ECHS Gets MIT Award

More than 1,500 women have been graduated from MIT since Mrs. Richard's graduation. Women now account for about ten per cent of the undergraduate student population at MIT.

The 62 high schools selected to receive the MIT award are located in 16 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Canada, Turkey, and Switzerland.

The only other school in Connecticut to receive the award was the Norwich Free Academy in Norwich.

East Catholic High School in Manchester is one of 62 high schools which has received an award from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for sending outstanding women students to that institution.

East Catholic was selected to receive the Ellen Swallow Richards Honor Award, which was started by MIT as part of the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the graduation of the first woman from MIT.

The award certificate, signed by MIT President Jerome Wiesner, cites East Catholic for "exceptional service, by education and counsel, to women who aspire to careers in the professions."

Ellen Swallow Richards, who graduated from MIT in 1873, achieved world recognition as an authority and teacher in food and sanitary chemistry. She founded the field now known as home economics.

WALPOLE, Mass. (AP) — Riot-equipped state troopers secured Walpole state prison this morning following a night of inmate rioting in which five prisoners were injured and the prison was heavily damaged, state police said.

The troopers, armed with riot shields, teargas canisters and pepper gas, entered the prison at 6:38 a.m. and had locked all the inmates in their cells by 8:30 a.m., a state police spokesman said.

The inmates set fires in the prison chapel and auditorium, smashed through walls leading up to the cafeteria and destroyed locking systems on some of the cells, Correction

Department spokesman John C. MacLean said.

"The kitchen was gutted," a police spokesman said. "There's a tremendous amount of damage."

Five inmates were wounded by plastic bullets when guards tried to get them back in their cells earlier, state police said.

Inmate Robert Glazier, 33, received emergency treatment at Massachusetts General Hospital for stab wounds in the chest, a hospital spokesman said, but officials were not sure how he had been injured.

Fires from the town of Walpole entered the prison about 5:30 a.m., a spokesman said, and were able to contain the fires within a short time.

The inmates refused to return to their cells Friday night, and the shutdown would begin on Sunday night 10 o'clock

Acting prison Supt. Walter A. Waitkevich notified the inmates by memorandum Friday that the shutdown would begin on Sunday night 10 o'clock.

Waitkevich said the shutdown would be looking for riot drugs and weapons.

It will be the first shutdown since former Supt. Raymond Porelle held inmates in their cells from last Dec. 29 to Feb. 8. Porelle later resigned under pressure.

Cox Named Watergate Prosecutor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The appointment of a Democrat and Harvard law professor as government prosecutor of the Watergate case has drawn favorable comment from key senators.

Archibald Cox, 51, accepted the assignment from Atty. Gen. designate Elliot L. Richardson Friday and told a Boston news conference he would conduct a wide-ranging investigation. If the evidence leads to President Nixon, it will be reported, he said.

Cox's appointment came during the second day of the Senate select Watergate committee's nationally televised hearings on the scandal. It was reported by Sen. Edward Brooke, R-Mass., and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and Hugh Scott, R-Pa., said that "at this point there's no evidence whatsoever that the President had knowledge of the break-in or cover-up."

Sen. Humphrey and Scott said in New York there was insufficient evidence to warrant impeachment proceedings against the President. Scott said that "at this point there's no evidence whatsoever that the President had knowledge of the break-in or cover-up."

Screen Articles For Crafts Fair

Members of the screening committee decide which craft items are to be exhibited at the fair-on-the-green crafts fair being held in connection with the Manchester Sequimcentennial Week festivities.

Acting prison Supt. Walter A. Waitkevich notified the inmates by memorandum Friday that the shutdown would begin on Sunday night 10 o'clock.

Waitkevich said the shutdown would be looking for riot drugs and weapons.

It will be the first shutdown since former Supt. Raymond Porelle held inmates in their cells from last Dec. 29 to Feb. 8. Porelle later resigned under pressure.

News for Senior Citizens

by Wally Fortin

Hello there! Well here I am back again, and this week we've got lots to talk about and let's get going.

First of all this coming week is our "Big Week To Remember." It's in conjunction with May being designated as Senior Citizen's Month, and here in Manchester Mayor Jack Thompson has proclaimed the week of May 21 through 25 as our Senior Week.

It all begins real early Monday morning as we'll have a senior nine-hole golf tournament starting at 8:30. This year the gang decided to play at the Minnechaug course, and so all golfers interested in playing in the tournament should report at the course shortly after 8.

By the way, this will also be the morning our golf league will officially begin. So we'll be killing two birds at one time as the results of the games will count for the league as well as the league. Let me point out that you can play in the tourney without being a member of our league.

Back at the Center it will be bingo with some special prizes in the morning, in the afternoon bingo with some nice prizes.

Big Dance

In the evening we will have our Big Dance, and along with the live and lively times from Marion Stephens and her orchestra, we'll have nice goodies and prizes, and the evening will be real special because we will be honoring a special person, Mrs. Nellie Moran, who is our Senior Center's No. 1 member, and really a wonderful person at the young age of 92.

Then Tuesday we'll spend the morning setting up a real display of arts and crafts in the morning. In the afternoon we'll have a craft show at the Center. We'll have our own painting, crewel work, and other craft items made by our talented members. In the afternoon we'll allow some bowlers to play in the morning. We'll have a prize in our bowling tournament, at the Parkade Lane.

In the evening we'll have a banquet for all the participants of both the golf and bowling tournament. Our guests will be Bernie Giovino, manager of the Parkade Lane, and the main speaker will be our good friend Earl Yost, sports editor of the Manchester Evening Herald.

Guests For Dinner

Then comes Wednesday, and this is the day we invite all our volunteers, including those who have worked in our Meals-on-Wheels program. They along with the Board of Directors will be our guests for our dinner, and then we'll all meet upstairs to honor them. Also, the big deal of the afternoon will be the banquet at Suffolk Downs race track.

The final day, Friday, we'll have special bingo games in the morning, a pancake festival at noon, a rest period as the Community Center friends and family will be here for a day and night and military what card parties with our very dear friends Edward and Mary McKeever, the card pros who once again, as they have for so many years, donate their time to run the games for us. Oh yes, there will be some goodies to munch on. Our sincere thanks to Robert Doggart, chairman, and his helpers Mary Tivnan, Georgia Vince, and Albert Bourret for the many beautiful prizes.

KNOCK OUT ENTRY OF DANGEROUS FOE

ALFRED SHEINWOLD

When you must develop two suits in a notrump contract, it is usually wise to begin with the suit in which the dangerous opponent has an entry. Picking this suit is not always as easy as breathing, but it is easy enough if you know what to think about.

Opening lead - Two of Hearts

West opened the door of hearts and South captured the king with his ace. South's only problem was whether to go first after the spades or the diamonds.

If East had the king of diamonds and the ace of spades as well as South's king of hearts, West had the king of diamonds, any line of play would work. The problem was to play the hand successfully if East had the king of diamonds but not the ace of spades.

South must begin with diamonds. Let's see how this works. South tries the diamond finesse at second trick, losing to the king. East returns a heart and South returns the trick.

Knocks Out Ace

East returns another heart and South wins. Declarer must not go after the spades, knocking out West's ace. West cannot lead a heart. South easily regains the lead and wins the rest of the trick.

Now see what happens if South leads a spade at the second trick. West rises at once, knocking out West's ace. West cannot lead a heart. South easily regains the lead and wins the rest of the trick.

So what happens if South leads a spade at the second trick. West rises at once, knocking out West's ace. West cannot lead a heart. South easily regains the lead and wins the rest of the trick.

Five on Town Team Study Drug Abuses

Manchester is one of 30 state towns chosen to participate in the federally-funded "Help Communities Help Themselves" program sponsored by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare being conducted now through May 25 by the Drug Dependence Institute on the Yale University campus, New Haven.

Selected by the federal department for receipt of a financial grant award to cover expenses of the project, Manchester and the other towns were chosen on the basis of local program efforts to meet the problem of drug abuse.

Sister Mary Patricia Cassidy, coordinator of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine at the Church of the Assumption, which works with youth and families in an educational and problem solving effort.

Miss Helen Ramsey, 30 Lewis St., a sophomore class member of East Catholic High School and a former member of "Smarteens";

John W. Mrosek of 143 Boulder St., a sophomore class member at Manchester High School, photographer for the High School World, member of the high school tennis team, swim team, and a member of IOH.

Upon their return to Manchester, the team will meet with and report to D.A.M. and serve as a catalyst in the creation and development of new approaches to handling local drug related problems.

Members of the Manchester team are:

James Breitenfeld, Drug Center director at Crossroads,

Shrine Hospital Day

Tomorrow, Shriners throughout the world, will note International Shrine Hospital Day.
It marks the first year that Shriners have been building and operating hospitals that give free treatment to children from all over the world. Patients from infancy through the age of 15 are received, and treated, without regard to race or creed.

Medical treatment without charge comes daily from the sponsoring Shriners. Burns cases are expensive to treat and can run between a $10,000 to $12,000 average and up. Orthopedic cases cost the Shriners an average of $1,700. No medical bill is ever given a Shrine patient, his parents or guardian.

Since the first Shriners Burns Institute was opened at Galveston, Texas, in 1896, the three specialized burns hospitals have had 3,000 admissions. One such hospital is at Boston.

Each year the 22 hospitals handle approximately 6,000 cases. Since the children's hospitals were established, more than 164,000 have been cured or aided materially.

Armed Forces Day

Today is Armed Forces Day which is set aside to pay tribute to the men and women who serve in the nation's defense on active duty or in reserve capacities.

Today is Armed Forces Day which is set aside to pay tribute to the men and women who serve in the nation's defense on active duty or in reserve capacities.

Even with the military involvement in Southeast Asia winding down to practically zero, discussions under way in Europe aimed at reducing our armed forces there, placing some kind of lid on the nuclear arms race and with the end of selective service; the role of the armed forces of this nation never-the-less remains an important part of our lives and future security.

More and more uniforms are being hung in closets as the climate of negotiation seems to be prevailing over the climate of confrontation. But even in the desire for a world of peace we must continue to encourage and support the men and women who elect to serve in their nation's army, navy, air force and reserve units.

The maintaining of a military force adequately balanced between security needs, treaty commitments and economic realities, is always difficult but more so in times when danger from without appears distant and remote and no Americans are actually under fire.

The era ahead can be a trying one for our democracy as it struggles to balance what has been historically a military attitude of preparedness to defend the nation from attack, as opposed to being an aggressor, and the realities of the nuclear age which precludes prolonged holding-types of

An Apology
Editor's Note: The Herald received a copy of the following letter to Manchester Mayor John Thompson.
May 15, 1973
Mayor John Thompson
Municipal Building
Manchester
Dear Jack,
I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you and the members of the board on your decision to reduce the tax rate in the Town of Manchester.
I know that necessary services will flourish in the coming year if a close watch is maintained on unnecessary and wasteful spending of our tax dollar. We should be especially watchful of the Board of Education spending. We feel that at least another mill could have been cut in this area and the closeness of the vote on this by the members of the board indicates that they are not completely happy with the amount given the Board of Education.
We are in complete agreement with Mrs. Ferguson that they must be watched and that brothers," said one of the young men. "I feel more at home with my parents and what they stand for." The rest agreed. He didn't know it, but his remark set off a whole train of gunpowder in my mind. It was a watershed statement, diving one era from another. I can't remember or imagine it being said on a campus in 1969.

I confess I had been somewhat prepared for it. In the fall-winter semester I gave a course at Brandeis University on "Eros in America," which included a study of shifting family relations and moral codes. Many of the students felt that their parents' lives were unfulfilled and in some cases loveless, but out of 50 in the class not more than a handful felt alienated from them. Five years ago it would have been a very different story. Thomas Wolfe was doubtless right about the individual when he called one of his novels, "You Can Go Home Again," but a generation can.
In the past 10 years I have picked many the same picture at four or five colleges, whose students come largely from small-town, rural, lower middle-class or blue-collar families. They are the growing point of the college population in an era when colleges are reaching into every class, ethnic group, age group.
The fact that they are spreading these widely means that the upper-middle-class affluents who dominated the '60s are no longer the sole carriers of the lifestyles and life-attributes of the young. The new young are quieter, less about lives, less career-oriented, less activist, less

TODAY IN HISTORY
Today is Saturday, May 19, the 139th day of 1973. There are 226 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1536, the second queen of England's King Henry VIII, Anne Boleyn, was beheaded in London.

'Sour Grapes'
No additional money should be given this year. I know we can never please everyone of all the time, but I am sure a tax reduction pleases most of the people in Manchester. Again congratulations.
I would also like to clear up a misunderstanding in our ad which stated an amount in excess of $3,000 for the mayor to go to conference. It has always been my policy to give the public the facts and in no way to let me be misled. The mayor doesn't actually spend this kind of money for conferences, but many other expenses in operating the mayor's office come from this. I apologize to you if this has caused you any embarrassment.
Sincerely,
Charles Hillard

THE HOPE OF JESUS
The Pharisees heard that Jesus was asking and baptizing more disciples than John. (Actually Jesus himself did not baptize any; only his disciples did.) A Samaritan woman came to draw some water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink of water." (His disciples had gone into town to buy food.)
The woman answered, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan—how can you ask me for a drink? (Jews will not use the same dishes that Samaritans use.)"
Jesus answered, "If you only knew what God gives, and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would ask me and he would give you living water."
"Sir," the woman said, "you don't have a bucket and the well is deep. Where would you get living water? Our ancestor Jacob gave us this well, and he and his flocks all drank from it. You don't claim to be greater than Jacob, do you?"

The Bible Speaks by Eugene Brosser

One of the most subtle indications of our nation's move from a religiously oriented society to a totally secular state is the recent introduction into both houses of Congress of identical bills that would phase out by 1978 deductions of church and benevolent contributions in computing one's income tax. Wilbur Mills, House Ways and Means Committee Chairman, and Mike Mansfield, Senate Majority Leader, authored these bills H.R. 15330 and S. 2857, entitled "Tax Policy Reform Act of 1972."
We deplore this effort, not primarily because it threatens the fiscal resources of such groups, but because it discourages unselfish voluntarism at a time when we can ill-afford it. It is another greedy grab for money by a government that seems bent upon absorbing still more of the nation's resources in its ever-expanding welfare state.

Mistakes Prove Costly Again in Red Sox Loss

DETROIT (AP) — Boston manager Eddie Kaako has an explanation for the Red Sox 0-7 record against the Detroit Tigers so far this season.

"They were hot the first time, and we made a lot of mistakes this series," Kaako said Friday night after Detroit notched its seventh straight over Boston with a 5-4 victory. "When you run into those combinations you're going to lose."

The Tigers, who won each game of the three game series by one-run margins, took four straight from the Red Sox earlier in Boston.

The Red Sox are in Baltimore tonight for a three-game series with the Orioles. Kaako pitched Bill Lee (3-0) to face Baltimore's Doyle Alexander, also 3-0.

Detroit had taken a 5-3 lead Friday night on solo homers by Mickey Stanley and Jim Northrup off losing pitcher Marty Pettin (2-7) before the Red Sox scored a run in the ninth.

Reliever John Hiller, intentionally walked stagger Orlando Cepeda to get to John Kennedy — whom he struck out with a man on third base to end the game.

A walk to Norm Cash, singled by Dick McAuliffe and Stanley's sacrifice gave Detroit a 1-0 lead in the second before Carlton Fisk tied it with a homer off Woodie Fryman in the bottom of the inning. It was his eighth homer — five off Detroit.

Dave May Continues 'Yankee Killer' Role

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave May has shown no favoritism in his torment of American League teams this season, while continuing his role of "Yankee Killer."

The Milwaukee outfielder jolted the Yankees again Friday night, stroking a two-run single in the ninth inning, capping a three-run rally and giving the Brewers a 6-5 victory over New York.

It was May's sixth game-winning hit this season, his fourth in the 10th inning, twice that time.

Last Sunday, he delivered the winning hit in Milwaukee's last three victories.

May's second homer in the 10th inning, lifted the Brewers to a 6-5 triumph over Detroit. And on Tuesday, his home run in the 17th inning boosted Milwaukee to a 2-1 victory over Cleveland.

But has it been against the Yankees that he has done his most damage. Earlier this season, his two-run homer in the seventh inning helped Milwaukee beat New York 2-0. And two years ago, his two homers produced a pair of 1-0 victories over the Yanks.

Friday night, he didn't need a homer, just a soft bouncing single to the middle.

The Brewers had gone into the ninth trailing 5-3. A one-out walk to pinch hitter Ellie Rodriguez, a single by Pedro Garcia

Seaver Gets Runs Which He Needed

NEW YORK (AP) — For a change, the New York Mets got Tom Seaver some runs. For a change, he needed them.

Seaver, often the victim of an anemic offense, was treated to four runs—most of them courtesy of Wayne Garrett's bal-Friday night. It was just enough to beat Pittsburgh's slumping Pirates 6-3.

Garrett drove in three of the runs with a homer and a single as New York rushed to a 4-1 lead. It looked like money in the bank as Seaver retired 13 batters in order through the middle of the game.

"I was really popping the ball there for a while," the Mets' right-hander said. "I was throwing the ball good then."

But Bob Robertson clubbed a seventh-inning homer and the Pirates added another run in the eighth on a couple of singles and an infield out. Suddenly it was a one-run ball game and, with a man on first, the batter was Willie Stargell, who has been known to turn a ball game or two around.

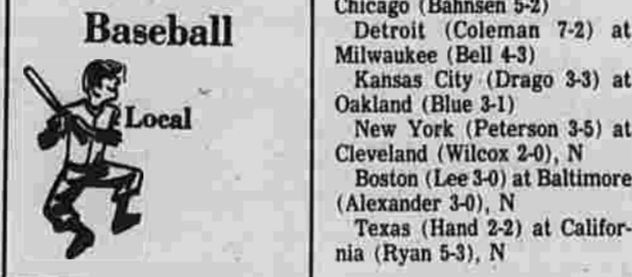

What was Seaver thinking?

"I said to myself, 'I've got to get him out.' It was me against him. I figured if he's going to beat me, let it be my best pitch."

So Seaver reached back and won the duel, getting Stargell on a roller to Garrett.

Seaver and Garrett had gotten the Mets' attack started in the third. The pitcher struck and Garrett, a late addition to Manager Yogi Berra's lineup, followed with his homer.

New York added another run on his bly

Biggest Honor for Clarke

The Clarke Area at Manchester High will live in name forever in honor of Wilfred Clarke, long-time basketball coach and head of the physical education department at the school.

It wasn't an easy job to get support, and finally approval, to Christian the gymnasium in Clarke's name.

There have been many big moments in the little, gray-haired Clarke's life but none measured up to the day the Manchester High gym was dedicated in his name.

Soon, hopefully, both the baseball diamond and the track at Memorial Field will be named Kelley Field, after Tom Kelley, and Wigren Track, after Pete Wigren. Both men are now retired after long and faithful service as teacher-coaches at Manchester High.

While both are enjoying their retirement years, it would only be fitting that the baseball diamond and track be so designated as Kelley Field and Wigren Track during their life span.

Plagued by Rainouts

"We've already had six rainouts this spring and one tie game," Coach Jim Penders of East Catholic High's baseball team noted. "It seems that every day we are scheduled to play it's either raining or starts raining while the game are in progress." This has been the same picture with a number of other area schools this spring.

However, bad as this spring has been, weatherwise, it must take a back seat to a year ago when a combination of cold and wet weather accounted for one postponement after another, plus a number of cancellations. "Don't bet against it but the day is coming when a young girl will attempt to get into Little League baseball competition with the boys," Bill Sackech has announced his resignation after 25 years as a member of the New England Intercollegiate Football Officials' Assn. and also the New England Intercollegiate Lacrosse Officials' Assn. Jay Johnstone is back in the minor leagues. The Oakland A's first down the Manchester-born outfielder to Tucson in the Pacific Coast League and recalled pitcher Bob Ardner. Neispie Tennis Club lists a Mixed Doubles Mixer Tournament Sunday starting at 9 a.m. Al Werber is handling the schedule with Dantina Bailey in charge of publicity. Vince Kasela, baseball coach at Cheney Tech, reports he starts seven ninth graders. Lack of experience has been the locals biggest problem in an all-losing campaign to date. Cheney pitching, too, has been weak. In one game, 17 opposing batters walked.

Shortage of Diamonds

There is such an acute shortage of suitable regulation baseball fields in town that East Catholic High had to stage its home game yesterday at its own field instead of Mt. Nebo. Earlier this spring, Manchester Community College staged two of its home starts at Henry Park in Rockville because Mt. Nebo was not available. "Whatever happened to the new baseball field that was to be built in the Mt. Nebo area to replace the present one? It will take at least two years to build and be ready to use. Visitor in these parts for the past month has been Bill Corcoran, a former fine boxer, now residing in New Orleans. A professional photographer, Corcoran also doubles as a tennis instructor at the city's (New Orleans) 52 public courts... Corcoran would like to hear from his old friends and may be reached at his Coventry address by phoning 749-7887. Cheney Tech's baseball team was involved in an oddity Thursday. Just before the team embarked via bus for a trip to Williamitt to play Windham Tech, a telephone call was received from Williamitt informing Coach Vince Kaseta that no umpires were available and the scheduled game was off. Have a nice weekend.

Bennet Nine Notches Pair

Bennet High's baseball team whipped Sias Dale, 19-2, and Penney Forest, 2-0, in games this week. Scott Eglanson's two-hit pitching paced the first game. Eglanson, Dave Shearer and Mike Quenell each had two hits.

Against Penney, Bruce Ballard also tossed a two-hitter as the Bears won their sixth game in seven starts. Ballard fanned nine.

Goodwin Tech Blanks Cheney

Ray Birecki hurled a one-hitter as Goodwin Tech blanked Cheney Tech, 10-0, yesterday afternoon on the Beavers' diamond. The loss was Cheney's eighth in a row against no wins while Goodwin is 5-7 overall.

Janice Schors was the lone Beaver to get a hit off of Birecki.

Hard hitting Rich Broder led the Goodwin attack with four hits in four trips to the plate. He scored five runs. Goodwin pounded out 13 hits.

In the pitching department, Birecki walked seven and struck out 14. The Beavers' Bill West and Pete Ostabacher combined talents with West getting the loss.

Cheney's next outing will be Wednesday in Bloomfield.

Fielders Collide, Homer Results

NEW YORK (AP) — When the Cincinnati Reds scheduled a "Teenage Night," they expected a crowd in the seats, but they didn't expect the youthful fans to make a difference on the field.

But they did.

With one out in the fifth inning and Pete Rose on first, the Reds' Joe Morgan lofted a routine fly ball to right center which attracted a crowd of two-right fielder Clarence Gaston and center fielder John Grubb.

The 23,109 spectators shouted a lot louder than the two San Diego players, who couldn't hear each other and ended up reaching in Bloomfield.

After the collision, Gaston and Grubb remained on the ground while Morgan circled the bases. Grubb, who had the wind knocked out of him, finally retrieved the ball but Morgan was already in the dugout with an inside-the-park home run.

Cincinnati went on to score a 5-4 victory.

Elsewhere in the National League, Los Angeles overcame Atlanta 2-0, New York edged Pittsburgh 1-0, Houston defeated San Francisco 3-1 and Chicago beat Philadelphia 9-2. The game between St. Louis and Montreal was postponed due to rain and cold.

Jack Billingham had to survive a three-run San Diego rally in the eighth before registering his seventh victory of the season, 1-0, behind the splendid pitching of Keith Kell.

Illing's lone hit was by Jeff Backhoeley. Harrier Gary LaBrec pitched a four-hitter in defeat.

South Trips Up East

By Dick Ledbetter

Spotting South Catholic to a 9-0 lead, East Catholic lost a tough 8-6 game yesterday in the Hartford County Conference in the bitter cold in Hartford. The loss dropped the local record to 7-5 and 4-3 in the HCC while South is 10-4 and 5-2.

A porous East defense and ineffective pitching gave South too big a lead early and the Eagles weren't able to make a strong recovery.

South jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first, added an unearned run in the third and extended the edge to 6-0 in the fifth. Two Eagle errors in both the third and fifth frames set up the scoring. The final three South markers tallied in the sixth.

Bucky Paquette worked the first six frames in taking the loss. Ray Semian finished out the game.

The Eagles finally managed to break into the scoring column in the seventh and eighth frames, capitalizing on Randy Lavigne's wildness. Both runs tallied in the seventh without benefit of a hit and three more runs in the eighth on just one bingle.

Hitting-wise for the Eagles, Joe Banning and Dan Smacetti each had a pair of singles. The locals were limited to just six blows, all for one base.

Heavy schedule next week finds East home to Wakeley Monday at 4 at Nebo, at Northwest Tuesday and Wednesday in Bristol against St. Paul.

Run Worth $1,800 in 1873

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Preakness Stakes, steeped in tradition, was run today for the 98th time. But the classic is preceded by the Woodlawn race on which the winner's name will be inscribed.

Worth $1,800 to the winner in its 1873 inaugural running, the Preakness would gross $62,400 today if six horses started as then expected and the first across the finish line would earn $12,900.

The Woodlawn was created by Tiffany and Co. in 1866, was approved in 1971 for $500,000, and is considered The trophy in American sports.

The game was created as a trophy for the now defunct Woodlawn Racing Association in Louisville, Ky., and was hurried during the Civil War lest it be discovered and melted into shot.

A part of the Preakness scene since 1917, when the race was won by Kallitan, the vase remained in the possession of the winning owner each year until 1953.

In that year, after Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Native Dancer won the Preakness, Mrs. Vanderbilt declined to accept the responsibility for its safekeeping.

A half-size reproduction of the 34-inch original was then made by the Steiff Co. of Baltimore, and that is now awarded each Preakness winner on a permanent basis. The Woodlawn vase is kept in the Steiff vaults when not on exhibition during Preakness week.

William S. Farish III took home the trophy last year when Bee Bee scored a stunning upset on a sloppy track as Meadow Stable's five furlong, 3-10 favorite, ran fourth.

Meadow Stable returned this year with Secretariat, another top heavy favorite.

Secretariat set a record in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, covering the 1 1/4 miles in 1:59.25, and he was given a chance of cracking the 1-54 mark for the 1-3/16 mile Preakness.

Tribe's Lombardo Wins Three Events

"It was a warm feeling to know that we had won our ninth meet of the season on such a cold and miserable day," said Manchester High's varsity track coach Dick Williams following his charges 100% to 44% win over an undermanned Wetherfield High squad.

Overall the Tribe is 9-4 while in the record is 7-2.

Key injuries hampered Wetherfield's effort. Manchester, on the other hand, received a sound performance from jumper Mike Lombardo who captured three firsts. Lombardo triumphed in the high jump, triple jump and long jump. All won with both hurdle events.

Manchester swept both the mile run with Phil Stoneman winning and the high jump with jumper Mike Lombardo who captured three firsts. Lombardo triumphed in the high jump, triple jump and long jump. All won with both hurdle events.

Guess Where

It will be multiple guess this afternoon when Manchester High's baseball team plays yet treks to Platt High in Meriden. Not sure which field will be suited for playing. Platt listed three possible field locations.

First, the home field at the school was noted. If it's too wet, the diamond at neighboring Wilcox, Teech will be used. If this also proves damp, the site will be shifted to Ceppis Field.

Games time will be 2.

Run Worth $1,800 in 1873

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Preakness Stakes, steeped in tradition, was run today for the 98th time. But the classic is preceded by the Woodlawn race on which the winner's name will be inscribed.

Worth $1,800 to the winner in its 1873 inaugural running, the Preakness would gross $62,400 today if six horses started as then expected and the first across the finish line would earn $12,900.

The Woodlawn was created by Tiffany and Co. in 1866, was approved in 1971 for $500,000, and is considered The trophy in American sports.

The game was created as a trophy for the now defunct Woodlawn Racing Association in Louisville, Ky., and was hurried during the Civil War lest it be discovered and melted into shot.

A part of the Preakness scene since 1917, when the race was won by Kallitan, the vase remained in the possession of the winning owner each year until 1953.

In that year, after Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Native Dancer won the Preakness, Mrs. Vanderbilt declined to accept the responsibility for its safekeeping.

A half-size reproduction of the 34-inch original was then made by the Steiff Co. of Baltimore, and that is now awarded each Preakness winner on a permanent basis. The Woodlawn vase is kept in the Steiff vaults when not on exhibition during Preakness week.

William S. Farish III took home the trophy last year when Bee Bee scored a stunning upset on a sloppy track as Meadow Stable's five furlong, 3-10 favorite, ran fourth.

Meadow Stable returned this year with Secretariat, another top heavy favorite.

Secretariat set a record in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, covering the 1 1/4 miles in 1:59.25, and he was given a chance of cracking the 1-54 mark for the 1-3/16 mile Preakness.

Little LEAGUER

Scoring nine runs in the combined first and second innings of the Professional Barbers Club's 13-3 victory over the Verplanck Field, Shredberped his own cause with a double and two singles. Dave Quenell homered and singled while Frank Priorand Bob Sammers also had two hits each.

Tonight a makeup game is scheduled between Stevenson and Annsaidi at 5 p.m.

Dan Bietette led Dillon Ford's attack over Wipeo, 10-9, at Valley Field. One of Bietette's clipped Stevenson's Esso, 11-3 at the Verplanck Field.

W Sox Get Taste of Own Medicine

NEW YORK (AP) — The Chicago White Sox were gaged on a taste of their own medicine Friday night when the Detroit Tigers continued to thrive on a new fantasy remedy known as the Boston Red Sox.

The White Sox, whose pitchers have spun six shutouts this season, were dealt a six-hit 5-0 dose by Jim Kaat of the Minnesota Twins.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Oakland A's edged the Kansas City Royals 5-4, the Baltimore Orioles owned the Chicagoans to six singles.

Obituaries State KofC Honors John Fitzpatrick

Roberts Dies, Was Active In IOOF

Charles S. Roberts, 78, of 16 Academy St., who spent many years in the work of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, died early this morning at his home. He was the husband of Mrs. Amelia Richardson Roberts.

Mr. Roberts, who had held many posts on the local, state and national level in the IOOF, was a past noble grand of King David Lodge and affiliated with the Encampment and Patriarchs Militant Branches of the order. He was a past grand master of the State of Connecticut and past sovereign grand messenger of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Roberts was born June 1, 1894 in Holyoke, Mass., and had lived in Manchester for 51 years. He had been employed as a marine statistician with the former Aetna Fire Insurance Group in Hartford before his retirement in 1959. He was a member of Center Congregational Church and a 56-year member of Washington Lodge of Masons, Windsor. He and his wife observed their 55th wedding anniversary last Sept. 11.

Survivors, besides his wife, are two sons, C. Sumner Roberts of Manchester and Arthur E. Roberts of Panama City, Fla.; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at the Holmes Funeral Home, 400 Main St., at a time to be announced. Burial will be in Rose Hill Memorial Park, Rocky Hill. Friends may call at the funeral home Monday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

The family suggests that any memorial contributions may be made to the Connecticut IOOF Eye Bank in care of the New Britain General Hospital.

Mrs. Camilla H. Zagorski
SOUTH WINDSOR—Mrs. Camilla Haraburda Zagorski, 85, of 1503 Main St., died Thursday at Manchester Memorial Hospital. She was the widow of Joseph Zagorski Sr.

Mrs. Zagorski was born in Poland and had lived in South Windsor for many years. She was a communicant of St. Francis of Assisi Church and a member of the Polish Alliance of Hartford.

Survivors are 3 sons, Anthony Zagorski, John Zagorski and Albin Zagorski, all of South Windsor, a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Krawski of South Windsor; 18 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be Monday at 8:15 a.m. from the Callahan Funeral Home, 1602 Main St., East Hartford, with a Mass of the Resurrection at St. Francis of Assisi Church at 9. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, East Hartford.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Miss Annie K. Jennings
SOUTH WINDSOR—Miss Annie Katherine Jennings, 98, of 1846 Main St. died Friday at her home.

Miss Jennings was born in South Windsor and had lived here all her life.

Survivors are a sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Sperry of South Windsor, with whom she made her home; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be Sunday at 2 p.m. at Center Cemetery.

The Newkirk and Whitney Funeral Home, 318 Burnside Ave., East Hartford, is in charge of arrangements.

There are no calling hours.

Boys Blamed In Breaks

Two daylight breaks at the same home on Lake St., one early Friday and the other several days ago, resulted in the apprehension Friday night of two 14-year-olds by Manchester policemen, Detective Lt. John Krinjak and Detective Orville Cleveland.

According to police, the juveniles, unidentified because of their ages, allegedly stole about $2,000 worth of collector's coins from the unoccupied home. Police report some of the coins have been recovered.

Krinjak says both youths are charged with two counts of third-degree burglary and two counts of second-degree larceny and have been turned over to juvenile authorities.

John Fitzpatrick was recently honored by the State Knights of Columbus at its convention in New Haven.

He was selected as District Deputy of the Year for his work with the councils under his jurisdiction which included Bolton, Rockville and Manchester, as well as for his formulation of new ideas which was adopted on the state level.

He resides at 119 Florence St., graduated from Manchester High School and attended the University of Maine and the Connecticut State Technical Institute.

Serving in the United States Army during World War II, he distinguished himself and was awarded the Purple Heart with an Oak Leaf Cluster, the Combat Infantry Badge and the Good Conduct Medal and Presidential Unit Citation.

Fitzpatrick is a past grand knight of Campbell Council and is president of the board of directors of Campbell Council Building Association. He is a co-founder and past president of the Democratic Club of Manchester and is a past chairman of Brotherhood-in-Action. Active politically in the past several campaigns, he now is a member of the Town Building Committee.

He is employed as an experimental machinist at the Pratt and Whitney Division of the United States Aircraft Corporation.

Niantic Prison Phase-Out Plans To Begin Soon

HARTFORD (AP) — About 30 women inmates of the Niantic Prison soon will be getting new homes, some of them at the New Haven Young Women's Christian Association. The prisoners will be transferred in July, the first step in a three-year process to close Niantic and house the women in community units.

State Correction Commissioner John Manson says the first group of 30 women will be sent to community facilities in Hartford and New Haven.

Manson says that by 1976, the Niantic Prison should be empty and the approximately 150 inmates it would have housed will be assigned to halfway houses, new jails or special detention cottages to be built at Cheshire. Of the first group leaving Niantic this summer, as many as 17 women, most about to complete their sentences, will be sent to a special section of the New Haven YWCA.

Manson said about 12 more prisoners will move to the Watkinson House in Hartford, a halfway facility now used by male parolees. The commissioner added that before the women moved in, the men's program would be given a new location.

Two more halfway houses are planned for prisoners with "good behavior" records, Manson said, but the state still is looking for urban sites for them.

At the Watkinson House, prisoners will be able to work or go to school outside the facility. Manson explained that many of these inmates have been given that limited freedom at Niantic under an experimental program, jointly administered by the state and Harvard University.

The facility at the New Haven YWCA, however, will be more tightly controlled, Manson said it will serve as a "community therapeutic unit" and that only those women who are well advanced in the rehabilitation program will be allowed to leave on a limited basis.

The department projects that an average of about 50 women awaiting trial are confined at Niantic at any given time. After 1976 when the large prison is closed, Manson said these prisoners will be assigned to the new correction centers in Hartford and New Haven that should be completed by then.

First Boundaries Set By Two Treaties
 2 Pacts Set U.S. Limits
 Washington — The original territory of the United States, as defined by the treaties of Nov. 30, 1782, and Sept. 3, 1783, with Great Britain, was bounded on the north by Canada, on the south by the Spanish colonies of east and west Florida, on the east by the Atlantic Ocean and on the west by the Mississippi River.
 It included the 13 original colonies and the area claimed by them.

What Would You Like To Play: Violin, Viola or Cello?

The violin is the most popular string instrument.

The viola has a lower tone than the violin.

The cello is played with the instrument standing between your knees.

The string instruments played in most elementary schools include the violin, viola and cello. Which one would you like to play? Some children prefer learning to play band string instruments over learning to play band instruments because they find them more challenging. They also feel that, by learning to play strings, they can gain a better appreciation of all music, especially classical. They know that, in order to play any instrument well, practice is important and builds self discipline.

String instruments are popular because they can be played on so many occasions. They can also be played in many different ways. You can pluck them with your finger. When you move the bow across a string, you can skip it, jump it, pull it, push it, flip it, drag it, and do any number of different movements, making lots of different sounds.

The first stringed instruments probably had just one string and were played by plucking. The bows were invented much later and looked very much like the bows used for shooting arrows.

The Violin

The violin is the most popular of all string instruments. It has had a very important influence on all music. A lot of good music has been written for it, so you can always find something interesting to play. The violin has the disadvantage of being a difficult instrument to learn to play really well. It takes a lot of hard work, and like all stringed instruments, it requires good coordination. There are usually 30 violins in a symphony orchestra.

The Viola

The viola is a little larger than a violin. The strings are heavier, so the tone is slightly lower. There are about 10 violas in a symphony orchestra.

William Primrose is one of the world's greatest violists. He was born in Scotland in 1903.

The Cello

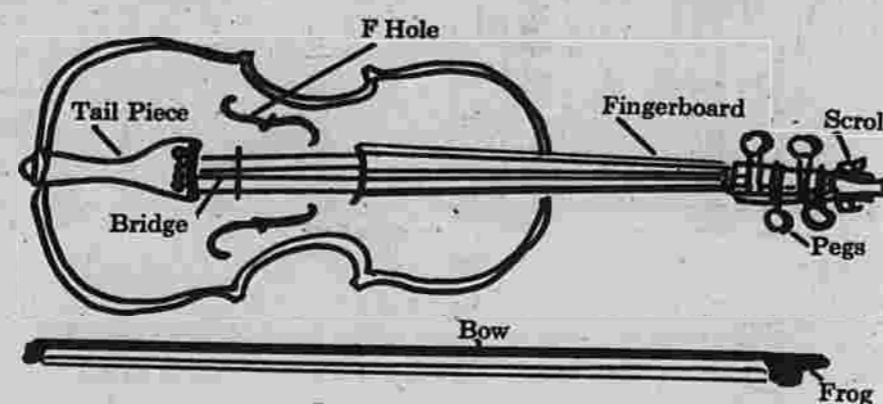

The cello is played with the instrument sitting between the knees. There has been a lot of good solo music written for this instrument. There are around 10 cellists in a symphony orchestra.

Pablo Casals is a famous Spanish cellist. He has had a great influence on cello playing. Born in 1876, he is now 97 years old.

The Parts of a Violin

The strings of a violin can be made of wire, cat or sheep gut, or gut wrapped with wire (silver or aluminum). The bow has strands of horsehair or synthetic material, such as fiberglass, stretching from end to end. In order to make the strings vibrate and make a sound, players rub the strands of the bow with a cake of rosin. This causes friction, which makes the vibrations and produces the sound.

Antonio Stradivari was the most famous violin maker of all time. He was an Italian who lived from around 1644 to 1737. In his lifetime, he made over 1,500 instruments by hand. Some are still in existence today. Some great performers still use these instruments which were made over 200 years ago.

Super Sport: Sparky Lyle

Sparky Lyle adds a lot of spark to the game of baseball. He plays for the New York Yankees. In 1972, he was the top relief pitcher in the major leagues. The fans love Sparky. When he comes in to pitch, the organist at Yankee Stadium plays Sparky's theme song, "Pomp and Circumstance." Lyle is six-feet tall and weighs 200 pounds. He is 28 years old. Sparky grew up in Reynoldsville, Pa., and signed a professional baseball contract in 1964. He played with the Boston Red Sox before joining the Yankees.

Animal of the Week: The Lemming

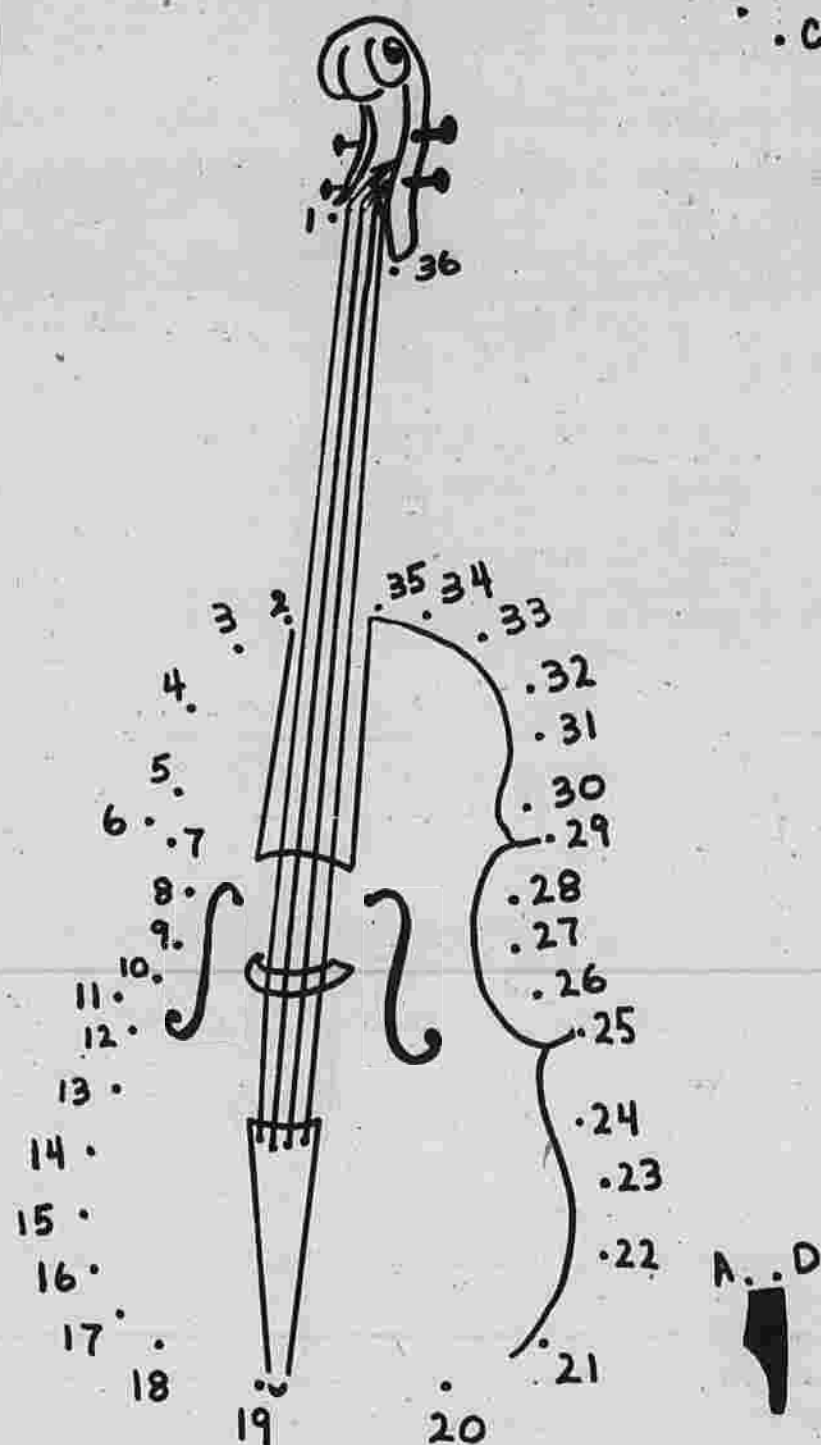

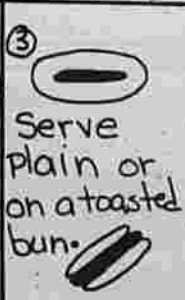

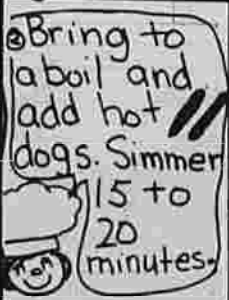

A lemming is a small, mouse-like animal that lives in cold climates such as northern Europe and Alaska. It is about five inches long, tail and all. It weighs from three to four ounces. In the summer, the lemming lives in shallow holes in the ground. In the winter, it lives in the snow. Each year, the mother will have two litters of around six babies each. Sometimes she will have four litters a year. At this time living becomes very crowded and the lemmings migrate. They are easy prey for many animals that depend on them for food. The most common lemming is brown. Lemmings eat grasses.
