Omar Shrine Club will make its annual visit to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children at Springfield, Mass. Sunday. The club arranges for entertainment, and then has a cookout for the children. Nobles John Ring and Harold Barnsley are cochairmen and Noble Fred Gail is in charge of the entertainment. Those attending are asked by President Frank Gakaler to arrive during visiting hours, 2 to 4, and assist with wheeling the children to either the outdoor patio or the auditorium, weather the deciding factor.

Fire Activity Drops in June

Fire activity in town cooled off a bit in June compared to May according to the monthly report of Chief John C. Rivoso of the Manchester, Town Fire Department. There were 29 fires reported in June and 33 in May; there were only 21 fires reported in June, 1973. Rescues by firemen dropped to one compared to six in May. None of the fires were major and there were no fatalities. Total fire calls this year are 352 compared to 306 for the same period in 1973.

Capt. Joseph McCooe attended a three-day conference on emergency medical services held at Salve Regina College, Newport, R.I. Robert Barker, Peter Beckwith and Walter Scadden attended a seminar on cardio-pulmonary resuscitation.

Comment Session

A man who recently paid $7.70 for a 1974 tag for his dog complained to Town Director Carl Zinner Tuesday there is no dog warden on duty weekends. He recommended one be hired to take up the slack. Zinner was making a two-monthly comment session of the Manchester Board of Directors.

A second man who appeared reported that three-quarters of the floor is gone in the gatehouse at Union Road. He said he is concerned for the safety of youths fishing there. A third man complained of poor maintenance at all town schools. He recommended town forces be assigned the maintenance work.

A woman who resides in the Slater St.-Tolland Tpk. area said she is opposed to a zone change for property there owned by Multi-Circuits.

"Give me one good reason to save at CBT."

Here's four good reasons.

One-free checking. No minimum balance necessary. Just have a savings account at any CBT office (there are over 80 throughout the state).

Two-high interest on regular and long term savings accounts.

Three-a convenient combined monthly statement. All your savings and checking transactions are on it. So it's easy to keep track of your money.

Four-automatic savings. Tell us how much you want to save each month. We'll transfer that amount from your checking to your savings account automatically.

U&R Will Build Branch For First Federal Bank

The U&R Construction Co. of Manchester has been awarded the contract for building a branch office in Manchester for the First Federal Loan Savings & Loan Association of East Hartford. Robert P. Lynch, its president, announced today. The branch will be at 344 W. Middle Tpk., adjacent to the Manchester Shopping Parkade, and will be the bank's seventh branch office. Groundbreaking is scheduled for this month, with a completion date targeted for early 1975.

The architect, Edmund Van Dyke Cox of Glastonbury, described the new building as a free-standing one, with over 5,000 square feet on two levels. All financial services will occupy the first floor, with a community room and employee facilities on the lower level. Lynch said the new offices will offer all financial services presently available at First Federal Savings, with five teller stations and both drive-in and walk-up windows. He said the community room will be available for use by any non-profit civic group.

Said Lynch, "First Federal Savings, with assets of $115 million, has had a continuing warmth, friendship and strong financial services. We are eagerly looking forward to increasing our involvement in Manchester and becoming an integral part of the community."

Today's Thought

"Learn how to gain mastery over your body to hallow and honor it." 1 Thessalonians 4:4. Religious man has always been worried about the relationship of the natural and supernatural, the body and the soul. Due regard must be given the need of the body, it cannot be ignored or despised. At the same time it cannot be treated as an end in itself, to be pampered and indulged. It must be hallowed — made holy for the service which it is intended to give.

Chris Evert Wins Wimbledon Singles

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Chris Evert of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. became the youngest girl in 22 years to win the women's singles of the Wimbledon tennis championships today when she overcame Olga Morozova of the Soviet Union, the first Russian to reach the final, 6-0, 6-4.

The 18-year-old second seed and the well-built Russian physical education teacher are friends and doubles partners but no one could prove it by what went on in center court before the eyes of 15,000 spectators, including several members of the royal family, though they kissed when the match was over.

Chris was merciless in the brisk first set, driving Olga from side to side of the court with punishing forehands and backhands. And when Morozova came up to the net she was passed or lobbed back as an obstacle to Evert's ambition.

Miss Evert's victory earned her $16,800. Miss Morozova technically won $900 but only technically since she gets only $16 a day pocket money plus all her expenses and hands over her winnings to the Russian sports federation.

The crowd, which included Princess Margaret and the Duke of Kent, had little to cheer in what was perhaps the most one-sided final since Doris Hart beat Shirley Fry, 6-1, 6-0 in 1961, but for Chris it was a sweet moment following her straight set loss to Billie Jean King in last year's final.

Britain Tells Ulster To Devise Peace Plan

LONDON (UPI) — Britain has told Northern Ireland to set up with its own plan for ending the province's political unrest and finding a solution to nearly five years of religious strife.

In an official white paper, the government Thursday ordered elections for a new Northern Ireland constitutional convention. The paper said the 78-member convention should draw up a formula for governing the violence-torn province.

"If the Northern Ireland community can reach a broad consensus of agreement, any one of a number of possible patterns of government might well be workable," the white paper said.

"But if agreement is not reached, the troubles in Northern Ireland will not only remain but could intensify. No one will be

Searchers Find Body of Child

BEACON FALLS (UPI) — Police today found the body of a 4-year-old girl who apparently drowned Thursday night after wandering away from a Fourth of July picnic.

State Police scuba divers found said Heather Bradley in a pond in her neighborhood, near where she was last seen about 7 p.m.

While State Police divers recovered the body, about 100 volunteers and a number of bloodhounds had searched the surrounding area until early this morning and then began about 7 a.m.

Twister Hits Southern Maine

BRIDGTON, Maine (UPI) — High winds and rain packing "the force of a tornado" swept across southern Maine Thursday, injuring at least 18 persons as it toppled trees and tore down power lines in a four-county area.

The state Civil Defense Office said many of the injured were vacationing at summer homes and campsgrounds in the popular Sebago Lake area, 10 miles southeast of here.

"It's lucky more people weren't injured," Bridgton Town Manager Ervin Linnott said. "They're usually anywhere from 500 to 800 people in those camping areas."

He said the wind and rain was "more like a severe thunderstorm than a twister, but it had all the force of a tornado." The storm downed trees which blocked dozens of roads.

Four of the injured were listed in serious condition and under intensive care at hospitals in Bridgton and Portland.

In Raymond, Maine, Michael Davidson was knocked unconscious when lightning struck the barn where he and one of his children took cover when the storm hit.

"My legs are still a little numb," Davidson said several hours later.

The wind ripped down power lines in Bridgton and three other communities in Cumberland and neighboring Oxford counties, temporarily knocking out electricity and telephone service to hundreds of homes. Scattered property damage also was reported in Lincoln and Androscoggin counties.

Lawyers for Kissinger Ask Lifting of Subpoena

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Attorneys for Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger today asked a U.S. District Court to quash a subpoena that he testify at the Ellsberg break-in conspiracy trial of John D. Ehrlichman.

Attorneys John J. Chester and Gene A. Staudt said Kissinger could not appear because he is holding "critical meetings" in Europe with U.S. allies and NATO officials.

Ehrlichman's attorneys obtained the subpoena on June 19 to require Kissinger's testimony. Ehrlichman, President Nixon's former No. 2 aide, is on trial with three other men on charges of conspiring to arrange the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist in September 1971. Ehrlichman also is charged with lying to the FBI and the grand jury about his role.

Kissinger's lawyers submitted a memorandum stating the secretary had no information about the break-in which oc-cured while Kissinger was Nixon's foreign affairs adviser, and knew nothing about any conspiracy on the part of Ehrlichman or the other defendants. The memorandum was submitted by Carlyle E. Maw and bore the confirming initials "HK."

"The instant subpoena is both unreasonable and oppressive," Kissinger's lawyers argued in a brief filed with the court.

They said that in the face of the memorandum intimated by Kissinger, he should not be required to testify unless his appearance was critical to the case and the information could be obtained only from him.

"Even as the above criteria could be met by the defendant it would nevertheless be unduly oppressive and injurious to the public interest to require Dr. Kissinger to appear at this time," the brief said.

"Such an order would require Dr. Kissinger to abruptly terminate his official mission abroad."

Grasso-Killian Ticket Wins Town Support

By SOL R. COHEN

It appears Manchester's 22 delegates to the July 19-20 Democratic State Convention are solidly backing a Grasso-Killian ticket for the state's top offices.

In a news conference Wednesday in the State Capitol, State Atty. Gen. Robert Killian, with Congressman Ella Grasso sitting next to him, announced he is withdrawing from the race for Democratic candidate for governor, that he is throwing his support to Mrs. Grasso and that he would accept the nomination for lieutenant governor. Mrs. Grasso said she would welcome him as her running mate.

With the announcement, the Grasso-Killian ticket became a virtual certainty. Today, spokesmen for Manchester's nine delegates pledged to Mrs. Grasso and for the nine pledged to Killian issued a joint statement, saying, "We support the Grasso-Killian ticket and will energetically and enthusiastically work for their election this fall against any and all challengers."

The statement was by Roger Negro, co-chairman of the Grasso-for-Governor Committee, and John Tani, co-chairman of the Killian-for-Governor Committee.

In a second announcement, this one made by mayor John Thompson, their spokesman, Manchester's four uncommitted delegates announced they, too, are backing a Grasso-Killian ticket. Thompson said the four met two days before Wednesday's news conference and had decided even then to back Mrs. Grasso for governor.

The joint statement by Negro and Tani read, "Both the Manchester Grasso and Killian Committees have felt from the start that the overriding concern was to elect a Democratic governor this fall. All of us found it difficult to make a choice between two people we all know and respect."

"We believe the Grasso-Killian ticket will provide the people of the State of Connecticut the type of leadership and positive thinking that has been lacking in the current Republican administration." Thompson said Mrs. Grasso looks with favor on a proposal he made to the committee drafting a Democratic state platform — for establishing an Office of Local Government within the governor's office.

"At a meeting she attended with some of the state's mayors," said Thompson, "Mrs. Grasso promised, if elected, to provide much greater cooperation with local government than hitherto provided by the governor's office. She said she would back the proposal for the liaison office."

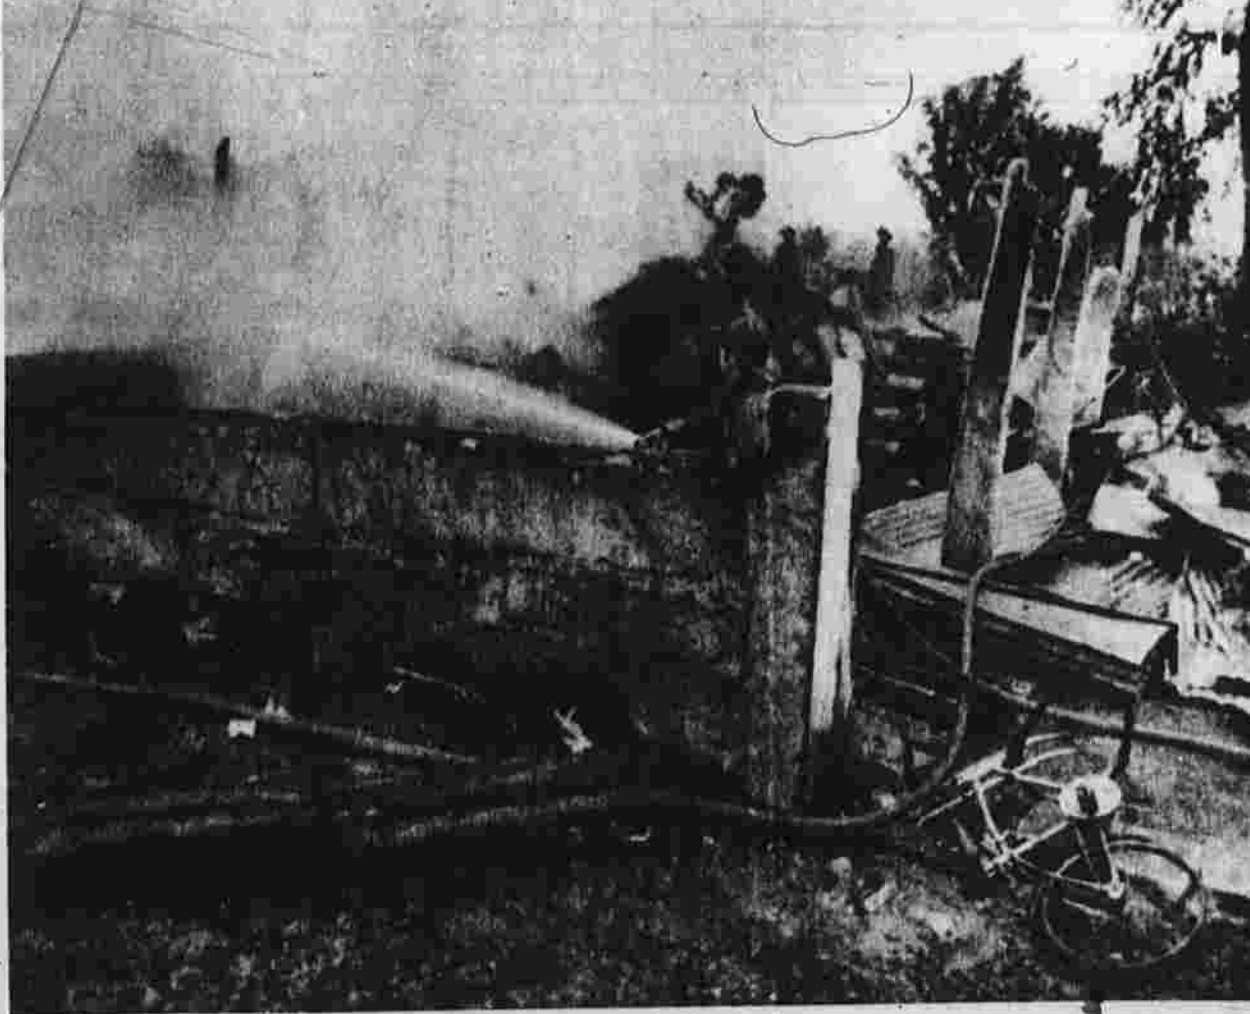

"We were lucky," they said.

tree fell on her at her summer home on Crescent Lake near Raymond. She was in critical condition at the Portland General Hospital.

Cumberland County Deputy Sheriff Joseph Madore said, "We were lucky, 1 guess, that more people weren't injured." He said there was a lot of property damage to houses, camps, cars and utility poles.

Emergency crews from the Central Maine Power Co. worked through the Firemen hose down the remains of a large barn that was hit by lightning at the Michael Davidson home in Raymond, Maine. Davidson and one of his children were in the barn when it was hit, both were hit by some portion of the charge. Eight head of cattle died when fire trucks from Raymond and

Train Derails, 15 Injured

MELVERN, Kan. (UPI) — The last six cars of an eastbound Amtrak train derailed east of Melvern early today and four of the cars slid down a 50-foot embankment, injuring 15 to 20 persons.

Melvern Marshal Ron Logan said the injured were taken by ambulance to hospitals in Topeka, Ottawa and Emporia from the accident scene in eastern Kansas.

Logan said there were no fatalities at the scene, but "serious injuries" included broken arms and legs and head injuries. "The cars just rolled down the embankment," Logan said. "The derailment occurred right where the railroad went over an overpass and the cars just slid down the bank to the road, laying on their side."

Rescuers took cutting torches to the scene, but Logan said they weren't used. "They had to go through the top (through windows) and grope through to find the people," he said.

One of the two tracks on the Santa Fe line was torn up at the derailed cars slid along on the sides before stopping about a quarter mile from where the derailment occurred.

Cause of the derailment was not immediately determined.

The Osage County sheriff's office said the accident occurred about 5 a.m. The train, Amtrak No. 4, Los Angeles to Chicago, was due in Kansas City at 6 a.m. from Emporia.

Continued hot and humid tonight with occasional showers or thunderstorms likely, some possibly accompanied by strong gusty winds or heavy rain. High 85 to 90 and lows in the low 70s to upper 60s. Partly sunny with more comfortable humidity during Saturday, high in low to mid 80s.

Young Marines Capture Division Track Honors

The Young Marines of Manchester won many awards at the recent Northeast Division track and field meet in Jamestown, N.Y., where they were in competition with other units from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Connecticut.

Shirley Adams of 138 Pine St. and Dawn Smith of Hartford obtained perfect scores in their division for push ups, pull ups, broad jump, sit ups and track events. Other members of the Manchester unit getting the highest scores in their age group for overall points were Hope Langdon and Juanita Elrod, both of Newton.

The Young Marines of Manchester took 12 team awards and 9 individual awards. In the track meet, the unit took two first-place ribbons, two second-place ribbons, and three third-place ribbons.

The girls' platoon took home the Orman L. Crossley Jr. Memorial trophy for obtaining the most points. The platoon earned 3,998 points, which almost doubled the boys' score.

The Young Marines also took first place in drill competition. The Young Marine program is sponsored by the Marine Corps and is open to boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 17.

Building Permits Up in June

With a $750,000 building permit to the Georgia Pacific Corp. leading the way, the estimated value of Manchester construction last month was about 50 per cent higher than a year ago, a report by the building department indicates.

The totals are $1,373,096 for June 1974 and $914,221 for June 1973.

The permit to the Georgia Pacific Corp. is for a 200x400 building supplies warehouse and office building at 776 N. Main St.

43 heating jobs, 18 plumbing jobs, and 4 junked-car removals.

Permits were issued last month for 10 single-family dwellings (at an average construction cost of $50,000), 1 two-family dwelling, 3 garages, 2 utility sheds, 1 storage shed, 20 tool sheds, 6 signs, 30 swimming pools, 16 fences, 38 alterations and additions, 8 affidavits (added costs for permits issued previously), 4 demolitions, 72 electrical jobs.

Elks Make New Hospital Pledge

The Connecticut Elks Association has made a new pledge of more than $300,000 to Newington Children's Hospital (NCH) for renovation and purchase of equipment.

Bringing the statewide association's total gifts to the hospital to more than $1 million since 1944.

The commitment of $300,000 follows the Elks' final payment on a $63,000 pledge it made last April for a new dental department. A check for $62,571.10 to fulfill the pledge was presented recently.

A portion of the Elks' pledge will be used for renovations in the east wing of the hospital, where the therapeutic recreation department is located.

The pledge will also pay for two mini-buses for patient and staff transportation among area hospitals, updated pulmonary function equipment and additional closed circuit television equipment.

The mini-buses will serve the recently formed hospital consortium, an organization of seven area health facilities. A pulmonary program to avoid duplication of services has been developed by Mt. Sinai and St. Francis Hospitals, Hartford; the University of Connecticut Health Center, Farmington; and Newington Children's Hospital to cover special problems in such areas as rehabilitation, cardiology, orthopedics, cardiology, pulmonary disease, psychiatry and acute care of newborns.

THE OLD CODGER'S CODGATIONS

During the fall end of the last century most farmers planted small patches of watermelons for their own use and one or two in the neighborhood had large crops for sale. Such fields were very vulnerable during the dark of the moon, and various means for protecting them were planned but not always completely successful.

One old fellow who raised melons for market put up a high square mesh welded wire fence. One morning he found a hole cut through it at the back of the lot. When a very dark evening had developed he walked around outside the fence. When near the hole he heard someone beating a hasty retreat. Then stealthy steps within a melon was passed out through the hole.

Soon another, and another until a voice within said, "guess that's enough" and a guy started to crawl out through the hole. "You're so right!" answered the owner and gave an assist with a nab on the nose. It was said that a charge of rock salt from a shot gun was very irritating and not deadly, so the discharge of a shot in the air was enough to discourage sneaks that night, and maybe more after word got around. Old Doctor Vail lived on top of a hill south of Spencer St. His melons seemed to disappear as soon as they got ripe. You know, moon lighters acquire skill by practice. Just snap your finger on a melon and on the ground beside it. If the two sounds are exactly the same, just a dull thud, that long striped melon is badly in need of picking.

If it rings, it's green both ways. The shorter "ice cream" melons with lighter pink meat require a different test. Bear some weight with your hand on top of them. If they make a crackling sound, get away as fast as you can, but take the melon with you, it's ready.

Mayor's National Power

City officials seldom exert national power. Except for Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago, none is known widely. National tickets are usually built by members of Congress or Cabinet members and, until recently, governors.
Frustrated by their failure to get urban affairs' problems in high priority on party platforms, the Democratic mayors took time out at the 42nd annual convention of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, to tell Robert S. Strauss, the Democratic national chairman, that they have the numbers and the party bases to exert a broad influence on the selection of the party ticket and the enactment of the party platform. They were led by Henry W. Maier of Milwaukee, chairman of the Conference of Democratic Mayors.
The program called for sponsoring a series of local citizens' meetings on urban problems that would lead to formulation of a national urban policy. It also proposed calling a national convention of Democratic mayors next year to plan for a greater role in party affairs, especially in choosing a candidate for president and vice president in 1976.

Strauss welcomed the interest of the mayors and saw in it a possible new way of building urban power, just as old party bosses helped structure Democratic strength.
"We've launched something and I'm enthusiastic about it," Strauss said. "The mayors have been wrapped up in their own problems and they've been derelict. But, they are a sleeping giant."
This is one of those ideas that sounds better on paper than in fact. The reason that governors and members of Congress have monopolized national affairs is that they are concerned with them constantly. Mayors, it will be found, have plenty to do in their own bailiwicks, progress there will make the nation better.

High Court Right

WASHINGTON — Over the years, millions of males drafted for duty in the armed forces — or volunteers therein — have made the cogent point handed down the other day by Supreme Court Justice Potter Stewart. It is that the Uniform Code of Military Justice in many of its provisions comes out a lousy exercise in lazy and ambiguous language. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower himself once told a group of reporters that certain sections of the Code were "nothing more than just-in-case stuff, written by some desk-bound officer who was trying to cover everything."

Potter was one of the dissenters in a 5 to 3 vote which reinstated the conviction of a vigorously antiwar Army doctor named Howard Levy, who was convicted of disobeying an order and violating Sections 133 and 134 of the Uniform Code. Levy's conviction was upheld on appeal to higher military courts but he won a reversal last year by a three-judge panel of the U.S. Court of Appeals in Philadelphia.

The panel declared that the two articles were overly vague and labeled them a "catch-all receptacle designed as a statutory basis for prosecutions that run the gamut from impersonating an officer to gambling." It also found that the charge of disobeying an order had been "infected" by the counts involving the two challenged articles. Potter addressed himself to Sections 133 and 134.

Section 133 says that any officer "who is convicted of conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman shall be punished as a courtmartial may direct." Section 134 outlaws "all disorders and neglects to the prejudice of good order and discipline in the armed forces, all conduct of a nature to bring discredit upon the armed forces, and other acts."
Said Stewart: "It may be that military necessity justifies the promulgation of substantive rules of law that are wholly foreign to civilian life, but I fail to perceive how any legitimate military goal is served by enshrining these rules in language so vague and uncertain as to be incomprehensible to the servicemen who are to be governed by them." Indeed, added Stewart, "vague laws, with their serious capacity for arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement, can in the end only hamper the military's objectives of high morale."

All true. And yet the majority was right in upholding Levy's conviction. Levy served under the Uniform Code and was bound by oath to follow it. The fact that the Code was a poor piece of legislation does not make it any less binding on him. The Code is a part of the law of the land, and it is the duty of every citizen to obey the law. The Code is a part of the law of the land, and it is the duty of every citizen to obey the law. The Code is a part of the law of the land, and it is the duty of every citizen to obey the law.

Are We Overlooking Real Soviet Threat?

A friend who advises the Defense Department on intelligence gathering and in advanced military trends is despondent.
He has a gut feeling the frenetic Russian strategic nuclear buildup may be a diversion. The aim may be, he says, to frighten us so badly we will concentrate singlemindedly on intercontinental weapons and overspend in this department. This would leave the U.S. vulnerable around the world to efficiently-fought local wars in which Soviet clients would be supplied multi-tons of advanced Soviet conventional weapons.
Note that where the preponderance of superior arms is great enough Soviet-backed nations can win their objectives without firing a shot. Make no mistake about it, the Soviet intercontinental missile research and development program is real and dangerous. If both the U.S. and Russia continue their programs at their present pace, Soviet nuclear capacity will be a threat to U.S. security in 1980. But my source is convinced the Kremlin, in its own imperialist interests, is not aiming at nuclear war or the chance of nuclear war which could leave the USSR devastated.
He believes current evidence makes clear that Leonid Brezhnev and his associates are bent on expanding the Soviet sphere of domination indirectly through revolutionaries, through military action by pro-Soviet states and through terror, that is, the fear of what the Soviet Union might do.
The convulsive expansion of Soviet nuclear research and development in intercontinental missiles and in submarines provides the terror sufficient to send shivers through all major Western capitals.
Not so well publicized is evidence that the Kremlin, while building the ICBM threat, is moving even more rapidly and on a broader scale in the development of tactical conventional weapons in a quantity and in quantities we may not be able to match because we have untapped such a heavy percentage of our dollars into the nuclear race.
The October Israeli-Arab war was an eye opener. The Russians weapons supplied to the Egyptians and Syrians in that fighting were in a remarkable number of instances superior to those given the North Vietnamese only a short time before. In important respects, some were superior to U.S. equivalents.
My source is convinced this is just the beginning. The breadth and scope of the new developments in air and land defense, infantry equipment and weapons and in tactical battlefield bridging was not only surprising, but, in some in-

'United Press International Today is Friday, July 5, the 186th day of 1974 with 179 to follow.
The moon is between its full phase and last quarter.
The morning stars are Mercury, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.
The evening star is Mars.
Those born on this date are under the sign of Cancer.
American showman P. T. Barnum was born July 5, 1810.
On this day in history:
In 1865, William Booth founded the Salvation Army in London.
In 1938, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the Wagner-Connelly bill, officially known as the National Labor Relations Act.
In 1945, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced the liberation of the Philippines as World War II approached its end.
In 1972, two hijackers and one passenger were killed and two others were wounded aboard a jetliner in San Francisco.

Today's Thought
"Members of His Body" Ephesians 5:30
The Church often criticized as being imperfect, is not a museum of ideal persons. Rather it is a fellowship of imperfect human beings who are honest enough to admit their need for help, who actively seek God's help in working out their lives and who join in offering Him praise and thanks for all He does.

Social Security

Q. My unmarried 27-year-old brother was killed in a car accident a short time ago. My mother, who is 64, kept house for him and received all her support from him. Can she collect Social Security survivors benefits based on his mother's work?
A. Because of his young age at the time of his death, your brother would be insured if he had worked a year under Social Security. If he did work this long, your mother can collect on his record because she is at least 62 and received over one half her support from him.
Q. My husband and I were separated for several years before his death in 1967. I am 58 years old and have no children. Am I eligible for monthly Social Security benefits on his work record?
A. Not at this time unless you are disabled. The earliest retirement age for widow is 60, unless they meet special disability requirements under disability as early as age 50. The fact that you and your husband were separated at the time of his death will not prevent you from receiving checks.
Q. I am receiving monthly Social Security benefits as a widow and I would like to get married again. Will my Social Security benefits stop if I remarry?
A. Benefits continue for most widows who remarry after reaching 60. However, the amount of your monthly disability benefit is higher than the widows benefit, you would not want to make any change. A point to keep in mind, however, is that a widow collects a permanently reduced benefit if she starts getting checks when she is 60. You would have to wait until age 65 to get full widow's benefits.
Q. When my father died four years ago, a friend told my mother that she could collect monthly Social Security checks as a widow at 60. But, the other day I heard that widows can get Social Security when they are 50. Is this right?
A. Severely disabled widows may collect monthly benefits as early as 50. Others do have to wait until 60 to qualify for widow's benefits.

Valdis Aves, Kathleen Downing, Kristen Duke, Diane Forand, Thomas Harris, Donna Maus, Michelle Myette, Donald Pelletier, Cheryl Stephens, Candis Ursin, Joan Zeppa, Manchester Community College.
Christine Dooley, North Staffordshire Polytechnic, England; Jill Early, St. College, New Hampshire; Mark Finnegan, St. Francis College, Maine; Douglas Fish, Eastern Nazarene College, Mass.; Joel Fontanella, Noreen Giglio, William Grisel, Mary Litvinskas, Robert Redden, Karen Schiavetti, Linda Tomaszewski, University of Connecticut.
Janet Gordon, Eastern Connecticut State College; Heather Longstreth, Creative

School of Hairdressing, Joseph Muro, Mary Ann Small, Central Connecticut State College; Cynthia Ponticelli, Eastern Connecticut State College; Wayne Post, Fairfield, Beverly Potter, Middlesex Hospital School of Nursing.
A report by John Flek, guidance director, psychologist, to the Board of Education also shows that 18 graduates will be going to work.

2 will be entering the military service and 3 are undecided. Flek said the Class of 1974 represents an upward trend from the Class of 1973 but is in keeping with the general state and national trend of decreasing numbers going into four-year colleges and into teaching.
The number planning to enter college represents 56.6 per cent of the graduating class.

R: SAFE LIVING

MANCHESTER PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE

Get in the swim this summer, but remember to do it safely. Whether you decide to do your swimming in a pool, in the ocean, or in a lake, take precautions to ensure your safety. The first step involves learning how to swim. If your swimming skills are rusty or non-existent, take a swimming course through the Red Cross, the YMCA, or another program. Enroll your children in a swimming course so they can learn how to swim safely from the start. It only takes about ten lessons to learn how to swim. It's worth the time, isn't it?

Choose a safe place to swim. Don't ignore signs that warn against swimming. They're put there for a purpose — the bottom may be muddy, it might be dangerously deep, the water may be polluted, or it might be frequented by water snakes. Always make sure there is adult supervision for children. The Manchester swimming areas are staffed with qualified lifeguards. However, if you decide to do some out-of-town swimming try to find a place with lifeguards. When lifeguards are not on duty, make sure that at least one adult who can swim well and can perform lifesaving duties goes with your children. Know your own ability. Don't swim far out into deep water if you're an inexperienced or weak swimmer. Avoid getting overtired because this saps your strength. Never dive in strange waters. It's impossible to tell how deep the water is when you see it only from the surface. It's especially dangerous if there are rocks or twisted branches underwater because you can either hit your head or get caught underwater. Never swim alone. Even if you're a strong swimmer, don't allow yourself to get overconfident. There's always danger from unexpected cramps or from getting bitten by some water creature, such as a crab or a jellyfish. Always swim with a friend. If you're going to be adventurous and try skin or scuba diving, keep these tips in mind. Make sure you're in good health. Don't attempt these sports unless you're a better-than-average swimmer. To be on the safe side, get training from certified instructors. Wear the proper equipment. And, as in regular swimming, always dive in pairs. Enjoy your summer — swim and dive safely! Accidents can cramp our style.

Vacation Athletes. Are you a vacation athlete? In case you're not exactly sure of the definition, a vacation athlete is a person who indulges in physical exercise only during his (or her) vacation. The average American settles down at age 25 to a life of physical inactivity. Then, when he does get exercise, he tends to get too much of it and strains his out-of-shape body. If you fall in this category — beware — Overdoing spoils many vacations. There's nothing like sore muscles and black and blue spots to convince yourself that you're not enjoying yourself as much as you thought you would. How can you avoid these unwelcome aches and pains? Probably the best advice you can follow is "Get in shape first." Begin slowly doing a few exercises each day. Start with a few sit-ups, some jogging, and a small amount of pushups. Increase the dosage over a period of a month. By that time, you ought to be feeling good and be ready to participate in vacation activities.

Bangkok Cleans Up After Riot

BANGKOK (UPI) — Army troops and police withdrew from the debris-filled streets of Bangkok's Chinese district today after two days of bloody riots forced Thailand's interim government to declare a state of emergency.

The violence Wednesday and Thursday killed 12 persons and injured scores of others. At least 50 persons were reported under arrest.

Narong reported one policeman dead and five rioters killed in Thursday night's clashes. Other sources placed the toll in the Phlaphlatchai station fighting at a minimum of 11 dead.

Narong blamed the rioting on teen-age hoodlums who had attended a mass rally in a downtown park Thursday night. The rally was organized by university students protesting American military presence in the country.

Prime Minister Sanya Dhar-masakul said shortly before midnight Thursday the government's "moderate measures" had failed to quell the rioting and it was necessary to declare an emergency.

The state of emergency officially remained in force this morning and police stayed on alert after dispersing rioters who had roamed the area during the night.

Ex-Warden Foresees Growing Prison Violence

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Prison violence is escalating at such a rapid pace that penitentiaries will be unmanageable in 10 years, according to the retired warden of San Quentin Prison.

Louis S. Nelson, who ended his long penal career last month after rising from guard to chief of the state's toughest prison, blamed lawyers and judges for much of the trouble.

For example, Nelson said in a recent interview, a judge once ordered him to make two books available to a convicted burglar. One described how to make a bomb and the other how to pick locks.

Jaworski Tells Bar Watergate Threat

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Special prosecutor Leon Jaworski Thursday called Watergate "a dark and tragic episode," and urged the legal profession to be on guard to prevent the recurrence of similar scandals.

He also indicated that he would like to be able to respond to criticism of how he has handled his job, but he could not comment on specifics of cases for fear of prejudicing court cases.

Addressing a group of young Texas attorneys, he quoted former White House aide Charles Colson as saying, "We cannot accept the principle that men in high government office can act in disregard of the rights of even one individual citizen."

"What he said at the time is more meaningful, much more significant than any message I could impart to you today," Jaworski said of Colson's statement upon entering a guilty plea for his role in the Watergate cover-up.

"Without pointing the finger of guilt at anyone, there already

During the first six months of this year there have been 28 stabbings, four fatal, at the 122-year-old San Quentin.

Many of the violent incidents resulted from gang warfare and disputes, over narcotics. Several times general lockups were ordered to stop the trouble.

"Prison violence has risen to the point that in the next decade, prisons will be unmanageable," Nelson said. The current trend is toward treatment of less violent offenders in the community, he said, and this means that those sent to prison are the most difficult to manage.

There are four major racial gangs at San Quentin, the Aryan Brotherhood, the Black Guerrilla Army, the Mexican Mafia and the Nuestra Familia, which is also made up of Mexican-Americans.

Convicted narcotics dealer Gardner Landley, 33, serving a 10-year-to-life term, had this theory about violence: "I guess the main thing is just frustration that leads to violence. People don't feel that they have anything to look forward to and the least little thing can get them upset."

Many convicts blame California's indeterminate sentence system for tension among inmates. They feel that the California Adult Authority board acts capriciously in deciding on parole dates under the system and keeps convicts in doubt about their status.

Oil Firms Accused Of Laxity

HARTFORD (UPI) — The former president of the Connecticut Petroleum Association has accused the oil industry of laxity in its test on a federal order to reinstate summer heating oil discounts.

Raymond Langfield, now a member of the CPA's Board of Directors, also said while fuel supplies for this winter seem to be adequate, consumers may face prices of 40 cents per gallon, compared to the 20-30 cents they now pay.

Langfield said Thursday the summer discount programs involved deferred payments for oil delivered in the summer, normally with a discount if the bills were paid before the end of the fall.

He noted the Federal Energy Administration last month ordered oil companies to resume any discounts offered to consumers in 1973, the base year for establishing oil allocations and prices. Langfield said the oil companies "are sitting on their hands," and noted that since supplies are at a normal level, there should be no reason for the companies to eliminate the discount program.

This demonstration was sponsored by the American G.I. Forum, an organization of 168,000 predominantly Chicano members; the American Veterans Movement, with 8,000 members; and the National Association For Puerto Rican Civil Rights, with 25,000 members.

The demonstrators sat on the grass north of the Jefferson

Memorial, sang songs and listened to speeches. The flags of North Vietnam, the Viet Cong, the Khmer Rouge of Cambodia and the Pathet Lao of Laos decorated a makeshift rostrum.

The march was sponsored by the Vietnam Veterans Against the War-Winter Soldier Organization. One member said the name came from those "who stuck it out during the winter at Valley Forge — and we'll stick it out."

The group wants an end of U.S. aid to the governments of South Vietnam and Cambodia. Prime Minister Lon Nol, "decent benefits" for veterans, "single-grade discharge" for all Vietnam vets and "kick Nixon out."

VFW Convenes
HARTFORD (UPI) — Veterans of Foreign Wars in Connecticut open their 54th annual state convention today in Hartford.

National VFW Commander in Chief Ray R. Soden of Addison, Ill., and state Commander Michael J. Serice of New Britain were to welcome the more than 2,000 delegates representing 32,000 members from 130 VFW posts in the state.

This demonstration was sponsored by the American G.I. Forum, an organization of 168,000 predominantly Chicano members; the American Veterans Movement, with 8,000 members; and the National Association For Puerto Rican Civil Rights, with 25,000 members.

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Husarik of School St. celebrated their golden wedding anniversary June 15 at an open house party given in their honor by their children: Mrs. Leo Tokala of Gardner St. and Francis Husarik of Reading, Mass.

Guests included members of the wedding party and relatives and friends from the local area as well as Utah, Maryland, New York, and New Jersey.

The couple was married at Holy Trinity Church, Passaic, N.J. and have been residents of Manchester for 30 years. They have six grandchildren.

Wedding

Meyer-Seranton

Muriel Packard Seranton of Manchester and Gerald Edward Meyer of Waterbury, exchanged wedding vows June 22 at United Methodist Church in Bolton.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maude Field of 179 Spruce St.

The Rev. David M. Campbell of Bolton officiated at the singling ceremony. The church was decorated with white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a tulle gown with white background and multicolored floral print.

Miss Sheila Jones of Waterbury was maid of honor. She wore a green tulle gown and a pink corsage.

Joseph Heister was best man. Among the guests were Mr.

College Note

Wesley F. Thoun of Willie Circle, Tolland, (formerly of Manchester), has been awarded the McCusker Memorial Scholarship for $500. The scholarship is given by the Connecticut State Employees Association. Thoun will enter his junior year at the University of Connecticut in September where he is majoring in music.

He is also on the dean's list. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Thoun.

The engagement of Miss Laura Jean Oleksinski of Manchester to David C. Levy of Kourney, N.J., has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Oleksinski of 137 Dartmouth Rd.

Mr. Levy is the son of Mrs. Ethel Levy and the late Joel Levy of Kourney, N.J.

The bride-elect is a graduate of East Catholic High School and a 1974 graduate of the University of Connecticut where she majored in special education.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Kearney (N.J.) High School and a 1974 graduate of the University of Connecticut, will attend the Culinary Institute of America, Hyde Park, N.Y. this fall.

A Sept. 7 wedding is planned.

Bifolck-Faircloth

Mrs. Louis V. Bifolck

Engagements

The engagement of Miss Anna Lawson of Glastonbury, formerly of Coventry, to Robert Marable of East Hartford, formerly of Florida, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawson of Glastonbury.

Mr. Marable is the son of Jesse Marable of Jacksonville, Fla., and the late Mrs. Marable.

The bride-elect was graduated from Coventry High School in 1970 and from Manchester Community College in 1972. She is employed as an executive secretary at Anna Life & Casualty Co.

Her fiancé, a graduate of the University of Florida, is employed as an engineer at Pratt & Whitney Division of United Aircraft Corp.

MCC Group Picks New Officers

An organizational meeting of the Manchester Community College (MCC) Womens Movement was held recently at the college.

Officers were elected and a constitution drawn up for approval by the MCC Student Senate.

Officers for the coming year are Carol Bretnier, president; Dorothy Schummo, vice president; Pierrette Bussiere, administrative recorder; and Ruth Miller, treasurer. Carol Moulton will edit the newsletter.

The organization will be primarily concerned with those areas relating to and aiding women both in the college and in the community. Some planned areas of involvement will be in the coordination and formation of consciousness-raising groups, establishment of health referral services, information dissemination pertaining to lawyers, abortions, child care, discrimination and education. A variety of programs are being formulated.

The next meeting of the group will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Miss Bretnier. The group is seeking both student and community participation. For further information contact Carol Bretnier at 649-4794 or Dorothy Schummo, 644-2380.

Vacation & Travel Ideas

Virgin Islands—'The Floating Gardens' of the Caribbean

Summer '74 with its inflation rate is a perfect time to vacation in the U.S. Virgin Islands and to do your Christmas shopping early and at bargain prices for luxury gifts.

Summer is the "saving season" in St. Croix, St. John and St. Thomas with hotel rates reduced as much as 40 per cent from the winter highs.

A money-saving "Virgin Treasure Chest" tour package with rates for 7 days and 6 nights as low as $54 per person, European Plan, based on double occupancy, is now being offered. The package will be available through December 15 from most hotels and guest houses in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

But your vacation is even more of a bargain if you plan to do all your Christmas shopping in the elegant boutiques in Christiansted, St. Croix, and on the main streets of Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas.

Shoppers can let themselves go on luxuries ranging from the world's most expensive perfume, Jean Patou's Joy (an ounce costs $42.75 in the Virgin Islands and $65 plus tax in the United States) to the finest liquors. An example, Chivas Regal 12-year-old Scotch is just $5.50 a fifth in the Islands and $10.54 plus tax in New York. There are other fabulous buys. Danish rugs are tagged at about 40 per cent off mainland prices. Hundreds of other items ranging from Japanese and German cameras to Swiss watches; from Irish linens to Italian silk dresses are sold at equally alluring low prices.

Today, there is a new emphasis in the islands on creating their own fashions—perfumes, jewelry, straw bags and hats, ceramics and carved wooden objects. More and more, these island-made products are tempting the stateside visitors. One can buy and mail as much as you want of anything made in the islands duty-free. However, if value exceeds $25, it is good to have a certificate of origin.

Great buys in the Virgin Islands are locally-created fashions for men and women. These are made from imported materials and include beach wear, sports clothes and stunning evening dresses, all unusual, exotic and fashionable and all duty-free. Many new art galleries have opened in the islands in the past year and original paintings and antiques dating from before 1871 are also duty-free.

Purchases made while visiting but shipped to the buyer later are subject to custom duties but, the smart shopper is aware that one can pay duties on many items and still save substantial sums over stateside prices. Duties are based on wholesale, not retail values. Local shoppers will be glad to advise you on specifics but, in general, the wholesale price on each item which customs figures duty on, is about 40 per cent under the Virgin Islands retail prices. So here is the general scale, based always on wholesale price: Duty on binoculars is 22 per cent; transistor radios, 10 per cent; sterling silver knives and forks, four cents each plus 10 per cent; sterling silver spoons and tableware, 15 per cent, and watches valued at $100 from $7 to $14.

Fine crystal, some of which sells at 40 per cent less than stateside prices, is taxed at 22.5 per cent when mailed. Postage on a dozen glasses amounts to an average of $4, so one is still ahead.

Gifts costing under $10 excepting imported perfume, liquor and tobacco, may be mailed duty-free but only one present a day can be sent to the same person. Gifts valued at over $10 and shipped to the United States are subject to duty.

The harbor at Charlotte Amalie, the capital city of St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, is the busiest cruise port in the Caribbean and easily reached by air from the U.S. mainland or Puerto Rico. Because of their unique free-port status, the U.S. Virgin Islands' reputation as the "shoppers paradise" in the Caribbean is legendary. Only in the U.S. Virgin Islands are stateside visitors allowed a $200 duty-free exemption for each member of the family.

COOK'S TOUR

By MURRAY BROWN UPI Travel Editor

Keep off the grass—and all other illicit drugs when traveling abroad. Getting busted overseas could cost you your life.

Hundreds of young Americans already have found out the hard way that foreign countries are often tougher than the United States when it comes to enforcing laws against drug use, smuggling or trafficking.

Recent official figures show that about 800 Americans—most of them under 30 years of age—are being held in jails around the world on various drug charges.

They include a man and two women, arrested in December, 1972, who were sentenced to death by a Turkish court last year for smuggling 225 pounds of hashish into the country from Syria. The sentences were later commuted to life imprisonment and more recently reduced to about 12 years under a general amnesty.

Penalties Are Severe Many foreign countries do not differentiate between the so-called "soft" drugs like marijuana and the "hard" like heroin and possession of "grass" or "hash" can be punished with expulsion, prison terms and heavy fines—up to more than $100,000 in Spain, for instance.

Penalties for smuggling or trafficking are much more severe, ranging up to life imprisonment in Canada and the Philippines and the death penalty in Turkey and Iran. A leaflet published by the U.S. Department of State notes that "prison conditions in some countries are deplorable." It warns that many countries, including Mexico, have no provisions for bail on drug offenses and that pre-trial detention "can be prolonged—in some cases up to a year."

mbal's crossing of the Alps by elephant back. How did he go about it? He wrote Thomas Cook & Son, of course.

Cook's hired the elephant and an Indian mahout and arranged the tour for a not so modest fee.

That's only one of the curious episodes in the history of this oldest of all travel agencies, which is celebrating the centenary this year of its invention of the travelers' check.

Thomas Cook, born in a village in the English Midlands, also invented the travel agency and the packaged tour, the ocean cruise to the West Indies and the first organized tours to the Holy Lands.

Many Experiences Jerry Jordan, president of the American Cook's company, says Cook's had many many experiences with tourists, a lot of them Americans. There was the 72-year-old Yankee lady who developed a burning desire to see a performance of the Follies Bergere but didn't care about anything else in France.

She arranged with Cook's to fly her to Paris in time for a matinee and rush her back to Orly airport after the show in time to catch the evening plane returning to New York.

Then there was the lady whose son wanted to see the magnetic north pole. For $15,000, Cook's flew the lad there in a chartered plane.

Another lady wanted to tour the south of France by train but, being claustrophobic, she couldn't bear the thought of all those tunnels. She paid Cook's to have her met by a limousine at the station ahead of each tunnel and drive her to the next station to await a later train.

In addition to other firsts, Cook's published the first travel magazine in 1851 and organized the first round the world tour in 1871, two years before announcing the travelers' check. It also operated sleeping cars all over Europe in conjunction with French Wagons-Lits company.

In the disruption of world travel caused by World War II Cook's came under control of the British government. A year ago it was sold to a group of British private investors. The American company is an autonomous subsidiary.

Railroading Returns To The White Mountain

The White Mountain Central Railroad chugs along the banks of the Pemigewasset River near the entrance of Franconia Notch in New Hampshire's scenic White Mountains. A passenger carrying scenic railroad at Clark's Trading Post in Lincoln, the cars are pushed along the two mile ride by an authentic wood-burning geared Heister locomotive, reminiscent of the old logging railroads that worked the region 70 years ago.

Portugal Seeks Tourist Flow

LISBON (UPI) — Like a hopeful gambler shaking a pair of dice, Portugal believes its "lucky seven" is about to come up.

The "lucky seven" the new government is hoping for is a new "invasion." Not the armed regions that have visited Portugal's borders six times over the centuries, but an invasion of foreigners armed with fat wallets.

French final, said before the match she hoped to do better on a grass surface, but she never really got into the game, although she did win one more game.

Against power hitters like Mrs. King and Mrs. Virginia Wade, Miss Morozova was able to play serve and volley, but Chris never let her dictate the terms and kept her in the back court for most of the 36-minute match.

Ken Rosewall of Australia, two sets down and one point away from defeat came back in one of the great rallies of Wimbledon history today to beat Stan Smith of Sea Pines, S.C. and end the final of the men's singles 6-4, 6-4, 6-1, 6-3.

Rosewall, a few months short of 40, and the oldest man in the singles will meet 21-year-old Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill. tomorrow. Connors beat Dick Stockton of win from the first ball.

Police Report

ROGER J. MICHAEL, 16, of 442 W. Middle Tpke., Apt. 77, was charged Wednesday night with second-degree larceny by possession, police reported today.

Police said the charge, lodged via a court warrant, stems from the recent theft of a motorcycle.

Michael is scheduled to appear in court July 22.

DOROTHY M. MYERS, 54, of 24 Locust St., was charged Thursday afternoon with disorderly conduct, police said, after a disturbance at her home.

She was released on a $150 non-surety bond for court appearance July 22.

THETIS reported to Manchester Police Wednesday and Thursday included:

A heavy wood extension ladder, valued at about $150, was removed from second-floor staging at 545 N. Main St., owner Abe Nussdorf of 587 N. Main St. reported.

Two radios, $87 in cash, and 15 books of trading stamps were taken in a break-in at the 143 Wetherell St. home of J. Symington.

VERNON Police had to shoot a large German Shepherd dog Thursday, and the owner, William J. Segnie, 32, of 57 Prospect St., Rockville, was charged with allowing a dog to roam.

Police said a call was received from Mrs. Harriet Kravjowski of 33 Park St., that two German shepherd dogs went after her on her property.

When Officer Robert Alpert arrived at her home the larger of the two dogs went after him and then retreated to the Kravjowski garage, police said.

Police then called the dog warden but attempts to catch the dog were futile and the larger of the two had to be shot.

Police could not locate the owner at the police station.

Steven Kershaw Jr., 34, of 97 Union St., Rockville, was charged with disorderly conduct Thursday in connection with the investigation of a disturbance at his home.

Glen Gagnon, 28, of High Manor Trailer Park, Rt. 30, Vernon, was charged with disorderly conduct in connection with the investigation of a complaint of a disturbance at the park.

Accident Victim In Good Condition

MANCHESTER — Poia Reale, 65, of Hartford was listed in good condition today at Hartford Hospital with injuries suffered in a two-car crash at Center St. and Love Lane Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Reale was a passenger in a car driven by Sebastiano Panio, 63, of Hartford, which was in collision at 7:35 a.m. with a car operated by Richard B. Rohner, 40, of East Hartford.

Rohner, who was treated and released from Manchester Memorial Hospital, was charged with failure to grant the right of way. Court date is July 15.

Panio and three other passengers in his car also suffered injuries which required hospital treatment. They have since been released from the hospital.

Other accidents reported by Manchester Police included:

Gary C. Mitkus, 30, of 103 Congress St., was charged Thursday morning with reckless driving after an accident on Oak St. in which his car struck a parked truck, police said. Court date is July 29.

Cars driven by George S. Poroski, 23, of 80 Griffin Rd., South Windsor, and Ronald E. Roache, 22, of 79 E. Middle Tpke., were in collision Wednesday afternoon on Spruce St., police said. Minor injuries were reported.

An 11-year-old bicyclist, Kenneth Dewey of 40 Linwood Dr., was treated at Manchester Memorial Hospital Tuesday afternoon after he was hit by a car operated by John W. Ferrell, 78, of 157 Birch St. No arrest was made.

Maureen A. Murray, 17, of 32 Summit St., has been charged with failure to grant right of way in connection with a Monday afternoon accident in which her car was in collision with motorcycleist Richard Lescorait, 20, of 122A New State Rd. Lescorait was treated at Manchester

Seeking a typical Little League pose while awaiting his turn at bat with the Red Sox in the Rookie League is Mac McNamara. The second baseman blows a bubble before taking his swing at the stationary T-ball used in all league play for eight- and nine-year-olds.

Yankees Take Step Toward Curing Ills

DETROIT (UPI) — Few problems are so large that a victory or two or three won't make them seem like a stubbed toe and the New York Yankees took their first pain-free step toward curing their internal ills Thursday evening when they defeated the Detroit Tigers, 5-4, to end a seven-game losing streak.

They rallied for three ninth inning runs off a recently ineffective Jim Hiller, overcoming a one-run deficit.

"That's one you had to have," said Yankees' Manager Bill Virdon.

Jim Northrup's eighth home run of the season and fifth in five games, a tremendous shot off the facing of the upper deck in the eighth, was wasted because of Hiller's inability to get anybody out.

Northrup had rescued Hiller Wednesday night with three-run home run with two out in the ninth after hitting a two-run blast earlier.

"Fast ball, curve ball, screwball, knuckleball, sooner or later you've got to look at them all," Cedeno said.

"No matter what they throw, they've got to get the ball over the plate, and if they do, I'm going to hack away at it."

"Don't ask me how I hit that knuckleball that far," said Cedeno. "I don't know. I usually hit knuckleballs pretty good, but I've got no system. I just go after it. If it breaks my way, great; if it doesn't, I miss."

The 10th-inning double was a drive over left fielder Philadelphia's 5-3 before losing the second game 6-2.

Dodgers 3, Reds 2 — Cincinnati, which has lost eight of nine to Los Angeles, had a chance to gain on the Dodgers. The Reds took a 2-

Sox Lack Fundamentals As Orioles Sweep Series

BOSTON (UPI) — When the Boston Red Sox are good, they are very, very good. But when they are bad, the roof falls in.

Boston, decimated by a series of key injuries, played their worst baseball of the season Thursday and the Baltimore Orioles took advantage of every opportunity to give the American League East leaders a 10-4 thrashing, shoving Boston's lead to a mere six percentage points over the Cleveland Indians.

"We're going to have our people out here at 4 p.m. tomorrow. We're going to work on fundamentals," Red Sox Manager Darrell Johnson said after his team held a locker room meeting following their loss, the third straight to the Orioles.

"It's the first time this year we've gone a period of days and not played good baseball," said Johnson. "We have violated a lot of fundamentals in the last few days."

Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver brushed off his team's mastery of the Red Sox the last three games, after the Orioles had dropped two to Boston in Baltimore earlier in the week.

"These don't mean anything, just like the two in Baltimore didn't mean anything," said Weaver. "We have to go to Oakland now and win there too."

"It's like golf, your good shots really don't mean anything, it's the one you blow that hurt," Weaver said. "The Red Sox blew a lot of shots Thursday, committing three errors in the ninth inning which let in two runs, and throwing a sixth inning rally with poor base running."

With two on and two away and one run already in, Bernie Carbo was thrown out attempting to get home from second on a Doug Griffin single, despite a hold sign from his third base coach.

"We're going to take him through the play and show him exactly what we want done in that kind of a situation," said Johnson.

The Red Sox open a four game series with Kansas City tonight, with Rick Wise, 3-3, scheduled to go against Nelson Briles, 0-2.

Bert Blyleven Relaxes, Regains Winning Ways

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bert Blyleven's new course in self-motivation seems to be returning some quick dividends.

Blyleven, who has been struggling this season after posting a 20-victory campaign a year ago, has enrolled in a course that is supposed to teach you to relax and enjoy your work more, something the 23-year-old right-hander of the Minnesota Twins has had difficulty doing.

He has attended only two classes thus far, but he's apparently done his homework well because his latest pitching effort turned in Thursday night was by far his best of the season, although it did test his patience to the limit.

Blyleven came through with the third one-hitter of his career when he pitched the Twins to a 3-1 victory over the Texas Rangers, but it took a dramatic three-run rally in the last of the ninth to save Blyleven from yet another frustrating loss.

The Twins' youngster, who had lost two 1-0 games earlier this year and had dropped 10 of his first 16 decisions, allowed only a third-inning homer to Toby Harrah through nine innings, but saw himself trailing 1-0 entering the last of the ninth as his teammates struggled helplessly against Jim Bibby.

The Twins, however, got a big break to start their half of the ninth when Bibby, who allowed only four hits over the first eight innings, issued a leadoff walk to Tony Oliva and was replaced by Steve Foucault. Steve Braun greeted Foucault with a single, sending pinch-runner Jerry Terrell to third, and Terrell scored the tying run on a sacrifice fly by Jim Holt.

That brought up Larry Hise and he dramatically ended the game with a home run over the left-centerfield fence.

BOB SHEAFFER

Man of Distinction

Pro Bob Sheaffer Played Top Courses

By Earl Yost

Popular golfer Pro Bob Sheaffer, Wally Cichon's first assistant at the Ellington Ridge Country Club for 11 years, is a man of distinction.

The ever-smiling Sheaffer has never had the financial backing to explore the National PGA tour but he can boast of having played on the five United States Golf Assn. charter member courses, which is no easy trick.

The accomplishments of the ERCC assistant are spotlighted in the June issue of New England Golf, which proved to be a red-hot seller at the ERCC Pro Shop.

Six years ago, Sheaffer, who has played golf on at least 150 different courses, set out a goal to play a round on the five original USGA charter member layouts.

It took time, patience and money, but today, the husky Springfield, Mass., resident can boast of having played at the five world-famous courses, rated in this order for their toughness by the Bay State: Chicago, The Country Club, Shinnecock Hills, Newport, and St. Andrews.

Young Holiday Bowlers Fare Well in Tourney

Three young team entries from the Holiday Lanes took part in the National Duckpin Youth Association Tournament in Silver Spring, Md., last weekend and one came home a winner.

The Bantam Boys, tagged the Swingers, came back with the crown in their 10-12-year-old division. The Junior Girls placed fifth and the Major Girls were third.

Sharon and Janet McElhannon, Cheryl Gano, Joanne Rivard and Diane Connors made up the Junior Girls with Cindy Colgan, Laurie Banavice, Paula Skrabut, Paula Rivard and Denise Wisniewski the Major Girls. The Swingers were composed of Chris Plumley, Kevin Dickinson, Peter Pires, Ed Gillis and Ken Del Giudice.

Blass Blasted

The saga of Steve Blass added another disheartening chapter Thursday.

Blass was the starting pitcher for Charleston, but he was knocked out in the first inning as the Richmond Braves exploded for 15 hits enroute to a 15-5 shelling of the Charles on Independence Day.

Blass, the first of four Charlie pitchers, saw his record dip to 1-4.

Army &amp; Navy Club Wins American Little League

Starting off on the right foot with five runs in its first at bats yesterday at Wadwell Field, the Army & Navy Club held on to tack a 9-5 setback on Sears and wrap up the American Little League championship.

Coach George Maloney's charges finished the regular season with a 14-2 record. The success was also the third straight for Maloney-coached A&N squads.

Sears, which came into the game needing a win to deadlock A&N for first place, wound up with a fine 12-4 win-loss record.

Making only his second pitching start of the season, Bob Lebreux gave up just one run in working four innings. Scott Labrec was treated rather roughly in relief but managed to preserve the decision. The former fanned nine batters before tiring in the near 100 degree temperature.

Jon Brandt paced the Vets with three hits including a two-run homer.

Two nifty doubleplays were reeled off by the winner which stopped potential Sears' rallies.

Homers by Pete McCluskey and Scott Bayless in the fifth gave Sears' fans new hopes but the rally fell short. Rand had halted play Wednesday night and the game was reset on the holiday.

This wasn't the case for the International Leaguers, with the championship still up for grabs.

Swim Notes

Coming home with a trophy yesterday from the fourth annual July 4 Cross-Harbor Swim in Westport was the Manchester Rec swim team.

The trophy was awarded to the first team to have five swimmers complete the mile and one-half course from Cokenoe Island to Longshore Country Club in Westport.

The five local swim club members and their individual placements were: Mike Waylisk, third, Kevin Lake, Lane, fourth; Sherrie Hopperstead, sixth; Katie Tucker, seventh; Robin Reilly, 15th.

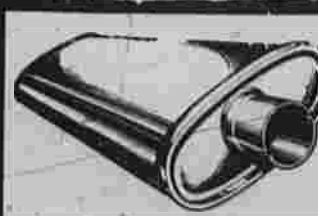

Waylisk was the third male to finish and Miss Hopperstead gained a second placement for girls.

Other Rec swimmers in the field of 31 were Leslie Scott, Donna Siebold, Wayne Smith, Clare and Beth McDermott, Robert and Geoff Michaud, Pete Manning and Mel Siebold.

Jackson and Carew Leading Vote-Getters

NEW YORK (UPI) — Outfielder Reggie Jackson of the Oakland A's and second baseman Rod Carew of the Minnesota Twins are the exclusive members of the Million Club in the American League as balloting enters its final days to select the All-Star team.

Jackson is far and away the leading vote getter in the American League with 1,524,790 of the 3,121,372 votes cast, according to the latest figures released today by the Baseball Commissioner. Carew, the league's leading batter, is the only other player with more than a million votes.

The balloting ends on Sunday to determine all starting positions, except for pitcher, for the All-Star game in Pittsburgh Tuesday night, July 23.

Boston's Carlton Fisk, who underwent surgery for torn knee ligaments a few days ago, continues to lead the catchers with 718,129 votes. Thurman Munson of the New York Yankees, with 487,054 votes, has edged past Bill Freehan of the Detroit Tigers, with 466,285, for second place.

Munson seems a certainty to gain the starting place since Fisk won't be available and Freehan has stated he'd rather not play inasmuch as he's been used at first base recently.

Dick Allen of the Chicago White Sox, Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles and Bert Campaneris of Oakland are the leaders at the other infield positions. Allen, a first baseman, has 697,851 votes. Robinson has 684,334 at third base and Campaneris has 586,512 at shortstop.

Trailing Jackson for the starting outfield berth are Bobby Murcer of the Yankees with 614,923, Al Kaline of Detroit with 562,187 and Frank Robinson of the California Angels with 554,531.

Kalime, used solely as a designated hitter all season, is another Tiger who has suggested that it wouldn't be fair if he won a starting position.

32 Teams in Four Leagues

Tap-off time in the Recreation Department's outdoor summer basketball program will start Monday night with 32 teams entered in four leagues. All games will be played under the lights at Charter Oak Park.

Eight entries will make up the Senior 1 and Senior 2 Leagues, 10 more in the Intermediate and six in the Junior circuits.

Comprising the Senior 1 League will be the Eagles (blue), Bike Shop, Langan Volkswagens, Aircrafters, Community College, Mortuary Bros., Fred's and Crispino's.

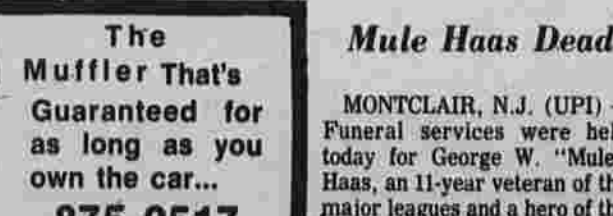

Making up Senior 2 will be the Knicks, Highland Park Market, Fred's, The 2's, Eagles (white), Shelle's Boys, Cagers, Dead Bears.

The 10 Intermediate entries will be known as the Social Leaguers, Beavers, Med Go, Sonics, Ozones, Six Pack, Fred's, Bunts, Leapers and Aardvark.

The Rams, Sabers, St. James, Bears, Rinky Dinks and Celtics.

The Senior 1 will play Monday and Tuesday nights, Senior 2 Wednesday and Thursday nights. Intermediates Monday and Tuesday and the Juniors Wednesday and Thursdays. First game each night starts at 7:45, the second at 8:45.

Individuals can register at the MCC soccer field prior to the start of the camp. For further information call 646-2137.

Mark Snyder drilled four hits and Ken Leslie three and Tom Smiedek, Bob Magano, Jim Fazzaloro and Tom Ataman each two in the triumph. Ron Blake's two hits paced the Town.

DUSTY
Allied Building didn't even have to lift a finger in recording a 7-0 forfeit win over the Jaycees who failed to find a team.

CANDLELIGHT
Scoring in all but one frame, Dick's American ran over Manchester State Bank Wednesday night at Robertson with a solid 2-1 offensive.

Facing the fireworks was Vic Salcius with a grand slam homer. Jeff Maxwell, Bob Carr and John Motowidak each added three hits with the Bankers' top sluggers Joe Brooks and Mac Doyon with three and two hits each.

INDY
Starting and fast and finishing in the same fashion, Renn's Tavern trounced the BA Club last Wednesday night at Keeney, 22-6.

Collecting three hits each for the winners were Ron Novak, Ron Rickard, Dave Carrier, Steve Banks and Steve Lauretti.

Soccer Camp

Youths 9-11, can still register for the week long summer soccer camp approved by Manchester Community College and the Rec Department.

The camp is scheduled to begin Monday, Youths 9-11 will meet each day from 9 to noon at MCC soccer field. The 12-14-year-old campers will meet each day on the soccer field from 1 to 4.

The camp will emphasize individual and group drills to develop and refine the individual skills of dribbling, ball control, passing, shooting and defending. Supervised games will be included.

The program will feature instruction by many of the area leading college and high school coaches.

Individuals can register at the MCC soccer field prior to the start of the camp. For further information call 646-2137.

Young Texan Leading Putter

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Professional Putters Association members from 42 states have named 19-year-old Mike Baldoza of Dallas the Putter of the Year.

The 1973 world putting champion, Baldoza was honored here Wednesday night at a banquet preceding this weekend's $10,000 PPA National Championship.

Daryl Freeman of Bristol, Tenn., national record holder and defending champion, heads a field of 250 professional and amateurs opening play today in the national tournament here.

The two-day event will have 72 holes of medal competition daily.

Freeman, a 30-year-old pro for more than 15 years, carded a record 39-under-par 130 to take the national title at Tulsa, Okla., last year and lowered the old mark by 15 strokes for eight rounds of play.

Action in NFL Player Strike Gets Heavier

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Action in the National Football League player strike got much heavier Thursday as veterans attempted to march to the San Diego Chargers' rookie camp.

The march failed, but a meeting was permitted later.

Three players' representatives had been given permission to go to the camp to speak with rookies about player demands. When the time came to go to the closed meeting, about 10 veterans walked through the entrance to the United States International University rookie camp site.

They walked about 100 yards before being stopped by security guards, who also called police. The players spoke with Chargers' attorney Stacey Sullivan for several minutes and then disbanded at the urging of their executive director, Ed Garvey.

While the representatives met with the rookies, veteran Chargers tight end Pettis Norman said the stoppage illustrated what the strike was about.

"The same prejudice and restraining inflicted on us is what they will be subjected to," he said.

He said the rookies were being prevented from the meeting with the veterans by use of previously unscheduled work sessions.

"Yesterday they showed them the Chargers highlights of 1973," he said.

"You have a better chance to start with the Chargers if you don't mention the 1973 season," he said.

After the closed meeting, the Chargers' management allowed the newcomers to walk to the campus entrance to talk informally with veteran players.

The rookies and veterans broke into groups for conversation and mingling, but there was no indication of concerted action or decisions being made.

Afterwards, the rookies went to the drill field.

Chargers' owner Gene Klein, before the entrance meeting, accused the strikers of scare tactics.

"The rookies are free to talk," he said. "But they must obey the rules of the camp. We have curfews, but they are ordinary rules."

Klein emphasized the NFL clubs would play the 1974 season as scheduled, especially with the World Football League offering competition.

"We're not going to shut down the store and let them have all the business," he said. "There's no way in the world we're not going to play the season as scheduled with the best players we can."

Asked about a diluted product, Klein pointed out the Chargers have a new coaching staff, are coming off a horrible season and have a new system.

"We might have a reverse situation where the rookies will be the veterans and the veterans the rookies," he said.

He said he felt a little ambivalent because if everyone had to go with their rookies, "We'd have a hell of a shot at the Super Bowl."

The strike, which began Monday, concerned 63 demands made by the players association. The old contract expired Jan. 31.

World Soccer Cup

Holland in Spotlight And Standout Cruyff

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — Twenty-three days ago the only thing the average fan knew about Holland's national soccer team was that a glorified footballer called Johan Cruyff played for it.

Today, 36 games after the World Soccer Cup kicked off June 13, the orange-shirted flying Dutchmen are household favorites and Cruyff rivals Pele himself.

Sunday will confirm or deny Holland's claim to being the greatest football team in the world when it meets West Germany in the final in Munich.

Both teams go to the game with top-class tournament records.

Holland won 11 points out of a possible 12, scored 14 goals and gave up only one — and that an "own goal" by a Dutchman.

West Germany won 10 points out of 12, scored 11 goals and allowed three. The two sides were logical finalists in a tournament devised to emphasize attacking football and the value of goals and to penalize negative, defensive play.

The sentimental favorite is Holland. It came virtually from nowhere. It has played the most consistently thrilling football of the competition. It has in Cruyff, its captain, possibly the most exciting player in the world, a personality-plus leader who is seen to lead on the field and off, a casual, elegant man who speaks five languages and puffs 20 cigarettes a day.

Additionally, the Dutchmen have come across as a happy-go-lucky crowd. They have their wives or sweethearts to training quarters for visits. They go fishing in nearby lakes, setting up a "World Cup Angling Competition."

They have never before been in the final of the football championship.

The image emanating from the West German camp has been quite the opposite.

The players were sequestered in monastic seclusion. There were rows about selection and disputes among the players. The Germans started the competition indifferently and their own fans frequently got on them, causing captain Franz Beckenbauer once to spit at spectators.

Manager Helmut Schoen was so fiercely criticized at times, he was heard to murmur, "Well, at least there is no capital punishment in Germany any longer."

West Germany, as a leading football nation and the home side, was long the favorite to win, so it does not enjoy the "underdog" backing of Holland.

Chris 2-5 Odds — On Favorite To Win Wimbledon Crown

WIMBLEDON, ENGLAND (UPI) — Chris Evert goes into the finals of the women's singles of the Wimbledon Tennis Championship today, a certainty in all eyes but her own to become the youngest titleholder since the late, great Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly 22 years ago.

Nineteen-year-old Chris meets her god friend and doubles partner, Olga Morozova, the first Russian to get a crack at the women's crown. Olga never has beaten her. The bookies have made Chris a 2-5 odds-on favorite. Players who have been on court with both of them rate Chris a cinch.

The winner will get $16,800 in prize money.

"I don't see how Olga can beat her," said Virginia Wade of Britain, beaten by Olga in the semifinals Thursday, 1-6, 7-5, 6-4.

But Chris was cautious after her crisp 6-2, 6-3 victory over Kerry Melville of Australia.

"I've never lost to her in the five or six times we've played," the second seed admitted. "But I've been confident before and I've lost matches that way." But she conceded that her big worries had been top-seed and defending champion Billie Jean King and ex-champion Evonne Goolagong, and that when they were eliminated Wednesday "things seemed brighter for me. I've never beaten either of them on grass so I think I was a little encouraged."

Olga, who said her quarterfinal victory was the talk of Russia, according to a phone call from her husband in Moscow, believes that friendship ends at the grass edge of Center Court.

"Of course we are friends," she said. "But we are also tennis players." She cheerfully admitted she hadn't beaten Chris yet but "I think I play better against her on grass."

Unseeded Dick Stockton of Port Washington, N.Y., also has a chance of becoming the first to follow a long-ago precedent — the first unseeded player to reach the finals since Kurt Nielsen of Denmark in 1963. No unseeded player has ever won the men's singles title.

In today's semifinals, Stockton, a 6-2, 180-pounder ranked 13th in the United States, meets third-seeded Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Ill. On the basis of his remarkable play thus far — he eliminated second seed Ilie Nastase of Romania and 10th-seeded Alex Metrevel of the Soviet Union on successive days — Stockton is even money against Connors.

In the other semifinal, fourth-seeded Stan Smith of Sea Pines, S.C., is favored to beat ninth-seeded Ken Rosewall of Australia despite the 29-year-old Australian's sensational upset victory over top-seed and compatriot John Newcombe of Australia in the quarterfinals.

This is the first year since 1947 that three Americans have been in the semifinals and, of course, means at least one American in the finals. There has not been an all-American final since then.

Ed Sneed Looking Forward To Great Tourney Ending

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Ed Sneed has been a golfer of great beginning through the first two rounds of the greater Milwaukee Open and he's looking forward to a great ending — $26,000 worth.

Sneed, 29, birdied four of his first five holes in the second round of the GMO Thursday and went on to a five-under-par 67 for a three-stroke lead over Tommy Aaron, who shot his second successive 68.

A day earlier Sneed began with birds on three of the first five holes and wound up with 66. That gave him an 11-under-par 133 going into today's action.

Trailing Aaron's 136 was Cesar Sandoz at 138, Bob Zender at 139 and Lee Trevino, Dave Hill, Curtis Sifford and Chuck Courtney at 140.

A total of 74 players made the cut below 149. Among those who missed was Bruce Crampton, who has earned over $1 million on the pro tour.

"I just felt good both days," said Sneed, who is seeking his second tournament victory in six years on the tour. "I got a good start on the first hole the first day and the same thing happened today."

What happened was that he chipped into the cup from 35 feet away. He followed that act by sinking a 30-foot birdie putt on the second green.

Sneed has won only $14,000 on the tour this year and said a golfer "has to be thinking of victory" when he's leading the field.

"But I just hope to go out tomorrow and do what I did today," he said.

Sneed had seven birdies and two bogeys. His 133 was the lowest he ever had in the first two rounds.

"I'm driving the ball straighter than I have in a long time," said the 1973 Masters champion.

"I thought the course played easier today because the wind was not as strong and the green held better because of last night's rain," he said. "I got my share of birdies today — six of them," said Trevino, who had by far the largest gallery following until Sneed got on the course and began his birdie binge.

Trevino also scored one bogey and a double bogey, but agreed the 7,010-yard Tuckaway Country Club course played "much easier" than Wednesday.

The local post raised $600 to cover trip expenses. The team will travel by charter bus.

Physical Exam Dates

Physical examinations for junior and senior high school athletes at Bennett, Illing and Manchester will be held later this month, Dave Wiggins, director of athletics, announced.

The schedule: Manchester High, July 8-9, Aug. 6-7, at the MHS nurses' office; Bennett, July 16-17, Aug. 13-14, at Bennett nurses' office; Illing, July 23-24 and Aug. 20-21, at Illing nurses' office.

All boys and girls enrolled at these schools interested in participating in competitive sports next year must pass the physical exam which is free.

Cook Wins Feature At Stafford Track

Surviving six caution flags, Jerry Cook of Rome, N.Y., two-time NASCAR modified stock car racing champ, captured Wednesday night's Permatex 150 feature race at Stafford Speedway. A great crowd of 6,500 watched the pre-holiday show.

The triumph was the first ever for Cook at Jack Arute's track.

Starting in the 20th spot, Cook took the lead on the 133rd circuit from Jerry Dostie and held on to gain the checkered flag.

Finishing on Cook's bumper was Geoff Bodine with Steve Evanson third. Engine problems forced both Bugs Stevens and Ron Bouchard, Stafford's top two drivers this season, to the sidelines.

Nightingale To Head Up Youth Hockey Program

Officers have been named by the Manchester Youth Hockey Assn. for the 1974-75 season.

Named were Noel Nightingale, president; Frank Milka, vice president; Shari Butten, secretary; and Edward Fahey, treasurer.

Naming to the board of directors were Marty Stepper, Pat Daigle, Janet Conboy, Francis Tremmley, Clyde Miller and Bob Thulin.

Plans for the coming season were discussed. A four-team house league is planned for each age group and one traveling squad will be selected of high school age.

Rogel Noel was cited for having coached the Manchester entry which won the spring league at the Bolton Ice Palace with a record of 13 wins, two ties and two defeats. The winter squad capped 19 wins, lost twice and played five ties.

Four additional team sponsors are now being sought. Anyone interested may contact any of the officers or members of the board of directors.

Ninth Setback For MCC Nine

Finding the winning road hasn't been easy for the Community College entry in the Hartford Twilight Baseball League this season.

Last Wednesday night the locals dropped their ninth game in 10 starts by a 9-0 count to East Hartford at Bloomfield.

Don Driscoll, who toiled with the locals this spring, limited the locals to two singles, one each by Jim Lehan and Mike Pan-ciera.

The league will be idle until Monday night.

Moriarty's continue to pace the American Division with a 7-3 record.

SAM?... Sam Who?

"Who is this guy SAM anyway? That's just what I was expecting someone to shout at me over the phone, while I was conducting a survey to see just how many people in Manchester really know SAM. Summer Activities in Manchester, affectionately abbreviated SAM, was not mistaken for anyone's cousin, or the guy next door, however. In fact, about 80 per cent of the 50 persons from a random sampling knew just what SAM is."

In my survey, I asked the following questions:

1. Do you know what the initials, SAM, a youth program here in town stand for?
2. Are you aware of what the program does?
3. What age group does it reach?
4. Who is the program funded by?
5. How long has the program been in existence?
6. Have you ever gone to a SAM activity, or had children who did? (If so, what type of activity?)

For those of you who got stumped on the first question, you, like the 22 per cent polled who don't know SAM, are the ones we want to get acquainted with.

SAM is a program for youth, which operates during the summer months when young people need activities the most. It sponsors various types of educational and recreational programs.

Trotsky Assassination SAM Tuesday Film

Richard Burton and Alain Delon will play murder victim and murderer, respectively, in next Tuesday's SAM movie "The Assassination of Trotsky."

This true story of the murder of the Russian revolutionary Trotsky, shows drama at its peak. Leon Trotsky had been the arm of the Russian Revolution as much as Lenin was its head. Trotsky was more than an architect of the Red Army; he was also a brilliant theoretician, orator, and writer.

Jason, Trotsky's assassin, was prone to fits of passion once he arrived in Mexico City in 1941 to murder Trotsky. Both Delon as Jason, and Burton as Trotsky, provide a vivid insight into these two historical characters and give the audience 105 minutes of suspense and drama. In color, the movie is rated P.

"The Assassination of Trotsky," as do all SAM movies, will begin at dusk at Mt. Nebo Field.

SAM Courses Offer Wide Variety

If you enjoy quilting, needlepointing, house plant caring, bicycle repairing, pottery making, ceramic and multigrass, crocheting, crocheting, knitting, or tatting, then you're in luck. Courses in all of these are being offered by SAM this summer.

The patchwork quilting class will be held on Wednesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m., at the West Side Rec. It begins July 10, and will run for eight weeks. Class members, who will be making a small quilt, are asked to supply their own ironed and washed scrap cotton fabrics, needle and thread, sandpaper, sharp scissors, pins and tissue paper. Patterns will be supplied and there is no fee for the class. Registration may be made by calling the West Side Rec. 643-6765.

Tuesday, July 9, will be the first day of the combination crewel and needlepoint course. The class will meet from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at the West Side Rec. Made up of four weeks of each handcraft, crewel work will be done during the first half of the course. Materials needed include linen-like material, perian yarn, a chemic needle, a small wooden hoop, and a pen.

For the following four weeks of needlepointing, a canvas (10 mesh to the inch) will be needed. There will be no fee for this course and you may register by calling the West Side Rec. 643-6765.

Bicycle repair and care should be a lot easier after taking Jack McVeigh's class on Wednesday nights. The bicycle repair instruction class will begin July 10, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the West Side Rec. McVeigh, owner and operator of The Bike Shop on Spruce St., will be demonstrating repair techniques on a model bike. Those interested can register for the course by calling the SAM office at 643-2506.

Steel Funds Council Topic

VERNON

Whether the Town of Vernon would approve an additional payment of $45,000 to obtain the steel for construction of the addition to Rockville High School by Sept. 1, instead of the expected April 1975 date, will be decided at a special meeting of the Town Council, Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in the Memorial Building.

Robert Wehrli, a councilman and chairman of the town's Permanent Building Committee, explained to the June 17 meeting of the council why the steel for construction was being pre-bid and the council authorized Mayor Frank McCoy to sign a contract with Manchester Structural Steel Inc.

Pre-bidding of steel was sought because the building committee was informed that the delivery lags.

The Manchester firm was low bidder at $250,000 and as of the last council meeting delivery was promised for April 1975. The contractor said he was told he could expect delivery of the steel in February but it would then take another five, or six weeks to fabricate it.

Wehrli said it was later learned from Manchester Steel that the company would be able to obtain steel from a New York warehouse by Sept. 1 which would be six months ahead of the original scheduled delivery date.

The additional $45,000 charge Dr. Ramsdell is proposing, explained, because getting the steel from a warehouse would involve dealing with a middleman who would also have to make a profit.

Dr. Ramsdell is proposing that the building be rearranged to provide three executive offices, one large secretary's office, a reception area, a professional library, an administrative conference room and a Board of Education meeting room.

He also is proposing that this building provide four large areas with 25 spaces for supervisory personnel such as social worker, speech and hearing therapist and psychological examiners plus space for two secretaries and three small conference rooms.

The business and maintenance offices would also be housed in this building. This would include one executive office, secretarial space for 10 secretaries, a print room, business office storage space, an office for the dietitian and one for the supervisor of maintenance.

In building B Dr. Ramsdell proposes a large central supply area with 17,300 sq. ft. of space, a walk-in fireproof vault, a worker's lounge with a small kitchen, a rest room, a rest room, rest rooms and an appropriate communication system.

Money is still coming in from the "CONCORD Walk for the Hungry," which was conducted in the spring. Edwin Bartholomew, treasurer, said to date, $5,500 has been turned in and he expects returns to go over the $6,000 mark.

Church Services: Mrs. Ron Jackson of the Conference of Methodist Churches will be the guest layperson at the 9:30 a.m. worship service Sunday at the Rockville Methodist Church, Grove St.

Mrs. Jackson is active on all levels of programs in the Southern New England Conference of Methodist Churches which includes the states of Rhode Island and Massachusetts and the eastern part of Connecticut.

Mrs. Jackson's topic will be, "In the World or of the World?" J. Curtis Roberts will be guest soloist and his wife, will be guest organist. Wesley Thoin will conduct the service.

All three special guests are residents of Tolland.

Children's Hours: The Tolland Congregational Church will sponsor a series of children's hours, starting Tuesday, July 10, and continuing for four consecutive Wednesday afternoons.

The program, being conducted as a community service, will be open to all children age 3 through 6. The story hours will begin at 1 p.m. and will concern material of a general nature.

The programs will be conducted in the church library by Sue Elchaker, a teacher in the Community Nursery School. She will be assisted by church members.

Tennis Lessons: The Recreation Department will offer tennis lessons for boys and girls age 9 through 15, starting Tuesday at 9 a.m. Registrations will be accepted through Monday at the recreation office, Henry Park.

There will be separate classes for the boys and the girls. Classes will run Tuesday, Thursday and Friday for a two week period and will be conducted in two sessions.

The first two-week period will run from Monday through July 19. Lessons will cover backstroke, freestyle, crawl, and butterfly.

A fee of $3 per person will be charged. Tennis balls will be furnished free-of-charge. Judy Ball, who was women's champion at the Vernon Tennis Forum in 1973, will be the instructor.

Gardening

FRANK ATWOOD

Roses may last indefinitely, but asparagus has to be renewed from time to time. My garden book says new roots ought to be planted every 10 to 12 years so I can't complain because mine has definitely "run out" in 11 years. I've begun by cutting the asparagus stalks and the tall weeds that surround them with a rotary mower. I'll come to the digging job later.

Learned as a Girl
Mrs. Hughes, who was Katherine Arigoni of Glastonbury before her marriage, learned about gardening from her parents. Her father drove a school bus for a steady income but raised strawberries, raspberries, cauliflower and potatoes for extra cash.

She has more flowers and vegetable gardens now than on the farm in Glastonbury, but the vegetables are important. The first two or three of the tomatoes she expects to harvest have begun to turn from a dark to a pale green before they turn red. She has had lettuce for weeks and will soon have both green and red beans, although birds pulled some of her bean seeds out of the ground as soon as they sprouted, and some of them had to be replanted. The early tomatoes will be Jet Star. Later tomatoes are the big Beefsteak variety.

Going by a rule she learned from her father, she planted her Italian pole beans on June 20, the date of the new moon. They will produce beans with big yellow pods and she will cook them, pods and all, over steam. She has had garlic and onions from the garden and one crop of spinach. More has been planted for second crop. Soon some will be Swiss chard for greens. She will sell some of the Swiss chard blossom and produce seed. She saves her own seed also.

There have been mustard greens and broccoli raab. Squash vines are growing longer every day and she favors a kind called banana squash, which can be eaten when young as summer squash or allowed to ripen and used as winter squash.

Regular Care
The hybrid tea roses are each given a handful of fertilizer in early spring when the soil has warmed and then come their final pruning back to a healthy-looking but perhaps only a foot high. They are not removed, and then come their final pruning back to a healthy-looking but perhaps only a foot high. They are not removed, and then come their final pruning back to a healthy-looking but perhaps only a foot high.

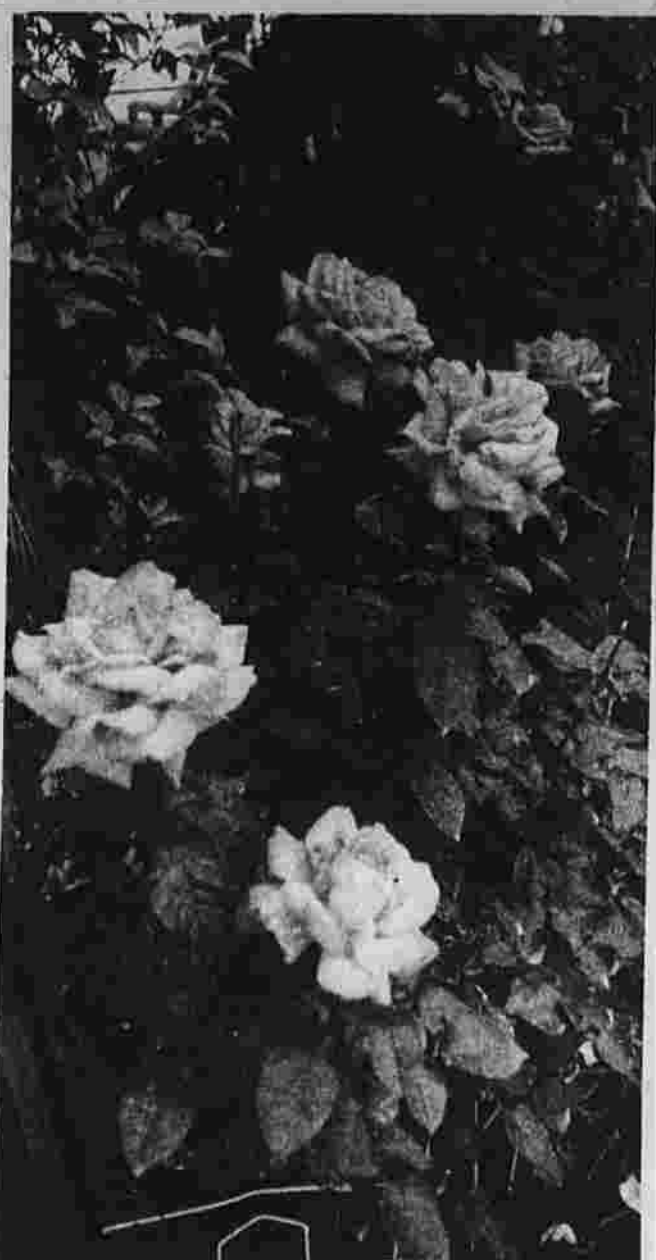

Mrs. Hughes took a few seconds for thought when I asked her to describe the color of her favorite rose. "There are really three roses in it," she said. "There is a deep salmon; then there is a lot of pink, and a yellow center."

There is an Italian plum tree and an apple tree that started with grafted limbs of five kinds of apples. One limb was broken, but there are still four. A wisteria and two kinds of clematis grow on trellises and on the fence at the back of the lot there are sweet peas. There are enough blueberry bushes to provide 175 pints by last year's record. Rhododendrons and mountain laurel occupy some shady areas.

Mrs. Hughes likes to propagate her own rhododendrons and andromeda. She brought some small dogwood trees from an area where bulldozers were clearing out the brush for a new highway. In the spring there also are iris, peonies and narcissus.

First Contribution To Ahearn Campaign An Eisenhower Dollar

BOLTON

Aloysius Ahearn, in his bid for the Democratic 55th Assembly District state representative seat, was once again reminded of the opposition when a friend, Alan Biardi of Bloomfield, gave him the first contribution to his campaign, an Eisenhower dollar.

One of Ahearn's supporters asked if Biardi was given a Kennedy half dollar in change. Ahearn plans to keep the silver dollar as a good luck piece in his quest to raise the costs of his campaign.

He said, "The silver dollar is worth about half what it was worth a few short years ago. It is symbolic of the change in our economic system. Like everyone else who watches his paycheck dwindle in buying power, I am disgusted with a system that allows the rich to get richer, the poor to get poorer and the middle class working person to pay for more than his fair share."

Ahearn said he would spend the silver dollar as part of a victory party when the state is given back to the people in November.

Biardi is a former member of the Army Reserve unit in which Ahearn serves. Ahearn has been in the reserves since World War II.

He is a major. He served in WW II and was recalled to duty during the Korean Conflict.

He is presently serving as chairman of the Bolton Finance Board and was recently re-elected to a second term by the members of the Tolland County Democratic Association.

Ahearn is urging all citizens to attend the upcoming rally on utilities.

Ahearn said all citizens concerned with the skyrocketing utilities increase should attend the public rally, Monday at noon at the Bushnell Park in Hartford.

The Public Utility Commission hearing on the rate hike will begin at the State Capitol at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

It is important that concerned citizens be present to express their feelings, Ahearn said.

As I am leaving for Army Reserve in Virginia Sunday, I will be unable to attend but I want to add my voice to those who are upset about the utility rate increase," he added.

Six gubernatorial candidates including Ella Grasso, Nicholas Puccio and Robert Steele, as well as Robert Killian, Democratic lieutenant governor hopeful, will speak on the proposed hike.

The rally is being sponsored by a number of organizations including the Connecticut Citizens Action Group, Senior Citizens Council and the Connecticut Council of Churches.

Ahearn is urging all citizens to attend the upcoming rally on utilities.

Ahearn said all citizens concerned with the skyrocketing utilities increase should attend the public rally, Monday at noon at the Bushnell Park in Hartford.

The Public Utility Commission hearing on the rate hike will begin at the State Capitol at 10:30 a.m. Monday.

It is important that concerned citizens be present to express their feelings, Ahearn said.

As I am leaving for Army Reserve in Virginia Sunday, I will be unable to attend but I want to add my voice to those who are upset about the utility rate increase," he added.

Six gubernatorial candidates including Ella Grasso, Nicholas Puccio and Robert Steele, as well as Robert Killian, Democratic lieutenant governor hopeful, will speak on the proposed hike.

The rally is being sponsored by a number of organizations including the Connecticut Citizens Action Group, Senior Citizens Council and the Connecticut Council of Churches.

The St. Maurice Council Knights of Columbus recently held a Past Grand Knights Night at the St. Maurice Parish Center.

Past Grand Knights Pierre Archambault and Raymond Cocconi were honored and presented awards for their past efforts and services to the council.

The K of C also presented an award to Henry Ryba for his services to the council.

Mrs. Carol Zapadka accepted an award on behalf of the Bolton Junior Woman's Club for its services to the community.

Mrs. Zapadka is president of the club.

Following the presentation of award the K of C installed its officers for the coming year.

The installation was presided over by John Fitzpatrick, district deputy of the Knights of Columbus. He was assisted by Francis Maffie, also a district deputy.

Officers installed were: Gil Boissonneau, Grand Knight; Joseph Leitza, deputy grand knight; John Roberts, chancellor; Roger Bolduc, warden; Edward Zakowski, financial secretary; Raymond Cocconi, recorder; Edward Desjardins, treasurer; Atty. Robert Hannabury, advocate; Lucien Brodeur, inside guard.

Arms Stolen From Armory

COMPTON, Calif. (UPI) — Hundreds of rifles, machine guns, shotguns, grenade launchers and ammunition have been stolen from an unguarded National Guard armory in Compton, police reported today.

Police detectives, FBI agents, and military officials who discovered the theft Thursday night said it was not immediately known what time the break-in occurred.

The facility had been locked up Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. and military units returned at 10 p.m. Thursday night after taking part in an Independence Day parade.

Among the weapons stolen were 70 M16 machine guns, 80 M16 rifles, eight grenade launchers, 190 bayonets, 40 grenades, 100 riot grenades, 75 gas masks and thousands of rounds of ammunition.

Police said the thieves gained entry to the armory by smashing in a side door of the one-story stucco building. They then unscrewed bolts from security hasps to a supply room and broke the door.

The intruders used power drills to open the weapons vault, which contained all of the firearms, then apparently hauled the arms away in trucks.

No suspects were in custody. Col. Andrew Wolf, state information officer for the state Military Department, said it was not unusual for the armory to be left unguarded.

Wolf said it was "monstrously impossible" to maintain 24-hour watch of National Guard armories which are currently in the process of having electronic intruder devices installed.

He said the Compton armory, however, had not yet been equipped with the devices.

Judge Ordered Newsman Freed

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Radio station manager Will Lewis, jailed for refusing to give the FBI the original of a tape recording by Patricia Hearst, has been ordered released from federal prison by Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas.

Douglas Wednesday ruled that "substantial First Amendment claims" had been raised on Lewis' behalf, enough to justify his release on bail and recognition. At the federal correctional institution on Terminal Island here, officials said they were waiting for a written order that would set Lewis free.

The order was expected to come today.

Lewis, the 42-year-old general manager of station KPFK, was jailed for contempt by U.S. District Court Judge A. Andrew Haik June 19, after he refused to surrender the tape or answer grand jury questions.

The recording, found in a rubbish area behind the station June 7, contained messages from Miss Hearst and Symphonie Liberation Army members William and Emily Barja.

The station turned over a copy of the tape to the FBI, but withheld the original, which authorities said they needed to check for fingerprints and to try to trace where it came from.

Lewis argued that giving up the tape would turn KPFK into an arm of law enforcement, endangering the free flow of information from persons who would no longer trust the station.

REAL ESTATE CORNER

By RALPH PASEK
Henry George, the great and generous British sage, once wrote: "The ownership of land is the basis of aristocracy." And how true, for you will never feel more pride of ownership, more exaltation, more exhilaration than the first time you walk over your first piece of land, be it a lot, an acre, or a whole country. Henry George felt sure, however, that land was so vital and so valuable that individuals should not be allowed to own it. How lucky we are that George's philosophy is not the accepted way of life in America. Fine land is available to all. Real estate is truly a tremendous asset. It can be seen, felt, walked on, dug into, and sat upon. It is a wonderful asset.

Shaw Work Pleasant Choice for Summer Theatre III

By JUNE TOMPKINS

George Bernard Shaw put his play "Arms and the Man" in the "Pleasant" volume of the two volumes which he published in 1894 called "Plays: Pleasant and Unpleasant."

It is a pleasant choice for Summer Theatre III's second showing of the season.

A typical Shawian creation, it illustrates Shaw's ability to satirize, to invent comic situations, and to create comic characters.

The play was presented in a series of three well designed and most attractive sets occupied by characters in beautifully created costumes of the 1880s in Bulgaria.

Shaw, in his comedy, discusses the absurdity of war, heroism and romantic love with obvious tongue in cheek.

Captain Bluntschli, played by J.D. Dunning, portrays a practical coward somewhat suggestive of the lion in "Wizard of Oz." A sword swinging escapee from the raging battle behind him, he is easily assuaged with chocolate cream offered him by the damsel in whose bedroom he seeks refuge.

On the other hand, Sergius Saranoff, played by Gentry Cooke is the dashing, handsome, swashbuckling hero in battle who, though betrothed to the Bulgarian major's daughter, indulges in extra curricular flirtation with the maid.

Voter Sessions Set Next Week

Manchester's registrars of voters have scheduled voting-making sessions on three days next week, at several locations on Downtown Main St.

July 11, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. at Harrison's Stationers, 849 Main St., and Fairway Department Store, 975 Main St.

July 12, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Harrison's and Fairway.

July 13, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Harrison's, at Fairway, and at the Arts and Crafts Fair in Center Park.

Also, Norma Paggioli, 186 Henry St.; Kelly Moore, East Glastonbury; Michelle Dussault, East Hartford; Michelle LaRose, East Hartford; Merle Jones, 125 Parker St.

Discharged Thursday: Laurie Bashaw, 46 Woodstock Dr.; George Arnold, RFD 1, Andover; Emory Rivers, Rt. 44, Coventry; Lynette Maxwell, 80 Fairfield St.; Linda Gardner, Hebron Rd.; Andover; Michael Devine, Lake Rd.; Coventry; Gale Marston, 77 Carmen Rd.; Marguerite LaFlamme, 17 Cumberland St.; Helen Leowall, 179 E. Center St.; Also, Angeline McCormack, 41 McGrath Rd., South Windsor; Carol Willis, 28 Strong St.; Blanche Clay, Glastonbury; Geraldine Smith, East Hartford; Mary Yacono, 9 Campbell Ave.; Vernon; Anna Glubosky, 2A Bluefield Dr.; Bess Waldman, 51A Sycamore Lane; Eleanor Wojcik, 59 W. Middle Pike; Carol Bloudeau, East Hartford.

Also, Mary Headen, Stafford Springs; Maryann Courley, 44 Croft Dr.; Carole Adams, Gaulin Rd., Columbia; Ann Dreisbach, 85 Croft Dr.; William Manning, 60 Spencer St.; Scott Altus, 32 Verwood Dr.; Vernon; Gail Robert, 142 Lydall St.; Albert Hewitt, 77 West St.

Captain Bluntschli may lose out in war, but in the end, he eventually wins the major's daughter and, as a Swiss, impresses the others with his status in his country. He accounts for his material possessions, which are impressive, and is asked by the major if he has a title. Most appropriately for our Independence Day and the play's opening night, Bluntschli replies he has the highest title of all, "a free citizen."

The comely major's daughter, Raina, is attractively portrayed by Deborah Thomas who displays her charms effectively to both the captain and Sergius, her betrothed.

Mili Sylvestri, who was seen last year in Summer Theatre III's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" was the properly cultured major's wife who successfully carried out a convincing scheme with her daughter, Raina, to hide evidence of Captain Bluntschli's hideaway in their home and escape. Anne Scurlia was Louka, the maid, who knew more than she told of the romantic goings-on and eventually won the heart of Sergius.

The very dignified major was played to the hilt by Bruno Utley.

Brian McEleneay gave a splendid and impressive portrayal of Nicola, the valet, although it was a supporting role.

Charles Alan Fiese, Summer Theatre III's producer, directs

MANCHESTER, CONN., SATURDAY, JULY 6, 1974 — VOL. XCIII, No. 235

Town Gets Main Street At No Cost

The state Department of Transportation (DOT) has agreed to turn over control of Manchester's downtown Main St. to the town at no cost, Town Manager Robert Weiss reported after a Friday negotiating session at the Municipal Building.

The tentative agreement was reached Friday with the understanding that the town will perform necessary maintenance on the street, Weiss said.

The town would take the road "as is," Weiss said.

The agreement reached Friday was actually a "trade-off," participants in the one-hour negotiations said.

Mayor John Thompson said Deputy DOT Commissioner George Koch acknowledged a state responsibility to upgrade the drainage system, but the takeover agreement provides that the town perform the drainage improvements because the state is abandoning its request for town payment of $25,000 for new traffic signals installed last fall.

Weiss said the drainage improvements, which would include replacement of several catch basins and upgrading of storm sewers, will be necessary "fairly soon" and are estimated to cost about $25,000.

Town takeover of downtown Main St., a state highway (Rt. 8), is contingent upon approval of the town's Board of Directors.

Weiss will formally present a report on the tentative agreement Tuesday night, and board action on the agreement is expected before Sept. 1.

In reporting on Friday's negotiations, Weiss and Thompson pointed out that the state had no plans to make improvements to the Main St. roadway for some time.

Koch reportedly told town officials that he had inspected the street before the Friday meeting and said the street is in "good shape."

Tom Harris, 17, of 51 Brookfield Rd., Bolton could not make it through the flooded rear parking area of the Manchester Parkade. Here he and friends try to figure out what to do. The water level did not go high enough to flood any of the stores as it did during a less severe storm last summer. Repair of storm sewers and the digging of the nearby brook apparently made the difference. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Supports Probe

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, sharply critical of President Nixon during its five-day convention, settled for a low-key resolution Friday supporting the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment investigation.

Suspect 'Pleased'

ATLANTA (UPI) — Marcus Wayne Chenail, the accused killer of Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr., apparently is pleased with his actions because of the emotional heartbreak he inflicted on the King family although he missed his prime target, his lawyer said Friday.

More Traveling

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (UPI) — President Nixon may travel to Japan in August, according to White House aides, and he is contemplating another European swing this fall.

Hearing Scheduled

HARTFORD (UPI) — Hearings on rate increases requested by the Hartford Electric Light Co. and the Connecticut Light and Power Co. are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Monday by the state Public Utilities Commission. The hearings are expected to last several weeks.

Leveled Off

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government says unemployment virtually has leveled off, and veterans and prospective homebuyers seeking federally secured home loans will have to pay higher mortgage rates in the future.

Completes Week

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — President Maria Estela Peron completed her first week as Argentina's chief executive today with new pledges of support from the nation's leaders.

The only utility pipe left intact after this Woodbridge St. washout near the Manchester Green is this gas line. The sewage and water lines were severed. The water line problem was corrected by town workmen quickly but the sewage line was being worked on well into the morning. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Oil Truck Runs Off Highway in Bolton

A tractor-trailer carrying diesel oil was traveling west on Rt. 6 in Bolton this morning when it ran off the right side of the highway near South Rd., knocking down guide posts and a utility pole. The accident happened about 7:45 and members of the Bolton Volunteer Fire Department were on hand in case of fire. The accident knocked out power in that section of Bolton, and a spokesman for HESCO said that power would be restored early this afternoon. Eugene Harding, driver of the vehicle, was taken by ambulance to Manchester Memorial Hospital where he was treated at the emergency room and released. Emanuel Hirth, general manager of Central Connecticut Gas Association of Manchester, owner of the truck, said the tractor portion was a total loss but the trailer portion is probably salvageable. # Storm Hits Area Hard

By MAL BARLOW

About 10 feet of water was reported on Hawthorne St. Lightning struck a home at 380 Vernon St. A fire was reported on Alexander St. as well as on Fleming and Woodland Sts. and Cedar St.

The area damaged the worst appeared to be on Woodbridge St. near Manchester Green where an overflowing brook washed out the road and took with it water and sewage lines.

Mayor Jack Thompson, called to the scene by area residents, said Woodbridge St. is "a bad situation."

For some time Friday, the water main added to the flooding. When town crews stopped the flow, they had a more serious problem on their hands, the sewage lines. The sewage flow could not be stopped for some time. The town had ordered pipe to correct the problem, the mayor said. But for many hours Friday, the sewage came out of the pipe and into the brook.

Despite these problems, the mayor noted the area residents were in a festive mood.

Temporary Respite

"The reason is that they've had their share of trucks and traffic on the street," the mayor explained. "At least now they'll have a temporary respite."

Walter Senkow, town engineer, said this morning the Woodbridge St. washout is comparable in scope, potential repair problems, and cost to the Olcott St. bridge washout a year ago. That cost more than $100,000 before fully repaired.

The mayor added several area people could see the roadway beginning to give way Friday and became alarmed for motorists crossing the road at the brook. One man ran up the street to the first intersection and began signaling people to go other ways. Some people drove around him anyway and went over the crumbling road.

Another man went down the street to the first intersection and had no better luck. People wanted to go through and would not listen.

Police finally sealed off the road.

Motorists throughout the Manchester area were stranded in high spots waiting for flooding on streets to subside. Many people were returning from Hartford after working or shopping Friday. Traffic was heavy.

Areas especially bad included Center St. by the railroad overpass, W. Middle Pike, by the Parkade, Summit St. at several points, the corner of Hillard and Adams Sts., and many more spots.

Downed power lines, causing power outages in many towns and loss of telephone service in New Britain.

Lightning Kills Boy

Lightning struck and killed a 12-year-old Brookfield boy on a small island on Candlewood Lake in New Milford, the only death reported from the electric storm which hit Connecticut Friday.

Walter Novak III was reported dead on arrival at New Milford Hospital at about 3:30 p.m.

Police said the boy and his father were in a boat when the thunderstorm started, and they sought refuge on the island. The father, who was struck in the leg and stunned by the lightning bolt which killed his son, regained consciousness and put the boy in the boat and brought him to the hospital, police said.

The storm, which brought hail, heavy rain and lightning to the state, also:

- Smashed the windshield of a Trans World Airlines 747 jumbo jet landing at Bradley International Airport in Windsor Locks.
- Started a fire which damaged the second floor of a two-story dormitory at the Calbro Tobacco Co. summer farm labor camp in Windsor.
- Downed power lines, causing power outages in many towns and loss of telephone service in New Britain.

Connors Wins Tennis Crown At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Jimmy Connors, ignoring the hostility of the crowd and playing power tennis at its very best, blew sentimental favorite Ken Rosewall off the court in straight sets 6-1, 6-1, 6-4 today to become the youngest Wimbledon champion in 18 years.

Judge Orders Kissinger To Be Ready to Testify

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell ordered Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger Friday to be prepared to testify next week in the conspiracy and perjury trial of former presidential adviser John D. Ehrlichman.

In addition to charges he conspired to deprive Fielding of his civil rights, Ehrlichman is charged with lying to a grand jury by first saying he knew nothing in advance about a CIA psychiatric profile on Ellsberg, and then admitting he initiated a discussion of the profile before the burglary.

The White House "plumbers" unit broke into Fielding's office in a fruitless search for information that might damage Ellsberg's reputation.

The CIA doctor, Bernard Malloy, said he was told by plumbers conductor David R. Young that Kissinger and Ehrlichman had ordered the Ellsberg psychiatric profile and that he was told Nixon knew about it. Malloy said that despite the fact the CIA previously had never made such a profile of an American citizen, except once when one was being held by a foreign power, the agency went ahead.

About three weeks after the conversation with Young, the plumbers entered Fielding's office.

Defense lawyer William S. Frates told reporters he was not sure whether the would call Assistant Attorney General Henry E. Petersen as a witness after Gesell implied he did not think that would be a good move.
