Icy Roads In Battle For Party Chairmanship Democrats Make Decision Today

Freezing rain on top of a light snowfall created icy road surfaces and extremely hazardous driving conditions from mid-afternoon on yesterday. Area police reported numerous accidents. Most resulted in minor damage and injuries, if any, not serious. In a majority of the cases, no police action was taken.

With road conditions worsening as the commuting hour approached, several Hartford insurance companies closed early.

The National Weather Service at Windsor Locks reported that the conditions were caused by rain, in small, low pressure waves breaking off a front running to the south, falling through cold ground layers. For the rest of the weekend, it forecast periods of light rain or drizzle, but no major storm, with patchy fog and temperatures in the 40s on Monday, the spokesman said, will be partly cloudy and colder.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The prophetic fight for the Democratic party chairmanship climaxes today as insurgents seek to fire Jean Westwood and replace her with Dallas lawyer Robert Strauss. Strauss, a former party treasurer and one of its most successful money raisers, has the backing of big labor leaders disgruntled over the McGovern nomination, party conservatives led by a core of Southern governors, and moderates saying they want the party pulled back toward centerfield.

Truman Slightly Improved

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Window signs have appeared in the Kansas City area reading "Give 'em hell, Harry, let's get well," an although former President Harry S. Truman still is in critical condition he is reported to be slightly improved.

Peace Talks Continue

PARIS (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger and Hanoi's Le Duc Tho opened their sixth secret meeting of the week at 3 P.M. today in a suburban villa owned by the French Communist party.

Plane Crashes Into Houses

CHICAGO (AP) — A passenger jet carrying 61 persons was winging its way through sleet and snow to a landing at Midway Airport when it plummeted down in a neighborhood of tidy bungalows on the city's Southwest Side, killing most of those aboard.

Fire Damages House

The third Manchester house fire in less than a week last night badly damaged the one-and-a-half story house at 447 E. Middle Tpk., owned by Mrs. Ruth Smith.

Youthful Good Samaritan
Rain freezing quickly on streets and sidewalks yesterday afternoon created conditions to be dealt with gingerly. Nine-year-old Robbie Bouchard of 60 Bunce Dr., equipped with shovel and wheelbarrow loaded with sand, does his part for the safety of pedestrians. (Herald photo by Bucelvicius)

Apollo 17 To Orbit Moon Tomorrow

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Today was final rehearsal for man's last planned visit to the moon, a personal challenge for three Americans who have trained together nearly two years.

Mayor Says Town Will Appeal Rev-Share Cut

Mayor John Thompson has expressed "shock and disappointment" over the news that Manchester will receive about 50 per cent less in federal revenue-sharing funds than anticipated.

White Quits Welfare Post

HARTFORD (AP) — Connecticut's controversial welfare commissioner resigned his post Friday, commending the statehouse leadership of Gov. Thomas J. Meskill by declaring that government "red tape" was too much for him to handle.

Another big deal will be our annual Christmas Party to be held on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 20. We've been told that Santa Claus will pay us a visit, and we'll have a sing-along for many exciting trips. To show their appreciation and the way of a Christmas present, they will have two buses available to take some of our members to Hartford to spend the afternoon, and also to see the bright lights on the way home. The ladies in the Class A group, the triple of 456, and Karl White came out the winner of the high single with 165.

Bowling Results
In the afternoon the Senior Bowling League was knocking the pins down at the Parkade Lanes, and this is the result:
The high triple of 329 was won by Ted Chambers, and the high single of 200 was won by Clarence Peterson in the Class A Division. In the Class B group, Cliff Hammond took over the high triple of 456, and Karl White came out the winner of the high single with 165.

Fun-Day
Then came Wednesday, and in the morning some of the members were enjoying making Christmas items during the arts and crafts program. After enjoying a delicious roast beef dinner, we all met upstairs for our regular Fun-Day. The gang enjoyed listening to our guest speaker, and for you who were unable to attend, you may call our office for information about his talk. From there we learned that Paul Schmitt, the Number 1 Goodwill ambassador, is a patient at our local hospital, and at last report he is undergoing different tests, but is feeling good.

News for Senior Citizens

Hallo there everybody. It's time to give you the happenings here at the Center, and I'm sort of joking things down while waiting for the big moon blast off. And man, that sure was something well worth waiting for. Sure with had my camera because the pictures were so very clear and colorful.

I guess you've read in the papers about someone breaking into our Center this past week, and all that was accomplished was some broken windows, cabinets, and a door. Fortunately nothing was taken, and I can't for the world of me wonder what one would expect to find in a Senior Center. We make daily deposits if, and when we come into any money, so actually there's nothing of value except important records we keep locked up.

Heating Oil Import Quotas To Be Eased

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Emergency Preparedness said today oil import regulations will be relaxed during the first four months of 1973 to increase the supply of fuel oil for heating.

The actions are being taken to "meet the tight fuel situation," said the announcement. OEP Director G. A. Lincoln said the Interior Department will soon publish official notice of suspension of the requirement that imports of No. 2 heating oil be manufactured from crude oil produced in the Western Hemisphere.

The recent abnormally cold weather underlines the need for a vigorous conservation program, led by industry and state and local government, as well as increases in refinery production of fuel oil, read the announcement.

Imported No. 2 heating fuel is priced the same or higher than the current rate for domestically produced oil, according to the OEP.

There was no immediate estimate on how much additional heating fuel the changes would bring in. An Interior Department official said the relaxation of the Western Hemisphere requirement would better enable importers to meet the allocations being planned.

The impact of the suspension of the conversion from fuel oil to crude remains unassessed and there were no definite figures on increases from Puerto Rico, according to the Interior official.

Stop Hijackings Now

Airline travelers are going to face new and stringent inspection of their persons and their baggage, and pay more for their tickets as well, in the new federal drive to stop plane hijackers before they can board at any of the nation's 531 airports.

President Nixon has decided to issue an emergency requirement that the airports provide armed guards to help intercept potential hijackers before they can reach the loading gate.

Pressure for greater precaution has mounted since recent hijackings obviously endangered the lives of passengers. Members of the Airline Pilots Association demanded "stop hijackings now" at their meeting in Las Vegas and considered "suspension of service" as a lever to gain more effective prevention.

Holiday travelers carrying gift packages may find themselves delayed as the airlines plan to open all packages for inspection to guard against weapons or explosives being smuggled aboard.

Sen. Harrison A. Williams Jr., New Jersey Democrat, addressing the pilot, predicted swift enactment of tough air piracy laws when the new Congress convenes Jan. 3.

The Senate earlier this year approved a bill which provided for airport security forces, compulsory screening with metal detectors of all passengers, and authorizing the President to suspend air service by American carriers to nations that harbor hijackers but the bill died in Congress.

Unfortunately, months will be required to implement the broad new initiatives. Guards are available now at only 123 airports and are too few to cover every boarding at these major ports which account for 80 per cent of passenger movement.

Probable source of funds to pay for more guards would be a modest ticket tax.

Meantime, efforts to reach agreement with Cuba, the haven sought by most U.S. hijackers, should be pushed as the quickest means to deter hijackings.

Holding Excise Tax in Protest

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company reports that some 22,000 of its subscribers are withholding payment of the federal excise tax on telephone service in protest against the Vietnam war.

This is an increase from 17,000 in 1971 and 12,000 in 1970.

The Internal Revenue Service has been trying to get AT&T to disconnect the protestors' telephones, but the company argues that its only responsibility is to forward the tax money to the IRS, not enforce its collection. If people won't pay the tax, that's the government's problem.

There the matter rests, for the moment.

As for the withholders, it seems to be an easy way to have your morality and your convenience too, without getting into trouble with Uncle Sam.

Capital Fare

WASHINGTON — It is always painful to turn on an old friend, and especially so when that friend is Consumers Union, which has done such a good job over the years of protecting us all from commercial quackery.

But CU has come out with a book on the dope problem that sends me up the wall.

First, its conclusions. "Licit and Illicit Drugs," by Edward M. Brecher, a writer on medical and scientific subjects, and CU's editors, calls for immediate repeal of all laws against marijuana, establishment of experimental heroin maintenance programs, and a nationwide ban on cigarette and alcohol advertising.

So far, so good. This is a free country. But the arguments Brecher and his collaborators employ to make their case for a permissive approach to the narcotics problem are so preposterous as to suggest the book may have been written with tongue in cheek. Yet in practically the same breath, they admit to doubts. They recommend legalization of the issue. "Marijuana is safe or harmless," but only because every time I don't, I callous over a corner of my soul. Every time I don't, I make my own world a slightly less decent place in which to live.

But now that our leaders say that peace is just around the corner, how hard it is to care. So the diplomats continue their intricate maneuvering, the bombs I helped pay for continue falling, and the human beings I never knew continue dying — dying now for no good reason at all.

Surely these pointless deaths now are the most tragic of this decade's wars. Yet so inured have I become in that decade to the suffering of others, so hardened to their pain, that I can now callously flip the page, and wish I could weep again for what we are doing to them, but for what we have done to my own little world.

I wish I could weep, not only for what we are doing to them, but for what we have done to my own little world.

I wish I could weep, not only for what we are doing to them, but for what we have done to my own little world.

The Innocent Bystander

Gov. Meskill has voiced support for a law which would make public the names of persons involved in special settlements of tax obligations at less than the amount due.

The state auditors, who found that $1.6 million a year in tax cases are being settled, had recommended such publicity. The auditors reported the instance of $120,000 in penalties and interest cancelled in one settlement.

No one denies that the state's best interest might be served by the settlement of a tax claim under which some penalties and interest might be waived. However, the public should have a right to know the reasons for the settlement.

Gov. Meskill is correct in supporting the right of the public to know what it's money is doing. The "right to know" is just as simple as that. (Waterbury Republican.)

Answers Your Needs

Someday or later everyone needs the service of a fine quality dry cleaner, laundry service or a tailor. In Manchester, Lucia's Laundromat and Tailor Shop is the answer to these needs. It is conveniently located at 170 Spruce St., just around the corner from Oak St. — almost next to the Nathan Hale School.

The business is divided into three sections: (1) Poly-Clean (R) Cleaners, (2) Laundromat and (3) Tailor Shop. The convenient hours are 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week, for the Laundromat.

Lucia's features the finest in equipment; Maytag Washers, Hot Dryers and RCA Whirlpool Cleaners. As busy as Spruce St. is, there is convenient off-street parking in the large annexed parking lot, which is well lighted for night customers. Should you come to the Laundromat and forget your quarters, don't worry. Lucia's has a machine which makes quarter change from your dollar bills. Dry cleaning takes about 30 minutes, while your laundry takes about 30 minutes. Your time passes pleasantly while you are waiting. Plus the latest magazines and papers are at your disposal.

Lucia's Tailor Shop has a tailor — Lucio Addabbo, whose motto is "We fit to please you." The tailor shop also specializes in reweaving, dry cleaning, custom made clothing in all coats; plus all types of alterations and professional services on men, women's and children's clothes.

In today's inflationary economy, it is important to know that Lucia's prices for all tailoring work are most fair. My Addabbo is a master tailor with over ten years experience. Should you wish your dry cleaning (which does next door in the laundromat) pressed, Mr. Addabbo will do that for you at a slight charge.

Or better yet, he will do your entire dry cleaning and pressing. Don't worry if you get a rip, tear or burn in your clothing. Lucia's reweaving and mending will make it look like new again. The tailor shop hours are different from the Laundromat hours. They are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily; Thursday night till 9 p.m. So don't miss out on Lucia's dry cleaning, reweaving, mending or complete tailoring service plus customerized clothes in Lucia's Laundromat and Tailor Shop at 170 Spruce St.

Show us your questions or problems, please feel free to call Mr. Addabbo at 645-7707.

The original quote given as a toast was: "Our Country, in her intercourse with foreign nations may always be in the right and always successful, right or wrong." — The World Almanac

"I did wonder if the five women jump from the 15th floor of a burning building in New Orleans.

"This is a classic case of the fox in charge of the chicken coop." — Joseph Rauh, vice chairman of the Americans for Democratic Action, discussing the appointment of union leader Peter J. Brennan as secretary of labor.

"They have made such good use of the effect of a whole family, giving the inmates a more realistic experience of love." — Richard Summer, a Lutheran prison chaplain from Texas, discussing a prison rehabilitation program in Utah in which Mormon families "adopt" inmates and counsel them while they are serving time.

To the editor:

As it seems you are no biased against jay walkers (of whom I am one) why not publish the other side of the coin and urge the police to go after the drag racers on Main Street, up to 40 miles per hour?

The red light crushers at the center of town. The ridiculous lighting on Main Street that makes jay walkers out of everyone and most of all the 30 to 60 drivers on Main who drive with no lights at all.

These are all against the law where as I have yet to see any particular law against jay walking. If these were enforced we certainly need more cross walks and lights in town which are paid no attention to. Also at Pencil Place you can see on any night from one to three cars coming on to Main Street from the wrong direction on one way street. Nearly anytime of the day or night you can see U-turns being made where there are signs that say "No U-Turns."

I dare say the driving laws on Main Street that are broken, as for instance for months illegal parking on Blaisell Street for over two hours. Let's go after the drivers who break the law and not the poor pedestrian who may have to pass three blocks to find a crossing and then risk being run over, for instance coming out of Oak on St. James St.

Nearly every light in Manchester encourages jay walking as other wise they might as well stay in the city. Perhaps it might be better that you had established in Washington, D.C. There you have doubled the revenue for the capitol.

From what I can see you have completely ruined the city with petty laws in the town. Perhaps it may do you good to drop your column and go back to publishing a newspaper as I have seen and heard many gripes as to the quality since you took over and as you have heard also.

As you will note also, I sign my name, no initials or aliases. However, for the only time you had any excitement in your paper when these were used.

Inside Report

Rouland Evans and Robert Noack
Sadat at Bay

CAIRO — President Anwar Sadat blocked at every turn in his efforts to persuade the U.S. to force Israeli withdrawal from the Sinai peninsula, is now putting all his eggs in the second Nixon-Breznev summit conference next year to impose a settlement of the Sinai crisis. This rather desperate hope of the Egyptian president, however, follows a series of bold acts on the world stage that may have boxed him into a corner with neither Washington nor Moscow now prepared to come to his rescue.

Thus, when Sadat succeeded Gamal Abdel Nasser in the fall of 1970, he started dropping his eggs into the American basket, in effect accepting the territorial settlement plan proposed by Secretary of State William P. Rogers, known as the Rogers Plan.

Unfortunately for Sadat, Israel flatly refused to yield to American pressure. Not only that but in January 1972 Prime Minister Golda Meir persuaded President Nixon to end the ban on new U.S. weapons for Israel resulting in an open pipeline of F-4 Phantom jets which will not be shut off until the end of 1973 at the earliest.

That decision by Mr. Nixon, taken on the eve of the presidential campaign and the President's ardent courtship of the American Jewish community, marked the end of Sadat's bid to the White House. Understandably angry and frustrated by the Americans, Sadat retaliated by imposing a

As for the withholders, it seems to be an easy way to have your morality and your convenience too, without getting into trouble with Uncle Sam.

But while reacting against the U.S., Sadat was also coming under heavy pressure from his new Libyan ally and from the officer corps of his own army to drastically reduce Soviet influence in Egypt. The leader in this anti-Soviet pressure was War Minister Mohammed Sidki. On July 18, in a sudden and spectacular move, the president ordered all but a tiny fraction of Soviet advisers out of his country.

In retrospect, Egyptian leaders of all persuasions now agree that Sadat's expulsion of Soviet advisers was too abrupt but also, hard on the heels of the failure of the American option, Egypt without a loyal ally in either of the two super-powers. Moreover, the timing of Sadat's dismissal of the Russians could not have been worse from the vantage point of influencing President Nixon. Nixon and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev to come to grips with the Israeli occupation when they meet in Washington next spring.

That's why there is far more serious talk here today about possible action at the Suez Canal than at any time since the case-fire took effect in the summer of 1970.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS by Eugene B. Brewer. I learned recently that in our local high school, stonewalled following boys' gym classes now are optional. Whether showering or not has little to do with godliness (although teachers of these students in closed rooms afterward might disagree), it is another point upon which adults have abdicated their prerogatives in the wave of permissiveness sweeping our society. God speaks harshly of those who rebel against authority and rail at dignities, Jude 8. If in such a matter self-judgment may not be enforced, pray tell where can it? Is it this same philosophy which has permitted immature high school students to effect revolutionary and unproven alterations of the curriculum. So many enter colleges barely able to spell their names, limited to two-syllable speech, and unable to write a complete sentence, and without enough self-discipline to take a bath.

Holiday Basketball Tournaments Started

NEW YORK (AP) — Christmas still is two weeks away, but the merry whirl of holiday tournaments already is under way in college basketball.

California, West Virginia, Western Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Jacksonville, Duquesne, Duke, San Francisco, Marshall, Southwestern Louisiana, Long Beach State and Puget Sound scored first round victories in the six major tournaments that opened Friday night.

California whacked Nebraska 75-50 and West Virginia downed the Air Force 83-46 in the Mountaineer Classic at Morgantown, W. Va.

No. 10 Kentucky slanted the UK Invitational, the UTPE Classic, Virginia Tech at Charlottesville, Va., and Vanderbilt took Columbia 76-61 in the Vanderbilt Classic at Nashville.

Jacksonville whipped Southern Illinois 82-77 and Duquesne humbled Pitt 67-61 in the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh. In the Cable Car Classic at Oakland, Calif., it was Duke over Santa Clara 69-65 and San Francisco over LaSalle 74-72.

Marshall squeaked past Texas-El Paso 64-62 and Southwestern Louisiana overcame St. Joseph's of Philadelphia 84-74 in the Bayou Classic at Lafayette, La. Long Beach State trounced Portland State 102-66 and Puget Sound overcame Montana 87-42 in the Daffodil Classic at Tacoma.

The pace quickens next week in the tournament parade with such attractions as the Jayhawk Classic, the Trojan Classic, the UK Invitational, the UTPE Classic, Volunteer Classic, Big Four and Marshall Invitational. It will pick up even more in the following week.

before the deluge in the week between Christmas and New Year's day.

N.C. State, sixth-ranked in the Associated Press national poll, overthrew South Florida 125-86 in a non-tournament game at Raleigh as David Thompson, with 30, and Tommy Burleson with 29 combined for 59 points.

The Wolfpack opened a 40-13 lead in the first 12 minutes, but "after that we got laced and had a little carelessness," coach Norman Sloan said.

Long Beach, No. 7 in the AP rankings, has an easy time against Portland State as Ed Ratleff scored 17 points and handed out 13 assists. No. 10 Southwestern Louisiana had tougher going against St. Joseph's as Dwight Lamar fell below his 30-point average with 24.

Two free throws by John Boro with five seconds left gave the San Francisco Dons their triumph over LaSalle. Duke's Alan Shaw likewise made two clutch free throws with eight seconds on the clock as the Blue Devils beat Santa Clara.

"The first win of the year for us feels real good," said Dick Edwards, California coach. "We picked up momentum in the second half and did a fine job," said Sonny Moran, West Virginia coach. Losing mentor Hank Egan of the Air Force commented "We felt West Virginia would come out with a press in the second half and they did just that and it killed us."

Virginia beat Wake Forest 75-62, Creighton whipped Arizona State 95-71, and Washington State defeated St. Joseph State 74-46 in non-tournament games.

Five in Twin Figures As MCC Tops Hartford

Overpowering Image
Hedgemon Lewis, left, squared off against Bill Backus last night in Syracuse. Former New York's version of world welterweight boxing championship with 15-round decision.

Paced by the brilliant performance of reserve Pat Kelly, Manchester Community College upped its season record to 2-0 by defeating University of Hartford JVs, 76-65, last night in Hartford. The Hawks now sport a 1-1 overall record.

This was the second time the high-powered Cougars have turned back a four-year college five. In their opener MCC topped Eastern Connecticut.

Dropping behind early, 7-1, the Cougars gradually picked off points and with 9:04 left in the half they overcame Hartford and led, 22-20, on Lamont Freeman's driving layup. Following Freeman's drive, 5-4 center Ernie Moore converted a three-point play and Kelly tapped in a shot to make it 27-22 with 6:29 showing.

At the half, Manchester held a four point lead 35-31. The final 20 minutes was dominated by Manchester as they opened up a commanding 15 point spread on the fine all-around performances of Moore, Bill Peoples, Ellie Grant, Stan Alexander, Freeman and Kelly. This group plus the showing of Bob Guerin, kept the Cougars fast break and Hartford couldn't create enough firepower.

The Cougars' outstanding ball handler, Freeman topped the balanced attack with 17 markers followed by Kelly Moore, Peoples, and Grant with 15, 13, 11 and 10 points each, respectively. Statistically, Moore grabbed 15 stray balls while Kelly hauled in 14 rebounds. Jumping Jack, Grant corralled 11 rebounds.

Cochet Pat Mistretta was far from pleased. "Kelly played great. However for the most part the rest of the team was just awful. We gave the ball up too many times, and we fouled too often. If we play like this Monday against Central Connecticut (there) we'll get blown out of the gym by the varsity mentor added.

MANCHESTER JVS (76) — Mist 5-13, Peoples 5-11, Grant 4-20, Alexander 4-8, Freeman 6-5-17, Kelly 5-5-15, Guerin 1-0-2, Cortez 0-0-0, Summatta 0-0-0.

HARTFORD JVS (65) — Wiegans 5-10, Caffiso 3-9-21, Chimentia 6-13, Merr 2-3-4, Madden 2-3-4, O'Shea 1-0-2, Corrales 1-0-2, McPhillips 2-1-5.

Little Man Lost Today
Sign of the times: Would you believe that the first New York Knicks, who started in 1946, were less than three inches per man shorter than the current club? Dean Meminger, at 6-1 the shortest Knicker of 1972, is as tall, or taller, than seven of the original New Yorkers. The '46 Knicks had four players under six feet. Wait! Meet a 1972 Knicker, Leo Gottlieb and Stan Stutz, each 5-11, and Frank Mangiapane, 5-10. Duckyin' bowled lost one of its biggest boosters when Ed Feustel died in New Haven last Thursday. He was a familiar figure at most major small town tournaments for more than a quarter century. The Siebold, Rec director, reports all three town recreation buildings - East Side, West Side and Y - will be open daily, as well as evenings, during the Christmas holiday school vacation period. Frank Rizza heads up the junior bowling program at the West Side Rec. There is no charge for the youngsters who alternate by setting up pins for the rollers. What college has produced the greatest number of players now in the National Football League. The answer is Southern California with 25, more than Notre Dame and three more than Michigan State and Ohio State. Also in the top 10 are: Grambling with 21, San Diego State with 18, Stanford with 17, Purdue with 16, Minnesota, Nebraska and Missouri with 15 each. Among the conferences, Southwestern 75, Southwest 88, Western and Missouri Valley 46, Pacific Coast 21 and Atlantic Coast 30.

Long Awaited Start Due
Vinny Clements is slated to get his long awaited start with the New York Giants Sunday as a running back against the Miami Dolphins. Coach Alex Webster has announced that the former UConn standout will move into Joe Romano's spot. It will be the Giants' home finale for the 1972 season and will be the first meeting ever against the undefeated Dolphins. Central Connecticut's basketball team will have to get along without Greg Martin who suffered a broken bone in his left knee. He's expected to be out at least six weeks.

MANCHESTER JVS (76) — Mist 5-13, Peoples 5-11, Grant 4-20, Alexander 4-8, Freeman 6-5-17, Kelly 5-5-15, Guerin 1-0-2, Cortez 0-0-0, Summatta 0-0-0.

Bucks Off and Running, Reason For Top Spot

67ers' John Trapp Has Upper Hand
... as He Battles Bulls' Cliff Ray for Ball

NEW YORK (AP) — The Milwaukee Bucks are off and running, and that's one reason why they're still in first place in the National Basketball Association's Midwest Division.

With Kareem Abdul-Jabbar grabbing 17 rebounds to set up numerous fast breaks, the Bucks trounced the Golden State Warriors 124-91 Friday night. The victory kept their one-half game in front of the Chicago Bulls, who whipped Philadelphia 116-102.

"We scored 42 points on the fast break," said Coach Larry Costello. "That's why we scored 120 points, not 90 or 89 like we've been doing."

Abdul-Jabbar also paced the Milwaukee scoring with 19 points, while Cliff Ray, Dan Driscoll and Oscar Robertson and Ollie Jordan added 17, 10, 10 and 10 points, respectively.

Elmore and Randy, tallied 18 apiece and Elmore also pulled down 22 rebounds. Walt Frazier was high for the Atlanta Braves with 24 points. Pete Maravich and Lou Hudson combined for 71 points as Atlanta walloped Baltimore and squeaked past the Bulls by one-half game. Pistol Pate gunned in 34 points while Hudson had 31.

Los Angeles used a balanced attack-Happy Hairston's 28 points, Gail

Goodrich's 22, Keith Erickson's 21 and Jim McMillian's 18-to-rip Seattle and run their perfect home record against the net record Super-Sonics to 17-0.

Detroit tied a club record with its sixth consecutive home triumph as Bob Lanier and Dave Bing led a four-point margin that turned back KC-Orgas. Lanier finished with 37 points and 21 rebounds while Bing had 27 points and 13 assists.

Houston survived a second-half scoring spree by Portland's Geoff Petrie and Sidney Wicks to beat the Trail Blazers. Petrie led all scorers with 34 points while Jimmy Walker topped Houston with 24.

Squires' Jim Eakins Houls After Fouling Nets' John Roche

Losing Coach Gets 'Jobbed'

NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Al Bianchi of the Virginia Squires doesn't care if he never sees the New York Nets' Nassau Coliseum again.

"I'm sick and tired of coming in here and getting jobbed," Bianchi roared after the Squires' 126-124 loss Friday night which dropped them out of a virtual second place in the Virginia Basketball Association's Eastern Division and left them just two games ahead of the fourth-place Nets.

The object of Bianchi's inattention was official Ken Sussman, who made a controversial call with 17 seconds left and the score tied at 124.

New York's John Roche, guarded closely by Patty Taylor, appeared to lose the ball, but Sussman whistled a foul on Taylor, his sixth personal.

Ironically, Roche missed both free throws, but the Nets grabbed the rebound and George Carter drove in for the winning basket with nine seconds left.

Elsewhere, Carolina shamed Denver 107-104. Kentucky downed Indiana 121-114. Utah crushed San Diego 128-95 and Memphis nipped Dallas 109-100.

Told that his tirade against the officials probably would cost him a fine, Bianchi said:

"I don't give a damn. I know my club well enough that they know when they've gotten it, and this was it. Last year the league kicked New York's butt, too."

Bianchi referred to a nine-day respite during the New York-Virginia playoffs last spring which gave the crippled Nets a chance to recover.

Carter's game-winning shot offed a brilliant fourth-quarter performance by Julius Erving, the ABA's leading scorer, who tallied Virginia's last 12 points and finished with a game-high 41. Roche paced the Nets with 38.

Carolina outscored Denver 11-1 in the final minute to pull out its victory and maintain a 1½ game lead over Kentucky in the Eastern Division.

The loss prevented the Rockets from gaining on Indiana in the Western Division and left them 2½ games out. Meanwhile, Artis Gilmore, Louis Dampier and Dan Issel sparked Kentucky past the Pacers. Gilmore scored 32 points, grabbed 17 rebounds and blocked four shots while Dampier and Issel each scored 25 points and Dampier handed out seven assists. Mel Daniels led the losers with 36 points.

Utah shot a blistering 78 per cent in the first half and breezed past San Diego, although the Conquistadors had the game's high scorers in Slew Johnson, with 31 points, and Jerry Chambers, who had 28. Glen Cobb led a balanced San Diego attack with 21, including four three-point goals.

Bunny Wilson's driving layup with four seconds left enabled Memphis to edge Dallas in a battle of last-place teams.

George Thompson of Memphis led the scoring with 29 points while Bob Netolicky, whose last-second shot went in and out, had 28 for Dallas.

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants will know well before they take the field Sunday whether they've got a shot at joining the Miami Dolphins as the only team to win the NFL's first Super Bowl.

The Dolphins, meanwhile, have nothing to worry about except extending their exceptional record. At 12-0, they've long since clinched the American Conference East title, as they play out the season, secure in the knowledge they'll be hosting the first round of playoffs Dec. 24, another first round preside as they steadily mounting.

One goal they're seeking is to become the first NFL postseason hopes. But if team from the 1962 Chicago Bears to have a perfect season. The Bears had an edge over Miami in that department, needing only 11 yards to do it. The Dolphins need 14.

But before reaching that plateau, there's another one to be attained, mainly seats for roughly 60,000. If they get it, they'll become only the fifth NFL team to do so, joining the 1934 Bears, 1962 Green Bay Packers, 1967 Oakland Raiders and 1968 Baltimore Colts.

This sort of thing is nothing new to Miami Coach

Overpowering Image Paterno Might Listen to Offer

Don Shula. He coached that record-tying Baltimore bunch to a 13-1 record, only to face defeat in the Super Bowl at the hands of Joe Namath and the New York Jets.

And that sort of thing is nothing new to Shula, either. His Dolphins staled defeat in the last Super Bowl, making it the only coach in the NFL to make it to the final step twice, then come up short.

Meanwhile, along with all the scoreboard and record watching, there will be some head-to-head competition of interest to the Yankee Stadium turf.

Larry Coakia of Miami, the AFC's No. 2 ground gainer with 1,016 yards, will be matched against the Giants' Ron Johnson, No. 1 in the NFC with 1,066 yards. Johnson is also No. 2 in NFC scoring via the touchdown route with 11 for 66 points while the Dolphins' Mercury Morris, seventh in AFC rushing with 807 yards, also has 11 touchdowns, good enough for No. 2 in that conference.

Paterno, who has turned out pro stars like Mike Reid, Fran Harris, Ted Kwalick and Jack Ham during his six years as boss of the Lions. Two years ago, he turned down a coach-general manager offer and $75,000 salary from the Pittsburgh Steelers. Last year, he spurned the advances of the Green Bay Packers.

Those close to Paterno say he will probably stick with Penn State for at least another three years, when he can retire at half pay at age 48.

He's been in University Park for 22 years, 18 as an assistant and the last four as head coach. His family is happy in a college community and he has the Dolphins' Mercury Morris, seventh in AFC rushing with 807 yards, also has 11 touchdowns, good enough for No. 2 in that conference.

Paterno also longs to win the national collegiate title.

Balanced Attack Sparks Ellington

Don Flint, a 4-3 forward for Ellington High paced them to a commanding 70-41 victory last night over E.O. Smith on the Knights' court. It was the season opener for both clubs.

Flint, captain of this year's "Purple Guard," netted seven field goals and five from the charity stripe to account for his game high of 19 points.

The superior Ellington squad coached by John Beach, a junior center, Guy Champ and Chris Harrod in double figures with 14, 12 and 11 points respectively.

By The Associated Press
Ellington, which has been successful on 10 of 27 field goal attempts last season, has been successful on 10 of 27 attempts through the first two games this year.

"Another reason for my improvement is because our offense is better and I'm getting more opportunities. It's tough when you get one shot and miss, and then have to wait two weeks for another chance to shoot again."

The Giant specialist has tallied 85 points this season to bring his career total to 507 for a Giant club record. The old mark was 484 by Frank Gifford, who scored 78 touchdowns and his field goals and kicked 10 extra points. How many fans remember when Gifford did the kicking? He's now making more money than ever as a teevee commentator as part of the Monday night team with Don Meredith and Howard Cosell.

Reason for Improvement Finding Top Quarterback In Statistics Revealed

NEW YORK (NEA) — To locate the best quarterback from the weekly swarm of college players is a formidable task.

Every week a glop of stats is issued from the office of the National Football League. There are statistics on pass receivers and punt returners, scorers and interceptors. And madly passing.

A reader may tell at a satisfying glance who is the highest scorer by the total number of points who is the busiest pass receiver by the number of passes received, and so on. These statistics are voluminously listed up like so many blockers until one may follow easily behind them to the goal.

Not so for quarterbacks. There is at once an abundance and ephemeral system worked out. Abuse because there is no way to translate its foggy mystery, you are still sure where you stand. Ephemeral because the new systems pop up as often as the instant cliches of football like "crackback" now, and like "red dog" yesterday.

Today's quarterback rankings are determined by four categories: passing percentage based on a 100 points against completions, the percentage of interceptions, the number of passes completed, the percentage of passes received, and the number of passes thrown against number of passes thrown, and the average number of yards per carry and derring-do and audible bellowing are beyond the strengths of stiff type.

Quer things happen right before the weekly reader's eyes. One week Johnny Unitas is fifth in passing in the AFC. That week he comes in for one play, is sacked and fumbles. The next week he rises to second in passing because the quarterbacks ranked ahead of him had even more doleful days.

The question of who should get credit or a rain by a forward pass is another problem facing the stats men. A

Plan Surgery Monday For Cincinnati's Bench

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bench, the National League's Cincinnati Reds catcher Johnny Bench, who has been hospitalized since last week, is scheduled for surgery Monday for removal of a spot on his lung.

Bench, who was not available for comment, told friends he planned to enter the hospital after attending the Cincinnati Bengals-Cleveland Browns football game here.

George Ballou, in a statement, said Bench was scheduled for surgery Monday for removal of a spot on his lung.

"The tests performed on Johnny Bench were completed today and no new additional information has been made," said Bengals-Cleveland Browns Reds team physician Dr. football game here.

'I Believe in Basic Techniques' Giants' Pass Blocking Line Matured Under Ray Wietecha

NEW YORK — Last July, when Alex Webster was asked what would be different about the Giants this season, the New York coach promised a return to basic execution on offense, "with fewer frills and more emphasis on things that perhaps we have been taking for granted; repetition will be very obvious."

Webster already had advanced in that direction with a staff shakeup that brought Ray Wietecha from the scouting department to coach the offensive line, a job he handled at Green Bay for five seasons that included three NFL and two Super Bowl championships.

The transformation up front began with the acquisition of guard Dick Enderle from Atlanta and the convincing of tackle Joe Tafofi to return from a one-season retirement. The addition of that pair to holdovers center Greg Larson, guard Doug Van Horn and tackle Willie Young enabled Wietecha to mold one of the NFL's best pass-blocking lines and a unit which has contributed greatly to vast improvement in the offensive production.

"I believe in basic techniques, installing them at training camp and working with them each week throughout the entire season," says Wietecha, who anchored Giant lines as the center in 1953-62 when New York won five Eastern titles and one NFL championship. "I try to make my presentation simple, and then stick with it. As soon as you introduce something out of the ordinary, you create doubt and prompt hesitation."

"Offensive line play requires more concentration and supervision than any other area. Fitness is fine, but if he does the main job, a lineman will be all right. The main job is to make a 100 per cent block every time, on every play, on every defender. Nothing else should be acceptable. Wietecha has two unlikely rituals. On Mondays-weekly most teams, the Giants work the day following a game and are off Tuesday, and his unit run a mile-and-a-half; and on Fridays, he weighs each lineman. "I make them watch their weight. You may not think it would matter in a man who weighs 250, but five pounds either way can cause a change in his performance. Also, by checking, I'm able to know which players are disciplined."

About his players, Wietecha says:
Left tackle Willie Young (27, 6-0, 265) — "He is no picture player, as his size would indicate, but he is efficient. Has no one thing he does best, but gets it all done with hard work."
Left guard Dick Enderle (25, 6-2, 250) — "Very bright and a student of the game. Our best player and gets his man when he does go outside."
Center Greg Larson (32, 6-3, 280) — "The leader, if there is one. Calls assignment switches. Very strong blocker handling men over center. Also, very good at whipping a man by turning him around."

Right guard Doug Van Horn (28, 6-3, 245) — "Great line blocker. Good strong legs and stiff back that make his straight-ahead drive very effective. Good knowledge of opponents."
Right tackle Joe Tafofi (27, 6-3, 250) — "A fine pass blocker. Has good agility, quickness and balance. Has a gliding motion."

Thank You, God Four Bowl Grid Contests Today

NEW YORK (AP) — The University of North Dakota Sioux find out a few days of sunshine can do today when they play Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in the Camella Bowl at Sacramento, Calif.

North Dakota, 8-1, not only has had a three-week layoff, the Sioux were forced to practice indoors because of the cold weather at Grand Forks, N.D. They finally got outdoors in California this week. Cal Poly was 8-2.

The Camella was one of four bowl games on a light college football schedule which also saw bowl-bound North Carolina State, Louisiana Tech 11-0, and Tennessee Tech, 10-1, and the Boardwalk Bowl at Carolina State, 10-1, and the Sun Bowl at Texas Tech, 10-1, and the Sun Bowl at Texas Tech, 10-1, and the Sun Bowl at Texas Tech, 10-1.

The other bowl games were the Pioneer Bowl at Wichita Falls, Texas, 10-1, and the Sun Bowl at Texas Tech, 10-1, and the Sun Bowl at Texas Tech, 10-1, and the Sun Bowl at Texas Tech, 10-1.

North Carolina, headed for the Sun Bowl against Texas Tech at El Paso, Texas, Dec. 30, needed a victory to equal its winningest season ever, 10-1 in 1914.

The Oakland A's played 67 one-run games in 1972, winning 22 and losing 25.

Steelers Anxious to Shed 'Nice Guy' Tag, Out to Notch First Crown In NFL History

NEW YORK (AP) - For 39 seasons the Pittsburgh Steelers have been sort of like the "nice guys" of the National Football League. Not that they've always finished last. But they've never finished first.

On Sunday—and with a little bit of help from Cincinnati on Saturday—the Steelers can finally achieve that goal, a championship, mainly the American Conference Central Division crown. Pittsburgh has to beat Houston and the Bengals have to defeat Cleveland to make the Steeler dream come true.

Then there's Atlanta. The Falcons, in only their seventh NFL season, are within a victory of a title, too. They need some help. And there's Green Bay, a stranger to championships but a preseason pick this year to be a bystander to the NFC Central brag between Minnesota and Detroit.

The Packers, at 8-4, hold a one-game lead over the Vikings and Lions. But, unlike the Steelers and Falcons, Green Bay needs no help to clinch its division. A victory over Minnesota will wrap it up. Even if the Packers and Lions finish tied for the lead at the end of the season, Green Bay would get the title by virtue of its two victories over Detroit.

In Saturday's other game, the Dallas Cowboys, needing a victory to lock up the NFC "wild card" berth, held the Washington Redskins.

Sundays games have Miami against the Giants in New York, Detroit at Buffalo, Chicago at Philadelphia, San Diego at Denver, Baltimore at Kansas City and New England at New Orleans. And on Monday night, the New York Jets face the Raiders in Oakland.

If the Steelers win, it'll not only assure them of a title but will pretty much assure the Oilers of a rather dubious honor—the worst record in the league. At 1-11 they're one game "ahead" of New England in the "race" for the first pick in next year's collegiate draft.

The Oilers, at 7-5, hold a half-game edge over the Oilers and Rams, so victories in their final two games will automatically give them a title.

Miami, by winning, would not only keep the Giants out of playoff contention but would become the 13th team in NFL history to win five games in a season. And that, in turn, would put them within one victory of the Oakland Raiders and the Chicago Bears cruised through an 11-game season without so much as a tie to whittle their record.

What it all comes down to is that, going into this next-to-last week of regular-season play, 15 of the league's 26 teams are still in the chase for Super Bowl VII. Washington, Miami and Oakland have wrapped up divisional championships, but for the remaining 12, it's still a scramble for the remaining five playoff berths.

Judgment Favors NFL

BOSTON (AP) - U.S. District Court Judge W. Arthur Garrity Jr. Friday granted a summary judgment in their case from the National Football League and Commissioner Pete Rozelle in a class action suit involving ticket sales to professional football games.

The suit, similar to 22 other suits against eight professional sports teams, was brought by Leo T. Pflieger, formerly of Swampscott, naming the New England Patriots as well as the NFL and Rozelle.

Pflieger asked triple damages totaling $15 million from the three parties.

The Patriots won a summary judgment in their case from the National Football League and Commissioner Pete Rozelle in a class action suit involving ticket sales to professional football games. He said tickets should be sold on a game-by-game basis.

The Patriots, like most professional football teams, sell tickets in packages covering three, seven or ten games, including preseason exhibition games.

Pflieger asked triple damages totaling $15 million from the three parties.

Jets Still Alive Thanks to Kicker

NEW YORK - The New York Jets are still alive in the American Football Conference's wild-card scramble thanks to an exquisitely-timed number game their one-point kicker, Bobby Howfield, played during last week. On the occasion of his birthday (38), while his mother (75) sat in the stands watching him play American football for the first time, Howfield kicked the last of a record-tied string of three-pointers (6), with no time left on the clock.

It was the first time the Jets had ever won a game in which all their points came via kicking. Howfield's last try (42) was his longest success of the season.

Numbers were only a segment of the drama in Howfield's tour de force. The incredible pressure of trying to make six of seven on the last play of the game was compounded by the fact that the clock was running when the field-goal kicking team rubbed on the field. During the season's practice along these lines, its best completion time had been 0:18. There was 0:17 on the Shea Stadium clock.

Howfield wasn't worried about time running out. "I would like to explain later. If it ran out it ran out. My one thought was to get it between the uprights."

His holder, back-up QB Bob Davis, had the same idea. He lined the ball up on the left hashmark where it had been moved in by the officials.

"I never saw it go through," said Howfield, "but after it had gone 10 yards, I knew it was going to be good and I turned away." It was, and it gave him, in order, a season record of 21 of 31 (compared to eight of 19 last year, his first with the Jets) and the NFL scoring lead (107). Howfield's previous best had been 81 in 1970, his last year with Denver, after which he had been dealt for Jim Turner in a straight-up trade. Turner had also kicked 6 FGs in one game for the Jets and had a 145-point season, but New York was looking for someone who could get the ball into the endzone on kickoffs.

The fellow they got was the first side-winder in the club's history, with a 12-year record of professional soccer in England with Fulham, Watford and Aldershot. The short-lived International Soccer League brought him to these shores and a Kansas City Kickapoo talent hunt brought him into pro football.

With Jim Stenerud in the middle of five successive 100- or more-point seasons, Howfield proved slightly superfluous, as did another foreign visitor, Horst Muhlmann. Cincinnati got Horst in a trade for running back Warren McVea, but Denver got Howfield just for signing him.

New York got him and also got a 1971 team scoring leader who was under 50 points (49). Now they have a 100-point for the first time since 1969. And they still have a playoff chance with two weeks to go, facing Oakland at 8:30 Monday night on national TV and Cleveland in the New York home finale.

Explorers Open Home Sunday

The East Hartford Explorers will open the New England Basketball League season Sunday night at East Hartford High against the Enfield Merchants at 7 p.m.

The Explorers, in their 17th year of operation, will have several new faces led by Doug Malody former East Catholic and UConn captain, Billy Jones, ex-Fairfield and Eastern League performer, 6-8 Cort Reggie of Georgia and Don Lewis of Cromwell, who was last year's Providence College captain.

Holdovers include Russ Tyler (General), Bill Holloway (UConn) and Tim Kotodant (Duke).

There will be a preliminary at 6:30. Door prices will be given away at halftime.

Police Report

MANCHESTER

A Glastonbury woman and her 13-year-old son were treated and released from Manchester Memorial Hospital Friday for injuries they suffered in a head-on collision on Keeney St. at about 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Anne T. Grimes, 44, and her son Steven, were in a car which collided with a vehicle operated by Ernest O. Gauthier, 67, of Glastonbury. Gauthier was not injured, police said.

The car driven by Mrs. Grimes was northbound on Keeney St., police said, when the car went out of control on an icy downgrade and hit Gauthier's car head-on.

Both cars were towed. No charges were filed.

Rosemary Symons, 43, of 25 Sherwood Circle, was listed in satisfactory condition today at Manchester Memorial Hospital with injuries she suffered in a one-car accident Friday afternoon.

Police said the Symons car went off the roadway on Oakland St. and struck a utility pole.

No charges were filed.

Police had reports of about 15 other accidents which occurred Friday and early today, including:

— A car, operated by Sara K. Robinson, of 131 Downey Dr., which hit a fire hydrant in front of 110 Downey Dr. Damage was minor and there were no injuries reported.

— A one-car accident on N. Main St. in which a car struck a utility pole. The driver, John R. Mirtl of 99 Battista Rd., was treated and released at Manchester Memorial Hospital. The car was towed.

The other accidents reported were mostly of the "fender-bender" variety. Damage, in most cases, was minor, and few, if any, injuries were reported.

William J. Street, 16, of 41 Cedar St., was charged Friday with attempted third-degree burglary, police reported.

Police said the charge stems from an attempted break into Fred's Package Store, 117 Spruce St., on Nov. 3. Entry was not gained; nothing was taken.

Street was released on a $500 non-surety bond for court appearance Dec. 18 at Manchester.

Police were called to the Salvation Army building at 661 Main St. shortly before 3 a.m. today on report of a break which had just occurred.

The intruder apparently entered by a basement window, smashed windows to gain entrance to the chapel, and then headed upstairs to the second-floor apartment of the complainant in the case.

The intruder was surprised by the complainant's wife, and the unidentified man ran down the stairs and out the front door.

Police searched the area for the man with no results. connection with an alleged domestic disturbance at his home. Court date is Jan. 8.

welfare workers, who Thursday criticized White's experiment, said he didn't think White's departure would change things much in the Welfare Department.

"The commissioner was selected by the governor and he operated with his full blessing," said Phillip Starr, president of the Northern Connecticut chapter of the National Association of Social Workers. "Unless there has been a change in the governor's thinking about the Welfare Department, I can't see how there will be any change now just because the head person has changed."

"There may be a change in the style of administration, in the manner of getting along with workers and clients," Starr said, "but I find it hard to believe there will be any basic change in policies or programs or anything else."

Starr said that White had been rumored to be in line for the leadership of a new state Department of Human Services. The department, proposed by several state officials, would combine the Welfare Department with the Correction Department, the Health Department and other agencies.

"One assumes that his resignation implies he is no longer a candidate for that position," Starr said.

Accused Of Bomb Threats

DANBURY (AP) — A 15-year-old student was arrested Friday in connection with bomb threats that closed Broadview Junior High School on Wednesday, police said.

The youth was referred to the Juvenile Court and his name was withheld from the public because of his age.

Two telephoned warnings that a bomb was in the building prompted school officials to evacuate the building late Wednesday morning. Students later were sent home because of wet weather.

"I am going to court to see if we can't have these people punished to the full extent of the law," Police Chief James Tallon said when he announced the arrests.

Dog Foils Burglary

A dog is being credited with foiling a burglary at a Hilliard St. home Thursday night, according to Manchester Police.

Police reported that Mrs. Patricia Rozyk of 138 Hilliard St. told them she was in her home Thursday when her dog, a small brown and white mongrel, suddenly ran into the kitchen.

She followed and heard a sharp yell.

Mrs. Rozyk said she entered her kitchen just as a man was running out the door. Blood was dripping from her dog's mouth — the animal apparently bit the intruder.

Mrs. Rozyk said the man was about six feet tall, wearing dark clothes.

Police said no one has gone to Manchester Memorial Hospital for a tetanus shot to avoid contracting rabies, as of this morning.

Church. Traditional Swedish refreshments will be served. The public is invited to attend.

Symbols of the Christmas Season

Poinsettia
In 1828, Dr. Joe Robert Poinsett brought the first poinsettias to this country from Mexico. There is a legend that a little boy had nothing to take to church as an offering on Christmas. He picked a weed and laid it on the altar. As it lay there, it turned into a beautiful, star-shaped flower.

Everywhere you look this season you'll be seeing the symbols of Christmas. How many can you see in this picture?

The Christmas Tree
There are many stories about how the first Christmas tree was trimmed. One is that the famous German preacher, Martin Luther, started the custom. He was walking home one starry Christmas Eve night. He cut down a tree, took it home, and trimmed it with candles. The candles stood for stars.

Stars
Stars are the symbols of the beautiful star of Bethlehem that led the Wise Men to the Christ Child.

Candles
There is an old belief that if you put candles in your windows, they will guide the Christ Child to your home.

Mistletoe
Ancient priests, called Druids, who lived thousands of years ago in France and England, used mistletoe as a charm. The custom of kissing under it started in England.

Bells
Ringing bells play an important part in Christian worship. At Christmas they are the symbol of the happy news of Christ's birth.

Holly and Evergreens
Because holly and evergreens stay green all year long and bear fruit in the winter, for centuries they have been the symbols of enduring life.

Cards
The custom of sending printed cards started in England in the 1840's. The first ones were sold in this country in 1875.

How Christmas Seals Started

The 1972 Christmas Seals

A man named Einar Holboell was a postman in Denmark. He wanted to find a way to help sick and needy children. His idea was to get people to buy a special Christmas stamp during the holiday season. During this time of the year there was a lot of mail, and just a penny seal on a letter or package would help him in his plan. The first Christmas seal was used in 1904. The money was used to build a children's tuberculosis hospital in Denmark.

A woman named Miss Emily Bissel of Delaware, liked the Christmas seal idea and worked very hard to get it started in this country. In 1907, the first stamps went on sale in Wilmington, Delaware.

Your mother and father have probably already been sent some seals through the mail. Today, money from the sale of Christmas seals helps fight air pollution and many lung diseases.

Super Sport: Ben Davidson

Big Ben Davidson is in his 12th season in professional football, and that is remarkable for a man who did not play the game in high school. Davidson did play, however, at the University of Washington. In 1964, he signed with the Oakland Raiders. He is six-feet, eight inches tall and weighs 280 pounds. He is an outstanding defensive end. Ben sports a fashionable mustache. In his leisure time, he likes to ride a motorcycle.
