Buffer Force Mandate Renewed By U.N. Security Council

Israel and Syria looked forward today to what they hoped would be six months of relative peace in the Middle East, spurred by the U.N. vote to keep 1,200 buffer troops between their two armies on the Golan Heights.

The Security Council in New York for-mally renewed the six-month mandate of the U.N. troops Friday for another six months when it expires at midnight

GOP Leaders Take Action To Revitalize the Party

BRIDGEPORT (UPI) - Republican state Chairman Vincent Laudone says a commission to revitalize the Republican party in the wake of the rout at the polis earlier this month will be established Dec.

Laudone said Friday the commission, with 25 to 36 members, will have three tasks—to determine how Republican can-didates can win in Connecticut, develop ideas on how to reopen the party and get the entire party seeking new active Bridgeport Mayor Nicholas Panuzio. Among the about 20 persons attending the session were Panuzio, Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., GOP Reps. Stewart B. McKinney, Ronald N. Sarasin and Robert H. Steele, who lost the recent guber-natorial election to Ella T. Grasso.

Party Has to Open Up Steele said of his House colleagues, "All three of us feel that the party has to open up. Being a Republican in Connecticut means you have to work twice as hard to get the opposition party and independent

Steele, who lost to Mrs. Grasso by 200,000 votes, also confirmed he has been offered at least one post on the Ford administration, chuckling, "It's nice to now that I'm still wanted somewhere." The lame duck Second District con-

Asked whether he thought minorities and blue collar workers could be attracted to the Republican party, Panuzio said, "Our chances are excellent. We just have not sold our wares properly in the past.

Kissinger Winds Up Far Eastern Talks

TOKYO (UPI) - Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger briefed Japanese leaders today on his talks with Chinese diplomats and President Ford's planned trip to Peking next year, and then flew home to Washington.

Kissinger flew into Tokyo late Friday and called on Japanese Foreign Minister Toshio Kimura and other officials this morning. The secretary left Tokyo International Airport for the trip home at 3:30 p.m. (1:30 a.m. EDT).

His plane touched down at Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska, at 7:30 a.m EST for a brief stopover, and it was expected to arrive in Washington around 3 p.m. EST.

Ford Trip Discussed Japanese Foreign Ministry sources said Kimura and Kissinger discussed the planned Ford trip to China and China's future relations with the United States,

Japan and the Soviet Union. The sources said during the one hour and 40 minute meeting Kissinger told Kimura that Ford's visit to China will take place in the latter-half of 1975.

Kimura asked: "Will there be something like 'Nixon shock' three years

No Surprises Kissinger replied: "There will be no surprise like that," the sources said

Japanese leaders were shocked and displeased by former President Richard Nixon's surprise announcement in 1971 that he would visit China.

The sources said Kissinger's reply to Kimura would indicate there will be no immediate changes in the U.S.-China

Meets with Kono

Kissinger later met with Kenzo Kono. president of the upper house of the Diet, Japan's parliament, to discuss political developments following the resignation of Japanese Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka. Kissinger, accompanied by his wife Nancy and his son and a daughter from his previous marriage, flew in from Shanghai on board a U.S. Air Force plane.

American officials with Kissinger said he was anxious to return to Washington to face critics of the arms limitation agreement reached one week ago at the Vladivostok summit with Soviet leaders.

Matters Still Unsettled Kissinger's Chinese talks did not settle such matters as the $15 million claimed by U.S. citizens for property seized in China in 1949, not judged a major matter. A major matter is Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's regime on Taiwan. Resident diplomats and Chinese in Peking said there could not be absolutely normal relations until the Taiwan issue is settled.

The crux is that Washington still recognizes Chiang and Peking refuses to give full recognition to any country dealing with Taiwan.

But American officials said for all practical purposes relations are normal and the U.S. liaison office performs all the functions of an embassy.

To Attend Game

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Ford scheduled a quick morning meeting with his Domestic Council to discuss revenue sharing today, before going to Philadelphia to attend his first football game as President. The game will be the 75th Army-Navy game. Ford was a former captain of the Grand Rapids South High football team and All-America center for Michigan.

Eight Pardoned

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The President acted on 18 clemency cases Friday. On recommendation from the Clemency Board, he granted a full pardon to eight individuals and conditional clemencies to 10 others. The conditional clemencies range from three months to a full year alternate

Haldeman Testifies

WASHINGTON (UPI) - H.R. Haldeman, former White House chief of staff, denied he intended any obstruction of justice in testimony at the Watergate cover-up trial Friday. He is expected to finish his testimony by midweek. Meanwhile, the three medical specialists who examined Richard Nixon, reported to Judge John J. Sirica that the former president would not be well enough even to make a deposition in his home before Jan. 6 and could not testify at the trial in Washington before Feb. 16.

Churchill Remembered

LONDON (UPI) - Britain today is remembering Winston Churchill, nine years after his death and 100 years after his birth. Members of the late prime minister's family - including his 91-yearold widow, Clementine — gathered for a private luncheon at Blenheim Palace. The British Broadcasting Corp. planned to broadcast a dramatization of Churchill's life Sunday, with Richard Burton in the principal role.

Finnish Santa Busy

HELSINKI (UPI) - Today about 40 of Santa's helpers, all employes of the Finnish Tourist Board, are planning to answer the mail to Santa Claus from chidren all over the world. The letters will be sent from Santa's home on Korvatunturi Mountain above the Arctic Circle, on special stationery with colorful portraits of Santa, pictures of his elves and, of course, Rudolph the reindeer.

Explosion Kills Two BEAUMONT, TEX. (UPI) - An

overheated chemical tank at a synthetic rubber plant caught fire and exploded five times in one hour Friday night killing two persons and injuring 10 others. The blasts destroyed half of the huge $5 million Goodyear Co. plant and damaged homes six miles away.

The Jefferson County sheriff's office said firefighters found two bodies in the raging inferno early today.

In Two Maine Fires

nine people were killed in separate fires in two northern Aroostook County towns early today, and authorities said the death toll could go higher.

In Eagle Lake, a mother and her six children died in a blaze that swept through their home while they were sleeping. In Cross Lake, two unidentified persons were killed in a pre-dawn fire at a residence at the rear of Brown's Store. Authorities said there was a possibility that some other persons might have died in that fire, which firemen were still trying to extinguish late in the morning. Authorities said an oil-fired furnace exploded in the home of Robert Martin of Eagle Lake sometime after midnight, sending flames shooting throughout the EAGLE LAKE, Maine (UPI) - At least burned, he was the only member of the family to escape.

The victims were identified as his wife Lorraine, 36, and children Daniel, 14, Lisa, 12, Cindy, 9, Charles, 6, Scott, 5, and William, 20 months. All of whom died of asphyxiation, authorities said.

Martin suffered second and third degree burns over 30 per cent of his body and was hospitalized in Fort Kent.

Firemen battled the blaze in freezing temperatures throughout the night and well into the morning, Police said they recovered the bodies of Mrs. Martin and five of the children, but were still looking for Daniel's after dawn broke.

Martin is the son of the late Claude Martin, a state representative from Eagle Lake who served 16 years in the Maine

For me that just doesn't follow. How much of a consensus will you find behind Harold Wilson's policy in Britain, or Valery Giscard d'Estaing's in France, or Helmut Schmidt's in Germany, or Indira Gandhi's in India, or Kakuei Tanaka's in Japan or, for that matter, Yitzhak Rabin's in Israel? None of the last four - Dwight Eisenhower, John Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon - had it. Woodrow Vilson didn't have it either before or after World War I. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman came somewhat closer, but F.D.R. was saved from a split nation by Pearl Harbor, and there was even a suspicion that he had a hand in contriving what saved him. As for Truman, the Marshall-Acheson tenure in State, which embraced both the Marshall Plan and the cold war policies, did have popular support. But that cannot be said for the Korean war, with the sharp, divisive struggle between Truman and Gen.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

Growth In the Spirit It is a fact of our experience that we do not always do the good we intend to do, that we sometimes act in ways that we are later ashamed of. Our frustration and remorse are only increased by the realization that we are still trapped in patterns of life that Christ came to free us of, that we are not yet fully living according to the Spirit that we have received. We know

Paul writes from his own persona

Christmas Fair, St. Mary's that we have failings: we fear we may be "I cannot understand my own behavior. I fail to carry out the things I want to do, and I find myself doing the very things hate...What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body doomed to death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!" (Romans 7:15, 24-25).

experience and his cry "what a wretched man I am" is too deeply anguished to be merely a distant memory. "The Spirit comes to help us in our weakness'

This also was experienced by Paul and is experienced by us. For, "thanks be to Goo through Jesus Christ our Lord" the Spirit has been given to us. His presence within us does not guarantee complete perfection; his presence does not guarantee that we will never fail.

But His presence does guarantee that we are not locked into our failures. His presence does guarantee that we are sons of God, in the process of growing up into the image of Christ. Victoria Jennings,

You have heard of Plato's "Myth of the Cave." It is not a fairy tale steeped in unreality, as some seem to imply, but rather it is a way of telling a truth that is not a Look for a minute at the Genesis story. the myth of creation. It is not the account of an historical fact, like the landing of the Pilgrims, but it reveals a tremendous truth: God created the world, made man in His image, and man disobeyed Him, and paid the price of his rebellion.

This story has been the butt of jokes, and also the revelation of spiritual truth. Some wit has declared that it was not an apple in the garden that caused all the trouble, but "a green pair." Another called attention to the fact that this episode is the first evidence of "buck-passing." God accuses

$1,165 per employee in the second year of the contract

$1,165 per employee in the third year of the contract

$3,890 per employee over the life of the contract

These amounts include a new Cost Of Living Adjustment (COLA) nearly five times that of the expiring contract.

Wage Rate Increases

1st Year - Combined general increase and maximum COLA ranging from 71 cents to $1.15 an hour.

2nd Year - Combined general increase and maximum COLA ranging from 51 to 62 cents an hour.

3rd Year - Combined general increase and maximum COLA ranging from 51 to 63 cents an hour.

Total for 3 years - $1.73 to $2.40 an hour.

Cost Of Living Adjustments

The amount of protection for employees against inflation has been increased nearly five times. The pay increases shown above include cost of living adjustments every six months - five adjustments throughout the contract . . . totalling $1 an hour. This is a substantial improvement over the two adjustments totalling 21 cents an hour given under the expiring contract. In the new agreement, adjustments will be pegged to the government's Consumer Price Index a one-cent-an-hour increase for each 0.3 rise in the index.

Vote Tonight!

Tonight, thousands of our employees will gather in the State Armory in Hartford to vote whether or not to accept our proposal for a new and improved labor contract to replace the existing contract expiring at midnight tonight,

The expiration date of the existing contract will not be extended.

The company has made a generous offer - with substantial increases in wages and benefits. The offer is responsive to employees' needs for greater financial security in these difficult times of production cutbacks, layoffs, rising unemployment, inflation, and recession. And it recognizes, as it must, a basic reality of business life: Only if we remain competitive as a company can we get the production orders that enable us to maintain stable employment

We urge all union members to attend tonight's meeting and vote for acceptance of our proposal.

We sincerely believe that acceptance is best for them and their families, as well as for the company.

Burfoot Repeats in Race; New Hope Manor Gets Aid

Heading the list of the week's events in Manchester was the annual Five Mile Road Race Thanksgiving Day. Amby Burfoot of Groton, a former Wesleyan University standout, worked his way into the record books as he won his fourth straight in 22:32.4. A record field of 709 entrants started, and 682 finished the race. An estimated 12,000 persons viewed

In other Thanksgiving Day action, Windham High defeated the Manchester High School football team 18-0 at Memorial Field. MHS ended its season with a 1-7 CCIL record, and 2-7 over-all. South Catholic upset Manchester's East Catholic High School in a Hartford County Conference tilt at Mt. Nebo, 16-6. East wound up the season with a 1-4 conference record and 5-5-1 over-all.

Turkey Treat

While annual sports events were going on, residents of Manchester's New Hope Manor enjoyed a Thanksgiving Day turkey Earlier in the week, New Hope was the beneficiary as Manchester Bus Service President Elmer Thrall donated a 16passenger school bus. The financially"troubled institution will also benefit from a magic show slated today from 2 to 4 p.m. at Manchester High

The Takeover

The state Department of Transportation last week informed town officials that the state will abandon a one-mile section of downtown Main St. (Rt. 83) on Jan. 20. Meanwhile, the Town Parking Authority opened its newest downtown parking lot, a 92-space facility off St. James St.

Federal Money

Downtown Manchester is one of the priorities on Mayor John Thompson's list of ideas on how to spend $1.4 million in federal block grants expected over the next three years. Public meetings on that subject last week prompted a variety of competing suggestions for using the money, ranging from a recreation center for the handicapped to town acquisition and renovation of the 19th century Cheney Hall. A recently created 29-member Community Development Advisory Committee, which will help determine priorities for the spending, is to organize

Education

Parents and teachers at Manchester's Washington School complained to the Board of Education last week about overcrowding at the school. School Supt. James Kennedy acknowledged the problems, and called for action on proposals to renovate the structure and add a gymnasium-auditorium and more Kennedy recommended that the Manchester Green School be phased out in four years. He also envisioned the shutdown of South School and Buckland School, even though the latter may be needed if expected development occurs in the Buckland area.

Atty. Allan Thomas was re-elected to his third term as chairman of the school board. Beverly Malone, elected to the board in November 1973, started her term last week. The board renewed Kennedy's contract for another three-year period.

Town directors reviewed Town Manager Robert Weiss' two-year performance in a charter-required meeting last week. Directors accepted his progress report unanimously and with few questions. Several directors agreed they need a written list of goals on which to evaluate town progress, and they also indicated that the required biennial review meeting isn't necessary. Weiss agreed.

Garage Provided Growing Space

When the Sidney Keller family outgrew its standard colonial type home on 245 Mountain Rd., it overflowed into the garage. This was not as bad as it might sound because the garage has been transformed into a spacious contemporary living room, lending more room to the rest of the downstairs area for family activities. It's as though all the rooms just moved over one. The family room became the dining room, and the living room became the family room. Half-walls, all white, separate the transformed dining room and the present living room. The half walls are capped with white plastic laminate, making these areas convenient for informal serving and carving from Israel of figures dancing "The Hora" while Susan looks on and is reminded of her upcoming Bas Mitzvah. Susan can have three of her friends "sleep over" without crowding in her unique bedroom arrangement.

NEW YORK (UPI) Normally, playing the Houston Oilers wouldn't even break a sweat for Pittsburgh but things are different this year and Steeler Coach Chuck Noll

The Oilers, who won only one game in each of the past two years, have turned themselves around this season. They are 56 and had a four-game winning streak snapped last Sunday in a tough 10-0 loss to Dallas. Houston also gave Pittsburgh a major scare in their first meeting, bowing 13-7 at the Astrdome.

The Steelers, who lead Cincinnati by 11/2 games in the American Conference Central Division, try to take a big step toward clinching that title Sunday at home against the Oilers. A Steeler victory and a Cincinnati loss at Miami Monday night would give Pittsburgh the division title. "You could see it coming," Noll said. "Houston is an

The WFL championship game will be played in Birmingham Thursday 'We're going to take it out on

Memphis," Coach Jack Pardee said earlier in the week after a deal fell through that was supposed to give his players their first pay checks since

With 3:06 left to play in the nationally televised game before 9,692 chilled fans in Memphis Memorial Stadium, Pardee's promise looked as wet as the field soaked by a driving rain in the second half

The Southmen, champs of the WFL regular season, led 15-11 and had just forced a Florida punt, sacking reserve quarterback Buddy Palazzo deep in his own territory. But David Thomas dropped Dave Strock's punt and Luther Palmer recovered for Florida at the Memphis 22. Four plays later, rookie running back Richard James from Cincinnati ran four yards on a sweep around right end for the touchdown that set the final score at 18-15 with 1:13

Memphis Coach John McVay said of the fumble, "It takes 60 minutes." For 30 minutes Friday night, the Southmen dominated. They scored twice in the first 10 minutes - first on a one-yard run by J.J. Jennings and again on a 45-yard pass from John Huarte to Ed Marshall - and missed another score in the second period when Miller Farr intercepted Huarte's pass in the end zone. During the first two quarters, Memphis gained 232 yards and held Florida to 91. Huarte completed 9-of-13 passes for 129 yards and Jennings gained 84 yards on 13 carries. For the next 30 minutes, Florida controlled the game. The Blazers gained 180 yards by holding the Southmen to 88.

Tommy Reamon, the league's leading regular season rusher, had 51 yards in the first half, but pushed his total to 126 yards and 25 carries by the end of the game. Palazzo, who replaced an injured Bob Davis late in the second half, completed 3-of-6 passes for 47 yards.

The Lighter Side

Overstuffed Leftovers

By DICK WEST WASHINGTON (UPL) More than ever this year, we need to make the most of Thanksgiving leftovers. Toward that end, here are four leftover recipes that were left over from last Thanksgiving. Turkey Surprise: Slice cold turkey meat and stack it on a serving plate. On top of stack place one slice of Those at the dining table who expected roast beef will be surprised to find themselves eating turkey again. (In some cookbooks, this dish is called Turkey Dismay.) Stuffed Stuffing: Finding something different to do with leftover stuffing always presents a problem. This year, pull a switch. After serving turkey stuffed with oyster dressing on Thanksgiving, serve oysters stuffed with turkey dressing.

Then, for the third meal in the series, serve dressing stuffed with turkey and oysters Mold the leftover dressing into the shape of a prairie chicken, or whatever strikes your fancy, and let it stand in the gazebo or some such out-ofthe-way place until it develops a thick crust. Smash or gouge a hole in one end of the dressing and scoop out the uncrusted portion. Stuff the cavity with slivers of turkey and oysters. Heat in oven or on barbecue spit until grizzled. Marcia, Debbie Crammed Cranberries: and Moe Moe Finding someplace to cram the leftover cranberry sauce is almost as much of a problem as finding some place to stuff the leftover stuffing. One could cram the cranberries into the stuffing, Come to but that would be too much like THE COMMUNITY the recipe above. Variety is important when getting rid of Thanksgiving leftovers. The gourmet way of cramming cranberries is to place the leftover sauce in a crockery jar and press down on it with a heavy African wood carving or some other blunt instrument. The pressure forces out moisture and leaves room in the crock for more sauce. Repeat process until all leftover cranberries have been crammed into the crock.

When demoisturized sauce ferments, it makes a delicious Pumpkin Pie Treats: Dump blender and homogenize. Pour contents onto cookie sheet and form into shape of tiny jack-o'lantenne or if you profes

> new from PRESTO -5 qt. slow cooker

Now the homemaker can serve hot and hearty meals even if she's gone all day. Meat is browned right in cooker, other ingredients added and the Presto Slow Cooker does the rest. Return home hours later to a hot meal. The Presto Slow Cooker reduces shrinkage and tenderizes less expensive cuts of meat. It features no-stick Hard Surface lining and it's completely submersible. The cocoa finish makes it attractive enough to serve from so there's only one easy-clean cooker to wash. Generous five quart capacity, warp-resistant cast aluminum, recipe book included.

- Vertical design reduces spattering and smoking.
- Attractive harvest and chrome

The Vertical Broiler comes apart in seconds for cleanups. All parts, except cord and heating element, can be submersed in sink or dishwasher for even quicker cleaning. The Vertical Broiler broils both sides of meat at once, sealing in natural juices. The rack adjusts to hold thin bacon or thick steaks. Great for chops, hamburger and chicken, too. And Presto made the Vertical Broiler compact and portable so broiling can be enjoyed in dining room, patio or cabin. Recipe book gives dozens of creative ideas for using the Vertical
