SAVE YOUR STOPPERS EVEN AT TRUMP BID
By Alfred Sheinwold
When you're declarer at a trump contract, you avoid opening up a weak suit which might allow the opponents to widen the breach. The same principle sometimes applies to trump contracts.

Opening lead — Jack of Hearts
West opens the Jack of hearts, and you win with the Ace of hearts in the South hand. You can now virtually guarantee the contract if you are careful.
The careless play is to lead a club to dummy's king in order to try the spade finesse. This loses, and the opponents cash a heart trick. Now they lead a club to knock out dummy's Ace.

When you lead diamonds, they are in position to take the Ace of diamonds and a club trick. One trick in each suit equals down one.
You cannot afford to open up the club suit and put the opponents in position to get a club trick. You don't have to lose that club if you're careful.

Lead Ace of Trumps
At the second trick the correct play is to lead out the Ace of trumps. Then you continue with a low trump. At best, West can take the king of spades, cash a heart and lead a club. You win the club with dummy's king, draw the last trump and lead diamonds to force out the Ace. Dummy still has the Ace of clubs, and you can discard.

Looking to 1976

Maybe it is just as well that Manchester had no formal Fourth of July celebration this year. In the wake of the week-long Sesquicentennial town celebration, a Fourth of July fete, however grand, would have been anti-climactic.
But as we marked the quietest Fourth in our memory we were haunted by the thought that in 1976, America will be celebrating its 200th birthday, and Manchester and the other communities of Connecticut and this nation would be remiss if some form of celebration isn't planned.
Our state was one of the original 13 and many of our communities have roots going directly back to colonial times.
Our thought is perhaps various communities east of the river could sometime this year get together and form a group to plan and coordinate, not one big Fourth of July celebration for 1976 but several, throughout the bi-centennial summer. In this way, each week or so, focus could be directed on a particular community or area and its ties with 1776 and the founding of the Republic.

We are aware there are efforts on a state and national level to celebrate the 1976 event but in light of the creativity, energy and public reception to Manchester's Sesquicentennial Celebration, we know the more local a celebration is, the more people in that community get involved. If any celebration of our nation's birthday is to have lasting meaning, it will come from personal involvement and participation.
Now is the time to set our sights on 1976 and let the region, state and nation, know the role Manchester, Bolton, Coventry, Vernon, South Windsor, Glastonbury and other east of the river communities played in this nation's colonial and pioneering days.

Over-65's Impact On Economy Grows

We, the people of the United States, are growing older. According to a recent Census Bureau report:
— Today about 20.8 million Americans are 65 years of age and up, and the number is increasing by 300,000 to 400,000 a year.
— The number of people over 65 will rise sharply between the years 2010 and 2020 when the World War II "baby boom" becomes an "elderly boom."
— The proportion of people 65 to 69 is declining, while the proportion of those 75 and older is growing.
The time is coming, says one gerontologist, when more than half our population will be over 65, a fact which is going to have major impact on many of our institutions and customs.
Now the premium is on being young, notes Dr. Mary M. Sequin of Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, who is one of a growing number of persons with doctorates in the field of gerontology, the study of aging.
But when the population shifts begin to occur—caused by a combination of medical advances and a declining birth rate—the premium will be on being older, she predicts. "The focus of power and values will shift."

She foresees one major problem area in the economy, especially the job market, as technology eliminates jobs and we are forced to keep lowering the age of retirement to make room for new entrants.
One possible solution might be for people to work in five-year cycles. They would take a year or more off after each cycle, giving opportunities for more people to be employed.
Americans over 65 are the new "pioneers," says Dr. Sequin. Before, not many people lived to a ripe old age, and those few older people were incorporated in the general population without anything special needing to be done about their special needs or problems.
"Today we have a large number of people in this group for the first time. They are pioneering new roles—being retired, being great-grandparents."

Half-Quotes Linger On

The good men do it off interested with their bones; its misquoties live after them—especially if they are presidents.
Latest statement to misquote a supposed statement by Richard Nixon is political scientist James Barber of Duke University. In an interview with the editors of the Washington Monthly, he suggested that the President might try to create a new crisis to make people forget the current one over Watergate.
"Remember," said Barber, taking a rather long leap of logic, "Nixon invaded Cambodia right after the Senate rejected G. Harold Carswell for the Supreme Court. Remember, also, the President's statement, made just after his re-election, that 'the average American is just like the child in the family.' Nixon has often followed Dr. Spock's advice—if the child is unhappy with one thing, get him something else."

Unfortunately for Barber, and others who have seized upon this particular Nixon quote, or half-quote, what the President said after comparing the average American to the child in the family was that all the average American wants is to stop being babied (by the government) and be given a chance to show what he can do on his own.
Unfortunately for the president, however, nobody ever remembers this part of the quote.
The President has enough problems as it is. It would be the decent thing if Nixon-baiters would at least stick to the facts.

Make Your Feelings Known

The Town of Bolton is coming to grips with many problems that face small towns in this day and age. "How best to provide services without changing the quality of the town or raising taxes?" seems to be the question most of the town boards are grappling with. The library board has done well with the small budget allotted since the library became public a few years ago, however the library building has become cramped and more room is needed. This seems to be a prime concern now, the construction of a new building. While not denying the need for space, much more space, I as a taxpayer and one very much interested in more materials, services and longer hours, would like to see these factors taken into consideration while the board is in the beginning stages of planning for a new library.

Therefore I am enclosing a letter being sent to the library board. Perhaps if interested Bolton residents will not only the library board of their feelings the time and expense wasted in 10 years of lagging over a high school cafeteria which has never materialized) may be spared. The use of revenue funds for the new library was supported at a town meeting recently. People who give their time and talents to serving on town boards should receive more than criticism. Opinions, suggestions and queries are needed for decisions. Once a decision is made it is too late. Unfortunately too many people do not form opinions until actions has been taken. The library board will be deliberating on these matters in the coming months. I hope interested citizens will make their feelings known now.

Sincerely,
Joann M. Neath

Sincere Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity through The Manchester Evening Herald to thank all of the people involved in making the Grand Ball such a magnificent success.
The ball and the orchestra were superb. A marvelous job was done on the table arrangements and decorations.
I am sure we all realize how much time and work went into the preparation of the Grand Ball to make it the success it turned out to be.

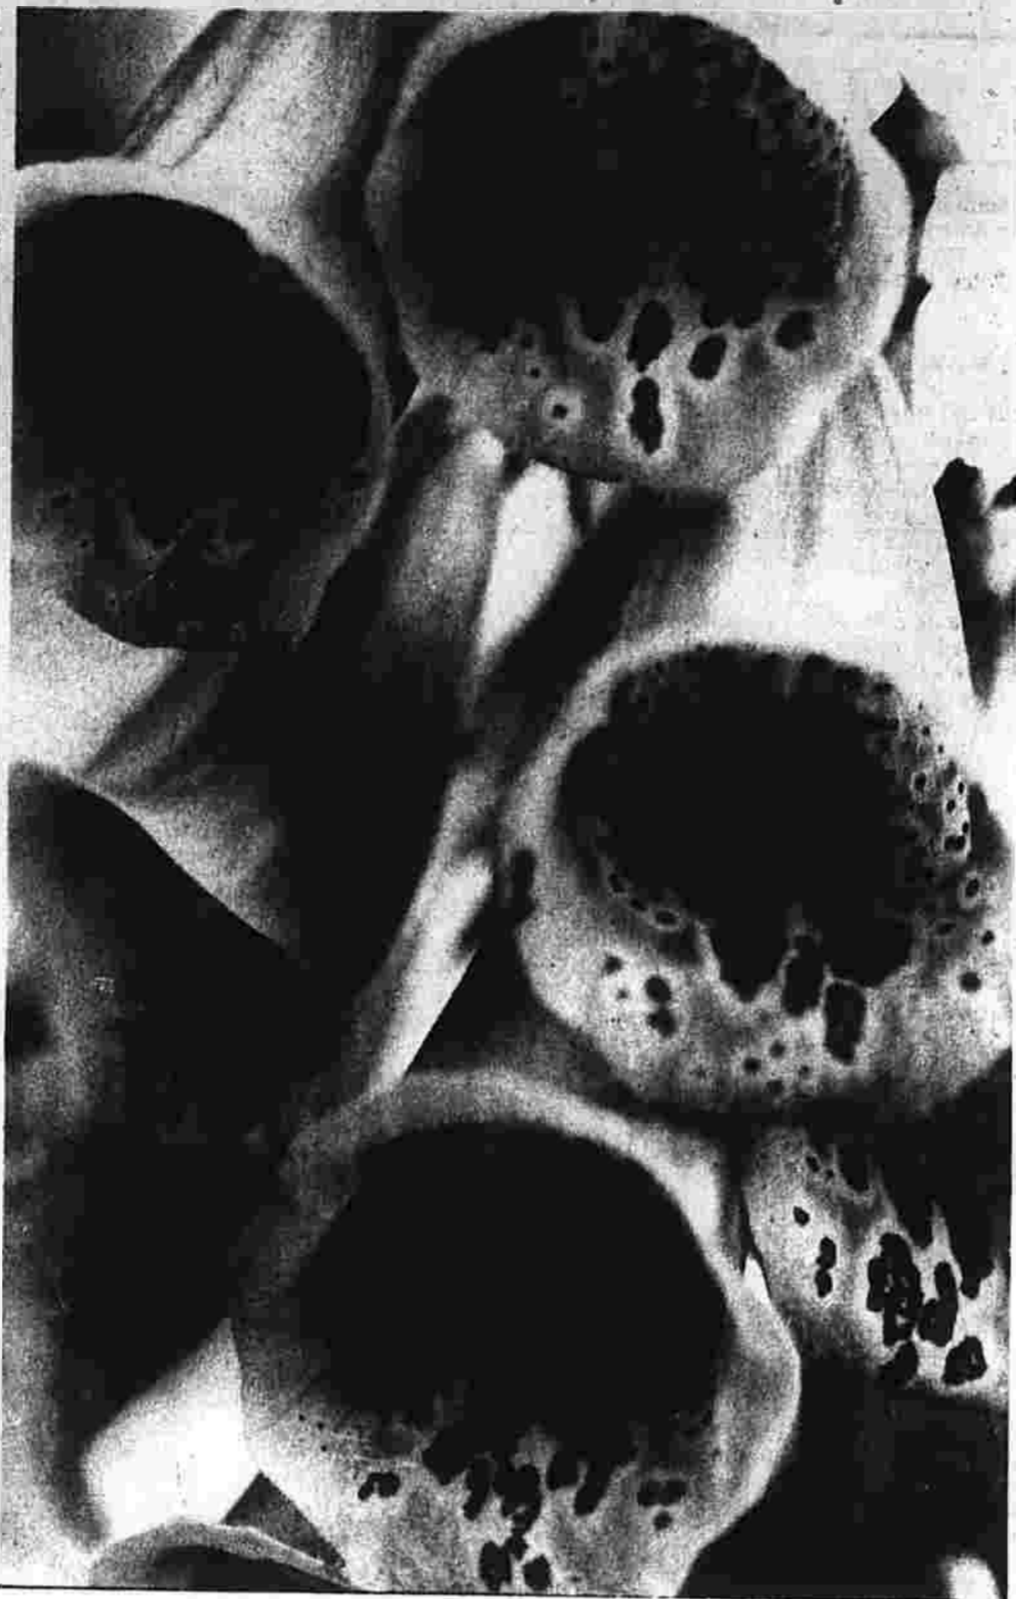

I am sure I speak for myself and others that were fortunate enough to attend the ball. Thank you all.
It was an evening that will always be remembered and cherished.
With sincere thanks to all involved.
Joseph Thompson

The letter to the library board at Bolton follows:
This comes to express disappointment in the cancellation of membership in the Capitol Region Library Council.
The number of materials used by Bolton residents has increased to 700 in 1972 in return for the $2,000 borrowed by the Bolton library. This would indicate to me that the service is being used to the advantage by a good number of Bolton residents.
As for the "excessive" increase to $688, I would think the service still well worth the view of the fact that $80,000 of revenue sharing money is being considered to build a new library, $688 for services for those who find it difficult to obtain.

We Can Keep It

WASHINGTON — Leaving Watergate behind for his annual holiday, a reporter finds himself pondering the words of Benjamin Franklin outside Independence Hall on Sept. 17, 1777.
The delegates to the Constitutional Convention had just put the finishing touches to history's noblest document and Franklin was weary as he made his way through the crowd outside the hall. But not too weary to sound a warning.
"Well, Doctor," asked a woman, "what have you got a republic or a monarchy?"
Franklin paused for a half a moment. Then, "A republic—if you can keep it."

Not despite Watergate, but because of Watergate, I think we can keep it. The Republic is sick, but the medicine that is the Republic's present illness can never cure—never, because after this dose of Watergate, no administration will ever dare commit the sometimes sordid, sometimes petty crimes a little band of vicious men committed in Richard Nixon's name.
Future administrations have been put on notice, in language even the meastest of us can understand, that those who simply could not get away with another Watergate, if it took time, but the system worked. Moving hand-in-hand, Congress and the media finally exposed the offenders against the system.

Enemies List

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The government of Great Britain, speaking through the monarch, announces an annual Honors List, eagerly awaited, which makes awards to a deserving elect. Thanks to John Dean's handling of White House files we learned that the Nixon administration followed the British practice, but inverted it into an Enemies List, and kept it secret.
It is part of the topsy-turveness of our time that what I learned I was on the list, and was greeted by the congratulations of my friends, as if I had done something extraordinary.
The fact is that none of us had done anything except his ordinary work by his best lights. I had prided myself on making every effort to be fair to the President, but I was severe when he deserved severity. To try to be informed, to strain for perspective, to call your shots as you see them with no afterthoughts: Corry as it sounds, that is what being the commentator is about.
But for men blinded by arrogance and corruption, if you did your job and bit hard when you were moved to, and refused to curry favor, you were bound to be suspect. The distorted angle of vision of the White House staff distorted their image of the commentators as well. You didn't have to be guilty of any act of enmity: It was all in the subjective eye of the beholders, and the quality of vision of the beholders can be judged by the fact that they were up to their eyeballs in water.
It sounds pretty zany, doesn't it? A good psychological term for it is paranoia, when you see enemies, enemies everywhere, and you feel so surrounded by threats that you turn yourself into an engine of threat. A good political term for it is police state.
Each of us has enough of a touch of paranoia to have a personal "enemies list" jacked away somewhere. Judging from some of my more colorful mail, I am on a goodly number of lists. I have a little list of my own, as who doesn't? When you experience some special, outlandish idiosyncrasy, when someone inflicts on you a grievous hurt or injustice, you put him down on your mental list. There may be murder of mayhem in your heart. But it eases the pain and frustration to assign the SOB to some Dantean circle of Hell.
For most of us the list ends there, as it does in Gilbert and Sullivan—as people who do never be missed, whom you consign in your imagination to diabolical tortures. I speak of those of us who don't have the resources of the Mafia, nor the KGB, nor the French Surete, nor the Tupamaros in South America, nor the White House staff. All power, said George Santayana, is deligible, but absolute power is absolutely deligible.
Tuesday came around, and in the morning I attended a meeting at the Manchester Community College where we discussed the future plans for recreation areas, and also a picnic area with shuffleboards and all.
When these plans are completed, and they get the OK to follow up on them, I sure will be something very nice and a place where we'll be able to use for our picnics, etc.
In the afternoon while the senior bowlers were knocking down the hardwood pins, I got off picking up some new ideas for our arts and crafts program.
Wednesday was a holiday, and one I hope everyone had a nice and enjoyable day. Naturally there was nothing for us to report.
This Wednesday by the way, we'll showing our colored slides on the Wildwood Trip. I've got over one hundred (100) of them, and some of them came out very, so for you who made the trip, here's a chance to see what you did bringing back memories, and for you who missed the trip, this is a chance to see what you did miss. So I hope to see you here. It will be part of our Fun-Day starting around 2 p.m. On Wednesday we will have our guest members of the Quinn Shaver Center, who will give some interesting advice as to how they can be of help to all you electric shavers.

News for Senior Citizens

by Wally Fortin

Hellow folks! It's that time again, and so I'll get right into the news here at the Center.

Last Friday night we had a nice turnout of 44 players for our setback games and the lucky winners were Ann Lehmann, 124; Bernice Caswell, 122; Jennie Fogarty, 127; Ann Demko, 126; Bob Conn Derby, 127; Anne Young, 128; Bill Mcweeney, 120; Larry Palazzi, 119; Elizabeth Cone, 119; Frances Pike, 118, and Eva Letz, 117.

We registered for the Hudson River trip this past week, and have two buses filled, and are a few on the waiting list. We still have a couple of days left to register, and would take a third bus if we could fill it. So, if you'd like a day away and a nice quiet cruise along the Hudson River, then stop by Monday through Wednesday and Thursday mornings, and on Wednesday and Thursday we will make our bus available to pick up members who want to get into the shuffleboard action, or play cards either at the Center or along the way. Bus will pick up both days starting at 8:30 a.m.

This Monday and Wednesday we start our new summer meals program. Monday will be a regular lunch for $50 cents, and on Wednesday we will be serving our Hot-Meal meals at $1 per plate. Members of the Community College H.E.P. Project will be preparing, and serving the meals which will be held every Monday and Wednesday through the middle of August.

We received word that George's funeral will be rescheduling at the Manchester Manor, and that Thomas Rhodes is back home at 9C Orchard St. Heran Schneider is a patient at the Manchester Memorial Hospital along with Margaret Burke. Let's not forget the future plans for recreation areas, and also a picnic area with shuffleboards and all.
When these plans are completed, and they get the OK to follow up on them, I sure will be something very nice and a place where we'll be able to use for our picnics, etc.

Manus
Memes for next week: Monday, Chilled orange juice, banana split salad plate, blueberry tart with topping, and a beverage.
Wednesday, Chicken vegetable soup, open chicken sandwich, French fried potatoes, cucumbers in sour cream, jello cubes with cream.
Monday, 10 a.m. to noon, kitchen social bingo, one to 30 cents. Noon to 12:30 p.m., lunch is served. 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., pinocle games. Bus pick up at 8:30 a.m., return trip at 12:30 p.m., and 4 p.m. Tuesday, 10 a.m. to noon, open shuffleboard practice, 10

Witnesses Holding Series of Conventions

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York is conducting a series of international conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Fred R. Götter, presiding minister of the Manchester congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, said 70 local members will attend the convention scheduled for Yankee Stadium in New York from July 6 to 11.

Other meetings in the United States are planned for Tiger Stadium in Detroit, White Sox Park in Chicago, Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles, Oakland-Alameda Stadium in Oakland, California, Astrodom in Houston, Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh, Royals Stadium in Kansas City, Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia, Atlanta Stadium, and Galtstreak Race Track near Miami.

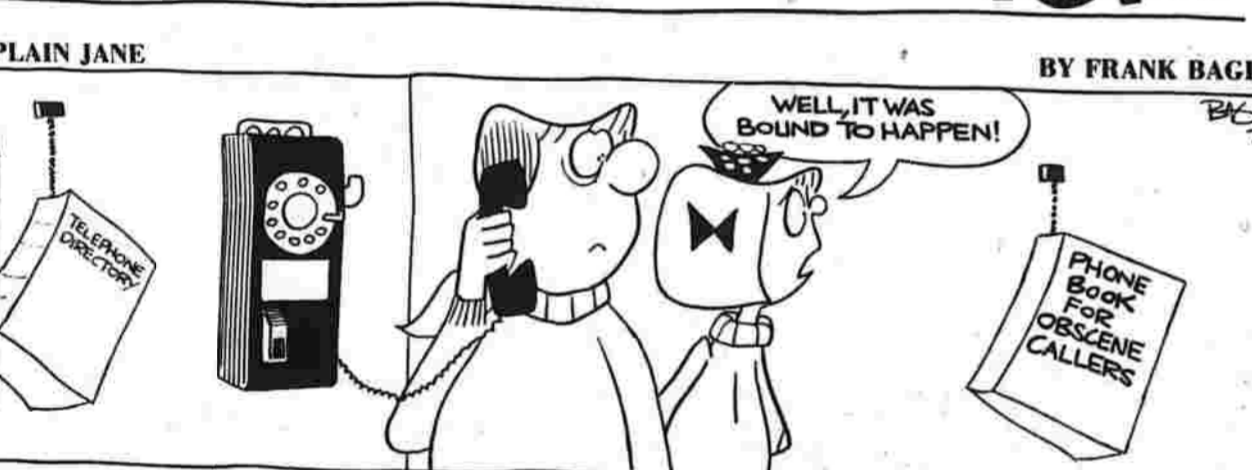

Götter said six Spanish-language conventions are also scheduled for the U.S. Internationally, five conventions have been arranged for Canada, 12 in Europe, five in Asia, 17 in South and Central America, three in the South Pacific and seven in Africa during 1973.
The theme of the conventions world wide is "Divine Victory" and will stress the Witnesses' belief in the certainty of Divine intervention in human affairs in order for man's problem to reach an ultimate and permanent solution.

"This can only be accomplished through God's kingdom by Jesus Christ," Götter said.
"Tens of thousands of delegates will attend these conventions all over the world," Götter continued, "and regardless of national origin, race and cultural background they will meet unitedly to build their faith and appreciation in God and his Word, the Bible."

Red Sox Match Longest Win Streak of Year

CHICAGO (AP) — "We're winning and playing well," said Eddie Kasko, manager of the Boston Red Sox, "I guess everyone has had a hot streak and we're looking at ours."
The Red Sox matched their longest winning streak of the year at four straight Friday night — and now have won six of their last seven — when they vanquished the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in the opener of a four-game series.
Reggie Smith, Luis Tiant, Bob Veale and Carlton Fisk all had a hand in the triumph.
Smith singled for the 1,000th hit of his career in the first inning and scored on singles by Carl Yastrzemski and Orlando Cepeda. He also doubled home a run in the third and singled again in the fifth before leaving the game with a strained ligament in the left leg.

"It's just another in a lot of nagging injuries he's had this season," said Kasko.
"It started last year on an Achilles tendon," said Smith "and ever since it's been one thing or another. I guess I'm getting to the point of having to play it day by day."
Tiant, boosting his record to 10-5, was working with a double play on a fine maneuver by second baseman by Mario Guerrero.
"Our pitching has been coming along," said Kasko "and Tiant left the game in the eighth inning with a 4-2 lead and Veale, an awesome lefthander, took over. He was greeted with a single by Tony Muser and the White Sox lifted the bases on a pair of walks with none out.

"That was our big chance," said Chicago Manager Chuck Tanner, "I thought we'd win it right there."
But Veale, who is 50 pounds lighter than when he used to pitch for the Pittsburgh Pirates, had other ideas. He got Ken Henderson to foul out and then Ed Herrmann hit into a double play on a fine maneuver by second baseman by Mario Guerrero.
"Our pitching has been coming along," said Kasko "and we've been getting good defenses along with the big hits. "Maybe we can roll now."

"We are rolling now," said veteran shortstop Luis Aparicio, "We're playing a lot better in the last week and I think we're putting it all together now."
Victim of Boston's attack was Wilbur Wood, the faltering knuckleballer whose record dipped to 15-12. At one time this season, Wood was 13-3.
The two teams will battle again today with Stan Bahnsen, 10-7, hurling for Chicago against John Curtis, 6-7. Both have earned-run averages of less than 3.00. Bahnsen is 2.92 and Curtis 2.93.

New Look at Community Y

Thanks to suggestions and constant urging by Frank Sheldon, chairman of the board, major physical improvements have been made to the Community Y facilities.
The old original lockers have been discarded. These had been in use since 1936.
The bowling lanes have been completely renovated.
The old furniture has been replaced, some of this having been original purchases over 35 years ago.
The expanded and improved parking lot has also been completed.
A thank you should go out from all North Enders to Town Manager Bob Weiss and the Town Board of Directors who cooperated 100 per cent with Sheldon and his Y group.
The North End has been neglected for years but the sun is now shining with the Y getting a new face-lifting and expanded facilities which include a fine outdoor recreational area which includes tennis, softball and a swimming pool on the Robertson Park complex.

Notes Off the Cuff

Manchester's Senior Citizens will be at Fenway Park on Wednesday, Aug. 1 for the Red Sox-Yankee afternoon game. Wally Fortin, Senior Citizens' director, made the announcement yesterday. Jimmy Balestano had trouble getting base hits this spring with the Trinity College baseball team but he's been a terror with the bat as a member of Moriarty's in the Twilight Baseball League.
For a little man, Balestano hits the ball a mile. The New York Jets will open their pre-season football camp Tuesday at Hofstra University at Hempstead, L.I. For three jets, it will be a "homecoming" as center John Schmitt, quarterback Don Gault and running back Frank Lyman are all graduates from Hofstra. Jerry Trecker, of West Hartford, will assist Frank Ramos in the Jets' publicity department again this season. Daily drills, open to the public, will start at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Ray McKenna notes that the late Pat Bolduc has been nominated for the Connecticut Softball Hall of Fame. The final results will be known next week.

End of the Line

Undeafed in American Soccer League play, the Connecticut Wildcats host Baltimore tonight at Dillon Stadium at 8:15. Tommy Kelley fashioned a two-hit shutout in his latest effort with the Richmond Braves in the International League. He stopped Peninsula, 3-0, to square his record at 2-4. Kelley's club is dead last in the standings, 23 games out of 300. Much criticism has been directed at the caliber of umpiring offered in Zone Eight American League play this season, including games played by Manchester at home and on the road. The rain-delayed Cancer Four Ball Benefit Golf Tournament at Ellington Ridge has been won by the team of Fred Meurant, Duane Hickey, Roger Mountain and Mark Pries. Low score went to Fred Kacy with a 70. Have a nice weekend.

Busby and Merritt On Starting Track

NEW YORK (AP) — Kansas City's Steve Busby and Jim Merritt of Texas are back on the track as starters while New York's unbeaton Fred Beene is back where he started—in the bullpen.
Busby, who has had his problems since he no-hit Detroit in April, got another shot at the Tigers Friday night and blanked them until the ninth as the Royals pounded out a 12-1 victory.
Merritt, who has been plagued with arm trouble since he won 20 games for Cincinnati in 1970, shut out Milwaukee after allowing two runs in the first inning and the Rangers rallied for a 5-2 triumph.
Beene made one of his rare starts and, although touched for 14 Minnesota hits, battled into the ninth inning before Sparky Lyle protected the Yankees' 5-3 win over the Twins.
"As far as I'm concerned, Beene is still a middle-inning reliever," said Yankee manager Ralph Houk.
Elsewhere in the American League, the Oakland A's downed the Baltimore Orioles 7-5 but dropped the nightcap 5-3, the Boston Red Sox beat the Chicago White Sox 4-2 and the Cleveland Indians nipped the California Angels 8-7 in 11 innings.

Royals-Tigers

Amos Otis hit his 14th home run of the year and three singles and John Mayberry hit his 20th homer to pace a 20-hit Kansas City assault against Joe Coleman and two Detroit relievers.
Busby, 5-8, had dropped seven of nine decisions since his no-hitter.

Rangers-Brewers

Merritt scattered eight hits against Milwaukee, including George Scott's two-run homer in the first inning. The Rangers rallied on a two-run homer by Jeff Burroughs and a solo shot by Bill Sudakis to hand the Brewers their ninth defeat in the last 12 games.

Orioles-A's

Merv Rettenmund and Enos Cabell rapped consecutive home runs off Oakland's Vida Blue in the seventh inning to give the Orioles a doubleheader split. The A's won the opener as Dick Green drove in four runs and Catfish Hunter won his eighth consecutive decision.

Indians-Angels

Charlie Spikes' bases-loaded single in the 11th inning lifted the Indians over California after the Angels rallied for six runs against Dick Tidrow and Jerry Johnson in the ninth to tie the game.

Busy Weekend For Net Stars

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Billie Jean King and Jan Kodes have a busy weekend ahead of them at Wimbledon's famed tennis tourney.

And the fans lucky enough to have a tennis feast to enjoy—three finals instead of only one.
Rain washed out all play Friday, when the women's singles and men's doubles were to have been played, and these were rescheduled for Saturday.
The day's program will start half an hour earlier than usual with the women's singles final, followed by the final of the men's singles and then the men's doubles final.
There still remains a women's doubles final, and a fifth round, two quarterfinals and two semi-finals in the mixed doubles to be decided before the finals in these two brackets can be played.

Boccabella Homers Twice in Inning

NEW YORK (AP) — Catcher John Boccabella, according to Montreal Manager Gene Mauch, "exerts a quiet kind of leadership over our pitching staff."
His dominance of Houston's pitching staff, though, was totally unsettling Friday night.
Boccabella became the 18th man in the history of major league baseball to hit two home runs in one inning when the Expos blasted Houston for eight runs in the sixth. He lifted with a drive over the left field fence at Jarry Park, then hit a grand slam as Montreal belted the Astros 15-3. They won the second game 14-4.
Elsewhere in the National League, the Atlanta Braves blanked the New York Mets 2-0, the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 6-3, the Chicago Cubs beat the San Diego Padres 6-5, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2 and the St. Louis Cardinals trimmed the San Francisco Giants 3-2.

Reds-Phillies

Home runs by Bobby Tolan, Tony Perez and Bill Plummer powered the Reds over the Phillies before a record Veterans Stadium crowd of 58,294. Tolan added an RBI single. Fred Norman, 6-8, won his fifth victory in his last six decisions.

Cubs-Padres

Chicago's Rick Monday, with some help from San Diego's Pat Corrales, drove in six runs with a grand slam and a two-run single to help the Cubs. Corrales dropped Monday's pop foul with the bases loaded in the fifth inning, and Monday used the reprieve to drive his 21st homer of the season over the right field fence.

Cards-Giants

A two-out double by Jose Cruz in the seventh inning drove in Joe Torre and Ted Simmons to carry St. Louis to victory. Bob Gibson pitched a seven-inning shutout for his 23rd career triumph. The decision tied Gibson with San Francisco's Juan Marchal as the winningest active pitcher.

Pirates-Dodgers

Don Sutton carried a four-hit shutout into the ninth inning, then had to scramble for the victory as Pittsburgh scored twice with two outs. Manny Sanguillen drove in Al Oliver with a double, then Dave Cash scored Sangulien with a single. But Sutton retired Reggie Stennett on a line drive to end the game.

Trio of Reds Lead Voting

NEW YORK (AP) — Three Cincinnati Reds would be in the starting lineup for the National League if today's tabulation of voting for baseball's All-Star game were final.
The three would be catcher Johnny Bench, second baseman Joe Morgan and outfielder Pete Rose. They were far ahead at their positions in the latest NL voting by fans announced Friday by the Baseball Commissioner's office.
The voting ends Sunday for the All-Star game at Kansas City July 24. Starting lineups for both the National and American leagues will be announced the week of July 15.
In addition to Bench, Morgan and Rose, other likely starters for the NL, judging from Friday's tabulation, are Hank Aaron of Atlanta at first base, Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs at third, Chris Speier of San Francisco at shortstop and Billy Williams of the Cubs and Cesar Cedeno of Houston rounding out the outfield.
The latest vote breakdown by position for the starting National League All-Star squad:

Legion Surprised By East Hartford

Slow Pitch Softball

Surprises were in store last night at Mt. Nebo as East Hartford's Legion baseball team posted an 8-2 victory over Manchester's Post before a sparse crowd.
The visitors struck for two more runs in the sixth before the Manchester defense collapsed in the final frame. The Silk towners committed three errors, leading to three more unearned runs.
Monday night the Silk towners trek to Ellington for their next start.
Dave Bidwell struggled through 4 1/3 innings before being relieved by John Koepsel. He stranded nine East runners, although one run scored in the second on an error. The roof fell in the fifth when Mike Wood, a single to center and two infield hits loaded the bases.
Koepsel came on to get the next batter on a pop-up, but Skip Zadrozny drilled Wood for a lead-off home run.

Quilici Now 0-10 Against New York

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — It was 13 years ago that a 21-year-old Jim Kaat hurled his first major league victory, beating the New York Yankees 5-4.
It was exactly one year ago that Kaat pitched his first major league game for the Minnesota Twins, coming away with a 5-2 victory over the Yankees.
The Yankees have beaten him 20 times while losing only 13.
The Twins' Kaat, 30, and former Twin Jim Perry of Detroit have 108 victories each.
The Twins, who have lost four straight games despite pounding 56 hits in that span, built a 2-0 lead with runs in the second on Phil Roof's run-scoring single and in the fourth when Graig Nettles threw wildly on Jerry Terrell's infield single.
Jim Ray Hart's three-run homer off Kaat, 9-7, enabled the Yankees to open a 2½-game lead in the East Division of the American League over Baltimore.
New York Manager Ralph Houk decided tonight with Beene, who has made two other starts this year, because of a heavy schedule that included a day-night doubleheader against the Twins today.
Beene, 5-0, escaped a 14-hit attack by the Twins with the help of four double plays, then Sparky Lyle came in from the bullpen to post the final two outs and chalk up his 32nd save of the season.
"I never really considered taking him out until the ninth inning," said Houk. "I couldn't afford to with a double header coming up. We were just that short on pitching. As far as I'm concerned Beene is still a middle reliever."
Kaat, coming off a one-hitter against California, wanted a victory to become

Schueler No-Hit Bid Lost in Final Inning

NEW YORK (AP) — "Kooz made one bad pitch and it cost him the game. Ron made one bad pitch and it cost him the no-hitter," rookie Ron Hodges said.
"Kooz" was Jerry Kosman of the New York Mets, who threw a home run pitch to Dick Dietz. "Ron" was Ron Schueler of the Atlanta Braves, who threw a hanging curve.
And Ron Hodges was the man who hit that pitch, the first one in the bottom of the ninth inning Friday night, to wreck Schueler's bid for a niche in baseball's record book.
Not since 1961, when the Braves called Milwaukee their home, had anyone—Hall of Famer Warren Spahn, to be precise—thrown a no-hitter for the Braves.
Schueler, a 25-year-old escapee from the bullpen, hadn't thrown a complete game this season. And in his brief career in the majors, he hadn't thrown a shutout, much less a no-hitter.
"I just wanted to win, that's all," Schueler said, savoring his two-hit, nine-strikeout 2-0 victory and shrugging off Hodges' single off second baseman Dave Johnson's outstretched glove that had had a lot of the 37,265 Mets fans cheering—but a lot of them booing, too.

Hurdles Record Set by Milburn

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — American hurdler Rod Milburn may have appeared nervous Friday night—first false starting and then topping two hurdles.
But Milburn's results were anything but halting, as he smashed one of track's oldest and timer led Milburn that all five official watches timed him in 13.1.
The 5-6-1/2 speedster from Louisiana was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, but when they did not offer enough money, Milburn lost ten pounds and stuck to track.
"I did not need them student said one of the timers (pounds) so I dropped them. Why carry around that official mark was put at 13.1."

Governor Requests Opinion

HARTFORD (AP) — Gov. Thomas J. Meskill asked the state attorney general Friday if Connecticut law would allow the governor to hold a hearing on the request for the extradition of a Hartford man to Mississippi.

Meskill said he would like to conduct a hearing on the request by Mississippi Gov. William Waller for the extradition of Myles Bailey Jr., 28, because he has received communications which "indicate that there are unusual circumstances surrounding the case which deserve complete airing before a decision is made."

Bailey was arrested May 23 by FBI agents on a warrant charging him with escape from custody at the Boliver County Jail in Mississippi where he was a trustee serving a nine-month sentence for passing bad checks.

Following his escape, he fled to Connecticut with his wife and two sons and set up a landscaping business in Hartford.

His wife contends Bailey wrote the bad checks on the family checking account to pay bills. "He passed those checks for his family," said Mrs. Bailey, who is expecting the couple's third child.

Bailey's lawyers say he fears for his life if forced to return to Mississippi where he expects he would be held at Parchman state prison. While being held awaiting extradition proceedings, Bailey attempted suicide in his jail cell, police said.

Mississippi authorities say 15 warrants charging him with check fraud are outstanding if he is extradited.

Woman Killed In Collision

MIDDLEFIELD (AP) — Gertrude Anderson, 47, of Hartford was killed Friday evening when the car she was riding in was involved in a head-on traffic wreck on Rt. 66, state police said.

ITT's Shadowy

ITT ended up keeping the Hartford group, but divesting other properties.

One letter from ITT vice president Ned Gerrity thanked Vice President Agnew for "your assistance."

Geneen himself was shown to have talked to Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans, Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy and his successor, John B. Connally; Paul W. McCracken, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers; Peter G. Peterson, White House economic adviser, and four other members of the White House Staff, Arthur F. Burns, Charles W. Colson, John D. Ehrlichman, and Peter Flanigan.

Other ITT officials approached then-Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and his deputy, Richard G. Kleindienst.

The author traces the intensity of the Hartford merger lobbying effort to an earlier failure. Justice Department intervention thwarted ITT's attempt to add the American Broadcasting Company to its empire in 1966 and 1967.

Nuclear Submarine Repair Costs May Be $500,000

GROTON (AP) — Repairs to a nuclear submarine damaged in an undersea accident will cost at least $500,000 and could be delayed because of a shortage of workers at the Portsmouth, N.H. navy yard, the Norwich Bulletin reported today.

Two days after the attack submarine Sturgeon struck the bottom May 21 off St. Croix, V.I., Navy officials said the damage was minor.

But Friday an officer at the Groton submarine base said the damage was "extensive," the Bulletin said.

The Bulletin quoted an unclassified Navy document outlining a six month repair schedule as saying the work could be hampered by crowded facilities and a shortage of skilled employees. The Navy report wasn't released officially.

Aillon Trial To Resume Tuesday

NEW HAVEN (AP) — Prosecutors are expected to try to trace Guillermo Aillon's whereabouts on Aug. 13, 1972, when his triple-murder trial resumes Tuesday in Superior Court.

The first two days of testimony Thursday and Friday placed him early Aug. 14 near the North Haven house where his wife and her parents were stabbed to death.

Witnesses said he admitted he was near the house that night but didn't go in. Barbara Montano Aillon and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. George Montano apparently were killed in the Montano's expensive 11-room house sometime late Aug. 13 or early Aug. 14.

Medical authorities have not yet made a public estimate of the time of death.

Joe E. Brown, Noted Comedian, Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "People have often told me that they enjoyed watching me perform because I looked as if I was having a good time," comedian Joe E. Brown once said. "And I do."

From the moment he first appeared in a circus at age 9, Brown had a good time making people laugh with the rubbery mouth and goofy "aw-shucks" smile that became his trademark as a film favorite.

And the parts he played as the hayseed rookie in "Alibi Ike" and another baseball film, "Elmer The Great," were closely connected with his personal abilities and interest in sports.

As a young man, in fact, he played semipro baseball and came within an eyelash of signing with the Boston Red Sox. At the University of California at Los Angeles, they thought of him as their No. 1 sports fan.

Brown, who died at his Brentwood home Friday of natural causes at the age of 80, made his debut in Toledo, Ohio, on a summer job with a circus acrobatic troupe and later reflected:

"I suppose the lessons I learned in the circus stuck with me all through my life. I guess the main thing was the eagerness to please that circus performers have."

By 1914, at age 22, Brown had become a featured comedy acrobat on the famed Orpheum vaudeville circuit, making $300 a week.

A funeral mass was held today in St. Martin of Tours Church in Brentwood. Burial will follow Monday in Forest Lawn Cemetery in Glendale.

Wallingford, just north of North Haven.

Vincent Montano, brother of the victim, J. George Montano, testified Thursday that Aillon told him after the deaths were discovered that he had driven past Crestview Drive, where the Montanos lived, at about 12:15 a.m. the same night but was afraid to go to the house.

He said his wife had taken their infant daughter and had gone to stay with her parents after a dispute, Montano related. Aillon added that his wife's father had ordered him to stay away from the house.

In other testimony, Murphy and two other North Haven policemen said they had seen a foot-long knife with a serrated edge smeared with a dried blood-like substance in Aillon's car when they stopped him the second time.

Murphy quoted Aillon as explaining, "I'd been at a party cutting roast beef and I didn't have a chance to clean it."

The location of the party he referred to has not been determined during the trial, but Aillon said it was at his sister's home in East Hartford, according to pre-trial testimony.

The knife was returned to Aillon and he was allowed to proceed.

Murphy testified that investigators showed him two knives for identification but neither was the one he had seen in Aillon's car.

The other two policemen, Sgt. Hayes Gibson and former patrolman Kerwin Daniels, were shown a large kitchen knife which State's Atty. Arnold Markie submitted as evidence. They said in court it was not the knife they had seen.

Markie did not indicate how it might fit into the state's case against Aillon.

Seminar On CRCOG July 16

Manchester officials and representatives of the Capitol Region Council of Governments (CRCOG) will conduct an informal seminar July 16 in Manchester to discuss and review recent changes in the organizational structure of CRCOG and the Capitol Region Planning Agency (CRPA).

The seminar will be at 7:30 p.m. in the student lounge of Manchester Community College, off Bidwell St.

An ordinance adopted in June by the Board of Directors, approving the merger of CRCOG and CRPA and authorizing Manchester's membership in the merged organization, is effective today. Manchester has been represented on both CRCOG and CRPA.

Mayor John Thompson, in arranging the July 16 seminar, explained, "It became apparent when the directors approved the merger and the town's membership in the council that there was a general lack of understanding of the roles CRCOG and CRPA were playing in the area. The seminar will help explain."

Governor's Schedule Announced

Friday—Groundbreaking ceremony for addition to west wing of state library, 11 a.m.

Driver Charged In Fatality

Ernest Tupper, 22, of 76 Ashworth St., Manchester, was charged by Manchester Police today with misconduct with a motor vehicle in connection with a June 3 fatal accident.

Tupper was the driver of a car which crashed into a utility pole on Charter Oak St. at about 2:20 a.m. on Sunday, June 3. A passenger in Tupper's car — Charles "Chuck" May, 22, of 33 Homestead St. — died of injuries he suffered in the crash.

May was rushed to Manchester Memorial Hospital after the accident, and he was then transferred to Hartford Hospital, where he died the same day. Tupper was treated at the Manchester hospital for minor injuries.

Tupper has been summoned to appear in Circuit Court 12 at Manchester July 30.

Police Report

Kurt M. Linders, 26, of 736 N. Main St., was charged by Manchester Police today with attempted third-degree burglary.

Police said they found Linders outside Manchester Auto Reconditioning, 634 Center St., where a window had been broken, at about 2:30 a.m. Linders was released on a $1,000 non-surety bond for court appearance July 23.

About Town

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will have its picnic and salad auction Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at Susanah Wesley Hall.

Miss Pat Murray of 32 Summit St. will be hostess at the Lutz Junior Museum Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

The Manchester WATES will have a business meeting Tuesday at the Italian-American Club. Weighing-in will be from 7 to 8 p.m. Those with initials D through L are reminded to bring fruit for the basket.

Southington Engineers To Pedal To Projects

SOUTHINGTON (AP) — Town Manager John Weichsel wants to save money and gasoline by having city engineers use bicycles instead of cars to get to construction projects around town.

Weichsel has asked the Board of Finance to approve a $275 allocation for bicycles equipped with baskets and locks. He said the gasoline shortage was causing some concern and that bikes would be tried on an experimental basis.

Weichsel said he can't see spending several thousand dollars for a car and then have it stand idle for several hours while the engineer is involved in inspections.

Land Use-Transpo Area Workshop Topic

The Capitol Region Land Use/Transportation Program has scheduled an informational workshop, open to the public, for Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the South Windsor Town Hall, Sullivan Ave. (Rt. 194), Wapping.

The workshop is one of four sessions designed to acquaint Capitol Region residents with the scope of the program and to seek citizen participation in its formulation, according to Adolf Carlson, chairman of the program's policy board and state commissioner of finance and control.

The program is intended to examine possible future patterns of development and various modes of transportation to determine how they can best serve the needs of the people of the Capitol Region," Carlson said.

The Land Use/Transportation Program is a joint venture of the Capitol Region Council of Governments, the Capitol Region Planning Agency, and the State Departments of Finance and Control, Transportation, and Environmental Protection.

The other public workshops are scheduled for Monday at the Avon Middle School, and Wednesday at Hartford. The Hartford sessions are set for 2 p.m. at Centennial Hall, Hartford, and at 8 p.m. at the Hartford Public Library.

Will TV test patterns top the fall ratings?

By DICK KLEINER

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — The lights are burning late in the offices of ABC, CBS and NBC. The network brass, their eyes haunted and their mouths dry with fear, are worrying about what to put on the tube next fall.

The writers' strike still drags on. No new scripts can be written. None of the new, highly touted shows will be seen, at least not in September, because there are no scripts for them to shoot.

But something will have to be aired, otherwise the public will be forced to do something drastic, like talk to each other. And there's no profit for the networks in human conversation.

So the network executives are even now considering alternatives. With a little imagination and ingenuity, they can come up with some acceptable substitute programs. You might be interested in some possibilities for fall viewing:

THE MARCEL MARCEAU HOUR, 60 minutes of pantomime. This is such a natural that all three networks are bidding for the services of the great mime, who could be the '73-'74 season's answer to Mike Connors.

THE DENNIS THE MENACE FESTIVAL. Re-runs, you see, can be used, and there are certain to be many hours of your old favorites back again. Besides Dennis the Menace, you'll be able to renew acquaintances with some other delights from the past — OZZIE AND HARRIET, SUGARFOOT, RICHARD DIAMOND and all those grand old timers.

NASTURTIUMS I HAVE KNOWN is sure to make the top 10 next fall, assuming that the networks can find a botanist who can ad lib. Ad libbing, you see, is O.K. — anything is O.K. as long as there's no script, or written anything.

DEAN MARTIN PRESENTS GLEN CAMPBELL PRESENTING BOBBY DARIN PRESENTING THE ROLLER DERBY is a sure winner. In fact, you can make a bet now — Roller Derby queen will win an Emmy.

They were all set to sign a deal for AN HOUR WITH THE WORLD'S BEST WRESTLERS, but they had to cancel it — they found out wrestlers worked from scripts.

Otherwise, though, sports will be big. The networks are even now considering televising other sports events, and we are certain to see the INTERNATIONAL QUOIT CHAMPIONSHIPS, THE NATIONAL AAU FIELD HOCKEY FINALS and THE WORLD'S BEST CURLERS.

Music shows will proliferate, as long as the MCs can ad lib and don't need scripts. I understand ABC has plans for THE BOBBY BREEN HOUR. CBS is working up THE MRS. MILLER SHOW and NBC is all set for SIXTY MINUTES WITH JAMES MCCORD, WHO ALWAYS SINGS.

Some of last season's hits will be back. ALL IN THE FAMILY doesn't need a script — they can just yell at each other. THE WALTONS will return, with 60 minutes of crying. THE MOD SQUAD can chase each other, without a script. And Dean Martin can ogle as well ad lib as any other way.

So, despite the strike, it looks like another banner year for television.

Sequoyah invented a way of writing for the Indians

The Indian Teacher Sequoyah

Sequoyah was the son of a white father and an Indian mother. His English name was George Guess.

Sequoyah invented a way of writing for the Cherokees. His first student was his six-year-old daughter. He later taught the Cherokee Indians to read and write in their own language. For the first time, Indians could write letters and keep records. Sequoyah also wrote about the history of his people.

The great Sequoia trees in California were named for him. He lived from 1760 to 1843.
