

Grants Attend Convention

Fourth District American Legion Com. and Mrs. Richard M. Grant of Wall St. leave tomorrow to attend the National American Legion Convention in Chicago, Ill.

Grant is a convention delegate and has been named to the committee on economics covering employment and veteran's preference.

While in Chicago, the Grants will be housed at the Palmer House, convention headquarters for the American Legion Auxiliary, with the other members of the Connecticut delegation.

The expect to return to Hebron Tuesday evening at 7 at the Town Office Building to endorse candidates for registrar of voters and justices of the peace.

Democratic Town Committee Chairman Richard Keeffe has appointed Lee Erickson, Mrs. Cynthia Wilson and Sal Mastandrea to present a slate of nominees at the caucus.

GMC Responds To Warning On Steering

WASHINGTON (AP) — In response to a government warning to consumers, General Motors says it will install special shields on all of its full-sized 1971 and 1972 models to prevent possible loss of steering control.

The GM announcement came Thursday after publication by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration of a "consumer protection bulletin" warning owners of 3.5 million 1971 and 1972 GM cars that rocks or gravel could lock up steering control.

The NHTSA bulletin said all full-size Pontiacs, Buicks, Oldsmobiles and Chevrolets are susceptible to gravel or rocks becoming lodged in the lower frame of the vehicle, at the steering column or the base of the steering column.

Rodrigue took the ace of spades and returned the suit to get on with the job of setting up dummy's long suit. East won a trick instead of ten. Live and let live is a good motto in all countries, at least at the bridge table.

Sheinwold on Bridge

Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes. You hold: Spades, Q-J; Hearts, 6; Diamonds, 8-7-4-3; Clubs, Q-J-7-6. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs. As a rule, you show a new suit rather than raise partner's minor suit. In this case, your diamond suit is not worth showing. The important feature of the hand is your club support.

Chairs Bad For Yefin

An Auckland, N. Z.—Dr. Colin Alexander, an Auckland Medical School anatomist, suggests that the custom of sitting in chairs may be why civilized man gets various types of rheumatism and other ailments while those who sit on the ground or the floor are almost entirely free of them.

Coventry Funds Approved For Bridge Work

Coventry residents approved a $31,000 appropriation for design work on five bridges at a special town meeting Wednesday night. The vote on the matter was 28-4.

The work will be done by Griswold and Fuss of Manchester, town engineers, and is expected to take about 180 days.

Earlier this year, the Town Council had requested the designers look at ten bridges and make a preliminary report on their condition. Of the ten bridges investigated, five were found to be structurally unsound and in need of reconstruction.

Theodore Edward Underway, Hilman-Ford-Congress activity starts in Coventry on Saturday when the drive to distribute bumper stickers begins.

Materials about the Democratic candidate for U.S. Representative from the Second District, Roger Hilman, will be distributed in shopping centers, according to Fred Contessa, Coventry coordinator for Hilman.

A voter registration drive will also begin Saturday in conjunction with the bumper sticker campaign.

Democratic headquarters will open in September and serve as the focal point for local Hilman activity, according to Debby Bessett, Hilman campaign chairman.

Persons wishing to volunteer to canvass for the campaign or Saturday's distribution effort should contact Contessa at his home.

Bolton GOP Picks Slate

Bolton Republicans nominated six persons to serve as justices of the peace and one to serve as registrar of voters at a caucus earlier this week.

Those selected for the justice of the peace posts were Douglas Cheney, John Harris, Milton Jensen, Nancy Lambert, Norma Tefford and Laura Toomey. All are incumbents.

Virginia Assard was again nominated to serve as registrar of voters.

All those nominated will automatically be elected to the posts. Each party is allowed to choose six justice candidates and one registrar.

Suffolk Turnout

Bolton will enter a town team in the Greater Manchester slow pitch softball league to be held this weekend at Charter Oak Park, Manchester.

The elimination tournament will begin tomorrow at 11:15 a.m. at the park and Bolton players, to be known as the Royals, hope to have a cheering section from home.

Vote-Making Session

There will be a voter making session Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the town hall. Persons who are

Two Lottery Winners

Two Manchester people were big winners yesterday, one in the Connecticut lottery and one in the Massachusetts lottery.

Honore E. Russell was a $5,000 winner in yesterday's Connecticut drawing. June LaShay was a $2,500 winner in the Massachusetts drawing.

Russell, who purchased his ticket at the Army-Navy Club on Main St., was at work when he found out. He didn't get too excited, he said, but the thought that he is now eligible to win $70,000 makes him "a little jumpy."

Miss LaShay bought her ticket while on Cape Cod for her vacation in the first two weeks of August. She was at work at Pratt and Whitney Aircraft in East Hartford when she found out that the last five digits on her ticket matched this week's Massachusetts number. She reacted with "disbelief," she said, and remained "too calm." Miss LaShay came tantalizingly close to winning $50,000. Her number was 929937. The number drawn was 72957.

Russell has no particular plans for his money, but said he might buy a new refrigerator and a new television. Miss LaShay said she may buy a color television, but otherwise has no particular plans.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Old-Maid Sister In Mental Change

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.
Dear Dr. Lamb - I have an 85-year-old spinster sister living with me. She has very ways of being a very religious, truthful person until last year she tells of viewing people and that the children stop and tell her they love her and there isn't a word of truth in it. Not only that, if anyone tells a story, she can always top it. A friend told of being in a tornado that did a lot of damage to his house, and she told him that she was in one that blew her out in the front yard. She never tells the truth and she accuses people of stealing things and hides things. What happens to a person's mind that makes them get like that? A doctor gave her a checkup a year ago and found nothing physically except a little anemia. Will it help if I tell her she is wrong? I don't believe she would believe it as she's a very strong-minded.

Dear Reader - This is one of the sad aspects of later years. A number of older people will develop distinct personality changes. The changes may be in the spoken minister, for example, may suddenly develop a violent temper which was never known before. They loved ones using language his family didn't even know he knew.

In women this occurs gradually and isn't always directly associated with disease of the arteries. In men it's more apt to occur suddenly. A number of these episodes are caused by disease of the small arteries in the brain. They will impede the circulation parts of the brain which

Vernon Notes

The Vernon Committee to Re-Elect the President will officially open its headquarters tomorrow, at the corner of Elm St. and Pleasant View in Vernon. Richard MacDonald, chairman of the committee said that Vernon is one of 38 towns in that state being given high priority in the Nixon campaign. Opening day will feature a bumper sticker drive at the local shopping centers.

Expected to attend tomorrow's ceremonies are state Senator, Connecticut chairman of the Committee to Re-Elect the President; Congressman Robert Steele; and Vernon Mayor Frank McCloy. The "Nixoneters," part of the Youth for Nixon group, will be assisting at headquarters and with the bumper sticker drive.

George D. Maharaj, who has been Republican registrar of voters for several years, has been nominated by the Vermont Republicans to run for that position again in the November election. Maharaj was nominated by the Republican Caucus held Tuesday night.

Play Troupe
Troupes for parts in "Any Wednesday" to be presented by the newly formed Triad-Town Players little theater group, will be held Wednesday and Thursday at the Little Field Building, Henry Park at 7:30 p.m.

State Mayors Seek Property Tax Relief

BRIDGEPORT, (AP) - The Connecticut Conference of Mayors called on the Governor's Commission on Tax Reform Thursday to make property tax relief the cornerstone of any reform of the state's tax structure.

The mayors echoed the sentiments of many of the speakers at the second public hearing held by the commission, which was charged by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill with the task of coming up with suggestions for tax reform.

The commission found moderate support for a state property tax exemption, and some speakers pleaded for a reduction of taxes in almost all revenue-producing areas.

The hearing attracted 150 speakers, more than 75 per cent of whom represented private and business interests.

Heralding Politics Ribicoff Claims U.S. Arms Sold on Black Market

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - U.S. Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, (Conn., charged Thursday that surplus American military goods are being sold around the world on the black market.

Ribicoff said in a statement that "American trucks, howitzer cannon, 50 caliber machine guns and Nike-Ajax missiles are among the items arms traffickers are selling to nations which are often incapable of buying them on the open market."

He added that the Senate permanent investigating subcommittee, of which he is a member, has already begun hearings on this issue. The subcommittee has not released the names of the nations receiving the surplus goods.

"In many instances, it is specific U.S. policy not to sell American weapons to a specific country. But through the surplus system, which undermines U.S. foreign policy, the blacklisted nations have their pick of U.S. military equipment," Ribicoff charged.

Ribicoff charged that in one instance 400 Nike-Ajax missiles were smuggled from a U.S. base in Germany.

He also said that the weapons are declared surplus the United States Government all too often loses track of them.

The Senate hearings, according to Ribicoff, revealed that American officials failed to destroy a shipment of 400 Nike Ajax guided missiles which were subsequently illegally removed and sold on the black market. These missiles are 24 feet long and weigh about 2,200 pounds.

He also cited a case told Senate investigators about 200 surplus American military trucks which had originally cost the government $1.1 million to buy.

Two Candidates Guest of LBJ
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) - Sen. George McGovern will be accompanied by Sargent Shriver when he visits Texas with former President Lyndon B. Johnson, McGovern spokesman says.

The Democratic presidential and vice presidential candidates will go to the LBJ ranch, 85 miles west of Austin, for a political chat with Johnson, who on Wednesday announced his endorsement of McGovern.

Incomplete plans announced Thursday called for McGovern to spend the night at the Austin lake Monday night. McGovern's party will spend the night at an Austin motor hotel.

Both McGovern and Shriver plan to leave Austin shortly after the meeting with Johnson. No other McGovern stops are planned in Texas at this time, a spokesman said.

Sen. McGovern Draws Area Youth to Hartford

By SUE KLEMENS
George McGovern's visit to Hartford last week did not go unnoticed by the youth of greater Hartford. A crowd of about 250 people, over half of them in teens and twenties, greeted McGovern on his arrival at Bradley with cries of "Yeah, George!" or "We Love McGovern." Many carried posters and placards bearing such slogans as "We Love McGovern" or "For Schools, Not Bombs, Vote for McGovern."

A Day in the Life of Little Joey Tyke

By DAVE LARSSON
One of the great tribal rituals most associated in my mind with the summer in Hartford is the "Joey Tyke" ritual. It is a deeply rooted in the murky depths of my memory. This memory seems best presented in the following manner:
Little Joey Tyke is approximately seven years old and is the terror of the block. And his household. On any given summer day, Joey risks at seven o'clock, the sleep of his mother or the peace of the neighborhood notwithstanding. With a flying jump, Joey is out of his pajamas (or "jammies" in less sophisticated circles) and onto his playboy hike. His morning hours are filled with especially enlightening activities, many of his favorite, playing chicken with cars going at high speeds. Joey just loves to cross busy

Opinion You Can't Fight 'Natural Order'

For those of you who worry about Man destroying this earth with his pollution or his bombs, don't fret. There is nothing to worry about. Nature has dealt with every problem since the beginning of time to no end other than to perpetuate herself. This selfish attitude we can be thankful for, for without it, Nature would not exist.
At one point in time man was created, as an experiment if for no other reason. For millions of years, man fit in - went along so to speak, with the existence that Mother Nature had devised for him. Only within the last few centuries has man abused his privilege of existence by scheming to kidnap Mother Nature and demand progress and development in exchange for the Mother's fruits of eternity. Mankind, however, neglected to realize that he himself was one of those fruits, and so he unwittingly demanded his own extinction.
After the human race wipes itself out of existence, Planet Earth will continue on its course around the sun, virtually unchanged except for the fact that no people will be going around controlling all other forms of life (unless humanity ends its existence with a bang by blowing the entire planet to pieces, which is another possibility whereby all life here will have to cease).
After people are gone, the ecology will make some adjustments, new relationships among animals and plants will be formed, and a new balance, a whole new system of interdependence of living things, will arise. The new natural order will form out of those living things that survive the destruction of Man, and it will exist as this one has existed - that is, on its own terms, or it will alter itself once again. The Natural Order of things cannot be fought, for it will always and ultimately triumph. For it is only natural.

MCPJ Plans Viet Dinner

Tuesday, Aug. 22, the Manchester Committee for Peace and Justice will host a Vietnamese Dinner in conjunction with the Committee of Responsibility of Newellton, Mass. The event will be held at 7 p.m. at Assumption Church, S. Adams St., Manchester.
The dinner, to be followed by the film "The Evil Hour" and a guest speaker, Dr. Marge Nelson (Mrs. Robert Perris) will center around the Vietnamese child as a victim of circumstance. It is one of several projects initiated by the Committee of Responsibility to raise money for the rehabilitation of wounded Vietnamese children.

SUMMER YOUTH SCENE

Lisa Larson tries on a leather belt at the SAM Crafts Fair held at Center Park last Saturday.

Fair and Concert Both Successful

Last Saturday Center Park became transformed into an open air market through the efforts of area artists, who displayed their wares at a fair sponsored by SAM (Summer Activities in Manchester).
The 45 artists bargained away their pottery, leatherwork, stained glass, artwork, needlecraft, jewelry, and home baked goods. The fair was a success, with many items sold. The artists, while sipping on homemade root beer and other culinary delights.
SAM charged a five per cent commission for all craftspeople under 21, and 10 per cent commission for those 21 and over, in order to finance other SAM programs.
Following the fair, a rock concert was held at Mt. Nebo, Two bands, "Plastic Sam" and "Electric Cowboy," drove their sounds into an audience of about 2,500 people.
Mark Stankin and Stan Geidel, who emceed the show, goaded some spectators into picking up SAM (Summer Activities in Manchester).
Present at SAM activities is the Manchester Committee for Peace and Justice, which distributes information about the war in Indochina, and presents a slide show on automated warfare.

of which were children. She will speak primarily of her experiences in Quang Ngai, as well as focusing on the "victims" of war, the children of Vietnam.
"The Evil Hour," a film which documents both the physical and psychological effects of continuous warfare on the lives of Vietnamese children, will supplement the theme of the dinner.
Also provided by the Committee of Responsibility is a set of drawings done by Vietnamese children which illustrate lives in Vietnam. Concerned with love, family, and the beauty of Vietnam, the children who drew these pictures reflect a deep love for their country and people. The children's art work are on display at the Mary Cheney Library on Main St. in Manchester and will be exhibited at the Vietnamese Dinner.
Tickets and information may be obtained from The Manchester Committee for Peace and Justice, 22 W. Center St., Manchester.

Taxes' Negative; Americans Find

By John Cuniff
NEW YORK (AP) - There is hardly a family in America that doesn't discuss - if that is the proper word - taxes, often with awe or even indignation. Taxes are negative. Taxes take away. Taxes are wasted. The subject of taxes also is being because, as most families have learned, there isn't much you can do about them but pay, and that is a very unsatisfactory catalyst for strong emotions.
Eventually, therefore, most such discussions are terminated for the sake of the family's well-being. But if you worked for the Tax Foundation, Inc. you couldn't permit yourself the luxury of trying to forget. You remember.
At the foundation you think about taxes constantly rather than sporadically. It's your job, but your outlook, judging from the tone of the foundation's reports, isn't any different. Taxes are too high. Money is wasted. The only real difference is that the foundation does something about it. They write about taxes, thousands upon thousands of words about them. And the effect? Well, taxes are rising, but the foundation now are some of the biggest names in American industry.
The motto of the foundation is "toward better government through citizen understanding," but since it is the citizens who permit themselves to be taxed, one wonders if it is achieving its basic goal.

B.B. King: Winner And Still Champion

By ERNESTINE GUGLIELMO
STILL NO. 1 - B. B. King is wallowing in praise... both from critics and from other guitarists.
For the third year in a row, Downbeat magazine's annual International Critics Poll picked B. B. King as the Best Artist of the Year.
King also kept his three-year "Most Popular Guitarist" in the blues field from Guitar Player magazine. This rating comes from a poll of guitarists from all over the world.
MARY MAGDALENE MARRIES - Yvonne Ellman, who created the role of Mary Magdalene in the opening road company of Jesus Christ, Superstar, will play the same role in the movie version, which is filming in Israel.
Besides her hit song, "I Don't Know How to Love Him," Yvonne has an album out and is starting to do cafe work.
Last month she secretly married British Bill Oakes, personal assistant to Peter Brown, president of the Robert Stigwood Organization, which produced Superstar.
It was an informal ceremony, with both bride and groom dressed in jeans and Mickey Mouse T-shirts.
WONDER DAY - The Third World Black Expo, which is involved with fund raising, tax report education, health information and voter registration, set a special day aside for singer Stevie Wonder.
July 20 was the official Stevie Wonder Day in Philadelphia in recognition of the work he's done with schoolchildren.
Stevie, whose sound keeps getting better, has been busy recording. He's doing a few tracks with Jeff Beck for Beck's next album, besides working on his own album, expected in October.
COOPER CONTROVERSY - Alice Cooper, whose routine has been described as "exciting, sadistic or perverted" depending on the strength of the stomach, has become the target of a campaign against "perversion and violence" in rock music.
Rod Gelkeson, a 20-year-old Pennsylvania rock performer, is going on local TV and radio as the spokesman against Alice Cooper and this type of entertainment.
Gelkeson, who regards the act, songs and even the record packaging as "very sick," is mainly concerned with the effect all this has on young record buyers.

but more important, he's looking at YOU! The shudder of terror runs through everyone's soul. Finally, Joey burbles out, "Who, me?" Of course, 20 other people repeat the same phrase at the same time, so the matter is not exactly clarified. Again the heavens part. "Yeah, you." Finally Joey realizes that his scabrous retaliatory strike against the mad cannibalizer was witnessed by the omniscient man on the chair. He is out for a week. Joey pedals home dejectedly, the chlorine reflecting in his eyes and making his hair blue as shades lighter. After a brief and entirely predictable encounter with his mother, he goes straight to his room and waits for the final reckoning the words still ringing in his ears: "Just you wait till your father gets home."

Carlton's Wife Shares Present With Crowd

First Pitcher in 21 Years to Win 20 Games With Last Place Club

It was a birthday present Steve Carlton had been saving for three weeks. And when he presented it to his wife, she had to share it with 53,376 other delighted onlookers.

"I was very happy I could give it to her," the Philadelphia Phillies' left-hander said Thursday night after winning his 20th game of the baseball season, the first National League pitcher to reach that plateau.

For awhile, it appeared he had trouble getting it. Then the Phillies unlatched their muscles and, battering three Cincinnati hurlers for 16 hits, ripped up the Red Sox. Carlton won with his 15th consecutive victory.

Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets defeated Atlanta 2-1. Houston defeated Montreal 17-5. The Chicago Cubs nipped San Francisco 2-1. San Diego clipped St. Louis 2-2 and Los Angeles whipped Pittsburgh 4-2.

PHILS-REDS It was about three weeks ago, just after Steve had won his 15th game of the year and 10th in a row, that Beverly glanced at the Phillies' schedule and figured he'd be going for 16 hits, ripped up the Red Sox. Carlton won with his 15th consecutive victory.

"That's my birthday," she told her husband, "and that's what I want. Your 20th victory." It was a tough order.

"I haven't beaten them since 1957," Carlton said of the Reds. "You have to stay on top of that lineup. You never can relax."

And for awhile, it looked like Cincinnati's streak against him would continue. After Deron Johnson gave him a lead with a two-run homer, the Reds jumped for three runs in the third on Concepcion's single. Bill Plummer's double, Pete Rose's single and Joe Morgan's double.

But Don Money's sacrifice fly and Willie Montanez's two-run homer in the fifth gave him a 3-2 edge and the Phils built on it with two more runs apiece in the sixth and seventh innings.

"We want Steve! We want Steve!" the fans chanted—and he obliged by returning momentarily to the field to acknowledge their ovation. "It felt great. I want to thank the fans. It was touching. Nothing like it ever happened to me before."

Carlton became the first pitcher in 21 years to win 20 games with a last-place club.

Then he'll be trying to become the National League's winning pitcher since 1952, when the Phils' Robin Roberts posted a 28-7 record.

And finally, he'll be shooting for that magic 30 victories. Denny McLain did it for Detroit in 1968 but it hasn't happened in the National League since 1917 when Grover Cleveland Alexander did it for—you guessed it—the Phillies.

But one step at a time, if you please. "I can't say I can shut 30 games out of my mind," Carlton admitted. "But my goal is 25."

METS-BRAVES Ed Kranepool broke a tie with an eighth-inning sacrifice fly and Tom McGraw came out after the Mets' bullpen to preserve Tom Seaver's 14th victory, shutting off a ninth-inning rally after the Braves had three runners on second and third with one out.

plained—and Astros Manager Harry Walker voiced some understanding. "I would have done the same thing under the same circumstances," he said. "Why bring in a starter who probably needs rest?"

Lee May drove in four runs with a pair of homers and Doug Rader and Cesar Cedeno each added a solo shot to lead the Astros' 20th assault against six Montreal pitchers—or, more precisely, five pitchers with a shortstop.

Montreal Manager Gene Mauch wound up using Hector Torres for the final two outs after Tom McGraw came out after the Mets' bullpen to preserve Tom Seaver's 14th victory, shutting off a ninth-inning rally after the Braves had three runners on second and third with one out.

"Didn't Have Real Good Stuff" Seaver Wins 14th With McGraw's Help

NEW YORK (AP)—"I didn't have real good stuff," Tom Seaver said. But he did just enough to pick up his 14th victory of the season.

Seaver held Atlanta to just four hits for eight innings Thursday. And when the Braves jumped on him for two more runs in the ninth, Tom McGraw came out after the Mets' bullpen to preserve the New York Mets' 2-1 victory.

"I didn't have the overpowering fastball or a good sharp-breaking curve I had the right-handed side of the Mets."

"But I had a combination of two things. I had control—and put the ball where I wanted it. And every time they hit the ball, they hit it as somebody. That makes a difference."

The Mets kicked Ron Reed, 10-12, for a first-inning run on Wayne Garrett's walk and Tommie Agee's doubling off the left field.

They held the lead until the fourth inning when Jim Breazeale, playing first base in

Two Months of Injuries

SHEA STADIUM, New York—"June 15 was the last day that we were able to field our regular starting lineup," said one of baseball's newest Hall of Fame members, Yogi Berra. The New York Met manager met with members of the Connecticut Sports Writers' Alliance before sending his crippled charges against the Atlanta Braves. The Mets won, 2-1.

The Mets are limping along, nine games back of the front-running Eastern Division Pittsburgh Pirates who are making the race almost a laughing matter in the National League.

"I've been in baseball a long time," Berra said, as he sat behind the desk in his office under the stadium stands, "and I've never heard of a team having all five outfielders out at the same time. That's what happened to us," he moaned.

If we were healthy," Yogi continued, "you could compare us with the Pirates. That's the kind of a club we had before all the guys started getting hurt."

In Berra's book, the Pirates are "the same as last year, tough. Cincinnati isn't any slouch either and that Houston is tough, too."

"The Red Sox is a better team now than the club that won in 1970," he added.

How does the league look to the Met leader?

Pizza, Dick's Win

Once again standout pitching highlighted the Town Slow Pitch Softball Double Elimination Tournament at Fitzgerald Field. In the first of two games, Pizza House of 16 Senna and John Phelps combined their talents to whitewash Multi Courts, 5-0. Dick's Catering, 4-1, in the other game.

The Pizza Gang got two hits from Phil Hince, Jerry Jacobs and Chris Wollenberg. Multi's Tim Cunningham, Mike McCarthy, Dennis Gannon and Barry Phinney banded out one hit each.

Bill Haynes' triple in the first inning drove in two runs for Dick's. Dick LaLiberte and Ken Bavier, Ron LaLiberte and

Bat Supplies Answers For Untalkative Smith

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP)—Reggie Smith refused to answer reporters' questions for the third straight night, but once again his bat had all the right answers.

The suddenly silent Boston right-fielder slugged a double and a three-run, game-winning homer to lead the Red Sox to a 4-3 victory over the Texas Rangers Thursday night.

In the three-game series, Smith hit safely eight of 13 times at bat. He belted four homers and two doubles, scoring four runs and driving in 10.

"He's given us the lift we've needed," said Red Sox Manager Eddie Kasko. "He missed a full week because of an elbow injury, but he was able to take batting practice every day. He just wasn't able to throw. I'd say he didn't suffer from the time off."

"He's always been a real good hitter, but I haven't seen him go on a streak like this before. He's always been capable of it, though."

Smith has refused to talk to baseball writers since last week. He was angered by comments of Carlton Fisk's comments that he and Carl Yastrzemski were failing to provide team leadership as stars and also over general criticism he failed to hustle.

"I'm going to let my bat do the talking," Smith said. "It's nothing personal with a lot of people, but I think I'll be better off not talking to any writers."

"I don't care what he does as long as he keeps hitting," Kasko said.

White Sox beat the Orioles 6-1 and won both American League baseball races into a real traffic jam.

The White Sox inched to within a half-game of the Oakland A's in the West while the Orioles' lead dropped to the same margin in the East.

Closing ground on the Orioles were the Detroit Tigers, who split a tie against Milwaukee and the Minnesota Twins. The Tigers

FIRST TO TURN TRICK—Steve Carlton of the Phils exhibits form which carried him to win No. 20 last night against Red Sox.

Then came the ninth. Breazeale ripped a single up the middle, a liner that Seaver ducking at it missed his cap by inches. Earl Williams then ducked at it, making a double off right-center.

"I was tired," Seaver said later, "and when I got tired, the curve is the pitch I'm likely to make a mistake on. I hung one high and one low, and that's what Baker hit."

Out went Seaver, in came McGraw and up came Aaron, batting Mike Lum. He was given an intentional walk to load the bases. Then McGraw bore down, got Felix Millan to ground into a forecourt at the plate and, on a double play, got the last out.

They held the lead until the fourth inning when Jim Breazeale, playing first base in

Acid Test Due For Rookie QB

NEW YORK (AP)—Rookie quarterback John Reaves of the Washington Redskins tonight as another weekend of exhibition prep football gets underway.

Reaves impressed in his first start last weekend against the New England Patriots. The Redskins led at Atlanta and Dallas at St. Louis, Green Bay at Houston, Pittsburgh at Atlanta and Dallas at New Orleans.

On Sunday the New York Giants tangle with the New York Jets at New Haven, Conn. Cleveland battles Detroit at Ann Arbor and the Chicago Bears go against New England at Foxboro, Mass. The Monday night game has Baltimore pitted against unbeaten Kansas City in the Chiefs' new Arrowhead Stadium.

Dallas figured in a deal with the Chicago Bears Thursday. The Buffalo in another NFL establishment the loss of quarterback Roger Staubach due to a shoulder injury against Los Angeles last week, acquired veteran quarterback Jack Conner.

He was signed as a free agent, having played out his option with the Bears last season. However, the Cowboys sent the Bears tackle Bob Anderson, one of their second-year men, and Bill Line, a rookie defensive lineman. In addition the Cowboys give the Bears making it a 13-game weekend program with all 26 NFL clubs in action.

Nassiff Arms trounced Anand's 14-4 behind Crowe Dwyer's.

Scoring 12 runs in the first inning, the B. A. Club hammered Manchester Molding, 22-7. Kathy Jensen clouted a grand slam homer for the winners.

Batterfield's pushed across 11 runs in the fourth inning and held Cut & Curl a stunning 12-4 setback. Denise Heasley tagged a home run for the losers while mate Sandy Carner collected four hits.

Janet Biwell stroked four hits, three of them homers, to pace Wymann 10-1 to a 19-7 victory over Little Miss.

Banly Oil dealt Turnpike TV a 6-1 loss.

Kelley Manahan belted a two-run homer for Willes, but it wasn't enough as BEW posted a 7-3 triumph.

Four runs in the fourth inning powered Manchester Olds to an 8-4 win over Army & Navy Club.

Miss Staub The Most

"We've never had a guy drive in 100 runs in a season," Coach Eddie Yost said. "It Staub wasn't hurt he would have been good for at least 100 RBIs and he's scored another hundred. You just can't replace a guy in the lineup like Rusty," name sake added.

"It's a day-to-day proposition with Staub," Berra said. "He still can't swing a bat. He tried to the other day and his hand hurt."

Staub has been in only 57 of the Mets 106 games and his 25 runs batted in ranked second only to Tommie Agee's 37. Staub was hit by a pitch on the hand in the Braves' George Stone on Wednesday, June 3. It wasn't diagnosed as a break until a month later.

Outside of the many injuries, there has been any other disappointments.

"I wish that we had more hitting, especially around the infield," Berra related.

"The biggest surprises have been John Milner and Duffy Dyer. I think Milner has all the tools to be a good big league hitter. Dyer has been doing a great job. He's hitting like hell. Jon Matlack is another who has surprised. He should have 16 wins today and not be 10 and seven."

Sutton Shares Golf Lead, Went Against Wife's Wish

SUTTON, Mass. (AP)—John Schlee had a share of the lead going into today's second round in the $200,000 USI Golf Classic because he went against his wife's wishes.

"I went back to putting crosshanded," the lanky, graying veteran said after cutting five strokes off par with 57 in Thursday's first round, giving him a tie for the top spot with Tommy Aaron.

"I had been putting crosshanded some during the winter and spring, but I'd shift from conventional to crosshanded while I was on the course," the 33-year-old Schlee said.

"My wife told me to do it one way or the other. I don't think she could stand the suspense of waiting to find out which way I was going to put," he said.

"So I started putting conventionally all the way."

"Last week I played real good, hit the ball real good, but didn't make a single putt. I figured I had to do something. So this week I started putting everything inside of 12 feet crosshanded."

Senator Scores Hanoi Visitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lawton Chiles of Florida has accused actress Jane Fonda and former Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, both recent visitors to North Vietnam, of undercutting Congress on the war issue.

The Florida Democrat told the Senate on Thursday that he believes comments made by Miss Fonda and Clark about their visits "have created such an adverse public reaction that it makes impossible for Congress to undertake successfully any measure seeking to legislate an end to the Vietnam war."

"The result: American public opinion is affected negatively; Congress, which must have public support, is once again under duress in its efforts to find a end to the war."

OEO Director In Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Phillip W. Sanchez, the director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, has undergone surgery to remove an obstruction of the right kidney.

Dr. Dennis R. Derby, chief of urology at Malcolm Cowg Hospital at Andrews Air Force Base, where the surgery was performed Wednesday, said he anticipated normal recovery.

RECORD LOAD
KALISPELL, Mont. (AP) — A log hauling firm here transported logs in seven trailers behind a 230-horsepower truck for 32 miles recently and claimed a new world record for hauling logs in one load.

The gross weight of the load totaled 674,800 pounds, and the seven logging trailers contained more than 61,900 board feet of logs. The overall length of the load was more than 300 feet.

The firm, LHC Inc., claimed a previous record of four trailer loads of logs a few years ago. That was broken when a Canadian firm transported five loads in 1970.

Melee in Miami?

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Convention protesters plan to greet the Republican party next week with marches, sit-ins and civil disobedience — some of which is designed to end in arrests.

Everything is supposed to be nonviolent, but police and protest organizers are concerned that things could get out of hand. At least one group says italy it is not interested in civil disobedience and will adopt more forceful tactics.

"No one thinks we are going to stop the convention," said Marty Fowler, the Miami Convention's Coordinator. "But we will register our protest to Richard Nixon and all he stands for by our willingness to be arrested in large numbers."

Police say they expect about 3,500 protesters to be at the convention Monday. Protest leaders put the figure at 6,000. About 3,000 demonstrators assembled last month when the Democratic National Convention was held here.

Arranged against the protesters will be 1,150 policemen, 2,500 Army and Marine troops, 3,000 National Guardsmen and 2,000 Secret Service, FBI and military intelligence agents.

Some ground rules for the street action have been laid out in meetings between police and the Conventions Coalition, an umbrella organization set up to coordinate the protests. The rules say there will be no assaults on police, no destruction of property and no demonstrations in the residential area near Convention Hall where many of the city's other citizens live.

"They say they are going to be nonviolent, and I believe it of most of the leaders and most of the people," said Police Chief Rocky Pomernoy in an interview. "But mixed in with them are always a couple of crazies who are always a major concern of protest organizers."

Trooper Standards Heading for Court

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — "Come hell or highwater we will be in court with this very quickly," says a union official of controversial changes in the requirements for recruiting state police.

William D. Hickey, a former trooper now with the Connecticut State Employees Association, made the vow Thursday after the state Personnel Policy Board upheld the changes but agreed to hold a grievance hearing.

The meeting was attended by about 35 state troopers and representatives from a dozen local police departments, but they were not invited to speak.

"The fact of the matter is they do not want the job, but the standards do not preclude them from getting the job, and there are plenty of intelligent black and Puerto Rican people in this state who can qualify for the job," Wilkerson said.

The personnel board insisted that a paper ballot taken last week decided the matter, but it agreed to give opponents of the new standards another chance to voice their objections at a grievance hearing.

No date was set for the hearing. State Commissioner Cleveland Plesch said "no comment" when asked about the possibility of legal action, adding, "I've said so much I'm hoarse."

"I'm sure you favor the new standards and says they won't lower the quality of troopers, but we would continue touring barracks in an effort to talk troopers into favoring them, too."

Rep. William Clay, D-Mo., suggested sarcastically that the House go further and write a bill requiring the state to strike the curbs down.

Water Rates Up 22%

The privately owned Manchester Water Co., which services 3,941 customers in the North End plus 5 in South Windsor, will raise its rates an average of 22 per cent on Tuesday.

The Public Utilities Commission (PUC), which authorized the rate hike about two weeks ago but which had held the effective date in abeyance, pending receipt of a new schedule of rates, has ordered the increase as of commencement of business Aug. 22.

The 22 per cent rate hikes will provide an estimated $1,847 in added revenue — $69,750 from metered customers, $10,972 from public fire protection agencies, and $1,847 from private fire protection.

The company had applied for an average rate increase of 28.5 per cent enough to bring 1997.3 in additional revenue. The lower rate approved by the PUC was because of a difference of interpreting the financial figures submitted by the water company at a July 19 public hearing.

The PUC received that the $1,847 in estimated additional revenue was sufficient to enable the company "to assure continued, adequate and safe service, to provide for necessary expansion to meet future requirements, and still maintain a hoped-for 7.7 per cent rate of return."

House Backs SALT Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has approved the five-year U.S.-Soviet missile freeze with only seven dissenting votes but more numerous expressions of trepidation.

The resolution approving the interim agreement passed by a 229-7 vote Friday, although several House members voiced concern that it might allow the Soviets to achieve nuclear superiority.

The action came as Congress adjourned until Sept. 5 for the Republican National Convention and Labor Day.

"I just pray this will not be a nuclear Yalta," said Rep. Roman Pucinski, D-Ill., who voted with the majority but did not voice his concerns.

Senate approval remains stalled over an amendment proposed by Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., urging President Nixon to seek U.S.-Soviet equality in weapons numbers in any permanent treaty replacing the interim accord. The Senate takes up the measure after the congressional recess.

The five-year agreement signed by Nixon and Soviet Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev in Moscow May 26 freezes land and sea-based intercontinental missiles plus missile-firing submarines at the numbers in force or under construction.

The Russians are limited to 1,618 land missiles and up to 62 submarines with up to 950 missiles. The United States at 1,054 land missiles and up to 44 submarines with up to 710 missiles. Both sides are permitted to replace and improve the submarine missiles, including equipping them with multiple warheads.

Warheads and other weapons including short-range missiles and bombers are not covered by the agreement.

House Foreign Affairs Chairman Thomas E. Parnell, D-Pa., said the five-year agreement could save the United States $2 billion a year by slowing down the arms race.

Pucinski and Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., said the agreement's curb on the Soviet missile buildup was the reason they voted for it even though they are concerned it might enable the Soviets to overtake U.S. missile strength.

Stratton said the agreement has a "lot of loopholes" including allowing the Soviets to put multiple warheads on their more numerous and larger missiles and thus overtake the superior number of U.S. warheads.

He complained that the agreement does not cover Soviet guided cruise missiles which he said could destroy U.S. coastal cities without warning.

The Senate had planned to vote on the agreement immediately after a ratification two weeks ago of a companion U.S.-Soviet treaty

Enemy Cuts Major Roads In the South

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces were reported today to have cut major highways on three sides of Saigon. South Vietnamese troops moved out trying to reopen them.

Field reports said Highway 1 was cut about 25 miles east of Saigon. Hundreds of South Vietnamese reinforcements moved into the area in efforts to root out Communist troops on both sides of the highway near the town of Trang Bom.

The reports said Highway 1 was insecure and no vegetable trucks had reached Saigon over for a day and a half.

In the northern Mekong Delta, about 60 miles southwest of Saigon, fighting backed up scores of vehicles along Highway 4 over which food products also reach the capital.

Associated Press Correspondent Dennis Reed reported from Highway 13 north of Saigon that that road was closed for the third day just north of Lai Khe, about 25 miles from Saigon.

Reed said North Vietnamese forces, estimated at 200 men, were entrenched in bunkers along the roadside about 50 yards off the highway.

South Vietnamese Rangers maneuvered nearby were being pounded by artillery. Low clouds prevented air strikes this morning.

President Nguyen Van Thieu has predicted that the Communists might attempt to cut strategic highways, particularly Rt. 4 in the Delta, in efforts to isolate Saigon and stir discontent in the capital.

In neighboring Cambodia, across the border from the northern Delta, South Vietnamese Rangers and armored cavalry units clashed with Communist troops six miles southeast of Kompong Trabek. The Saigon command said 56 enemy were killed and 10 prisoners and 14 weapons were captured. No South Vietnamese casualties were reported.

But the Cambodian high command reported that a Communist force cut Highway 5, one of Phnom Penh's last overland routes.

GOP Wooing Democrats

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Republican platform being readied for next week's GOP National Convention invites Democrats to vote for Richard Nixon and forsake what it says is "the radical clique" controlling the Democratic party.

The draft of a first platform section, endorsing a strong defense and standing pat on Nixon's peace-with-honor terms for a Vietnam settlement, was issued late Friday. Two sections on domestic issues are soon to follow.

The draft platform predicts that the Nixon handover will be joined by "millions of discerning Democrats and concerned independents who will not, and cannot, take part in the convulsive leftward lurch of the national Democratic party."

President Nixon himself was said, spending a calm weekend at Camp David. Mr. McGovern, winding up a hectic four-day midwestern tour, acknowledged that "they are shooting at me from the sides" and, noting Nixon's aloofness, predicted: "We'll smoke him out eventually."

The GOP platform draft pledged a continuing quest for a Vietnam settlement, calling for the people of Southeast Asia "to live in peace under political arrangements of their own choosing."

It endorsed Nixon's "refusal to let the prescription for folly and build surely on the solid achievements of President Nixon's first term."

The draft will reach the convention Tuesday. Its adoption is considered certain, though floor skirmishes on women's rights and school buses are possible.

The platform language suggested that Republican emphasis on alleged leftward leanings of the Democratic presidential nominee, Sen. George McGovern, will be a running theme of the GOP's campaign.

Knife Puzzles Murder Quiz

NEW HAVEN (AP) — A knife found in the car of a man accused of killing his estranged wife and her parents was stabbed to death was the same one observed there earlier, police say.

Aillon has been charged with three counts of murder in the slayings Sunday night of his wife Barbara, her father, A. George Montana and her mother, Bernice Montana.

Police said in an affidavit filed Friday to support the charges that a possible motive for the killings was an embittered fight over custody of the Aillon's infant daughter, who was found in the house crying but unharmed.

A knife which appeared to have blood on it was seen by three policemen in the back of Aillon's car when they stopped him because of a noisy muffler in North Haven early Monday morning.

It was the second time he was stopped that night, both times near the $100,000 spacious Montano house, where the bodies were discovered Monday morning, the affidavit says.

The affidavit says Aillon explained the presence of the knife by saying he had been at a picnic where he had been carving meat. Officers let him go with a verbal and then a written warning about the muffler, the affidavit says.

Later Monday morning, the affidavit says, the car was found at a garage where it was taken for repairs and a knife covered with blood and wrapped in aluminum foil was found in the same place in the car.

But the three policemen who had stopped the car the second time found the knife wrapped in foil "was not the weapon they had stopped the conference table, where they may negotiate a lasting peace."

McGovern's proposals to withdraw two divisions of U.S. troops from Europe were rejected, without any direct reference to the Democratic nominee. Along with the NATO allies, the plank said, the United States will seek agreement with the Warsaw Pact nations "on a mutual and balanced reduction of military forces in Europe."

The affidavit says Aillon threatened his wife and told (See Page Fourteen)

Smokers Demand Rights, Too

According to a recent report by the U.S. Surgeon General, which was presented to the legislative Public Health and Safety Committee at the hearing, the uninhaled smoke from cigars and pipes and from cigarettes in the vestibule a dozen times just to get a breath of fresh air.

On the other side, Patrick DePaquale of Westfield said: "I don't smoke. I never smoked. I never intend to smoke. But I don't want to step on other people's constitutional rights. If the other fellow wants to kill himself, let him go ahead."

"People who smoke have rights, too," declared Barrett Elkins of the Greyhound Bus Co. at least be segregated from non-smokers.

Fred Divnick of Hartford said the smoke in railroad cars used to make him feel sick, and while riding the train from Hartford to New York, "I used to go out in the vestibule a dozen times just to get a breath of fresh air."

Another Ulster March

BELFAST (AP) — Northern Ireland's Protestant extremists planned a provocative march in Belfast today even as the main Catholic party in the province branded them murderers.

The Ulster Defense Association, UDA, Protestant equivalent of the Catholic Irish Republican Army, was condemned in a statement by the Social Democratic and Labor party.

The UDA planned to march in the big Catholic party said, "that a very large number of victims of the sectarian assassination (See Page Fourteen)
