedical eval-

U.S. Planes In Strikes Near DMZ

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP)—American fighter-bombers made their 48th attack of the year inside North Vietnam Sunday, and B-52 bombers attacked enemy positions one mile south of the demilitarized zone, the U.S. Command announced today.

The command said the "protective reaction" strike six miles north of the DMZ was against anti-aircraft guns that fired on an unarmed reconnaissance plane and two fighter-bombers escorting it.

The U.S. planes were not hit. The F4 pilots said they were unable to assess the damage their bombs caused because of the smoke.

The reconnaissance plane presumably was gathering photo and electronic intelligence on North Vietnamese gun sites, supply points and troop movements.

Meanwhile, three B-52 bombers dropped 90 tons of bombs on suspected troop concentrations nine miles southwest of Cam Lo and a mile south of the DMZ. The raids were about four miles north of the much fought over Fire Base Fuller, which was hit with two heavy mortar barrages last week.

Six other B-52s pounded suspected troop concentrations and weapons positions near the Laotian border before dawn today.

Only small skirmishes were reported from the battlefields.

State Firm in Denial 'Web of Influence' Seen In Contract on Generators

By MIKE SHANAHAN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A congressional report says hundreds of electric generators that broke down in combat in Vietnam were sold to the U.S. government under "a tangled web of contractor influence over Marine Corps personnel."

The report, released Sunday by the House Armed Services investigating subcommittee, said: "The defective generators adversely affected the Marine Corps combat capability in Vietnam, and may have contributed to combat casualties."

The subcommittee said the report, dealing "for the most part, with petty corruption in low places," has been turned over to the Justice Department for possible prosecution.

"The persons involved might be classified as minor public officials, yet they effectively controlled the spending of millions of taxpayers' dollars," the report said.

Makers of the generators said their products met all government requirements and blamed the problem on untrained Marine mechanics.

Built by the Consolidated Diesel Electric Co. of Old Greenwich, Conn., the generators turned up with missing pistons, loose screws, frayed wiring and cracked fuel tanks, according to the report.

It said within seven months after shipment, the first 300 units sent to Vietnam were out of commission.

(See Page Seventeen)

Failure of the generators, designed to power radar units for spotting enemy mortars near Danang, may have led to Marine casualties, the report said. Since 1967, the report said, Consolidated has been awarded four contracts totaling more than $2 million to build 7,000 generators.

Daniel Elmore, a civilian contracting official for the Marine Corps, and a man described as his friend, Daniel Ross, Consolidated's Washington representative, were named by investigators as principals in the case.

Elmore, the report said, got his job when Ross told him of an upcoming opening in the Pentagon.

Even after defects began appearing in the generators, Elmore approved awarding an option for $3.4 million in additional generator contracts, the report said.

Later, another close friend of Ross', Jennings McLain, engineered approval of a contract to Consolidated for a different type generator despite lower bids submitted by two competitors, the report said.

McLain, at the time director of the Marine Corps procurement division, later did legal work for Ross, the report said.

Subcommittee investigators estimated repairs to all the faulty generators would cost $2 million.

Weekend for Hoak Recalls Old Days

NEW YORK (AP)—It was the kind of weekend that had Manager Ralph Hoak remembering the old days, as in the good old days.

Sox Blow Chances To Gain on Orioles

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox, after a golden opportunity to pick up ground in Baltimore over the weekend, sought to snap a three-game losing streak in the finale of their five-game series against the Detroit Tigers.

Canada Women Swimmers Turn Back U.S. Challenge

CALLI, Columbia (AP)—The United States, already humiliated in men's basketball, are being outdone today in another sport, the women's swimming.

Prized Shot Vikings' Pass Rush Too Much for Pats

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—John Mazur, coach of the New England Patriots, had a lot of things to brag about even before the National Football League preseason opener against the Minnesota Vikings.

Baum and Frier Tennis Winners

Winnipeg, Man., (AP)—The winners of a one-day Men's doubles tennis tournament at the University of Winnipeg were Les Baum and Adolf Frier.

They started with a three-hit shutout by Mel Stottlemyre last Thursday and then did some old-time hitting, winning the second game 12-8. Then came a 4-0 loss Saturday followed by Sunday's 2-1 victory.

Woodworth Named Providence, R.I., (AP)—The Providence Reds, a former New York Yankees affiliate, named Woodworth as their new manager.

Ellington Ridge Four Ball (AP)—Fred Kemper, Neil Skinner, Hal Kemp and Ed McLaughlin are the winners of the four-ball tournament.

Joins Taxi Squad (AP)—The taxi squad for the upcoming season has been announced, including names like DeSarro, Noble, and Stetanik.

Reclaims Pro Net Crown (AP)—The title of professional net player has been reclaimed by a player who has won several titles.

Niekro's 'Goo-Goo' Delivery Just Too Elusive for Mets

NEW YORK (AP)—Rip Sewell, formerly of the Pittsburgh Pirates, popularized the "nephus" pitch. Steve Hamilton of the San Francisco Giants became famous for the "folly knacker." And now there's Phil Niekro of the Atlanta Braves and the "goo-goo" delivery.

Looking Wrong Way (AP)—Take a look at the way the Washington Senators were looking on Sunday afternoon and you will see why.

Legion Forfeits, Wants Long Hair (AP)—A 16-man team-age baseball squad from the American Legion forfeited its game.

Secret Agents Reported Everywhere (AP)—The Pan-Am volleyball team was reported to be everywhere during their tour.

DeSarro, Noble, Stetanik Score in Weekend Racing (AP)—The three drivers scored in the weekend racing events.
