

South Windsor Income Tax Factor In Revenue Share

BARBARA VARRICK

Town Manager Terry Sprinkel this week asked residents to be especially careful in filing out income tax forms and to pay particular attention to questions referring to Revenue Sharing. According to Sprinkel, a loss could result to the town if improper answers are given on the revenue sharing question as population and income factors are used in the formula to determine the final amount to be received by South Windsor next year in the federal grant.

Sprinkel said dated used by the Treasury Department to determine South Windsor's grants this year coincide with the town's Finance Dept data. Three major factors determine

South Windsor Fitts Critical Of Glassman Over Planning

Councilman Howard Fitts (R) has claimed that recent comments made by Mayor Abraham Glassman (D) for future planning for South Windsor is a play with political overtones and is doing "too little, too late."

Fitts charged that comments at council business sessions make it clear "that the Democratic majority will use its votes to operate as they see fit, distilling taxpayers into thinking they can expect positive, business like leadership." We presently have a politically oriented leadership gap, best illustrated by the planning gap. "Essential" A flexible blueprint for the community is an "essential resource to management which in reasonable time frames that allow community involvement and material use included in all previous planning and study efforts," Fitts said.

South Windsor Nixon Freeze To Delay Housing for Elderly

BARBARA VARRICK

The development of a 40-unit housing for the elderly complex approved by the town's planning and zoning commission will suffer a setback due to a recent fund freeze placed on the department of Housing and Urban Development funds by President Richard Nixon.

Also affected, will be possible grants for sewer installation on the recently approved $2.5 million sewer referendum for residential areas in the town. Town Manager Terry Sprinkel reported this week.

Deputy Mayor Robert Smith questioned the effects of the freeze on the funds for land acquisition for the Avery Brook Watershed project through the Soil Conservation Commission. Sprinkel replied that no one seems to know exactly what the freeze means, what effects it

Residents Asked Spending Views

Two public informational meetings will be held in the Town Hall this month in an effort to allow residents a voice in determining what should be done with Federal Revenue Sharing funds received by the town, and to explore ideas for funding a proposed new library for the town.

For Jan. 22, Mayor Abraham Glassman said he hopes to have a good public turnout as members of the Town Council are "anxious to hear what the people have to say" regarding the use of the already-received $24,190 of revenue-sharing grants and an anticipated additional amount of $4,600 which is believed to have been withheld pending final disposition of court cases brought before the government from towns and other municipalities where funds were believed to be inadequate.

Both meetings are scheduled for 8 p.m.

Tolland Group To Study Tax Assessments

The Board of Selectmen last night appointed an 11-member Study Advisory Committee to review local tax assessments.

Recommended by the Democratic Town Committee members Kevin Cavanaugh, Moskey and Dale Tower, all homeowners. The Republican recommended Alan Brooks, Jim Cummings and Atty. John McGinn, also homeowners.

Stanley Gosh, owner of the Dec. 19 Board of Selectmen meeting to make recommendations, submitted himself, as a large land owner, John Otletler, who owns land in both residential and industrial zones. David Wildo, owner of approximately 22 acres. Mrs. William Luchon and Mrs. Mary Ciavillo, both homeowners.

Quake Recorded
BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - An earthquake registering 4.6 on the Richter scale occurred early today near the island of New Britain in the East Indies, the National Earthquake Information Center here said.

The quake occurred at 2:28 a.m. MST, the center said, and was the largest of the year.

The quake occurred in a highly seismic area, and damage is rarely reported in that region, the center added.

Suez Key To Peace
NEW YORK (AP) - Secretary of State William P. Rogers says the most realistic approach to permanent peace in the Middle East is the U.S. plan to reopen the Suez Canal.

Rogers said Wednesday night that the 29-year-old proposal would be but "a first decisive step" on the road to a final settlement of the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Rogers, who spoke at a dinner honoring departing Israeli ambassador Yitzhak Rabin, made no reference to a recent statement by Anwar Sadat's Jan. 8 statement that he had given up all hope on the U.S. proposal.

Warm Weather Changes Plans
The January thaw created some problems for these Manchester youngsters. As can be seen, they fully intended to go ice skating on the slushy surfaces forced closures of the city's rinks. So what to do? Like young people everywhere, they found substitute recreation in scampering among the rocks in Charter Oak Park. Although it is not certain, they may have been looking for the first flowers of the Spring since the weather is certainly more spring-like than normal. (Herald photo by Pinto)

Heavy Attacks

SAIGON (AP) - U.S. warplanes flew more than 400 strikes across South Vietnam Wednesday and today, the U.S. Command announced. It was the second day of heavy air attack and the largest number of strikes in the South in more than two months.

The raids appeared aimed at putting South Vietnamese forces in the best possible military position to carry out a cease-fire agreement is signed.

Jury Still Out

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP) - The jury in the June V. Corona mass murder trial headed into its second week of deliberations today still struggling to break an 11-1 deadlock.

The last word from the jury was an inquiry Tuesday about the legal definition of "reasonable doubt."

The jury also reported at that time that it was divided 11-1, but did not say whether the majority favored conviction or acquittal on the 25 counts of first degree murder against Corona, a Mexican national who is a farm labor contractor.

Casualty Report

SAIGON (AP) - The U.S. command reported today that two Americans were killed in action in Indochina last week, and were wounded and six are missing or captured. Two other Americans died from nonbattle causes, the command reported.

A spokesman explained later that the two Americans listed as killed in action actually did not die last week. Their status was changed during the week by the Pentagon from missing to dead. The spokesman said both were airmen but he did not know when or where they were downed.

Several Manchesterites Attending Inauguration

Manchester is not without representation in Washington, D.C., this weekend for the festivities of President Nixon's inauguration. Representations are included from state office to a high school student.

Riding a horse in the parade Saturday will be a Manchester High School student, David Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Matthews of 86 Salem Rd., and the youngest member of the First Company of the Governor's Horse Guard.

Shield Law Introduced In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) - The congressional effort to protect newsmen's sources picked up fresh momentum today with introduction in the Senate of another freedom-of-information bill.

Sponsors of the legislation are Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and Republican Mark Udall of Oregon. Marlow W. Cook of Kentucky and Milton R. Young of North Dakota.

The bill, among several introduced in both houses of Congress already this session, would protect newsmen from revealing information or sources of information, except in libel cases, to a court, grand jury, Congress or other federal agency.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., announced early this week his Judiciary subcommittee on constitutional rights will begin public hearings Feb. 20 on newsmen shield laws proposed in the Senate.

The other recommendation - for setting the ceiling at $2,500 for purchases without competitive bidding - drew one dissenting vote - that of David Odgard.

"I fear the rise could weaken the strength of competitive bidding," said Odgard. "I can't understand the need for the change. It places the limit into the area where many items, now under competitive bidding, would be eliminated."

The action rescinded one made last week, when the CRC rejected a proposal for the $2,500 ceiling. Last night's vote was vindication for CRC member John Sullivan, who had led last week's attempt to raise the limit.

The subcommittee of Odgard and Dominic Squitrito clarified an action taken last week - relative to the park and cemetery department. Odgard explained that the heading on their report, "Consolidation of park and cemetery departments," was misleading and in error.

Actually, the CRC action was for placing the park department under the jurisdiction of the department of public works, and not for consolidating it with the cemetery department. The cemetery department already is under the jurisdiction of the department of public works.

The CRC is recommending 11 charter revisions and will present its report to the Board of Directors by or before Feb. 6.

A subcommittee consisting of John FitzGerald, John Shea,

CRC Clears Decks For Final Report

Phyllis Jackson and Robert Shea is tackling the task of drafting the proposals into legal language. The CRC's report will be drafted and acted upon by the full commission on Jan. 31, at an 8 p.m. meeting in the Municipal Building.

The Board of Directors must hold a public hearing on the report within 30 days of its receipt. The CRC need not appear at the hearing but usually does. CRC chairman Fitzgerald said it will attend.

Following the public hearing, the directors will have 15 days for making recommendations for such changes in the report as they consider necessary. If no recommendations are made in the 15 days, the CRC's report shall be deemed final. If changes are recommended, the CRC will have 30 days to accept or reject the changes. Within 15 days of this CRC action, the directors, by a majority vote, may approve or reject any or all of the recommendations.

The directors then will have 30 days in which to determine whether to authorize a referendum at a special election (the March 13 referendum on an appropriation for purchasing Laurel Lake and for improvements to the disposal area is at a special election), or at a regular election (the Nov. 6 town election is at a regular election).

The CRC members last night commended Mrs. Elsie Cone, town secretary assigned to their meetings, for her excellent work.

Leary Being Returned

LONDON (AP) - Dr. Timothy Leary, former Harvard professor and drug advocate, was flown to Los Angeles today with a two-man escort from the U.S. Narcotics Bureau.

Leary escaped in September from prison in New Louis Obispo county, Calif., where he was serving a 10-year sentence on a drug conviction. He was expelled from Afghanistan in 1971.

In the summer of 1971 he was confined in Switzerland and later had to leave the country.

Bus Crisis Reported Nearing A Solution

HARTFORD (AP) - Gov. Thomas J. Meskill said today that the bus crisis in the Hartford area is "very close to being resolved." But he warned that the City of Hartford pulls out of the transit district, it will sabotage all the work done so far.

Meskill, questioned at a news conference, wouldn't give details of an agreement worked out between the state and the Greater Hartford Transit District (GHTD).

He also announced that executive aide Colin Pease would go to Washington Monday to get details of federal mass transit subsidy programs.

A late morning meeting was scheduled by the Hartford City Council to consider a resolution backed by Mayor George Atherton that the city call for withdrawal of the city from the GHTD.

If the Hartford City Council pulls out of the transit district, it will sabotage all the work we've done to resolve the crisis," the governor said. "It means elected officials in Hartford don't care enough."

Meskill said it also was essential that the Connecticut Company and the Amalgamated Transit Union reach an agreement to end an eight-week strike. "The company and the union were scheduled to resume bargaining talks today in Hartford."

Grand Jury Ordered

Tolland County Superior Court Judge Joseph Dannehy today ordered a grand jury convened to investigate the case of John O. Frisina of Andover, charged with murder in connection with the Christmas Day shooting of his wife.

Convening of the grand jury, ordered after a request by Asst. State Atty. Abner Schwebel, will be Feb. 12. Schwebel asked for Feb. 5, but Frisina's attorney, George J. Sherman of Hartford, said more time was needed to prepare for the session.

Frisina, a 49-year-old electronics technician, is being held at the Connecticut Correctional Center at Hartford in lieu of a $125,000 bond.

He was arrested by State Police Dec. 25 in Andover. Police said Frisina allegedly shot his 39-year-old wife, Anna, at the home of her neighbors on Bear Swamp Rd.

Last week, Frisina entered a "not guilty" plea in Circuit Court 12 at Manchester. He waived examination and was bound over to Superior Court.

Watergate Trial Interrupted For Appeal On Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) - An ex-FBI agent testified in the Watergate trial that he was paid $225 a week by President Nixon's campaign staff for eavesdropping on Democratic party telephone conversations.

Alfred C. Baldwin III said he listened from morning until after dark and logged the contents of some 200 phone calls that a security agent for the Committee for the Re-election of the President had wiretapped.

Baldwin's testimony was interrupted Wednesday afternoon by a dispute over whether he should name those whose conversations he overheard. Lawyers for some of the bugged Democrats sought to keep their private affairs from being aired in court.

Five other earlier pleaded guilty and are awaiting sentencing in connection with the alleged political-espionage conspiracy against Democrats.

The alleged plot came to light after five of the seven were captured at gunpoint inside the Democratic National Committee offices in Washington's Watergate complex.

On trial in the burglary-wiretap case are James W.

Restructuring Securities Markets Hitting Snags

By JOHN CUNIFF NEW YORK (AP) — The restructuring of the securities markets, known in advance to be a difficult assignment, is taking longer than was anticipated.

Agreement on one of the most important steps, the creation of a composite tape that would report transactions in listed securities wherever they occurred, rather than on just a single exchange, has been delayed at least a month.

The original deadline for agreement was set for implementation to follow sometime late in 1973. When that deadline was missed the Securities and Exchange Commission extended the time limit to Jan. 26.

One of the more obvious disagreements, whether or not to admit institutional members, appears to be a step nearer resolution following an SEC order this week. But that order conceivably could be challenged in the courts.

The exchanges know that they will be required to work more closely in order to serve the public better. But neither they nor the SEC nor anyone else can say just how tight the relationship will be.

Sen. Weicker Staff Changes Announced

HARTFORD (AP) — Five Connecticut Republicans have left the paid staff of Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., it was announced Wednesday.

Deputy House Speaker Michael J. Moran of Greenwich, state Rep. Genaro W. Frate of Darien, Harold Yudain of Stamford, August Corricio of Bridgeport and William Shure of New Haven all "left voluntarily and on good terms," according to a spokesman for Weicker.

The spokesman said all of the men except Frate had served as field representatives for Weicker. Frate was on Weicker's press staff.

Robert Digan, coordinator of youth services for the Board of Education, will speak on "The Handling of Crisis Situations in Manchester" at Monday's meeting of the Buckley School PTA.

The name of Barney Peterman of 250 Fern St. was inadvertently omitted from the members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee, which is reviewing and advising the Board of Education on secondary school space problems.

Now the SEC has ruled that institutions can be exchange members, but only if at least 80 per cent of their securities business is transacted with the public, rather than for their own accounts.

Until the vision is close to reality, you may continue to expect a lot of maneuvering, as each element of the future marketplace seeks to better its position. The Justice Department might challenge the decision in the name of the public and free trade. And some institutions might sue also.

IRS Wars Against Income Tax 'Pros'

A severe shaking out is in prospect for professional tax preparers, who have sprung up like Topsy in recent years thanks to the ever-simplified but always labyrinthine Form 1040.

Last year, according to the Internal Revenue Service, more than half the 80 million returns filed by American taxpayers were prepared by someone other than the taxpayer — to the tune of $640 million in fees.

It wasn't necessary, says the IRS, which this year will lose the taxes on that $640 million since fees paid to tax preparers are deductible. Neither was it entirely on the up and up.

In a spot check of returns prepared by some 3,200 private firms during 1972, every other return was unacceptable, says the IRS, either because of careless or inaccurate work or actual cheating.

Thus it has declared a kind of war on the private tax services by, among a number of things, bringing back Short Form 1040A and by announcing that IRS officers will provide complete, free tax preparation service for any taxpayer who wishes it.

Because the standard deduction has been raised from 10 percent to 15 percent and the income ceiling abolished for eligibility to use 1040A, it is estimated that 32 million taxpayers will elect to file the short form in 1973.

All of which, of course, affects the legitimate tax-preparation firms along with the not-so-legitimate, the competent as well as the incompetent, and the big ones with branch offices probably even more than the little ones consisting of a couple guys doing it part-time.

Henry W. Block, president of H&R Block, Inc., the giant in the field, questions the wisdom of the IRS in trying to specialize in tax preparation. Better, he says, to divert more personnel to auditing returns, which brings $10 to the U.S. Treasury for every dollar spent.

Block also recommends that all tax preparers, large and small, be required to register with the IRS so that their "very essential service" can continue under some form of government recognition and guidance.

In any event, it is a fact that the tax-paying public does need assistance, and it is mostly needed by the poor and lower-income taxpayers who consistently overpay their taxes by failing to list their deductions and credits.

This was as much as admitted by the IRS, it is charged, when it abandoned Short Form 1040A back in 1968 in an effort to force people to list their deductions and take their credits.

Death Where Is Thy Form 104b?

The medical profession, in an act of magnanimity, has finally decided to let us die if we want. To the American Hospital Association bestowed this right on us patients in a decree issued last week.

One of the first to take advantage of it was my Uncle Manny. He was down at the doctor's office for a check-up. "I'm afraid you have tertiary corneitis," says the doctor solemnly. "Any sudden shock could kill you."

"Agghhh!" cries Uncle Manny, clutching his chest and keeling over. So they cart him off the Minderbinder General Hospital, internationally famous for its pioneer work in brain surgery and accounts receivable.

"Don't worry," says the doctor happily when he gets around to visiting him a couple of days later, "with massive nasal injections of STP in kerosene, the transplant of a chimpanzee's left kidney and daily experimental surgery, there's no reason we can't keep you alive for six more weeks."

So several hours later, Nurse Higgins bustles in. "Well, to be sure," she says cheerily, "we certainly are feeling worse today, aren't we?"

"The hope of dying," groans Uncle Manny, who is fond of old jokes, "is the only thing that gets up and gets dressed today, aren't we?"

"Hospital care," says Uncle Manny. "I'm a member of a prepaid funeral plan," she says. "Diners' Club," he says. "And my present address is Minderbinder General Hospital, at which I've lived too long."

"Now, let's see," she says. "I'll need three character references, six credit references and a list of your last eight positions held in reverse chronological order. Then we can get to the part about childhood diseases."

"At $90 a day," says Uncle Manny. "I'd rather be dead."

"You now have the inalienable right," says the doctor grumpily, "to be a spoilsport if you want to. I'll send Nurse Higgins in with The Permission to Die Application forms."

"I need your permission?" says Uncle Manny. "Good heavens, man! I've been the doctor, shocked."

"We certainly can't let you die without notified evidence on our records that you requested permission. We're not slipshod."

Today's Thought

Prayer is an acknowledgement of faith; worry is a denial of faith. Prayer is putting one's hand in God's, trusting in His loving guidance. Worry is withdrawing one's hand, and denying His power to lead. Prayer leads through the door of faith into the presence of God; worry leads through the door of anxiety into the darkness of loneliness and discouragement.

If prayer does not cancel worry, worry will cancel prayer.

'Pause for Prayer'

To the editor:
As Christians the world over begin the "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity," Jan. 18 thru 25, we would like to invite all Christians in the Manchester area to participate in the following observances:

During the past two years, noon day devotions, led by various clergymen, were held each day of the octave. Attendance was very small but the devotions were inspirational to those faithful who gathered together from their different denominations to pray for unity.

This year the committee decided to omit the noon devotions. But in its place, we ask your involvement in a very simple and supportive way. We would ask everyone to pause for a few moments at noon each day during the octave to reflect on and pray for the cause of Christian unity. The theme this year is, "Lord, teach us to pray."

Our main celebration of the Week of Prayer will be the appearance of the Medical Mission Sisters "RSVP Team" at 8:15 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, at Concordia Lutheran Church, 40 Pitkin St. This will climax a most important evening which will note the inception of the Manchester Area Conference of Churches.

The program begins at 7 p.m. with a banquet in Kaiser Hall (reservations are needed), followed at 8 p.m. by a service of installation in the Sanctuary. The public is then invited to the special worship service at 8:15 which will be led by the Medical Mission Sisters.

This is a loosely structured worship service, with the singing of many of the songs for which the "RSVP Team" is well known. The group is currently on a tour of New England. They have made several record albums of their original songs, all scripturally based, which may be purchased that evening.

The service, enhanced by the use of slides, should provide an unusual and exciting worship experience for us in the Manchester area. An offering will be taken to support the work of the Medical Mission Sisters, an international religious congregation whose task is to bring health and healing to the underdeveloped areas of the world.

We ask you all to join your fellow Christians in the month time "pause for prayer," and to attend the special worship service Friday evening.

PTA

I am a mother of four children, two of which are in school. I have considered joining the PTA, but I have talked to various people, I have come to the conclusion that the PTA isn't what it stands for. It seems to have become a social and fund raising organization, when it should be parents and teachers working together to provide the best education for the town's children. It appears that the which do nothing for the children's education, such as: potlucks, tag sales, theater performances, etc.

However, when it comes to matters of our children's education, the parents do not have any say whatsoever; such as sex education, the new report card system, or educational equipment for the schools, etc.

The parents in town are not given a choice. They are told what and how the children will be taught, and like it or not, they have to accept it.

As a parent, I am responsible for my child's actions until he is the age of 18. If I am the person that will be called upon in case of any problems or trouble that should arise in these years, why don't I have more of a say in what my child is exposed to between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.?

Would you please tell me exactly what the PTA stands for? If it's main purpose is to raise money, then I think that they should change the name to the PTFRA.

Shop Owner Appreciative

I just want to express my thanks to the firemen of the 8th District Fire Dept. and surrounding towns who worked so tirelessly in freezing temperatures during the fire at the old Bon Ami plant. It was only by their constant surveillance and tireless efforts that I have a shop to go to each day.

At one time I was told that it looked hopeless and was advised to clear as much of my shop as possible. Out of nowhere, it seemed, there were many people helping to load barrels and boxes and any empty cartons we could lay our hands on. We loaded everything onto a railroad car offered to us and what had seemed an impossible task, was simplified by the kindness of many people I do not know.

My sincere thanks to

Inside Report

Rowland Evans and Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — A political apparatus intended to prevent Democratic national chairman Robert Strauss from modifying the party's 1972 New Politics reforms is being built under sponsorship of one of Strauss' fiercest critics: New York millionaire Stewart Mott, a generous contributor to left-wing Democratic causes.

Mott's new organization is completely separate from a still amorphous nationwide organization (previously reported by us) that Sen. George McGovern is contemplating. Although McGovern is aware of Mott's idea, the decision has been made not to put a clear McGovern stamp on it.

The purpose of the yet unnamed organization is made clear by a private memorandum prepared for Mott. It would develop "an effective floor leadership, communication system and parliamentary strategy" for left-leaning members of the Democratic National Committee and provide "substantive staff work" for left-wing members of the party's reform commissions. The goal: to block Strauss from moving the party back toward the center.

The prospective staff director of Mott's organization and national chairman Jean Westwood during the McGovern campaign picked the leftward-leaning membership of the new Woodcock Reform Commission. When Strauss ousted Mrs. Westwood Dec. 9, Baron was the first staff member at national headquarters to go.

He then drafted his memo, pointing to Strauss's election as a sign of the strength of the "conservative coalition" within the party, determined to turn the clock back to pre-1972 procedures and led by the AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education (COPE) and the new Coalition for a Democratic Majority (CDM).

Thus Haldeman's "Burgeoning Power" H.R. (Bob) Haldeman, White House staff chief, was personally responsible for President Nixon's appointment of former newsmen John Scali to the lofty post of U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Thus Haldeman, whose far-flung influence throughout the first Nixon administration was only occasionally checked by former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, entered the second Nixon term with a still broader writ of power which now runs to control over some top diplomatic appointments.

Scali, who joined the White House staff in 1971, as a special

Bolton Schools To Close For Orientation

Bolton Elementary and Center Schools will close at 1 p.m. tomorrow so that teachers may attend an in-service program dealing with the exceptional child. Afternoon kindergarten pupils will attend the morning session.

The program will be conducted by Ann Terezkis, learning disabilities consultant, who has assisted Bolton's schools in special testing situations and pupil evaluation during the past two years.

She is director of the learning disabilities department at Newton Children's Hospital and is on the staff at Central Connecticut State College.

After a presentation by Mrs. Terezkis, teachers will work in small groups to study hypothetical psychological reports and other materials and to recommend special programs for the hypothetical students.

President Commends Area Firm

EAST HARTFORD (AP) — President Nixon has commended the environmental control role it played in the Apollo space program, the company announced Wednesday.

"The knowledge gained through your company's contributions to the Apollo program will benefit humanity for centuries to come, the President said in a letter to Arthur E. Smith, U.S. chairman.

"I extend to you my congratulations and the thanks of the American people for a job well done," Nixon said.

Anyone emergency patients and outpatients are requested to use the new emergency room entrance off Army St. Access to the entrance via existing driveways.

Two UVA divisions were involved in the Apollo effort, a company spokesman said. Hamilton standard built the astronauts' life support backpacks and the lunar module's environmental control system. Fuel cell power plants from Pratt & Whitney Aircraft generated electricity aboard the Apollo command service module throughout each lunar mission.

From Your Neighbor's Kitchen

By Vivian F. Ferguson

From the days of our president, the public has been interested in what the first lady of the land is serving at dinner. Dolley Madison gained recognition as a fine hostess. She is credited with introducing ice cream to Washington society. Some say it is only a legend because many others served the now popular dessert at the same time. Nevertheless, she is remembered for having served it at a presidential dinner.

Dolley strove to find something new for her guests. There was also a Dolley Madison connoisseur.

Our first president had a cake named for him. Early cookbooks show no recipes for layer cakes as we know them. White cakes were made of dried fruits and spices, they were not called fruit cakes until the Victorian period. In George Washington's day, they were known as "great cakes" probably because they were fairly large.

A recipe called Washington Pie, which is really cake, was named for the city and not for the president. It harks back to the Civil War when there was a shortage of lard and the enterprising housewives made sponge cake, split it and used jelly for filling. Because sugar was also at a premium in wartime, they sprinkled only a little on top.

When someone says, "as American as apple pie," they are not far wrong. Pies, particularly fruit and other sweet pies, are strictly an American invention. The early English word applied to meat dishes made in casseroles. Martha Washington is credited for bringing attention to fruit and even vegetable pies.

Considered a great lady as well as a great beauty, she was the daughter of a Virginia planter named Dandridge. She was the widow of Daniel Parke Custis when she married Washington.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania owns the personal cookbook of Martha Custis Washington. She made a dessert, or at least her cook made it, that was very popular at Mount Vernon. Following is an adapted recipe. The original calls for two tablespoons of rosewater which was in common use at that time.

Martha Washington's Cherry Tansy
2 cups cooked tart cherries
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
2 teaspoons cornstarch
1/4 cup water
2 eggs
1/3 cup sugar
1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
2 cups finely diced day-old bread cubes

Drain cherries and put juice into saucepan. Add lemon juice. The early English dish contained eggs, cream, bread crumbs, sugar, lemon juice, tansy juice. Sometimes, rosewater-orange-flower water, brandy or sherry was added. In England, tansy pudding was traditionally served on Easter.

Both Martha Washington and our present first lady, Pat Nixon, knew how to cook before they achieved their prominent positions in history. During the last political campaign, the Connecticut Federation of Republican Women distributed Mrs. Nixon's recipes. Here are two.

Hot Chicken Salad
4 cups cold cut-up chicken chunks (cooked)
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2/3 cup finely toasted almonds
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon salt, or to taste
2 pintoles cut fine

1 cup cheese grated
2 cups chopped celery
4 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1/4 cup cream of chicken soup
1 teaspoon onion, finely minced
1 1/2 cups crushed potato chips
Combine all except cheese, potato chips and almonds. Place in large dish. Top with cheese, potato chips and almonds. Refrigerate overnight. Bake 20-25 minutes at 400.

Sesame Cheese Ball
1/4 cup sesame seeds
2 tablespoons instant minced onion
1 teaspoon beef flavor base
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 lb. medium sharp cheese
2 teaspoons mayonnaise
1 tablespoon onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon dry mustard

Toast seeds light brown in 350-degree oven, about 15 minutes. Soak onion and beef flavor base in lemon juice. Grate cheese. Mix all ingredients except seeds. Shape into ball. Spread toast seeds on waxed paper, roll cheese ball in seeds. Chill. Serve with crackers or broil on toast points.

Answer for R. E. Glace de stand is stock that has been boiled down considerably so that it becomes a firm jelly when cold. It is really a concentrate so that a small amount can be added to sauce or to soup for flavoring. For example: 3 quarts of broth properly reduced would yield about 1 1/2 cups of glaze de viande. Viand in French means meat or flesh so we have a "glaze of meat".

MPHNA Role Is Discussed

The continuing search for a town health director and ideas for improving and coordinating the various town health services with the Manchester Public Health Nurses carrying an even larger role in the future, were discussed by Robert B. Weiss, town manager, at a recent meeting of the MPHNA board.

The increasing demand for MPHNA services is reflected in the current 18 per cent additional case load over the previous 12 months. Two public health aides were added to the staff in December to relieve the nurses of a number of unskilled jobs.

During the same period, two head nurses from Manchester Memorial Hospital spent a day in the field with members of the staff, and expressed increased awareness of problems in the home and they felt they would be able to make more and better referrals for post-hospital care by the Manchester Public Health Nurses.

The fiscal problems of the agency came to a head last month when charges had to be changed temporarily while the office awaits a ruling from the Price Commission.

It was further reported that the Delmont Day Care Center, the former Kiddie Korral, has requested Public Health Nursing consultation.

The agency expressed gratitude to the organizations and individuals who contributed to the Memorial Fund over the holidays. These monies helped the staff to take some Christmas cheer to the were extended to the WPCA patients. Thanks to the staff lists of needy and collating them, thus avoiding duplication.

Chef Returns To Jail To Cook For Buddies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Last month James Lambros marched out of the county jail a free man after serving a six-month sentence. The next day he was back — as head chef.

And jail authorities are crediting the 36-year-old Lambros with ending a long string of prisoner disturbances over food quality.

"As an inmate, and talking to other inmates, I knew firsthand what the gripes were about the food," Lambros said in an interview Wednesday. "It was too starchy and tasteless and repetitive."

Now his ingenuity — coupled with a $149,000 increase in the jail's food budget — have ended inmate gripes about the food, Chief Deputy Sheriff William Davis said.

Lambros said much of the problem was lack of variety and unimaginative dishes, so that "the inmates knew, for example, that every Monday they'd have hot dogs and beans for dinner, then every Friday they'd have fishcakes, served half-frozen."

Now they get fried chicken or roast beef at least once a week, and a typical breakfast might include French toast and sausage patties.

"Inmates are human beings too," Lambros said. "Just because they're locked up doesn't mean they have to eat rubbish. When you're confined like that, food becomes terribly important."

"This isn't gourmet cooking," he stressed. "We're operating within our prescribed budget. But it's not so much what you cook as how you cook it."

Lambros, who studied cooking in college, was sentenced to jail on a pornography charge while manager of a movie theater specializing in nude films.

Before the judge sent him off to jail last July, he recommended that prison officials make Lambros head trusty cook.

While serving his term, Lambros wrote a 17-page report on how the food could be improved through proper menu planning, preparation and nutrition analysis. Still, he said he was surprised when he was offered a permanent job upon his release Dec. 5.

Lambros said he turned down an offer of a higher paying job so he could continue being chief cook for his former fellow inmates.

"I enjoy my work," he said. "I believe in what I'm doing and that what I am doing is needed."

Openings At Wethersfield Eye Center

The glaucoma eye screenings at the Glaucoma Detection Center in Wethersfield are all booked for January and February, but there are openings in March and April, Mrs. Maxine Simon, R.N., in charge of the program, announced.

The free screenings are offered to adults over 35 years of age by the Connecticut Society for the Prevention of Blindness, which maintains five other glaucoma screening centers around the state.

Anyone wishing the free test should call 524-5709 if in the Greater Hartford area or a special toll free number 1-800-426-0872, for those out of immediate dialing area. Clinics are held twice monthly at the Glaucoma Detection Center, which is located near the corner of Ridge Rd. and Jordan Lane at 589 Jordan Lane, Wethersfield. Ophthalmologists from the Eye Section of the Connecticut State Medical Society donate their time to this public service project.

Oriental Pork Is Adapted From Chinese Cuisine

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

Oriental Pork is excellent for a Chinese supper. Because Oriental Pork is a sweet-and-sour dish, you may want to serve another main dish that has quite different flavoring on the same menu. Beef with Green Peppers (Pepper Steak) or Chicken Chow Mein would be a good choice to offer before the pork-and-vegetable combination.

When we tried the Oriental Pork in our test kitchen we bought a boneless pork loin (rolled and tied) that weighed between 2 1/2 and 3 1/4 pounds. By the time we untied and unrolled the pork and cut it into cubes (removing the fat) we had just the amount of meat called for in the recipe.

Oriental Pork
2 pounds boneless fat-free pork, cut into 3/4- to 1-inch cubes
Hot cooked rice
1 can (1 pound, 4 ounces) pineapple chunks in heavy syrup, drained and syrup reserved
Water
1/4 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 cup cider vinegar
1/4 cup soy sauce
1/4 cup dark corn syrup
1 green pepper, seeded and cut into thin strips

Oriental Pork — Boneless pork cubes are teamed with pineapple and green pepper plus a sweet-and-sour sauce.

NOTICE TO TELEPHONE CUSTOMERS

We are planning increases in the rates for some out-of-state calls.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company has filed a new schedule of interstate rates with the Federal Communications Commission which increases charges for some customer-dialed calls during weekday business hours, for some operator-assisted calls, for some person-to-person calls, and for WATS (Wide Area Telecommunications Service).

All rates for interstate Long Distance calls you dial yourself without operator assistance in the evenings, at night, and on weekends will remain unchanged.

The new rates for Long Distance calls become effective on January 22, 1973. The new rates for WATS become effective on March 13, 1973, unless suspended by the FCC.

Interim rates and supporting data have been filed with the Federal Communications Commission. The increases for Long Distance calls have been authorized by the FCC on an interim basis to be effective January 22, 1973. The FCC will conduct additional hearings on the lawfulness of the rates, and FCC rules permit any interested persons to appear and participate.

This will be only the second general increase in interstate Long Distance rate levels in almost 20 years. During this period, in spite of inflation, interstate Long Distance rates have been reduced repeatedly. Even with this increase, the level of the new rates will still be below the 1953 level. Yet in those 20 intervening years, the cost of living has gone up more than 50 percent. The new rates are designed to increase total revenues from interstate service by about two percent.

Examples of Long Distance rates for coast to coast calls

Time of Day	Day of Week	Operator-Assisted	Person-to-Person
Weekdays	8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sat. and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sun.	70¢	$1.40
Weekdays	5 p.m. to 11 p.m. Sun.	85¢	$1.40
Weekdays	8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mon. through Fri.	85¢	$1.40
Weekdays	8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mon. through Fri.	85¢	$1.40

Rates shown (tax not included) are for the days, hours and durations indicated, and for the types of calls specified at the head of the columns. Rates may be even less, of course, on out-of-state calls for shorter distances. Dial-equivalent rates apply to all interstate calls (excluding Hawaii and Alaska) completed from a residence or business phone without operator assistance. They also apply to calls placed with an operator from a residence or business phone where direct dialing facilities are not available. Dial-direct rates do not apply to person-to-person, coin, hotel-guest, credit-card, or collect calls, or to calls charged to another number, because an operator must assist on such calls. *One minute minimum calls available only at the times shown, and additional minutes are 20¢ each, coast to coast.

National Referral Court Gaining Judicial Interest

Paula Weimer Wanda Weimer Pamela Weimer (AP Wirephoto)

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to set up a national referral court would gain interest in the Supreme Court, according to a study group headed by the council met with Freund and three other members of his group 11 days ago at the Federal Judicial Center here. The council chairman, Prof. Maurice Rosenberg of Columbia, said there was some criticism of the Freund plan, particularly since "it appeared to block access to the Supreme Court."

However, he said in a telephone interview, "everyone agreed the Freund committee had done a very valuable service bringing the problems of the Supreme Court to the surface."

The Freund committee reported that the Supreme Court is "at the saturation point, if not actually overwhelmed" by the more than 3,500 petitions and appeals it now receives annually.

Rosenberg said his group is concerned primarily with improving the way federal and state appeals courts function, rather than with the Supreme Court itself. Therefore, he said, "no one on the council really knows anything about the 'overwork problem' and only the justices themselves would know if it is a problem."

At the same time, the Columbia law professor said, he and others attending the Jan. 6 meeting warmly endorsed Freund committee proposals to do away with special three-judge federal courts and to establish a special panel to consider complaints by prisoners.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger's office said he attended the session, greeted the conferees, thanked them for coming and left.

FAIR TREATMENT

BERLIN (AP) — A letter to an East German youth publication called U.S. soldiers "gangsters in uniform" and said they should be shown contempt when they visit East Germany. The editor replied that he had similar feelings, "but as long as they don't put on airs and don't violate our laws, I'm also for treating them correctly."

Sisters Join Army

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — In what spokesmen say may be an Army first, three Salt Lake City sisters are to be sworn in next Monday as members of Women's Army Corps.

The sisters — Wanda Lee, 22, Paula Marie, 20, and Pamela Louise, 18 — are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Weimer.

Brig. Gen. Mildred C. Bailey, director of the Women's Army Corps, will come to Salt Lake City to administer the enlistment oath, the Army recruiting officer said.

The sisters will report to Ft.

McClellan, Ala., next Tuesday for basic training and then will go to Ft. Gordon, Ga., for a 10-week course in communications.

Wanda, a graduate of Brigham Young University, has been working in Provo for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Paula completed three years at BYU, and Pamela attended Rice College, Foxburg, Idaho, for a year.

Wanda is credited with inventing the other two in joining the Army. "I'm a good recruiter," she said.

Meet A Bachelor With 120 Children

SAIGON (AP) — Guess who's that? You got it? Everywhere on the list of the world's most interesting men is a bachelor with 120 children.

In four years, 29-year-old Richard M. Hughes has been mother, father and Santa Claus to several hundred street urchins.

Hughes came to Vietnam in 1968 as a free-lance journalist after a stint at professional acting. The first principal he met in Saigon was a little boy who asked: "Who you are? Where you go? You GI?"

Everywhere on the list of the world's most interesting men is a bachelor with 120 children.

Berdon Proposes 'Munifund'

MERIDEN (AP) — State Treasurer Robert I. Berdon said Wednesday that Connecticut's cities and towns could save millions of dollars by refinancing long-term bonds that were issued during the 1969-1971 period of high interest rates.

In an address prepared for the Connecticut Conference of Mayors, Berdon said legislation had been introduced to establish a municipal refunding trust, called a "munifund."

One of the foundation's contributors nominated Hughes for the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce list of outstanding young men. He is going to the award ceremony this weekend in Salt Lake City, Utah.

En route back to Saigon, Hughes plans to stop in Key Biscayne, Fla., to meet with President Robert MacAuley can sign a draft agreement making the foundation a bona fide voluntary agency approved by the Vietnamese government.

He explained that this will give the foundation legal status and tax exemptions and will enable it to write letters and get youngsters into school — or help them get identification cards "so they can have an identity of sorts."

The youngsters are 9 to 16 years old. Some go to primary school, some to secondary school and some are technical apprentices learning to repair Hondas or refrigerators or to take pictures.

Hughes said a woman had accused him of being sexist because all but three of the 120 youngsters now in the home are boys. He explained that the ratio of street urchins in Vietnam is 10 boys to every girl.

Under another proposed bill, Berdon said he could organize a municipal finance division within the state treasury department to advise town treasurers on debt management.

Berdon said Connecticut's local government debt services had increased from $200 million in 1962 to an estimated $1.6 billion in June of 1971.

Wanda, a graduate of Brigham Young University, has been working in Provo for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Paula completed three years at BYU, and Pamela attended Rice College, Foxburg, Idaho, for a year.

Public Criticized Over Rest Rooms

Vernon (AP) — The rest rooms of local service stations are not up to par, is the fault of the public, according to Peter Jaconski, the town's inspector of rest rooms and public eating places.

In his report for the month of December, Jaconski said he inspected 22 public restrooms connected with service stations and commented, "Again, the owners are trying their best with almost no help from the public. People continue to ruin the places and owners are frustrated both work and money-wise."

Jaconski also said he inspected 38 restaurants and found all to be satisfactory. Only one of the plumbing inspections of the schools showed most in good condition with just a few exceptions.

Jaconski said he found the paint to be peeling in the kitchen of the East School and the school maintenance department has started to correct this by scraping the paint down and the walls will be repainted.

He said one rest room at the Sykes School is not in use due to damage caused by a fire several weeks ago. When new equipment arrives and is installed, the area will be inspected by Jaconski.

Carruthers Files Various Bills

A number of bills dealing with funding of education, drug pusher punishment, municipal insurance, blue laws, sale of alcoholic beverages, movie advertising and several other topics, have been filed by Senator Thomas G. Carruthers, R., of the 35th Senatorial District.

One of the pieces of legislation filed by the freshman senator is one calling for full funding of education, K-12, by the state by way of a state property tax on all properties assessed in excess of $20,000, based on uniform assessments and tax rate.

Carruthers explained that under this law local towns would be responsible for health and safety only which would include fire and police protection and services such as rubbish removal. The maximum tax base for the towns would be $30,000.

According to Carruthers's proposal, the state would assume the full cost of education including the building and equipment, text books, teacher salaries and such. The local business, has also been filed by Carruthers along with a measure which would remove all restriction and controls on beer, wine and liquor as to price, and days and hours regulating their sale where they are sold for off-premise consumption.

Carruthers has also proposed a law which would allow all movies rated other than "GP" not more than one column inch by one inch in all Connecticut newspapers or newspaper type

Solons Begin Bill Hearings

HARTFORD (AP) — "The survival of the City of New Britain depends on the construction of this road," said one speaker.

Children are being injured educationally by the present tenure law," said another.

The two speakers were state legislators pleading for their bills Wednesday in separate hearings by the General Assembly's Transportation and Education committees.

The first was Rep. Dominic Badolato, D-New Britain, supporting a better Route 72. He was one of some 20 lawmakers who lined up to back or oppose transportation bills.

At about the same time, the second speaker, Rep. John F. Mannix, R-Willton, was proposing the legislature lengthen the time it takes teachers to earn tenure from the present three-year period to 15 years.

Both hearings were for legislators only. Public hearings will be held when the committees draft bills to present to the General Assembly.

Several other legislators at the Education Committee hearing called for changes in the tenure system. Only one, Rep. Ernest C. Burhan Jr., R-Clinton, recommended outright repeal of all tenure protection.

Many other educational problems were raised, including the fiscal burden of the schools on municipal budgets.

Rep. Elmer Mortensen,

Commuter Rail Truce Announced

NEW YORK (AP) — Long Island Rail Road executives mapped plans today to get the nation's busiest commuter line back to normal following a strike that has cost the railroad $215 per year to $400.

Monroe, proposed that the problem of repeated rejection of school budgets by local town meetings be solved by giving town meetings the power to make "line item adjustments" in school budgets.

The common theme in the Transportation Committee hearings was the request for a temporary halt in interstate highway construction, to expand mass transit facilities to local roads and to prohibit the use of toll roads and median dividers, and to prohibit the use of toll roads and median dividers, and to prohibit the use of toll roads and median dividers.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., offered two additional amendments to cut off funds provided in a December 1971 executive agreement with Portugal for the use of American military bases in Azores, and to deny funds for period was "more than a temporary settlement."

The unions struck Nov. 30 after rejecting a government board's recommendation of a 6 per cent increase each year of a two-year contract. Their last wage demand was for 28 per cent over two years.

Initial reaction from the commuters was mixed. "It's back to the bar car for me," said a jubilant Edward Welsh, who has been commuting from Levittown by bus.

"I don't know whether I'll go back to the train," said Richard Rogers of Manassas, an investment analyst. "We have a car pool and may keep it going."

Brennan, whose Senate confirmation hearings as labor secretary open today, said the workers could resume their walkout if no final settlement is reached in 90 days but added, "I hope they don't have to."

Presidential War-Making Powers Target Of Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican senators today announced a bill to strip presidential war-making powers and to require Senate ratification of all agreements for U.S. military bases overseas.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said the bill is backed by a majority of the Senate, at least 51 senators.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., offered two additional amendments to cut off funds provided in a December 1971 executive agreement with Portugal for the use of American military bases in Azores, and to deny funds for period was "more than a temporary settlement."

The unions struck Nov. 30 after rejecting a government board's recommendation of a 6 per cent increase each year of a two-year contract. Their last wage demand was for 28 per cent over two years.

Initial reaction from the commuters was mixed. "It's back to the bar car for me," said a jubilant Edward Welsh, who has been commuting from Levittown by bus.

"I don't know whether I'll go back to the train," said Richard Rogers of Manassas, an investment analyst. "We have a car pool and may keep it going."

Woman Dies In Home Fire

WATERBURY (AP) — An elderly woman became the second person to die in a fire in Waterbury over the last two days when she was killed in a blaze at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Police said the body of Mrs. Raphaela Delbuono, 79, was found next to a burning toilet shed in her back yard.

Officials ruled the death accidental, but said they had not determined the cause of the fire.

A two-month-old baby, Dwayne White, died Tuesday night when a two alarm blaze swept through an apartment house.

Police said the youngster, son of Mr. and Mrs. David White, died of burns suffered in the fire.

A brother, David White Jr., 14, was thrown from the third floor and landed by his mother and grandpa on the ground, firemen said. He was admitted at St. Mary's hospital for observation and was released, officials said.

South Windsor New Citizens Group Describes Its Aims

BARBARA VARRICK Correspondent

Fel 644-8274

A "more informed citizenry" is the goal of the newly formed South Windsor Association of Citizens (SWAC), the organization's new president, Alan C. Ober, told some 25 interested persons attending an informational meeting Tuesday.

Ober emphasized the active role of the citizen in the group through committee research and work on plans and proposals by all agencies of government in the town. Through the SWAC newsletter, information of each committee would be circulated to all members and interested residents possibly through the use of business establishments in town. Ober said, "This way citizens will be kept abreast of what is going on in many areas and may work in the committee or be its most interested in."

The organization stated it's no way plans to harass or intimidate local officials, and hopes it can be of service to many who are interested in information obtained by the group through committee efforts. Ober said town officials also have other occupations to earn a living for themselves and their families, and even though they are interested in officials as well as the citizens to get as much information as possible for the community good, this is sometimes difficult.

The treasurer, Robert Martin, said the group is seeking membership at $5 or more a household annually. Although the organization is

Bizarre Extortion Plot Ends With Three Killed

GRANDIN, Mo. (AP) — "The dynamite is under my shirt. They've got my wife and daughter. Don't make any telephone calls, you might trigger this dynamite," the Missouri banker told his employees.

A bizarre extortion plot ended when police officers found the body of the 43-year-old banker, his wife and a daughter bound to small trees near an abandoned farm five miles west of Grandin.

Each was in a kneeling position and each had been shot once through the head, Ripley County Sheriff Lewis Davis said.

The slayings of Robert R. Kitterman, his 43-year-old wife, Bertha, and 17-year-old Roberta Kitterman, shocked off a massive manhunt around this once-thriving lumber town 120 miles south of St. Louis. The FBI also entered the case because bank extortion was involved.

Kitterman, president of the Bank of Grandin, left with $9,811 after he entered the bank following the lunch hour on Wednesday and told employees that extortionists had attached dynamite to his body.

Officers alerted by bank employees said Kitterman drove west on Missouri 60. The Missouri Highway Patrol was notified, but it could not intercept the banker.

Daves and two deputies later found the bodies of the victims.

Merchants Discuss State's Blue Laws

HARTFORD (AP) — Merchants meeting Wednesday to discuss Connecticut's Blue Law rejected the idea of repealing the Sunday-closing statute altogether, but they couldn't agree on an alternative.

The merchants generally agreed at the meeting held by the Hartford Chamber of Commerce's Retail Trade Bureau that repealing the Blue Law wouldn't increase business.

"There is only a certain amount of money the consumer has to spend," said one merchant.

They said the extra operating cost of the seventh day would work a hardship on the small businessman who might have to hire extra help to open on Sunday.

In December, the issue was reopened by the Hartford and Bridgeport Retail Trade Bureaus and by protesters in other parts of the state.

Heating Oil Import Quotas Suspended

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, in an effort to ease the winter fuel shortage, has suspended controls on importation of 2.0 heating oil during the first 120 days of this year.

At the same time, the President established 1973 oil import quotas at a level some 60 per cent higher than in 1972.

Rep. Michael J. Harrington, D-Mass., following up the White House action, sent telegrams to the Office of Emergency Preparedness (OEP) and the Pentagon asking that Defense Department supplies of oil be made available. "A real danger exists," he said, "that 35,000 homes in New England will be without heat in January."

And in Boston, Massachusetts Gov. Francis W. Sargent set up a special emergency advisory committee to "recommend any emergency action that I should take," Sargent said he applauded the President's action.

The White House action was announced at a news conference by George A. Lincoln, director of OEP, the key oil import agency.

Lincoln said the suspension of controls on No. 2 heating oil should help the present situation but he did not know how much additional oil would be imported as a result.

Lincoln said the action itself might not have an immediate effect but refineries "to be saved previous import allocations might now feel free to use them immediately in anticipation of restricted additional imports.

The President's action Wednesday followed requests by New England congressmen

Norden Plant Lays Off 220 Employees

NORWALK (AP) — United Aircraft Corp.'s Norden Division has sent layoff notices to some 220 employees, the company said yesterday.

J. Lynn Helms, president of Norden, said the object was a reduction in the work force. No reason was given.

The firm, which manufactures military radar and other electronic equipment, normally employs about 2,550 workers.

A spokesman for Local 244, International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, AFL-CIO, said most of the layoffs takes effect on Friday. He said some of the employees involved have been with the company for 50 years.

It was the second layoff by the division in six months. Last September, the company laid off about 400 workers in a move to "stabilize employment and restructure oper-

South Windsor Talk With Railroad Pleases Town Aides

BARBARA VARRICK Correspondent

Fel 644-8274

Town officials are encouraged by supportive information data presented by the Department of Transportation and the Penn Central Railroad to the Public Utilities Commission at a hearing yesterday called to determine the need for traffic signal synchronization at the intersection of Rt. 5 and Governor's Highway with the railroad crossing in the area.

According to Town Attorney Thomas Dennis, Police Chief John Kerrigan testified on behalf of the town and presented accident reports from 25 two-car accidents which have occurred at the intersection over the past five years.

At the intersection, the railroad crossing is approximately two car lengths from state owned highway, Rt. 5. Town Engineer Ernest Lacey presented the PUC with maps displaying the present layout of the grade crossing and photographs were also shown.

Town Manager Terry Sprekel explained the new zoning traffic patterns and the increased traffic in the area.

He said town proposals were made, one for fully automatic lighting which would automatically activate flashes in the area by detection of an on-coming train, and accordingly trigger the lighting system for the crossing to come to a full stop before crossing Governor's Highway. The former would cost $40,000 and the latter $14,000 as estimated by the Penn Central railroad.

Dennis said the railroad was agreeable to having the manual operation of the signals and having the train come to a full stop before continuing through Governor's Highway. The plan was also favored by the town officials.

Sprekel said the meeting was basically informational and technical in scope, and he is unable to give any indication when the town will be notified or advised of what may or not be done.

Everything But the Kitchen Sink

By BARBARA RICHMOND (Herald Reporter)

A rag, a bone and a hank of hair and that's not all the puppets, made by Rockville High School students, are made of. They are wood and paper mache, styrofoam, cardboard, fishing line, feathers, yarn, buttons, wigs, felt and many other things all put together to make adorable little "people".

The students in the Art 3 and 4 classes, under the guidance of Ronald Parent, created their own marionettes. The materials used to make them and the media used to color them, were only limited to the imagination of the student. The display includes two elegant oriental girls, complete with fans and jewels, an adorable "Hippie" complete with blue jeans and headband, the ever-popular Mary Poppins, clowns, Pinocchio, animals and many others.

Some students chose to carve or cut shapes out of wood in the industrial arts room and others chose to use paper mache, styrofoam, paris-craft or plain cardboard. Eye hooks were used along with wire and fishing line to attach the various body parts to each other, Parent explained.

Tempera paint, acrylics, metallic paints and shellac were used, along with such materials as dried flowers, false eye lashes, sequins, yarn, buttons, feathers, tissue paper, felt and jewelry, to give the "little people" a most realistic look.

The students also designed and made the costumes which were used to make them complete. The little "Hippie" even has his necklace on and the little oriental girls have exquisitely decorated costumes.

The final stage of the puppet-making project concerned the functional aspects of stringing the figure to the cross-piece and thereby involved the students in the mechanics of the movements.

The project took the students about two months and was well-worth their efforts. They are now working with the students of Miss Anna Baker's creative writing classes to produce a series of short skits using the puppets. These skits will be presented at the Rockville Junior Library sometime in the Spring.

Some of the puppets were the joint efforts of two persons. The puppets and the students who made them include Pinocchio by Angela Santacrose and Patricia Michaels; Oriental girls, Marie Arndt and Mary Cloutier; Maiden Susan Conroy; Robot, David Gaidotti; Mysterious Man, Gary Mead; Pirate, Paul Menard; Aunt Jennies, Debra LeBlanc; Frog, Lincoln Mead; Clowns, Larry Bourbeau and Sue Woron; Hippie, Bob Weiss; Elf, Melanie Zieman; Doll, Beth Ingraham; Lion, Ed Weber; Mary Poppins, Sandra Strycharz and Jester, Polly Beckley.

Whodunit Author Gives Some Advice

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - Dame Agatha Christie, queen of British mystery writers, says it's not a good idea to write whodunits that might provide a criminal with a how-to-doll.

Dame Agatha, 82, offered various items of literary advice in an exchange of letters with an 18-year-old Miami girl, using, among other things: "Writing is all trial and error - one needs both luck and persistence."

The correspondence between Dame Agatha and Shirley Dawson began when the freshman English major at Miami-Dade Junior College wrote asking for biographical information for a term paper.

"I thought her secretary would type me a response and maybe have Agatha sign it," Miss Dawson said.

Instead Miss Dawson received two letters from Dame Agatha - but no biographical information.

"Information or biographies or articles about writers tell you nothing of interest, only facts," Dame Agatha wrote.

"It's the actual books and stories you have to study and write about - not the person who wrote them."

In one letter Miss Dawson expressed the fear that criminals might get ideas for crimes from mystery stories.

"I think your instinct is quite right in not caring to use ideas for crimes which might suggest methods to those who have criminal tendencies," Dame Agatha replied.

When Miss Dawson noted in a letter that there are a lot of good writers already, Dame Agatha replied: "Of course there is an abundance of authors - but what of that?"

Endangered Species List Includes Kangaroos

WASHINGTON (AP) - Eight American animals and 18 foreign animals, including Australian kangaroos, are being proposed for classification as endangered species by the Interior Department.

Interior Secretary Rogers C.B. Morton listed the American animals as the Utah prairie dog, the Northern Rocky Mountain wolf, the Eastern cougar, the Mississippi sandhill crane, the Puerto Rico whippoorwill, the Santa Barbara song sparrow, the Desert Slender salamander and a fish, the Okaloosa darter.

One, the Eastern cougar, had been considered extinct until various sightings were reported in the Appalachian Mountains. Placing an animal on the endangered list serves to prohibit the killing or capturing of native species and the importation of endangered foreign species.

Morton said several kangaroo species are sought by hunters who sell their hides. The Australian government has banned the export of kangaroo hides and met effective April 1, and a U.S. prohibition against imports would backup the Australian ban.

One of the 18 foreign species proposed for the endangered list is the aquatic box turtle, which is found in Mexico. The other 17 species are found in Australia.

They are: Yellow-footed rock wallaby, Red kangaroo, Eastern gray kangaroo, Western gray kangaroo, Desert Bandicoot, Gaimards rat-kangaroo, the quokka.

Queensland hairy-nosed wombat, Eastern native cat, numbat, Stick-Nest rat, Gould's mouse, Magpie goose, Freckled duck, Plain wanderer, Bustard and Ground parrot.

There is a 60-day period for public comment before a decision is made on whether the proposed new additions to the endangered list will become final.

The Dry Side of Sports

By Dean R. Yost

Wanted Snow: Dead or Alive

Despite what ski reports you hear via radio or read in the newspaper, they are probably inaccurate at the present time.

Although the temperature was ideal for snow-making recently, there is nothing like the real thing and Old Man Winter just isn't cooperating.

Until the white stuff falls from the skies, skiing conditions, except in the northern-most portions of New York, Vermont and New Hampshire, will be icy and a granular-type snow will cover the slopes.

Last Thursday night I ventured to Mt. Tom, the playground area in Holyoke, Mass., only a 40-minute drive from Manchester. Two chairs, one going to the peak and the other halfway up, service the area plus two T-bars that also serve the same function.

Night skiing, what Mt. Tom is really noted for, caters to high school and college ski teams in the afternoon and recreational skiers at night.

Also, Rizzo operates the ski equipment rental shop at Berkshire East, located on the Mohawk Trail in Charlemont, Mass.

Berkshire is another ski area from which people shy away because the average person feels another half-hour ride up. It, 91 brings them to better resorts.

Well, from this writers' standpoint, they are wrong. Good New England skiing can be found without going over the Vermont state line.

A sign out in front of the slope reads, 'Enjoy Great Undiscovered Skiing' and this is a true indication of the resort. Only a hour and 15 minutes away from the Hartford area, it has a 1,000-vertical drop that is serviced by a 4,000-foot chair lift. A total of 19 trails dot the area.

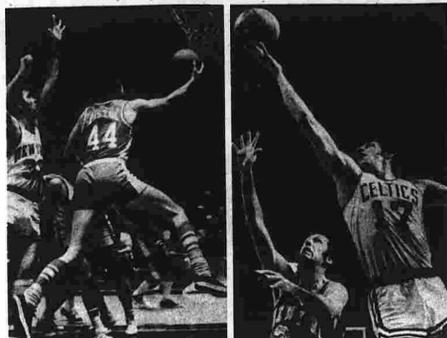

Like most areas ice or frozen packed snow was evident in some spots, but there was enough good trails to make the trip worthwhile.

False, Inaccurate Reports

Coupled with Tuesday's record setting high temperatures, plus yesterday's unseasonably mild readings, some ski areas continue to report packed powder surfaces.

For instance, Mt. Tom, located a stone's throw from Hartford, reported a packed powder surface. Impossible. Powder Ridge reported granular conditions while Sundown Area, west of the city, reported wet powder. For a slope that faces the sun all day, its hard to believe.

Skiers, a good note to remember. If traveling a long distance to a resort, first call the area and specify that you are out-of-state and ask the conditions. Usually they are pretty accurate then.

UNDERHANDED TACTICS seem to be order of the day in the NBA if we can judge from the shooting of these four high-scoring, from left, Pete Maravich of Atlanta, John Havlicek of Boston, Jeff Mullins of the Golden State and Charlie Scott of Phoenix.

Sore-Armed Barry On 51-Point Spree

By The Associated Press
Rick Barry came up with a sore shooting arm Wednesday night, so he only scored 51 points as Golden State defeated Houston 122-117 in National Basketball Association play.

Barry poured in 34 points in the first half for the Warriors, but his right arm stiffened during the intermission and he had a cold third quarter. His 51 points—which included 24 field goals—set a record for the San Antonio Convention Center Arena, where the Hockets are playing a number of their home games.

It also was Barry's highest scoring total since returning to the NBA after playing the past four seasons in the American Basketball Association.

Nate Thurmond, the Warriors' center who is acting as player-coach while Al Attles is out with the flu, scored 27 points and hauled in 18 rebounds.

Houston had seven players scoring in double figures, led by Don Smith with 21 points.

In other NBA games, Seattle edged Detroit 106-104. Boston whipped Portland 117-99 and Atlanta topped Philadelphia 122-105.

In ABA action, the New York Nets defeated Denver 102-92 and Utah tripped Kentucky 117-104.

Seattle's John Brisker and Spencer Haywood had themselves a happy homecoming.

Brisker, a Detroit schoolboy, sank a pair of free throws with six seconds left as the SuperSonics nipped the Pistons. Haywood, who played at the University of Detroit before jumping to the American Basketball Association and then on to the Sonics, scored 18 points.

Brisker had 21 and Dick Snyder added 18 as Seattle registered its third victory in its last four games for new Sonics Coach Morris Buckwalter, who replaced Tom Nissalke one week ago.

Dave Cowens tossed in 35 points and grabbed 20 rebounds as the Celtics extended their winning streak to seven games. John Havlicek added 24 points for Boston, while Geoff Petrie was high man for Portland with 20.

Philadelphia led 91-89 going at the start of the fourth quarter, but Atlanta then reeled off nine straight points and was not in trouble again.

Rookie guard Brian Taylor scored 26 points and forward George Carter added 21 for the Nets, who held a 90-87 lead with 6:45 to go and then coasted home.

Ron Boone scored 32 points as Utah overcame a 14-point deficit and went on to beat the Colonels.

College Basketball Pressing Defense Key for St. John's

SENIOR LEAGUE
Two routs highlighted Senior League play last night as the Illinois wing Langan VV opened Groman's in the opener 114-87.

Rick Marinice netted 50 points for Langan while teammate Russell earned 22 markers. Groman's Barnes and Burrite contributed 24 and 18 markers to the scoring attack.

The second game found Moriarty's blasting Blue Moon, 118-85.

The MB's were led by Smith (26) and Coughlin (26) while Blue Moon was paced by Judd and Goodrow with 17 and 14 points respectively.

WEST SIDE MIDGETS
In the first of a pair last night at the West Side Rec. Army & Navy Club whipped Andy's, 56-32. Craig Kearney pumped in 37 points while Bob Wilson added seven markers.

For the losing Footmen, John Andreo had 17 tallies followed by five from Doug Landry. Crispino's topped WINF in the second tilt, 49-21. Steve Crispino and Gary Demko paced the winners' attack with 18 and 16 points.

Mike Donnelly and Mark Iome cannot seven and six points for the Radomien.

NEW YORK (AP) — Long before the Clemson Tigers' basketball team came to New York, Frank Mulzoff had their number.

"We had them scouted and saw them destroyed by a pressing defense," said the coach of 17th-ranked St. John's.

"Sure, it was no surprise that we would do it," said Mulzoff, whose club broke open a onepoint game with a 58-point explosion in the second half.

Leading only 29-28 at intermission, St. John's outscored the Atlantic Coast Conference visitors by 27 points in the second half as the Tigers turned to lambs. Bill Schaeffer led the slaughter, pitching in 14 of his game-high 21 points in the second period.

St. John's was one of five ranked teams in action Wednesday night. In other games, fourth-ranked North Carolina romped to a 99-40 victory over Wake Forest; No. 18 Vanderbilt scored a 59-40 victory over Mississippi; 19th-ranked Florida State trounced Stetson 94-67 and 20th-ranked Louisville nipped Dayton 74-73.

Elsewhere, St. Joseph's Pa. beat Bowling Green 61-40 in overtime; Penn turned back Villanova 77-69; Marshall swamped Miami of Ohio 90-70; Harvard trimmed Dartmouth 90-83; Fordham slammed Sten Hall 96-78; Brigham Young posted a 93-83 decision over Utah; American University topped Navy 73-62 and Notre Dame beat Pittsburgh 85-76 in overtime.

Freshman Mitch Kupchak led a second-half burst as North Carolina buried ACC colleague Wake Forest, leading only 62-38 at the half, the Tar Heels charged away from the Deacons behind Kupchak, who scored 24 points overall. Wake Forest's Tony Byers led all scorers with 30 points.

Bill Ligon helped Vanderbilt beat Mississippi with a 21-point night. Ole Miss failed to score a point in the final seven minutes in the Southeastern Conference game. Coolidge Ball and Dean Hudson led the losers with 14 points each.

Freshman Greg Grady came off the bench late in the first half to spark Florida State. Stetson led by 10 points before Grady came into the game and reeled off seven straight points. He turned from point-maker to shot-blocker at the start of the second half, helping shoot the Seminoles into a runaway lead.

Bill Butler scored 20 points, Allen Murphy, 18 and Terry Howard, 14 to lead Louisville over Dayton. Mike Sylvester had a game-high 26 for Dayton.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Big Mike McCormack has a big job in trying to make a winner of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles.

The 6-foot-4, 265-pound former Washington Redskins assistant signed a three-year contract Wednesday as head coach of the Eagles, a team that hasn't had a winning record since 1966.

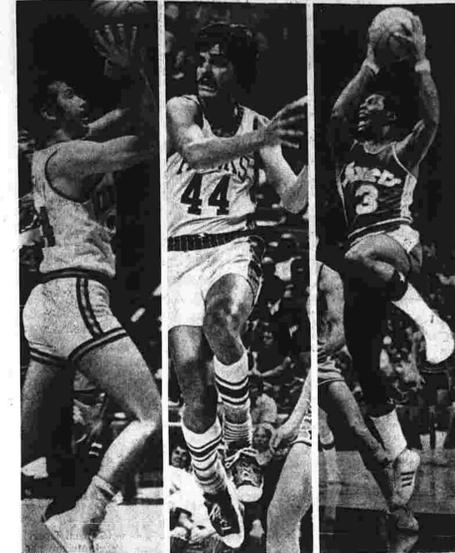

The Eagles of 1972 were next-to-last both offensively and defensively in the NFL's National Conference. The team finished last in the East with a 2-11 record, setting league record lows for total points 145, touchdowns 12, and average points per game 10.2. The team scored only two touchdowns rushing one on a quarterback sneak, failed to win at home, and slipped form 32 quarterback sacks in 1971 to 40 in 1972.

If that isn't enough for McCormack to contemplate, the Eagles suffered their worst defeat in the 39-year history of the team, a 62-10 drubbing by the New York Giants, a game which fired coach Ed Khayat said the players quit.

Is McCormack apprehensive? "I expect to win next season," said the husky former Cleveland Browns tackle, who made the Pro Bowl squad six times while clearing the way for former NFL great Jim Brown. "I'm an eternal optimist." McCormack said he has the authority to run the Eagles' football operation, make trades, final say on the draft, anything connected with player personnel. He said he will ask for advice, but the final say is his.

McCormack played his college football at Kansas and was the first draft choice in 1951 of the old New York Yanks. He later was traded to Cleveland and played eight seasons under Brown. He worked in insurance, and as a part time assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs before joining the Redskins in 1966.

McCormack said his impression of the Eagles, based on three games against the Redskins last season, was that the team had as good a defense as the Skins faced all season up to the Super Bowl game against Miami. He plans to go to work on the pick offense starting with the Jan. 30 player draft.

GRIMACING SEEMS to be part of the standard drill technique in the NBA these days if Bill Bradley of the Knicks, left, Pete Maravich of the Hawks, center, and Fred Carter of the 76ers are any indication.

Sanderson Image Tarnished of Late

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Derek Sanderson has some proving to do," says the attorney who got the controversial hockey player a contract settlement with the World Hockey Association's Philadelphia Blazers worth a reported $1 million.

The attorney, Bob Woolf, agreed that Sanderson emerged from the bizarre, unprecedented Blazers' negotiations with somewhat of a tarnished image. The negotiations with Sanderson's 10-year $2.4 million contract and gave him his unconditional release.

Woolf declined to disclose what the settlement was worth, but did say, "it was awfully high."

"In some respects," said Woolf at a news conference Wednesday at which Sanderson's cash settlement was announced, "he (Sanderson) didn't act the way he should have and I was somewhat disappointed in him. In reflection, he (Sanderson) doesn't think he acted properly. He perhaps didn't do some things he should have done. His attitude was not what it should have been. Derek has some proving to do and I think he feels that way too."

Woolf hastened to note that he wasn't downgrading his client, that Sanderson was a standout hockey player with a personality that would help some team. He said Sanderson was in Jamaica and would be back in two weeks to start looking for another hockey job.

Sanderson, in a telephone interview from Fort Lauderdale, said he was as unsure as ever about his hockey future.

"All I know is what I read in the Florida papers," Sanderson said. "But from that, I guess it is obvious the Bruins don't want me. They say they don't need the aggravation."

"They have three pretty good centers. I guess they don't need another center, but if they keep playing (Phil) Esposito like they are — killing penalties — he'll be down to his knees shortly."

"I know I don't intend to sign with a club and then ride the bench," Sanderson said. "If they don't want me then they should put me up for grabs for a draft choice or something. Westy Adams (Bruins president) must not think I'm very valuable the way he's been talking."

"I've been contacted by five NHL teams in the last four days," Sanderson added. "There are some teams that want me. There is a deal happening."

Honor Russia's Olga Korbut

Gymnast Athlete Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Olga Korbut, the spirited sprite of the Soviet gymnastics team at the 1972 Summer Games, is The Associated Press Female Athlete of the Year.

Miss Korbut, winner of three gold medals and a silver medal at the Munich Olympics, outpooled American tennis rebel Billie Jean King, reigning queen of the courts, 222 to 202 in balloting by sportswriters and broadcasters released Wednesday.

Official Soviet sources said she was unavailable to discuss her injury or comment on being the first Iron Curtain athlete to receive the AP award since it was initiated in 1931.

Olga, a 17-year-old schoolgirl from the town of Grodno near the Polish border, performed in nearly flawless fashion at Munich in winning gold medals for the balance beam and floor exercises with scores of 9.90 of a possible 10.

Shorter Claims Sullivan Award

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Frank Shorter decided to take up long distance running two years ago in an effort to make the Olympic team, and the decision resulted in him being presented the Sullivan Award Wednesday as the nation's outstanding amateur athlete of 1972.

Shorter, 25, who prepared for his winning effort in the 26-mile Olympic marathon race by jogging with his wife, Louise, polled 1,955 points from 1,500 voters in the Amateur Athletic Union voting.

Second in the balloting was Olympic gold medal freestyle wrestler Dan Gable of Waterloo, Iowa, with 1,577 points.

Swimmer Mark Spitz, the 1971 Sullivan Award winner who claimed seven gold medals in the 1972 Olympics, was ineligible for the award because of a no-repeat rule.

Gold medal woman diver Micki King of Hermosa Beach, Calif., was third in the vote with 1,104 points, followed by gold medal swimmer Michael Burton of Sacramento, Calif., with 1,012 points and track medalist Dave Wottle of Canton, Ohio, with 708 points.

"Almost two years ago, I ran the Pan American trials marathon kind of with Munich (Olympics) in mind," recalled Shorter, 25, a Yale graduate.

"At that point I was just trying to make the team," he said, "I was running 10.00 miles a week and I had never run the marathon before."

He finished second in the trials, then won the Pan American games competition.

"The way I run is I run as fast as I can the whole way," explained the New Mexico native who gave America its first Olympic marathon victory since John J. Hayes did it in 1908.

ATLANTA (AP) — The jury picked Jane Blalock's $2 million antitrust suit against the Ladies Professional Golf Association, originally set for Jan. 22, has been postponed.

A spokesman for U.S. District Court Judge Charles A. Moyer Jr., who will hear the case, said the suit probably will be tried in mid-February if his schedule permits. A crowded criminal court docket has caused the delay in hearing the civil suit.

Miss Blalock, 27, of Portsmouth, N.H., filed the suit after the LPGA suspended her for one year last spring for alleged cheating in tournaments. Moyer has blocked the suspension pending disposition of the antitrust suit.

The golfer's lawyers, meanwhile, have asked for a summary judgment in favor of the suit.

Indian Shooters Gun Down Choate

The long trip to Wallingford paid off for the Manchester High rifle team as it scored an 869-852 victory over Choate Prep yesterday.

Bill Livengood again paced the Indians with a fine score of 185 and was also high shooter for the match. The victory upped the locals' record to 2-1. They will face Wallingford High Tuesday in Willimantic.

Coach Tony Albricio commented, "Shooting in the difficult standing position must improve if we hope to continue to be successful."

Other MHS Shooters: Griswold 47-46-36-165, Hawk 48-45-31-152, Choate Prep. (852) Walker 48-47-46-39-180, Florian 50-47-42-35-174, Taylor 46-39-42-167, Kriedel 49-47-41-39-167, Riley 48-41-36-38-164.

Central Scores
NEW BRITAIN (AP) — Two foot shots and a basket by Bill Wendt in the final 11 seconds gave Central Connecticut a hard-earned 67-63 basketball victory Wednesday night over New Haven University.

The victory, the fourth in a row for the Blue Devils, hiked their season's record to 10-3. The losers are now 4-8.

Pro Hockey Roundup

Ailing Canadiens Managing to Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Pity the poor Montreal Canadiens, struck down by a series of injuries that has their dressing room looking like a hospital ward.

All-Stars Ken Dryden, out with a bad back, and Yvan Cournoyer, nursing an abdominal injury, were out of action for Wednesday night's National League test against Pittsburgh. And at least a half dozen other Montreal players including captain Henri Richard, were bothered by a variety of other ailments.

So naturally, playing in that weakened condition, Montreal only rallied for three third-period goals to knock off the Penguins 6-4.

Elsewhere in the NHL Wednesday night, Chicago staged a similar rally to overtake Detroit 6-4, Atlanta tied St. Louis 3-3, Los Angeles tied the New York Rangers 4-4 and California skated to a 3-3 tie against Toronto.

In the World Hockey Association, it was New England 4, Chicago 2, and Cleveland 5, Houston 0.

The Canadiens inserted Rejean Houle to replace Cournoyer and he responded with three goals for the first hat trick of his NHL career. The three goals gave him eight for the season.

Chicago also used three third period goals by Cliff Koroll, J. P. Boredeau and Dick Redmond to overtake Detroit. The loss ended a six-game winning streak for the Red Wings and extended their losing streak against the Black Hawks to 14 games. Detroit has not beaten Chicago since April 1, 1970.

Mickey Redmond, Dick's brother, had two goals for the Red Wings while Boredeau's checked twice for Chicago.

Larry Romanchuk's third period goal eased amazing Atlanta into its tie with St. Louis and extended rookie goalie Dan Bouchard's unbeaten streak to nine games. Bouchard has not lost since Dec. 9 when the Blues beat the first year Flames.

Black Hawks Lead Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Five members of the Chicago Black Hawks head the 12-man West Division team named today for the National Hockey League's 28th annual All Star Game.

The game, matching West Division stars against the East Division, will be held at Madison Square Garden on Tuesday, Jan. 30.

Chicago Coach Billy Reay will be behind the bench for the West and he'll have goalie Tony Esposito, defenseman Bill White, center Stan Mikita, right wing Jim Pappin and left wing Dennis Hull from his own club. All were first-team All Star selections in balloting by members of the Professional Hockey Writers Association.

The only non-Black Hawk selected to the first team for the West was Minnesota defenseman Barry Gibbs.

Three members of the Los Angeles Kings-goalie Rogatien Vachon and defenseman Terry Harper and Gilles Maroteau made the second team. The writers also selected Philadelphia's Bobby Clarke at center and Gary Dornhoefer of the Flyers at right wing with Minnesota's J. P. Parise at left wing to round out the second team.

White was the leading vote getter among the 12 West players named. He received 114 of a possible 120 points in the balloting. The closest vote for was second team goalie where Vachon edged Atlanta's Phil Myre by a single point.

Mikita will be appearing in his seventh All Star Game, tops among the West players announced today will be making their All Star debuts. They are Vachon, Gibbs, Marotte and Dornhoefer.

Reay will name seven more players to complete his squad and with All Star regulations requiring at least one representative from each team, he must include players from Atlanta, California, Pittsburgh and St. Louis to round out the club.

Hartford Strong Routing Cougars

By Dean Yost

Dominating every phase of the game, visiting Greater Hartford Community College blew Manchester C.C. out of the Eagles' Nest last night in posting an easy, 93-67, victory.

Hartford, coached by former Central Connecticut State College standout, Howie Dickeman, upped its overall record to 10-3 and 4-1 in the C.C.A.A. Manchester, which suffered its third setback in a row, sports a 7-4 overall mark and 4-2 in the conference.

It didn't take Hartford long to show off its ability. Grabbing rebounds from both the offensive and defensive boards, the Colts led off three consecutive fast breaks to open a 10-point margin with 13:12 left in the first half.

Dan Jones was the victors' big man underneath and got plenty of support from Ron Williams, Art Laffin and Dennis Johnson.

Manchester, unable to penetrate the tough three-zone defense Hartford used, was content to shoot from the outside, but continually missed the basket.

The Colts scored a majority of their field goals in a class on well-executed plays.

Hartford put the game out of reach with 8:29 left in the first 20 minutes when they netted 10 points over a five-minute scoring lull by the Cougars.

Over the final five minutes of action, Hartford increased its margin to 26 before Manchester rallied briefly.

A severe blow was dealt MCC in the closing stages when Bill Peoples crumbled to the floor as his much operated on knees failed.

Peoples, limping badly from the court, was a mainstay in the Cougars' lineup.

Jones led the Hartford attack with 22 points, all on field goals, while George Evans, Williams, Laffin and Peoples followed with 16, 15, 14 and 14 points in that order.

Ernie Moore was the top scorer in the latter's court.

The Cougars play Norwalk C.C. Saturday on the latter's court.

Record Crowd In New Haven

By The Associated Press

Record crowds may help the New Haven Nighthawks at the club office, but do little for the on the American Hockey League scoreboard.

New Haven enjoyed a brief lead before a record crowd of 8,765 on Wednesday before falling to Rochester 2-1.

In other league action, Virginia clipped Jacksonville 4-3, Richmond beat Baltimore 6-3, and Hershey whipped Springfield 7-4.

The largest hockey crowd ever in Connecticut saw the Nighthawks take a brief third-period lead on Gary Howatt's unassisted goal. Jeff Hunt tied it at 2-2 midway through the finale, and with six seconds remaining, the Amersks Bob Kelly scored on a crowd in the state saw the Nighthawks lose to the Russian team in an exhibition game on Jan. 4.

The nomadic Barons surprised Virginia with two quick goals in the opening period before the Red Wings stormed the rink with Bill Hogboom capping the victory with a goal with less than two minutes remaining. Jacksonville's Chris Ahrens served six penalties, one of them a major.

Richmond was on the bad side of a 3-1 second period score with the dormant Clippers but roared back with five straight to sink Baltimore lower in the West Division. The Clippers have only six victories for the season, the lowest in the league.

Everyone got a piece of the action at Hershey as seven Bears scored seven goals in a seasaw battle with the Kings.

Cepeda Signs With Red Sox

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox today said they have signed veteran slugger Orlando Cepeda to a contract for the 1974 baseball season.

Red Sox General Manager Dick O'Connell said Cepeda was approached after the American League approved its designated pinch hitter rule. Cepeda was given his outright release by the Oakland A's last October after he underwent a cartilage operation on his left knee.

Cepeda is one of baseball's highest salaried sluggers, drawing in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 a year.

His value to the Red Sox increased dramatically after the league adopted the rule under which a team may designate a player to bat for the pitcher.

Cepeda, 35, has played for San Francisco, St. Louis and Atlanta in the National League, and Oakland in the American League.

In 14 major league seasons, he has batted over 3,000 nine times.

Title Bout Monday Night

Foreman Hits Hard in Drill

Kingston, Jamaica (AP) — George Foreman doesn't think world heavyweight champion Joe Frazier can do what amateur Bob Winter did. And that is knock him down in their title fight Monday night.

Foreman recalled Winter before going to the gym on Wednesday and beating up on a sparring partner, Jamaican heavyweight champion Carl Baker.

In the second round of their sparring session, Foreman caught Baker with a left hook to the head and a right hand to the body, which Baker claimed was low, and then landed a flurry of punches while Baker was caught in the ropes. Foreman's manager, Dick Sadler, jumped into the ring and stopped it.

"That ring is altogether a different world of its own," Foreman said of the incident. "Some vicious things happen there to each and every one of us."

In 37 pro fights, all of them victories, 34 by knockout, the ring has not been violent for Foreman. He said he has never been hurt in a pro fight and doesn't expect to be hurt by Frazier, at least not badly enough to keep him from winning.

"But I took a couple of good shots as an amateur," Foreman remembered. "My third amateur fight, in the first round this guy (Winter) walked out and clubbed me with a left hook. Knocked me flat."

Foreman got up at four and won the fight.

Clemente Fund Now $317,539

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Contributions totaling $317,539 have been given to the Roberto Clemente Memorial Fund.

Fund officials said the money included $7,539 from individual donors, $100,000 each from the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Richard Mellon Foundation, $25,000 each from a bank and a newspaper in Puerto Rico and $10,000 from the H.J. Heinz family.

The money will be used to provide relief for Nicaragua earthquake victims and to build sports camps for boys in Puerto Rico in memory of the baseball star.

Clemente, the Pittsburgh Pirates' right fielder, was killed with four other men in a New Year's Eve plane crash while flying supplies to Nicaragua.

Woodchopper Displays Art

By Earl Yost

Thanks to the exploits of Dave Geer, Lisbon, Conn., is on the map.

The short, muscular Nutmegger heads up his own construction business in between winning world's championships as an axe thrower and woodchopper.

Currently, he's the world champion in both axe throwing and woodchopping and yesterday demonstrated his prowess at the Hartford Armory. Geer is one of the featured performers in the Connecticut Sportsman Show which opened today and will run through Sunday night.

Geer demonstrated for members of the media how to cut out a rough chair in less than three minutes on a log which measured three feet by 14 inches by using a power saw. This stunt he'll perform at each show.

Winner of the world's woodchopper crown five times, power saw champ three times and on a like number of occasions the "best all around lumberjack in the world," Geer can cut through a 10-inch square timber block in 14 seconds and halve a 14-inch white pine log in less than 30 seconds. He has never lost a match to an opponent.

Starting out at the age of nine, in Australia with his father, as a lumberjack, Geer has been at it ever since, although he admitted he was cutting down on his hobby now that the construction business was booming.

It takes two months to get into shape for international competition the heavy-chested exhibitionist notes, because of his fame, Geer has traveled all over the world, in competition and for exhibitions. "In all my travels, it has never cost me a cent," he said. "Just how sharp are the axes used in the show? 'I could shave a man with one,'" he said. He demonstrated on his arm, cutting away some hair as neatly as if using a safety razor.

Hing is all well worth watching if you have the time to visit the show.

Maloney High Triumphs Over Indian Grapplers

Still suffering from illness, injury and lack of depth, the Manchester High matmen went down to defeat for the second consecutive time in CCIL competition last night in a wrestling match in Meriden, 36-19.

Wrestling in sub-par conditions, the aggressive Indian grapplers fought down the last two weight classes before Maloney wrapped up his victory.

Four starters, Dave Feinstein and Mike Voland, will not see action Saturday when the locals host Wethersfield High at the Clark Arena. Both wrestlers sustained injuries prior to last night and were discarded in their heat.

The team is now 3-4 overall and 0-3 in the CCIL. Co-captain Mark Odell is still undefeated at 13H points.

In JV competition, the Indians fared better by posting a score of 21-12. Winning for the
