Court Overrules ZBA Bans Liquor in Tavern

A Manchester Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) decision, which would allow a local tavern to sell alcoholic liquors, has been reversed by the Hartford County Court of Common Pleas.

In an appeal to the court by Steve Cavagnaro, the ZBA members, in granting the variance May 15, said the only hardship established was that of a financial nature, but the application was termed an "isolated case."

The variance, granted last May, would have allowed the tavern to sell alcoholic liquors, but the application was termed an "isolated case."

South took the second trump in his hand, ruffed a spade in dummy, got back to his hand with the ace of clubs and ruffed another spade in dummy. He could then ruff a club in his hand, draw the last trump, cash the king of spades and then claim his tenth trick with the good jack of spades.

Different Story "Either of my bookends would have had the brains to open a trump game. East manages to use a trump ace and rubber for his happy opponents. "But I suppose it's asking too much of you to play bridge and also use your brains."

Imagine that West opens a trump East takes the ace of trumps and returns a trump. Declarer wins in dummy and leads a spade. East hops up with the ace of spades and leads his last trump.

This defense takes three trumps out of dummy and limits declarer to one spade ruff. As a result, East gets a second spade trick and thus manages to set the contract.

How could West know that a trump lead was desirable? When dummy denies one suit and supports another, you should suspect ruffing power. The best way to reduce dummy's ruffing power is to lead trumps early and often.

Daily Question Partner deals and bids one club. The next player passes. You hold: Spades, K-J-10-8-3; Hearts, H-K-10-9-8; Diamonds, A-4; Clubs, A-5. What do you say? Answer: Bid one spade. Don't make a jump takeout (two spades) unless you know advance what the trump suit is going to be in this case, since you don't know, you want to hear a natural rebid from partner.

Vernon Notes Public Forum Thursday On Zoning Practices

Vernon's zoning practices will be examined at a public forum to be conducted by the Vernon League of Women Voters in cooperation with Town Planner Joseph Patic, Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Administration Building.

Don Francis of the University of Connecticut's Extension Service, will present a series of slides on zoning and planning practices and Dennis Jones of the Capitol Region Planning Agency will speak on the "New Neighborhoods" program.

A three-member panel made up of Henry Abaza, a local builder, William Houle, a member of the Planning Commission and an alternate, and John J. Higgins, a Vernon resident, will give their responses to the matter presented by the two experts.

League members said it is hoped the forum will give the public an opportunity to voice their views on zoning practices and to encourage discussion on such questions as where the responsibility for zoning should lie.

The Men's Union of Union Congregational Church will hold its dinner meeting, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Tolland $144,725 Surplus Noted Tolland ended the 1971-72 fiscal year with a $144,725 surplus, according to the auditor's report filed with the Town Clerk last week.

The surplus was attributed to various factors including the receipt of unanticipated state grants coupled with fewer expenditures than were originally budgeted.

The $144,725 equals over three mills on the current grand list, and exceeds last year's surplus of $127,900.

Estimated revenues totaled $3,246,829; while actual revenues totaled $3,360,802, with a surplus of $113,973.

Expenditures were budgeted at $3,257,335, while actual expenditures amounted to $3,212,977, a surplus of $44,358.

Audit Austin Chapman attributed the surplus to "favorable budget operation," and noted all town records have been kept in good condition, in the form prescribed by the tax commissioner.

Hunting and Poaching The Conservation Commission will sponsor an open meeting Wednesday night, featuring Lew Williamson, chief law enforcement officer of the Department of Environmental Protection.

Williamson, a Bolton resident, will explain the laws and regulations pertaining to the use of state parks and forests, particularly those relating to hunting.

The open meeting will be held at 8 in the Town Hall. Several residents had asked the Conservation Commission for information regarding suspected poaching, leading to the scheduling of the speaker.

Warranty Deeds Filed Two of the seven warranty deeds filed last week were for newly built houses.

Gateway Homes, to Dennis A. and Beverly B. Shaw, property on Carriage Drive.

Richard A. St. Germain to Eric J. and Kathleen S. Hesselbarth, property on Dogwood Lane.

Bennie T. and Joyce E. Tomlin to Van L. and Frances Wells, property on Cider Mill Rd. Peter K. and Patricia L. Bassett to Robert T. and Mary E. Hasner, property on Old Farms Rd.

Malcom Barlow to Forest W. Whitmore, property on Snipic Lake Rd. A quit claim deed transferring property from Forest W. Whitmore to Forest W. and Doral Whitmore, on Snipic Lake Rd. was also recorded.

Dr. Stuart Heads Service Council

Dr. Archibald Stuart of 290 Hedwood Rd., was elected president of the new Manchester Community Services Council.

Stuart, who served as acting president during the planning stages of the organization, is an associate professor at the University of Connecticut School of Social Work on the Greater Hartford Campus in West Hartford.

Other permanent officers elected at last week's meeting were the Rev. Ronald Fournier, vice-president; Mrs. Frank VanCleave, secretary; and Paul Moss, treasurer.

Members-at-large on the executive board include Mrs. Dorothy Gouvert from the Manchester Public Health Nursing Association and Mrs. Sue Hedge from the Manchester School Department.

Some 25 representatives from 25 organizations attended the first official meeting. The council will undertake a study of the city's social service facilities.

The council will be held at the Manchester Community Center, 290 Hedwood Rd., at 8 p.m. on Oct. 4 at 8 p.m. Hors d'oeuvres and punch will be served and musical program will be played.

A program featuring music from the Renaissance and the Baroque will be presented Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. at Sacred Heart Church, Rt. 30.

The Wesleyan University Concert Choir, under the direction of Richard Donohue, will present the program which will feature 125 mixed voices and instrumentalists.

Tickets may be obtained by mail by writing to the Rectory of Sacred Heart or they may be purchased at the door the night of the performance. Parents are requested not to bring children who are under 10 years of age.

Pinochle Group Tuesday's winners the Vernon Senior Citizens' Pinochle group were Jennie Starke 685; Edward Miller 638; Ann Quinn 633; Gertrude Edwards 632; Emily Brooks 618; Julia Vendrillo 650; Edward Quinn 638; Irene Petersen 633 and Violet May 628.

Thursday tournament winners were Albert Nutland 623; Jennie Starke 585; Beatrice Minor 567; Ann Sogallio 565 and Ann Barbero 567. Dr. Stuart Heads Service Council New Permit Fees Oct. 1

Hebron residents wishing to install a driveway on their property will now have to secure a driveway permit at a cost of $5 from the building inspector prior to any construction.

It will also be necessary to continue to obtain sanitary permits prior to the installation of any sewage facilities. However, the fee for this permit now will be $15 instead of the original $10.

These new fees will be effective Oct. 1 and are in accordance with authorization given by Jan. 4, 1972 town meeting action to the first selectman, finance board chairman and planning and zoning commission chairman to set such fees.

Zoning Board of Appeals will hold a public hearing, Wednesday, at 8 p.m. in the Town Office Building to act on a request from Robert J. Mullarkey of Burrows Hill Rd. for a variance from zoning regulations to permit the operation of a tropical fish business in his home.

Boy Scouts Troop 28 will begin its 1972-73 season Wednesday with registration from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Gilead School.

A Citizens Guide For Government Services

Too often when we become involved with the workings of our governmental bureaucracy we are overwhelmed and simple information requests either involve a lengthy thumbing through various volumes of statutes, regulations, and policies or a "passing the buck" to one or several other officials.

To some this conveys the impression that government has become highly specialized and departmentalized which is true in some areas.

To others this is the abhorred and frustrating "red tape" that irritates more than it illuminates.

But, whatever our feelings might be about top elected officials who are responsible for the operation of various governmental offices, from the President on down, we should remember that the men and women who work for the public in the lower echelons are human too.

The efforts to get the right answer for us is a courtesy and many times the passing of the buck is a sincere effort to insure us contact with a person who does have special competence to help us with our problem.

The problem lies more in the system rather than in personnel for the most part. The growth of government and its impact in our lives has increased over the years and frankly in too many instances management in government has not kept pace. We can recall the agonies of reapportionment of our Assembly and visualize the agonies which someday must be faced in restructuring our bureaucracy.

The problem may not be as acute today but as more and more governmental functions become inter-related more and more people are going to have to go to more and more sources for information or satisfaction. Some consolidation or coordination along the lines of functions, rather than arbitrary designations, is needed. This may be an oversimplification of the problem but wouldn't it be nice if you could pay all your taxes, property, automobile, dog license, etc. at the same window?

Legally, under present laws, this may not be possible. However, in the interim, it might be worthwhile for the town and state to get together and develop a simple citizens guide which would tell us where to go for that which would save both time for the citizen and the government workers.

While such a guide would not resolve all the problems it could, we believe, go a long way in creating a better and more productive relationship between the general public and our public servants.

Funny Money

The long green would disappear if Rep. Bertram L. Podell, D-New York, has his way. Podell proposes to replace the familiar olive drab folding money with new bills of rainbow hues.

His proposed currency would be bright red, blue and yellow, to aid in distinguishing the denominations. And, to help the blind, Podell would have each denomination in different shapes. A gradual changeover would crimp the style of counterfeiters and tax dodgers, he says. Counterfeit bills now in circulation, which Podell believes runs into millions of dollars, obviously would disappear. Equally obviously, new counterfeit money would be expected to follow the appearance of bank notes of any hue.

Podell also holds that there is a lot of cash in unreported caches concealed from the tax collectors that would have to be reported or lost forever.

"A blow will be struck for honesty," says Podell.

Even Podell would scarcely claim a knockout blow against dishonesty.

The average man, struggling to get any old kind of money to pay his taxes and his bills, might be skeptical of new colors helping very much. He might prefer to keep the old, since it fits nicely into his old wallet.

Podell could contribute his proposal to George McGovern as part of his "funny money" package of propositions that don't add up.

The Innocent Bystander

By Arthur Hoppe

Mr. Nixon Has Gone Too Far

In his hard-hitting, whirlwind campaign for re-election, Mr. Nixon has come out foursquare on an issue of critical importance: television re-runs. He announced he was "let the chips fall where they may" — against them.

Insiders say this is only the first of a series of controversial stands Mr. Nixon plans to take on the major issue of the day.

The White House even now is reportedly preparing a position paper for release tomorrow strongly condemning the paucity of nuts in chocolate bars with nuts. This will be followed, according to a usually unimpeachable source, by a major address next week in which Mr. Nixon will reveal his stance on urban sprawl, either for or against.

Some political experts, however, doubt the wisdom of Mr. Nixon's daring new tactics. He has already, they point out, alienated the unopinionated Americans who love television re-runs.

"I've seen every episode of 'I Love Lucy' 17 times and I've loved Lucy more each time," said an angry Mrs. Mildred Droze of Sioux Falls, N. Y. She said she now plans to vote for Mr. McGovern, who has up to now ducked the issue — not having taken even one single stand on the question.

Worst of all, it lays him wide open to charges of abusing his powers. If he can force the programs he doesn't like off television, there's no reason he can't force the programs he does like on television. "God help us all,"

Washington, September 20, 1974 — President Nixon today signed a bill inaugurating the four-day work week.

"This will give every American the opportunity to watch 72 hours of uninterrupted professional football each weekend," he said, "rather than the usual 48."

Furthermore, he said, this would provide enough film clips for six hours of football highlights on the other four nights instead of the customary four.

"I realize," the President said, "that many Americans do not enjoy professional football. And while I may disagree with them, that is their right, rightly or wrongly. Thus, to insure their rights, I have planned a number of exciting new programs this fall."

NBC's Movie of the Week will continue to be "Patton," as it has been for the past year. But on Saturdays it will now telecast

"Miss America of the Week Beauty Pageant" direct from Atlantic City.

CBS will air the revived Ed Sullivan Show each night to be followed by the four-hour-long "Evening with Lawrence Welk."

ABC's plans for a weekly special called, "Bob Hope Entertains the Boys in Vietnam," had to be replaced by "Bob Hope Entertains the Boys in Thailand."

For culture buffs, educational television tonight will present the Philadelphia Philharmonic playing the National Anthem; "The Joy of Cooking" with Colonel Sanders; and Chapter 78 of "The Milhaus Saga," the story of a poor boy from Whittier who struggled against overwhelming odds to...

Enough! By even hinting he might interfere with what we Americans watch on television, it's obvious Mr. Nixon has gone far too far. He is courting the wrath of an aroused Nation.

Henceforth, if he must take courageous stands on burning issues, let him take courageous stands on burning issues nobody cares about — like Vietnam, poverty abroad, overpopulation and thermonuclear war.

Capital Fare Rebuild Cities No Campaign Issue

By Andrew Tully
Super Fly

WASHINGTON — A lawyer friend who happens to be black was uncharacteristically bitter.

"If you know anybody at Warner Brothers," he snapped, "tell them that movie of theirs is turning young blacks into dope pushers and junkies every hour by the hour."

My friend was referring to a particularly offensive film, "Super Fly," which glorifies dope peddling and even lets the black pusher get away with it. This of course is a switch from the most of the sordid movies in American theaters today. They prefer to keep the old, since it fits nicely into two hours of violence, perverted sex and other sweepings from under rocks and then let the black catch the bait guys to give their product a "redeeming quality."

"What do you think is happening to black kids who see that movie?" my friend asked. "I'll tell you what is happening. They leave that movie house with another new hero — the dope pusher. The film tells them that peddling dope by blacks is fun, exciting, profitable and relatively safe. They kick around the idea that there might be new tricks to be found in trying dope."

Here in Hell City, blacks did something about "Super Fly." They picketed a hotel where the star of the film, Ron O'Neal, was holding a press conference and gave O'Neal personally a hard time during his session with the media.

"Some Black Artists are Hostiles," Tom, said one sign carrier by the pickets. The Rev. Walter Fauntroy, non-voting delegate to Congress from the District of Columbia, showed up to declare that "This movie destroys black youth I am protesting this movie, which steps beyond the bounds of morality." Marion Barry, head of the D. C. School Board, described the film as "totally negative to black youth, in glamorizing hustling drugs."

O'Neal was not with convincing in his confrontation with members of BANG — the hastily organized Blacks Against Narcotics and Genocide. As so many of us two-bit movie artists do, he tried to hide behind the veil of "realism."

O'Neal denied he was "trying to legitimize drug dealing," but added, "it is a fact of life in Harlem. People should try to change the city instead of attacking the movie." That's like saying that because murder and rape are fact of American life,

Neither President Nixon nor Sen. George McGovern should try to argue in this campaign that they're so much as going to make a start in the next few years at rebuilding U.S. cities. With few exceptions, major cities are suffering from crippling poverty of spirit which they vastly compound their economic difficulties.

Even Podell would scarcely claim a knockout blow against dishonesty.

But O'Neal's most preposterous claim was that the movie "portrays black people more intelligently" than any other recent film made for blacks and that it should provoke "a genuine sense of pride" in the black community. It seems to me he was saying that the English should start building monuments to the vicious bums who ran their World War II extermination camps.

Meanwhile, O'Neal took smug comfort in the fact "Super Fly" is an undoubted hit. "On a ratio," he boasted, "it's outgrossing 'The Godfather.' I suppose he can be forgiven in his boasting. He was merely speaking a language the movie industry understands in gloating about the film's gross of $800,000 nationally in one week. These days, a film is 'good' for the industry if it makes a lot of money, and never mind how many kids it runs.

My black friend's smile was sardonic. "What does it matter," he asked. "It's only black kids who are being destroyed."

Slight attention has been paid, for instance, to one of the worst stories to appear in a long time. It told of some old people being quarantined in a hospital emergency room because there was no other place to put them.

How did they get there? Mostly they had been literally dumped at the hospital doorstep by callous relatives who didn't want the burden of caring for them. The relatives drove off without even making contact with hospital authorities. Some oldersters were deposited at the hospital door with tags pinned on them reading "Do not return."

Then there's the one about the neighborhood folks cheering on a trio of gun-wielding kidnapers in Chicago. The three men came out of a restaurant dragging five women hostages. Holding guns to the terrified women's heads, the hoodlums drove off in a car they had demanded from beseeching police. The sizable number of onlookers shouted their lusty approval of this "victory" over the police.

The plight of the innocent women never quite touched the neighborhood citizenry, which was busy working off its animosity toward the police.

Callousness, neglect, indifference and insensitivity are the marks which define the barren spirit pervading much of our city living today. Nothing Mr. Nixon or McGovern could do with brick and mortar and lumber could compensate for this special kind of poverty occasion this year to visit areas of Chicago's South Side which I know well from the not-distant

It's Worth It

To the editor:

At this time of the year with elections looming around the corner, I find myself talking politics more than ever before in my life. I talk politics with my friends, my associates at work, even with my family — a courageous counter if I do say so myself.

And I talk politics even to the point of getting emotional because for me there are several emotional factors in this election year. But I try with every possible restraint to control my emotions and keep my Italian temper down. I read and I talk, I listen and I think.

But the more I talk and the more I read, the more upset I become.

Because as I read more and more of the insensitivity of my countrymen ("we should bomb the hell out of those gooks") and as I sense the apathy of so many people ("I'm not going to vote this year — we haven't got a choice"), I become a little more upset.

Because when I listen to our President's scare tactics and his inane reasoning behind bombing a country to let this great country of ours become a second-rate country, I become a little more upset.

Because when I read in the Congressional Record and several other journals (no, Mr. John Bircher NOT in "Communist propaganda literature") of the fantastic amount of ordnance (approximately 2,000 tons per week) dropped on a country the size of New England, I become a little more upset.

Because when I protest about the 550 Indochinese people killed every day (official U. S. Pentagon statistics, Mrs. Republican at the pencil) by U. S. bombing, 80 per cent of which are innocent victims, and then I hear a staunch Nixon-supporter yell to me "There aren't even 350 American soldiers left in Vietnam," I become a little more upset.

Because when I think that the time I spend working and paying taxes to a government that is going to spend 60 per cent of my tax dollar on past, present and future wars (not 42 per cent which is the figure the Nixon Administration would have us believe — according to them, veterans benefits have nothing to do with the military), time that I could be spending explaining to others how this Administration is squandering our money on death, then I become a little more upset.

Tell me please, somebody, is it worth getting so upset over an election? Is it worth the alters which every day I am convinced are gnawing at my stomach? Is it worth the tears I cry over a bit more sensitized to the plight of so many people suffering because of our nation's "pride," I say yes. "It's worth it."

Support United Fund

Dear editor: Every year at this time the United Fund of Manchester and its hundreds of volunteers are in the process of raising funds for local agencies. I would urge the citizens along with the members of the business community to generously support the efforts of these many people behind the very able campaign chairman, Mr. William Johnson.

The goals are higher this year than ever before and your contributions are urgently needed.

Sincerely,

Hartford National's Super-Start

Great financial beginnings for people 18 and over.

You're old enough to vote. Old enough to hold down a job. Old enough to start a meaningful relationship with your own bank.

To help you get off to great beginnings, we've developed this neat plan. Super-Start.

Super-Start is a checking account, a borrowing account and a credit card, rolled up into one super package. Here's how it works.

First off we open a checking account in your name. That makes bill paying cheap and easy. And budgeting a snap. Then we build a $300 cash reserve right into your checking account.

That's money you can borrow just by writing a check. Money that keeps your checks from bouncing. Money you don't pay for until you use it.

Finally we issue you a Master Charge with another $300 line of credit. So you can buy anything, anywhere in the world and just say, "Charge it."

In a nutshell, that's what you get with Super-Start. But you can get more. Financial counseling, any time you need it. Your choice of a different check and credit plan. Automatic savings. And preferential treatment when you need big money for things like a car.

Super-Start. It gives you great beginnings in the heavy world of finance. Ask about it at any office of Hartford National.

We're with you all the way

I'm Tired Of Meat, Potatoes

Sometimes I get so tired of cooking plain old meat and potatoes, I open the "Round the World Cook Book" close my eyes and pick a recipe at random.

Last time I did this my finger pointed to an Italian veal dish, Cucinetti di vitello. "Elegant," I said to myself as I read the recipe. "Delicious," I thought as I put the 14 necessary ingredients into my grocery cart at the supermarket. "Heavenly!" I murmured as spicy aromas began to permeate my kitchen.

When the kids came home that afternoon it was to find me happy and be-agrooned humming "O Sole Mio" under my breath as I stirred the pot on the stove.

"What's for dinner?" said Kate sticking her nose dangerously close to the bubbling sauce.

"This," I said grandly "is a classic Italian dish."

"It doesn't look like spaghetti," she said suspiciously.

"Gross," was Kate's reply as she ran out the door.

Hours later, when we sat down to dinner the atmosphere was romantic Italian. Red and white checked gingham covered the table and candles flickered brightly in my gussed up Chianti bottle. The veal was going to be delicious. I knew that, for just like Julia Child on T.V. I'd had an occasional finger in the pot.

The children approached their plates gingerly. I waited a minute for their reaction and then cried, "For heavens sake say something! Or bravissimo! Or even Mamma Mia! But say something!"

"What are these little red things?" asked Sara lining up the pieces of pimento on the side of her plate.

"Mother! You put in mushrooms," groaned Kate.

"You know I hate mushrooms!"

"There's so much junk in here I can't find the meat," complained Tom.

"You kids are impossible!" I cried. Why I'll just bet that in Italy the children would ask for seconds and even thirds of my Cucinetti di vitello!

"So? If the Italian kids like it so much, you can send them mine," volunteered John.

At that point I turned to my husband, who had been very quiet. "O.K." I said accusingly. "Now what about you?" Do you realize that this veal would cost a fortune in a restaurant? Do you appreciate the fact that this sauce has simmered for three hours?"

"It's not bad," he said reassuringly. "It's not bad at all. But gosh, you don't have to do all this fancy cooking for me. I'm just as happy with a plain old steak and baked potato!"

After dinner, the left over veal went into the refrigerator. Late it for lunch on Monday, Tuesday. On Wednesday, when even the Vernon and John J. Mitchell, 48, Pine Tree Lane, Wapping.

"I really think I was mislead. Can you explain how a gourmet type like me ever got mixed up with this meat and potatoes crowd."

MPOA and Mayor To Discuss SAM

Mayor John Thompson said yesterday he is arranging a meeting with the executive board of the Manchester Property Owners Association (MPOA) to discuss the association's formal opposition to town appropriations for the SAM (Summer activities in Manchester) program.

The MPOA board voted unanimously about a month ago to oppose any further funding of public funds for SAM, which recently completed its second year of operation.

Thompson, a backer of the SAM program, expressed "frank disappointment" in the MPOA stand and asked its executive board to meet with him, to discuss the situation.

Yesterday, MPOA president Charles Pillard informed Thompson by letter that the association's executive board would be happy to meet with Thompson, or any public official, "in the interests of the taxpayer."

In the same letter, Pillard indicated the MPOA executive board still stands by its decision of opposition, on the basis of "drinking on town property, loitering on town property, and loud, abusive language."

Wrote Pillard, "This is a present election year and everyone is out for the vote of the young, but we must not make the mistake of giving without expecting their cooperation in return."

Town Manager Robert Weiss said today that SAM "is a worthwhile program which has involved 2,000 to 3,000 young people and, on balance, has worked out quite well."

Acknowledging the program has had some problems, he said, "There were no more problems than you would usually get when so many people are involved. We have problems in the schools - yet, we don't shut them down. We have problems at ball games - yet, we don't eliminate them."

He said, "We should be aware of what the problems are. Then, we should eliminate them or reduce them to a minimum. Just giving up the SAM program is not the answer."

Dabbs to Speak

Jerry Dabbs of the Connecticut Venereal Disease Control Unit will discuss the medical and social aspects of venereal diseases at the Community Y Building, 80 N. Main St., at 8:30 p.m.

Dabbs, a resident of Vernon and a United States public health advisor assigned to the Connecticut State Health Department for the past year, has worked with venereal disease units for 15 years in eight states.

This program is in answer to requests from area parents concerned about the increase in venereal disease.

Dr. Quade Released From Jail

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Dr. Albert E. Quade, 48, of Storrs, has been released from jail after serving 3 1/2 months of a sentence stemming from operation of a marriage counseling service which police said involved sexual deviance as a form of therapy.

The prosecutor vigorously opposed the release.

Quade, a former University of Connecticut family relations professor, and his wife pleaded guilty in Toland County Superior Court last April to indecent assault and practicing psychology without a license.

Quade was sentenced to six months in jail on the latter charge, one year in jail on one count of indecent assault and 25 years in prison, suspended, on a second indecent assault count. His wife was not sentenced.

Judge Douglas B. Wright, who devotes his full-time to the release of Quade, ordered him released last Friday on a motion attorney Charles Tarjanin, defense attorney.

Psychiatrist Duard Bo testified that Quade had agreed to be treated by him. In addition to the release, Judge Wright noted that in imposing sentence June 6, he has suggested psychiatric help as a possible avenue to early release.

Wright indicated further incarceration would be of no benefit to the defendant.

State's Atty. Donald B. Caldwell disagreed and strongly urged that Quade be required to serve his full sentence.

Wrong District

In yesterday's story about the two State Senate districts and the four General Assembly Districts into which Manchester has been split by court order, Assembly District 9 was placed in the wrong State Senate district.

Assembly District 9 consists of the southwest quadrant of Manchester plus the eastern third of East Hartford. The Manchester portion is in State Senate District 4. The East Hartford portion is in State Senate District 5.

Speeding Law Restoration Requested

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. Thomas J. Meskill Monday requested the state to restore its former policy of suspending for 30 days the driver's license of first-time convicted speeders.

The mandatory suspension rule, first adopted in 1955, was abolished last year by the General Assembly.

"More and more people are speeding" because of the abolition of the rule, Meskill said in a speech at the Connecticut Safety Commission's annual awards luncheon.

South Windsor Seniors Ask Help Toward Grad Costs

A request for the Board of Education to assist seniors in graduation expenses will be aired at the regular meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the high school.

In a letter to the board, Senior Class President Timothy Ranney has asked that the board take over the rental cost of graduation robes.

According to Ranney, if a senior is interested in taking part in all class activities, cost run up to $40 or more per student which includes the class yearbook, outings and graduation exercises.

The board is also expected to decide on the date of graduation and review plans for the high school $19 million addition to be voted on by residents in the Nov. 7 election.

New Plan Approved For Apartments

The Manchester Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC) last night approved revised plans for the U & R Construction Co. townhouse project on the west side of Homestead St.

The project, originally planned by the U & R Construction Co. but recently acquired by Damato, had received final approval in February 1970.

Changes made by Damato and approved by the PZC included a reduction in the number of bedrooms and the number of buildings, and plans to develop the site in two stages.

The PZC also agreed to rescind part of the 1970 approval statement which provided for sharing of the site's open space and recreational land with the U & R apartments on the east side of Homestead St.

PZC members voted last night to state that the Damato project, to be known as Homestead Park Village, is considered a separate parcel under new ownership. The action will terminate the cross obligations between the separate owners.

The Damato project is roughly the same size as the completed U & R project.

Changes in the U & R plans made by Damato include elimination of three-bedroom units to reduce the total number of bedrooms to 160 (originally 192), and plans to put the 96 units in six buildings instead of eight buildings.

The apartments will be built in two stages — 48 units in each stage with no time limit for completion.

PZC members imposed three conditions in approving the revisions: that the first part of the site to be developed will be the west side of the 8.8-acre parcel; that catch basins for drainage will be installed as required by the town engineer; and that a split rail fence be installed near a small pond on the parcel.

Damato said he plans to "muck out" the pond, which is now a swamp, to beautify the area. PZC members were concerned about the possible hazard of the pond to small children, and requested the fence along a steep slope near the pond.

Damato's plans show possible future construction of tennis courts or a swimming pool at the site.

The Public Building Commission will set up a meeting on the high school cafeteria-auditorium addition for Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the elementary school. All interested boards — selectmen, finance, planning — are to be invited by letter.

The architect will be presented an answer questions on the reduced estimate of the cost of the addition.

The request for this second joint meeting on the addition was made by Board of Education chairman Andrew Manegia at a PZC meeting last night. Last week's meeting on the same subject, called by the school board, conflicted with the regular monthly meeting of the Republican Town Committee of which PZC chairman Douglas Cheney is treasurer. So neither he, nor the architect, were present.

Russell Mooney, representing the Board of Finance, attended last night's PZC meeting seeking more information on the revised cost estimates — down some $40,000, to $995,000, as a result of new construction figures supplied by the state.

The selectmen have already decided that, if the request passes the last hurdle, the finance board, they will arrange that petitions be placed in convenient locations so that the necessary 200 signatures will put the request for the addition on a referendum.

Meeting Set For Oct. 16 On School

The Public Building Commission will set up a meeting on the high school cafeteria-auditorium addition for Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the elementary school. All interested boards — selectmen, finance, planning — are to be invited by letter.

The architect will be presented an answer questions on the reduced estimate of the cost of the addition.

Magazine Covers Again Exposed

A Manchester store owner has removed the cover screens from four magazines termed pornography by the local chapter of Citizens for Decent Literature (CDL).

James Dumas, owner of the Memorial Corner Store, said the square cardboard covers he had originally placed over the covers of "Playboy," "Penthouse," "Cavalade" and "Swank" were removed due to the harassment from customers his daughter, Mrs. Carol Ferguson, store manager, had received.

The request to cover the books was made by J. Grant Swank Jr., CDL coordinator. Dumas said he originally complied with the request, but because of the harassment, decided to remove the screens from the book covers.

Speeding Law Restoration Requested

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. Thomas J. Meskill Monday requested the state to restore its former policy of suspending for 30 days the driver's license of first-time convicted speeders.

The mandatory suspension rule, first adopted in 1955, was abolished last year by the General Assembly.

"More and more people are speeding" because of the abolition of the rule, Meskill said in a speech at the Connecticut Safety Commission's annual awards luncheon.

Girl Watching Week Irks Some Feminists
LOS ANGELES - Amid charges from feminists that the affair is vulgar, the third annual week dedicated to girl watching is under way at Century City.

At the Sunday opening, officials at the office-shopping center complex said it was a light-hearted tribute to the beauty of women - featuring a contest for the "most watchable girl."

Bramhall Gives 40th Pint to Bloodmobile

While the local chapter of the American Red Cross's Bloodmobile last week fell a few pints short of its quota, Andover residents turned out well not only to donate but to offer their services during the Bloodmobile.

There were 66 pints of blood collected out of a quota of 75 pints, with Paul Bramhall of Long Hill Road receiving his 40th pint, indicating he has donated 40 pints of blood. First time donors from Andover included Peter Hutchinson, Alan Ferguson, and John McGuire.

Other donors were Carol MacKay, Ariene Cunningham, Edward Berntsen, Edna Kralovich, Muriel MacCPanor, D'Wid Yeomans and Robert Bennett.

Also donating blood were Raymond Bradley, Levi Pournier, Margaret Hohmann, James T. Hohmann, Helen Donahue, Marie Giles, Jean Gasper, Marion Haines, Anna Fournier, John Carl, Russell Thompson and Richard Osborne.

Local Aides Assisting in the Bloodmobile drive were Mrs. Edward Sharpe, who was the medical nurse, Mrs. Winston Abbott, Margaret Hohmann and Jean Gasper.

Donor aides: Miss Vera Stanley and Miss Dorothea Raymond, staff aides; and Mrs. Henry Wroblewski and Mrs. Eow Warner, telephone and appointment committee.

Registration Open For Adult School

Registration for evening Adult Basic Education classes will be held Wednesday and Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Billing Junior High School office. Classes will meet Tuesday and Thursday, starting Oct. 3, from 6:30 to 8:30. There are no fees or charges for books or other materials.

Morning classes are already in progress at the Unitarian Universalist meeting house, 466 Main St., with Mrs. Ruth Kukula as instructor. Classes meet Monday through Thursday from 9 to 11:30. Registration may be made any day when classes are in session.

Concentration at both morning and evening sessions is on English, mathematics, reading, and spelling. Registration is open to men and women over 16 years of age who have not completed their education. Primary emphasis is on bolstering skills that may have been missed in earlier schooling, resulting in a present performance level at each student's own level and at his ability to progress. Guidance is provided for counseling on future plans.

Evening instructors are Joel Chason, counselor, John Helms, reading, Nelson Youngerman, basic and intermediate mathematics; Mrs. Patricia Vogel, English and English as a second language; Walter Scholsky, intermediate and advanced English; and Richard Williams, mathematics and English.

SEN. SCOTT TO VISIT STATE EXHIBITOR HARTFORD (AP) - Sen. Scott will campaign in New Haven Oct. 5 for President Nixon, campaign officials announced Monday. Republicans also are planning a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner in New Haven Oct. 5, with Gov. Nelson Rockefeller scheduled to be the main speaker.

GAZA (AP) - An Israeli military court sentenced a 14-year-old Arab boy today to five years imprisonment for acting as a lookout and grave-digger when guerrillas murdered a family of six for allegedly collaborating with Israel.

Paves Kamel Abi Badawi also was given a seven-year suspended sentence. One Arab guerrilla has been jailed for life in the case and four others await sentencing. The court found that the teenager helped dig graves after terrorists took a man, his wife and four children from a refugee camp to the seashore in 1971 and killed them. The alleged leader of the terrorist band was killed last year in a clash with Israeli troops.

GAZA (AP) - It isn't often that an airplane goes sideways through a highway underpass but such a maneuver took place when the "Spirit of Pueblo," the only remaining 1936 Vultee V-1A in existence, was landed adjacent to the highway by the antique plane's owner, Harold Johnson, after being flown from Pueblo Memorial Airport.

The wings were too wide to fit under the highway underpass, so Johnson put the wheels on a custom set of rollers and eased the plane through the underpass. The plane was headed for display at the opening of a new bank nearby.

Let's get the facts....

It's a time of exaggerated claims, and just plain falsehood by many of our friends in the advertising media.

The next time some media tells you that "we have thousands upon thousands of readers or listeners," ask them to verify what they say by producing an audited or substantiated report of the same.

The Manchester Evening Herald is read by 60,000 plus persons daily. How do we know? Because our circulation records are audited and verified by the Audit Bureau of Circulation and a copy of the audited report is available to anyone who desires the same. The next time some of our friends in the advertising media make an exaggerated claim simply ask them to "put up or shut up" by producing an audited ABC report. Most of them can't produce a copy, because they don't belong to ABC. And Mr. Businessman, you ought to be able to figure out the reason.

It's National Dog Week! Meet The Country's Top Dogs!

By BETTY DEEBAN

D.J., The Country's Top Show Dogs!

For two years in a row, D.J. has won the most important dog show in the country, the Westminster Show held in New York each February. D.J. is an English Springer Spaniel. In one year he won more Best in Show ribbons than any dog in history.

D.J. often goes to school with his owner, Dr. Milton Prickett who teaches at the University of Kentucky, at Lexington. He was a birthday gift to Dr. Prickett. He is a house dog when he is not in the show ring. He used to go on paper route with Dr. Prickett's son. Since he has won everything a dog can win, he will retire from Best in Show contests, but Dr. Prickett plans to enter him in obedience competition.

National Dog Week

National Dog Week is held the last full week in September. It was started in 1928 by a dog lover named Captain Will Judy. The purpose of the week is to encourage people to own dogs and to take better care of them. The slogan is: "Deserve to be your dog's best friend."

Top Ten Registered Dogs

When some puppies are born, the owners send the notice to the American Kennel Club. The club keeps a list of the total. There are over 50 million dogs in the country. About one million are registered. Here is a list of the top ten registered last year.

69,894	Dachshund
44,905	Miniature Schnauzer
35,920	St. Bernard
33,516	Irish Setter
30,170	Labrador Retriever
27,717	Poodle
26,401	Poodle

Animal of the Week: The Hippopotamus

A hippopotamus likes to spend a lot of time in the water. It can stay under water for as long as 15 minutes at a time. It can walk along the bottom! There are two kinds of hippos living in Africa today. The pygmy weighs from 400 to 600 pounds.

The common hippo has a very thick skin that must stay wet or moist at all times. If a hippo gets excited, it sweats an oily red liquid called "Blood Sweat." It is very hard to kill a hippopotamus unless you shoot it in the brain. It can swim as fast as a boat at the age of six years. It can live to be about 50 years old.

The 1972 NEA All-Major League Team

National League Dominates All-Stars Named by Players

NEW YORK (NEA) — Those baseball fans who are believers in the superiority of the National League have some new ammunition.

For the third year in a row, National League players dominate the All-Major League team chosen by the 600 players in both leagues in a poll conducted by Newspaper Enterprise Association.

The National League held a 6-4 advantage in 1970 and a 7-3 edge in 1971 but this year only two American League players — Dick Allen and Sparky Lyle — kept the National League from sweeping all 10 positions.

Cesar Cedeno, the Houston Astros' flashy center fielder, was the leading vote-getter in the sixth annual NEA poll, earning a spot on 80 per cent of the players' ballots. A third baseman who led the Chicago White Sox back into pennant contention this season after spending the first nine years of his career in the National League, placed second with 88 per cent.

There were only two repeaters from the 1971 NEA All-Major League Team, left fielder Willie Stargell of the Pittsburgh Pirates and third baseman Joe Torre of St. Louis. And only two other players on the 1972 squad had been named to the team previously, Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs and Ron Santo of Cincinnati in both 1969 and 1970.

The voting by positions:

First base: During his stormy National League days, the Chicago Cubs' rangy Dick Richie and a lot of other things that weren't very complimentary. This year he has been called Dick and the best thing to hit Chicago since Mike Michigan. He made the White Sox one of baseball's most exciting teams and was making a serious threat to lead the league in homers.

Baseball's Top 10

The 1972 NEA All-Major League Team

Position	Name	Team
1B	Dick Allen	Chicago White Sox
2B	Joe Morgan	Cincinnati
SS	Don Kessinger	Chicago Cubs
3B	Joe Torre	St. Louis
LF	Willie Stargell	Pittsburgh
CF	Cesar Cedeno	Houston
RF	Billy Williams	Chicago Cubs
C	Johnny Bench	Cincinnati
SP	Steve Carlton	Philadelphia
RP	Sparky Lyle	New York Yankees

Other top vote-getters (in order of finish):
 1B—Lee May, Willie Stargell
 2B—Rod Carew
 SS—Chris Speler, Luis Aparicio
 3B—Ron Santo, Brooks Robinson, Rich Heber
 CF—Joe Rudl, Roberto Clemente, Henry Aaron, Bobby Murcer
 C—Manny Sanguillen
 SP—Wilbur Wood
 RP—Mike Marshall, Tom McGraw

Catcher—Bench, the Reds' mainstay who was making something of a comeback at 24, outdistanced runner-up Manny Sanguillen, 52 per cent to 11.

Starting pitcher: To call Steve Carlton the ace of the Philadelphia Dally is to write off the rest of the Phillies is like a Pulitzer Prize winner writing for "Jack & Jill." Carlton was named on 81 per cent of the players' ballots, while Wilbur Wood of the White Sox was a distant second with 12 per cent.

Relief pitcher—It was Boston Red Sox who sold Babe Ruth to the Yankees in 1920. And it was the Red Sox who traded Sparky Lyle to the Yankees in 1972. Some people never learn. Lyle appeared in almost half the Yankees victories as he kept them in the pennant race with tireless relief work. He was mentioned on 65 per cent of the players' ballots, while Montreal's Mike Marshall (18 per cent) and the Mets' Tom Seaver (8 per cent) also made fair showings.

Pennant Fever Not Same

BOSTON (AP) — Rico Petrocelli's been there before, in the midst of a down-to-the-wire pennant race. But this time it isn't quite the same.

"I think I'm just looking at it in a different way," said Petrocelli, who is batting .275 with 10 home runs and 30 RBIs. "We're happy to be in this situation. It's better than being 10 games out."

Lynn McGlothlen will pitch Wednesday afternoon against the Red Sox after three days of the race for first place in the American League East. They will try to increase that margin tonight when they open a two-game series at Fenway Park against the Sox's exciting Steve Carlton.

Trip to Dentist Awaited

CINCINNATI (AP) — A trip to the dentist may prove the cure for his arm and shoulder problems, and Cincinnati Reds pitcher Gary Nolan says there's hope peeking through that dark cloud.

"Nolan had been listed as doubtful by Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson Sunday as the Reds looked forward to the upcoming National League baseball playoffs with Pittsburgh."

Exclusive Strikeout Club Welcomes Ryan

NEW YORK (AP) — The Big Train did it. Now, it's Ryan's Express.

Nolan Ryan of the California Angels has joined an exclusive strikeout club of American League pitchers that includes the legendary Walter Johnson.

Johnson's whistling fastball helped him record more than 300 strikeouts in a season way back in 1910. Others who've reached that gaudy plateau are Babe Waddell, Bob Feller, Vida Blue, Mickey Lolich, Sam McDowell—and now, Ryan.

The Angels' hard-throwing right-hander fanned 12 Texas batters to bring his season's total to 302 as he beat the Rangers 2-1 on a three-hitter Monday night.

"Sure, I've given the 300 mark some thought," said Ryan, "but not a lot of thought until my last start when I got only four strikeouts in nine innings against Kansas City."

"I realized then that my arm was tired and my good fastball wasn't as good as it has to be. I got a little worried about it again tonight when my fastball was very ordinary for the first six innings."

His "very ordinary" fastball got eight Rangers on strikeouts in the first six innings.

Only one other game was played in the major leagues Monday night as the San Diego Padres defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-3 in a National League contest.

A scheduled American League game between the Oakland A's and Minnesota Twins was postponed by rain.

Guess What!

Three Dogs Live At the White House!

Pasha, Vicki and Tim on the White House lawn!

Guess what the President keeps in the top right hand desk drawer in his office? Tim's real name is King Tim-hoo, he is a four-year-old Irish setter who was a birthday gift to the President in 1969. He is the President's favorite. Though dogs are not usually allowed in the upstairs living quarters, Tim does get into the president's office in the Oval Room.

Guess who the other dogs belong to? Pasha belongs to Tricia Nixon Cox. He is a five-year-old black and grey Yorkshire terrier. Vicki belongs to Julie Nixon Eisenhower. She is a 10-year-old grey miniature poodle.

Guess where they live!

The dogs live in a white dog house just behind the White House. The White House electrician takes care of them. The dogs go with the Nixons on some trips and are quite used to riding in helicopters and jet planes.

Super Sport: Brooks Robinson

Brooks Robinson is the ace third baseman of the American League champion Baltimore Orioles. Some think he is the best who ever played that position.

A native of Little Rock, Arkansas, Brooks set a major league record by leading third basemen in fielding nine times. He was voted the most valuable player in the 1970 World Series.

Brooks has been with the Orioles for all or part of the last 13 years. He owns part of a sporting goods store in Baltimore and also a restaurant in Baltimore. He has four children.

Three Dogs Live At the White House!

Guess what the President keeps in the top right hand desk drawer in his office? Tim's real name is King Tim-hoo, he is a four-year-old Irish setter who was a birthday gift to the President in 1969. He is the President's favorite. Though dogs are not usually allowed in the upstairs living quarters, Tim does get into the president's office in the Oval Room.

Guess who the other dogs belong to? Pasha belongs to Tricia Nixon Cox. He is a five-year-old black and grey Yorkshire terrier. Vicki belongs to Julie Nixon Eisenhower. She is a 10-year-old grey miniature poodle.

Guess where they live!

The dogs live in a white dog house just behind the White House. The White House electrician takes care of them. The dogs go with the Nixons on some trips and are quite used to riding in helicopters and jet planes.

Football or Baseball No. 1?

Fuel for the argument, which sport ranks No. 1 with Joe Fan, football or baseball?

Did you happen to note attendance figures for some of last Sunday's National Football League attractions and major league baseball games?

Oakland's Athletics, battling Chicago for the American League's Western Division crown, attracted just 9,881 payees for a twinned against Kansas City. Meanwhile, the White Sox, playing in Chicago, were able to lure only 8,430 for their game with Texas.

The AL's smallest turnout was in Milwaukee where the Brewers played host to Baltimore before 5,932.

Cleveland Indian fans failed to come out to see a doubleheader against the New York Yankees in Cleveland with 6,979 the paid gate count.

Only at Fenway Park in Boston where the Red Sox hosted Detroit was there a good crowd, 34,000, plus.

It was a money-maker, as usual, at Shea Stadium where the Mets hooked up with Philadelphia's last place Phillies. The attraction was Tom Seaver pitching against Steve Carlton and 41,544 was the announced paid attendance.

The day's skimpiest crowd was in Atlanta to watch the Braves and San Diego, 3,894.

Football-wise, it was a great day with the bucks office humming a merry tune, 50,899 at Foxboro to watch the New England Patriots nip Atlanta, 62,727 at Yankee Stadium where the New York Giants were upended by Dallas, another 56,626 in Baltimore for the Colts and New York Jets' aerial circus. Tremendous SRO crowds were also the order of the day at other grid spots.

Despite the great turnouts for the grid tussels, the wager here is that at least in these parts the interest was at least the pennant race in the American League East for nine out of every 10 sports buffs.

Notes from the Little Black Book

Gale Sayers and Tucker Fredrickson, two one-time great running backs in the National Football League, have been signed as analysts for NFL telecasts this season. Fredrickson, former New York Giant, will make his debut Oct. 15 when the Jets play the Patriots at Schaefer Stadium. Don't look for Kansas City to be any pushover for the Red Sox in Thursday's makeup game at Boston. The Royals hold a 6-5 season edge. When Pete Gogolak missed an extra point try against Detroit two weeks ago it snapped a string of 133 consecutive hits for the Giant specialist. The new capacity at Schaefer Stadium, which has been reached the past two weeks, is 60,999. There are 15 fewer seats than a year ago because of television camera positions. The Park Department has already started rebuilding the infield at Charter Oak Park's Fitzgerald Field softball area. Consistent has been Wes Unseld of the Baltimore Bullets in the NBA. Big Wes has been runner-up in grabbing rebounds for the past four seasons. Jaye Tyler of Manchester was named the best college player at Pierce's Lacrosse Camp at Dartmouth College. Ken Coleman has been announcing Boston Red Sox games since 1966. He succeeded Curt Gowdy who has gone on to the No. 1 job in the country, despite Howard Cosell. The Springfield Civic Center has 7,400 permanent seats and the area is expandable to 10,000. After a first visit to the Bay State Civic Center one came away wondering why more space wasn't left between the rows. The steps are also high up and narrow.

Gloria Darling Retains Tennis Title

Beats Sue Hodge 6-2, 6-0 at CO

Repeat champion in the Women's Singles Division of the Town Tennis Tournament is Gloria Darling who upended Sue Hodge in the best-of-three set finals last Sunday at Charter Oak Park.

Mrs. Darling, teaching professional at the Vernon Tennis Forum, and seeded No. 1, easily won in straight sets which was a surprise to no one. The scores were 6-2, 6-0. Mrs. Darling also defeated Mrs. Hodge for the 1971 title in her first try for the crown. Seven women made up the singles field, one of five divisions in the 1972 play conducted by the Rec Department.

Recent results were as follows: Men's Seniors-45 and over-Bob Weiss def. Ken Flood, 6-4, 6-4; Dave Warren def. Joe Lombardo, 6-1, 6-0. Men's Singles-Phil Hyde def. Don Toomey, 6-0, 6-1; Pete Alcocan def. Jim Carroll, 6-2, 6-3; Earl Custer def. Dave Warren, 6-3, 6-4; Paul Croobert def. Jim Carroll, 6-4, 6-3; Earl Custer def. Earl Lucke, 8-6, 6-4; Jack Redman def. Marshall Warren, 6-0, 6-0.

Mixed Doubles-Mal-Gloria Darling def. Jim-Yolanda Carroll, 6-4, 6-1. Men's Doubles-Earl Custer-Gary Thrasher def. Joe Lombardo-Paul Tohn, 6-2, 6-2; Dave Warren-Harvey Pined def. Paul Greenberg-Leroy Handley, 6-3, 6-1; Dennis-Dan Hockey def. George Boser-Neil Waihe, 5-7, 6-6; Paul Martin-Pete Alcocan def. Stan Hodge-Chris Saunders, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Tennis leaders
BOSTON (AP)—The Natsase of Rumania maintained a comfortable lead in the $375,000 Commercial Union Grand Prix tennis tournament after last week's play, according to figures released Monday by tournament officials.

Natsase, seeking the $50,000 top prize in the men's competition, has 543 points, 121 more than second-place Stan Smith of Sea Pines, S.C., who picked up 75 of those last week by winning the Pacific Southwest Open in Los Angeles. Natsase, who is 3-0 in Spain is third with 416 points.

St. James Parish will be after its sixth straight Girls Hartford C. V. O. Track Championship to be held at Hartford Public High on Sunday, Oct. 8 starting time is 1 p.m.

There are two divisions, Junior and Senior. The Junior Division is comprised of fifth and sixth grade boys and girls. Seniors will be seventh and eighth graders. Tryouts are being held Monday through Friday from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Manchester High track. All boys and girls of St. James are invited to try out starting tonight.

Famous U.S. Women Ski Team Diet

During the non-snow off season the U.S. Women's Alpine Ski Team members go on the "Ski Team" diet to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. That's right — 20 pounds in 14 days! The basis of the diet is chemical food action and was devised by a famous Colorado physician especially for the U.S. Ski Team. Normal energy is maintained (very important) while reducing. You keep "full" — no starvation — because the diet is designed that way! It's a diet that is easy to follow whether you work, travel or stay at home.

This is, honestly a fantastically successful diet. If it weren't the U.S. Ski Team wouldn't be permitted to use it! Right? So give yourself the same break the U.S. Ski Team gets. Less weight, the scientific, proven way. Even if you've tried all the other diets, you owe it to yourself to try the U.S. Women's Ski Team Diet. That's it. If you really do want to lose 20 pounds in two weeks. Order today. Tear this ad out as a reminder. Send only $2.00 (12.25 for Rush Service) — cash in O.K. — to: OAK Products, Dept. MC 726, P.O. Box 15, Elwell Station, Buffalo, N.Y. 14205. Don't order unless you expect to lose 20 pounds in two weeks! Because that's what the Ski Team Diet will do!

Trinity Optimistic For Saturday Opener
HARTFORD (AP)—We're very optimistic and we're very anxious to play, says Trinity College's head football coach Don Miller, as his Bulldogs approach their season opener Saturday against Williams College.

Trinity, which has had one of its longer pre-season training periods this year due to the late starting date, has had a chance to get some rookies into better shape and to hone the veterans. At Miller reports, the Bulldogs are ready for their first opponent, the same one which spoiled Trinity's 1971 debut by a score of 35-10. They lost only two others, finishing 5-3.

I think we're going to be better in every phase of our game than last year, Miller says. "We're going to be stronger defensively. We'll be kicking better and we'll be better on offense."

Although it's hard to say at this stage of the season, Miller suggests Williams and Amherst as two of the Bulldogs' toughest opponents. And although optimistic about Saturday's opener, he's not reckless. He sees Williams as a "very experienced team, saying they've got nine out of 11 defensive men returning to the starting lineup and, about, 10 out of 11 offensive starters coming back."

Title Cage Boss Slaps Fine On Hawks

NEW YORK (AP)—The power of Walter Kennedy as Commissioner of the National Basketball Association has been challenged by the Atlanta Hawks over the Julius Erving case.

Kennedy slapped a $25,000 fine on the Hawks Monday for playing Erving in two exhibition games over the weekend in violation of his directives not to do so.

William Putnam, president of the Hawks Atlanta club would not pay the fine and disclosed that the Hawks and Erving had filed a $2 million federal lawsuit Sunday against the NBA and Kennedy.

Erving is the former University of Massachusetts star who left school after his junior year to play with the Virginia Squires of the American Basketball Association last season. He jumped to the Hawks after the ABA season ended. Meanwhile, Milwaukee had picked Erving in the NBA draft after his college class had graduated. The Bucks thereby claimed Erving belonged to them.

The NBA Board of Governors ruled last week in San Francisco that Erving is the property of Milwaukee and not of the Hawks who reportedly signed him to a five-year contract at a million dollars.

In their suit against the NBA and Kennedy, which is scheduled for a hearing Friday in Atlanta, the Hawks contend the action by the NBA Board of Governors amounts to a "combination and conspiracy to restrain interstate trade and commerce in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act" and provide a pervasive web of restrictions which award to one team the exclusive rights to a player's services, regardless of whether he is acquired by trade or by being compensated by such team.

Ali Due in Boston
BOSTON (AP)—Former world heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali will fight four two-round exhibitions at Boston Garden Oct. 11 on the card surrounding the fight between Emile Griffin and Joe Denacci, promoter Sam Silverman announced Monday. $15,000 for the appearance.

Eagle JV Grid Team Loses Out
St. Paul's JV football team defeated East Catholic's JV's in a hard-fought battle Monday afternoon in Bristol, 16-14.

The game was highlighted by two touchdowns runs by Freshman Cephus Nolen of East from 25 and one yard. Freshman Mike Nolan caught a pass for the two-point conversion after his brother's second TD. Cephus Nolen had a 75-yard kick-off return called back in the third quarter when the Sooners blasted Oregon 68-3 and picked up 14 first place votes and 84 points.

QB Rob Tebeco was nine for 18 and 231 yards passing. Mike Nolen caught six passes for 91 yards. Sophomore Keith Lamb had three receptions for 100 yards.

The game was decided in the third quarter when Tebeco was trapped in his own end zone for a safety.

East Catholic's record is now 1-1, the loss coming after an opening 33-0 victory over Rockville's JV team. Individual stars in the Rockville game were Cephus Nolen who scored twice on 30 and 80-yard runs. Mike Nolen who scored on a 25 yard pass and on a 14-yard run and Keith Lamb who scored on an 82-yard pass play game is Monday, Oct. 2, against Northwest Catholic at East's field.

NHL Opens Oct. 7
MONTREAL (AP)—The 56th National Hockey League season will get under way Saturday, Oct. 7 with seven games scheduled that night. The league announced Monday its 624-game schedule—largest in NHL history. It contains 78 games more than last season's schedule because of the addition of the Atlanta Flames and New York Islanders to the league. The schedule finishes April 1 and lasts 29 weeks. Each team will play 78 games.

Lackluster NFL Victory For Chiefs over Saints

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—It was actually a rather lackluster victory over one of pro football's young, struggling teams, but for Coach Hank Stram of the Kansas City Chiefs it may as well have been the game of the year.

"It was an important game for us," said Stram, after his Chiefs came from behind to edge the New Orleans Saints 20-17 Monday night in the National Football League's nationally televised game.

"We had been unimpressive in our last two games and we had to have it," said Stram. "I'm pleased we came back."

SC Retains Top Spot, Michigan, Irish Move
NEW YORK (AP) Southern California held onto the top spot in The Associated Press college football poll this week.

Kentucky climbed from seventh to sixth with 468 points but Nebraska, gunning for a third straight national championship, missed Army 77-7 and jumped from ninth to seventh with 465 points. The Cornhuskers, No. 1 in the preseason poll, skidded to 10th when they lost their opener to UCLA.

The other first-place vote went to Michigan, which trimmed UCLA 26-9 and moved up from 12th to eighth while dropping the Bruins from sixth to 15th. Louisiana State fell one position to ninth despite a 42-17 triumph over Texas A&M while Notre Dame cracked the Top Ten for the first time this season with an impressive 37-0 opening-game victory over Northwestern.

Arizona State crushed Kansas 56-14 but moved down nevertheless from 10th to 11th as Michigan and Notre Dame climbed past the Sun Devils. Rounding out the Second Ten were Texas, Penn State, Washington, UCLA, Florida State, Mississippi, Tulane, Stanford and West Virginia.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia Eagle owner Leonard Tose has already issued a vote of confidence for head coach Ed Khatay, despite the team's winless record.

50-Year Halas Record Bettered
CHICAGO (AP)—"I guess I'm No. 2 now," laughed 76-year-old George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears.

"Anyhow, he didn't have Jim Thorpe chasing him. Son of a gun, come to think of it. Thorpe actually caught me. But it was muddy and I skidded into the end zone for the last eight yards."

Board Stays Neutral On Booster Club

They didn't say yes and they didn't say no, but the Board of Education asked a few questions and expressed some misgivings to parts of a community athletic boosters' club proposal made last night by George Emmerling, Manchester High School principal, and Theodore Martin, faculty athletic manager and acting director of athletics.

A motion to approve or disapprove is not in order. Atty. Allan Thomas, board chairman, ruled, "It is not within our province to endorse a private organization in many ways, it's just another PTA."

Earlier in the discussion, Sheldon Schaffer and M. Philip Sussag objected to a direct affiliation of the Board of Education with such an organization.

Dr. Kennedy reported that suggestions have been made relative to the brochure: 1. That funds be used for a limited number of additions and renovations to Tilling and Bennet Junior High Schools.

Several windows on the west side of Lincoln School were broken by vandals over the weekend, police reported, and the school was entered.

Police said a door to the building was discovered open Sunday night. Several large rocks which had been thrown through the windows were found inside.

Investigation is continuing. About 30 windows at the Eighth District sewer treatment plant, 357 Hilliard St., were broken sometime Sunday afternoon or evening, police reported.

Part of a chain-link fence along a ravine at Center Springs Park has been cut away, posing a danger to children who play in the park, police said.

Police Report

A money bag containing $256 in cash and checks was stolen from the Regal Gas Station at Center St. and Middle Tpke. last night.

The theft occurred between 6:10 and 8 p.m., attendant Robert Snuck of East Hartford told police. Snuck said there were several people who went in the office while he was busy outside the station during that time.

The case has been referred to the police department's detective bureau. Several cartons of cigarettes were taken last night in a break into the Red and White Stand, 200 W. Center St., police reported.

The number of cartons of cigarettes taken was not immediately known, police said. Entry to the building was apparently gained via a rear window, police said.

PZC Adopts Rules For Special Uses

Amendments to Manchester's zoning regulations, allowing increased non-industrial use of industrially zoned land, were adopted by the Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC) last night after minor changes were made and one proposed section was eliminated.

The amendments will allow new car dealers, tennis and badminton courts, skating rinks, and health and recreation clubs in Industrial Zones, by special exception only.

Changes made before PZC action last night were reduction in the minimum lot sizes for the new uses. The original proposed requirement was for a five-acre minimum; PZC members voted to make the requirement a four-acre minimum.

The proposed amendment which was eliminated by failure of the PZC to act on it included a definition of "club," which is mentioned several times in zoning regulations.

The five-acre minimum lot size, changed to four acres last night, was one of several provisions of the amendments attacked at a public hearing earlier this month.

At the hearing, Atty. John LaBelle, representing developer Alexander Jarvis, claimed the minimum would be more acceptable.

Lawrence E. Guillemette Jr., 19, of 24 Guiley Dr., Wapping, was charged with speeding and issued a warning for failure to wear vision protector while riding a motorcycle. The arrest was made by Vernon Police.

William G. Lopez, 21, of Vernon Rd., Bolton, charged yesterday afternoon with improper passing in connection with a two-car accident on Oakland Rd., South Windsor, early this morning.

Police said the Zytary car struck some guard rails. She complained of being in pain and was taken to the Manchester Memorial Hospital for treatment.

A MODERN PHARMACY James F. D'Amato D.S./Ph.

For years doctors have regarded the value of mouthwashes and gargles.

Many have insisted that a mouthwash does nothing but wash out loose material and replace temporarily the odor that is there with its own odor.

However, extensive testing of many mouthwashes has now shown their ability actually to destroy germs, and many people have come to depend on the use of mouthwashes to control bad breath.

Proper medication alleviates a great amount of discomfort. Fill your prescriptions at LENOX PHARMACY, 290 E. Center St., Tel. 649-0986 for free delivery.

Several other requirements, attacked by LaBelle at the hearing were not changed prior to adoption last night.
