Economic Crisis

The central issue of today's economic crisis is money and those who control it. Americans caught in the squeeze of rising costs and vanishing jobs are mindful of the symptoms of distress which preceded the crash of 1929. Then as now, the people who confronted by a shrinking dollar, leaping interest rates, a skidding stock market, and, in the final days, evaporation of business capital with

Then, as now, the people were assured by elected officials, and by so-called "financial experts", that the economy was sound. The American taxpayer who bears the agony of economic crisis has the right to know who decides whether the United States will be prosperous or is to be plunged into a new depression in 1974. Historical roots of planned economic panic lead to the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. In violation of their oath of office members of Congress, Dec. 23, 1913. transferred power to coin and regulate the value of U.S. money from the Congress to the Federal Reserve System, a private banking "elite" whose sick-brained policies have spawned depression, war and revolution. ## WHY I WOULD LIKE TO look forward to meeting each of you and hope that I will be able to answer your questions. After we have personally met, I hope that you will be better able to decide on my qualifications to continue to handle your sensitive family and personal matters which come to the probate court.

Nine years ago the framers of our present State Constitution decided that each Judge of Probate should periodically stand for re-election. In the last election campaign I met many of you when I called at your homes. Since then, I have met many of you in the Probate Court. In order to meet those of you whom I have not yet met, I am visiting homes in neighborhoods I did not visit before.

VISIT YOUR HOME

"He has a younger and stronger arm and can probably bounce back day after day if he has to." Cuellar, the crafty 37-year-old veteran who produced a 22-10 record, will be pitching Saturday with only two days of rest after being shelled in the Birds' season ending 5-4 victory in Detroit on Wednesday. But Weaver said he'd rather see Cuellar pitch with only two days off than have too much rest.

"He did that after the All-Star break in July and lost three straight," Weaver said. "Too much time off doesn't work to his advantage." McNally who posted a 16-13 record this year, has won more games than any pitcher in Oriole history with a lifetime mark of 181-113. McNally has been bothered by coming season. Marty Stepper reports there will be three nagging injuries this year but did not miss a single start all season and lately has been throwing better than in years.

"I like to adjust myself to the talent I have, not adjust my players to me. I want them to go out and be loose. The most difficult part of the job will be getting to know them. Robinson, claimed on waivers about three weeks ago from the California Angels will make about $173,000 next year as player-manager. He succeeds Ken Aspromonte, fired last week after leading the Tribe to fourth place in the American League East with a 77-85 record, the team's best finish in six years.

And despite their shouting match last Friday night, both Robinson and Gaylord Perry insisted Thursday they can play together. Perry's angry demand for "$1 more in salary than Robinson receives" triggered the quarrel.

> "Gaylord is a real pro and a real competitor and so am I," Robinson said. "Provided he's satisfied with his contract, I don't see any reason why he can't pitch here. But that's a matter for Mr. (General Manager Phil) Seghi-of course." "I will be most happy to play for

Van Brocklin on Thin Ice, counter with a ball control type offense, revolving Must Beat Giants Sunday

NEW YORK (UPI) - National Football League action Sunday will mark the beginning of one coaching career and perhaps the end of

The beginning belongs to Joe Thomas- who adds the head coaching job to his general manager role with he Baltimore Colts. Thomas replaces Howard Schnellenberger, fired last Sunday after harsh words with owner quarterback the team

The man in trouble is Norm Van Brocklin. His Atlanta Falcons considered to be the top opposition for Los Angeles in the National Conference West, have dropped all three games. Sunday's struggle with the New York Giants at New Haven, Conn., could be the Dutchman's last if things don't start turning around soon. Van Brocklin's task might be easier

Baltimore, which has lost its first three games is loaded with first and second year players and must face a New England team that is playing probably the best ball in the league. The Patriots are 3-0, including wins over mighty Miami and Los Angeles and are looking like the powerhouse they were in the early days of the AFL

Atlanta, however, takes on a Giant team that has been erratic. The Giant offense collapsed in their opening loss to Washington, the defense folded in a defeat at the hands of New England and then both played brilliantly in an upset of Dallas last week.

Also, the Falcons have basically the same team that barely missed the playoffs last season. The big problem has been at quarterback, where Bob Lee has been unable to find the magic he generated last season and has been benched in favor of Pat Sullivan, the former Heisman Trophy winner from New England is a 14-point favorite while the Giants are four-point picks.

In other NFL games Sunday St.

Louis is at San Francisco, Minnesota

at Dallas Washington at Cincinnati. Buffalo at Green Bay Denver at Kansas City Oakland at Cleveland, Detroit at Los Angeles Pittsburgh at Houston, Philadelphia at San Diego and New Orleans at Chicago. The New York Jets are at Miami Monday night. One of the big games will be at San Francisco, where two surprising clubs tangle. St. Louis is 3-0 and first in the NFC East while San Francisco is tied with Los Angeles for the NFC West lead. Minnesota, the only other unbaten team besides New England and St. Louis- faces a Dallas team smarting from back-to-back upset losses to Philadelphia and the Giants. Washington is at Cincinnati in another game which will have a major effect on division titles. Washington is looking to capitalize on Cowboy failures in the NFC East while Cincinnati tries to get a jump on Pittsburgh in AFC Central.

THE CANDIDATES ARE SAYING

Hellier: Gun Laws Adequate

Gun control laws now on the books are adequate to assure public safety, if the laws are properly enforced, says State Sen. Sam Hellier.

The Second District Republican congressional candidate said he does not favor adding more federal gun control legislation.

"I believe it is the province of the individual state, based upon the needs of its citizens and the character of the state, to legislate its own gun control laws," Hellier said.

If enforced, Hellier said federal gun control laws now seem to be sufficiently strong to control the interstate sales of weapons.
"One of the major features of Connecticut's laws is the provision for a one-week cooling-off period between the purchase and delivery of a handgun," he

The meetings were originally held on Tuesday evenings but due to many couples having trouble getting baby sitters the meeting time was changed to the last Saturday of the month. In January, 1949 Dr. and Mrs. two as charter members and Olmsted were elected to jointly hold the office of president. It was the first time in the history of Bolton that a couple was elected to head an organibation. Other original officers were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, vice president; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Tuttle, secretary and treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, membership, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Vaughn, publicity.

Initially at each rheeting a refreshment and program committee was appointed to plan to plan the next month's function.

The original name of the club, Young Married Couples Club, was changed to Bolton Married Couples Club, nicknamed BoMarCo, as there is and never ment for membership is to be a married couple.

The present officers of BoMarCo are Frank and Claire Major, president and vice president; and Ed and Eileen Delsignore, secretary and treasurer.

The club begins its year in January and programs for the entire year are set up at that time. A new slate of officers takes over in January and is installed at an annual ham dinner. The secretary and treasurer usually become club president and vice president.

The club presently has 26 couples as members.

Functions for October and November are a card party and a theatre party, respectively. The club does not meet in July or December because of vacations and holidays.
