

Skylab Crew In Good Shape

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The Skylab astronauts have been pronounced nearly as fit after 10 days in space as they were before the mission began. Early findings from tests of the three crewmen, indicate their capacity to perform work has been essentially unchanged, medical officials said. Such functions as heart rate, blood pressure and breathing rate during exercise "are not far away from the preflight baseline" figures, said Dr. Royce Hawkins, Skylab flight surgeon.

A major goal of the 28-day flight is to determine the effects of long periods of weightlessness on human functions. The crewmen of the 14-day Gemini 7 flight "showed a significant decrease in work capacity. They also had some trouble readjusting to earth gravity. Their limbs were heavy, and the blood tended to pool in their legs and cause feelings of dizziness. Similar problems were noted by Russian cosmonauts after 18-and 24-day Soyuz flights.

'Doctor' Effects Rescue

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (AP) — Benjamin Brown, 20, was riding a rapid transit car to his job as a cook at a restaurant here when a man rushed up shouting, "Doctor, doctor, come quick!" Brown, who was wearing a white coat, protested, "Wait a minute, I'm no doctor. I'm a..." "No time for explanations," the man interrupted. "A little girl is sick in the next car."

He had learned in a high school first aid course. The little girl revived and vomited into the arms of her mother, who barely had time to thank Brown before he left the train to go to work.

ECHS Echo Award Winner

East Catholic High School's student newspaper, The Echo, has received a first place award in the annual Columbia University Scholastic Press Association national competition. The Echo was judged perfect in the competition's three major categories — content, writing & editing, and makeup. Nearly 3,000 high school newspapers were involved in the contest. To attain a perfect score, a definitive balance and perspective must appear consistently in each edition of the school newspaper. Feature stories must display unique and high levels of creativity; news material must be thoroughly prepared with extensive research and logical development. The Echo in the writing & editing category was broken into five areas — general news, features, editorials, and news, and a separate category for the makeup category. Judges looked at appearance of the newspaper, style, layout, and typography. The Echo is published quarterly under direction of Mrs. Marjorie Kobanski, advisor. This is the first time in the school's history that a newspaper has won a first place award in such a competition.

The Old Codger's CODGITIONS

Some people claim that the wild small game animals and birds are governed solely by instinct and do not reason things out. O.C. can't say that. We let down the awning and found it chived with big holes in it. The babies were raised on warm milk which were nice droppers until they could eat nuts and were then given their freedom. They would stand up on their hind legs and reach as far as they could to pull the dropper down into their mouths. We have had numerous squirrels flap and take nuts and seeds. One we called "Fluffy" was the greatest of all. She had several litters of young, three or four young squirrels a year. As soon as they were able to go on their own and beginning to come to us, Fluffy seemed jealous and drove them away. One year something got one of her kids out of the burrow in a lumber pile. She brought it over to us to care for. We had little hope for its survival. It was badly torn from one end to the other. Not only was the hide ripped open but big chunks of flesh were hanging out. Fluffy would come several times a day to nurse feed (she then go back to take care of the others in her nest. Well, the little fellow pulled through though slightly crippled got out into the world on his own. Fluffy grew so old with us that she lost her teeth and for the last six years we had to pick out and seed meals and break them for her. She also liked to sit on our shoulders. She would come when called and put her front paws on our hands while she ate off the palm. At last she disappeared. It's doubtful if squirrels in the wild live to such an age. One gray that came to live with us was blind in one eye. The right eye was black, the left white. He was more suspicious than the others. Probably had to be to live. Our daughter named him "Eyespots."

Injured Removed From Train

Commuter Trains Crash In Station

MOUNT VERNON, N.Y. (AP) — The Penn Central Railroad and other officials launched inquiries today into a crash that killed one person and injured more than 100 passengers as a commuter train derailed and crashed into a building at a station in Mount Vernon, N.Y., Friday night. A railroad spokesman would not comment on reports that the express did not slow down just before the crash at the Mount Vernon station Friday evening. A railroad bartender in the first car said it did not sound as though the brakes were working.

For many passengers in the lead car, warning came when the engineer ran from his compartment shouting, "We're going to crash!" In other cars, several passengers said they had no warning at all.

Colin Hughes, Australian vice consul in New York, was reported in serious condition at Mt. Vernon Hospital. Former Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, on his way to a Yale reunion in New Haven, was one of 107 passengers treated for minor injuries at the hospital and released.

Police identified the dead man as Dominic Gomes, of Port Chester, N.Y. His body was trapped in wreckage which firemen cut away with acetylene torches. The railroad and the Westchester County District Attorney's office both questioned train crewmen after the crash. The Penn Central spokesman said the local was unloading an express track at the station because of earlier equipment problems on the local track out of New York City. He said the express was behind schedule on a night plagued by general delays along the line. Irving Brewington, a bartender of 38 years' experience with the railroad, said the train "lost its brakes" before the station. When the engineer ran frightened from his compartment, Brewington said, automatic devices should have applied the brakes. "You didn't hear anything. Anything you leave the controls the train is supposed to stop. It screams. There was no screech. There was not stop until the bang."

Senate Farm Bill Limits Subsidies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed overwhelmingly a farm bill opposed by the Nixon administration, tying to it a $200-million-per-farmer annual subsidy limit criticized in the House.

Friday's 78-9 vote came after four days of debate. The legislation was sent to the House where Chairman Dan Rostenkowski of the Agriculture Committee, and Rep. F.P. Sisk, chairman of its Cotton Subcommittee, said Friday they were bitter about the $200-million subsidy ceiling. Poage of Texas, and Sisk, a California, said it might be better to abandon the legislation altogether and return to an earlier farm program they said was fairer to farmers. The two are Democrats.

Mary Strow, RN, nursing director at Man Memorial Hospital, presented the awards in ceremonies Friday morning at the hospital. Miss Crawford will attend St. Vincent's Hospital, Miss Savino will train at Hartford Hospital, and Mrs. Creagan will train at the University of Connecticut School of Nursing. A stipulation of the program is that the recipients agree to return to Manchester Memorial for at least one year of service after completion of their training.

Fighting Flares Up In South Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The Canadians on the cease-fire supervisory group were ordered to stay in their barracks today as a sharp surge of fighting was reported throughout South Vietnam.

Senior officers said the approximately 240 Canadians with the International Commission of Control and Supervision were told to stay in their quarters except for essential movements, because of the increased risks to their lives, according to sources in close contact with the Canadians. The chief Saigon command spokesman, Lt. Col. Le Trung Hien, charged that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces violated the cease-fire 161 times during the 24 hours ending at dawn today. This was the highest number since 200 violations were alleged on Feb. 20.

The Viet Cong claimed they had crushed two large-scale South Vietnamese operations, wiped out 300 government troops and shot down two helicopters. Government forces attempted to reopen Highway 13 to the isolated city of An Loc north of Saigon and to extend the front in the Mekong Delta area where blocked, a Viet Cong spokesman said. The government said its forces killed 45 Viet Cong in an eight-hour fight to force back an enemy thrust at the road. A South Vietnamese communication listed 11 government soldiers killed and 26 wounded.

The Viet Cong spokesman, Col. Vo Dong Giang, said the Saigon forces lost 300 soldiers and two helicopters during a futile attempt to extend their control in Chienong Thien province in the northern part of the country. U.S. field sources confirmed that the South Vietnamese had suffered heavy casualties in an operation in this area the past month.

McCord Seeks New Trial Or Acquittal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A day after a member of the Senate Watergate investigating committee predicted the conviction of two conspirators would be overturned, the lawyer for one of them filed a motion for a new trial.

Gov. Meskill Protests PUC Action

HARTFORD (AP) — An outraged Gov. Thomas J. Meskill says he will redouble his efforts to make sure a temporary rate increase granted to Connecticut Light & Power Co. (CL&P) doesn't become permanent.

The state Public Utilities Commission Friday granted CL&P a $5.5 million interim rate increase. But the PUC denied a request by the Hartford Electric Light Co. (HELCO) for a $2 million interim increase. Both companies are members of Northeast Utilities.

Meskill, who plans to testify against both requests during the HELCO hearing this week, said today's action means that the consumers and homeowners must now wage an uphill battle to just stay even.

The governor termed the action a "flagrant and careless disregard for the public interest." He called on the commission to rescind its decision immediately.

"We must redouble our efforts to make sure that this temporary increase does not become permanent," Meskill said. "The PUC said evidence introduced by the company so far 'did not establish that earnings have eroded to such a degree that immediate commission action is necessary in order to preserve the financial integrity of the company.'"

The HELCO hearing before Tuesday. Should the PUC's final order support or reduce CL&P's interim increase, the company must refund money to its customers at 8 per cent interest.

Turcotte on Spot In Belmont Today

Fun in the Clubhouse

Sparky Lyle was only with the New York Yankees a short time but he's already taken charge of the clubhouse. Lyle devised the following fine chart which was approved by the players: $1 for not being on the field for the first out of the National Anthem, $1 for talking during the National Anthem, $5 for embarrassing the club and $5 for eating in the clubhouse without any clothes on. Baseball attendance is off at all three Eastern parks, Fenway in Boston and Shea and Yankee Stadium in New York. Less than 7,000 came to see Hank Aaron and the Braves against the Mets at Shea, a new all-time low. Official major league baseball scorers are drawing down $40 per game. All are regular members of the Baseball Writers Assn. Two changes in the New York Yankee home schedule will find the July 5 and July 17 games against Boston and Milwaukee being changed from 6 o'clock twilight starts to day games starting at 2. Manchester Country Club is planning a special Sesquiennial Golf Tournament the weekend of June 22. Maynard Clough reports the town will present trophies for low gross and net scores. First 18 holes in the 72-hole Manchester Country Club Men's Division Club Championship will be played Saturday with the second 18 on Sunday. Third round is listed June 16 with the first 18 Sunday, June 17. Chris Saunders, who has won this year's graduating class at Manchester High, co-captained both the soccer and tennis teams during the past season. He's also class president. Dan Pinto, a third baseman with East Catholic High's baseball team and a fine soccer player, is the class president at his school.

Back on Fairways

Patty Torza, having completed her school year at Southern Connecticut State College in New Haven, is back on the greens and fairways and played the Manchester course for the first time this week. Miss Torza will again play out of the Manchester Country Club in tournaments this season. She's a former state women's amateur golf champion. Little League baseball season in Manchester reached the half-way point this week. Timmy O'Neil is again playing second base with East Hartford in the New England League and Ray LaGace has returned as a pitcher with Herk's in the same loop. John McKenney, fresh from a fine season with East Catholic, started off with a bang as the designated hitter with the Vernon Orioles, going two for four. O'Neil and LaGace are also East products. The man-on-the-go at the Manchester Senior Citizens Center, Pete Vendello, was recently cited by the Rockville Seniors for his efforts in their behalf. Will Clarke, feeling fit as a fiddle, is back in town after recuperating from an illness in Florida. Brian Stros' Little League baseball career ended Thursday night when he suffered a broken leg in the American League while playing with the Army & Navy entry. David Caldwell, a sophomore at Amherst, has been awarded a varsity letter in lacrosse. Caldwell is a graduate of Loomis School. George Finnegan is lettered in soccer at Bentley College in Waltham, Mass. Club Championship play starts this weekend at the Manchester Country Club with Stan Hlinski defending his title. Hlinski is a one handicap golfer. Former champion Ernie Kennedy has a two handicap. Dintira Bailey is a teaching tennis pro in East Hartford this season. Mrs. Bailey is the women's singles champion at the Neipscic Tennis Club as well as its publicist. Have a nice weekend.

Third Straight Win

MB's Explode, Bury Orioles

Following up John Serafini's two-hit shutout pitching Thursday night, newcomer Jay Tyler neared an impressive four-hitter last night at Mt. Nebo as Moriarty's blanked the Vernon Orioles, 9-0. A fine home opening night crowd watched the Herk Twilight League play at Mt. Nebo as the MB's notched their third straight decision in as many starts. All the scoring came in the fourth inning when the locals broke through against Russ Bileaud and continued their assault on Hugh Campbell and Karol Dombek. Tuesday night the locals return to Nebo to entertain Herk's. In breaking the scoreless tie, the MB's first eight batters in the fourth reached base and before the dust had settled, seven base hits had produced the nine markers against the trio of Oriole pitchers. The game's only extra base blow was a double by Leo Velas, who started the uprising which found the locals batting around. Shortstop Bob Trivakias and third baseman Gene Johnson each rapped out two hits for the winners. Tyler fanned eight and walked six. Bileaud, who started with Manchester Community College during the spring, was tagged with the loss. He was reached for five hits and four runs before Campbell took over in the fourth with no one out. The Springfield College ace was treated roughly, giving up three hits and four runs.

Saturday Night 8:00 P.M.

Stafford Motor Speedway
ROUTE 140, STAFFORD SPRING, CONN.

NEW YORK (AP) — Can you picture Tom Turcotte, the man on the spot in today's Belmont Stakes, in short pants, barefoot in a mud puddle and with a pocketful of marbles? He surely doesn't remember that afternoon in June 1946, but it may have been just that way, since at the time little Ronnie was just out of the first grade and waiting for his seventh birthday. That was the day that Calumet Farm's Citation became the last Triple Crown winner before a 26-year period that saw Turcotte grow only enough to become New York's leading jockey this year. It also started a 25-year drought when a half-dozen equine athletes were able to win the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, but came up short in the grueling, 1 1/2-mile Belmont. "It's a strange thing and I can't explain it," said Jimmy Jones, who saddled Citation that afternoon in 1948 when he reflected on the quarter century that has passed without another Triple Crown winner. At the time, Jones said, it wasn't at all the thrill Turcotte was looking for today with Meadow Stable's Secretariat. "It was exciting, of course, but it had been done four times in eight years and none of us knew that it would be done again for 25 years," Jones said. Seven of the eight Triple Crown winners have turned the trick since the Belmont was stretched to 1 1/4 miles in 1926 and all the latter's was inside-the-part.

Tom Weiskopf Takes Time Out to Rest Caddy Leroy Schultz Joins Pro During Philadelphia Classic

Unknown Leads In Classic Golf

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The crowd came to see Jack Nicklaus, Lee Trevino and Tom Weiskopf, and left talking about Jim Barber. "Jim who?" asked Weiskopf when told Barber led the second round of the $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic with a 36-hole total of 132, 12 under par and the lowest two-round score in the history of the 10-year-old tournament. "Never heard of him," said Weiskopf, who shot a one-under-par 71 for a total of 137 for a two-round 68 for a two-round total of 135. Fezler also fired a 67 Friday for a 36-hole score of 133. Grouped at 136 were Dave Barber (no relation to Jim) and Larry Ziegler, Hale Irwin and Jim Schlee. The 24-year-old Barber blazed over the 6,708-yard Whitmarsh Valley Country Club course Friday in five-and-a-half hours, 67, carding five birdies and

Eagles Acquire Gabriel

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Quarterback Roman Gabriel, his 11-year roller-coaster career with the Los Angeles Rams ending on a bitter note, is going to the Philadelphia Eagles as he wishes in return for two players and three key draft choices. The Rams got All-Pro wide receiver Harold Jackson and reserve running back Tony Baker along with draft pick in the Friday trade that culminated one of the most publicly aired deals over the National Football League. Also, Los Angeles receives the Eagles' top draft choice next year and No. 1 and No. 3 in 1975—helping the Rams, whose draft stock was badly depleted by trades in previous years. "We paid a becvuca price," admitted Eagles Coach Mike McCormick, who said he hopes to get two solid years from Gabriel, after which Philadelphia's top draft choice in 1972, quarterback John Heaves, might be ready to take over. "I believe this will make Reeves a better quarterback, and a better quarterback faster," said McCormick.

Slow Pitch Softball
SILK CITY — The last inning but not by that name North Methodist dug and piled up a big lead en route to a 15-4 victory. The winners were led by Jim LaFesta's four hits, three by Jeff Segal and two each of the bats of Mike Malone and Harold Steely. Best defeat were Keith Sheavers and Pete Avery with two each. EASTERN Starting off with six runs in the first frame, Lenox Pharmacy went on to trounce the Jaycees last night, 15-2. Best stickers for Lenox were Ken Roback with three hits and two each by Glenn Cooper and Bob Bergin. Ralph Amick and Don Lappen led the losers getting on base twice by hits. DUSTY Telephone put it all together in the first inning last night and batted around twice as 16 runs scored and this led to a 19-3 walloping of Miles Auto at Robertson last night. Dick Allen Angered, Lets Bat Do Talking

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Allen was mad. Ooh, was he mad. So was Joe Lutz. In fact, you might say that it was just a mad, mad world at the Cleveland-Chicago game Friday night. Allen, who later hit his 15th home run of the year home run to help Chicago defeat Cleveland 5-3 for Wilbur Wood's 14th victory, was involved in a typical baseball ruckus in the third inning. The White Sox dugger felt that Cleveland's Milt Wilcox was coming uncomfortably close to him with his pitches. "I just stepped out of the box to tell Wilcox to get the ball over the plate, as he threw two straight pitches near my ribs," said Allen. "That's when the Indians started throwing adjacent from the bench, claimed Allen. And he threw some back. "The Indians were calling me names," said Allen. Lutz, a Cleveland coach, charged out of the dugout to challenge Chicago's big hitter and was promptly thrown out of the game by umpire Bill Sunkel. Meanwhile, Chicago Manager Tom Tanner had come out of the White Sox dugout to try to cool off Allen. In other American League games, the Minnesota Twins blanked the Baltimore Orioles 2-0; the Texas Rangers turned

Broberg Shackles Red Sox

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Pete Broberg, the young fireballer who stepped out of college baseball into the majors, had a particular reason for wanting to defeat the Boston Red Sox. "Now the people at Dartmouth can get off my back," the big right-hander of the Texas Rangers said Friday after his club bested the visiting Red Sox 5-2. The victory halted Broberg's record to 2-5 for the season. Rico Carly led the hitting attack against loser John Curtis, 9-4, when he singled home a run in the third to give the Rangers a 2-1 lead, and then put the game away with his third home run in the seventh inn. Alf Johnson slugged a single in the opening inning to drive in the first Texas run. However Boston's Rick Miller doubled home a run in the top of the third to tie the game. After the Rangers made it 3-1 in the fourth on Jeff Burroughs' seventh homer of the year, Reggie Smith, Boston center-fielder, cut the lead with a solo homer in the sixth off Broberg. Smith's blast was his fifth of the year and his first since May 12. Broberg was lifted in the seventh inning after giving up eight hits and Bill Gogolewski came on to finish up and earn a save. The defeat snapped a Red Sox three-game winning streak.

Hart Wears Big Grin And for Good Reason

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Jim Ray Hart looked up and let loose with a big grin—and for good reason. Hart, the bulky brute the New York Yankees obtained from the San Francisco Giants, had hit two home runs in Friday night's 8-1 victory over the Kansas City Royals. Right now, though, he was looking beyond the two home runs, toward the end of the American League season. "We," Hart said with a grin, "are going to win the pennant. The Yankees are going all the way." Suddenly, the home runs were the freshest thing on Hart's mind, and he was obviously pleased with his role as the Yankees' designated hitter. "The way I'm going right now," he said, "it's really beautiful. I've got three hits on this road trip, and all three of them have been home runs. I'd like to get a few base hits between home runs. "No, I have no preference as far as Yankee Stadium is concerned and the parks on the road. If you hit one, it'll go out anywhere. I'm tickled to death to be with the Yankees. I wouldn't have done anything anymore with the Giants. Hart's first home run, a two-run shot, came in the third inning following a walk to Ron Blomberg and capped a three-run Yankee uprising that started with homers by Roy White and Bobby Murcer. The big blow all came off Gene Garber, 5-3. Hart's second homer, his seventh of the season, was a blast off reliever Mike Jackson in the seventh. Yankee Manager Ralph Houk was overwhelmed by Hart's performance. "Hart has been a real asset," Houk said. "He's given us a real lift. We're very fortunate that we got him. We never had any doubts about his hitting. He's hit all his life." Houk said he took starter pitcher George Medich, 5-2, out in the seventh inning with the bases loaded and two out "because he ran out of gas." Sparky Lyle took over, got Cookie Rojas to ground out and recorded his 12th save. Houk, however, wasn't about to go out on the same limb with Hart and predict his team would win it all. The Yanks took the Detroit Tigers by one-half game in the American League East. "First place doesn't mean a whole lot right now," Houk smiled. "There's a lot of water to go under the bridge yet...." Houk was certain about one thing, though: "You can bet Jim Ray Hart will be our designated hitter tomorrow night."

Dozen Bases on Balls Add to Giant Downfall

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are going to lose a baseball game, you might as well lose it by 14 runs. There's less anguish for the manager that way. The San Francisco Giants gave manager Charlie Fox, tummy rest Friday night, surrendering eight runs in the first two innings and coming out on the short end of a 17-3 score in Montreal. The game was never close enough for Fox to get up over. Unless, of course, bases on balls bother him. The Expos got 28 men on base against the Giants, 12 on walks. Three of the Expos runs were forced in by base-loaded walks and three more scored on wild pitches. Another trotted home on a passed ball. Ron Hunt had three hits and scored five runs for the Expos. Elsewhere in the National League Friday, Los Angeles edged Pittsburgh 4-3. Houston edged Pittsburgh 4-3. Atlanta downed St. Louis 5-3. Philadelphia took San Diego 5-1 and Chicago nipped Cincinnati 6-5. Dodgers-Mets The Dodgers took advantage of the Giants' Montreal disaster to pick up a full game on San Francisco's National League West leaders. Los Angeles beat New York 6-0. Tom Seaver, scoring four runs in the sixth inning to tie it. Willie Davis' two-run homer gave Los Angeles a 2-2 lead and then Bill Russell stroked a two-out, two-run single that put the Dodgers in control. Jim Milner homered for the Mets, who've lost 10 of their last 12. Astros-Pirates The Houston Astros took the lead in the seventh inning, two of them on a tie-breaking single by

Today's Thought

"Lord Teach us to Pray" Lk. 11:1

Prayer makes us real persons because it places us in a full relationship with God and enables us to face the challenges and realities of life with full assurance. In prayer we respond to God's love with our own and share in His very life.

The real effort of prayer is not found in an isolated experience but in the continuing relationship with God, becoming possessed of His plan, His thought, His passion of the world.

island of Guam, a U.S. territory, it was learned Friday.

Pastic, who joined the town staff in December 1971, succeeding John McAlmont, the town's first professional planner, will be leaving Vernon government the latter part of July to accept the Guam post. He will be a member of the island's public works department staff and will draw about the same salary of $13,150 he receives in Vernon, but the territorial government is also supplying him with a housing subsidy.

He considers the Guam post a challenge.

Pastic said he felt it "appropriate" to leave at this time as there are "there are no critical things pending that I would ruin by leaving."

CPTV Nets $140,000 In Auction

Connecticut Public Television (CPTV) is now $140,000 richer thanks to the non-commercial network's 1973 fund-raising auction.

Paul K. Taff, president and general manager of CPTV, said the funds raised in the nine-day on-air auction will help the operating budget this year and will allow the network to stay on the air on Saturdays throughout the summer.

The second annual auction, which ran from May 4 to 12, brought together 400 volunteers. Business and CPTV supporters throughout the state donated about 3,000 items to the effort.

Highlights of the auction included a 1929 Model A Ford, a boa constrictor, shoeshines by Hartford Mayor George Athanson, and a 1,000-mile flight in a Lear jet.

TV Notes

"Match Game '73," a fast-paced, updated version of the now-defunct game series, will premiere Monday, June 25, at 3:30 p.m. on CBS-TV. The series, replacing "Hollywood's Talking," will star its original host, Gene Rayburn.

A special broadcast of CBS-TV's "Carol Burnett Show" will originate in the new multi-million-dollar opera house at Sydney, Australia, this fall. Queen Elizabeth II will attend the show, which will be taped in October for later broadcast.

CORRECTION

An ABC-TV special, "The Young Scientists," was not presented Tuesday night as originally announced by the network. Instead it has been scheduled for Friday, June 15, at 10 p.m.

Peter Falk, star of NBC-TV's "Columbo," is proud of the rumpled raincoat he wears in the series. "It's my own coat," he says.

Richard Boone was a member of the Stanford University boxing team and won the intercollegiate light-heavyweight championship in 1936 and 1937.

Give Your Dad a Chess Player for Father's Day

A young chess player challenges her father as her mother watches.

Sunday, June 17, is Father's Day. If you're looking for a gift, you might consider giving Dad a chess player! You! Children all over the country are learning to play and enjoy the game with their dads, their mothers and their friends.

Point of the Game

The point of the game is to trap the other person's king. You do this by moving your chess pieces in such a way that the king cannot escape being taken. This is called "checkmate." Your opponent, of course, is trying to capture your king at the same time, so you must defend your king against his pieces.

Beginning Hints

You should learn the names of the pieces. Each piece moves differently, so you must learn the directions in which they can go. You should also learn a few good opening moves that will help you control the game. As is true in all games, good sportsmanship is important. Dad might be learning, too, so you might want to get a book for beginners or ask someone who really knows chess to teach you. Some schools offer chess lessons, so maybe you can teach dad what you learn.

Why Play?

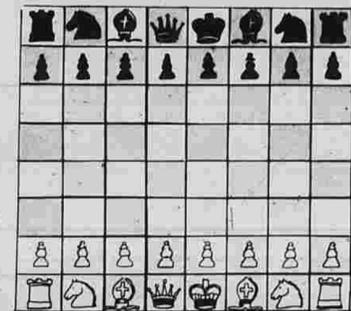

Chess is a game of skill. Children enjoy it because they like to learn strategy, how to think and concentrate. They find chess fun, exciting and relaxing.

Black Men	White Men
1 King	1 King
1 Queen	1 Queen
2 Bishops	2 Bishops
2 Knights	2 Knights
2 Rooks	2 Rooks
8 Pawns	8 Pawns

Each chess set has two armies with 16 pieces each.

The chess pieces (from left): king, queen, bishop, knight, rook and pawn.

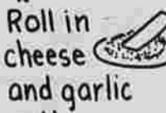

A chess board has 64 squares with 32 light and 32 dark squares.

Here's a gift you can make for Dad!

Famous Paintings

"Saint George and the Dragon," painted in 1504-05 by Raphael, is from the Andrew Mellon Collection at the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C.

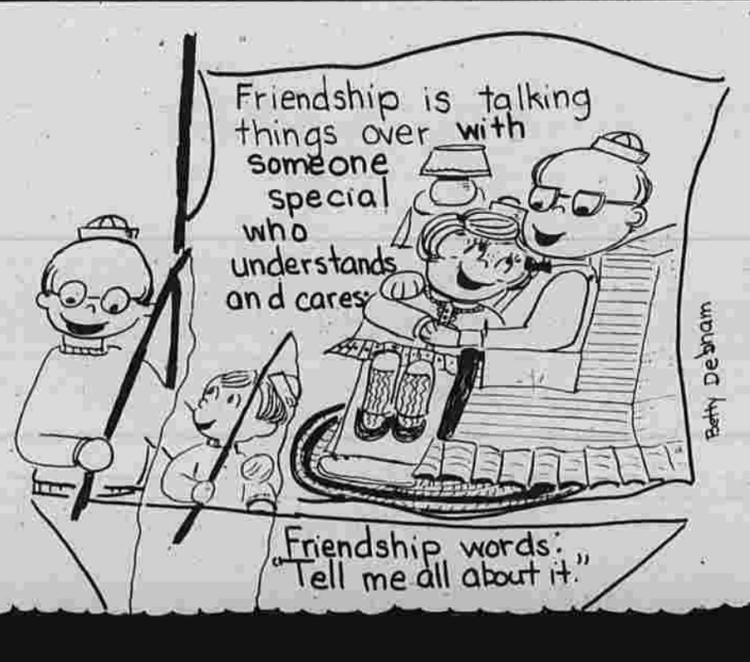

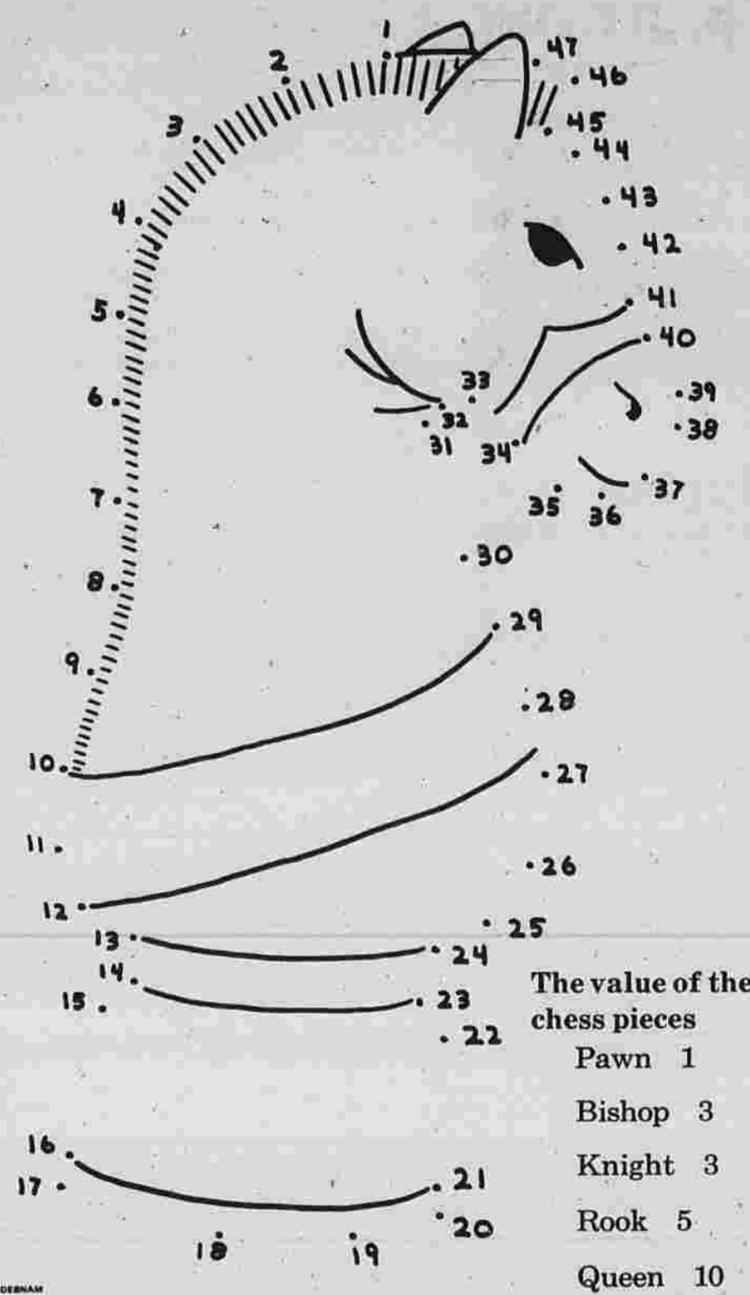

Notice how the artist used curved and slanted lines to create a sense of movement. See the curved lines in the horse's tail and the dragon's neck. See the slanted lines in the lance and in the rearing horse.

The Story of Saint George and the Dragon

According to legend, Saint George was a Roman soldier of the Christian faith who lived at the end of the third century, A.D. Once, while traveling in Africa, George came upon a weeping princess, who was the only daughter of a non-Christian king whose subjects had been frightened by a dragon. To make the creature happy, the people of the kingdom had been giving it two sheep every day. When their flocks were gone, they had to sacrifice their children. Just as the princess was to be sacrificed, George appeared and, calling on Christ to aid him, killed the evil beast.

Saint George came to stand for the power of good over evil.

This painting is by Raphael, one of the greatest painters in 16th century Italy. He lived from 1483 to 1520.
