

Cooling-Off Period Escape Hatch For Hasty Buyers

WASHINGTON (AP)—For a growing number of buyers with low resistance to tenacious door-to-door salesmen, there's a new way to get out of those bargains that turn out to be blunders.

The escape hatch is a cooling-off period—usually from two to five days—during which buyers with second thoughts can cancel sales contracts or purchases made in haste or exasperation.

It could have helped, for example, the 17-year-old girl in New York State who signed an installment contract for a set of glasses. Total price: $1,000.

Another who could have used a cooling-off period was the woman who signed a $200 contract for a new roof. She checked with local contractors later and found they would have done the job for $250.

Both instances turned up during Federal Trade Commission hearings.

Pennsylvania's Bureau of Consumer Protection discovered cases of illiterate persons who had been pressured into buying encyclopedias and others who bought carpet sweeper though they had no sweeper.

Now millions of consumers may revoke contracts they've signed for no other reason than, "I've changed my mind."

Cooling-off periods for door-to-door sales were in effect at last count in 33 states, seven cities and the District of Columbia. By comparison, 14 states had such grace periods two years ago.

Now the FTC has offered a cooling-off period proposal as a model for state standards. The FTC plans to invoke its proposal nationwide with the force of law if it can dispose of pending court challenges to its power to issue trade regulation rules.

The FTC proposal gives buyers three business days to change their minds on purchases with a total price of $25 or more.

The same three-day cooling-off period, applied to door-to-door installment sales involving more than four payments, is in another model law, the Uniform Commercial Credit Code proposed by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in 1960.

The proposed law has been enacted so far by Colorado, Idaho, Indiana, Oklahoma, Utah and Wyoming.

Various cooling-off statutes exist in Alaska, Arizona, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland and Massachusetts.

Also Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, Washington and Wisconsin.

Cities with cooling-off laws are Joplin, Mo., and the Ohio cities of Akron, Columbus, Cleveland and Cincinnati.

Cooling-off laws vary from state to state, but the FTC model applies to every sale made outside the seller's place of business. The proposal excludes sales where the buyer has initiated a contact in order to get repairs on items such as television sets. But the exclusion cannot be used in some cases, such as repairs to a home or driveway.

The FTC rule also does not cover securities or insurance sales because the agency's investigation does not reflect that the sales of these intangibles have been accompanied by the objectionable practices which have characterized the sales in the home of consumer goods and services.

The FTC proposal requires that at the time of sale the seller must provide the buyer with a cancellation form which is lacking only the buyer's signature and date.

In cases where a seller has already provided goods to a buyer, who later rejects them, the seller has 10 days to say whether he plans to reclaim them. If the seller doesn't reclaim the goods within 20 days of the date of cancellation, the buyer may keep them.

National Weather Outlook

WASHINGTON (AP)—A wide swath across the nation's southern half is expected to have temperatures below seasonal normals for the next 30 days while a big section of the North is expected to have temperatures above normal.

The National Weather Service said its 30-day outlook for mid-November to mid-December calls for temperatures to average below normal in the Central and Southern Plains, the Middle Mississippi Valley and California.

Precipitation is expected to exceed normal in the eastern half of the nation and west of the Continental Divide except for near-normal amounts over the Southern Plateau Region, the service said.

and the northern Inter-Mountain Range.

Elsewhere near normal temperatures are expected, the service said.

The service said above normal temperatures are expected for the Great Lakes Region, the Northeast, Florida and the northern Inter-Mountain Range.

Kissinger Confering With President Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Presidential advisor Henry A. Kissinger will leave for Paris to resume secret negotiations with North Vietnam Nov. 20, the White House announced today.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler told newsmen: "We expect the talks to last for several days—perhaps longer."

The announcement came as Kissinger and President Nixon were holding conferences at Camp David, the presidential retreat near Thurmont, Md.

Ziegler said Kissinger, who is Nixon's assistant for national security affairs, will be accompanied by his deputy, Army Gen. Alexander M. Haig Jr., who returned recently from meetings in Saigon with South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu.

William H. Sullivan, deputy assistant secretary of state, also will be in the American party.

This will be Kissinger's 21st trip to the French capital for talks with Le Duc Tho, a member of the North Vietnamese Politburo, and Xuan Thuy, who is Hanoi's principal negotiator at formal peace sessions there.

Kissinger's most recent journey to Paris was on Oct. 17 for a meeting with Thuy. He held ground-breaking sessions with Le Duc Tho on Oct. 8-11.

In keeping with a promise to give ample advance notice of Kissinger's travel plans, Ziegler said the American negotiators will leave nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md., at 10 a.m. EST Sunday aboard a Boeing 707 jet from the presidential fleet.

They are due at Ory Airport in Paris at 10:30 a.m. Paris time.

Ziegler said the party will stay at the U.S. ambassador's residence but a world-wide disclosure of Kissinger's private talks with Le Duc Tho, who arrived in Paris today.

Three members of Kissinger's National Security Council staff also will make the

Southern U Clash Ends With Two Dead

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Louisiana Gov. Edwin Edwards says he will not negotiate with students at Southern University, where two young blacks died in a confrontation with police, until they renounce violence and return peacefully to classes.

Several hundred students occupied the administration building at the nation's largest predominantly black university and refused to leave at the request of officials' deputies and state police. Sheriff's said the clash was not racially motivated.

A smoke bomb was thrown from a crowd of students at the front of the building at an advancing line of officers. The officers answered with tear gas grenades and return peacefully to classes.

After the students had scattered and the smoke had cleared, two young men lay dead on the sidewalk in a pool of blood. It was not known whether the two were Southern parish.

Parish Coroner Hypolite Landry, who first said he could not tell whether the two were killed by buckshot or shrapnel, later said they were killed by a shotgun fire.

Officers said they never fired a gun shot, only tear gas, but witnesses said they heard shots popping through the smoke and confusion.

Chief Deputy Gene Rives of East Baton Rouge Parish said early today his men were using hand-thrown tear gas grenades and tear gas projectiles fired from special grenade launchers.

Rives said his men were armed with shotguns and carried live shotgun ammunition, but "no sheriff's deputy fired a weapon."

Rives said he had looked at television films of the campus and placed all of East Baton Rouge Parish (County) in a state of emergency. The campus was closed until after Thanksgiving.

Edwards, who had considerable black support in his election campaign last year, emphasized that the trouble was not racial.

"There aren't white people involved against black people," he told a news conference. "It's a situation which involves a black administration and a black university, and involves black students."

The violence followed three weeks of unrest at Southern's 9,100-student main campus in Baton Rouge and a smaller branch campus in New Orleans. One of the dead youths was identified as Derek Scott, 20, of New Roads, La. Landry said the other victim was not identified.

Columbia Leaf Burning To Be Allowed

VIRGINIA CARLSON

Town Fire Warden Richard K. Davis says the burning of leaves will be permissible when there is no other means of disposal.

The state barred all open burning in the towns in June and lifted the ban in September.

Davis received a letter from the local or county health officer and has attended training sessions at Shift Scout Reservation in New Jersey.

Laramie served as council training chairman and was assistant scoutmaster in 1963 for the National Jamboree Troop that went to California. He served as cubmaster here for three years. He is now a member of the Troop 102 and since May has been district chairman of Natchaug District, eastern Connecticut council.

Laramie is past president of the Columbia Lions, former Recreational Council chairman and has served as Columbia Chapter Red Cross chairman.

Laramie, a professional photographer who owns Dineen Studio in Williamstown, has won many photography awards. The most recent one is a photographic craftsman degree.

Davis said residents must obtain a permit before any burning of leaves takes place. Also, persons burning leaves must have the permit with him.

Fires will be permitted only during the hours of 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Davis added that permits will be revoked if, during the day the permit was issued, the pollution index changes to hazardous conditions.

The warden also reminded residents the local burning ordinance requires an approved incinerator which must have a screen on top with holes no larger than one square inch.

Prison Disorder Quelled

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An order taking radio and television sets from inmates at the huge Eastern State Correctional Institution near here is believed to have sparked its latest disturbance.

Prison officials said inmates assaulted three guards early Thursday morning, seized two maximum-security cell blocks and set fire to several mattresses. Guards used tear gas to quell the two-hour riot.

Warden Robert L. Johnson said the directive was issued two weeks ago because "we discovered that some inmates were making weapons with the personal items."

Johnson, meeting with newsmen after order at the prison was restored, said no hostages were taken and 35 inmates involved were charged against the rebellious inmates were being considered for punishment.

Col. Rocco P. Urella, the state police commissioner, dispatched 60 troopers to the 1,200-mattress facility at Graterford in western Montgomery County after two inmates overpowered a guard taking them to exercise.

Johnson said three guards required hospital treatment for their injuries, but returned to work Thursday. He added 14 or 15 prisoners were treated at the prison infirmary for smoke inhalation or the effects of tear gas.

Urella said a contingent of state policemen would be kept on hand to prevent a recurrence of trouble.

Now about another for the Piper

Actually, you don't need a "hand" for Hammond's Piper Autochord. A finger will do. That's right, even if you consider yourself a one finger musician, you can make beautiful music on the amazing Piper.

here's why:

- The Piper has just one keyboard.
- The left hand accompaniment plays automatically with a phantom bass feature.
- The Piper's seven automatic rhythms play individually or in combination.
- The Piper has a dazzling variety of solo and percussive sounds.
- The Piper has no pedals to fuss with.
- The Piper sounds great. It's the easiest keyboard instrument ever.

Stop by and try it. Before long your friends will be giving you a hand.

Helping Team Helps Him

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—With $30,000, the Poland Bulldogs midwest football team was well on its way in a fund drive to buy new uniforms.

Instead, it bought some goodwill.

The money came from a Sun Oil Co. and Ohio Natural Resources Department offer to pay three cents for each campaign poster turned in following last week's elections.

Youngsters on the team collected 1,003 posters. But the team, says coach Dick Weaver, decided to give the money to William Coleman, operator of the Coleman Sunoco Service Center here.

Coleman was robbed at gunpoint of $15 last week.

"People have been kind to them in their fund-raising drive," said the team's coach. "So they decided to do a good turn for someone else."

Manchester Sesquicentennial Planning Taking Final Form

By JOHN A. JOHNSTON

Manchester's June 23-30 sesquicentennial week will open with a parade, which is expected to take 2 1/2 hours to pass; include a crafts fair, trade or industrial show, and an historical exhibit; a youth day; and conclude with the grand ball in the State Armory. This was the introductory report given by Town Clerk Edward Tomkiel, co-chairman of the Town Sesquicentennial Committee, to about 50 representatives of local organizations during an orientation meeting last night at the Army and Navy Club. Thomas F. Ferguson, co-chairman, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Jack Hunter and Mrs. John Malone, co-chairmen of the grand ball sub-committee, said that the Glenn Miller Orchestra, headed by Buddy DeFranco, has been booked for the gala festival June 29 from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Plans are to have 60 tables and restrict attendance to 300 couples. Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Malone added that William Luettgens, a vice president of G. Fox and Co., has volunteered to enlist the services of the department store's head decorator for a preliminary study of the armory.

Mrs. Robert J. Carter reported that two issues of a commemorative coin are being struck. The bronze, he said, will sell for $2.44; the other will contain 90 per cent silver and be priced at about $10, will be numbered, and should be available by January for handling by local banks. A souvenir book of 100 featuring old recipes, Tomkiel added, is being prepared by Mrs. Vivian Ferguson.

On June 23 and 24, a fair will be held in two large tents in Center Park, with about 25 exhibiting craftsmen in each tent, Richard T. Carter reported. His co-chairman is Edward J. Colman. Tentative hours are 11:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., he said, and although there will be no admission charge, he expects the town's share of craft sales to cover the $200,000 budget for this phase of the 150th anniversary observance.

A trade show also will be held at Manchester High School on either June 28 or 29. Robert Charman, president of WINP, is chairman.

An historical exhibit will be open throughout the sesquicentennial week at Whiton Memorial Library, Christie McCormick, Manchester Historical Society president, said, and urged the loan of any articles that might be included. Wells Deminon is chairman of the display. Edson M. Bailey added that his committee has identified 18 historical sites, all of which will be designated by aluminum markers. 2 by 1 1/2 feet, and mounted on metal posts.

An co-chairman of historical publications, along with John Sutherland, John Harrison said that Pequot Press of Chester is printing William Buckley's updated history of Manchester, with a first printing of 5,000 copies planned for sometime in the spring. He added that 300 copies of the work, which will be after two inmates overpowered a guard taking them to exercise.

Johnson said three guards required hospital treatment for their injuries, but returned to work Thursday. He added 14 or 15 prisoners were treated at the prison infirmary for smoke inhalation or the effects of tear gas.

Urella said a contingent of state policemen would be kept on hand to prevent a recurrence of trouble.

Missing Girl Found Alive

NAUGATUCK, (AP)—Little four-year-old Amy Foster was found alive early today after being missing overnight in sub-freezing weather.

The child, not seen for nearly 24 hours, was located on Route 8. She was taken to a hospital.

Amy was found shortly after some 500 persons spread out again over a heavily wooded area near the Naugatuck Waterbury line.

Searchers looked through the night for Amy, who was last seen at 9:15 a.m. Thursday playing with her dog at her home on Neagle Street near Route 8.

The brown-haired child was wearing a red and blue flowered jacket with a hood, purple pants and black boots, police said.

Searchers used bloodhounds, flashlights and a helicopter in the hunt that began three hours after Amy was last seen and extended through the night.

"We've covered everything at least twice," police Capt. Edward Duval said Thursday night.

Early today, the search party began combing against the wooded area where the child was believed to be, said Fire Marshal Jack Sullivan, search coordinator.

Police said Amy's mother, Mrs. Joseph A. Foster, told them the child went outside to play with her dog about 9 a.m. About 15 minutes later, when the mother looked out the window, Amy and the dog were gone. The dog returned.

Report Sales Tax Income

HARTFORD (AP)—The state sales tax brought in a record amount of money during the first quarter of the current fiscal year—the first quarter in which the tax was collected at a rate of 7 per cent.

Tax Commissioner F. George Brown noted that the state budget anticipates $444 million in revenues from the sales tax during the 1972-73 fiscal year.

During July, August and September, the 7 per cent sales tax brought in $106 million, Brown said. That topped the sales tax take for the "Christmas quarter"—October, November and December—of last year by nearly $3 million. The sales tax was 6.5 per cent during that quarter.

Other state taxes collected during the past four months showed a net total increase of $24.4 million over the corresponding period last year.

The biggest gainer was the inheritance tax, which fluctuates widely and unpredictably, and which produced $9.4 million more than last year.

Gasoline taxes were up $7.8 million, largely due to the 2-cents-a-gallon increase which went into effect in August 1971, and cigarette taxes, which were increased by 1 cent a pack, jumped $1.9 million.

The corporation tax showed an increase of $4.6 million.

By JAY SHARBUTT

EW YORK (AP) — Ever wonder what happens to television's paid political ads after an election? We may be able to stop wondering soon. The New School for Social Research here wants to give them a home.

The home would be the school's newly-established Center for the Study of Television and Politics, which wants to put this year's array of filmed and videotaped campaign oratory in some kind of order.

He defined the right people as those "who have the leverage to produce the material, the political people, network executives and television producers who are being recognized as being responsible..."

"One of the problems we recognized from the outset was that the candidates would have a very natural fear that the material might appear at some time in the future on television," he said.

USE SAFETY PLAY TO MAKE CONTRACT

By Alfred Sheinwold

Put yourself in the South seat for today's hand, and try to make the contract of four spades. Imagine that you can see only your own hand and the dummy, just as in a normal game of bridge. Don't let your eyes wander to the East-West cards. How would you plan the play?

South dealer North-South vulnerable

NORTH ♠ 1532 ♣ AKQ ♢ 542 ♠ KQ3

WEST ♠ None ♣ A1097 ♢ J1098 ♠ 542 ♣ KQ3 ♢ 97642 ♠ A10

SOUTH ♠ KQ864 ♢ 763 ♣ AK6 ♠ 85

South West North East 1-4 Pass 3-4 Pass 4-4 Opening lead — ♣ J

The actual declarer went down without a struggle. He won the first trick in dummy with the queen of hearts and returned a low trump. East played the seven, and South unsuspectingly played the queen.

West discarded a club, and the bad news was out. East was now sure to win two trump tricks, and South also had to lose a club and a diamond.

Down one.

A safety play in trumps assures the contract. South can see that he is in trouble only if one opponent has all four of the missing trumps. If West has four trumps, nothing can be done; he is sure to win two tricks. If East has all four trumps, something can be done — provided that South discovers the bad news in time.

At the second trick, therefore, declarer must lead the jack of spades from the dummy — not a small spade. This play can cost nothing if the trump break normally. It is vital if East has all of the trumps.

East must take the first trump trick with his ace. West discards, revealing the bad break. Now South knows how to continue.

Declarer must get to dummy with a heart in order to lead another trump. East puts up the ten, and South with the queen. Declarer gets to dummy with another heart to lead a third trump. East can do nothing now, for South finesses the eight of spades to pick up the rest of the trumps without loss.

Partner deals and bids one spade, and the next player passes. You hold: Spades, A-10-9-7; Hearts, 5-4-2; Diamonds, Q-10-8; Clubs, A-J-10.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs. The hand is too strong for a raise to two spades, but not strong enough for a jump to three spades. You must "manufacture" a response in a new suit, planning to raise spades at your next turn. This type of sequence promises about 11 or 12 points.

Rarely Seen Wolf Shot By Hunter

MILLINOCKET, Maine (AP) — A 50-pound animal killed here by a hunter is believed to be a Canadian wolf — a species last sighted in Maine more than 75 years ago.

The tentative identification was made by Police Chief Richard Rideout, who said Wednesday that the animal was shot by a deer hunter Monday at Schoodic Burn, six miles northeast of this northern Maine town.

Rideout described the creature as a 2 to 4-year-old male, tawny in color and measuring five feet from the tip of its tail to its nose.

"It's an absolutely perfect specimen of an animal," he said. "It's too large to be a coyote and its facial description is definitely that of a wolf."

The carcass was being sent to the University of Maine at Orono for a definite identification, he said.

Rideout said the last sighting of a Canadian wolf in Maine was in 1895.

West Haven Man Wins Super Drawing

STORRS (AP) — William E. Donagan, 43 of West Haven, the father of seven, won $75,000 in the Connecticut state lottery Thursday.

Donagan, an official of a savings loan institution, and his wife Joyce say they will use the money for charitable contributions and to buy real estate for their children.

The $15,000 winners were Theodore F. Dellisio, 34 of Monroe and Mrs. Ralph A. Peters, 75, of Windsor.

The new weekly number was 24197.

Next week's drawing will be in Cheshire Friday instead of Thursday because of Thanksgiving.

South Windsor Council Facing Busy Schedule

The Town Council will face a busy schedule when it meets Monday at 8 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Town Hall.

Under new business, the council will act to return $300,000 from the School Building Fund to the Capital Reserve and Non-recurring Expenditures fund. Originally the amount had come from the reserve fund to assist in defraying costs of a proposed $1.9 million high school addition in a resolution passed Oct. 2. The project failed to pass in the Nov. 7 referendum.

The council is expected to authorize the Board of Education to apply to the State Board of Education aid for improvements of the athletic facilities, for expenses incurred during reading the "Red Shepard" football field earlier this year. It will also authorize application for aid for the portable classroom purchases and sewer installation to Orchard Hill and Timothy Edwards School. The state law, according to Town Manager Terry Spenkol requires the financial body of the town to accept or reject aid proposals to the state.

The council is also expected to approve the transfer of $1,000 from the Contingency fund to cover costs for heating repairs at the Fire Station 1. The station suffered a heater breakdown.

Also on the agenda is the setting of a time and place to appropriate funds for the construction of six tennis courts on the Wapping School property. A Dec. 4 date at 7:30 p.m. is being considered.

The council will also discuss and consider recommendations made regarding water retention areas for the Avery Brook Watershed flood control project and will notify the Soil Conservation of the findings. Council will also be asked to transfer $1,000 from the Contingency fund to the Public Works Contractual Services account to undertake a hydraulic study in the northern part of the Avery Brook area. Spenkol said the intention of the study would better provide a "ballpark" figure for the project cost, to the town.

South Windsor Sewer Route Changed

The Sewer Commission this week voted to sever Rye St. instead of using the Kennedy Rd. route to provide the Monsanto, Inc. with sanitary sewer service when the plant is completed. The cost will be approximately $100,000.

According to James Throwe, commission chairman, Kennedy Rd. was an access route to the recently approved plastic bottle manufacturing plant, but approximately $20,000 of unrecoverable revenue would be lost to taxpayers as lines would have to be placed under railroad tracks which would eliminate additional use of the lines.

The approval of the Rye St. proposal has several plus factors, Throwe said. By severing down Rye St. to the lowest gravity point in the middle of the Monsanto plant, the company will be required to pay the installation frontage charges and for the acreage involved. The cost will return to the town. The sewer incentive program. The public sewer on the street will open the land to industrial development and a new road surface will be done, — a Town Council priority in road repairs, he said. "One very bad dip" that would cost the town to fill and resurface. The work on Rye St. will be incorporated under the 1970 bond contract and the town will receive prices for construction based on the costs at that time. The commission is also shooting for a January date to complete the first project and provide sewer service to all the recently severed areas from Avery St. to Rt. 3.

The $3.2 million project experienced one major complication at the pumping station on Clark St., but ordered supplies have been received and Throwe said pilings are being driven in the excavation hole this week. One the station is installed, the project will be completed.

"One minor delay was with the Louis Toomey family on Benedict Dr. The Toomey's claimed a route through their property would inconvenience and endanger the family's children and upset the landscape. They asked the commission to look for a route, other than through their property. Throwe said the problem has been resolved and all easements to date have been secured by Town Attorney Thomas Dennis. Throwe said the construction areas on the Toomey property will be fenced off and a trench will be cut from 10 to 20 feet to lay the sewer line. The project will require the replacement of the construction company and a settlement by the commission for the right-of-way.

A scheduled request for service to the Elm St. Elderly housing development should have come before the commission, but did appear on the agenda. Throwe said lines are already in the area and all that is necessary is a permit, acquired at the town hall, to hook in one individual property work is completed.

HARTFORD (AP) — No legislator should be paid $2,750 for two months of inactivity, Secretary of State Gloria Schaffer said Thursday.

Mrs. Schaffer asked the Legislative Management Committee to back a change in state law so that legislators elected to interim terms won't be overpaid.

Because of the wording of the law, two Republican state representatives elected last week to fill vacancies will be paid $2,750 each.

They are W. William Farat of East Haven, who won a special election in the old 102nd District, and Theresa Strofolino of Westport, who was elected in the old 143rd District to take the place of her late husband, Rep. Louis Strofolino, until the new legislature takes office in January.

Censorship Grinding Down

The more than 300 editors and publishers from throughout the hemisphere who attended the annual meeting of the Inter-American Press Association in Santiago, Chile, hardly needed to be told, as they were by the owner of a Dominican Republic newspaper, that freedom of the press "has undergone an alarming deterioration" in the past year.

The meeting convened amid warnings that the Chilean government would not tolerate any attacks on itself or other "progressive" nations of Latin America.

In Chile, there is no official press censorship, but newsmen have been under increasing pressure. The government of Salvador Allende Gossens has filed some 120 lawsuits against newsmen. Some have been jailed pending trial.

In Argentina, according to an Associated Press survey, the anti-fascist government of Gen. Alejandro A.

Lanusse has incorporated press censorship into law.

In Uruguay, where press censorship has been practiced since 1967, a state security law enacted this year provides jail sentences for newsmen and others responsible for stories damaging to "Uruguayan prestige."

In Brazil, editors and broadcasters operate under what is called self-censorship, but newsmen can be raided and publications seized. Movies, plays and books are heavily censored.

In Panama, a government-appointed censor decides what will be published in the dailies.

One bright spot is Mexico, where government ownership of the newspaper monopoly has led to a form of self-censorship over the years. Recently, however, papers have begun to criticize the government more openly and President Luis Echeverria Alvarez says he welcomes it.

Tuition Relief

An idea being adopted by a number of colleges and universities around the country promises some relief to students—and their parents—from soaring tuition costs.

Enterprising freshmen are given a guarantee that their tuitions will not increase during their four years of study.

With tuitions rising by as much as 10 per cent annually at some schools in the neighborhood of $1,000 during his or her college career, depending upon the initial tuition.

Officials cite two major advantages of guaranteed or fixed tuition: It should lead to an increase in the number of freshmen entering a school and a decrease in the number of upperclassmen transferring to other schools before they get their degrees.

Any losses due to continuing inflation would, it is hoped, be offset by the increased student retention rate.

Officials of private schools also believe that more parents would be willing to send their children to private colleges or universities if they knew what the exact cost would be and could plan accordingly.

At least one college will adopt a five-year guaranteed tuition plan in the fall of 1973, citing an additional advantage.

Since more and more students seem to want to take a hiatus in their college experience to work or travel or study abroad, the five-year plan will enable them to do this, and will encourage them to return to the school to complete their education.

Fair Play for Campaign Donors

In the wake of his landslide victory, Mr. Nixon is planning a massive shakeup of his administration. Among the most sorely needed reforms is one that will radically revise our badly disorganized political system.

Its idealistic goal is to reward every campaign contributor fairly and squarely for the size of his gift.

"In the past," says Dr. Pettibone, D. V. M., the noted systems analyst in charge of the program, "both political parties have paid off their large donors in an appalling haphazard fashion."

As an example, he cited the case in 1968 of Arthur K. Watson who ponied up $40,000 for the GOP cause and was given the plum of the Ambassadorship to France. At the same time, however, Guilford Dudley Jr., who contributed $3000 more than Watson, wound up as only the Ambassador to tiny little Denmark.

"Such slapdash methods," says Dr. Pettibone, "not only offended the French, who felt they were getting a cut-rate Ambassador, but obviously caused ill will among those who gave him the job."

"We plan to wipe out such gross inequities forever with an honest, above-board system that's fair to one and all."

For the past three months, Dr. Pettibone has been feeding the names and gifts of every contributor into a giant AAROVARK computer in the basement of the Washington Monument.

"The problem," says Dr. Pettibone, "was to determine how much was owed to whom and what we had to do to pay it."

He began with the two gentlemen who gave a million dollars each to the campaign. Million dollar donors, he determined, were entitled to a box at the inaugural ball, three mergers, a direct telephone line to the Oval Office and a tasteful bronze plaque bearing Winston Churchill's immortal words: "Never has so much been owed by so many to so few."

Those who gave more than $500,000, he says, will be offered: (1) one dance with Mrs. Nixon; (2) two defense loans; (3) three phone calls to H. R. Haldeman; and (4) four more years of investment tax credits.

Donors in the $100,000 category, he says, will win one free lunch with Maurice Stans, a weekend for two at either Key Biscayne or San Clemente and an Ambassadorship to the country of their choice. (Dr. Pettibone blames the rising cost of Ambassadorships solely on inflation and foresees no complaints from the Price Control Board.)

We're In Trouble With Each Other

By Bruce Bissant

You can't travel this country for two years from ocean to ocean, as I have done, and not conclude there is something gravely lacking in the tone and spirit and substance of American life today.

I've written of this before, but I must have one more go at it. The lack surely is not yet so broad and deep as to make one despondent for the future of the country. Like anyone else who travels widely, I personally encounter hundreds of talented, good-spirited, hard-working people who are giving high regard and devotedly toward getting there. Some young folk, especially, are astonishing in the breadth of their interests and their driving pursuit of these things.

Still, the lack is serious and at times disheartening. The impressions gathered are an evitable scattered and fragmentary, but no less strong for all of that.

Many New York City people today are virtually obsessed with the problem of their physical security, by day as well as at night. An observer just back from there told me he found his friends and acquaintances talking of little else—even at the height of business hours.

On my now infrequent visits to downtown Washington at night, I am always freshly shocked at its emptiness. This place never was a bustling cultural capital alive with throngs until past midnight. But nowadays its center is nearly dead.

As I have noted before, touring among the nation's oldest established cities, mostly those in the eastern tier, it is a distressing experience. Vast areas seem in the grip of decay, almost beyond recall. Shining new skyscrapers visible close by seem like fantasies painted on glass.

The newer growing cities of the west and the Pacific slope are, to be sure, less afflicted. One prominent senator told me

Today in History

Today is Friday, Nov. 17, the 322nd day of 1972. There are 44 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1558, Elizabeth I became Queen of England.

On this date—

In 1684, Sir Walter Raleigh was tried for treason and imprisoned in England.

In 1776, British troops led by Lord Cornwallis attacked Ft. Mifflin in Pennsylvania.

In 1800, the U.S. Congress convened for the first time in the new Capitol building in Washington.

In 1869, the Suez Canal was opened, linking the Mediterranean Sea and the Red Sea.

In 1881, Samuel Gompers organized a labor group which was the forerunner of the American Federation of Labor.

Ten years ago: President John F. Kennedy appointed a cabinet-level committee to study the feasibility of establishing a domestic organization similar to the Peace Corps.

Five years ago: A French Marxist, writer René Debary, and an Argentine drew 30-year terms in a Bolivian military prison for helping "Che" Guevarra guerrillas.

A Beautiful Male

WASHINGTON—I can take a hint as well as the next beautiful male. Soon as I wriggle out of this sexy neighborhood loan shark to get a small loan and then, whoops, the jeweler's den for a pair of ruby earrings.

In short, The New York Times doesn't have to clothe me over the head with an ax handle. When it spread the news eight columns wide that earrings were becoming the "in" thing for the formerly sensible sex, I stopped dreaming of an erector set and phoned good ol' Doc Eger for the latest way to show your independence.

Chap named Eric Rayfield, who is only 21 and therefore even smarter than Holden, says "The man is the peacock and the rooster; he should be beautifully plumed." The Times reports that the jewelry dodge is in a tizzy as it retails for an expected land-office rush by men—or reasonable facsimiles thereof.

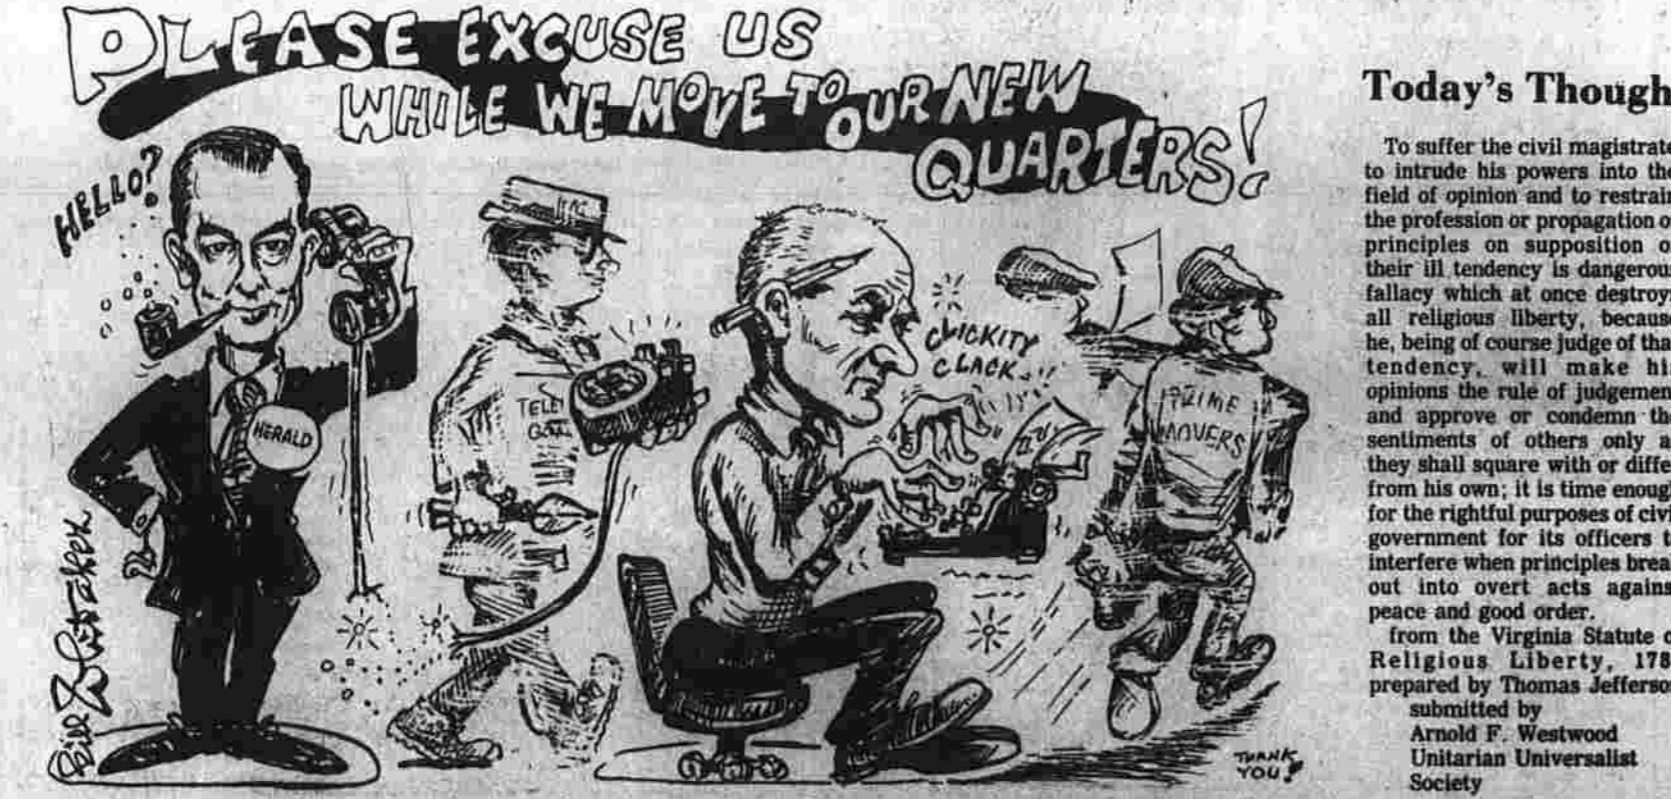

Man and boy, I've worn mostly hair on my ears until now, but I bought a pair of yellow bitches last summer and I suspect I can be had by the haute couture mob. Lemme look at that gold butterfly earring. Dearie, and while we're at it what've you got in diamond necklaces and pasties?

Don't back the tide, says I. Most men already look like well-oiled palmettos and small variously like post boys, fir trees, oregano and flower gardens. Obviously, it is our

Today's Thought

To suffer the civil magistrate to intrude his powers into the field of opinion is to restrain the profession or propagation of principles on supposition of their ill tendency is dangerous to liberty which at once destroys all religious liberty, because he, being of course judge of that tendency, will make his opinions the rule of judgment and approve or condemn the sentiments of others only as they shall square with or differ from his own; it is time enough for the rightful purposes of civil government for its officers to interfere when principles break out into overt acts against peace and good order; to restrain the opinions of men before they have had time to utter them, is to tempt the ambitious to try the force of their arguments on the passions of the multitude before it is a chance that they will ever be heard; and this may be carried to such a length, that the opinions of men will no longer express their sentiments, because every man will be constrained to swallow that which he hates, and avert his face from that which he despises, when he is in the presence of those to whom he is obliged to oblige; in other words, when the opinions of men are no longer expressions of their sentiments, but are only a mask to conceal their true feelings, and when they are no longer the voice of the majority, but only the voice of the government, then is the time when the government is most likely to be tyrannical, and the people most likely to be oppressed.

Weiss Names Group For Public Safety

Manchester Town Manager Robert Weiss has named a new member Public Safety Advisory Committee, whose high priority activities will be the development of a Bicycle Safety Program.

Other areas for its involvement will include: industrial safety; fire safety; home safety; and general automotive safety matters, Weiss said.

Weiss explained that public committees of this type are strongly recommended by the National Safety Council and the State Traffic Commission. He said the bicycle safety priority item is in response to the interest expressed in that problem by Mayor John Thompson.

Dr. Bates Honored

BOSTON (AP)—Dr. Charles F. Phillips of Auburn, Maine, president emeritus of Bates College, was honored today as New England Man of the Year by the New England Council for Economic Development.

At the group's 48th annual conference, Gilbert H. Hood Jr., chairman of the council's board of directors, praised Phillips for his career as an educator, author and adviser to business corporations. He said Phillips had done much to further the economic growth of his community and region.

Phillips was president of Bates for 23 years. Earlier he taught economics at Hobart College and Colgate University.

He is former president of the Council for Economic Development and former chairman of the board of Central Maine Power Co.

Permit Allows Twin Theaters At Parkade

PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP)—Dr. Thompson Stone, conductor of Boston's Handel and Hydn Society for 35 years until retirement in 1959, died Thursday. He was 89.

Dr. Stone, who was also organist and choir master at the Church of the Advent in Boston, was credited by music critics with revitalizing the Handel and Hydn Society during his years as conductor. The society was founded in 1815.

Guest Caller

Carl Hanks of Plymouth, Pa., will be guest caller at the Manchester Square Dance Club's regular dance Saturday, from 8 to 11 p.m. at the Verplanck School.

Carl Hanks

Hanks, who has called eastern style dancing for 15 years, made the transition to western style. At present he calls for clubs in the Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton and Williamsport, Pa., area. He conducts weekly club dances, workshops and beginner classes.

He has been guest caller in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. He has also called at festivals and weekends along the eastern seaboard. He is currently recording for Jay-Bar-Kay on Pilgrim label.

Food Pro Tells Cooking Secrets

Eye appeal and professional tricks in food preparation were the principal points stressed by Frank Lattuca Jr. when he addressed over 200 members of the Manchester Womens Club at their recent meeting. His program was geared for holiday entertaining and many types of canapes were made and displayed in an eye-catching manner.

Lattuca of the Manchester Community College stated that even plain everyday foods become more palatable when carefully prepared and served with a little thought and a few garnishes. He explained the proportions needed of food and drinks for upcoming holiday parties. The refreshments for the evening consisted of hot and cold canapes prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Lattuca.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Haugh will be on door duty. In charge of refreshments are Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hazard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heins, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Helstrom.

Sweater Stretch
The look of the Roaring Twenties returns with extra-long sweaters that stretch all the way down to the thighs and are worn with short skirts.

Mr. Elmer Odell, president, announced that the Women's Club is already working on the float for the 150th Anniversary Parade in June 1973.

The club is also sponsoring a show but to see Debbie Reynolds in "Irene" in New York. Tickets are on a first come, first served basis and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. John Fletcher.

Antique Market Opens Saturday

Rotary Club members and antique dealers are moving into the Manchester High School cafeteria today to set up exhibits for the Seventh Annual Antiques Market to be held tomorrow and Sunday.

Saturday's hours will be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday's from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Senior Citizens will be admitted at half price upon presentation of Golden Age Cards. Parking facilities for 500 cars at the rear of the school and an additional 100 on E. Middle Pike and Brookfield St. are available.

In addition to Mrs. Charlotte Gille, well-known New Hampshire dealer, there will be 40 other dealers exhibiting choice wares including early silver and china, glass, primitives, copper, pewter and many more decorative accessories and furniture.

Rotary Club proceeds will be used for their community activities which include scholarships awarded to local high school graduates.

Snacks will be available throughout the two days, including a roast beef dinner, at a reasonable price, served Saturday evening and Sunday noon.

Benefit Show

Mrs. Thomas E. Toomey of Center St. and Mrs. Eamon Flanagan of Jean Rd., are co-chairmen of the program committee for the special benefit performance of the contemporary comedy, "Forty Carats," which will be performed on Sunday, December 3 at 8 p.m. by the Mark Twain Masquers at the new Robert Center Theatre at Kingswood-Oxford Schools on Trout Brook Dr., West Hartford.

Proceeds will be given to Trinity College for lectures for its Drug Science Major program. This Washington D. C. college is the only college in the country offering its students the opportunity to major in drug science.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Toomey, Mrs. Flanagan or from any alumna of Trinity College at no increase over regular box-office price.

The Couples Club of Community Baptist Church will hold a dinner meeting Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at the church. Following the dinner, members will go to the Toomey home, Parker St., for a demonstration of their music box collection and pipe organ. After the demonstration, members will have the opportunity to ask questions and try out the instruments.

The Couples Club of United Methodist Church will hold a square dance in Cooper Hall Saturday at 8 p.m.

The teen group of the Church of the Nazarene will hold a car wash on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the church. Proceeds from the event will benefit the church Sunday School.

Mrs. Stanley Bates, director and Mrs. Dorian Shainin, board vice president, of the Manchester Public Health Nursing Association, are attending the regional conference of the Council of Home Health Agencies this week in Atlantic City, N.J.

Comment Session

A pickup over signals for repair of a sidewalk slab was the basis of a complaint filed yesterday by a Summit St. resident. He was one of ten town residents — all men — to appear at a Board of Directors' comment session. The session was managed by Director John Tani.

As the Summit St. homeowner explained, a slab of his sidewalk was torn up by the water department in 1970, to replace a valve. Instead of replacing the concrete slab with another concrete slab, as agreed upon, it was replaced by blacktop, he said. He said he complained to the water department and that it sent the town's sidewalk contractor to rectify the situation. What the contractor did, he said, was to tear up the wrong part of the sidewalk. Although he repaired the damage with concrete, he didn't repair the sidewalk slab, the man insisted.

An Oakwood Rd. resident complained of flooding on Woodbridge St., in the Mather St. area, and said it is causing damage in the back yards of area residents. A Nye St. man complained of bicyclists riding without headlights at night and said it is a safety hazard.

And a Redwood Rd. resident complained of dangerous traffic control at the newly constructed intersection of Parker St. with Shelton Rd. He recommended that the road be restored to its previous condition, or that traffic lights and reflectors be installed there.

Liquor Law For Jan. 1 Explained

Manchester Town Clerk Edward Tomkiele, in answer to many inquiries to his office relative to the dispensing of alcoholic beverages New Year's Eve this year, has issued the following clarification: "Because New Year's Eve this year falls on Sunday, Sec. 30-91 of the state statutes will apply. It refers only to instances as this year's. It permits the dispensing of alcoholic beverages at a hotel, country club, restaurant, cafe, or hotel — between the hours of 12 noon Sunday and 1 a.m. Monday, New Year's Day." Tomkiele said the regulation applies to New Year's Eve only and definitely not Christmas Eve. He said also it does not apply to package stores, which must remain closed every Sunday.

Coventry Homeowners Asked to Fight Gypsy Moth

HOLLY GANTNER
Correspondent
Tel. 422-8795

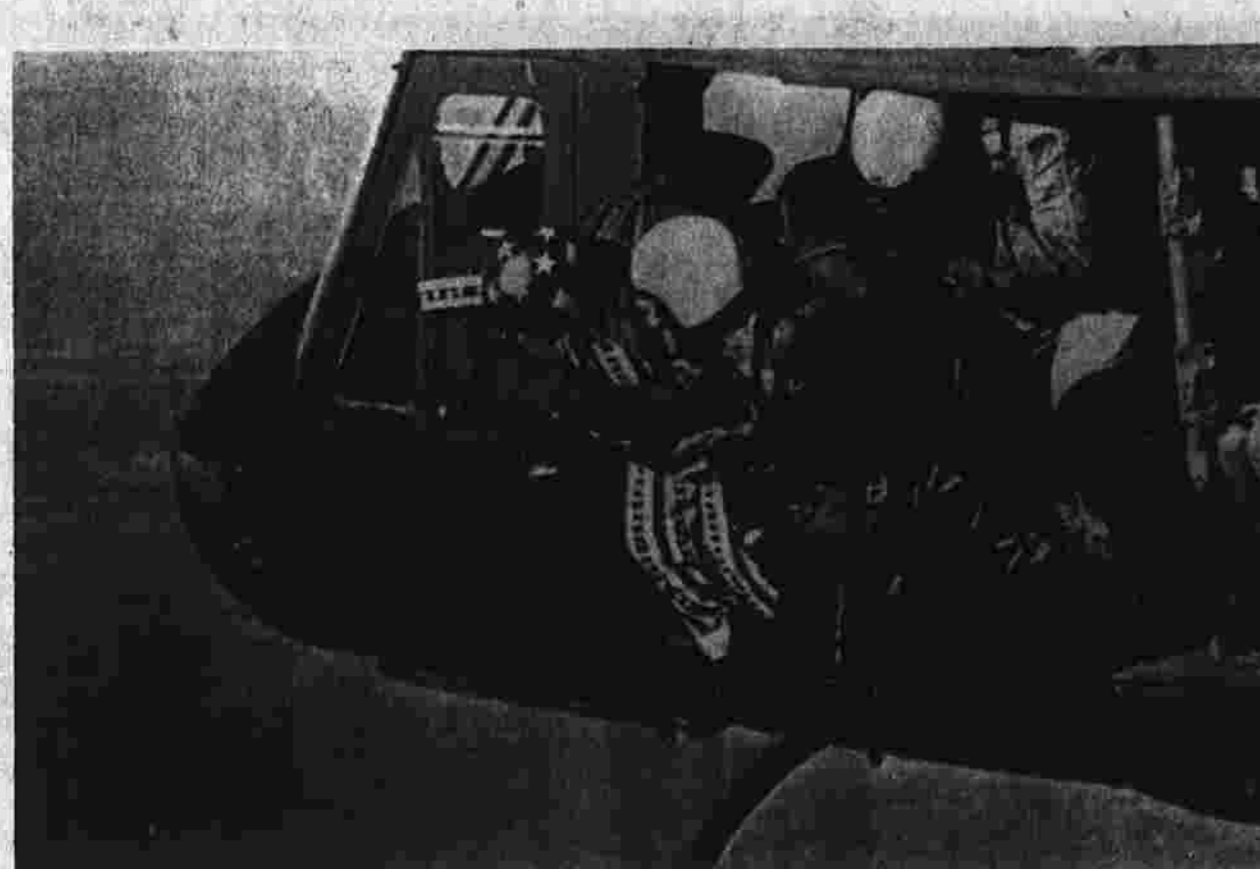

The Conservation Commission is encouraging homeowners to assist in gypsy moth control this fall, and has listed some suggestions on how they can help lessen the gypsy moth problem next spring. Yard cleaning should include scraping off any egg masses found on trees or rocks, the CC suggests. The egg masses should be placed in kerosene, old motor oil, or some soap base solution.

Trees can be treated with creosote, a dormant spray, or an oil-based liquid. Caution should be used in treating this bark trees with oil, however, the CC said. Any treatment made now will help control next summer's infestation. The local conservationists are again requesting that an egg count be taken in Coventry by a state entomologist, to help determine the extent of defoliation next summer.

Tedford completes course. Patrolman Arthur Tedford of the Coventry Police department has graduated from the recruit training course at the Connecticut Police Academy in Meriden.

Tedford satisfactorily completed an intensive four and one half week course which included studies in criminal law, laws of evidence, laws on civil rights, laws of arrest, and search and seizure. The course also covered training in firearms and defensive tactics.

Takes A Big Step

Re-enlisting is a big step for many of America's young men and women but few, if any, will top Spec. 4 Nina Garcia, a 95-pound member of the Women's Army Corps, who was sworn in for a four-term term by Capt. Ronald Diggs, in a free-fall parachute jump from an army helicopter 9,600 feet above San Marcos, Texas, yesterday.

Jailings of Newsmen Predicted

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Former reporter Peter Bridge predicts increasing numbers of newsmen will be jailed for refusing to disclose their sources or to make public their notes unless action is taken to guarantee a "newsmen's privilege."

Bridge, who spent three weeks in jail recently after refusing to answer some questions before a grand jury regarding a story he wrote for the now defunct Newark Evening News, made his comments Thursday at the Associated Press Managing Editors convention here.

The convention concludes late today. By coincidence, the panel discussion in which Bridge was a participant took place only hours before a Los Angeles judge sentenced reporter William Farr to an indefinite jail term for refusing to reveal the source of a story he wrote while covering the Charles Manson murder trial for the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner.

Bridge told the nearly 600 journalists and guests at the meeting here the question of APME's freedom of information citation was created, said John R. Finnegan of the St. Paul Dispatch-Pioneer Press and chairman of APME's Freedom of Information Committee.

The Daily Oklahoman was cited for uncovering new information about the massacre of civilians by U.S. soldiers in Vietnam and opening additional Army records for public inspection. Finnegan said "as a result of its (Daily Oklahoman) work, the Army released unavailable morning reports of units involved in the My Lai case." And "The Oklahoman has focused national attention on the Army's refusal to release the full details of the investigation of My Lai made by the Army in the so-called Peers report."

Four Papers Cited For Freedom Effort

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Four newspapers have been awarded Freedom of Information citations by the Associated Press Managing Editors Association for their continuing fight to maintain and broaden press freedoms.

Cited were The Daily Oklahoman, Oklahoma City; The Philadelphia Inquirer; the Corry (Pa.) Evening Journal, and the Flint (Mich.) Journal.

"They exhibited the courage in journalism for which the APME's freedom of information citation was created," said John R. Finnegan of the St. Paul Dispatch-Pioneer Press and chairman of APME's Freedom of Information Committee.

The Daily Oklahoman was cited for uncovering new information about the massacre of civilians by U.S. soldiers in Vietnam and opening additional Army records for public inspection.

Wapping School Site For Courts

There seems to be no doubt in the minds of the town officials as to where six tennis courts and tennis courts will be located. At the Board of Education meeting this week, the board voted to send a letter to the Town Council requesting the allocation of $40,000, to be used for construction of the courts on the Wapping School property adjacent to the high school grounds.

Last month, after a public hearing on the courts, which no opposition was heard, the council requested the board to approve locating the six courts on school property so the courts might be used by students during the day and townspeople after school hours. In doing this, the board could ask for 50 per cent reimbursement from the state for the courts.

Board members Mrs. Margaret Rossi and Vernon Peterson expressed concern with the board which might be jeopardizing state aid in the matter if the town council pays for the courts. Mrs. Rossi was also concerned for the over-all cost for equipment and teachers for the tennis programs if the board went along with the proposal by the council. She also questioned the distance from the high school to the court location on the Wapping School site and the time lapses to get to the courts to actively participate in a game.

High School Principal Ralph Conlon said, by coincidence only a new physical education teacher for girls was being requested. He added that the

Bolton Yule Fair To Be Held Tomorrow

JUDITH DONOHUE
Correspondent
Tel. 649-8049

Plans are complete for "Christmas in the Country," the annual yule fair to be sponsored by the Women of St. George's Church tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the parish hall on St. George's.

General chairman Alma Amundson notes that several area craftsmen will be displaying and selling their wares at the fair, and many handmade gift items will also be sold.

Other highlights will include a children's room with activities and a shopping table geared to young budgets; a baked goods table; a refreshment booth; a candle table; white elephant and remnant tables; and a Christmas decoration center.

Herbs, jewelry and portrait painting will round out a varied list of attractions.

Paper Profit
Carol Lorenzi, chairman of the conservation committee of the Bolton Junior Woman's Club, reports that $80 was raised in the organization's recent paper drive. A total of 21,420 pounds of newspaper was collected. Mrs. Lorenzi expresses the club's gratitude to those who collected and contributed to the effort.

Bake Sale
The Council of Catholic Women of St. Maurice Church will sponsor a bake sale Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Highland Park Market, Manchester.

Pledge Visits
The personal visitation phase of the fall financial drive of United Methodist Church will take place Sunday afternoon, according to pastor Rev. David Campbell.

Church members who have not returned 1972 pledge cards are asked to return them by Sunday.

Special Note
The church's adult social club will meet at Parkdale Lanes in Manchester Saturday at 8 p.m. for an evening of bowling. Mrs. Ernest Whipple will be in charge of reservations.

Zoning Hearing
The Bolton zoning board will hold a public hearing Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Community Hall to hear a request by Doris Skinner for a zone change. Ms. Skinner, executrix of the estate of Albert Skinner, is seeking to have a 7.5 acre parcel of land on the north side of Rt. 44A changed from residential (R-3) to general business.

Game Cancelled
BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The Grambling-Southern football game here Saturday has been cancelled because of a student-police confrontation which left two students dead on the Southern campus.

Gov. Edwin Edwards ordered the campus closed until after the Thanksgiving holidays as result of Thursday's shooting.

Cutter Safe In Aleutian Isle Inlet

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Her powerful engines stilled by flooding, the battered Coast Guard cutter Jarvis is safe in a sheltered Aleutian chain inlet today as divers probe hull damage.

The 370-foot high endurance cutter and the Japanese fishing trawler that towed her to quiet waters after a nine-hour battle against mountainous North Pacific seas were joined late Thursday by two other Coast Guard vessels carrying repair supplies and needed fresh water.

All four ships were anchored near St. Lawrence Island, a windblown rock speck 20 miles from where the Jarvis, her engine room flooded and her gunning system useless, sent an SOS Thursday morning.

Spokesmen said Navy and Coast Guard divers would help determine what repairs are necessary before the Jarvis can be taken to a repair facility.

The Coast Guard said Jarvis, commissioned only last August as one of the service's newest and largest class of cutters, was showing damage along the entire length of her hull and possibly to her propeller shafts. No decision has been made on where the stricken ship would be taken for repairs. Coast Guard spokesmen said it was assumed the Honolulu-based ship would be towed to port by the two rescue cutters if her jet and diesel engines could not be repaired.

"This experience put the mettle of the entire crew to the test," said Coast Guard Capt. Donny Matheson, chief of district operations in Juneau.

'Merry Wives' Comedy Presentation Tonight

Elizabeth England is waiting for you in Bailey Auditorium tonight and tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The world Shakespeare brought to life in the Merry Wives of Windsor. From the moment you enter the theater you will be completely under the spell of that romantic and violent period. Madrigal singers will serenade you as you are shown to your seat by appropriately costumed waiters. The program printed on finest parchment, will introduce you to the players in their Shakespearean farce, as well as provide you with a brief synopsis of each scene to enhance your enjoyment of the production.

Why has Sock's Buskin been doing Shakespeare to open its 72-73 season? Intrepid director Leo Hay believes in giving both chairman and audience an opportunity to view and participate in many types of language and the opulence of the costumes, and indeed impart a feeling of awe and fun to the house lights dim. And when the lights dim, you can settle further into your seat no longer in Bailey Auditorium, but in the Globe Theater of Shakespeare's time) and enjoy the antics of some of the farce's funniest characters. Jed Krascella, Clara Greenfield, Anna Coy, John Bangasser, George Sweetman, Mark Hirschfeld, Pat Ryan, Kathy Peterson, Greg Harolin, Richard Egan, and the new cast also includes Cathy Larivee, Linda Clarahan, Carol Larivee, Karen Knappie, and Bob Rice will be casting themselves just for your entertainment.

Last Game To Come

Next Thursday will be the final time 15 seniors will wear the colors of Manchester High on a football field. The game will be playing Thanksgiving Day at Windham. There would mean a 63 season record and the retirement of the Army-Navy trophy. The Indians have won the past two encounters, needing three in a row to keep the trophy. Heading the list of graduating seniors in Mike Parrott. Whether you know it or not, Mike wears number 11 for the red and white. He handles the kick-off duty for the tribe. Mike is best known for his beer-belly appearance and his famous laugh. He helped make football at M. H. S. a lot of fun. Tri-captain Lyle Eastman, not much can be said that everyone does not already know. Lyle is what the girls would call their High School hero. But Lyle was a heck of a football player. Sometimes known as Dave, played many a game with a swollen knee. Everyone wishes they were as tough as Dave is. Dave had a terrific game against Windham last year and hopes to do the same on Thursday. Mark Odell can always be remembered for the parties he

The party was Nov. 1 in theilling room of the High Cafeteria from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Harriers On The Move

This year's cross country team had an excellent season with a 5-4 record in the O.C.L.L. Leading the team was captain Jeff Geyer, (73), who dazzled everyone in fourth meet by setting a new course record with a splendid time of 18:01 over our new 2.5 mile course. He also took first place in the first 8 meets he had, but then he injured his knee and was unable to compete in the last three meets. Running coach behind Jeff were our three sophomore standouts; Scott Moffat, Dave Lemieux, and Jimmy Cratty. Other top members of the team who constantly gave excellent performances were

During the week of November 6-10, Seniors voted on nominees for class officers. The following paragraphs give a resume of the nominees and what they would like to do for the senior class.

Bill Bolls has participated actively on the Math Team, Science and Student Assembly. Dave Hoyt is involved with the Student Assembly, the Current Affairs Club, Advisory Board and JV Soccer. He would like to see a class reunion every five years.

The Agony Of A Soccer Defeat

Let me first apologize for introducing this article with a familiar cliché, but it seems so appropriate for the events which I will describe hereafter. The Manchester settled down to the shocked and disconsolate feelings held by the local soccer fans. And the defeat, if this isn't ancient history by now, is in reference to the 7-6 loss suffered by Manchester in the first tournament game against down-staters Dartmouth. Manchester came into this game on a slight downward, suffering a loss to Wethersfield in the first game, but the Manchester completely controlled the play, especially in the second half, and were hanging on for goals were opportunities for goals were missed or blown when taken. Hence, Manchester found itself struggling to catch up after Wethersfield scored a goal in the first period.

Dolphins and seals at MHS: AAYUP. So were dinosaurs and Roman soldiers. Odd combinations, you would think, if you attended the 1972 Aquaettes show Thursday or Friday night, you would have witnessed a message through time. Using a variety of aquatic stunts and imaginative costumes and without the girls put together a fine show. Their grace was rivaled by the skill of the "Aquaettes" alias boy's swim team during intermission.

Gardening

with Frank Atwood

It looks brutal. The pansy plants that have been growing in a field for three months have just succeeded in producing their first blossoms and the long beds, from a little distance, are like colorful carpets. Close-up, they are gay with pansy 'faces' in yellow, white, blue, red and purple.

Toward you, down the row of pansy plants, comes a young man steering a rotary mower, chopping off the blossoms like so much lawn grass. The crop of pansy plants at Woodland Gardens, on Manchester's Woodland St., is being prepared for winter. The blossoms are being cut so that the strength of the plants will go into the formation of more buds for bloom next spring and into the development of unwanted seed pods.

"We used to pick the blossoms by hand," says John Zapadka, head of the family-owned business. High school boys went through the beds, stepping and squinting, to pick the blossoms off, one at a time. Then somebody thought that a power mower might do the job just as well, and so it did. The boy, steering a self-propelled mower, does the work formerly done laboriously by a crew.

He can't walk directly behind the mower as he would in cutting grass. He walks, as instructed, in the narrow path between two beds of flowers and reaches out to steer the mower down the row. The whirling knife slashes through the blossom stems and some of the top leaves, chops them into tiny bits and throws them out a discharge chute as much.

Will He Winter Cover? Growing pansies takes two seasons. Seed for this crop was sowed outdoors in a comparatively small space in early August. The small plants were moved into the larger beds in early September. They have been fertilized, watered and weeded to maintain active growth, and, as expected, they started to bloom in late October.

The lawn mower doesn't get every blossom and every bed, but neither did the boys who once did the job by hand. It does pick most of the mature blossoms already fertilized, that would develop seed pods. Small buds, just forming closer to the ground, are untouched and will continue to grow on warm days after Thanksgiving Day, when the top inch of soil is frozen, the field will be covered with a protective mat of salt marsh hay. It will shade the surface of the soil so that it does not thaw and freeze with every change in the winter weather, and the stiff stems of this course grass will permit the air to circulate around the plants. They will continue to grow, although slowly, under their winter cover.

There is a good reason for waiting until the ground is frozen to put on the mulch. If the ground is soft, mice will dig runs under the hay and make cozy homes for the winter.

Snow Will Help. Another possibility for winter cover is used tobacco cloth, laid flat on the field and pegged down, or weighted. Either the hay or the cloth will be most effective if there is snow that stays on the ground for an extended time. A year ago, weather conditions were unfavorable for the pansy crop. November and early December were mild and the plants continued growing rapidly until almost Christmas when they were hit, while still soft, by severe cold. Some of the pansies didn't make it through.

Vegetable Garden Guide

Last spring I met a young man from Wilmington, Mass., who had just published a book under the title "Backyard Vegetable Gardening for the Beginner." He gave me the book for review and, now that we are thinking about Christmas presents, I can suggest this book as a gift for any new or would-be grower of vegetables for the family. The price is $4 and the publisher is the Exposition Press, Inc., of Jericho, N.Y.

The author is Hugh Wiberg, a New Jersey boy who graduated from Trinity College in Hartford, Conn., who says he learned about gardening by trial and error and by asking questions, and decided there was a need for a simple book of directions and suggestions for people like himself.

Mr. Wiberg's sensible first suggestion is to begin with a small garden and resist the temptation to plant more than you can manage. He says that "a certain amount of work" is involved in even a small garden, but he thinks, from his experience, that the rewards are great.

Vernon Notes Men To Organize Basketball Leagues

An organizational meeting for the purpose of setting up three basketball leagues for men will be held Friday at 7 p.m. at the Lottic Flak Building, Henry Park. Every team must have a representative present.

Three leagues are planned again this year with the Senior League slated for play on Monday nights. This league is open to residents of Vernon, Ellington and Tolland, who are 18 years of age or older and out of high school. Not more than three players per team may live outside of Vernon.

The Stone Age League will have an A division playing on Thursday nights and a B division playing on Wednesday nights. Games will be played at the Vernon Center Middle School. Players in the A division must be 25 years of age or older and B division players must be 30 or older. All players in this league must be taxpayers or residents of Vernon or be employed full time by the firm which sponsors the team. Individuals wishing to join a team in any league should call Friday's meeting. The gyms at the Middle School will be closed to basketball and judo this Friday due to a scheduled school activity.

Correction
The informal hockey club to be sponsored by the Indian Valley YMCA is open to boys in Grades 8-12 and not for boys aged 8-12 as previously stated. The first meeting will be Monday from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Avery Street School, South Windsor. The club is open to boys in the Vernon, Tolland, South Windsor and East Windsor area. Jim Young and Jack Cronan will be the advisors. Anyone wishing further information should contact the "Y" office at Vernon Circle.

Vernon Names Architect For School

The architectural firm of Mellich and Associates of Farmington has been chosen to design the proposed addition to the Talcottville School. The appointment was approved by the Town Council, on recommendation of the Permanent Municipal Building Committee (PMBC).

The proposed addition, which will cost $225,000, will add a pre-school facility and a gymnasium to the school which houses mentally retarded children. The cost will be totally reimbursed by the state as the school is a regional facility serving several other areas.

An addition constructed about four years ago, added on to the main building located on Main St. in Talcottville. A gift from the Talcott Brothers who ran the mills in Talcottville, the original building was dedicated in August of 1968. This portion is still used for classrooms. Over the years several improvements have been made on the interior but the exterior of that portion has remained the same.

Report Cards
The first quarter ends at Rockville High School on Friday and report cards will be issued Monday.

Parent-Teacher Conferences
will be held at the Sykes School on Park St., on Nov. 29 for parents of freshmen. The conferences are scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m. On Nov. 30, from 6:30 to 9 p.m., conferences will be held for parents of sophomores, juniors and seniors. The high school will have a half-day session on Nov. 22 to start the Thanksgiving holiday and schools will re-open Nov. 27.

Mr. Wiberg proceeds to recommend a practice that he calls "double spading" that surely doubles the work of preparing the garden for planting. Instead of just turning over the soil with a spade, he digs a trench, lifting out the soil and piling it alongside. Then he scatters organic matter in the trench and spades this into the soil. The ground is loosened and turned two space-deeps down instead of one. If you think the extra work is worthwhile, he says, try it on a small area in the garden.

He gives planting dates for northern Massachusetts, which would be perhaps a week later than central Connecticut, and he gives his own choice of vegetable varieties, with reasons for his selections.

On the controversial question of organic gardening versus the use of chemical fertilizers and pesticides, Mr. Wiberg says he is '90 per cent on the side of the organic philosophy' but he still finds a use for Sevin to keep insects from eating his vegetables.

November Notes
This has been generally a poor year for vegetable gardens. The weather in the spring was cold and wet for planting and seeds grew poorly, or some of them not at all. Cold weather came early this fall, so the growing season was shortened on both ends. We had our own tomatoes, ripened in the cellar, and Thanksgiving, but there have been years when we had them for Christmas and even saved a couple for New Year's Day.

Coming to the end of the annual leaf-raking job, I realize that we had a small crop of leaves this year. I give all the credit to the gypsy moths and their relatives, the elm spanworms.

This Cat Is No Mouser

COPELAND, Kan. (AP) — People who think they've heard of everything should consider the cat at Copeland who acts more like a sleep dog than a feline — and does its work on chickens.

The cat strayed onto the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Young last year and took up residence in the chicken house. Its attachment to the hens grew to the point that it began eating chicken feed and started standing watch on the chickens.

Now, every time Mrs. Young lets the chickens out of their pen to forage in the grass, the cat jumps at them until they're in a line, then herds them back into the pen.

Mrs. Young says the hens had seem to mope — "I guess he has been there long enough they just think of him as another chicken."

TOWN OF MANCHESTER DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS NOTICE OF LEAF PICKUP

The following streets are scheduled for leaf collection on the below listed days. In the event of heavy rain on any scheduled collection day, pickup on remaining routes will be postponed one working day. Home owners, on the below listed streets, who wish to have yard leaves collected are required to rake leaves into the gutter so as to form a windrow the length of the property and confining the leaves in the gutter as much as possible. This should be done on the day prior to scheduled leaf collection. Property owners are requested to make certain that no other material other than leaves or grass are placed in the piles.

Brothers Featured

LOS ANGELES (AP) — One of the attractions of this year's UCLA-Southern Cal football clash is the fact that brothers Fred and Rod McNeill will be on opposite sides of the trench.

Rod, a star halfback for Southern Cal, is 21, a year older than Fred, a defensive end. They both live in an apartment midway between the schools, which are only 18 miles apart.

"He makes statements like he's going to be a great player, he comes around my end and I say 'I'm going to stop him,'" said Fred.

"I'm not going to think about running at my brother," said Rod, a fleet ball carrier who has been injured in past weeks. "But one thing for certain, he will pick up the other and give him free tickets to the Rose Bowl."

The winner of the traditional game goes to Pasadena on New Year's Day. In this case, the whole family can go.

Steps Being Taken To Control Fans

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — The New England Patriots are taking additional steps to control unruly fans at National Football League games at Schaefer Stadium.

General Manager Upton Bell announced Thursday that starting with Sunday's game with the Buffalo Bills a special squad of trained enforcement personnel will patrol the stadium.

Bell said the special squad will have instructions to remove any person causing a disturbance, using profanity or who has illegally brought a bottle or can of alcoholic beverages into the stadium.

Strict gate security will be maintained as in the past, but greater emphasis will be placed on inside security during game.

There have been cases of fights and bottle throwing among a handful of fans in the stadium, where the Patriots have sold out all 62,000 seats for one game. Some fans also have let loose verbal insults at players, including the Patriots, as well as throwing things.

Often Jeered Johnston Draws Cheers of Fans

BOSTON (AP) — Eddie Johnston, the Boston Bruins' veteran goalie who has heard more than his share of hometown boos this season, used a new glove and an old formula, a shutout, to turn the jeers to cheers.

Johnston kicked out 27 St. Louis shots, including many from close range, for his first shutout of the season and 23rd of his National Hockey League career Thursday night as the Bruins defeated the Blues 4-0 before the usual packed crowd of 15,000 at the Garden.

"I had one of my gloves stolen while I was in Russia in the Stanley Cup championship. I broke it in right in practice."

Despite Boston's porous defense with Bobby Orr on the sidelines, Johnston has been blamed by some fans for the Bruins' slow start in defending the Stanley Cup championship. At one point during a recent game, he went to the boards and told off one fan.

He was the victim of some derisive cheers when he made an easy stop early in the first period against St. Louis. However, he had everyone

Pats' Leading Rusher Suspended Without Pay

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — Carl Garrett, the New England Patriots' top ground-gainer has been suspended without pay for the last five weeks of the season in an apparent "get tough" policy by the National Football League club.

Garrett was suspended by General Manager Upton Bell, with approval of new interim coach Phil Bengtson. Thursday after he missed a practice for Sunday's game with the Buffalo Bills.

"We have decided to suspend Carl Garrett for the remainder of the season in the best interests of our team," Bell said.

"We talked to him and he didn't have much to say," Bell said. "Carl said he was sick Wednesday night and up most of the night. When we asked him why he didn't call, he said he had forgotten. We told him we can't tolerate this type of thing."

"Carl is a tremendous performer on the field, but there are 89 other men on the squad and you can't treat people differently. We're trying to get ready for a game and practice is important, as well as morale. You can't expect a completely different from other people."

Garrett, who completely missed a game, ranks fourth in the American Conference in kickoff returns with a 28.5 average, 13th in rushing with 418 yards in 104 carries, and 14th in receiving with 24 catches for 350 yards.

Garrett has been fined on several occasions for missing practices. He was not available for comment, but in the past has shrugged off fines.

A three-time Little All-American at New Mexico Highlands, he was fined before he ever donned a Patriots' uniform. He said he missed a plane in Chicago after the College All-Star game in 1969, and was late in reporting. He was traded to the Dallas Cowboys for Duane Thomas in 1971, but the deal was cancelled when Thomas ran into trouble with the Patriots. Garrett went on to help New England to a 6-8 record, rushing for 784 yards and catching 22 passes for 255 yards.

Bengtson, named interim coach Monday after John Mazur resigned with the Patriots struggling with a 2-7 record, has Bob Gladieux, Jack-Josh Ashton is the other running back.

BUGS BUNNY

WHAT HAPPENED? I PUT MY VIOLIN DOWN TO GET A DRINK. PROFESSOR BART ON IT!

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT!

MICKY FINN

BECK... DO YOU REALIZE THAT I KNOW VERY LITTLE ABOUT YOU!

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW?

I WAS WONDERING... HAVE YOU EVER BEEN MARRIED BEFORE?

LET'S SAY MY LIFE DON'T MATTERS, ISN'T IT, IRENE?

THAT'S ALL THAT MATTERS, ISN'T IT, IRENE?

YES... OF COURSE... BUT YOU CAN'T FAULT A WOMAN FOR BEING CURIOUS!

PRISCILLA'S POP

I'M READING INVENTORS!

I KNOW ALL ABOUT THEM!

OH! WHO INVENTED THE FOUNTAIN PEN?

ORVILLE AND WILBUR!

THAT'S WHY THEY'RE CALLED THE WRITERS' BROTHERS!

FRANK AND ERNEST

ACCESSORY GROUP 'B' INCLUDES THIS FREE TOW ROPE

PLAIN JANE

WHAT'S THAT?

A KISS!

MR. ABERNATHY

I'M WORRIED ABOUT GROWING OLDER, MR. ABERNATHY.

I WISH THERE WAS A WAY I COULD FEEL YOUNGER!

SEE—IT'S ALL RELATIVE!

WHY DON'T YOU USE MY SYSTEM?

ANTIQUE!

BUZZ SAWYER

FLIP ON THE RECORDS. MAKE DANNY TELL ME THE GUY WHO TOOK THE CALL.

HELLO... NOW DANNY TOLD YOU TO KEEP OUT OF MY LIFE. UNCLE BOB.

COOL IT, BOB. THINK OF ALL I'VE DONE FOR YOU. GAVE YOU A CAR, YOUR GIRL A MINK JACKET, YOUR PARENTS A TRIP TO THE MOUNTAINS. BUT YOU WANT TO KEEP ME OUT OF YOUR LIFE?

WHY NOT? YOU CAN MAKE SOME REAL MONEY. TECH A FAVORITE TO WIN THEIR BIG GAME. IF YOU SEE TO IT THEY DON'T WIN! BY OVER SIX POINTS, WELL, CUT YOU IN FOR $5,000.

ALLEY OOP

LOOKS LIKE THE NUMBER ONE THING I GOT TO DO.

HE'S FIND OUT WHAT MY RECK BECAUSE OF MY RECK.

SGT. STRIPES... FOREVER

YOU REPRODUCE HAD ENOUGH?

YES, BY JOE WE'VE MADE A DEAL!

WHO DO YOU WANT TO SEEP?

...MONTY ALL!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

AS YOU SAW, I SIMPLY PLACED ORDINARY WASTE PAPER IN THE HOOPER. NOW I OPEN HERE AND SHOW THE ULTIMATE IN PRACTICALITY. A NEW GREAT CAESAR!

I'LL GET THE PRACTICAL SHARDS. THIS LOOKS LIKE AN INTERESTING DISCUSSION.

LOCK THE DOOR AND PULL THE SHARDS.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER

LEANDER DELETED THE MACHINE HIT

SHORT RIBS

THE KING GAVE ME THE DAY OFF.

I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH MYSELF.

MAYBE I'LL VISIT SOME FRIENDS.

I DON'T RECOMMEND DROPPING IN UNEXPECTEDLY!

THE FLINTSTONES

THE BASES ARE LOADED!!!

MUTT AND JEFF

AND THEN THE HOTEL CLERK SAID TO THE BACKWOODS FARMER, 'OF COURSE YOU WANT RUNNING WATER IN YOUR ROOM'...

WHEREUPON THE FARMER REPLIED, 'WHY DO I LOOK LIKE A TROUT?'

'SO THEN SOMEBODY ASKED HIM IF HE WOULD BE A GUEST AT THE HOTEL TO WHICH HE REPLIED, 'HECK NO, I'M PAYING $12 A DAY HERE.'

'HIT ME HARDER! I CAN STILL HEAR HIM!'

WINTHROP

A PHOTOGRAPHER CAME TO THE HOUSE LAST WEEK AND TOOK A PICTURE... WOULD YOU LIKE TO SEE IT?

SURE... I COULD USE A GOOD LAUGH.

IF I DON'T LEARN TO CONTROL MY TEMPER, I'M GOING TO WIND UP AN OLD MAID.

CAPTAIN EASY

GETTING AWAY WITH WHAT? MY FATHER... THE GREAT PANZINI... WIFE REFERRED FROM THAT DOT-ME OFF... AND WHO ARE YOU?

MY FATHER... THE GREAT PANZINI... WIFE REFERRED FROM THAT DOT-ME OFF... AND WHO ARE YOU?

AND I THINK YOU 'ARRANGED' HIS DISAPPEARANCE. WERE YOU SO YOU COULD COLLECT THAT $100,000 BERT?

I'VE CHECKED EVERY POSSIBLE PLACE HE MIGHT BE. BUT HE'S DISAPPEARED.

STEVE CANYON

THAT'S WHY THEY'RE HERE. THEY WANT TO GET TO THE SNOW.

WELL, HERE'S THE KEY. IT WILL BE RETURNED TO YOU. TALK BACK, S'CLAY!

LET IT ROLL. WE KNOW WHERE THE END ZONE IS.

AND I COULD HAVE SOME OF THE PROPERTY OF HAWAII!

Vernon Larger Building Sizes Rejected by Zoners

An amendment which would have changed the required floor area of buildings in C-10 and C-20 zones, which are neighborhood and general commercial zones, was rejected by the Zoning Commission following a public hearing last night.

The proposed amendment caused a great deal of controversy among other town boards over the past several weeks and about 55 persons turned out for the hearing. The action on the proposal came in an executive session with the Planning Commission, Tuesday night, approved a recommendation to drop the proposal which would have increased the square footage of buildings in the two commercial zones from the existing 1,000 to 5,000 square feet.

Opposing the proposal were members of the Board of Directors of the Rockville Area Chamber of Commerce who presented a resolution to that effect. The resolution, which is impractical and would prove extremely harmful to an important group of taxpayers in town, i.e., businessmen," Atty. John LaBelle, of Manchester, spoke during the public hearing as a representative of several landowners in the Rt. 83 area. He told the commission it would be creating a monster if it approved the proposed change. He cited the fact that the zoning regulations allow the minimum lot area in commercial zones to go as low as 10,000 square feet, and noted that a building of 5,000 square feet would not properly fit that size lot. He said the builder cautioned, "to move the

Food Stamp Program Available To Elderly

Project FIND, a nationwide campaign to identify and enroll older Americans eligible for Federal Food Assistance, is approaching the close of its efforts. The American Red Cross was requested some months ago by Dr. Arthur Fleming, chairman of the White House conference on Aging, to assist in this undertaking by contacting all potentially eligible persons and provide whatever help might be needed to apply for food stamps.

It is important to emphasize that this does not mean any applicant will be receiving "welfare." Food stamps are provided to self-supporting people of low income who are finding it hard to increase due to the ever increasing cost of living.

On Tuesday, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., a representative of the Food Stamps Program will again be in the Manchester Red Cross office, 243 E. Center St., to discuss the program, interview clients and take applications. There are a few remaining openings in the appointment schedule for this session, and anyone who is interested in learning more about food stamps or making application is urged to take advantage of this opportunity by calling the Red Cross office for an appointment.

Mrs. Willard Horton, project director for the Manchester Red Cross, states that all but a few of the contacts which were made to be made locally have been completed and final reports will soon be submitted to the government on results of this program.

U.S.-European Talks Next Week

Three Conferences On Peace, Security, Economic Stability

BRUSSELS (AP) — American and European negotiators next week begin three efforts toward peace, disarmament and economic stability in Europe.
The foreign ministers of the Common Market start an attempt in the Hague Monday to reach an agreement on security and economic affairs.
Tuesday in Geneva, U.S. and Soviet representatives begin the second phase of their Strategic Arms Limitation Talks, which are expected to deal with the question of nuclear weapons based in West Germany and capable of striking the Soviet Union.
Wednesday in Helsinki, representatives of the United States, Canada and 32 European nations, including the Soviet Union, will start the most important talks since World War II to decide if enough common ground exists to make a proposed conference on security and cooperation in Europe worth holding.
Only Albania, Communist China's ally in Europe, has refused to attend, but tiny Liechtenstein — population 20,000 — and the Vatican will participate.
The negotiators also must agree on a time — possibly mid-1973 — place, list of subjects and rules of procedure. This may take months.
The chief U.S. representative is former Gov. Val Peterson of Nebraska, now ambassador to Finland.
Some Western countries want this conference made the "godfather" of another on mutual and balanced force reductions in Europe. Preparations for that meeting are due to start Jan. 31.
France, on the other hand, wants to keep away from military matters as much as possible. It will not take part in the January meeting, arguing that the Soviets would turn down any arrangement the West could accept.
The Soviets have said little about what security measures they would discuss in Helsinki. They are more concerned with getting some general statements that would underpin recent East-West negotiations.

Southern U Investigation Under Way

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Gov. Edwin Edwards says law officers may have mistakenly fired buckshot instead of tear-gas cartridges at strife-torn Southern University, where two young men were killed during a campus disturbance.
"It's perfectly logical and reasonable," Edwards said Friday, "that one of the officers could have, in all the excitement, fired the wrong kind of ammunition. He may know of it now and not be willing to tell."
Shooting shells and tear-gas cartridges, Edwards added, are similar in appearance.
State police and sheriff's office spokesmen, however, stuck to their contention that officers at the scene fired nothing but tear-gas cartridges.
Three weeks of campus unrest climaxed Thursday morning when a force of sheriff's deputies and state police moved to flush occupying students from the predominantly black school's administration building. The two young black men died in the confrontation that followed.
"Two days after the clash, only one of the victims, Denver Smith, 20, of New Roads, La., had been identified. Local, state and federal authorities said they were trying to identify the other dead man.
Autopsies by East Baton Rouge Parish Coroner Hypolite Landry showed both men, who fell at the same time and about three feet apart, had died of buckshot wounds to the head.
Edwards called Friday on the state attorney general's office to investigate the half-hour-long disturbance.

Plane Crash Kills 10

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A twin-engine plane, believed to have been carrying 10 persons home from a high school football game, crashed early today at Todd County in western Kentucky.
State Trooper Jim McFae said that as far as police can determine there were no survivors.
McFae said the victims were believed to be from the Richmond, Ky., area, although none had yet been identified.
Todd County Coroner E.P. Latham said when he went to the scene of the crash this morning there were bodies and wreckage scattered over a wide area.
The national animal has been the lion since 1967. Single lion in the country had dwindled to 177 total football game when the lion found in only one state, Gujarat.
Singh said there were 60,000 tigers in India in 1900. Now there are only a few more than 2,000 scattered over 10 of the 21 states.
Shooting of tigers has been forbidden since last year.

Heath Concludes Visit To Belfast

BELFAST (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath's two-day fact-finding tour of Northern Ireland has concluded here today.
Heath left Belfast for London today after a tour of the province, including meetings with politicians, churchmen, business and labor leaders, students and workers to sample public opinion.
His conclusion, announced at a press conference Friday before his departure for London, was that there has been a great improvement in Northern Ireland since he last here.
Government sources here believe Britain is slowly winning the war against terrorism.
At the height of the violence earlier this year, there were some 70 bomb explosions a week in the province and 50 British troops killed or wounded. This week, there were about 20 bomb blasts and one soldier was wounded by a sniper.
The Irish Republican Army now admits it is not winning the fight against 20,000 British troops.

Grangers Told Congress Now Consumer Bent

HARTFORD (AP) — Farmers must rely on "leverage in the marketplace" rather than a "consumer oriented Congress next year," says Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz.
In the cities — "those heavily populated areas where they can't tell a cow from a soybean" — there are too many people who think "it's sinful to pay for food," Butz told the National Grange Friday at its annual convention.
And since Congress is more urban than ever, it will be "dominated by people who essentially believe in a cheap food policy," he said.
"I think agriculture is in a vulnerable position," he said.
The next Congress won't cut Social Security benefits, veterans' benefits, or welfare, but it may be tempted to short cut the farmers in its search for ways to economize, Butz said.
Farmers should look in the long run, he said, to President Nixon's foreign policy to produce world peace and world markets for American food.
"I want to see an agricultural policy that on the side of expansion," he said.
"The efficiency of American farmers — with their high productivity — makes this com-

India Moves To Save Its Tigers

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Indian Board for Wildlife adopted the tiger today as India's national animal and announced a massive drive to save the animal from extinction.
Dr. Karan Singh, the minister for tourism, said the drive will begin next April and will cost $7 million.
The national animal has been the lion since 1967. Single lion in the country had dwindled to 177 total football game when the lion found in only one state, Gujarat.
Singh said there were 60,000 tigers in India in 1900. Now there are only a few more than 2,000 scattered over 10 of the 21 states.
Shooting of tigers has been forbidden since last year.

Groton Fire Loss Estimated At $1 Million

GROTON (AP) — A $1 million general alarm fire destroyed a large wood building containing two dozen Groton town offices and their records early today.
The loss included all payroll records in the school administration office, $375,000 in payroll accounting equipment, all school records prior to 15 years ago and valuable maps, surveys and blueprints of the town engineers.
School Superintendent Richard Chapman estimated the loss at $1 million. He said he would have to ask each of the 917 school employees for their salary figure to rewrite the pay records.
People earlier said Evans might have known the assailant because there was no sign of forced entry or robbery. And neighbors said they heard shouting or screaming or barking by Evans' dog.
Evans had been at the apartment with Bridgeport since 1964. He directed the debating team and was considered an outgoing man with good rapport with his students.
His body was sent to Fort Smith, Ark., his birthplace, for the funeral.

Several Colleges Plan Protests

College campuses throughout Louisiana and parts of the rest of the country held or planned various types of demonstrations to protest the slaying of two young black men on the Baton Rouge campus of Southern University.
The two were killed Thursday during a confrontation between law officers and students after students at the predominantly black school took over the administration building.
Some 200 persons at Stanford University and at the University of California at Berkeley quietly protested the killings Friday.
"There are no words to adequately express the tragedy of Louisiana," Acting Stanford President William Miller said. "About 30 students attending a meeting sponsored by the Students for a Democratic Society — SDS — at Berkeley voted to urge all UC students to wear black armbands and to call for a moment of silence at today's football game here with Stanford."
A delegation of students from Kent State University in Ohio planned to attend funeral services for the two killed at Southern. During a student demonstration at Kent in 1970, four students died and nine were wounded when National Guardsmen opened fire.
About 40 persons from a group calling itself Youth Against War and Fascism demonstrated outside the offices of the Louisiana Land and Exploration Co. They handed out leaflets blaming the Southern University deaths on "racist Louisiana sheriffs."
At the University of Wisconsin, Leonard Bonds said he had suspended classes until after Thanksgiving.

Germans Ballot Sunday

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Willy Brandt and opposition challenger Rainer Barzel voted for last-minute votes today on the eve of one of the closest-run elections in West Germany's 23-year history.
Amid the first heavy snows of winter, Brandt filled a schedule of three final speeches. He rallied his Social Democratic party and urged voters to support his party.
Brandt's political opponent, German town of Bad Oldesloe before starting a sentimental journey to nearby Luebeck, the Baltic seaport where he was born, and West Berlin, where he ruled as mayor in the Cold War years of the early 1960s.
In contrast, Christian Democratic party leader Barzel quietly toured his Paderborn constituency in northern Germany without giving any official speeches.
Amid forecasts of an unprecedented 90 per cent or better turnout among 40 million eligible voters Sunday, the election still appeared undecided.
Brandt skillfully focused attention this week on his popular Nobel Prize-winning drive for East-West friendship.
Officially closing his campaign Friday night in the Ruhr industrial city of Essen, he announced his hopes to visit East Berlin "before Christmas" if re-elected so he can sign his historic good-neighbor treaty with East Germany, concluded only last week.

Juvenile Accused Of Murder

BRIDGEPORT (AP) — A 17-year-old Bridgeport youth was charged with murder today in the hatched death of Charles Evans Jr., a University of Bridgeport speech professor earlier this week, police said. And a 14-year-old boy is in custody of juvenile authorities on a complaint of murder.
Police identified the older suspect as Richard DeVeniy. He was charged in a bench warrant obtained by prosecutor John Ward.
Evans, 35, was found in his apartment with seven hatch wounds in his head. Medical Examiner George Molnar said death occurred within two days of when the body was found.
Evans was last seen Monday afternoon at the university. He did not show up for two classes on Tuesday.
People earlier said Evans might have known the assailant because there was no sign of forced entry or robbery. And neighbors said they heard shouting or screaming or barking by Evans' dog.
Evans had been at the apartment with Bridgeport since 1964. He directed the debating team and was considered an outgoing man with good rapport with his students.
His body was sent to Fort Smith, Ark., his birthplace, for the funeral.

Chamber Names Clark To Post

Richard G. Clark, 29, a native of Peekskill, N.Y., has been named executive vice president of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce. Making the announcement was John A. DeQuattro, chamber president, who said Clark will assume his post Dec. 4.
DeQuattro said Clark will have the responsibility for the overall management of the Chamber and that he was chosen from a field of 13 applicants. He will receive $12,000 annually plus a 600 car allowance.
He and his wife, Susan, will reside at 34 Haviland St.
He will fill a post that has been vacant since June 29, when J. Grant Swank resigned.
Swank had been executive vice president for 3 1/2 years. He had succeeded Robert L. Brock in the post.
Clark is a graduate of State University College at Potsdam, N.Y., with a B.A. in education. Until recently, he served the Stamford Area Commerce and Business Association as its
