Two Rob Gas Station

VERNON
Two unidentified white males entered the Vernon Mobil Gasoline Station, Rt. 30, early this morning and escaped with all the cash in the station's cash register, Vernon Police said.

A witness told police that one of the men grabbed the lone attendant from behind and held him as the other took the money.

The two apparently fled on foot, police said.

It is not known how much cash was taken in the robbery, whether a vehicle was used in the escape or if a weapon was used in the crime, police said.

The investigation is continuing.

Norman S. Goldberg, 27, of 6 Ward St., Rockville, was charged Wednesday on a Circuit Court 11 arrest warrant with issuing a bad check, police said. He was turned over to Willimantic Police and will be tried in Circuit Court 11.

Identification Leads To Quick Car Recovery

Lady Luck prevailed in the case of a Manchester man who had his new 1973 Ford Thunderbird stolen while on a business trip to Boston.

Stewart Johnston, president of Dillon Ford in Manchester, had the following experience Tuesday in Boston:

Unable to get a hotel room in Cambridge, fifteen minutes later he came out and was stunned to see his car gone. He immediately notified the Boston police.

Fifteen minutes later, Boston police recovered the car, thanks to an alert motorcycle policeman who spotted the Johnston car because of a special identification sticker. Johnston is a member of the 100 Club in Connecticut, gaining the membership by contributing $100 annually to a police and fire benefit fund.

Two juveniles in the car were caught. The registration plates had been changed and several other sets were recovered. The car, which had been locked, was opened in a manner demonstrated by the boys to Johnston.

Johnston said there was no damage to the car.

Sesquicentennial Ball Tonight

Only two more full days of programmed events are left of Manchester's Sesquicentennial celebration, and the weather has conveniently cooperated so far.

The two big affairs tonight are the Youth Concert at Mt. Nbo, and the first night of two Grand Balls at the State Armory.

The Youth Concert, sponsored by the Sesquicentennial Committee, will feature two local bands, Circus and the Marvellous Marbles. They will perform from 7 to 11 p.m.

Cancelled

The Youth Concert scheduled for tonight at Mt. Nbo has been cancelled for the weekend. Forecasts of inclement weather tonight and tomorrow have brought about the decision.

A probable date will be one night next week at a time to be announced. The Herald will publish the new date.

This is also the second night for "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room" an old time melodrama which begins at 8 at the Community Y, 80 N. Main St. Tickets will be available at Mt. Nbo.

People born since 1920 are unaware of what houses used to be like. Windows were screened, but the houses infested every kitchen, and as the bookcase, a life of George Washington, which had some pages that were crudely illustrated in color. Photoengraving was yet to come. Pictures would usually be steel engravings or woodcuts.

Mark Revalued

BONN, Germany (AP) - West Germany revalued its mark upward by 5 1/2 per cent against seven other European countries today. The U.S. dollar, rated by experts as underpriced, plunged to all-time lows on major European exchanges, then gained slightly on some.

The West German move came 4 1/2 months after the cent devaluation of the dollar in February and a 3 per cent upward revaluation of the mark in March. Since then, the dollar has allowed to float against the dollar, with the strong German money pushing upward in value and the dollar drifting ever lower.

When it was time to cook dinner, the first task was to wash the dishes by opening the screen door, pulling down the shades so as to leave one bright opening, and flange towels all over the house. Porches and rocking chairs went out of style several decades ago, and I don't know why.

What has happened to the streets? On a rainy day or in a strange house, they were fascinating places for a lonely boy.

There would be a spinning wheel there, although nobody even to use it. The wheel would spin until we broke the pedal. There were decrepit bureau full of obsolete objects and packages of letters preserved from a previous generation.

Chilean Rebels Attack Palace

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) - Army troops backed by tanks opened fire with machine guns on the palace of Marxist President Salvador Allende in downtown Santiago today.

Allende took office Nov. 3, 1970, for a six-year term. His administration was formed of a coalition of Communists and Socialists and his announced aim at inauguration was to make Chile a Socialist state.

Since Allende has been at the head of the government, prices have risen and food and other essential commodities have run short.

This sparked demonstrations by anti-Marxists from time to time. Allende supporters have held counterdemonstrations. Last week, half of Chile's 10 million people were hit by general strikes called by Allende opponents and those who support him.

The anti-Marxists were protesting Allende's policies as well as supporting 15,000 copper miners who had been on strike for nearly two months to enforce their demands for a 4 per cent wage increase to meet a record increase in the cost of living.

On Thursday, Gen. Mario Sepulveda, commander of the Santiago military garrison, said military intelligence had uncovered a plot Tuesday by several civilians and low-ranking army officers.

Sepulveda did not give any details other than to say that several persons had been arrested.

Nixon Affidavit Wanted By Baker

WASHINGTON (AP) - Ousted presidential counsel John W. Dean III told the Senate Watergate hearings today that he knows of no legal work done at the White House concerning subpoenaing of the President by Congress.

Shortly before Dean began his fifth day of testimony, Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., the committee vice chairman, appealed to President Nixon to give a sworn affidavit to the Department of Justice concerning the subpoenaing of the President by Congress.

Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, D-N.M., the first questioner of Dean today, asked about legal work performed by White House lawyers on separation of powers and executive privilege. Dean said neither he nor anyone else is aware of how Dean worked on such matters in relation to any subpoena of Nixon. Montoya did not directly suggest that Nixon be subpoenaed.

The committee heard Thursday that the President publicly through an aide last March that his attorney general, Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., had focused through a new White House "energy czar."

The Senate panel obtained a transcript of the conversation between John D. Ehrlichman and then-Atty. Gen. Richard G.

Nixon Expected To Announce Energy Program

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Nixon was expected to call today for a 5 per cent reduction in personal consumption of energy, led by government efforts to cut energy use by 7 per cent.

The President also was expected to propose a major government reorganization to collect energy and resource management programs in a proposed new department built around the present Interior Department.

Atomic energy development activities were to be divorced from the Atomic Energy Commission and wed to Interior's fossil-fuel research programs under a new Energy Research and Development Administration.

Energy policy-making and program coordination was to be focused through a new White House "energy czar."

Colorado's Gov. John A. Love - President and director of a White House Energy Policy Office.

The administration also was expected to propose a version of its voluntary gasoline and oil allocation program, to assure fair distribution of short fuel supplies.

But that measure was not included in the President's energy message, according to a detailed description obtained by the Associated Press.

The President called for energy steps that would affect consumers:

- A slowing down of cars on the highways to save gas.
- An easing up on summer air-conditioning to save electricity.
- And a turning down of heater thermostats in the winter to conserve fuel.

A Manchester Boy In The 1880s

(Last In A Series)

The house I lived in on Oakland St., facing the road and railroad, has lost both the porch that it had in my time. Every house had its porch and rocking chairs, but I dare say that the present occupants of that house do not know what a porch is. Porches and rocking chairs went out of style several decades ago, and I don't know why.

Old chairs were commonly black horsehair, and when that slippery fabric got old, it projected sharp whiskers and made it impossible for one to sit quietly on them.

A prize discovery in an attic drawer might be a set of false teeth. My uncle and my grandfather both saved money on dentistry by having all their teeth pulled out and getting a false set, which lasted them for the rest of their lives and were kept at night in a glass of water at the bedside.

 GIVE UP GRACEFULLY TO MAKE SLAM CONTRACT

By Alfred Sheinwold
 Today's hand, furnished by Jean Besse, the great Swiss expert, is an exercise in declarer's play. Pay no attention to the East-West cards and forget about North's optimistic bidding. Decide on the best line of play for 12 tricks at hearts.

Another can probably find another way to make the hand as the East-West cards actually lie, but you can't be sure of how the missing cards lie if you see only the South hand and the dummy. Your task is to find the best play against any normal distribution.

What do you say?
 Answer: Bid one spade. Do not open 1NT when you have a powerful 5-card major suit, especially when you have a worthless doubleton in some other suit.

Reardon Heads Police Chiefs
 Manchester Police Chief James M. Reardon has been elected president of the Connecticut Chiefs of Police Association.

Reardon will be sworn in for his one-year term as president in ceremonies scheduled for Sept. 13 at Manchester.

Reardon, who in the past year has served as first vice president of the police chiefs group, succeeds Monroe Police Chief Jacob Turano as president.

Reardon has held nearly all the elected positions in the association at one time or another.

He became Manchester's fourth police chief in January 1969, after serving with the State Police for 23 years. "I'll note my 30th year in the police business this November," Reardon commented.

Reardon attended local schools. He is married to the former Agnes Prograte.

Other officers of the Connecticut Chiefs of Police Association, elected Thursday night, are Chief Joseph A. Ciriello of Waterbury, first vice president; Chief Alfred Quinlan of Rocky Hill, second vice president; Chief Frank J. Mariano of Naugatuck, secretary; Chief Joseph A. Ciriello of Waterbury, treasurer; and Chief Richard Carlo of Bethel, sergeant-at-arms.

Two Killed in Cycle Accident
 GROTON (AP) — Two motorcyclists were killed and their passengers injured Thursday night in an accident on Route 104, police said.

An investigation continued today, with police saying they weren't sure what happened to cause the accident between the two cycles which were traveling one behind the other.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Lawrence and Memorial Hospitals in New London was Robert J. Holt, 25, of Mystic, police said. The other victim, Edward Duerr, 18, also from Mystic, died early today at the hospital, according to authorities.

The accident occurred about 9:15 p.m. Thursday.

CCLU Produces Youth Booklet
 The Connecticut Civil Liberties Union (CCLU) has published a 30-page booklet — "Rights On!" — designed to give youth some basic information about their rights and obligations under state law.

The booklets are available for 25 cents, from the CCCLU, 57 Pratt St., Hartford, Conn., 06103.

The booklet, generally discussing the law as it affects young people, has five sections — financial, family, health, criminal law, and school.

The financial section covers contracts, employment, support and credit.

The family section deals with support, discipline, custody, and marriage.

The third section, "Your Health — When You're Sick or Injured" — discusses marriage and emancipation, venereal disease, drugs, pregnancy, and psychiatric help.

The criminal law pages cover juvenile court, youthful offender treatment, the criminal system, and various offenses.

School items discussed in the booklet deal with attendance, appearance, the Pledge of Allegiance, free speech, lockers, fair hearings, and school records.

In the booklet's introduction, the CCCLU emphasizes that the brief summary given "cannot take the place of a good lawyer, and it cannot substitute for good advice from somebody who knows you, your situation, and the subject matter in question."

The booklet was written by Susan Holahan, Judith Mears, Wendy Stewart, and Walter Wagner, CCCLU members. The Human Services and Resource Center of West Haven provided assistance.

Sesquicentennial Guest Editorial

Grand Balls Climax Event

Editor's Note: Mrs. Jack (Lill) Hunter, chairman of the Manchester Sesquicentennial Grand Balls tonight and Saturday at the State Armory, is today's guest editorialist.

The Sesquicentennial Grand Ball will take place tonight and tomorrow night, June 29 and 30, at the Manchester State Armory. The ball committee began work over nine months ago in order to present a memorable evening for all those who attend.

When I was asked to be chairman of the committee, I accepted the responsibility with the understanding that I would be able to find a working committee to help plan and organize the dance. This committee wasn't only a working group, but more importantly, they were a willing group. Mrs. H. John Malone agreed to be my co-chairman. She has previously planned many other functions at the armory and nothing appears to be too much of a problem for her to solve.

We started in August, 1972, with organizing the committee and having monthly meetings. At our first meeting we met to decide which orchestra to choose. We needed one which would have the most appeal to the people. It did not take long to vote for the Glenn Miller Orchestra conducted by Buddy DeFranco and featuring the original Miller arrangements. Remembering "Moonlight Serenade" and the sound of Glenn Miller, nostalgia came over us all. It seemed only appropriate for such a celebration.

During the next weeks, we tried to agree on a decorating theme. We needed to dress up the armory in some way and have it look like it was part of our town-wide celebration. We contacted a display man from Hartford and he was most helpful. We had several meetings and telephone conversations which eventually led to our decorating theme. With the orchestra chosen and the decorating decided upon, we were making progress.

The tickets were printed and began to sell at such a rapid rate that we soon discovered that more people wanted to go and be a part of our anniversary dance than we had ever expected. We held an emergency meeting and voted to have the ball two succeeding nights, the same orchestra, the same decorations, the same in every way. This amounted to planning a ball for 1200 people.

We proceeded to call the DeFranco orchestra, called about having fresh table clothes for the second night, contacted a cleaning service to come after Friday's dance to make sure all would be in order for Saturday's function. The tickets for the second dance were sold out in a matter of days. (Someone asked if we wanted to plan for a third night. No thanks.)

This committee has tried in every way to make this a real birthday party for the entire town of Manchester and to have it as elegant as possible. There are tables to order, arrangements for the bandstand, special lighting effects, centerpieces, outside parking, microphones to set up, and numerous other details to be thought of and completed. There were telephone calls and visits to be made to local businessmen and citizens for their help and contributions. There were calls made to Hartford, Springfield and New York. Now you can see why a working committee was needed.

I cannot say another word about the arrangements for the ball without naming the women who truly have worked so long and hard to put it all together: Mrs. Thomas Ferguson, Mrs. Fred Geyer and Mrs. John Mrosek, ticket chairmen; Mrs. Ronald Jacobs, correspondence; Mrs. John Tierney and Mrs. George Lawrence, decorating; Mrs. Leon Charendoff and Mrs. James McCarthy, arrangements; Mrs. Bernard Apter, reservations; Mrs. Paul Willhite, publicity. Each and every one of these ladies was involved in over nine months of planning. I want to say how much I personally appreciate what each has contributed. My thanks too, to Ed Tomkiele, Tom Ferguson and Ken Morgester for their helpful suggestions.

Let's hope several years from now many of us will reminisce over Manchester's 150th celebration and recall how wonderful it was to dance on a balmy June night to "Moonlight Serenade."

Today in History

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, June 29, the 190th day of 1973. There are 185 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1939, the first commercial airplane flight from the United States to Europe was completed as the "Dixie Clipper" landed at Lisbon, Portugal.
In 1971, the Flemish painter, Peter Paul Rubens, was born.
In 1613, William Shakespeare's Globe theater in London burned during a performance of "Henry the VIII."
In 1880, France took control of the South Pacific island of Tahiti.

In 1941, former Polish Premier Ignace Paderewski died in New York at the age of 80.
In 1946, the British arrested more than 2,700 Jews in Palestine in an attempt to stamp out alleged terrorism.
In 1964, North Vietnam's capital, Hanoi, and the principal port of Haiphong, were bombed by the U.S. for the first time in the Vietnam war.
Ten years ago, a dispute between the Soviet Union and Communist China worsened as the Soviets demanded the recall of three officials of the Chinese embassy in Moscow.

Five years ago...the National Maritime union went on strike against firms that operate 70 per cent of the U.S. merchant fleet.
One year ago...the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the death penalty, as then administered, was unconstitutional "cruel and unusual" punishment.
Today's birthdays: Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands is 63 years old. Black militant Stokely Carmichael is 32.
Thought for today: I don't know who my grandfather was. I am much more concerned to know what his grandson will be. — President Abraham Lincoln.

A 60-Day Freeze

(New York Daily News)

The anti-inflationary measures announced by President Richard M. Nixon are a reduced-voltage application of the August, 1971 "shock treatment."
A freeze was applied to all prices except at the farm level, with ceilings set at the average reached during the week June 1-8. (Wages were exempted.)
The tight clamp will remain in effect for up to 60 days, to be followed by a Phase 4 program of selective regulations not yet fully defined. Heaviest emphasis during and after the freeze will be on stabilizing the cost of items with high impact on consumer pocketbooks — food and gasoline, for instance.
The return to stricter controls, at least for the time being, was dictated by political as much as by economic factors. A freeze will bring immediate relief to the buying public. It should also deflate the inflation in Congress that has been baying about writing its own control formula.
Faced with those pressures, Mr. Nixon opted for a holding action. He has bought some time, hoping that his revised

Letter To Breshnev

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Dear Leonid Brezhnev: You have been a good guest, a shrewd politician and an avid practitioner of the American art of public relations. You have also been sturdy support in this hour of anguish to Richard Nixon, with whose continued power you are entwined in bonds of strong self-interest.
You have a high stake in your new American connection. You started as an engineer, and you know that Russia's only hope is a great power depends on technology and production. That is why you are here. You need America's wheat to shore up your poor harvest, America's know-how to improve Russia's, American capital to build the plants that Russia requires. We have what you need; you need what we have. It is as simple as that.
Yet not quite so simple. You also have what we in America need — not technology, not resources — although someday we may want to talk about a trade for your new oil and natural gas resources. Mostly what we need is a Soviet leadership willing to strike a power balance with us, rather than eager for a showdown. It is important for us to get away from confrontations and cold wars, and get spell of peace. Let me candid. If the American people welcome you

Learned Lesson Well

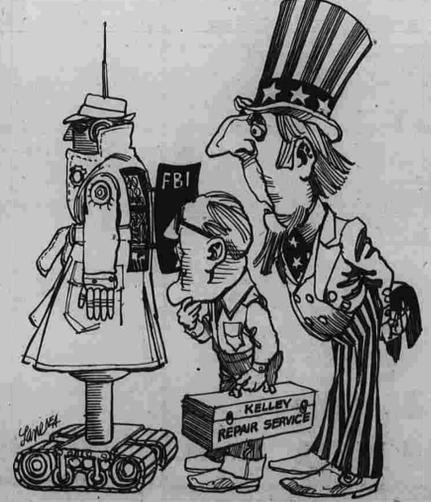

To the editor:
During the past week, there have been several references in The Herald to the littered condition of the Nike site. At the Senior Picnic and to the damage done to property there. According to some, "outsiders" and not students of M.H.S., were responsible for the majority of the damage and for the mess which remained. But the fact remains that the place was left in deplorable condition.
I wonder how many people noticed the condition of Main Street and adjacent areas following Saturday's parade. Youngsters and older folks alike could be seen casually dropping or throwing all sorts of trash, before, during, and after the parade.
My point? Young people learn how to behave in society by imitating those around them. If the mess at the Nike site is an example, the young people, whether from Manchester or "outside," have learned their lessons well.

Another Lesson In Law

To the editor:
Richard S. Childs treasures the memory of his "first lesson in law" yet recalls with obvious pride his badgering of the town's law enforcement officer. One conjures up pleasant images of how some of Manchester's 20th century lawmen featured in your anniversary supplement would react in such treatment. I ven-

Today's Thought

As you settle down this evening to enjoy your two-day weekend; take some time to remember the coming holiday and what it is all about. What we enjoy was bought at a price, whether it be our liberty, religion, life-style, you name it. We must be an island.

State Savings Talled

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Recommendations of the Commission on Services and Expenditures — the Edgerington Commission — have saved Connecticut more than $60 million to date, and the commission also has led to improved services, Gov. Thomas J. Meskill said Thursday.
"The publicity surrounding the commission's activities often stressed its concerns with expenditures almost exclusively," Meskill said in a speech to a luncheon audience gathered to hear a progress report on the commission's accomplishments.
To date, the state has realized one-time savings of more than $14.4 million and recurring savings of more than $44.1 million, Meskill said.
His speech, however, focused on service accomplishments he said came as a direct or indirect result of commission recommendations. Among them were:
— A policy emphasizing decentralized homes for the mentally retarded.
— "We have opened two regional centers and plans are under way for another in lower Fairfield County. We are also in the process of leasing 25 group homes for these special citizens," Meskill said.
— A home health care program that makes it possible for many former nursing home residents to be cared for in their own homes through such services as visiting nurses and meal-on-wheels.
— A more comprehensive program about to be initiated at Cedarcrest Hospital for sufferers of chronic disease.
"We expect as a result of this new program...to enable more patients to go home to the care and affection which only a family can give," Meskill said.
— A state plan for the treatment of drug users and one about to be completed for alcoholics.
— The hiring of 600 new employees in the mental health department in order to comply with the public health code.
The commission, named for its chairman, former Wesleyan University President Edwin P. Edgerington, was established by Meskill to study ways of improving state government and specifically to reduce the nearly $250 million deficit he inherited from previous administrations.

The rank of Eagle Scout is the highest award a scout can achieve and is presented only after the scout has earned all 21 of his merit badges.
Aldrich, who will be a ninth grader at Rham High School in Hebron next year, plans to attend the Lake of Isles Reservation this summer as an assistant senior patrol leader.

Hospital Follies Slated for Fall

The theme for the fall follies to be presented by the Rockville General Hospital Auxiliary will be "X-ray-ed Follies of 1973." The decision was made at a committee meeting held last night.
The follies is a biennial affair sponsored by the auxiliary and featuring local talent. Proceeds go toward purchase of equipment for the hospital.
The committee decided to eliminate the Polly Dolly and Stage Door Johnny contests and to instead have a "Mystery Leg" contest strictly for the men. The winner may be brave enough to be identified after the contest.
The follies will be presented Nov. 2 and 3 and a talent party is scheduled for Oct. 16. The place has not been chosen, as yet. The committee is still looking for talent and workers for various phases of the production.
Cargill Productions of New York City will again direct the follies and provide the costumes.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Missouri highway patrolmen have been trying for two weeks to use less gasoline. "What we've done is try to cut usage by 10 per cent," said Lt. Col. Walter Snyder, assistant patrol superintendent.

Court Freezes Impounded Ed Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge Thursday froze educational money impounded by the Nixon administration and which otherwise would have reverted into the general revenue fund at the end of the fiscal year, two days away.
The ruling came in a case initiated by the State of Pennsylvania which challenged President Nixon's impoundment of more than $80 million. Pennsylvania brought the action to force the government to release the funds and was joined in its suit by 10 other states.
The other states joining Pennsylvania in the suit were Hawaii, Vermont, Nevada, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Washington, Oklahoma, Texas, Illinois and Massachusetts.
The Pennsylvania state would conduct a poster contest for the follies. Anyone wishing to take part as a performer or worker, should contact Mrs. Ojala or Mrs. Dooley.

Love Conquers All in Melodrama

BETTY RYDER
(Herald Reporter)
Demon rum took its toll, but love conquered all when The Brindamour Traveling Players presented their production of "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," last night in the first of a three-night run at the Community Y, 80 N. Main St.

The villains were "hissed" and "stoned" with popcorn at the near capacity crowd joined the righteous in their fight for temperance.

The money-hungry inn keeper, "Simon Slade," portrayed by Dr. Robert S. Smith, did his best to lure the weak and depressed into the drinking habit, and in most cases the weak succumbed — while the strong, well, they tottered a little.

The arrival at the inn of "Mr. Romaine," cursed Slade's efforts slightly and attempting to appear like a "good guy" he promised the new owner "a steak fit for a state senator," which would have been a fact, since the part of "Mr. Romaine" was played by State Sen. Dave Odegard.

Richard B. Gowen, producer of the show, who appeared as "Sample Swiche," young, strong, but a drinker nevertheless, proved the hero of the melodrama, as he fought the evils of liquor, succumbed himself to a while, then rallied to return to the "good life."

The drunkard, "Joe Morgan," played by James C. Joy, cast aside the pleadings of his patient, loving wife, portrayed by Mrs. Jayne Newirth, but when his young daughter, "Mary," played by Patricia Ann Frank, went to her eternal reward, at the hands of the villainous "Slade" he reformed and returned to his faithful wife.

A bar-room brawl brought about still another death, as card-playing friends, "Harvey Green," played by John L. Sanford, and "Willie Hammond," portrayed by Jed Krasnalla, langued after a game, which resulted in the death of young Willie.

The search for the assassin by "Sample" was aided by the audience who called out the villain's hiding places, and then proceeded to "hiss," "boo," and pelt him with popcorn.

The whole production, part of the Manchester Sequentennial Committee's celebration, was directed by William Brindamour.

Brief interludes of merriment were offered between scene changes, one a brief recitation by John L. Sanford, the other a community sing led by Mrs. Newirth, who added the slang of today into the entertainment of yesterday as she urged the audience "to get with it" and praised them for their singing response with "now you're cooking with gas."

"Frank Slade," who was definitely on the way to ruin, played by Charles Clark, and the sentimental girl next door, "Mehitable Cartwright," played by Kathleen Peterson, added much to the production.

The innkeeper's woeeful wife, Miss Lynne Derrick, shared the trials and tribulations as her husband's greed and son's degradation resulted in the death of "Slade" at the hands of his son.

"Morgan" now a solid citizen, his devoted wife, "Mr. Romaine," "Swiche," "Mehitable," who are soon to wed, pleased with their captive audience to follow their lead down the straight and narrow path.

The whole flavor of the production was delightful, and in fine keeping with the 150th celebration activities. Assisting Mr. Brindamour in directing the performance was Mrs. Nancy Marquin.

Others aiding in the production were: Lorraine Lombardi, David Blish, Dusty Behrens,

If you've always wanted a motorcycle, but craved just a bit more comfort...Honda has finally taken one of their superb motorcycles and built a car around it. Now you can have your Honda with rack and pinion steering, bucket seats, synchromesh transmission (Honda's optional), front wheel drive, four wheel fully independent coil spring suspension, front disc brakes, padded instrument panel, and best of all, a roof so you don't get wet when it rains. (Regular motorcycles don't have that!) Carpeting, air conditioning, tinted glass, a hatchback model that lets you carry a lot more than you would with any of Honda's two wheeled motorcycles, and best of all, under the hood, a transversely mounted, water cooled, four cylinder four stroke engine. You'll think you're cruising down the highway on your Honda 750...especially when it's time to fill up the tank. The new Honda Civic (That's what we're calling our four wheeled motorcycle) is almost as stingy on gas as its two wheeled brothers. Sen. Weicker Alleges Intimidation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr., R-Conn., charged Thursday that the White House has tried to intimidate him and the Senate Watergate probe and said he had asked the special Watergate prosecutor to investigate.

In a ringing defense of his credentials as a Republican, Weicker also said alleged White House actions in regard to the Watergate case are not typical of the party.

"Republicans do not cover up," he said. "Republicans do not threaten, do not commit illegal acts, and God knows Republicans don't view their opponents as enemies to be harassed."

Weicker said there had been efforts to spread stories that there were irregularities in the financing of his 1970 Senate campaign.

Within the last few days, Weicker said, "a reporter from Washington, D.C. was informed by former White House aide Charles Olson that he was involved in the giving of monies to my campaign and that he had reason to believe the money wasn't properly handled and I was being disloyal Republican and the time has come to bring around."

"When pinned to substantiate this report, there was absolutely no substantiation by Mr. Olson," Weicker said. "But that was enough to finally go ahead and get me a little mad."

Weicker said in response to a public comment he made that efforts were being made to pressure him, he got a phone call from presidential campaign counselor Leonard Garment who asked what was wrong.

"I told Mr. Garment that Mr. Olson is his problem, and wasn't my problem, the time had come either to step forward and make a specific charge or to disavow these attempts to smear a member of this committee."

"But I don't think that is enough," Weicker said. "So this morning I communicated with Mr. Archibald Cox, the special prosecutor." Weicker said he had enough evidence to indicate "a possible violation of yet another law."

Coventry 4-H Fair Set Aug. 11

HOLLY GANTNER
Herald Correspondent
Plans are now under way for the annual Coventry Town 4-H Fair, scheduled for Aug. 11 at the Second Congregational Church Community House, Rt. 4A, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Officers of the 4-H Fair Association, sponsors of the event, are now assembling premium books to be mailed out to all local 4-H'ers.

Cynthia Goble is association president, with Priscilla Hatt, vice president; Melody Goble, secretary; and Debbie Britton, treasurer. They are being assisted by Linda Hornum and Sandra Abo in assembling the books, which will tell local club members what categories to enter, ranging from animals to sewing projects to club booths.

New at this year's fair will be a bicycle race, bicycle obstacle course and safety check. These events will be open to all Coventry young people and the race will be divided into 10-speed, five-speed and single-speed categories.

To facilitate planning for this event, forms for the race should be obtained from bicycle chairman Anne Aronson and mailed in ahead of the fair date. The obstacle course and safety check can be entered the day of the event at the Meadowbrook Shopping Plaza parking lot by 9 a.m.

Another new event this year will be an open flower show for all Coventry residents to enter if they so desire. Entries may be specimen flowers and arrangements in the following categories: zinnia, petunia, calendula, marigold, gladiolus, nasturtium, pansy, phlox, bachelor's button, celosia, dahlia, aster, cosmos, gerardia and snapdragon. One stalk or stem of each flower is considered an entry.

In the flower arrangement class, entries may consist of the following: Miniature, not more than three inches high including container; miniature, not more than six inches including container; table centerpiece, not more than 18 inches high including container; garden flower arrangement; floating potted house plant in bloom; non-flowering potted house plant; one corsage; and novelty arrangement.

Entries must be at the Community House by 10 a.m. the day of the fair, when judging will begin. Ribbons will be awarded, and Susan Fuller is the association member coordinating the flower show.

Proceeds from the Fair Association food booth at the 4-H Horse Show last month will help to finance the Aug. 11 event, the 1100 earned at that booth will go toward insurance, ribbons and mailing to Coventry 4-H'ers.

Coventry Keller Wants Vote on DevCo

HOLLY GANTNER
Herald Correspondent
Town Councilman Robert Keller has announced his proposal to put a referendum question on this November's ballot to determine voters' views regarding the planned new community being proposed for the town's northwest corner by Greater Hartford Development Corporation (DevCo).

In announcing his proposal, Keller said, "This question would be strictly informational and would not be binding upon the town, but would provide voters an opportunity to express their views on this question of vital concern to the town."

Keller is submitting his proposal to the Town Council in the form of a resolution, which reads as follows: "The Greater Hartford Community Development Corporation (DevCo) has publicly stated its desire and intention to develop a new community in the Town of Coventry, and DevCo has purchased or obtained contracts to purchase approximately 1,600 acres in the town for the purpose of developing a new community, and the voters of the Town of Coventry may desire to express their views in regard to this new community.

"In accordance with articles 9-31 and 9-31 of the Town Charter, the Coventry Town Council resolves to call a special town meeting to discuss the following question and further resolves to place the following question on the ballot of the town election to be held in November 1973: Do the voters of the Town of Coventry, Connecticut, desire to have a new community developed within the town, as proposed by the Greater Hartford Community Development Corporation?"

Democrats Forming Study Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats who describe themselves as the center of the party are moving to set up a formal organization somewhat along the lines of the existing liberal Democratic Study Group.

Rep. Gillis W. Long, D-La., one of those active in the movement, said the intention is not to create a voting bloc binding participants to particular positions on legislation, but rather to seek cooperation and facilitate discussion within what he called the mainstream of the party.

Still without a name, the tentative organization has been discussed at meetings reportedly attended by 60 or more members. There are 243 Democrats among the 434 members of the House.

About 140 of them are reported to pay dues to the Democratic Study Group, but the active membership is understood to be smaller, while a number of members participate only to the extent of receiving the analyses of pending legislation and other studies prepared by the DSG staff.

The new group apparently is appealing to pay dues and organization-minded Democrats close to the House leadership, including some committee chairmen.

This group within the party has lacked formal organization, while the DSG enrolled the more liberal Democrats and Southern conservatives have worked together without specific organization ties.

The new group, it was understood, will attempt to perfect its organization after the House returns from the July 4 recess. A proposed slate of officers includes Reps. B.F. Sisk of California for chairman, Long for vice chairman and Robert N. Giallone of Connecticut for secretary-treasurer.

Tuition Question resolved

HARTFORD (AP) — Vietnam veterans who have been admitted to state institutions of higher education and who were Connecticut residents at the time they entered military service will be entitled to the 50 per cent tuition reduction approved for such schools this fall.

The reductions were authorized by the 1972 General Assembly in a bill signed by Gov. Thomas J. Meskill. There was some question, however, whether veterans already admitted to the school could receive the benefits this fall or would have to wait until the second semester.

Meskill's office said today that the problem had been resolved administratively.

Julie Cavasino, left, and Dawn Klein, right, are the proud winners of bicycles for their entries in a bicycle safety poster contest conducted by the Policemen's Bicycles Association in Coventry. Coventry Police Officer Lyndon Wilmont is displaying Julie's winning poster. Julie was first place winner in the third and fourth grade category, with runners-up in that class Mike Demers, Michael Parker, and Sherri Spellman. South Windsor Buses to Run To Rec Area

The Town Council of South Windsor and the Mass Transit Commission have put together a proposal for a summer bus service to Veterans' Memorial Park. The proposal will go into a two-week experimental period starting July 9. The plan is to charter two school buses from Post Road Station and to have each bus make two round trips a week, seven days a week, on a pre-arranged route. The cost of the school buses, for this schedule, will be $65 a day, each. The transit commission is recommending that a fare of 50 cents be charged for each round trip. Although the buses will accommodate 60 passengers each, the commission figures there will probably be an average of 40 passengers per bus. It is the case each bus would account for 400 worth of fares, per day. J. M. Walsh, chairman of the Mass Transit Commission, said this would leave each bus running $25 behind and on this basis the town would have to provide the additional 60 days or $700, to sustain the program for a two-week period. He said since individual fares cannot be collected on a charter run, the bus would be picked up for an employee of the Recreation Department as the passengers disembark. The scheduling will be arranged so the first load to the park will depart at 9 a.m. and the last load will arrive at 4 p.m. The time the park opens for general swimming. The buses will deliver the second group at 11 a.m. and bring the first passengers back at that time. The second group will be returned at 4 p.m. Bus 1 will start at Graham Rd. and Ayers Rd., at 12:25 p.m. and with a few minutes in between each stop, continue next to Meadow and Brook Sts., Graham and Griffin, Griffin and Ives, Scenic Meadow and Dower, Farnham and Foster, Sullivan and Main and Pleasant Valley and then on to the park. Bus 2 will start at 12:30 at Oakland Rd. and Foster St. and continue on to Dower and Ayers, Ayers and Raymond, Benedict and Gold Mine, Diane and Oak, Oak and Highland, Woodland and Avery, Beebeeb and Foster, Foster and Birch Hill, Birch Hill and Felt, Felt and Oakland and on to the park. The return trips will be made in reverse order.

Light Agenda For Directors

The Manchester Board of Directors will tackle a comparatively light agenda July 10, when it meets in the Municipal Building. It's meeting will start at 7 p.m., instead of the traditional 8 p.m. Scheduled for public hearing and action are the following: Proposed additional appropriations to the 1973-74 budget - all to be financed by equal state and federal grants; $50,000 for the General Fund, to provide working cash for Education Special Projects for which state and federal grants are anticipated during the fiscal year. $125,000 to the Educational Special Fund, for a home economics program; and an additional $300 for a vocational rehabilitation program. $40,000 to the Police Department Fund, for a public dispatcher; $12,500 for a community relations service; and $7,000 for sub-professional personnel.

Extradition Request Under Consideration

HARTFORD (AP) - Gov. Thomas J. Meskill is considering a request for the extradition of a man who says he was arrested in Hartford for a fraud check charge in the South. Myles Bailey Jr., 32, was arrested by FBI agents in May on a fugitive warrant and has been held on $7,500 bond in a Hartford jail awaiting the outcome of extradition proceedings. Gov. William L. Waller has asked that Bailey be returned to Mississippi to complete a nine-month prison term for passing $400 in bad checks. In 1971 while a trustee at the Boliver County Jail where he was serving the sentence, Bailey walked away from a work detail. He and his wife Mary and their two children fled to Connecticut where he once was employed as a tobacco worker. Using his real name, he began a landscaping business and hired two part-time helpers. But Bailey has three convictions for passing bad checks and under Mississippi law, he is guilty of a felony, said Ronald Gold, an attorney for the Legal Aid Society of Hartford County. He is fighting Bailey's extradition because he said Bailey is afraid he will be sent to Parchman State Prison if he is returned to Mississippi. Parchman is familiar ground for Bailey who served his time there in the early 1960s as a parole violator and said he was beaten, forced to dig graves and pick 300 pounds of cotton. "It was like slavery," he said. The weekend after his arrest

Norwalk Police Accept Contract

NORWALK (AP) - Police Thursday night voted to accept a new three-year contract with the city retroactive to July 1, 1972. The contract provides for a 3 percent raise in the first year, 4 percent in the second year and 5 percent in the third year. The contract also provides for a 10 percent increase in the cost of living allowance. The contract also provides for a 10 percent increase in the cost of living allowance. Watergate and the Economy

By JOHN CUNIFF NEW YORK (AP) - Because of personal problems and uncertainty in the economy, among other things, business executives who comment on the matter concede that its negative effect is transmitted mainly through changed human psychology. Airline officers, for example, don't claim that anyone cancels out of a trip for the specific, articulated reason that he or she doesn't want to travel while Watergate uncertainties exist. But behavioral psychologists say it is at least part of the reason. "It has frequently been observed in the past that unfavorable news tends to color economic attitudes and expectations, even if the news is not directly related to economic concerns," states the Survey Research Center. The center, part of the Institute for Social Research at the University of Michigan, has been studying consumer attitudes as long as any group. It finds that adverse news of any type might be translated into an economic decision.

Bicycle Club Suggested

Manchester Mayor John Thompson, a bicycle enthusiast, would like to see a bicycle club started in Manchester. This is an excellent idea and should be followed through. The suggestion is passed along to the Rec Department, no charge. Eight members of the United States Olympic cycling team will take part in the Travelers Criterion 15-mile bike race June 30 in Hartford. Senior citizens with the New England Patriots football team which reports Sunday, July 8 at the University of Massachusetts will be center Jon Morris and guard Len St. Jean. Both will be starting their 10th campaign with the National Football League entry. Only five Patriots are products of New England colleges: Brian Dowling and Don Martin of Yale, Jon Morris of Holy Cross, Dick Cummings of Massachusetts and Reggie Rucker of Boston University. The University of Massachusetts at Amherst has been selected as the training site for the United States track team which will compete in World University Games in Moscow in August. The athletes will assemble Aug. 2 for eight days of preparation before the first test Aug. 4 in Moscow. Nothing to report on Manchester High's assistant varsity football coach but Paul Rashaw has been named assistant javayee grid mentor. Don't let anyone kid you, second baseman Horace Clarke of the New York Yankees can make the doubleplay as well as anyone. According to Manager Ralph Houk, Clarke is the most underrated player on the squad. Clarke has led the American League in assists for the last six seasons.

Notes Taken Off the Cuff

Rapidly developing into being a connoisseur in batting is Carl Yastrzemski. The inside word is that a number of American League umpires have had their fill of the Red Sox and will start exercising their authority by giving him the thumb. Several major league baseball teams allow their players to wear two different kinds of shoes, plain and striped. Two such clubs are the Boston Red Sox and Baltimore Orioles. Pitchers noted this season have been wearing dark, solid shoes only. The striped shoe bit came up in a Connecticut high school game this spring and the umpires allowed a pitcher to continue in the game wearing striped shoes. The losing team protested and a panel of three ruled in favor of the latter. The New York Yankees feature three switch-hitters in a row in Gene Michael, batting ninth and the one-two swingers, Horace Clarke and Roy White. Jackie Farrell of the Yankees, who has regulated thousands in Connecticut with his humor over the years, admits to being 77. Chico Vejar, named this week by Commissioner Barbara Dunn as secretary of athletics (boxing), once displayed his wares at Mt. Nebo's outdoor arena against Ralph Walton. Vejar, then managed by the late Steve Ellis, won an unanimous decision. Bill Wade, former East Catholic high basketball player, has been named director of group sales in Connecticut by the New York Yankees.

Palmer Swaps Putter, Shares Western Lead

CHICAGO (AP)—Millionaire golfer Arnold Palmer and soon-to-be millionaire Bruce Crampton are first round leaders of the $175,000 Western Open, along with Rick Massengale, winner of a mere $5,791 this year. The trio conquered swirling winds and greens marked by heels and spikes at the ancient 6,654-yard Midlothian Country Club with five under par 66s in Thursday's opening round. The score is the only thing the long-haired 1968 Western Amateur titlist, with a tie for 33rd place in the Houston Open his best finish this year, has in common with Palmer and Crampton. The 66 is his best competitive round since joining the PGA tour in 1970. The steady, conservative Crampton is aiming for his fifth tour victory of the season and his second in a row after taking the American Golf Classic last week to pass Jack Nicklaus and top the money winning list with $204,229. He could finish as low as 10th in this journey and still win enough to put him over the $1 million mark in career earnings. Nicklaus and Miller are not competing in the Western Open, which carries a first prize of $85,000. Palmer, the focus of attention from the crowd of 13,500, returned to his old blade putter for the first time since winning the Bob Hope Classic in Palm Springs this spring, his last victory. Only one stroke off the pace at 67 as the journey enters its second round today are Billy Casper, who said he took all last week off and didn't touch a club; J.C. Snead, who hit all 18 greens in regulation and included a 40-foot putt among his birdies, and Hale Irwin, who holed out a 20-yard pitch for birdie three on 17. Nine players were bracketed at 68 and a dozen at 69, including Lee Trevino and defending champion Jim Jamieson.

Here are the top first-round scores:
Arnold Palmer 33-33-66
Rick Massengale 31-35-66
Bruce Crampton 35-31-66
Hale Irwin 35-32-67
J.C. Snead 35-35-67
Billy Casper 35-37-67
George Johnson 32-36-68
Larry Hinson 34-34-68
Bob Lewis 36-32-68
Jim Barber 35-33-68

Amateur Veteran Wins State Title

WEST HARTFORD (AP)—John Parsons beat Jay Tordella two and two to win the Connecticut State Amateur golf tournament Thursday played at the 6,745-yard, par 72 Wampanoag Country Club.

Three Field Locations For Army-Navy Event

The second round of the Army & Navy Club Softball Tournament will begin tomorrow morning at 9. Three field locations, Koeny Street, Robertson Park and Fitzgerald Field will be used to continue eliminations. Following are the pairings and starting times for Saturday's games:

3:45 Charter Oak-Walt's-Bob's winner vs. Honda-Furniture winner
9:30 Dick's vs. Founder's
10:45 Groman's vs. Burt's

Parsons, a 30-year-old salesman from Newtown, shot a two-over par 74 and Tordella led by a morning round of the title action. In the afternoon, Tordella, from the Waterford Country Club, didn't win another hole until he was four down with four to play when Parsons bogeyed the 15th. Parsons won the next hole with a par to clinch the title without having to play the final two holes. "I had my chances," said Tordella. "I didn't take advantage of them and a couple of times, like on the 11th and 12th holes, I thought I had good chances, but he took them away from me." Parsons said he was pleased with the way he had played. "It was just one of those weeks that I played well all week long. And today I didn't miss any putts I had to make," he said. Tordella birdied the par-five 11th hole with a long putt after a poor chip. Parsons then three-putted a curling downhill birdie putt to tie the hole. He got it. On the 12th green, Tordella made par and Parsons needed a long putt to win the hole. Again, he got it.

Robertson Park Lights Will Be Turned on Monday

Monday is the night the new lighting system will be operating at Robertson Park. That's the official word from Ernie McNeill, assistant building inspector, and Carl Silver, assistant recreation director. All the light poles and brackets were in place yesterday. There will be 72 lamps in use, eight less than the units at Charter Oak Park's Fitzgerald Field. Electricians were to connect the wires to the switch box today. The lights might conceivably be ready tonight but rather than chance a delay, Silver said the Candlelight League play will start Monday night. This circuit has been operating at Mt. Nebo for the past eight weeks while the lights were not operable at the North End field. Lights for the two tennis courts should be ready for next week, McNeill said, and the basketball courts should be equipped with working arc lamps several days later.

Carew's Steal Benefits Win
NEW YORK (AP)—There's no place like home so Rod Carew decided to steal it. The Minnesota second baseman took his 90-foot stroll in the third inning and he would have been any factball from Pete Broberg, a runner at third had become a run for the Twins. Minnesota went on to score a 4-0 victory over the Red Sox, before going by to Rolie Fingers in the eighth, for the victory over Kansas City. It was Carew's third triumph in a row, raising his record to 7-3. Blue only surrendered three hits, before going by to Rolie Fingers in the eighth, for the victory over Kansas City. Our pitching has been good and we know that a few runs would be the cure to our problems, but I was beginning to wonder if we were ever going to break out. Manager Eddie Kasko said, "They certainly came in bunches today." The Red Sox clobbered the New York Yankees 15-5 on a 20-hit attack in the American League season opener. However, they've had trouble getting runs in most games since. Failure in the clutch has been a major weakness as the club has left an average of 10 runs unscathed in 10 games. Bair's Glove Saves Day, Yankees' Margin

BALTIMORE (AP)—Paul Blair was able to contain his hot hitting streak with two scratch infield singles, but he didn't need any help in the field. Blair, hitting .600 in his last 12 games after being hypnotized by a psychiatrist to overcome a fear of bean balls, scored two of Baltimore's last three runs Thursday night in a 6-3 victory over the New York Yankees. The Golden Glove center fielder of the Orioles also leaped above the fence in the fifth inning and hit New York's Roy White of a two-run homer which would have put the Yankees ahead 4-3. Secretariat Favored in Showdown CHICAGO (AP) — Meadow Stable's Triple Crown winner, who arrived here Thursday, two hours late because of bad weather, will start from the number four post—but he will be listed as number one in the program. But the bettors will have only two numbers to worry about since My Gallant, Our Native and Blue Chip Dan will be coupled as an entry for betting purposes, although each races for different owners. For instance, if a better places a wager on number two, My Gallant, he automatically gets Blue Chip Dan and Our Native. Secretariat set attendance records in the Derby and Preakness and ran before Belmont's second biggest crowd. The son of Bold Ruler ran the fastest Derby ever.

Borg's Admirers Hinder Net Play

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Bjorn Borg, tennis teenage heartthrob, has a request for his young admirers at Wimbledon: Don't squeal so much when he's playing. He's a tennis player, not a rock star, and the noise is liable to put him off. Borg is a handsome 17-year-old Swede with fashionably long, blond hair. He's also the sensation of this year's Wimbledon. To the youngsters, he more than makes up for the absence of all the top male stars who are boycotting the tournament this year. But all the adulation is beginning to affect his play. Thursday, in the outstanding match of the tournament so far, Borg—seeded sixth and the youngest ever to be given a seeding—very nearly dropped a five-set, third-round match against Karl Meiler, the German Davis Cup player. He recovered just in time to win 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3. The other idol of the crowds this year, mercurial Romanian the Nastase got a clean bill of health from a medical specialist he consulted about his back trouble and expects to play his third round match against Toshiro Saki of Japan today. Besides Borg, two other seeds—Roger Taylor of Britain and Jan Kodeš of Czechoslovakia—are already through to the last 16. The only American in the seeded ranks this year is Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill., and he is scheduled to play Bob Simpson of New Zealand today. Also fighting for places in the next 16 will be Jürgen Fassbender of Germany, seeded eighth, who plays Ray Kildie of Australia; Alex Metreveli, fourth seed from Russia, to play John Cooper of Australia, and Owen Davidson of Australia, seeded seventh, to play Eric Evert of Australia. Normally, by this stage of the tournament, several seeds have already been routed, but this year all eight seeds in both men's and women's singles have gotten through. In women's singles matches today, top-seeded Margaret Court of Australia faces Kate Latham of Palo Alto, Calif.; second-seeded Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., meets Kerry Harris of Australia; Chris Evert, from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and seeded fourth, plays Julie Heldman of New York, and Virginia Wade of Britain, seeded third, plays Pam Teeguarden of Los Angeles. The other women's seeds—Rosie Casals of San Francisco, Olga Morozova of Russia and Evonne Goolagong and Kerry Melville of Australia—also played their second round matches Thursday.

Pocono Field Set, Revson Pole-Setter

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP) — Billy Vukovich wins Sunday's $74,000 Schaefer 500-mile auto race, the least surprised man in town will be former Indianapolis great Freddie Agabashian. "The boy is a comer, a sure winner of the future," says the grey-haired Agabashian. "He very well could win the driving title this year. And if he does, he'll be on his way." Vukovich, 29, son of the driver who won Indy in 1953 and 1954, starts 13th in a 33-car lineup that will take the green starting flag at 1 p.m. EDT. He qualified his Sugar Pine Prune Eagle with a four-lap average of 134.223 miles per hour for the 24-mile Pocono International Raceway. Agabashian feels that speed will be competitive once the race gets underway. "Vuky is in the right hands to go to the top," said Agabashian, who started 11 Indy races in the 1940s and 1950s but never won the big one. Vukovich finished fifth at Indy in 1971 and came in second to winner Gordon Johncock in this year's rain-shortened, tragically-marred race. His paycheck was $97,512. Agabashian whose deep, gravelly voice is recognized everywhere he goes, says that in addition to Vukovich there are 10 other drivers who have a shot at the winner's payoff of close to $80,000. "You've got to reckon with the team cars, particularly those of Parnelli Jones, Gulf, Sunoco and STP," he said. Jones' drivers are Al Unser and Mario Andretti, both of whom have front row starts with qualifying speeds above 190 m.p.h., and Joe Leonard, the United States Auto Club champion the last two years and winner of the 1972 Pocono 500. The Gulf team includes pole position winner Peter Revson, whose speed was 180.648, a track record, and Rutherford, the Texan who set a qualifying record of 184.12 to win the pole at Indy last month. Rutherford has a third round start in Pocono. Driving for the Sunoco team are 1971 winner Mark Donohue and Gary Bettenhausen. The latter has the better start of the two, in the middle of the fourth row. Donohue, who was plagued with engine problems, will have to make his way up from the eighth row. Johncock, a 36-year-old veteran, also was a poor qualifier and landed beside Donohue in the starting order. His STP teamate is Wally Dallenbach, the 10th place starter.

Pep Granted License

NEW HAVEN (AP) — One of the first decisions of Connecticut's new secretary of athletics has been to grant a referee's license to former world featherweight champion Willie Pep of Hartford. Chico Vejar, himself an 11-year welterweight and middleweight veteran, was appointed Wednesday by state Consumer Protection Commissioner Barbara Dumm. "I will issue a license to Willie Pep," Vejar said Thursday night in an interview with the New Haven station WNHCT. "I can't think of a better man." "He was a great fighter and he's a champ in the ring and out," he said. Pep held the world featherweight crown from 1948-50. He also held the world featherweight crown from 1948-50. Capital Area Scholars

Richard W. Meier, 152 Hawthorne St., and Daniel S. Silver, 288 Kennedy Rd., have been named Capital Area Scholars by Trinity College.

The two former Manchester High School students, who graduated in June, will enter Trinity in September under the scholarship program.

Meier, son of Mrs. Marion H. Meier, was active in track, student council and the German Club at MHS. He served as a camp counselor during the summer of 1971, and was a Boy Scout for four years. Meier plans to major in chemistry.

Silver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Silver, served on the art staff of the Manchester High School yearbook "Somnibus." The scholarships will cover part of the students' four years at Trinity.

Commuter Buses Modify Schedule

The Manchester-to-Hartford commuter express buses will start running on their summer schedule Monday (July 2), the state transportation department has announced.

The schedule of morning runs from Burr Corners to downtown Hartford won't change, but the schedule for afternoon return trips will be slightly modified.

The morning trips are scheduled ten minutes apart, and leave the Burr Corners commuter parking lot on Toland Pk. at Exit 93 off the Wilbur Cross Highway — between 7 and 9 a.m.

The afternoon schedule, with starting times set for downtown

Hartford's Isle of Safety, calls for bus runs at 4, 4:05, 4:15, 4:30, 4:40, 4:45, 5, 5:10, 5:20, 5:30, 5:40, 5:50, and 6 p.m.

The commuter express bus to the Aetna Insurance Co., 151 Farrington Ave., leaves Burr Corners at 7:15 a.m. and returns from Hartford at 4:30 p.m.

A special bus serving the State Capitol area leaves Manchester at 7:50 a.m. and makes the return trip at 4:40 p.m.

The one-way bus fare is 50 cents. Free parking, a bus shelter, and a bicycle rack are provided at the Burr Corners bus terminal.

Dellafera Mentioned For State Commission

Francis Dellafera of 142 S. Lakewood Circle is expected to be appointed by Gov. Thomas Meskille to the new 11-member State Commission on Hospitals and Health Care, which is to be formed in July.

Dellafera is a member of the present State Council on Hospitals, which will be replaced by the new commission. He said he has been informed "by a reliable source" he will be appointed to the commission.

Dellafera, administrator and part-owner of Crestfield Convalent Hospital, is president of the Connecticut Association of Extended Care Facilities. He is a former town director and former chairman of the Republican Town Committee.

Dellafera said he is confident the new commission will be good for the state and for the hospitals in the state.

"I always felt we needed a stronger agency than the one (the council) we had," he said. "The new commission will have more authority — with teeth to enforce its rulings."

Democrats Get MHA Control

Manchester Republicans next month will lose control of the only town agency still in their hands. The five-year term of Republican Vincent Diana expires July 1 and Democratic Town Chairman Ted Cummings said Diana's seat will be filled by a Democrat.

At present, the MHA is 3 to 2 Republican. Its members are Republicans A. Paul Berte, chairman; Richard Schwoley, vice chairman; and Diana; and Democrats Pascal Mastrangelo and Kathleen Ponticelli.

Cummings said the name of a Democratic replacement for Diana will be ready for Board of Directors' action when it meets July 10. He said that when the MHA becomes 3 to 2 Democratic, Berte will be replaced as chairman and Schwoley as vice chairman. Berte is chairman of the Republican Town Committee.

Cummings said one other change will be to replace Republican Herbert Phelon with a Democrat, as counsel to the MHA.

Street Lights Await Brackets

Town Director Phyllis Jackson has learned that the unavailability of brackets has forced a postponement of new street lights for the intersection of Parker St. with Colonial Rd. there.

"Mrs. Jackson was told early this month by a HELCO official the brackets will be ready near June 25. She had inquired about the installation because of many complaints concerning the 'serious traffic situation' at the intersection, caused by the realignment of Parker St.

She said the HELCO official anticipates the brackets will arrive next month and that the lights may be ready near July 15.

News Capsule

New Attacks
PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Communist-led insurgents launched new attacks today against the provincial capital of Kompong Speu, 30 miles from Phnom Penh, and radio reports said the insurgents were within one mile of the city.

Hands Tied
SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government said today that President Nixon's agreement with Congress to halt all U.S. military activities in Southeast Asia by Aug. 15 "ties the hands of the allied forces."

Social Security
WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate conferees will attempt today to salvage a bill that would authorize a 5.6 per cent increase in Social Security benefits and, at the same time, extend the national debt ceiling as the Treasury can continue functioning.

The measure was defeated Friday night by a stunning 100-185 vote that blocked the House from formally considering it. Without the extension, the Treasury could run out of operating funds in little over a week.

Rate Boosted
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Reserve Board has boosted the discount rate to 12 per cent, the highest since 1969. The move may force credit rates higher throughout the economy and act as a deterrent to borrowing.

Extremists Routed
BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Protestant and Roman Catholic extremists suffered a rout as counting proceeded today in Ulster's legislative elections, with voters lining up along traditional religious lines.

The new assembly is to replace the former 62-seat provincial parliament that had been a bastion of Protestant rule for more than 50 years until abolished by Britain last year.

Nixon Agrees To Halt Action By Mid-August

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress and President Nixon have reached a compromise agreement to halt all military action in Indochina by Aug. 15.

Opponents of bombing in Indochina agreed the Aug. 15 fund cutoff after assurances the President would sign it. The compromise was incorporated in a $3.4 billion supplemental appropriation bill sent to the White House Friday night.

The bill substitutes for a similar measure vetoed Wednesday by the President because it would have terminated spending immediately for bombing in Cambodia or Laos. The House fell 86 votes short of the two-thirds needed to override the veto.

The Senate, by a 68-26 vote, also inserted the Aug. 15 fund cutoff in a resolution to continue funding all government departments, programs and payrolls beyond the end of the fiscal year at midnight tonight.

President Nixon related to Republican congressional leaders Friday his willingness to accept the Aug. 15 deadline.

The House then dropped its demand for an immediate halt in the bombing of Cambodia and substituting the Aug. 15 cutoff in the supplemental money bill. The vote on final passage was 278-124.

The Senate concurred by a 72-14 vote, clearing the bill for the President's desk.

But Senate sentiment on the compromise already had been tested in a spirited debate on the continuing resolution, adopted 73-6 after the Aug. 15 deadline had been accepted.

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., called it "a compromise with death."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, defended the compromise in an emotional speech as the only way to end "this abominable war."

Fuhrigt said the President had accepted a series of committee interpretations of the language.

Congressional acceptance of the Aug. 15 cutoff should not be interpreted as a recognition of the President's authority to engage U.S. forces in hostilities before Aug. 15.

— Any involvement by U.S. forces in Indochina after Aug. 15 would require approval of both houses of Congress.

— It would not be used as the basis for escalation of U.S. bombing in Cambodia, or for its resumption anywhere else in Indochina "unless provoked."

— All efforts should be made to minimize casualties and property damage.

— Some anti-war senators held out to the end.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., called the compromise "a capitulation and abdication of the constitutional powers of the Senate."

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said the compromise gives the President "amnesty for the slaughter of the past and license for slaughter in the future." He said "it will go down in infamy in American history."

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., called it "a compromise with death."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, defended the compromise in an emotional speech as the only way to end "this abominable war."

Heavy Rain Causes Flash Floods

Heavy rains caused some flooding today as Town and debris, washed through the storm drain system, clogging it and to keep the roads clear.

Town Highway Superintendent John Birchill said that 18 men, all available man power, were working to clear water-logged roads. The department reports that the bridge over the Hop River on Olcott St., was completely washed out by the storm water and will have to be replaced this morning, according to Ted Brindamour of the Greater Hartford Flood Commission.

The heavy rains were, however, scattered across the state and the National Weather Service at Windsor Locks reported that an average of about two inches of rain has fallen on the state since midnight.

Flood watches are in effect for the Hartford-Springfield area and western Connecticut. According to the weather service, the rains, steadily falling since last night, have been caused by a slow-moving cold front and should end late this afternoon or this evening.

Streams and rivers in the state are swollen with the rain and are being watched for flooding, according to the Greater Hartford Flood Commission.

State and local police departments report that many area roads are flooded and that a rash of minor accidents have been caused by the storm. State police also report that a major traffic tie-up on I-91 had been caused by flooding.

The Town Highway Department reports that it received about 45 calls this morning reporting road flooding.

Many of these calls, officials pointed out, are duplicate reports of the same flooding.

The Town and Eighth District Fire Departments each report having answered approximately 20 calls for flooded basements and say that there were also a large number of backyard floodings being reported.

No storm-related fires were reported.

"He says, however, he has no written records. Well, I do. And Dean will be tripped up by the logs I kept of all meetings."

Ehrlichman said the only "scrupulous" statements he made to the press.

Ehrlichman Says He'll 'Trip-Up' Dean Allegations

BOSTON (AP) — Former White House aide John D. Ehrlichman says his testimony before the Senate Watergate Committee will "trip up" John W. Dean and his allegations that President Nixon was involved in the scandal coverage.

In an interview appearing in today's Christian Science Monitor, Ehrlichman said Dean, the former White House counsel, "was uniquely at the pivot point."

Dean was the one, Ehrlichman said, who told the President and his aides that "a very vigorous and intensive investigation had not produced any evidence to implicate any one except the seven men involved in the break-in."

"The only person who would have been in a position to keep the break-in a secret and to have taken steps to protect the three or four people — including himself — who were involved in the inception of the thing, was Dean. He was uniquely at the pivot point."

Ehrlichman said Dean has excused his coverup of the break-in as a Democratic headquarters in June 1972 by testifying that the President, Ehrlichman and another close Nixon aide, H. R. Haldeman, "did not know what he was doing."

"That is a central issue to this whole matter and my testimony will show it just was not so," Ehrlichman told the Monitor.

He said he has reviewed his records and they show that literally months went by during the time Dean was talking about that I had no contact with him at all. To hear his testimony he was in and out of my office every 10 minutes."

"He says, however, he has no written records. Well, I do. And Dean will be tripped up by the logs I kept of all meetings."

Ehrlichman said the only "scrupulous" statements he made to the press.

Rules All Wet

RICHLAND, Wash. (AP) — The city has agreed with a women's lib advocate that the Richland swimming pool rules were all wet.

Officials lifted a rule that required females to wear bathing caps, while allowing males to go without after a complaint of discrimination by Ann P. Wallace, a member of the National Organization for Women (NOW).

She claimed in a letter to the city that while women had to wear the caps, men and boys with shoulder-length hair didn't.

Heavy Rain Causes Flash Floods

Heavy rains caused some flooding today as Town and debris, washed through the storm drain system, clogging it and to keep the roads clear.

Town Highway Superintendent John Birchill said that 18 men, all available man power, were working to clear water-logged roads. The department reports that the bridge over the Hop River on Olcott St., was completely washed out by the storm water and will have to be replaced this morning, according to Ted Brindamour of the Greater Hartford Flood Commission.

The heavy rains were, however, scattered across the state and the National Weather Service at Windsor Locks reported that an average of about two inches of rain has fallen on the state since midnight.

Flood watches are in effect for the Hartford-Springfield area and western Connecticut. According to the weather service, the rains, steadily falling since last night, have been caused by a slow-moving cold front and should end late this afternoon or this evening.

Streams and rivers in the state are swollen with the rain and are being watched for flooding, according to the Greater Hartford Flood Commission.

State and local police departments report that many area roads are flooded and that a rash of minor accidents have been caused by the storm. State police also report that a major traffic tie-up on I-91 had been caused by flooding.

The Town Highway Department reports that it received about 45 calls this morning reporting road flooding.

Many of these calls, officials pointed out, are duplicate reports of the same flooding.

The Town and Eighth District Fire Departments each report having answered approximately 20 calls for flooded basements and say that there were also a large number of backyard floodings being reported.

No storm-related fires were reported.

He said he has reviewed his records and they show that literally months went by during the time Dean was talking about that I had no contact with him at all. To hear his testimony he was in and out of my office every 10 minutes."

"He says, however, he has no written records. Well, I do. And Dean will be tripped up by the logs I kept of all meetings."

Ehrlichman said the only "scrupulous" statements he made to the press.
