Barry Shaw of 159 Bryan Dr. was elected president of the Manchester Parent-Teacher Association for Educational Children Tuesday night.

Shaw, assistant director of fiscal affairs at the University of Connecticut Health Center, Farmington, is active in the Manchester Jaycees and is chairman of a committee working to provide Manchester Memorial Hospital with new equipment.

Installation of the PTA officers took place at Kenney Street School with Principal Edward Timbrell officiating. Other officers of the PTA are Louis Martelli, vice president; Claire Kasnik, recording secretary; Alice Alamy, corresponding secretary; Alice McClintock, treasurer; Anita Howe, Ann Prytko, and Cecile Mulhern, council delegates.

Mrs. Shaw, who is active in the Connecticut PTA has awarded the local PTA for Educational Children a certificate for outstanding achievement in programming and booklets.

Shaw presented Mrs. House with a Past President's pin, a gift from the association.

The Manchester PTA for Educational Children was formed just over a year ago. It was the first unit of its kind in the state; interest it created has prompted organization of two similar associations.

The junior class of East Catholic has yet another project under way for this year—a picnic. But this is not your ordinary picnic, as it's told to me.

In conjunction with the Christian Involvement class (a religion course offered at East), the class of '74 has planned a day at Wickham Park for approximately 100 elderly residents of the Meadows Convalescent Home here in Manchester. This day, supervised by Sister Marion Raymond, is scheduled for Wednesday, June 13, with a rain date set for the following day.

This day, to last from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., has been coordinated by Steve Daneau and Beverly Brooks, both juniors.

Included in the festivities of the picnic will be an exhibition softball game followed by a game between the students and Meadow's residents. Fran Purpore and Bob Wetherbee are in charge of this activity.

Ms. Nancy Carr is in charge of musical entertainment, along with Ken Kuzynski and Bob Lusker.

Refreshments for the picnic have been arranged by Ms. Debbie Ford. Money for these refreshments is being taken from the junior class treasury.

Here is just another demonstration of exactly what the course "Christian Involvement" means.

Other players for East included Tom Toce, first board; and Matt Melloy, second board. The tournament took place in Hartford.

Elections

Council elections were held recently. The results of that election were: Tom Toce, president; Denise Donnelly, vice president; Meg Healy, secretary; Madeline Rice, treasurer.

Farewell Column

This will be my last column. Hopefully during the reporting I've done during these past months you've either been introduced to East Catholic or have been updated on activities going on at the school on the hill.

I appreciate the help of Sister Jean Farley, the patient guidance of Mr. Harold Turington and Mr. John Johnson and the enthusiasm of Mrs. William Belliere and Mr. Sol Cohen, not forgetting the ever present encouragement from my parents.

The future of the column for next year is uncertain at the moment. As for my future, I

David D. Boland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Boland of 63 Vernon St., has been named superintendent of schools in Brooklyn, Conn., where he now resides. His appointment is effective Aug. 1. Previously he had resigned as superintendent of schools in neighboring Canterbury, effective June 30.

Boland is a 1962 graduate of Manchester High School and a 1966 graduate of Munson (Mass.) Academy. He received his B.S. degree in 1966 from Central Connecticut State College, his masters in education in 1963, and a sixth year certificate in 1970 from the University of Hartford. He received graduate certification from the University of Bridgeport in 1972.

He taught elementary grades at Pontiac Community School for four years until 1964, when he became Pomfret's assistant principal and its junior high reading and math teacher.

In 1965, he was appointed principal of the Dr. Helen Baldwin School in Canterbury, assistant superintendent there in 1971 and superintendent in August 1972.

He is certified as a college and high school basketball and soccer referee by the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials and the National Intercollegiate Soccer Officials Association. He played basketball in high school and college.

Boland was picked for the Brooklyn superintendent post from a field of 52 applicants from throughout New England, New York and New Jersey. He will succeed Michael Pheasant, who will retire June 30 after four years in the post.

Boland and his wife, the former Marilyn Ann Boraski of Naugatuck, reside on Rt. 119 in Brooklyn Center with their three sons: Thomas, 10, Matthew, 6, and Ryan, 3.

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Gov. Meldrim Thomson Jr., redecorated the governor's office at his own expense.

"I hope I have set an example for others, both in and out of state government to follow," he said.

He added, as he wrote out checks totalling $1,848, that "my wife is madder than a horned because I have fractured her household budget."

Cox Begins Special Watergate Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Saying he will stand for no investigative delays, Harvard law professor Archibald Cox has sworn in as the government's Watergate prosecutor.

Cox's superior, Elliot L. Richardson, took his oath of office as attorney general in a separate and more elaborate ceremony Friday.

Richardson replaces Richard G. Kleindienst, who resigned last week after a year of the Watergate scandal. Cox will be probing the activities of the Nixon administration as undersecretary of state; secretary of health, education and welfare; and secretary of defense.

Nixon, underlining his repeatedly expressed concern for national security, announced that Richardson will remain on the National Security Council, the nation's top security group.

In other Watergate developments: —The Senate Watergate investigating committee rejected the suggestion that it immediately find out if President Kennedy and Johnson.

Cox told newsmen he had asked the three assistant U.S. attorneys investigating the Watergate case to stay on for the time being as there would be "no break or delay in the investigation," but that he will later review their status on his staff.

President Nixon looked on at the White House as Chief Justice Warren Burger administered the oath to Richardson, 53, the 69th attorney general. Some 200 friends and associates attended the ceremony in the East Room, usually the setting for major diplomatic and other formal activities.

Generally, cabinet officers are sworn in at fairly routine ceremonies watched by family members and friends.

Without mentioning the Watergate scandal, Richardson said: "There are times when the institutions of government are under stress.

But, he said, "it is not because the structure is not sound. It is sound. If there are flaws, they are in ourselves." He said he will seek to reverse a trend toward "obscenity" in American government.

"If as a lawyer I did that to one of my clients, they'd call it malpractice," Foley told the press.

The ad hoc hearing, run by Rep. Charles Rangel, Lester Wolf, and Edward Koch, all Democrats from the New York metropolitan area, was a prelude to formal hearings next week by the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

At the time of the Vietnam cease-fire Jan. 28, the Pentagon estimated American MIAs in Southeast Asia at more than 1,300.

MIA Relatives Appear Before Special Panel

NEW YORK (AP) — "These men are not only written off the payroll, but any further inquiries concerning them are open to rejection by the North Vietnamese," said Dornal G. Foley, a New York lawyer whose brother has been missing in action in Vietnam since 1967.

Foley was among several relatives and friends of servicemen who testified Friday before a congressional fact-finding panel, urging that Congress demand a more accurate accounting of MIAs.

Foley said the Defense Department was conducting hearings to change the status of men from missing to killed in action "without notice to the family members or allowing them to participate." He also said the Paris accords appeared to place the burden of evidence on the North Vietnamese, without corroborating data.

Doghouse — WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Washington hawks think President Nixon barked out the wrong tree when he warned the public to watch out for "some of those dogs" at Capital dinner parties.

"I'd rather watch out for a dog than a pig," retorted one Washington party-giver.

Nixon found himself in the doghouse again after he chatted in front of newsmen with Lt. Col. John Dramest of Tacoma, Wash.

Pardons 500 — BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Hector J. Campora pardoned more than 500 political prisoners within hours after his inauguration Friday and more are expected to be freed today.

The executive order applied to all prison inmates whose crimes were considered by the new government to be politically motivated and includes many guerrillas convicted of subversion or terrorism.

The sweeping decree had been opposed strongly by the military junta that surrendered power to Campora and his Peronist government after seven years of military rule.

San Clemente — WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says a millionaire friend who loaned President Nixon a $625,000 downpayment on his San Clemente, Calif., retreat now owns three-fourths of the estate.

The disclosure Friday of a transaction that occurred nearly 2 1/2 years ago was prompted by a lawsuit filed by a defuncter campaign money had been used to pay for Nixon's property.

The White House denied that campaign funds were used.

Astronauts To Attempt Sun Shield Repairs

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Dr. Joseph P. Kerwin and Paul J. Weitz face another busy day today. They enter the shuttle for the first time to determine how well it has survived the effects of 12 days of coasting heat.

Later today, they'll attempt to erect an umbrella-like shade designed to block the sun's rays and cool the craft so they can live aboard it for 28 days.

They'll long remember Friday. It was a day of changing emotions that began with a flawless liftoff into space and ended with a successful linkup with Skylab.

In between they met with several failures which threatened a quick ending.

During a frustrating space walk, Weitz found he did not have the proper tools to free a jammed solar panel that would be needed to reorient the home with more electricity.

They donned space suits, evacuated air from the cabin of their Apollo ferry ship and, in the vacuum of space, looked up an electrical cable to override a short circuit.

They did not step outside but moved into a tunnel area where the Apollo docking mechanism is located.

"We've got a hard dock out of it," Skylab 1 commander Conrad exclaimed just before midnight as the hooked up Apollo and Skylab flew above a tracking station in the South Atlantic.

That joy was absent four hours earlier when the Apollo came down a radio blackout and Conrad announced: "We tried twice to hard dock without any luck."

Working on suggestions from mission control, the astronauts repeatedly poked Apollo's nose as the coast-fire went into effect. The Saigon command reported 62 Communist true violations in Vietnam are not confirmed by the United States and the Saigon regime.

The cost of a market basket rose 1.6 per cent last month, the department said Friday, although the farmers' share of the consumer food dollar dipped slightly. The increase boosted the market basket indicator to another record high, but it was the smallest rise since last December.

In April, the market basket— theoretically enough to feed 3.2 persons for an entire year—cost $1.40. That was $22 more than in March. Of the gain, officials said, middlemen got $15 and farmers $7.

For the month of April alone, farmers received 44.2 cents of every food dollar. This was down slightly from a 2-year high in March of 44.5 cents.

But over a longer haul, it has been the farmers who have benefited most by higher food prices, according to department statisticians.

U.S. Envoy Confers With Cambodian Leader

PHNOM PENH (AP) — South Asian troubleshooter William H. Sullivan conferred for an hour today with President Lon Nol on the serious military situation in Cambodia and the key role the Vietnam coast-fire agreement by remaining in Cambodia, supporting the local Khmer Rouge insurgents and fighting in South Vietnam remained at its lowest level since the cease-fire went into effect.

The Khmer insurgents launched a major offensive soon after the Vietnam cease-fire went into effect and, despite heavy U.S. bombing, most of Cambodia now is in their hands and the capital is all but surrounded.

At U.S. insistence, the ailing Lon Nol has broadened the base of his government, but the Communist rebels have given no sign they are ready for peace negotiations.

In Saigon, the Viet Cong's Col. Duong Dinh Thao warned the situation in South Vietnam was "becoming increasingly tense" because of what he claimed were violations of the Paris accords by the United States and the Saigon regime.

Two ICCS Members May Withdraw

SAIGON (AP) — The Saigon government said today it has learned from diplomatic sources that Canada and Indonesia are considering withdrawing their peacekeeping forces.

"We have not directly contacted the Canadian delegation in Saigon, but from what we've heard from diplomatic sources, these two governments are considering pulling the teams out of Vietnam if the presence of the Canadian and Indonesian delegations in Vietnam are not justified," government spokesman Bui Bao Truc told a news conference.

But Imrad Idris, deputy head of the Indonesian delegation, said: "We have absolutely no plans to pull out of the ICCS. Our position is unchanged, and at no time have we ever indicated we were planning to leave."

Truc's statement came amidst mounting speculation that the Canadian government will announce next week that it is pulling out of the International Commission of Control and Supervision. The reason is said to be Canada's unhappiness with the commission's impotence due to constant disagreement along East-West lines.

Not To Be Forgotten

Memorial Day Challenge

There is a special kind of quiet that prevails in a cemetery. The pace is slower, voices lower, and as you stroll among the grave markers there is a sobering reality of each man's mortality.

Capital Fare Background on Helms

WASHINGTON - Herewith, if the court please, a little background information on the admission by Richard Helms, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency, that the CIA engaged unlawfully in domestic intelligence activities with political overtones.

By law CIA operations may be conducted only in foreign countries. The federal assumption is that Congress, as keeper of the public purse, would see that the CIA obeyed the law.

But Memorial Day can and should be more than reflection, parade watching, and oratory. We think it should be a reminder, not of wars past and the supreme sacrifices they demanded, but the challenge that is still ahead; a lasting and enduring peace.

Space Remains Hostile

Space presents man with an environment so hostile that he must carry all the essentials of life with him and shield himself and his satellite from the death-dealing rays of the sun.

It is to man's great credit that he was able to land on the moon and return safely. All Americans are proud that it was an American feat. Now we face disappointment in the malfunction of Skylab, the first orbiting space laboratory.

Max Lerner Comments Nixon, Agnew and Brezhnev

NEW YORK, N.Y. - Watergate will continue to be good political theater for weeks and months to come. It seems unlikely, but in this lopsided situation it is the unlikely that is most likely to happen.

With cameras and other sensory devices, these missions could be used to unlock many of nature's secrets on earth. Captain Jacques Costeau, the French undersea explorer, says hundreds of surface ships now are wasting public money on "nonsense measurements" that satellites could do far better and infinitely faster.

Inside Report Rowland Evans and Robert Novak The FBI in Crisis

WASHINGTON - The angry resignations of three veteran bureau officials close to J. Edgar Hoover, while stripping the FBI of its most experienced leadership at a critical period, permits a new high command loyal to a new director.

Experts who recognize the bureau's crisis have long believed that removal of the Hoover clique was step No. 1. That suddenly is well along the road. Step No. 2, the belated installation of a permanent successor to Hoover, may be long delayed as another result of the Watergate scandal's general immobilization of government.

NEW YORK, N.Y. - security, with an emotional appeal to the silent majority which may be getting ready to march against him. It seems unlikely, but in this lopsided situation it is the unlikely that is most likely to happen.

Between the former McGovern partisans and the former Agnew partisans, both of whom may take surprising new stances, there is the large majority of the people who are waiting to make up their minds. I doubt that they will embrace the idea of Agnew in the White House. What they need are elections may have carried in 1972, they carried no mandate for Agnew.

Disappointing Loss Marks East Finale

By Dick Ledbetter

East Catholic closed out its regular season with a disappointing 4-3 loss to Xavier yesterday afternoon at Milnebo in the rain. East completed play with an 8-0 record overall and 4-6 in the Hartford County Conference. East enters the CIAC State Baseball Tournament on the basis of its 8-8 record, with yesterday's game not counting towards the tourney.

Xavier scored a run in the top of the eighth inning to break a 3-3 deadlock and give the Falcons the margin. Sophomore catcher Joe Marchese singled home Matt Hoy who had walked and advanced on an error and a fly ball. Xavier scored the run on Ron Semiao, who had relieved starter Terry Hickey to start the inning. Semiao absorbed the loss, evening his season mark at 1-1.

East had taken a 1-0 lead in the first inning. Joe Banning led off with a single. He advanced to third on a single by John McKeon and as the ball was misplayed in the outfield for an error, Banning came home.

Xavier came back with two runs in the fourth. They scored two unearned runs as a double by winning pitcher Fred Tremaglia tied the game and Marchese's first RBI by a sacrifice fly put Xavier ahead 2-1.

Bennet Trips Up Illing

First blood in the annual junior high town baseball series between Bennet and Illing was won by the Bears Thursday afternoon, 5-3. Bennet trailed 3-1 going into the sixth inning but a four-run uprising overcame the deficit.

Ernie D. Inks Braves' Pact

BUFFALO (AP) - After a week of conflicting claims and high-pressure bargaining, the Buffalo Braves announced Friday they have finally signed their No. 1 draft choice, Ernie D. Gregorio, to a contract.

Paul Snyder, the owner of the National Basketball Association team, said he had signed the All-American from Providence College to a multi-year contract worth "a tremendous amount of money."

Earlier reports had indicated that the amount of money was well over $1 million. Snyder did not elaborate on the terms of the contract, saying he would explain everything at a news conference Tuesday.

"I will say it's the most difficult contract I've ever negotiated," he said. The 6-foot, 10-inch forward, an aggressive ball-handling wizard and impressive general, was drafted No. 1 by the Braves of the NBA and by the Kentucky Colonels of the rival American Basketball Association.

Last week, Buffalo thought it had outbargained the Colonels and began dropping hints about the team's recent upcoming announcement. That came Wednesday when Snyder claimed that an news conference that Ernie D.'s signing was imminent.

But later that day, the Braves admitted that "problems" had developed and Snyder flew off to New York for further talks with D'Gregorio's lawyer and agent, Larry Fleisher.

The "problems" were later revealed to have been an 11th-hour offer from the Colonels, who had received financial support in the bidding war from other teams in the NBA. In a brilliant season at the end of the triple jump, Coutu (N), Coutu (N), Glenn (N), 44".

Others Need Handicap When Nicklaus Plays

ATLANTA (AP) - "Maybe we ought to get a handicap when that guy is playing," said Tom Weiskopf after Jack Nicklaus had put the finishing touches on another brilliant round for a four-stroke edge going into today's third round of the $150,000 Atlanta Classic.

Nicklaus, returning to the tour after a month's absence, "to get my mind off golf," fired a near-perfect 66 Friday for a two-round total of 133, 11 under par. Weiskopf was the only player close to Nicklaus, adding a 67 to his opening 70 for 137 over the par 72, 6, 683-yard Atlanta Country Club course.

"I'm kinda surprised to be playing this well after taking a month off," said Nicklaus, aiming for his fourth tour triumph of the season in only his 10th try. "We should get at least one or two shots a round when Jack plays," said Weiskopf, who attended Ohio State, as did Nicklaus.

"An 11-under on this course is pretty fantastic," said Weiskopf, who had seven birdies and two bogys in his round Friday. He had a hole in one in his 70 on opening day. "I don't think I'm out of it," said Weiskopf.

John Rutherford Confident in 500

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - Six feet and four years can make quite a difference in a man's viewpoint, says Johnny Rutherford. The dark-haired, one-time standout pitcher in a niche for himself at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, winning the pole position for Monday's 57th Indy 500-mile race, zooming around the 2.5-mile asphalt oval at faster official speeds than any driver ever has clocked in the front row before.

His four-lap qualifying speed of 198.413 miles per hour and his one-lap best of 199.071 both were Speedway records and made Rutherford the reigning King of the Hill, at least until Monday night EDT, when the race is scheduled to start.

In nine previous races, the 35-year-old Fort Worth resident never finished higher than 16th, a feat he has accomplished three times. He has started in the front row before. Rutherford qualified at a then amazing 170.213 mph., trailing only Al Unser's 171.221. Beginning that race in the middle of the first row, he finished an uncomfortable 16th, going to the pits with mechanical problems in the 126th lap.

Rutherford appeared relaxed and quite happy with his role at the Speedway now. He said Friday: "I feel very confident for this race. It was different than (1970) because I really had been in that position before... being something of a celebrity."

"But we went out for carburetor tests and a vent line had been inadvertently put on wrong and the car burst into fire. It wasn't a serious fire or anything, but it shook my feeling of confidence. I thought to myself 'What else is going to go wrong?'"

"I'm feeling very good and relaxed. I'm going into the race with the same confidence I had when I was worrying about someone running off and hiding from me," he said. "If they do, they won't be around at the end."

Slow Pitch Softball

Carl Ogert banged out four hits to help pace Charter Oak Restaurant to a narrow 7-6 victory over Lock Stock & Barrel in a make-up game last night at Keeney.

In a losing effort, Dave Carrier, Ron Richard, Gary Novak and Tim Hassett each got three hits. Mark Humphry had two bingles.

DelRoy's Close Eye Catches Indy Fraud

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) - It isn't easy to put one over on Frank DelRoy, and there's at least one team at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway that must wish it hadn't tried.

DelRoy is the longtime technical supervisor for the U.S. Auto Club and in that capacity has final say over certification of cars for the Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Herald Angle

Lenny Horvath has accepted a position as an assistant golf pro in Pittsburgh, Pa. He'll be working with Jim Jeffrey, former area and Pittsburgh radio announcer, who has decided to concentrate on a career as a home golf pro.

Behind Weiskopf at 138 were Larry Wise, Dwight Nevil, Hubert Green, Al Gelberger and Leo Graham. At 140 were Dave Maraz, Orville Moody, Tom Kite and Bert Green.

Mac McLeod and rookie Dave Glenn, who shared the opening round lead with Nicklaus, both fell back. McLeod had a 77 for 144 and Glenn an 81 for 148, just making the cut.

World Mark

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - "My form was off," said Brian Oldfield after setting a new world mark in the 100-meter dash of 70.76, 104 inches in the Western Airlines Pro Track Classic.

Friday night in front of 6,638 fans beat his own record of 70.9-7/8 for boys 15 thru 17. Tom Junkis, who paced the Renaissance Poly basketball team in scoring last winter, has been named to the third academic College Division All American hoop squad.

Reports Disputed By Jones

MILWAUKEE (AP) - While Wall Jones remained silent and his whereabouts stayed unknown, his attorney said Friday the former Milwaukee Bucks basketball player "categorically and emphatically denies" ever using or possessing narcotics.

Richie Phillips, reached at his Philadelphia office, responded to a Milwaukee Journal report that the National Basketball Association club had suspended Jones Dec. 12 because private investigators found a packet allegedly containing cocaine in his Los Angeles hotel room.

Jones, a nine-year NBA veteran, was placed on medical suspension after the Bucks claimed he had lost weight and stamina. Later it was announced he also had been placed on disciplinary suspension for unspecified "conduct detrimental to basketball."

Cougars Won 10 of 17

Blideau won the season with a 4-4 record and a 1.4 ERA. Camaro's final mark was 5-2 with a 2.90 ERA. The two hurlers tied for the team lead in strikeouts with 32 apiece.

Keefe finished with a 0.68 ERA and a 1-1 record. In his first start, Keefe pitched strong four-hit, beating Matulic, 6-3.

In some of the other offensive categories, Acy and Buddy Smallwood tied for the lead in RBIs with 10. Smallwood started slow but hit .360 during the last seven games.

Acy won the highest award and Jim Lehan won the Coach's Award. Lehan, a former East Catholic star, was cited for his cooperation and morale boosting spirit.

MCC's other 300 hitter was catcher Don Novak. Novak at one point had a 12-game hitting streak going and wound up batting .305.

Co-captain Bruce Tracey started hot and tallied off but still finished the year with a respectable .265 average. He would not stay in the field for long.

Yanks Go Against Book, Michael's Homer Wins

NEW YORK (AP) - All right, grandstand managers, try this for size. You're a run behind in the bottom of the seventh inning with runners on first and second, none out and your makeshift pitcher, a lifetime .228 hitter, at the plate. The book calls for a sacrifice, right?

Yes, and no. Coach Dick Howser came down from third base and gave the batter, Gene Michael, some instructions. He also reminded him of his options.

Michael bluffaded a bunt on reliever Steve Foucault's first pitch, but watched it sail high and outside. He also watched the first and third basemen charge the plate, the shortstop run to cover and the second baseman head for first.

"In a situation like that," explained New York Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, "if they pull that play, the hitter's on his own. He's free to swing away." Michael did.

The next pitch was hit deep into the right field seats and the veteran shortstop had his 11th career home run and the Yankees, who had trailed 7-0 after 1 1/2 innings, had a 7-7 triumph over the Texas Rangers Friday night.

"With the first baseman in, I was just trying to pull the ball," said Michael. "I've never tried to hit a home run. If I did, I'd hit it more than 100."

Bennet Winner In Track Meet

The busy Bennet Junior High track team picked up its fifth victory of the season yesterday defeating Bloomfield High 17-8, 54.4-51.4 on the Warwick's cinders.

Acy Bat Champ With MCC Nine

Manchester Community College's baseball team wrapped up its season in convincing fashion with a twinbill sweep of Greater Hartford C.C. last Saturday.

The win brought MCC's season long to 10-7, and a very deceiving record at that. The Cougars, of Coach Jim DeWitt, lost six of their seven setbacks by a total of only seven runs. The other loss was 7-0 to Eastern Connecticut State College JV's.

Several individual efforts highlighted the season. John Acy, who knocked in two runs and scored one to help win the second game Saturday, had the season's best batting average of .369.

DeWitt said, "I know I made a mistake the other night. I should have been more aggressive in the sixth."

Crawford Too Much With Mets

LOS ANGELES (AP) - A standing ovation each spring for the last several seasons has been "Is this the year for Willie Crawford?" Sports writers may have come up with something new, however. At the moment, Willie Crawford is playing like this, finally, is the year.

It's the 10th season with the Los Angeles Dodgers for Crawford, a $100,000 bonus choice in 1963 after a brilliant prep career at Los Angeles' Fremont High School.

His best season was two years ago, when he batted .281. But in 1972 he slipped to .351 and, like always, had to win back a starting outfield job this spring in Veroc Beach. He started slowly, batting .300 in early May. But today he's jolted his average to .315 and for the month of May is hitting a sizzling .435.

More than that, he's starting to hit home runs. Friday night, before a late-away throng of 53,624 at Dodger Stadium, he smashed a grand slam homer to lead the Dodgers to a 6-4 triumph over the New York Mets.

It was his fourth home run of the season, all of them coming this month, and his third in four games. Further, he walked his big blow off a left-hander, the Mets' Jon Matlack. Last year he went to bat only 20 times against left-handers.

"The big thing I'm doing now is hitting the ball where it is pitched," Crawford explained. "I get into trouble when I try to pull the ball for a home run." Manager Walter Alton said Crawford "is swinging the bat right now as good as I've ever seen him."

Crawford's blow came in the fifth inning, after the Mets had forgotten a 3-0 lead against Claude Osteen and Matlack had not allowed the Dodgers a base hit. Joe Ferguson reached first on an error and then Manny Mota, who was 9-for-9 in Thursday's 10-inning marathon, got the first of his three hits to break up Matlack's no-hit bid. Ron Cay followed with another hit, loading the bases for Crawford.

Effect of Bills Depends Upon Implementation

By GARY LUHRH
Associated Press Writer
HARTFORD (AP) - It may be several years before one can evaluate adequately the effect of the bills passed by the Connecticut General Assembly. Many of the laws signed or expected to be signed by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill have strong provisions, but what impact they have will depend largely on the people who will implement them.

A good case in point is the Hospital Cost Position set up to review and approve private hospital and nursing home budgets. Hospital administrators and trustees fought it. Meskill called it one of the most important bills to emerge this session - a strong tool for curbing rising hospital costs.

How long the commission will hold the reins on hospitals will depend on who the governor and legislative committee appoint to the 11-member body.

The same prospects hold for the new Criminal Justice Division in the Judiciary Department, and the seven-member Petroleum Products Control Commission created to regulate wholesale gasoline and fuel oil prices.

The effectiveness of a strong new unfair trade practices bill depends on how earnestly Consumer Protection Commissioner Raymond E. Demers, Business Manager, Raymond E. Demers Business Manager, will enforce it.

Likewise, the new enforcement powers given Environmental Commissioner Dan Lufkin won't mean much if he doesn't use them to crack down on environmental violators.

In divorce laws were liberalized and the death penalty put back in. That doesn't mean necessarily that Connecticut soon will become a divorce mill, but that the state's 13-year hiatus on executions is about to end.

The legislature delayed action on several potentially far-reaching actions in favor of further study. Committees were created to make recommendations next year on legislation dealing with school financing, court rules and collective bargaining for municipal employees.

Some capital observers, who predicted the battles of previous Democratic-controlled legislatures, complained that the year's Republican-run show was dull by comparison.

Republicans, for the most part, don't mind such criticism, saying they prefer efficiency to fireworks.

Changes in the legislative process reduced the number of bills drafted this year to roughly 270 - less than half the number produced in 1971. This undoubtedly was a factor in enabling the lawmakers to complete their business a full two weeks ahead of their constitutional deadline.

The factor, however, was having both the legislative and executive branches in the hands of the same party. It allowed the governor to stay in the background and let his legislative leaders guide

Mass Transit Amendment May Create Problems

By GARY LUHR, Associated Press Writer

HARTFORD (AP) — Because the legislature voted to commit a percentage of funds for mass transportation, budget makers might find themselves in a tight spot when they make out Connecticut's 1974-75 budget.

Gov. Thomas J. Meskill already sees a possible problem with an amendment to a bill establishing a general transportation fund next year from the present state highway fund, a portion of the public service tax fund and appropriations for aeronautics and waterways.

The amendment, passed this week, would require a portion of the fund to be spent for mass transportation — starting with 10 per cent in 1974-75 and increasing to 20 per cent by fiscal year 1978-79.

Meskill said he wanted the new fund because it would give the state greater flexibility in meeting its transportation needs. The amendment, however, could destroy that flexibility, he said.

Sen. Lawrence J. Denardis, R-Hamden, said he offered the amendment because the transportation department's master plan didn't give enough priority to mass transit projects. Other lawmakers, fearing the new fund simply was an excuse to divert more money for highway projects supported the amendment.

The only things required by law to be paid from the fund are Department of Motor Vehicle expenses and 90 per cent of state police costs. Beyond that there are no restrictions on how the money may be used.

"We'll do whatever the legislature directs us to do," said William Keish, communications director for the Transportation Department. "It will be up to them to determine what they want us to spend money on through line item appropriations in our budget," he said.

The legislature, then, has put the governor and perhaps itself on the spot in mandating an additional expenditure for mass transportation. The money, for the most part, will have to be diverted from other uses.

Highway fund appropriations for the coming year already exceed anticipated revenue by $7.9 million. The difference will come from a surplus in the current fund.

In addition the General Assembly approved $270 million in new highway projects which will make even greater demands on the fund.

If the fund can't be maintained at an adequate level through current means — the gasoline tax, motor vehicle license sales and various tolls — the cost of these items might have to be raised or money might have to be diverted from the general fund.

The alternative would be to neglect items currently paid for out of the fund such as road and bridge maintenance, highway safety programs and driver education.

Man Beaten, Then Killed

BELFAST (AP) — A man was beaten up and then assassinated during the night at the Giant's Ring, a tourist spot outside Belfast where the body of a 14-year-old boy was found earlier this year.

It raised to 804 the number of persons killed in nearly four years of violence in Northern Ireland.

The killing followed the explosion of a 600-pound bomb in Dungannon, 40 miles west of Belfast. No one was hurt in the blast because police received a warning and cleared the area.

Meanwhile, the army reported it received two letter-bombs addressed to troops and was keeping a close check on all mail.

Northeast Railroad Plan Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration asked Congress Friday to give the Secretary of Transportation authority to act as the trustee for rail service in the northeastern United States.

The administration proposal would allow the secretary to decide what areas should receive service and to veto any decisions made by the proposed Northeast Railroad Corp.

The Nixon plan to revitalize the financially ailing systems would direct the secretary to designate within 90 days after the bill's passage a Core Rail Service, identifying geographic zones which would receive rail service and the minimum number of railroads to provide the service.

The secretary, in making this designation, would consider the amount of rail traffic presently generated within the zones; whether rail service is more economically efficient than other available transportation alternatives, and the need for achieving rail service that is economically self-sustaining.

He also would consider the need to preserve rail service competition in markets of heavy rail traffic.

The secretary also would have authority over decisions made by the Northeast Railroad Corp., which would be charged with overseeing the transition.

That corporation would prepare a service plan identifying the rail lines the corporation plans to operate; negotiate agreements with bankrupts and other railroads for the acquisition of assets needed for service, issue and allocate stock to the railroads in return for assets, and negotiate agreements with railroad employees to be hired by the corporation.

It would also negotiate debt financing and provide for the operation of rail service on its own or by contract or by transferring its assets to one or more operating corporations it might create.

The administration proposed funding the corporation with $40 million for organizational expenses but said no funds would be made available for capital or operating expenses.

Secretary Claude Brinegar said the proposal unveiled Friday is one of three bills, the administration proposes as a solution to the northeast rail crisis.

The second bill provides for changes in the system of economic regulation of railroads and the third proposes revising the Bankruptcy Act provisions for the reorganization of railroads.

Six railroads in the northeast currently are in the process of reorganization. They are the Penn Central; Erie Lackawanna; Boston and Maine; Central of New Jersey; Lehigh Valley, and the Reading.

The Northeast Railroad Corp. could, in the first two years of service, discontinue service after 60 days notice if the secretary finds the market has changed and there is no reasonable prospect that the service can become self-sustaining.

State and local governments, shippers or other persons would be given an opportunity to purchase track abandoned by the railroads.

State and local governments also could take over the right-of-way for rapid transit, recreational or other purposes if no offers were made from private firms to continue rail service.

Texaco Sets Limits On Gas Purchases

HARTFORD (AP) — Texaco will limit gasoline to 10 gallons per customer at five Texaco stations in Connecticut during the Memorial Day weekend, a spokesman for the Department of Transportation (DOT) said Friday.

In addition, the spokesman said Texaco informed DOT in a letter that diesel fuel will be limited to a maximum of 35 gallons per customer during the holiday weekend at the five stations.

The stations affected by the cutback are in Fairfield and Branford on the Connecticut Turnpike, in Greenwich and Fairfield on the Merritt Parkway and in Vernon on the Wilbur Cross Parkway.

The DOT spokesman said he knew of no plans by other gasoline companies to limit gasoline sales in the state during the holiday weekend.

Police Report

Two men were charged Friday night with illegal possession of a non-narcotic controlled substance and illegal possession or control with intent to sell of a non-narcotic controlled substance, police said.

Charged were John J. Gilbooley, 22, of Enfield and Edward W. Beaudry, 20, of Warehouse Point. Beaudry was also charged with making an improper left turn.

Police said that the Beaudry vehicle was observed making an illegal left turn at Main and Wadsworth Sts. The arresting officer stopped the car, which according to police "smelled strongly of marijuana."

A search of the car and its occupants uncovered a "large bag" and a smaller quantity of a substance suspected to be marijuana, police said.

The two are being held in lieu of a $3,000 surety bond in each case. If bond is not posted the two will be presented in court Tuesday at East Hartford.

Teachers Form Contract Unit At Colleges

MANCHESTER (AP) — An organization to negotiate contracts for teachers in the 12 state community colleges was formed Friday.

About 150 staff members from the community colleges voted overwhelmingly to establish the Connecticut Community Colleges, a spokesman said.

The new group will seek members from the entire professional staff at the colleges, excluding the presidents.

"Indications are that the new group will have a majority of professional staff members in its ranks by early September," the spokesman said. "A majority in support of the reorganization already exists on several community college campuses."

In addition to collective bargaining, the group plans to work with academic questions such as class size, curriculum and other college matters.

"A deaf person is a born actor," says Linda Bove, a young actress who has been deaf since birth.

Miss Bove, who portrays Melissa in a newly-great role in CBS-TV's "Search for Tomorrow," explains that "we use our hands and body to communicate, just as a hearing actor would have to do in a stage portrayal."

The young actress has had five years of stage experience, having joined the National Theatre of the Deaf when it was formed in 1969. She was "discovered" while attending Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C.

Miss Bove has been on 12 national tours, six European trips, and has won numerous special acting awards.

A Baseball Guide for Beginning Players and Fans

Baseball season is here. Many children play just for fun on vacant lots or fields. Others play for fun, but on organized teams.

Many cities have leagues or groups of teams for three age groups; 9 to 12, 13 to 15, and 15 to 17. Some towns have teams for younger children.

Many of the teams for players 12 and under are members of a nationwide organization called the Little League. It was first organized in 1939 and has its headquarters in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. A Little League World Series is held there every year.

Other teams are members of local and state groups. Although many people call them Little League teams, they are not members of the national Little League organization.

The Defensive Players

The pitcher tries to throw the ball so the players will strike out. He also helps back up second and third base and home plate. The catcher gives finger signals for the types of pitches he would like the pitcher to throw. He tries to keep the runners from stealing bases. He guards home plate and helps the first baseman.

The infielders are the first baseman, second baseman, third baseman and shortstop. These players catch ground balls and pop flies in the infield. They catch the ball from the outfielders and cover the bases.

The outfielders are the left fielder, center fielder and right fielder. They catch flies and also field balls that have been hit past or over infielders.

The Offensive Players

Batters bat in a special order decided by the coaches before the game. The batters try to hit the ball and legally advance around the bases so they can score. A player scores one run when he crosses home plate.

There are base coaches at first and third bases to give information to runners by the use of signals.

Practice is one of the secrets to a good season. The players above are wearing batting helmets.

Animal of the Week: The Skunk

The skunk is a small animal about the size of a large cat. It lives in North and South America. A skunk defends itself by shooting off a very bad smelling liquid from glands close to its tail. It can squirt up to 15 feet. It moves around at night to get its food. The skunk eats rats, insects, small animals and nuts. A mother will have from four to seven babies at a time.

Draw Dot to Dot and Color!

Keep your eye on the ball! This is one of the most important rules in baseball!

The Little League bat can be no longer than 33 inches. A major league bat can be no longer than 42 inches.

Baseball Quiz-a-roo!™

How many teams are there in the major leagues?

There are two leagues, the National and the American. Each has 12 teams. Each team plays 162 games a season. Each league has two divisions. The divisions play each other for the league pennant. The team that wins the pennant flies it over their home stadium.

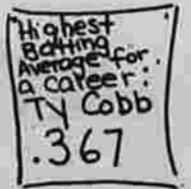

What is the World Series?

The winners of each league pennant play against each other in October in the World Series. The winner is the first team to win four games.

What is a batting average?

A batting average is the number of hits a player has made divided by his times at bat. This is carried to three decimal places. For example, if a player has been at bat 10 times and has made three hits, his average is .300. This is a very good average.

Sportsmanship

is being a good loser... and a good winner!

Your team played a good game.

But your team won. Congratulations!

Better luck next time.
