REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)— Bobby Fischer won his own Olympics today. The American challenger captured the world chess championship when Boris Spassky of Russia telephoned his resignation in the 21st game, which had been adjourned overnight.

Max Euwe, president of the International Chess Federation, said Spassky had telephoned Lothar Schmid, match referee, shortly before the game was to resume with Spassky in a probable losing position.

It is the first time an American has ever held the title, although Paul Charles Morphy of New Orleans, who lived from 1837 to 1884, dominated play in the 1850s and came to be known as unofficial world champion.

The title match here had a limit of 24 games. Today's victory gave Fischer 12½ points to Spassky's 8½. Fischer won seven games, each worth a point. Spassky took three, including a forfeit—thus he actually won only one out of 10 games at the playing board. Each of 11 draws was worth half a point to each contestant.

Fischer, who is 29, is from Brooklyn. He stood to win $156,000 in prize money, counting a bonus put up by a British fan. He will reap further thousands in book royalties and other fees before he has to defend his title in 1976.

Spassky, who is 35, is to receive about $100,000 as runnerup. He had won the title in 1969 from Tigran Petrosian, a fellow Russian—indeed Russians have almost monopolized title play most of this century.

Referee Schmid announced on the stage where the players were to have resumed their 21st game at 3:30 p.m. that Spassky had

Three Held In Holdup, Kidnaping

NEW BRITAIN, (AP)— Three men were charged today in the alleged kidnap-holdup of a West Hartford jeweler as he closed his store at the Corbin Corners shopping center Thursday night.

Authorities said three men approached Eli Sebastian of Farmington as he left the store, forced him into his car and drove one mile where they took $100 and ran into woods.

Sebastian was treated for minor injuries.

Arturo Acevedo, 24, and Victor M. Cubano, 33, both of Meriden, and Robert Watson, 25, of Portland were charged with first degree kidnaping, first degree robbery, third degree larceny and reckless endangerment, police said.

Watson was arrested at his home in Portland after police arrested the other two during the night.

Dollar On Summit Agenda

HONOLULU (AP)— President Nixon and Japanese Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka wind up their mid-Pacific summit today, reaching accord on a one-shot Japanese effort to ease the plight of the dollar.

The agreement, to be spelled out in a joint communique, envisions Japanese orders for an extra $1 billion-plus of American goods, with the bulk to be paid in advance.

American officials had hoped to leave Honolulu with a similarly specific meeting of the minds on longer-range solutions to a chronic and growing deficit in U.S. trade dealings with Japan. Such matters, however, are being left largely to future negotiations.

Nixon and Tanaka were said to have spent a third of their time in private talks Thursday discussing trade matters. Sitting in on their initial discussion were Henry A. Kissinger, the President's foreign policy adviser, and Nobuhiko Ushiba, Japan's ambassador to Washington.

While they met at the Kulima hotel on Oahu's north shore, Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Japanese Foreign Minister Masayoshi Ohira presided at a companion conference of other officials from the two countries. They were joined for an hour by Nixon and Tanaka before all summit participants took a break prior to an evening working dinner at the hotel.

After the dinner, American sources disclosed that Tanaka has been invited to visit the United States mainland. He may go to Washington early next year.

The dinner lasted two hours and in what was described as a "private and very informal toast," Nixon paid tribute to Tanaka in terms of baseball—a sport popular in Japan.

Likening the new Japanese prime minister to a pitcher, Nixon said he and his team are "in the big league," adding, "He has all the pitches. He has a fastball, a curve, a slider and a knuckler."

An American official who was present said Tanaka talked of handling problems in a "family spirit" at the summit and declared all difficulties between the two nations could be solved by frank and constructive talks.

After a final meeting and issuance of the communique, Nixon flies back to his San Clemente, Calif., home Friday night. Before departure he will participate in a ceremony marking the retirement of Adm. John S. McCain Jr. and his replacement as commander in chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific by Adm. Noel Gayler.

While her husband spent all Thursday conferring with the visiting Japanese and getting a Vietnam report from Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to Saigon, Mrs. Nixon did some touring around Hilo on the island of Hawaii.

From the standpoint of the Americans, trade was the key summit topic in view of pressure

Rains Spare Enemy Lands

WASHINGTON (AP)— Pentagon officials say the peak of North Vietnam's rainy season has passed without any serious flooding in the heavily populated, rice-producing Red River delta region.

Administration authorities have been worried about a possible recurrence of North Vietnam's traditional flood problem this year because, they said, Hanoi and anti-war critics would blame it on alleged U.S. bombing of dikes and dams.

The United States has denied repeatedly that its bombers aim at North Vietnam's dike system, although it has acknowledged some minor damage to the system in the course of attacks on nearby military targets.

One senior defense official reported "fair confidence that there won't be any major flooding this year." He said the rains usually come down heaviest in August and ease off in September.

The official said there have been a few minor breaches in dikes this month but claimed this happens almost every year because of the pressure of high water.

State Department officials were not ready yet to rule out the danger of major flooding in North Vietnam this year. They were concerned about the possible effects of a big storm now over that country.

Last year, before the United States resumed sustained bombing of North Vietnam, abnormally heavy rains in July and August brought severe flooding which created in the last 10 days of August.

The floods destroyed about 10 per cent of North Vietnam's rice crop, forcing the Hanoi government to dig into reserve food stocks, U.S. analysts have estimated.

Under the best of conditions, North Vietnam never has produced enough food. It has relied for years on imports, principally from Russia, to make up the deficit.

The U.S. mine blockade of North Vietnamese ports has cut off much of the country's food imports, but defense officials say Communist China is filling some of the gap by sending rice into

Democrats Hunt A Town Quorum

Manchester Democratic leaders today claimed they would have great trouble getting the quorum they will need tomorrow morning to elect delegates to multi-town district conventions as the court has ordered them to do.

Manchester's Republican Party is under the same court order but will have a simpler problem since it operates under a less stringent quorum rule and elected its town committee at-large instead of by district.

Democratic Town Chairman Ted Cummings said it would be difficult to get enough committee members out for tomorrow morning's meeting scheduled for 10:30 at Democratic headquarters because of the long Labor Day weekend. Democrats generally are opposed to the current redistricting plan which they regard as Republican gerrymandering. It is being challenged in court now.

Democratic Registrar of Voters Herbert Stevenson said the problem for his party is compounded by binding rules which require it to elect its delegates by quorum (50 per cent) of the town committee members from within each of the districts involved.

Delegates must be named for two assembly districts and for two state senatorial districts. The assembly districts are ninth, which Manchester shares with East Hartford, and the 14th, which Manchester shares with South Windsor.

The state senatorial districts are the 3rd, which Manchester shares with East Hartford, and the 4th, which it shares with East Windsor, South Windsor, Bolton, Hebron, Andover, Coventry, and Glastonbury.

Stevenson said the two assembly districts involved do not lie wholly within the state senatorial districts, so the committee members needed for the various quorums would not all be the same people.

Cummings said party workers were making telephone calls today in an effort to get people to come to the meeting which is being held at Democratic campaign headquarters at the southeast corner of Main St. and Middle Tpk.

Third Seeking Probate Post

An independent candidate for election as Manchester probate judge has apparently qualified for a place on the ballot.

Nomination petitions for Gerald R. Bartlett of 77 Birch St. have been filed with Town Clerk Edward Tomkiel who has certified that they contain more than 103 signatures he needs to become a nominee.

Republicans have endorsed Atty. Ronald Jacobs for the post and Democrats have endorsed Atty. William FitzGerald.

Republican Town Chairman Adler Dobkin could not be contacted for comment on his party's situation, but a prominent Republican said the party's quorum rule and the fact that the committee is elected at large would preclude any problem.

New Hope Manor Wins Occupancy

A memorandum of decision filed in Tolland County Superior Court today denied a reversal on a decision of the Somers Zoning Board of Appeals which permit occupancy of the YMCA property on Mountain St., Somers, by New Hope Manor.

Four Somers residents filed the appeal against a decision of the Somers Zoning Board of Appeals which granted use of the town YMCA by New Hope Manor as a drug rehabilitation center. The four, Angelo Dodato, James C. McKenzie, James W. Cormier and Louis Yahn, all own property abutting the YMCA property on Mountain Rd.

In granting use of the property, the Zoning Board of Appeals overturned a decision of the Zoning Board, denying its use. The ZBA decision would have permitted occupancy of the building by 12 girls and 4 adult staff members for a period to run until Dec. 13, 1973. New Hope Manor is an in-residence, drug-free, nonsectarian community for female adolescents with its objective the recovery of the drug user through self-help concepts and techniques. Mrs. Madeline Uccello of Spring St., Manchester, is president of the corporation.

The four residents, appealing the decision, claimed that the ZBA exceeded its legal powers by granting the certificate of occupancy. They contended that permission was granted under the guise of a variance and failed to explain the "unique hardship" on which approval was granted. They also charged that the ZBA violated the town's comprehensive plan by granting a non-conforming use variance after it was denied by the Zoning Commission.

The center would be the first of its type in the state.

The appeal was filed by four Somers residents who owned property abutting that of the YMCA. The decision filed by Judge Arthur Williams Jr. states that the property owners did not prove they are aggrieved, "only fears and generalization were expressed," Judge Williams said. In denying the appeal, he added that further proof of aggrievement was required and in this case it was not forthcoming.

Job Ranks Growing

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Labor Department today reported a substantial rise in the nation's employment, boosting the total number of Americans with jobs to 83.5 million.

At the same time, the unemployment rate rose from 5.5 to 5.6 per cent, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

The report said actual employment rose 61,000. But of a seasonally adjusted basis the bureau figured the rise at nearly 300,000 and called it a continuation of strong growth evidence since the middle of last year.

The number of unemployed actually fell 316,000 but since it normally drops more in August the bureau figured the slight rise in the unemployment rate on a seasonally adjusted basis.

The bureau also reported average wages of some 50 million rank-and-file workers rose two cents an hour to $3.64 and $1.12 per week to $137.23.

In the past year, the report said, average pay has risen $8.20, or 6.4 per cent per week. Living costs have risen three per cent over the same period.

total employment has increased by 2.6 million in the past year. Virtually all of the August rise in jobs was among women working part-time, the report said. Over the past year, the rise in the number of job holders included 1.1 million men, 1 million women and 500,000 teenager.

The total unemployed included 1,738,000 men with a jobless rate of 3.9 per cent; 1,772,000 women for a rate of 5.5 per cent; and 1,347,000 teenagers for a rate of 16.9 per cent, the bureau said.

In a racial breakdown, the bureau said the jobless rate for white workers edged up from 5.0 to 5.1 per cent with a total of 3,894,000 while the unemployment rate for other races—mostly blacks—edged down from 9.9 to 9.7 per cent with a total of 963,000.

Both employment and unemployment can go up at the same time if the rise in the labor force is greater than the increase in employment.

In August, the labor force rose 390,000 on a seasonal basis to 86.9 million.

The Meskill Effort

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second of two articles about Gov. Thomas J. Meskill's efforts to forge a machine capable of delivering future election victories to the GOP.

By DON MEIKLE

HARTFORD (AP)— In 20 months of working with a state government bureaucracy developed under 16 years of Democratic rule, Gov. Thomas J. Meskill has shown he intends to run it with a firm hand and with the people of his choosing.

The Republican governor has let the number of civil service jobs dwindle by attrition, leaving those posts unfilled as employees retire, die or quit. On the other hand, he has made a use of unclassified "special assistant" jobs outside the merit system.

Since most of the 250 or so "special assistants" are paid with funds under the Federal Emergency Employment Act, the governor has been in the position of being able to provide jobs for deserving Republicans without having to take the cost out of the state till.

The EEA funds have a time limit, but Meskill has made it clear he would prefer to keep a sizable cadre of politically responsive appointees cracking the whip over the civil servants.

The governor likes to emphasize the value of "special assistants" in making protected bureaucrats toe the mark. But the "special assistant" jobs are handy for rewarding people for political services rendered, according to state Sen. Robert D. Houley, D-Vernon.

Houley, who is the Democrats' leading spokesman on the subject of what has been called the "Meskill Spoils System," has named a number of names, including that of Robert Statchen of Burlington, a one-time contender for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 6th District. After withdrawing from the race in the second nominating go-round (required because of redistricting), Statchen was given a "special assistant" job in the Department of Transportation. The congressional nomination went to Jack Walsh of New Britain, a former law partner of Meskill's.

Houley's blasts notwithstanding, many Democratic politicians appear to be more envious than shocked by the Meskill method.

Some hark back to former Gov. John Dempsey's failure to utilize the 66 "executive assistant" jobs created by the 1967 General Assembly. The legislature authorized three executive assistants for each commissioner and each elected state official.

But Howard E. Hausman, then the Republican state chairman, blasted what he called a "patronage grab." The Dempsey administration never filled more than three of the new posts.

Why did Dempsey decline to use these new jobs to maximum effect? The guess of most observers at the time was that Dempsey felt it was just too hot an issue.

Meskill, in contrast, has stoutly defended his administration's use of "special assistants," and apparently intends to keep on searching for ways to make his control over the bureaucracy more complete.

One Democrat of many years' service in state government admits that Dempsey may have governed with too loose a rein, but he claims that Meskill demands too much fealty from his commissioners.

"Under Dempsey," he said, "commissioners used to worry about their performance. Under Meskill, they worry about their jobs."

Dolls in all sizes and shapes, dressed in colorful costumes, and guaranteed to bring a look of delight to any little girl, are all part of a collection of Mrs. Joseph Glode of 49 Glode Lane.

A little room in the Glode home is set aside for her collection and it contains glass display cases through which many of the dolls can be viewed. Others, too tall to fit in the cases, are set on the floor.

Some of the dolls I bought, others were given to me. Whenever my friends or family go anywhere and they see a doll they bring it home to me," Mrs. Glode said.

Mr. Tiffany was a jeweler with a store on Main St. In later years an "open air" school was built north of Tiffany's and used several years for children who needed special care to improve their health conditions.

Then next in line was the Teachers' Hall. It was said to have been a former hotel and men's boarding house, but had been added to and used to house the "Normalite teachers." They were undergraduate students from the New Britain Normal School in New Britain, Conn. (State College). They came in groups twice a year for practice teaching under the supervision of salaried teachers in the Ninth District School.

There was a fire escape near the rear of the building. Once someone foolishly left tracks in the snow to the foot of the fire escape. That started an investigation. Late one evening a supervisor in the hall discovered the detected a voice too low for the occupant of that room.

When the door was unlocked in response to her knocking she saw nothing unusual. But in a closet where some dresses were hanging a pair of man's feet showed below them.

It was said that the girl was expelled from college. The boy had only a few more months before he could graduate from South Manchester High School. He did not make it.

At the hall, the cook was a Swedish woman with a very common name. The man caretaker of the place was Polish with a name difficult for most people to pronounce. They were married and took her name instead of his. When his name was discontinued the couple of fine old retired people built a nice home in the "Heights" where the development where the big woods had been east of town.

Coventry Names Crossing Guard

With the opening of school next Wednesday, Chief of Police Robert Kjelquist has issued a reminder to local residents that school children will once again be traveling Coventry roads to and from school.

"Motorists should drive with the utmost care during those hours immediately before and after school each day," said Kjelquist. "They should also be extra careful and adjust their speed for the stops made by school buses during the school year."

In keeping with the police department's safety program, Dennis Murray of Daly Rd. has been appointed Coventry's first school crossing guard, and will be on duty mornings and afternoons at the Robertson School on Cross St.

In addition, officers of the department will assume a traffic post at Ripley Hill Rd. and Rt. 31 during Coventry High School dismissal time.

Party Caucuses. Both political parties are planning caucuses tomorrow to endorse delegates to conventions for the General Assembly.

The Democrats will meet at 10 a.m. and the Republicans at 8 p.m. Both caucuses will be held in the Town Hall board room, and are open to any registered voter.

Republican Town Chairman Thomas Caruthers and Democratic Town Chairman James Roche, at a meeting of the League of Women Voters last night, called for involvement of townpeople in the political party of their choice.

The chairmen cited figures showing that about 45 per cent of the registered voters in Vernon are not affiliated with either party.

Roche explained that local or home rule is under strong attack by advocates of regionalism, during a discussion of party affiliation toward local government.

He said the key to survival is active participation by all in the election process. Speaking in favor of local government, Roche said, "don't want to be part of a metropolitan anything. All this metropolitanism has brought chaos, less service at a higher price," Roche added.

Noting that any region must have boundaries, Roche said his judgment felt that those boundaries are those which allow towns to govern themselves.

He cited creation of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and passage of federal aid to education measures as significant steps toward regionalism.

Noting that any region must have money to towns if they are willing to agree to changes on the local level, he said many of these changes, if successful, would bring about complete regionalism.

Noting that local rule has often come into disfavor because it has been non-participating and because in large cities it does not work in favor of social and economic inequities, Roche warned there is a danger there is a loss of local government.

Stressing the fact that there is much apathy concerning the liquor. A charge of over-zealousness was continued against Caruthers said, "When so few participate they leave government to the minority." He said that the local party system is the heart of the government since the leaders appoint board and commission members from among the active party members.

Mark Spitz Greatest Swimmer In Olympic History

MUNICH (AP)— "I'm very thrilled—yes, I'm proud," Mark Spitz said after beating the clock twice to become the greatest swimmer in Olympic history.

But there was no joy for Eddie Hart and Ray Robinson. The clock had beaten them.

Spitz, America's human torpedo from Carmichael, Calif., turned to glory with a world record clocking of 54.27 seconds in the 100-meter butterfly for his fourth gold medal of these 20th Summer Games. And barely an hour later, he won his unparalleled fifth, anchoring the United States' victorious 800-meter freestyle relay team.

It brought him within two of an unheard-of seven gold medals.

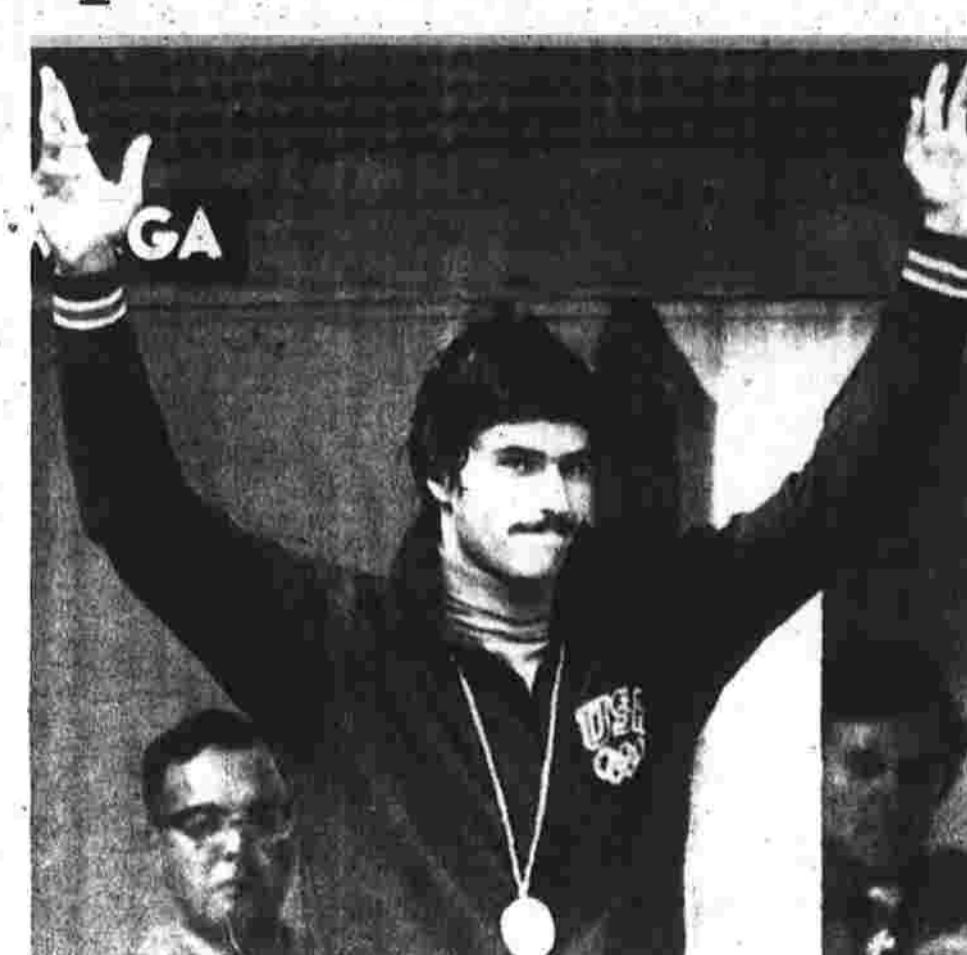

Spitz' five golds broke the record of four in the swims held by such Olympians as Johnny Weismuller and Don Schollander. And it equaled the Olympic record of five won by any competitor. Italian freerunner Nedo Nadi did it in 1920.

He goes after 60 Sunday in the 100-meter freestyle. The climax comes Monday in the 400-meter medley relay—a world record attempt. Spitz will be a heavy favorite to win, but he is not sure. "I'll win the 100," Spitz casually remarked after his remarkable performance. "I might not swim in the 400. I'd rather win six of six than take a chance on six of seven."

To this his coach and coach of the U.S. women's team, Sherrill Chavozer, replied, "If he drops out, one, I'll break his damned neck."

The only things broken as far as Hart and Robinson were concerned were their hearts. They weren't have a chance to break any records here because of a monumental scheduling fiasco that threatens U.S. domination of track and field's events.

Everybody, it seems, was blaming everybody else Thursday after Robinson, from Pittsburgh, Pa., and Hart, from Pittsburg, Calif., were so late arriving at the stadium that they missed their locker dash heats.

Mark Spitz-Four Gold Medals, Four Olympic Records

Other U.S. track events, meanwhile, Munich-bound Frank Shorter set an American record in the 10,000 meters as he qualified with a third-place time of 27 minutes 58.2 seconds.

Larry Young was the best U.S. finisher in the 20-kilometer walk, coming in 10th, and Willye White was 11th in the women's long jump with 20 feet 7 inches.

Defending champion Madeline Manning Jackson America's top female fencer for a gold, qualified in the 800-meter run and Dave Wottle, overcoming an ailing knee, qualified in his 800 meter trial.

The United States made its best showing ever in wrestling with three golds, two silvers and a bronze. "I predicted six medals," overjoyed U.S. Coach William Farrel of New York wrote, "but that was to psyche the team up. This is beyond our wildest hopes."

All of the golds went to Dan Gable of Waterloo, Iowa, in the 185-pound class. It climaxed three years of three-day practices without a break. "This is undoubtedly the happiest moment of my life," Gable said.

Wayne Wells, a 27-year-old Norman Okla. lawyer, also won a gold in the 183-pound class while Ben Peterson of Connstock, Wis., got his in the 198-pound class. "Great, great!" Ben cheered, hugging his brother, John, who earlier had nabbed a silver in the 175-pound class.

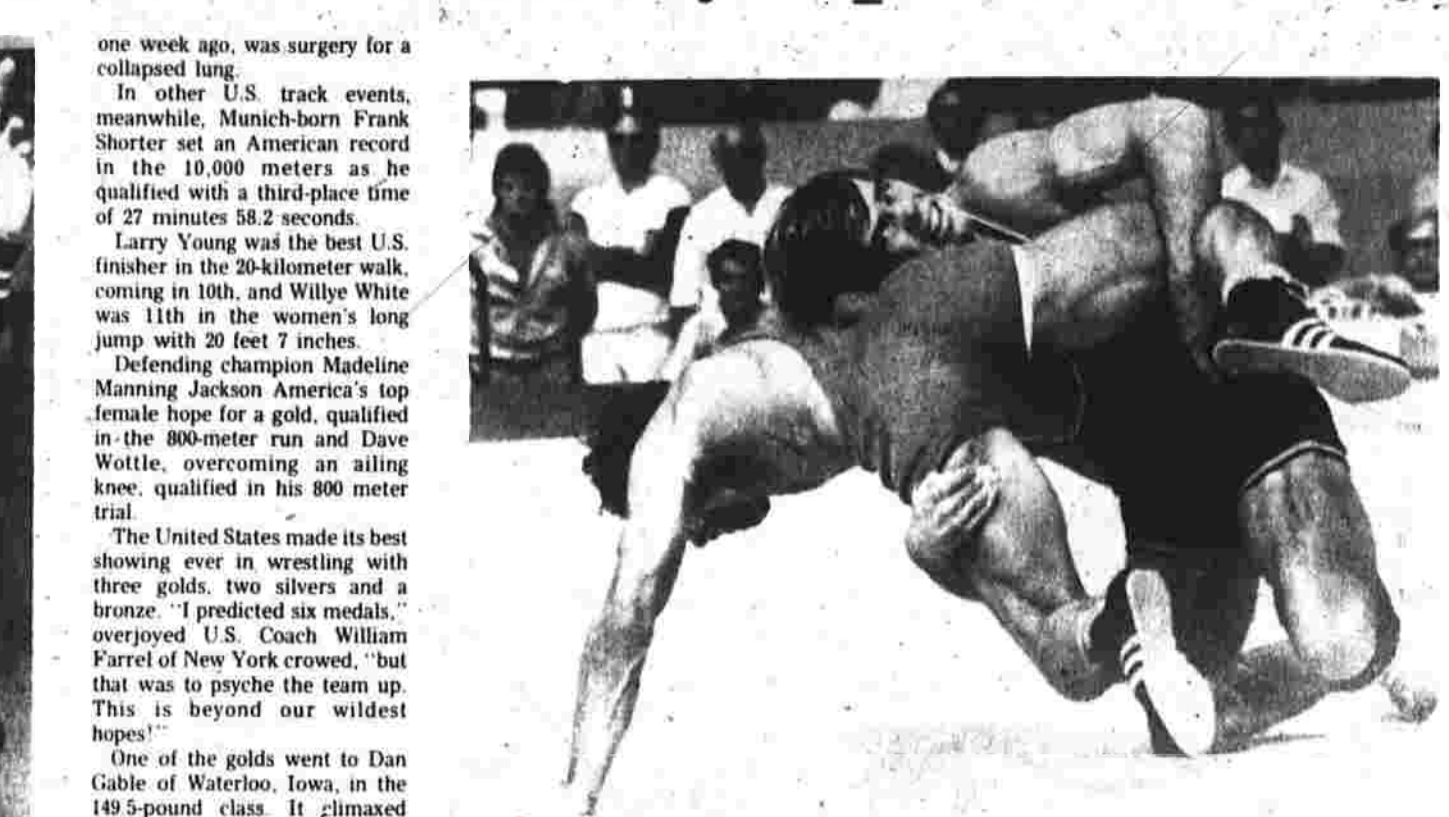

Tough Russians dominated the event as expected, taking five golds. One of them went to the super-heavyweight Alex Medved, whose right leg was injured during his training. "I was in a preliminary round as a normal amateur in 1968."

Mrs. Court won her first title in 1962 and is now seeded fifth. Thursday she blasted Paul Pretorius of South Africa, 6-0, in a preliminary round as part of the tournament's top-seeded women gave any quarter to their opponents.

Today she continues her quest for a seventh U.S. Open crown, unprecedented in the history of the tournament. But since she has never won a title, she will be given a quarter to their opponents.

Mrs. King, the first-seeded 1971 winner, beat Patt Hogan of LaJolla, Calif., ranked ninth nationally, 6-3, 6-2, second seeded Evonne Goolagong of Australia whipped Brenda Kirk of South Africa, 6-2, 6-2, third seeded Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., smashed Laurie Tenney of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-1, and fourth seeded Rosemary Casale of San Francisco beat Nathalie Pichay of France, 6-1, 6-2.

Thursday Asia beat Pakistan's Haroon Rahim, 6-3, 6-3, 4-4, 7-6, in a match much closer than the score indicates.

Court Favored in Open Play 'Big Mama Back', Better Than Ever

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)— "Big mama tennis" That's how the public relations team at the U.S. Open Tennis Championships is billing the return of Margaret Smith Court to the tennis world.

What they're neglecting to say is that she's back bigger and better than before.

Mrs. Court took 13 months off the circuit to have a baby. She returned in July and her string of successes since then started when she helped the Australian team beat the United States women in the Bonine Bell Cup. Her most recent tournament win came last Sunday when she beat Billie Jean King in the finals of a Virginia Slims tournament.

Today she continues her quest for a seventh U.S. Open crown, unprecedented in the history of the tournament. But since she has never won a title, she will be given a quarter to their opponents.

Mrs. King, the first-seeded 1971 winner, beat Patt Hogan of LaJolla, Calif., ranked ninth nationally, 6-3, 6-2, second seeded Evonne Goolagong of Australia whipped Brenda Kirk of South Africa, 6-2, 6-2, third seeded Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., smashed Laurie Tenney of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-1, and fourth seeded Rosemary Casale of San Francisco beat Nathalie Pichay of France, 6-1, 6-2.

Thursday Asia beat Pakistan's Haroon Rahim, 6-3, 6-3, 4-4, 7-6, in a match much closer than the score indicates.

Robert Taylor of Houston was late, too, but he managed to rip off his sweat suit, jump into his shoes and onto the starting blocks and, without a warmup, qualify for the semifinals in his heat.

Sprint Coach Dan Wright initially took the blame. "I gave them the wrong time. It was my fault," he said, explaining he had not at 4:15 p.m. but at 7 p.m. Several hours later, though, American officials called a news conference and, displaying an apparently outraged attitude, laid the blame on Taylor, who, they said, was late arriving at the stadium that they missed their locker dash heats.

But Hans Klein, Olympic Press Chief, and one of his aides, Ulrich Babel, responded by producing a photo of Taylor showing the event set up to run in the sequence in which they were conducted.

The schedule, dated Sept. 28, 1971, was mailed to all Olympic officials within a few days of publication, they said—and Klein, commenting on Wright's statement that the U.S. officials could not obtain an up-to-date schedule, replied, "I guess that's a good one—but why were all the other?"

Spitz' performance in the 100-meter butterfly, in which he beat out Canadian silver medalist Bruce Robertson and bronze winner Jerry Hendrich of Dallas, was a personal triumph—but he says his kudos for his relay teammates, particularly Steve Genzler of Lakewood, Calif.

Genzler gave Spitz a 15-meter head start on the anchor after a 35-year-old diver, Alex Medved, meter lead held by West Germany at the halfway mark.

"His 200 meters today," Spitz said of Genzler, "was one of the most outstanding swims I've ever seen. Steve has to go down as pretty tough, especially after what he saw today through." What Genzler had gone through, just

Better Depth Seen With Indian Squad

By DEAN VOST
Every year sideline articles remark that Dave Wiggin, head football coach at Manchester High, is getting lax in his practice. From early indications, Wiggin is still a hard-nosed mentor as he led his squad of 62 players through rugged drills yesterday morning in 85 degree temperatures.

"We lost some key players through graduation, but we should have more depth in a few key positions than we did a year ago. We also have more experience than last season. Presently we have between six and 12 good-looking sophomores, with at least six of them sticking with the varsity," Wiggin commented.

The Tribe continues its two practices a day schedule until school begins, Sept. 6. The Indians work out at 9:30 until 11 o'clock in the morning then return for evening drills from 6 until 7:30. Both sessions are in full uniform.

Manchester's season will kick off Saturday Sept. 23 at Meriden's Ceppa Field against Calvary High, a highly regarded club this year in the CCLL.

Following the Malines at Manchester returns home for the following three weekends to meet. Bethel, Waterfield and Concord.

Herald Angle EARL YOST Sports Editor

Friend, Co-Worker Retires

It just wasn't seem the same around the editorial room of The Herald without Alan Olmstead who retired today after 31 years as editor.

Anyone who has followed the editorial pages in The Herald for more than three decades is well aware of the excellent job Alan turned out day after day. He was in a class by himself as one of the most gifted editorial writers in New England.

We have been friends for better than 27 years since I joined The Herald family. No one gave an aspiring young writer more help and encouragement than Editor Olmstead.

Often I kidded Alan the day after one of his brilliantly written editorials on a sporting event or sports figure appeared that he was trying to lure away some of my readers. This he denied, just by way of a small smile.

I don't think many have ever got close to Alan, which was the way he wanted it. Never once did I ever hear a raised voice or any profanity uttered by this friend. He was never one to throw a brick, either, just compliments or kind words. He was, and still is, a born newspaperman. It's good to know that he will continue his syndicated column, Connecticut Yankee.

Alan was a quiet, serious and most efficient man with a command of words which was simply fantastic. There was humor, too, in this friend and he enjoyed a good laugh as well as the next man.

It's kind of frightening to know that I am now No.1 in seniority in the editorial room.

I know that I will miss Alan. He'll be missed by others, too, at 13 Bissell Street.

Perhaps he'll accept a challenge to a tennis match now that he has a few extra hours.

He also has a raincheck for a luncheon date, which I hope he'll accept. Only the best in retirement is extended from this friend of many years.

Pro Football Roundup Curt Knight Hero Hitting Field Goal

WASHINGTON (AP)— Curt Knight pulled a Garo Yepremian Thursday night while Yepremian looked like Jan Stenerud.

Yepremian's field goal last season ended the National Football League's longest game at Miami defeated the Kansas City Chiefs for the American Conference title. The Dolphin's three-point game after Kansas City's Jan Stenerud missed an "easy" field goal attempt.

Baltimore recalled defensive end Butba Smith from the injured waiver list Thursday to keep him from being claimed by another NFL club and set offensive tackle Lynn Lawson. Also on Thursday the Chicago Bears acquired the player contract of their coach, Zeke Bratkowski, from Green Bay.

Yanks Within 1 1/2 Games of First Place

NEW YORK (AP)— Fritz Peterson is as surprised as anybody, but here it is September and the New York Yankees are in a pennant race.

"I'm surprised all right, but now I think we've got a good chance to stay in it," says the Yankees' outbatter.

Believe, believe, the Yankees, not given much of a chance at the beginning and as much as eight games behind first place halfway through the American League season, are only 1 1/2 games back as the result of Thursday's 7-0 victory over the Texas Rangers.

"Our pitching can straighten out, nobody has a sore arm," said Peterson after pitching the Yankees' fifth victory in six games with a five-hitter.

During the next 30 days, the Yankees play two series apiece with the three other bona fide contenders in the Eastern Division—Baltimore Orioles, Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox.

"Since we all play one another in September, I guess we can't all stay hot at the same time, can we?" said Peterson. "We're going to be the ones, I have a feeling."

Two clubs are currently ahead

$125,000 Purse At Stake Archer and Trevino In 21st GHO Field

WETHERSFIELD—Defending Greater Hartford Open champion George Archer and British Open titlist Lee Trevino tested almost back-to-back on the 21st GHO when they met at the Wetherfield Country Club.

The purse has grown substantially at the GHO since the Professional Golfers' Association first played the par 71, 6,823-yard course for a total $150,000 prize monies in 1952. First prize this year is $25,000. Total prize money—$125,000, a record for the GHO.

Arnold Palmer won his first professional tournament at Wetherfield in 1958 and repeated his feat in 1960. The only golfer to do better was Billy Casper who won first prize in 1963, 1966 and 1968. There have been no other repeaters.

But some are trying. Bob Murphy, 1970's winner and 27th on last year's list of PGA money winners with $75,301, hopes to repeat this year with $125,000. And because the greens putt well, it's not unusual to find them yielding money to amateurs who have contributed over the years to scores well below par, with even the losers finishing as high as 14 under par.

The four-day GHO tourney, with 18 holes set for each day, is scheduled to conclude Monday.

Tigers Add Howard's Bat To Bolster Stretch Run

DETROIT (AP)— In an effort to get some power into the lineup for the September stretch drive in the American League East, the Detroit Tigers have acquired Frank Howard from the Texas Rangers.

"I'm the very best I can do and I just hope I can help the team make into the playoffs," said Howard, who was contacted at his Irving, Tex. apartment.

Howard will apparently need all the help he can get. The 3-foot-7, 250-pounder is currently in one of the worst slumps of his fading 13-year career. At present he shows only nine home runs, 31 runs batted in and a .247 batting average in 94 games for the Rangers.

But Howard claims his hitting "has picked up a little lately."

But if Howard does help lift the limping Tigers into the playoffs, he won't be eligible to play.

of the Yankees. Baltimore, idle Thursday, took over first place by a half-game after California beat Detroit 4-0 and dropped the Red Sox to second place. The Red Sox are behind the Yankees by a fourth, two games off the pace.

In the other American League game, the Milwaukee Braves defeated the Kansas City Royals 7-3. Only two games were played in the abbreviated schedule.

The Houston Astros trimmed the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1 in an abbreviated schedule as the Los Angeles Dodgers turned back the Chicago Cubs 5-3.

YANKS-RANGERS
Horace Clarke gave Peterson a 1-0 lead with a home run in the first inning and then Bobby Murcer put the game out of sight with a three-run blast as the Yankees scored four times in the second inning. It was Murcer's 100th career homer.

ANGELS-TIGERS
Nolan Ryan pitched a three-hitter for his third straight shutout and ninth of the season as the California stopped the stumbling Tigers.

The Angels' right-handed ace extended his scoreless string to 34 innings while helping his team complete a three-game sweep over Detroit. Ryan struck out 10, including the last three batters in

ASTROS-PHILS
Doug Rader's two-run single capped a four-run rally in the third inning and Larry Dierker scattered seven hits in leading Houston's victory.

"The club is really playing great now," said Houston Manager Leo Durocher, who's undefeated in four games since he took over the club last Sunday. "They have enthusiasm on the bench—I don't see much of that anywhere."

DODGERS-CUBS
Claude Osteen pitched a six-hitter and took care of the winning run himself with a sixth-inning single as Los Angeles beat Chicago and kept alive its flickering pennant chances in the National League West. The third-place Dodgers trail the first-place Cincinnati Reds by 1 1/2 games.

After Wes Parker doubled home a run and Bobby Valentine singled in another to key a three-run Dodgers first, Osteen singled home a runner from second base in the sixth for his team's fourth run.

The margin helped the Dodgers' left-hander withstand a three-run home run by Ron Santo in the Chicago seventh. After that blast, Carlton Fazzano hit a two-out single to keep the pressure on.

But Osteen worked out of trouble in both the eighth and ninth innings to record his 15th victory of the year.
