BARBARA VARRICK Correspondent
Tel. 644-8274

A detailed report and proposals for governing student smoking in the high school were presented to the Board of Education last night by Douglas Kilgore, president of the high school Student Council.

Kilgore said the purpose of the presentation is to relieve problems which are a result of the smoking ban invoked at the high school.

Although the council does not support smoking itself, Kilgore said it feels that the present regulation is a "poor way to keep people from smoking" and recommended what was termed more "realistic" and "practical" steps to solve the problems of smoke-filled laboratories which create unhealthful and unpleasant conditions for everyone; deprivation of class time for the approximately 1.5 students suspended daily for infraction of the present board policy prohibiting student smoking in the school; and vandalism in the laboratories because of frustrated crowds of smoking students.

Kilgore added that the administration is made to "look weak by its inability to enforce the rule" and that other disciplinary efforts are undermined as a result. He said that students are disillusioned by the hypocrisy that allows a teacher to report a student for smoking, and then have a cigarette in the faculty lounge while the student is being suspended. He indicated the relationship between teachers and students is "strained" because of the double standard and the "double standard" changes he made to deal with the problem and suggested that smoking of "all" persons be banned within the school building and persons be allowed to smoke outdoors but not near the front entrance of the building. The students are also asking that they be allowed to smoke in the cafeteria, but are responsible for being at class and other scheduled activities; and that students be able to sign out of talk-study hall and other areas directly behind the cafeteria rear doors.

Kilgore said he has responsibility for maintaining the cleanliness of smoking areas be assigned to the student council and suggested that the council work to help to stop smoking and not encourage it. The group asked that the smoking privileges be granted "on a temporary basis and be revoked if students litter excessively and continue to smoke indoors."

Kilgore said his group sent a survey to schools which have the smoking facilities in Simsbury, Newington, Manchester, and Glastonbury. Members of the administration at each of the schools have indicated the program is working as far as having cleaner lavatories, better morale — but the litter problem is hard to control.

Kilgore also said he learned that currently 44.8 per cent of towns in Connecticut allow smoking and that some schools are considering making a change to provide a smoking area for all.

Kilgore was first applauded for his presentation by Mrs. Chis Decker, a board member, who said she believed in the direction taken by the group in going to the "peer to peer" approach to solve the problem, but later asked that the decision hold for the next meeting of the board so that information be considered.

Another board member, Donald Berghis questioned the "probationary basis" and asked two doctors in the audience vehemently opposed allowing students to smoke anywhere. Dr. Theodore Gutkowski said the unclean restrooms were a disciplinary problem and that it would be wrong to "answer a disciplinary problem with a disciplinary problem" to expedite the decision in the matter. He accused the board of "not facing the problem" but of trying to replace one problem with another; he said that the students demonstrate first that they can apply peer pressure to make things work.

Dr. Joseph Kirstan of Vernon, a crusader against smoking called on the board to set an example for the students and that the board recognize the challenge before them and not condone or ignore the health factors involved for all.

NEW HAVEN (AP) — A grand jury Tuesday handed up a three-count murder indictment against Guillermo Aillon for the stabbing deaths of his wife and her parents.

An 18-member grand jury had listened to nearly two days of testimony.

Aillon, formerly of Wallingford, was present in the courtroom and heard the court clerk read the indictments formally accusing him of murdering his estranged wife, Barbara Montano Aillon and her parents, George and Bernice Montano.

The three were arraigned to death in Montana's fashionable New Haven home Aug. 13.

President Reviewing Vietnam Situation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon arranged a second meeting today with South Vietnam's special envoy Nguyen Phu Duc at the White House to continue discussions on the Vietnam peace negotiations.

Duc also met this morning at the White House for the second time separately with presidential national security advisor Henry A. Kissinger.

And, the White House announced a meeting just before dawn between the President and Duc, a special representative of South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu.

This meeting was originally scheduled to last an hour. Ronald L. Ziegler, the White House spokesman, said the session was "a very detailed discussion, and a very frank discussion," but refused to disclose the substance of the talks.

This attitude has marked the administration's responses to all questions recently about the state of the peace negotiations, and South Vietnamese sources have indicated the White House has demanded silence on their part.

Nevertheless, diplomatic sources in Saigon said Duc would propose a Nixon-Thieu meeting to reinforce the South Vietnamese view that no agreement should be signed until a written pledge for North Vietnam to withdraw all its troops from the South.

When asked if Duc had proposed a face-to-face meeting for the two chief executives, Ziegler, who was not at the Wednesday meeting, said not to his knowledge.

However, he also explained that Duc was Thieu's special representative and indicated it could be assumed he would pass along the Saigon leader's views to Nixon. Ziegler repeated an earlier statement that no Nixon-Thieu meeting is planned before Wednesday's session, Ziegler volunteered that the two previous Nixon-Thieu conferences, in 1969 at Midway Island and Saigon, were useful.

Popular Election Of Mayor Asked

BY SOL R. COHEN (Herald Reporter)

The Charter Revision Commission has been asked by one of its members to back a proposal for a town-wide election of a mayor.

The nine-member Board of Directors elects a board chairman from among its members and designates him the mayor. Almost always, he is the top vote-getter.

Phyllis Jackson, a Democrat, the only woman member of the 15-member CRC and its secretary, last night filed a formal request with the commission — that it recommend the election of a nine-member board and a mayor separate from the board and elected in a head-to-head contest.

Noting that the CRC already has rejected a recommendation of a mayor, she explained that under her proposal the mayor would have no political party affiliation. "He could be a majority-party mayor, or a minority-party mayor," she said. "It would work itself out."

The commission has a Feb. 6 deadline for submitting its report for a referendum to the Board of Directors.

A subcommittee consisting of Joseph Kristan and John Rotner is recommending that the designation of Board of Directors be changed to Town Council. In the event the CRC backs the recommendation, it will then consider a proposal for changing the designation of town council to something like town attorney, corporation counsel, etc.

The Sullivan-Rotner subcommittee is recommending a charter change for stronger regulations for the sale or development of waterfront property. It rejected a proposal to give the Parking Authority borrowing powers similar to those held by the Fire District — without resorting to a general referendum.

The subcommittee of Robert Stone and Nathan Agostinelli is recommending the establishment of a Department of Finance, with its operation under the control of a director of finance. The department would combine the functions of the controller, assessor, collector of revenue, purchasing agent and, possibly, the treasurer — with the probability that one of them would become director of finance.

The subcommittee of Leonard Seader and Thomas Ferguson rejected proposed charter changes for making the town clerk's office appointive instead of elective; for the election of a Planning and

Nine Die In Fire In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Nine persons were killed and 32 injured early today when a fire swept through the seventh floor of a recently constructed 11-story home for the elderly.

Fire officials said the blaze was confined to the seventh floor of the Baptist Towers in southwest Atlanta. They said most of the bodies were discovered in the hall.

Fire Marshal Jim Seagraves said the fire apparently started in one room on the seventh floor and spread down the hall, igniting several other apartments. Officials at the building said it holds 300 persons.

Witnesses said several of the elderly persons panicked and fled down the stairs. One woman reportedly suffered a heart attack but her condition was not known.

"I heard all these people come panicking and screaming down the stairs," said Louise Alexander, who lives on the first floor. "I could hear women screaming, 'Come and get me.' They just panicked. Some of them haven't been seen since they got here."

The Fulton County medical examiner's office said there were nine bodies at the morgue. Some 23 persons were treated for injuries, mainly smoke inhalation, and nine persons were treated at three other hospitals.

Survivors and their relatives who had come to the building when they heard of the fire milled around the undamaged lobby.

"I don't look too good," said Vernon Paulk, whose mother and father were on the seventh floor. "I got old folks like this they just get scared."

When asked if Duc had proposed a face-to-face meeting for the two chief executives, Ziegler, who was not at the Wednesday meeting, said not to his knowledge.

However, he also explained that Duc was Thieu's special representative and indicated it could be assumed he would pass along the Saigon leader's views to Nixon. ## Bus Hearings Concluded

HARTFORD (AP) — The Connecticut Co. has had its day in court.

And Superior Court Judge George Saden promises an early decision in two cases springing from the bus company's threatened shutdown and a strike by its union in Hartford, New Haven and Stamford.

Saden heard final arguments Wednesday in the second of the two cases.

The company, which claims weekly losses of $10,000, asked a strike be concluded Tuesday, that Saden ordered state Transportation Commissioner

Santa Give-Away Dead Give-Away

HONOLULU (AP) — To kids, some things are sacred. And one of them is that Santa has to be a man.

That's what a 20-year-old female Santa and officials at a shopping center here found out.

Weldon Larsen, manager of the Kahala Mall, said he hired the young woman, who didn't want to be identified, to serve as one of two Santas working separate shifts at the center.

The other one was a man.

"Of the ten applicants for the job, she showed a real interest in working with children and she was qualified, so we gave her the job," he said.

"There were no physical characteristics that gave her away." The Santa costume covered nearly all of her face and the suit was well padded," Larsen said.

But the kids, even two years old, spotted a flaw in the disguise. Santa's hands, with well-manicured long nails, weren't those of a man, Larsen said.

The lady Santa worked for three days this week, but "we kept getting complaints from parents and the older kids were ruining it for the young ones by telling them Santa was a woman," Larsen said.

"We mutually agreed that she give up the job. She was the last one who wanted to disillusion the kids."

South Windsor Board Will Meet In Private

"I guess someone will have to take me to court." This statement was made by Board of Education Chairman James Arnold after the meeting of the board last night and was in direct response to a request to clarify statements made earlier at the board meeting.

Contrary to the policies of the board, Arnold announced that all meetings to be held to discuss alternative solutions to the student smoking problem at the high school will be held in private sessions until January. No vote was taken by the board for the action.

Board policy dictates that all meetings are open to the public unless the board votes to hold an executive session to discuss personnel and personnel policies only.

Arnold was approached by representatives of the news media who asked that they be permitted to attend the sessions and were told that they would be excluded along with all taxpayers. He also said that he was permitted to attend the sessions and were told that they would be excluded along with all taxpayers.

Earlier this month the board met in a private home of a board member to "try to mend broken fences" and reach a platform on the ever-growing problem that has monopolized the board's time for more than four years. The heated political election caused descension among board members as well as arguments and complaints of exclusion from information concerning the board's actions on the plans for a $1.8 million high school addition which was later defeated in referendum Nov. 7.

Reports Mailed

Numerous telephone calls have been received by the office personnel at South Windsor High School from parents wishing to know about the report cards of their children.

School Principal Ralph Collins said the cards have been sent out today and should be arriving by mail this week.

Gotham Commuters Scramble

NEW YORK (AP) — Thousands of commuters scrambled early today for transportation to their jobs to minimize the impact of a midnight strike that shut down the Long Island Railroad.

At 5:30 a.m., a city traffic official said automobile traffic had already reached rush-hour proportions.

Nassau and Suffolk County bus lines put extra buses into service, with three of the companies extending their runs past the city line to discharge passengers at three subway stations in Queens.

The Police Department's traffic division dispatched extra highway patrol units and tow trucks at 8 a.m. to major highways to handle the expected traffic jams.

An estimated 90,000 daily commuters and 80,000 daily one-way riders were without service because of a walkout at 12:01 a.m. of 5,000 carmen, porters, and other members of 12 nonoperating unions.

LIRR is considered the nation's busiest commuter line.

West opened the nine of diamonds, and South won with the ace. He drew four rounds of trumps, discarding a low spade from dummy, and then cashed the king and queen of diamonds. South continued by ruffing out the jack of diamonds with his last trump. At this stage he tried to guess which finesse to take.

Parking Lot 14 From Hebron In Podium Cast

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—An entire city block set aside for public parking has yielded two customers and $150 in revenue in six weeks of operation, city officials said.

The block was cleared of houses several years ago as part of an urban renewal project and opened for parking on both a daily and monthly rental basis.

City Treasurer Rudy Zibert told the City Council that two customers have used the lot in six weeks, at 75 cents each.

Zibert said the Housing and Urban Development agency had projected $50,000 revenue to the city annually from the lot.

The council decided to lower the monthly rental rate from $12 to $8 but left the daily rate of 75 cents in force.

The paved lot is a few blocks from the main business area.

Wheat Moving To USSR

KANSAS CITY (AP)—About 17 per cent of the more than 400 million bushels of grain sold in Russia was shipped between July 1 and Nov. 17, a special task force of the National Grain and Feed Association reports.

Latest estimates indicate most of the grain will be delivered by next June or July.

Clay Robson will play one of the Dogpatch wives, Roger Phelps, Groggion the butler; and West Cranfield, Romeo Scragg. Other Dogpatchers include Kathy Wirth, Charlene Cross, Noreen Vaira, Katharine Sibun, Debbie Posternski and Brian Brown.

Stymied Pay TV May Get Rolling In Some Areas

By JERRY BUCK
Associated Press Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Pay television will soon reach the age of 21. In theory, the cable system which is installing the Pay TV system in San Diego is expected to be operational, possibly in January. It will offer two movies a week that are less than two years old and have completed their initial theater run in the city. Movies and sporting events will soon begin arriving in some homes over the cable.

Experimental pay television operations—riding piggyback over existing cable systems—are now being wired in such places as San Diego, Calif., Harrisburg, Pa., and Sarasota, Fla. A number of equipment manufacturers, cable systems, movie studios and independent entrepreneurs are working to enter this potentially lucrative market.

The Federal Communications Commission cleared the way for cable television last spring, although it is still mulling over how the industry will be regulated.

"There is no question that a portion of the future cable market lies in what we call premium programming," said David H. Foster, president of the National Cable Television Association. "There are many programs that don't appeal to a mass audience but will induce people to pay a fee."

"Pay television is after that lost audience that no longer goes out to the movies but does stay home and watch television. The motion picture industry, which has seen its audience shrink and the average age of the moviegoer drop to 20 years, feels it would be a home audience in order to survive."

Only about 15 per cent of the television homes currently are wired for cable, but pay television is built on the premise that as cable becomes more widespread this audience will be willing to pay several dollars a week to watch movies and such sporting events as home team games.

"You can't get people to go out, I don't care what you offer. The only alternative is to bring the movies to them," said Geoffrey Nathanson, president of Optical Systems Inc. of Los Angeles which is installing the San Diego system.

J. Garman Clothier, 887 Main St., opened in Manchester on March 11, 1964, as a women's apparel store called Corel Casuals. It specialized in fashion merchandise of high quality and imported fine women's sportswear.

The latest renovation has been the opening of the J. Garman Tailor Shop. Mr. Vincent Penavalle, master tailor, is in attendance. Not only are store alterations ably taken care of, but this new tailor shop is accepting outside work.

The store, now known as an institution for quality in Manchester, has dropped the Corel Casuals and J. Garman Menswear dual title and is known as J. Garman Clothier. This was done because so many people have referred to it simply as "Garman's."

Mr. Garman is ably assisted in manning the woman's department by Mrs. Ellen Schroedding of Manchester and in the men's department by Mr. Alan Cashman of Hartford. J. Garman Clothier has been a member of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce for many years.

The Shield Laws And Politicians

As anyone knows who watches the pro football games on the boob tube, it can be very important to the outcome of the game to have the right man carrying the ball at the right time.

Now this analogy may not seem to pertain to the present concern being expressed, pro and con, regarding shield laws which would enable a newspaperman to protect his confidential sources of information before grand juries, etc.

But a bit of background might help set the scene. The present discussion came to the fore with the sentencing of a New Jersey reporter to jail for failure to answer questions put to him by a grand jury.

The principle involved is how far can a reporter go in protecting the source of his information. Traditionally, there has been a tacit understanding that this was part and parcel of the general freedom of the press concept in our Constitution which states "Congress shall make no law...abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press."

But the ordinary citizen can be compelled in court to "tell the truth and the whole truth" except if such testimony be self-incriminating. Thus the issue in a practical sense becomes one of whether by a shield law, we grant a reporter a professional exemption similar to that enjoyed by clergymen and lawyers.

Now before making a snap judgment on this issue, it would be wise for us in the newspaper profession and the citizens as a whole to keep our eye on who is carrying the ball.

We can say that within the profession there is mixed emotions about shield laws basically. First, the matter of defining by statute as to what qualifies a person as a "professional journalist" might be unconstitutional in itself for any restriction as to who might practice the profession inherently limits freedom of speech and the press.

Second, assuming the profession should feel such laws are needed to end the increasing desire of courts, committees and what have you to, in effect, draft reporters into doing their legwork; such a law be drafted which will control effectively the use of confidence between a reporter and a news tipster so that the reporter and his editors do not have to mandatorily contract a confidential relationship with all news sources?

We fear that any legal recognition given to such a relationship could be a step backward in that it is difficult enough now to get certain people in the know, so to speak, to speak out without giving them another barrier of secrecy to hide behind. The value of confidential information hinges on many factors which we think is difficult to define in a statute. The present "gentlemen's agreement" approach, while it has meant some reporters going to jail because they gave their word to protect a news source, still leaves the reporter carrying the ball and not some court attempting to interpret a statute as applied to a given case.

Third, since the professional has not reached an understanding as to the need for a shield law and much less what form such a law should take; we are deplored with the debate over politician-proposed shield laws. These men, for whatever reasons they have of their own, have intercepted the ball.

Since much of the confidential information obtained by investigative reporters affects directly and indirectly the political "profession," we are deeply concerned as to their motives and their ability to write a shield law which would protect reporters from politically-motivated efforts to quash a reporter's investigative attempts or harass him for something he has uncovered and published.

Granted, the concern for shield laws is ideally motivated by a need to protect reporters from political harassment from without or within the judicial system, but the nagging question of who should carry the ball, in establishing by statute the means of doing this, is important.

We agree a "grubby little press card" does not make a person a professional journalist any more than winning an election makes a politician a statesman.

Maybe the test of the journalism profession is not the protection and privileges we are able to extract for ourselves from government but rather the integrity of practitioners who over the years have dug out the stories that have tumbled political dynasties and who believed the power of an aroused and informed citizenry would be the best protection they needed in pursuing their professional obligation of meeting the public's right to know.

Before the shield law issue is settled the ball will change hands many times; right now we don't like the fact the politicians are carrying it. As a matter of fact, how did they get into the game in the first place? Maybe this is the question we in the profession and our readers should be asking ourselves.

Dear Dr. Smith,
On behalf of the children, parents and staff of Nathan Hale School let me take this opportunity to express to you and your committee our sincere appreciation for the planting recently completed here at the school. As you know the work entailed a complete redecorating in the front of our building. As a result the school's outward appearance has been greatly enhanced. What a pleasure it is to view daily the results of the efforts of your group.

As a relative newcomer to Manchester I am always pleasantly surprised at the number of services, both public and private, available to the citizens of the community. There is no doubt that the City Beautification Program has had its influence over the years in making Manchester a more attractive place in which to live and work.

Once again our thanks. Very truly yours,

Inside Report

Rocland Evans and Robert Novak
Nixon Permissiveness

WASHINGTON — The basic White House decision was made Nov. 2, the day the Indians occupied BIA. High Interior Department officials, recognizing three top Indian leaders as violence-prone hoodlums with no claims to legitimacy, wanted them evicted at once. Instead, the White House began protracted legal proceedings, a decision almost surely made by White House domestic policy chief John Ehrlichman and his deputy, Bud Krogh. It is inconceivable that the President himself did not concur.

Where the White House was heading was made evident after the identity of its agent negotiating with the Indians, Bradley H. Patterson, Jr., a career bureaucrat regarded as a staunch liberal, was revealed. Patterson had recommended and, therefore, is desparately trying to separate Mr. Nixon from the government's handling of the BIA occupation.

But taking an executive branch Fifth Amendment won't accomplish that. Even some White House aides privately acknowledge this inescapable conclusion: the President's public abhorrence of permissiveness is grounded in political expediency. When it becomes more expedient to avoid admittedly dangerous confrontations with armed demonstrators, Mr. Nixon does not hesitate to look the other way.

Thanks to compartmentalized decision-making at the White House, there simply was no staff meeting on the BIA occupation. Thus, high-level aides read newspaper reports of the government's bowing to lawlessness without ever seeing a memorandum or attending a conference about it.

Washington — Politicians run for the honor of living in the White House and then leave every chance they get to leave. Already, President Nixon has spent less time in the big white pile on Pennsylvania Avenue than any other President in his first four years in office.

Nixon prefers to work — he doesn't do much playing at his holiday retreats at Camp David, a brief helicopter flight away from his desk, in San Clemente, Calif., and Key Biscayne, Fla. Only a private citizen could enjoy living in the White House. For a President, as Harry Truman once remarked, it's a jail, with virtually no access to the outside world.

Despite the billions of words written about the Executive Mansion it is still a mystery to Americans still think the first family has the run of the place. Negative. The family is confined to the "living quarters" on the second floor. The rest of the house consists mostly of public rooms, many of them open to daily sightseers, and quarters used for official or housekeeping purposes. The first family apartment is handsomely furnished, but it is a trap, complete with Secret Service guards in the long, spacious main hall.

The grounds are outsize and beautifully landscaped, but Nixon can't stroll about them without a Secret Service escort, and only in the black of night are there no crowds of tourists and passersby gathered outside the high black iron fence. Truman used to take early-morning walks on neighborhood streets. That is no longer safe. His home is Nixon's office. He can't sneak off for a three-hour lunch at Sam's Souci with his cronies. He can't go out for a night on the town and he can't go to the movies. He and his family can see any film, they want to see but only in a basement White House theater.

Because the President works most of his time outside the White House, he is too accessible to members of his administration. Or, as Press Secretary Ron Ziegler put it recently, "Nixon doesn't like to see anyone he doesn't

The Innocent Bystander

Art Hoppe
Christmas Comes But Once A Day

America's chronic economic ills were solved at last by the election in 1944 of President Jeremiah Jingles. Mr. Jingles ran on the Merry Christmas Ticket.

His platform consisted of but a single pledge: "If I am elected, we will celebrate Christmas every day!" This platform was not only politically appealing (for most voters liked Christmas, all in all), but it was economically astute.

As Mr. Jingles pointed out in campaign speeches, for generations Christmas spending had stimulated increased employment, soaring retail sales and the use of vacant lots for peddling Christmas trees.

But the first real crack in the cherry facade didn't occur until the Fourth of July. That was when a husband in Scranton hung himself with one of his 432 neckties. The note he left behind said simply: "There wasn't one I liked."

The following week, a housewife in Elmira ran amok and killed two neighbors with a cleaver, shouting that she had mistakenly sent them to her Christmas cards that day only to discover they hadn't sent her one for a week. (She was later proved mistaken.)

By late November, the Nation was nervous and jittery. Riots broke out in department stores whenever Bing Crosby's "White Christmas" was played. And all a warm greeting of "Merry Christmas" was likely to get you was a punch in the nose.

So Mr. Jingles was elected in 1947. He was inaugurated on Dec. 25, a day like any other, and amid cries of "Bah, humbug!" voted to impeach President Jingles.

At the same time, they passed a law decreeing that any person caught wearing a red suit and white beard in public on or before Dec. 15 would be shot on sight.

What happy days those were! Strangers smiled warmly at each other on the streets and exchanged the universal greeting: "Merry Christmas and the economy boomed. New stores blossomed everywhere.

NO TWO HUMANS BEHAVE EXACTLY THE SAME. EXCEPT FOR THE GAME JUMPERS. SIX ARTHUR KEVRE

Tolland School Evaluation To Begin Sunday

BETTE QUATRALE
Correspondent

The anticipated accreditation of Tolland High School by evaluating teams of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges will begin Sunday night, when a team of 21 educators from Massachusetts and Connecticut converge on the school.

The accreditation of the school is of particular significance to students who plan to further their education after high school. Students graduating from accredited colleges have a better chance of being accepted into desired schools than those from schools which have not been accredited.

Tolland High School has received a grace period of accreditation until it had graduated its first and second senior classes.

Basically, the accreditation of the school consists of a close look at the school facilities, the staff and the materials used, compared with the goals and philosophy of the school itself, by educators not associated with the school or the community.

Parental visits to all four local schools are being encouraged, during the school day, with each school having its own schedule for these visits.

At Meadowbrook School, parents are invited to visit on Thursdays between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. Principal Donald Parker will be on duty to answer questions.

At the Tolland Historical Society, the annual Christmas Party will be held on Dec. 17, 10 from 2 until 5 p.m. Each family will bring a dessert made from an old or family recipe.

VFW Post 241 will hold its annual Christmas Party for children of members on Dec. 17. Children aged 10 and under must be registered for the party before Dec. 15.

The Middle School invites parents to attend any school day, but to call the guidance office first to make an appointment. Upon arrival they should check in at the office and someone will give them a tour of the school.

Tolland High School is open to visitors five days a week, but parents have to check in at the office first, then Principal Robert Olson will take them on a tour of the building.
The evaluating team will arrive Sunday and remain until Wednesday when a verbal reaction report will be presented to the school staff, possibly with members of the Board of Education sitting in. Some evaluating teams permit the school board to hear the reaction report; others do not.

You Can't Win Unless You Do

HOLLY GANTNER

"Can federal taxpayers take credit on their income tax returns for the cost of state lottery tickets?" "Yes and No," says the Internal Revenue Service.

IRS says the cost of lottery tickets is identified as gambling and taxpayers may take credit for losses from gambling — BUT, only to a certain point.

That point is UP to but NOT IN EXCESS of winnings in other words, if you win some money in the state lottery — he it $20 or $75,000 — he or she may take credit for the year's cost of lottery tickets — but only to the amount of the winnings.

The rule for the rest of us is, "If you win nothing, you take credit for nothing." Just as is the case in politics — "To the winners belong the spoils."

High school staff members have been working since the accreditation inspection, beginning with a self-evaluation procedure using existing staff.

The evaluating team will participate in a tour of the high school Sunday afternoon, followed by a dinner at Piano's Restaurant in Bolton, during which the local school reports dealing with "school and community" school philosophy and the "summary of the self-evaluation" will be presented.

Upcoming Events
Boy Scout Troop 15 will camp this weekend at the James L. Hamilton State Park in Hampton, Conn.

Coventry Appeals Rule Reinstating Patrolman

HOLLY GANTNER
Correspondent

The town is appealing a decision of the State Labor Relations Board, which had ordered that the town reinstate Patrolman Donald Rouillard, fired earlier this year for allegedly having failed to answer a request for medical assistance by an accident victim.

According to Town Manager Dennis Moore, the appeal is being made on the basis that the SLRB did not comply with Public Act 84, the Administrative Procedures Act, during hearing procedures.

The act sets up guidelines for agencies, the state board, communities and officers, other than the legislature and courts, for hearing procedures.

Moore said at the time that the town would appeal, and that the rehiring of Rouillard would be against the town's best judgement.

Christmas Sale
The Coventry Historical Society and the Coventry Garden Club will co-sponsor a Christmas Sale and Open House on Saturday and Sunday at the society's little red house on South St., next to the Nathan Hale Homestead.

Baskets, dried arrangements and antiques will all be offered for sale at the event.
Mailed order, warmed on the hearth, will be served with the doors open Friday night from 7 to 10 p.m. and on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend.
Men's Basketball
The Recreation Commission is once again sponsoring a men's basketball program this year. The program, open to all men in town, will be held on Monday night for the "young" men; on Thursday night, only those over 30 will be eligible to play. Both nights will play at Capt. Nathan Hale School. Those wishing further information should call Jacob Wiseman, RC secretary.

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Preliminary legislation regulating the sex lives of dogs and cats has been passed by the Shreveport City Council.

Female dogs with amorous intent would be forbidden to leave their own yards under terms of the ordinance, which was passed on its first reading Tuesday.

It also would make it illegal for a dog or cat to have more than 34 offspring per year.

KITCHENAID PORTABLE DISHWASHER
buy one today, use it tonight.
Are you willing to take seven minutes every morning? Not five mornings out of seven...not six days out of seven...not seven days out of seven! Regularity that speaks to the Lord on this approach: "Lord, I want to meet You the first thing in the morning for at least 7 minutes. Tomorrow when the alarm goes off, I have a date with you!"
"O Lord, in the morning Thou shalt hear my prayer; in the morning I will set in order before Thee my prayer, and will look up!" (Psalm 5:3 Berkeley).
Tomorrow—How do you spend these seven minutes? Rev. William A. Taylor Church of the Nazarene

Popular Election Discussion Lively Over Pay for Board

Zoning Commission and a Board of Appeals and for paying its members to serve; for electing a Board of Finance; for providing for recall of public officials (the Home Rule Act under which Manchester operates does not permit the recall provision); and for requiring that one-third of all appointed members of commissions be unaffiliated voters, with the other two-thirds equally split between the two parties.

recommened he be someone connected with the town planning office.
The subcommittee of Francis Mahoney and Harlan Taylor rejected proposed changes for extending the 10-day filing time to 30 days for petitions of overrule; for allowing referendum by petition of 500 electors, rather than by 5 per cent of the total, as now; and for forbidding advisory referendums.
Many of the 40 or more items being studied were not even touched last night. They will be reviewed at subsequent meetings. CRC chairman John FitzGerald said the commission may hold weekly meetings from now to February. He explained that proposed charter changes, in addition to being discussed and voted upon, will require legal drafting.

Jaycees Sponsor Toys Collection
The Manchester Jaycees are sponsoring a Christmas collection of toys and personal items again this year for the patients at Mansfield State Training School.
John Beebe, Jaycee chairman of the toy collection committee, in cooperation with David McCarthy, manager of the Burger King at 467 Center St., has arranged for all items to be left at the Burger King, items may be left there every day from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. through Dec. 15.
Some of the items suggested for donation are:
For girls: Perfume, costume jewelry, socks, knitted accessories, musical stuffed animals, hair curlers, etc.
For boys: Ties, tobacco, gloves, scarves, shaving toiletries, socks, etc.
For children: Coloring books, crayons, workable toys, games, scooters, wagons, etc.
A donation of a wheel chair would also be welcome.
The items will be delivered to Mansfield State Training School Dec. 16.

Fire Calls
Town firemen answered a call at 8:30 a.m. today to 1200 W. Middle Tpk. to extinguish an auto fire. Firemen reported damage to be minor.

About Town
The Little Flower of Jesus Mothers Circle will meet tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph Lawler, 202 Autumn St. Mrs. Leo Tsokalais is co-hostess.
Chapman Court, Order of Amaranth, will meet tomorrow at 7:45 p.m. in the Masonic Temple for its annual meeting and election of officers. A Christmas party will also be held. Members are reminded to bring gifts for exchange.

Suspicious Probe Correct
LAKEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Sheriff's Sgt. Willard Givens was walking to his car after an off-duty nightcap when he noticed two suspicious men entering the bar.
Givens thought about the men as he drove home Tuesday. He decided to call the bartender to make sure everything was all right.
Bartender John Campanale, 29, gave strained answers. Givens later recalled, so he alerted fellow officers who converged on the bar and found a robbery in progress.
Two men, holding Campanale as a hostage, ordered the deputies out of the bar. But when the gunmen tried to leave one was shot by a deputy and the other was captured soon after leaving the scene.

Scope's Cost Lower
Australia's newest radio telescope for deep-space probes has been put into service near Sydney.
It was built by the Electrical Engineering School at Sydney University and, because much of the assembly work was done by research students, the cost was only $27,500. A similar telescope in the Netherlands cost $9.3 million.

Also, beginning metal embroidery, federal income tax, astrology, charm, furniture refinishing, weather forecasting and principles, how we got our Bible, chess, fire-crafts, decorating your home (advanced).

Jump To Avoid Flames
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Spectators jammed streets in the heart of the city as five women leaped from the 12th floor of a burning building. Some swept, some prayed, as helicopters raced with death to rescue eight men trapped on the roof. Four persons died.
The women on the 12th floor of the 18-story building called for help as flames tried unsuccessfully to breach them with extension ladders.
"We were three stories too short," said Fire Chief Louis San Salvador. He said there was a possibility of arson.
As the flames leaked nearer, the five women began jumping. With the horrified crowd watching, they plunged to a rooftop on an adjoining building — a fall of eight stories.
Each fall was accompanied by a scream from the crowd.

Procedures outlining courses and other details for the Manchester Adult Evening School winter term will be available Dec. 18. They may be obtained in all town banks, libraries, the Municipal Building, and at the Manchester High School main office.

Catholic Burial

Who will choose your family burial place? Someone must do it. Unless it is a planned decision now, your family may have to depend on the judgment of a friend, or even a stranger, to select in haste and hope he will not disappoint those who will be the most frequent visitors.

There will be a Mass Friday at 5:30 p.m. at St. James Church for the deceased members of Gibbons Association of the Catholic Ladies of Columbus.

The annual joint meeting of Temple organizations will take place on Dec. 5 at 8:15 p.m. at Temple Beth Shalom.

The Salvation Army will hold a Christmas sale on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 661 Main St.

The Manchester Newsroom Club will hold a men's chess at the home of Bill Smith, 55 Galax Dr.

Personal Notice
In loving memory of Charles J. Gould who passed away Nov. 28, 1968.

What is longing made from?
That it does not hurt one with me?

The moon rises and the sun rises,
The sea flows in and flows,
But longing never leaves the heart.

objections to Hurley's questions seeking Dr. Kristan's observations on the effects of smoking.

At one time this morning, in the absence of the jury, Dr. Kristan remarked, "There's been an objection to every question (Atty. Hurley) ask."

At midday today, Prosecutor Dearington was preparing to cross-examine Dr. Kristan.

In testimony yesterday, Prosecutor Michael Dearington presented four witnesses, starting with the complainant, Mrs. Betty Lou Beitner of Tolland. Mrs. Beitner testified that she was "sprayed in the face with an unknown substance" by Dr. Kristan.

Mrs. Beitner, a receptionist in the hospital's emergency waiting room at the time of the incident, said she experienced a choking sensation and burning in her eyes.

Dr. Neil Brooks of Rockville testified that he examined Mrs. Beitner after the incident had occurred. He said that Mrs. Beitner's symptoms - running and red eyes, running nose, and coughing - indicated she had an allergic-type reaction to the aerosol spray.

Dr. Brooks, under cross-examination by defense attorney D. Michael Hurley, noted that the same symptoms can be caused by cigarette smoke.

The two other state witnesses, one a hospital housekeeper and the other a registered nurse, apparently corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Beitner.

Mrs. Marie Hopowiec, a housekeeper working in the waiting room during the incident, said Dr. Kristan sprayed directly at Mrs. Beitner. Under cross-examination, Mrs. Hopowiec admitted that she didn't actually see the trail of spray, but Mrs. Beitner's actions indicated she must have been hit in the face with the spray.

Hurley brought out that Mrs. Hopowiec is a 1 1/2-pack per day smoker. When Atty. Hurley asked if Dr. Kristan had ever asked her to stop smoking, Mrs. Hopowiec said, "Yes - but I didn't pay any attention to him."

Mrs. Eleanor Herzog, head nurse at the hospital's emergency room, said she was at her nursing station March 17 when Mrs. Beitner ran out of the waiting room and said she had been sprayed by Dr. Kristan. Mrs. Beitner had running eyes, wheezing, was coughing and was extremely asthry on Mrs. Beitner's desk.

Under cross-examination by the prosecutor, Mrs. Shinn added, "I'm certain he sprayed down at the subway." "The smoke was dispelled," she said.

When Prosecutor Dearington asked Mrs. Shinn if she had any feelings about the state charging Dr. Kristan for the incident, Mrs. Shinn said, "I wonder what justice is being done."

The five-man-one woman jury was excused several times throughout yesterday's session as the prosecutor and defense attorney argued several points of law. The jury consists of one cigarette smoker, one pipe smoker, one cigar smoker, two one-time smokers, and one who never smoked.

A woman juror who smoked cigarettes was excused yesterday after the court learned she had once met one of the state's witnesses. The alternate juror took her place.

Between 10 and 15 spectators were present during yesterday's court session. The witnesses, who were sequestered after a state motion, had to wait in the lobby outside the courtroom while the trial was under way.

The two teams of bandits stared at each other in disbelief, witnesses said.

Police said a gang of five men entered a northeastern clothing store Wednesday night, wrestled a gun away from a security guard and announced it was a holdup.

At that time, a second group of five men, armed with a .22 caliber revolver, walked into the store.

Missing Yule Kettle Back

NEW YORK (AP) - The back on the street outside Salvation Army's 400-pound Macy's department store money-collection kettle was today.

How it vanished last week and who brought it back remained a mystery.

A spokesman for the Salvation Army said the red iron kettle, 6 feet in diameter and 3 1/2 feet high, was turned over about 3 a.m. to the Daily News, which had offered a $1,000 reward.

Neither the Daily News nor the Salvation Army could say immediately who returned the kettle or if the reward was paid.

For 20 years during yuletide seasons, the kettle has been outside Macy's 34th Street store collecting coins tossed by Christmas shoppers.

Apollo 17 Television Plans Vary From Earlier Treks

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — In a break with the tradition of past lunar missions, the Apollo 17 astronauts will take their first steps on the moon without the whole world looking on.

Apollo 17 astronauts Eugene A. Cernan and Harrison H. Schmitt will work on the moon's surface for more than an hour before the television camera beams a view to earth.

On all previous moon landing missions, a television camera mounted on the side of the lunar module was activated as the commander came down a ladder toward the moon's surface.

For Apollo 17, the camera is stowed and will not be turned on until Cernan has mounted it on the astronauts' electric lunar car.

The first television view from the lunar surface will probably show Cernan and Schmitt unloading equipment from the lunar module.

Apollo 17's lunar surface camera will be remotely controlled by radio signals from earth.

Cernan and Schmitt will turn off the camera each time they move their car and then turn it on whenever they park. The ground controller in Mission Control will focus the TV camera on the astronauts at work for five to six hours during each of their three seven-hour surface excursions.

Apollo 17 will have another television camera aboard the command module. It will be used seven times during the trips to and from the moon.

A total of 21 hours and 17 minutes of television is to be beamed to earth from Apollo 17, although much of it will not be seen live on home television screens. The television networks are expected to record the space television and use selected segments.

Here is a timetable of the television from space on Apollo 17 — all times are Eastern Standard.

Dec. 7, 2:05 a.m. — Twenty minutes of television showing the docking of the Apollo 17 command ship with the lunar module.

Dec. 11, 7:49 p.m. — Five hours and 19 minutes of the first moon surface excursion.

Dec. 12, 5:31 p.m. — Six hours and 11 minutes showing the second surface exploration.

Dec. 13, 4:58 p.m. — Six

Dog Picks Poor Place For Dip

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) — Daniel Brown's dog decided to go for a swim but he chose a rather unorthodox way to do it.

Brown, of Castro Valley, was eastbound on the San Mateo Bridge when the dog jumped out of his pickup truck and fell 30 feet over the rail into the San Francisco Bay.

Homer Elliott, a tow truck driver who regularly patrols the bridge in search of stranded motorists, saw the dog's dive and set out to rescue the floundering animal.

Elliott was lowered over the side on the tow truck's cable and was within inches of the dog when Brown yelled from the bridge above, "Hey, I forgot to tell you, the dog is vicious."

Elliott said the dog was too tired to resist and the rescue was successful.

READDOG HARBENS ISLAND, Mich. (AP) — Elizabeth of Point Aillon, a pedigreed Labrador Retriever, has been sworn in as the new mascot of the St. Clair State Coast Guard Station.

The dog was presented to the station by William Rothermel, a former marine, who is president of the Massachusetts Council of Navy League. The dog is the 14th Labrador Retriever to be assigned to Coast Guard stations in connection with these dogs the official U.S. Coast Guard mascot.

Richardson Has Managerial Skill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Elliott L. Richardson, designated the new Secretary of Defense Tuesday, has a reputation for managerial skills.

During his time as undersecretary of State and for the last 2½ years as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, he has preferred to work out of the public spotlight.

Born in Boston, a Harvard law school graduate, Richardson, 52, is a former lieutenant governor and state attorney general of Massachusetts.

At the HEW department with 110,000 employees and myriad programs he took a firm grasp of minute details. With its massive social legislation, the HEW budget reached $78.9 billion, larger than the Defense Department.

Speculation had centered on his possibly becoming the next secretary of State or attorney general.

He had been mentioned also as a possible second-term running mate alongside President Nixon and now is being touted in some circles as a presidential contender in 1976.

Richardson appears to be in tune with Nixon on the need to trim down the bureaucracy.

A strong advocate of school desegregation, he found himself in the position of refusing to cut off federal funds to recalcitrant school districts and attempting with skill but without success to sell Nixon's antismoking legislation to Congress.

Richardson worked long hours on Capitol Hill in a last-ditch effort to win passage of welfare reform, called Nixon's No. 1 domestic program. But after winning a key compromise from Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., a former HEW secretary, he saw Nixon refuse to budget.

Richardson's public image at news conferences is one of stiffness and formality, with adroit circumlocution when he doesn't feel free to speak on an issue.

Lean and angular, he keeps himself in shape by frequently hiking the five floors of stairs at the top of HEW, as well as playing tennis, skiing and fishing.

He is an incessant doodler, to help himself concentrate he says. He also water paints for relaxation and chooses the best for Christmas cards to friends.

At the start of World War II he was turned down for military service because of poor eyesight.

So Richardson memorized the eye chart and got into an Army uniform, but another physician reversed the chart and he was barred from combat duty.

He went ashore with the Fourth Infantry Division on D-Day in Normandy in charge of a litter platoon, and mustered out in 1945 as a first lieutenant with the Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

After graduating from Harvard Law in 1947, Richardson began his government career as a law clerk to Judge Learned Hand of the Court of Appeals and to Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter.

He campaigned for and became an assistant to Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., in 1953-54 and was appointed as assistant secretary for legislation at HEW in 1956.

In 1960 President Eisenhower named him U.S. attorney for Massachusetts where he conducted probes of highway land frauds and organized crime.

After a short stint in 1961 as a special assistant in Massachusetts to Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy, Richardson was elected Massachusetts lieutenant governor under Gov. John A. Volpe in 1964 and state attorney general in 1966.

He and his wife, Anne F. Hazard of Pease Lake, R.I., have two sons and a daughter.

NEW YORK (AP) — Christmas gift packages that travelers carry aboard planes during the holiday season may be opened and searched as an antibacking measure, airline officials say.

Many flights are expected to be delayed and tempers ruffled by the inspection of millions of packages for smuggled weapons during one of the peak air travel periods, the officials said Tuesday.

They said reservations agents are urging travelers to check gifts along with their regular luggage, in which case the packages won't be opened or to carry the gifts aboard without Christmas wrapping.

An estimated nine million passengers will be carried between Dec. 22 and Jan. 1 and in the end the crush may limit searches to spot checks, some airline sources predicted.

Pan American World Airways said it would use x-ray devices on certain flights to inspect the gift packages and would not require that they be opened.

After a short stint in 1961 as a special assistant in Massachusetts to Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy, Richardson was elected Massachusetts lieutenant governor under Gov. John A. Volpe in 1964 and state attorney general in 1966.

He and his wife, Anne F. Hazard of Pease Lake, R.I., have two sons and a daughter.

NEW YORK (AP) — Christmas gift packages that travelers carry aboard planes during the holiday season may be opened and searched as an antibacking measure, airline officials say.

Many flights are expected to be delayed and tempers ruffled by the inspection of millions of packages for smuggled weapons during one of the peak air travel periods, the officials said Tuesday.

They said reservations agents are urging travelers to check gifts along with their regular luggage, in which case the packages won't be opened or to carry the gifts aboard without Christmas wrapping.

An estimated nine million passengers will be carried between Dec. 22 and Jan. 1 and in the end the crush may limit searches to spot checks, some airline sources predicted.

Pan American World Airways said it would use x-ray devices on certain flights to inspect the gift packages and would not require that they be opened.

Freshman Players Star In First Varsity Tests

NEW YORK (AP)—John Wooden of UCLA and Denny Crum of Louisville, two of the nation's leading collegiate basketball coaches, have been among the most outspoken against the new rule allowing freshmen to play varsity ball.

Coaches Lefty Driesell of Maryland, Fred Snowden of Arizona and Dick Lloyd of Rutgers would have to disagree with them — especially following Wednesday night's games.

Driesell watched his star freshman, John Lucas, net 19 points in his varsity debut as third-ranked Maryland set a school scoring record in routing Brown 127-52.

Snowden, coaching his first game at Arizona, had a successful debut as 17-year-old freshman Eric Money produced 27 points and the Wildcats beat California State-Bakersfield 94-87.

And Lloyd employed three freshmen in his starting lineup, including Phil Sellers, who scored 30 points, as the Scarlet Knight whipped Georgetown, D.C. 88-83.

Lucas, a 6-foot-3 guard from Durham, N.C., scored four points and assisted on the game-winning shot scored eight straight points early in the first half and took a commanding 22-14 lead.

Tom McMillen topped Maryland with 22 points, while Vaughn Clarke led Brown with 28.

Money, also a guard, connected on 14 of 20 field goals attempts as Arizona shot a blistering 65 per cent from the field 64-57. Jim Sellers, a 6-5 forward from Brooklyn, N.Y., connected from all over the court and grabbed 10 rebounds, while his Rutgers teammate, John Somogyi, added 26 points. Mike Staokes, one of four starting freshmen for Georgetown, paced the Hoyas with 21 points.

Meanwhile, All-American Dwight Lamar, the nation's leading scorer last season with a 36.3 average, connected for 30 points as seventh-ranked Southwestern Louisiana beat Nevada-Las Vegas 102-92.

California State-Fullerton surprised Oklahoma State, 56-55, with the help of 16 points by Urie McMorre, connected on an 87-63 victory over Alabama A&M.

Princeton turnovers and beat the Tigers 64-57. Jim Crawford fired in 29 points, hauled down 11 rebounds and had seven assists, leading LaSalle to a 75-59 victory over Lehigh.

Jim Brown's 27 points sparked Dartmouth to an 86-85 triumph over Vermont in the coaching debuts of the winners' Tom O'Connor and the losers' Peter Salzberg. Sophomore Dave Hampton's 16 points paced Navy to a 77-84 romp over Haverford.

Billy Knight's 38 points kept Pitt's 75-69 triumph over Mt. Union.

And Tennessee State, the Associated Press' college division champion last season, opened his 1972-73 season with an 87-63 victory over Alabama A&M.

Hartford Invitational Tournament Friday

Trinity to Meet Wesleyan, Central and Hartford Tangle

HARTFORD (AP) — Connecticut College has little place to go but up when the Bantams' basketball season begins Friday in the nightcap of a twin bill opening the Trinity Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Trinity Coach Robie Shults, who says he didn't enjoy last season's 3-15 record all at, is counting on co-captains Tom McGuirk and Kevin to lead the way this season.

But a problem for Trinity is numbers. "We're suffering from a lack of numbers," Shults said, adding that "We have the best nine basketball players in school on the team."

Those nine make up the entire Trinity team, a fact which could cause problems if the Bantams get into injury or foul difficulties during game this season.

In the Friday game, Trinity plays Wesleyan which finished 17-7 last season.

The tourney's first game at 7 p.m. will pit Hartford against Central Connecticut.

Friday's losers will meet in a consolation game Saturday at 7 p.m. and the winners will play at 9 p.m.

Cardinals Coach Herb Kenney says three spots are wide open on his team behind co-captain Brad Shults, a senior forward and junior guard Dick Fairbrother.

He calls Rogers a "super player" and says "Fairbrother will have to take up the scoring slack" left by the graduation of All-New England performer John Edw. Fairbrother.

Hartford's 11th-year Coach Gordie McCullough has the memory of a 18-6 season to bolster a 1972-73 team that he says is "frankly... (is) so inexperienced it really scares me. We have by far the youngest and smallest team we've had in years. We'll be a good team in time but it might take a while."

The Hawks will also miss the talents of a particular trio—Ed Hill, Augie Gwartz and Edw. Fairbrother.

Central Connecticut finished last season with a 17-8 record and Coach Bill Detrick is cautious about the upcoming slate.

"We've come a long way since our first season but there's work to be done. It's our hope that the combination of quickness and shooting ability will more than compensate for real size," he says.

Ski Notes

By BILL SACHEREK

The time has come for a change in sports.

I changed from cleated downhill shoes Thanksgiving night to a pair of boots. The destination was Hunter Mountain in New York. It was a Jim Ahn trip, a day later, to meet many old friends from all over the East, as Hunter hosted the first meeting of the S.W.A. over the weekend.

A real warm genuine red carpet treatment was extended. All in all, it was a day later.

Hail Maniago For Net Work

NEW YORK (AP) — Cesar Maniago, banished to the bench two weeks ago, is back and being hailed for his work in the Minnesota goal.

Maniago stopped 28 shots to record his second straight shutout as the North Stars beat Atlanta 4-2 Wednesday night to remain in first place in the National Hockey League West.

In other NHL action, which scored seven third-period goals in an 8-3 rout of Detroit.

In other NHL action, which scored seven third-period goals in an 8-3 rout of Detroit.

Montreal led Boston 3-1, Pittsburgh ripped Toronto 7-4.

St. Louis edged Carolina 2-1 and the New York Rangers and Los Angeles played a 2-2 tie.

Ron Ward scored three goals, two of them in nine seconds in the second period, and Wayne Rivers two as the New York Raiders edged the New England Whalers in the World Hockey Association game.

Rivers' second goal gave the Raiders the victory after Kevin Ahearn and Brad Schroll scored to give New England a 6-6 tie.

Maniago returned to action eight days ago in relief of injured Gump Worsley in the second period of a 3-1 victory over Toronto and then whitewashed Los Angeles 3-0 Saturday. He has not allowed a goal in 143 minutes. Judge Drouin scored two goals for Minnesota.

Chicago was trailing 2-1 in the third period when the Black Hawks scored seven goals, two of them by Pit Martin, who scored three for the game, to gain their fourth straight victory.

East leader Montreal gained its tie with Boston when Guy Lafleur scored a power-play goal with less than five minutes left in the game. Joe Repetto's goal at 5:11 of the game's close losses into wins."

UConn will provide a formidable foe for an open Saturday. A year ago, the Huskies eked out a 66-64 decision over the Hawks and back from that team are two first frontcourt operatives, juniors Cal Chapman and Gary Custick.

At Vaughn of New Haven is a great player, a senior, a new recruit, and sophomore Earl Wilson, a great player, who scored from New Haven, should help, too. The 6-4 Wilson and Franks led third in scoring among New England freshmen last year with their 25-point averages.

This will be Yale's only home contest the first two weeks of the season, with the next one coming Saturday, Dec. 9, and the final game, Dec. 12.

Kearns in Starting Lineup Senior-Less Yale Five Awaiting UConn Opener

Yale's basketball team, with nary a senior on the squad, opens its 78th season against Connecticut Saturday night at Payne Whitney Gym. Game time is 8 for the 38th meeting of the state rivals, with Yale having won 19 times.

Junior captain Mike Baskauskas will lead the Elis from his forward position as the Blue begins to target improvement over its 7-17 record of a year ago. Baskauskas, a 6-4 hunker, led Yale in scoring (17.0) and was second in rebounding (8.1) last winter.

He'll be joined in the frontcourt by 6-6 junior Jerry Shafric and 6-9 junior Scott Ferguson. Ferguson missed the second half of last season with a broken ankle, but is fit again. Shafric was a reserve last year.

Tom Kearns, third-leading scorer last year (12.4) will be at the helm at this point.

"I'm considering any of four men," says Coach Joe Vecchini, who is in his 7th year at Yale. "Juniors Ned Jaroszewski, Mike Oristaglio, and Mel Reynolds are in competition with sophomore Gary Franks. But no one has stepped out in front yet."

Reynolds, a 6-5 junior college transfer, is probably the best defensive player, while Franks is a good shooter. Jaroszewski may have a ballhandling edge and Oristaglio has the best court sense. Franks, however, led the freshmen in scoring last year with a 25-point average and will see a lot of action, even if he doesn't start.

Depth up front figures to be provided by 6-7 junior Gary Rinek and 6-7 sophomore Jim Cartmel. Rinek did well filling in after Ferguson's injury last year and plays center or forward. Cartmel, who spent the last two years in military service, is primarily a center.

"We expect to show improvement again this year," says Vecchini. "I think our depth is better, we have more height and the rebounding should be good. What we need is consistency to turn some of last year's close losses into wins."

UConn will provide a formidable foe for an open Saturday. A year ago, the Huskies eked out a 66-64 decision over the Hawks and back from that team are two first frontcourt operatives, juniors Cal Chapman and Gary Custick.

At Vaughn of New Haven is a great player, a senior, a new recruit, and sophomore Earl Wilson, a great player, who scored from New Haven, should help, too. The 6-4 Wilson and Franks led third in scoring among New England freshmen last year with their 25-point averages.

This will be Yale's only home contest the first two weeks of the season, with the next one coming Saturday, Dec. 9, and the final game, Dec. 12.

UConn Tickets Now Available

Season tickets for the University of Connecticut home basketball games were mailed today and the athletic ticket office is now processing orders for the Connecticut Classic as well as the three home games in December.

Season ticket sales were above the figure for the previous year, and 98 per cent of the space reserved for season tickets has been sold for the coming season, according to Director of Athletics John Toner.

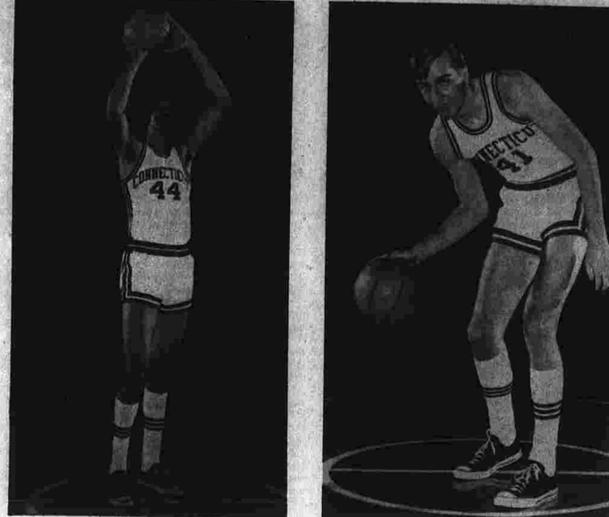

Single game orders now being accepted are for the Dec. 8 opener with Holy Cross (Dec. 5), Holy Cross (Dec. 9) and Brown (Dec. 12).

game, and the Tuesday, Dec. 12, Yankee Conference opener with Massachusetts.

Connecticut Classic pairings find Yale vs. Syracuse and Connecticut vs. Harvard on Friday, Dec. 22; while it will be Yale vs. Harvard and Syracuse vs. Connecticut on Saturday, Dec. 23.

Tickets may be ordered by phone (489-3774) or by mail at the athletic ticket office, Storrs, 06268.

Mike Epstein of the Oakland A's was the hit again twice in the game, and he strikes and each time the first baseman grounded out.

Heavy Hoop Schedule Facing UConn Quintet

The University of Connecticut basketball team opens a strenuous December schedule when the Huskies clash with Yale at New Haven, Saturday night at 8. Connecticut, a 66-64 winner a year ago, needs a victory to even the 42-year old series with the Elis at 19 games each.

Connecticut Coach Dee Rowe, beginning his fourth season at UConn, has a trio of newcomers from last year's 8-17 team plus a couple of exciting newcomers in his starting lineup.

Forwards 6-6 junior Cal Chapman and 6-7 junior Gary Custick and guard 6-2 senior Al Vaughn are the veterans; while 6-5 sophomore forward Earl Wilson and 6-1 junior guard Jimmy Foster are the newcomers.

Chapman has made marked improvement over his sophomore season where a lack of consistency hurt. He is counted upon heavily to come into his own as a junior. He was the top rebounder (8.8) and second leading scorer (16.8) during his sophomore season. He has fine passing ability and sees the open man. His speed, agility and added strength should make "Chaps" one of the top forwards in New England.

Scoring Threat

A great percentage shooter with quick release and the ability to lull his opponents to sleep, Custick is a constant scoring threat. He was the team's leading scorer (18.3) and second high rebounder (8.6) during a brilliant sophomore showing. His rebound hoop in the closing seconds of play against Yale a year ago provided the winning margin. Very deceptive and an excellent outside shooter, he will be counted upon heavily to keep the opponent's defenses honest. A great team player, he is always looking for the open man.

Vaughn comes into his senior season as a greatly improved defensive player. This is attributed to a superior attitude in pre-season work which has set a fine example for the young players on the squad. Averaging 13.4 points per game a year ago, Vaughn brings valuable experience, excellent shooting range and the ability to get the shot off in traffic to the guards' positions. A fine dribbler and passer who is very quick and sneaky fast, he is an excellent leader for his size.

Wilson, one of the finest front players in New England a year ago, was the leading frosh scorer in UConn history. His outstanding quickness and leaping ability should add greatly to the front line. Strong and aggressive, he should contribute to the rebounding corps, despite the fact he only stands 6-5. He needs to polish his defense and outside shooting, but his super attitude should make it only a matter of time before he masters these problems.

Junior College Graduate

Foster, a Becker Junior College Graduate, is possessed with great speed and quickness. An excellent defensive player as well as a scorer and ball handler, he should make a substantial contribution to the ball club. His speed and stamina should help him trigger the fast break. At Becker he had a single game high of 51 and went over the 40-mark ten times while averaging 34.4 points and 14.4 rebounds.

Another man who should see action is 6-0 sophomore guard Ed Harrison, who was on sabbatical last winter. An exciting player to watch, his speed and quickness makes him a strong candidate for a guards' spot. He has amazing leaping ability for his size and a good knowledge of the game. He hit the open man well, can deliver the ball on the fly and is very creative. He also has fine range with jump ball.

Bob Parsons, a 6-7 senior, is the only other senior on the team, with Vaughn. He brings needed experience and savvy to a young ball club, as well as a very sound knowledge of the game. An excellent defender with great timing, he can play both center and forward. A part-time starter a year ago, he moves well around the hoop.

Another forward with part-time experience is 6-5 Bill Deehan. Because of his excellent attitude, added strength and general overall improvement over last year, he will see much action up front. He is a fine ball handler with good range on the jump shot. A letterman, he had a great pre-season.

A couple of sophomores are also listed as forwards. They are 6-4 Curt Johnson and 6-8 Ken Wright.

Round Out Roster

A pair of guards round out the 12-man roster. They are 6-2 Junior Pat Mullin, and 5-11 Dennis Cole.

Mullin, a letterman, was hampered toward the end of last season due to a knee injury. He has fully recovered from summer surgery and will be counted upon to help in the backcourt. A consistent and steady player with a good understanding of the game as well as a deadly jump shot, he is looking forward to a fine season and the return to his freshman form and earlier expectations.

Following the Yale opener, Connecticut returns home for three games: Holy Cross Dec. 6, Rutgers Dec. 9 and Massachusetts Dec. 12.

Rham Teachers Toy Drive Planned In Accord With Hebron Women's Club

Superintendent of Schools Dr. David Catanch announced last night that the 1972-1973 professional agreement between the Regional District 8 Board of Education and the Rham Educational Association (REA) has been signed by both parties following mediation.

After almost eleven months of negotiations, an impasse was reached and the REA requested the State Board of Education for mediation.

Two sessions were held — one on the 21st of this month from 7 p.m. until 4:30 the following morning and the other on the 22nd from 7 p.m. until 2:30 a.m. on the 23rd.

Details of the contract are expected to be released sometime today when the board meeting in the very near future.

Andover Classes Start In First Aid
ANNA FRISINA, Correspondent

The Andover Volunteer Fire Department last night conducted the first of an eight-week series of classes dealing with first aid procedures.

The classes being conducted have been set up so that the average man or woman could acquire the basic knowledge of first aid that is called for in many day-to-day situations.

At a recent Cub Scout Pack 28 meeting, Philip Holmes received a gold arrow and Scott Unsworth a bear badge.

Both girls have had considerable experience in candle making and have shown their creations at the Hebron Harvest Fair as well as other fairs in the area and at craft shows.

Junior Women's Club, will be held Dec. 7 at 12:30 p.m. at the Gilead Congregational Church. A pot-luck luncheon will be served and there will be games and prizes.

Senior citizens planning to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Pam Franckel, Millstream Rd.

Saigon Envoy Seeks Fourth Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Vietnam's special envoy Nguyen Phu Duc today sought a fourth meeting with national security adviser Henry A. Kissinger on the final shape of a Vietnam peace settlement.

Washington officials said Saigon is not now ready to initial the modified draft agreement worked out between Kissinger and the North Vietnamese in secret Paris talks.

League Official Says Keyword Is 'Caution'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Detroit Mayor Roman S. Gribbs, new president of the National League of Cities, says the major challenge to cities in the 1970s is to prevent a nation tired from a decade of social change from forgetting its needs.

Seven Die In Plane Crash

SAIGON (AP) — A twin-engine transport plane with 22 Americans and 10 South Vietnamese aboard crashed on the central coast today, killing seven people, including Maj. Gen. Van Van Phong, chief of the pacification program, field reports said.

Burger Intervenes In Air Pollution Standards Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — A last-day intervention by Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren E. Burger has headed off the imposition of federal regulations forbidding air pollution of air that is still clean.

Government lawyers, who are appealing lower court orders that require this "non-degradation" policy, say its application would mean economic disaster for clean-air regions.

Bank Buys Israel Bonds

The Manchester State Bank decided recently to repurchase its purchase of a year ago when it bought $10,000 in Israel Bonds.

South Windsor School Board Asks Town To Improve Playground

The Board of Education this week came close to tabling action on a proposal to bring the Pleasant Valley Elementary School playground up to standard with other playgrounds in the town.

Angered at the apparent delay, Mrs. Margaret Reed of the board member who asked for the study, said she sat through other board meetings and listened while the board decided that tennis courts on school property, needed by the town, "was a gift" to the school system that should not be turned down.

Another board member, the vice president of the Future Nurses Club; is secretary of the Class of 1973; and is on the cheerleading squad in her junior year.

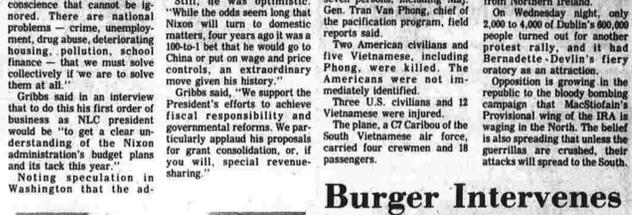

She plans to attend college upon graduation to prepare for a career in nursing.

Miss Kathleen Moriarty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Moriarty of 484 Oakland Rd., has been elected treasurer of the freshman Class at Salve Regina College in Newport, R.I.

Miners Begin Voting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 200,000 members of the United Mine Workers Union begin voting today on a referendum under the tightest federal control in the history of the American labor movement.

The principal election fight is between Mine Workers President W. A. "Tony" Boyle, 70, whose last opponent was murdered, and challenger Arnold Miller of Ohley, W. Va.

Boyle has repeatedly denied any knowledge of the slayings. Miller, a retired coal miner, was nominated by Miners for a Democracy, a rebel group he has been observing since 1960.

Eligible to vote are some 120,000 working coal miners and approximately 80,000 retired miners in 25 states.

Christmas Comes Early

Happiness — to James L. Dodson of Manchester — is winning $15,000 in the Connecticut Lottery.

Under the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1970, EPA has established air quality standards setting limits on the permissible levels of smoke and photochemical oxidants — all common elements in air pollution.
