Richard W. Meier, 152 Hawthorne St., and Daniel S. Silver, 288 Kennedy Rd., have been named Capital Area Scholars named by Trinity College.

The two former Manchester High School students, who graduated in June, will enter Trinity in September under the scholarship program.

Meier, son of Mrs. Marion H. Meier, was active in track, student council and the German Club at MHS. He served as a camp counselor during the summer of 1971, and was a Boy Scout for four years. Meier plans to major in chemistry.

Silver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Silver, served on the art staff of the Manchester High School yearbook "Somnibus." The scholarships will cover part of the students' four years at Trinity.

Democrats Get MHA Control

Manchester Republicans next month will lose control of the only town agency still in their hands. The five-year term of Republican Vincent Diana expires July 1 and Democratic Town Chairman Ted Cummings said Diana's seat will be filled by a Democrat.

At present, the MHA is 3 to 2 Republican. Its members are Republicans A. Paul Berte, chairman; Richard Schwoley, vice chairman; and Diana; and Democrats Pascal Mastrangelo and Kathleen Ponticelli.

Cummings said the name of a Democratic replacement for Diana will be ready for Board of Directors' action when it meets July 10. He said that when the MHA becomes 3 to 2 Democratic, Berte will be replaced as chairman and Schwoley as vice chairman. Berte is chairman of the Republican Town Committee.

Cummings said one other change will be to replace Republican Herbert Phelon with a Democrat, as counsel to the MHA.

Street Lights Await Brackets

Town Director Phyllis Jackson has learned that the unavailability of brackets has forced a postponement of new street lights for the intersection of Parker St. with Colonial Rd.

"Mrs. Jackson was told early this month by a HELCO official that the brackets will arrive next month and that the lights may be ready near July 15."

She said the HELCO official anticipates the brackets will arrive next month and that the lights may be ready near July 15.

News Capsule

New Attacks
PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) - Communist-led insurgents launched new attacks today against the provincial capital of Kompong Speu, 30 miles from Phnom Penh, and radio reports said the insurgents were within one mile of the city.

Hands Tied
SAIGON (AP) - The South Vietnamese government said today that President Nixon's agreement with Congress to halt all U.S. military activities in Southeast Asia by Aug. 15 "ties the hands of the allied forces."

Social Security
WASHINGTON (AP) - House and Senate conferees will attempt today to salvage a bill that would authorize a 5.6 per cent increase in Social Security benefits and, at the same time, extend the national debt ceiling as the Treasury can continue functioning.

The measure was defeated Friday night by a stunning 100-185 vote that blocked the House from formally considering it. Without the extension, the Treasury could run out of operating funds in little over a week.

Rate Boosted
WASHINGTON (AP) - The Federal Reserve Board has boosted the discount rate to 14 1/2 per cent, the highest since 1969. The move may force credit rates higher throughout the economy and act as a deterrent to borrowing.

Extremists Routed
BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) - Protestant and Roman Catholic extremists suffered a rout as counting proceeded today in Ulster's legislative elections, with voters lining up along traditional religious lines.

The new assembly is to replace the former 62-seat provincial parliament that had been a bastion of Protestant rule for more than 50 years until abolished by Britain last year.

Nixon Agrees To Halt Action By Mid-August

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congress and President Nixon have reached a compromise agreement to halt all military action in Indochina by Aug. 15.

Opponents of bombing in Indochina agreed the Aug. 15 fund cutoff after assurances the President would sign it. The compromise was incorporated in a $3.4 billion supplemental appropriation bill sent to the White House Friday night.

The bill substitutes for a similar measure vetoed Wednesday by the President because it would have terminated spending immediately for bombing in Cambodia or Laos. The House fell 86 votes short of the two-thirds needed to override the veto.

The Senate, by a 68-26 vote, also inserted the Aug. 15 fund cutoff in a resolution to continue funding all government departments, programs and payrolls beyond the end of the fiscal year at midnight tonight.

President Nixon related to Republican congressional leaders Friday his willingness to accept the Aug. 15 deadline. The House then dropped its demand for an immediate halt in the bombing of Cambodia and substituting the Aug. 15 cutoff in the supplemental money bill. The vote on final passage was 278-124.

The Senate concurred by a 72-14 vote, clearing the bill for the President's desk.

But Senate sentiment on the compromise already had been tested in a spirited debate on the continuing resolution, adopted 73-6 after the Aug. 15 deadline had been accepted.

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., called it "a compromise with death."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, defended the compromise in an emotional speech as the only way to end "this abominable war."

Fuhrberg said the President had accepted a series of committee interpretations of the language.

Congressional acceptance of the Aug. 15 cutoff should not be interpreted as a recognition of the President's authority to engage U.S. forces in hostilities before Aug. 15.

Any involvement by U.S. forces in Indochina after Aug. 15 would require approval of both houses of Congress.

It would not be used as the basis for escalation of U.S. bombing in Cambodia, or for its resumption anywhere else in Indochina "unless provoked."

All efforts should be made to minimize casualties and property damage.

Some anti-war senators held out to the end.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., called the compromise "a capitulation and abdication of the constitutional powers of the Senate."

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said the compromise gives the President "amnesty for the slaughter of the past and license for slaughter in the future." He said "it will go down in infamy in American history."

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., called it "a compromise with death."

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, defended the compromise in an emotional speech as the only way to end "this abominable war."

This scene, taken at Leland Dr. off of Keeney St., was typical of many Manchester streets early this morning following a heavy downpour. Storm sewers were unable to drain the water away fast enough and many low-lying streets were flooded making driving difficult in most areas and detours necessary in some others. At top center is evidence of water boiling out of a storm sewer which apparently enters the line through a catch-basin higher up in the street. (Herald photo by Orlara)

Heavy Rain Causes Flash Floods

Heavy rains caused some flooding today as Town and Highway Department crews worked to combat the flooding and to keep the roads clear.

Town Highway Superintendent John Birchill said that 19 men, all available man power, were working to clear water-choked roads. The department reports that the bridge over the Hop River on Olcott St. was completely washed out by the storm water and will have to be replaced this afternoon or this evening.

Areas to suffer the heaviest flooding were N. Elm St. and Adams St., according to Birchill.

State and local police departments report that many area roads are flooded and that a rash of minor accidents have been caused by the storm. State police also report that a major traffic tie-up on I-91 had been caused by flooding.

The Town Highway Department reports that it received about 45 calls this morning reporting road flooding.

Many of these calls, officials pointed out, are duplicate reports of the same flooding.

The Town and Eighth District Fire Departments each report having answered approximately 20 calls for flooded basements and say that there were also a large number of backyard floodings being reported.

No storm-related fires were reported.

Ehrlichman said the only "scrupulous" statements he made to the press.

Rules All Wet

RICHLAND, Wash. (AP) - The city has agreed with a women's lib advocate that the Richland swimming pool rules were all wet.

Officials lifted a rule that required females to wear bathing caps, while allowing males to go without after a complaint of discrimination by Ann P. Wallace, a member of the National Organization for Women (NOW).

She claimed in a letter to the city that while women had to wear the caps, men and boys with shoulder-length hair didn't.

Ehrlichman Says He'll 'Trip-Up' Dean Allegations

BOSTON (AP) - Former White House aide John D. Ehrlichman says his testimony before the Senate Watergate Committee will "trip up" John W. Dean and his allegations that President Nixon was involved in the scandal coverage.

In an interview appearing in today's Christian Science Monitor, Ehrlichman said Dean, the former White House counsel, "was uniquely at the pivot point."

Dean was the one, Ehrlichman said, who told the President and his aides that "a very vigorous and intensive investigation had not produced any evidence to implicate any one except the seven men involved in the break-in."

"The only person who would have been in a position to keep the break-in a secret and to have taken steps to protect the three or four people - including himself - who were involved in the inception of the thing, was Dean. He was uniquely at the pivot point."

Ehrlichman said Dean has excused his cover of the break-in as a Democratic headquarters in June 1972 by testifying that the President, Ehrlichman and another close Nixon aide, H. R. Haldeman, "did not know what he was doing."

"That is a central issue to this whole matter and my testimony will show it just was not so," Ehrlichman told the Monitor.

He said he has reviewed his records and they show that literally months went by during the time Dean was talking about that I had no contact with him at all. To hear his testimony he was in and out of my office every 10 minutes."

"He says, however, he has no written records. Well, I do. And Dean will be tripped up by the logs I kept of all meetings."

This is the new Powder Mill Shopping Center, 1227 Burnside Ave., East Hartford. The shopping center was recently remodeled and renovated by Simmons and Cohen, Inc., an East Hartford construction firm. The center has space for 12 stores and several offices. The shopping center was formerly the Case Powder Mill where the Case brothers manufactured paper products. Before that, in the early 1800's, the mill was a manufacturing plant, used for the making of long rifles. The plant was later used by the manufacturing of gunpowder by Forbes and Hamann. At the time of the outbreak of the Civil War the plant was being used by DuPont, which had moved its operations from Delaware for safety reasons, for the same purpose. Later the plant manufactured hard paper casings used in the making of bullets for post-Civil War repeating rifles.

Sesquicentennial Guest Editorial

'You Are The Greatest'

Editor's Note: Today's guest editorial was written by Lord Mayor Kenneth Collis of Manchester, England, who has been the leading guest of honor during the 150th anniversary celebration of Manchester, Conn., as a town.

I was a member of the Town Council of the City of Manchester, England, in 1969 when we were happy to respond to the invitation to elect the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress to represent the city at the Sesquicentennial celebrations in Connecticut in June 1973.

At that time, I had no idea that I would be the fortunate person to be accorded the honor of being Lord Mayor and to have the wonderful opportunity to visit Manchester, Conn. The Lady Mayoress and I will attend many functions and meet many people during our term of office, both in England and in other parts of the world, but I want all the people of Manchester, Conn. to know that the highlight of our term will be this week which we have been privileged to spend with you during your celebrations.

The people of Manchester, England, have a reputation for being warm and hospitable. This heritage we guard most jealously. I am particularly proud therefore that this heritage has not only been adopted by your town but finds expression everywhere one goes.

Fate plays many tricks on mere mortals and, when I was inaugurated as Lord Mayor of Manchester, the theme of my address that day was the need to obtain greater involvement in community work which, in my view, is the surest way to combat the many unhealthy aspects of modern living. This week I have seen the fulfillment of that dream, not in Manchester, England, but right here in Manchester, Conn. Your parade, your craft exhibition, your performances in the high school, provide the cornerstones for community structure. These are the solid foundations upon which you must build.

I shall return to England a lot wiser and with a feeling of great humility because I have seen this week the warmth and sincerity which a community can generate, not only for its own people, but also for those who are fortunate enough to be adopted as members of the community.

Space prevents me from making specific references to people or events — all of which would be to the point of my "You are the greatest." Americans use a phrase, "You're welcome." Often, they may use it without thinking about what it implies. To all of you, may we say we have had definite proof of the true meaning of that phrase. Have no fear that the Lady Mayoress and myself return to England as two willing and proud ambassadors of your town.

We shall carry back and retain for the rest of our lives treasured memories of kind, genuine, and warm people. "God bless you all and thank you."

Today in History

By The Associated Press
Today is Saturday, June 30, the 181st day of 1973. There are 184 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1869, President Harry S. Truman announced he had ordered U.S. troops stationed in Japan to help the Republic of Korea repel North Korean invaders.

On this date—
In 1771, British forces in the Revolutionary War evacuated New Jersey, crossing to Staten Island, N. Jersey.
In 1848, the Indian Territory was created by an Act of Congress.
In 1859, 5,000 persons watched as the French acrobat, Emile

Blondin, crossed Niagara Falls on a tightrope.
In 1894, Adolf Hitler began a purge in Germany, getting rid of hundreds of political and military leaders.
In 1949, Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia pleaded before the League of Nations in Geneva for help against Italian invaders.

"I Remand This Prisoner to Your Custody!"

The June 23 parade was a spectacular extravaganza and Manchester should be very proud. There were many people working behind the scenes to make this parade a success. One of those groups were the people assigned to render first aid and emergency transportation for the participants and spectators.

I would like to personally thank the Red Cross first aid instructors and advanced first aiders who patrolled the parade route. Mr. Sedrick Stranghan, Mrs. Mary Mulligan and Mr. Russell Turner, who, along with their assistants manned the

Only the President's 60 day freeze saved the customers of CL&P, temporarily, from a $5.5 million increase in their utility bills. Now HELO is clamoring for $4 plus million increase in rates and they will get it unless the people who are their customers are willing to be heard.

Appalled
Dear Sir:
I was appalled to see the mess left on Main Street by the viewers of the parade after it was over. There were boxes, cans, bottles and paper strewn about as if a tornado had just swept through the town. I don't see how we, the people of Manchester, can be so careless and apathetic as to leave such a mess. Any visitor to Manchester driving down Main Street would get a very bad impression of our town and our people.

Thank You
Gentlemen:
On behalf of The Manchester Historical Society and myself personally, I wish to express our appreciation and congratulations to The Manchester Evening Herald for such complete coverage of Manchester's Sesquicentennial Celebration. We would also appreciate it if we might relay through your columns our thanks to the many individuals, both members and nonmembers of The Historical Society, who have assisted us at the Cheney Homestead and at the Whitton Memorial Exhibits.

"I see by your resume here," Mr. Frisbee began Baker, "that you attended USC. Tell me about your extracurricular activities."
"Yes, sir," said Frisbee. "At that point in time I successfully programmed an interface between my scholastic and social game plans and was thus fortunate to be elected President of the Thanatopsis Debating & What Club."

"I should have said I have no knowledge of ever having been, sir. And, honestly, that statement needs a new conligator and the Don..."
"I thought as much," said Baker, nodding grimly. "And I suppose you have an attractive wife?"
"Oh, yes, sir. And she's always standing behind me smiling, no matter what I do."
"Tell me, Frisbee," said Baker leaning forward, "have you even been subpoenaed, indicted or offered immunity?"
"Yes, sir," said Frisbee. "At that point in time I successfully programmed an interface between my scholastic and social game plans and was thus fortunate to be elected President of the Thanatopsis Debating & What Club."

Life of Jesus

Jesus Blesses Little Children
Some people brought children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray, but the disciples scolded those people. Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, because the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
He placed his hands on them and left.

The Rich Young Man
Once a man came to Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what good thing must I do to receive eternal life?"
"Why do you ask me concerning what is good?" answered Jesus. "There is only One who is good. Keep the commandments if you want to enter life."
"What commandments?" he asked.
Jesus answered, "Do not murder; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not lie; honor your father and mother; and love your fellow-man as yourself."
"I have obeyed all these commandments," the young man replied. "What else do I need?"
Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go and sell all you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven; then come and follow me."

The Bible Speaks
by Eugene Brewer

"It is not for kings... to drink wine, or for rulers to desire strong drink. O Lemuel, lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and pervert the rights of the afflicted. Give strong drink to him who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress; let them drink... and remember their misery no more." (Proverbs 31:4-9)

There was a time when an admitted habitual drinker had little chance for public office, from teacher to president. But now that the narcotic drug, alcohol, is socially accepted, so such limitations prevail.

It is reasonable to demand of a surgeon steady hands, unaffected by drink. And it is equally legitimate to demand of social leaders, from educators to governors to president, minds unalloyed by alcoholic haze—and an example for young and old.

Heralding Homes

House Filled With Favorites

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dudek live in this shake shingle colonial-type house on Garnet Ridge Rd., Tolland.

When a family likes to search out country auctions for antiques and likes to dig in dumps and rubbish for old bottles, the logical thing to do is to have a house to put them in.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dudek did just that. With the help of a building contractor-architect friend, they now have a home in a wooded lot on Garnet Ridge Rd. in Tolland that is tastefully filled with their favorite findings, and still seems to provide room for more.

Even if the item isn't authentically old, it is used to fit in with the antique accessories.

On a visit to the Pennsylvania Dutch region during a vacation, the Dudeks chose colors to be braided into rugs by the Amish which would go with their color scheme in the family room and the kitchen, earth colors of yellow, green, red and brown.

With the extensive use of paneling in the home, pegged wide floorboards and brick, color schemes and wall coverings have been selected to provide a warm, colonial atmosphere. Accents of red appear throughout the rooms.

The largest bottle collection of the family fills an entire built-in shelf unit in the family room. The unit, looking like an item from a specialty house, was custom made by Mr. Dudek using a tool kit which had been given to his son for a 7th birthday present.

Red and gold plaid drapes blend with the green and rust colored furniture covering. On the coffee table is Mrs. Dudek's Mother's Day gift from her children this year—a replica of a galvanized wash tub with cups hanging around the edge. It may be used as a punch bowl. Mrs. Dudek is presently using it as a container for cheery red geraniums.

Assorted candle sticks on the shelf are a special dining room attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudek and Melissa take time in their living room to enjoy a scrap book. The sofa and lamp shades are among the red accents.

The master bedroom is L-shaped with dark paneled doors.

The family room rug was braided in Lancaster, Pa., using a combination of yellow, green, red, and brown.

Magazines are held in a brightened mail basket hanging on the wall at one end of the dining room.

The kitchen with its dark stained woodwork, is brightened by a small bright colored braided rug on the floor. A custom made treat table with a matching bench and two stool-back chairs is where the family eats most of its meals. Assorted bottles and old glass canning jars on a single shelf above the table reflect light from a hanging antique shaded lamp. A big bowl of oversized garden vegetables in papier mache adds a capricious note to the kitchen table.

Red appears again in the dining room in the form of braided seat pads on the captain's chairs at the table. Shown drapes in butterscotch harmonize with the patterned wallpaper in a small red and gold colonial print. The table centerpiece is a bowl of large papier mache fruit.

Mrs. Dudek has a special fondness for a pair of amber glass crackle candle sticks which had belonged to her mother and came from Czechoslovakia. The candlesticks were always used for "Vela," a special Christmas feast when the participants dip their bread in honey. An amber Gone-With-The-Wind lamp is one of the attractions in the dining room.

The living room, with sheer white drapes and a pale beige rug, provides a setting for many interesting antiques. One eye-catcher is an old sleigh seat which was in sad shape when Mr. Dudek first found it but with a major cleanup and a paint job, and a velvet cushion added, it has become a popular seat on the hearth for guests.

A commemorative bottle collection is displayed at one end of the living room in a tall cabinet.

The use of red is prominent in this large room. It starts with the ruffled red sofa and is highlighted in the hanging red oil lamp over the piano, a red glass oil lamp on the coffee table, a long red cloth covering a small round table by a window, and small gilt framed pictures mounted on red velvet ribbons.

A polished brass coat rack stands like a stately sentinel in the entrance hall. For Melissa's eighth grade graduation, she was promised a complete set of her bedroom. She chose an entirely different decor from the colonial one originally planned. She has gone all out for a splash of color that's gay and lively and youthful. A floral paper with blue and green flowers and white daisies sets the scheme which is carried out with blue braided rugs, a matching floral print bed cover and sheer green curtains.

Melissa's electric typewriter puts out a lot of copy under the heading "The Bridge," which is Melissa's own column in the "Tri-Town Reporter". The clever use of green and yellow kitchen canisters for cutlery and other girlish whitties, shows how one can use accessories in a new and original manner. Melissa has made her own bouquets of giant yellow, green and aqua paper flowers. She also made a mobile of swinging blue, green and white flowers that match the wall covering.

Wall mounted travel banners and a Spanish fan are evidence of her recent trip to Spain.

Scott, who is 14 years old and 6 feet and 2 inches tall, and a basketball player (what else?) at the Tolland Middle School, is a CB radio fan at home in his own colonial room which uses red, boldly in drapes and braided rugs. A rapier, mounted over the mirror, was his sister's gift from Spain.

Ten-year-old Todd displays his love of sports in the wide use of pictures and banners depicting mostly football and basketball. A much loved and well-worn "Charlie Brown" adorns his master's bed in a white and blue room.

Mr. Dudek, who is a mail carrier in Manchester, joins with his family on weekends and vacations in their common interest, antique hunting and bottle digging.

Vernon

Active Program Provided By Middle School

BARBARA RICHMOND (Herald Reporter)

The Vernon Center Middle School goes beyond the call of duty to bring to the students an activity oriented program beyond the "Three R's."

A school newspaper, "Highlights," published several times during the school year, brings to students and parents news of these activities and special clubs.

The lengthy list of clubs includes: Camping, Yearbook chess for Grade 6 and one for Grades 7 and 8, Creative Movement, Newspaper, Politics and Government, Grade 8 Ecology, Rock Hounds, Ski, Drama and Library clubs.

Other activities include a Bermuda trip, boys physical education aides, girls gym assistants, band, choir, girls chorus and spelling team. Along with the clubs and special groups the school also has a wide variety of physical education activities during the year. There are intra-mural activities for boys and girls. The girls participate in folk dancing, soccer, bowling, volleyball, basketball, gymnastics, softball and track and field.

For the boys, intramurals include soccer, football, cross country, gym hockey, basketball, bowling, weightlifting, softball, track and field, archery and hunter safety.

The school's motto is "Freedom With Responsibility," and in keeping with this an E-G club has been started with students who receive all E's and G's on their report cards, under the attitude column, given the privilege of leaving study halls to go to the cafeteria, athletic fields or courtyard.

This club is open to the Grade 6 students only.

During the year the students were involved in several projects such as selling candy and sweaters and holding dances, to raise money to donate toward building a school in Africa. This fund-raising drive was led by the Student Council.

The school band performed at the Music Educators Conference and was commended for its work.

Another feature at the school is a radio program which is on the "air" over the school intercom each morning from 7:45 to 8:10. The program, written and produced by the students, features music, news of future events, interviews and announcements.

During the year, Barry Taylor, a Grade 8 student, composed a school song which made its debut at an open house for parents and friends.

Two groups of students from the school spent a week in Bermuda at the Bermuda Biological Station for Research. The program of study included seminars on the history, geology and ecology of the island. The students went snorkeling and in search of in-shore specimens and came back to share their trip with the other students.

The ecology club made a study of Ecker's Pond which is on the school property. They collected two truck loads of debris from the area, analyzed the condition of the water and observed the wildlife around the pond.

David Theriaque, a Grade 7 student, entered the chess tournament sponsored by G. Fox and out of 100 participants he made it to the finals but was eliminated in the finals with a two win-two loss record. He received a membership in the U. S. Chess Federation, a subscription to a chess magazine and a national chess rating.

A parent-teacher-student basketball game (the students won by one point), a talent show, drama club play, camping and skiing trips, band concerts and, of course, the routine school work, kept the students busy and happy during the school year. David Parker is principal of the school.

Sen. Weicker Ejects Colson From Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—"You make me sick," Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr. said to former White House aide Charles Colson as he ordered Colson out of his office Friday.

The Connecticut Republican accused Colson on national television Thursday of trying to pressure him into ending his investigation of the Watergate scandal.

President Nixon's former special counsel had gone to Weicker's office to call the senator that he hadn't tried to "plant" news stories that Weicker had failed to report some contributions made to his 1970 campaign, Weicker aides said.

Colson also denied that a memo provided by the Watergate Committee by ex-White House Counsel John Dean naming 20 political enemies of the administration had come from his office. But aides said Colson admitted writing another memo suggesting the Internal Revenue Service investigate a Teamsters Union official described as "an all-out enemy."

At that, aides said Weicker erupted at Colson and ordered him out of the office. "You make me sick. You can get out of my office. I just don't even want to talk to you any more," Weicker said. The White House memo said the IRS should probe the tax returns of Teamster Vice President Harold J. Gibbons of St. Louis.

"Gibbons, you should know, is an all-out enemy," the memo said, describing Gibbons as "a McGovernite, ardently anti-Nixon." The document also said that if an informer's fee resulted from turning Gibbons in to the IRS, "Let me know. There is a good cause at which it can be donated." Colson previously had denied Weicker's charges.

Proposal Signed To Coordinate Nurse Training

A proposal that will transform nursing education in the greater Hartford area was signed by representatives of Manchester Community College (MCC), Hartford Hospital and the University of Hartford in a ceremony at the hospital.

Signers of the document for their respective institutions were Dr. Frederick W. Lowe Jr., president of Manchester Community College; T. Stewart Hamilton, M.D., president of Hartford Hospital; and Dr. Archibald M. Woodruff, president of the University of Hartford.

Under the terms of the agreement, MCC will offer a two-year associate degree program in nursing and the University of Hartford will offer an advanced program leading to the baccalaureate degree in nursing. Instead of the three-year diploma program it has for a long time offered, the hospital will provide the clinical setting for the two degree programs. Final approval for the proposal must be received from the State Commission for Higher Education and the State Board of Examiners for Nursing before it can be put into operation.

Dr. Lowe described the proposal as the culmination of several years of discussion among the three institutions. He said that, if approved, it will provide much-needed "vertical mobility from one level of nursing education to another. We hope that this proposal has been greater," Reis said. Meskill asked where the consumer fit into the companies' consideration of a fair rate. Reis said it was important for customers to be reasonably assured of receiving continued high service.

"If he has to pay a little more than that, that is the unfortunate result of the times we live in," Reis said.

He said the companies needed to continue earning an adequate rate of return in order to help finance $2.3 billion in construction anticipated by Northeast between now and 1978.

He said that Northeast's earnings were "on the skids now" after having risen for the past three years.

Meskill Questions Power Rate Differentials

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. Thomas J. Meskill continued to suggest that Connecticut consumers subsidized Massachusetts utilities as he ended his second day of cross-examination before the Connecticut Public Utilities Commission (PUC).

Meskill appeared Friday as an intervenor in the combined rate increase cases of the Connecticut Light and Power Co. (CL&P) and the Hartford Electric Light Co. (HELCO). For the second day he cross-examined L. Sanford Reis, a New York financial analyst who testified for the companies.

Meskill concentrated on the fact that CL&P and HELCO customers pay higher rates than customers of three Massachusetts utilities even though all five companies are subsidiaries of Northeast Utilities. "Are you asking this commission to grant an increase to have customers in Connecticut pay higher rates to subsidize the Massachusetts utilities?" Meskill asked.

Reis said that wasn't the case. He added that rates in Massachusetts didn't determine what was a fair rate for the Connecticut companies, which are considerably larger. Meskill asked if the low earnings of the Massachusetts companies in comparison to HELCO and CL&P affected the marketability of Northeast Utilities stock.

"The impact is very small. If the Massachusetts companies were overearning and the Connecticut companies were underearning the impact might

Cub Fan Happy These Days

There is no bigger a rooster for the Chicago Cubs in Manchester than Sol Cohen of the Herald's editorial staff. He's no Johnny-come-lately either.

The Chicago-born reporter noted the absence of any Cub players in the top five category of four most important phases of the game, batting, home runs, runs batted in and pitching.

Going into yesterday's games, Jose Cardenal was the leading Cub hitter and he was in 11th place with a .310 average. Rick Monday was sixth in homers with 16 and many one Bruin was along the top 10 in RBI's.

Pitching, too, failed to list a single Cub among the top 10. Balance has to be the key for the team that is making a shambles of the National League's Eastern Division race, holding an eight and one-half game edge over distant challengers St. Louis and Houston.

Usually the Cubs go into a tailspin in late season but the way the club is going at present, it could have an insurmountable lead by August and will be able to coast home free, slump or not.

That's the way Cohen would like to see the ball bounce for his team in the weeks ahead.

Murcer $250 Poorer, Homer Richer After Meetings With Kuhn and Perry

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Murcer met with Bowie Kuhn and Gaylord Perry Friday—and came away $250 poorer and one home run richer.

His first meeting was with Baseball Commissioner Kuhn, who nicked Murcer's $100,000 wallet to the tune of $250 for the New York outfielder's charges earlier in the week that neither Kuhn nor American League President Joe Cronin "has the guts" to enforce a rule prohibiting pitchers from loading up the baseball with a foreign substance.

Perry, who beat the Yankees 4-2 Monday night in Cleveland, was the pitcher Murcer had in mind. Friday night, Murcer lagged him for a two-run homer as the Yanks erupted for six runs in the fourth inning and whipped the Indians 7-2.

Murcer gave the occasion of his home run the full treatment. He shot his right arm skyward in what might be termed a "Yankee power" salute as he rounded first base.

He waved his batting helmet at the cheering fans as he trotted to the dugout.

"It looked to me like a hanging greaseball," he said of the pitch he hit.

"He threw me a couple of greaseballs that broke pretty good, but he didn't throw as many tonight as he did in Cleveland. Then, he threw it on almost every pitch. This was the first time I've seen him mix his pitches up—fast ball, slider and greaseball."

"Listen, I don't dislike Gaylord at all. I just don't want him throwing an illegal pitch."

The Yankees abandoned plans to train two closed-circuit television cameras on Perry, but an ABC-TV crew did zero in on the Cleveland right-hander. The results were to be shown today on Wide World of Sports.

Perry used up his repertoire of figlets in the first inning. Before his first pitch he rubbed his fingers with his left armpit. Before the inning was over, he had gone to the bill of his cap, his forehead, the right side of face, behind his right ear and the back of his neck.

When Murcer came up for the first time, Perry gave him the full routine. He took off his cap and stared toward the plate while slowly rubbing up the ball. That time, Murcer grounded out.

In a pre-game news conference, Murcer described his meeting with Kuhn.

"He said I ought to be a little more discreet in my comments," Murcer related. "I told him a lot of things are said in the locker room after you lose a close game. We'd just lost a game which I felt we should have won."

But he refused to back down on his greaseball charges against Perry.

"Yes, he throws a greaseball," Murcer said, "and he's not alone. Since he's been in the league there's been an increasing number of pitchers trying to throw it."

"It looks like it's already been legalized. I've felt the stuff he puts on the ball, but I don't think the umpires want to feel it."

He said he would like to see the ball bounce for his team in the weeks ahead.

Pretty New Face on Golf Tour
Laura Baugh, 18, Helps Steer Short Putt

Dream Come True For Young Golf Pro

ATLANTA (AP) — Laura Baugh had a dream the night before her professional debut. And it came true.

"Everybody dreams a little bit," said the 18-year-old blonde after shooting a three-under-par 70 Friday to share the lead after the first round of the Ladies Professional Golf Association $30,000 Lady Tara Classic.

Sandra Haynie, one of the leading money winners on the tour, in one of the final threesomes also shot a 70 for the two-way tie.

Miss Baugh opened with a birdie yesterday for the 6,335-yard par-73 Indian Hills Country Club course and added an eagle 3 on the 14th hole.

The two women hold a threestroke lead over the trio of Bonnie Bryant, Joann Washam and Judy Rankin who equaled par 73.

"This is the fun part," said Miss Baugh, who captured the U.S. Women's Amateur Championship at the age of 16 here in Atlanta.

"I kept my mistakes very low. I've been playing exceptionally well for the past couple of months."

Leading money-winner Kathy Whitworth was in a group of ten women at 75 while defending champion Jan Ferraris limped in with an 80. Two-time winner here Jane Blalock had a 77 as did last week's Heritage Village Open winner, Sue Berning.

Irwin West Leader

CHICAGO (AP) — Hale Irwin is one of the few touring golf pros who does not believe it takes practice to keep sharp.

"If you feel that your game is sharp, why go out and beat yourself into the ground practicing?" asked Irwin, who missed only one green and rolled in five birdie putts of 10 feet or less.

American League Roundup

One-Hit Effort By Jim Bibby

NEW YORK (AP) — Until Friday night, no one in the Bibby family owned an American League victory.

That didn't bother Henry Bibby, who makes his living playing basketball for the New York Knicks, but it wasn't doing anything for brother Jim.

So Jim Bibby went out and one-hit the Kansas City Royals, pitching the Bibby family into the AL record book and the Texas Rangers to a 3-0 victory.

Cleveland 7-2; Baltimore slugged Detroit 9-2; Minnesota blanked California 4-0; Chicago edged Oakland 4-3 and the Boston-Milwaukee game was postponed because of rain.

Rangers-Royals
Fran Healy opened the Kansas City sixth by doubling off the wall in left-center to spoil the no-hitter.

Bibby had been acquired by Texas June 6 from St. Louis. He has also won one game in the National League.

Twins-Angels
The night was a total failure for the Perry family. Jim, the greasestuff Perry, was pitching for Detroit and just about everything he sent up to the plate ended up in the stands.

Baltimore's Boog Powell hit a three-run homer in the first. Earl Williams slammed a solo homer in the fourth and Al Bumbay added a two-run blast in the fourth.

Doyle Alexander pitched a five-hitter for the Orioles. In Anaheim, Bert Blyleven shut out the Angels for nine innings. Nolan Ryan held on only until the eighth. That one inning was the difference. Bob Darwin's grand-slam homer in the eighth gave the Twins the decision.

Blyleven surrendered just four hits while walking one to gain his 10th victory against eight losses.

White Sox-A's
The Chicago White Sox, who lost their slugging first baseman Dick Allen on Thursday night with a hairline fracture in his left leg, gained first place Friday night as they defeated the Oakland A's, knocking them into second place by four percentage points.

Ed Herrmann's eighth-inning homer was the margin of victory for Stan Bahnsen, 10-6.

Shutdown Impact Told

HARTFORD (AP)—The shutdown of the Penn Central Railroad would be a monetary and ecological disaster to Connecticut and would add 1,000 trucks a day to Interstate 91 near Hartford, a state transportation department official says.

Colin Pease, deputy commissioner for the state Bureau of Motor and Rail Carriers, said that if the Penn Central went out of business Connecticut would be left with almost no railroad freight service. There are only two other rail lines coming into the state, one through Vermont, the other through Canada, he said.

Penn Central trustees in Philadelphia said Friday they've been unsuccessful in their three-year effort to reorganize the bankrupt railroad. Without massive federal assistance by October, the trustees said all trains would stop by January.

However, if the giant Penn Central operation, which runs on 20,000 miles of track in 15 states and two Canadian provinces, collapses by the end of the year, the three computer lines serving the New York area will continue to run, according to the Metropolitan

Teachers Request Mediation

ANNE EMT

The Hebron Education Association is applying for mediation through the State Mediation Service under the State General Statutes, according to Mrs. Cynthia R. Strouse, president-elect of the HEA.

In announcing the decision, Mrs. Strouse stated that the HEA and the Hebron Board of Education have been unable to reach an agreement through negotiations on teachers' professional salaries and insurance benefits and have reached an impasse.

According to Edward Hinchliff, chairman of the Hebron Board of Education, this is the first time that mediation has been necessary in negotiating on teachers' contracts.

One of the problems, Hinchliff stated, other than salaries is "fringe benefits," a "minor" problem.

Hinchliff said that last year the board paid $216 of the total cost for individuals and $500 of the total cost for families. With Blue Cross increases this year, Hinchliff stated "the total cost of what the board will bear has not been agreed to."

A meeting will be held Tuesday evening between the HEA and the board to sign the necessary papers requesting mediation.

Flash Floods Reported In Most Parts Of State

By The Associated Press
The National Weather Service issued flash flood advisories for much of Connecticut today as heavy rains sent water swirling through city streets and blocked some low-lying highways with pools of water.

A flash flood warning was announced for western Connecticut, while less serious flash flood watches were announced for central Connecticut, the greater Hartford-Springfield area and the western half of southern Connecticut.

Police reported a spate of traffic accidents on rain-slicked roads and urged motorists to proceed with extreme caution. Most roads were reported passable, despite the flooding in some locations. Mudslides were reported in Bolton and Southbury while trees fell overnight in a Newtown windstorm.

Forecasters predicted rain would continue on and off through the day in most parts of the state and would taper off toward evening. Authorities said the flood advisories were likely to continue in effect until evening.

United Illuminating Co. said about 2,400 customers in the Bridgeport area lost power at about 8 p.m. Friday. All power was restored by the early morning hours. Other UI outages involved about 130 customers in Stratford and small numbers of customers in other additional locations.

HELCO and CL&P said outages in their service were brief and affected only small numbers of customers.

Two inches of rain were reported overnight in the Danbury area, while about 1.3 inches fell Friday and early today in Bridgeport. About 3.5 inches fell at Thompson Dam in the 24-hour period ending early today.

while the comparable figures in Waterbury were 2.70 inches and in Barkhamsted 2.25 inches.

Police reported urban highway flooding and water problems on many state and interstate routes. Exit 22 on Interstate Route 95 in the Westport area was closed due to flooding at the bottom of the ramp and Route 9 was flooded between Exits 11 and 12 near Westbrook. River Road in Southbury was cut off by accumulations of water.

Other roads blocked included Route 47 in Woodbury and Route 109 in Morris.

Route 317 in Roxbury suffered a slight washout, while minor water problems were reported on Route 41 in Salisbury. State police said a particularly high number of weather-related accidents had occurred on I-86 in East Hartford.

Electrical storms in the Newtown area overnight set off about 40 burglar alarms, police reported.

Rain was heavy in Southbury and the Groton area, but no flooding in those regions was reported.

Tolland Road Policy Attacked by Zullo

Connecticut motorists are paying for Gov. Meskill's "drive to build a big election year surplus" with a "shocking deterioration in highway maintenance and resulting traffic hazards," former Norwalk Mayor Frank Zullo said Thursday night.

Zullo, speaking at the Tolland County Democratic Association in Tolland, charged that Meskill's "rutted road" policy has roused complaints from all parts of the state.

"Meskill just hasn't given the department the money or manpower needed to meet minimum standards of safety and convenience," he said, "even though motorists are paying heavily in the form of high gasoline taxes."

Zullo said the Transportation Department has 496 vacancies resulting from the hiring freeze ordered by Gov. Meskill last August. "The department doesn't have the people to carry on the kind of maintenance which before Meskill, gave Connecticut the reputation of having the nation's best secondary roads."

George Hunt, Tolland Democratic Town Committee vice chairman, in the absence of chairman Charles Thifault, welcomed the TCDA to Tolland. At Ahearn of Bolton, conducting his first meeting as president of the TCDA, said the association is entering its 43rd year and is one of the oldest organizations of its sort in the state.

Ahearn gave a background on Zullo, noting he was elected to his first term as mayor of Norwalk at age 33. He was subsequently re-elected to two more terms of the state's seventh largest city, before taking a leave from public office to devote more time to his family and law practice.

Zullo said he was testing the proverbial waters for the gubernatorial candidacy for 1974, but stressed he has not announced his candidacy. He stated the main issue in the election is Gov. Meskill, who will be "very tough to beat."

Former state representative Robert Houley of Vernon asked Zullo his feelings about the number two spot, or any other state office. Zullo replied that he would run for governor and nothing else. "If the party doesn't choose to nominate me I would not seek any other position on the ticket and wouldn't go home mad."

Vernon Police

Keith D. Andrews, 18, of 30 Tolland Ave., Rockville, was issued a summons charging him with making an improper left turn in connection with a two-car accident on Rt. 83 Friday.

Police say that Andrews made an improper turn into the path of a vehicle operated by Jack Jacobson of Windsor Locks.

No injuries were reported in the accident. Court date is July 17.

Peter Ignatowicz, 44, of 33 Vernon Ave., Rockville, was issued a summons charging him with failure to obey a traffic control signal in connection with a three-car accident at Union and West St., Friday night.

Police say that the Ignatowicz vehicle was traveling northbound on West St. and failed to stop at the signal, and traveled into the path of a car operated by Thomas Coluri, 20, of 33 Grove St., Rockville. Police say that the Coluri vehicle then struck a parked car.

Police said that all three cars were removed from the scene by wrecker. Court date is July 17.

Gail A. Babcock, 22, of Rt. 30, Rockville, was charged with making an improper left turn after a two-car accident at Rt. 83 and Dart Hill Rd., police said.

Police say that the Babcock vehicle was in collision with a car driven by Steven Neptune of Springfield, Mass.

Both received emergency treatment at Rockville General Hospital and were released. Court date is July 17.

Police Report

Richard L. Hardy, 40, of 27 Maple St., was charged last night with being a fugitive from justice, police said.

Police say that Hardy escaped from the Maine State Prison last year. He was serving a sentence in that prison on a charge of rape, police say.

He has been held without bond and is to be presented in court July 2. State Prison authorities from Thomaston, Maine, are expected to begin extradition proceedings shortly, police said.

Juanita Newkirk, 30, of 466 W. Middle Tpke. was charged last night on a Circuit Court 12 arrest warrant with disorderly conduct. Police say that charge is in connection with a June 16 incident in which a man was threatened with a knife. She was released on her written promise to appear in court July 16.

Two Killed In Crash On Route 91

HARTFORD (AP)—A Philadelphia, Pa. couple died Friday when their car skidded out of control on rain-slicked Interstate Route 91 and struck a concrete abutment, state police said.

Troopers said the car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fricker failed to negotiate a curve near the Charter Oak Bridge. The couple reportedly was enroute to visit friends in Simsbury.

Fricker, 45, was dead on arrival at Hartford Hospital. Wrecking crews worked nearly an hour to pull the body of Mrs. Fricker, 43, from the vehicle. Troopers said wet pavement and unfamiliarity with the road helped to cause the accident. The rear tires of the Fricker car were smooth, according to police.

State Offers Reward For Murderer

HARTFORD (AP)—Gov. Thomas J. Meskill Friday authorized a $3,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons involved in the slaying of a 16-year-old South Windsor gas station attendant.

Edward N. Donihue was killed on the job June 13 after being robbed of around $35. He was shot once in the back of the head and once in the back. State's Atty. John D. LaBelle asked for the reward after state and local police were unable to discover the identity of the killer or killers.

Contract Station Will Open Monday

John Bengston, officer-in-charge of the Manchester Post Office, announced that a new Contract Station will open Monday in the Browns Around Shoppe, 313 Green Rd., near Parker and Woodbridge Sts. It will be under the direction of Robert Gagosz, proprietor of the shop.

Customers will be able to purchase stamps and money orders, and mail all types of mail, ordinary, registered and certified letters and parcel post and insured parcels.

Bengston said the many residents of the northeastern part of Manchester will be served more conveniently, by having a postal facility in their neighborhood.

Petition May Ask Halt in Building

VIVIAN KENNESON
Correspondent
Tel. 875-4704

The Planning and Zoning Commission may be presented with petitions for moratorium on building permits at its meeting Monday night.

According to John Trainor, he and Folke Erickson will present the informal petitions when enough signatures are obtained, although no official number are required.

The petition requests the PZC to declare a moratorium on all commercial and residential building permits for 90 days or until such time as the Comprehensive Town Plan and revised zoning regulations are adopted. The petitioners feel that the best interests of Tolland would be served if this measure is adopted.

A summary of the 1965 Comprehensive Plan was presented at a PZC meeting in April, but a planned public hearing scheduled for April 30 was canceled because Town Counsel Robert King objected to parts of the plan.

King declined to state what areas he was concerned with but said, "there are problems—no doubt about it."

The plan, representing over a year's work by the PZC, Advisory Committee, and Northeast Development Group, projected Tolland's population will reach 16,700 by 1985, with households up to 4,463, an increase of 118 per cent.

The summary state that if all buildable land were developed, Tolland's population could swell to 50,000, with up to 15,000 dwelling units.

The development concept includes eight or more centers designed to satisfy the needs of the ultimate population. Each neighborhood center would be the heart of the community, featuring a park, elementary school and recreational facilities.

A centralized shopping, recreation, entertainment and education center was proposed south of Rt. 72 interchange with I-86. Commercial and industrial development goals are to eliminate commercial strip development.

The summary report covered areas of residential development, open space and recreation, refuse disposal, fire protection and roads.

NBC Starts 'Exchange' With BBC

NBC-TV and the British Broadcasting Corp. (BBC) have entered into a long-term program of cooperation which will be launched with an exchange of major dramatic specials in the coming television season, the networks have announced.

A two-hour production of "After the Fall," the powerful Broadway play by Arthur Miller, will be the first NBC program presented under the new arrangement. The drama has been adapted for TV by Miller, and will be produced in New York this fall for future airing on both NBC and BBC. The British dramatic production for the initial "exchange" will be announced soon.

Terms of the NBC-BBC agreement call for joint selection of the exchanged specials before their production.

Bob Hope will headline six specials on NBC-TV during the 1973-1974 season, the network has announced. Hope, who celebrated his 70th birthday May 29, starred in his first NBC Radio program in 1938. The coming season will mark his 24th year on NBC-TV.

Richard Long, a star of ABC-TV's "Thicker Than Water," was a series regular in the now-defunct series, "Bourbon Street Beat" and "77 Sunset Strip."

Bob Reiner Still Thinks Of Baseball

Veteran journalist Arthur Krock discusses the need for a free and independent news media on an ABC-TV News special, "The First & Essential Freedom," Thursday, July 5, at 8 p.m.

He wanted to be a cowboy or baseball player, but he ended up a "meathead."

As a youngster, Bob Reiner, co-star of CBS-TV's "All In The Family," had keen ambitions, and in his late teens he chose to be a writer and actor. In the back of his mind, though, one dream still keeps popping up — baseball.

Even though he was a better-than-average ball player, Reiner just wasn't professional material. But that didn't quell his interest in the game — Whenever he has a spare moment, he plays baseball.

Recently Reiner floated on Cloud Nine, for part of his dream became reality: He worked out with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"I was a kid all over again," Reiner said. "You can't imagine how excited and nervous I was in that Dodger uniform, going through pre-game exercises I idolize."

TV Notes

Tony Bennett and Lena Horne will team for a one-hour musical special on ABC-TV in September, the network has announced. The first time they appeared together was for a Burt Bacharach TV special.

Redd Foxx, star of "Sanford and Son," has been named the 1973 TV Father of the Year by the National Father's Day Committee in New York.

Brian Keith played the doctor in the road company production of "Mr. Roberts" while his father, Robert Keith, played the same role on Broadway.

Bert Parks is an avid tennis player. He plays outdoors all year by spending winters in Florida and summers in Connecticut.

Why Not Serve Up a Good Game: Play Tennis

The forehand — notice the grip and the position of the feet.

The backhand — again, notice the grip and feet position.

Tennis is becoming more popular every year. By the end of the 1960's, the ten million tennis players in this country outnumbered the golfers by a million.

Here are some pointers for beginners:

1. Be alert and ready for shots. Keep your eye on the ball. Keep your knees bent and lean forward a little, so your weight is on the balls of your feet.
2. As soon as you see in what direction the ball is coming, swing the racket back, keeping the face perpendicular to the ground.
3. Step into the direction you wish to hit the ball.
4. For the forehand, contact the ball beside the forward foot with the racket perpendicular to the ground.
5. For the backhand, contact the ball in front of the forward foot with the racket perpendicular to the ground.
6. Carry the ball on the racket face as long as possible toward the target.
7. Follow through high with an upward and outward movement still keeping the racket face perpendicular to the ground.

The Grip
There are three types of grips commonly used. They are the western, eastern and continental. The most common are the eastern forehand and backhand.

For the forehand grip, you simply shake hands with the handle held in a perpendicular position. For the backhand, you turn your thumb slightly under the racket for about one eighth of a turn to the right.

The ready position — keep your eye on the ball, knees bent and lean forward on the balls of your feet.

Super Sport: Stan Smith

Stan Smith, the winner of the 1972 Wimbledon singles' crown, also won the 1972 Martini and Rossi Gold Racket Award. This award is presented by a panel of international tennis writers to the player they consider to be the best in the world.

Smith is a deeply religious, self-made man. He says that some day he would like to build and manage a YMCA. He grew up in Pasadena, California, and did not start playing tennis until he was in his teens. He played in and won several important tournaments while serving as an enlisted man in the Army. Now out of service, he has a home at Hilton Head, South Carolina, where he is a pro at one of the clubs.

Super Sport: Margaret Smith Court

Margaret Smith Court is considered one of the finest tennis players ever. She started playing the game at the age of nine on a clay court across from her home in Albury, Australia. During the 1960's and 1970's, she won three Wimbledon championships, three German, Italian and French championships, nine Australian championships and four U.S. championships. She retired from tennis in 1966, saying she was tired of traveling. In 1967, she married Barry Court and he insisted that she return to the game. He and their small child travel with her.

How do you score in tennis?

Zero is love
One point is 15
Two points is 30
Three points is 40
Four points is game

Score Love 30

If both sides have three points, the score is "deuce" and a player must win two points in a row to win the game.

A set is when either side has won at least six games and is ahead by two games. There is a new choice in scoring sets. You can play out a set in the regular way, or, if you are at the score of 6 games for each side, the players can play a best-of-nine points to break the tie. The winner of the tie-break wins the set 7-6.

A match is usually made up of winning two out of three sets. If one side wins two sets in a row, the last set is not played. In tournaments, men play matches of three out of five sets. Women play tournament matches of two out of three sets.
