

South Windsor Citizens Press Rec Needs

Two citizens, Mrs. Nancy Coffey of Main St., and Donald Marra of Dogwood Ln., this week made two separate requests of the Board of Education and both matters have bearing on future recreational expenses.

Mrs. Coffey requested that the board look into the inadequacies of school playgrounds and cited the Pleasant Valley Elementary School grounds as being the most insufficient for the needs of the children for physical activities.

She said she had done research on what had become of an allocation of $32,000 in 1966 which was made for construction of the Pleasant Valley and Eli Terry School playgrounds for three years, but learned that due to problems with the contractor, a suggestion was made by the Public Building Commission to place the $32,000 in the general fund to be used for short term improvements of the capital improvements when the contractor was unable to fulfill the contract obligations.

She added that in visiting the Pleasant Valley school playground, it is evident to see the need as only one basketball field is available and is situated in such a way as it interferes with property rights of the abutting homeowner. She further said that a climbing apparatus are occasionally out of use after it rains because of poor drainage and water accumulations in the play area.

Mrs. Coffey pointed out that the town has a surplus of approximately $135,000 this year and asked the board to consider amending the Town Council to use the surplus for improvement in the play facilities in the town rather than use the money, part of the average daily membership grant (ADM) for six tennis courts for the town.

She cited Public Act 751 passed by the 1969 General Assembly which states that the state board would reimburse towns for any improvements made with regard to need.

Marra then told the board that, after making several calls to the State Board of Education, he has learned that only two circumstances exist when the State will not approve reimbursement requests: (1) when the request does not comply with the fire codes and (2) when construction has begun before approval. He said he checked the fire codes and that the town has requested under the act and found the following application filled: portable classrooms, sewers for Timothy Edwards and Orchard Hill, and the high school addition. He recommended a board instruct the superintendent of schools to apply immediately for the work being done on the football field and for the purchase of the bleachers in the hopes that one half the cost of the project would come back to the taxpayers.

He cited several advantages of the town utilizing Public Act 751, namely, to be used for the Pleasant Valley Recreational facility, taking full advantage of the form of revenue-sharing by giving residents more for their money, and that the six tennis courts could be placed at the high school under the 50 per cent reimbursement clause.

He told the board that many areas are listed under the act including renovations. Last year the board approved relocating the office space for the administration but no application was on file for the manpower reimbursement.

Skyjack Saga Ends with All Safe in Spain

MADRID (AP) — Three gunmen freed all 83 passengers from a hijacked Swedish jetliner early today and flew across Western Europe to a landing at Madrid airport.

The hijackers were six Croatian terrorists released from Swedish prisons, $105,000 in ransom, two captive pilots and two stewardesses.

POW Pickup Cuts Bombs Near Hanoi

SAIGON (AP) — The immediate Hanoi area was placed off limits to U.S. fighter-bombers today for the arrival of a group of Americans invited by North Vietnam to pick up three captured pilots, U.S. military sources disclosed.

Gen. John W. Vogt, commander of the U.S. 7th Air Force, was reported to have taken personal command of all air strikes in the Hanoi area to avoid any political repercussions or embarrassment to the United States.

The North Vietnamese news agency announced that the American delegation arrived from Vietnam, Laos, shortly before noon and was met at the Gia Lam Airport by a group of Americans invited by North Vietnam to pick up three captured pilots, U.S. military sources disclosed.

Bulletin

MADRID (AP) — Three hijackers of a Swedish jetliner rendered to Spanish police today, sources at the Madrid airport said.

The three hijackers were pilots and two stewardesses, who were still aboard the plane after more than 15 hours on duty.

"We tried in vain to exchange the tired crew against fresh volunteers but they refused," he told newsmen.

Americans Arriving

It wiped out 90 per cent of North Vietnam's biggest rail line on the northeast line leading to China 28 miles above the capital city.

"We didn't go as close to Hanoi today as we did yesterday," said one U.S. source. "It's the wise thing to do. We wouldn't want to screw it up."

There was no firm word how long the off-limits order would remain in effect, but sources indicated it would last at least until the prisoners were on their way home. Hanoi has given no firm date for their release, but it is anticipated they will leave North Vietnam next Saturday.

Bay State Emergency Follows the Red Tide

BOSTON (AP) — Gov. Francis W. Sargent declared a public health emergency and the state Department of Public Health banned sale of fresh and frozen shellfish by wholesalers or retailers and in restaurants because of toxic "red tide" algae off the coast.

Known scientifically as Gonyaulax tamarens, the red tide is a small marine organism highly toxic to shellfish and dangerous to man when shellfish are consumed.

Dr. William J. Bicknell, public health commissioner, issued a reassuring report Friday night that no cases of sickness in humans had been reported during the day. "The embargo appears to have been effective," he said.

"Many people have been concerned about eating clams," he said. "The thing to remember is that the symptoms develop between one-half hour and two hours after eating clams. If no symptoms develop after two hours, you're safe."

Israelis Open Major Attack Over Lebanon

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Israel warplanes bombed two bridges across Lebanon's Litani River and cut off Arab guerrillas from their headquarters amid a massive Israeli ground assault on Palestinian command posts today, the Tel Aviv command said.

The Elhaddada and Aqaya bridges linked southern Lebanon — where thousands of guerrillas are encamped — to Nabatieh, a commando headquarters which also was bombed by Israeli planes.

On the ground, Israeli tanks and half-tracks swept through 13 Arab villages, destroying "dozens" of houses harboring guerrillas, a spokesman said.

The bombing of the bridges was seen as a bid to block the guerrillas' escape routes from the Israeli raid.

Special Session Held 'Not Needed'

HARTFORD (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert K. Killian said Friday that there is no need for legislative action to provide state aid to Connecticut's financially ailing bus companies.

Bus Routes Cut Today

Reduced Connecticut Co. bus schedules went into effect today in the company's Hartford and New Haven divisions, affecting several morning bus routes in Manchester and Rockville.

The reduced schedules, approved by the state Public Utilities Commission in May but delayed by appeals from Hartford and New Haven, include cuts in the number of runs before 7 a.m. and after 6 p.m., eliminating Sunday and holiday service, and reducing the number of mid-day runs on some weekdays.

In Manchester and Rockville, the only routes affected are on Saturday morning.

Discontinued this morning were Hartford-to-Manchester runs at 6:00, 6:20 and 6:30 a.m.; Manchester-to-Hartford runs at 6:05, 6:45, 6:50, and 7:25 a.m.; Hartford-to-Rockville runs at 5:25 and 6:15 a.m.; and Rockville-to-Hartford runs at 6:15 and 7:15 a.m.

The first Saturday morning runs are now: Hartford to Manchester, 7 a.m.; Manchester to Hartford, 7:45 a.m.; Hartford to Rockville, 7:15 a.m.; and Rockville to Hartford, 8:15 a.m.

Connecticut Co. officials said all bus drivers have copies of the new schedules which will be posted at many bus stops next week.

Appeals from the two cities are still pending but a recent Court of Common Pleas decision allowed implementation of the new schedules.

We're changing the Esso name to EXXON

We want to be sure you understand why we're changing our name. Because while we're changing, we don't want you to change. Here's the reason for the new name:

For years we have used different brand names in different parts of the country. Complicated for us. And confusing for our customers. So we're going to change the names of our stations to Exxon. When that happens, you'll have just one brand name to look for. But remember, while we're changing our name, we're not changing our stripes.

You'll still find the same fine gasolines you've always known. Same courteous, efficient retailers to help you. Our Tiger will soon be displaying the Exxon sign at 25,000 service stations, and it's a big job. But in just a few months we'll be Exxon coast to coast.

We'd like you to think of it as a new name for an old friend.

We're changing our name, but not our stripes.

GOP Demands Apology In Watergate Affair

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Top Republicans have demanded an apology from Democrats in the wake of indictments in the Watergate break-in case, but George McGovern and running mate Sargent Shriver have responded with a call for further investigation in the case.

The exchange in the case, becoming increasingly evident as a presidential campaign issue, came Friday after a federal grand jury indicted seven men, charged with breaking into Democratic National Headquarters to steal documents and plant bugging devices.

Meanwhile, an economic adviser to President Nixon, Herbert Stein, responded to McGovern's plans to hold down inflation if he wins the presidency.

Republican National Chairman Robert Dole said the indictments in the Watergate case closed the matter as far as Nixon's campaign is concerned and demanded "an apology to the American people from George McGovern and his campaign organization."

"As we knew all along, and as the grand jury has now determined, there is no evidence to substantiate any of the wild and slanderous charges McGovern has been making about many high officials in the Nixon administration and campaign organization," Dole said.

McGovern has seized on GOP ties to the Watergate affair in his campaign, and vice-presidential candidate Shriver along with other Democrats have also hit the case hard.

The indictments came almost three months after five men were arrested June 17 at the break-in of the Democratic headquarters in the Watergate office building in Washington. The seven indicted included a former White House consultant and two recent employees of Nixon's re-election campaign committee.

McGovern said the indictments show the seriousness of the case. "And what now needs to be pursued," he said, "is how it was funded and whether there are violations there which seem to be."

Shriver said: "From what we are now knowing, there must be a continuing investigation and there must be a speedy trial of the seven defendants named today. All of us have a right to all of the facts involved in the Watergate case. No one can be allowed to live above the rule of law because of their connections with high government officials—past or present."

Lawrence F. O'Brien, McGovern's national campaign director and Democratic national chairman at the time of the break-in, said: "We will continue to press for a more thorough explanation of the funding of the crime that led to these indictments."

But Republicans saw it another way.

Clark MacGregor, Nixon's campaign director, said: "Those who have recklessly sought to connect others with the case should publicly apologize for their unfounded charges and formally retract their unsubstantiated accusations."

On the economic front, McGovern presented his version

Revenue Sharing

Some form of federal revenue sharing with the states and cities is all but a certainty.
While the Senate and House bills may vary in the amounts and methods of disbursing the funds; with the election ahead in November it can be safely surmised the conference committee will resolve these differences so that federal largesse can be fully exploited by the Administration and by both Democratic and Republican senators and representatives seeking re-election.

Intended to relieve the increasing burden on property taxpayers, revenue sharing has been long sought by many cities and states.

The present act is a five-year one and in its present form exercises a minimal of restraint upon the recipients as to how it is expended.

The test will be whether the cities and states getting the funds use the money in ways which will benefit the property taxpayer the most.

In most instances this would mean using the funds for non-recurring capital expenditures such as street and highway improvements, new needed office buildings, new schools and equipment, etc., which are now in the main financed by levies upon property which pay off bond issues.
Because the Congress has given these funds an almost "no strings attached" usage by states and cities; it will be up to our state and local leaders and an alert citizenry to use these funds wisely or the Congress will either impose restrictions and red tape or abandon the program.

We have no illusions that federal revenue sharing is the panacea local government needs to solve its fiscal problems. The real solution remains, as it always has, in the area of getting the most in goods and services for every tax dollar local, state or federal.

Federal revenue sharing, unless accompanied by responsible fiscal policies, is no more than a very costly way of buying a suspended sentence. Unless we can restore fiscal integrity to government at all levels, the infusion of $20 to $30 billion over the next five years into state and local government, when the federal government is operating in perennial red ink, could become the biggest political raid on the public treasury in our history.

Each of us has a responsibility under revenue sharing to resist the temptation of what might seem to be a windfall. We should remember that whether a tax dollar comes from Manchester, Hartford or Washington, D.C., it is still coming out of our pocketbooks. There is no such thing as a ride in government today.

Not All Charity Begins at Home

A group of women from the Boston area have volunteered to go to North Vietnam to help repair the human and physical damage caused by U.S. bombing.
Initiators of the plan, Mrs. Marjorie Swann and Mrs. Ruth Bruyn, hope to recruit as many as 300 American women to live in North Vietnam for from six months to the end of hostilities.
They recently called on representatives of North Vietnam in Paris.

This is an admirable gesture. It would also be admirable if the women would volunteer to go to northern South Vietnam to help repair the human and physical damage caused by the Communist invasion.
It's a safe bet that no women from China or Russia, whose governments supported the wherewithal for this devastation, will be calling on representatives of South Vietnam to offer their services.

Guns For The Needy

The huge and influential National Bomb Association is mounting an all-out campaign against current legislation in Congress to curb the sale of firearms.
Specific targets of the bill passed by the Senate and now before the House that would ban cheap, sub-noxious pistols known as "Saturday night special" guns.

that virtually half the nation's families still hadn't a single pistol, rifle or bomb around the house with which to protect themselves from their better-equipped neighbors.
And yet Congress, he said bitterly, "obviously doesn't give a fig that 100 million underprivileged Americans go to bed each night vulnerable, defenseless and unarmed."

Worse yet, Pettibone told the cheering throng, the bill banning cheap handguns was obviously the first mindless step in a plot to deprive Americans of their inalienable right to bear arms.
"First it's pistols, then it'll be rifles and the next thing you know they'll be taking our bombs away from us."
Pettibone declared the bill as "a giant stride backward."

What good is a man's Constitutional right to bear arms, he said, "if he can't buy an arm to bear?"
Instead of depriving the poor of their right to have loaded pistols under their pillows, he said, Congress should make weapons available to all Americans at prices to fit their pocketbooks.
"We give food stamps to the hungry to defend them from starvation," he said. "We give health care to the indigent to defend them from disease. Certainly we should give firearms to the poor to defend them from their fellow Americans. The right to shoot each other cannot and must not

Open Forum

Political Football

Wednesday evening at a public reception Mayor Thompson was called upon to officially welcome Dr. James Kennedy to Manchester as our new superintendent of schools. It was most disappointing to hear Manchester's Mayor, welcome Dr. Kennedy on behalf of Manchester Democrats only. A more political speech I have never heard. I realize that this is a big political year but...

There are many facets to education as many of you know but few people as knowledgeable about these complex facets as Mr. Anthony Magliocco, superintendent of special education for the town of Vernon. Through the efforts and compassion of Mr. Magliocco, and his well qualified staff, many children are being helped and prepared for school at a much earlier age. One has only to see a class in session with such special children to realize what tremendous accomplishments are being taken place. Perhaps the thing that would impress you the most is how happy and well adjusted these children become in such a short time.

Comments Board

Townspice have undoubtedly had their fill of pros and cons surrounding the Sam Macaluso vs. Manchester High School situation. So much has been written in his behalf, however, that I feel I must voice an opinion in favor of what appears to be the "dark horse" side of the issue. May I commend the Board of Education for doing what was obviously best for the greatest number of people. And please, let's stop dragging Martha White's name through the wringer. Anyone who has worked for her or with her will know that her concern for the students of M.H.S. (not to mention the students of Manchester) was the key factor in any recommendation she may have made.

Better Process Needed

It appears that First Hartford Realty, having successfully jammed the original contract, is now attempting to use the political and legal machinery, which ought to protect the citizens of the community from exploitation, used so skillfully to frustrate the popular will. I note that Attorney Shea, one of the heaviest legal guns in the county, if not the state, called Robert Warren Howard to testify that a Residence A zone would "allow the best use of the land." What the general public may not understand is the special meaning of the term "highest and best use" in the field of real estate school for special children.

To All Vernon Parents

Dear Sir:
Sept. 20 there will be a referendum on a proposed addition and improvements to Takotville School. A vast increase in the population in the area has made these proposals necessary. These improvements will be accomplished at no cost to the taxpayer. It is essential, however, that the residents of Vernon make their views known by the date after the Olympic Village tragedy.

Inside Report

McGovern the Mollifier

By Rowland Evans Jr. and Robert D. Novak

HOUSTON — "What the hell is he doing here?" grumbled an engineer at Houston's Manned Space Center watching Sen. George McGovern on a guided tour. "I suppose he's going to do a 180 on space too."

Thirty minutes later, McGovern flurried with just such a 180-degree turn away from his adamant anti-space spending policy. Telling unemployed space technicians "I believe in the space program," McGovern added he wanted unmanned, not manned, spacecraft. But he went on, Dr. Chris Kraft of the Manned Space Center had revealed to him that the new space shuttle is needed, unmanned. Thus did McGovern, having denounced the space shuttle all year, suggest he might reconsider.

That suggestion, an impromptu notion of McGovern's not discussed with advisers, fits into his post-Labor Day campaigning court voting blocs, alienated by his past policies, telling them what they want to hear. That's in the American political tradition but nevertheless deeply disturbing to many ardent McGovernites.
Moreover, McGovern's emphasis on mollifying estranged voter blocs contributes to timelessness in his campaign. And although he escaped last week from the August delirium of his best speeches in months, there is still no sign his campaign is cutting significantly into President Nixon's immense lead.

The reason for McGovern's emphasis on appealing critics derives from his unique nomination, in the face of hostility from substantial elements in the Democratic party. Accordingly, his strategy is to devote himself to placating the opposition.

Thus, when McGovern came to Los Angeles last week, his high command in Washington ordered some Jewish effort to fight leakage of Southern California Jews out of the Democratic party.

Mr. Nixon's arms McGovern's California operatives hastily arranged a Wednesday morning meeting with Los Angeles rabbis — by chance chosen the day after the Olympic Village tragedy.
Consulting Jewish advisers back East over the telephone Tuesday night, McGovern developed a position President Nixon cannot match: no diplomatic relations with Egypt until Cairo restrains Arab terrorists who are not under Egyptian control anyway.
McGovern, told that the rabbi distrusted his preference for Sen. Fulbright as Secretary of State, promptly informed them Fulbright's pro-Arab views now disqualified him. Naturally, he did not mention that his own Middleast views once closely resembled Fulbright's.

Spirited Action As Light-Jerseyed Eagles Moved Ball Against Jets

Two Tough Battles Mark Midget Openers

Two tough battles ending in identical scores featured the opening night of the 1972 season in the Manchester Midget & Pony Football Association as the Eagles defeated the Jets 6-0, and the Patriots downed the Giants 6-0.

Experience Again Lacking With Cheney Soccer Team

Initial soccer practice session at Cheney Tech attracted 18 candidates and an additional seven students were added this week. Coach Bob Pirtavalle notes, "We have a number of new boys who are working long and hard. There is plenty of enthusiasm but very little experience."

Signal-Callers To Divide Post

For the first time ever at East Catholic High the vital quarterbacking role will be up for grabs when the Eagles try to lead off this afternoon at Rockville. Kickoff will be at 5 o'clock at the Rams' field.

Booters Open With 3-1 Triumph

Thanks to improved second half play, Manchester High's soccer team got off the mark on the right foot yesterday afternoon by scoring a 3-1 decision over Concord High at West Hartford.

Defending Champs Head Tennis Fields

Kilmer Gets Nod To Lead Redskins

NEW YORK (AP)—There is something about him, "Washington Redskins" Coach George Allen recently said of quarterback Billy Kilmer. "I don't know if it's his charisma or whatever. It's a fierce determination to win and an ability to lead."

That, perhaps, explains why Tilen, ignoring the pre-season statistics, has named Kilmer, the "Skins" workman of a year ago, to start Washington's opener Monday night against the fierce Vikings in Minnesota.

During the opening ceremonies prior to the games, Manchester Mayor John Thompson, congratulated the coaches and players on the outstanding season. He also presented the trophies to the players.

Weekend Pro Football Forecast

Football League came up with Sunday's schedule, six-ranked Penn State at seventh-ranked Tennessee, Pacific at No. 9 Louisiana State, No. 19 Mississippi State at No. 10 Memphis State, and No. 20 Florida State at Miami, Fla.

End of the Line

The Floyd Patterson-Muhammad Ali bout Sept. 20 at Madison Square Garden will be seen on closed circuit teletext at Northwest Catholic High in West Hartford. Tickets are now available at Nassiff Arms in Manchester.

Smith Answers Boos With Two-Run Belt

BOSTON (AP)—Give the Boston Red Sox a couple of breaks. A semi-healthly Reggie Smith and some strong left-handed relief pitching and what do you get?

Herald Angle

Notes Off the Cuff

Veteran duckpinner Andy Lamoureux started the 1972-73 bowling season off on the right foot in the Y League when he rolled a 301 perfect game. He kept rolling on that, as he rolled a 300 in the next game.

Here n There

Quip of the day: One Red Sox later claimed the only reason Manager Eddie Kasko brought in another outfielder - Andy Kosco - was that he wanted his brother to get in on the World Series split. Actually Kosco, who is no relative to Kasko, has been in the Sox.

Police Report Two Youths Charged In Auto Case

Two Manchester youths were arrested last night on charges of second-degree larceny when they were apprehended by police on Olcott St. where the two had been in an allegedly stolen car.

Arrested were William C. Dobranski, 17, of 61 Englewood Dr., and Kevin P. Perzanowski, 16, of 45 Wedgewood Dr. Both were released on $500 non-surety bonds for appearance in Circuit Court 12 at Manchester Sept. 25.

The stolen car, spotted by police on Olcott St. at about 10:20 p.m. yesterday, was pulled over and the two occupants jumped out of the car and ran into the woods, police said.

Police fired two warning shots in the air in an apparent attempt to stop the Eagle Scout ranks, identified as Perzanowski, was wrestled to the ground by one policeman and then taken to police headquarters.

When other police cruisers were sent to the area, Perzanowski was found in the woods. The search for the second youth, Dobranski, surrendered, police said.

Police said the third unidentified youth, suspected of stealing the car, was not in the area at 10:20 p.m. yesterday. Investigation is continuing.

VERNON Mark A. Crandall, 20, of 2 Green Rd., Rockville, was arrested by Vernon Police yesterday afternoon on a Circuit Court 12 warrant charging him with third-degree burglary and second-degree larceny.

Police said the arrest stemmed from vandalism and thefts at the Lotie Fik Memorial Building in Rockville Aug. 29.

Crandall was released on a $2,000 non-surety bond for court appearance at Rockville Oct. 3, police said.

Stanley G. Kasevich, 54, of 27 Hammond St., Rockville, was issued a motor vehicle summons yesterday afternoon charging him with improper passing on Rt. 30. Court date is Oct. 3 at Rockville.

A three-car accident on West St. near Regan Rd. in Vernon Sept. 14 will probably be observed as "Eagle Scout Day" by the Frank Ennis family in the future. Last Thursday night, Ennis celebrated the 25th anniversary of receiving his Eagle Badge by welcoming his twin sons to the Eagle Scout ranks.

Police said the arrest stemmed from vandalism and thefts at the Lotie Fik Memorial Building in Rockville Aug. 29.

After the initial shock, passengers said they got into a dialogue with the hijackers and the atmosphere calmed down.

The governor's office said the Department of Public Health would answer questions during the weekend to answer queries from the public about what fish are safe to eat. The number in Boston is 727-2686.

Dr. Bicknell told a Friday afternoon news conference. The sale and marketing of fresh and frozen shellfish on the wholesale and retail level and in restaurants is immediately embargoed.

All wholesale and retail outlets are ordered to remove fresh and frozen shellfish from display cases and prohibit sale of same until further notice. Restaurants are ordered to remove immediately all shellfish from their menus.

Dr. Bicknell said clams, quahogs, mussels and cape scallops were included in the embargo. He added, however, that lobsters, crabs, deep sea scallops and deep and shallow water fin fish were considered safe and were not affected.

He said oysters were not included because those marketed in Massachusetts come from areas where there is no presence of the toxic algae.

In addition to banning sales in stores and restaurants, Dr. Bicknell urged residents not to eat fresh shellfish. "Cooking is not an effective means of destroying or neutralizing the poisonous substance," he said.

Although human poisoning from the algae is not necessarily fatal, he said, "This is a real, honest-to-God danger to people."

Dr. Nicholas J. Fumara, director of the department's communicable diseases section, agreed that while human poisoning could be serious, it was unlikely to be fatal.

Dr. Bicknell said the department's embargo would be kept "as short as possible," but it would not be lifted "until it is absolutely safe."

The commissioner said the red tide is fairly common in Florida and along the coast of the Canadian Maritime provinces. He said he conferred with Canadian officials early Friday before deciding on the shellfish ban.
