River Barrier Falls, Indians Near Dacca. BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Indian troops vaulted the last river barrier to Dacca today, establishing a bridgehead on the Meghna 26 miles northeast of the provincial capital, an Indian army spokesman reported. The spokesman declared "no one has been killed in the path of the Indian army to Dacca. New dispatches from Dacca reported before communications were cut off that thousands of civilians were fleeing. The bridgehead was established upstream on the west bank at Ashuganj. Indian troops crossed the river—three miles wide at that point—by ferry steamer and helicopter. The Indian navy has also landed troops in Calcutta.

Withdrawal Bid Rejected, Eban Tells Assembly. UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Israel Foreign Minister Abba Eban gave before the General Assembly today to reject an African resolution which would call for Israel to withdraw from occupied Egyptian territory. Eban earlier in the debate urged Egyptian troops to leave the Sinai Peninsula. He said the United States of America is not a party to the 1948 UN Partition Plan for Palestine. Allied Copters Bearing Brunt Of Jungle War. SAKON (AP) — Communist allies were reported, today shot down five U.S. helicopters and three South Vietnamese helicopters in a massive sweep through the U Minh forest, deep in South Vietnam's Mekong Delta. At least two Americans were killed and seven were wounded, South Vietnamese officials said. There was no report of South Vietnamese casualties.

Backers Fail Rehnquist Debate Gag. WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate today rejected a move to cut off debate on the Supreme Court nomination of William H. Rehnquist. Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., leader of the opposition to the nomination, then moved to defer a vote on confirming Rehnquist until Jan. 15. The Senate agreed to vote on Bayh's surprise motion within an hour.

U.N. Idea Scuttled. The resolution was "unacceptable as a basis for resuming the Jarring talks." He said it differed in "letter and spirit" from a proposal made by four African heads of state who recently visited Egypt and Israel. "The original African memorandum would unblock the Jarring negotiation," the spokesman said. "This resolution would perpetuate the 10-month deadlock which is the opposite of what the African mission desired to do."

May Wait Until Next Year Dodging A Campaign Veto. BY GARY C. CRAFF WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional handlers of the campaign-spending bill, saying they don't want to invite a presidential veto before making final legislative moves. Sources close to the Senate-House conferees say agreement was reached Thursday resolving two major conflicts. One was a decision to retain the so-called equal time broadcast law, which would open the door for a 1972 radio-TV debate by major White House candidates. The law would open the airwaves to minor contenders as well.

Nixon Given Cancer Fund. WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate sent to President Nixon today a bill authorizing a $4 million for a stepped-up research effort to find the causes of and a cure for cancer. The Senate completed action on the measure, which Nixon has endorsed by a vote of 85-6. The House passed it Thursday by a vote of 357-10. The bill follows the House version in keeping the National Cancer Institute, which has been conducting the research for more than 30 years, in the National Institutes of Health.

7,000 Whites Avoid Bus In Norfolk School Shift

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Norfolk public schools have lost 7,000 white students since the start of a court-ordered plan to achieve racial balance by cross-town busing.

More than 7,000 white students have been withdrawn from the city's 71-school system since June 1970, just before the federal courts ordered the busing plan to achieve racial balance by cross-town busing on the grade-school level.

Under the 1971-72 busing plan, which teaches virtually every school in the system, about 94,000 of Norfolk's 90,000 pupils attend schools outside their neighborhoods.

When official enrollment figures were released Sept. 30, whites fell a scant 52-48 per cent edge school levels.

The 1970 census, which included the predominantly white suburbs of the city, showed that the Negro population of the city had risen from 28 per cent to 29.5 per cent.

White withdrawal has been occurring since September 1968 when the ratio was 67 to 40 per cent, the last two school years brought a sharp drop in the white major-

School Board lawyer, arguing against busing, had sought to keep black enrollment at segregated schools below 40 per cent. They said only in 1968 and 1969 did the Negro population of the city rise above 28 per cent.

White withdrawal has been occurring since September 1968 when the ratio was 67 to 40 per cent, the last two school years brought a sharp drop in the white major-

Vincent J. Thomas, chairman of the Norfolk School Board and president of the Association of Big City School Boards, deplores the loss of the white middle class and says the school system is in imminent danger of desegregating.

"It makes no sense for us to desegregate schools," Thomas says.

The loss of 7,000 white children, the School Board chairman wrote recently, "represents the incredible loss of over 20 per cent of our white students in 16 months. This result is absolutely unacceptable to the Norfolk School Board."

The abandonment of urban public education by the middle class can only lead to a general deterioration of our public education system, as it has in communities such as Washington, D. C.

Yule Cheer Survives Pooling of Presents

By JEFF BRADLEY
FLORENCE, Mass. (AP) — There won't be any Christmas presents under the tree at the home of the Lucien Pepin family this year, but the spirit of Christmas is thriving.

The Pepins and their seven children decided not to exchange gifts but to pool their Christmas money to buy toys, clothes, vitamins and other supplies for 240 Vietnamese children living at a makeshift orphanage in Vung Tau, about 100 miles from Saigon.

A French-American family from Maine, the Pepin family, is a language specialist with the U.S. Army. Last July he was stationed near Vung Tau when he first visited the orphanage, called "Wind of Peace," housing children under five years of age, most of whom were fathered by American servicemen and are cared for by six Vietnamese nuns.

"He worked there daily and wrote of the sadness and sickness. He told of how one child died in his arms," said Mrs. Pepin.

"He'd write of how fulfilled his life had become, asking us to help. I can't read the letters without crying. He told us not to be angry in begging for these children."

"Any family with a son there and faced with letters like these could not have stood by and not responded the same way we did," she said.

The response became way of life for the Pepins. Their phone rings constantly. Their porch is piled with boxes awaiting shipment to Vietnam.

Mrs. Pepin heads a group of women volunteers every Monday who pack 50-pound boxes with powdered milk, penicillin, baby products, tooth brushes, and other goods, which Pepin, a telephone repairman, mails by parcel air lift to Vietnam for about $6 each.

Since July more than 30 cartons filled with donations from more than 80 individuals, clubs, school groups, restaurants, doctors and business have been mailed.

Word of mouth resulted in donations daily from the western Massachusetts area. Parents on

TEACH YOUNG PEOPLE FACTS OF FINESING
By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Many parents think it is wrong for schools to teach our young people how to finesing. Let them learn it in the street, the way it is done, a worried father summed it up. He was afraid, of course, that an improperly finesing teen-ager might be in too much of a hurry to finesing if you're wondering how I'm getting at, today's hand should make it absolutely clear.

North dealer
Both sides vulnerable
Opening lead—Two of Hearts, West opened the dealer of hearts, and declarer couldn't wait to try a finesing with dummy's queen. Needs to say South was an inexperienced teen-ager; surely no mature finesing player would be so incautious.

Answer: Bid three spades. If partner cannot make a move in the direction of slam, you should not worry about missing anything. Your bid is forcing game (in standard bidding) and that is enough unless partner shows unmistakable ambivalence.

MCC a Big College And Growing—Lowe

More space and money for funding it in the foreseeable future will be its most pressing need, if Manchester Community College (MCC) is to meet the challenge of projected increasing enrollment, MCC President Frederick W. Lowe Jr. told a joint meeting of area state legislators and Regional Council members.

The meeting, held yesterday afternoon in the Bidwell St. campus' fine arts building, was one of several informational sessions for legislators being held throughout the state community college system.

One of the problems, Dr. Lowe said, is the lack of identifying a new institution as an institution that is small. MCC is a "big college," he stated, with an enrollment this year of 3,000 full and part-time students, the equivalent of 2,200 full-time students. The number, he said, exceeds the student body of many state colleges, state colleges, and the combined branches of the state university.

MCC students are being accommodated in 106,000 square feet of building space, Dr. Lowe said, which is about one-third to one-half of the state high school average. But, he predicted, will jump to 300,000 square feet within a very few years.

In this connection, he said, $44,000,000 has been pledged by the federal government toward construction of the first phase of the state university campus with an additional $15 million reserved in bond funds by the Board of Trustees of the Community College System of a 1969 General Assembly authorization.

Errection of the building, Dr. Lowe added, would enable the college to add to its classroom space and terminate its lease on its Hartford Rd. building.

The composition of the student body requires a wide range of services, Dr. Lowe commended. Currently, he said, over half the students are registered in occupational/technical career programs, 15 per cent in no-degree courses, 18 per cent in general studies, and 15 per cent in general education.

The concentration, he said, is in 20 career programs in four areas: Business, health, public service, and communications. Media, with the latter slated to get underway in the fall of 1972. Major future curricula plans will be in the new area and allied health fields, Dr. Lowe said.

The college would like to expand its off-campus training work, but is hampered, he said, "not so much by lack of funds as by the pattern of funding, which is on the basis of student hours, for the most part."

Dr. Sears Charles, executive officer of the Board of Trustees for Regional Community Colleges, stressed five points which he opened the meeting:

1. Neither the trustee nor college presidents are interested in having community colleges become four year institutions.

2. After establishment of a college for north-central Connecticut in the Enfield area, bringing the state system to 12 colleges, there will be a pause, pending examination of the need for further growth.

3. The uniqueness of community colleges which are maintained in the area of state higher education.

Gardening

Far and away the most popular of Christmas plants is the red poinsettia. Thousands of redly grown poinsettias are ready now at greenhouses and garden centers.

With the improvements that breeders and growers have made in the poinsettia, the plants are shorter and bushier than they were only a few years ago.

Leon Zapadka of Woodland Gardens says a poinsettia should hold its color at least until Valentine's Day and you can hope to have the plant still in bloom until July.

A Matter of Chemistry
The most welcome improvement in poinsettias is the comparatively short and stocky stems bearing flowers at the height of a foot to 18 inches above the pot.

The modern plants are shapelier by design. They're easier to handle, and they're ready for sale, as it were, in the store.

It starts with a cutting made by a California grower in his greenhouse and sent east by air to the Spaulding wholesale florist greenhouses in Suffolk, Mass.

The second time the plants are watered in their new pots a fungicide dressing will be added to the water to guard against rot. In early October the plants will be treated with a growth retardant. This also is a fungicide, used only once and in recommended strength. It is a chemical that prevents elongation of the cells in the plant stem.

Because each plant has been "pinned" when it was little, it will put out two or three side branches, each of which will produce a flower. With three stems in a pot and three branches on each stem the mature plant will have the desired bushy shape and be almost covered with bright red bracts.

unn. The first one was published on Dec. 11, 1970, when Christmas plants and Christmas trees were timely subjects. Now we have come full circle and are talking about Christmas plants again.

It is in the nature of gardening that we come around to the same subjects at the same time of year, so we will have flower shows in late winter. We did this year. The main attraction was the poinsettia. It is indeed a plant that has helped us this year.

But I am sure there are other gardeners who have lovely flowers and interesting stories, and tips as to where these can be found are always welcome.

A voice on the telephone, part way through the year, asked where I got ideas for the Gardening column, and my answer was "Dear lady, nice people like you call me up and give them to me."

Please keep calling. Steven Dearborn, senior at Rockville High School, has been named national champion in vegetable production and marjoram by the National Horticultural Association.

Back in Suffolk, the cutting that was taken from the "pinned" plant and rooted in turn has become another well-grown poinsettia, but each of these must be allowed to bloom on a single stem since it is too late to "pinch" the plant again to make it put out branches.

White and pink poinsettias are grown in exactly the same way as those with red bracts, but in much smaller numbers. White poinsettias which more accurately are created by mutation are used as Christmas decorations in many churches.

Winter Protection
It is still early December and not too late, if you haven't done it, to mound the roots. The snowstorm on Thanksgiving Day delayed the job at our house but rain and milder temperatures this week made it possible to hack out some wheelbarrow loads of compost and pile it as high as it will stand around the stems of the rose bushes.

Explaining her decision to enlist in the Women's Army Corps, Peggy Eda Karstoft of Rawlins said, "I've tried a little of everything in my life."

Miss Karstoft will begin in the town and ordered the proprietors to pay $1,000, but she couldn't agree with it. "The plaintiff does not assert that the defendant is being violated by the defendants, but does

Consumer Aide Doubts Worth Of Power Pool

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. (AP) — The executive director of the state Consumers' Council says the latest New England Power Pool Agreement was made by privately owned companies for "private good which may or may not coincide with the public interest."

Dermot P. Shea said NEPOOL "may turn out to be dirty pool" for consumers and power companies.

In a speech Thursday at the New England Consumer Power Systems Conference, Shea said NEPOOL was supposed to be the answer to a report of the New England Regional Commission which called for establishment of a power pool for economic reasons.

An "overwhelming majority" of publicly owned power companies have been unable to join the pool, Shea said, and the arrangement "is in fact a private agreement made by the franchised private power companies."

He questioned whether such agreements could be made by private companies suggested, antitrust laws might be involved.

U.S., West Germany Agree On New Troop Financing

BRUSSELS (AP) — The United States and West Germany today reached a new agreement for financing of the West German financial arm and planes and an outfit to offset the cost of keeping 11,000 American troops in West Germany.

How much West Germany will contribute was not agreed until a conference with the United States and other North Atlantic Treaty Organization members that preparations for a conference with the Soviet Union on European security should be delayed until the Berlin agreement is finally reached.

The agreement at the closing of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's annual winter meeting of foreign ministers was regarded as a small victory for allied unity.

Public Viewing of Bunche's Body

NEW YORK (AP) — The body of Ralph J. Bunche will be on display at a Manhattan funeral home today to allow the public to pay last respects to the 1901 Nobel Peace Prize winner.

President Nixon and United Nations Secretary General U Thant led the world Thursday in offering tributes to Bunche, who dedicated more than two decades to serving as a U.N. peacemaker.

Bunche, who died Thursday at age 67, had retired Oct. 1 as U.N. undersecretary general—the highest ranking American in the secretariat.

"America is deeply proud of this distinguished son and profoundly saddened by his death," said Nixon, who called Bunche "one of the greatest architects of peace in our time."

$3,000 Stolen At New Milford

NEW MILFORD (AP) — A man with a gun robbed $3,000 from the clerk at the Valley Package store in New Milford Thursday night, police said.

The clerk was forced to lie on the floor but was not hurt. Police said the robber carried a small revolver.

English Chemist Named Rubber
LONDON—Rubber was named by the English chemist, Dr. Joseph Priestley. In 1770 a friend in America sent him a ball of crude rubber. Discovering that it would rub out pencil marks, he broke off small pieces and called them "rubbers."

The Diapute, At Least, Is Cured

Senate and House conferees at Washington have now ended a year long struggle during which, believe it or not, the launching of what is hoped to be the final great onslaught against cancer has been held up because legislators couldn't agree on who should have charge of funding the cure...

In any case, the two sides of the struggle are to be congratulated on having come to agreement on jurisdiction which will allow the war against cancer to proceed under the supervision of the National Institutes of Health. Perhaps the conferees were spurred on to consider the prosecution of the war more important than the location of its Pentagon by the news from Los Angeles, the other day, to the effect that the first virus apparently capable of causing cancer in human beings has been identified and may possibly be isolated soon...

Strangely enough, the world hasn't stood still just because East Germany, back in 1961, built a wall dividing the city of Berlin. Or perhaps that should be qualified, to say that at least one half of Berlin didn't stand still.

Adoration By Vandilism

It doesn't speak well for our sanity, that tourists through the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts down in Washington should have made a shrine of the place in the short three months it has been open by their uncontrolled passion for ripping anything and everything movable out of the place as souvenir to take home.

Theologian Decides Immoderate Giving Is 'What It's About'

By MARC CHARNEY

Are you worried that all those ads and window displays and frantic preparations are taking the meaning out of Christmas? Don't be silly, says Timothy Lull, a young theologian at Yale. Immoderate giving, he says, is one of the things Christmas is all about.

"Part of the meaning of Christmas is that we always do too much," Lull writes in the month's issue of "The Lutheran," a national magazine published by the Lutheran Church in America. "That's inherent in the story."

"Everyone who really understands what's happening overdoes it—angels sing all night long, shepherds run away from their sheep, wise men leave their studies, animals keep silence, God loves men beyond what they deserve and we give things to each other."

"This is our way of joining in the madness of giving and loving beyond the range of what common sense can ever understand," he says in the article.

Lull, 28, has taught a semester of theology at the Yale Divinity School, is working on a dissertation, and is looking forward to a life of teaching theology and being pastor of a church.

"It's not that I'm delighted with the commercialism of Christmas," Lull said in a conversation at his home. "But I don't see why you should pick on Christmas particularly. Life is so commercialized now anyway."

"The message," he says, "is one of joy, of happiness, of mankind getting more than it expected. A far greater joy than doing too much is making the observance too difficult to understand."

Lull says he's a supporter of trends within the church that make it respond to social issues like peace and racial justice, but he doesn't want that to produce so much integrity that people forget how to give joyfully.

"There are so many things in society that are bad and need reforming," he says. "You get in a frame of mind where you think maybe everything needs reforming. But there are a few things that are all right as they are and it occurs to me that maybe Christmas may be one of them."

Modern men, he said, judge people on merit and that's a good thing. But, he added, we are "so caught up in judging people on merit we can't believe we can get something more than we deserve."

And that, he says, is exactly the message of the Yuletide. Deep, Comm. — Open 7 days a week. The birth of Christ, he says, is week (Mon. thru Sun.), 12:00 to 4:00 p.m. "It's 8:00 p.m."

Bell Ringers Perform Tuesday

The Bell Ringers of the Lutheran Church will perform for the Christmas luncheon of the Senior Adult Fellowship of the Community Baptist Church on Tuesday in Fellowship Hall of the church.

The luncheon will be at 11 a.m., luncheon will be served from 11:45 to 1:15 p.m.

Mrs. Stephen Pearl is director of the Bell Ringers. The group plays on Schulermerth hand bells, given to the church in memory of David L. Swanson. The group, organized in 1969, includes Mrs. Herbert Anderson, Miss Eva Johnson, Miss Norma Johnson, Mrs. G. Albert Pearson, Mrs. Herbert E. Johnson, Mrs. Carl A. Gustafson and Mrs. Roy C. Johnson.

The Barbara Gifford Circle is in charge of the luncheon. Mrs. Nicholas Derewianka is in charge of the community who are 40 years of age or older. For reservations contact Mrs. Orlando Tibbels at 16 Maple St., South Windsor.

Police Charge 3 With Car Thefts

Ronald G. White, 18, John Deschamps, 18, and John White, 19, all of Enfield, were arrested yesterday by state police. All were charged with burglary in the second degree, and with the theft of a car.

The arrests were the result of an investigation of an alleged incident in Ellington on Nov. 24. Police said the three broke into A.V. Auto Sales on Rt. 83 and took dealer's plates and keys for three cars. Police said also the youths allegedly took three cars and drove them to Enfield, where two of the cars were destroyed by fire. The third was returned to Ellington, police said.

Narrator

Dr. Frederick W. Lowe Jr., president of Manchester Community College, will narrate for the performance of Aaron Copeland's "Portrait of Lincoln," to be presented by the Manchester Civic Orchestra Sunday afternoon in Bailey Auditorium.

Dr. Lowe has an extensive background as a public speaker, including appearances on television educational programs. Lincoln's own words are used to narrate the musical composition, and the text is taken from little known letters written during his lifetime.

The composer, not only contact his legislators by letter and telephone, but also reported to them about the car had, knocking Fountain into the street, and disappeared at the direction of Broad St.

Police said the stolen coat was worth $20.

S. Africa 3rd in Paving

CAPE TOWN — South Africa ranked today as the third best nation in the world in paving roads, according to a report by the World Bank.

South Africa paved 10,000 miles of roads in 1970, a network of nearly 200,000 miles.

Touring Legislators Meet Peaceful Tuition Protest

Area legislators touring the Manchester Community College campus last night were met by a peaceful demonstration of students who held signs and chanted, "No increase in tuition." The demonstrators, numbering about 400, held signs that urged repeal of tuition increases at state colleges.

Effective the second semester of the current academic year and by act of the 1971 General Assembly, per semester tuition will go from $80 to $100 for full-time state students in the community college system.

In response to student requests for legislator comments, Fourth District State Sen. David O. DeGard of Manchester said, "The tuition increase was introduced in the last legislature, and I voted for it. The fee increase was made, but because of the financial bind of the state."

DeGard said that he is sympathetic with students in their sincere expression of feeling toward the increase, but he said that the tuition jump will help to fund the state's education program. He said that the state cannot afford to pay for education and that the state must find other ways to fund it.

Hebron

School Head Finds No Budget Problems

Aram Damarjian, superintendent of schools, told the Hebron board of education last night that, barring any unforeseen expenditures, particularly in the special education department, there should be no problem keeping within the approved 1971-1972 budget of $206,633.10.

For the past several years, unexpected tuition and transportation expenditures for special education students has forced the board to go before the legislature to request additional funds.

Damarjian explained that this year the board budgeted $10,700 for transportation, but for 1972, the board has budgeted $11,000. He said that the board has a reserve fund of $20,000, which can be used to cover any unexpected expenses.

Special meetings are scheduled for February 17, March 17 and March 18, to work on the 1972-1973 budget.

The principals reported a total enrollment of 712 students at the Hebron Elementary School, with 344 enrolled at the Gilead Hill School, an increase of 200 students from last year. The fourth in the American School for the Deaf at a cost of $400.

This totals $12,300 for both tuition and transportation. However, there is a fifth youngster still to be placed, according to Damarjian. He said the placement cost for this youngster, compared to 48 per cent in October and 46 per cent in September, is $2,000 in total.

The signed teacher-board agreement between the Hebron board of education and the Hebron teachers' union was filed yesterday with the Regional District No. 4, Andover and Marlborough Boards of Education.

The Hebron board and the teachers' union are in the final stages of negotiating a new contract. The board has offered a 5 per cent raise, and the union has accepted a 4 per cent raise. The board has also offered to fund a new special education program, and the union has agreed to fund a new inservice program.

Backers Fail Rehnquist Debate Gag

attorney Lewis F. Powell Jr. to fill another vacancy on the Supreme Court.

The vote on closing out the debate was not a clear-cut test of sentiment on Rehnquist's nomination, since the two senators who voted for his confirmation voted for cloture while some favoring his confirmation voted against cloture.

Rehnquist, 47, was opposed by some Senate liberals who have attacked his civil-rights and anti-communism record. But the Pivarski family and other opponents have never claimed the votes to block confirmation.

Libby said that presently the resource program uses as equipment some of the items previously used in the school—some being repaired.

Common Cause Organizes Unit

An organizational meeting of Common Cause in the First Congressional District was held last night at the Hocknum River Lanes Country Club in Bloomfield.

David M. Teasdale, associate director of the Middle Atlantic Common Cause, presided at the meeting.

Common Cause is a bipartisan citizen lobby. According to Aldo Rovero, a member of the group's media committee, the group's first objective is to allow the Connecticut Department of Transportation to purchase more land than needed for highway expansion. The additional land would be used for environmental projects such as open space and linear parks.

Hocknum Unit Given Report

Harry Maltman, chairman of the Hocknum River Lanes Park Coordinating Committee, last night reported to the committee on his discussion with representatives of the Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection.

The department is working with the state Fish, Game and Fisheries and Game and various environmental groups to develop a plan for the park. The plan would allow the Connecticut Department of Transportation to purchase more land than needed for highway expansion.

Dillon Submits Low Van Bid

Dillon Sales and Service of 319 Main St. was the apparent low bidder for a 1/2 ton van with side door, opened yesterday at the Municipal Building. Dillon bid $2,800.

Other bidders for the vehicle, which will be used by the Building Department, were Cherokees of 66 cents during the day. The winning bid was $2,845; Brainerd Ford of Hartford, $2,845; and Airport Truck Center of Hartford, $2,850.

Ford Price Increases Average $90 Per Car

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. announced today that it has increased prices for its cars and trucks by an average of 2.6 per cent.

The increase would average $90 per car, M.S. McLaughlin, Ford vice president-sales, said. The increase would be $2,800 for a Ford Pinto, which was introduced in 1970 at a suggested retail price of $1,000, but its competitive price was raised during the year to $1,000.

The new prices are in effect for all cars shipped from Ford plants after Nov. 30.

YOUR SAVINGS BONDS NEST EGG

By SYLVIA PORTER

THE TREASURY is now in the midst of its most aggressive, hard-hitting drive in 15 years to coax you into starting to buy or increasing your buying of its old, familiar U. S. Savings Bond.

With interest rates across the board way down from their historic mid-1970 peaks, but with the interest rate on Savings Bonds sticking at an all-time high, the Treasury has a fighting chance to reach its ambitious though attainable goals for 1971.

And with the 5 1/2 percent return to maturity you can earn on the Bond now comparatively fair, you again can consider whether the Bond's other advantages warrant an investment of at least part of your nest egg in this absolutely safe savings security.

The success of this little nonmarketable Bond is truly astounding, and its staying power is even more so—for on May 1st of this year, the "E" Bond will be 30 years old. In this span, the Bond has taught a whole generation the discipline of regular savings. In this period, Americans have voluntarily purchased vast numbers of the Bonds worth $182 billion. In these years, the Treasury has built up a "staff" of 40,000 corporations and 30,000 financial institutions to market the Bonds as a public service.

Even more specifically, despite the fact that the return you could earn on the Bond fell abysmally out of line during the 1967-70 upsurge in interest rates, the small saver held on. The turnover rate since 1945 has averaged a mere 11.20 percent annually, less than half that of any other savings medium. A record $52 billion of the Bonds are now outstanding, representing 23 percent of the privately held portion of the public debt.

A fantastic 10,000,000 regularly buy the Bonds through Payroll Savings Plans. Therefore, the Treasury's goal of signing up 2,200,000 employees as new or bigger savers in '71 is not unreasonable.

How then, should you respond to the Treasury's campaign?

This is the first time in years I've been able to write about U. S. Savings Bonds in a favorable way. But 5 1/2 percent is worth considering today, particularly if you earn it on a nest egg built up for you by automatic payroll deductions, and you realize you wouldn't even have the nest egg otherwise.

March 1971

Take stock in America.

With higher paying U.S. Savings Bonds.

Let's Keep Tolland Rural, Says Planning Committee

By BETTE QUATRALE (Herald Reporter)
Tolland must find a means to increase its tax base, if it is to retain its present rural residential atmosphere. That was the recurrent theme of the many evaluations of Tolland, present and Tolland future, presented during last night's open-discussion meeting of the Citizens Committee on the Town Plan. Members of the committee represent a wide cross section of the town, and each presented his or her view of Tolland today. Their views were remarkably similar, as were their general views concerning the town's future needs. Agreement is apparent on the need for increased commercial and industrial development, although there is a tendency to lean toward the smaller locally-run business. This development should be concentrated, was the consensus, and strip zoning development received a black eye from those speaking. Aside from its unsightly appearance, it was scored for the shopping difficulties it presents to the suburban housewife trying to do errands with several children in tow. Small neighborhood convenience stores were seen as necessities for serving the residents. The development of commerce and industry is needed, not only for tax revenue, but also for providing jobs for the town's residents. This development must be planned, however, with an eye toward Tolland's role with her neighboring towns. Although Tolland will continue to be dependent on Vernon and parts of Manchester for many of its needs, the town also can serve itself and the several surrounding towns, including Willington and portions of Stafford and Mansfield. Unlike most towns, Tolland does not have a Main Street, nor a central business area, and this lack was felt to be a prime need. It should be created away from the Tolland Green, however, which, if it is hoped, will one day become a historic district, according to Historical Society president Edward Patas. The town center district should be consistent with a cluster type development, and should not be stretched out along a major artery. A "forward looking" finance study of the town must be included in the town's comprehensive plan, according to Finance Board chairman Howard Wolfanger. "The town will grow with or without a town plan, but a plan can prevent us from looking like Vernon's Rt. 83. Finance Board member William Swanbeck remarked. Problems To Be Faced Whatever is the final outcome of the town plan, it must be built on what the town has at present, was the consensus. "We must take a hard look at the town today, at what we have to work with," Leon Chorghas stated. "We can't undo what has been done already." Chorghas, a member of the original committee which created Tolland's first comprehensive plan—a plan now outdated and little used by the town since it was formulated—cited the components of the basic data which will be required. Sanitary problems, such as leaking septic tanks and high ground water in existing areas of development, now are apparent and will become even greater problems in the next five years. So will overloaded local roads because they were never designed to handle the extent of traffic they are handling today. The proper location of recreational facilities; provision for social services, nursing facilities, and other needs must be met. The location of public utilities and development in relation to the town's soil conditions will be a prime base on which the plan should be predicated, according to Elliott. The town's cultural needs also must be considered, and should not be limited merely to the historical district and library, both needs now fulfilled by groups of dedicated volunteers. Enforcement The need for enforcement of the town regulations in regard to health problems must be increased substantially, according to the consensus of those present at the meeting. The retirement of the town's building inspector and zoning enforcement officer provides the opportunity to rectify the situation, according to Tinkham. The assessor pointed also to gaps in the town's regulations, noting, "There is no procedure set up to accept the land required to be donated by developers within subdivision." The permissive legislation which let up to 10 per cent of the land in a subdivision be donated to the town for recreation, education or open space use, should be exercised more frequently, he added. There was considerable support today.

ways of providing service, such as sewers and sidewalks. A "first rate imaginative planning consultant" was seen as a necessity to provide the town with new imaginative planning concepts. "We don't need an outside force to come into Tolland with a planned unit development, we can do it ourselves," Mrs. McNally commented. "We have the opportunity to control the growth of the town by development of a town plan coupled with the obvious interest and efforts of its citizens and town officials," temporary chairman Edwin Vickery stated, summing up the meeting's discussions. "People must be aware of the plan and use it." "Tolland has its problems, but they can be overcome with a carefully balanced planned growth," Vickery added, citing the need for moderate income and elderly housing, commercial and industrial growth and industrial growth and a limit on gas station location. Ellington's CDAP co-ordinator John Cronin attended last night's meeting and he reviewed Ellington's progress through the CDAP framework. He related also the experience of Hartington, a town which took the same approach to the planning process. Mrs. Cronin attended last night's meeting and she reviewed Ellington's progress through the CDAP framework. She related also the experience of Hartington, a town which took the same approach to the planning process. The meeting will be held at the second and fourth Thursdays of the month, beginning in January, in the newly created meeting room of the town administration building. Consulting town planner John Coleman of the Northeast Development Group will attend the next meeting. He will receive a report of last night's sentiments regarding the town today and in the future. In the meantime, a statement of the individual planning philosophies of the committee members will be prepared; and a listing will be made of all the study committees and volunteer citizens groups in town that might help in various aspects of the planning process. Committee members are Edwin Vickery, Michael Vanguenza, Mary McNally, Irene Cornish, Robert Bass, Stuart Tinkham, John Elliott, Leon Chorghas, Stanley Johnson Jr., William Swanbeck, Kevin Cavanagh, Edward Patapas, Howard Wolfanger, Bette Quatrale, city, Arnold Sbarge. South Windsor LWV Says Town Needs Moderate Cost Housing

The South Windsor League of Women Voters, after conducting a study of available housing facilities in South Windsor, has unanimously agreed in a consensus report that a need for low-to moderate income housing exists in the town.

The league's report is part of a statewide study program currently being conducted and is the agreement reached by a substantial number of members after a sustained study and group discussions.

The report defined low to moderate income in South Windsor as an annual salary income range from $7,000 to $12,000. Housing in that range would be under $20,000 for a single unit dwelling and approximately $140 a month for a two-bedroom apartment.

The league said that housing in this price range is not available for those people who particularly need it, the elderly and young couples.

They said that "the low-to-moderate income housing is presently being made available in the town through zoning regulations enforced by the town as an obstacle to the construction of them."

In addition, the league reported that no town family housing can be built under the existing regulations; no provisions for building condominiums, cluster homes, town houses, or planned unit developments have been made by the town; no public all mobile homes are allowed; three-bedroom apartments are in short supply; and the town's present FHA subsidized multi-family program is inadequate.

The league maintains it is difficult to build modern, income, single-family houses because of high construction costs.

Court Cases

CIRCUIT COURT 12
Manchester Sessions

An convicted state toxology lab in Hartford had delayed prosecution of charges against six youths arrested last July in a drug raid on a Main St. apartment.

Prosecutor William Collins said the lab sends out 600 reports a day, but receives only 1,200 samples to be tested each day, from throughout Connecticut. A six-month wait is not uncommon, according to Collins.

Charges of possession of narcotics, possession of controlled drugs, and breach of peace against Ronald McKinley, 20, Housing Authority, in seeking solutions and instituting flexible zoning measures.

Also noted by the league was the town's use of fiscal zoning to keep the property tax rate low, but if "towns do not take the initiative in providing needed housing," they said, "they cannot expect the federal and state governments to allow the state to build housing in government-owned areas."

The league hopes that action will result from their consensus report which is directed towards participation of citizens in government.

The South Windsor High School Music Department will present its annual Christmas Concert Saturday, Dec. 19 at the South Windsor High School auditorium at 8 p.m.

The vocal ensemble and mixed chorus will be under the direction of Mr. Nicholas Lesburne and the band under the direction of Mr. Louis Levesque.

Top Officials Back Lower Majority Age

By DON MEKILL
HARTFORD (AP) — A recommendation that 18-year-olds be given all the rights and responsibilities of adults, including the right to buy liquor, make contracts and hold public office—quickly drew the support of top state officials.

Gov. Thomas J. Meskall, Lt. Gov. T. Clark Hull, House Speaker William Ratchford and Senate Minority Leader Alden Ives were among those who endorsed the recommendations of the governor's Commission on the Age of Majority.

The commission itself said there appears to be broad public support for the idea—especially since the 26th Amendment to the federal Constitution extended all voting rights to 18- and 20-year-olds.

Instead of asking "why?" as they used to, the commission said, "The consensus of the people, both as individuals and representatives of organizations, has been to lower the age of majority to 18, and to extend the rights and responsibilities of full citizenship," said Probate Judge Arthur H. Doolittle, Jr., of Trumbull, who served as chairman of the commission.

A bill that would have done what the commission recommended (except for lowering the minimum age for office-holders, which will require a constitutional amendment) was approved earlier this year by the legislature's General Law Committee and was passed by the Senate last in the regular session. It failed to reach the floor of the House for action, however.

Ives pointed out Thursday that he had sponsored the basic legislation.

Ratchford said: "It is my opinion that if an individual has a right to vote, then he should have extended to him all the natural legal rights that go along with it—the right to contract, the right to marry, the right to run for office, and the right to consume alcoholic beverages."

The speaker predicted that the office-holding and drinking rights would be the most controversial parts of the commission's report.

The leader of the Republican minority in the House, Rep. Francis J. Collins of Brookfield, predicted the legislation would pass next year. "I think we're ready for it," Collins said.

Among the changes proposed by the commission are: —Allow 18-year-olds to enter into binding contracts.

—Allow them to marry without their parents' consent.

—Take away the requirement that 18- and 20-year-olds be represented by their guardians in civil and probate court proceedings.

—Give 18-year-olds all property rights enjoyed by persons over 21.

—Require parents to support their children only up to the age of 18, instead of 21.

—Allow 18-year-olds to hold all municipal and state elective offices except governor and lieutenant governor.

—Allow 18-year-olds to serve on the Electoral College which elects the president.

Taped Music Rolls Along, And Every Sale's a Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Tape accounted for only 4 per cent of all recorded music sales in 1968. By 1970 sales had soared to 30 per cent of the market...

manager of Ampex Music, the industry's biggest producer. "We won't get the full benefit of the law immediately because it applies only to recordings made after that date."

Between now and then, it appears, a lot of bootleg tapes can be made and marketed. And as Hall sees it, "The bootleggers will use every legal and illegal means to peddle or avoid its enforcement."

It is difficult to obtain a clear picture of the bootlegging industry because it is made up of small, secretive local marketers who almost defy detection, and big, professional, underworld-financial organizations that operate openly.

For some people, the temptations to bootleg are as strong as those faced by the moonshiner who has respect for his product. Not only do they see the chance for an easy dollar, but they may really believe their efforts are a contribution to art and culture.

A person who records from the opera house may have only the pleasure of the spirit in mind, which is fine. He may even share his experience by selling copies at cost to his friends. But if he makes a profit, it is spreading his pleasure.

If the new law is effective there should be some reassignment in growth, but Hell, the man who made that $20 million forecast, now believes the industry will have to settle for $33 million—and in 1972, not 1971.

Lufkin Will Enforce Fuel Laws

HARTFORD (AP) — tributors that the state could Environmental Protection Commission Dan W. Lufkin served notice Thursday to employees in his department that the requirements for the use of low-sulfur fuel will be completed within 30 days.

High sulfur fuels were supposed to go out of use Sept. 1, but the oil industry and its customers were not prepared for the change, Lufkin pointed out that despite the fact a full year's notice had been given 450 requests for exemptions were received and that 75 users are still not conforming to the new rules.

He charged that the state did not make it clear it intended to enforce the law on Sept. 1.

Indeed, there are strong indications that states may suggest to users and dis-

Campaign Work To Earn Credit

BOSTON (AP) — Boston State College says it will give academic credit to students who work actively in national presidential primaries around the Eastern Seaboard.

Kernell C. Mortimore, college president, said Thursday that students who work actively in national presidential primaries, entitled "Presidential Politics," will receive credit for the course.

Mortimore said the other part of the course would involve an academic study of past and present presidential campaigns.

Bolton Schools Present Alternate Budgets

School administrators presented the Board of Education with budget requests totaling between $60,000 and $72,000 last night, as preliminary work on the 1972-73 school year budget.

The board's budget committee has been asked to consider alternate proposals, which would be less costly alternatives, thus accounting for the two figures.

On the elementary school level, the principals cited a need for 9 teacher aides, one at each grade level, costing $18,200.

As an alternative, they would request 10 aides, employing two teacher aides for kindergarten through Grade 4, which would cost $4,000 more.

Gotham Lawyer Donates Island To Connecticut

HARTFORD (AP) — The state has acquired a 20-acre island in the Connecticut River, thanks to the generosity of a New York attorney, Guy Thomas J. Maselli announced Thursday.

The island, located in East Haddam one mile south of the Route 26 bridge, is valued at about $25,000, the governor said.

The island is being placed under the jurisdiction of the Department of Environmental Protection.

New Haven Man Named Federal Public Defender

HARTFORD (AP) — Thomas D. Clifford of New Haven has been appointed chief federal public defender for the District of Connecticut.

Clifford was appointed by the judicial council of the 2nd District, Connecticut, Vermont and New York, and the announcement was made Thursday.

The federal public defender will represent people accused of federal crimes who can not afford private lawyers. Clifford is expected to assume his new position in January.

Lice Infecting
Nearby Areas

EAST HARTFORD (AP) — Pupils at the East Hartford high school have become the latest victims of a lice outbreak that has infected 25 school systems in Connecticut. In the past week 29 pupils have been sent home for treatment.

The lice do not carry disease but they can cause discomfort, says Dr. Steven H. Lamm, epidemiologist with the state Health Department. The only danger, he said, would be infection from scratching.

Lice on school children is a fairly common and recurrent problem in the state, Dr. Lamm reported. He prescribed a soap-and-water shower at night and shampoo in the morning with an over-the-counter medicated cream.

Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market, buffeted by cross currents of profit taking and bargain hunting, made a small gain today. Trading was moderate. The noon Dow Jones average of 90 industrials was up 2.63 at 854.78. Advances on the New York Stock Exchange led declines by 9 to 7.

Analysts said profit taking was evident by selective buying. The mixed pattern probably reflects a consolidation phase, they added. Profit taking had been evident in the past four sessions. The Dow industrial average had climbed some 41 points over a seven-session span that started a week ago.

Chamber Asked to Form
Auto Arbitration Board

By MARGARET HAYDEN (Herald Reporter) Paul Keene, director of Buyers' Action Center of Hartford, this morning suggested to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce that the chamber start a three-member board of arbitration to work with problems of automobile dealers and consumers. Before a problem could be presented to the board, Keene said, there would be two requirements. The consumer and the dealer would be required to try to resolve their dispute, and they would have to agree to accept the board's decision. The board would be created last summer by the Connecticut Citizens Action Group Inc., one of two state-wide consumer groups started by Ralph Nader. Ohio has the other pilot group. Keene said that an automobile arbitration board, initiated by a Nader group, is working in Ohio.

The chamber board made no decision this morning on establishing a board of arbitration. Roy Norman, a chamber director and manager of the Hartford Electric Light Co., was appointed to look into possible ways of cooperation between the chamber and the Buyers' Action Center. The average rise to 311.1. Industrials were up 3.8, rails were up 5.1, and utilities were up 3.1. Wheelabrator-Frye, which led the Big Board's most-active list Thursday, was up 1/4 at 49 and again was the most heavily traded issue. Noon prices on the Big Board also included Pan Am, up 1/4 at 14 1/2; Occidental Petroleum, up 1/4 at 10 1/2; Central Data, up 1/4 at 44 1/2; Natoma, up 2/4 at 87 1/2; Boeing, up 1/4 at 18 1/2; and National Cash Register, up 1/4 at 27 1/2. Prices on the American Stock Exchange's most-active list included Topper Corp., off 3/4 at 7 1/2; Brad Ragan, up 1/4 at 26 1/2; Rolltron, up 1/4 at 12 1/2; and Riter-Maxxon, up 1/4 at 4 1/2.

Deputy Commissioner Urges
State Transportation Fund

HARTFORD (AP) — A state highway fund should not be abolished, but should be reformed, Deputy Commissioner of Transportation Thomas J. Meekill said today. The 5-cent-a-gallon increase in the gasoline tax is going into the general fund instead of the highway fund, but Meekill said it is a mistake to interpret this as evidence that the highway fund is on the verge of going out of existence as a separate entity.

Meekill said the original proposal was to extend the sales tax to gasoline, but this would have been administratively more difficult than simply raising the gas tax by 5 cents a gallon. Meekill said the public is getting fed up with highway projects, but is not yet willing to use mass transit systems, such as bus lines. He said the question people ask about new highways is: "Why is it that important for me to move so other people can drive from Maryland to Boston in half an hour less?" "We have to get the public accustomed to using some other means of getting from home to work," Meekill said. "We have to make mass transit just as, or more, convenient than the automobile."

Australia's Output

MAHRC Party
Set at School

The Manchester Association for the Help of Retarded Children will sponsor its annual Christmas party tomorrow afternoon. It will be held from 1 to 3 in the Robertson School auditorium and cafeteria. Mrs. Jean Harrington, special education teacher at Robertson and party chairman, said that 120-135 guests are expected. They will include 40 adults from the Manchester State Training School, Manchester Sheltered Workshop clients, and town special education classes.

The entertainment portion of the party will consist of the appearance of three Travelers Insurance Co. clowns, and music by a band consisting of Charles Cavanaugh, Gordon Lassow, Joseph Scoboliar and Kenneth Woods. Miss Kathy Fahay of East Hartford will put her collar. "Mandie," through a series of obedience maneuvers. A few weeks ago, Miss Fahay and her dog appeared on the Channel 3 "Hanger Andy" program.

Cyclist Killed

NORWALK (AP) — Thomas McNeill, 30, of Norwalk died Thursday after being injured in a proposed zone than are allowed in Residential A or AA at about 5:10 p.m. when a car collided with his motorcycle and a car collided on Westport Avenue, police said the committee members felt the quality of buildings in the proposed zone might be inferior.

Oil, Gas Expansion Due

MOSCOW — The Soviet Union plans to have an annual output of 800 million metric tons of oil and more than 200 billion cubic meters of gas by 1975.

Washington Whirl

WASHINGTON — Liberal Republican Sen. Charles McC. Mathias, who is reportedly very unpopular at the moment with the Nixon administration, got an invitation to join the Democratic party from someone who did the same thing himself years ago. Former Ambassador to the United Nations, at dinner the other night, told Mathias the Democrats would welcome him. Harriman reminded him that he, too, had been a Republican until 1924.

Mathias was the only official Republican present at the Harrimans' party until New York Gov. and Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller dropped in, after leaving the White House state dinner for Brazilian President Medici. Harriman's Democratic overture to Mathias came after recent reports that the senator is in disfavor with the White House for voting too often against his party. He was one of only two Republicans—the other was Sen. Charles Chase of New Jersey—who voted for the Nixon-opposed tax check-off plan for government finance during presidential campaigns.

An Evans-Novak column suggested that Mathias may be in danger of the same kind of GOP purging that greeted incumbent Sen. Charles Goodell in New York last year. Mathias won't comment publicly on the likelihood of such a move.

The dinner party which John Kenneth Galbraith was planning for Foreign Affairs Adviser Henry Kissinger in Cambridge, Mass., has been "postponed" until sometime in January. Kissinger must remain in Washington to watch developments between India and Pakistan.

The fact that Galbraith is "completely at odds" over the Nixon administration's pro-Pakistan policy had nothing to do with the party, he said. "If I avoided everyone I disagree with," he added, "I'd be a very lonely man."

Facing the World

The First Time is Easier with Mother's Help

I'd better carry you at first until you get your land legs

This looks like a good spot

The way to get strong is to run, run, run...

Now that wasn't too bad, was it?

A bushy-tailed baby squirrel's first day out of the nest could be hazardous without mother's help. A short course in running is the first step in preparing the inexperienced offspring for the future.

Okay—now that you can run—watch, and I'll teach you other things

Provisions Of the Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — These are the main provisions of the tax bill sent to President Nixon Thursday night by Congress. —An increase in the personal exemption, from $600 to $875 for 1971 and to $750 in 1972. —An increase in the minimum standard deduction, benefiting low-income persons, from $1,000 to $1,500 in 1972. —An increase in the percentage standard deduction to 15 per cent of adjusted gross income with a $2,000 ceiling in 1972 instead of the 14 per cent now scheduled.

Congress Passes Tax Cut Bill To Nixon as Payer Stimulant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has sent to President Nixon a bill cutting taxes for businesses and individuals by $15.8 billion over three years. He is expected to sign it quickly. Sponsors say they believe the President will want to move as soon as possible to approve the stimulative effects the measure is designed to have on the nation's economy. The Senate passed the compromise version of the legislation on a 71-4 vote Thursday, soon after the House cleared it, 320 to 74. One of the first effects of the measure, assuming it becomes law, will be refunds averaging $200 to some 3 million to 4 million buyers of new cars in the last four months. The 7-per-cent excise tax on autos is repealed retroactively to Aug. 16. All taxpayers should obtain somewhat larger refunds or owe slightly smaller final payments when they file their 1971 returns early next year, because of the increase in the 1971 personal exemption from $650 to $875. The bill boosts the exemption to $750 in 1972. This will bring some cuts in withholding for millions of taxpayers after next Jan. 15. ... in higher income brackets But many taxpayers in higher-income brackets will find they have more deducted from their checks each week even though their tax liability has been reduced. The reason is that there now is substantial underwithholding on these persons and the bill seeks to correct it. In the category are couples whose husband and wife work, persons earning more than $15,000 a year, and persons with two or more jobs. The measure boosts the lowest allowance or minimum standard deduction to $1,500 next year, compared with the $1,000 now scheduled. This will give special relief to about 20 million individuals in the lower brackets and wipe out income taxes entirely for 2.5 million of them. Under the bill a single person with $4,000 income would get a $24 cut in 1971 and $28 in 1972. With a $7,500 income, he would get a $41 tax reduction in 1971 and $52 in 1972. A married couple with two children and $7,500 income would pay $29 less in 1971 and $77 less in 1972. With two children and $12,500 income, the couple would get a $22 cut in 1971 and $25 in 1972. Business would benefit from a 7-per-cent tax credit for plant investment and provision for later depreciation write-offs. Senate Democrats made no attempt in the final debate to restore the 1972 effective date for the bitterly controversial presidential campaign financing plan. ... to overcome Nixon's objections Senate House conferees in an effort to overcome partially Nixon's strong objections to this plan so that he would sign sales corporations which U.S. the bill, put off the start of the firms could set up.

Slaying Suspect Found Innocent On Sanity Plea

HARTFORD (AP) — A Hartford man who allegedly stabbed three teen-aged children of his woman friend and then slashed his own throat was found innocent of manslaughter Thursday on grounds of insanity. Superior Court Judge James F. McGrath, who handed down the verdict, ordered defendant Garcia Reyes, 41, held in New York State Hospital for a 90-day examination to determine whether it would be dangerous to free him. Earlier in Reyes' trial two psychiatrists testified that he was insane when the three youngsters were stabbed with a kitchen knife April 26, 1967. Dr. George A. Tulin said last week Reyes was "still a chronic schizophrenic person." The defendant was charged after the three victims, the children of Ester Batista, were found dead in their blood-spattered apartment. They were Margarita, 12, Ana, 14, and Jose, 16. Reyes also was found in the apartment. He was unconscious and his throat had been slashed. Former Hartford County Coroner Light W. Schaeffer said after a preliminary investigation of the slayings that Reyes apparently became angry when he was rebuffed by Mrs. Batista. He said Reyes apparently cut his throat after the slayings. The defense brought only the two psychiatrists as witnesses during the trial, and the state offered only a rough outline of the events leading to the slayings.

Baseball Sets Auction Record

NEW YORK (AP) — A baseball signed by Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Bill Dickey, Tony Lazzeri and other members of the 1927 world champion New York Yankees team has been sold at auction for $200. Charles Hamilton Galleries said the sum paid Thursday night by a private collector was the highest auction price ever for a baseball.

Foreign Aid, Rehnquist Could Extend Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The continuing Senate-House deadlock on an end-of-the-war amendment to the foreign-aid bill appears to have insured that Congress will last a little longer than it has in the past.

Meanwhile, the House Thursday passed and sent to the Senate for final action a bill authorizing a $1.6-billion continuing resolution to keep the program in operation until sometime next year.

Senate leaders have refused to act on the bill until an agreement is reached on the separate foreign-aid authorization bill.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, whose amendment calling for total U.S. withdrawal from Indochina in six months is the principal item of disagreement, said he would refuse to sign any conference agreement without it.

On the House side, Rep. Thomas Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, remained adamant in opposing both the amendment and a plan to separate it from the rest of the bill and let the House vote on it.

House Majority Leader Hale Boggs said it would be impossible to adjourn this weekend because four bills dealing with the District of Columbia must be acted on. And under the House rules, Monday is the only day they can be taken up.

Police Indicted for Murder

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A black sheriff's lieutenant, a deputy sheriff and a city police officer have been indicted on first-degree murder charges in the slaying of a black teenager.

The Shelby County grand jury also indicted four other policemen on charges of assault and murder and a police inspector with neglect of duty.

The indictments were returned Thursday.

All but the sheriff's lieutenant are white and all have been released on bond.

The indictments stem from the fatal shooting Oct. 15 of Eric Hayes, 17, who died after he and two companions were arrested following a police auto chase. His death was blamed for five days of racial violence here.

The indictments climaxed a two-month investigation by the district attorney's office and three days of testimony before an all-male grand jury of ten whites and three blacks.

The study says in comparison to other cities and towns Watson provides "a very superior service" and suggests the city should decide if it wants such "a deluxe service."

Retroactive Pays Occupy Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is grappling with the question of whether to order retroactive payment of pay increases in the 90-day freeze.

The retroactive-pay issue dominated a four-day opening debate Thursday on legislation to extend retroactive payment of pay from April 30, 1971, and authorize the machinery be asked to administer Phase 2 of his anti-inflation program.

As submitted by the House Banking Committee, the bill would require retroactive pay to be paid to employees who were not previously negotiated pay hikes.

Rep. Joseph G. Minish, D-N.J., author of the committee provision, argued that authorizing retroactive payments would establish a double standard which Congress cannot condone.

"This provision clears the air and puts an end to conflicting and ambiguous rulings," Minish said.

But Rep. John B. Anderson of Illinois, chairman of the House Republican conference, said that, "if we allow for retroactive pay in cases like this, it would have a devastating effect on the economy."

The House gave up hope of completing work on a bill which must go to conference with a similar but not identical measure passed by the Senate-in time for the final product to be sent to President Nixon this week.

Among issues to be settled is a Senate provision canceling President Nixon's six-month postponement of a federal pay raise originally scheduled for Jan. 1.

Another provision in the Senate bill but not the House version, would exempt newspapers and other news media, broadcast, magazine and book publishers from price and wage controls.

Atom Smasher Damage Drops

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Bomb damage to the world's longest atom smasher will not exceed $40,000, says director Wolfgang Panofsky of the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center.

Original estimates for repairing damage done last Tuesday by a series of blasts at the tunnel under the San Francisco Peninsula hills ranged up to $100,000.

"There is as yet no further information on either the motive or method of execution of the bombing," Panofsky said Thursday.

Go Eagles Trounce Sacred Heart, Balanced Offense Marks First Win

Much to the delight of the usual capacity crowd, East Catholic High's lightning-like, new-look basketball team opened the 1971-72 season last night with an easy 96-62 decision over Sacred Heart High of Waterbury.

Quickness was the difference at the Eagle's Nest as Coach Stan Opreidun unveiled his last year's team.

Bob Callahan (20), Pete Esca (12) and Bobby Muffs (13) to school saw for the first time a Go-Go type squad, necessitated by lack of height.

"It was a typical first game," points, rugged Bill Goran dropped in 14, nine in each half. There were 141 in the blood from his ear that had in the second eight minutes scattered his shirt and nearly covered his back. It was a fine all-around game, with a freak injury but the opening night success was anything but "We'll be running more this season," he warned, and anyone on the premises last night can attest to that.

The Eagles nearly blew the invaders back to the Brass City in the first three minutes in running up to 10-2 edge.

"We've got a lot of work ahead, especially on defense," was really concerned before the game about our lack of experience but the boys came through well. It was a team effort, a combat single out any one player," Opreidun said.

A team effort with all five starters hitting double figures with veteran sharp-shooting Ken in minute splitting the cords for 24 points, including 11 hits from the field.

Especially pleasing to the Eagle board of strategy was the fine play of sophomore starter Joe Whelan. Seconds after Kevin Tierney, East's only big man, controlled the opening tip. Whelan started his try from the side of two points and all the Eagles were off winging.

The home crowd was all at the turns, 22-9, 53-32 and 76-40.

The invading Hearts, too, are short on height. They will depend upon outside shooting by East is now idle until one week from tonight. They have two troublemakers. St. Thomas Aquinas of New Britain visits the Eagle layover at Coach Jim Feenders were impressive in routing the young Hearts in the previous, 75-22.
