BIA To Aid Scholarship Foundation

The committee planning this year's Manchester BIA (Brotherhood In Action) program looks over the record of past successful programs, dating back to 1967. From the left are Bruce Remold, representing Friendship Lodge of Masons; Edward M. Chas, chairman of the committee; and representing Charter Oak Lodge of B'nai B'rith; John O. Nelson of Manchester Lodge of Masons and John E. Luby of Campbell Council, Knights of Columbus. This year's program will benefit the Manchester Scholarship Foundation. A roast beef buffet-dinner fund-raiser will be held Nov. 16 at the K of C Home, Main St. Previous programs have benefited Mansfield Training School, the Manchester Teen Center, the Senior Citizens Center, Manchester Memorial Hospital and the Newtoning Children's Home. POLICE REPORT

MANCHESTER
Gary Babcock, 25, of no certain address was arrested Wednesday night by State Police in Hartford on a Circuit Court 12 warrant sought by Manchester detectives charging him with risk of injury to a minor child, local police said.
The charge involves an incident Oct. 25 in Manchester involving a teenage girl, police said.
State Police turned Babcock over to Manchester Police who kept him in a jail cell at headquarters here overnight on a $10,000 bond.
The FBI informed police this morning that Babcock is wanted in Hartford on four warrants involving burglaries, in Vermont for forgery, and in Florida for escape from a prison on chain gang.
Manchester Police said the $10,000 bond on Babcock might rise higher due to the other charges against him after he appears in court today in Manchester.
• William C. Moir Jr., 34, and Cathin J. Pugliese, 25, both of Hartford, were arrested Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and each charged with fourth-degree larceny, police said.
The charges stem from a shoplifting incident at Shoe Town on Spencer St. Both were released on $50 surety bonds on court Nov. 25.
• William B. Salmoraghi, 22, of Plainville was arrested Wednesday at 8:56 p.m. and charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or drugs. He was released on a written promise to appear in court Nov. 18.
Thrifts reported recently include:
• About $125 worth of items were stolen from the apartment of Russell White of 281 Center St. Wednesday between 5:30 a.m. and 9 p.m., police said.
• A tape deck, stereo tapes, and a tape container valued altogether at $145 were stolen from Richard J. Leist, 28, of 87E Rachel Rd. was taken by ambulance to Manchester Memorial Hospital after a two-car collision Wednesday at 12:27 a.m. on Bissell St. at Hill St., police said.
At MEMH he was treated for a sprained ankle and discharged, a hospital spokesman said.
The other car was driven by Alexander F. Jaskulski, 24, of 150 Birch St. He was not injured. Both cars were towed from the scene.
Leist was charged with failure to obey stop sign. Court is Nov. 25.

Judge Orders Acquittal In Kent State Trial

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — U.S. District Court Judge Frank Battisti today ordered a verdict of acquittal in the case of eight former Ohio National Guardsmen on trial in the Kent State University shootings in which four students died and nine were wounded.

Kissinger Reassures Israelis

TEL AVIV (UPI) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger reassured Israel today that there had been no change in U.S. policy on the Palestinian question and said both countries were in agreement on the course of future Middle East progress to peace.

Three Doctors To Examine Richard Nixon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica, acting on a request of defendant John D. Ehrlichman, today agreed to appoint three doctors to examine former President Richard M. Nixon to determine if he is too sick to testify in the Watergate cover-up trial.

Former Nixon campaign aide Powell A. Moore meanwhile began his second day on the witness stand in the trial of Ehrlichman and four other former Nixon aides. Ehrlichman's attorney, William S. Frats, asked Sirica to name three "really great doctors" to examine Nixon. Frats said he did not doubt the medical reports sent from Nixon's bedside in California, but wanted to "clarify the whole situation," Sirica replied. "I hope to be able to do it by next week," he said.

P&W Union Workers Authorize Strike

HARTFORD (UPI) — Union workers at Pratt & Whitney Aircraft plants in Connecticut have authorized a strike on Dec. 1 if negotiators have not agreed on a new labor contract by then.

Testifying Thursday was Dean Kahler, paralyzed from the waist down during the shootings who described the scene at the time.

"After I was struck, there was a lot of screaming and a lot of yelling," Kahler said. "Someone came over and got my parents' name and address. I was taken to Robinson Memorial Hospital in Ravenna, operated on as soon as I got there, and was hospitalized exactly three weeks."

"I suffered a spinal cord injury, which is the reason why I am in a wheelchair," he testified.
Kahler said while the weapons were on the practice football field, before jogging up a hill to the area from which they fired, he threw a couple of stones at them.
He said he did not see the stones hit anyone.

Last Tuesday, the 22nd presented by the government, was Terry Strubbe of Washington, N.C., who was a Kent State student when he made a tape recording of the 13 seconds of gunfire in which four students were killed and nine wounded.

The tape was not played, although chief government lawyer Robert Murphy indicated he might ask it be played today. Another student, Howard Ruffner, a former student at KSU, testified he took three pictures about the time of the shootings which were introduced as evidence.

Buckland Firehouse Site Tops Directors' Agenda

By SOL R. COHEN
Acquisition of Tolland Tpk. property for a possible firehouse site will be considered Tuesday by the Town Board of Directors.

The property is just east of Buckland School playground at 1039 Tolland Tpk. It is owned by Santo and Nancy Lombardo.

The board will be asked to approve an application for a $32,015 grant, under the federal Comprehensive Manpower Program Public Employment Act. The grant would fund the $19,515 estimated salaries and fringe benefits to June 30, 1975 for three of the five additional maintenance men requested by the sewer department for the town's sewage treatment plant.

Weicker Inheriting Control Of State Republican Party

HARTFORD (UPI) — Sen. Lowell P. Weicker Jr. wasn't even running in Tuesday's election but he may have won something — control of the Republican party in Connecticut.

After Tuesday's elections, Weicker, who was roundly booed at the GOP gubernatorial convention in July, appears to be in complete command of the party reins.

"Inherit the Wind" To Open Tonight

By JUNE TOMPKINS
It is not so much a matter of whether Darwin's theory that man evolved from monkeys is true as that man has the privilege and duty to think for himself.

As Brady, Martin is a pompous, abdominal, vociferous evangelist who preaches and preaches his religious tenets with energetic arm gymnastics.

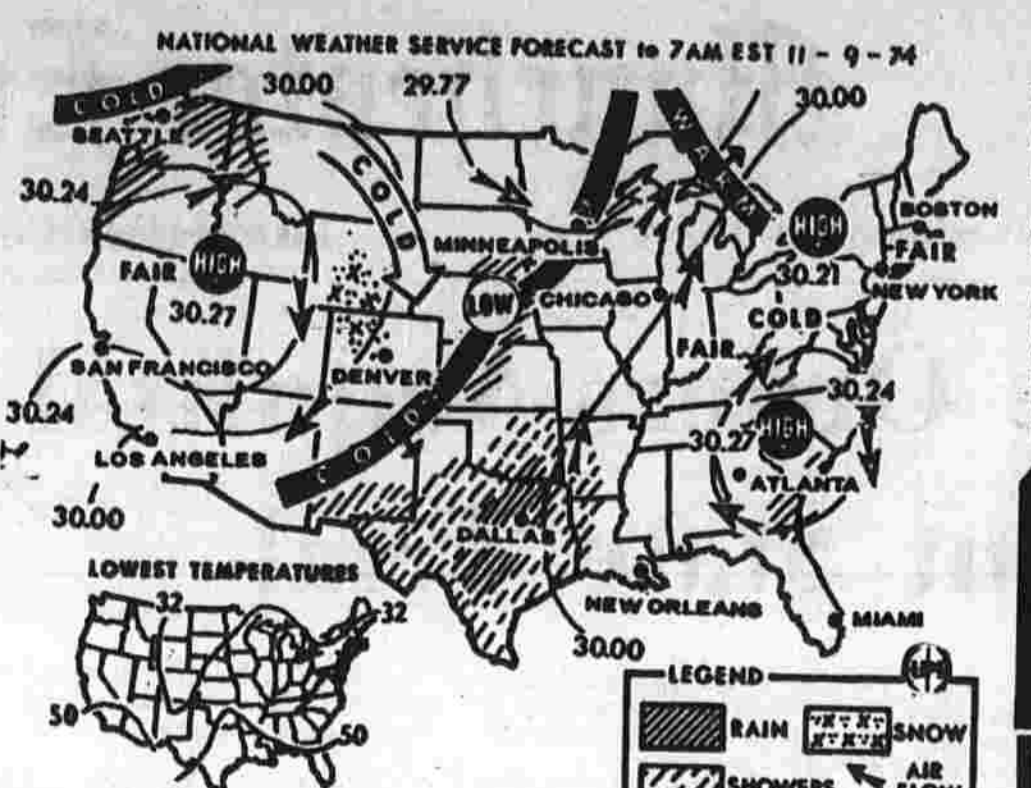

Probably the high spot in the play is when Drummond asks the prosecuting attorney Brady to take the stand to defend the Bible.

Brady's staunch blind belief is picked to pieces when he finds he can't explain how long was the day in which the earth was created, for as Drummond says, the sun had not been created to make a day as we know it.

Manchester Evening Herald OPINION

Lame-Duck Season

Within a few days, Congress will resume its deliberations as a "lame-duck" Congress.

This appellation is applied because many of the members, either through voluntary retirement or by more traumatic action by the voters at the polls, will be off the payroll next January.

In the past, "lame-duck" sessions were rare events, except for national emergencies, but recently, they have sort of become a habit which Congress is responsible for in many ways.

First of all, the main reason Congress has to come back is that it failed to enact certain essential bits of legislation such as appropriations funds for operations of the federal bureaucracy. The feds are now being paid under a continuing resolution.

Second, it is inherent in Congress to postpone any votes which might not sit well with the electorate, especially if that vote should fall on the eve of an election.

Third, there is a valid reason for lame-duck sessions which we must state in fairness to Congress. Being a congressman today is a full-time job and despite its poor organization of time, there are a lot of committees that continue from session to session making the presence of many congressmen necessary in late November and December.

We have often thought that perhaps a congressman should take office upon election, thus eliminating the "lame-ducks" from the temptations of junkets, etc.

It wouldn't be too costly to allow the "lame-ducks" to stay on the payroll until the first of the year to permit an orderly transition between them and their successors.

By making the terms begin the day after the election, new congressmen could begin work immediately. Congress itself could be well organized and ready to go when it begins getting the various messages from the executive branch in January.

This would eliminate any possible "lame-duck" votes on legislation from which they might benefit after leaving office.

It would also give full validity to any congressional action taken whereas now it is possible, if there were a truly massive rejection of incumbents at the polls, for "lame-ducks" to thwart the will of the people.

We think immediate assumption of office plus a four-year term for the House and two constitutional reforms worth considering by Congress.

No Revolution Expected

Before expectations soar too high in the aftermath of Tuesday's Democratic landslide, it might be well to lay out some of the realities that lie ahead.

The Congress, with Democratic majorities in both houses increased, still represents a collection of conflicting constituencies resulting in an ideological division. The votes on key legislation will reflect the ideological division more than the numerical one.

The question of whether the new Congress will be "veto-proof" will lie more in the hands of President Ford and the issues upon which he exercises his veto power, rather than party labels.

Another reality which must be recognized is that the Democrats have had numerical control for many years, yet have failed to pursue a consistent course of action, which can be properly labeled mandatory Democratic programs.

We should not forget, for example, the renewed cries for wage and price controls, that it was a Democratic-dominated Congress that let the stand-by control powers used by former President Nixon die with only a few minor murmurs of dissent.

Perhaps the biggest reality of all, and the one that could make the new Congress much less influential and effective than the Democratic numerical superiority should promise, is 1976.

With the Republican party in temporary disarray; with the Republican party leader not being a popularly elected President, and with the scent of a better-than-average chance of winning the White House in 1976; many Democrats will be out to win the Democratic nomination rather than trying to run Congress.

With the inherent difficulties of coalition and diverse interests which make up the Democratic party, it needs all its leaders to concentrate in uniting congressional Democrats behind Democratic programs or alternatives to those advanced by President Ford.

The hard reality is that these potential congressional leaders are also, by and large, the same men who aspire to the White House. The risk of over involvement is one they are reluctant to take since it will take time away from pre-primary campaigning.

There is a risk too that legislative battles may not sit well with the voters and may alienate other Democrats.

In the face of these realities, we do not expect any great upheavals in the new Congress.

For the Democrat-dominated Congress to make any substantial change in domestic policies would be a surprise.

We expect efforts to re-impose wage and price controls but predict they will not go as far as many Democrats have proposed. The control issue will be largely determined by the degree of controls that President Ford will accept.

With 1976 only two years away, we do not see the Democratic leadership, composed of many with White House stardust in their eyes, pushing through tough controls over a presidential veto.

The only way the Democrats can really show the country that they want a Congress that means business is to declare and enforce a moratorium on presidential politicking. But if a Democrat seriously proposed such a thing, you would soon see what we mean when we say there may be strength in numbers, but only when there is a common goal and a united leadership.

The Russian Revolution

WASHINGTON — Please do not be confused by that revolution the Soviet Union celebrated Thursday in a sea of vodka. It is not the revolution which kicked off the czar and assorted royal hangers-on. That took place on March 17, 1917; Moscow should pardon the correction.

What the Red Russians glorified Thursday occurred on Nov. 7, 1917, when the Bolsheviks under that well-known comrade, Nicolai Lenin, overthrew the working stiffs who had produced the first, original, bottled-in-bond revolution.

Nowadays, Soviet history books sneer at the first job, claiming the original rebels under Alexander Kerensky were chicken about shooting down the aristocrats and even let some of them eat. In an earlier day, another reason was that Joe Stalin was in exile in an unattractive suburb in Siberia named Turunkhansk during the first show but played an authentic, if somewhat coy, role in the second.

In any case, you have to consider the first revolution in order to understand how there could be a second. The first resulted from the German front to do some arm-twisting. However, he was hauled off the train at Pskov and forced to abdicate.

Kerensky, a moderate, took over as premier. But, under pressure from the allies, he insisted on continuing the war against Germany, and the Bolsheviks didn't like this. They got in touch with Berlin, and shortly the Imperial German government locked Lenin and some other ideological beatniks in a railroad car and shipped them into Russia from Switzerland to undermine the war effort.

The Bolsheviks figured their chance had come on July 16, 1917, after a Russian offensive had collapsed. But Kerensky government got tough. It clapped Leon Trotsky in jail and sent Lenin scurrying off to Finland. Stalin was sprung from stir and permitted to go free, which made a lot of people suspect that Joe had made a deal with Kerensky to save his hide.

Kerensky was too indecisive, however. The Bolsheviks won over most of the army during the summer of 1917 by promising to negotiate a peace, and they recruited the workers by mentioning food. Then in October they won a majority in the Duma, which had replaced the Duma — and Lenin hurried back from Finland to go for broke.

Under Lenin, the Bolsheviks moved on the night of Nov. 6 in Petrograd (now Leningrad), then the Russian capital. On their side, they had the Petrograd garrison, a horde of mutinous and hungry sailors and the workers' own Red Guards. They stormed the Winter Palace and threw in the clink every member of the government they could find. Kerensky escaped, however, and after several months of pit-ing coups blew his native land and wound up in the United States.

Lenin became the head of a reigning mob called the Council of People's Commissars, meaning they represented people who were in power. Trotsky, later to be exiled and eventually assassinated in Mexico, was named Commissar for Foreign Affairs. Stalin sat below the salt as Commissar of National Minorities.

Czar Nicholas and Czarina Alexandra were shuttled from town to town, finally ending up in a cellar in Ekaterinburg, where they were bumped off by the local Bolsheviks. At the time, it was claimed that the Grand Duke Alexis and the Czar's four daughters also had been "done in," but no satisfactory proof was forthcoming, and even today you run into characters in low saloons who claim to be Prince This or Princess That and make speeches demanding that the Reds hand over the crown jewels.

DON OAKLEY

Supreme Penalty For Capital Punishment

In 1972, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled 5 to 4 that the death penalty is unconstitutional if — and it has been a knotty "if" ever since then — it is applied in such a way that some persons are sentenced to death and others to imprisonment for committing the same offenses.

Although most of the 39 states that have capital punishment have revised their statutes in an attempt to conform to the court's guidelines, no one has been executed since 1972 — or had been for five years before the court took up the issue. The last execution in the United States was in Colorado in 1967.

Today, 149 felons sit on the death row of 17 states.

In hopes of having capital punishment outlawed absolutely for all time, the Legal Defense Fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has brought nine cases to the Supreme Court, seven from North Carolina and two from Georgia. The court has agreed to hear the appeal of one of them.

It is not at all certain, however, that the court will address the issue of capital punishment itself. It could avoid it by ruling on the much narrower questions involved in the one case alone.

To support its contention that the death penalty is "cruel and unusual punishment" and hence banned under the Constitution, the NAACP has assembled a number of persuasive arguments.

Blacks and the poor are still most often sentenced to death. It points out. Eighty of the 149 prisoners on death row are black, as are five of the nine cases it is appealing.

Moreover, the NAACP argues, such factors or practices as executive clemency, through a series of rare coincidences, the lost collect on was "rediscovered" and leading lithographers and art critics agreed that the subject matter and quality of detail and color reproduction was incredibly accurate. Over $500,000 was spent to make finely engraved glass printing plates. It would be impossible to reproduce prints such as these under existing methods, and for that reason these prints are literally collector's items. Once they have been sold, there will be no more available. A truly excellent art "investment" that makes a fabulous gift.

Available to invest in these authentic original 1937 prints have been approved by the American Appraisers' Assoc. at $7.00 each print. Now these full color 11" x 14" prints are finally available to the public at $19.95 for a collection of 18 prints. Send cash, check or money order to: U.S. Stamp, Dept. D-6, P.O. Box 605, Turin, Calif. 91366. Fully GUARANTEED. Payment by the authenticity given with each set. MasterCard and Visa American OK. (give card number).

capital punishment, it is even more unlikely that it will hand down a decision that would open the way to the grisly mass execution of 149 convicts. Yet it must eventually face the central issue, and if it does so on the basis of the arguments of the NAACP and other death penalty foes, it is interesting to reflect that the very same arguments can be used against any other form of punishment.

The criminal statutes in the 50 states, in all categories of offenses, are far from uniform and far from equally applied. A recent survey of judges in New England, who were presented with a list of hypothetical cases, revealed an amazingly wide disparity in the sentences they would hand out for the same offenses.

Again, the number of blacks in the nation's prisons is greatly out of proportion to their numbers in the general population. Everywhere, plea bargaining, the latitude allowed juries, the skill of attorneys and the idiosyncrasies of judges, as well as differing laws, insure that the punishment given one defendant in one court or in one state may be entirely different from that given another defendant in another court or another state, even though both are charged with the same offense.

Just as there are different kinds of murderers — some committed in passion, others in cold blood or during the commission of another crime — and different kinds of murderers, so is each burglar, robber, embezzler, etc., a different individual. If we are to have anything approaching justice, courts and juries must be able to take into account the unique circumstances of each case.

To abolish capital punishment on the grounds that it is not uniformly applied everywhere and to everyone, could throw into confusion our whole complex legal system.

It might be better just to do away with capital punishment — period — simply as something no longer useful or tolerable in a civilized society.

Abolished in 1937

For some unknown reason, after a quantity of these beautiful reproductions were made, the entire project was abandoned and this collection of perfect reproductions was stored in a Brooklyn warehouse, where they remained undisturbed since 1937.

Through a series of rare coincidences, the lost collect on was "rediscovered" and leading lithographers and art critics agreed that the subject matter and quality of detail and color reproduction was incredibly accurate. Over $500,000 was spent to make finely engraved glass printing plates. It would be impossible to reproduce prints such as these under existing methods, and for that reason these prints are literally collector's items. Once they have been sold, there will be no more available. A truly excellent art "investment" that makes a fabulous gift.

Available to invest in these authentic original 1937 prints have been approved by the American Appraisers' Assoc. at $7.00 each print. Now these full color 11" x 14" prints are finally available to the public at $19.95 for a collection of 18 prints. Send cash, check or money order to: U.S. Stamp, Dept. D-6, P.O. By United Press International Today is Friday, Nov. 6, the 312nd day of 1974, with 53 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase.

The morning stars are Mercury, Mars and Saturn.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Venus.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Scorpio.

British aviator Edmond Halley was born Nov. 8, 1686. This is actress Katharine Hepburn's 66th birthday.

On this day in history:

In 1827, Mount Holyoke Seminary in Massachusetts became the first American college founded exclusively for women.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

One Solitary Life

Here is a young man who was born in a obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty, and then for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to a college. He never put his foot inside a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place he was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness.

While he was still a young man, the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross, between two thieves. While he was years before the court took up the issue. The last execution in the United States was in Colorado in 1967.

Today, 149 felons sit on the death row of 17 states.

In hopes of having capital punishment outlawed absolutely for all time, the Legal Defense Fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has brought nine cases to the Supreme Court, seven from North Carolina and two from Georgia. The court has agreed to hear the appeal of one of them.

It is not at all certain, however, that the court will address the issue of capital punishment itself. It could avoid it by ruling on the much narrower questions involved in the one case alone.

To support its contention that the death penalty is "cruel and unusual punishment" and hence banned under the Constitution, the NAACP has assembled a number of persuasive arguments.

Blacks and the poor are still most often sentenced to death. It points out. Eighty of the 149 prisoners on death row are black, as are five of the nine cases it is appealing.

Moreover, the NAACP argues, such factors or practices as executive clemency, through a series of rare coincidences, the lost collect on was "rediscovered" and leading lithographers and art critics agreed that the subject matter and quality of detail and color reproduction was incredibly accurate. 'Music from the Attic' Theme for Ladies Night

"Music from the Attic" will be the theme of a musical program at Delta Chapter, R.A.M., Saturday.

The chapter will honor its ladies with a dinner and program at the Masonic Temple.

Guest of honor will be Wesley B. Reed of North Woodstock, who will present the musical program.

Reed has developed his hobby of collecting unique musical instruments and accompanies himself in song on some of his instruments.

Besides entertaining music clubs, historical societies, and church and social clubs throughout New England, he has also appeared on radio and television.

A buffet-style ham supper will be served at 6:30 for which there will be a charge of $3.50 — for men only — the girls are guest of the chapter. Dinner tickets will be available at the door.

"Abortion" Is Topic For Society Meeting

Dr. John Geoghegan, vice president of the Pro-Life Council of Connecticut, will be guest speaker at St. Bridget Rosary Society meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in St. Bridget School cafeteria.

Dr. Geoghegan will discuss "Abortion, the truth about its moral, social and physical aspects" at the meeting, which is open to all members of the parish.

The guest speaker, who lives in West Hartford with his wife and four children, is in the practice of anesthesiology at New Britain General Hospital, where he performs liaison between the departments of obstetrics and anesthesia. After the doctor received his MD degree from New York Medical College, he became the first Connecticut anesthesiologist in Connecticut.

Public Offered 1937 U.S. Gov't Art Prints

Imagine, if you can, finding several thousand sets of antique prints of the world's greatest paintings that were lost for more than 35 years! It actually happened — and this is the true story of the discovery of that lost treasure.

Eleanor Roosevelt

Back in 1937, immediately following the depression state Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and a select group of a dozen national prominent people formed a voluntary national committee for art appreciation to create an art program that would give the public a selection of the world's most famous paintings from the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. The best paintings of Matisse, Van Gogh, Renoir, Picasso, Gauguin, Titian, and so on, to reproduce them in full color as perfectly as humanly possible and make them available to the public at a price within the reach of nearly everyone.

Abandoned in 1937

Gilbert Wins Jewish Award

SOUTH WINDSOR

Judy Kuehnel
Correspondent
644-1364

The Young Leadership Award, in recognition of outstanding work in Jewish community affairs, has been presented to Lawrence Gilbert of South Windsor.

Gilbert is immediate past president of Temple Beth Hillel, Foster St. Ext., South Windsor. He is presently serving on the board of the Temple as a trustee and is a member of the membership committee. He is past president of the Florida Jaycees and was Eastern Seal Ambassador for Greater Hartford in 1971. He has played a leadership role in the South Windsor Federation campaigns since 1970, and was a member of the Presidents of Reform Synagogue Mission to Israel this past January.

Gilbert now joins over 100 other young men and women throughout the United States who have been singled out in their communities for their commitment to the continuity of Jewish life. The award was presented at the Annual Meeting of the Hartford Jewish Federation held at the Hartford Hilton on Sept. 29.

Arts Awards
Forty-five artists exhibited at the recent South Windsor Annual Outdoor Art Show. Judge for the event was Mrs. Estelle Lascheer of West Hartford, an art teacher and lecturer.

Cash awards and ribbons were awarded to the following: Adult division: Layne of East Hartford, Best in Show, $100 award; Luciana Heineann, Windsor, second place; John Lagaraki, Bristol, third place; Philip Marcus, Manchester, fourth place; Helen Garbalski, Windsor Locks, fifth place; Lawrence Wood, South Windsor, popular award; William Lambert, Middletown, and Henry Monterose, South Windsor, honorable mention.

Teen division: Ann Urban, Windsor, Best in Show, $50 award; Timothy Arzt, Rockville, second place; Laura Yaglowski, Newington, third place; Robert Damscho, Andover, fourth place; Timothy Arzt, Rockville, popular award.

The Rotary Club of South Windsor Purchase Award went to Luciana Heineann of Windsor and the South Windsor Chamber of Commerce Purchase Award went to William Lambert of Middletown.

The Purchase Awards are used to purchase art work to build a collection for the town and will be hung in the Town Hall.

Historical Society Forming

BOLTON

Donna Holland
Correspondent
644-0375

A Bolton historical society will be set up as a lasting reminder of bicentennial observations in town under the direction of the bicentennial committee.

Persons interested in such a society are being sought. Anyone interested is asked to call live Joe Cannon, committee chairman.

The bicentennial committee plans a George Washington birthday party on ice skates. It will be held in the winter of 1975 at the Bolton Ice Palace.

Committee members plan a sale of notepaper and post cards with historical etchings and photos in the spring as a fund raising activity.

In June the committee is planning an 18th century crafts fair at Herrick Memorial Park. Anyone who engages in the making of such crafts may now begin preparing for the fair.

Out-of-town craftsmen will be invited to participate. The event is planned to run for two days.

The committee is also planning a recent fund raiser held by the committee, a Columbus Day dance, netted $87.

Game Sunday
The Bolton Bulldogs senior pony football team will play the Tolland Eagles Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the South Windsor High School.

The game will determine the champions in the Eastern Conference Midget and Pony Football Association.

The Bulldogs are the southern division title holders and the Eagles the northern division title holders.

Tickets will be sold at the gate.

Church Meeting
There will be a special charge conference (congregational meeting) at the United Methodist Church Sunday at 11:45 a.m. It will be held immediately following the morning worship service.

This is the annual fall meeting called for the following purposes: To accept the administrative apportionments assigned to the local church by the Southern New England Conference; to accept, reject or amend the benevolence askings made of the church by the conference; to set the pastor's salary for the next calendar year.

All members of the church are eligible and encouraged to attend.

Utility Seeks Recovery Of Special Costs

HARTFORD, (UPI)—Northeast Utilities has asked for the revision of a clause that bars it from recovering the cost of extra oil used in oil-fired generators when its nuclear power plant shuts down for refueling.

Northeast, which owns Hartford Electric Light Co. and Connecticut Light and Power, made the request Wednesday to the Public Utilities Commission (PUC).

It also asked for new hearings on the $59.2 million monthly rate hike applications that were only partially granted Oct. 7 and said applications for new general rate increases "are being studied."

NYSE Mulls Gold Center

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The New York Stock Exchange is seriously considering the establishment of a gold trading center once the ban on private ownership of the precious metal is lifted in January.

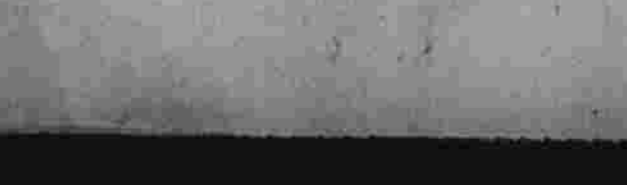

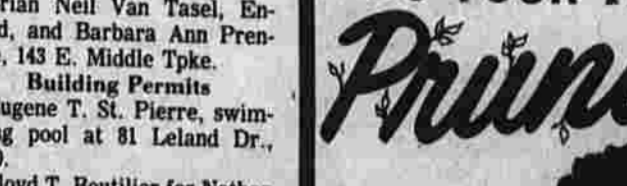

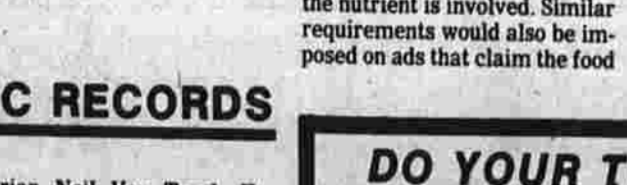

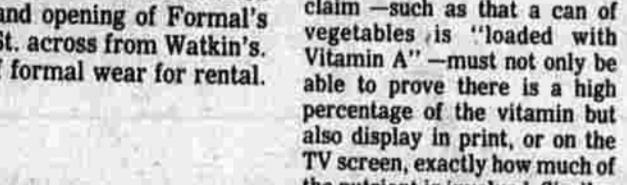

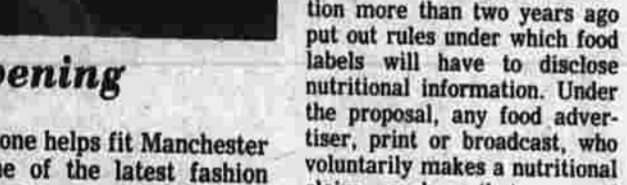

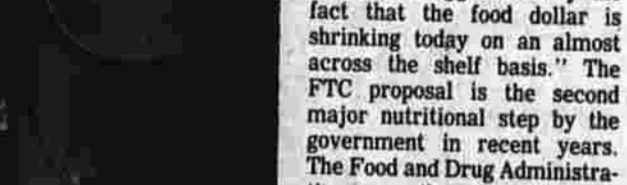

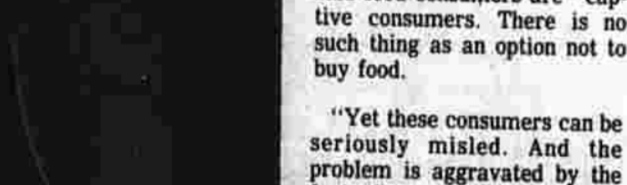

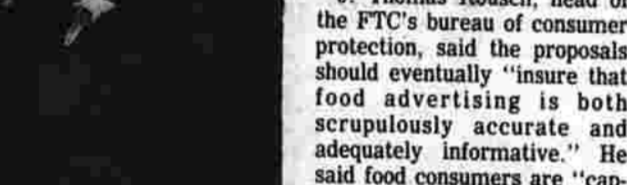

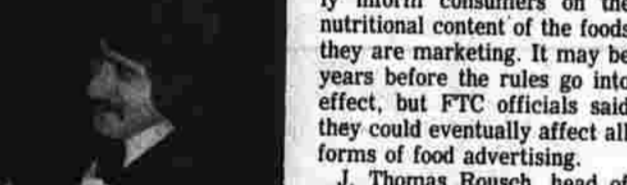

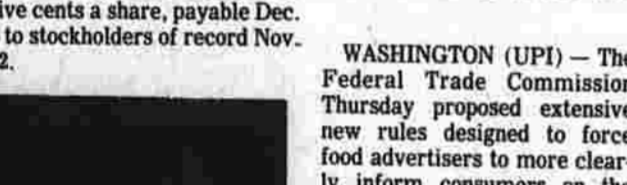

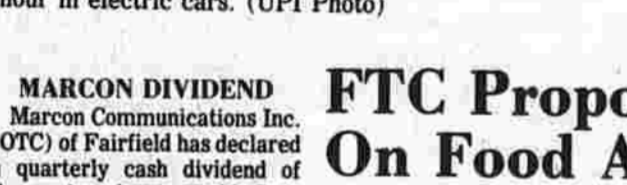

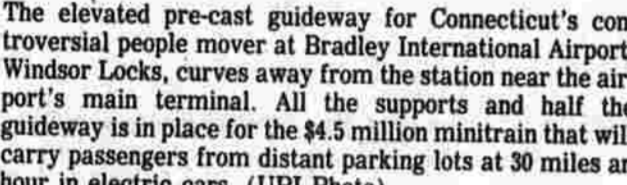

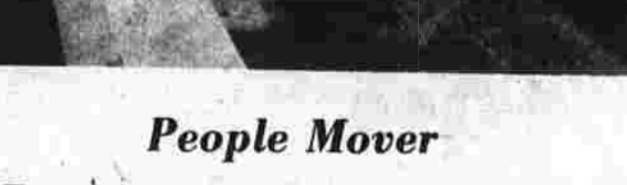

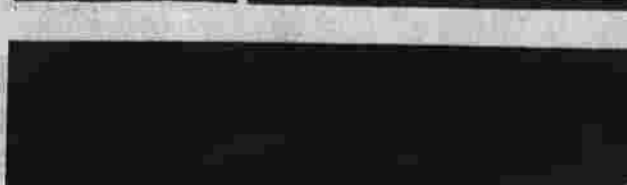

James J. Needham, NYSE Big Board chairman, told reporters that should the exchange decide to allow gold trading it would be on a "spot" basis only — or daily cash purchases of commodities.

The proposal will not come before the exchange's board of directors until January or later, he said.

OVERSEAS VENTURE

Burger King Corp. of Miami, Fla., has announced its first overseas venture: Establishment of Burger King fast food restaurants in Madrid, Spain. Further agreements with European countries are expected, the company said.

Burger King, a subsidiary of the Pillsbury Co., has 1,300 restaurants in the U.S., Canada, Puerto Rico, and the Bahamas.

Bakers Plan Sugar Protest

WALLINGFORD (UPI)—Connecticut bakers said they will stage a "quiet" demonstration in Hartford Nov. 20 to protest the high price of sugar.

Ben Rubin, of Southington, president of the Connecticut Bakers Association, Wednesday blamed government, the sugar industry and even hoarding housewives as being responsible for severe increases in the price of the baking staple.

Members of the association met Wednesday in Wallingford to discuss the prices. Rubin accused sugar refiners of making excessive profits. He said the protest will ask for strict regulations to control the sugar industry. No specific location was set for the demonstration.

FTC Proposes Rules On Food Advertising

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Trade Commission Thursday proposed extensive new rules designed to force food advertisers to more clearly inform consumers on the nutritional content of the foods they are marketing. It may be years before the rules go into effect, but FTC officials said they could eventually affect all forms of food advertising.

Thomas Rosch, head of the FTC's bureau of consumer protection, said the proposals should eventually "insure that food advertising is both scrupulously accurate and adequately informative." He said food consumers are "captivated" by the colorful and persuasive claims of food labels when they are not such things as an option not to buy food.

"Yet these consumers can be seriously misled. And the problem is aggravated by the fact that the food dollar is shrinking today on an almost across the shelf basis." The FTC proposal is the second major nutritional step by the government in recent years. The Food and Drug Administration more than two years ago set out rules under which food labels will have to disclose nutritional information. Under the proposal, any food advertiser, print or broadcast, who voluntarily makes a nutritional claim—such as that a can of vegetables is "loaded with Vitamin A"—must not only be able to prove there is a high percentage of the vitamin but also display in print, or on the TV screen, exactly how much of the nutrient is involved. Similar requirements would also be imposed on ads that claim the food involved has more of a vitamin than some other food, those which make overall claims for nutrition—such as "orange juice is nutritious"—or foods which claim to be a source of vitamins when they are combined with other foods. The proposal, as published today, involves only advertising where such claims are made of the advertiser's own volition. A food which is simply touted as "tasting good" would not be covered.

ENERGY SURVEY
A study of the impact of the energy problem of households, business, and non-profit establishments will be conducted in Hartford and two other communities in the U.S. to learn more about the direct and indirect effects of energy conservation and shortages.

The study will get under way in mid-November when interviewers from the Hartford area will speak with several hundred local householders and establishments.

The interviewers have been employed by Audits and Surveys, a national survey research organization, to conduct the study for Brandeis University in Massachusetts, with support from the National Science Foundation. The other communities are Mobile, Ala. and Salem, Ore.

Bonn-Prete

Mrs. Walter Bonn Loring Photo

Donna Prete of West Hartford and Walter Bonn of Manchester were united in marriage Oct. 19 at St. Thomas Church, West Hartford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Prete of West Hartford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bonn of 47 McKinley St.

The Rev. William J. Mullan of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Diane Chase of New Hampshire was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gail Chandler of Michigan; Mrs. Ingrid Letfline of Manchester, the bride's sister-in-law; Miss Christine Prete of Hartford, the bride's cousin; and Miss Corinne Benoit of West Hartford. Miss Kimberly Ann Chandler of Michigan was flower girl.

William Pomeroy of Manchester was best man. Ushers were Don Benoit of Vernon, John Pinto and David Letfline both of Manchester; and Joseph Prete of West Hartford.

A reception was held at the Italian-American Hall in East Hartford after which the couple left on a trip to Hawaii. The couple will reside in Vernon.

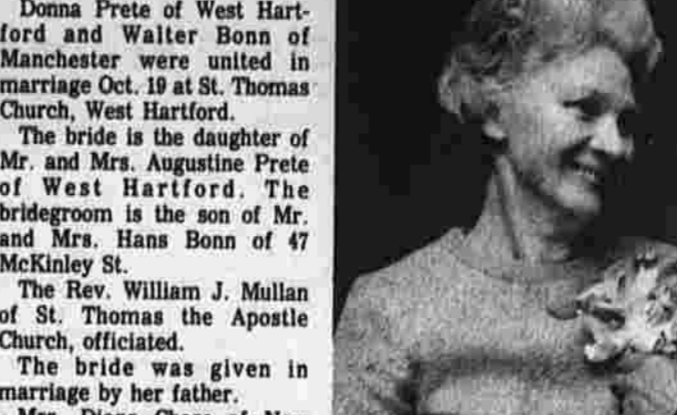

Mrs. Bonn is employed as a legal assistant at Aetna Life & Casualty Co. Mr. Bonn is employed as a department manager at Frank's Supermarkets in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Janis Labrencis of 148 Branford St. were honored at a surprise 25th wedding anniversary party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Turkis in Manchester.

The party was hosted by the couple's sons George and Ronald E. Labrencis. Hostess was Mrs. Elsie Turkis. Many relatives and friends attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Labrencis, natives of Latvia, met in Hanau, Germany where they were married on Nov. 5, 1949. They came to the United States on Sept. 27, 1950. Before coming to Manchester they resided in Oklahoma City, Okla. Mr. Labrencis is employed by the U.S. Housing Corp. Mrs. Labrencis is employed at Manchester Memorial Hospital. (Photo by Dunn)

Chittim-Wabrek

Mrs. Kevin G. Chittim Wickberg Photo

Valerie Ann Wabrek of Manchester and Kevin Garvey Chittim of Cohasset, Mass., exchanged wedding vows Nov. 2 at South United Methodist Church, Manchester.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valerie Ann Wabrek of S. Benoit. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Chittim of Cohasset, Mass.

The Rev. Dr. George W. Webb of South United Methodist Church and the Rev. David Noonan, chaplain at Framingham (Mass.) College officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums. James McKay was organist and Robert T. Gordon Jr. was soloist. Harold Turkington was carillonist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Giana knit jersey gown designed with high neckline, long sleeves, Empire waist and attached train trimmed with Venise lace and seed pearl. Her three-tiered elbow-length veil was attached to a Venise and seed pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white roses with a white ribbon which had been carried by her mother.

Mrs. Thomas H. Espey of Vernon was matron of honor. She wore a jade green knit halter gown with matching hooded long sleeved jacket.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary K. Chittim of Cohasset, Mass., the bridegroom's sister; Mrs. Alan J. Wabrek of Hartford, the bride's sister-in-law; Mrs. Terry Knapp of Peoria, Ill.; and Miss Cynthia M. Orent of Boston, Mass. They wore gowns identical to that worn by the bride, and they all carried yellow sweetheart roses and white carnations with yellow streamers.

Theodore S. Hoster of Dallas, Texas was best man. Ushers were Mark H. Chittim of Schenectady, N.Y., and the bridegroom's brother, Dr. Alan J. Wabrek and Ronald E. Wabrek, both of Hartford, the bride's brothers; Thomas H. Esdey of Harvard, Mass.; Donald C. Hansen of Boston, Mass.; and Dick K. Jacobelli of Schenectady, N.Y.

A reception was held at the Glastonbury Hills Country Club, after which the couple left on a trip to Glastonbury.

For traveling, Mrs. Chittim wore a light blue knit sleeveless dress with matching jacket and brown accessories. The couple will reside in Alston, Mass.

Mrs. Chittim is employed as an assistant administrative officer of Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada (U.S.) in Welleley Hills, Mass. Mr. Chittim is an instrument specialist with Travenor Laboratories, a division of Baxter Labs of Chicago, Ill. in the New England area.

Church Women Plan Holiday Joys Fair

Church Women Plan Holiday Joys Fair

A Holiday Joys Fair will be sponsored by Emanuel Lutheran Church Women Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Luther Hall of Emanuel Lutheran Church.

Circles in charge of the various booths are Priscilla, headed by Lydia Wogman, knitted items and aprons;

Lydia, headed by Ruth Benson, a "Kaffe Sluga," featuring coffee, sandwiches and Swedish pastry at noon; Rebecca, headed by Valerie Norris, handmade articles.

Also, Martha Circle, chaired by Clara Gull, handmade items including Christmas tree skirts and aprons; Phebe, headed by Vivian Larson and Hattie Peterson, lent Christmas calendars and advent candles; Ruth, and Lillian Gustafson will handle a white elephant table. There also will be many imported Swedish articles on sale plus books, religious jewelry and plants.

Lilly Miller and Gerda Orr are in charge of a bake sale, and Lillian Gustafson will handle a white elephant table. There also will be many imported Swedish articles on sale plus books, religious jewelry and plants.

For the scene is always changing as new activities are introduced in the Historic area which covers about 72 acres in the town at the southern end of the peninsula between the James and York Rivers.

One of the most dramatic developments discovered on a recent visit has been the growth of the crafts program. Of the more than 60 trades practiced during Williamsburg's heyday in the 18th century, about 30 are demonstrated regularly in authentically reproduced shops or nearby outdoor locations by craftsmen in colonial costumes.

The list is long: apothecary, blacksmith, bookbinder, bootmaker, cabinetmaker, cooper, harnessmaker and saddler, gunsmith, printer, spinner and weaver, wig-maker, among others.

A little over a year ago, George Wilson opened the doors of the Musical Instrumentmaker's Shop. He and his apprentices may be seen fashioning exquisite handcrafted examples of 18th century lutes, guitars, viola da gambas and other instruments, including the violin and harpsichord.

In the James Gedydy House, you can watch two clockmakers tinker patiently with intricate mechanisms of old timepieces, and at the Printing Office, an apprentice cast tiny pieces of Caslon type which are set by hand.

Patriots Fearing Long Ball

FOXBORO, Mass. (UPI) — The Cleveland Browns' batting average this season has been unimpressive but the threat of the occasional long ball still bothers New England Patriots coach Chuck Fairbanks.

"They're a big play-making team," said Fairbanks of the Browns, who are suffering through a 2-6 season. "They might not make a gain for one or two downs, then all of a sudden they have a 60-yard pass completion.

"We've got to make sure they don't make the big play — the home run."

Fairbanks said Cleveland also has been stung by the same "home run" plays. "The bomb has been the big thing against them," he said. "Their defense is similar to their offense in that respect — the big play has hurt them."

And the Patriots have the home run hitters in long-ball quarterback Jim Plunkett (14 TD passes) and fullback Sam Cunningham (scoring run of 75 and 31 yards among his league-leading nine touchdowns).

"The bomb has really hurt us," said Cleveland coach Nick Skorich. "We've given up six big touchdowns of 45 yards or more (including scoring passes of 70 and 75 yards last week at San Diego)."

"And the Patriots have good balance so you just can't stop their running as well."

The chief runners to stop will be Cunningham, (623 yards, seven TDs.), and Mack Herron, (491 and four touchdowns).

The chief chore for the New England defense will be to keep Greg Pruitt in check. The 5-10 speedster who played for Fairbanks at Oklahoma two years ago is Cleveland's leading ground gainer with 371 yards and two touchdowns.

Brian Sipe will quarterback the Browns for the second straight week after ousting Mike Phipps. Sipe ran for two one-yard touchdowns against the Chargers and passed for one more, going 16-23 on the day.

"Sipe played very well against Denver two weeks ago, coming off the bench, and he played very well last week," said Skorich. "We should have won."

Tense Moment in Soccer Loss

Manchester High Coach Dick Danielson was up on his feet and shouting instructions to his team in Wednesday's 1-0 upset loss to New Canaan High at Memorial Field in the State CIAC Class A Tournament. Danielson's team wound up with a 13-2 record - the deficits coming in the first and last games.

Bengals Need Victory Sunday

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Cincinnati Bengals, who were talking about the Super Bowl just a few weeks ago, need a victory Sunday just to stay in the American Conference playoff race.

The Bengals, who won the AFC Central Division title last season and felt they could go all the way this year, have been upset by San Diego and Houston and trail Pittsburgh by 1 1/2 games. They play host to the Steelers Sunday at Riverfront Stadium and to say they must win is putting it mildly.

A Steeler victory would give them a 2 1/2-game edge over the Bengals with five to play and the final one is at Pittsburgh, where Cincinnati has never won. Putting added pressure on Cincinnati is the fact that three teams in the AFC east — Buffalo, New England and Miami — all are having excellent seasons and could knock the Bengals out of wild card contention with the best runner record.

Bengal quarterback Ken Anderson is having a brilliant year but Cincinnati was hurt Sunday by the loss of running back Boobie Clark for the season with a broken arm. Doug Dressler will take his place.

Terry Bradshaw will again open at quarterback for Pittsburgh, which has the No. 1 ranked defense in the AFC. Cincinnati's offense is ranked No. 1.

The Steelers are three-point favorites.

In other games Sunday, Detroit is at Oakland, Houston in Buffalo, Washington at Philadelphia, Miami at New Orleans, Cleveland at New England, San Francisco at Dallas, Atlanta at Los Angeles, Denver at Baltimore, San Diego at Kansas City, Chicago meets Green Bay at Milwaukee and the New York Jets and the New York Giants play in New Haven, Conn. Minnesota is at St. Louis Monday night.

Perhaps the state's biggest game will be in Hartford, where Trinity, C.W. Post at Greenvale, N.Y. Post won the last encounter with Southern Connecticut, 7-0, in 1972.

Catholic Host to Pulaski, Indians at East Hartford

By Len Auster

After its big 22-19 win over East Hartford High last week, the East Catholic football team continues its quest for a winning season Saturday at Mt. Nebo at 1:30 against New Britain's Pulaski High. The Eagles are 5-4-1 overall with all three remaining tilts on the calendar at Mt. Nebo.

Also on the gridiron, Manchester High attempts to put itself up by the bootstraps after the 59-0 drubbing to Fermoil by journeying to East Hartford High for a 1:30 CCILC engagement. The Indians have dropped their last four decisions.

"I'm pleased the way we played last week," Eagle mentor John LaFontana stated, "We botched up a few things early but we came back and won. The main thing is that we played a real tough physical team and went out and beat them."

Defensive standouts for East last week included 6-3, 197-pound end Steve Whitman, a junior who also handles the punting chores very well, and junior safety Mike Nolan. Whitman was all over the field against East Hartford and Nolan came up with three big interceptions to thwart Hornet drives.

The Pulaski Generals have a 1-6 overall record. The Colonial Conference member won its first game a week ago over Maloney, 28-12. "They started the season slowly but have come along nicely in recent games," LaFontana warned.

"I'm impressed by what Pulaski can do. They don't have the record but they have confidence now and that's half the battle. Also they should be coming in smoking after what happened last year (East won, 30-14) even though we didn't mean to do it. We'll just have to work hard and do the job to beat them."

Manchester (2-4) will run into a horde of angry Hornets in (2-6) East Hartford. "After being beaten by cross-town East Catholic (EH Coach Jim Dakin) will be looking for blood against Manchester High, not that there is a connection between us and East other than we're both in Manchester," Indian Coach Larry Olsen noted.

The big problem for Olsen and his staff was getting his club mentally ready for action. He has to instill the belief in his players that they can win again.

"I don't know if we can," Olsen said. "We've just tried to make certain changes to give them hope. Our biggest job is to give them the feeling that they can still win. I still think we can win up at 5-4 which is a pretty good season after what's happened the last few games."

A comparative study will also be probably instituted after Saturday's play. East Catholic topped East Hartford and people, as well as the media, will play the numbers game. But as Olsen, a math teacher, noted, "Mathematical formulas don't hold up in competition. Example: Manchester beat Wethersfield. Wethersfield defeated Fermoil. Therefore...."

Naviaux Hopes Luck Continues

HARTFORD (UPI) — University of Connecticut football coach Larry Naviaux hopes he's still on the winning side of the field this Saturday when the Boston University team comes to Storrs for the annual game with the Huskies.

Naviaux has been the winning coach in all but one of the last four games between the teams, even though he's been on the losing side.

He won for BU in 1969 and 1970, but lost for them in 1971. The teams didn't meet in 1972, but when they came back last year, Naviaux had switched sides. He was still winning, that time with the Huskies.

This year's game sees UConn trying to buttress its lead in the Yankee Conference. The Huskies have to win this game if they hope to repeat as conference champions.

"BU has always been a tough opponent for Connecticut," said Naviaux this week.

Many players on both benches are products of the Naviaux touch. BU is starting mostly juniors and seniors, who were broken in by Naviaux. UConn has a lot of rising freshmen and sophomores who also got their introduction to the game from Naviaux.

In last year's game, UConn came up with 10 points in a fourth-quarter rally to take a 19-10 victory. UConn's Yankee record this year is 3-1 and BU is 2-3.

Perhaps the state's biggest game will be in Hartford, where Trinity, C.W. Post at Greenvale, N.Y. Post won the last encounter with Southern Connecticut, 7-0, in 1972.

Rose Bowl Berth On Line Saturday

NEW YORK (UPI) — "We stunk" was the candid appraisal John McKay gave of his Southern California football team a week ago after the Trojans battled to a 15-15 tie with underdog California.

Nevertheless, if McKay had his choice, he would prefer his team to "stink" against California than to pull a similar act this weekend against Stanford.

McKay said of his team after its tie with California, "We're running an offense that spurs most of the penalties, we do the stupid things that make for a very bad game. We feel pretty good about our offense, but we're not doing it well."

McKay said of his team after its tie with California, "We're running an offense that spurs most of the penalties, we do the stupid things that make for a very bad game. We feel pretty good about our offense, but we're not doing it well."

Lanier Next For Celtics

BOSTON (UPI) — So much for handling rookie Bill Walton. Now, how about manipulating a game that's been around a while longer.

Sherry Sheets this week as a Michigan State, No. 2 (tie) Michigan is listed 18 over Illinois, Alabama, the other No. 2 team and 10 over LSU; No. 4 Texas A&M is 8 over SMU; No. 6 Penn State is 7 over North Carolina State; No. 8 Nebraska is 15 Auburn is 7 over Mississippi State, and No. 10 Texas is 14 over Baylor.

Southern Cal goes into Saturday's game with a 5-1 overall record and an 11th place ranking nationally. Stanford has won three and tied one in its last four starts and is 3-2. However, where it counts the most, in the Pacific 8 Conference standings, both teams are 3-0-1.

So the winner will have undisputed possession of first place — barring a tie, of course — and the inside track to the Rose Bowl. USC is favored by nine points.

Mays Lauds DH Rule

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Willie Mays, who played baseball for 22 years, would have played a little more if the National League had adopted the designated hitter rule.

He said here Thursday that he thinks the DH rule has been a success for the American League in that it prolonged the careers of stars like Tommy Davis, Al Kaline, Orlando Cepeda and Rico Carty.

He said in his final year for the New York Mets, he spent most of his time pinch-hitting.

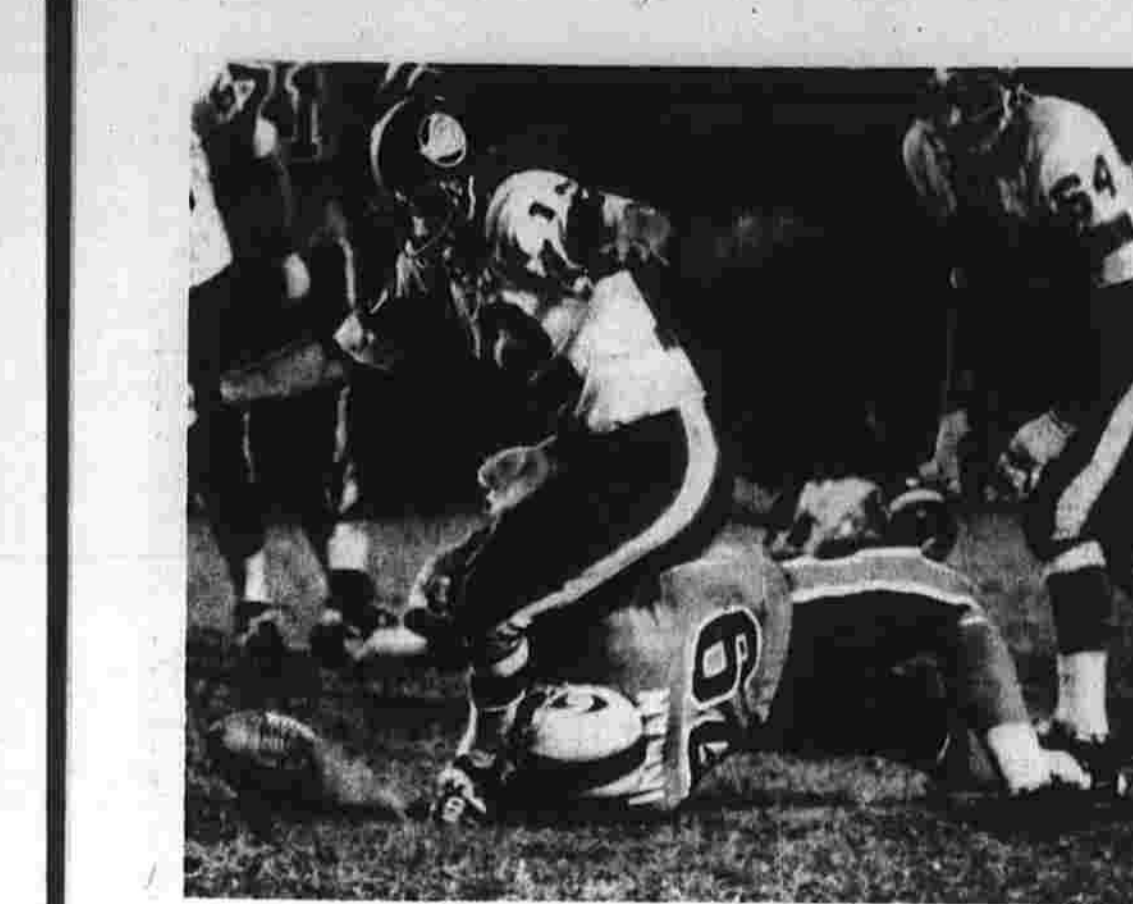

Baseball Trade

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Atlanta Braves announced the trade Thursday of pitcher Danny Priebe to the San Diego Padres in exchange for outfielder Clarence Gaston.

Gaston, 30, had gone to San Diego from the Braves in the 1969 expansion draft. He was signed by the Braves in 1964 and had played with Atlanta from 1967 until his draft by the Padres.

Offensive Guard Scores as Fullback

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Memphis Southern team is so dominant in the World Football League that Thursday night they inserted an offensive guard at fullback and he scored a touchdown.

The Southern have had problems at fullback since Willie Spencer, their 20-year-old rookie sensation, suffered a knee injury three weeks ago and was lost for the season.

Memphis led by 17 points with minutes to play Thursday night when offensive guard Bracy Bonham got a chance to play fullback against the Chicago Fire. The 6-foot-2, 242-pound guard, who last scored a touchdown in junior high school, promptly barreled into the end zone from six yards out for the final score in a 49-24 rout.

"I waved the ball and gave a little yell just to be courteous," he said. "I didn't want to show off or anything."

Bonham said he hoped to play fullback when the Central Division champions, now 16-3 with one regular season game to play, enter the NFL playoffs. But he said he's ready to play wherever needed.

Chicago players weren't looking ahead to the World Bowl, however, since their season may have ended with a 7-12 record and 10 straight defeats.

Owner Tom Origer said earlier this week that Chicago would skip its final game against Philadelphia and boycott the playoffs. Coach Jim Spavital said Thursday night he knew of no such thing.

Playoff hopes of both the Southern and the Fire, if they decide to compete, suffered from the game. Chicago quarterback Bubba Wyche went out in the first quarter with a sprained and possibly broken ankle and the Southern lost wide receiver Roger Wallace and cornerback Merl Code with knee injuries.

"It was a great victory," Memphis Coach John McVay said. "But an expensive one."

Memphis took the opening kickoff and drove 63 yards, with J.J. Jennings scoring from two yards out. Chicago came back with a 54-yard TD pass from Bill Cappelman to Lonnie Crittenden and a 59-yard scoring run by Cyril Pinder.

The Southern picked up three points on a 27-yard field goal by Bob Elter and went into the lead to stay on a three-year run by John Harvey. Jennings scored again in the second quarter from two yards out to give Memphis a 25-16 lead at the half.

In the only other NFL game, the Harvey also scored on a 29-yard run and Chicago got a 29-yard TD pass from Cappelman to Bob Wyatt.

Memphis then turned the nationally televised game before 14,085 fans into a runaway with two touchdowns in the closing minutes. Danny White threw 29 yards to Edward Marshall for one score and set up Bonham's six-yard run with a 22-yard pass to Marshall.

Rookie Tommy Reanon scored three touchdowns on runs of one, three and two yards and Bob Davis passed for two action points. The loss all but eliminated the Storm from playoff competition, dropping them to 7-11.

Coach Listened And It Paid Off

NEW YORK (UPI) — Houston Rockets Coach Jimmy Egan finally listened to Cliff Meely and it paid off.

Meely complained earlier this week that he was tired of sitting on the bench and wanted to be traded. Egan called him off the bench Thursday night and he responded with 11 points in the third quarter to spark the Rockets to a 103-93 victory over the struggling Milwaukee Bucks.

"I'm not happy at all," said Meely earlier in the week. "I hope they trade me. I know several teams who would be happy to have me."

Egan, who said he benched Meely, "because he was not playing well and wasn't producing," put the 6-foot-8 forward in to start the second quarter with the Rockets trailing by 13. Meely triggered a Houston burst of 17 straight points and the Rockets led at the half by seven.

Meely finished with 16 points. Rudy Tomjanovich led Houston with 22 and Zaid Abdul-Aziz (Don Smith) had 20. The Bucks, still without star center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, lost their ninth game. Bobby Dandridge had 23 points and George Thompson 22 for Milwaukee.

In other National Basketball Association action, the Atlanta Hawks edged the Phoenix Suns 109-108 and the Seattle SuperSonics beat the

Assured Salaries

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — World Football League players apparently were assured salaries for the 1974 season when WFL Players Association and league officials agreed Thursday to set up a trust fund.

A percentage of league revenue from playoff games, television and the sale of franchisees were going to the fund, according to Allen R. Miller, general counsel for the players association and Donald J. Regan, president of the WFL.

"This is the first time a league and a players association have worked together in this manner to assure the success of a league," Miller said.

Any player not receiving his full salary will be paid from the fund after Feb. 1, 1975, Miller said.

Hubbard Raps Oakland Fans

OAKLAND (UPI) — Oakland Raider fullback Mary Hubbard is putting the rap on his own team's fans, but mostly because they act like fans in other cities.

"I suppose you have to say it's pretty much the same in every other place, too, these days, but the hometown fans at the Coliseum have changed," he said.

"You can't please them anymore. I don't think they'd be satisfied if you won all your games by 70 points."

Hubbard, a special target of boorbirds at Denver and Kansas City, says he can never hear boos at home games where the Raiders are playing well.

"The big fullback for the 7-1 Raiders admits he might have 'rabbit ears.' 'Believe me, we can hear the boos more loudly and clearly than we can hear the cheers.'"

Hubbard was especially irked that the Raiders' 27-7

Gourdine Named To High NBA Post

RICHFIELD, Ohio (UPI) — Simon P. Gourdine, 34, was elected Thursday as deputy commissioner of the National Basketball Association, a position which makes him one of the highest ranking blacks in the sports administration field, and possible heir apparent to NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy.

Gourdine was elected by a unanimous vote of the NBA Board of Governors at a meeting in this Cleveland suburb, the site of Nick Mileti's new multi-million dollar sports coliseum which is the home of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. Gourdine was given a three-year contract.

Gourdine, NBA vice president-administrator, since January, 1973, will take over for Kennedy whenever Kennedy is absent.

Kennedy said he will retire next June when his five-year contract expires.

"Some people like to say there is too much emphasis placed on the appointment or election of a black to a significant position," said Gourdine.

"However, I think especially in sports—which is essentially a gold fish bowl environment—the decisions and actions of its executives are closely watched and as a black person whose performance has also been very closely scrutinized, I am certainly happy to receive this vote of confidence from Commissioner Kennedy and

$200 Daily Fines Assessed Morris

MIAMI (UPI) — Star Miami Dolphins running back Eugene "Mercury" Morris will face loss of pay and $200 in fines per day until Coach Don Shula decides to reinstate him into the team.

Morris was suspended from the squad Thursday in a dispute over treatment of the knee injury that has kept him sidelined for the past five games.

Shula has said he will reconsider the decision next Monday.

The coach of the Super Bowl champion team told newsmen he decided to suspend the speedy six-year pro after a "heated discussion" on Wednesday. That's when Shula upbraided Morris for failing to report to the team trainer Monday and Tuesday for supervised treatment of the injury.

"I got into a pretty heated discussion and finally he stood up and said, 'If I have to do anything, suspend me,' then he walked out," Shula told newsmen.

Morris was notified by telegram of Shula's decision.

The fleetfooted runner injured the knee in the exhibition game against Green Bay, then aggravated the injury in the Sept. 29 contest against San Diego. He has not returned to the lineup since, giving rookie Benny Malone a chance to prove

Residents Urged to Attend Hearing on State School Aid

VERNON

Vernon area residents are urged to attend a public hearing sponsored by the state Board of Education Nov. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at Norwich Technical School, Norwich.

The subject of the hearing will be the proposed budget for state aid to schools, 1975-76. The state board's proposal calls for providing $100 million in state money in the form of local property tax equalization grants.

The grants, if approved, would enable towns with inadequate local revenue-raising capacity to provide state educational opportunities enjoyed by children in wealthier towns.

In taking the lead on school finance reform, the state Board of Education is mindful of its responsibility to provide equal opportunity to those who wish to be heard on the issue whether pro or con.

The Norwich hearing is one of a series of five being held throughout the state and the board will give ample opportunity to be heard to anyone representing any number of local groups as well as individuals.

Plans call for the hearings to open with a 30-minute presentation by members of the state board and state Department of Education staff, on major elements of the state education budget.

This presentation will be followed by statements from anyone in the audience wishing to be heard. Statements will be limited to five minutes and those speaking will be asked to supply 15 copies of their prepared texts to the chairman of the hearing.

Although the equalization grant proposal will be given major attention, the hearings will also focus on state board proposals to increase and put on hold.

Broken down the $136 million includes the $100 million for the proposed equalization grant category; some $30 million more for special education; about $11 million for school transportation; and $8 million for the disadvantaged.

The Vernon Board of Education will be meeting Monday night and at that time plans will be made to arrange for a car pool to Norwich, for those wishing to attend the hearing.

Miss Iga Paups will appear as contralto soloist with the New Britain Choral Society's presentation Sunday night of Schubert's Mass No. 5 in E-flat Major.

The choral work, directed by Richard Coffey, will be presented at 8 in the South Branch Congregational Church in New Britain.

The public is invited to attend. A free will offering will be taken.

Miss Paups is an opera singer in her senior year at the Hart College of Music of the University of Hartford. Last January, she appeared in a joint recital with her brother, Tully, violinist, at the Latvian Lutheran Church in Hartford.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Paups of 444 Highland Rd.

Prison Code Adopted

HARTFORD (UPI) - The state Department of Corrections announced today it will become the first in the nation and one of a few in the world to officially adopt a United Nations code for the humane treatment of prisoners.

Commissioner John R. Manson announced the adoption of the disciplinary code. With him were representatives from the UN and the American Bar Association.

The code sets minimum standards for housing, clothing, food and medical treatment of prisoners, as well as minimum and maximum penalties for various grades of prisoner misconducts.

Lease Hearing Planned

HARTFORD (UPI) - Members of a legislative committee investigating the controversial state leasing program have tentatively set Nov. 25 as the first session for public testimony.

The committee was created in mid-June after irregularities were uncovered in a number of state leases with private landlords. It decided to delay all public hearings until after the elections, presumably to avoid turning the investigation into a political issue.

The investigation involved political appointees in state government leasing buildings from political friends at ultimate costs often far above the cost of outright purchases of the buildings.

Police Picket

HARTFORD (UPI) - About 100 off-duty policemen picketed police headquarters Thursday demanding that more shotguns be issued to patrols to better protect citizens and police.

The pickets also marched through downtown areas asking shoppers to support their call for an increase in the number of shotguns carried by officers in cruisers.

One shotgun is assigned to each of four sectors in which the city is divided and the policemen want Police Chief Jerome Masini to increase the number to three per sector.

Jerome Masini, police union president, said the upcoming holiday season is also the start of the "robbery season" and increased firepower is needed to protect the public as well as policemen.

'Illegal Walkout'

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) - Union workers began an "illegal" walkout at several state facilities including the Institute of Mental Health and General Hospital in Cranston at 7 a.m. today after rejecting a plan for distribution of $12.6 million in pay increases.

The early picket line at IMH on the oldest morning of the month was described as "small and very peaceful" by a state police spokesman at the Howard Barracks.

Bolivia Revolt

LA PAZ (UPI) - President Hugo Banzer, in command of a force of loyalist paratroopers, entered the rugged mountains of eastern Bolivia today to fight die-hard army units which rose up against his military regime. He reported that the revolt had been smashed, but newsmen quoted government sources as saying that the punitive operation was taking longer than had been expected.

Gibson Withdrawal Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Sen. George S. McGovern (D-S.D.) urged President Ford Wednesday to pull back his nomination of Andrew E. Gibson as energy administrator because of conflict of interest. He said: "Gibson has a million-dollar ring through his nose with the oil industry and is holding the chain at the other end."

Six Indicted

CHICAGO (UPI) - Six men were indicted on charges of having participated in a $4.3 million armored express burglary. Authorities traced $15 million of the loot to banks in the British West Indies.

Disperse Crowds

BOSTON (UPI) - Three persons were arrested today as police dispersed about 250 black and white youths who were milling about taunting each other outside Hyde Park High School annex during the ninth week of a court ordered plan to integrate the Boston public school system by busing.

It marked the third consecutive day police had to disperse crowds at the school.

Homes For Sale

MANCHESTER - Reduced for quick sale.

REAL ESTATE CORNER

For a housing idea that's been around in the United States barely a decade (although they existed in ancient Rome), condominiums have grown spectacularly today they are our most prevalent form of new housing. The condominium is an apartment or town house you buy instead of rent - has been called "the last of middle-class housing". Most of the condos (as the tract is now built) today are either high-rise apartments or attached town houses clustered around an open space or a fairly large tract. The buyer owns his condominium outright - right up to the outside coat of paint. In the next 10 years, condominiums may be the only kind of new housing available for millions. Learning how to live with as well as in a condominium is an economic and social skill many of us will have to pick up...

Two Quilts To Be Auctioned

Donna Holland
Correspondent
646-0373

The annual "Harvest to Holly" fair at the United Methodist Church will be held Saturday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

A special feature of the fair will be a quilt auction at 2 p.m. Two quilts will be auctioned at a beginning bid of $125 each.

The Lone Star patchwork pattern of both was hand sewn by Maude Field about fifteen years ago.

The quilting and finishing was completed recently. Those who worked on the quilt are Bev Berry, Gert Noren, Esther Walker, Peggy Barlo, Ruth Gross, Lillian Scovell, Mary Nichols and Carol Delleris.

One quilt is a shade of old rose and is 100 inches square. The other is dark blue and 104 inches square.

There will be a chicken pie luncheon from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Prices for the luncheon are $2.50, adults and $1, children 12 and under. No reservations are necessary.

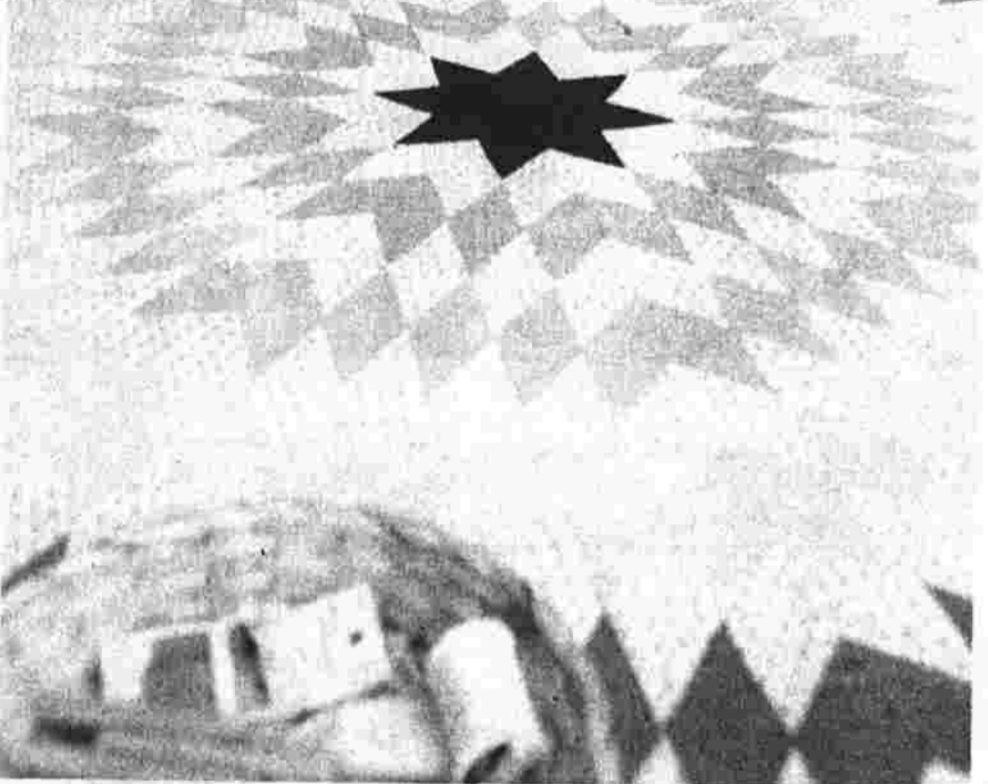

Cider and coffee will be available all day under the direction of Nancy Taylor and Hazel Lockward.

Other booths and their chairmen are toys, Marge Jensen; knitwear, Helen Warts; food, Ruth Gross; Gram's attic, Betty Norris; Nikki Richardson; handicrafts, Carol Delleris; hair-cutting, Pauline Vering; Welsh aprons, Cliff Stephens; pots and plants, Shirley Grayson.

Church Fair
The fair will also feature a children's room with items made by and items made for children to buy under the direction of Sally Jean.

There will be an ecumenical gift gallery featuring items made by featuring items that are not a Methodist. It's chairman is Pele Elencovf. The Christmas tree decoration booth is under the direction of Peggy Barlo.

Super specials will feature five items for sale at $5 each and 10 items for $10 each. Its chairman is Carol Delleris.

Two large quilts made by ladies of Bolton's United Methodist Church go on the auction block Saturday at 2 p.m. at the annual church fair. Working on one of the quilts are (left to right) Esther Walker, Alice Mack, Carol Delleris, and Lillian Scovell (Herald photo by Bevin)

There will be four puppet shows by Mitchell Grayson. They will be at 11 a.m., noon, 1 p.m., and 3 p.m.

Police Grants Reviewed

Manchester Police won $24,736 in grants this year from the Connecticut Planning Committee on Criminal Administration, according to the recently released 1974 Funding Report.

Vernon was the only other area town receiving CPCCA funds. Vernon's total was $20,814.

A grant of $9,296 came to Manchester to help fund a police community relations program. Off. Russell Holyfield was assigned to community relations last March.

The program is aimed at fostering good relations with the public and creating programs to ease or prevent crisis situations. Also, he is to create good contacts with potential problem groups and individuals.

Manchester also got a total of $14,340 this year to fund several civilian dispatchers at headquarters.

A grant of $11,000 to Manchester is meant for a new information system.

L. Richard Sartor of the local force said Thursday the town has yet to spend this last grant. The money is meant to pay for the services of a consulting firm.

So far, Sartor has received lengthy proposals from different firms bidding for the job. The department has studied them and is now in the process of picking one and signing a contract, he added.

The firm will consider the cost and effectiveness of manual or mechanical or microfilm or computerized information systems for a town the size of Manchester.

CPCCA hopes to use the results of the study here in guiding other towns this size in streamlining their systems, he said.

Manchester has received a total of $27,000 in CPCCA funds since it formed in 1970 to administer federal funds coming from

SL. The work will resume Tuesday, after the Veterans Day holiday for town workers. (Herald photo by Pin-t)

Pope Says Birth Control No Answer to Hunger

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI told World Food Conference delegates today countries can avoid mass starvation by exploiting unexplored lands and seas and promoting world peace.

He said birth control was "inadmissible" and not the answer to hunger. "The threat of hunger and malnutrition are not an inevitable destiny," the Pope said.

Coal Miners Begin Walkout

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sporadic mine walkouts in Appalachia apparently foreshadow a nationwide coal miners' strike to come Tuesday while bargaining teams wrestled over contract terms here during the weekend.

Just before talks recessed Friday night, the Bituminous Coal Operators Association, operators of 1,200 union mines producing about 75 per cent of the nation's coal, delivered up another revised economic package, which the union promised to study.

Meanwhile, walkouts were already occurring at mines owned by the Southern Ohio Coal Co. and at others in eastern Ohio and in West Virginia, although BCOA's contract with the United Mine Workers of America does not expire until 12:01 a.m. Tuesday.

U.M.W. President Arnold Miller said he did not know about premature walkouts. Local union and company officials said the Southern Ohio miners jumped the gun.

Strike Likely Tuesday
A nationwide strike Tuesday is likely, because even if agreement were reached immediately, union ratification would take some 10 days.

TOWN OF MANCHESTER DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS NOTICE OF LEAF PICKUP

The following streets are scheduled for leaf collection on the days listed below. In the event of heavy rain on any scheduled collection day, pickup on remaining routes will be postponed one working day. Home owners, on the streets listed below, who wish to have yard leaves collected are requested to rake leaves into the gutter so as to form a windrow the length of the collection. Property owners are requested to make certain that no foreign objects such as stones, branches, cans or any other material other than leaves or grass are placed in the windrows. Additional scheduled routes will be advertised next week.

Consumers Losing Ground Against Food Inflation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Consumers are losing ground in the battle against food inflation and the percentage of a worker's take-home pay needed to buy the groceries is rising.

Agriculture Department economists said Friday food spending increased at an annual rate of $6.5 billion from July through September, to a new seasonally adjusted annual rate of $17.3 billion.

This means food cost an average 16.9 per cent of after-tax income in the third quarter, compared with 16.6 per cent from April-June and 16.3 per cent year ago.

The economists also predicted higher food prices for the rest of 1974 and through at least the first half of 1975.

The Agriculture Department's Crop Reporting Board issued a monthly report, showing further cuts in weather-damaged corn and soybean crops — the key raw materials for meat, milk and poultry supplies.

Consumption Up
A Food Situation summary report said per capita food consumption is rising nearly 2 per cent above 1973, the largest yearly gain since 1959. The increase was attributed to greater consumption of red meat, poultry and a 13.5 per cent drop in the volume of farm exports.

But the report added that gloomier times are ahead. With the exception of beef, production of most other meats, poultry and other livestock products will decrease next year because of the sharply reduced crop and record livestock feed costs.

Stocks Diminishing
At the end of 1974, the experts pointed out, total U.S. stock levels of all crop and livestock food commodities are expected to be at their lowest level in 18 years.

Rep. Lawrence Coughlin, R-Pa., said he will introduce legislation to create a special joint congressional committee to investigate soaring food prices — particularly sugar — when Congress reconvenes Nov. 18.

Tariff Removal Asked
Coughlin also urged President Ford take action to halt skyrocketing sugar prices by eliminating tariffs on sugar imports.

Several consumer groups charged that the government's proposed changes in the beef grading system will result in lower quality meat at higher prices. The groups said that the changes would upgrade certain lower cuts of meat and "the public would be ripped off by a lesser grade of beef for more money."

Woodbridge St. Bridge Opened
The new Woodbridge St. Bridge was formally opened Friday. Mayor John Thompson drives across the new structure which replaces one severely damaged by a flash flood earlier this year. Jay Giles, public works director, and residents of the area look on. Other officials taking part in the opening were Robert Weiss, town manager, and Walter Senkow, town engineer.
