If Rate Request Is Granted

Grasso Threatens Court Action

HARTFORD (UPI) — Democratic gubernatorial contender Ella T. Grasso today said she would take the state Public Utilities Commission to court if the matter of overcharges is not resolved before new rate hikes are granted.

Mrs. Grasso also told newsmen that any income tax surcharge proposed by President Ford should have a cut-off at a higher level than has been suggested so far. "It is incredible to ask the people who have been making all the sacrifices to make still more sacrifices," Mrs. Grasso said.

Strangely Defensive

Mrs. Grasso said all rate increases should be denied until the matter of $19 million in overcharges is resolved.

Mrs. Grasso said, who displayed before newsmen a full-page Connecticut Light and Power Co. newspaper ad denying it has overcharged its customers said the firm is taking a "strangely defensive posture."

"I think they do protest too much," she said. "The utilities apparently have chosen to be the protector of the PUC."

Mrs. Grasso, who commissioned a study of the overcharges based on figures submitted to the PUC by the utilities, says the total overcharged by the state's three major power companies is $19 million.

Blames PUC

She said she is blaming the PUC and not the utilities for the overcharges since the commission has failed to act on the information submitted by the firms.

The commission has until Thursday to announce its findings in the rate hikes sought by CL&P and Hartford Electric Light Co. The two, subsidiaries of Northeast Utilities have applied for $59.2 million in rate hikes.

To assist in the construction of $5.8 billion in new generating capacity Mrs. Grasso proposed a bonding program which she said would save an estimated $900 million in finance costs over the next 11 years.

Mrs. Grasso said if the rate hikes are granted before the overcharge question is resolved, she would take the matter to court.

Must Restore Integrity

"Competence and integrity must be restored to public utility regulation," she said.

Anti-Inflation Plan to Stress Self-Discipline

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Ford has made the major decisions on his anti-inflation message, which one White House aide said will ask for "restraint, self-discipline and sacrifice" from all sectors of the nation.

The proposals will be presented Tuesday in a speech to Congress.

Ford's goals are to curtail inflation, head off a recession, reverse the U.S. dependence on foreign oil, revive a depressed housing industry, bring interest rates down, stimulate the stock market, help power companies expand, shelter the worst victims — from inflation's pains and keep the Republicans from taking a shellacking in next month's elections.

Time Magazine said Sunday that the economic proposals would include a 5 percent surtax on individual income taxes for persons in higher income brackets and on corporations.

The plan, according to Time, also would provide some form of tax relief for low-income families, expand public-service employment programs, provide federal financial aid for the mortgage market, new energy conservation measures and propose a $5 billion cut in the federal budget.

New Yorker Accused Of Waterbury Murders

NEW YORK (UPI) — Murray Gold was arrested Sunday night and charged with the Sept. 26 murder of an elderly Waterbury, Conn., couple who were the parents of his estranged wife.

A police spokesman said Gold, of the Queens section of New York, was arrested at 11:30 p.m. by Waterbury police, accompanied by New York City homicide detectives in connection with the fatal stabbing of Irving and Rhoda Pasternak.

Gold is the estranged husband of Barbara Pasternak, a daughter of the slain couple, authorities said.

WEATHER

Becoming partly cloudy today with a chance of showers this afternoon. High 70 to 75. Clear and cool tonight with the low mostly in the 40s. Sunny and cool Tuesday with the high 60 to 65.

"We must, once and for all, reinstate the public as the true regulator of the state's utilities" she said.

On the income tax question, Mrs. Grasso said that it appears that middle income families earning between $7,000 and $15,000 would be asked to bear the added burden of an income tax surcharge on top of double digit inflation.

Last week, Mrs. Grasso called for the abolition of the PUC, which would be replaced by a utility regulatory authority.

Connecticut Light and Power is seeking a $36.2 million rate hike, and Hartford Electric Light is seeking $23 million. The two supply power to 75 per cent of the state.

CL&P- HELCO and United Illuminating Co. have denied they overcharged customers $19 million over three years through the controversial fuel cost adjustments.

Formula Not Challenged

They have not challenged, however, claims that they computed the adjustments using a formula which did not reflect increased efficiency and lower costs in producing and delivering electricity.

Northeast Utilities has admitted it used outdated efficiency figures but said the PUC allowed it to do so.

United Illuminating Saturday denied it overcharged its customers and said its fuel charge computations have been in accordance with the formula prescribed by the state PUC.

Northeast said even with the lower than actual efficiency figure, it continues to lose money and warned that without sufficient revenues, reliable service to homes, offices, factories and farms "will be a thing of the past."

Losses Cited

In the advertisement published in a number of state newspapers, Northeast said it "actually failed to recover from June 1, 1973, through last June 30, about $16 million" because of the two month time lag which must pass before utilities can charge the customers.

The Northeast statement did not identify Mrs. Grasso by name, but said, "We know it's sometimes tempting to run for political office against the utilities and always tempting to run against higher prices. But, to best serve Connecticut, let's keep our eye on the real problems."

Northeast, the largest utility operation in New England, said "when all the facts are put on the table, it becomes clear" that its companies complied fully with the law and actually lost revenues in the process.

Newington Woman Dies of Injuries

Mrs. Tabitha J. Duchesneau, 18, of Newington was killed Sunday at 2:50 a.m. as the result of a collision of a motorcycle and car at the intersection of W. Center and McKee Sts.

Mrs. Duchesneau was a passenger on the motorcycle operated by her husband, Thomas C. Duchesneau, 22, of Newington. She was taken by Manchester Ambulance to Manchester Memorial Hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

No Other Injuries

No other injuries were reported in the accident. The driver of the car was Lorea G. Tacey, 18, of Windsor. Her three passengers were Susan Ford, 18, and Joyce Erickson, 18, both of Windsor, and John Wollenberg, 19, of 154 Hilliard St.

The Tacey vehicle was towed from the scene although it had only slight damage to the front end.

Police are still investigating the accident.

33rd Motorcycle Victim

Mrs. Duchesneau was the state's 33rd motorcycle fatality of the year and one of nine people to die this weekend due to accidents on state roads.

The names of the others and where they died are:

Christopher Gulet, 4, of Woodbury Sunday near his home; he was struck by a car.

Thaddeus Jazwinski, 45, and Bronislaw Laskarzewski, 56, both of New Britain late Saturday near their homes, in a head-on crash.

William S. Dillon, 24, of Norwalk Saturday in Norwalk, he was on a motorcycle which crashed with a car.

Steven A. Gagnon, 2, of East Canaan Saturday in front of his home when hit by a car.

Dies of Injuries

Richard Hoffman, 64, of Darien died Saturday due to injuries he suffered on the Merritt Parkway in a Sept. 8 accident in which his wife was killed.

Philip D. Rose, 32, of Storrs and Sharon K. McMahon, 19, of Willimantic Friday in Rocky Hill; their car struck a truck which was headed the wrong way on I-91.

Luke Manning, 5, of Ashford Friday in front of his home when struck by a car.

In other mishaps:

Albert Knorr, 53, of Milford was killed Saturday at his summer home in Sanborn, N.H. when a tree he was cutting fell on him.

Steven West, 28, of East Hartford drowned Thursday night after a boating mishap off Bartlett's Reef in Waterford.

Dorothy Hartwell, 78, of Old Mystic was killed when a fire gutted her mobile home, police said.

PZC Members Face Heavy Work Agenda

The Manchester Planning and Zoning Commission (PZC) faces a lengthy business meeting agenda of several controversial items but only one public hearing for its session tonight at 7:30 in the Municipal Building Hearing Room.

The lone public hearing will air a request by the East Center Street Corp. for a zone change on property at the corner of E. Center St. and Lenox St.

The applicant, owner of a small shopping center on the site, is seeking a change from Business 1 to Business 3 Zone. Planning officials expected that rezoning is sought to permit a department store on the site (department stores are among the wider range of uses allowed in Business 3 Zones).

Among pending business on the agenda for tonight's meeting:

• E. Steve Pearl's request for Residence M Zone on a 1 1/2-acre site off Woodland St., to allow construction of 16 apartment units. Area residents opposed the application at a September public hearing.

• Charles Ponticelli's request for a Residence M Zone to allow construction of additional apartments on his 3.8-acre site off Hollister St. Heavy opposition to the rezoning surfaced at a September public hearing.

• Jarvis Realty's application for rezoning to Residence B to allow construction of two-family housing on a 15-acre tract on Wetherell St. PZC action apparently hinges on availability of utilities in the vicinity.

• FM Estates' application for a five-lot subdivision at Parker and Mather Sts.

• Proposed amendments to town zoning regulations which would ease restrictions on liquor-serving rules for large, bona fide restaurants. The PZC is expected to table the matter to seek further information.

• Parkway Corp.'s application for CUD (Comprehensive Urban Development) Zone for a 105-acre, mixed-use project off Slater St. on property now occupied by the Red Rock Golf Course. Tonight's meeting is the deadline for PZC action on the request, which was the subject of a public hearing in June.

Updated reports on developer W. Harry England's request for rezoning to allow a shopping center on five acres of land at Manchester Green. A recessed public hearing on the application — first heard in July — was scheduled to resume tonight but has been postponed to December so the PZC can get more data on the traffic situation.

The statement said oil in 1969 cost $1.81 a barrel, compared to the 1974 price per barrel of $13, a price set "by oil suppliers assigned to us by federal oil allocation regulations."

It said that when the PUC established the fuel adjustment formula in 1970, Northeast submitted a proposal that would automatically adjust monthly to reflect plus or minus efficiency.

But the PUC decided to use a "fixed" efficiency rating which was updated in 1972 to reflect actual experience during 1971 according to Northeast.

The company said it proposed to the PUC last May, as part of the rate increase cases sought by Connecticut Light & Power Co. and Hartford Electric Light Co., two subsidiaries, that the entire fuel adjustment formula be revised to more nearly reflect the actual cost of producing and delivering a kilowatt hour.

True Costs Not Covered

Northeast said the true cost of operating utility companies is "not being recovered in present electric bills" forcing the companies to seek rate increases.

Northeast said it has had to cut construction expenditures for this year by $53 million and operating costs by $10 million.

The deteriorating financial situation has caused it to suspend plans to build two nuclear units in Montague, Mass., and may cause a delay in a third nuclear unit at Millstone Point in Waterford, Conn., Northeast said.

New Haven Workers Continue Clean-Up Of Crude Oil Spill

NEW HAVEN (UPI) — Officials say little can be done about the crude oil that has washed up on shore, but contractors worked today to pick up 60,000 gallons contained offshore after a tanker accident.

The 550-foot Greek tanker Messiniaki Bergen spilled 100,000 gallons early Sunday after two or three of its oil tanks burst, although official reports on the cause of the leaks were conflicting.

Some Coast Guard officials said the tanks burst after the tanker ran aground on a breakwater at the entrance of the harbor, while others said the incident occurred when the ship hit something on the sea bottom while moving on the main entrance channel.

Treatment Plant Reflections

Reflected in the water of a filtering pool at the renovated Cooper Hill Water Treatment plant is the Wilfried Riesterer family of Hubbard Dr., Vernon, formerly of Manchester.

Explaining the various pools and the myriad of pipes and meters is Norman McKee, an engineering aide for the water department.

Renovated Cooper Hill Plant Formally Opened

Several families in the west side of town who had protested against the water quality there in recent years were present Saturday to officially open the renovated Cooper Hill Water Treatment Plant.

Mrs. Vivian Ferguson of Forest St., a town director, took the first glass of water from a tap in the plant and said, "It's fine."

Everyone else who toured the facility guided by water department employees appeared impressed with the massive new pipes, tanks, control panels and other pieces involved in filtering and purifying the water. Much of the water comes from the Globe Hollow Reservoir.

Built in 1913

The plant was first built by the Cheney Bros. in 1913 to supply clean water to their silk factories. The town bought it in 1956 and expanded its use to serve much of the west side of town.

The water's taste, odor and color deteriorated badly in the late 1960s. Area residents protested vigorously for improvements.

In November, 1972, town voters approved a bond issue mainly to improve the Cooper Hill plant. Over $700,000 has been spent to date, some of it going for new instruments and electrical equipment at each of the department's four major wells.

The Cooper Hill plant was not in operation Saturday due to the noise of the pumps, according to Jay Giles, director of public works. But the plant has been in use through the summer and west end complaints appear to be a thing of the past, he added.

The work was designed by the Henry Souther Engineering Co. of Hartford and done by the C.H. Nickerson Co. of Torrington. Work began in March, 1973 and most of it done by this past March.

Town leaders attending opening ceremonies also included: Carl Zinser, Mrs. Ferguson, Matt Moriarty Jr., Robert Price, Hilary Gallagher, and Mayor Jack Thompson, all of the Board of Directors.

Town Leaders Attend

Gordon Lassow, a commissioner of the Eighth Utilities District, and Cal Taggart, district public works director, also came.

Former Mayor Fran Mahoney, Probate Judge William FitzGerald, former Mayor James Farr and other town leaders involved in the planning for the 1972 referendum item attended.

Graydon Lockwood, water and sewer department head during the worst years of the town's struggles with the old plant, looked over the plant with Ernest Morse, a Cheney employee when the plant was first built.

Plaque Unveiled

Mayor Jack Thompson unveils the new plaque at the foot of the hill below the renovated Cooper Hill Water Treatment plant off Cooper Hill St. In ceremonies noted by about 40 town officials and residents, the mayor and Town Manager Robert Weiss told some of the story of the old plant. (Herald photos by Barlow)

Calvin Hutchinson, assessor, reports the 1974 state legislature has made a major change in the personal property tax which will save local tax dollars.

Machinery, equipment, furniture and fixtures acquired after Oct. 1, 1973 will be exempt from local property taxes.

All new purchases must be listed on a special form in order for the town to be reimbursed by the state. Failure to list new acquisitions will result in a penalty.

Other personal property purchased prior to Oct. 1, 1973 should be declared in the usual manner.

If you have disposed of personal property previously reported it should be noted and the card returned to Hutchinson.

All residents who have previously reported personal property will be receiving a card from Hutchinson. Anyone else with personal property to report should contact Hutchinson for necessary instructions and forms.

A detailed instruction sheet is available at Hutchinson's office for anyone desiring to see it.

At a special meeting Monday the Republican Town Committee passed the following resolution.

The Republican Town Committee fully endorse the selection's position on the proposed new Bently Memorial Library.

Medi-Cues ANY ONE FOR TENNIS ELBOW?

"Tennis elbow" is a bad name to hang on a good game because it is a develop from any sport or activity where a repeated quick snap of the forearm is a common maneuver. It could just as well be called golfer's elbow, or pitcher's elbow, or mechanic's elbow.

Constant or abnormal tension in the body attachments of the large muscles of the forearm to the inner and outer sides of the elbow causes irritation of the tissues in and about the joints.

Relief is obtained by resting the limb. Heat provided by diathermy, whirlpool, or heating pads is helpful. Cortisone injections into the painful area have produced dramatic results.

MHS To Hold Session On College Status

The Manchester High School guidance department will present a symposium of college admission officers Tuesday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

This is the second in a series of post-high school education planning seminars.

Admissions representatives from various colleges will discuss admissions today and the offerings at their colleges. The following colleges will be represented:

Hartford State Technical College, Manchester Community College, University of Connecticut, Eastern Connecticut State College, Clark University in Worcester, Mass., University of Hartford, and Hartford College for Women.

Ronald Macodino, MHS guidance counselor, will moderate the session.

Adult School To Open In New Center

The Adult Basic Education Center will have its formal opening Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. Attending the event will be John Ryan, head of the adult education program for the State of Connecticut.

The center is located at 759 Main St., next to the Full Gospel Interdenominational Church, formerly the State Theater, and will be the base of the morning classes in the program.

Anyone interested in adult classes which offer a pre-high school reviewed, high school equivalency, and English for the foreign born is invited to attend. All classes are free of charge to local residents as part of the Manchester adult education program.

Joel Chaison, director of the adult education program, says this is the fifth year of morning sessions in the program, but the first time the program has had a permanent location.

At present, Chaison says the new center can accommodate about 35 or 40 people. Classes are currently scheduled Mondays through Thursdays from 9 to 11 a.m. Eventually, Chaison says, if the funding is available, he hopes the center would expand so adult students could drop in any time of day to attend classes.

Additional information regarding these programs is available by contacting the director at 846-3494, ext. 232.

MAYORS SEEK
Rev-Share
Expansion
NEW HAVEN (UPI) — The Connecticut Conference of Mayors and Municipalities has begun a drive to get the state's congressional delegation to support the re-enactment and expansion of revenue sharing.
The conference will tell the incumbent federal lawmakers and candidates that an end to revenue sharing funds will mean "grave economic and social consequences for the towns and cities," Mayor Frank J. McCoy of Vernon said Sunday.
Alternatives to revenue sharing funds are increased property taxes and decreased services, McCoy said.
He said revenue sharing has helped municipalities to meet their needs without having to annually submit appropriations requests to Congress.
The effort to obtain pledges from the six congressmen and two senators is part of a campaign with counterpart organizations in other states coordinated by the National League of Cities.

Coliform bacteria serves merely as an indicator that pollution is possible and the springs are not adequately protected, Kraatz said. Presence of coliform bacteria wouldn't necessarily cause illness, he said.
The three springs closed permanently are located in Center Springs Park, on Buckland St., and on Camp Meeting Rd. Spring pipes have been removed and the pipes will be buried.

Repeating water tests from the four springs have uncovered coliform bacteria, showing that the springs are receiving surface water not adequately filtered through the ground, Kraatz said.

Eagles No Match Against Northwest

Eagles continued to give up the ball while the Warriors, with a combined effort, persisted on their warpath by tallying four consecutive touchdowns behind their breakaway speed of their running backs. Together the three musketeers—Robinson, Disenza and John Stouy—piled up 370 yards on the ground.
East finally put some consistency into its game before the half. The Eagles came alive on a smooth 75-yard drive. Senior Co-Captain Joel Desimone hurried over the line from the one for the touchdown. East entered the locker room trailing by a 40-6 margin.
In the final half, East's only penetration came midway into the third stanza. The offense, led by quarterback Rob Tebeco and running backs Desimone and junior Cephus Nolen, picked away at the Warriors' defense. Desimone rocketed through defenders and scored the final East six-point play of the three.
The win advances Northwest's record to 3-1 while the Eagles dip to 1-2. East travels to Uncasville for a Friday night clash at 7:30 with HCC foe St. Bernard.

Giants Victimized

NEW HAVEN (UPI) — The Atlanta Falcons still aren't scoring many points but at least they've found out what it's like to win this season.
The Falcons, thanks to safety Ray Brown's 59-yard touchdown run with an intercepted pass, beat the New York Giants 14-7 Sunday for their first victory in four games.
"I was looking for the play," said Brown, a four-year veteran from West Texas State. "He (Giants quarterback Norm Snead) had thrown to (Ray) Rhodes in the same situation two plays earlier. The play had worked then and I figured he'd try it again."
"When Brown did was step in front of Rhodes and I tackled him and pick off Snead's sideline pass late in the third quarter. He then scampered unblocked down the left sideline to score the tie-breaking touchdown, only Atlanta's fourth TD of the season."
"Brown made it a great play because it worked," snapped testy Falcon Coach Norm V. Brocklin.
Van Brocklin, whose job reportedly was in jeopardy because of the club's poor start this year, had his team dressed and on its bus within 20 minutes after the game and yelled at newsmen. "You'll have to make a story out of the fact I'm not giving you any."

Indians' Offense Highlights Second Straight Football Win

By Len Auster
Offense held the limelight Saturday afternoon as Manchester High outdistanced Wethersfield, 28-15, in CCIL football action at Memorial Field before 1,100 boisterous fans.
Prior publicity indicated an aerial bombardment by Wethersfield and onlookers weren't disappointed. Senior signal-caller John Papa, who tossed for 206 yards in an opening win over Penney, bettered that performance by blistering Manchester for 234 yards via the air lanes, completing 19 of 38 passes for two TDs. He was intercepted twice but his pinpoint passing played havoc with the Indians defense.
"He's an excellent passer," Manchester Coach Larry Olsen admitted. "Many of his pass completions couldn't be defended against. They were thrown right on the money. I hope we don't run into another quarterback like him this season."
Stung by a touchdown and two-point conversion as the horn sounded ending the first half which put Wethersfield ahead, 15-14, Manchester regained the initiative 15 seconds into the second half pouncing on an Eagle fumble.
"That was the key," Olsen exclaimed, "They had the momentum going into the locker room and taking the ball away, then made the difference."
Linebacker Pete McCluskey was credited with the fumble recovery and it took the Silk Towners six plays to regain the lead, held most of the first half. Alternating plays effectively, the locals reached the Eagles' six with John Kunz covering the final distance with 8:57 left in the third quarter. Senior quarterback Jack Maloney found Jason Dodge open in the end zone for a two-point conversion making it 22-15.

After Wethersfield threatened, the drive stalled by a Steve Dawson interception, and several exchanges, Manchester began operations on the Wethersfield 45 following a short punt. Maloney gained 16 yards on a pitchout and after three short bursts, the Tribe was faced with a fourth-and-seven. Maloney hit tight end John Madden on a crossing pattern for the seven of eight tosses for 77 yards.
Manchester, now 2-0 overall, 1-0 in the league, and having equaled its 1973 win total, enters an always tough Concord High of West Hartford Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at Memorial Field.
"People are now going to be looking for us. We're not as consistent as we can be and it's a little early for CCIL visits but we'll be reckoned with in the league," Olsen candidly stated.

Namath Faces Miami

MIAMI (UPI) — For the first time in three years, Joe Namath and the New York Jets face a Miami team with a shaky pass defense and a so-so running attack when the Jets and Dolphins square off in the NFL television game of the week tonight in the Orange Bowl.
The odds-makers, who have made Miami as much as a 13-point favorite, may have missed it but Namath was sure to have noted the weaknesses which have permitted three teams to complete better than 60 per cent of their throws against Miami.

South Windsor Upended

Bowing for the third time in four starts Saturday was South Windsor, 28-4, to Simsbury High in Central Valley Conference football action at the Trojans' field. The Bobcats are now 1-2 in the conference while Simsbury upped its aggregate mark to 2-2, 1-2 in the CVC.
Simsbury got on the board first as Bob Davis recovered a fumbled punt attempt in the end zone. Bill Garrity rushed for the two-point conversion. The Trojans added two more touchdowns in the third stanza with Jim Marcell scoring on a 62-yard gallop and Mark Nicholas gathered in a 20-yard scoring strike from Mike Gazetta. The Trojans added two-point conversions after each TD.
Coach Ralph McCarroll's Bobcats got on the board in the third period with sophomore Eric Woodward driving over for one of the culminating 63-yard drive. Blair Boucher added the two-point conversion. Simsbury concluded the scoring on a 50-yard jump by Gary Garrison.

NFL Sunday Roundup

NEW YORK (UPI) — For the first few weeks of the season was an experience. Now it's becoming commonplace for the New England Patriots and the St. Louis Cardinals.
The two clubs both picked to finish near the bottom of their divisions continued to live up to football's biggest stories as they ran their records to 4-0 Sunday with impressive victories.
New England which numbers Super Bowl champion Miami and powerhouse Los Angeles among its victims annihilated the winless Baltimore Colts 42-0 evping their first time midway through the third period.
Ken Anderson threw a 34-yard TD pass to Isaac Curtis and Boobie Clark ran three yards for another TD for the Bengals, now 3-1. Sonny Jurgensen and Cleveland's Dan Fouts combined for four touchdowns and three TD passes of four yards to Moses Denson and 20 to Jerry Smith for the Redskins now 2-2.
Broncos 17, Chiefs 14
Rookie Jon Keyworth scored twice on short bursts in the second half as Denver beat Kansas City for its first win. Booby Bell had a 28-yard interception return for the Chiefs.
John Hadd, who had his 2,000th career completion, threw four yards to Bob Klein as Los Angeles jumped to a 16-0 lead then fell off Detroit's last period rally to win. Bill Munson had TD passes of 34 yards to Ron Jesse and one yard to Charlie Sanders for the Lions.
Eagles 13, Chargers 7
Defensive tackle Bill Dunstan returned a fumble 46 yards for a touchdown and Tommy Sullivan played a yard to lead Philadelphia past San Diego. Dan Fouts had a five-yard TD pass to Gary Garrison for the Chargers.

No One Surprised Anymore at Pats' Success

BOSTON (UPI) — The New England Patriots are off to their best start in a decade and no one around the National Football League is surprised anymore.
The Patriots made the once-potent Baltimore Colts their fourth straight victim Sunday with a 42-3 win that was as impressive as a victory should be by a powerhouse over a have-not.
"We were worried about the game when we went into it," said Chuck Fairbanks, who has turned New England from a rag-tag expansion outfit into the talk of the NFL. "We didn't expect it to go this easily. It was a nice win for us."
The victory was so easy—the Patriots built a 21-3 halftime lead—that Jim Plunkett made his earliest exit in his four-year stay with the Patriots. The 1971 Heisman Trophy winner, from Stanford left midway through the third period after throwing his third touchdown pass of the game, 11 yards to Reggie Rucker.
He gave the Patriots a 7-0 lead on the game's third play with a 69-yard connection to Rucker and later flipped four yards to Sam Cunningham. Mack Herron scored from five yards out, flanker Darryl Stingley swept 23-yards with a double reverse and reserve John Tarver bulled seven yards for the other Patriot scores.
"This was the first week where you would say things were comfortable and relaxed on the sidelines," said Fairbanks, who has made the Patriots a solid team just as he molded Oklahoma into a college dynamo before leaving in 1972.

Rucker, who caught three passes for 92 yards said Fairbanks is "the difference in this team may be pro football should not be played like a business. Maybe it should be played like a game. What we need is enthusiasm and motivation and that's what Coach Fairbanks provides."
"We are playing much more aggressively" added defensive end Julius Adams.
"Chuck fires us up everyday. He tells us 'You have to do a job so go ahead and do it,' and the guys feel great about it."
One guy who feels terrific is Plunkett, who is calling most of his own plays for the Justice Laird fumbled punt return on the Colt 24. Herron, who had 154 total yards including a 66-yard punt return, wormed through the middle five plays later for the score.

The New England defense complimented the offensive attack by closing off Baltimore's running game—allowing 85 yards rushing. The Patriots last in the NFL against the rush in 1973, now have held the Miami Dolphins New York Giants and Colts to under 100 yards on the ground, while Los Angeles Rams managed 109 last week.
New Colts field boss Joe Thomas, who added additional duties to his general manager's job when Howard Schnellenberger was fired last week said his team "made early mistakes that killed us. The big thing was he didn't make any third down plays and they did. (The Colts were 6-17, the Patriots 10-5)."
"We need a game like the Patriots win over Miami (34-24) to make the players believe."

Dick Green Goes Head over Heels on Bunt Hit. Oakland Player Stumbled over Oriole First Baseman Earl Williams.

Momentum Shifts Al Dark Declares

OKLAHOMA (UPI) — Baseball players in general and managers in particular like to talk about momentum, that undefinable emotional state they claim decides championships.

In the first two games of the American League playoffs here, which the A's and Orioles split, both managers Al Dark of Oakland and Earl Weaver of Baltimore, talked about momentum.

Weaver claimed his club had it coming into the playoffs because the Orioles had won their last nine regular season games to clinch the East.

Then Sunday after the A's had beaten the Orioles 5-0 behind the five-hit pitching of lefty Ken Holtzman, Dark claimed his club now had the momentum.

Yale Looms as Powerhouse

BOSTON (UPI) — Yale is proving to be the early season New England powerhouse but one-time Boston College has launched a comeback.

The Eli, who opened with an impressive win over Yankee Conference-winner Connecticut, brushed Colgate aside, 30-7, Saturday with Co-captain Risty Green running wild.

Dodgers' Penguin Stands Like Eagle

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — They call Ron Cey "The Penguin," but in the eyes of the Los Angeles Dodgers he stands more like an eagle today.

Cey, whose squaring 5-foot-9 1/2-pound frame certainly belies his ability as one of baseball's premier producers, turned in one of the best hitting performances in National League playoff history Sunday and because of it the Dodgers now are only one victory away from their first pennant since 1966.

The 26-year-old third baseman, nicknamed "Penguin" because of his unusual walk, collected four hits including a pair of doubles and a homer, while leading the Dodgers to a 5-2 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

After failing in his first at-bat, Cey was unstoppable. He homered off the leftfield foul pole leading off the fourth double in the sixth triggered the decisive three-run eighth with another double and singled in the ninth.

On the very next pitch, the Oakland strongman lined a homer over the left field fence. It stayed 1-0 until the sixth when Billy North walked to open the inning, went to second on a wild pitch and scored easily on a two-out triple off the right centerfield fence by Joe Rudi.

Holtzman, who retired 16 batters in a row from the third through two out in the eighth did crack a bit when Enos Cabell and Andy Etchebarren singled. Dark Holtzman got pinch-hitter Carl Motton on a roller to first and seemed home free.

Test Due Ohio State

NEW YORK (UPI) — Woody Hayes doesn't like his Ohio State team clustered up with all football games before the season's finale with Michigan, so he can't be happy about what he saw Saturday.

The top-ranked Buckeyes' next opponent, Wisconsin, put it to 19th-ranked Missouri - hard and heavy 59-20. Coupled with the Badgers' earlier victory this season over Nebraska, it looks as if Ohio State has a game on its hands next Saturday at Columbus.

Brazilian Grand Prix Champion

WATKINS GLEN, N.Y. (UPI) — For Emerson Fittipaldi, Sunday's United States Grand Prix was the ultimate; for winner Carlos Reutemann it is the beginning.

"I never felt this kind of pressure when I won the title in 1972," admitted Fittipaldi, who entered the race tied with Regazzoni at 52 points.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — "How about that?" smiled Ivan Al Geiberger, "Johnny Miller wins eight in one year and I win one in eight years."

Without a tour victory since he won the 1966 PGA Championship — the 37-year-old veteran from Santa Barbara, Calif., finally saw things fall into place Sunday.

The result: A three-shot triumph in the $15,000 Sahara Invitational and a purse of $67,000. Geiberger said, "I don't care about the money's not important. It's winning again that counts."

Hometown Golf Favorite Finishes LPGA in Style

Cameron Park, Calif. (UPI) — Hometown favorite Carole Jo Skala, whose physician husband was tourney director, finished the $35,000 Cameron Park LPGA classic in style.

Her eagle on the final hole gave her a six-under par 213 total and a four-stroke victory over Jane Blalock and Cathy Daggan, who both finished with 217.

All tourney records were smashed as more than 8,000 turned out under sunny skies to watch Mrs. Skala earn a $5,000 paycheck. The two second place finishers won $3,500.

Dragon, Stevens Cop Races

By Dean Yost

Pole-sitters in both the late-model sportsman and NASCAR modifieds, Bobby Dragon and Bugs Stevens respectively, won the Fall Final yesterday afternoon at the Stafford Springs Motor Speedway, topping the two-day event.

The second 80-lap event was captured by Stevens, bringing his seasons total to 13 triumphs at the half-mile oval. Stevens, driving very smoothly in the Koszella No. 15, was turning consistent laps of 20.70 seconds.

Finishing a distant second was the current national point-leader in the NASCAR Modified Division, Richie Evans, followed by Jerry Cook.

With the victory, Stevens also won the Stafford track championship. Eighty-five cars, 43 of which were modifieds, showed up for the Fall Final, which started Saturday with qualifying races.

DevCo Tells Of Impact Of Impact On Town

COVENTRY

Monica Shea Correspondent

This is a summary of the DevCo Municipal Impact statement filed with the zoning agent last week along with the application for a zone change for DevCo's new community of 20,000 proposed for the northwest corner of Coventry.

The entire six-book applications and reports is available at the DevCo Coventry Center on Rt. 31 for the perusal of an interested person.

The introduction to the impact study states, "This impact study describes how the public services and facilities proposed for the new community will be paid for, and their effect on the town's finances. A 15-year town budget had been developed for the new community, describing the costs of town services and the facilities which would be required by the new community and comparing these costs with the revenues generated by it.

The town, through its annual budgeting process, would determine how this excess revenue raising capacity would be used: to cut taxes, increase the

An overcharge on your electric bill?

We deny it!

During the past few days, extremely serious allegations have been made that Connecticut's electric companies have illegally computed the fuel adjustment charge on your electric bill. We deny these allegations as totally false.

When all the facts are put on the table, it becomes clear that: (a) the Northeast Utilities system companies complied fully with the law; and, (b) actually lost revenues in the process.

HERE ARE THE FACTS!

1. In 1969, the price of a barrel of oil used to generate electricity cost CL&P and HELCO about $1.81. In early 1974, a barrel of oil cost the Northeast Utilities system more than $13.00, and we used about 24 million barrels a year. The current price is set — not by us — but by oil suppliers assigned to us by federal oil allocation regulations.

The fuel adjustment charge is used to help pay — in part — for the major increase in the price of oil now used by the utilities. We say "in part" because CL&P and HELCO must pay directly to the State of Connecticut, under the gross earnings tax, 5 percent of all fuel adjustment monies collected from their customers — and must not charge for higher-priced oil until after a two-month delay. This fuel adjustment "formula" was ordered by the Connecticut Public Utilities Commission (PUC) back in 1970 after full public hearings.

2. The fuel adjustment formula approved by the PUC in 1970 includes a so-called "Factor B," which takes into account efficiencies in the production and delivery of electric energy. These efficiencies improve or decline slightly from time to time, depending upon a number of circumstances.

3. Back in 1970, we submitted to the PUC a fuel adjustment formula which would have included automatic monthly changes in efficiency up or down. But, following accepted practice by most other states, the commission decided against the monthly change and in favor of a "fixed" efficiency rating based on the actual performance of our generating plants during the previous year. To comply with the law, we then computed the fuel adjustment charge using the fixed efficiency rate. We have, however, filed with the PUC, each month, the most current available information pertaining to efficiencies.

4. In 1972, the efficiency factor used in the fuel adjustment charge was updated to reflect actual experience during the preceding year (1971).

5. In May of this year (1974), we proposed to the PUC, as part of the HELCO and CL&P rate cases, that the entire fuel adjustment formula be revised to more nearly reflect the actual cost of producing and delivering a kilowatt-hour. Remember that the 1970 formula was designed to reflect relatively small changes in the price of fossil fuel (coal or oil) and not the explosive increases in foreign oil prices which occurred in late 1973 and early 1974.

6. Considering the two-month time lag before we can recover the cost imposed upon us by the oil suppliers and taking into account the 5 percent Connecticut tax, we actually failed to recover from July 1, 1973 through June 30, 1974, about $16 million from the time lag and $2.5 million from the tax, even using efficiencies based upon monthly updating during this period.

Since July, this loss has grown even worse and, of course, since the fuel adjustment charge went into effect in 1970, we have failed to recover much, much more than the $18.5 million cited above.

The facts are... CL&P and HELCO have fully complied with the legal orders of the Public Utilities Commission... in 1970, and again last May, we proposed a new fuel adjustment formula that would have included monthly changes in efficiencies... rather than benefiting from an overcharge, we continue to experience a substantial loss by failing to recover fully the actual cost of oil used to produce the electricity we provide our customers.

NOW LET'S LOOK AT AN EVEN MORE SERIOUS PROBLEM!

The true cost of assuring a reliable supply of electricity now and in the future is not being recovered in present electric bills. The fuel adjustment charge fails to recover the full cost of fuel used. And, basic electric rates fail to recover rapidly rising increases in the cost of wires, insulators, poles, transformers, trucks, wages, taxes and in the cost of borrowing money with which to build electric power facilities. Under these circumstances, we are forced to seek rate increases and a more equitable fuel adjustment formula.

And, of course, we have had to reduce costs wherever we could. For example, we cut our 1974 construction expenditures by $53 million and our 1974 operating costs by more than $10 million.

But, because sufficient rate increases still have not been achieved, we have now been forced to take the following additional actions which directly affect you — the customer.

- 1. Last week, we announced the delay in construction of two nuclear units at Montague, Massachusetts, which would have saved $32.5 million in electric production cost and 24.3 million barrels of oil, annually, when operating in 1983. Despite our commitment to the future saving of energy dollars and the national objective of less dependence upon foreign oil, we really had no other choice.
- 2. In keeping with what we understand to be public environmental objectives, we had planned to build a public recreation and environmental center at our Northfield, Massachusetts, pumped-storage hydroelectric facility. This has been suspended.
- 3. Again, in keeping with public demand for environmental improvements, we initiated a policy of providing underground distribution lines at no charge to the customer. This, too, has had to be suspended.
- 4. Construction or renovation of buildings has been canceled or delayed.
- 5. We have reduced, by 25 percent, the 1975 requirements for needed electric distribution and transmission lines, substations, etc.
- 6. Operating expense for 1975 has been cut by another $10 million. This will mean further reductions in the number of employees, a 25 percent reduction in tree trimming and right-of-way maintenance, a delay in developing a new computer program designed to effect future construction savings, and reduction in inventories of transformers, poles, cable, etc.

We have reluctantly taken these steps knowing that they will mean an increased risk to reliable service and the future supply of electric energy. In taking these actions, however, we are trying to minimize their effect upon customers.

Even after affecting these reductions, our capital needs between now and the end of 1975 will still amount to more than $600 million. If our financial situation continues to deteriorate, we will have to implement more drastic cutbacks, including a delay in a third nuclear generating unit at Millstone Point in Waterford. This unit would save $39 million a year in the cost of electric power production and 12 million barrels of oil starting in 1979. As with the postponement of the two units in Massachusetts, a delay at Millstone Unit No. 3 will mean continued dependence upon high-priced oil from Arab and other foreign sources.

Delaying the completion of new generating units is clearly a step backward from achieving the national goal of greater energy self-sufficiency. Even if energy conservation proves to mean slower growth in future energy use — and the evidence is not all in on that subject — these plants are needed to reduce the dependence of our customers and the economy of Connecticut on high-cost and uncertain supplies of foreign oil.

The actions we have already taken and the actions we may have to take in the future are entirely dependent upon the extent of our financial resources. This is not a threat, but an absolute economic reality.

We know we can always improve our performance to save you money, and we're working hard to do so — but, we can't perform miracles! To sum up: if the base price of electricity and the fuel adjustment charge fail to provide revenues sufficient to match the cost of production and delivery, reliable service to our homes, offices, factories and farms will be a thing of the past.

We know it's sometimes tempting to run for political office against the utilities and always tempting to run against higher prices. But, to best serve Connecticut, let's all keep our eyes on the real problems.

POLICE REPORT

MANCHESTER With the help of two men from Winthrop St., police arrested four youths allegedly involved in stealing car batteries there Saturday.

Mark S. Smith, 19, of 93 Waddell Rd. and John P. O'Neill, 16, of 31 Waddell Rd. were arrested at 11:14 p.m. and charged with fourth-degree larceny. Smith was also charged with tampering with a motor vehicle.

The charges stem from the attempted theft of a pair of batteries valued at $17.99 and from a glass door broken during the theft at the Sears automotive store in the Parkade area after, police said.

Other arrests over the weekend included: Clarence G. Meanwhile the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Rep. Ella T. Grasso, D-Conn., was reported in a newspaper poll to have a substantial lead over her GOP opponent, Rep. Robert H. Steele R-Conn.

Voters Will Decide On Salary Committee

COLUMBIA
Virginia Carlson
Correspondent
Tel. 228-9224

Voters will be asked to authorize the Board of Selectmen to appoint a five-member committee to study the salaries of all elected officials at the town meeting tonight at 8 in Yeomans Hall.

The committee is to make recommendations at the March town meeting. At a March 1968 special town meeting, selectmen were authorized to appoint a committee to study salaries of all town officials and employees.

The committee's report was accepted at the October 1968 meeting. But because of the anticipated growth within the town and subsequent increase in dates of officials, it was recommended another compensation review be made no later than two years hence.

In March 1971 another salary committee was named and in October 1971 the recommendations were accepted to become effective after the lifting of the federal wage price freeze which was then in force.

In March 1973 voters decided not to authorize the appointment of a salary committee.

Sanitary Landfill
In another item on the lengthy call, voters will be asked to enact an ordinance regulating the use of the landfill area.

Voters will be asked to act separately upon the Board of Education's budget and the selectmen's estimate for expenses for the ensuing year. The total of both budgets is $1,370,796 but this figure could be increased to $1,401,616 if voters act favorably on two clauses in the warning.

They will be asked to add an additional $20,000 to the reserve fund.

Residents will be asked to act upon the request for a $10,750 appropriation for the construction of two tennis courts at the Hennequin Rd. recreation area.

Opposes Budget
A former school board member said he is prepared to oppose the school board budget at the meeting.

Albert Hadjigan, who served six years on the board, said, "As a result of a thorough review, I am of the opinion that the school budget is both inflationary and unwarranted."

He added, "There appears to be little justification for the excessive expenditures for aides, educational consultants and custodial salaries in the school budget."

Hadjigan also said he is prepared to oppose the request of the selectmen to increase the reserve fund to nearly two mills, noting that the present balance in the reserve fund is nearly $80,000.

Hadjigan said that at a time when people are battling inflationary prices it is too much to ask for an increase of $20,000 in the reserve fund.

Voters also will be asked to appoint a Safety Commission to study security and law enforcement needs for the town.

They will also be asked to act upon a request that money be

Election-Minded Congress Cool on Tax

Ford To Announce Economic Program

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The idea of imposing heavier taxes on the middle class aroused no enthusiasm today in a Congress which is about to go home to seek re-election.

Congressmen said they would have to be convinced by President Ford if—as widely expected—he makes a 5 per cent surtax the keystone of his program to fight inflation.

To prepare public opinion for Ford's program of austerity, the White House was expected to make a 5 per cent surtax the keystone of his program to fight inflation.

Joint Session
Ford, acting after a month of consultations with every element of the public at the summit, was going before a joint session of Congress with his proposed solutions to the problems of inflation, unemployment, interest rates and energy.

It was scheduled for late afternoon, and White House press secretary Ron Nessen confirmed that it had been timed to come after the New York stock markets close.

Asked if a surtax proposal was likely to hurt Republicans at the polls four weeks from today, Rep. John Anderson, R-Ill., replied: "Frankly, yes. I don't believe you ever recommend a tax increase without having to be concerned..."

To deal with a deep-set inflation and a simultaneous economic downturn—and the threat of fuel shortages which could make both worse—Ford was expected to propose:

- A surtax of about 5 per cent on the income taxes middle and upper income individuals and corporations will pay next spring on 1974 earnings.

- A program to make local and state governments "employers of last resort" for those thrown out of work in the current slump.

- A still $300 billion spending ceiling, involving a $5 billion budget cut, for the current fiscal year. This would serve as a signal to the Federal Reserve to allow interest rates to climb down from their current peaks.

- Tax aid to some hard-pressed industries, including housing and utilities, which need capital to expand to meet demands.

- Other tax incentives to spur investment in business and to induce people to save.

- An appeal for sharp but voluntary cutbacks in energy consumption with a warning that if it fails, rationing might be the alternative.

Members of the House Ways and Means Committee said they doubted Congress could adopt so comprehensive a program in the 30 days left after it returns from election.

Support for Tax Doubtful

Some members said they doubted the public could be brought to support higher taxes at a time when almost everything else was costing more too.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he would want a surtax limited to those who earn over $20,000 a year. By some reports, Ford was planning one that would hit people earning over $10,000 or single people earning half that much.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., was "flatly opposed." "An income tax surcharge is no more satisfactory than an increase in the gasoline tax as a way of raising new federal revenues, and the surcharge ought to be relegated to the discard heap..." he said.

Kissinger To Try Again

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger leaves tonight for the Middle East where he expects to find progress toward peace but no final agreements. "I would like to point out that there will be no concrete results in terms of agreements or dramatic announcements that can be expected out of this trip," Kissinger said.

Greek Cabinet Resigns

ATHENS (UPI)—Premier Constantine Karamanlis' cabinet resigned today to make way for a caretaker government to oversee Greece's parliamentary elections on Nov. 17, the first after a seven-year military dictatorship.

"Greek ministers who will contest the elections with the exception of Foreign Minister George Mavros and Defense Minister Evangelos Averoff, have submitted their resignation," government spokesman Panayotis Lambrias said.

Quake Reported

CAMARILLO, CALIF. (UPI)—A moderate earthquake shook the coastlines north of Los Angeles Monday evening, but apparently did no serious damage.

The tremor rattled southern Ventura County and sparsely inhabited beaches in northern Los Angeles County at 5:56 p.m. The seismology laboratory at Caltech said it registered 4.0 on the Richter Scale.

Boston Mayor Makes Request For Marshals

BOSTON (UPI)—Mayor Kevin H. White today called for at least 125 federal marshals to be sent to racially troubled South Boston to help protect children and to implement a court ordered plan to integrate public schools by busing.

The motion was filed with the clerk of the U.S. District Court in Boston by Assistant City Corporation Council Kevin Maloney.

It called on Judge W. Arthur Garrity to enter an order requiring that not less than 125 marshals be assigned to the South Boston district.

Attached to the motion was a five page letter to Garrity from White detailing the racial violence in South Boston and explaining why federal assistance was needed.

Earlier, black children were kept out of South Boston schools by city officials and police strengthening earlier reports that white and NAACP leaders would call for federal marshals to be sent to Boston.

PCZ Denies Red Rock Zone Change Request

By DOUG BEVINS
Reasoning of 165 acres of land off Slater St. to allow a Comprehensive Urban Development (CUD) known as "Red Rock" was denied Monday night by the Manchester Planning and Zoning Commission (PCZ).

Citing anticipated traffic congestion and the inability of existing roads to handle expected volumes, PCZ members voted unanimously to reject an application to rezone the area for CUD.

Mixed-Use Proposed
Developers of the proposed mixed-use project were reportedly disappointed by the PCZ's decision, but they wouldn't comment on possible court action they could take in an effort to reverse the ruling.

The rezoning, which would have affected land now zoned Rural Residence and Industrial, was being sought by the Parkway Corp., A. John Macchi, and the Achenbach Realty Co. of Essex.

Parkway Corp. is owner of the majority of the site, the Red Rock Golf Course, and Macchi owns other property included in the site. Achenbach Realty is the developer.

Liquor Rule Change Deferred by PCZ

By DOUG BEVINS
The "legal lingo" in Town Planner J. Eric Pater's proposed zoning regulation amendments concerning liquor establishments forcing a delay Monday night in Manchester Planning and Zoning Commission (PCZ) action on the liberalized rules.

The commission hasn't received a reply from the State Liquor Control Commission on its request for aid in defining liquor-serving terminology in the proposed amendments.

Despite their inability to vote on the proposal, PCZ members debated the amendment Monday night and reviewed objections raised at a Sept. 9 public hearing on the changes.

Directors To Explore Open Space Grant

Proposed town purchase of the privately owned Manchester Water Co.—subject of a Nov. 5 referendum concerning a $2.25 million bond issue—may be assisted by a $750,000 open space grant if Manchester officials win federal approval of their application.

Town Manager Robert Weiss said he's making preparations to apply for the federal grant for 183.6 acres of Manchester Water Co. property. The necessary authorizations to enable the application are to be considered by the Board of Directors tonight.

Weiss said the town's application would be to the state Department of Environmental Protection, which would relay the request to the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation in the federal Department of the Interior.

Chance of Approval Unknown
Weiss declined to say what the chances are for approval of the application. "We have no way of telling," he said.

Application for the grant was endorsed Monday night by the town's Planning and Zoning Commission, which passed a resolution stating the acquisition would be within the proposed open space program and would comply to the Comprehensive Plan of Development.

Among other items on tonight's directors' agenda are a new contract with the Manchester Police Union and a requested allocation for the Manchester Youth Hockey Association.

The town's tentative agreement with the police union, already ratified by policemen, calls for a 14% per cent salary increase over the next two years. The increase would bring the payroll to more than $1 million by 1976. Last year, the payroll totaled $914,185.

Hockey Request
The hockey association is seeking a $5,000 allocation to support a town hockey team. A similar request was rejected by directors in August and was also turned down by the Board of Education later.

Also on the agenda for tonight's meeting, scheduled for 8 in the Municipal Building Hearing Room:

- Action on four additional appropriations for special educational projects, subject of public hearings last week.

Charter Oak Entrance
• Action on a revenue sharing allocation of $15,000 for improvements to the Charter Oak Park entrance and exit.

- Appointment of a member to the Building Committee to fill the unexpired term of John FitzPatrick ending in November 1975.

- Appointment of a member to the Advisory Board on Health to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Rita Levine ending in November 1975.

- Consideration of disability retirement for Policeman Harold Newcomb.
