

MCC Holds Courses On Model Cities

The directors of the 27 Hartford Model Cities Projects are attending a management training program at Manchester Community College (MCC). The program began on Tuesday, April 3, and will continue on Tuesdays each week through May 22. The Model Cities Training Institute, located at the college, is acting as host.

The management program was conceived by the Model Cities Training Institute, itself a model cities project, in response to interest in management training that had been expressed by the project directors. The course is intended to improve the effectiveness of the model cities program by increasing the effectiveness of the directors.

The course is divided into 7 two-hour meetings on different issues. A guest speaker attends each meeting.

Joseph Harrington, executive director of the Ebony Business League, was the guest speaker at the first two meetings, the first on management, and the second on budgeting and accounting.

On April 17, Thomas Connors, acting director of the Division of Social Science and Public Service at MCC, will speak about federal agencies and model cities.

Other guest speakers and their topics will be: April 24, Armand Poenza, acting Model Cities deputy director, on city government; and David Sherwood, Community Renewal Team program development director, on grant applications.

May 1, Stephen Cassano, professor of sociology at MCC, on urban sociology.

Wednesday, May 9 and Tuesday, May 15, Charlene O'Brien, professor of communications at the University of Connecticut, on communications.

May 22, James O. Tatro, director of the Division of Summer Session and Extension Services at MCC, in a rap session with faculty-back from the participants.

A special guest speaker at the May 9 meeting will be Hartford Mayor George Athanson. All meetings are held in the hotel and food service management training laboratory in the student center building on the main campus of the college.

Columbia PZC Asks Redesign Of Subdivision

VIRGINIA CARLSON Correspondent Tel. 228-9224

The Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC) held a hearing on a 15-lot subdivision on Pine St. known as Wildwood, owned by Mrs. Shirley Sonnichsen of Madison.

A letter was read from Paul Schur, principal sanitarian for the state, to Dr. John Wisely, medical director, which said there were several lots with water problems.

The Conservation Committee also submitted a letter on the subdivision dated April 9, stating that the land had been reviewed by commission members Wilbur Fletcher and Austin Doecher who said that due to high water tables on Lots 1 through 6, those lots should be reviewed very critically before approval.

The CC letter also said that Lots 7 through 13 seem to be basically suitable for use as residential lots. It is recommended that the subdivision be approved with certain conditions.

The PZC agreed that Mrs. Sonnichsen's engineers must redesign the subdivision and present revised plans by the PZC's meeting May 8 or the PZC would have no alternative but to turn down several lots in the subdivision, due to the wet conditions.

In other business, the PZC was presented with a formal request to change a portion of Rt. 6 from residential to commercial by Ed. Elizabeth Hutchins, representing John Naumec on Rt. 6. Naumec's request was to expand the residential zone to include commercial establishments.

The PZC hired Mrs. Marilyn Good, of Cheshire Bridge Rd., as clerk replacing Mrs. Carol Ann Goode of Yeomans Rd., who resigned.

Another new business will be Superior Auto on Rt. 6, he said. The PZC hired Mrs. Marilyn Good of Cheshire Bridge Rd. as clerk replacing Mrs. Carol Ann Goode of Yeomans Rd., who resigned.

He added that if provisions are not made for business, the town would become a bedroom community with "more and more children and more schools and higher taxes."

West must take the ace. Now South is home.

South would be just as safe if the ace and queen of clubs were reversed. East would play low, since it would be fatal to put out the queen. Now West would have to lead a new suit, and South would have time to lead another club to force out the ace.

Daily Question: Partner opens with 1-N-T (16 to 18 points), and the next playing card, you hold: Spades, Q-8-5 Hearts, K-9-7-6-3 Diamonds, 8-5-2 Clubs, A-5.

What do you say? Answer: Bid three hearts. This asks partner to bid four hearts with three or more hearts; but 3NT with only two hearts. Since you have 9 points in high cards, you know that the combined count must be 25 to 27 points, which ought to be enough for game.

Won't Play Queen. Will East put up his queen? Not on your life. He will play low in the hope of getting an essential trick with his queen. South plays the jack, and

They used to be called "old folks homes," and usually were thought of as drab, dingy places for the aged poor. Today, many "old folks homes" have been replaced by modern "nursing homes" which provide medical attention, a pleasant atmosphere and personal care for older people who can no longer care for themselves. Since the quality of atmosphere and service varies widely, however, the selection of a nursing home can still be a problem.

Anyone For A Bunny Hug?

I don't intend to turn this into a classified ad column, but it just happens that I know of two beautiful bunny rabbits who are in need of a good home. They're free for asking, and are available immediately, just in time to put in some lucky child's Easter basket.

Right now these rabbits are in my backyard, so I know them very well and can tell you all their good qualities. First, they're pretty. One is light brown, with a white cotton tail and long ears (but I guess you know that.) The other rabbit is brown and white with luxurious whiskers and an engaging smile.

They are very pleasant pets. They don't make any noise except a "crunch crunch" when they eat. They're soft and cuddly. And when they hop around in bunny fashion, young children will squeal with delight.

Any list of the rabbits' good qualities should certainly include their eating habits. They require just a handful of rabbit food a day and will consume with enthusiasm all your wilted lettuce and carrots.

Child psychologists seem to agree that the responsibility of caring for pets is good for children. I can vouch for the fact that cleaning out the rabbit hutch is truly a character-building experience! By the way, the rabbits come with their own hutch (it's newly painted and very sturdy.) And, I know a man who would be happy to throw in a 10-pound bag of rabbit food to clinch the deal.

Now, you're probably wondering why, if these bunnies are so pretty, cuddly, quiet and easy to care for, they are in need of a new home. Well, it's a long complicated story. Actually a case of mistaken identity. You see, when we first bought the bunnies, they came in individual cartons marked "Patty" and "Penny." It was just recently that we realized one of those cartons should have been marked "Peter."

'Miss East Of The River' To Be Selected Thursday

The "Miss East of the River" beauty contest will be Thursday evening at the Country Squire Restaurant, Rt. 33, Ellington. Diners will be 5 to 8 by reservation, and the judging will begin at 9 sharp.

The contest is sponsored by the "East of the River Association" in cooperation with radio station WHP, 1220 AM, and the Country Squire Restaurant. Composed of a group of local businessmen and merchants, the association encourages the theme, "East of the River - It is All Here."

Of the 116 applicants submitting photographs, a panel of judges reduced the number to 17 finalists. These young ladies range in age from 18 to 22. The tallest girl is 5 foot 8 inches and the shortest is 5 foot and 1/2 inches, and they all reside east of the river.

Contestants include Margaret Carrier, Darlene Drown, Karen Gilmore, Debbie Gray, Linda Pilver, Gayle Lorenzer, Nashes Rowlett, Lee Scott, and Sandra Tomczak, all of Manchester; Marina Armstrong and Cory Culling, both of Glastonbury; Mary Ceronimo, Diane Reddy, and Karen Shannons, all of East Hartford; Therese Piele and Norine Lavoie, both of South Windsor; and Robbye Phelps, Vernon.

Each contestant will be judged on figure, poise, personality, fashion sense, modeling ability and beauty. They will parade past the AM, and the Country Squire Restaurant. In the first parade, they will wear a long gown, mini, maxi or pant suit and will approach the bandstand, where Jeff Jacobs, master of ceremony, will ask each finalist one question chosen at random.

The second parade will select six grand finalists who will participate in a bathing suit parade, after which "Miss East of the River" will be named. The winner will receive a crown and a home entertainment stereo system. She will also receive a portfolio of photographs taken by a professional photographer.

Runner-up will receive a television set and third place winner will get a clock radio. Each girl participating will be given a gift to commemorate the occasion.

Dr. John Basile of Hartford, national president of the organization and guest of honor at the dinner-dance, spoke briefly on goals of the club and mentioned club successes in scholarship financing and support of legislation to help the needy.

Bolton Courses Complicate High School Schedule

DONNA HOLLAND, Correspondent, 646-0375. Norman Shaw, high school principal, said that scheduling of students this year will be different from the past five years. The addition of English mini courses, need for labs in physics and chemistry, and a new course in practical business have so complicated scheduling that it is necessary to go back to the students for priorities. Many staff members have spent hours making a master schedule that permits the greatest amount of choice for each student.

Adjournment Delay Sought

HARTFORD (AP) - Republican legislative leaders should not try to enact a 1973-74 budget and adjourn by May 15, before the next sales tax figures are released, two Democratic legislators said Monday.

Sen. Louis S. Cutello of Waterbury and Rep. James J. Coyne of Southington, ranking Democrats on the legislature's Finance Committee, said that information should be considered when making final spending plans for the state.

The selection will meet tonight at 7 at the Town Hall. A town hearing on the Board of Education budget will be held tomorrow at 9 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Correction

The Herald erroneously reported that the Bolton general fund budget would be presented at a public hearing Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Community Hall. The town general fund budget was presented last night at a public hearing.

Kindergarten Registrations

As 64 children have presently registered for kindergarten, there will be three sessions next year.

Junior Woman's Club members administered an initial screening instrument entitled "The Readiness Checklist" to any child whose parents requested it.

Bids for school transportation will be opened and tallied at a special board meeting tonight at 8 in the Center School Library.

Few Raise Questions Over Rham Budget

Sharkey said that the board requests additional staff to handle the anticipated increase in enrollment, bringing in more children with learning disabilities. He also mentioned that some reports from the Board of Education presentation of a budget request of $1,693,856 for 1973-1974 - a $225,522 increase over the current budget.

If this budget is approved at the May 7 district budget meeting, it will represent, according to the latest percentages of enrollments for each town, an increase of $118,506.30 in Hebron's levy, $39,846.29 in Marlborough's levy, and $48,875.41 in Andover's levy.

Recap In a recap of the budget, Mrs. Imodile Richards, board chairman, informed the group of the recent accreditation report received from the New England Association of Secondary Schools giving Rham High School a two-year membership in the association.

Questions Very few questions were asked during the board's two-hour presentation, and those asked dealt with teacher's salaries and the addition of two learning disability teachers to the staff.

Pete Dallaire, selectman from Hebron, questioned the increase of 11 teachers to handle an anticipated increased enrollment of 140 students next year.

Robert Sharkey, the board's representative on teacher negotiations, said you cannot "divide one by one" in a situation like this.

Factors such as double sessions where teachers cannot be expected to teach the entire day (7:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.) and the addition of teachers in areas where "we are right on the limit of what we thought practical for teachers to handle" must be taken into consideration, Sharkey said. The necessity of two learning disability teachers in addition to the one presently on the staff was questioned by Tony Limoncelli, a member of Marlborough's board of finance.

About Town

Members of Campbell Council, KoC, will meet tonight at 7:30 at the KoC Home and proceed to the John F. Tierney Funeral Home, 219 W. Center St., to pay respects to the late George E. Willard, a member of the council.

Lakota Council, Degree of Pochontas, will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Odd Fellows Hall for installation of officers. Refreshments will be served.

When you switch on in 1983 will we be ready?

We're working on it today. It's part of our job to keep a watchful eye on growth patterns in the area we serve and to plan at least 10 years ahead to meet them with adequate supplies of electricity. For example, we're building today to make sure there'll be enough electricity for schools under construction... new hospitals... for the more than 200 thousand additional dwelling units that may be built in the Northeast Utilities service area in the next ten years... for environmental clean-up programs... and for the new jobs our growing population requires. In the next two years the companies of the Northeast Utilities system will add close to two million kilowatts of electric generating capacity to serve our customers. Our new Northfield Mountain pumped-storage hydroelectric station in Massachusetts and a new oil-fired unit at our Middletown, Connecticut, plant will be completed before the end of this year. A second nuclear unit at our Millstone Nuclear Power Station in Waterford, Connecticut, is scheduled for 1974. Planning for these generating facilities was started years ago in anticipation of requirements that are almost upon us. Today we're continuing to plan ahead, getting ready to serve the next decade's power needs. While dependable energy supplies are indispensable to this area's well being, they can't be taken for granted by any of us. It's our responsibility to make sure there'll be enough electricity. But we must all share the responsibility of using America's limited energy supplies wisely.

Meskill Discourages Utility Hike Request

By DAN HALL, Associated Press Writer
HARTFORD (AP) — Gov. Thomas J. Meskill used the weight of his office today to bid to discourage two of Connecticut's largest utilities from raising gas and electric rates.

The proposed ordinance also calls for a fine of not more than $100 from a person who constructs a new driveway or replaces one without obtaining a permit. Each day that the violation continues will be considered a separate offense.

Hospital Set For Abortions

Manchester Memorial Hospital will make facilities available as soon as possible to doctors who will perform abortions during the first three months of a pregnancy, said an MMH spokesman today.

"In our opinion," said Bert Dittus, director of public relations, "the Supreme Court decision relative to Connecticut's abortion law makes it legally plain that the matter of abortion is a doctor-patient decision."

"Our only role," said Dittus, "is that we make facilities available and the same as for any other illness, injury or treatment."

Hospitals in Hartford, Bridgeport, Norwich and Stamford say they are preparing to handle abortions as soon as legal questions stemming from recent court rulings on the issue are settled.

But other institutions report in an Associated Press survey that they still have no plans to perform abortions, saying they are waiting for a ruling from the high court's ruling on a three judge federal panel in Hartford reaffirms its 1972 ruling that the latest Connecticut abortion law is unconstitutional.

Hartford Hospital has announced plans to open a clinic for routine abortions, but refused on Monday to hear a Connecticut appeal to an earlier court decision that severely

Watergate Probe Gains Momentum

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Watergate investigation is gaining momentum after President Nixon abandoned the blanket claim of infidelity for White House aides.

Nixon said Tuesday he will send his aides to testify publicly as demanded by Senate investigators preparing for hearings next month.

He said he launched a new presidential inquiry into the matter last month, after the time Watergate burglar James McCord began telling his story to a Senate committee and a federal grand jury.

This time the President's inquiry is being conducted by persons outside the White House staff, some of whose members reportedly have been implicated in McCord's secret testimony.

Nixon Lifts Limit On Oil Imports

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon removed limits today on oil imports and asked Congress to end federal price regulation on new supplies of natural gas.

In a message to Congress, Nixon said oil imports could bring in as much oil as permitted under their present quotas without paying any further tariffs. However, he said they may import oil in excess of their 1973 quota levels upon payment of a fee.

He said the tariff-free imports will be phased out over seven years until all oil imports are governed by the fee schedule.

Phosphate Fight Goes To Senate

HARTFORD (AP) — The struggle over Connecticut's ban on phosphate detergents has bubbled over into the Senate after a House vote to delay the ban from going into force.

The 85-58 vote Tuesday was largely along party lines, with the majority Republicans well in control. The bill would delay the ban on the detergent and would order a 10-month study of phosphate and non-phosphate detergents.

Republicans supporting the delay pointed to reports that children had died from eating phosphate substitutes and that some non-phosphate detergents weakened the fire resistance of clothing.

But Minority Leader at Large William R. Hatchford, D-Danbury, claimed the bill was "the most highly lobbied bill we've had this session" and said the lobbying pressure came from phosphate detergent manufacturers.

Rep. Harold G. Harlow, R-Litchfield, said that "the detriment to the people of Connecticut will be much worse" if the legislative insists on subcommittee hearings on the beginning of 1972 could have a

Weicker Says Nixon Wants Facts Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., said Tuesday that President Nixon's decision to let his aides testify before Senate investigators probably was aimed at airing the facts rather than "taking heat" off the White House.

"I don't think it's a question of taking heat off," Weicker said in an interview. "It gives the White House a capability with its investigation and the Senate a capability with its investigation."

Weicker, a member of the Senate committee probing the Watergate case, said he was surprised by the House proposal to let Nixon's aides testify before the Senate.

But Sen. Frank W. Clark of Waterbury, one of five Democrats supporting postponement of the ban, maintained that "no one seems to know exactly what phosphates are doing and what the substitutes are." A federal report on phosphates likely next year, he noted.

Tax Refund May Lag

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service says late-filing taxpayers will wait at least six to seven weeks before any refund checks due them are put in the mail.

An IRS spokesman said Tuesday that the majority of tax refund checks should be processed and sent out by the end of May.

But some may take longer, so any taxpayer who has failed to receive an expected refund by that time should wait until June before contacting the IRS service center where he filed his return, the agency added.

"Let the whole story be told. That's what's important," Weicker said. "I think it is important that we make sure that neither Congress nor the President impose any sort of restriction which cuts out a portion of the American people hearing the truth."
