A general government budget of $3,420,434, reflecting a 1.25 decrease in mill rate, has been recommended to the Town Council by Town Manager Terry Sprenkel of South Windsor.

In his message accompanying the proposed budget, Sprenkel explained that a combination of Revenue Sharing funds resulted in his being able to present the budget reflecting the tax decrease.

He explained that operation of the general government will require $124,617 less than raised last year by property taxes. However, he noted that the proposed gross budget reflects an overall increase when compared to last year's budget proposal of $2,265,418.

Sprenkel explained that Revenue Sharing funds totaling $115,265 have been directly applied to the operating expenses of several of the town

McCord was the former security chief of President Nixon's re-election committee. Liddy and McCord were convicted Jan. 30 of conspiracy, burglary and illegal wiretapping after a 15-day trial.

Their co-defendants who pleaded guilty at the trial's start, were E. Howard Hunt, a former White House consultant and CIA agent; Bernard L. Barker, 55, of Newington; and Virgilio R. Gonzalez, 46, of the latter four all are from Miami, of Cuban background, and had worked with Hunt in the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion.

Sentenced To Jail

WASHINGTON (AP)—G. Gordon Liddy, 42, described as the mastermind of the Watergate bugging, was sentenced today to serve up to 20 years in prison and pay a $40,000 fine.

The letter was read in open court by Chief U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica, sentencing the seven men, five of whom pleaded guilty in the case and two of whom were convicted after trial.

The letter came as an apparent surprise to McCord's

Foxgrove Developer Builds First Models

The first model homes in an $18.7 million, 375-lot subdivision off Keeney St. will be ready for public inspection between April 15 and May 1, according to developers of the housing project.

The single-family homes, to be built at the rate of 100 to 120 a year, will be either raised ranch or colonial styles. Home buyers will have a choice of nine exteriors, according to the developers, and all of the houses have four or five bedrooms.

The homes are being built on a 270-acre tract on the west side of Keeney St., formerly the Fox Grove golf course. The developer is a new firm, Foxgrove Ltd., headed by a New York developer.

Four model homes are now under construction at the site, and full-scale construction is expected to start in mid-April. Foxgrove will employ a total of 700 to 750 persons on the development, with 200 to 350 people working at any one time.

Foxgrove Ltd. was created earlier this month to handle the housing project, and many of the details in the firm haven't yet been worked out.

Foxgrove is headed by Enril Ramet of Rockland County, N.Y., who was President of a large New York development company, and many of the details in the firm haven't yet been worked out.

UAW Seeks 30 And Out Retirement

DETROIT (AP)—United Auto Workers demands for a "30 and out" retirement plan will be teamed with a $650 per month pension, UAW President Leonard Woodcock has promised.

The retirement plan and the accompanying pension have top priority here as UAW delegates meet to decide what demands they will present in upcoming contract talks with the Big Three automakers.

The "30 and out" proposal would allow an assembly plant worker to retire after 30 years of employment, regardless of his age. The demand also would allow retirement for foundry workers after 25 years.

The council expects such decreases to be passed through the distribution chain to the ultimate consumer," Dunlop said.

The regulation previously had applied to meat packers with more than $50 million in annual sales and the new order extended it to virtually all meat packers.

Herbert Stein, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, said Thursday that consumer boycotts against high costs may have contributed to the decline in wholesale meat prices.

Stein predicted the rate of increase in food prices, which was 2.2 per cent in February alone, will decline to an annual rate of 2.5 per cent or less by December. He said this would be an acceptable increase because real wages should be increasing faster.

"It is only when they hit 2.5 per cent in a month that everybody knows there is a food crisis," he said.

Bugging Case Takes New Twist

WASHINGTON (AP)—The six Watergate conspirators still awaiting sentencing are under new pressure to tell what they know about the bugging of Democratic party headquarters and other political espionage.

James W. McCord Jr., former security chief of President Nixon's re-election committee, said he will disclose new facts to the trial judge next week in hopes for a lighter sentence.

McCord charged there was perjury in the trial where he was convicted with G. Gordon Liddy, a top Nixon cabinet official, and political pressure was brought on the defendants "to plead guilty and remain silent."

State Blue Law Change Offered To Lawmakers

HARTFORD (AP)—You can buy an antique table on Sunday in Connecticut but you're not supposed to buy a new one.

Wetlands Act Changes Sought

The State Department of Environmental Protection, recognizing problems with the Inland Wetlands and Water Courses Act, will seek changes in the act in the current General Assembly, Manchester Mayor John Thompson reported today.

The changes were mentioned at a Wednesday meeting of the Connecticut Conference of Mayors, Thompson said, and included:

- Extension of the Jan. 1, 1974 deadline for local implementation of the wetlands act to July 1, 1974.
- Clarify the "taking" of land provision and make it the state's responsibility in the event of lawsuit brought by a distressed land owner.
- Clarify notification of the designation of wetlands to local assessors.

Demo Session Ends Amicably

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democrats have concluded an amicable series of meetings that resulted in a series of compromises for party positions and saw rival factions each get some satisfaction.

Despite several rebuffs in the selection of six members Friday afternoon for the party's executive committee, chairman Robert S. Strauss told reporters he was pleased. "I had a big day today and I know it," he said.

Solid Waste Disposal Plan Objections Aired At Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The authority might by administrative regulation require participation by cities which already had waste disposal systems geared to their own needs, he said.

The system also would depend on "an as yet undeveloped market for recycled waste materials...to hold down user costs," he said. If the market doesn't materialize and if construction costs are higher than expected, the fee charged to municipalities can "go up and in turn be passed on," property owners he added.

Do not even swear by your head, because you cannot make a single hair white or black. Just say 'Yes' or 'No'—anything else you have to say comes from the Evil One."

News for Senior Citizens

by Wally Fortin

Hello folks! Things have been moving right along these days, and already I find it's that time again.

The happenings here at the Center this past week were down a little bit, but here's the way things went.

On Monday we started out by taking reservations for the comedy show "Mary, Mary," at the Coahgait and a quick clock all of our 45 tickets were sold. Gloria gave a quick call to the agency and was able to secure another 45 tickets, and right now we have about 14 left, and you should call for information or for tickets if you've been thinking about going.

The show isn't until Wednesday, April 11, so there is time; however, to assure us of the tickets, we had to act fast.

44 for Setback

Last Friday night we had a very fine crowd of 44 people for our setback games with the following winners: Anna Haupt, 132; Mollie McCarthy, 131; Mima Reuther, 129; Ann Derby, 127; Adelaide Pickett, 124; Jennie Fogarty, 120; Sylvia Forster, 119; Bess Mason, 118; Lynn Steele, 117; Geraldine Fitzpatrick, 116; Helen Erickson, 116; Eva Lutz, 116; Bob Cordey, 115; Ann Derby, 115; Messer, 115. Many thanks to Anna Haupt, Mollie McCarthy and Bob Schubert for helping Gloria.

Come Monday we had about our largest turnout for our morning social bingo, and we had 90 players. Thanks again to Tommy, Georgia, Anna, Mildred Teemar, Clea Wandt, and Mac Tivnan for making it so enjoyable.

In the afternoon we had our largest turnout of 50 players for our pinocle game, and the lucky winners were: Harriet Keeney, 70; Robina Carroll, 66; Frances Pike, 67; Mary Derby, 65; Anna Haupt, 62; John Derby, 62; Joseph Windsor, 62; Grace Baker, 62; Bess Mason, 61; Lillian Russell, 61; Walter Fallon, 61; Marie Hebenstreit, 61; and Pajl Schaez, 60. Our runner-up was Anna Haupt, 59; Emma Derby, and Mollie McCarthy for their assistance with the program.

Back a second to last Friday, and it was the day our students held their food sale. On behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lattin, the students' instructors, and the students, they want to thank everyone who helped make it all so delicious food, and those who purchased the goodies. The game made close to $400 and will use this for lines and other equipment for the kitchen.

Tuesday, our oil painting class was busy as ever, and hoping that during our Big Week in May will be able to put their work on display as we did last year.

25 Use Bus

We made the shopping run again this past Tuesday, and had 25 members on the bus. In spite of the cold weather, so it looks like we'll be keeping the Tuesday run as long as there's an interest.

In the afternoon all the noise was at the Park Lane Center where our Senior League was busy knocking down the hardwood with the following results:

Class A men: Ernie Pasquatti took both the high triple honors with a 516, and the high single with 187.

Class B men: Lou Weber won the high triple with 391, and the high single was won by James Gleeson with a 146.

Class A women: Mary Chavez took the honors with the high triple with 418, and had a 181 for the high single.

Class B women: Maude Race cyclind regarding marriage. They have seen the rising tide of divorce and concluded that the institution is doomed to extinction. They have observed, even felt the pain of a divorce, and they are convinced that marriage is still a viable institution, and they are determined to make it so. They are filled with minglings concerning their own prospects for marital bliss.

They've been married, with 400 divorces granted in 1972, and income suggesting the wisdom of greater maturity before marriage.

Arts and Crafts

Wednesday popped up, and things were busy as usual. We started off with arts and crafts, and had a fair turnout. Next week the craft will be making pin cushions: scraps of velvet and lace are needed. In the morning we started learning a few steps in square dancing, and then I had some visitors from Eastfield. Mrs. Patricia Phillips, Mrs. Noonan, and Mrs. Boldie. They are very busy getting some real senior citizen action in Eastfield, and had an enjoyable time exchanging ideas. It felt good to be able to show off our Center, and once again it just shows how lucky we are that the town is providing the facilities and are ready to do so much for our seniors.

After the lunch we were treated to some real first-class entertainment as our good friend Ben Shankman was on hand to play a variety of tunes on the piano. Man, he sure can make that thing talk. We all joined in on a sing-along, and really enjoyed the afternoon. Many thanks to Ben; he's been here twice now, so I've sort of adopted him, that's why I can call him Ben. He'll be back again soon.

From that, we hopped off to the races where we found the track fast, and may a happy winner.

Things ended up with dancing and card playing.

Sick List

We did hear during the afternoon that Mrs. Theresa Greesley, Ted Rivard, is in the hospital, and so is Esther Anderson, and Elsie Sheppard. We were also told that Mrs. Theresa Greesley is recuperating at her daughter's home at 93 Scarborough Rd. in Wallingford. Her friends, Rose Campbell, who is a patient at the Crestfield Convalescent Home, and Mrs. Theresa Greesley and Bob Schubert for helping Gloria.

TOWN OF MANCHESTER, CONNECTICUT
March 23, 1973
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
R. B. WEISS, GENERAL MANAGER
Tentative Budget and Budget Message
Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1973

The budget that follows will, I am sure, receive careful scrutiny by your Board and by the general public. In a sense it is a disappointing budget in that it provides for a tax rate increase...

As you know, we provide considerably more detail in our budget document than most communities so that you have adequate information for your evaluations. The green sheet with each agency budget summarizes changes in costs from current year operations...

A tax rate of 50.66 representing an increase of 2 mills is recommended to support General Fund services. An increase of .29 to 5.35 mills is required for the Fire District. No increase is recommended for the Special Taxing District...

PROJECTIONS MADE AFTER THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF THE PRESENT FISCAL YEAR ARE HOLDING UP. AT THAT TIME WE INDICATED A POSSIBLE EXPENDITURE DEFICIT OF APPROXIMATELY $93,000. WE ARE NOW CONFIDENT THAT A COMBINATION OF UNDER-DEPENDENT APPROPRIATIONS ON SEVERAL ACCOUNTS AND REVENUES EXCEEDING ORIGINAL ESTIMATES WILL PRODUCE A MODEST NET SURPLUS.

FISCAL PROJECTIONS 1973-74
Fortunately some revenue factors have a favorable impact on the tax rate. The Grand List increase of 48 will produce approximately $500,000 in added revenue projected at last year's tax rate...

On the other hand, total income, other than taxes, are estimated to be down by approximately $85,000. Some categories are up; however, state grants in the education area are down resulting in the net decrease.

Listed below are improvements recommended for the next fiscal year. The six year program required under the Charter is contained in a separate document.

Table with columns: PROJ. NO., PROJ. NO., DESCRIPTION, AMOUNT. Lists various projects like 'Trotter Block Payment on Bond for deed (Final Payment *73)', 'Prepare preliminary plans for Municipal Building', etc.

One of the most difficult areas of budget projection and decision making has involved the E.B.A. program. The best information we have at this time from Washington is that the E.B.A. program will be phased out. There was $2.25 billion appropriated for the two year effort with about $580 million of that remaining for the phase out.

In the establishment of E.B.A. positions initially we were guided by needs expressed by various departments for positions that were not approved by the Board of Directors in recent years. In other words, we did not create positions merely to provide work, but rather utilized the available funds to meet identified needs that had not been met.

Budget recommendations on the E.B.A. positions fall into three categories - positions to be filled for the full year by Town funds, positions to be funded for half the year by Town funds and half the year by E.B.A. funds and positions to be dropped. In the Board of Education program six positions were established of which three are in their budget for funding next year.

Open House Success, National Guard Says

Li Roy R. Pinette, commanding officer of Support Company, 189th Avn., Connecticut Army National Guard has termed the open house held at the Armory on West St., Rockville last weekend, a tremendous success.

When the open house program ended Sunday, Lt. Pinette said the final count showed that more than 1,000 persons attended the two-day function. He said many questions were asked about the pay the National Guard offers and noted that many people are not aware that the Guard gives a member four days pay a full two-day weekend plus a full day pay for four hours of duty on weekday nights.

6,000th Assist For LA's West

NEW YORK (AP) — The shooting of Jim McMillian and Gall Goodrich and the rebounding of Walt Chamberlain led the Los Angeles Lakers to a 121-101 National Basketball Association victory over the Buffalo Braves Friday night but Jerry West made his presence felt in another way.

West reached his 6,000th career assist when he passed off for his seventh early in the fourth period. That placed him fifth on the all-time list.

The triumph gave the Lakers a record of 38-21, one game better than Milwaukee's 37-22, in the race for the second best record in the NBA.

McMillian scored 21 points, Goodrich added 21 and Chamberlain hauled down 24 rebounds and scored 19 points as the Lakers broke away from a four-point halftime edge to lead 94-76 after three quarters. The Braves were paced by John Hamnum with 20 points.

Elsewhere, Boston whipped Atlanta 124-108, Houston edged Philadelphia 132-112, Baltimore edged Cleveland 103-94, Phoenix nipped Golden State 125-124 and Portland beat Seattle 118-112.

Jo Jo White scored 12 of his 21 points in the third period to spark slow-starting Boston over the Celtics. The Celtics ran off the last 10 points in the third quarter and the first four of the final stanza to take an 89-79 lead.

Rudy Tomjanovich paced a balanced Houston attack with 28 points as the Rockets sent Philadelphia to its 12th loss in a row.

Wes Unseld's jumper from the foul line with three seconds left gave Baltimore its triumph over Cleveland as the Bulls clinched the Central Division title.

Baltimore trailed 74-67 with 2:00 left in the third quarter when Coach Gene Shue was hit ejected from the game. Eight seconds later the deficit was 80 and a 13-2 spurt over the next 2 1/2 minutes put Baltimore back until Unseld's jumper.

Lamar Green grabbed a rebound and banked it in just before the buzzer to nudge Phoenix past Golden State. The Suns trailed by 12 points with 8:46 to go but Connie Hawkins and Charlie Scott came through with eight points apiece.

The Warriors took a 124-123 lead with 12 seconds to go on a basket by Cazzie Russell and Phoenix called time out.

Battle of Nerves Mount, UCLA Knows Feeling

ST. LOUIS (AP) — This Midwest city was shrouded today in a war of nerves and basketball hysteria as Providence faced Memphis State and Indiana fought top-ranked UCLA in the semifinals prelude to Monday night's national collegiate championship showdown.

The battle of nerves centered around the coaches and players of the three teams which are underdogs and possessing dreams of debauching UCLA, winner of six consecutive national titles and a heavy favorite to annex number seven.

Bob Knight, the Hoosier coach, said he planned to "do the same things we have done in 38 games this season. I'm not smart enough to devise something tricky to play anybody."

Knights said he had had suggestions from people "from Fairbanks, Alaska, to Bangor, Maine on how to play UCLA," but that he "hasn't used any of them. I've been accused of a lot of things but not running the operation myself isn't one of them."

Knights denied sixth-ranked Indiana would employ the freeze against the Bruins but Coach John Wooden of UCLA predicted the Hoosiers would stall.

Wooden said he "wouldn't change our game to play anybody. We're not awed by being in the semifinals. Experience is a big thing. I have always said 'I'd rather have talent than experience.'"

Told that everybody was conceding the championship to UCLA, Wooden smiled and said: "That's a nice position. I wish the right people would concede it. The ones who are conceding us the championship are the ones who aren't playing."

Several of the UCLA players including star forward Keith Wilkes spent this morning taking final examinations under the supervision of a faculty member who accompanied the team.

Providence, fourth-ranked and an at-large selection, and Memphis State, Missouri Valley king, were to collide at 2:30 p.m. EST, but both were unconsciously letting the future-Monday night's finals.

"You dream about a game like UCLA," said Memphis State Coach Gene Bartow.

Paul Runge, son of Ed Runge, now retired and considered the finest ball and strike umpire in the American League, is getting a first hand look while working the Grapefruit League games. Another minor league umpire up for a thorough trial in the spring is Art Williams, a black, collected two singles, a double and a triple in five times at bat Friday in a 7-6, 10-inning loss to the Chicago White Sox at Saratoga.

"I've gone back to just trying to meet the ball," said Miller, who went to bat just 58 times in 89 games and hit .214 last season. "I hit a couple of home runs early last season. I'm not a home run hitter and have to try for base hits."

Manager Eddie Kasko agrees all the way. He said that Miller is going to have to come through at bat as well as in the field. Kasko added that Miller is making "better contact" with pitches since shortening his grip on the bat.

"I'm trying to prove he can hit consistently in the major leagues, can do everything else — run, throw an infield with exceptional ability."

He made a spectacular catch in the third inning against Chicago, leaping high and grabbing a long drive by Dick Allen after the ball had actually cleared the center field fence near the 400-foot mark. Later he robbed Ken Henderson of an extra base hit with a fine running catch.

"We've come to expect great catches by Rick," Kasko said. "Now we're hoping he will hit enough. He played in the Florida independent league last fall and now our batting coach, Don Lenhardt, has been working with him."

However, starter Lynn McClothen was raked for five runs on eight hits and four walks in five innings.

OAKLAND (AP) — Gary Croteau, nursing his third injury of the season, wasn't supposed to play but his two goals and one assist powered the California Golden Seals to a 7-4 National Hockey League victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Croteau, who hasn't played regularly since injuring his knee Dec. 9, took the place of Reggie Leach Friday while Leach attended a funeral in Canada.

Three days ago in Pittsburgh, Seals' Coach Fred Goheen told the injured Croteau his chances for playing were slim.

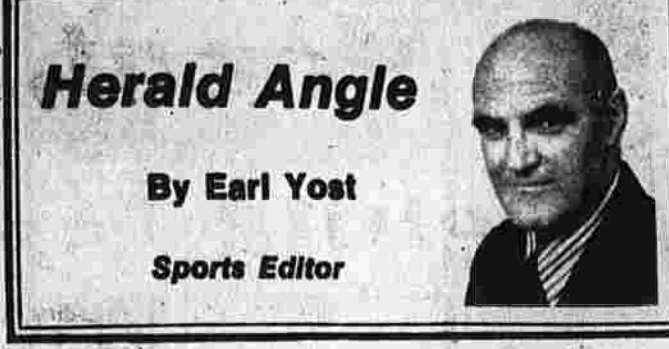

"I told Croteau that his situation was such that he may not get a great deal of work because of his leg," Glover said.

But Croteau and teammates Darryl Maize and Joey Johnston each scored goals in less than three minutes to break a 4-4 tie in the third period. The victory was the Seals' first over the Maple Leafs this season.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., "Baseball lost its greatest all-around ball player when Roberto Clemente was killed." Bill Virdon, second year manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Terry Tata, of Waterbury, one of the new members of the National League umpiring staff, is the step-son of Augie Guglielmo, also of Waterbury, and long-time N.L. arbiter. Guglielmo was fired because of his size as the N.L. wanted, at the time, only six-foot, men to comprise the staff. Tata, incidentally, is just under six feet but is colorful and has compiled the style of Al Barlick, current supervisor of the N.L. staff.

Royals' Rookies Hurl No-Hitter at Detroit

NEW YORK (AP) — "I'd rather have this happen on April 23 than on this one," said Kansas City rookie Steve Busby.

"I was thinking about the law of averages. Sometimes you follow a guy who's throwing a no-hitter and everything breaks loose," added another rookie, Doug Bird.

Their comments followed their combined no-hitter Friday, a 4-1 exhibition baseball victory over the Detroit Tigers.

It was the first time the Tigers had been held hitless since Joe Horlen of the Chicago White Sox did it in September of 1967.

Bird yielded the lone Detroit run in the seventh as Norm Cash walked and pinch runner Joe Mauer hit a single.

White Sox outfielder Carlos May suffered a pulled hamstring muscle in his right leg as Chicago defeated Boston 7-5 in 10 innings. He is expected to be sidelined 3-5 weeks.

Joe Pappione drove in three runs with a pair of homers in the Cardinals' 12 hits, Cirilo Zambrano pitched the five-run seventh that locked up the victory for Bob Gibson.

In other games, the Cincinnati Reds nipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2, the San Francisco Giants belted the California Angels 6-1, the Montreal Expos topped the Baltimore Orioles 2-1, the Cubs downed the Brewers 4-1 in a 7 1/2-inning contest and the New York Yankees nipped the Texas Rangers 3-2 in 10 innings.

Heart Condition Stops Josephson

Boston Red Sox veteran catcher Duane Josephson of the Boston Red Sox may be over.

Josephson, 30, was in Hahnemann Hospital today for 7-10 days of rest and medical tests following disclosure Friday that a chronic heart ailment had flared up again.

Dr. Thomas Tierney, club physician, said Josephson was suffering from pericarditis, an inflammation of the sac surrounding the heart. It was the third time in his baseball career that Josephson has suffered the ailment.

Tierney said Josephson's future baseball career is "uncertain."

"If I have it again, it will be the third time and I'll probably pack it in," Josephson, who will be 31 in June, was sidelined much of last season because of the heart trouble, but he was given a clean bill of health during the winter.

He caught nine innings in an exhibition game in Florida early this week before a routine electrocardiogram disclosed a new attack of the ailment. He then flew to Boston for tests.

The loss of Josephson would leave the Red Sox with two catchers: Carlton Fisk, the 1973 American League rookie of the year, and journeyman Bob Montgomery.

Olga Wins Hearts Call Extends Tour

NEW YORK (AP) — Olga Korbut, the tiny Russian teenager who grew into the Woman Athlete of the Year at the 1972 Olympic Games, won a trophy and the hearts of the nation's largest city Friday night.

It's like Saturday matinee at the movies," said an adult spectator in the youthful Madison Square Garden crowd of 19,894, a North American record for a gymnastics performance.

Presentation of the Babe Didrikson Zaharias Trophy was the climax of the performance by the Russian woman's gymnastics team. George Zaharias, a man-mountain of Great Sentiment several times Olga's size, presented her with the huge silver trophy.

Zaharias beat almost double leaning down to kiss the next Monday.

The Garden performance originally was to have been the finale of the Russian team's American tour, but Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago made a telephone call to Soviet premier Alexei Kosygin, who agreed to let the team stay over for an appearance in Chicago next Monday.

Paul Casanova knocked in the Braves' winning run with a two-run shot in the seventh inning, gave the Indians their victory over the Cubs in a rain-shortened game.

Fred Stanley's single and Johnny Callison's double in the bottom of the 10th inning gave the New York Yankees a 3-2 victory over the Texas Rangers.

White Sox outfielder Carlos May suffered a pulled hamstring muscle in his right leg as Chicago defeated Boston 7-5 in 10 innings. He is expected to be sidelined 3-5 weeks.

Cochran's Skiing Set Downhill Showdown

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — A French sweep of Friday's World Cup events and a strong showing by American Bobby Cochran helped to set up today's showdown for the men's season championship in the international Alpine skiing series.

Gustavo Thoeni of Italy, seeking a third straight title, went to the starting gate of the Heavenly Valley giant slalom course with a four-point lead, 155-151, over second-place David Zwilling of Austria.

Zwilling gained on Thoeni Friday with four points for a sixth-place finish in the slalom won by Jean-Noel Augert of France. Thoeni picked up a single point for finishing 10th.

ATLANTA — Rod Laver of Australia defeated Dick Stockton of San Antonio, Tex., 6-4, 4-6, 7-5 and advanced to the semifinals of the $50,000 Peachtree Tennis Classic.

Attendance for Grapefruit League areas is down again this spring despite excellent weather.

MINNESOTA TWINS

American League West

PROSPECTUS: The way the Twins stars are going, Calvin Griffith could put some of the 18 relatives on the executive payroll, supply them with field uniforms and come out ahead.

Harmon Killebrew is 36. Jim Perry is 36. Jim Calet is 33. Tony Oliva is 31. They even had a rookie, Bob Durbin, who was 27 but the Twins have not been resting on laurels of old.

They have traded out several of some young players approved but with potential. It is up to Frank Quilley, only enough to put him on the roster on 21 to put him on the roster on 21 to put him on the roster on 21.

FITCHING: A strong point and could get stronger. There are 12 men who have a chance for the starting rotation. Bert Blyleven (17-17), Dick Woodson (14-14), Jim Perry (13-16) and Jim Kaat (10-2) are the best bats from last season.

OUTFIELD: What about right-fielder Tony Oliva? Only his doctors know. The three-time batting champion played only 10 games last season, and underwent a knee operation. Durbin (10 RBIs to lead club) in center. Maybe recently obtained Larry Hyde in left. And maybe a youngster, like Steve Brye or Jim Holt or rookie Mike Adams. Durbin is 32, who batted .

Ken Maynard, Cowboy Star, Dies

WOODLAND HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Old-time cowboy actor Ken Maynard, the last of the "Big Four" of early Western movie heroes, is dead at 77. Officials at the Motion Picture Country Hospital here said the veteran of some 300 movies died Friday night. Maynard was admitted Jan. 18 for treatment of nutritional deficiency, arthritis and general physical deterioration.

At the height of his success, Maynard netted as much as $8,000 a week when he was operating his own company. Rising costs and television wiped out the program Western after World War II, and Maynard dropped out of films after 1947, playing only a few minor roles and making guest appearances on television. Maynard had lived alone in a tiny trailer in San Fernando, Calif., since the death of his wife, Bertha, in 1969. His brother, Kermit, 73, an actor in scores of Westerns who never achieved top stardom, died in 1970.

Gray Nomination Hearings Recessed

WASHINGTON (AP) — In an apparent strategy move, Senate supporters of L. Patrick Gray III to be FBI director have put hearings on his nomination in to a week of limbo to gauge administration support. The move came as the White House said once again it supports his nomination. A Senate Judiciary Committee spokesman Friday said that the hearings will not be resumed before the week after next. Indications were that Gray's supporters are waiting for a signal on whether the administration was going "to put some muscle" into seeking votes for Gray or was washing its hands of him. But at the Florida White House, an administration spokesman said there is no intention to withdraw the nomination. "The President has submitted Mr. Gray's nomination. The President supports that nomination," he said. Gray, acting FBI director since last May, has testified he

CIC Gives Library Its Top Priority

The number one priority for South Windsor is the construction of the proposed public library according to the Capital Improvement Commission (CIC). The CIC made known its list of priorities with no protest from those who attended a public hearing. Other priorities were, in order, the construction of a recreation complex, road reconstruction, and the building of a central fire headquarters. The CIC recommended that part of the financing for the library should come from the capital reserve fund and part from a short-term loan. The library already has some money from the sale of the Sudd Memorial Library building and revenue from trust funds for the proposed building. The commission was opposed to funding the library by bonding. The CIC set aside $80,000 to build the recreation complex and $100,000 for what it termed the "vital" need to bring heavily traveled roads up to present day standards. The CIC also voted to let $320,000 accrue in the reserve fund for the central fire headquarters. The Fire Dept.

does not want the money until 1976-77. The CIC also listed the following possible future needs of the town in no order of priority: the expansion of the Town Hall, additions to the schools, a Connecticut River boat launch on land donated to the town at the end of Vibert Rd. for emergencies on the river and for recreation facilities, and the construction of industrial roads as an inducement to industry. Also the construction of sidewalks in residential areas to reduce the number of school buses, sewer extensions, wetlands protection and acquisitions, town ownership of school buses as an alternative to leasing, and beautification program on Sullivan Ave. The CIC also recommended that $250,000 be spent each year through 1978-79 for highway reconstruction.

Police Report

MANCHESTER
Wayne J. Mainville, 22, of 142 Spruce St., was charged Thursday on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant with possession of a controlled substance with intent to sell, illegal possession of a controlled substance and illegal possession or sale of a controlled substance. The arrest was made by the detective bureau after a search was made at his home. Police say the search netted two bags of a substance suspected to be marijuana, six small bottles of tablets identified as phenobarbital, and a small quantity of pink tablets of an unidentified nature. Mainville's court date is not available at this time. A car operated by Steven Hope, 20, of East Hartford, struck a stone wall on Spring St. near Case Mt. early this morning. Hope and his three passengers were taken to Manchester Memorial Hospital where they received emergency treatment and were released. Police have charged Hope with reckless driving. Court date is April 9.

VERNON
Merrill V. Champlin, 20, of 46 Prospect St., Rockville, was charged Friday on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant with threatening and first-degree reckless endangerment. Police say the arrest was made in connection with an alleged incident of the accused threatening a person with a gun. Champlin is being held in lieu of a $1,000 cash bond. If bond is not posted he will be presented in court Monday at Manchester. Janet Gardner, no age given, of 1179 Avery St., South Windsor, was charged Friday night with failure to grant right of way in connection with a two-car accident on Rt. 83 in Vernon. Police say the Gardner vehicle was leaving a private parking lot on Rt. 83 when it was in collision with a northbound vehicle. No court date was available at this time.

Mrs. Schaffer Escapes Injury In Accident

NEW HAVEN (AP) — A New Haven man has been charged with violating three traffic laws in connection with a six-car accident Friday night from which Connecticut Secretary of the State Gloria Schaffer escaped unharmed, according to police. James Moore of New Haven was charged with one count each of reckless driving and failure to drive in the proper lane and with two counts of failure to obey overhead sign signals, police said. He was released pending arraignment. No one was injured in the accident, police said. Officers quoted witnesses as saying that an automobile crashed two red lights on Sherman Avenue, at the intersections with Whalley Avenue and Edgewood Avenue. In the Sherman-Edgewood intersection, police said, the vehicle was struck by a state owned car carrying Mrs. Schaffer and her husband, Eugene. Police said Eugene was the driver. After the first car was struck by the Schaffer vehicle, it struck a third car, spun counterclockwise to hit a fourth and then hit a fifth, according to police. The fourth car was forced into a sixth car, police said. The fourth, fifth and sixth cars were parked, police said. The first car and the Schaffer car had to be towed from the scene, according to police. Police said the accident occurred in a 25 mile-per-hour speed zone and that weather conditions were clear.

Posh Diner To Join Meat Boycott

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Phillip Romano, 32, is used to the high cost of eating. He once served a meal to King Hussein of Jordan and nine others which cost more than $4,000. But the Palm Beach restaurant owner says that starting April 1 he will join a week-long national boycott and stop serving beef in his plush eatery to protest rising prices. "I don't know what effect my decision will have upon my business volume," Romano said Friday. "But I feel that restaurants should join housewives in the boycott to reduce meat prices. I hope that some of my customers will come to my aid and continue to support me."

Efrem Zimbalist Jr.

In his personal life and on screen, Efrem Zimbalist Jr. projects an urbane charm that at first thought would be more suited to drawing room comedy and drama than to the portrayal of an implacable foe of evildoers. Yet in his acting career two roles stand out — a private investigator in "77 Sunset Strip" for seven years, and an equal number of seasons as Inspector Lewis Erskine of "The F.B.I."

The son of famed concert violinist Efrem Zimbalist and the late opera star Alma Gluck, Zimbalist was born in New York. He was educated at the Fay School in Southboro, Mass., St. Paul's School in Concord, N.H., and Yale University.

Zimbalist left Yale to join the Army during World War II. Serving in Europe, he was wounded while leading an infantry platoon through Heurtgen Forest. While on recuperative leave in Paris, he met director-producer Joshua Logan, who suggested that the young lieutenant consider an acting career.

After Germany surrendered, Zimbalist returned to New York and enrolled in the Neighborhood Playhouse. His first stage appearance was with Spencer Tracy in "The Rugged Path." Later, he performed in four plays with the American Repertory Theater.

In 1950 Zimbalist and Chandler Cowles produced Gian-Carlo Menotti's "The Medium," "The Telephone," and "The Consul." Later that year, his wife died, and Zimbalist went to the Curtis Institute of Music, Philadelphia, which his father headed. In the four years he spent there, Zimbalist assisted his father and composed music.

Zimbalist returned to the stage with a stock company and soon made his TV debut. In 1955, he returned to Broadway in "Fallen Angels." He was persuaded by Joshua Logan to go to Hollywood and try for a starring part in a Warner Bros. movie, but it turned out he was too young for the part. Instead, the studio signed him to a contract and cast him in four movies before starring him in the successful "77 Sunset Strip."

While doing the series, Zimbalist appeared in motion pictures, including "Home Before Dark," "The Chapman Report," "By Love Possessed," and "A Fever in the Blood." More recently, he starred in "Wait Until Dark" with Audrey Hepburn.

Zimbalist, married to the former Stephanie Spaulding, lives in Encino, Calif. He plays golf, is an expert skier and horseman, and plays the violin and piano.

International Children's Book Day Is April 2

Hans Christian Andersen never doubted that he would become a success. He once said, "First you go through such an awful lot, and then you become famous!"

Andersen made many drawings on his travels. He also enjoyed making paper cuttings like the one below.

Children of today enjoy one of Andersen's fairy tales.

International Children's Book Day is April 2. It is celebrated each year throughout the world on Hans Christian Andersen's birthday.

Hans Christian Andersen was one of the greatest story tellers who ever lived. Although he wrote plays, poems and novels, he is best known for his fairy tales.

Early Life

His life was much like a fairy tale. He was born in Odense, Denmark in 1805. His mother was a washwoman, his father a shoemaker. As a child, young Hans Christian did not like school and at the age of 14, left home to seek his fortune in Copenhagen.

Andersen wanted to become an actor. Although he was not successful, he did meet a rich man who became his patron and sent him to school. He finished his schooling when he was 23 years old and began to write.

In 1835 he published his first successful novel and also a volume of fairy tales. His fame quickly spread throughout Europe. He was honored by kings and princes in many countries.

Fairy Tales

Andersen never meant his fairy tales to be just for children. He wanted them to be enjoyed by the whole family. He even objected when the plans for a statue showed him surrounded by children. He wanted to be remembered as more than a children's writer.

Personality

From his humble beginnings, it is easy to understand why he was a very thrifty man all his life. He loved attention, and often read aloud from his own works. Although he traveled a great deal, he would arrive at the station hours before the train was to leave. He also carried a rope with him so he could escape from a hotel window in case of fire.

His Loves

Andersen proposed to several women but was rejected by all of them and never married. When he died in 1875 he was carrying a letter from his first love, a woman he had met more than 40 years before. According to his wishes, this letter was burned, unread.

He reminds us of one of his most famous characters, the Ugly Duckling. Perhaps this is what makes him one of the most loved authors of all times.

Mini Tour: Denmark

Denmark is a small country in the northern part of Europe. The country has a king, but he does not have much power. Danes are famous for their beautiful design in furniture and silver. They are also well known for their dairy products. Since no Dane lives more than 30 miles from the sea or some body of water, they are great fishermen and sailors. Danish Vikings were brave, fierce men who sailed the seas hundreds of years ago.
