

Lebanon Hit By Israelis In Fourth Day

Israeli troops and tanks battled Palestinian guerrillas in southeast Lebanon for the fourth day today and then began withdrawing from their forward positions, Lebanese witnesses reported.

On Sunday, the U.N. Security Council demanded that Israel pull back its forces. Informants said Israeli infantry and armored units had pulled out of the village of Hebbariye, in the Arkoub region which guerrillas had controlled, shortly before noon.

The Palestinians said fighting continued around Rashayya, another major village in the region.

Israeli fighter planes were providing an air umbrella over the area, but there was no report that they had resumed bombing and strafing. The guerrillas said their anti-aircraft guns were in action.

Israeli sources in Tel Aviv admitted that action was continuing inside Lebanon but gave no details of today's operations. A communique said one Israeli soldier had been wounded, and a spokesman reported "about 20 terrorists" killed in ground fighting.

Witnesses on the Lebanese side of the border said they spotted 36 Israeli armored vehicles moving through Hebbariye. They reported 13 houses in the village had been blown up.

Machine-gun fire went on throughout the night and today.

U.N. Demands Withdrawal

Israeli batteries in positions in the occupied Golan Heights of Syria opened up on the wooded slopes around Rashayya, Foulhar, they said.

Palestinian guerrillas on the scene claimed to have mined exit roads in the area, and Arab radio reports said the guerrillas were bringing in reinforcements from Syria. Israeli officials said they would heed the Security Council resolution adopted earlier today, calling it "one-sided and cynical." The government had no immediate official comment, but an authorized official declared: "The Security Council is not going to interfere with our defending ourselves. Its resolution does not take into account the attacks we have suffered."

Britain, France, Belgium and Italy sponsored the resolution, which "demands that Israel immediately desist and refrain from any ground and air military action against Lebanon and forthwith withdraw all its military forces from Lebanese territory."

The Israeli attacks were in retaliation for guerrilla raids that killed four Israelis. But a provision in the resolution "deploring all actions which have resulted in the loss of innocent lives," failed to get the nine votes necessary for adoption by the 15-member council.

Israeli Ambassador Jacob Doron expressed regret that the resolution failed to mention what he called "the root cause" of the fighting—Lebanon's fall-

Allies Inside Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces launched a third operation into Cambodia Sunday amid another surge in fighting that killed or wounded nearly 200 enemy and South Vietnamese troops, the Saigon command announced today.

A communique claimed 138 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in nine engagements, while South Vietnamese casualties were 20 killed and 27 wounded.

The new operation into Cambodia was west of South Vietnam's southern M'ong plateau, about 180 miles northeast of Saigon. Spokesmen described the operation as a "reconnaissance in force" by 1,000 to 1,500 men to check infiltration into South Vietnam. Six enemy had been reported killed so far, and there have been no South Vietnamese casualties, the Saigon command said.

Two other operations totaling 5,000 men are under way in Cambodia. One and 200 miles farther south, aimed at blocking infiltration toward Saigon and into the western Mekong Delta.

One of them produced the first major fighting inside Cambodia by several weeks, north of the Saigon-Phnom Penh highway, when a South Vietnamese task force spearheaded by an armored column ran into heavy enemy fire. Fifty-two North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were reported killed in the clash 12 miles from the Vietnam border, along with 16 South Vietnamese killed and nine wounded.

U.S. fighter-bombers and helicopter gunships supported the South Vietnamese.

South Vietnamese Rangers on the third drive reported light contacts with enemy troops 15 to 20 miles east of Takeo and reported killing six. They said one ranger was wounded.

On South Vietnam's eastern coast, government infantrymen came under a 60-round mortar barrage followed by a ground attack near Dai Do, a district 45 miles southeast of Saigon. The South Vietnamese reported 14 enemy killed, all by air strikes, and said nine government troops were wounded.

In the northern part of the country, government forces claimed 52 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed in three engagements south of Hue and Da Nang. They said one South Vietnamese was killed and 14 were wounded.

Three South Vietnamese troops and three enemy were reported killed and four South Vietnamese were wounded in a fight in the U Minh forest. And

Crews Hunt 400 Lost in Flooding

MAN, W.Va. (AP) — National Guardsmen and hundreds of volunteers today found additional victims of the Buffalo Creek flood disaster as they began an intensive search of the 20-mile hollow that was virtually wiped out Saturday morning. An estimated 400 persons were missing.

Helicopters flying rescue missions brought five survivors from the Appalachian hollow this morning, persons who had been isolated for 48 hours since an earthen dam crumbled and let loose an 18-acre lake which devastated 14 coal camps and towns.

The official dead toll remained at 61, but reports filtering in from the flood area indicated many more had been found. An estimated 400 persons were missing.

Shortly before noon, three mobile health units equipped with physicians and emergency medical supplies set out up the hollow.

Sen. Jennings Randolph, chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee, landed at Man at 11 a.m. and said he would soon tour the flood area.

Randolph said he was exploring all available angles to obtain massive federal aid in the wake of the flood that has destroyed a way of life for an estimated 7,000 persons. More than 4,000 are reported to be homeless.

Local officials and state policemen claimed a lid on all official information.

All residents of the hollow whose homes escaped damage in the flooding were being evacuated by guardsmen, authorities said.

A spokesman said the evacuation was ordered to permit a cleanup of the entire area, and to enable all survivors to receive typhoid shots and medical examinations.

Newsman were under orders to remain away from the devastated area while recovery and evacuation efforts were under way.

Meanwhile, attention began to focus on the cause of a break in an earthen dam which precipitated the flash flood in Buffalo Creek hollow Saturday morning. Waters from an 18-acre lake were unleashed.

Ben Tudor, general superintendent of the Buffalo Mining Co., said the situation had been building for a long time.

He said the state had denied the coal company permission on many occasions to send some of the slag and sludge which had accumulated in the firm's lake into valley streams, relieving pressure on the dam.

"They were too concerned about the trout downstream," Tudor said. "It either had to be the people or the trout and now both are gone."

Authorities said they expected to find many more bodies as bulldozers began searching the remains of 14 Appalachians.

Nixon On TV

NEW YORK (AP) — All three major television networks announced plans for live coverage of President Nixon's return tonight from his trip to China. The arrival at Andrews Air Force Base near Washington was tentatively set for 9 p.m.

Nixon Back in U.S. After Historic Week

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — President Nixon returned to the American soil today after a historic week in China during which he pledged to withdraw all U.S. forces from Taiwan some day and agreed with the Chinese to develop bilateral trade, exchange programs and contacts between the two governments short of formal diplomatic relations.

As expected, there was no change in the two governments' opposing positions on Vietnam.

The Spirit of '76 landed the President and Mrs. Nixon at Anchorage's Elmendorf Air Force Base at 12:04 a.m.—5:04 a.m. EST. The presidential party was to rest for nine hours in Anchorage and will arrive in Washington tonight.

Nixon left Washington Feb. 17 and arrived in Peking on Monday, Feb. 21, the first U.S. president to visit China while in office.

"This was the week that changed the world... The Chinese and American people hold the future of the world in their hands," Nixon said at his final all U.S. forces from Taiwan banquet with Premier Chou En-lai in Shanghai Sunday night.

Journey For Peace

Nixon and Chou summed up their talks and separate discussions by Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Foreign Minister Chi-Peng-Fei in a 1,700-word communique issued Sunday. Explanations of the communique were given American newsmen at a briefing by presidential adviser Henry Kissinger and Marshall Green, the assistant secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific Affairs.

The communique (1) set forth statements of position from each side summing up their differing positions on Taiwan, Indochina, Japan and Korea; (2) expressed mutual adherence to certain general principles of international conduct; and (3) announced agreement to expand relations in various fields "to broaden the understanding between the two peoples."

Nixon at the banquet Sunday night noted that the communique showed areas of disagreement as well as agreement.

Plane Misses Home, Four Survive Crash

BLOOMFIELD (AP) — A single-engine Skylark plane crashed behind a house early this morning, police said. No one was reported seriously injured.

Three of the plane's four occupants were treated and released at Mt. Sinai Hospital.

They were identified as Eugene Young and his wife, Elizabeth, of Vincentown, N.J., and Ronald Ward, 18, of Vineland, N.J.

The pilot of the plane, Sheridan Sexton, 30, of Vineland, was reported in satisfactory condition.

Police said Sexton was apparently trying to make an emergency landing when the plane struck tree tops and crashed. The plane was en route from Rhode Island to New Jersey, police said.

The extent of damage to the plane was not immediately known. The plane had stopped at Brainerd Airport about 2 a.m. and was on its way to Bradley Field. The Bradley Field tower was in contact with Sexton when the plane went down, after apparently developing carburetor trouble.

Several Bloomfield residents, hearing the sputtering engine, notified the fire department that a plane was in trouble.

The plane fell at about 5 a.m. into an apple orchard that separates two farm fields off Arnold Dr. It took about 20 minutes to free the pilot, then all four were taken to Mt. Sinai Hospital by ambulance.

Because first reports indicated that a fire might develop and because it was not known whether the plane was large or small, the police and fire departments sent all available equipment to the scene. In addition, a crowd of about 100 persons gathered there.

Mrs. Claire Scapellati, whose house is about 75 yards from where the plane crashed, remarked, "It sounded just like a snowplow."

Inmates at Somers Confined to Cells

SOMERS (AP) — The confinement of inmates to their cells at the state maximum security prison following a one-minute demonstration in the dining hall during a hunger strike will continue indefinitely, officials said today.

More than 900 inmates were said to be participating in the hunger strike.

"A selective boycott of meals began Friday evening at Somers," John R. Manson, state commissioner of correction, said. "During the lunch meal Sunday, inmates who chose to eat were attacked by other inmates in the dining hall."

"In the scuffle, which lasted less than one minute, one inmate suffered minor injuries," Manson said in a statement.

He said "for the safety of all concerned" all the 1,050 inmates at the prison were "returned to their housing areas for an indefinite period."

Manson said he still did not know what was the object of the protest, but "we picked up concerns ranging from food to parole decisions."

The hunger strike began Friday when about 100 to 150 inmates refused to eat. Saturday and Sunday, a majority of the inmates joined the hunger strike, Manson said.

With the convicts locked in their cells, the customary recreation periods and work in the prison shops have been suspended, the commissioner said.

They were given sandwiches through their doors, but many refused to eat, officials said. "We are continuing to make food available to all the in-

Muskie Calls Unity Aim of Democrats

By SOL E. COHEN (Herald Reporter)

"Unity" was the game and "harmony" was its name Saturday night as more than 1,500 state Democrats jammed the Hartford Hilton for their annual Jefferson-Jackson Dinner.

The unity and harmony were stressed on the national level by Maine Sen. Edmund Muskie, and on the state level by Connecticut Sen. Abraham Ribicoff and former Gov. John Dempsey.

Muskie, the frontrunner for Democratic nomination for president, said "I don't want to be president on the terms of appealing to disunity in the country and to the various divisions among us. The selection of a national leader must be on the basis of unity only. That is what is meant by a national leader."

Ribicoff and Dempsey concentrated on praise for Democratic State Chairman John Bailey. Both sought to heal the wounds opened four weeks ago when Emilio Daddario, the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1970, criticized the party's leadership and aligned himself with party dissidents.

Saturday night, Daddario was one of the 32 dignitaries at the head table introduced by Bailey, who called him, "My friend, Mimi Daddario."

Daddario was not called upon to speak. He received moderate applause—equal to that given most of the 32 introduced. Only Muskie, Ribicoff, Dempsey, Ella Grasso, Gloria Schaffer and Robert Killian received a warmer welcome.

About 1,750 tickets had been sold for the Saturday event—most of them at $100-a-plate, but many at $25. The Democrats netted close to $100,000, toward wiping out their 1970 campaign deficit and toward putting some aside for their campaign this fall.

The 1,500 who attended were seated in the Hilton's Ballroom and Terrace Room, in several dining rooms on the fourth floor, and in the hotel's Guardsmen's Restaurant.

Bailey took note of the attendance when he remarked, "A turnout like this, on a cold, snowy night, means something special—that we'll win in '72." "Your presence here tonight and your enthusiasm is proof positive that the Democratic Party in Connecticut is alive and well — that it is ready to work for victory in this year's presidential, congressional and legislative elections.

Bailey's Reply

After the applause had died down, Bailey, visibly moved, replied, "To say the least, I'm slightly embarrassed, because I'm not really that good. The only sure thing in politics, Abe, is that you'll run again and win again in 1974."

Dempsey, in a prepared statement, said, "I think it is our Democratic leaders in the state who are the ones who are speaking for no personal candidacy, but for the people's sake. He must appeal to their hopes, and my whole life justifies the belief that America is the place of hope."

Turning his sights on the economic picture, he said, "Constitution doesn't need a war to be prosperous. Connecticut needs the kind of national leadership that is more concerned with economic stability than election results."

He said that, "as an American and as a United States senator," he hopes President Nixon's trip to China "will mean peace — not just in Asia and not just for the moment — but peace for all mankind and for us and our children."

Then he contrasted the quest for peace abroad with the lack of economic stability at home. He quoted the late John F. Kennedy, "This is a great country, and it can be even greater."

"His words," Muskie said, "were true then and they're true today. We all share his vision for our land. We all share his optimism."

He concluded with the pledge, "I'm aware of my faith in this country and in its people and, if I'm chosen, I'm ready to take on the task of leading all factions — all people. I want us all to share in a new beginning."

Departs From Text

Muskie departed from his prepared text when he was about halfway into it. He concentrated on unity.

"It is for the interests of all that we must build a healthy and united country," he said. "We must do away with the symptoms of the dread disease of disunity. A man should never appeal to the people's ears. He must appeal to their hopes, and my whole life justifies the belief that America is the place of hope."

Turning his sights on the economic picture, he said, "Constitution doesn't need a war to be prosperous. Connecticut needs the kind of national leadership that is more concerned with economic stability than election results."

Magnesium is especially important as an activator of enzymes through which we use protein and vitamins. ... It also helps the utilization of potassium. ... In a way, magnesium is the "control mineral" that keeps the body working. ... Lack of it can produce many kinds of adverse symptoms that vary from "the blues" to degrees of muscle weakness. ... The most satisfactory way to get the magnesium we need is through the diet. ... The best food sources of magnesium are nuts (especially almonds) and seeds — sunflower, sesame, caraway. ... Stairwell Gallery Show Will Feature Two Artists

Richard Miller, a 1966 graduate of Manchester High School and presently living in Hartford, and Janis Groover Boice, instructor at the Hartford Art School, will be the artists featured in the sixth exhibition this year at the Stairwell Gallery of Manchester Community College.

The two-man show will open Friday night with a showing of the science-fiction film, "Them," in the cafeteria of the Hartford Rd. building. A reception for the artists will follow. The exhibit is open to the public, and there is no admission charge.

The works will remain on display until March 31. Gallery hours are 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday. Miller will exhibit surrealist paintings, and Mrs. Boice's works will be minimal paintings on paper.

Miller attended the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts from 1967 to 1969 and was on a full scholarship the second year. He has shown at the Charles Street Gallery and the Ward Mansey Gallery in Boston and at the Ward Mansey Gallery in New York City. He is currently exhibiting at "Reflections," New Hartford gallery.

Last summer, he was awarded second place in the Gallery on the Green's open show, and this led to a one-man show at the gallery for two weeks in November. Miller was also represented in the First New England Crafts and Arts exhibition in New Haven earlier this month. He is currently exhibiting at the Hartford Bulletin Bulletin reports.

The Bulletin said in its Sunday edition Annenberg was in the process of redecorating his home in suburban Wynnewood, full scholarship the second year. A Wonderful Age... Last week a group of students from Manchester High School, linked together by their capacity to demand a snowy slope on skis, spent their vacation period in Austria, letting over and back, much as if they were merely making their way from one New England ski resort to another.

It is a fear that the two great world powers of the United States and Communist China might make peace between themselves at the expense of the smaller nations who have been their client states.

Formosa fears that the United States, having already stood by while it was expelled from the United Nations, may be guilty of planning to leave Formosa at the future mercy of mainland China.

There is one thing, however, these small nations may be neglecting to realize.

They very probably would not be in trouble now if it had not been that the big powers had themselves had an uncontrollable instinct to involve and use the smaller nations as pawns and instruments in their own big rivalries and confrontations.

China and Russia, looking at Saigon, saw not Saigon, but Paris and Washington.

It was this kind of instinctive big power appraisal, from both directions, which led each side to beef up the resolve and the military potential and the military activity of the small nations down in the Southeast Asian cockpit.

Even if they realize this, however, that realization does not ease the problem for capitalists such as Hanoi and Saigon. What the big powers have done to them contractions cannot be undone completely and fairly by having the big powers suddenly renounce all interest in them and all obligation to them.

WASHINGTON — President Nixon has tentatively picked the two party leaders of the Senate—Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania—for a high-level, follow-on trip to China. If justified by the results of his own "journey for peace."

Manfield and Scott, in fact, nearly made the trip with the President, on two grounds: First, their presence would have involved Congress in Mr. Nixon's spectacular policy switch.

Town Councilman To Seek 53rd District Nomination

Jesse Brainard, a Republican member of Coventry's Town Council, has announced his intention to seek the nomination as state representative from the newly drawn 53rd Assembly District, which includes the towns of Coventry, Tolland and Willington.

With the new district, Coventry loses its current representative, Dorothy Miller, since she is a resident of Bolton. That town, with Coventry and Andover, made up the old 51st District.

Atty. Robert King of Tolland is also an incumbent and a Republican, and has as yet made no announcement on candidacy. Brainard said his experience on the Town Council suggested that he would be a good candidate for the 53rd District.

Brainard made the announcement at the Coventry GOP Town Committee's annual road beef dinner Saturday night, stating that it has been a long-considered decision.

Orioles Head List Of Unsigned Players

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates and Baltimore Orioles hardly resemble championship teams these days.

The world champion Pirates signed their first in-season free agent, pitcher Tom Seaver, to a five-year, $10-million contract.

The Orioles, meanwhile, have other problems. Even though they finished last season with a 70-86 record, they are still looking for a pitcher to replace the late Steve Carlton.

They are also looking for a catcher to replace the late Earl Williams.

The Orioles' general manager, Bowie Kuhn, said he is looking for a pitcher who can pitch in the rotation and be a backup.

He also wants a catcher who can handle the pitching of the Orioles' rotation.

Workers Speed Hunt For Trapped Victims
MAN, W. Va. (AP) — The commander of National Guard troops working in the area where 16 Appalachian coal camps were devastated by floods today said the death toll, which now stands at 70, probably will not exceed 90.
"Most of those that were reported missing are probably alive," said Col. William P. Maroney.
There were still about 200 persons listed as missing or unaccounted for after Saturday's flash flood in Buffalo Creek Hollow, but Maroney said he believed most of those were alive but had not come out from the hollow. Normal access to the stricken area was cut off.
Relief agencies began in earnest today the task of finding living quarters for the thousands of homeless from the valley by coal camps.
It was reported earlier in the day that 30 survivors had been discovered by rescue workers huddled in a coal shaft. The report, which was supplied by an aide to Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr., later proved erroneous, however.
More than 4,000 persons were left homeless following the flood, caused when tons of water broke through a mining company dam and spilled through the hollow.
Officials of federal and relief agencies Monday night cleared the books out of the public in the area and began setting up offices to provide emergency aid.
Monday afternoon the Federal Housing Administration began taking applications for emergency housing by 150 sign they had received from more than 100 coming in.
National Guardsmen manning bulldozers and other heavy equipment, continued to sift debris in search of bodies and survivors.
Surveying the splintered buildings and twisted metal frames of cars in the community of Landoles, perhaps the hardest by the raging floodwaters, State Police Cpl. Walter Garrett said, "We estimate that 1,000 people or more lived in this area."

Lifting Off the Table Choice Beef Really Dear
BY DON KENDALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Supermarket beef prices rose three cents a pound in January, including a sharp gain in what farmers get for cattle, according to the Agriculture Department.
A USDA report Monday said choice beef cost consumers a record $1.11 per pound last month, compared with $1.08 in December. Of that, farmers got 74.1 cents compared with 71.9 in December. Compared with a year earlier they received nearly 23 per cent more for their share of what consumers paid.
Department economists have predicted net farm incomes will rise this year to a record level, largely because of higher livestock prices.
The breakdown of what farmers receive from the super-market was included in a "market basket" report on food prices. The market basket is a list of commodities used to show how much it costs to feed a typical family for one year.
At January's rate, the market basket cost $1,275 compared with $1,198 in December. The farmers' share in January was $511 compared with $491 in December.
The farmers' share of each dollar consumers spent on food last month was 42.3 cents compared with 38.7 cents in January and 37.5 cents a year earlier, the report said.
The report said food-price comparisons are "usually tied closely" to prices reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.
"However, in January the BLS food-at-home index did not change while the market-basket retail cost increased slightly. The increase was due mainly to a further rise in the price of beef and pork during the latter part of the month," the department said.
Officials said prices in the market basket were for the entire month of January while BLS prices were for the first week of the month.
Higher returns for beef cattle, hogs and some vegetables accounted for most of the increase from December to January and offset lower prices for eggs and fresh fruits," the report said.

Senators Approve Women's Rights Bill
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee approved 141 today a proposed constitutional amendment to guarantee women equal rights with men under federal and state law.
A substitute proposal by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., unacceptable to women's rights organizations and other modifications were rejected by a 10-7 vote.
Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., chief Senate sponsor of the approved amendment, said he was very heartened by the committee's action but added that a hard battle still lies ahead in the Senate itself.
Leaders of women's organizations pushing for Senate adoption of the amendment maintained that Ervin's substitute would nullify its purpose and be worse than nothing.
Ervin contends the amendment would wipe out laws needed to protect the health and safety of women.
It provides that equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of sex.
The AFL-CIO has been one of the chief opponents, contending the amendment could have a destructive effect on such laws as those that bar women from certain jobs.

Bus Bill Vote Due
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate reversed itself today and voted to defeat an amendment to visit China and Taiwan, R.-Mich., seeking to eliminate power of the federal courts to issue banning orders in school desegregation cases.
WASHINGTON (AP) — A sharply divided Senate today returns to the bitter dispute over banning of school children for desegregation purposes.
Forces supporting a tough anti-bussing stance appeared nearly evenly matched against those backing a milder approach. Because of a complex parliamentary situation, it will take at least five separate votes to produce a settlement, but that could come by day's end.
The Senate Monday considered other aspects of the bill authorizing $2 billion for higher education and $1.5 billion for school desegregation. Senators adopted a proposal aimed at ending discrimination against women from grade school through graduate school.
The Senate has agreed to wind up all work on the bill Wednesday.
Civil rights forces were cautious.

'No Secret Deals:' Nixon

Taipei Claims Sellout
TAIPEI (AP) — Nationalist China's premier and its National Assembly accused President Nixon today of selling out old friends and said Chiang Kai-shek's government cannot forgive him for negotiating with Communist China.
"The Chinese Communist regime is a rebel group which has no right to represent the people of mainland China," said a resolution adopted by the assembly. "The people and government of the Republic of China cannot forgive the negotiations which President Nixon has conducted with them."
The assembly was elected in 1946, before Chiang was expelled from the mainland, and meets every six years to re-elect him president.
The resolution joined the Foreign Ministry in condemning Chiang's government will consider "null and void" any agreement reached between Nixon and the Communists concerning the Nationalists.
Premier C. K. Yen—without mentioning the name—accused the President of betraying his own principles and his Nationalist friends by bargaining with the regime in Peking.
"Some non-Communist countries, lacking foresight and obvious of the difference between right and wrong or advantage and disadvantage, have given up their principles and came to consider foes as friends," Yen told the assembly.
"As a result, they have played into the hands of the enemy. People yearning for peace but have forgotten some of the cherished and eternal values of civilization and are neglecting the necessity of upholding principles of righteousness and justice."
Yen said he has assembly resolution made any mention of Nixon's pledge in his joint declaration with the Communists that the United States would withdraw its forces from Taiwan, tensions in Asia taper off. This also was ignored in the earlier Foreign Ministry criticism.
But the Foreign Ministry gave the impression the Nationalists suspect Nixon agreed to more than was disclosed in the communiqué with Chou En-lai, it said.
President Chiang and his government will disregard "any agreement which has been, and which may not have been, published involving the rights and interests of the government of the Republic of China."
"Our question can be solved only when the government of the Republic of China... has succeeded in its tasks of the recovery of the mainland, the unification of China and the deliverance of our compatriots." it added.

Home From Orient
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon gave congressional leaders a report on his historic journey to China today after telling the nation his talks with Communist leaders showed the need for a more enduring structure for peace' without secret deals undercutting any policy.
The chief executive followed the 80-minute meeting with 21 Republican and 11 Democratic House and Senate leaders with a separate session for his Cabinet.
He gave each congressman a set of meeting boxes he had brought from China, and presented his Cabinet members with a small jewel box and a tea cup.
White House spokesmen did not immediately give details of the congressional and cabinet meetings, but Nixon appeared to soothe conservatives fretting about his pledge to ultimately withdraw all U.S. troops from Taiwan.
House Speaker Carl Albert, 80, immediately gave details of the congressional and cabinet meetings, but Nixon appeared to soothe conservatives fretting about his pledge to ultimately withdraw all U.S. troops from Taiwan.

Troops, Bombers Pounce On Red Force in North
SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces had ended a two-day reconnaissance operation three miles inside Cambodia about 17 miles southeast of Saigon, Monday, a strike by an F-105 fighter-bomber against a North Vietnamese command post there was reported to have resulted in 200 casualties, the command reported.
In one of six clashes reported in the Hue-Da Nang area today and Monday, reinforcements called in to aid an ambushed artillery column made a successful counterattack and killed 21 enemy soldiers, the South Vietnamese command said.
Conceded enemy mortar rounds at the column were reported to have killed four South Vietnamese soldiers and damaged two trucks slightly.
But the reinforcements attacked the enemy gunners, capturing a limbo mortar, 21 shells, a light machine gun and five rifles. One soldier in the relief force was wounded, the command reported.
U.S. B2 bombers for the third day made bombing runs against what senior officers described as a continuing enemy buildup in the country's northern quarter. Five formations of aircraft destroyed and killed 20 enemy soldiers, the command said.
President Nguyen Van Thieu said he expects a major offensive in the northern or central sectors next summer. He said the objective will be to influence American public opinion in an attempt to defeat President Nixon in the presidential election. His prediction was reported by Vietnam Press, the government news agency.
Thieu, however, did not rule out the earlier offensive which U.S. officials have been predicting.
