In Sick Leave Dispute

Police Union Accused Of Unfair Practice

By DOUG BEVINS
(Herald Reporter)
Manchester Town Manager Robert Weiss said today he is filing an unfair labor practices charge against the Manchester Police Union, because the union voted Thursday night to rescind its ratification of the 1972-1973 contract.

Weiss said he will be filing the charge immediately with the State Labor Relations Board. Until the matter is resolved, Weiss said, the 1972-1973 contract will not be in force, and conditions will revert to the 1971-1972 contract. The disagreement apparently centers around a contract provision for emergency sick leave.

The union, Local No. 1495, said in a statement released today that its action to rescind the contract ratification was due to Weiss' withdrawal of the emergency sick leave benefit.

The union statement, signed by President James Sweeney and Secretary-Treasurer Robert Guliano, said Weiss had previously agreed to the emergency sick leave benefit.

Weiss said, in reference to the sick leave benefit, that the police "have inserted a new demand which did not exist before." They are requesting "unlimited sick leave." Weiss said, "We had a provision for unlimited sick leave," Weiss said, "but it was subject to approval of the police chief and the manager."

Reverting to the conditions of the 1971-1972 contract means that police will lose all benefits, including wage increases, which were effective July 1, 1972. This action is effective immediately, Weiss said.

Weiss has also canceled a meeting scheduled for next Tuesday before the town's Board of Directors, the police union, and the town's Pension Board. The informal meeting was to deal with proposed improvements in the police pension plan.

The police union's statement noted that Sweeney, Guliano, and Lawrence Wilson, a business representative from the Connecticut Council of Police Unions, met with Weiss this morning. Weiss refused to discuss the sick leave matter this morning, according to the union's statement.

The town-police union agreement on the 1972-1973 contract was reached last May. The contract called for a 3 1/2 per cent pay increase, cost-of-living pay increases, a longevity plan, education bonuses, and increased insurance and hospitalization benefits.

The police union's statement issued today was:

"In an attempt to come to an agreement with the Town of Manchester today the Manchester Police Union Local No. 1495 met with Mr. Weiss.

The meeting was in reference to a benefit previously agreed upon by Mr. Weiss and later withdrawn by him.

"At the union meeting held on Jan. 4, 1973, the union body unanimously voted to rescind the ratification of the contract because this benefit previously agreed to was taken away.

"At today's meeting with Mr. Weiss he refused to sit down and negotiate or even discuss this matter. Mr. Weiss further stated that effective immediately all benefits, including wage increase and hospitalization and all other benefits, which began July 1, 1972, are taken away.

"The police union feels that we have negotiated in good faith with the Town and we are shocked and cannot understand Mr. Weiss' taking away of our benefits, and his refusal to discuss this matter."

Democrats Drive To Cut Off Funds For War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders have signaled President Nixon that an all-out drive to cut off Vietnam war funds will begin unless the Paris peace talks produce a settlement by Jan. 20.

This became clear as Senate Democrats, matching the step taken two days earlier by their House colleagues, voted 36 to 12 Thursday in favor of a strongly worded proposal by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy to cut off war funds immediately.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, promptly reiterated his determination to move quickly if Nixon's Jan. 20 inauguration passes without an agreement.

"The time for debate — and delay — is past," Fulbright said. "I believe that Congress can and should act decisively immediately after the inauguration."

Two bills seeking to cut off war funds within 60 days, one sponsored by a group of 20 senators headed by Republican

Edward W. Brooke and Democrat Alan Cranston and the other pushed by Democrat George McGovern and Republican Mark O. Hatfield, were introduced in the Senate, which twice last year voted to cut off funds in four months provided American prisoners were freed.

Communists Press Campaign In South

SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces pressed their new winter-spring campaign into a third day today with nearly 100 more attacks reported across South Vietnam. Most were small-scale shelling.

The South Vietnamese command reported 97 enemy attacks during the 24-hour period ending at dawn, two-thirds of them by rockets and mortars. During the two previous 24-hour periods there were 116 and 81 attacks. Prior to this upsurge, the command had been reporting 40 to 50 attacks each 24 hours.

Many of the attacks were in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon, against villages and district towns. At least five roads were reported cut.

The stepup in Communist attacks is believed to be a show of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong strength seeking to generate congressional pressure on President Nixon to end his support of President Nguyen Van Thieu.

The Saigon command reported fighting in the northern quarter of South Vietnam, below the demilitarized zone, in the central highlands and in the Mekong Delta. It claimed government forces killed 96 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in four clashes it termed significant. Government losses were four men killed and 23 wounded, the command said.

The U.S. Command reported one American casualty, a helicopter crewman slightly wounded by ground fire south of Da Nang. The OH6 observation helicopter was slightly damaged.

North Vietnam accused the United States of conducting aerial reconnaissance of "several localities in preparation for new acts of military adventure." The editorial in the army newspaper Nhan Dan indicated it was referring to flights above the 20th parallel, where Nixon halted the bombing last Saturday.

The U.S. Command refused to comment. But other U.S. sources report that aerial reconnaissance is continuing above the 20th parallel to assess damages from the Hanoi-Haiphong blitz last month, to check on repairs, to monitor the flow of war materials, and to keep target lists up to date in case a resumption of the bombing there is ordered.

U.S. air raids continued below the 20th parallel in North Vietnam's southern panhandle, and the U.S. Command today reported the heaviest B52 raids in that sector in three weeks.

Death Penalty Bill Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration says it will call for a mandatory death penalty for "cold-blooded, premeditated" crimes, but a Democratic Senator is proposing a bill that would leave imposition of the death sentence up to the jury.

The two opposing viewpoints could presage a major congressional battle over use of capital punishment. And opponents of the death penalty already have begun to form battle lines.

Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst announced Thursday that the administration will seek legislation requiring the death penalty for such crimes as kidnapping, assassination, bombing a public building, killing a prison guard and air hijacking. Meanwhile, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., introduced a bill that would reinstate the death penalty, but only if a defendant, in the course of a serious crime, intentionally takes another person's life. The jury would decide guilt and punishment separately.

Kleindienst suggested at a news conference that a mandatory death penalty, where the jury in effect decides guilt and imposes punishment at the same time, would be acceptable to the Supreme Court. The court ruled 5 to 4 last summer that because the death penalty has been applied unevenly in state and federal courts, it violates the constitutional ban against cruel and unusual punishment.

Included on the Senate subcommittee on criminal laws and procedures, which would handle such a bill, are two ardent Democratic opponents of capital punishment, Sens. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Philip A. Hart of Michigan.

More opposition apparently would come from Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., a member of the parent Judiciary Committee, Bayh said one of the problems with the death penalty "is that it is possible for our system of justice to make a mistake." A Bayh aide said the senator would like to see a life sentence mean a life sentence and a tougher policy toward paroles.

Truman Stamp

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Postal Service plans to issue a special postage stamp in memory of former President Harry S. Truman, who died Dec. 26.

The stamp is scheduled to be issued on May 8, on what would have been Truman's 89th birthday. The first day issuance most likely will be at Independence, Mo., Truman's home.

Libya Backs Malta

VALLETTA, Malta (AP) — Libya is backing Malta in the Mediterranean island's dispute with Britain over the rental of military bases, according to Prime Minister Dom Mintoff.

He said after returning from a visit to Libya Thursday that Col. Mummar Kadafi, the Libyan leader, pledged his support and called on other Mediterranean countries to do likewise.

Malta is demanding a 10 per cent increase in the rent for the bases to compensate for the devaluation of the British pound.

Has Surgery

MANILA (AP) — The Philippines' first lady, Mrs. Imelda R. Marcos, has undergone surgery for the removal of a tendon suture which was causing her irritation due to a foreign body reaction, the Information Department announced today.

The announcement said Mrs. Marcos, who suffered several injuries during an attack on her life last month, was allowed to leave the hospital the morning after a 15-minute operation Wednesday.

All the other injuries she sustained are healing satisfactorily, the announcement added.

Work On Pact

PARIS (AP) — U.S. and North Vietnamese experts working on annexes to a proposed cease-fire agreement met today for the fourth straight day.

William Sullivan, deputy assistant secretary of state for Southeast Asian affairs, and Nguyen Co Tach, a deputy foreign minister, headed the two delegations for the meeting at a house built on the fringe of a fairway at the St. Nom la Breteche Golf Course.

The experts are working on detailed points that could be part of an agreement.

Work Force Now At 82.8 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The total number of Americans at work rose 280,000 to 82.8 million last month, while the nation's unemployment rate remained unchanged at 5.2 per cent of the work force, the government said today.

The number of jobless Americans actually edged down 150,000 to 4.1 million, but this is expected in December and the Labor Department figured it as no change on a seasonally adjusted basis.

The report, rounding up employment developments over the past year, noted that the unemployment total was down 600,000 in the past 12 months.

The report by the Bureau of Labor Statistics also said that average earnings of some 50 million rank-and-file workers rose $1.12 to $139.50 per week in December and were up $8.20 or 6.2 per cent over the past year.

Workers lost 3.5 per cent of their purchasing power to rising living costs over the year, leaving them with a net gain in pay of 2.7 per cent. The report said that the nation's total employment rose over the year by 2.4 million.

Bus Crisis Ball Bounces Back To The Governor

HARTFORD (AP) — Connecticut municipal officials are awaiting a response from Gov. Thomas J. Meskill to a new "policy statement" from their negotiating committee on the bus crisis. The statement, handed to Meskill Thursday, says the committee members' minds are open to the formation of regional transit districts if necessary to re-start the state's idled bus service.

Only Bridgeport and Hartford now have transit districts, despite Meskill's repeated calls for other cities to form them. Officials in other cities, notably Mayor Bartholomew Guida in New Haven, have resisted forming the districts out of fear they would place heavy bus subsidy obligations on municipalities composing the districts.

Guida said in an interview early Friday morning that the governor's offer was a "sham." The mayor noted the $3 million had gone to all 169 cities and towns—not just those with transit problems—and were allocated "not on the basis of need to help mass transit."

He characterized the discussions Thursday as having produced "nothing new." He called Meskill's stance at the discussions "the same adamant position that had been taken previously."

Buses of the Connecticut Railway and Lighting Co. shut down operations Oct. 10 to 50,000 daily fares in Bridgeport, Waterbury and New Britain when the company declared it couldn't continue to operate without some form of subsidy. On Nov. 25, Connecticut Co. buses stopped serving the company's 100,000 daily fares in Hartford, New Haven and Stamford after drivers and mechanics of the Amalgamated Transit Union (ATU) walked off the job in a contract dispute. ConnCo said it would need subsidies to offer the ATU the contract it wanted.

Altitude Bomb Threat Diverts Jet

ELLSWORTH AIR FORCE BASE, S.D. (AP) — Air Force specialists have found no trace of a bomb aboard a Trans World Airlines jumbo jet forced to land here by a threat of an altitude A TWA spokesman said the Boeing 747 would be searched again today.

The 233 persons the Madrid-to-New York flight Thursday were reported calm during the flight here.

The airliner was diverted to this western South Dakota air base after an anonymous phone caller in Spain said a bomb would explode if the plane descended to a level of about 3,100 feet. The altitude here is 3,200 feet.

The caller said he would tell where the bomb was located if the airline paid him 15 million pesetas ($232,500).

Crew Capt. Melvin Manning, 56, of Hopatcong, N.J., said he learned of the bomb threat about one hour out of Madrid.

Manning said the plane was routed to mile-high Denver but excessive head winds cut its fuel supply and the plane was diverted to Ellsworth.

Spanish accent had phoned Madrid authorities to say a bomb was aboard which would detonate at a certain altitude. I guess there was some anxiety among those of us in the passenger area but never anything approaching panic."

The passengers ate at the base's officers' club and telephoned relatives. After a delay of about six hours they were flown in two planes to New York and Chicago to clear customs.

The threat, and the airline handling of it, was the latest in a series of incidents matching the plot of a movie "Doomsday Flight." In the 1966 film a man demanded $100,000 to rev where he had planted an altitude pressure-sensitive bomb aboard an airliner. The movie plane landed at Denver, above the altitude where the extortionist had said the bomb would explode.

Mail-Order Co. Sued For Deceptive Offers

Barbara Dunn, commissioner of the Department of Consumer Protection has announced that a mail-order company had been sued by the Federal Government for mailing false and deceptive offers of "free vacations" to "Sweepstakes Winners". The company, Market Development Corporation, Cincinnati, Ohio, has mailed many such offers to residents of Connecticut.

Mrs. Doreen Bates stated, "Governor Meskill and I agreed that in matters of out of state fraud, we should work closely with the federal government in providing the speediest protection possible for residents of Connecticut. When we first learned of these mailings in September, I instructed my staff to cooperate with the U.S. Postal Service and the Federal Trade Commission in stopping this fraud. As a result of our joint efforts, a factual record was made resulting in this complaint."

The complaint charges that this concern has falsely represented that the recipient was a "Sweepstakes Winner" with a ticket that has won a $15, that the "Free Vacation" contest was sponsored by "Walt Disney World"; that the luxurious accommodations in Florida; a "food discount" valued at $100, and a "Bahama Cruise" are given free, and that this goes to the "next eligible contest winner" if the $15 is not mailed within 10 days.

Mrs. Dunn asked, "I hope anyone receiving such offers of 'free vacations' from this or any other out of state company will forward the material to my office and certainly, before mailing any money."

Womanpower Could Combat Starvation, Expert Says

NEW YORK (AP) — A gray-haired grandmother travels through underdeveloped nations "outing 'womanpower' for CARE."

Margot Higgins, nutrition advisor, works with the relief and development agency's overseas staff to provide maximum benefits for the 20,000,000 children it feeds in 55 countries.

"Women's liberation will have to take place in underdeveloped countries before they can really develop economically," said Mrs. Higgins.

Women have to give up a purely domestic role and enter the general labor market before a nation can really grow unless women are permitted to contribute to the national economy, Mrs. Higgins said.

Mrs. Higgins, 64, began working for CARE in 1968. She had worked in institutional food service and spent nine years with the Peace Corps; she had written and taught about food and nutrition.

"I had hoped to turn my knowledge into yield, life-saving use overseas. When my youngest child was graduating from college, I felt free both in terms of family responsibility and finances to plunge in," she said. "So I did."

Besides traveling, Mrs. Higgins works with local home economists, teachers, government and community leaders helping plan CARE assisted nutrition programs in developing countries aimed particularly at improving the health of mothers and children.

"Progress for women in most developing countries is still just getting started," she said.

Mahoney Plans 'Open' Office

Manchester State Rep. Francis Mahoney, Dem., of the 13th Assembly District has announced he will hold office hours "as usual" during the 1973 legislative session.

"It has been my policy," said Mahoney, "to conduct them at my home every night that I am free, or even at the homes of my constituents."

He said, "An elected official must be available as many hours as he can. That's what public service is all about, and that's what I intend to continue doing."

The three-term legislator and former Manchester mayor said he has been appointed to four House committees and will determine if he will stay on all four or drop one. "If I find the meeting hours are in conflict, I most certainly will drop one," he said. "Just being on committees is not the answer. Participation is."

The four committees, said Mahoney, are appropriate to the environment, transportation, and state and urban development.

Christmas Lottery Sales Near 1.5 Million. HARTFORD (AP) — Thanks to the special "stocking stuffer" promotion, nearly 1.5 million lottery tickets were sold during the week before Christmas, Lottery Marketing Director Leo Tryl said Thursday.

The one-week total of 1,460,000 tickets — including daily regular weekly tickets as well as the "stocking stuffers" — was the highest since early September.

Tryl said the week-before Christmas sales netted the state about $70,000.

More Credits Required

Guidance Notes

On Dec. 11, 1972, the Board of Education adopted the following policy on graduation requirements: "Effective with the 1973-74 school year, fourteen credits will be required for graduation from Manchester High School. Effective in the 1974-75 school year, fifteen credits will be required for graduation from Manchester High School. The specific course requirements for graduation credit will be subject to Board of Education policy statement and will be reviewed at least every three years." This policy means that fourteen credits will be required for the class of 1975 and thereafter.

For the past two years, students in the classes of 1974 and 1975 have been scheduled carefully for sufficient credits in order to meet this requirement. Students who have been scheduled and who are counteracting our more liberalized school system and going back to the old conventional way. By approving this change they are making it difficult to graduate after your first semester of your senior year.

It seems too bad that the board didn't even listen to the petitions signed by over 800 students. After all, if more than one-third of the entire class was against the change, that should have just a little bit of influence.

Representatives visiting MHS during week of Jan. 8 will be:

Monday, Jan. 8, New England Technical Institute, (Electronics & Refrigeration), New Britain, 4th Period; Mount Senario College, Lady Smith, Wisc. at 11:30.

Thursday, Jan. 11, Radio Electronics Television Schools (RETS), Boston, Mass., 3rd Period.

have successfully passed more than the minimum courses may still be in a position to complete their graduation requirements at the end of the first semester of their senior year. Students in these classes (1974/1975) who wish to consider mid-year graduation should review their credits with their counselors when they plan their programs for next year.

The Board of Education also adopted a policy for awarding a Manchester High School diploma to students who leave high school at the end of the 11th grade and attend college, as follows: "The high school diploma will be awarded after successful completion of the freshman year at college. The interpretation of successful completion of the freshman year would be that of carrying a normal course load and obtaining a C or better in each course."

High School World

FRIDAY JAN. 5 VOL. XXXV, NO. 12

Dear George

I feel that compulsory attendance in classes in a high school is like making students take naps after lunch. If a student is competent enough to pick his own courses or levels he should be allowed to not attend a class that he feels he can afford to miss.

Maybe this would not work for the lower levels. But I'm sure it would for the level 2 and possibly level 3 students as well. If I am getting good grades in a particular subject and I feel I could skip a class without losing anything, it should be my decision.

If a student knows the material that is to be covered

Sports Circle

The past week's outstanding performers are: Ed Adamey swimming and undefeated wrestlers Mark Odell and Mike Volland.

Dear George

On a particular day he should be allowed to skip the class. This is much more logical than having him sit bored for a whole period. Sitting in a classroom and listening to something boring or uninteresting often causes the student to disrupt the class because he is in need of something to do. — Steve Girelli

Dear George

The High School World serves the Manchester public as a communication means for informing you about what's going on at the high school.

Sometimes the paper concentrates on sports, other times on special activities or departments, with a mixture of individual creative entries such as cartoons, photographs, or poetry.

Dear Readers

The editors would like your ideas for improvements, such as more literary material and less on photography; a concentration on different areas; or more individual portraits. Your replies will be very much appreciated.

Address letters to: Manchester High School, 154 Middle Tpke., Manchester, Conn., c/o High School World.

Prof. Joseph M. Lent of the University of Connecticut was one of the judges who scored the Aristocrat zucchini when it was grown for testing in the summer of 1971. He remembers it as "poof," but the university and previously produced nationally advertised Zucchini varieties, Black Beauty and Storrs Green Hybrid, and Prof. Lent said he honestly felt both of them were better than the new squash. It must have rated higher in many of the 25 other test gardens located throughout the country, than it did at Storrs.

The two University of Connecticut varieties have disappeared from the nationally distributed catalogue where I found Aristocrat. Some of the new vegetables have a short life.

Seedmen then could plant the new variety in the spring of 1972 to produce seed for sale this year. There have been years when weather conditions made it impossible to produce the necessary supply of seed and even after it has been announced, an All-America variety has been held off the market for a second year.

The test garden of the University of Connecticut has been moved, as previously mentioned in this column, to the Lee Farm in Coventry in the spring of 1972.

Acting Through Independent Study

Students at Manchester High have a wide selection of courses to choose from in the curriculum. Sometimes you wonder why the school doesn't offer courses like advertising, economics, maybe even acting. One feasible way that is offered to students is independent study.

Claudia Kuehl, a senior at independent study in acting. The advisor for the course is Mr. Lee Hay an English teacher at MHS. Claudia had to create the course herself. Two requirements of the course are an acted presentation and reading books about acting. She had to put a lot of work into the program, thinking about sets, props, blocking, and costumes. Claudia has selected many different plays for the presentation of her "One-Woman Show." The plays range from comedy to Greek Tragedy, demanding her to use varying acting styles for the different periods.

The characters and plays she has selected to perform are the following: Medea from Medea, Euripides; Linda from Death of a Salesman, Arthur Miller; Lady Tazzie from School for Scandal, Sheridan; Elmire from Tartuff, Moliere; Lavinia from Androcles and the Lion, George Bernard Shaw; Queen Catherine from Henry VIII, Shakespeare; and Anna from The Importance of Being Earnest, Oscar Wilde.

The theme of the program is "Woman confronted by their fate." Claudia has been quite busy with this "One-Woman" production.

She is using a very simple set with props for each act from the play. Claudia wears a basic black dress with changeable accessories. She also wrote the script for each introductory scene, and she has a brief explanation for each act. The "One-Woman Show" is open to students and the public free of charge. It will be shown after school late in January. Something to look forward to, look for the date in a later issue.

New Year's Eve With Friend Guy

If you want to really spend a worthwhile New Year's Eve, watch the annual TV gala known as "New Year's with Guy Lombardo." (Sounds like a very catchy title.) Leading off the night's celebration is the Guy Lombardo band, led by Mr. New Year himself. As one person remarked, one requirement is being a member of this band is being over 50 years old.

Next on the series of events is the trip to Times Square, which must be a pick-pocket's haven. There are about a million jokers with hats and horns. The Guy Lombardo band actually chimes with, "Let's hear it gang!" Later, after a few minutes of after chaos in New York's Time Square, the cameras switch to the ballroom where you can see all the people dancing with about two square inches per couple.

The climax of the show is the countdown of the last ten seconds. Naturally, the countdown is led by Guy himself. Forming a collage with Mr. New Year on the TV screen is the commentator at Times Square who announces that when the light on a tall tower goes down it will be a new year. Following this tradition is more music with TV animation of balloons and fireworks.

The most thrilling time of the evening is to watch the instant replay. So if you want to spend

Gardening

with Frank Atwood

The seed catalogues have arrived and the All-America Selections of annual flowers and vegetables for 1973 have been announced. The new gardening season has begun.

There are two new annual flowers and only one new vegetable in this year's short list of All-America award winners, a zinnia called Peter Pan Scarlet, a marigold named Happy Face and a Zucchini squash with the elegant name of Aristocrat.

The new zinnia is the third in the series of Peter Pan varieties, hybrid flowers with dwarf growing habit and large flowers, first heard of in 1971. Two Peter Pan zinnias, Plum and Pink, won gold medal awards together that year, scoring higher than any other entry in 40 years of All-America trials. Peter Pan Scarlet adding a new color, rated a silver medal this year.

Starting to blossom when they are six inches high and never growing taller than one foot, the Peter Pan zinnias follow the modern trend to low-growing annual flowers.

Happy Face is a golden yellow marigold, fully double, with flowers up to four inches across, say the All-America people, growing 26 inches tall. Happy Face also will stay in bloom from the end of July until frost, branching and reblooming as the first flowers fade.

Zinnias and marigolds are the most popular of all annual flowers in American home gardens. Now there are two more kinds added to dozens of varieties we have had for years.

Very Early Squash The new squash was given a bronze medal for earliness, prolific yield and the quality of the fruits, best picked when they are six or eight inches long and before they start to ripen. We are told they can be sliced raw and used as if they were cucumbers in fresh salads. Of course they can be steamed or baked, as happens to most summer squashes when they reach the kitchen.

Aristocrat produces fruits that are large enough to be harvested in 48 days from seed, and this statement could not be made unless the people who run the trial gardens had actually seen it happen. It is earlier by at least a few days than any other summer squash listed in the catalogue of one of our biggest national seed companies. Most varieties need 50 to 60 days. The plants are bushy and the fruit is said to be handsome dark green.

Prof. Joseph M. Lent of the University of Connecticut was one of the judges who scored the Aristocrat zucchini when it was grown for testing in the summer of 1971. He remembers it as "poof," but the university and previously produced nationally advertised Zucchini varieties, Black Beauty and Storrs Green Hybrid, and Prof. Lent said he honestly felt both of them were better than the new squash. Hebron PZC Will Consider Tighter Trailer Rules

ANNE EMT Correspondent
Tel. 228-3971

Proposed changes in zoning regulations, which will delete all regulations permitting the use of trailers except for aged persons, will be one of the subjects to be brought up at a public hearing scheduled by the Planning and Zoning Commission for Tuesday evening at 8 in the Town Office Building.

Present regulations, in addition to permitting use of trailers for housing the elderly, also permit the use of a trailer, if approved by the Zoning Board of Appeals, as a temporary structure by the owner-builder of a dwelling under construction and for the housing of farm or domestic help under certain provisions.

Proposed changes would delete the entire section except for the following:

Section 8.1a would remain, stating that within the town no overnight tourist cabins or trailer camps are permitted. No trailer, quonset hut, basement, garage, or any temporary structure shall be used as a dwelling.

Section 8.1c, permitting the use of a trailer for the housing of aged persons, would read the same as the present Section 8.1c with the exception of three new requirements.

First, the trailer must contain at least 240 square feet of living area and second that it shall have an adequate supply of potable water and shall contain a flush toilet in working order with the toilet being connected to a septic tank and disposal field.

The third new requirement is that any trailer must not be over 10 years old.

Canada Studying Sewage Pipelines

Ottawa — The Canadian Environment Department has started a study to see whether municipal sewage can be transported under high pressure in the same way oil and gas are forced through pipelines. The study is expected to take 18 months and cost $90,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Porter of Wall St. were awarded first place in the "Holiday of Lights" Christmas decorating contest sponsored by the Roman Commission.

Contestants' homes were judged by Mrs. Raymond Gradual of Jan. Dr. an art teacher at the Andover Elementary School.

Mrs. Gradual awarded the first place to the Porters for the simplicity and selective use of spotlight in their decorations. They will receive $15 in prize money.

Man Charged With Murder

NEW HAVEN (AP)—Dale Clemens, 21, of Wallingford, was arrested Thursday in Superior Court on a murder charge in the death of his 17-year-old pregnant wife, Judge Thomas O'Sullivan set bond for Clemens at $75,000. No plea was entered at the arraignment.
Clemens' wife, Kathryn Massore Clemens, died from a shotgun wound in the head. Police said Clemens walked into the Wallingford police station Nov. 30 and told officers he had shot his wife. Officers said the investigation indicated the couple had been arguing the day of the shooting.

Bus Crisis Blamed For Sales Decline

HARTFORD (AP)—The bus transportation crisis has been blamed in part for the loss of an estimated $10 million in Christmas sales for Hartford merchants, according to the Greater Hartford Chamber of Commerce's Retail Trade Bureau.
A spokesman for the bureau said Thursday that according to a poll of 50 Hartford stores, retail sales dropped an average of 15 per cent after the start of the bus strike, Nov. 25. Twenty per cent of the stores showed losses above the average, while 16 per cent were below the average.
The estimated $10 million loss was based on figures supplied by the polled stores, the spokesman said.
William Libman, head of the bureau, noted that before the bus crisis business had shown an increase in early November of five to 10 per cent over 1971.
Lafayette Keeny, president of Sage-Alen & Co., one of Hartford's largest department stores, echoed Libman's assertion.
"Our downtown business dropped considerably and the bus strike did have a tremendous effect," Keeny said. He declined to specify, however, how much money his company actually had lost since the strike began.

Rh-Negative Blood Appeal Issued By RC

HARTFORD (AP)—The Connecticut Red Cross has issued an appeal for blood donations from people with Rh-negative to overcome a chronic blood bank shortage.
Blood bank leaders have asked that Rh-negative donors make a special attempt to give at a Jan. 12 bloodmobile from 2:30 to 7:30 p.m. at Connecticut Public Television on New Britain Ave.
About 15 per cent of the population is not the Rh factor, but only about 10 per cent of the donors who give blood at the Red Cross bloodmobiles are Rh-negative.
The Red Cross reports that too many Rh-negatives are holding back and not going to regular bloodmobiles, so that the supply of Rh-negative blood is chronically low.

Vernon Building Volume Shows Increase

Reflecting a current national trend, the annual report of the Vernon Building and Zoning Department shows an increase in construction of private and commercial buildings over that of the previous year.
Operating with a small staff, the department does not cost the taxpayers any money. The amount budgeted to operate the department is $30,828. Fees collected and deposited to the town's general fund amounted to $58,750.50 or an excess of $27,922.50 over the operating cost.
Of the total amount collected, $26,350 was for the issuance of 35 sewer connection permits and $32,400 was for all other building and zoning permits. The fees show an increase of $4,854 in revenue as compared to the previous year. The total value of construction in the town was $9,057,284 as compared to a total of $8,084,211 in the previous year, reflecting an increase of $2,973,073 in construction costs.
With a total of 759 permits processed, their description and the estimated value of each permit are as follows: 27 swimming pools, $57,186; 12 mechanical permits for commercial buildings, $89,800; 1 duplex dwelling, $20,000; 27 swimming pools, $57,186; 12 mechanical permits for residential buildings, $75,440; 64 additions, alterations, conversions and repairs, $304,358.
Also 2 additional costs (shell only) for two banks, $140,000; 4 sign permits, $18,700; 1 fire station (6-bay) $270,000, pavilion.

Dead Man Identified

WATERBURY (AP)—The body of a man found in a wooded area on the outskirts of Waterbury has been identified as that of Joseph Moore, 44, of Waterbury, police said Thursday.
An autopsy performed at Waterbury Hospital revealed that the violence was involved in the man's death, authorities reported.

Physically Drained After Loss

Physically drained, Stan Ogronik had the appearance of a man who had lost his best friend after his East Catholic High basketball team had gone down to a two-point defeat at the hands of North Catholic last Tuesday night at Central Connecticut.

"I know that we are a better team. We worked so hard. But we didn't win," the slender coach said in the wake of a 70-68 setback.

One could have heard a pin drop in the locker room of the Eagles. It wasn't the end of the world, but everyone, from Principal Edward Saunders down to the manager, felt the loss.

Time just ran out on the locals, who must rebound Saturday night against South Catholic, also at Central's beautiful and spacious gym. Down 11 points in the final period, the locals rallied their forces and cut the edge to two with 11 seconds remaining but that's as close as the under-sized Eagles could come.

The two big advantages Coach Charlie Larson's well-balanced squad had were superior height and muscle underneath. Anything a team can do out rebounding by a two to one margin and still blow by only two points, the Eagles had to be doing something right.

"This wasn't one of our better shooting nights," Ogronik almost whispered. "We did have some tough luck on some of our shots. They seemed to go up and then fall off the rim."

For a small team, in height and overall size, East did a commendable job. On this particular night, the Indians held the upper hand.

Ability to control the boards and work for the good shot, plus one opportunity after another on two one-and-a-half break situations proved too much for East. If East is a better team, and Ogronik is positive in his thinking, which is the way it should be, the team will get a second shot at Northwest one week from Saturday night at the University of Hartford.

Meanwhile, the mentor hopes to regroup his charges for South on Saturday night in what has to be classed as another crucial test.

There are no bigger games each season on the hoop state than the home-and-home meetings with Northwest and South.

Perhaps the Central gym is a jinx for East. Last year, both Northwest and South topped the locals at the New Britain playing surface. One thing is certain, win or lose, East can be counted upon to go all out in defense of its state Class A championship in the weeks ahead.

Hoops and Drabbles

Tip to East Catholic basketball fans. Use the new parking facilities at Central just to the left of the main entrance to the gym. The two level areas is open to the public and is free. Tom Sullivan, former East Catholic High hooper, has been starring with Colby this season. The rugged Sullivan has been averaging in twin figures. Ditto for Jim Connors, who has stepped up to 6-7. Only a sophomore, Connors has been a starter with Northeastern University and is averaging just under 20 points per outing while averaging a dozen rebounds.

Greg Marino, who started in track and cross country at East Catholic, reports the University of Notre Dame had four freshman milers who were capable of 4:15 performances and the competition was extremely keen. Up and around following surgery, Fred Mackery Sr. will pass up duckpin bowling for the rest of the year. McCurry wound up in the finals of the town duckpin tournament last year and lost out to nationally ranked George Pelletier. Timmy Kearns, another former East Catholic star, will pass up duckpin bowling for the rest of the year. McCurry wound up in the finals of the town duckpin tournament last year and lost out to nationally ranked George Pelletier. Timmy Kearns, another former East Catholic star, will pass up duckpin bowling for the rest of the year.

Judge Arthur H. Healy Healy instructed attorneys for both sides to file briefs by next Thursday.

The student, Joseph F. Giannelli Jr., is asking the court to order that he be reinstated as a player and receive the $50,000 in damages.

Five-Goal Spree Enjoyed by Ward

NEW YORK (AP) - Ron Ward had a pretty good season Thursday night.

Ward scored five goals and assisted on another as the New York Raiders romped over Ottawa 9-4 Thursday night in the only World Hockey Association game played.

Those six scoring points matched Ward's total for 71 National Hockey League games played with Vancouver last season. They also lifted his league-leading scoring total to 69, a far nine points ahead of New England's Terry Cafery.

In the only NHL games played Thursday, St. Louis trimmed Boston 4-2 and Detroit took Buffalo 4-2.

Ward was a seldom-used defenseman at Vancouver but blossomed into an All Star center for the Raiders.

He will be the starting center for the East in the WHA All Star game at Quebec Saturday. "It's my first All Star game and quite a thrill," said Ward.

"Maybe Bud Poile will be held the upper hand.

Poile, in case you didn't know, is Ward's ex-boss at Vancouver.

The six goals ward scored 33 for the season. And linemates Wayne Rivers and Brian Bradley also enjoyed big nights. Rivers had five assists and Bradley scored two goals and assisted on three others.

Detroit bunched three goals in the first nine minutes of the middle period to whip Buffalo. Scores by Al Karlander, Nick Libett and Alex Delvechchio knocked out rookie goalie Rocky Farr, who was making his NHL debut for the Sabres.

Perhaps the Central gym is a jinx for East. Last year, both Northwest and South topped the locals at the New Britain playing surface. One thing is certain, win or lose, East can be counted upon to go all out in defense of its state Class A championship in the weeks ahead.

St. Louis Checks Bruins Bruins Shares Golfing Lead

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Coach Tom Johnson of the Boston Bruins wanted 10 points from his charges on their current five-game National Hockey League trip, but he's going to have to settle for less.

The Bruins ran into a buzzsaw and had their eight-game winning streak snapped in a 4-2 loss to the St. Louis Blues Thursday night before a packed crowd of 18,628.

Veteran goalie Eddie Johnston, who had shut out the Blues in two games this season in Boston, had his scoreless streak ended at 120 minutes, 41 seconds as Danny O'Shea scored at 4:41 of the first period.

Johnny Bucyk tied the count 1-1 with his 17th goal less than a minute later. Rookie Jean Hamel scored his first NHL goal at 18:45 of the second period to put St. Louis in front 2-1, but Bobby Orr tallied his 11th goal on a spectacular individual effort to move the Bruins back into a tie.

The Boston defense, which had allowed only 12 goals during the winner streak, suffered a letdown in the third period. Gary Sabourin stole the puck at center ice and went in to easily beat Johnston on an unassisted goal. Then Phil Roberto added an insurance tally after intercepting a clearing pass in the Boston end.

Los Angeles (AP) - Julius Boros held his score card - the one showing him sharing the lead in the first round of the $135,000 Glen Campbell Los Angeles Open - at arms length as he tried to focus on it.

"I don't have my glasses, you know," the paunchy, 52-year-old Boros apologized.

"That's pretty great for me," Boros said Thursday of his four-under-par 67 on the 7,028-yard Riviera Country Club course. "You know, considering I've been having trouble with a bad back, and I've got a touch of buritis and I haven't played much lately and the weather was pretty cool."

Jack Nicklaus wasn't at all impressed by Boros' talk of his ailments.

"Jeez, Julie, what course did you play?" Jack asked. "Boros, called 'Old Man River' or just 'Old Folks' by his younger companions on the pro tour, was tied for the top spot with Johnny Miller, 25, and former PGA titleholder Dave Stockton.

Just one stroke off the pace in this event, which kicks off a 12-month schedule on the pro tour, was 46-year-old Bob Rosburg, another holding veteran, while 48-year-old Art Wall was tied with Nicklaus and three others at 69, just two strokes back.

Also at that figure were Bert Yancey, Don Bies and Australian David Graham.

Sam Snead, a 60-year-old relic of another era of golf, was one of a large group at 70.

Edges Dan Devine By Slight Margin

NEW YORK (AP) - Don Shula, who piloted the Miami Dolphins to professional football's first perfect regular season record in 30 years, was named National Football League Coach of the Year by the Associated Press today.

Shula edged Green Bay Coach Dan Devine by three votes in balloting by a nationwide panel of sportswriters and broadcasters. The Dolphins' boss received 59 votes to 25 for Devine. Chuck Noll of Pittsburgh was third with 12 votes, finishing ahead of Cleveland's Nick Skorich, who had six and George Allen of Washington, last year's winner, who had five.

Informed of the selection of his 63rd birthday, Shula, who is rearing his Miami club Super Bowl, was pleased. "It's a great honor," he said. "But what it really means is a lot of hard work by a lot of people. It's been a successful season but it won't mean a whole lot until we bring the world championship to Miami."

Shula, a pro coach for 10 seasons, has compiled a 96-91 record in three years at Miami.

The Dolphins swept all 14 regular season games this year and won the AFC East and Pittsburgh in the playoffs to move into the Super Bowl showdown against Washington.

This will be Shula's third trip to the Super Bowl and he is still looking for his first victory. His Baltimore Colts lost to the New York Jets in 1969 and then the Cincinnati Dolphins were ripped by Dallas last year.

For Shula's Miami players were named to The Associated Press All-Pro team Thursday. They were offensive guard Larry Little, the one only two All-Pro repeaters from last year, quarterback Earl Morrall, defensive end Bill Stanfill and safety Dick Anderson.

Morrall's running mates in the All-Pro backfield were Buffalo's O. J. Simpson, the NFL rushing champ with 1,251 yards, and Larry Brown of Washington, voted the league's offensive player of the year.

Chosen for the team representatives, the All-Pro defense includes end Claude Humphrey of Atlanta, tackles Joe Greene of Pittsburgh and Mike Reid of Cincinnati, outside linebackers Dave Wilcox of San Francisco and Chris Hanburger of Washington, middle linebacker Dick Butkus of Chicago, and cornerbacks Jimmy Johnson, San Francisco; Ken Ellis, Green Bay.

Safety - Dick Anderson, Miami.

Safety - Bill Bradley, Philadelphia.

Second Team

ENDS - Claude Humphrey, Atlanta; Bill Stanfill, Miami.

TACKLES - Joe Greene, Pittsburgh; Mike Reid, Cincinnati.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS - Chris Hanburger, Washington; Dave Wilcox, San Francisco.

MIDDLE LINEBACKER - Dick Butkus, Chicago.

CORNERBACKS - Jimmy Johnson, San Francisco; Ken Ellis, Green Bay.

SAFETY - Dick Anderson, Miami.

SAFETY - Bill Bradley, Philadelphia.

Second Team

ENDS - Jack Gregory, New York Giants; Carl Eller, Minnesota.

TACKLES - Alan Page, Minnesota; Bob Lilly, Dallas.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS - Ted Hendricks, Baltimore; Andy Russell, Pittsburgh.

MIDDLE LINEBACKER - Nick Buoniconti, Miami.

CORNERBACKS - Mel Renfro, Dallas; Willie Brown, Oakland.

Unbeaten Hall Receives Tribe in CCIL Feature

By Dean Yost

Hall High, looking more than next year as having a powerful club, bloomed early and presently share the CCIL's top position with Windham High, both having unbeaten 6-0 records.

Manchester High, with their backs to the wall early in the campaign, will travel tonight to West Hartford to attempt to snap the Warriors' unbeaten streak. Game time at the new Hall gym will be 8:15.

While the CCIL's top attraction is centered in West Hartford, at Rockville High, the Rams (4-2) oppose undefeated Plainville High which bumped off previously unbeaten Simsbury Tuesday night, in Central Valley Conference activity.

Elsewhere in schoolboy games, Ellington (6-1) travels to Suffield High in a NCCC engagement; South Windsor (2-4) treks to Glastonbury High; Bolton High (1-5) meets neighboring Rham High (0-5) on the latter's court; while Coventry, with a spot-ty (3-4) record, makes the trip to Rocky Hill.

Steve Chotiner, a senior forward, is the lone veteran for Coach Dave Deacon's Warriors. Chotiner is an exceptional performer and is the leading scorer for the West Hartford crew.

Hall, not hurting for height, has two 6-5 standouts in Lee Dobkin and Ted Brown.

Manchester, with average height, has been hurting with an inconsistent offensive attack. In its last three outings, the Tribe has lost close games. After rallying to close the gap it appears that they don't have enough firepower to keep the offense burning.

Kurt Carlson and Tom Tucker are the Indians top point getters, but when they aren't hitting from long range, Manchester's offense doesn't click.

Showing a good sense for the game, hustle and determination, Ray Sullivan, a sophomore guard, was substituted with Connie McCurry to fill the vacated guard spot left open when Phil Stoneman became ill and sparked Tuesday.

In the three games the Tribe lost in a row the outcome could easily have gone the other way. Bowling 59-58 to Bristol Center, a foul with seconds left hurt the locals. Windham, behind most of the game, tied the score and won it in overtime, 72-68. Against Wethersfield, the floor game was poor but the foul line, as in the past, proved costly for Manchester in losing 54-50.

A few breaks for the Silk Towers and their Murphy team have possibly been 5-1 instead of 2-4.

Russians Trip Up New Haven

NEW HAVEN (AP) - Aleksandr Maltsev scored four goals to lead the Soviet Union all-star team to a 9-4 victory over the New Haven Nighthawks of the American Hockey League in a penalty-ridden exhibition game Thursday night.

Maltsev's two goals in the opening period put the Soviets ahead 3-1 but Yvan Rolando closed the gap to 3-2 with an early second period goal for New Haven.

The Soviets broke the game wide open just after the teams switched goalies midway through the second period.

Game time at the new Hall gym will be 8:15.

Friends Remember Clemente As Man of Quiet Strength

CAROLINA, P.R. (AP) — Friends remembered Roberto Clemente as a man of quiet strength in both public and private life.

That's the way he was remembered Thursday by a priest at memorial services for the baseball superstar.

More than 70 friends of Clemente, including members of the Pittsburgh Pirate organization for which he played, attended the 45-minute service at the San Fernando Roman Catholic Church.

Speaking in the small, stone church not far from Clemente's Carolina home, the priest described the star outfielder as a man of quiet strength in both public and private life as he did on the field.

This strength eventually led to his untimely death, the priest added. Clemente was aboard a cargo plane carrying food to earthquake victims in Nicaragua when the craft went down in the Atlantic Ocean New Year's Eve not far from the Puerto Rican coast.

Four others were killed in the crash, the priest added. There, they were met by Clemente's widow, Vera, who had stopped a long watch at the beach area to hear the priest's eulogy.

After the Mass ended, Clemente's friends left the church and poured into a plaza bulging with hundreds of people. The Pirate team then visited the Clemente home to pay their respects.

Along with Kuhn, the mourners included Pirate President Dan Galbreath, Manager Bill Virdon, former Manager Danny Martta and many current and former players and some wives.

While the mass was held on this island, similar services were conducted in Pittsburgh. Some 1,000 people showed up at Trinity Cathedral Church there to hear Clemente eulogized.

Meanwhile, a movement continued to have the name of Three Rivers Stadium changed to Roberto Clemente Stadium. A man "who gave himself, even his life, for others."

Bruins Near All-Time Mark

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA's top-rated basketball team has been inexorably moving toward the all-time collegiate record for consecutive victories, yet the Bruins head coach has ignored the obvious.

John Wooden is willing to talk about winning 60 games in a row to his players, "to sort of take the pressure off."

UCLA has won 53 basketball games in a row. Tonight the Bruins tackle rugged Oregon in hopes of winning No. 54. Then Saturday night Oregon State is on schedule to become No. 55.

"To be perfectly honest with you, I really haven't thought about the streak until recently," Wooden said Thursday from his home in nearby Santa Monica.

"I always concentrate on our (Pacific-8) conference season because unless we win the title, we can't go on and play in the regional finals. So I had chosen to ignore the record because early in the season I do things that aren't predicated entirely on winning, just on preparing the team for the conference."

"But maybe it's about time I started mentioning it to my players. They read about the record all the time in the newspapers and hear about it on radio and television."

Wooden says if his team does win 60 games in a row, "it will probably be interesting to look back on it and reflect about the three teams that made up the streak."

"None of those players are on this team," he notes. "But let's not talk too much about it."

College Basketball 'Super' and 'Great' Wins for Memphis

NEW YORK (AP) — Memphis State keeps chalking up "super" and "great" victories in college basketball—on the road, too. "This was a super win," said Coach Gene Bartow in Nashville Saturday night after the Tigers had knocked Vanderbilt out of the unbeaten ranks.

"It was a great one to win," Bartow said in Des Moines Thursday night after the Tigers had beaten Drake 97-92 in two overtimes for their sixth straight triumph.

Dwight Lamar led the No. 8 Ragin' Cajuns to their seventh straight victory with 25 points and 10 rebounds.

Obituary

Jim McVeigh Dead; Watkins Official, Army Officer

James H. McVeigh, 83, of 81 Oxford St., credit manager of Watkins Bros. for more than 40 years and an Army veteran of World Wars I and II, died Thursday night at his home.

Mr. McVeigh, who had been associated with Watkins Bros. since Dec. 15, 1919, was born Oct. 6, 1889 in Rockville and had lived in Manchester all his life.

He was one of the organizers of Manchester Lodge of Elks and was elected its first exalted ruler in 1963. He later was named an honorary life member of the lodge. He also was a charter member of the Manchester American Legion Post and the Army and Navy Club. For many years, he belonged to the British-American Club and the Manchester Historical Society.

James McVeigh

His military career began in 1917 when he enlisted in the Army. He attended the Fourth Officer Candidate School in Atlanta, Ga. At graduating and commissioning time, the Armistice came, and his commission as second lieutenant was held up until January 1919, when he was transferred to the Army Reserve. In 1926, he was promoted to the rank of captain, and in 1930 resigned from the Officers' Reserve and joined the Connecticut National Guard.

He was appointed commanding officer of Co. G of the 169th Infantry in 1930, and in 1931, was promoted to major and assigned as executive officer to the 3rd Battalion Headquarters.

In 1941, he was ordered back into regular service and assigned to Camp Blanding, Fla. At the outbreak of World War II, he was transferred to the Inspector General Department and served in Washington, D.C., as well as in the European and African theaters. Upon returning to the United States, he was appointed training inspector for the Southwest Area. On Aug. 31, 1946, he separated from the service and transferred to the Honorary Reserve with the rank of brigadier general.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Carol Lenihan of 21 Cambridge St., chairman of the social studies department at Iling Junior High School; three sisters, Mrs. Ann Mahoney of Cottage St. and Miss Julia McVeigh of Bidwell St.; and a granddaughter, Miss Mari-Carol Lenihan.

The funeral will be Monday at 8:30 a.m. from the Watkins Funeral Home, 142 E. Center St., with a Mass of the Resurrection at St. Bridget Church at 9. Burial will be in St. James Cemetery. Full military honors will be accorded at graveside.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

The family suggests that any memorial contributions may be made to Lutz Junior Museum.

Police Report

Arrests made or summonses issued by Manchester Police included:

— James E. Dowsett, 17, of 330 Center St., charged today with public indecency. He was taken into custody on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant in connection with a Dec. 18 incident, police said. Court date is Jan. 22.

— Kenneth R. Righenzi, 16, of 85 Birch St., charged Thursday night with intoxication on Charter Oak St. A 12-year-old boy, unidentified because of his age, was also charged with intoxication in connection with the same incident, police said. The 12-year-old was referred to juvenile authorities and released to his parents. Court date for Righenzi is Jan. 22.

— Michael J. Graham, 20, Willimantic, charged Thursday with third-degree forgery and criminal impersonation. He was nabbed at his home on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant, police said. The charge stems from the alleged cashing of a forged check at a local bank, according to police. Court date is Jan. 22.

— Angel E. Neves, 32, of 73C Downey Dr., charged Thursday night with issuing a bad check. Court date is Jan. 22.

— Jack Spector, 20, of 20 Knox St., charged Thursday night with operating an unregistered motor vehicle and improper use of marker plates. The vehicle he was driving was stopped on E. Center St., police said. Court date is Jan. 29.

A nine-year-old Manchester boy, Stephen Fishman of 128 Park St., was not hurt when he was struck by a car Thursday afternoon on Cedar St., police reported.

The boy apparently ran into the path of a vehicle operated by Leonard J. Angell, 34, of 34 Valley St., police said, and Angell could not avoid a collision.

Police said the boy got up after being hit and said he wasn't hurt. The accident occurred at about 2:40 p.m.

Welfare Chief Appointed

HARTFORD (AP) — Nicholas Norton, 41, of Colchester, was named Connecticut Welfare Commissioner Thursday by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill.

Norton had been deputy commissioner under Henry White, who resigned Dec. 31, and had been acting commissioner since the first of the year. His new appointment must be approved by either the state House or Senate.

Gov. Meskill said Norton would continue the policies begun under White "in getting people off the welfare rolls and onto payrolls."

Norton was named deputy commissioner in June 1971. Prior to that time, he was executive secretary to E. Clayton Gengras, chairman of Security Corp., an insurance firm.

In accepting the appointment, Norton said he would work to "assure the taxpayer that his money is wisely spent and that welfare goes only to the truly needy."

Norton said the five goals for the Welfare Department in 1973 would be to protect children, reduce the number of people on welfare, reduce the cost of welfare programs, improve the services of the department and to reduce the cost of welfare administration.

James Cosgrove Named Chief Public Defender

HARTFORD (AP) — James D. Cosgrove has been named chief public defender for all the state's Superior Courts.

Cosgrove, who has served as Hartford County Superior Court public defender since 1951, was named to the new post this week by the executive committee of the judges of the Superior Court.

Compulsory School Mergers Proposed

HARTFORD (AP) — School districts with fewer than 2,000 pupils would be required to merge with another school district under a bill filed in the General Assembly Thursday by the State Board of Education.

Under the bill, the estimated 60-80 school districts that fall into this category would have until July 1, 1975 to voluntarily regionalize. After that, the State Board of Education would choose the town's partners, Dr. Maurice Ross, deputy state commissioner of education, said Thursday.

The bill's main purpose "is to ensure that boys and girls in smaller towns get more nearly equal educational opportunities," Ross said. "It takes a little larger town to provide opportunities at a reasonable price."

The smallest school district in the state is Union, with fewer than 150 pupils, while the largest is Hartford with some 30,000, he said.

Ross said smaller school districts might not have the best laboratories, libraries, music departments or industrial shops. He also said a regional district could provide better guidance counseling.

"We expect opposition," Ross said. "It will center around the supposed lack of local control." He said that under regionalization towns share their autonomy with other towns.

He said Connecticut has a long tradition of regionalization, dating back to the 1930s, but that the regionalization has been voluntary. He said five or six school districts have consolidated.

There are several regional high schools in Connecticut. Ross predicted some people would see the bill as a Big Brother tactic. But, he said, "The State Board of Education is charged by statute to promote programs that benefit children."

While some costs would decline under a regional school system, improvements in opportunities would tend to increase the cost, he said.

But, he added, "The fiscal argument is not the most important argument. It is quality education that counts."

On the west side of Main St. at the foot of the hill below St. Bridget's Church, was a house with a large veranda close to the sidewalk. The Frank Goetz family lived here and conducted a bakery in the rear.

John McCarthy, who lived on Pine Hill St., drove their sales wagon, John was a very friendly man. His hand bell could be heard in the distance so customers were ready when he arrived front of their homes. No time was lost.

While there were a lot of "And what's my good boy want today?" or "Yes, my good woman," he was not one to waste any time in idle talk and gossip. And so he covered a large territory in spite of the fact he had to go back several times to replenish his load.

He had his favorite horse, "Come on my good Nellie." Everyone was "my good" to "Johnnie the Baker."

One of Nellie's hind legs was about twice as large as the other, especially in the lower half. It was said that she had "scratches", but we never knew if that was accident or disease.

Johnnie and Nellie could be seen on the roads late into the night with an oil lantern inside the closed wagon. The trip out to meet Johnnie the Baker was one errand that was never avoided because it usually resulted in "And here's an extra one for my good little man."

It was told about that Mr. Goetz was interested in the Eastern Biscuit Co., which built a factory next on the south of his bakery. That factory is now the Carlyle-Johnson Co. home.

The big baking company produced all kinds of cookies, cakes, crackers, etc. that were packed in large tin boxes with glass windows in front. They were lined up on store shelves for display. The store man weighed out the quantity each customer desired.

Foods were not put up in standard size packages then. The retailers bought almost everything in bulk and parceled it out as wanted. Not as sanitarily as modern methods but more saving of resources and perhaps less air pollution. Who ever thought of such a thing then?

On the second floor, a row of girls sat at a bench sorting and packing the product. Any cracker or cookies that was broken, bent or off color was tossed into a chute which led to a bin on the floor below.

State Firms Given Contracts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Connecticut firms have received government contracts.

The Naval Air Assistance Command Thursday awarded a $4,200,000 contract to the United Aircraft Corp.'s Sikorsky Aircraft division in Stratford. The contract is for YCH-53E helicopters.

The Avco Corp.'s Lycoming division, also in Stratford, has received a $3,633,298 contract for 271 turbine engine conversions. The Army said T55-L11 engines will be converted to T55-L11A engines.

The awards were announced Thursday by U.S. Rep. Robert Giaimo, D-Conn.

Detector Gets Quite Personal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Edward Stringfield had a tough battle with the new metal detector at Philadelphia International Airport Thursday.

Stringfield, a retired musician from Margate, N.J., had to surrender his keys, two cigarette lighters, a few silver dollars, a pen and pencil set and his belt (with metal buckle) in an attempt to get through the special electronic screener.

But even on the sixth try the "alert" light flashed and Stringfield began to look perplexed. All he wanted to do was catch his flight to Florida. Then his wife whispered in his ear.

"That's it," Stringfield told the security agent. "I'm wearing a truss." The authorities took a look and let him pass.

Celestino J. Carducci

Celestino J. Carducci, 49, of 1 Hoffman Dr. died Thursday at his home. He was the husband of Mrs. Alice Cummings Carducci.

Mr. Carducci was born in Hartford and lived there most of his life before coming to Manchester 15 years ago. He had been employed at the Travelers Insurance Co., Hartford, before he retired because of ill health.

He was an Army veteran of World War II and the Korean Conflict and was a member of the Army and Navy Club.

Survivors, besides his wife, are a son, Domenick Carducci of Manchester; a daughter, Mary Ann Carducci of Enfield; two brothers, Guido Carducci and Frank Carducci, both of West Hartford; a sister, Mrs. Josephine Pojantonic of Shelter Island, N.Y.; and a grandchild.

The funeral will be Saturday at 9:15 a.m. from the D'Esopo Funeral Chapel, 235 Wethersfield Ave., Hartford, with a Mass of the Resurrection at St. Patrick and St. Anthony Church, Hartford, at 10. Burial will be in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield.

Police Report

Arrests made or summonses issued by Manchester Police included:

— James E. Dowsett, 17, of 330 Center St., charged today with public indecency. He was taken into custody on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant in connection with a Dec. 18 incident, police said. Court date is Jan. 22.

— Kenneth R. Rignenzi, 16, of 85 Birch St., charged Thursday night with intoxication on Charter Oak St. A 12-year-old boy, unidentified because of his age, was also charged with intoxication in connection with the same incident, police said. The 12-year-old was referred to juvenile authorities and released to his parents. Court date for Rignenzi is Jan. 22.

— Michael J. Graham, 20, of 1111 Main St., charged Thursday with third-degree forgery on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant, police said. The charge stems from the alleged cashing of a forged check at a local bank, according to police. Court date is Jan. 22.

— Angel E. Neves, 32, of 70C Downey Dr., charged Thursday night with issuing a bad check, taken into custody on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant in connection with a Dec. 18 incident, police said. Court date is Jan. 22.

A nine-year-old Manchester boy, Stephen Fincher of 128 Park St., was not hurt when he was struck by a car Thursday afternoon on Cedar St., police reported.

The boy apparently ran into the path of a vehicle operated by Leonard J. Angeli, 34, of 34 Valley St., police said. The boy, who was not injured, was taken to a hospital for observation. He was released to his home on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant, police said. The charge stems from the alleged cashing of a forged check at a local bank, according to police. Court date is Jan. 22.

State Firms Given Contracts

The Naval Air Assistance Command Thursday awarded a $4,200,000 contract to the United Aircraft Corp.'s Sikorsky Aircraft division in Stratford, Conn., for V-332 helicopters.

The Avco Corp.'s Lycoming division, also in Stratford, was awarded a $3,828,288 contract for 271 turbine engine conversions. The Army said T55-L11 engines, a few silver dollars, a pen and pencil set and his belt (with metal buckle) in an attempt to get through the special electronic screener.

Phone Book Discrimination Ires Lawyer

HARTFORD (AP) — A Hartford attorney who claims the Southern New England Telephone Co. discriminates against lawyers in its phone book listings has filed a complaint with the state Public Utilities Commission.

Anthony M. Tapogna, an assistant corporation counsel for the city of Hartford, said in his complaint that SNETCO identifies doctors as "M.D." and clergymen as "Rev." or "Pastor" in its residential listings without extra cost but charges a higher business rate for attorneys who wish to have their profession shown.

Tapogna said the company offered to place "J.D." after his name at no extra cost, but that he doubted most people would recognize the letters as standing for his "Doctor of Jurisprudence" law degree.

The PUC has scheduled a hearing on the matter for Jan. 11.

Wordings of an emergency sick leave provision in the Manchester Police Union's contract with the town is apparently the crux of the dispute between the union and Town Manager Robert Weiss.

The union, Local No. 1465, claims that Weiss changed the wording of the provision from "unlimited" to "additional" sick leave. Weiss says the union, in wanting to use the word "unlimited," is demanding a new item in the contract.

At a special meeting Thursday night, the union voted unanimously to rescind its ratification of the contract because of the wording problem. Friday, Weiss said he was filing an unfair labor practice complaint with the State Labor Relations Board.

The contract, which was effective last July 1971, was cancelled by Weiss Friday. Conditions revert to terms of the old (1970-1971) contract until the dispute is resolved.

The sick leave provision at issue provides for extra paid sick leave in exceptional cases. The police union, according to President James Sweeney, wanted "unlimited" sick leave with the manager's approval. The union, in a statement released Friday, said Weiss had agreed to such a provision, but he then withdrew it.

Weiss said he rejected the union's request for an unlimited sick leave provision when they asked for it in early November. The provision's wording in the printed 1972-1974 contract, which Weiss said was ready to be signed in November, is the same as it was in the 1970-1972 contract. It is:

"The General Manager may grant an additional consecutive sick leave with pay in exceptional cases. This shall not exceed eight days for each year of consecutive employment in the public service. Request for such additional sick leave shall be submitted in writing to the employee's department head who shall transmit it with a written recommendation to the General Manager, within five days. Additional sick leave to be granted only once for the same period of past employment.

Police wanted to substitute the word "unlimited" instead of the eight-day per year of consecutive employment provision, which was extended from last January to June during which agreements were hammered out. This was followed by the approval of both the Board of Directors and the Union membership. The time for bringing up new matters in the contract was during this six-month negotiating period, not now when the contract has provisions agreed upon in June 1972 by both the Union and Board of Directors in order to avoid this action," Weiss' statement said.

A spokesman for the International Longshoremen's Association, AFL-CIO, announced Friday that I.L.A. members were not unloading one ship of Australian goods and six flying other flags but also carrying Australian goods.

Firemen battle blaze which engulfed an old three-story wooden house and endangered a nearby home on Village St., Rockville, Friday afternoon. The fire, which apparently started in a basement apartment, swept through the wooden structure causing heavy smoke throughout the area. Story Page 16. (Herald photo by Richmond).

Dispute Hinges On Semantics

Manchester Town Manager Robert Weiss today issued the following statement concerning the contract dispute between the town and the Manchester Police Union Local No. 1465.

"The dispute between the town and the Union does not merely involve 'one word' in the contract but does involve the integrity of the entire collective bargaining process. The town and the Union had extensive negotiating sessions extending from last January to June during which agreements were hammered out. This was followed by the approval of both the Board of Directors and the Union membership. The time for bringing up new matters in the contract was during this six-month negotiating period, not now when the contract has provisions agreed upon in June 1972 by both the Union and Board of Directors in order to avoid this action," Weiss' statement said.

A spokesman for the International Longshoremen's Association, AFL-CIO, announced Friday that I.L.A. members were not unloading one ship of Australian goods and six flying other flags but also carrying Australian goods.

Does your present heating system have you living in the past?

If you're not getting clean, modern, dependable performance from your current heating system, maybe it's time for a change. A change for the better. To low-cost gas heat. Clean-burning gas comes to you through safe underground pipelines in any weather. So you're assured of a constant supply, day or night, season after season. And converting to gas heat is easy. You use your present boiler or furnace. Just a small conversion unit is installed. End those winter heating worries. Call your gas heating contractor or CNG in Hartford (525-0111) or New Britain (224-9157). Ask about the CNG low monthly rental plan. Modernize your heating system and save with gas heat.

Union Rejects Bus Plan

HARTFORD (AP) — A top official of the Amalgamated Transit Union (ATU) has rejected a plan to produce either a long-term or short-term solution to the existing bus crisis and the obvious need for at least some service in the areas served by the Connecticut Co.

Hearing Set

The PUC scheduled a hearing on the matter for 10:30 a.m. Jan. 15 at the State Office Building.

Thompson said Gengras' proposal was unacceptable because it didn't offer employment for all 650 ATU drivers as promised. While on strike, the drivers cannot collect unemployment benefits.

The ATU struck ConnCo Nov. 22 in a contract dispute after ConnCo said it couldn't give the union members an improved contract without the losing some sort of subsidy. ConnCo

Double-Barrel Approach To Cat Problem

READING, Mass. (AP) — Spotted in the classified ad section of the Reading Chronicle this week:

"For Sale—Morris my yellow, double pawed cat in making our son sneeze and sneeze. She, yes, she is, sweet, very patient, and even eats spaghetti. $1,000 or free to a good home or read next."

"Ted, our 14-year-old son for sale. Allergic to our cat Morris. He is tall, quiet patient (except with sisters) and eats almost anything. Price $1,000 or free to a good home. Or reading preceding ad."

Compulsory School Mergers Proposed

HARTFORD (AP) — School districts with fewer than 2,000 pupils would be required to merge with another school district under a bill filed in the General Assembly Thursday by the State Board of Education.

Under the bill, the estimated 60-80 school districts that fall into this category would have until July 1, 1975 to voluntarily regionalize. After that, the State Board of Education would choose the town's partners. Dr. Maurice Ross, deputy state commissioner of education, said Thursday.

The bill's main purpose "is to ensure that boys and girls in smaller towns get more equal educational opportunities," Ross said. "It takes a little larger town to provide opportunities at a reasonable price."

The smallest school district in the state is Union, with fewer than 150 pupils, while the largest is Hartford with some 30,000, he said.

Ross said smaller school districts might not have the best laboratories, libraries, music departments or industrial shops. He also said a regional district could provide better guidance counseling.

"We're not opposed to," Ross said, "it will center around the supposed lack of local control." He said that under regionalization towns share their autonomy with other towns.

He said Connecticut has a long tradition of regionalization, dating back to the 1930s, but that the regionalization has been voluntary. He said five or six school districts have consolidated.

There are several regional high schools in Connecticut. Ross predicted some people would see the bill as a Big Brother tactic. But, he said, "The State Board of Education is charged by statute to promote programs that benefit children."

While some costs would decline under a regional school system, improvements in opportunities would tend to increase the cost, he said. "The fiscal argument is not the most important argument. It is quality education that counts."

Wordings of an emergency sick leave provision in the Manchester Police Union's contract with the town is apparently the crux of the dispute between the union and Town Manager Robert Weiss.

The union, Local No. 1465, claims that Weiss changed the wording of the provision from "unlimited" to "additional" sick leave. Weiss says the union, in wanting to use the word "unlimited," is demanding a new item in the contract.

At a special meeting Thursday night, the union voted unanimously to rescind its ratification of the contract because of the wording problem. Friday, Weiss said he was filing an unfair labor practice complaint with the State Labor Relations Board.

The contract, which was effective last July 1971, was cancelled by Weiss Friday. Conditions revert to terms of the old (1970-1971) contract until the dispute is resolved.

The sick leave provision at issue provides for extra paid sick leave in exceptional cases. The police union, according to President James Sweeney, wanted "unlimited" sick leave with the manager's approval. The union, in a statement released Friday, said Weiss had agreed to such a provision, but he then withdrew it.

Weiss said he rejected the union's request for an unlimited sick leave provision when they asked for it in early November. The provision's wording in the printed 1972-1974 contract, which Weiss said was ready to be signed in November, is the same as it was in the 1970-1972 contract. It is:

"The General Manager may grant an additional consecutive sick leave with pay in exceptional cases. This shall not exceed eight days for each year of consecutive employment in the public service. Request for such additional sick leave shall be submitted in writing to the employee's department head who shall transmit it with a written recommendation to the General Manager, within five days. Additional sick leave to be granted only once for the same period of past employment.

Police wanted to substitute the word "unlimited" instead of the eight-day per year of consecutive employment provision, which was extended from last January to June during which agreements were hammered out. This was followed by the approval of both the Board of Directors and the Union membership. The time for bringing up new matters in the contract was during this six-month negotiating period, not now when the contract has provisions agreed upon in June 1972 by both the Union and Board of Directors in order to avoid this action," Weiss' statement said.

Nixon Hedges On Possibility Of Early Peace

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under mounting pressure from congressional Democrats to get a Vietnam war settlement by his Jan. 20 inauguration, President Nixon has told them he doesn't know whether the renewed Paris peace talks will provide a way to get through the special electronic screener.

But even on the sixty try the "aler" light flashed and Stringfold began to look perplexed. All he wanted to do was catch his flight to Florida. Then his wife whispered in his ear.

"That's it," Stringfold told the security agent. "I'm wearing a brass. The authorities took a look and let him pass."

Nixon Revamping Administration

WASHINGTON (AP) — After waiting two years for Congress to act on his proposals for reorganizing the executive branch, President Nixon has taken the first steps himself.

The President announced Friday that five key aides will oversee all policy making for the executive branch. Nixon announced also that three of his second-term Cabinet members have been given dual roles as presidential counselors to coordinate all aspects in the fields of natural resources, human resources and government development.

Nixon promised as well a staff reduction that will cut in half the 4,216 employees of the Executive Office of the President by the end of the fiscal year in June.

He presented his executive reorganization plan at a breakfast meeting with congressional leaders in which it was no substitute for legislation he has proposed. The new laws would consolidate seven current cabinet departments into four streamlined agencies. The legislation is expected to be reintroduced within a few weeks.

Under his new executive reorganization, Nixon is putting the entire administration of the White House under presidential leadership. H. R. Haldeman, Domestic Counselor, will be the domain of John Ehrlichman and foreign affairs will continue under Henry A. Kissinger. He is putting executive management into the hands of the newly named head of the Office of Management and Budget, Roy Ash, and Treasury Secretary George Shultz will be in charge of economic affairs.

In the extra role of counselors, Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Buttz will oversee all areas involving natural resources. Human resources will be supervised by Caspar Weinberger, who has been designated secretary of health, education and welfare, and community-development operations will be supervised by James Lynn, the next secretary of housing and urban development.

Nixon told the congressional leaders that the three counselors-Cabinet members will head a committee of Ehrlichman, Haldeman and Kissinger. Cabinet members will include other department heads and high-level officials who have responsibilities in each of the three areas.

Nixon told the congressional leaders that the three counselors would be available for appearances before Congress, and would not claim the newly named head of the Office of Management and Budget, Roy Ash, and Treasury Secretary George Shultz will be in charge of economic affairs.

Watergate Trial To Begin Monday

WASHINGTON (AP) — A plea by the Democratic party to bar the introduction of the Watergate trial of conversations allegedly heard in illegal wiretaps has been rejected by a U.S. District Court judge.

The trial begins on Monday.

Judge John J. Sirica Friday agreed with arguments of government prosecutors that some disclosure of what was said in the conversations may be necessary to prove the case against the persons called in the Democratic headquarters. Seven persons have been charged in the case.

The Democrats did not want contents of the conversations introduced.

Prosecutor Earl J. Silbert said the government would not try to prove blackmail, but will prove several motives behind the case against the persons called in the Democratic headquarters. Seven persons have been charged in the case.

Bringing the 90-minute hearing, a former White House aide who worked for President Nixon's re-election committee, spoke over one of the Democratic party telephones that he had been advised by his clients that a man named Harry Flemming spoke on his telephone.

Morgan's remarks quoted him as saying: "I will give you the statement that I have been advised by my clients that a man named Harry Flemming spoke on his telephone."

Defy Warning

BELFAST (AP) — Northern Ireland's assassins killed a young Protestant last Friday night as they defied a warning from a Protestant vigilante organization that it will eliminate the killers unless they stop.

The 18-year-old Protestant was gunned down by two young men as he inflated his car tires at a Belfast filling station. He was the 683rd person to die violently in three years of bloodshed.

Retaliate

NEW YORK (AP) — Seven ships carrying Australian goods have been reported tied up in six U.S. ports from Boston to Tampa. The U.S. has an Australian boycott of American shipping.

The Australian boycott, called primarily by left-wing Americans, is in protest against the Hanoi-Haliphong area of North Vietnam. The U.S. has officially protested, but Australia's new Labor Party prime minister has said he would not interfere.

A spokesman for the International Longshoremen's Association, AFL-CIO, announced Friday that I.L.A. members were not unloading one ship of Australian goods and six flying other flags but also carrying Australian goods.

Train Wreck

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Three persons were reported killed Friday night when two Southern Pacific Railroad freight trains collided north of here.

The accident was the 14th in a series that has plagued the railroad in recent months.

An ambulance crewman reported from the scene that three persons were dead and searchers were still combing the wreckage.

War Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — An additional $2 billion may be paid for the war over Indochina, the Pentagon says.

This would bring the total cost of the war for fiscal 1973 to about $8 billion, well below the peak annual cost of about $20 billion in the late 1960s.

Defense Department officials said Friday that at least $250 million of the extra money is attributable to aircraft lost over North Vietnam during recent stepped-up air raids.
