STAMPS AND COINS
By RUSSELL MCKENDRICK

Postage stamp featuring Sir Winston Churchill. Text: 'LET US GIVE THANKS Thanksgiving Message'. Includes a small map of the Isle of Man.

"Blood, toil, tears, and sweat." Sir Winston Churchill's centenary of birth, which falls on the last day of this month, is being celebrated all over the world with coins, medals, stamps and souvenir pieces.

The traditional way to express our gratitude is, of course, to share our blessings with others; to help the needy people in this land and abroad and to assist the oppressed people in other lands in their struggle for freedom and liberty.

But there is an additional way to show our appreciation for the good life that we enjoy and for the good things that we have. And that way is to cherish them and to safeguard them against the forces that threaten their corrosion and loss. For wealth and freedom do not come automatically. Wealth is the result of labor, and toil and effort. And freedom is preserved through vigilance, alertness and mutual concern for the life, property and welfare of all of our fellow citizens.

Today, some people question the value of work and effort. And the daily threats to life and property show a lessening in concern for the safety and well-being of the citizens of our towns and cities. These trends in our national life are certain to disrupt the delicate fabric of our society and to lead to the loss of the material and spiritual possessions which we, as Americans, cherish so highly.

It is therefore incumbent upon us during this season of Thanksgiving, as we contemplate the plight and the humble gratitude of our Pilgrim forefathers, to be mindful not only of our blessings but also of the many hazards that threaten the well-being of each and everyone of us and of the great need to do our utmost to promote the health, happiness and security of all of our fellow citizens.

For only as our fellow citizens and neighbors are secure, are we ourselves safe in our homes and tranquil in our hearts.

LET US GIVE THANKS

Thanksgiving Message

By Dr. Leon Wind Temple Beth Shalom

In the year 1621, the Pilgrims, having survived the many hardships which they had endured in their new land, gave expression to their deepfelt gratitude by setting aside a special day for public prayer and thanksgiving to God for the providence and protection He so mercifully had granted to them.

They were keenly aware of the great hazards that had faced them as they tried to chart for themselves a new course of life, and were deeply grateful for the meager and humble blessings that had come their way.

It is indicative of the profoundly religious spirit of this nation that the humble and spontaneous expression of thanks manifested by the Pilgrims has taken hold of the American people who, year in and year out, gather in their homes and Houses of Worship to recall the first Thanksgiving and to express their own gratitude to God for the countless blessings He so generously bestows upon them.

That the American people enjoy unprecedented blessings today is an indisputable fact. Despite the many hardships and uncertainties of our time and despite the many social and economic inequities that urgently need correcting, ours is a nation of wealth and riches unequalled by any other nation.

One need only to think of the hundreds of millions of people in many parts of the world who have little food to sustain life and of the millions of people in many lands who suffer religious and political oppression to appreciate the blessings of wealth and freedom that are ours today.

How are we to give expression to this appreciation of our blessings?

OPINION

Thanksgiving Thought

From a materialistic point of view, this Thanksgiving Day may seem a bit hard to observe as a feast of plenty. Living costs are up, unemployment is increasing, violence and lawlessness seem to abound, and yet Thanksgiving with all its emphasis on the material blessings is fundamentally a spiritual event.

A Good Precedent

Without getting into the pros and cons of the proposal for Connecticut to buy up farmlands in order to preserve these acres from encroaching non-farm developments, we are encouraged by one aspect of the plan.

LEE RODERICK

Thanksgiving 1974

WASHINGTON — "Whatever you have received in talents, in ability, in success, in a pleasant childhood, in harmonious conditions of home life, all this you must not take to yourself as a matter of course. You must pay a price for it. You must render in return an unusually great sacrifice of your life for other lives."

While talking with retailers and those in financial circles, we get the clear impression that in a great many areas there are cuts being made in spending.

Now and then, retailers are criticized for erecting Christmas window displays and decorations before Thanksgiving.

As the Herald's part in ushering in the Christmas season, we have engaged talented Martha White's Round Table Singers for four short appearances Friday in downtown, K-Mart center, Manchester Parkade and Barb Carvers.

One of our readers has an excellent suggestion. She wants us to publish the record of how our representatives in Congress voted on all legislation.

Our sincere apology for using women's lib, instead of women's liberation, in an item in last week's column.

MORE AGED

By JAMES F. WIECK, PLYMOUTH, Mass. (UPI) — No one is quite sure who celebrated the first Thanksgiving. It is stretched somewhere in the world's past, certainly predating the landing of the Pilgrims here.

Thanksgiving was celebrated without regularity until about the turn of the 19th century when it is believed to have become an annual custom. By the time of the Revolution, it was a national event with Congress each year setting aside a day for the celebration.

BONN (UPI) — The number of centenarians is rising in West Germany, says the Interior Ministry.

The number of persons aged 100 years or more was 600 in 1973 compared to around 400 a decade earlier.

Buses Still At Temporary Site

COVENTRY
 Monica Shea
 Correspondent
 642-9495

Tony Felice, a member of the Board of Education and chairman of its transportation committee, told the board Monday that the Mass. Bus Company is still temporarily located at the old Zollo building at Daley Rd. and Rt. 31 and that the company is currently looking for property to buy, so that it may permanently establish the company in one place.

Dr. Arnold Elman reported that the buses passed the motor vehicle inspection on Oct. 31 and that the chains were placed in the buses as of Monday. Dr.

Elman also reported that he had checked with the Chief of Police and found out that the two unregistered buses were not running several weeks ago. Sybil Roethke, principal at the Coventry Grammar School, reported that on Monday it took her children a total of 105 minutes to load and unload from the buses. This is 15 minutes more than it should take and the problem was that buses came in late.

The Mass. Bus Company is looking for more substitute drivers. It now has one substitute who is available all day and two others that are available for the morning runs.

Asks Reconsideration

The council is presently reviewing the student handbook and believes that this will be finished sometime in the spring.

The council had agreed to run a student court to handle smoking offenders, and it was reported that the court had drafted seven students to serve on the court, but were concerned that it might not work even when it was started.

The student representatives admitted that there wasn't too much improvement in the lavatories since a smoking area was opened.

Adult smoking areas have been established in the school for nonschool sponsored functions. Smoking may take place in the faculty and conference rooms of all schools and in the school offices at the discretion of the building principal.

Ferrella told the board this was the first that he had heard that the child had missed any school and that he would be willing to get the board a letter stating that there would be no transportation problems.

Explain Activities

Members of the Student Council explained to the board what its activities periods each week consisted of and the various groups involved. The students at the high school have activity twice a week at the last period of the day on Tuesday and Thursday. The clubs range from Women's Lib Club to coeducational intermural sports such as soccer and basketball.

School Develops Homework Policy

ANDOVER

A homework policy for Andover Elementary School students has been developed by the school staff.

Students in Grades 1 and 2 will have homework at least once a week. Students in Grades 3, 4, and 5 will have homework at least twice a week. Grade 6 students will have homework at least three times a week.

Library Circulation
 The Andover Elementary Library circulated 2,683 books in September and October.

Parents of students in Andover elementary School have been asked by school officials to see that their children are dressed for the weather with the onset of winter.

Students may not wear boots or shoe boots in school all day. Students wearing boots should also bring shoes to change into.

School students must be at their designated bus stops on time in the morning. A bus stopped in the road for any period of time is a hazard in itself, especially on heavily traveled roads.

Holiday Closings
 The town offices will be closed Thursday and Friday due to the holiday.

The Andover disposal area will be closed Thursday due to the holiday.

HebronGOP Plans Lincoln Day Dance

Anne Dallaire

The Republican Town Committee will hold its annual Lincoln Day Dinner Dance on Feb. 1, at the Grand Lake Lodge in Lebanon.

Jeff O'Dell, town committee treasurer, will be directing the arrangements. They hope to have the tickets available in mid-December.

The committee last week accepted the resignation of Harvey Backmender. Backmender told the committee, in his letter, he has accepted a position as district counsel of Connecticut for the Small Business Administration, and is resigning to avoid conflict of interest.

The group's subcommittee on selection of candidates was asked to begin meeting in effort to begin early selection of potential candidates for next year's town election. Members of the committee are Emery Taylor, Sandra Kujala, Daniel Paine and Marion Foote.

Mention was made of a letter from Ralph Susano, principal of Gilead Hill School, thanking the GOP for its interest in sponsoring the second annual fourth grade field trip to the State Capitol. Letters were received from F. Mac Buckley and Nathan Agostinelli thanking them for support in the recent election.

Vernon Kindergarten Rotation Proposed

The Vernon Board of Education will consider a request to rotate kindergarten sessions at mid-semester, a practice it has not followed since 1958.

The request was made by Mrs. Ann Dorman, mother of kindergarten student, during the citizens forum portion of the Board of Education meeting Monday night.

Mrs. Dorman feels the children should be changed so they go a half-year in the morning session and a half-year in the afternoon session.

Propose Store

Also during the forum, Helene Perry of the Skinner Rd. School PTO asked permission to allow the setting up of a "book store" at the school in conjunction with the math department.

The board said this would come under the jurisdiction of the administrator and Dr. Raymond Rasmussen, superintendent, approved the project, noting he sees it as a very worthwhile learning experience.

Mrs. Perry said the store would sell such items as pencils and pads and the only function the PTO would have would be to replenish supplies.

She said it will teach the children responsibility and will give them a place where they can purchase school supplies.

Roller Skating

James Boettcher, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, said his committee had investigated some complaints concerning use of the Northeast School for a roller skating program of the Recreation Department.

Boettcher said some 260 children are participating in the project which he termed "healthy and beneficial." He said his committee recommends its continuation.

"I've never seen so many happy kids."

15 Seek Planner Post

VERNON

Some 15 applications have been received for the position of Town Planner for Vernon. Applications have now been closed and a screening committee will start work on narrowing down the applicants.

Vernon has been without a planner since June 1973, when Joseph Pastic resigned to take a job out of the country. It is intended to hire the replacement by Jan. 1.

This was the second time the position was advertised. The first time, several months ago, brought in several applicants, none of whom the screening committee felt was experienced enough in municipal planning to fill the post.

The names of the latest applicants have been turned over to G. Richard Owens, chairman of the Town Council's Personnel Selection Board. Most of the applicants are from Connecticut and a few are from nearby states.

Representatives from town boards and commissions will sit in with the screening committee. They are: Ann Humphry, Zoning Board of Appeals; Brian Will, Conservation Commission; Herbert Slicer, Zoning Commission; and William Hoole, Planning Commission.

The committee will narrow down the number and determine which applicants will be called for interviews, and from these a group will be selected to be interviewed by a panel of technicians.

Human Development Curriculum Hits Snag

SOUTH WINDSOR
Judy Kuehnel
Correspondent

644-1364

The recent meeting of South Windsor's advisory committee appointed to rewrite a Human Development and Health Education curriculum hit a snag when numerous members complained that the curriculum they were analyzing was "not South Windsor's own, but a carbon copy of Manchester's sex education and family life program."

Pat Sprengelmeyer, 46 Ann Rd., brought the fact to the attention of the committee, questioning the necessity of hiring project coordinator Joel Wells.

"We could have simply taken Manchester's curriculum ourselves," said Mrs. Sprengelmeyer.

Members opposed to the use of Manchester's program as a guide said that Wells had been hired to design a curriculum specifically for South Windsor's needs.

The committee, which meets twice monthly, and consists of citizens opposed to the program as well as those in favor, was set up by the Board of Education to lend input to the writing of a curriculum. It is expected to be implemented in Grades K-6 in the fall.

Wells defended his presentation of Manchester's program as "a place to start." He said that he found Manchester's curriculum the best he had seen and felt that individual personality differences should not be brought to the attention of peers.

All members agreed that teachers and parents must help children to like themselves and others in spite of differences, but disagreement arose regarding the methods which may be used in the attainment of this goal.

The committee began brief discussion of the life cycle area of the kindergarten-first grade program with opponents questioning much of the material included. Discussion will be resumed Dec. 5. The meeting is open to all residents.

Concert Dec. 7

The South Windsor Recreation Department will present the Community Chorus in its second annual Holiday Concert Saturday Dec. 7, 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

The chorus will be directed by Roberta Reeves and accompanied by Karen Krijak. Donations are $1.50.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the chorus, at the Recreation Department in the Town Hall, or at the door the night of the concert.

This program will include such Christmas favorites as "Still and Hushed," "No Golden Carriage, No Bright Toy," "Do You Hear What I Hear," "White Christmas," and many more. The audience will be invited to join the chorus in a Christmas carol sing-along.

Tax Delinquencies $250,000

SOUTH WINDSOR

Five South Windsor firms, delinquent in the payment of 1974-75 tax revenues, have caused a reduction of at least $250,000 in collected taxes so far, according to Edward Moniz, collector of revenue.

Still owed are taxes from A.P. Peaslee Construction totaling $12,500; Achenback Realty, $45,813; Maskel Equipment Corp., $17,808; William Petrowski (for the vacant Podunk Plant), $50,898 and Sal Amato (apartments), $87,400.

According to town officials, the A.P. Peaslee Construction firm is presently going through bankruptcy proceedings. A number of smaller firms, with smaller amounts owed, are still outstanding with bills due by January.

Officials said the Sal Amato firm also owes $10,370 in 1973 taxes and the Maskel Equipment firm owes $17,466 in last year's taxes.

According to Moniz, one of the firms in question has been foreclosed by a bank, and the town of South Windsor is first on the list of debtors to be satisfied. The other firms are in the process of making arrangements to permit settlement.

The town's legal rate of penalty for overdue taxes is three-fourths of one per cent per month, or a maximum of nine per cent annually - below the commercial rate of interest.

According to Moniz, "the money (owed) is secure, especially with liens placed against various properties." However, he added, the liens do not guarantee the funds will be paid during this fiscal year, and to date officials have not figured out how much of a deficit will be caused by delinquency, if any.

Road Dangerous

Motorists are ignoring the closed status of Pierce Rd. during the current reconstruction, according to Public Works officials.

The Department of Public Works asks that the road closing be respected as reconstruction involves excavation of numerous trenches and ditches along, and across the roadway which present a serious hazard to vehicles.

The road is closed from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. During this period anyone other than residents living on the road are asked to use alternate routes for his own safety.

Holiday Closing

The South Windsor Town Hall will be closed for the Thanksgiving holiday Thursday, Nov. 28 and Friday, Nov. 29.

The sanitary landfill area on Strong Rd. will be closed Thanksgiving Day.

The South Windsor Public Library will be closed Thanksgiving Day, but will be open Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Youth Bureau May Need New Quarters

If plans go through to use the Memorial Building and part of the People's Bank Building for the merged Circuit Court and Court of Common Pleas. Verison will have to find new quarters for its Youth Services Bureau.

The bureau, headed by James Young, is now located in a room on the second floor of the Memorial Building.

The merged courts will be using this room which was used as a law library when Tolland County Superior Court was housed in that building.

Stanley Resler, director of administration, said that the youth office could possibly use the planner's office in the Administration Building. He said, however, this would only be temporary as the town is in the process of hiring a planner.

Resler suggested that perhaps the youth bureau could eventually be housed in the former Piton firehouse which is in the rear of the Memorial Building. This could not be done until the renovation project on the Memorial Building is completed as it is being used as an office for the clerk of the works for the project.

Seek Top Citizen

The Rockville Rotary Club has started its annual search of its "Citizen of the Year" award. Nominations must be returned to the nominating committee by Dec. 15.

The club has distributed nomination forms to the local business, governmental and civic community but anyone who wishes to propose a candidate for consideration may do so by submitting the name, and a brief resume.

Additional nomination forms may be obtained from A. Richard Lombardi, chairman of the award committee, and addressed to Rockville Rotary Club, P. O. Box 342, Rockville 06066.

The award is given to a resident or to a person who works in either Vernon, Tolland or Ellington, who has made an outstanding contribution to his or her community.

The club has been presenting this award annually since 1956.

Chorus to Sing In Philadelphia

SOUTH WINDSOR

644-1364

For the first time in the history of the South Windsor High School, the Vocal Ensemble has been selected to sing before the Music Education National Conference in Philadelphia, April 18-21.

Nicholas Lesbines, vocal director for the school, expressed pride over the group's selection, which he said resulted from a tape recording sent to the Music Educators.

"Not only has the group been chosen for Philadelphia but on Dec. 1 they've been asked to sing at the Second Congregational Church's Sunday Afternoon Concert Series held in Manchester," Lesbines said.

The cost of the trip to Philadelphia will be about $5,000. Over the coming months fund drives will be held to defray the cost.

"We plan to hold a crafts sale at our Dec. 15 Christmas concert in the high school, following the 3 p.m. program," Lesbines said.

Groups selected to perform before the Music Educators Convention are primarily from the East Coast and consist of both vocal and instrumental groups.

Some of the school band members will accompany the vocal group to Philadelphia, according to Lesbines.

Foes of DevCo Seek More Funds

COVENTRY

742-9495

The Anti-DevCo coalition has sent out another townwide mailing seeking funds for the continuing legal fees that the group is facing in its fight to keep DevCo out of Coventry.

The combined groups, Concerned Citizens of Tolland County, Committee for the Preservation of Coventry, and Coventry Opposing With Specialties, had already raised and spent approximately $8,500, according to co-chairman Donald Kingley.

The majority of the funds have gone to pay the group's attorney, John Fitzgerald, and the rest went to mailing and newspaper advertisements.

The group also used $92 to pay for taxis and film and slides from two of Ralph Nader's former associates who were scheduled to go to Columbia, Md. and to review the situation there. While they were there they did take pictures and secure information for the anti-DevCo groups.

The appeal letter, says the Columbia Md. project has suffered a multi-million dollar deficit for the past two years and that Connecticut General Life Insurance has absorbed this deficit.

The letter says the present legal fund goal for the groups is $5,000.

There is a perforated portion on the bottom of the letter that residents can sign if they are opposed to the DevCo proposal. This would become part of a petition against DevCo which could be submitted at the public hearings.

GOP Directors Criticize Sewer Study Unit Makeup

Republican members of Manchester's Board of Directors, who opposed creation of a sewer study committee in September, now object to Mayor John Thompson's appointment of committee members.

Republican Director Vivian Ferguson, minority leader of the board, said Tuesday that Thompson usurped the powers of an elected mayor. She criticized Thompson for appointing a "blue ribbon" committee consisting of six Democrats and one unaffiliated voter.

"Town committees should be representative of all the people of Manchester," Ferguson said. "The obligation to the public is not being fulfilled by an unbalanced committee consisting of six Democrats and one unaffiliated voter."

"Not one Republican to represent the minority was chosen," she said. "This is clearly against the American form of government and greatly one-sided."

Watkins Buys Bloomfield House

The Bloomfield House, located on Cottage Grove Rd., consists of an 18,000-square-foot building, Watkins said. The local furniture store comprises about 50,000 square feet of floor space, plus warehouse facilities.

R. Bruce Watkins, president of the local firm, said today the transaction is to take place Jan. 2. He declined to reveal the purchase price.

Watkins said the name of the Bloomfield concern will be changed to Watkins Bloomfield House when the takeover is completed. Both stores specialize in early American furniture, he said, and no changes are envisioned at the Bloomfield store.

"We've been thinking about expansion to the other side of the Connecticut River for some time," Watkins said today, "although we didn't have a timetable."

Craftsman Series to Start Dec. 6

The Girl Scouts are planning a bi-centennial variety and fashion show dating back to 1776.

The Women's Guild of the Congregational Church is planning a public supper outdoors next summer and will display bi-centennial crafts they are now working on.

Other plans for next year include a band concert and early American public school memorabilia to be housed in Moor's Indian Charity School.

There are plans to have a tour of historic homes culminating in a silver tea at the Congregational Church.

Armchair Touring
The Columbia Historical Society will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in Yeomans Hall for a brief business meeting.

The secretary records of the Parent-Teacher Association which were offered to the society on the dissolution of the organization.

Judy Quimby will act as coordinator between the historical group and the Bicentennial Commission.

A Bicentennial publication of the history of education in Columbia will be printed next year.

Most of the background research has been done on school board, town and ecclesiastical records. The preliminary work has focused on the early years, but the report is being planned to bring the story of education in the town up to today.

The committee is starting to gather reminiscences from some of the town's senior citizens who attended or taught school here. Anyone who is interested in participating may contact a member of the committee.

Mrs. Gladys Soracchi and Donald Nelson are co-chairmen, and working with them are Jane McKeen, Sandy Lohr, Donald and Eleanor Tuttle, Judy Nelson, Kenneth Bowen, Deivens Montigny, Noreen Steele and Ariene Gray.

Registrars
Neither of the registrars, Grace Pringle, Republican, or Laura Szegda, Democrat, has filed a certificate of appointment of deputy with the town clerk's office.

Section 9-12 of the state statutes says, "Each registrar of voters immediately after his election shall appoint a deputy registrar of voters to hold office during his term."

At Tuesday's Planning and Zoning Commission meeting Attorney William Bost asked for a public hearing for the proposed Eismann subdivision. The commission said it will not call a public hearing until it receives and reviews the revised application on the proposed nine-parcel subdivision.

The commission received a letter from the Director of Health saying he had inspected the drainage system at the Caron Brothers Subdivision, Rt. 83. The commission is sending a letter to the Caron Brothers asking that they furnish the commission a review of installed drainage system by a certified engineer and a review of storm and surface water system. Also that the drainage easements and right-of-way maybe properly recorded.

In other business Attorney Bost told the commission that the proposed Northern Hills Subdivision Section II can be taken off the agenda until tests can be taken next year. Attorney Bost said he will notify the commission when the tests have been taken so it can be placed back on the agenda.

Nick Takotes applied for a beer permit for the Hebron Pizzeria but was told the application must be filed out in full before the commission will sign it.

The elections of officers for the commission was postponed until all members are present. The commission voted by a 5-0 margin for the printing of the inland Wetlands regulation.

The members also voted to cancel the Dec. 24 meeting.

Eight former winners represented the United States in Olympic competition, McCluskey, Kelley, Ted Vogel, Fred Schoeffel, Nick Coste, Dick Hart, Pete Clouse and Vic Zwolak. Clouse was a Manchester product who later starred at St. John's University.

Record Number of Entrants Set to Chase Amby Burfoot

By Earl Yost Sports Editor

Twenty four years ago Nutmeg Forest, Tall Cedars of Lebanon stepped in and took over sponsorship of the annual Five Mile Road Race in Manchester on Thanksgiving morning.

With a break from the weatherman, it's expected that at least 800 will start in the 30 years since the race was officially revived in 1946. Phinney will be in his 21st consecutive run. Dyson, too, is an ex-champ.

Joe McCluskey, a four-time champion, including three straight in 1930-31-32, adds prestige to the run. He is also one of a track's all-time greats.

For the first time, females will be official entrants and between 50 and 75 are expected.

The oldest entry blank was forwarded by 76-year-old Marty Cavanaugh. Minimum age is 14.

From 1945 to 1950 the race was co-sponsored by the Rec Department and the Army & Navy Club. The Tall Cedars entered the picture in 1951.

All money collected will be turned over to the Muscular Dystrophy Fund of the Cedars. This includes a dollar entry fee from all contestants.

The race is sanctioned by the AAU. No post-race prizes will be accepted.

Mayor John Thompson will award prizes to the top 25 finishers, plus the first three schoolboys (or girls) and the first three seniors (50 years of age and over). The Rec will serve as race headquarters.

General chairman for the Cedars is Will Hadden, Pete Wigren is serving as race director.

Winning Season Goal With Eagles

By Len Auster
Hartford County Conference (HCC) arch-rival South Catholic provides the opposition Thanksgiving morning at 10:30 at Mt. Nebo as East Catholic goes after its first winning football season since 1969. The Eagles have an aggregate 5-4 mark and triumphant in their last three outings. The invading Hartford-based Rebels have been on the short end of 10 scores this campaign and have lost 20 in a row over two seasons.
Two records, one team and one individual, will also be sought by Coach John LaFontana's Eagles. East has registered three shutouts this year. 0-0 with Rockville, 44-0 over Kolbe and 23-0 over Bloomfield. Four whitewashes is the school record, established in the course of a 6-3 won-loss 1968 season. Senior Co-Captain Joel Desimone is after the school single season rushing mark, 968 yards by Rick Roberts in 1966 also. Desimone has tabulated 837 yards on 126 carries, a 6.6 average.
East leads the series, 7-4, including a 37-14 decision last year. But the lowly Rebels have been known to spring an upset or two, such as in the 1969 Turkey Day clash when the Eagles were heavy favorites, as they will be this go-around.
"Our seniors are motivated for a good game," the cigar-chomping LaFontana noted, "but everybody is motivated when we play South. We have a good rivalry in all sports."
South played last Saturday and lost to Wethersfield, 22-8. LaFontana and his staff did some scouting and reported, "I can honestly say the records can be tossed out the window. From what I've seen South is a sleeping tiger. If their players do the job they can hurt somebody. Our object is to put a lot of pressure on their quarterback (sophomore Tom Diachenko). He's a good passer who has two fine receivers."
"Our motto for this game is 'make sure'. We can't just go through the motions. We have to go out and do the job," LaFontana issued as a warning.
Defensively, the Eagles have come on strong. If there is one turning point it is the Xavier game which East lost, 32-12. In that encounter the Eagles gave the No. 1 team in statewide schoolboy polls a struggle and in the process convinced themselves they could do the job.
Senior linebacker Tom Hornat leads the defensive brigade. He along with Vin Tursi and Brian McKeever led the way in East's most recent triumph, 26-6 over St. Paul. Hornat along with defensive back Mike Nolan have a shot at All-HCC honors according to their coach. Vast improvement has also been witnessed in the play of 6-1, 198-pound tackle Joe Golec, a junior, and 6-3, 180-pound sophomore end Ed Sadoski. The steady improvement of all has been the key to the success of the defense.
Performing for the final time in a Blue and White uniform are Desimone, Hornat, Tursi, McKeever, Rob Tebecio, Dave Carter, Joe Laliberte, Mike Pardi, John Hackett and Bill Leaty. All will start, LaFontana said.
LaFontana expects South to unfurl a few wrinkles it didn't show against Wethersfield. "They (South) always try something in this game. We might too. But we use a awful lot of things and we have plays in our book we haven't even used. We'll, however use the plays that have worked for us. We want to go with what wins. We want this game. Our players taste a winning season."

End to Loss Skein Indians' Objective

By Len Auster
Salvation will be the hallmark when Manchester High takes the gridiron Thanksgiving Day morning in the City of Village Charm. The Indians, who've dropped their last six contests, will be out to salvage something of their season at Memorial Field at 11 hosting CCIL vs Windham High.
The Manchester-Windham series was deadlocked last year at 6-6 with the Whippets winning, 13-6. The victory also gave Coach Ed Ferrigno's 11 a leg up on the Army & Navy Club Trophy, which is retired after a club wins three times.
"It should be an interesting game," asserted Indian Coach Larry Olsen. "Neither one of us has been that outstanding this year." Windham is 2-5 in the league and 3-6 overall. The Whippets have lost three straight, five out of their last six.
The locals have been beset by nagging injuries this campaign. Sophomore tackle Bob Noonan is definitely on the shelf again, already missing a number of games with a bad knee. The status of John Kunz, Bob Digan, Bob Hawkes and Jason Dodge is also questionable.
Olsen expects something extraordinary from Windham. "They don't have a big team but they run a razzle-dazzle side-saddle T offense and Ed (Ferrigno) always comes up with something very colorful. What's the most spectacular thing we're going to do? Hopefully we'll unveil a win. This is the last game for the seniors and for the whole team and they, along with myself, must be disappointed in what developed. We have an awful lot to prove and we want to prove that we still can win," the mid-mannered second-year mentor commented.
The Indians will open with junior Wayne Ostrout at quarterback.
Ostrout took over the starting role two games ago and has done a credible job. Under heavy pressure against league champ Hall High, Ostrout completed eight passes for over 100 yards. In the backfield along with Ostrout are junior fullback Butch Kinney and senior halfbacks Jack Maloney and Ed Budanuro. Defensively, Bill Wilson had a big game against Hall with two fumble recoveries and an interception.
The Indians have scored 117 points in their eight games and yielded 260. In the two victories recorded the Silk Towners held the opponent to under 20 points. Windham comes in with comparable statistics. They've tallied 137 points and allowed 206 in nine tilts. Against league opposition the Whippets nipped Conard and Fern. Two clubs which romped over Manchester. The Indians, on the other hand, bested Wethersfield which toppled the Williamite 11. There is really no way to predict what will happen. It must be decided on the gridiron.
Donning the Red and White colors of Manchester for the final time will be 16 seniors. They are: Maloney, Budanuro, Wilson, Steve Small, Kunz, Peter McCluskey, Bill Cunningham, Ron Ricketts, Richard Nicholas, Digan, Mark Elliot, John Samiotti, Dan White, David Lyons, John Griffin and Neil McKenney. All will see action Olsen stated.
Manchester was riding high after opening the 1974 season with two victories. Predominant talk was about a highly successful year. Then the roof caved in as six straight setbacks followed. It's not a matter of consolation but a victory Turkey Day would leave a nice taste, one which can be carried over all the way to the dinner table.

'Just Average Great Player' Jauron Winning Plaudits As Detroit's Free Safety

DETROIT (UPI) - There's nothing special about Dick Jauron, coach Rick Forzano says. "He's just an average great player."
The coach of the Detroit Lions likes his free safety and punt return specialist for a lot of reasons, most of them having a lot to do with Jauron's knack of doing the proper thing at the precise time.
The second-year man from Yale has climbed to the top of the National Football Conference punt return standings after his performance Sunday against the Chicago Bears, when he ran back a pair of kicks 58 and 58 yards to set up two touchdowns in a 34-17 Detroit victory.
"He's got a great sense of awareness when he's running with the ball," Forzano said. "He knows where the ball's going when he's on defense and he knows where to take it when he's running with the ball."
"There's a fine line between succeeding in a thing like that—or anything—or failing."
On the 36-yarder, Jauron made classic use of his blockers to move left-right-straight into the line of scrimmage.
"The first time the ball got there really quick," he said. "The second time it didn't so I just took off."
He took off 58 yards, ripping straight upfield without slowing to use his blockers at all.
"You don't like walls when you cover pants," he said.
"The only way you learn about punt returning is by watching. Len Barney ... the thing about him is that he doesn't waste time. He gets the ball and goes."
With an average of 16.9 yards for 16 punt returns, Jauron could take somebody about the art of punt returning to himself. All they have to do is watch.

Barnes' Latest Problem-His Car

ST. LOUIS (UPI) - Muddled Marvin Barnes, who isn't sure he likes his $2.1 million contract with the Spirits of St. Louis, had more problems Tuesday when his $35,000 Rolls Royce wouldn't start.
That's the excuse the 6-foot-9 center gave after showing up two hours late for a session to iron out his problems with the Spirits' management.
Barnes, who walked out on his ABA team a week ago before a game with the New York Nets, huddled for 45 minutes with Spirits' Coach Bob MacKinnon and President Harry Weltman and the two had one question - does Barnes think his contract is valid?
The two-time All-America from Providence didn't commit himself; he told the executives he hasn't decided yet.
While Barnes is making up his mind, his pay is suspended and his team is floundering.
The team was adamant in refusing to renegotiate Barnes' contract. A spokesman said, "We signed our names to the contract. We're living up to our end of the contract. We expect him to do the same."

Owens Resigns
SEATTLE (UPI) - Jim Owens, an early hero when he guided Washington to three Rose Bowls but the recent focus of criticism, quit Tuesday night. "For personal reasons" after 18 years as the university's head football coach.
Owens, who survived a black player revolt in 1969 and withstood increasing complaints about his coaching abilities, said no group or individual forced his decision to resign.

An IRS spokesman was quoted Tuesday by the Oregonian as saying a notice of levy was filed against the Florida Blazers of the World Football League to cover Storm debts to the federal government.

More Physical
HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (UPI) - The New York Jets, who opened the season by losing seven of their first eight games, shoot for their longest winning streak in five years Sunday against the San Diego and Coach Charley Winner has a simple answer for the turnaround.
"In the last three weeks, this club has become more physical," said Winner Tuesday as the Jets prepared to go for their fourth straight victory, a feat they have not accomplished since 1969. "In order to be a good club in the National Football League, you have to be physical and aggressive. You can't sit back and just let things happen."

Support President
BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) - The University of Vermont Faculty Senate voted 11 to 8 Tuesday to support UVM President Edward Andrews' inclusion of the football program in a proposed $1.5 million budget-cut package for next year.
Faculty Senate Chairman Wilfred Reib, an electrical engineering professor, said after the meeting that the group feels academic quality of the institution "is the single most important factor when evaluating and comparing one program versus another."

Net Winner
BOSTON (UPI) - Guillermo Vilas of Argentina won the Commercial Union Grand Prix ratings contest today with 797 points.
Vilas will receive $100,000 if he plays in the Commercial Union Masters Tournament, Dec. 10-15 in Melbourne, Australia. Under prize rules, those who qualify for the cash prizes in ratings based on performance in major tournaments during the year must participate in the CUI Masters to receive them.

Ethiopian Revolution No Longer Bloodless

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

For 10 months the Ethiopian revolution had been a model of decorum, slow-paced and virtually bloodless. At midnight, Nov. 23, it accelerated with frightening speed, the turn signaled by the chatter of machine guns that executed 60 former national leaders, including some associated with the revolution itself.

The Ethiopian radio indicated the bloodbath was not yet over. Trials would begin immediately for an estimated 140 others arrested on corruption charges. Among those falling in the initial executions were two former prime ministers and Lt. Gen. Aman Michael Andom, who until mid-November had served as head of the military provisional government after the fall of Emperor Haile Selassie.

Aman, a tall, dapper man, described as a liberal widely admired by his junior officers, received a B.A. degree from Howard University while serving as military attaché to the Ethiopian Embassy in Washington for a year until July, 1968.

For a time it was believed he was the possible strongman in the ranks of the secretive Armed Forces Coordinating Committee which sets the policy for the military regime. Identifies of only a few others among the committee are known. The members are said to wear masks even at private meetings to ensure their secrecy.

One of the former prime ministers executed was Aklou Habte-Wold, last to be named by Haile Selassie. The military forced his resignation on charges he had failed to deal with inflation.

The other was Endalkachew Makonnen. He had been put into office by the army and was removed after some five months for failing to effect reforms demanded by the military. Endalkachew, an aristocrat, was also accused of siding with "his former colleagues and close relatives under detention" and of "trying to create dissent among the armed forces."

General Aman may have fallen into disfavor because he had sought a peaceful solution to the revolt in secessionist Eritrea and was himself of Eritrean descent.

Emerging as a possible new strongman is a previously little known army major named Mengistu Haile Mariam. He once served under General Aman in the army's third division. He also saw service along the sensitive Somali border which along with Eritrea is an Ethiopian problem.

Pope Issues Statement Condemning Abortions

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI has declared abortion is murder and cannot be justified by poverty, illegitimacy or the world population problem.

The 3,500-word declaration cited God's commandment: "Thou shalt not kill" and said the problem of overpopulation can be solved through sexual abstinence or the rhythm system, but never through abortion.

"We proclaim that none of these reasons can ever objectively confer the right to dispose of another's life, even when that life is only at the beginning," the Pope said.

SAFE LIVING MANCHESTER PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE

The Manchester Public Safety Advisory Committee is available to help you.

The Manchester Public Safety Advisory Committee will again be bringing you, through this weekly column in The Herald, information on safety programs in progress in Manchester, information on the latest Safety Laws in the state of Connecticut, and health and safety information to help all of you lead safer lives.

We shall also endeavor to better acquaint you with our committee. This committee was named in late 1972 to improve the level of safety activities in Manchester.

Representation is from the Board of Education, Police Department, Fire Department, Chamber of Commerce, PTA Council, State Highway Department, Manchester Junior Woman's Club, Jaycees, Youth Commission, Manchester Community College and three insurance companies: Aetna Life and Casualty, Travelers and Hartford Insurance Group.

The committee meets monthly in an effort to combine its talents, ideas and available resources to assist any organization and official town agency in carrying out established programs and to encourage the creation of programs in needed areas. We look forward to hearing from any organization or business that would like our help in initiating a safety program.

Assistance has been provided by the Safety Advisory Committee in the past to the Board of Education for the improvement of the safety and first aid curriculum for Manchester schools; to the Fire Department in promoting Fire Prevention Week, and to the Manchester Junior Women's Club for their Bicycle Safety Programs and the CRIS (Children's Rooms Identification Stickers) Program.

The committee is presently working with the Police Department and various other organizations to establish a Safety Town Program which will be in operation in Manchester in the spring. The Late Junior Museum and town libraries will also be recipients of our assistance soon.

Numerous safety materials are being made available in the museum and libraries for use by the schools and the public by the Safety Advisory Committee.

In the following weeks, our Safe Living column will feature hints on buying safely for Christmas, and precautions to take to assure yourselves of a safe holiday and winter season. Be sure to watch for these articles.

The Manchester Public Safety Advisory Committee urges you to be an alert, cautious person and have a happy and safe Thanksgiving weekend.

The Lighter Side: Hard Core Philanthropy

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Puritan ethic, once believed moribund if not dead, is alive and well and living at the Rockefeller confirmation hearings.

Regardless of how hedonistic one becomes, there is still something soul-satisfying in seeing a man overcome the weaknesses and temptations that beset him.

I felt uplifted, as I imagine most Americans did, by Nelson Rockefeller's transformation under the purifying fire of congressional inquisition.

He first came before the Senate Rules Committee seemingly a hopeless philanthropist — a dissolute multimillionaire unable to resist the impulse to press money on his friends and associates.

By the time he faced the House Judiciary Committee for the second round of hearings, he apparently had undergone complete regeneration.

For in the meantime he had signed the pledge, a written vow to conquer the benevolent demons within him and refrain from generosity for the duration of his term.

Some idea of the mettle it takes to break oneself of habitual big-heartedness may be gleaned from talking with members of Altruists Anonymous.

You can see them on street corners in seedy parts of town, miserable wretches bent on giving away their last dime.

Some are reduced to giving the shirts off their backs.

"Since big-heartedness isn't considered contagious or addictive, little has been done in the way of study or research," an AA spokesman told me.

"We don't even know what causes it — why some people can make occasional donations without getting hooked while others feel compelled to give 'til it hurts."

"Most of our members are former social donors. They probably got started by dropping coins in Salvation Army kettles at Christmas."

"The next thing they know they are contributing to every worthy cause in sight. And in the advanced stages they go out looking for someone to give money to."

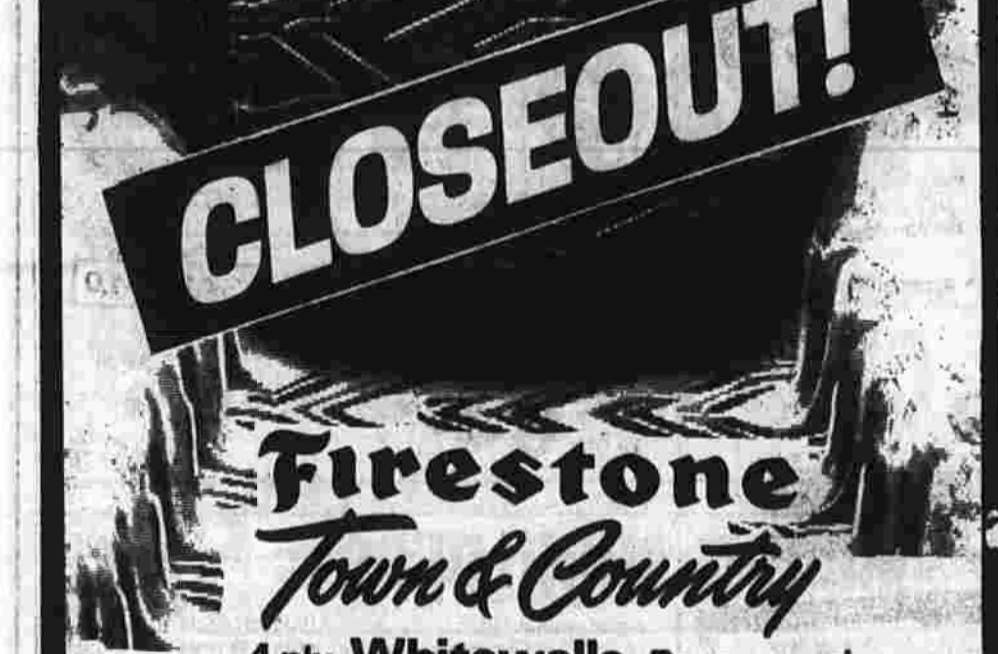

"The first time I realized I needed help was after one of those Democratic fund-raising marathons on television.

"Haggard and bleary-eyed, I sat through the whole thing, frequently jumping up to dash to the telephone and call in a donation. And I'm a Goldwater Republican."

Taking the pledge, as Rockefeller has done, doesn't eliminate the metabolic or psychological conditions that cause a person to become big-hearted in the first place.

But if he feels he is backsliding, he can call Altruists Anonymous and they will send over a lightwad to help him get a grip on his checkbook.

Area People Finish Dermatology Course

Several Manchester area residents are among the 140 pharmacists and other health professionals who have completed a five-session specialized course in practical dermatology at the University of Connecticut.

Participants received instruction on the anatomy of the skin; psoriasis and dermatitis; viral bacterial and fungal infections; drug reactions; and new and unusual dermatologic therapy. The course, conducted in eight locations, was sponsored by UConn's Continuing Education Services, the UConn School of Pharmacy, and the University of Minnesota College of Pharmacy.

Home Mortgage Funds Allocated

The Connecticut Housing Finance Authority (CHFA) has authorized the immediate allocation of $30 million for its Home Mortgage Purchase Program. Of the $30 million, $24 million will be allocated to participating lenders, $4 million for forward commitments to builders, and $2 million for special programs.

The new allocations to participating lenders are being made on the basis of a three-month period expiring February 28, 1975. In the meantime, further allocations will be made upon demonstrated demand as furnished by the participating lenders in monthly status reports. All participating lenders are required to observe the eligibility policy adopted by the CHFA Board at its November meeting. This policy requires that participating lenders originate mortgages for all home mortgage programs; make CHFA financing available to any eligible applicant within their market area; and make no special requirements for the borrower. The CHFA Home Mortgage Purchase Program provides for participating lenders to secure the necessary commitments from FHA, VA, or a private mortgage insurer, and then submit it to CHFA for purchase at the new interest rate of 8%. CHFA does not deal directly with the borrower.

Study Shows Mileage Deception

Connecticut consumers are being confused, misled, or deceived about how much gasoline mileage the new 1975 cars receive, according to a survey of Hartford area auto dealers by the Connecticut Citizen Research Group.

The group's study, released Tuesday, revealed that 84 per cent of mileage figures quoted by the dealers were incorrect when compared to figures of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

CCRG's surveyors visited 20 auto dealerships posing as new car buyers. Each dealer was surveyed twice, once by a male and once by a female, to determine whether salespeople quoted higher mileage figures to women than to men.

In the course of a conversation, surveyors asked salespeople, "What kind of gas mileage can I expect to get with the car in city driving and highway driving?"

Most cars checked had no EPA sticker. Two cars had the EPA sticker, but the salesman still claimed the EPA figures were "very conservative." In some cases, a large car had no sticker while a smaller car displayed right next to it had a sticker. Wanchek said the survey results will be presented to the Federal Trade Commission, which is conducting hearings to determine what rules should be established to regulate gas mileage claims by auto manufacturers and dealers.

Town Firm Gets State Assistance

A check for $214,200 in state industrial revenue bond proceeds has been turned over to representatives of the Donwell Co. of Manchester by the Connecticut Development Authority.

The bond proceeds will cover 90 per cent of the cost of a new 14,400-square-foot facility on two acres of land on the south side of Sheldon Rd. Donwell will redeem the bonds in 25 years.

The 16-year-old company, which does custom plastic coating of industrial materials, is now based in part of the Cheney Mills complex. The new Sheldon Rd. building is expected to enable Donwell to reduce costs and operate more efficiently.

In addition, unit sales of existing single-family homes continued at a slow pace, up only 1 per cent from the previous September when sales skidded 12.2 per cent from the September 1973 level.

Price advances fluctuated greatly on a regional basis, the association reported. In the Northeast, the year-to-year price rise was 7.6 per cent to $36,850; Western region, 12.9 per cent to $37,740; Southern, 11 per cent to $31,980; and Central, 11.8 per cent to $27,980.

By price class, September sales indicate a continuing shrinkage of the number of homes available in lower price categories. For example, this September 44.4 per cent of homes sold were at prices ranging from under $10,000 to $20,999. Last September, 52.8 per cent of sales were in those price ranges.

Static Electricity Shock Means Home Air Dry

By State Department Of Consumer Protection
 The static electricity shock you receive after you've walked across the carpet in winter and touched something metal means the air in your home is very dry.

A humidity range of 30-35 per cent is recommended for the average home during the heating season. At that level you breathe easier and feel more comfortable.

Dry indoor air not only affects you personally, you may notice that plants and flowers lose their moisture and wilt, furniture may crack and pull apart and even your carpets and draperies may become brittle and wear out faster than the normal expectation.

Surveys show it costs you more to heat a dry home, too, often as much as three per cent more.

If you don't have a satisfactory humidifier unit on your home furnace, we recommend consideration of a portable unit. For a small room, a bowl-shaped room unit should do. A tabletop model is often satisfactory for one or two rooms or a small apartment. If you want to do more, however, you should look into a console model. Console humidifiers can add from five to 17 gallons of water a day to the air, depending on their size and your home conditions.

Be sure the humidifier has an Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. safety symbol and read the warranty carefully making sure service is available locally so that you don't have to ship the unit for repairs.

 Look for plastic, aluminum or coated metal grilles or louvers so there will be no rusting and if movement around the home will be necessary get a unit on casters for easy movement.

Other points to check are ease of wet filter pad change or cleaning and length of power cord so an extension cord is not needed. Consider the safety of young children, too, when choosing a model for your home.
 Read the manual or directions for use carefully and at home place the unit near a room partition rather than a cool outside wall where the moisture might condense.

Perhaps you'll have a shockless winter ahead.

7) What is the approximate number of persons incarcerated for drug and alcohol related offenses? (a) 1900 (b) 2700 (c) 400
8) Which civic organization has established chapters within Connecticut's correctional facilities? (a) Rotary (b) Red Cross (c) Jaycees
9) What was the approximate savings to taxpayers last year due to inmates holding jobs under the Department of Correction's work release program? (a) $10,000 (b) $25,000 (c) $40,000
10) Last year, more than 5,000 inmates were involved in the Department's furlough program. What was the rate of success of that program? (a) 50% (b) 75.5% (c) 99.7%
11) Why is citizen involvement important to the correctional process? (a) It can help cut the recidivism rate (return to the correctional system) (b) because the cost of crime affects every taxpayer in the state (c) because public acceptance can help ex-offenders become productive members of the community.

Answers:

- 1) Philadelphia
2) The Department maintains 11 facilities — 8 Correctional Centers, 4 Correctional Institutions and 1 Correctional Camp.
3) Naantic serves as the locus for women inmates but a portion of the population is housed in community-based facilities such as the YWCA in New Haven.
4) All of the educational programs mentioned are available to inmates on a voluntary basis as part of the Department of Correction's rehabilitation programs.
5) Contrary to the stereotype depicted in Bogart movies, the average inmate age level is 23 years.
6) Nearly one-fourth (23%) of those serving sentences are incarcerated for crimes classified as "victimless."
7) Approximately 1900 of the 2700 inmates in the correctional system are incarcerated for drug and alcohol related crimes.
8) The Connecticut Jaycees have organized chapters in eight of the state's correctional facilities.
9) Inmates holding jobs under the work release program effected a $40,000 saving to Connecticut's taxpayers last year.
10) While 5,640 inmates were involved in furloughs for home visits and employment interviews, abuse of the program was negligible; the program maintained a success rate of 99.7 percent.
11) All of the answers apply. Citizen interest and involvement can make the difference between the ex-offender's successful adjustment to community living and his ultimate return to the correctional system. While the Department of Corrections offers a number of programs designed to help the offender become a responsible citizen, public acceptance of the person being the key to their effectiveness — the key to reduced crime.

High Sugar Prices Recalls Days of Triangle Trading

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI) — Back in the mid-1700s, there were as many as 30 rum distilleries in this seaport — one point in the so-called triangle trade that stemmed from the sugar processing system of colonial days.
William D. Metz, history professor at the University of Rhode Island, said sugar processing back then was nothing like the closely regulated system of today.
In the triangle trade, raw sugar was grown and processed in the Caribbean and yielded molasses as a by-product. The molasses was distilled into rum in Newport and other New England points. Metz said the rum was consumed locally, traded for fur or fish or shipped to Africa to trade for slaves who were brought to the West Indies to work the sugar plantations.
In the current system, raw sugar comes to the U.S. for refining. Only five areas outside the continental U.S. — Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Panama, the Philippines and Ireland — are permitted to ship refined sugar into the country.

Two Weeks of Hard Work Preceded Mass Jailbreak

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — For 11 days Paul Chamberlain and 23 other prisoners in a Mexican jail chipped at the concrete floor of their cell with a smuggled hammer muffled with rubber and cloth padding.
The next three days were spent burrowing a 2-foot-long tunnel six feet under the wall of the prison in Piedras Negras, just across the border from Eagle Pass, Tex.
Sunday they escaped and 16 of the jailbreakers who were Mexican nationals headed for the interior of their country.
The eight Americans in the group scrambled two miles to the rain-swollen Rio Grande. Two of them might not have made the midnight swim across to the American side.
The story of the escape was brought to public attention Tuesday when three of the fugitives — Chamberlain, 26, a farmer from Justin, Tex.; Ken Lisenby, 22, a railroad worker from Arkansas; and Robert Magers, 21, an AWOL Army private from Kansas stationed at Ft. Hood, Tex. — granted an interview to the San Antonio Light.
The Rev. Kenneth Ulleng of Eagle Pass visited the prison often to look into reports of overcrowding, mistreatment of prisoners and unsanitary conditions. He confirmed the three men's story.
"I started feeling like I was part of an underground railroad about 3 a.m. Sunday (when five of the Americans visited his home)," Ulleng said.
Ulleng said most of the men were jailed for drug-related offenses. The minister said he doesn't condone the use of drugs or escaping from prisons. But he said this case was different.
"I don't blame them for trying to escape. Justice is one thing, but I also believe in humanity," he said.
"The health conditions are atrocious. I would visit there and come home and bathe for fear of giving something to my children."
He said some of them were held in the jail for as long as a year before they were brought to trial.
Chamberlain said Daniel Phillip "Zero" Lang, 24, a friend of Magers' from Indiana, and Dan Womack, 32, of Dallas, were unaccounted for following the swim across the river.
"Zero was ahead of me in the water," Magers said. "But when I came out, he wasn't there. I lost him in the river."
Magers said he would turn himself over to authorities at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio to answer AWOL charges. Chamberlain and Lisenby said they were going home.
The group, Fathers United for Equal Justice, cite particular objections to courts' usual practice of giving custody of children to mothers during divorce proceedings. New Hampshire already has a Commission on the Status of Women.

Status of Men Agency Requested by Males

CONCORD, N.H. (UPI) — A group of New Hampshire men dissatisfied with the state's divorce laws has asked Gov. Meldrim Thomson to establish a commission to study the status of men.

Nixon Health Examination Results Expected Soon

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Not even Richard Nixon will know the verdict of the Watergate court's medical examiners until the doctors report their unanimous conclusion to federal court Judge John Sirica Friday.
The three distinguished physicians flew back to Washington Tuesday after examining the 61-year-old former president at his estate in San Clemente to determine whether he is too sick to testify at the Watergate cover-up trial.
The conclusion was absolutely unanimous, said Dr. Richard Starr Ross of John Hopkins University. But the doctors refused to say what the conclusion was.
Sirica, who ordered the examination, said at the Watergate cover-up trial in Washington he "couldn't see any reason" why the medical report could not be submitted to him today and made public sooner than Friday.
Both James F. Neal, chief prosecutor at the trial, and attorney William S. Frates, whose client John D. Ehrlichman has subpoenaed Nixon, urged Sirica to obtain the report as quickly as possible.
"Our thought was that rather than wait until Friday, it would be to the advantage, we think, of everyone to have it this afternoon," Neal told Sirica.

State Rewards Assessed As Crime-Solving Tool

By ROBERT LAMBERT HARTFORD (UPI) — When investigators lose the scent in a criminal case, they can turn to the governor's office and ask him to post a reward of up to $3,000 to help put the criminal behind bars.

Before Gary B. Schragger and Ronald Piskorski were arrested in New Britain and charged with murder in the shooting of six persons at the Donna Lee bakery, Gov. Thomas J. Meskill posted a $3,000 reward for information leading to convictions in the case.

There is the possibility that an informant may collect the reward money in the Donna Lee bakery massacre.
It may never be known whether someone talked in hopes of collecting the $3,000 or any of the rest of the $6,045 in reward money posted. The name of the recipient of the reward is kept secret, known only to the judge who recommends payment.
Even the check, prepared by the governor's office, is made out to "John Doe" in the effort to preserve the confidentiality of the claimant.
In addition to the $3,000 which Meskill posted at the request of Hartford County State's Attorney John LaBelle, $2,540 was raised in New Britain and $500 offered by Texas news Dealer William Gibson.
LaBelle, who has been state's attorney for 18 years in Hartford County, says the value of the rewards in his experience is limited.
"Use it quite a bit but we don't get too good results from it," he said. "Ordinarily when we ask for a reward after we have conducted an investigation we don't have many leads.
In one murder case, back in 1955, LaBelle said, there was a court fight over who was to receive the reward for providing information that solved the case.
"In my experience there weren't many times where a reward leads to an arrest and conviction," LaBelle said. "Ordinarily these things are a secret offense and you don't have witnesses."
Most of the time, where there are witnesses, he said, they come forward with information.
" seldom do you have an instance where the witness does not come forward," he said. Although Connecticut has

Police Thwart Burglary

SOUTH WINDSOR
Acting on information that a house break was in progress, South Windsor Police yesterday converged on a residence at 171 Long Hill Rd. and caught two youths there.
Two others fled in a car and Manchester Police arrested two youths in an auto later and turned them over to South Windsor Police.
Those charged were Mark E. Shepard, 18, of 55 Admiral St., Hartford; David D. Kenney, 16, of 201 Adams St., Manchester; Raymond S. Wallace, 16, of 109 Croft Dr., Manchester; and Gary E. Punter, 16, of 109 Buckland St., Manchester.
All four were held overnight under $5,000 bond for arraignment in Circuit Court 12, East Hartford, today.
Police said Kenney was apprehended in the house by Sgt. Bruno Glialini, who entered a back door. Shepard ran out the front door and was stopped by Detective Edward Kasheta after a foot chase, police said.
Both Kenney and Shepard are charged with third-degree burglary, criminal attempt to commit larceny, and third-degree criminal mischief.
Wallace and Punter are each charged with conspiracy to commit third-degree burglary. The break occurred about 1 p.m. at the home of Marguerite A. House.
South Windsor Police are investigating a break into the home of James Jarvis, 408 Oakland Rd., reported about 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.
Police said entry was gained by going into the garage and breaking a kitchen door. A small television set and some jewelry, valued at from $200 to $400 were reported missing.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Q When I graduated from school last June my Social Security checks stopped. I didn't work while I was in school, but I got a job right after graduation and I will earn $4,000 for the year from June through December. Do I have to file an annual report of these 1974 earnings with Social Security?

A Yes. Even though you didn't start work until June, you should report your earnings to Social Security because you received checks during the first 5 months of 1974. Since you didn't earn over $200 a month from January through May, you are entitled to your checks for those months even though you earned $4,000 for the year. Starting in 1975, people can earn as much as $210 a month without having any Social Security benefits withheld for that month.

Q I started getting monthly Social Security checks as a student last summer when my mother died. Since I've had some part-time jobs this year, can you tell me when a person getting benefits has to report his earnings to Social Security?

A If you received at least one Social Security check and your earnings were over $2,400 in 1974 you must make an annual report of your earnings to Social Security by April 16, 1975.

Q I'm 73 and get Social Security retirement checks. I haven't worked in nearly five years, but a friend has offered me a job and I'm thinking of taking it. Is there any restriction on how much I can earn and still get my full Social Security checks. Also will I have to file an annual report?

A No, since you are over 72 there is no restriction on how much you can earn while getting Social Security payments and you are not required to file an annual report.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Follow That Car!"

Suppose a policeman jumps into the back seat of your automobile and shouts:
"Follow that car!"
Are you obliged to obey? Generally speaking, you are indeed. Under the ancient "hue and cry" doctrines of the common law, an officer may command any vehicle that he needs to catch a fleeing felon.

As Judge Benjamin Cardozo once put it:
"The home has yielded to the motorcar as an instrument of pursuit and flight. Still, as in the days of Edward I, the citizen may be called upon to enforce justice, not faintly and with lagging steps but honestly and bravely and with whatever implements and facilities are at hand."

You may even be obliged to help in making the actual arrest (at least, say some states, if you are an "able-bodied male over 18 years of age"). To refuse, without good reason, could make you guilty of a misdemeanor.

On the other hand, in the event that you do lend a hand, the community owes you certain legal benefits in return.
For example:
A man was called upon by the sheriff to help in arresting an armed fugitive. In the ensuing gunplay, he suffered a bullet wound in the shoulder.
He was therefore entitled, a court ruled afterward, to collect workmen's compensation—just like any county employee injured in the line of duty.
In another case, a clerk in a store helped a policeman make an arrest that turned out to be an error. In short order, the clerk found himself facing a damage suit for "false arrest."

But the court held him not liable. The court said making him pay damages for an innocent mistake, in no way his fault, would be slabby thanks from society to a good citizen.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said in a statement he is "greatly disappointed" in the arms accord President Ford negotiated with Russia.

OGDEN (UPI) — Two young men, who were convicted of killing three persons during an armed robbery and sentenced to death, will make their choice today whether they will die on the gallows or by firing squad.

Chicago Murders

CHICAGO (UPI) — The deaths of three sisters and a brother that had been attributed to a fire that gutted their home, today were termed murder. Another brother, who escaped being killed told investigators that three intruders had raped and murdered his sisters, clubbed his brother unconscious and left him to die nearly five weeks ago.

French Given Pledge

PARIS (UPI) — France's President Valéry Giscard d'Estaing said Tuesday night he doubts France's serious economic troubles would develop into "great crises or great depressions."

Veterans Draw Fire

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Ford's veto of a veterans' education benefits increase ran into bipartisan opposition today with pledges to override the veto when Congress returns from the Thanksgiving Day recess.

Ford Tuesday rejected the $700 million a year bill that would have boosted veterans education allowances by 22.7 per cent, permitted veterans to borrow up to $600 more a year and extend their schooling an extra year.

Ford said an 18 per cent increase and no loan program or extended training time would meet his approval, but that the measure as it stands would be inflationary.

Speaker Carl Albert said the House would vote on whether to override the veto as the first order of business when it returns Tuesday from a week-long recess.

Firebombs Exploded

LONDON (UPI) — Firebombs exploded in London and Birmingham pubs during the night and police said today they expect more Irish Republican Army bombing reprisals once Parliament passes a law banning the organization in Britain.

Police said the mailbox bombs that wounded 20 persons in London after the law was proposed Monday were just a forerunner of things to come.

"We do not believe the protests against the new legislation are over by any means," a spokesman said.

The London and Birmingham firebombs caused no injuries.

Under Manchester's town charter, the police chief is designated the town traffic authority.

Zinsser's request was prompted by the appearance of several Horace St. residents at last week's directors' meeting.

In his letter to Weisz, Zinsser said, "I am sorry to see that Chief Reardon who I have must stand by his earlier decision to keep the 'no parking' signs on Horace St."

"It seems to me that the residents of this small residential street are not asking for very much. They are not asking that the signs be removed but only that they be allowed to park on the street during evening hours and on weekends.
