Bolton Morgan Horse Wins At Several Shows

Miss Roberta, a grand mare owned by the Simon family of Bolton, recently won the Morgan Pleasure Saddle Championship at the Eastern National Morgan Horse Show in Northampton, Mass. The mare also won first place in the pleasure harness category, first place in the junior exhibitor pleasure harness and first in the versatility class, which includes pleasure, harness and jumping. More than 700 horses were entered in the four-day show. Wally and Roberta Simon of Fernwood Farms on Hebron Rd. and several members of their family were all involved in the mare's victories, and of course, in her training and preparation. The teenage daughter Nisa shows Miss Roberta under saddle, while Wally shows her in harness. Their niece and neighbor on Hebron Rd., Carrie Doonan, entered Fernwood Margold in the same show and took fifth and sixth place in the pleasure riding and driving classes. This was Carrie's first horse show.

Citadel Battles Raging

SAIGON (AP) - South and North Vietnamese forces were locked in savage, bunker-to-bunker combat at Quang Tri today, field reports said. It was the third straight day of heavy fighting there. South Vietnamese marines have made no progress since Tuesday when a company of about 200 men fought their way into the southeastern corner of the 19th Century Citadel. Associated Press correspondent Holger Jensen, reporting from the front, estimated the South Vietnamese held only about two acres of the 50-acre fortress. Lt. Col. Candidates Mix Campaign, Duty

WASHINGTON AP - Sen. George McGovern and tonight running mate Sargent Shriver maintained an active campaign pace today, while President Nixon worked behind the scenes and Vice President Agnew announced he would begin campaigning next week. McGovern, who has had important help in his Democratic presidential campaign this week from Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, planned to campaign in Albany, N.Y., New York City and Westbury and Hartford today. McGovern and Kennedy will make an appeal at a banquet tonight for badly needed campaign funds from approximately 250 wealthy New Yorkers who will attend. Shriver, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, claimed commitments Wednesday totaling $100,000 from 25 Texas business men attending a luncheon in Houston. Shriver's wife, Eunice Kennedy Shriver, was with him. President Nixon met for the second day with Republican leaders and key advisers at his Camp David retreat in Maryland. He returned to Washington later. Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said they were mapping plans for the final eight weeks of the presidential campaign. So far, Nixon, who has a substantial lead in the polls over McGovern, has been content to let subordinates do most of the campaigning. Vice President Agnew announced he will start a nine-day campaign trip to seven states starting next Tuesday in Minnesota and Missouri. Other stops will be in Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky, Texas, Illinois and the District of Columbia. Sen. Kennedy, who has helped McGovern draw record crowds for his post-convention campaign named. "We will go to work to get some of the features referred to," said Ratchford, changing to the National Legislative Conference, which is president. Ratchford said the NLC wants the maximum amount of revenue-sharing, but is concerned about the penalty in the House-approved formula against states which do not have state income taxes. "Although most states do have income taxes, "There is no strong feeling nationally that there should be a reward for it," said Ratchford.

Tolland Great Lettuce Boycott Young Democrats Topic

The "Great Lettuce Boycott" will be the subject of debate at tonight's open meeting of the Young Democrats at 7:30 in the Town Hall. Speakers representing both sides of the debate will be featured, according to Rudy Kowalski, club president. George Sheridan, director of the boycott and a representative of the United Farm Workers Union, will speak in favor of the boycott. Taking the opposing view will be either Luther Stearns of the Connecticut Farmers Bureau or Michael Lepier of the Tolland County Agricultural Center. A half-hour film will be provided by Glen Luginbuhl. Democratic VIP's to picnic throughout the state will convene on the local Democratic Picnic Sunday at Maple Grove on Franklin St. in Rockville from noon until 6 p.m. Attending the event will be Democratic Congressional candidate Roger Hillman; retiring State Sen. Robert Hooley; Vernon S. Rep. Thomas Dooley and Mansfield St. Rep. Audrey Beck. State personalities expected to attend the event include Secretary of State Gloria Schaffer and Attorney Gen. Robert Kilian; Joseph Duffey, advisor to the presidential campaign of George McGovern and a former U.S. senatorial candidate; and at the McGovern-Shriver coordinator Donald Tucker. Tickets are available from Democratic committee members at the Six Sons Service Center at Rt. 30 and 74. Admission is free for those under age 21.

Bolton Testing Scheduled For College-Bound

John Flek, guidance director for Bolton schools, has announced the testing schedule for students planning to continue their education beyond high school.

The American College Testing Program will be administered Oct. 21, Dec. 9, Feb. 24, April 28 and July 21. Registrations for the Oct 21 test must be received by Oct. 1, Flek said.

Flek notes that the test is required for admission to Eastern Connecticut State College, and will be administered at that school and at University of Hartford on the dates indicated above.

Applications for the 1972-73 test service are available in the guidance office.

Armed Services Test The Department of Defense high school test team will be at Bolton High in November to administer the free Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Test to boys and girls who are not certain of future career plans.

Flek notes that only a limited number of students may take the test, and notes that preference will be given to seniors. Persons wishing to take the ASVAB must sign up at the guidance office, during October.

Guidance Meetings Flek has also announced that a series of meetings have been planned for high school students and their parents to provide information on college admission procedures, vocational opportunities.

Parents and students may come to the guidance office Saturday, Sept. 22, or Sept. 29 at 10 a.m. to meet with Flek. He asks that those planning to contact him in advance.

Aide Post Opening Flek also notes that there is an opening at the high school for a Lincoln PTA Stays Active

The Lincoln School PTA executive board voted Tuesday night to keep the organization active for the 1972-73 school year.

Mrs. Virginia Celinski, president, said that the action was taken to keep channels of communication open to and from parents and to facilitate the flow of information relative to problems of children who were transferred to other elementary schools as the result of Lincoln's closing.

Membership may be obtained from Mrs. Robert Brennan, 10 Haynes St., and is open to anyone interested in the welfare of former Lincoln pupils.

The executive board also voted to continue retaining the services of Atty. Frederick W. Odell of New Britain.

Coventry Charter Revision Proposed

The Board of Education has taken a stand in opposition for a suggested charter revision which would call for the election of all seven school board members every two years, the way in which the Coventry Town Council is presently elected.

Board of Education members are now elected on a staggered four-year term basis, with three elected in one year's election, and four elected two years later.

Under the recommendation of the Charter Revision Committee, there would be no staggered terms and minority representation would be modified so voters could choose from a wider field of candidates than at present.

McGovern Chairman Named Atty. John Malon, chairman of the Democratic Town Committee, has announced the appointment of Richard Breslow of Converse Rd. as Bolton coordinator of the McGovern-Shriver campaign.

Breslow will be responsible for distributing literature on the candidates and for providing other information pertinent to the campaign and its issues.

An active member of the town committee, conservation commission and civil defense advisory council, Breslow is assistant professor of physics at University of Hartford.

Breslow also invites persons interested in assisting with the election effort to attend the regular meeting of the Democratic Town Committee to be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Community Hall.

Paper Drive The Class of 1973 at Bolton High School will hold a paper drive Saturday. Residents wishing to donate old newspapers are asked to place them in front of their homes where they will be picked up by class members.

School Menu Monday, juice, hot dog and beans, tossed salad, oatmeal raisin cookies; Tuesday, ham salad sandwich, potato chips, lettuce and tomato, oatmeal peach bread pudding.

Wednesday, macaroni and chicken salad, tomato wedge, cucumbers, vanilla pudding, with pineapple; Thursday, hamburger, ginger bread with topping; Friday, tuna roll, potato chips, celery and carrot sticks, lemon pudding.

Messers sees the two-year term as weakening the board, adding that new board members must look to the superintendent for direction.

In defending the minority position, Walsh pointed out that the majority of recommendations made by the superintendent which have failed to pass have been voted down by at least two of the three new board members.

According to Walsh, the board would have to do "something appalling" in order for a complete turnover to result.

He estimated that it will take at least two years to tie together a program with student productivity.

PPBS is designed to break out costs for a particular program within an educational system, such as math in elementary grades, grade level, and by school.

Through PPBS, a weaknesses and strengths within a program can be determined, and input can be measured in terms of cost against output.

Forms for the system were developed by Hardy and include program classifications, titles, sub-program description and goal objectives, activities, major cost elements, and program evaluation.

PPBS also includes constraints on a program, recommendations, per pupil costs, sources of revenue and reimbursement.

Coventry Schools To Institute New Program-Budgeting System

The new, state-mandated program Planning Budget System (PPBS) will be implemented for the 1973-74 school year, following Coventry Board of Education action last week.

PPBS is a budget reporting system that is educationally oriented in terms of accountability, rather than accounting oriented, according to Dr. Donald C. Hardy, superintendent of schools, and must be in use in school systems in the state by July of 1974.

Although the state has recommended minimum levels for implementation, Hardy said the local system will go beyond this minimum, while offering better means for determining priorities and alternatives.

With the new budgetary system, planning programming, budgeting, and evaluative systems, we hope to prove to the public that we are responsive.

PPBS also includes constraints on a program, recommendations, per pupil costs, sources of revenue and reimbursement.

Major Step Forward

The Manchester Board of Education adopted on a trial basis for the 1972-73 school year an administration-student developed plan for two-way representation on the board and the student assembly at Manchester Senior High School.

The students will have two representatives sitting in on board sessions and while they will not have the legal right to vote on board issues the plan allows for discussion participation. A member of the board will be designated also to sit in on student assembly sessions whenever possible.

The goal is improved communication between the board and the students which the plan's rationale calls its primary clients and takes note of the school's to take more aggressive steps to prepare young people for citizenship participation since the voting age has been extended to 18 year olds.

Such participation is not new to Connecticut or other parts of the nation.

However, in this trial period in Manchester—if the plan is to succeed and continue—it is incumbent on the students to select their representatives carefully so that there will be communication and participation and not merely token presence. The board too should seek out of its membership a representative to the assembly who has not only strong board experience but also an empathy for the students and their problems and views.

The plan is not a sure-fire solution to the communications gap between the school officials and the students but if both groups will approach and use this new avenue of opportunity it can and will be a major step forward in the Manchester school system as it has in many other areas.

We will be watching with interest in the coming months this experiment and wish it success for in this complex age we live we can no longer accept, if we may paraphrase an adage, that students should be seen and not heard.

Be Alert To 'Bargains'

For years consumers have been told to buy the brands you know from the firms you know.

And for years consumers and that includes all of us find it hard to resist a bargain. We all brag about those "good buys" or "good deals" we got because it is flattering to all of us to be good Yankee horse traders.

Conversely it is rare for any of us to admit we might have been "taken" by someone a little sharper than we were.

The result is that we look for bargains and because of the general integrity of our local business and service people, we do get to save money from time to time on items offered at legitimate bargain prices. More important locally purchased goods and services are backed up by the seller who is interested in you as a steady customer and he knows that this depends on your being a satisfied customer.

Unfortunately, there are in our free enterprise system, "fast buck" artists and "fly-by-night" firms who are always offering some fantastic bargain by mail or via door-to-door solicitation.

One Manchester Evening Herald reader has called to our attention a firm which conducts via the mails a contest in which you can win a prize. She reports the puzzle is simple and her "second prize" was a $200 check good toward the purchase of a $289.50 sewing machine.

This reader did what every other person being offered a similar "bargain" gimmick should do. She checked with the Connecticut Department of Consumer Protection in Hartford and found out a warning has been issued on this firm's gimmick. She was told the sewing machine, although priced at $289.50, was probably worth $69.50 thus the $200 "second prize" check was come-on gimmick to fool the buying public.

The lesson is plain. Buy products you know and buy from firms you know. And if you have any doubt make full use of Connecticut Department of Consumer Protection, Room 105, State Office Bldg., Hartford, Telephone 566-4999.

Facing Up To VD Epidemic

The bad news of a "silent epidemic" of venereal disease in Connecticut has been officially conveyed to Gov. Meskell. The dismal development does not come as a surprise as Health Department statistics for the past few years have indicated the trend. The governor's distress—which has double impact because VD was almost completely under control a few years ago—must be shared by the public. Concern should give rise to a program of action.

Facing up to the realities of this situation, however unpleasant, is the first requirement. This was done, at least partly, when the governor named the 26-member venereal disease Task Force last February. On official circles, there has been frank recognition of this threat to health. It now is up to the public to face the disturbing facts and to support implementation of recommendations made by the Task Force in its report.

Unless an effective program is set up, a worsening of the trend can be expected. There is no reason to expect improvement without some publicly-backed endeavor to enlighten, to prevent and to ensure treatment. Since 1962, according to the Task Force's study, the reported incidence of gonorrhea has been rising in Connecticut at an average rate of 36 per cent. In one year, syphilis has risen at the alarming rate of 37 per cent.

The reason for the flareup of VD problem, after it seemed to have been all but solved, seems obvious. The more permissive attitude toward sex, combined with the use of the birth-control pill, which does not offer protection against VD, are the chief reasons. Perhaps several

No Homogeneous Electorate

WASHINGTON — Now look. Whether we like it or not, the American pot has not yet succeeded in melting its varied peoples into one homogeneous electorate. There is still a black vote, a Jewish vote, a labor vote, a Catholic vote, a Protestant vote and a you-name-it vote.

Thus, although points for stamanship should be awarded to a recent appeal by eight prestigious Jewish groups that Jewish voters be judged as individuals, the political candidate will accept such advice at his dire peril.

The joint statement deplored appeals to Jews based on the single issue of U.S. support of Israel. So do I — and so, I expect — do Richard Nixon and George McGovern. We all want to be approached as 110 per cent Americans with no special political axes to grind.

But in our waking moments, we are forced to acknowledge that few Jews would vote for a Presidential candidate who announced that Israel would have to fork it alone. That would go against human nature. Similarly, the blacks have legitimate selfish interests. So do the so-called "ethnics." Catholics seeking public aid for their parochial schools, labor unions, and Protestants determined to keep state and church separate.

Getting back to American Jewry, there are two issues in which they have a particular stake. One is the survival of Israel. The other involves governmental hiring practices based on the quota system.

On the issue of Israel, the position of American Jews sets no precedent. In this imperfect melting pot, ethics have always lobbied in behalf of their native lands. Our ties with England and the Anglo-Saxon world generally are the product of 200 years of lobbying by Anglo-Saxon immigrants. Irish-Americans have never been loath to press Dublin's many causes. In making foreign policy, Presidents have been aware of the Italian, Polish,

Your 'Fair Share'
To the editor:
It's that time of year again when, with vacillations over, we return to the serious cares of our community, one of which is our United Fund Drive already under way. This year with the great slogan "Thanks to you it's working," good things are happening and a great number of people with a heart are giving their "Fair Share."
I'm sure a great many of our Senior Citizens (and I am one also) will give all they can to help alleviate some of the troubles in our community.
The United Fund is counting on each and everyone to contribute as best they can financially. It is at the end of the necessary needs of others will be met.

Today's Thought

We live in an age which is uncomfortable with responsibility. We all to readily pass-the-buck to avoid criticism. Just listen to the political speeches of our national and international leaders: like little children — "I didn't do it Mommy, he did." "I think it was Harry Truman who had a sign on his desk: 'The Buck stops here.'" Somebody, sooner or later, has to accept responsibility: that person is the one who has a chance to experience real freedom.
We have to make everything so easy to keep Church membership (numbers) high. We sell out our principles to Gallup polls and profit-sales graphs; we become slaves to the system because we sell out our responsibility to our values and ourselves. Who wants to beat an opponent in tennis that you know you can beat only if he lets you win? What kind of a victory is that?
The balance of freedom and responsibility in the game of life means that it's not whether you win or lose but how you play the game that counts. If you play it responsibly you become free; though, beware, freedom is expensive.

Vernon PHNA Votes To Raise Fees

The Board of Directors of the Rockville Public Health Nursing Association voted Tuesday night to raise its fee to $10 provided the change is approved by the Price Commission.
The current fee is $8 a call. The $2 hike was approved after Wilton Lisk, board treasurer, explained that costs have increased and that the association goes in the hole $2 on every visit at the present time. Many of the visits are paid for by Medicare or Medicaid and some are paid for by individuals who can afford to pay but two-thirds of the visits are in the "no-charge" category and this is what is paid for out of the town's budget. Each town serviced pays its share of the costs.
In the yearly report presented by Miss Ruth Hoyt, administrative supervisor, she noted that the activities of the agency intensify each year. During the year a total of 12,908 home visits were made. Of these 2,284 were for the purpose of administering bedside care and treatments and 9,228 were for health promotion. Divided into towns, 7,442 visits were made in Vernon; 1,654, Tolland; 2,008, Ellington; 709, Bolton and 1,095 in Somers.
Under the Norwich Referral Plan, the nurses visited the families of 37 patients who were admitted to Norwich Hospital.

Also visited the patients, upon their discharge, to offer counseling.
Mrs. Phyllis Drysdale, nursing supervisor, reported on the new program instituted at Rockville General Hospital, whereby the association provides a coordinator to assist patients who have problems upon being discharged from the hospital. The program went into effect on Aug. 21 and in the first 15 days 27 patients were referred to the service by 13 separate physicians. She said the volume of work is far greater than anticipated.
Mrs. Ann Forester, vice president of the board and its representative to the Community Health Issues Committee, explained two bills which the Association of Community Health Service Agencies, Inc. is attempting to have passed by the legislature. The bills would assist towns with financial support in the areas of maternal and child health programs and services for the aged. Board member, Atty. Sol Kerenisky said he would not be in favor of the bills as it would be another case of taking money out of one pocket and putting it in another and the larger cities would make out better than the smaller towns. The board then voted to inform the national association it would not be in favor of such legislation.

Vernon Helen Regan Honored

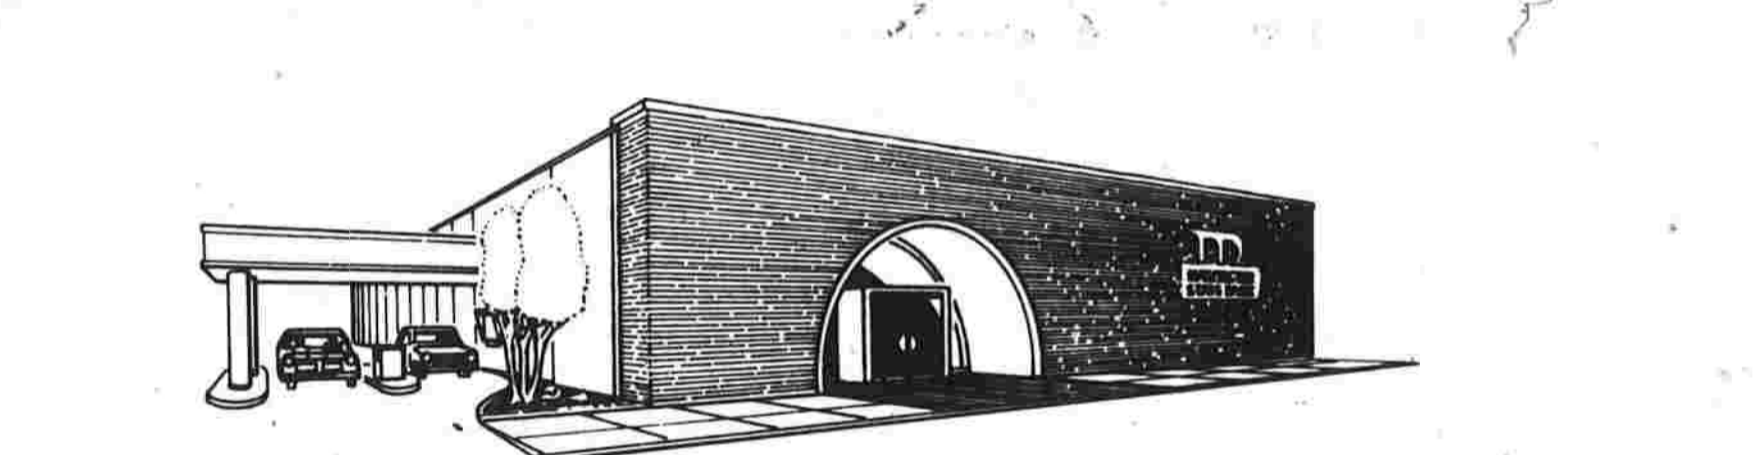

Miss Helen Regan, a visiting nurse for the Rockville Public Health Nursing Association for 38 years, has retired from that position and was honored by the Board of Directors and fellow nurses, Tuesday night.
Miss Regan spent most of her year's of service working in the town of Ellington as visiting nurse and school nurse and carrying her nursing bag she was a welcome and familiar figure to many ill persons. She was presented with a scrapbook containing a letter of appreciation from the Rockville Association and one from the town of Ellington. She was also presented with an engraved power pitcher. Also to be retiring next March is Miss Ruth Hoyt, administrative supervisor of the association. She has served in that capacity for 19 years although her former title was supervisor up to a short while ago. Both women have seen many changes in the association over the years although they were not around when the service was organized in 1913 as the outcome of a study made by Cornelia Circle of the then Rockville Women's Club which had made a study of family and welfare problems. At that time only one nurse was employed and she managed to pay a total of 2,494 calls during her first year. The fees charged ranged from five cents to 50 cents a visit and they were not raised until 1919 when they went up to a dollar.
At the outset, the nurses made their visits on foot, later by horse and buggy and the first car was purchased in 1916. The association now has a fleet of cars and the service has been extended to Tolland, Bolton and Somers besides Vernon, Rockville and Ellington.
Over the years the association has been responsible for initiating many new programs such as dental health clinics in the schools, courses for baby sitters, courses for expectant mothers, nursing service at the high school, an advisory committee on senior citizens, the Norwich Referral Plan which provides psychiatric consultation to the towns and became a certified home health agency.

The newest program include one involving on-the-job training for student nurses from the University of Connecticut. This year will be the second year of that program. On Aug. 21 a program was set up at Rockville General Hospital with the association providing a coordinator to work with the hospital staff in an effort to provide a continuity of care for patients who will need it on their discharge from the hospital.
Another major project this past year has been the preparation for accreditation by the National League of Nursing. The final report has been filed. Under the Medicare Program the agency has had to be re-evaluated every two years to be certified as a Home Health Agency. If accreditation is received this will take the place of the constant re-evaluation. Miss Holt said this would be a feather in the cap of the local agency as few others in this country are so accredited.
While Miss Regan prefers to enjoy her retirement at home, Miss Hoyt plans to do some traveling when she terminates her duties in March.

From Your Neighbor's Kitchen

By Vicim E. Ferguson

This week my family and I attended the Plaza Garden Fair on Constitution Plaza in Hartford. It is an event that I do not like to miss. Frank Atwood, who writes the gardening column for this paper, is one of the exhibits chairman and a member of the steering committee for this lovely show.

While there, I visited the booth of the Connecticut Nut Growers Association. This organization has published a small booklet entitled "Nut Trees in Connecticut" to encourage the planting of nut trees by the average homeowner. As I viewed the various nuts which can grow in this state, it reminded me of my younger days when we could go out into the woods and find chestnuts and butternuts.

I was surprised to learn that the black walnut can be grown here. According to the booklet, it (like other walnut trees) prefers limestone soils where the PH is near neutral. As I viewed the nuts, it brought to mind a recipe containing walnuts which I have been saving for you.

The Associated Press has its own test kitchen and food editor, Cecily Brownstone. She releases recipes to all the major newspapers on a daily basis. There are many excellent choices from which I have gleaned some ideas in my daily cooking.

Cecily believes that cream cheese first started being used as an ingredient in cake more than a dozen years ago when such a cake won one of the big money prizes in a bake-off contest.

Cecily's recipe is different from the first cake but could well be a prize winner. It is baked in a bundt pan that you coat with butter, chopped walnuts and sugar so you don't need frosting. The cake is nice and moist so it keeps well. I think you will enjoy this for your fall entertaining. It would be excellent for the holidays as well.

Walnut Cream Cheese Cake
1 1/2 cups walnuts
2 tablespoons butter for pancoat
2 tablespoons sugar for pancoat
1 cup butter
2 three-ounce packages cream cheese
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 1/2 cups sugar
4 eggs
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
Chop 1/3 cup of the walnuts very fine for pancoat and chop remainder medium-fine for batter.

City, Craig Claiborne was there and the top food editors of Gourmet. Good housekeeping and the like. To me, James Beard was still a number one. James Beard's Fabulous Nut Cake
2 pounds shelled pecans, walnuts or black walnuts
6 eggs
1 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
3/4 cup milk
1 cup cognac
1 teaspoon all-purpose flour
3 1/3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon cream of tartar

first mixture. Add the nuts and mix well sometimes easiest done with the hands! Beat the egg whites until foamy, add cream of tartar, and beat until stiff enough to hold a definite point when beater is lifted. Fold into cake mixture until well blended.
Turn into 10-inch tube pan that has been greased and floured, or line bottom with greased paper and grease pan as well. Bake in preheated slow oven, 275 degrees, about 2 1/2 hours or more. When done, cake will shrink from sides of pan and will spring back when touched lightly in center with a fingertip. Cool on rack 30 minutes before loosening from pan and turning out on rack to finish cooling. Do not ice cake but sprinkle with powdered sugar if desired.

Notes: Keeps for weeks if stored in cool, dry place. Freezes well.
Boy Scout Troop 157 of St. Bridget Church will hold its first meeting of the fall season tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the church hall for boys and their parents.
The West Hartford Ski Club will hold its first meeting of the 1972-73 season Sept. 20 at 8 p.m. at the Robinson School in West Hartford. Plans for the coming year will be presented and discussed. Members and guests are invited, as well as anyone interested in joining the club. George Jeffrey of Rockville is treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Seaton of 150 Keeney St. were recently feted at a 25th Wedding anniversary celebration at the home of Mrs. Seaton's mother, Mrs. Harriet Keeney of 158 Keeney St. The surprise party was given by the couple's daughter, Miss Carol Seaton, assisted by relatives and friends about 120 guests from Massachusetts and Connecticut attended the event including Mr. Seaton's mother, Mrs. Ethel Seaton of Coventry.
Mr. and Mrs. Seaton were married Sept. 13, 1947 at South United Methodist Church by the Rev. Ralph Wilcox, pastor.

Mr. Seaton is employed as a machanic at Pratt and Whitney Division of United Aircraft Corp., East Hartford. Mrs. Seaton is employed at the Meadow's Convalescent Center on Bidwell St.

School Menus

The cafeteria menu for Manchester public schools, Sept. 18-22:
Monday: Baked link sausage, mashed potato, buttered peas, bread, butter, milk, applesauce with a double layer. First is the inner hard shell which is what we buy commercially. This shell is covered with a tough outer husk and it is this portion that shows green at this time.
Walnuts have been known from the very earliest times. The Greeks were using them four centuries before Christ but it took the Romans to extend the cultivation of the walnut throughout Europe.
The very best way to store nuts is in their shells. They can be frozen but should not be used while still damp from the freezer or from the defrosting process—allow them to dry out first. Shelled nuts will get stale and even rancid far faster than those kept in a cool dry place in their shells.
James Beard in his book "American Cookery" has a fine recipe for his "Fabulous Nut Cake". It is one that keeps well for a long time and freezes beautifully. I am one of Mr. Beard's greatest admirers. I met him once at a gourmet dinner for food writers at the elegant and terribly expensive French restaurant L'Enfer in New York

Area Seniors Go Cruising On River

BY ALICE EVANS (Herald Reporter)

Nearly 100 pinocle-playing senior citizens from Manchester and Vernon boarded the Yankee Clipper late Tuesday afternoon at East Haddam for a buffet supper and moonlight cruise on the Connecticut River.

The group, led by Peter Vendrillo, was celebrating the end of its six-month pinocle tournament. Before the cruise ended trophies were awarded to Wilbrod Messier of Manchester and Ted Laboc of Vernon for having the highest number of points in the tournament, and to Florence Brooks of Manchester and Edward Quinn of Vernon for having the lowest number of points.

Other prizes were awarded to Margaret Storts, a picture created by Walter Kohls; Esther Anderson and Grace Windsor, watering cans made by Kohls; Mrs. Mary Waldo, a whistling teapot; Alice Edwards, a fire extinguisher; Rose Wheelock, a bunny made by Rose Breton, and George Schulz, a jeweled pin and earrings set donated by Molly McCarthy.

Shortly after boarding the Yankee Clipper, the buffet supper was served by a Rockville caterer. Later, the Dick Reo Trio played for dancing and group singing. Our bus drivers must have been hired for their singing as well as driving abilities as both sang solos and led the group singing.

Did you ever wonder why the word "spry" is used usually to describe the senior generation? There is a reason. Something magical happens at the age of 65 because one apparently becomes active, happy and very full of life. This I discovered Tuesday as I collapsed in my bus seat after the cruise, pleasantly but completely exhausted. My hosts however were still going strong, singing, and discussing plans for a trip to Nasau, another to Montreal, and still another to view the fall foliage.

Notes: Keeps for weeks if stored in cool, dry place. Freezes well.

Teacher Warns Of Sex Bias

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Betty Friedan began teaching a Temple University sociology class with an admonition to her 115 students — about half male and half female — not to pit one sex against the other.

"We must move beyond the rhetoric to a new human liberation," the women's movement leader said Tuesday. "I don't see a polarization of women against men, which at the moment seems to be too much the essence of the women's movement, but true liberation of both sexes."

School Board Going Forward On Middle School Addition

The Board of Education agreed during last night's meeting to proceed with plans for the expansion of the middle school at an estimated cost of $1.9 million.

The existing Middle school building committee has not been dismissed by the town and will likely assume the responsibility for overseeing the construction of the addition.

The school board agreed to route the controversial school bus trips down Grant Hill Rd following a strong presentation by a delegation of residents from the New Rd. area, last night.

Grabbing the rather than down Grant Hill which the parents described as "hazardous."

The road has a 12 foot drop off the sides, no guard rails, and a sharp curve in the winter it is particularly difficult due to springs which send water across the road at various locations.

The Dry Side of Sports

Red Sox Return Home Still in First Place

NEW YORK (AP) — The Boston Red Sox took over first place last week and still find themselves in that euphoric position. How's that for longevity?

It's not bad considering the unstable condition of the American League East pennant race. Especially the unstable condition of second place in the East.

Since the Red Sox took over the No. 1 spot on Sept. 7, the other three contenders—Detroit Tigers, New York Yankees and Baltimore Orioles—have all occurred in the top three spots.

They continued baseball's version of musical chairs Wednesday night when the Red Sox solidified their hold on first with a 7-2 victory over the Yankees. If you can call a one-game lead solid, that is.

The biggest thing that this game did for us," said Boston Manager Eddie Kasko, "is that we left home in first place and we're going home in first place."

The Red Sox, who had a half-game lead Tuesday, now hold a one-game advantage over the Yankees, who beat the Orioles 6-5 Wednesday night. The night's events left the Orioles and Yankees tied for third, 1½ games back.

It's no different than it probably was a week ago," said Kasko. "As far as trying to pick someone, or say that someone's got an advantage, well, it's all right to speculate, but you'd better not predict."

Ralph Houk, the Yankee manager, still fears the defending league champion Orioles.

"I still think that Baltimore's the team to beat," said Houk. "It's hard to lose that thought in my mind."

The Oakland A's remained the team to beat in the West, beating the Minnesota Twins 8-0 to grab a three-game lead over Chicago. The White Sox lost 4-4 on a decision to the Kansas City Royals.

The Milwaukee Brewers triumphed the Cleveland Indians 3-1 and the California Angels nipped the Texas Rangers 6-5 in the other American League games.

TIGERS-ORIOLES
Detroit called for five runs off Dave McNally in the fifth inning, three on a homer by Frank Howard and one on a balk by reliever Doyle Alexander, to overcome a four-run deficit and beat Baltimore.

"This is the first time that Howard has really ripped the ball since he's been here," said

ROYALS-INDIANS
Paul Schaaf doubled home two runs in the eighth to power the Royals past the White Sox. Amos Ozum, broke open a scoreless Detroit game with a single and was sacrificed to second base after Cookie Rojas bounced out for the second out. Carl Taylor drew a walk and set the stage for Schaaf's double.

BREWERS-DUBUES
Joe Laboad's 11th home run and Rick Ambach's run-scoring triple powered Milwaukee over Cleveland. Leo Cardenas capped a two-run rally in the eighth inning with a run-scoring blast, leading California past Texas.

The STANDINGS Veale New Bullpen Ace

NEW YORK (AP) — It wasn't very hard for Bob Veale to adjust to life in the minor leagues when the Pittsburgh Pirates released him back in May after nine full seasons ... and it's even easier for him to adjust to being back in the majors.

The big left-hander made it back with the Boston Red Sox last week and already has made his 6-foot-6, 225-pound presence felt. On Sunday, he pitched one inning in relief and picked up a win against Cleveland.

Wednesday night he bailed Lynn McLouth out of a seventh-inning jam and retired all eight batters he faced to preserve Boston's 7-2 triumph over the New York Yankees.

"I never burned my bridges so I never had a major adjustment to make when Pittsburgh released me," he said. "People are people wherever you go. Some are different than others, but I can get along with just about anyone."

"I've been used to a lot less in Birmingham, Ala. My father was a steelworker, a hard-digging work family man. We always had food on the table but there were monetary things we didn't have. Trivial things, but things that were important to a kid."

After seven years as a starting pitcher, Veale became a utility reliever last season, working only 48 innings with a sky-high 7.04 earned run average. The Pirates released him after five appearances in the first month of the current season.

"I was so used to starting, I didn't even know how to get ready for a game in the bullpen," he said. "But I never had any arguments with anybody over there. They said pitch and I'd pitch. What amazed me when I was first released was that nobody acquired my contract, that was the most disheartening thing."

"I can't say I was bitter, that wouldn't be me. The thing that was kind of sad, more than anything else, was being disconnected from my friends. But that's part of a game and you have to be ready to accept the

Wife Worries, Too, With Yank Manager

RIDGEWOOD, N.J. (AP) — As the New York Yankees battle for first place in the homestretch of the American League East pennant race the wife of the club's manager recalls it's just like old times.

"The players are all enlisted," says a smiling Mrs. Ralph Houk. "We've got pennant fever. We were used to all those pennants."

Not since 1964 have the Yankees won a championship. Before that, the Yanks consistently were champions.

But through it all, Bette Parker Houk has been a watching, cheering interest in the game and the club's success.

"I don't worry about the game and I worry about the manager," she says. "I'm being a manager's wife means being a boss's wife as the dugout when the team's at home, and day after day of feeling like a widow when it's on the road, it's having an inside track to what's going on in a seemingly glamorous world, but being a perpetual diplomat and teaming up with the right thing to say."

"I feel a lot like I should take a bed out there and just stay," she says.

Minor Leaguers to Boston Squad

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox will have three new players in uniform Friday night when they open their regular season homestand in a game with the Cleveland Indians at Fenway Park.

Evans hit .301 with 17 homers in 144 games at Louisville.

Check prices of Times

Since 1949 ticket prices to athletic events at Manchester High School have remained the same, but due to increased expenses of officials, materials and labor, the prices of admission to football and basketball games have been changed.

According to faculty manager, Ted Martin, who also holds the temporary position of director of athletics, "Adult tickets will be $1.50 and visiting personnel with Athletic Association tickets will be $1.00. Junior high students will be charged 75 cents."

"We cannot meet the operating costs any more," Martin noted. "It's a reasonable increase and it meets the prices of other schools in the CCIL."

High School Notes

Beginning in September of 1974, four schools will drop out of the highly respected CCIL and join their own loop. Bristol Eastern, Bristol Central, plus both Meriden schools, Platt and Maloney will relinquish their spots.

It's rumored that East Hartford High and Enfield High, two of the schools mentioned, East Hartford would most likely get the nod, since Penney High, also of East Hartford, is in the CCIL already. One athletic director oversees both schools in East Hartford.

Manchester High sports two new officers in the CCIL for the 1972-73 calendar year. Principal George Emmeringer is president of the league while Dick Danielson will be active in the secretary's role.

Bill Topy is in charge of the troops at Illing Junior High.

Eight of Manchester High's nine football games will begin at 1:30. The only exception will be the Thanksgiving Day rivalry game with Windham High. The battle begins at 10:30 in Williamstown.

Dave Wiggin is again the varsity football coach at MHS with Larry Olson his assistant. Coaching the JV's will be Barry Bernstein with assistance coming from Mike Walsh and Bill Lawrence, a student teacher from Central Connecticut State College.

Two new clubs have been added to the Hartford County Conference for the coming campaign.

St. Bernard's of Leydard have joined East Catholic, South Catholic, Northwest Catholic and Xavier in the conference.

Pulaski High in New Britain, one of the original members when the HCC was formed in 1963, left prior to the 1971 season.

Oval Bumpings

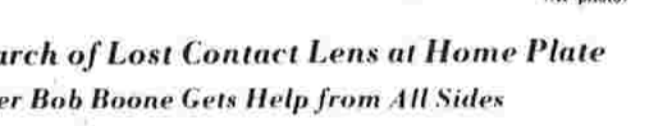

Steve Evanson of Granby spotted Bobby Stefanik's attempt to capture three consecutive track championships at Riverside Park.

On the 110th lap of the scheduled 250 grid, Stefanik dropped out of the running and Evanson finished third behind winner Gary Coltrini to win his first track title at the park.

Evanson and Bill Greco represented Riverside Park in its debut in the All-Star Racing League this past season. Stafford Speedway finally closed its doors Saturday night, but not in grand fashion like one would think. Before the start of the evening races, Jack Arute, owner of the half-mile raceway announced to the drivers that because of the small attendance, the payoff might be made in checks.

Time Out for Search of Lost Contact Lens at Home Plate

Phillie Catcher Bob Boone Gets Help from All Sides

Phillie Catcher Bob Boone Gets Help from All Sides

Phillies and Mets Put On Some Show

NEW YORK (AP) — It is September in the National League and with the division races all but pinned, this has become the silly season for the also-rans.

Boone started pawing the ground around home plate in the seventh inning after losing his contact lens. He was joined by plate umpire Doug Harvey, other players and coaches. Caught up in the emergency, Phillies pitcher Jim Nosh rushed from the dugout with a head set over his ears and began scanning the ground with his eyes as if he were a cresset coner.

The fruitless search lasted four minutes. In seven, before the umpires ordered play resumed. Boone worked the rest of the way with a spare lens and after the game ended, the rookie and a couple of helpers showed up with flashlights to resume the search.

Perhaps they were looking for the end of this long, long season. Elsewhere in the National League Wednesday division leaders (in small and Pittsburgh both) reduced their margin numbers. The Reds got theirs down to none with an 8-6, 10-9 over Atlanta in 10 innings and the Pirates cut theirs to five by beating Chicago 6-4. Houston edged San Diego 6-5. St. Louis nipped Montreal 5-4 in 11 innings and San Francisco whipped Los Angeles 7-1.

Good, Bad Outings Dot Tribe Workouts

Before yesterday's scrimmage at Memorial Field, Manchester High's football team engaged in two controlled scrimmages against South Windsor High and South Catholic.

Indian Coach Dave Wiggin reported, we looked good in the South Windsor scrimmage. We seemed to execute properly and did everything right. Against South, we looked like we lost everything. A few mistakes cost us that practice.

Some unbelievable statistics were revealed when looking at Manchester's depth chart. The average team weight is 167 pounds, total backfield is 150 with the line averaging 173 pounds. Only Dallas Dodge and Don Corcoran tip the scales at over 200 pounds.

It has been a down week for the team in below par, but I expect it to pick up when we start to prepare for our season opener against Maloney High on Sept. 25. The hot, humid weather has turned our practice field into a dust bowl and after a few plays you can't see out there," the coach added.

Jack Maloney, an all-around athlete at Memorial Junior High last season, and Rick Wilka, a junior, are battling for the starting quarterback assignment.

Redskins, Vikings, 49ers Pre-Season Pro Choices

NEW YORK (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys are the big question mark again in the National Football League's National Conference.

Will the Cowboys go all the way again this year—despite the loss of No. 1 quarterback Roger Staubach?

Dallas will do quite well this year—probably making it to the playoffs as the No. 4 team from the NFC. But this pickin prognosticator sees the Washington Redskins winning the East Division, with the Cowboys a close second.

Minnesota appears to be an easy winner in the Central Division but another tough race shapes up in the West between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

San Francisco 49ers
Los Angeles Rams
Atlanta Falcons
New Orleans Saints

There are a lot of reasons why Dallas should win the NFC East. And there are several reasons why they won't. One of the big ones is George Allen and the Washington Redskins.

Sure, Craig Morton quarterbacked the Cowboys to the Super Bowl two seasons ago. Staubach did it last year. With Staubach not likely to see any action until the end of this season, that's one minus for the Cowboys.

The Cowboys lost running back Duane Thomas and wide receiver Calvin Hill and Walt Garrison. But that won't be quite enough. The Dallas Defensive Defense has been one of the best in the game, but this may be the year that age starts to catch up with such stalwarts as Bob Lilly, Chuck Hawley, Cornell Green and Herb Adderly.

With Sonny Jurgensen rejoining the Redskins, who also have Billy Kilmer at quarterback, Allen's crew will be tough. The Redskins' "Over-the-Hill Gang" could fallter some, but not enough to keep Washington from winning its first division crown since 1962.

St. Louis may contend in the East but not strongly enough to win. The Cardinals offense could be potent with Jim Hart and Gary Cozzoo at quarterback, plus receivers Jackie Smith and Mel Gray and running backs Danny Anderson and Leon Burns. The St. Louis defense is suspect, however.

The Eagles and Giants will field teams this season. Not much else can be said for them.

Minnesota is the team that will represent the NFC in the Super Bowl this year, according to this prognosticator. Fran Tarkenton returns to quarterback the Vikings, who already have such offensive stalwarts as Gene Washington, Jim Gilliam, Dave Osborn and Bill Brown.

And then there are the Purple People Eaters—Carl Eller, Alvin Page, Jim Marshall, Gary Larsen and the rest of the defense.

The Detroit Lions can't be completely counted out, but defense—or the lack of it—will be the story of this team for 1972. Quarterback Greg Landry can hold his own with anybody—but he doesn't play defense.

Green Bay will run the ball a lot with John Brockington and MacArthur Lane gaining considerable yardage. Scott Hunter is erratic at quarterback.

As for the Bears, now that Gale Sayers has retired, about the only thing that can be said for them is that they have a 49-man roster which will vary greatly during the season.

With Roman Gabriel directing the Los Angeles offense, which includes receivers Jack Snow and Lance Rentzel and runner Les Josephson, Larry Smith and Willie Ellison, who more could be asked—except a tested secondary on defense.

Atlanta and New Orleans are in the same situation as the Giants, Eagles and Bears. The Falcons could score a few points with Bob Berry throwing the ball. And the Saints have Archie Manning for the future—if he can remain healthy.

Wilt, Havlicek On Holdout List

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain, who failed to show up for the Lakers' opening practice, and teammate Happy Hairston, who left practice early, face possible fines for their actions, says general manager Pete Newell.

Chamberlain has indicated he might not play this season unless his contract is renegotiated. Hairston says he wants an extension on his current pact with the Lakers' last year's National Basketball Association training camp at Massachusetts Maritime Academy.

"I'm very disappointed," Celtics president and general manager Red Auerbach said. "I thought he'd be here while negotiations are taking place."

Havlicek reportedly is seeking another three-year contract with a big increase in his salary, believed to have been about $160,000 a season for the last three years.

Auerbach said that Havlicek is being represented by Larry Fleischer, head of the NBA Players Association. He added that contract talks began only about two weeks ago.

Town Net Tourney Under Way Tonight

Case Seeks to Halt Sale of Homo Book

The manager of an "adult" bookstore in Manchester has been summoned to Circuit Court 12 to show cause why he should not be restrained from selling an allegedly obscene book.

Atty. Collins said he is seeking a determination of whether the book is obscene under the state's criminal statutes. If the book is

Early Retirement Sought by Cornish

The executive committee of the Greater Hartford Chapter of American Red Cross announced today following its regular meeting, the retirement of Donald L. Cornish, chapter manager.

In a letter to chapter board of directors, Morris H. Beech, chapter chairman, commented, "Don's tenure as chapter and division manager spans a period of great accomplishment in the development of Red Cross, both in Hartford and statewide."

A campaign of picketing the store was followed by introduction of a bill in the state's General Assembly, which sought to tighten the Connecticut laws against obscenity. The bill, written by Manchester Town Councilman David Barry on instructions of the town Board of Directors, was killed in the state Senate in April.

The state's attorney emphasized that it was brought out in cross examination of Merrill that he'd spent his days in his own cell since he had not been released from June, July or August of the October, and the bars couldn't have been cut then.

After taking the case at 4 p.m. yesterday the jury deliberated an hour and then asked that 172 pages of the testimony be read back to them. They were dismissed until this morning at 10, by Judge Anthony J. Armentano, when the testimony was read. A verdict is expected today.

GOP Demands Apology In Watergate Affair

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Top Republicans have demanded an apology from Democrats in the wake of indictments in the Watergate break-in case, but George McGovern and running mate Sargent Shriver have responded with a call for further investigation in the case.

Shriver said, "From what we already know, there must be a continuing investigation and there must be a speedy trial of the seven defendants named today. All of us have a right to all of the facts involved in the Watergate case. No one can be allowed to live above the rule of law because of their connections with high government officials—past or present."
Lawrence F. O'Brien, McGovern's national campaign director and Democratic national chairman at the time of the break-in, said, "We will continue to press for a more thorough examination of the funding of the crime that led to these indictments."
But Republicans saw it another way.
