TRUMP PLAY DEPENDS ON FATE OF SIDE SUIT

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

What is the correct way to play the trump suit in today's hands, assuming that you cannot see the hands of the defender? Strangely enough, the correct answer depends on the location of the club trumps. This seems nonsensical, but it is true. Business conditions depend on spots on the sun, but there are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of by most bridge players.

Public "Misunderstanding" Fosters Bald Eagle Decline

In spite of a thirty-year fight to save an old and proud American symbol — the bald eagle — its existence continues to be seriously endangered because it is "misunderstood" and "mistakenly."

According to recent reports by the National Audubon Society, the eagle population in the United States may be going the way of that other, once-great American symbol, the buffalo, and for the same reason: the systematic and persistent killing by man.

While the bald eagle is chiefly a coastal and waterfowl bird whose nest usually is chiefly fish, it is mistakenly believed that the eagle preys on ranch and farm animals. Current studies by the Audubon Society in itself refute this assumption.

The long slide downhill for the eagle in the U. S. is also being brought about by widespread pesticide poisoning and encroachment on their nesting grounds.

Legislation Introduced

Although the bald eagle, which is not bald at all, was named America's national emblem since George Washington took his oath of office in 1789, it was not until 1940 that the eagle was made the national symbol of the U. S. Since that time other legislation has been passed to curtail the eagle's extinction.

Members of the Young Democrats club staged a protest in front of Republican headquarters yesterday afternoon, marking the fourth anniversary of President Richard Nixon's statement that any president who couldn't and was not interested in the welfare of the people didn't deserve to be re-elected.

Members of the club talked with the members of the stores and distributed leaflets, according to Mrs. Mary McNally, local coordinator for the McGovern-Shriver campaign.

In other political news, it was announced U. S. Senator Abraham Ribicoff and his wife will be on hand to officially open Democratic headquarters in the Colonial Shopping Center on Rt. 74, Oct. 2.

The event will mark Ribicoff's first visit to Tolland County since he attended the local Democratic picnic in 1968, according to Charles Thiffault, town chairman and primary candidate for the State District Assembly seat. One thousand people attended the picnic, Thiffault recalled.

A reception will be held following the opening ceremonies to honor the longtime senator and Mrs. Ribicoff.

Thiffault made the announcement Friday night at a fund raising cocktail party at the headquarters, attended by many candidates and representatives for both the McGovern-Shriver and Roger Hillman campaigns.

The Board of Selectmen is expected to discuss the proposed charter for the town during an Oct. 10 meeting, scheduled for 7:30 in the Administration Building.

Copies of the 18-page document are on file in the town clerk's office and the first selectmen's office in the administration building.

Andover Kennels, Camps Topic of Hearing

The Andover Planning and Zoning Commission will hold a public hearing tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the town office building to present proposed new regulations for kennels and camps.

The commission has urged anyone with any interest in other operations to attend. If anyone is unable to attend, but wished to be heard or to present a statement, they may submit same in writing and leave it at the town office building.

Kennel Regulations

Possibly the most distinct feature of the proposed new kennel regulations is the definition of a kennel. In the new regulations, a kennel is defined as any structure or enclosure in which more than two dogs are kept for the purpose of breeding, training, or showing.

Special Permit

One feature of the proposed regulations is that with any large commercial operation, a special permit from the PZC will be required.

A Look at Tourism

Gov. Tom Meskill, the Connecticut Development Commission, assisted by the State Vacation Travel Advisory Council, are on the right track in seeking ways to build tourism.

We were among the 300 some persons that attended the first tourism conference conducted the other day at Mystic Seaport. There were many top-level speakers who possess a thorough knowledge of the travel and vacation industry, a big one nationally, something like 55 billion dollars. Connecticut's share of that market is small, extremely small, in fact 385 million dollars, or seven tenths of one per cent.

Though Connecticut's tourism is on a small scale, a total of $16,500,000 was returned to state government's coffers by visitors in the form of taxes and fees. Visitor services also created 28,000 full or part-time jobs.

The dollar spent by visitors to Connecticut breaks down as follows: Food and drink, 20.7 per cent; grocery stores, 13.5, amusement, services, 8.3; gas and oil, 7.9; retail sales, 11.3; lodging, 37.1; other, 1.15 per cent.

Actually, the New England States are at the bottom in reaping U.S. travel dollars. According to various surveys, Massachusetts leads followed by Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, and Rhode Island.

Some 85 per cent of all vacationers travel by auto because of the flexibility. A total of 70 per cent don't make room reservations; they are reluctant to plan and they don't wish to be regulated by a schedule. On a typical vacation in the nation, the average length is 12.2 days and this compares with the average New England stay of 6.5 days.

Tourism is good business and Gov. Meskill is realistic when he says it could be a billion dollar a year business. He is also right when he says it doesn't require any additional schools, no additional utilities and all the tourist expectations is good meals, well-tended attractions, and comfortable accommodations.

We left a state where tourism was the second leading industry and closing in

Union Harms Vital U. S. Ties With Japan

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
While Japanese and Chinese leaders were busy in Peking signing papers which improved their relationship, an American labor union has been displaying writings which do clear harm to vital U. S. ties with Japan.
In newspaper advertisements and in "car cards" exhibited in New York City shows, the International Ladies Garment Workers Union has been warning against the alleged export of American jobs to Japan.
The underlying argument, of course, is that Japanese textile products "flood" the U. S. market and thereby deprive American garment workers of their jobs.
It has not escaped notice that there is no similar public complaint against the import of popular French and Italian fabrics.
In consequence, the distinguished Wall Street Journal has seen fit, in a strong editorial, to blast the ILGWU advertisements as a thinly veiled exhibition of racism.
The paper notes that there is even a current song called "The Import Blues" with crudely fashioned anti-Japanese words.
The warnings against a possibly reviving anti-Japanese racism deserve to be taken very seriously. There simply is no valid excuse for singling out Japan as the ILGWU and others are doing. If real hard on agriculture. In fact, more people visit Glacier National Park in Montana annually than visit Hawaii.

The big difference is that they stay longer in Hawaii and only something like 3.5 days in the park.

Thus, Connecticut's problem is twofold: Not only the encouragement of more visitors but getting them to stay in the state longer instead of just passing through. That's where all the folks in the various towns can lend their support by encouraging friends and relatives to stay longer and truly see all our attractions.

Camping is also the hottest new thing in travel and certainly there should be additional private and public development of grounds.

On the other hand, visitors to our state say the biggest problem is inadequate and confusing highway signs. There is also a need for better signage in regard to our recreational areas. Currently, there is some discussion about allowing certain sized signs on Interstate Highways.

At Bradley International, served by nine carriers, air travel is second only to Boston in New England. More than one million passengers deplaned at Bradley last year, about half of them for non-business activities.

Meanwhile, Amtrak reports a 28 per cent increase in travel.
It's good news that Aquarium Systems Inc. announced that a Marineline Aquarium, at a cost of $4 million, will be ready for the public by next June 1. It contains about 12 acres in a park-like setting and there is also a pool for mammal shows. Mystic currently attracts about 550,000 visitors annually and the aquarium should result in an increase.

We would like to see the state take a hard look at a training hospitality program for employees of business that cater to the public.

We would like to see the next Legislative Assembly take a good look at increasing the travel and promotion budget.

Tourism is big business and there is no reason why our state couldn't receive a bigger share.

Nixon Campaigning in Privacy

WASHINGTON—It's probably unfair. Here's George McGovern outlining his positions to practically anybody who will listen to him, while President Nixon runs for re-election in almost perfect privacy and yet both major polls show a majority of Americans interviewed believe Nixon is the more trustworthy and credible candidate.

To wit: The most recent Harris survey reports 58 per cent of those interviewed say McGovern does not inspire confidence as a President should and only one-third say the same thing about Nixon. A month ago, the Gallup Poll showed 59 per cent naming Nixon as the man who seemed to be more sincere and believable and only 20 per cent chose McGovern.

Although a Presidential election is supposed to be a kind of public debate in which each candidate lays his programs on the line, the voters don't seem to be interested in the issues. If the polls are anywhere near accurate, those interviewed apparently are casting straw ballots for Richard Nixon—a man who has never been accused of overflowing with charisma—and against George McGovern. The so-called "people's candidate" and the "candidate of candor."

In effect, the voters are saying it makes no difference that Nixon, remote and calculatedly isolated from the people, at the writing has refused to stand up for questioning on his plans for wage-price controls, taxes, tomorrow's policy in Vietnam and practically every other subject one can name. This is pretty good going for a President who runs for office, but the name of the game is winning—not setting a world's record for public speaking.

To suggest that Tom is wealthy is stretching things a bit. To say that he is a successful businessman is exactly true. But isn't this what the "American Dream" is all about? When a man who comes from a modest background can take a chance on the free enterprise system and because of his business acumen and his own hard work, he can become a success. That should be to a man's credit and an accomplishment of which he should be proud.

South Windsor Public Health Nurses Report on Year

The South Windsor Public Health Nursing Association held its first annual meeting recently and reported a diversified and active year.

Also, 150 four-and-five-year olds were screened in audio-visual new program and 71 children were treated with 12 referrals made for further testing and joint venture. The A-V clinic was a joint venture by volunteers from the South Windsor Women's Club and the agency and was reported as well received by the public. The association plans to continue the program.

The agency made 911 visits in the fiscal year of July 1, 1971 through June 30, 1972 of which 785 calls were in homes. Included in this number was 501 calls for therapeutic need, 243 health guidance, 133 office visits, 30 maternity, and some 250 new admissions to the services.

The agency provides home skilled nursing care for patients under physicians orders. Physical therapy is also available to those who need it. In cooperation with the Norwich State Hospital, the nurses give guidance to families and follow-ups on patients returning to the community.

There is also a cooperative program with the state for tuberculosis patients, families and contacts. Maternal and infant care guidance is available and many other services in the health guidance field, such as dietary, some management in regard to sanitation, referrals to appropriate agencies and others.

The South Windsor agency has contact with the Manchester Homemakers Service to provide home health aides for Medicare and welfare patients and the nurse supervises the health aides in the home under physicians orders.

Mrs. Al A. Paine Jr.

The marriage of Kathleen Ann Johnson of Manchester to Al A. Paine Jr. of Pomfret took place Sept. 2 at the Pomfret Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson of 89 Clyde Rd., of the wedding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Al A. Paine Sr. of Pomfret. The Rev. Leo Swift of Abington performed the double-ring ceremony. Miss Sally Mann of Storrs was the organist. Raymond Gungas of Dayville, uncle of the bridegroom, was the soloist. Bouquets of orange gladioli, yellow mums and baby's breath were on the altar. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of angel skin designed with mandarin collar and bubble sleeves trimmed with white veils and white satin ribbon accenting the waistline and chapel train. Her three-tiered show length veil was arranged from a matching cascade bouquet of white sweethearts, orange gladioli buds and baby's breath. Mrs. Beverly Malone of Plymouth, Mass., was the honor attendant. She wore a green chiffon empire gown fashioned with mandarin collar and leg-of-mutton sleeves trimmed with ivory venise lace and velvet ribbon. She wore a matching velvet ribbon in her hair and she carried a lighted candle under a glass chimney set in a base of orange sweethearts roses and baby's breath. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Roger Gratton of Pomfret, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Michele Surtinsky of New Britain and Miss Ann Hobb of Bethel. Their apricot chiffon gowns were designed to match the honor attendant's. They wore matching hair ribbons and also carried candles in matching floral bases. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Laura Lynn Johnson of Manchester, sister of the bride. Flower girl was Shelly Marie Johnson, another sister of the

"Intermarriage," Sisterhood Topic

Dr. Theodore I. Lenn of West Hartford will discuss "Intermarriage" tonight at the meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Shalom at 815 at the Temple. The speaker divides his time between sociological research and a private practice of marriage counseling. He has received his AB, MA, and Ph.D. degrees in behavior sciences from New York University. He has been a frequent speaker at appointments at Yale and Columbia Universities and had his book "The Flower Girl" published by the National Science Foundation.

I Have Football Fatigue

For the past three Sundays, I've joined the male members of my family in front of the television set. We have watched approximately 17 hours of football (and scores of shaving cream and beer commercials.) The season is just beginning and already, I've had it. In my attempt to be one of the boys, I have, in addition to watching all this football, made judge, popville, corn and served them supper on TV trays. I've also tried to broaden my understanding of the game by asking questions like "Which one is Joe Namath?" and "What's the difference between a fullback, a halfback, quarterback and a flankerback?" In return for my efforts, I have received nothing. My questions are brushed and put off till commercial time (and then they switch channels to get a peek at another game.) The conversation is nil, except for an occasional cry of "Get him! Get him! Get him!" or "Watch that replay! What a point." These exclamations are usually accompanied by friendly pokes or thumps or half Nelson holds. It's a completely male environment, and I have the distinct feeling, that except when they are hungry, they don't need me!

Reaches Century Mark

One afternoon, I put on a smashing new green pantsuit, as my mother-in-law and I celebrated her 100th birthday Saturday afternoon with a party at St. Mary's Episcopal Church. About 50 friends and relatives braved Saturday's rain to attend the celebration. Mrs. McCaughey, who married Nov. 27, 1898 in Manchester, for the past three years, she has made her home at Laurel Manor Convalescent home. She has a son, Raymond McCaughey of Schenectady, N.Y. She also had a daughter, the late Mrs. Evelyn DeLert. She has five grandsons, Edward DeLert, David DeLert and Frank DeLert, all of Glastonbury, the Rev. James DeLert of Southern Pines, N.C. and Robert McCaughey of Monroe, N.Y., and 11 great grandchildren. Yesterday, Mrs. McCaughey, Northern Ireland, came to now a patient at Manchester Memorial Hospital. (Herald photo by Buccivintus)

Ancient Skeleton Found

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP)—An amateur archeologist has discovered what may be the oldest complete skeleton ever found in the Western Hemisphere. Morin Childers said his obsession with antiquity recently led him to a shallow grave in the Yuba Desert of Southern California 30 miles south of El Centro where he dug up the skeletal remains of the "Yuba Man." A preliminary Carbon 14 dating by a laboratory in Cambridge, Mass., indicated the bones are about 21,500 years old. Researchers at the University of Southern California, University of Arizona and laboratories in Japan are studying material found embedded in the skeleton for more positive dating. The oldest skeleton previously found in the Western Hemisphere was dated at 17,500 years. It was discovered in Peru. A single human bone found in the La Brea tar pits of Los Angeles has been tentatively dated at 23,000 years.

Sadat Moves To End Sequestration

CAIRO (AP)—Herasa, the Arabic word for sequestration, meant the end of extreme wealth, privilege and economic power for many Egyptians following Gamal Abdel Nasser's Socialist Revolution of 20 years ago. His successor has been taking steps to "liquidate sequestration." In a series of three decrees last week President Anwar Sadat abolished the sequestration machinery, transferring the administration of de-sequestration to the treasury. He cleared the way for return of properties seized after 1964, except in 123 cases to be reviewed by the courts, and ordered compensation to be paid those whose properties were taken prior to 1964. Those who lost properties where the property of soldiers and officers at the front was seized. Future sequestration will be done under the law, through the courts, and unwaranteed sequestration since 1964 may be done by the same process, under the new decrees. The committee found cases before 1964 are to receive government bonds, up to a maximum value of 30,000 Egyptian pounds or $60,000. Treasury Minister Abdel Aziz Hegazi says some six million pounds have been paid to the beneficiaries since 1970. Sadat has made it clear that "liquidating sequestration" does not mean a wholesale return of property or power to the former wealthy, however. Facts are scarce on the number of persons involved, value of property seized, or details of compensation. Both the treasury and the office of the sequestrator general decline to answer questions. Prior to 1964 factories, skyscrapers, villas and vast lands holdings were seized by the government. Peasants acquired much of the land, in small

Two Sites Chosen For Tree Plantings

Then and ...Now

Two locations, old N. Main St. and the Nathan Hale School, have been selected for memorial tree plantings by the City Beautiful Committee of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce. The Memorial Tree Program, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary O'Brien, has received a great deal of interest from the public with a large number of individuals contributing to this program in memory of their relatives or friends. If the committee finds that sufficient money remains after planting these two sites, additional locations will be selected. The City Beautiful Committee, chaired by Dr. Douglas H. Smith, recently held its first meeting of the fall season and reviewed its accomplishments over the past few months as well as its plans for the future. The committee is represented on the Hockanum River Coordinating Committee, which has contributed to the clean up of Union Pond, changing it from an eyesore to an attractive, much needed recreational area. The Salter's Pond subcommittee, headed by Raymond Ames, worked with the town, the Buckley PTA, and Boy Scout Troop 362 to clean up the pond. The status of improvements was reviewed with the town parks department and additional cleanup and hiking trail cutting projects will be scheduled this fall. Ultimately foot bridges will be constructed to allow a continuous hiking trail around the pond. These projects will be implemented by Boy Scout Troop 362. Another project of the CBC is

South Windsor Two Unusual Items On Board's Agenda

Two unusual items will be discussed at the Board of Education meeting tonight at the high school library at 7:30. One is to correct a recorded vote in the Oct. 19, 1971 board minutes which were approved Nov. 28; and the other report is from School Superintendent Charles Warner concerning applications for reimbursement fund applications for projects from the state.

The request for alteration of minutes was brought before the board by Mrs. Margaret Rossi who also pointed out other areas of discrepancies in other board meeting minutes at the Sept. 28 meeting.

Mrs. Rossi was appointed to the board in February 1972 after the resignation of Henry Heath.

According to Mrs. Rossi, the minutes say that, on Oct. 19, board member Mrs. Ole Decker proposed the "use of modular classrooms as an interim solution while a long-range solution is determined for the South Windsor school system by future study."

The minutes record Mrs. Decker and the current board chairman James Arnold "not supporting the motion, with other members, Vernon Petersen, Danol Mercure, Health, Fred DeLacour, and Roger Myrick as supporters and Robert Everole abating."

She says that Arnold and other members who are still on the board and who also voted at the Oct. 19 meeting agree that the recorded vote is "reversed" but had not taken any action to have it corrected.

Other discrepancies mentioned by Mrs. Rossi at the last board meeting were that on Nov. 23 (after a municipal election which placed David Cohen, Donald Bergquist and Robert De Rosa on the board after Everett Myrick and former board chairman Harry Anderson decided not to seek re-election.) Mrs. Decker proposed a similar motion and an amendment to her own motion, a procedure which is in direct conflict with Roberts Rules of Order. The minutes read Mrs. Decker proposing "that this board proceed along the lines of a limited building program, the type of which will be determined by this board as soon as possible." This motion was passed with a 5-2 vote and one abstention.

Also in the minutes is the amendment which is recorded "to use modulators in the meantime at the present high school during construction," it passed with a 5-3 vote.

Mrs. Rossi further stated that on April 25, Mrs. Decker again moved for approval of a motion "effective May 15, that this Board of Education shall contract for purchase with Universal Structures to install six portable units at the high school, for occupancy in September 1972." Mrs. Rossi

Rham District PTSO Sponsors Night Classes

The Rham High School PTSO has announced it will again this year sponsor the adult education program at the school for residents over the age of 18 in the three district towns of Hebron, Andover and Marlborough.

Registration for the courses will be held Nov. 1 and 2 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the school cafeteria. The cost will be $15 per course, with half to be paid at the time of registration and the remainder the evening of the first class.

Among the non-credit courses being considered are furniture refinishing, crewel embroidery, sculpture, auto mechanics for women, photography, woodworking, bookkeeping, typing, physical, creative writing, reading, knitting, creative sewing systems in conformity with local state laws.

Also, beginning crocheting, gourmet cooking, beginning pottery, oil painting, macrame, candle making, decoupage, painting with acrylics, shorthand and stocks and bonds.

PTSO noted, however, that classes will be organized only if there is sufficient registration.

Edward Hinchliff, a hunter safety instructor for the National Rifle Association, will start his scheduled course in safe hunting practices and the safe handling of firearms on Friday evening at 8 at his home on Rt. 88. Completion of the course will be on Saturday from 7:30 a.m. to noon.

Applicants interested in participating should contact Hinchliff by Wednesday at the latest and pick-up a handbook.

Paper Drive
Heads that of the Volunteer Fire Department will hold a paper drive, weather permitting, on Saturday from 8 to 11 a.m. in the north end of town.

Special pickups may be arranged for the afternoon with Bergeron, James Lee or Harvey Desruessaux. Papers may also be left at the fire house during the hours of the drive.

Conventry Judge Klau Referee In Pollution Case

Retired Judge Joseph Klau has been named referee to resolve the issue of town pollution abatement orders against Lakeview, The homeowners.

Tolland County Superior Court Judge Anthony Armentano said last month that he would appoint a referee in an attempt to settle the issue, which involves a $10 million homeowners' law suit against various Coventry officials.

Individual homeowners were served with abatement orders last spring, when eye testing apparently showed a number of septic tank violations.

Because of poor soil conditions, small lots and high state health standards, many people found installing in-ground septic systems in conformity with local state laws.

Many of the homeowners brought suit against the town in an attempt to prevent enforcement of the abatement orders.

No date has as yet been set for the parties to meet with the referee.

Open Campaign
Jesse Brainard of Coventry, GOP candidate for the new 3rd Assembly District (Coventry, Tolland and Willington), officially launched his campaign over the weekend with a work party held at his headquarters in Coventry.

Brainard, who is now serving his second term on the Town Council in Coventry, noted that his campaign will focus on eight main issues that have emerged as matters of concern and importance to the people of the district.

"While I cannot overlook the broader responsibilities of my job," Brainard said, "I firmly believe that a legislator's primary duty is to represent all of the people in the district that elected him. To do this effectively, he must be available to those people, receptive, willing to listen and willing to act on their behalf."

Brainard cited eight main areas of concern in his campaign. They include escalating property taxes, local government autonomy, orderly growth in semi-rural communities, fiscal responsibility, the Williamian River, water supply and waste disposal, UConn impact, and state aid to the town.

"While this list will unquestionably grow," Brainard observed, "it contains most of the major matters that I plan to discuss, and each of them, obviously, is a subject in itself."

Brainard also announced the appointment of Leonard Best Squadron, former Coventry GOP town chairman, as his campaign head, James Ladd, also of Coventry.

The Ladies Guild of St. Francis of Assisi Church will sponsor a military whist card party, Wednesday, at 8 p.m. in the church hall on Edgemoor Rd. All ladies of the parish and their friends are invited.

I know I need more life insurance but I can't afford it. Sure you can. Ask a savings bank!

Right! In Connecticut, most savings banks offer a sensible, low-cost way to buy insurance.

Why low-cost? Savings Bank Life Insurance (SBLI) is yours to buy direct... at the bank. The bank employs no outside sales force. That's why the cost is low on all SBLI policies.

Look! Our 38-year-old friend knows what he's talking about. His $5,000 SBLI straight life policy costs only $9.00 a month—even less with yearly dividends paid as earned! After only six months, he started building guaranteed cash values!

A variety of life insurance plans... all at low cost... and all of high quality... is available from a mutual savings bank. You need not be a depositor. Just ask your local savings bank about low-cost Savings Bank Life Insurance. There's no obligation. No one will visit you.

Available in Manchester at THE SAVINGS BANK OF MANCHESTER and at most savings banks throughout Connecticut.

Animal of the Week: The Bat

There are about 400 kinds of bats that live in this country. They come out at night and look for food. They like to eat many things: fruits, frogs, mice, pollen and small animals. Bats in this country also like to eat insects that are at night, especially mosquitoes. The insects hit the insects and bounce back. Then the bat knows where the insect is. They cannot see well, but their hearing is excellent. Bats are mammals. That means that the mother bat feeds her babies milk that is made in her body. The bat is the only mammal that can fly.

Pirates Banking on Sore-Armed Pitcher, Dock Ellis, to Wrap Up Playoff Series

Dick Williams Ponders Question ... Before His A's Faced Tigers

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates are going to steal a lead from the book of the Cincinnati Reds and try to win the National League pennant with the help of a sore-armed pitcher—Doc Ellis.

The Pirates hope they have better luck than the Reds. Cincinnati pinned its hopes Monday on the ailing right arm of Gary Nolan, but the pressure of going all-out against the power-packed Pittsburgh lineup took its toll.

Nolan could manage only six innings. His arm stiffened and he left with a one-run lead that the Pirates overcame to take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five pennant playoff.

"I went as hard as I could for as long as I could," said the dejected Nolan, who had pitched 15 innings since the All-Star Game in July. "I just ran out of gas. I couldn't afford to continue."

Ellis' story is almost a carbon copy. The 27-year-old right-hander has a chronic pitching elbow condition. He went six innings Sept. 30 but it was his first start since then. He had a better-than-average arm, but wasn't that accurate.

Rennie Stennett and catcher Manny Sanguillen and relief pitcher Bruce Kison. Ever-reliable Dave Giusti came on to check the Reds' big bats after Pittsburgh wiped out a 2-0 Cincinnati lead.

Stennett made the first big play. Cincinnati's Johnny Bench tripled leading off the fourth. The Reds already led 2-0 and it looked as if they were out to get another run.

Pirates' starter Nelson Briles got Tony Perez on a nice, running back-to-the-plate catch in short left by shortstop Gene Alley. He then walked Denis Menke. The Reds now had runners at the corners with one out. Cesar Geronimo hit a fly ball to Stennett in left, and the outfielder gunned down Bench trying to score after the catch. It was a perfect one-bounce, on-the-money throw to Sanguillen.

"That beat us," said Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson, who still insisted the playoff would go five games. "I thought that was the turning point of the game, murrin' Anderson. Our report was that Stennett had a better-than-average arm, but wasn't that accurate."

Stennett's throw seemed to fire the Pirates. A half-inning later, Sanguillen socked a pitch over the left-centerfield fence for a home run to make it 2-1.

"When I left the dugout, someone warned me to look for curve balls," recalled Sanguillen. "I said, 'No, I'll look for fastballs.'"

Pittsburgh tied it in the seventh off relievers Pedro Borbon and Clay Carroll when Richie Hebner was hit by a pitch. Sanguillen singled and Gene Alley sacrificed to place runners at second and third. Pinch-hitter Vic Davallio was intentionally walked. Stennett then rapped a run-scoring single.

In the eighth, Willie Stargell walked and Al Oliver doubled. Hebner was purposely passed to load the bases. Sanguillen hit a sharp rounder toward the hole between short and third that Cincinnati's Darrell Chaney reached and tried for a second-to-first doubleplay. Sanguillen, however, beat the relay and the winning run scored.

Pirate Pitcher Has Had Week's Rest

Ellis Will Know Early Just How Well He'll Go

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dock Ellis knows what kind of day it's going to be after his first few pitches.

"You can tell about me on the first batter," said the outspoken Pittsburgh right-hander before he tries to lock up a second straight National League pennant for the Pirates today.

"If the ball is down and I'm throwing hard, I'm gonna get 'em," said Ellis after the Pirates beat the Cincinnati Reds 3-2 Monday for a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five series.

Ellis, 27, during the season, said his arm felt fine after a layoff of more than a week. His respect for the Reds, however, hasn't diminished any.

"We still have to go out there like it's 0-0. Cincinnati's one of the best hitting teams in baseball," Ellis said.

Ever-beaming Pirate catcher Manny Sanguillen damaged the Reds' defense as the playoffs switched to Riverfront Stadium.

Sanguillen belted a fifth-inning home run, helped get home another run with a single and drove in the winning run in the eighth with an infield bounce. He also learned with left fielder Rennie Stennett the defensive gem of the series.

Pre-Game Nail-Biter ... Pirate Starting Pitcher Nelson Briles

Sanguillen, benched Sunday, flashed his big smile as he circled the bases in the fifth.

"That's the way I am," he explained. "Sometimes I swing at a wide pitch and I laugh at myself. I can't do anything when I get mad. It helps me control my temper."

Sanguillen said he had just one intention when he grounded to the Red shortstop in the eighth.

"I just ran hard and tried to break up the double play," he said. He succeeded, allowing pinch-runner Gene Clines to score the winning run.

Sanguillen said he guessed right on Cincinnati starter Gary Nolan's pitch for his homer.

"The first time he threw me fastballs. The next time I look for fastballs and he throws a high, fast one over the plate."

Campaneris Suspended Regular Shortstops Out of A.L. Playoffs

DETROIT (AP) — An eye for an eye and a shortstop for a shortstop.

American League President Joe Cronin announced Monday that Oakland shortstop Campy Campaneris has been suspended for the remainder of the A.L. playoffs.

But almost before Detroit Tiger manager Billy Martin had a chance to smile at the decision, his shortstop Ed Brinkman was ruled out for the season due to a back injury.

Brinkman, who set major league records for least errors (7) and highest fielding percentage (.990) for shortstops this season, was X-rayed Monday and found to have a ruptured disc in his lower back.

Team physician Dr. Clarence Livingston reported Brinkman will enter the hospital Thursday, be operated on Friday, and be hospitalized for a week to 10 days.

Meanwhile, Tiger general manager Jim Campbell said he will ask Cronin for permission to put rookie second baseman John Taylor on the roster as Brinkman's replacement. Martin said earlier he wanted Frank Howard to fill the spot but that such a request was denied by Cronin.

Howard, slugging first baseman outfielder, was purchased from the Texas Rangers in September and thus not eligible for post-season play.

"Brinkman can't be replaced," Martin moaned.

Trainer Bill Behm said Brinkman first hurt his back on the last road trip to Milwaukee and said as late as a week ago, "I think the trouble has passed."

Brinkman played Saturday's playoff opener but was replaced by second baseman Dick McAuliffe Sunday, with Tony Taylor taking over at second.

Heritage Open To Judy Rankin To Defeat Athletics

SOUTHBRURY, Conn. (AP) — A trip to milder climates and a week's vacation away from golfing hardwore, the fairways and putting greens is in store for Judy Rankin, the world's top female golfer, as she enters the second annual Heritage Village Open Monday.

"Our home is a nice place and we're not there that much," said the petite 27-year-old golfer from Midland, Tex., who said she wouldn't touch a golf club until Friday.

Mrs. Rankin, who won the top money of $3,750 for her seven under par 212 performance at the 1971 tournament, will be competing in the LPGA's third top money winner this year and victor in the second annual Heritage Village Open Monday.

"I can go out and pitch my own ball game," said Coleman, "unlike if Campaneris was out there on the bases, Campy and (Joe) Rudi are the two keys to their team."

Coleman, like Holtzman, a 19-game winner, said he felt relaxed and confident.

"I felt more pressure in the Boston series than now," he said. "I think I've got my stuff together."

The Tigers, who won the Eastern Division crown in an end-of-season showdown with Boston, have come back before. This is a veteran team and many of the players were with the 1968 Detroit club that erased a 3-1 deficit to take three straight games and the World Series from St. Louis.

Attendance Off for 14 Of 24 Clubs

NEW YORK (AP) — The Giants lost more than their hearts in San Francisco during the 1972 season as 14 of the 24 major league baseball teams suffered dropoffs in average attendance.

San Francisco drew crowds at a 9,392 clip to skid almost 40 per cent from the National League's team's 1971 average of 15,362 fans everytime they opened the gates at Candlestick Park.

Although the majors' total attendance figures are misleading due to the player strike last spring, the average turnout in both leagues was down slightly from 16,373 to 15,981.

The American League, although still a distant second to the National in crowd appeal, managed to show a slight increase. The AL averaged 13,818 for 841 openings this summer, compared to 13,487 for 880 chances in 1971.

National League teams drew people at an 18,100 clip, well down from the 19,186 average a year ago.

The New York Mets repeated as major league crowd kings with an average at Shea Stadium of 29,641 for 72 openings. They, however, were off from a 30,631 mark in 1971.

Detroit's vastly-improved Tigers lured 25,753 on an average day at Tiger Stadium. The American League-leading figure was up almost 25 per cent from Detroit's No. 1 mark of 20,663 last year.

Half of the 12 American League teams including Cleveland, Detroit, New York, Chicago, Oakland and Texas boasted increases. The Texas franchise averaged 8,982, barely outdo the $,509 mark when the team was in Washington the previous season.

The White Sox, eighth in AL attendance last year, jumped to third behind Detroit and Boston. Chicago averaged 17,591, up from 12,085.

In the National, the only games were Pittsburgh and Cincinnati—the playoff teams—along with Houston and San Diego.

American League teams missed 39 playing chances due to the player strike and the National missed 44. Thus, the major league total of 27,168,266 could not be reasonably compared to the 29,193,417 drawn in 1971.

Had the 24 clubs played a full schedule—averaging the same crowds—the total would have been boosted by some 1.3 million. That would have still left Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's family with a setback of almost 700,000.

Report Russians Will Face Bruins Said Premature

BOSTON (AP) — A report that the Boston Bruins will play a Soviet team Jan. 16 at Boston Garden has been called "a rumor that is terribly premature" by NHL Vice President Don V. Ruck denied in New York Tuesday the Boston report that the Russians' game with the Bruins, and probably two others against NHL teams, had been worked out during the Team Canada-Russia series in Moscow last month.

"No details have been worked out, so the report is totally unfounded," Ruck said.

He said, however, there had been discussions about exhibitions between Russia and NHL teams and the Soviets had requested three or four games in North America in the latter part of January.

Coleman Tigers' Hope To Defeat Athletics

DETROIT (AP) — Right-hander Joe Coleman had the job of keeping Detroit's hopes alive as Oakland aimed for a sweep today in the American League playoffs.

The A's, who took the first two games in the best-of-five series, countered with left-hander Ken Holtzman. An Oakland victory would advance the A's into the World Series against the National League champion.

The Tigers, facing elimination, remained confident of a comeback.

"If we win tomorrow," said Manager Billy Martin at Monday's workout, "we'll win three in a row. We've always risen up to the situation before and we can do it again."

Martin and the Tigers got one piece of good news before their workout. They learned that Oakland shortstop Bert Campaneris had been suspended from the remainder of the playoffs and fined $50 for hurling his bat at Tiger pitcher Lerrin LaGroy in Sunday's game.

"Good," exclaimed Martin. "That's what he had coming."

Martin had had a Tiger charge out of the dugout after the A's speedy shortstop was hit by a pitch and three umpires to keep the Tiger skipper away from Campaneris.

Guess what?

The Halloween story began many thousands of years ago, even before Christ was born. Pests in ancient France and England used to believe that ghosts would come back to earth on Halloween night and harm people. The priests built fires to scare them away. As time went by, and the Christians arrived in England, they began to honor their saints on November 1, the day after Halloween. In fact, the word Halloween means "holy evening."

Some people still believed in witches. They also believed in ghosts and evil spirits. They also believed that cats had been people who had been changed into cats because of some evil trick they had done. It was many years before people stopped believing in these evil spirits.

Guess how jack-o-lanterns started!

It is an old Irish story that a man named Jack was so selfish he could not get into heaven. The devil would not let him in hell because he played tricks on him. So poor Jack had to wander around earth looking for a home. Since the ancient Irish didn't have pumpkins, they made their jack-o-lanterns out of huge turnips or potatoes.

Six touchdowns in two consecutive games!
That's the record-shattering performance turned in by Dave Fleishman in Manchester High's last two football games.

It took the compact 5-9, 176-pound senior a game to get started but after getting his bearings in the opening 27-6 success over Maloney, Fleishman set the pace with a three-TD showing against Platt in a 23-4 decision and showed his ability to lug the pigskin with no flukes when he crossed the Wetherfield goal line three times yesterday afternoon as the Tribe scalped the Eagles, 35-6.

The biggest test of the young season for Coach Dave Wiggin's young club will be against Conard High Saturday afternoon at Memorial Field. Both schools will enter play with spotters 3-0 records.

Fleishman came within one foot of his own — from going into pay dirt a fourth time yesterday to the delight of a majority of a crowd of 1,127. Early in the fourth stanza he broke loose and crossed the final line only to have an on-the-spot official detect his foot hitting the sideline at the 15.

Fleishman isn't a one-man show by any means. The Tribe has excellent balance with Steve Samiotis a fine outside runner and Ron Roy and Allen McCulloch are at their best up the middle and off-tackle. Fleishman appears at home anywhere inside or outside and once he's past the line of scrimmage, he's one elusive runner to catch.

Wetherfield is no Jimmy Roach, but to be mentioned in the same breath as the all-time football great at MHS is a compliment.

Short Punts 'n Passes

Dave Wiggin, who chalked up his cherished 100th coaching victory yesterday against Wetherfield, has a club capable of scoring points. The undefeated Tribe has tallied 94 points in three decisions for a better than 33-point per outing total.

By Dean Yost
"Thanks a lot fellows," shouted a jubilant Manchester High's head football coach, Dave Wiggin, after his charges trounced Wetherfield High 35-6, and gave the 18-year mentor his 100th career victory yesterday afternoon at Memorial Field before 1,127 fans who braved the cold and wind.

The Indians dominated every phase of the game and topped their CCIL record to 3-0 while the Eagles dropped to 2-2 overall.
This sets the stage for Saturday's home clash with also unbeaten Conard High at Memorial Field. Both clubs sport 3-0 records.

In the opening 12 minutes of action, neither team could establish any type of ground game or aerial attack. Three seconds into the second quarter, fullback Al McCulloch took a Rick Milka-handoff and rambled up the middle for a TD. Placekicker Dave Fleishman split the uprights and the Indians took a 7-0 lead.

The margin was short lived, as Wetherfield got on the scoreboard at 7:48. A 64-yard razzle-dazzle pass play from quarterback Matt Gorman to end John Spatafora accounted for the score. A two-point conversion attempt failed when a pass thrown from Gorman to John Campannello was short.

Manchester threatened to score again before halftime, but breaks were against them as Milka hit Lyle Eastman in the end zone, at the buzzer, but the ball bounced off Eastman's chest.

As action moved into the second half, the momentum of the contest turned suddenly in Manchester's favor.
Halfback Fleishman, coming off a four-touchdown performance against Platt, brought the hometown crowd to its feet as the senior gridded took a handoff from Milka on his own 19-yard line, broke up the middle, raced past the defense and down the left sideline for a dazzling 81-yard run.

The extra point attempt failed but MHS held a 13-6 lead.
Safety, Jack Maloney, only a sophomore, picked off Gorman pass on the 36-yard stripe of Manchester. Two plays later, Fleishman rammed into the zone from 11 yards out and the Tribe opened up a 21-6 margin with 2:12 left. Milka connected with Steve Samiotis on the conversion attempt.

Indians final TD as they covered 55 yards in six plays. Samiotis scoring. The two-point attempt was successful as Milka handed off to Fleishman and Manchester's lead soared to, 35-6 with six minutes remaining.

Neither team could move the ball successfully as both gave the reserves some varsity playing time.
In the locker room, after congratulating his coach, and accepting sincere handshakes from his assistant coaches and friends, Wiggin looked down, at a cake made by only 48 cheerleaders and commented, "They were pretty sure of themselves, weren't they. Before the game I had a bad case of the jitters."

Fleishman dominated the Manchester statistics with a rushing total of 281 yards in 17 carries. All but 72 yards of this total was acquired in the second half. As a team, the Red and White compiled 371 yards on the ground and 48 in the air for 419 yards in 75 offensive plays.

Wetherfield's workhorse, Bob Burton, was held to only 54 yards in 19 carries. They grinded out 117 yards while compiling 86 via the airways for a combined total of 203 yards in 64 offensive plays.

NBA Opens Play Tonight Minus Some Top Talent

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Basketball Association opens its 27th season tonight with a game between the New York Knicks and the Atlanta Braves. The Lakers open defense of their NBA championship in Omaha this evening.

Chamberlain, the 7-foot-2 veteran who led the Lakers to the NBA championship last season, resolved his contractual difficulties with Los Angeles Monday and may be ready for the Lakers' season opener Wednesday night.

Eight NBA teams begin their 82-game schedules tonight. The New York Knicks, headed by Los Angeles in the 1971-72 championship finals, host Seattle, while Philadelphia is in Chicago.

Atlanta plays at Buffalo and Baltimore opens at Cleveland. The Lakers open defense of their NBA championship in Omaha this evening.

Chamberlain, who still had a year to go on his $250,000-a-year two-year contract, had sought to be paid retroactively. However, after settlement apparently has been reached but details as to the amount or length of the contract were not disclosed.

Read, the 6-10 center who led the Knicks to the NBA championship in 1969-70 but has been bothered by tendonitis in his knees the past two years, is among a thigh bruise in pre-season training and was placed on the disabled list Monday. He'll miss at least the Knicks' first five games, being eligible to return Oct. 21.

Rule and Clark are having contract problems. Clark is reportedly asking upwards of $500,000 a year from the Baltimore Bullets, while Rule wants a hefty pay hike from the Philadelphia 76ers.

Wilkins, traded from Seattle to Cleveland in the off-season, has thus far refused to report, saying he wanted to remain on the West Coast.

Barry, the only player to win the scoring championship in both the NBA and the ABA, is back in the NBA with the Golden State Warriors. Last season he led the New York Nets to the ABA championship finals against Indiana, but a summer court order forbade him from playing with any team but the Warriors, his original NBA club.

Cunningham, an all-star with Philadelphia last year, was returned by court order to the Carolina Cougars of the ABA, with whom he signed a contract a year ago, before signing another contract with Philadelphia.

Erving, an all-star as a rookie with the ABA last year, signed a contract with the Philadelphia 76ers in the off-season. But Milwaukee selected Erving in the NBA draft, and Commissioner Walter Kennedy ruled Erving belonged to the Bucks.

Finally, a court judge ruled that if Erving plays for any other team it will have to be Virginia.

Eagles Trim St. Bernard With Touchdown Parade

By Marc Riek
It seemed like New Year's Eve in the East Catholic locker room after the locals came on like gang busters and trumped over a heavily favored St. Bernard's of Uncasville 25-9 before few East rotters at the latter's professional facilities in a HCC conflict Monday afternoon.

The ghosts of Christopher Columbus must have smiled on the formerly snake-bitten locals as they cashed in on two interceptions, 80 yards in penalties and a blocked punt to run up the largest point total in some time for the defense oriented Eagles. The brother combination of Bill and Jim (Rocky) Lodge accounted for one interception and the punt block.

Sports In Brief

BASEBALL
DETROIT—American League President Joe Cronin suspended shortstop Bert Campaneris of the Oakland Athletics for the remainder of the AL playoffs and fined him $500 for throwing a bat during Sunday's game against Detroit.
KANSAS CITY—The Kansas City Royals added waivers on Steve Garvey of the Los Angeles Dodgers for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release.
BASKETBALL
BOSTON—The Boston Celtics reduced their National Basketball Association roster to 12 players by cutting veteran Rex Morgan and Clarence Glover.
KANSAS CITY—The Kansas City-Omaha Kings of the NBA acquired forward Toby Kimball from the Milwaukee Bucks in exchange for cash and a future draft choice, while also placing Sam Siebert and forward Walt Gilmore on waivers.
NEW YORK—The New York Knicks traded forward Eddie Mota to the Atlanta Hawks for a second round choice in the 1973 NBA draft, placed captain Willie Reed on the five-game disabled list and sent Charlie Faulk to the Seattle SuperSonics for a future draft choice.

McGovern Peace Plan Crucial To Campaign

By R. GREGORY NOKES Associated Press Writer McGovern is only repeating his promise of ending the Vietnam war, but he is making it more specific, a peace plan.

Initial reaction was predictably partisan, with McGovern supporters praising it, and those in the camp of President Nixon condemning it.

Information on the CAP may be obtained by calling Glyn Robinson, 90 Florence St., or by visiting the Manchester Armory, 660 Main St., Thursday evening.

Referenda Voting Hinges On Revenue-Sharing Fund

PARIS (AP) — The French diplomatic mission's building in Hanoi was partially destroyed during an American bombing raid today.

The Manchester Board of Directors is giving serious consideration to a referendum on revenue sharing.

Two other referenda questions were removed from the ballot because they were too similar to each other.

Referenda voting will be held on Oct. 14. The board will also discuss the revenue sharing fund.

Anti-War Plea Presented Board

Acknowledging that its decision was politically motivated, the Manchester Board of Directors Tuesday night stepped away from a plea to support an immediate end to hostilities in Southeast Asia.

The request came from Jay April, co-chairman of the Manchester Committee for Peace and Justice.

The 22-year-old April was backed-up in his plea by five other young people, all members of the Peace and Justice Committee.

Director Vivian Ferguson said, "I admire you young people for standing up for what you believe, but your timing on this request is very bad."
