Computer Circuit Intricacies Demonstrated

The intricacies of wiring electrical fans for use in computers is demonstrated to Manchester Sheltered Workshop clients by Ian Bain, engineer from Gerber Scientific Com-

Gerber to Assist Workshop

The Manchester Sheltered Workshop which has been seeking additional work for its handicapped workshop clients since Iona Manufacturing Company announced termination of its operations in Manchester, has succeeded in securing work from Gerber Scientific Company in South Windsor.

The workshop clients are being instructed in the technical aspects of wiring electrical fans for use in computers by Ian Bain, Gerber engineer, and according to Mrs. Clifford Sullivan workshop supervisor, "the work has been going along nicely."

The complicated-looking fans to which electrical wiring must be affixed are assembled and tested at the workshop and returned to the company.

Commenting on the program, Mrs. Sullivan said, "It gives the clients a great deal of motivation, and Gerber is pleased with the work they have produced."

Other types of work to keep the workshop clients employed are being sought and any area firms having such work available are urged to contact the Manchester Sheltered Workshop, at 646-5718.

Gaullist Disunity Deepens

PARIS (UPI) — Finance Minister Valéry Giscard d'Estaing, 48, announced today his candidacy for the vacant presidency of France in a move political analysts said will split the ruling Conservative Gaullists in their battle against the Communist-Socialist bloc.

The split could deepen the disunity in Gaullist ranks, even though a two-round election is expected which would cut the field down to the two leading candidates.

Political sources said splitting of the conservative vote four ways could conceivably give victory to the left-wing candidate on the first round of balloting May 5. But if no single candidate wins an absolute majority in the first round, as appears likely, a runoff election will be held May 19.

Giscard d'Estaing is the fourth politician from the ruling conservative Gaullist coalition to announce his candidacy.

Jacques Chaban-Delmas, 59, was acclaimed Sunday as the official Gaullist candidate. Veteran politician Edgar Faure, 65, earlier announced he would stand as a Gaullist independent, and Christian Fouchet, a defender of Gaullist orthodoxy, also has said he will stand.

The battle to succeed the late President Georges Pompidou, who died last week, thus began in earnest today. The opposition Socialist party was meeting today to choose its nominee to oppose the Gaullists.

Party officials said it was a foregone conclusion that Socialist leader Francois Mitterrand would get an overwhelming endorsement from the congress to become

The Communist and leftwing radical Socialist parties, who concluded a voting alliance with the Socialist party in 1972, have already called on Mitterrand to be the common candidate for the Left.

Warnings that the Left may come to power for the first time since the 1936 Popular Front alliance, have failed to end the power struggle in the ranks of the Gaullists, whose leaders have been quarreling since the death of President Georges Pompidou last Tuesday.

Name Linda Levack Miss Manchester '74

By BETTY RYDER

Amidst tinsel, tears and a tumultuous standing ovation, Linda Levack of South Windsor captured the Miss Manchester 1974 crown Saturday night at Bailey Auditorium in Manchester High School.

A near capacity audience cheered on the 10 contestants as they were presented in talent, bathing suit and evening gown competition in the Jaycee-sponsored event.

Miss Levack, who is 20 and a junior at Central Connecticut State College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Levack of South Windsor. She also won the talent award for her organ medley presentation.

First runner-up Lee Scott, 18, a senior at Manchester High School, was awarded the coveted "Miss Congeniality" award. Miss Scott, who was extremely popular with the audience, sang "Second Hand Rose" for her talent. She recently starred in the high school's presentation of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott.

Perhaps the most unusual talent and one which proved extremely popular with the audience was performed by Kathleen Joan Dixon of Bolton who did a belly dance. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dixon, she was later named second runner-up. Kathleen is a graduate of Bolton High School and is presently in her second year at Manchester Community College majoring in art.

A piano rendition of "Laura's Theme" from "Dr. Zhivago" presented by 17-year-old Susan Dale Anderson of Windsor was well received. She was named third runner-up. A student at Windsor High School, she plans to attend Bryant College in Providence in the fall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Anderson of Windsor.

The other contestants were, Katherine Anne Ristau, Gayle Dorene Lorenzen, Halene Marie Burnett and Donnamarie Blanchard, all of Manchester; Barbara Jean Arnott of South Windsor; and Susanne Jean Therault of Vernon.

All the contestants participated in a rollicking opening dance number which was choreographed by Laurie Lee Osgood, Miss Manchester 1972.

Lee McCray, Jaycee president, thanked his staff and all the merchants who helped make the event a success.

Miss Sally Middleton, a fashion model and a former Miss Connecticut, together with W. Robert DeProspero, noted soloist, served as mistress and master of ceremonies, respectively.

Miss Middleton presented a special award on behalf of the Jaycees to Sam Nassiff of Nassiff Camera for his photographic contributions to the pageants over the past six years.

Partly cloudy with chance of rain and snow mixed by evening. High in the upper 40s to low 50s.

Tonight — windy, rain mixed with snow likely, gradually changing to all rain; low mid to upper 30s.

Tuesday — windy with rain likely, possibly heavy at times; high in the low to mid 40s.

Miss Diane DelGaudio, who served as Miss Manchester 1973, relinquished her crown but not before giving her grateful thanks to the Jaycees and Manchester residents for making her year possible.

Also on hand to greet the new Miss Manchester was the current "Miss Connecticut," Deborah Rhodes Blanchard.

"The best pageant yet" was the way Mayor John Thompson termed the event.

"We have had good talent before, but in all due respect to past contestants, these young women were great," he added.

A special "thank you" was given to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawrence through whose efforts the pageant was a success. The Lawrences have also served as chaperones for Miss Manchester during her busy year of special appearances.

Judges for the pageant were Miss Enid Lynn, executive director of the Hartford Ballet Company; William Barrett, owner of the New England area franchise for the Edie-Adams' Cut and Curl Beauty Salons; Mrs. Jay Edwards, wife of the executive director of the Miss Connecticut Pageant; William J. Haggert Jr., producer of the Miss New Hampshire Scholarship Pageant; and William Lyga, general chairman of the Miss Wolcott Pageant.

Israeli Plane Downed

United Press International — An Israeli war plane went down in flames over the Golan Heights today in the first Israeli air loss since the October war.

Israel announced it has captured its first Syrian prisoner in the daily tank and artillery battles with the Syrians on the Heights.

A Syrian communique said Syrian defenses shot down the Israeli plane over the Mt. Hermon region where fighting has been going on for two days. The Israeli military command said the crew bailed out because of a fire aboard and "were seen to have parachuted into Lebanese territory."

The only operational warplane used by Israel with more than one crew member is the two-seater American-made Phantom jet.

The Israeli announcement said the craft "was flying in the vicinity of Mt. Hermon when it was abandoned by its crew as the result of a fire which broke out, apparently resulting from a technical mishap."

Damascus radio interrupted a news broadcast at 1:15 p.m. (7:15 a.m. EDT) to broadcast a new military communique saying that a formation of Israeli warplanes tried to penetrate Syrian airspace in the Mount Hermon region.

"Our air defense system intercepted the enemy formation and shot down one of its planes which was seen crashing in fire in south Lebanon," the Syrian communique said.

The communique said fighting between Syrian and Israeli forces in the same region entered its second consecutive day.

The Israeli command said it used air power Saturday to drive Syrian infiltration units out of Israeli-held territory on the slopes of the craggy, basalt peak, which forms part of the border with Lebanon and Syria. But it denied Damascus assertions of further air strikes Sunday.

Israel last acknowledged losing a plane on Nov. 9, when the command said an unidentified aircraft was downed by an Egyptian ground-to-air missile over the Suez canal front.

Since then, two unmanned reconnaissance drones "fell" or were shot down by missiles over the canal, the army said.

Earlier, Israel said its troops captured a Syrian army commando belonging to an infiltration unit attempting to gain higher ground on the mountain.

Each side accused the other of escalating the fighting on its 28th consecutive day in the Golan Heights.

Israel's announcement on the Syrian prisoner said he was captured a day ago by troops who were sweeping the slopes of Mt. Hermon in search of infiltrators who had crossed the cease-fire line during the weekend. Another Syrian soldier was spotted, a spokesman said, but managed to escape.

The two nations have yet to exchange prisoners taken in the October war. Israel has said there must be an exchange before it will agree to disengaging along the cease-fire line.

Even as the front line exploded with gunfire, Prime Minister Golda Meir's cabinet was reported considering resigning and then forming a reshuffled government in order to collectively accept responsibility for the nation's military unpreparedness for the war.

Syrians To Meet With Kissinger

DAMASCUS (UPI) — A Syrian delegation will fly to Washington in the next 48 hours for talks with U.S. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger on the disengagement of Syrian and Israeli forces on the Golan Heights front, diplomatic sources said today.

The sources said the Syrian delegation will be led by Brig. Hikmat Shihabi, chief of military intelligence, and will include a number of foreign ministry and military officials.

Government sources said Saturday Kissinger will visit Syria before the end of April for talks with Syrian officials, but no specific date has been set.

In Kuwait, a government spokesman earlier today said Kissinger will visit Kuwait later this month but he also did not set a specific date.

Court Rules Against Town On Water Main Assessments

In a decision which sets a precedent for future water assessments against Manchester property owners, Judge James Collins in Hartford County Court of Common Pleas Friday sustained a group of Spencer St. commercial property owners in their appeal against water main assessments levied and paid in 1971.

In granting a summary judgment for the plaintiffs, Judge Collins backed their claim that they shouldn't have paid an assessment until they hooked into the water system. They all draw their water supply from wells.

The court decision orders the Town Water Department to refund those payments on the assessments already made and to lift all liens against the properties.

The plaintiffs and their assessments are: State Comptroller Nathan Agostinelli, $415; Mrs. Gilda Agostinelli, his mother, $754 (both for property owned on Hartford Rd., just east of Spencer St.); N. Charles Boggini, $1,924; William Schaller, $5,818, for property occupied by Manchester Motor Sales; Crescent DiCiantis, $2,867; and Theresa Lee, $2,550.

The assessments were approved by the Board of Directors in 1969, following a public hearing. Agostinelli, who was Manchester mayor then, and Schaller who was a member of the board, abstained from voting—because of a conflict of interest.

The water mains were installed to service the two large shopping areas constructed on Spencer St., near I-84.

In contesting the action brought by the plaintiffs, the town contended that Public Act 652, in effect March 18, 1969 when the Board of Directors ordered the action, exempted only residential owners from paying the assessments until they used the water.

The court agreed with the plaintiffs' attorney, Roland Castleman of Manchester, who contended all property owners were exempt under the public act.

New Hope Manor Gets Grant From Hartford Foundation

By ALICE EVANS

New Hope Manor, the residential drug rehabilitation home for girls on Hartford Rd., has received a grant of $20,000 from the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving.

The grant was announced today by R.M. Salter, assistant director of the Hartford Foundation.

The grant is going toward the cost of renovations and equipment for the former Jesse Lee House, which New Hope is leasing from South United Methodist Church.

The funds will help defray costs for such major renovations as electrical work and plumbing in converting the 18-room Victorian home to accommodate up to 16 girls and four live-in staff members.

The grant will also pay for major appliances, furniture and carpeting, Salter said.

New Hope also has received a grant of $5,000 from the Ensworth Foundation for equipment and renovations, and $4,000 from the Swindells Charitable Foundation to renovate and furnish its dining room, Mrs. Madeline Uccello, president of New Hope, said today.

Now, New Hope needs funds for operating expenses, Mrs. Uccello said, as state funds will not be available until July 1.

The Judge Has A Point

In making a plug for Gov. Thomas Meskill's nomination to the federal bench recently, Judge William H. Timbers of Darien, a member of the U.S. Second Circuit Court, pointed out the court needs a judge with significant legislative and administrative experience.

Gov. Meskill's nomination by Sen. Lowell Weicker Jr. has been criticized informally by the American Bar Ass. because the governor, although a lawyer, has not had any experience as a lawyer before the federal court.

All we can say is heretofore for Judge Timbers.

It is about time the qualifications for judges were broadened to consider some aspects of a man's background other than his legal credentials.

but this is not to say that our selection of judges must be limited only to courtroom lawyers.

For while judicial decision must be based on sound interpretation of constitutional law, sound interpretation is not a monopoly of those whose background is limited to practice of law only.

If we recall correctly many of our great jurists had very little practical experience as trial lawyers but rather came to the bench from law schools.

Justice Timbers raises a good point in the selection of judges. The courts need judges which represent a much broader spectrum of human and government experience than can be obtained from the narrow criteria so treasured by the American Bar Ass.

We think the ABA has every right to present its views on any candidate's qualifications. However, we would draw the line between presenting these views as a guide to the President in making his decision and their submission in the form that is too often interpreted as a veto.

Pruning Needed Too

Everybody wants more state "responsibility" in meeting the needs of the people in Connecticut. "Responsibility" generally means money, money for schools, money for the towns, and money for various locally-administered services.

The major foundation for these appeals is the high property tax now required to meet local government and school needs plus the tempting cash surplus in the state treasury.

This need for more state money to reduce the property tax seems to be of perspective to a degree. For a couple years we have been getting federal revenue-sharing funds to reduce the local tax burden but the burden seems to grow along with government.

Whatever shot-in-the-arm the state might give our towns and schools will be short-lived at best. Most budgets are increasing; and, unless state assistance is much more substantial than it appears it will be, the relief to the local property taxpayer is a negative one as our local tax increase is merely less than it would have been without state aid.

In effect, state aid and revenue-sharing are stop-gap measures and it appears politically more popular and easier to shift around the source of tax dollars rather than take a hard look at where the tax dollars are going.

Inflation is blamed. More demands for more services are blamed. The list of reasons why budgets must grow by leaps and bounds is endless.

The proponents of all these vital and essential needs rarely suggest ways and means to meet them other than getting more federal funds, more state funds, or the closing of some vague tax loophole.

In reviewing the changes being made in the state budget with its increases here and increases there, we are more and more convinced the General Assembly, if it is to be a "responsible" partner with the towns and schools, should start looking hard at the whole tax-supported structure with the idea that some pruning might be in order if we are to maintain a state and local government that is sound, essential and really fruitful.

Stick With American Dream

To the editor: "Promises, Promises, Promises," seems to be playing here in Coventry, Conn. Produced, directed and starring Hartford-Process DeVo personnel, it has endless fans, consultants and legal advice to ensure a "hit". Homeowners are sent periodic programs which "promise" the utmost in education, culture, recreation and industry. This utopia will be situated on a 160-acre stage with no less than 20,000 actors. As in most theatrical productions the audience, of course, pays the price.

Afraid of Competition

Your editorial of April 1st entitled "Going Too Far" went a little far in my opinion. The good thing about it which I can imagine is that it was published on an appropriate date.

GAO Assesses Neighborhood Youth Services

By GRANT DILLMAN
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Back in 1967, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement recommended creation of neighborhood youth service bureaus to help steer young people away from crime and help rehabilitate those who stray.

While lacking overall guidelines to measure juvenile population, GAO said indications were that the program had a positive impact. In the two years starting in 1970, when the project got its first grant, juvenile arrests dropped to 27 per cent of all arrests compared with 34 per cent in the previous four years.

significant than bare figures would indicate because the city's juvenile population steadily increased compared with the adult population between 1965 and 1972. In Portland, GAO found the youth bureau there served 623 youths over a 19-month period, of whom 179 "had some contact with the court."

GAO said it was hard to determine if contact with the bureau kept the number that small. But it conceded "the project may well be having a positive impact."

New Haven Bank Offers 5.46 Interest on Notes

The Union Trust Co. of New Haven is the winning bidder for selling the town of Manchester $1 million in school-bond anticipation notes. Its offer of 5.46 per cent interest is the lowest of seven bids opened Wednesday. The bids ranged to 5.86 per cent. The $1 million will be delivered to the town next Wednesday and the temporary borrowing is for the six-month period to Oct. 9, 1974. The sum is to cover part of the $5.6 million approved by referendum last November — for additions and renovations to Iling and Bennett Junior High Schools.

Town Treasurer Roger Negro called the 5.46 per cent interest "a very good rate for the town, since the going rate at this time is 6 per cent." The town is eligible for return by the state of 1.46 per cent of the interest. Under state law, refunds are made of interest on school financing if it is over 4 and under 6 per cent. Negro said, because not all of the $1 million to be received Wednesday is for immediate use, he will be able to invest it in certificates of deposit at 8 to 9 per cent interest to the town. The investment income we receive will help defray our interest costs," he explained.

Tolland Search Fruitless

VIVIAN KENNESON Correspondent The all-day search for missing of Janice Pickett, signing since last July 26, was fruitless Saturday.

Over 150 firemen from 19 departments, under the direction of Tolland Volunteer Fire Department Chief Ronald Littlel, State Police, and FBI failed to come up with signs or clues in the case. Originally scheduled to continue on Sunday, the search was called off late Saturday when the nearly two-mile area had already been covered. Several scuba divers researched ponds in the same area.

A reward of nearly $10,000 sponsored by anonymous Stamford businessmen is still in effect but has brought State Police no new evidence.

Coventry Motion Misunderstood, Says Richard Breault

Councilman Richard Breault, says "the furor which has resulted from my motion to withdraw a Coventry policeman from the Capitol Region Crime Squad is due to a misunderstanding of the intent of my motion."

Breault pointed out that his motion had two parts: First, removal of a specific officer from the crime squad (assigned to the squad outside of Coventry) and secondly, prohibiting the continuing assignment of any officer outside the Town of Coventry.

Breault said the key phrase in his motion is the phrase, "continuing assignment," which means an extended period of time.

He agrees fully with Police Chief Robert Kjelquist that the Coventry Police Department should and must cooperate fully with other police departments in an effort to solve a specific crime.

"This is where our agreement ends," Breault said. Breault said the chief has stated "when an agent makes a contact, and the sale of drugs is in another part of the state, he doesn't call in an investigator from the particular area. The agent pursues the case and the warrant is issued by the local police department where the criminal activity has taken place."

Breault would handle the situation differently above by having the Coventry officer turn over the case, and the information which has been collected, to the police department with jurisdiction and ask them to pursue it.

He argues that the approach of using local police in their own locale should be more effective in solving a crime than sending a Coventry officer into a town where he might not know the geography or the extent of underground activities.

"I believe," said Breault, "that fighting crime on the state level is the jurisdiction of the State Police. I would support the expansion of the State Police Department, if necessary, to accomplish this objective."

Another point made by Breault is that Coventry has only seven full-time policemen. He feels that because of this manpower limitation Coventry should not loan one of its officers to the crime squad for an extended period of time.

He said, "Coventry voters approved a specific budget for the Police Department and were promised a specific level of service for this allocation. The police chief's assignment of an officer to the crime squad for over six months has reduced the level of service below that promised."

Breault said, "I am pleased with the way Coventry's police have operated in the past couple of years and hope my questioning on this issue will not be misconstrued as antagonism for the police."

Taiwan Population Problems

By DIANE YING TAIPEI (UPI) — The family planning program in Taiwan has encountered a unique problem, the traditional Chinese love for sons. "Many a wife keeps on giving birth and won't stop until she bears two sons," says Dr. Shen Chieh-shi, acting director of the National Health Administration's Public Health Bureau. Taiwan is one of the most crowded nations in the world and authorities fear it may become even more so.

That was the grim report of the New England Council Research Office, a state-federal organization aimed at expanding the area's economic base. Paul A. London, council director, said New England industries were 75 per cent reliant on oil, compared with only 22 per cent in other regions.

Jackson One-Man Show In Athletics' Triumph

NEW YORK (UPI)— Foul weather ruined three games in the American League Sunday, but there was no rain on Reggie Jackson's parade of RBIs.

The Oakland Athletics got eight runs, and Jackson drove in seven of them. He hit two three-run homers and a rousing single, and the Athletics had no trouble beating the Texas Rangers, 8-4.

Half of the American League matchups never finished the day's competition. Boston and Milwaukee didn't start playing because of rain in Milwaukee; Minnesota and Kansas City played 3-2 innings before the rains came and Kansas City and California and Chicago played 10 innings before snow hit Chicago.

Where play was possible, the New York Yankees beat Cleveland, 7-1, and Detroit and Baltimore split a doubleheader.

Vida Blue and Rollie Fingers were a little shaky for the Athletics, but Jackson was a one-man show. He knocked Texas starter Pete Broberg out of the game with a three-run homer in the fifth and greeted reliever Jim Merritt with his second three-run homer in the ninth. "This might be one of my best starts," Jackson said. "As for home runs, it doesn't matter how many—it's when you hit them that really counts."

Baltimore knocked out Detroit starter Woody Fryman with five runs in the first inning of the first game of the doubleheader, and Ross Grimsley held the Tigers for a 5-1 victory. The Orioles had a 4-3 lead on Bob Grich's solo homer in the seventh inning of the second game, but Bill Freehan's sacrifice fly tied it for the Tigers in the ninth, and Ed Brinkman's two-run single was the big blow in a four-run Detroit rally in the 10th for an 8-4 win.

Pat Dobson pitched the entire nine innings for New York and retired 14 of the last 15 men he faced. Thurman Munson's solo homer was the winning run.

The Angels had a 4-1 lead in the eighth inning of their game with the White Sox, but the White Sox scored two in the eighth and tied the game in the ninth when Carlos May's third hit of the game drove in Ken Henderson. Later in the inning Bill Melton tried to score the winning run from second base on a single by Ron Santo, but California left fielder Joe LaHoud threw Melton out at the plate.

By the time the snow flurries were pretty heavy, the temperature had dropped to 37 degrees, White Sox Park was uncomfortable, and everyone forgot about baseball and went indoors somewhere. The game will be replayed in its entirety, but the records of the individual players count in the season statistics.

The Kansas City-Minnesota game was interrupted in the fourth inning with the Royals leading 6-1. The umpires waited more than two hours before calling the game a washout, and few fans remained at the end.

During the delay a bearded streaker ran across the wet infield tarpaulin. The streaker slipped in a puddle of water but managed to get into the stands and was dressing in the rain when two officers apprehended him and took him out of the stadium.

Kansas City manager Jack McKeon notified umpire crew chief Lou DiMauro that a protest has been filed because of the calling of the game. McKeon said the field was not checked before the umpires postponed the game.

'Did The Best I Could' Aaron Goes Home For 11-Game Stay

NEW YORK (UPI)— Hank Aaron is going home and the oddsmakers will give you 3-1 odds he passes The Babe in the next 11 days.

For Aaron, the sooner the better.

"I'm hoping by tonight it will all be over with," he said, remaining calm in the face of all the pressure surrounding baseball's greatest record.

Aaron matched Babe Ruth's career home run mark of 714 with his first swing of the season against the Cincinnati Reds Thursday, then had to weather a weekend storm of controversy before flying back to Atlanta Sunday for a 5-1 victory. The Orioles had a 4-3 lead on Bob Grich's solo homer in the seventh inning of the second game, but Bill Freehan's sacrifice fly tied it for the Tigers in the ninth,

West Coast Dominates National League Play

NEW YORK (UPI)— The West Coast swept to quick domination of the young National League race Sunday with their third straight victories. Henry Aaron took a night flight to Atlanta and a rendezvous with baseball history.

Both the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants swept their opening home stands with wins Sunday and moved on to Cincinnati and Atlanta for the only games on the slate on Monday.

Aaron, ordered into the lineup at Cincinnati by baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn, saw nothing but sliders all day and went nothing for three. The Braves returned to Atlanta for an 11-game home stand starting Monday night against the Dodgers.

The 40-year-old new home run king needs only one more to break Babe Ruth's record. Aaron was short with suggestions he did not try to break the record in Atlanta's 5-3 win over the Reds Sunday.

"I played the best I could," Aaron said.

After his second strike out, Aaron returned to the dugout muttering, "sliders, sliders, sliders."

The Dodgers, off to their best season start in nearly a decade, crushed San Diego 9-2 to sweep their series behind Jimmy Wynn's third home run of the new season. Wynn now has seven hits in 13 times at bat.

Ron Cey and Steve Garvey added power to the Dodgers' stingy pitching to give Los Angeles a total of 25 runs and 37 hits in their three games with the Padres. Aaron and Messersmith went the distance for the Dodgers but gave up the first two runs of the Los Angeles pitching staff in three games.

At San Francisco, the Giants tapped Claude Osteen for four runs in the first inning and went on to take an 8-4 win and sweep their series with the Houston Astros.

Osteen, traded to Houston by the Dodgers during the off season for Wynn, gave up five runs in the first two frames and set up three more in the third before leaving.

The wins left the Dodgers and the Giants tied for the National League West lead.

At Philadelphia, the New York Mets capitalized on Bill Robinson's two base error to come from behind with four runs in the eighth inning, add five more in the ninth and down the Phillies 9-1.

The Mets were trailing 1-0 in the top of the eighth but put together five hits and jumped on Robinson's error of letting the ball through his legs to take the win.

The weather struck again in the National League with two games being postponed due to rain. It was the third straight rainout at Montreal, leaving both Chicago and Montreal still waiting for their season opener.

Frazier Resents Boos, Showing Brings Cheers

NEW YORK (UPI)— The Capital Bullets hope Walt Frazier never hears a boo again.

Frazier, the object of rare catcalls in his last Madison Square Garden appearance by New York Knicks fans who blamed him for two earlier playoff losses, responded with 38 points Sunday to lead the Knicks past the Bulls 106-105 and give New York a 3-2 series lead.

In other NBA playoff action, the Milwaukee Bucks massacred the Los Angeles Lakers 114-92 to advance to the Western Conference finals with a 3-1 score, and the Detroit Pistons breezed past the Chicago Bulls, 102-87, to knot that series at 2-2.

"The boos hurt," Frazier said after Sunday's game. "They had really bothered me, but I tried not to think about them today. In the warmup I was really jittery. I couldn't shoot too good. But as the game progressed I got a little looser."

The big Knick guard, who had had one of the lowest point totals of his career earlier in the playoff season, prompting the hometown boos, hit 16 of his total in the final period and scored the winning bucket with 34 seconds left to play.

Nets Romp For Wide ABA Edge

NEW YORK (UPI)— Half the ABA playoff slots may be filled tonight.

The New York Nets, coming from Norfolk to New York, face the Virginia Squires in the fifth game of their semifinal playoff while Carolina travels to Kentucky for what could be their last game of the season.

The Nets romped over the Squires 116-88 Sunday to give them a 2-1 game edge in the best of seven series and will have the home court advantage for the fifth game Monday night.

Rookie Larry Kennon pumped in 25 points to pace the New York attack in Sunday's game with John Williamson and Julius Erving adding 31 each for the Nets.

Masters Course Not for Charles

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI)— You'd think a guy who just won $44,006 swinging a golf club would have some confidence about his next tournament.

Not so with Bob Charles.

The left-handed New Zealander won the $220,000 Greater Greensboro Open with a 14-under par 270 Sunday, posting a final-round 68 on the 7,021-yard, par 71 Sedgewick Country Club course.

And then the 38-year-old Charles promptly ruled himself a noncontender in this week's Masters at Augusta, Ga.

"I've played in 14 Masters and I think my best finish was 15th," he said. "The course is just not suited to my game. A shorter hitter is at more of a disadvantage at Augusta National than anywhere else."

Stevens Stafford Winner

By Dean Vest

For the third consecutive year, the Spring Stizler has produced a new winner. Bugs Stevens topped the field of 53 starters at Stafford Springs Motor Speedway and copped the $2,000 first-place prize.

The past two champions, Fred DeSarro 1972 led the action after one-half a lap, and last year's champ Ed Plunk retired after 25 circuits.

Stevens started eighth in the feature and after only three laps was on the tails of the leaders, Ron Bouchard and Geoff Bodine. On lap 10, Stevens made his move and took the first position on lap 23 and was never separated.

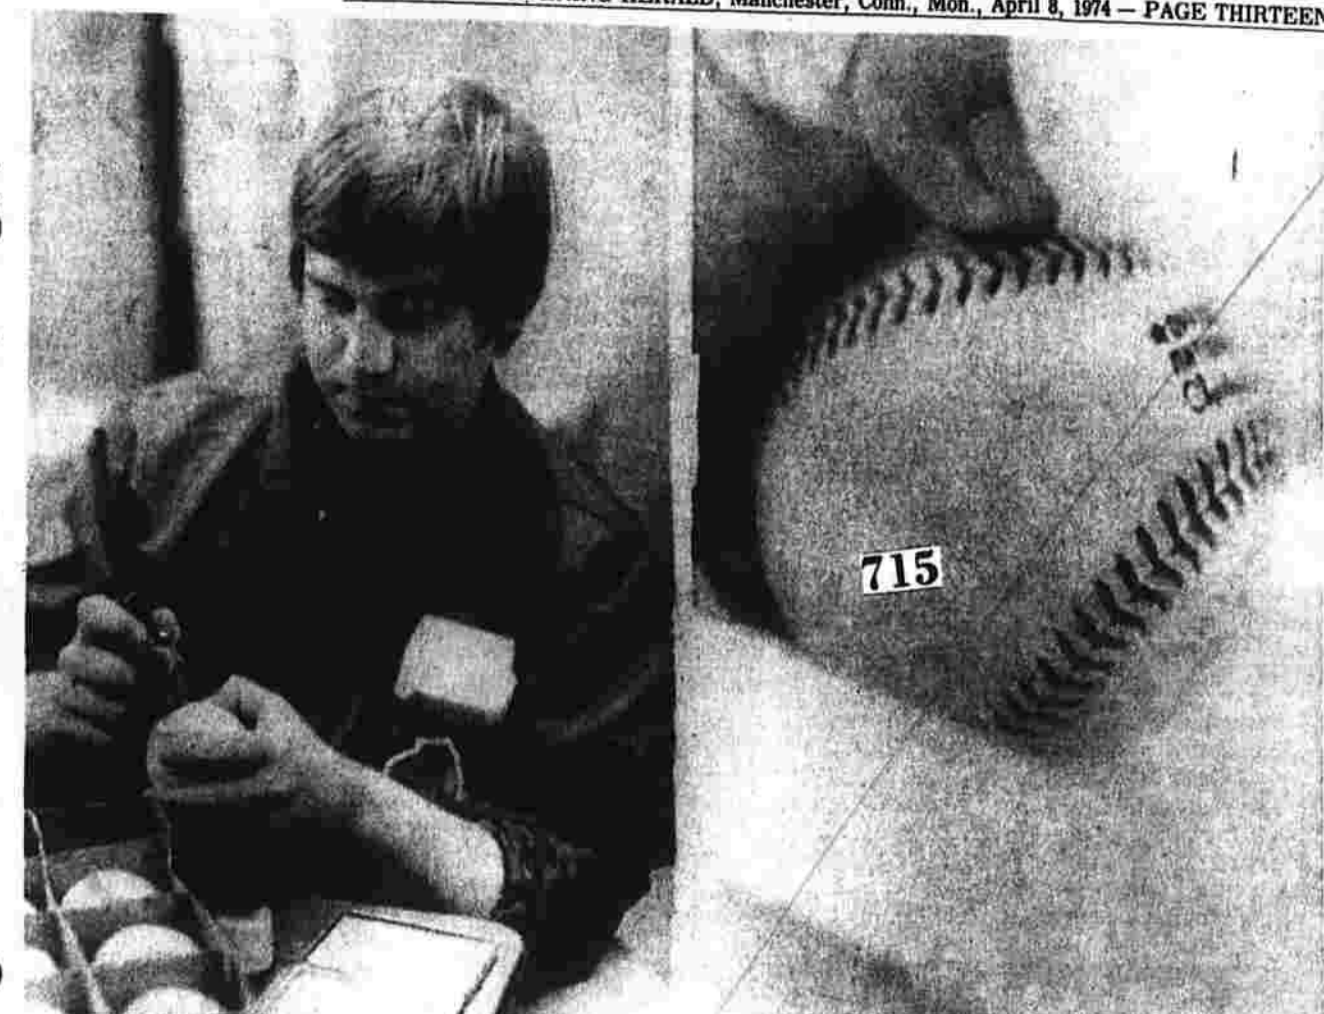

Running an experimental engine, Stevens easily kept the No. 15 Vega ahead of Bouchard and turned consistent laps of 21.50 seconds.

Once again, a fence-busting crowd of 11,000 witnessed the season opener for modifieds in New England.

Finishing behind Stevens was Bouchard with Merv Treichler third, Ollie Silva fourth, and Jerry Cook fifth.

Denis Girox was eliminated during qualifying heats when his stock car went airborne and crashed into the first corner retaining wall. Girox was taken to hospital at Stafford before being transferred to Hartford Hospital in serious but stable condition.

Regular Saturday night racing will continue at Stafford May 4 with a 30-lap modified feature.

Mathews In for Some Bad News

By Milt Richman

ATLANTA (UPI)— One more pitch, one more flick of that 40-year-old miracle wrists of his, and Hank Aaron's troubles will be all over.

Not Eddie Mathews' though.

He's in for some more bad news, coming from the same source it did last time, the baseball commissioner.

Now that he's back home, Hank Aaron can hardly miss. With Atlanta opening an 11-game home stand tonight against Los Angeles, Aaron is odds on to hit at least one into the seats before the Braves wind up at home a week from this coming Thursday against San Diego.

Hank Aaron will hear from Bowie Kuhn immediately after he breaks Babe Ruth's home run record. He will hear in the form of a diamond studded $3,000 wrist watch with the number 715 implanted in solid gold.

Eddie Mathews will hear from the commissioner also, but in an entirely different way.

Kuhn's message to him more likely will be in the form of a fine, possibly as stiff as $3,500, and that's pretty stiff because $5,000 is as high as the commissioner is allowed to go.

Mathews challenged Kuhn's authority last Friday night when he said he would not start Aaron in either Saturday or Sunday's game in Cincinnati.

Kuhn got right back to Mathews.

He told him he had unlimited power under the rules of baseball.

"I can suspend you for the rest of your life," Kuhn said. "That shook Mathews up a bit."

He backed off.

Started at Home

They could have asked to play their first three games at home. Fred Fleig, who supervises the putting together of the National League schedule says he would have had to be receptive to such a request.

The Braves never asked. They goled.

It could have cost them at least a million, which is roughly what they figure to make now on this current home stand.

Hank Aaron preserved the "integrity" of baseball with his 714th Thursday and the ball club all that money when he didn't hit 715 Sunday.

The commissioner is giving him a watch.

The Braves ought to build a civic statue of him.

Dodgers' Downing to Face Aaron Tonight

LOS ANGELES (UPI)— "This start will be no different than the rest," says southpaw Al Downing of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But it may be.

Downing starts tonight for Los Angeles against the Atlanta Braves in the opener of a four-game series, and that means he'll be squarely in the sights of Braves' slugger Hank Aaron as Aaron looks for Home run No. 715 to break Babe Ruth's record.

"I won't react to it any differently than I have any other start during my 11 years in the major leagues," Downing said shortly before the Dodgers left for Atlanta.

"That doesn't mean I'll be able to totally disregard the

Tie for Vezina Trophy On Last Second Goal

NEW YORK (UPI)— Thanks to a goal just 66 seconds from the end of the season, there is a tie for the coveted Vezina Trophy for goalies between Bill Bernier Parent of the Philadelphia Flyers and Tony Esposito of the Chicago Black Hawks.

The goal was scored in Chicago by Marcel Dionne of the Detroit Red Wings, the final score in a 7-4 victory by the Black Hawks, and it deprived Esposito and teammate Mike Veisor of sole possession of the trophy. It left Esposito and Veisor with 164 goals allowed in the season, the same total as Parent.

The names of Parent and Esposito — but not Veisor because he did not appear in the required 25 games — will be inscribed on the trophy and they will each receive the $1,500 cash award that goes with the victory.

Regular season puck chasing ended with a half-dozen games Sunday night that didn't affect the final standings in any way. The Flyers, Western Division champions, won their closing HOLLYWOOD (Special) - New scientific information has produced a Vitamin E diet that quickly works wonders on overweight people, and reportedly is gaining great popularity across the country with glowing reports of easy weight loss while still eating almost as much as you want.

Those who follow the simple Vitamin E diet report an average loss of at least a pound a day and even more without exercise or starvation. Nutritionists' files are bulging with happy testimonials from formerly overweight people who are now trim and slim again. Best of all, you can still eat almost as much as you want of the forbidden foods such as chicken, fish, saucy gravies, bacon & eggs and still lose weight.

Cheatable (candy-like) vitamin E tablets, as used in the diet plan, contain a new scientific combination of ingredients that quickly curbs and controls the appetite, while also giving the wonderful benefits of Vitamin E which is so essential to good health.

The use of the new Vitamin E Diet tablets and foods prescribed in the plan will, through natural action, act to help your body use up excess fat. Today's Thought

The Week of Passions Palm Sunday's

Joy And Sorrow
After telling this story, Jesus went on towards Jerusalem, walking ahead of his disciples. As they came to the town of Bethpage and Bethany, he sent two disciples ahead, with instructions to go to the next village, and as they entered they were to look for a donkey tied beside the road. It would be a colt, not yet broken, for riding.

"Untie him," Jesus said, "and bring him here. And if anyone asks you who he is, just say 'The Lord needs him.'"

The found the colt as Jesus said and as they were untying it, the owners demanded an explanation.

"What are you untying our colt?"

And the disciples simply replied, "The Lord needs him."

So they brought the colt to Jesus and three of them were riding on it.

Then the crowds spread out their robes along the road ahead of him, and as they reached the place where the road started down from the Mount of Olives, the whole procession began to shout and sing as they walked along, praising God for all the wonderful miracles Jesus had done.

"God has given us a King!" they exclaimed. "Long live the King! Let all heaven rejoice! Glory to God in the highest heavens!"

But some of the Pharisees among the crowd said, "Sir, rebuke your followers for saying that like that!"

He replied, "If they keep quiet, the stones along the road will burst into cheers!"

But as they came closer to Jerusalem and he saw the city ahead, he began to cry.

"Eternal peace was within your reach and you turned it down," he wept, "and now it is too late. Your enemies will crush you and close in on the ground, and your children will crush you and close in on you."

Hebron School Board Seeks Budget of $843,266

NANCY DRINKUTH
Correspondent
Tel. 428-9770

A hearing before the Board of Finance last week, members of the Board of Education presented a budget request of $843,266. This figure is $97,000 more than was budgeted last year.

More than half the increase is related to salaries. Much of the rest of the increase comes as a result of inflation.

The budget of the Central Office of the Board of Education received consideration at the meeting. The board of the Central Office is the office of the superintendent and the assistant superintendent and serves the elementary schools of Hebron, Andover and Marlborough and Rham Junior High School.

The total budget for the Central Office is set at $82,065 and Hebron's share, based on an Education voted to rate estimated at $23,158. This is slightly more than 28 per cent of the total figure.

The Douglas Library will be closed the evening of April 10 because the trustees will be meeting there. The library will be open as usual from 2 to 5 p.m.

On Good Friday, April 12, the library will close all day. It will be open on the Saturday before Easter from 2 to 5 p.m.

Tuesday: Voter making session, 7 p.m., Town Office Building.

Wednesday: Taxpayers Association meeting, 8 p.m., Town Office Building.

Thursday: Board of Selectmen, 5 p.m., Town Office Building. Board of Education voted to raise half a day. They also requested a pay raise for the principal and a psychologist teacher one day per week.

Vernon Hospital Goals Told to Chamber

The basic objectives of the newly established Development Program at Rockville General Hospital was explained to the executive committee of the Rockville Area Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon meeting recently.

Marcus Mason Jr., director of the program, explained the basic objectives which are to create "an even stronger public image through constantly improved community relations; and to institute a plan of fund accumulation which will assure the continual growth and excellence of services, plant and equipment now provided."

Mason explained that to achieve the first goal there must be increased use of the press, staff speaking appearances, slide presentations, and hospital news bulletins to maintain two-way communication with the public.

As for the second goal of fund raising itself, Mason said the hospital will be launching an appeal this month, to businesses and local service clubs.

A RGH-100 Club has been created for individuals who donate $100 a year to the development fund. Literature regarding the program is being prepared.

Cigarettes By Prescription Is Suggested
LONDON (UPI) - A government economist has suggested that cigarettes should be supplied free by prescription in order to "stamp out unwanted lung cancer." George Teeling-Smith, director of the Office of Health Economics, said cigarettes should be priced on the open market at $2.40 per pack but issued free on prescription at smoking clinics.

"If we are to provide contraceptives to prevent unwanted pregnancies, why should we not provide cigarettes to stamp out unwanted lung cancer?" he asked.

Representing the chamber at the meeting were William Repoli, president; John Pozzoli, vice president; R. Bernard Crowl, executive director; Stephen Lamont and Donald Morganson, board members.

Representing the hospital, along with Mason, was Randall Cronk, assistant director of development.

Coventry Seven Named State Scholars

MONICA SHEA
Correspondent
742-9495

Seven Coventry High School seniors have been named State of Connecticut Scholars for 1974.

Amie Aronson of Barnabee Lane; Teri Dibble, Woodland Rd.; Thomas Drage, West Willington; Raymond Jean, Coventry; Abigail Moeng; Marrow Rd.; Barbara Sperry, Laurel Trail; and Timothy Zuzel, Rt. 31 are the students selected as scholars.

The purchase of the radios will insure better police personnel safety and help to improve the command and control capabilities of the police department said Kjelquist.

The grant will remain in effect for one year. To receive the award the town must allow $200 as its share of the radio purchase price.

Among the new fiction titles are Sue Kaufman's "Falling Bodies"; Elisabeth Ogilvie's "Strawberries in the Sea"; Richard Sierra's "Other Men's Daughters"; and Thornton Wilder's "Theophilus North".

New non-fiction books include Kathy Kahn's "Hillbilly Women"; Jessica Mitford's "Kind and Unusual Punishment"; Phoebe Phillips

The Booth-Dimock Memorial Library has recently received several shipments of new books, according to Rebecca Lehmann, librarian.

Grant Received
Police Chief Robert Kjelquist has said that he has been informed that the Connecticut State Planning Committee on Criminal Administration has approved a grant of state and federal funds in the amount of $902 for the purchase of two hand held portable radios.

The State Planning Committee administers these funds distributed by the federal government's Law Enforcement Assistance Administration.

The Board of Directors tonight will consider scheduling a November referendum for a Regional Occupational Training Center. It would be on four acres of Bidwell St., acquired by the town from Manchester Community College.

Estimated to cost about $1.3 million, the "Trade School for the Handicapped" would be bonded by the town, but would be 100 per cent refundable by the state upon completion. The town would absorb the interest cost of the bonds - estimated at $60,000.

The center would be under the supervision of the Manchester Board of Education. Participating regional towns would pay tuition for their students in the program. The Manchester school board has estimated a net increase of about $2,000 a year in its own budget, upon completion of the facility.

The possibility exists that the board (at some future meeting) may consider scheduling two other referendum questions for November one being recommended by the board's public works subcommittee, the other by Town Manager Robert Weiss.

Pinochle Scores

Winners of the Manchester Senior Citizens pinochle game Thursday at the Army and Navy Club are Robert Schubert, 619; Ellen Sasse, 596; Inez Mahoney, 574; and Meyer Levitt, 573.

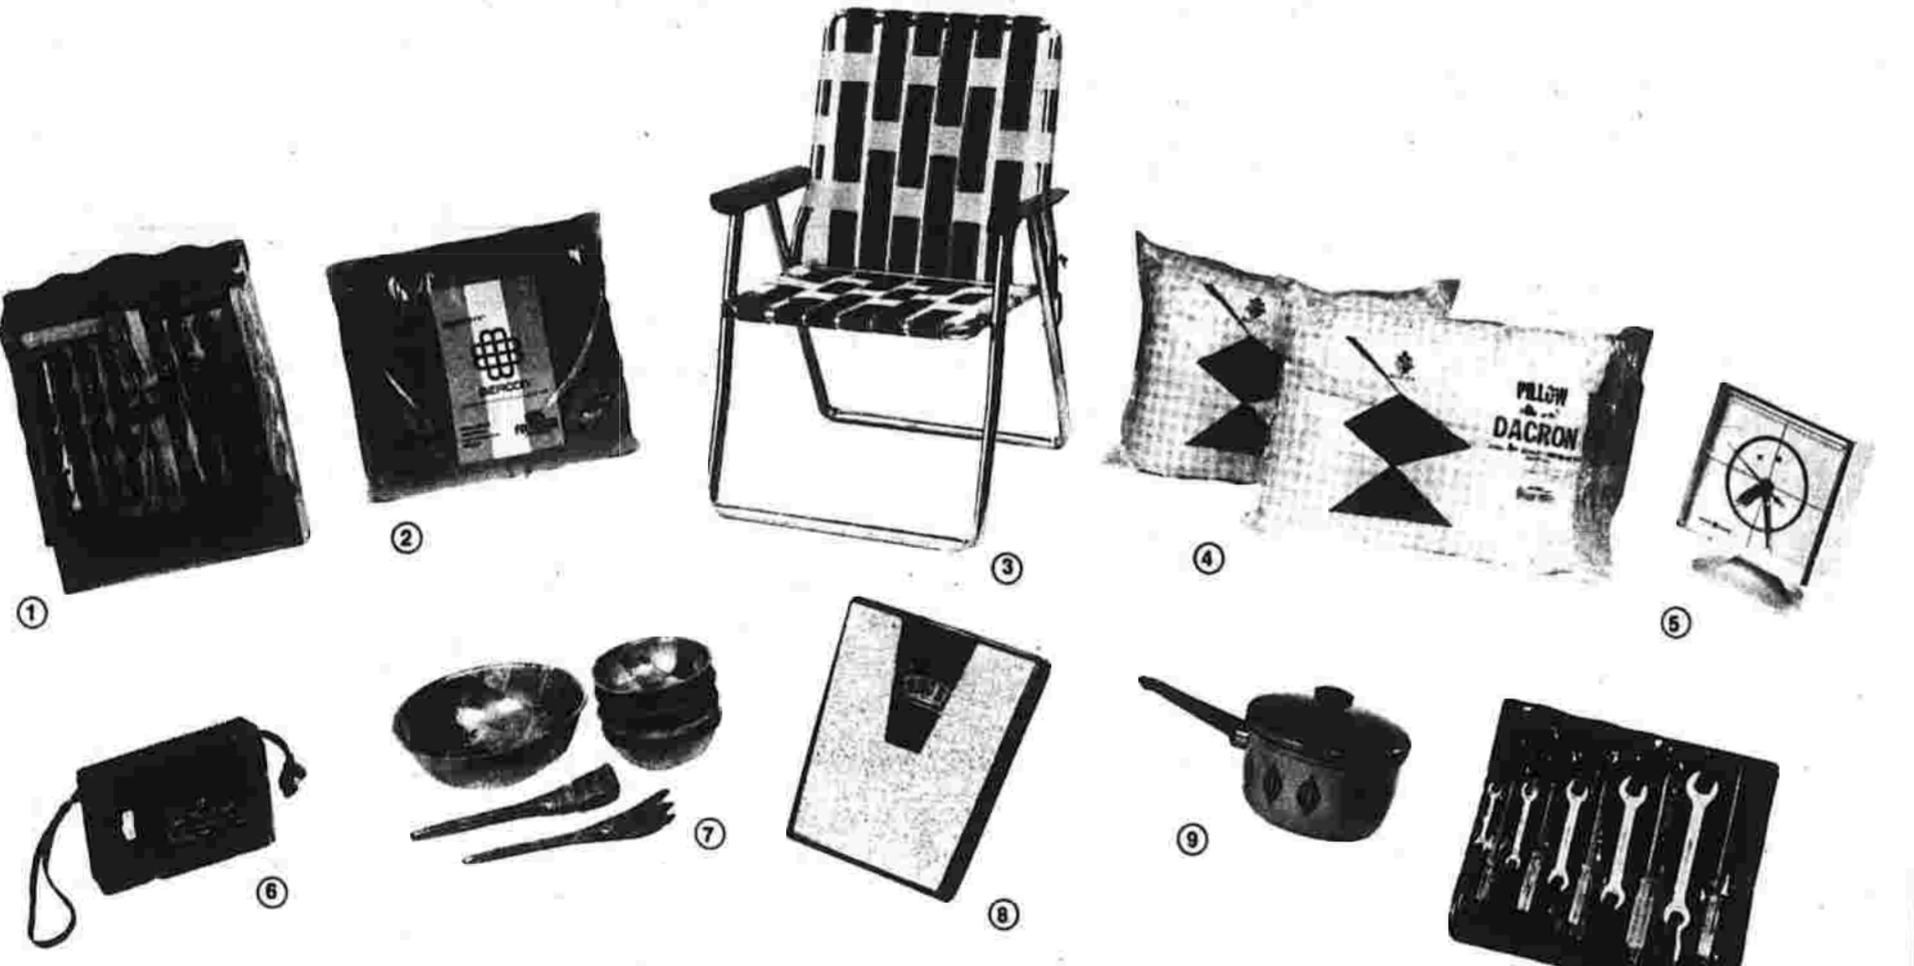

The game is played each Thursday at 9:45 a.m. at the Army and Navy Club. Play is open to all senior citizens.

Israeli Cabinet Reviews Conduct of October War

JERUSALEM (UPI) - Prime Minister Golda Meir and her cabinet met today to review Israel's unpreparedness for the October war "which was the issue of Defense Minister Moshe Dayan's personal responsibility which has brought demands that he resign."

The issue of ministerial responsibility did not come from going through with it, with Shimon Peres, a leading Dayan ally, said after a four-and-a-half-hour cabinet meeting.

discussions on their next moves in the political crisis with leaders of her ruling Labor alignment.

At least six of the 23 cabinet ministers have called for Dayan's resignation but he and his backers have refused and proposed complete government resignation instead.

Two newspapers said Mrs. Meir had threatened to resign if the cabinet opts for the alternate proposal.

Directors To Consider OTC Bond Referendum

By SOL R. COHEN

The subcommittee is recommending a $1.2 million bond issue for correcting low-voltage storm-drainage problems. Weiss is recommending town acquisition of the privately owned Manchester Water Co.

The Town of Manchester Monday received its fourth and final revenue-sharing payment for the current fiscal year. The next payment will come in July, followed by equal payments every three months.

Monday's payment was $111,425. Tonight, the directors will consider appropriating $12 million of it to the Revenue Sharing Account, to cover several proposed allocations - $27,082 for Lincoln Center renovations, $2,500 for repairs to the Globe Hollow Bathhouse roof, $21,000 for the town's cost share of a water line to service Georgia Pacific's planned $900,000 facility off N. Main St., $26,794 for a loader for the highway department, and $60,000 for the second phase of storm-drainage improvements in the N. Elm-Henry-Tanner Sts. area.

drainage problem, even as it is being corrected in one area, is being intensified in their area.

The board has 30 days to act on the proposed changes, it may table action tonight and take action at its May 1 meeting.

The directors may take action tonight on three recommendations by the Advisory Rec and Park Commission - to allocate $1,600 for the expenses of a proposed Adult Twilight Baseball Program, to consider acquiring the 16-acre Hickey's Grove off Oakland St. for future recreational development, and to appoint a committee to explore the possibility of a public indoor skating complex for Manchester.

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) - World diplomats grappled at a special session of the United Nations General Assembly today with the global energy crisis and the new lineup of haves and have-nots it has produced.

The session was to open at 3 p.m. EDT and to last three or four weeks. The debate is expected to focus on how much industrial countries are to pay for oil and other raw materials from the so-called developing nations.

Algeria initiated the session, expressing the concern that many poor countries will be unable to pay for the oil they need for development unless they get higher prices for their own raw materials.

Six heads of state - all from Africa - two deputy prime ministers, 45 foreign ministers and 10 other ministers of cabinet rank were on hand in New York for the opening session.

Secretary of State Henry Kissinger is expected to address the assembly, perhaps next week.

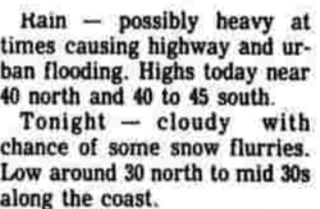

United Press International said Syria and Israeli tanks and guns battled along the Golan Heights cease-fire line today only hours before a Syrian offensive was to begin in Washington to discuss with the Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger how to stop the fighting there.

A communique said the 29th consecutive day of combat began at dawn with battles around the slopes of Mt. Hermon, the Israeli-held peak overlooking the battlefield, and then spread to include tank and artillery duels all along the cease-fire front.
