

POLICE REPORT

MANCHESTER
George Moneglia, 16, of 80 School St. was arrested Tuesday at 10:20 a.m. at Police Headquarters on a Common Pleas Court 12 warrant charging him with third-degree larceny (two counts), police said.

The charges stem from recent thefts on West St., police said. He was released on his written promise to appear in court May 12.

Norman V. Langlier, 19, of 148 Edgerton St. was arrested Tuesday at 2 p.m. at his home on a Common Pleas Court 14 warrant charging him with third-degree larceny, police said.

He was turned over to Hartford Police for processing. The charge stems from an offense committed in Hartford, police said.

Two 12-gauge slugs, one 13 and one 14, were arrested at King's in the Parkade Tuesday at 1 p.m. and charged with fourth-degree larceny, police said. They were referred to Juvenile Court.

The owners of three motor vehicles reported their missing in the past two days, police said.

The 1969 Ford pickup truck of Mark Frank of Glastonbury was stolen early Tuesday. The 1968 white Chevrolet of George A. Felding of East Hartford was stolen Tuesday from where

Town Short $12,000 of Cancer Goal
The Town of Manchester still needs $12,000 to fulfill its goal of $25,000 in the 1975 Cancer Crusade campaign, Carl Zinsner, local chairman of the drive, has reported.

Noting the drive is at the halfway point and the amount raised is about half of the goal, Zinsner called on all community members to participate in "this annual raising appeal aimed at wiping out cancer."
"As we head into the balance of the campaign," said Zinsner, "We urge the public to heed the problem of cancer, a disease which claims 975 persons each day — one life every one-and-a-half minutes. We must adopt the challenge of cancer and devote our dollars to eliminating it as a threat to life."

Noting Cancer Crusade volunteers in the house-to-house special canvassing industry canvasses haven't been able to visit every family and office in town, Zinsner said, "We're depending strongly on those who haven't yet been contacted to mail in their contributions, in order to keep the cancer fight going strong."
He said contributions may be mailed or brought to the American Cancer Society office at 227 E. Center St.

Tall Cedars To Initiate On Saturday
The Spring Ceremonial of Nutmeg Forest, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, will be conducted in the Masonic Temple Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

New candidates will be initiated.
The national champion Sidonian team from Prince George Forest of Hyattsville, Md., will perform the degree work that won them the championship two years in succession. Stanley Temple is the Supreme Sidonian.
The forest will entertain the ladies at Ladies Night later at Marco Polo in East Hartford. Reservations are being taken by James Aboumar of East Hartford and Robert Madison of Manchester.

Dance Benefits Irish Project
A dance to benefit the Irish Children Project of St. James and St. Mary's Churches is being sponsored by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Division II, May 2 at the Irish-American Home, 132 Commerce St., Glastonbury.
Music for dancing will be provided by Donnie McCarthy and his orchestra from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The Round Table Singers of Manchester High School will also present a program.
Proceeds from the dance will be used to help defray the expenses of bringing about 30 teen-agers from Northern Ireland to Manchester this summer.
The donation is $8 per couple. Set-ups will be provided.
Those wishing further ticket information may contact P. J. Tierney, 3 Robin Rd., 643-2597; or John Walsh, 3 Preston Dr., 649-9398.

it was parked at Sportland Billiards on W. Middle Tpke. The 1974 green and white Dodge Dart of Jack Davis of 43C Equire Dr. was stolen from his lot Monday night, police said.

While at the scene of a woods and grass fire Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. west of S. Hawthorne St., one youngster in a crowd of kids told a patrolman, "He started the fire."

The boy was pointing to a much bigger boy.
The patrolman, James Meehan, held a series of talks with the accused boy, other boys with him, and all their parents. Police are now considering referrals to Juvenile Court in the matter.

Several teen-age girls were

Boone Stars in Film South Church To Show

"The Cross and the Switchblade," starring Pat Boone, will be shown Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. at South United Methodist Church.

Tickets, which may be purchased at the door, are $1.50 for adults and $1 for children and students.

The film is adapted from the Rev. David Wilkerson's best seller of the same title. The film portrays Wilkerson's one-man crusade among the narcotic-ridden gang fighters in New York City's ghettos.

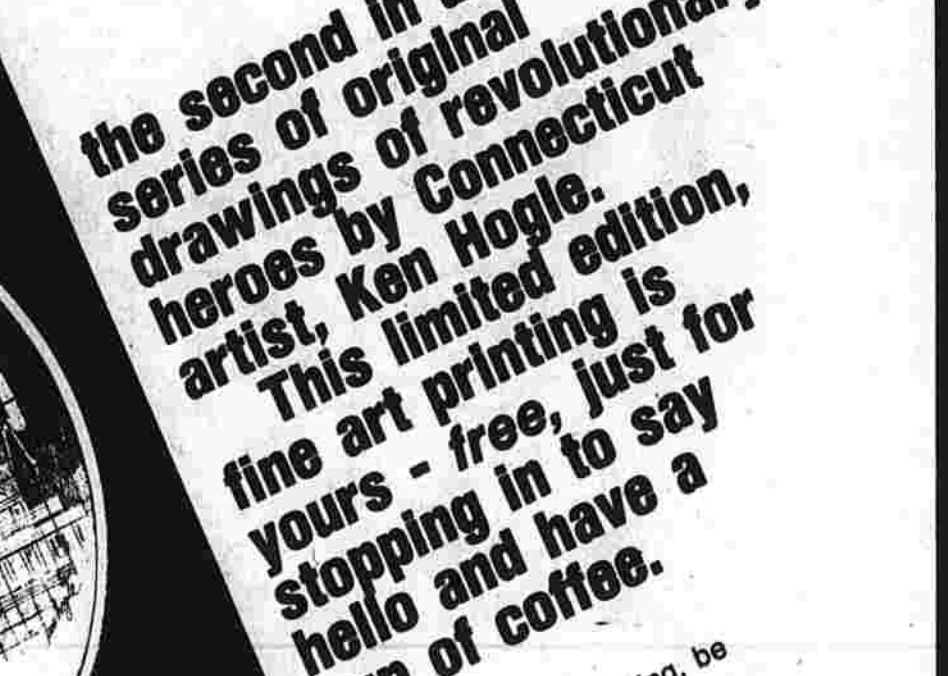

Proceeds from the showings of the film will be sent to Youth Challenge of Greater Hartford, an outreach of Teen Challenge, which has just recently suffered the loss of its building due to a fire.

On May 9, the Rev. Mr. Wilkerson will speak at a rally in Clarke Arena of Manchester High School. The rally is being sponsored by the David Wilkerson Youth Committee.

NO REFUND
ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, N.J. (UPI) — More than half the states say they will give no tax refunds on automobile purchases involving rebates by the manufacturer, according to a survey by the Prentice-Hall Publishing Company. The reason given was that the rebate doesn't actually reduce the sales price used in figuring the tax.

Ford Calls War Over, Asks Unity

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Ford debated today whether to give up his request that Congress approve $722 million in arms aid to Vietnam in a war in which he has declared America's role was finished.

To the standing ovation and cheers of 6,000 Tulane University students in New Orleans Wednesday night, Ford called the Indochina conflict "a war that is finished — as far as America is concerned."

On the way home he told reporters aboard Air Force One his arms aid request, "Well, it's still up there (in Congress). It will depend on the circumstances when I get back... if there is a significant change we'll have to reassess it."

What Ford called "a fluid situation" included the mood of Congress. In a session that lasted until early today, the House voted to authorize $327 million for humanitarian aid and evacuation costs. The Senate passed a $250 million version. No arms aid has been approved for what administration officials privately admit was a military loss cause.

He had proclaimed an end to U.S. participation in a lost war. His four-day stay emerged in one statement about the war: "I had mixed emotions. That's not the way I wished it had ended. But you have to be realistic."

Ford said he sensed in making the speech that he was ending an American era. "I think so, yes. After all, it's been a pretty long era."

Ford called meetings this morning with aides including Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and Vice President Nelson Rockefeller. Aides said Ford was receiving prebreakfast briefings on the situation in Vietnam. These included both the South Vietnamese government's military plight in and around Saigon and the state of the evacuation of Americans and allied South Vietnamese.

At Tulane he said Vietnam, for Americans, was finished. It was time for something new.

"The time has come," the President said, "to look forward to an agenda for the future, to unity, to binding up the nation's wounds and restoring it to health and optimistic self confidence."

Chiefs' Disciplinary Power Curbed
HARTFORD (UPI) — The Connecticut House has approved a bill removing the authority of police and fire chiefs to dictate the disciplinary procedures of their departments.

The senate gave final approval to a bill shortening from 10 to five weeks the period persons must work before they can qualify again for unemployment benefits.

The house measure now goes to the senate. It would allow firemen and policemen to negotiate disciplinary procedures through collective bargaining.

Supporters of the bill, however, said the measure said that in view of Connecticut's high unemployment rate, persons affected should be given a better chance to collect unemployment benefits.

The senate also gave initial approval to a measure changing the way workers are compensated for injuries on the job.

Present laws call for workers to be compensated according to their weekly wages before they are injured and the bill would tie injury payments to the prevailing wage in the industry in which the persons worked.

The legislature's Labor Committee said the proposal would protect workers who are injured at an early age.

Eight Arrested in Shelton Explosion

NEW HAVEN (UPI) — Eight persons, including the president of a large Ohio firm, were arrested today in the March 1 explosion and fire which destroyed a $14 million sponge rubber product plant in Shelton, the FBI said.

A 10-count federal indictment named 10 suspects with conspiracy, violation of federal bombing statutes and interstate transportation in aid of racketeering.

The FBI said two more persons were being sought by agents who began making arrests in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Tennessee early today.

In addition, nine of those named in federal indictments were named in Superior Court warrants issued in Bridgport on charges including arson, kidnaping and conspiracy in the fire bombing of the Sponge Rubber Products Co. factory.

State's Attorney Donald Browne said the warrants, handed over to state police, were signed late Wednesday by Superior Court Judge George A. Saden.

Among those arrested was Charles B. Moeller, 40, of Spencer, Ohio, president of Ohio Descriptive Products, the parent company of the Sponge Rubber Product Plant.

Also arrested was David N. Bubar, 47, of Memphis, Tenn., a Baptist minister and psychic who predicted the catastrophe before it occurred at the plant. He was described as a spiritual advisor to Moeller.

Bubar was the subject of the book, "You are a Psychic," and is a native of Blain, Maine. He had been pastor of the Stanton Baptist Church, Stanton, Tenn., but resigned in 1969 in order to utilize his astonishing clairvoyant abilities," according to the book.

The federal grand jury indictment charged the men with transporting dynamite, detonating cord and blasting caps by truck from Pennsylvania to a plant. The explosion and fire at the factory destroyed the building but there were no injuries.

Others arrested were Ronald D. Bettes, 28, and Peter Bettes, 54, of Butler, Pa.; Donald L. Connors, 40, a truck driver who allegedly shipped the dynamite, also of Butler, Pa.; Anthony A. Just, 48, of Greensburg, Pa.; John W. Shaw, 28, of Pittsburgh; and Michael J. Tice, 22, of Boyers, Pa.

Agents said they were still seeking Albert R. Coffee, 43, and Dennis Charles Tiche, 28, president of a chemical company in Boyers, Pa.

Terrorists Seize West German Envoy

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Four terrorists armed with automatic weapons shot their way into the West German Embassy today and seized Ambassador Dietrich Stoeker as hostage. They threatened to shoot the military attaché unless police withdrew.

There were reports of some injuries as a result of the shooting and initial reports said one person was killed. Police kept all administration officials privately admit was a military loss cause.

More than 100 specially equipped riot police converged on the embassy building on Stockholm's embassy row minutes after the first alarm went out at 11:49 a.m. The nearby British Embassy was evacuated and all other buildings in the area were cordoned off.

Police said that in addition to the ambassador and the military attaché, Lt. Col. Andreas Baron von Mirbach, other hostages were also believed to be taken. Police said three men and a woman apparently took part in the embassy attack, and said they suspected the assassins also carried high explosives. They were "Big" Mih and Senate President Tran Van Lam.

There was a general lull in ground fighting as the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese apparently held up their expected assault on Saigon until formation of a governing coalition which they can negotiate a cease-fire.

Bickering Splits Leaders in Saigon
SAIGON (UPI) — President Tran Van Hong's efforts to form a peace coalition government acceptable to the Communists bogged down today in bickering between followers of Gen. Duong Van "Big" Mih and Senate President Tran Van Lam.

The first meeting of the special committee will be May 14 in the evening at the Army and Navy Club on Main St., they agreed.

Other members of the group meeting Wednesday were: Michael Dworkin, president of the Manchester Parkade Merchants Association; Ernest Turek, park department superintendent; Walter Senkow, town engineer and designer of the shell; Jay Giles, public works director; Mrs. Suzanne Flocken, executive vice president of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce; and James "Dutch" Fogarty, emergency preparedness coordinator.

Fund-Raising Planned For Town Music Shell

Formal plans for the fund raising needed to build a music shell in Center Springs Park began Wednesday afternoon in the office of Town Manager Robert B. Weiss.

Members of the Manchester Bicentennial Committee met with several town leaders to begin the formation of a fund-raising group to build a music shell in Center Springs Park.

"It will take at least $80,000 and as much as $100,000 to build it," Weiss said.

Ralph Macaroni, chairman of the bicentennial music shell committee, and Mrs. Carol Kuehl, its secretary, reported on their progress to date.

The shell will be on the north shore of the shell; Jay Giles, public works director; Mrs. Suzanne Flocken, executive vice president of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce; and James "Dutch" Fogarty, emergency preparedness coordinator.

The argument that the measure would give legal backing to homosexual teachers, who could influence the sexual preferences of their students, appeared to carry the day Wednesday as the lawmakers voted 67-60 against the bill.

"I do not feel that sexual deviates are the kind of people we should employ to teach your children and my grandchildren," said Abijah Fox, R-Greenwich, who opened a 90-minute debate on the measure.

The bill passed the senate last week with a comfortable margin.

Supporters of the bill quoted medical and scientific reports showing young children could not be influenced into becoming homosexuals by adult homosexuals, their parents or social conditions around them.

"The question is whether all citizens are equal before the law," said Rep. Irving Stolberg, D-New Haven, who also said the measure did not violate God's law but rather corrected errors in human laws.

Rep. Aloysius Ahern, D-Bolton, a teacher for 25 years, said nearly all incidents of teachers making improper advances toward students involved heterosexual rather than homosexual teachers.

Whale Returns
HARTFORD (UPI) — Defying senators' opposition, a bill naming the sperm whale as the official state animal has been brought back for consideration.

The whale has been swimming about off the coast of Connecticut since the late 1960s, but it was not until last week when it ran into a giddy senate that voted instead to adopt "homo sapiens" as the state animal.

The senators argued for nearly two hours about how to void the action. They finally voted to send the issue back to the Government Administration and Policy Committee.

The committee Monday returned to the senate a bill nominating the sperm whale. It is not expected to be taken up until next week.

The sperm whale is considered a symbol of the whaling industry, which supported many of the early settlers in Connecticut's shoreline communities. Other animals expected to be in contention for the honor are the grey squirrel and the white-tailed deer.

Meanwhile Gov. Ella T. Grasso declared April 27 "Whale Day in Connecticut."

The Connecticut Cetacean Society, which wants the whale named as the state animal to boost their campaign against Soviet and Japanese whale-baiting, plans to hold a number of commemorative events in West Hartford.

Cong Threat Spurs Evacuation

By United Press International
Thousands of American and Vietnamese evacuees poured into the U.S. military base on Guam today in an accelerated airlift endorsed by the reported movement of Communist anti-aircraft missiles toward Saigon.

The Soviet-made SAM missiles could close Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Air Base — and the airlift — if Communist anti-aircraft teams get to within 20 miles of the capital. The airlift was first directed to Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines.

But after 4,000 evacuees arrived Tuesday — bringing the total number at Clark to 7,000 — the flights were switched to Guam, a tiny U.S. territory.

The official reason for the switch was the overcrowding of facilities at Clark. But American sources said the Philippine government feared a large influx of refugees would settle around Manila.

In Washington, Rep. Thomas Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the House International Relations Committee, told Congress 866 U.S. officials and 59 of their dependents were still in Saigon Wednesday.

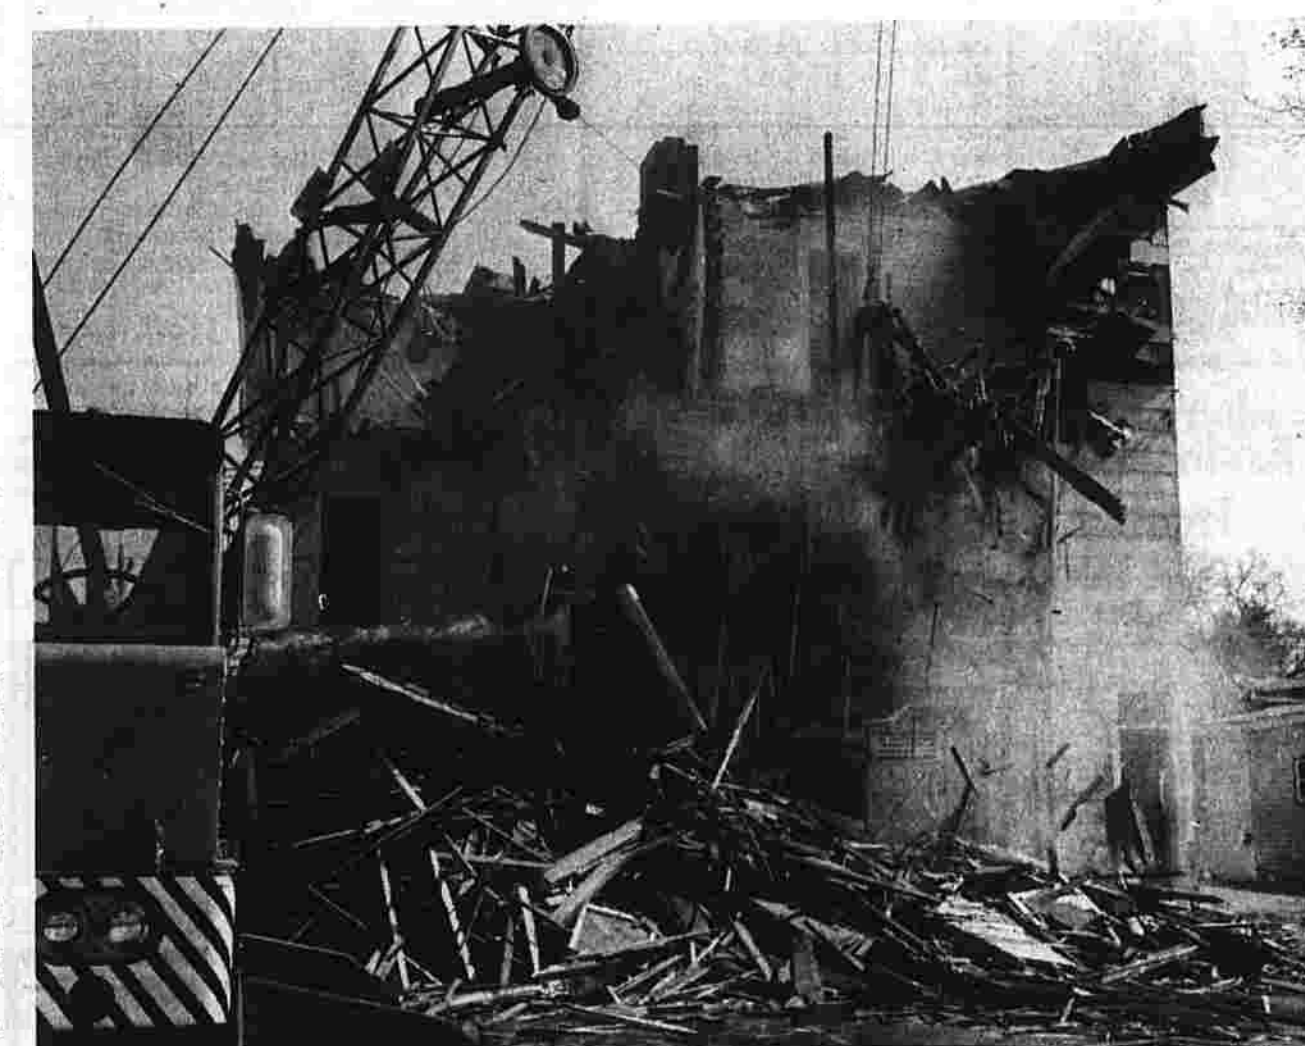

In addition, he said, there were 457 American contractors with 157 dependents and 331 other U.S. citizens, including newsmen and missionaries.

U.S. congressional sources estimated there were 6,000 Americans in Vietnam before the stepped-up airlift began almost two weeks ago.

For the Vietnamese refugees, it was the beginning of an uncertain life complicated by a new language and strange food.

Trotter Block To Make Way for Parking

Until a couple of months ago, this Manchester-owned three-story building at 91-95 Center St., to the west of the Central Fire House, housed 10 tenants — one in a store, the others in apartments. In addition, two other stores had been converted to offices for the town welfare department and water and sewer departments. The tenants moved out, the town departments were re-located to Lincoln Center and the building is only a pile of rubble.

It (known as the Trotter Block) and another town-owned building at 9 Trotter St., are being demolished by the D&M Demolition Co. of Wethersfield under a $4,150 contract. D&M will fill in the basements and top-grade the area (a little under an acre). Then bids will be sought for paving the area — to provide additional parking spaces for Municipal Building operations. A town-owned dwelling at the southeast corner of Oakland St. and Sheldon Rd. (139 Oakland St.) also was slated for demolition. Instead, the Board of Directors authorized possible sale of the property. Bids will be opened Tuesday for purchasing the building and land. An alternate bid being sought is for purchasing the building only and removing it to another location. (Herald photo by Barlow)

Scout Camping Retreat Set For This Weekend

The Rev. Michael A. Nofi of Holy Apostles Seminary and College will be retreat master for the sixth annual Boy Scout Camping Retreat this weekend at the seminary in Cromwell.

Over 150 scouts from Manchester, Bolton, Andover, Hebron, South Windsor, Marlborough, East Hartford and Glastonbury are expected to attend this retreat, which is sponsored by the Algonquin District Catholic Committee on Scouting.

The scouts will camp on the college grounds by troops with a troop leader. Individual or smaller groups will be assigned to a provisional troop with an adult leader.

The food will be prepared by the seminary chef assisted by members of the Manchester Chapter of the Holy River Scout League, who also will help with cleaning up the college refectory.

Any Boy Scout interested in attending the retreat but who

THE OLD CODGER'S CODGITIONS

There was a large dairy farm that abutted almost the whole length of the east side of the old road now Autumn St. On the Porter St. end it included what is now Grandview St. which of course was not there. The house and large barn were on Porter St.

Mr. "Mike" Maguire owned and operated the farm. He was father of "Bill" Maguire who later had streets laid out and converted the whole farm into residential development called Manchester Heights.

For his time and age Mr. "Mike" was quite a "modern" and progressive farmer. He raised silo corn and had two silos, one square one inside a corner of the big barn and another high round one outside close to Porter St.

Mr. "Patsy" Calhoun had a farm on the west side of Oak Grove St. He always had a fine team of bay work horses and took many jobs for other people. He didn't keep a steady gang but picked up whatever crew he needed for each job. O.C. worked for him sometimes. Once we were filling the silos for Mr. Maguire. The corn was very large (some as much as twelve feet tall) and such thick stalks at the ground they were hard to cut. When it was laid on the ground to be picked up and piled on the wagon and hauled to the chopper and blower at the silo.

No one was required to go into the round silo but someone was needed in the square one to keep the stuff leveled and sloped into the corners. That was O.C.'s job. Hot! There should be a better word invented to tell the whole thing and progressive farmer. He raised silo corn and had two silos, one square one inside a corner of the big barn and another high round one outside close to Porter St.

And train loads of ice could be shipped to cities that had no way of making ice or artificial refrigeration then.

And back to Patsy Calhoun. Some boys made a big paper balloon with a torch at the bottom to keep the hot air expanded in it. It rose down town and gained good altitude. Over the high ground east of town and wind made it rock so that the flame contacted the paper and the whole thing burst into fire and started to plummet. It landed in Calhoun's hay lot and set fire to a windrow of hay.

Mr. Calhoun saw it fall and with a pitch fork separated hay from fire so there was not much lost. He didn't happen to hire a lawyer to sue some kid's father. He just saw the funny side of it and had a good laugh. He didn't want the boys to be punished. That's the kind of man Patsy Calhoun was. O.C. is thankful that he lived when there were men like that in Manchester. We could do with a lot more of them today.

say YES to MANCHESTER

And what better way can you say "YES" to our community than by investing in your own home... right now?

Waiting to do so can be costly. Land and home values in Manchester have increased significantly in recent years. And every indication is that they will continue to do the same in the years to come. There is no question about it, your own home can become your best investment as a hedge against continued inflation.

And when you are ready to earnestly seek a home of your own, be sure and enlist the services of a professional in the real estate business, a member of the Manchester Board of Realtors.

ROPING NEARLY EXTINCT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Trick roping, an art native to the old West which reached full flower in rodeos and wild west shows, is becoming extinct. Indeed, the lariat twirling cowboy himself is coming to the end of the trail.

Among the handful of survivors is Montie Montana who can still lasso 100 running horses with a single loop of his rope.

"It's becoming a lost art because no young people are taking it up," said Montie. "Roping takes too much time and practice and it doesn't pay off big anymore."

Montie is 85 years old, hawk nose, trim and without a speck of gray in his black hair. He has worked every major rodeo in the United States and Canada and has ridden in 42 consecutive Rose Bowl Parades. He worked in movies with Will Rogers, Bill "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd and Joel McCrea.

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 3,500-year "good fairy" has been adopted as the official symbol of Iran Air, which recently announced five flights a week between New York and Tehran that cut two hours off previous travel time. Painted on the tail of its planes is the legendary Homa, which looks like a cross between a parakeet and an eagle and is celebrated in Persian fables as the bird which rescued a crown prince from a wicked vizier conspiring to seize his kingdom.

Women's Club To Hear Talk On Scuba Diving

Gilbert B. Hunt of Vernon, head of the English Department at Manchester High School, will be guest speaker Monday at the Women's Club of Manchester meeting at 8 p.m. at Second Congregational Church.

Hunt, who is faculty advisor and assistant instructor of the school's "Deep Sixers" scuba diving club, will give an illustrated talk on "Inner Space: The Underwater World." He will also demonstrate scuba equipment "possibly with the help of a student," he said.

A teacher at Manchester High School for 26 years, he served as an officer with the infantry in the European Theater during World War II. While in the Army, he was asked to teach 650 illiterate Kentucky and Tennessee "hillbillies" to enable them to pass a required voting literacy test.

"It was this experience," he said, "which persuaded me to make teaching my life's work."

Maine Plans Toilet Fair

AUGUSTA, Maine (UPI) — The first Super Toilet Fair will be held next month in Augusta and everything from privies to composting toilets will be discussed, it was announced Tuesday.

The fair is part of the Sewage System Alternatives Conference sponsored by the Congress of Lake Associations and the Environmental Studies Center to be held at the Augusta Civic Center May 3.

The conference is being held "in direct response to many inquiries from private cottage owners who must comply with the Oct. 1, 1976 deadline to eliminate untreated direct discharges into Maine waters," an associations spokesman said.

More Rats Than Men?

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — The rats of Mexico City are reproducing at a faster rate than the human population and may soon outnumber two-legged residents of the capital, according to a Health Department official.

There are an estimated 8.5 million rats in Mexico City, according to Fernando Leon Diaz, who is leading an extermination campaign.

The human population of Mexico City proper is about the same, although the metropolitan area is estimated to have 10 million.

OPINION

Whose Credibility, Whose Interests?

Some of the most unbelievably gloomy predictions yet heard about what the collapse of South Vietnam may mean for the future of U.S. leadership of the free world have been made by Sir Robert G. K. Thompson, the famed guerrilla fighter.

According to Thompson, who is credited with directing Britain's victory over Communist insurgents in what is now Malaysia, the consequences of America's "abandonment" of South Vietnam "are going to shake you to the roots."

America's defense budget, he says, will go through $200 billion within five years, and he doubts if even that will be enough. "You will also have to take political and military risks to re-establish your credibility that will make some of the crises we have been through in the past look like Sunday afternoon picnics."

America had the Vietnam war won in 1972, claims Thompson, and could have gotten an enforceable peace agreement. "But the Congress didn't want it. They wanted out."

Because of this, he says, nations "which were your friends and would have remained your friends if you had remained credible" are engaged in "a great reshuffle. They know perfectly well that the American commitment now to them is valueless."

To borrow a favorite expression of Dwight Eisenhower, who was wise enough not to commit U.S. military power to rescuing France's Indochinese chestnuts in 1954: "Tom-nyot."

If America's expenditure of $6,000 lives and at least $150 billion in Southeast Asia over the past decade is not proof of its willingness to assist an ally, then such proof is unattainable. Indeed, rather than being impressed by America's commitment to anticommunist, many of our allies from the beginning openly questioned the sanity of a vast investment in a struggle they did not consider vital either to their or our national interests.

One thing is on the record, and that is the fact that with the exceptions of South Korea, Australia and New Zealand, none of them tendered material or even moral support to the United States during the long Vietnam war.

During the last Arab-Israel war, except for Portugal, not one NATO ally assisted U.S. efforts to resupply Israel.

If these "friends" are now engaged in a reassessment vis-a-vis America — "a great reshuffle," as Thompson puts it — then perhaps it might be time for America to do a little reassessing of its own.

Perhaps it might be a good idea to let Western Europeans sweat a little, and wonder what the United States would do in the event of some military adventure on the part of the Soviet Union. It might encourage them to re-examine the depth of their own commitment to their own defense.

Actually, all this talk about America's post-Vietnam credibility is dismissed out of hand by responsible European leaders. They are glad that America's involvement in Vietnam, which taxed so much of our resources and strained our very political fabric, is over.

Far from boding ill for the future, the end of the Vietnam tragedy should result in a strengthening of the non-Communist world's posture now that the United States is at long last free to devote its attention to those alliances and those areas of the world where the interests of freedom are already at stake.

Gun Control

By Congressional Quarterly
WASHINGTON — With crime continuing to rise, and with 40 million to 100 million handguns already in circulation, the House of Representatives is taking its first hard look at gun control legislation since passage of the Gun Control Act of 1968.

This law banned interstate shipment of firearms to individuals and over-the-counter purchases of firearms by individuals living outside the dealer's state. It also banned the importation of the cheap, easily concealed handgun known as the "Saturday night special."

The House Judiciary Subcommittee on Crime is holding hearings on about 50 bills, ranging from an outright ban on handgun ownership to repeal of the 1968 act. Witnesses include members of Congress, law enforcement officials and lobby groups.

Should Congress pass stronger gun control laws?

Pros

"Many of the objections to gun control," Attorney General Edward H. Levi said in a speech April 6, "simply do not reflect the conditions of modern urban life." They are based on an American style of living that no longer exists in the places where people have congregated to live."

With crime up 17 per cent in 1974 and one of every four aggravated assaults and one in every three robberies involving a handgun, a "medium of terror" is being created in crowded urban areas, Levi said.

One of the arguments most frequently given for the ownership of guns concerns protection against robbers. But statistics presented to the Crime Subcommittee by Rep. Michael J. Harrington (D-Mass.) show that only 2 per cent of home robberies result in the trespasser's being shot by the homeowner. "That family handgun," former Washington, D.C., Police Chief Jerry V. Wilson said, "is six times more likely to be used to kill a family member than an intruder."

The gun causing the greatest concern is the Saturday night special. Attorney General Levi said, "These cheap, low quality handguns pose a special threat simply because they are so inexpensive and so accessible to anyone willing to pay 20 or 30 dollars for a large measure of concealment. They are the handguns most commonly used in crime."

Gun control advocates dispute the argument that action should be directed at

MAX LERNER
On Assigning Blame

NEW YORK CITY — The United States is engaged at the moment in an orgy of assigning blame. For everything — for the state of the economy, corruption, pollution, crime, the divisions in the society, the collapse of American power and influence in Southeast Asia, the failure of the Mideast talks, the state of the world.

President Ford blames most things on Congress; Congress blames most things on President Ford, the influential voices in the media — left as well as right — assign a big share of the blame to Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, who in turn says it is an idle and hurtful thing to re-ignite the old battles about who started what. The conservatives blame the philosophy and tactics of runaway liberalism; the liberals blame the incapacity of conservatives to break away from the prison of the past.

This is old stuff, and wouldn't be worth mentioning if it didn't point to something deeply characteristic of Americans. No one will own up to doing anything wrong, anywhere, any time. We are all innocents if not innocents. It is not we who are responsible but the other fellow. If some overseeing spirit on high looks down at this nation and this people, he would find that many things have gone wrong, but he would also see a vast plain filled with people turning the mirror of blame on everyone else.

It has not been thus always with other civilizations. One of the few good friends I

ANDREW TULLY
What Happened To Reading?

WASHINGTON — I keep having these crazy ideas, sometimes in the middle of the night when sleep should knit my raveled sleeve of care. One of them is spelled books, and with parents whining that kids are going to the dogs, and even to jail, I wonder whatever happened to reading as an adventurous pursuit for the younger set.

A book was a highly prized gift in the days before the 25-inch screen. Children not only read them, they seemed to enjoy the experience. Today, however, they are forgotten in a frenetic parental preoccupation with "finding something for the kids to do," especially at night.

Turning a child loose on a book does not guarantee a sudden rise in the literacy rate. But it is an act of exposure with warming possibilities. After all, a book's primary function is to be read and if you raveled sleeve of care. One of them is spelled books, and with parents whining that kids are going to the dogs, and even to jail, I wonder whatever happened to reading as an adventurous pursuit for the younger set.

Without any God, without a sense of ultimate meaning, without a known destiny, we seem to lose some of our capacity for joy. Where is wholeness? Where is spirituality? Where are the intimations of immortality, of permanence in the midst of change? The sense of a higher law? A categorical imperative? Can we reply to a moral issue, "So help me Not-God, I can do no other!"

Our temptation, without God, is to be God. With the age of science has come the age of the new nationalisms that has brought the obliteration of the Jews in Europe, the atom bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and the devastation of Vietnam.

ALMANAC

By United Press International
Today is Thursday, April 24, the 114th day of 1975 with 251 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase, as are, as a group probably the most law-abiding people in the entire United States. They are not potential killers and menaces to their communities as the anti-fur campaign portrays them.

In fact, most gun organizations provide safety and training courses, and the NRA suggests that the United States needs a mandatory firearms education policy, not more gun control laws. Too many persons have seen guns only in a violent context, the NRA claims, resulting in a society that encourages violent action.

In 1974, the Boston News Letter became the first American newspaper to be published on a regular basis.

In 1977, federal troops were moved out

OPEN FORUM
No Tax Hike

During the past two weeks there have been statements at public meetings and in The Herald by four town directors clearly in favor of holding the tax line this year. I am very grateful to these directors for their sincerity, dedication, and courage to dare to do the right thing for the property owners and taxpayers of Manchester. For, they are not merely giving lip service to budget cutting and tax stabilization, but they are working very hard to make positive progress for the well-being of all the taxpayers in this very difficult year.

Directors Phyllis Jackson, Vivian Ferguson, Carl Zinsner and Hillary Gallagher deserve special recognition for their superb roles in the budget workshop sessions. I am very glad that I voted for them back in 1973. These directors merit the complete moral support of every concerned taxpayer. People of Manchester, I urge you to speak out, call, or write to them to show that you really care and appreciate what they are doing for you.

There is a growing feeling among people close to town affairs that there are other directors showing greater interest in substantially cutting down expenditures to more realistic levels. I still have hopes that the two other directors for whom I voted in 1973 will see the light and vindicate my belief and confidence in them. This year there must be a halt to spending for:

1. Open space land such as Hilliard Pond, Hickey Grove, etc.
2. Bicycle path construction.
3. Child day care centers.
4. Indoor hockey rink.
5. Band shell contributions.
6. Purchase of the Odd Fellows block at the Center.
7. School additions or renovations.
8. The expensive capital improvement items.

Further, the large amounts of money held in surplus accounts and the bulk of federal revenue sharing funds must be applied to holding the line on the tax rate.

What we need is a real cooperative bipartisan effort to achieve what is so necessary in Manchester now, a no tax increase 1975-1976 budget.

Garbage Dump?

The following letters are sent by Elaine Berk, teacher, Unit D, Nathan Hale School, Manchester.

Dear editor:

I am a student at Nathan Hale School and we picked up 4 1/2 wastebaskets of garbage in 20 minutes. We picked up broken bottles, papers, dog litter, tin cans and there is still a lot more to do.

We wish people wouldn't use our playground for a dump, kids play here.

Leon Getchell, Unit D

Dear editor:

I am a pupper Club went out and picked up 4 1/2 wastebaskets full of glass, paper, hunks of tar and dog's bathroom.

I think that people should stop using our playground as a garbage area.

Thank you for your help.

Corina Senses, Unit D

Dear editor:

I go to Nathan Hale School and our Newspaper Club went outdoors and picked up 4 1/2 wastebaskets full of garbage which included glass, paper, tin cans, etc.

We would like you to put an article in the newspaper asking the citizens of Manchester to please not use our playground as a place to dump their garbage.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Bolton Waives Bids, Buys Tractor for $4,290 Net Price

The company will allow a $1,000 trade-in on the present tractor making the purchase price $4,290. The amount was approved by townspeople at a Town Meeting.

A breakdown on the cost of the tractor shows $4,140 for a diesel tractor with standard equipment, turf tires and a ROPS roll-over protection bar; $550 for a 60" rotary mower; $515 for a 60" snow plow and $80 for a gilt hand hauler carry all.

Ray Cocconi, sales manager, said all equipment will be mounted on the tractor, the snow plow would be removed but the attaching hydraulic hose would be left on, so the snow plow would go on quickly.

He said the mower and carry all would be mounted on the tractor and the ROPS would be installed before delivery to Bolton.

Traffic Light
Aloysius Ahearn, state representative for the 55th District of which Bolton is a part, received notice from the Department of Transportation that it is anticipated the traffic signal at the intersection of Rt. 44A, Quarry Rd. and the shopping center will be installed this summer.

The modification came from Samuel Kanell, commissioner. Kanell said the engineering of the signal is nearly complete. He said the agreement for financing between DOT and Bolton is being prepared and, upon execution of it, installation will begin.

School Finance
Copies of the book Financing Connecticut's Schools are available at the Town Hall for any resident desiring it.

The books have been left courtesy of Aloysius Ahearn, state representative for the 55th District. The book is the final report of the Commission to Study School Finance and Equal Educational Opportunity.

Bake Sale
The Bolton Junior Woman's Club conservation committee will sponsor a plant and bake sale May 10 at the Bolton Notch shopping center.

The BJWC education committee reported the club's book-baby fund donated seven books to Bentley Memorial Library between September and March.

The books were selected by the board librarian.

The BJWC ways and means committee reports tickets to the Mainstreet Dance are available.

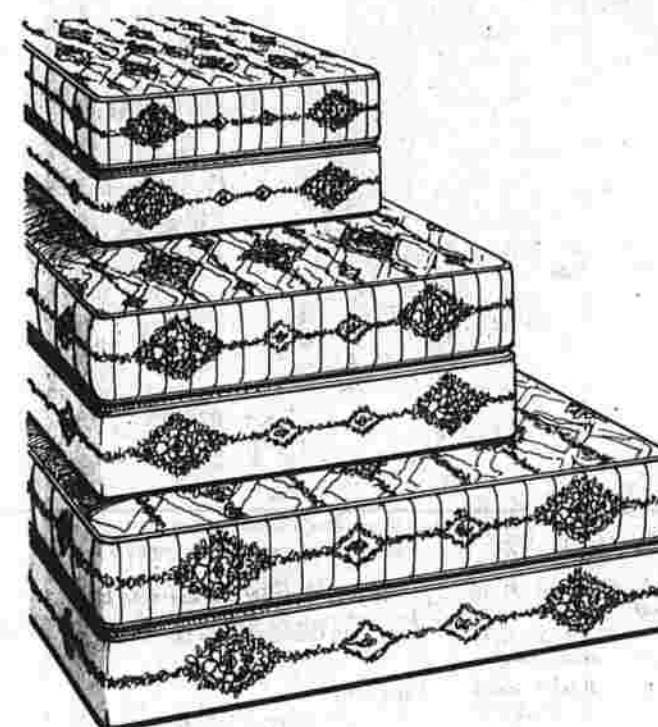

The dance will be held May 17 at the Manchester Armory from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Tickets are $10 per couple.

School Board Will Allot Budget Cut COVENTRY

Monica Shea
Correspondent
742-9495

The Board of Education will meet tonight to decide where cuts will have to be made in the budget to observe the cut of $112,000 made by the council on Saturday.

The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the teacher's room of the high school.

Another item on the agenda includes the report of Dr. Arnold Elman, superintendent of schools, on the State Department of Education to the schools to evaluate the Sequential Learning Program.

Rid Litter Day

Rid Litter Day, which is derived from a national day to clean up, will be held Saturday, June 14.

The 4-H club initiated Rid Litter Day several years ago and the Beautification Committee agreed to continue it as an annual event.

Residents will be called by committee members to volunteer pick up litter on their street.

As usual local clubs such as the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, 4-H, Young Democrats, Young Republicans and the Paddle, Prop and Sail Club as well as the new Teen-age Republican Club have volunteered to work this week.

Free garbage bags will be available at the South Dimock Library and the Police Station.

Lunch will be served the Miller Richardson Field at noon.

Anyone who would like to volunteer is asked to call Mrs. Ronald Baker.

Young Democrats

At a recent meeting the Young Democrats voted to donate $20 to the Coventry High School Exchange Concert Fund.

The motion passed unanimously.

George Bolduc, president of the club, presented Carl Salina, band instructor with the check.

The club will once again have a "Dunk the Democrat" booth at the annual Police Benevolent Association Carnival at the end of May.

Next Young Dems' full membership meeting will be April 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Carilli on South St. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

Tax Relief

Elderly homeowners and renters may apply to the tax assessor before May 1 for tax relief in order to receive credit on this year's taxes.

To be eligible for tax relief, a person must be at least 65 years old as of Dec. 31, 1974, have lived in Connecticut for at least five years and have an adjusted gross income of not more than $6,000, including tax exempt interest, but excluding Social Security payments, gifts and the income of persons other than a spouse in the household.

The combined income of a husband and wife is treated as one total income.

Elderly renters should bring proof of what they paid in 1974 rent, heat, electricity, water and gas.

Homeowners should bring their income tax returns for 1974 or proof of income.

Vivian Kennesson

Arts of Tolland is conducting its first fund raising drive in two years, according to treasurer Stuart Danforth.

Membership in the non-profit organization is available at $5 to $50 and over, and the fee is tax deductible.

Concert

The Arts of Tolland is sponsoring a concert, "Les Qing," a quintet of Hartford Symphony artists consisting of flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon and French horn.

Arts of Tolland will hold summer workshops for children, teens, and adults in the public schools. Morning sessions Monday through Friday from 9 to noon include: art, expression, ballet, drama, gymnastics, guitar, judo, magic, modern dance, pottery, puppets, recorder, rocketry, Spanish, trees-ponds-and-mushrooms, woodworking, weaving.

Friday workshops and trips offered are: singing history, grave stone rubbing, book binding and printing, puppet show, magic show, movies. An afternoon class will be held in geology.

Evening classes scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 include: batik, belly dancing, contradance (colombian country dance), boys' gymnastics, modern dance, painting, pottery, singing (barber shop), woodworking and refinishing.

Workshops offered are raku, drama and potters wheels.

A limited number of scholarships are available for all ages. Selection is based on financial need and valid interest. To be considered, call Carole Gordon for an application form, which must be returned to Arts of Tolland by June 21.

Registration will be May 30 and June 7 at the Tolland Administration Building from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Phone 875-1239 for additional information.

The Herald Tolland Junior Women Win State Award

School Plans Fund Raisers TOLLAND

Vivian Kennesson

The education and conservation committees of the Tolland Junior Women's Club were recipients of the overall excellence award for the state for middle size clubs at the recent spring conference sponsored by the Connecticut State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Michael Skelley, conservation chairman, reports that highlights of her committee were: Participation in the Extrastagazza, research on the status of whales; representation on the Conservation Commission; trees planted at the high school; research tour history; support of the Land Use bill; campaigns to three local girls for Greenwoods Nature and Conservation Camp.

Mrs. Michael Barrows, chairman of the education committee, highlights its activities: Sent volunteers to CPVY auction; donated handmade quilt to the CPVY auction; donated baked items, sandwiches, and prizes for bingo at the hospitals; and donated 135 books and magazines.

Workshops

The arts committee of the club is sponsoring a new workshop April 29 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Thomas Williams on Dogwood Rd. All club members are invited and should contact Sharon Kofuske for information.

The home life of the club is participating in "operation deep freeze," with the donation of 36 frosted layer cakes to the Mansfield State Training School. The cakes are frozen until needed for patients' birthday.

The club's conservation committee will sponsor an ecology bead workshop May 13 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Woods. Club members are invited and should contact Sharon Kofuske for information.

Wolds or Mrs. Skelley if planning to attend.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

Alarm Clock Ticks Her Off

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a wonderful professor. I also work about three times a week he arises early to work on a special project or to attend an early faculty meeting, so he sets the alarm for 30 minutes earlier than he really has to get up. When the alarm goes off, it awakens both of us. He then sets it for 30 minutes later, rolls over and dozes until the alarm goes off again.

Meanwhile, I am being robbed of 30 minutes of sleep. I think he should be a big enough boy to set the alarm once for the time he has to get up.

Is there a solution? Please don't suggest separate bedrooms because he'd rather lose sleep than lose HIM. Sign this, "For whom the bell does NOT toll" or "TICKED OFF!"

DEAR TICKED: Have you asked him to please knock off the two-alarm routine? If not, do. If he refuses, insist on a compromise whereby he sets the alarm twice every other time.

DEAR ABBY: This letter about the wife who didn't like her husband's mustache brought back memories. Years ago I had the same problem. I waited patiently for my husband to shave off his walrus mustache he had grown "just to see how it looked."

Finally, one day when he was asleep on the couch, I got a scissors and nipped off one side of it. He awakened with a start, and said, "What's coming off here?" I sweetly said, "Your mustache, dear."

He laughed and kissed me. And he never grew another mustache again.

DEAR WIDOW: You're lucky your husband was so good-natured. I'll bet some wives have ended up in the divorce court for less.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice about telling later-comers to come an hour ahead of the time you really want them will not work. I know. I used to be anywhere from 30 minutes to an hour late every time, and no amount of kidding or criticism would change me.

One Christmas Eve some close friends (I'll call them the "Greens") invited me to drive with them to their parents' lovely country home. I was to be at the Greens' at 6 p.m.

"Please, this time, don't be late," they pleaded. "It's a long drive, and we want to leave at 5 p.m. sharp."

Of course I was late, but as I walked up their front stairs, I looked at my watch and saw it was only 5:15—which was "early" for me. But the house was dark and there was a note on their front door: "Sorry, Pal. We waited for you until 6:05."

I was furious. But I will say that I am grateful to the Greens for teaching me a lesson I will never forget. That was the last time I was ever late.

CONFIDENTIAL TO C. IN OKLAHOMA CITY: Forget him, dear. He is not mature. A mature person is willing to accept the consequences for his actions. A "man" who sneaks around to see a girl behind her parents' back is immature.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Executive Director Is Sought By PCSW

The Permanent Commission on the Status of Women is currently conducting an affirmative action search for a new executive director. It has been announced by Ann Spencer, PCSW's executive director, that this vacancy was created when Kay V. Bergin, former executive director, was appointed by the governor as deputy banking commissioner for the state.

Prospective applicants should have the equivalent of a master's degree or the degree. Previous administrative and supervisory experience is desirable.

The PCSW is also seeking citizens interested in serving on an ad hoc advisory committee to assist in recruiting candidates for the position of executive director. Citizens who wish to be involved in this effort are urged to contact Linda Pennington at the commission's office, 6 Grand St., Hartford, or telephone 566-5702.

Workshop For Women Will Begin At MCC

The community services division of the Manchester Community College in cooperation with the Manchester Women's Center is offering "Leadership and Management Skills Training for Women," beginning May 5.

The workshop is designed both for women considering entering the employment market and for those already employed and desiring advancement up a career ladder.

The sessions will provide intensive exposure to management and leadership skills along with the opportunity to experience and practice these skills.

There will be three initial two and one-half hour sessions, May 5-7 from 7-9:30 p.m., an all day workshop Saturday, May 10 from 9-11 a.m. and four final two-hour sessions May 12-15, 7-9 p.m.

Communication ability, effective participation in groups, problem analysis, decision making, long and short term determination, management theories and interpersonal relationships are some of the topics to be covered.

Mrs. Jane Mendonhall Echelton, a human relations consultant with Organizational Development, Inc., will be the leader-trainer for the Women from the Wapping Community Church Fair Committee display items which will be sold at the handicrafts booth at the fair May 3. James Woodard passes final approval as the mrs. Mrs. C. E. Woodard, at right, and Mrs. R. N. Thompson, check articles.

The open house was hosted by the couple's four children, Leslie Clapp of East Hartford and Lisa, Joan and Lauren Clapp, all of South Windsor. Mr. and Mrs. Clapp were married at the Second Congregational Church in North Coventry with the Rev. Allen Gates officiating.

They are members of the First Congregational Church of South Windsor where Mrs. Clapp is acting as church clerk. She is also an 11-hour volunteer 4-H leader and member of the South Windsor Bicentennial Committee.

Members of Manchester High School Class of 1945 planning to attend its 30th reunion are reminded to send reservations and biographical data to Mrs. Harold Burnett, 16 Berkeley St., as soon as possible.

The reunion committee would like to stress that May 31, the date of the reunion dinner-dance at Willie's Steak House, is not Memorial Day weekend, but the Saturday after the holiday.

The committee is still seeking clues to the whereabouts of several class members. They are Robert Bouteloupe, Martha Brainard, Lillian Brennan, Beverly Briggs, Barbara Cannon, Robert Cannon, Ernest Carter, Sara Gilroy, John Hayes, Robert Ferguson, Richard Klein, Charles Martin, Frances Moske, Doris Poole, Arthur Jennings, and Harry Brown.

Anyone with information about these class members is asked to contact Mrs. Burnett.

When children graduate from the box mines, sometimes a recipe will appeal to them. Recently, my two girls went through my recipe book. They made a pineapple upside down cake which was one of the first desserts I made.

A carrot tomato soup or mayonnaise cake can be fun. Having started with something simple, most individuals will eventually have the desire to make a complete meal. Even a toddler can empty the canned soup into a pan.

Mother can let him how much water to add. It's a good time to teach respect for the heat of the stove and to turn the handle of the pot around so it can't be knocked off.

Recently, my husband overheard a conversation between our two girls. One said to the other, "I used to get sick of hearing Mom say 'but you know, it really pays off.' Later, the cake in the photo he made with a package mix and packaged frosting. Let the children decorate it themselves with simple animal crackers. The birthday party place cards are plain with an animal cracker glued to each. The little ones can make the place cards themselves printing the names with colored felt-tip pens.

Instead of baskets, ice-cream cups have been used for place favors. If it's too hectic for mother the day of a birthday party, do as much as you can the day before so the children can participate. Half the fun is in the anticipation of the coming event.

A very simple recipe for a youngster are peanut or walnut goodies.

Peanut Goodies: 8 oz. semi-sweet chocolate 1/2 lb. Spanish peanuts or broken nut meats

Cut a sheet of waxed paper the size of a cookie sheet or other flat surface. Melt chocolate over hot water. Remove chocolate from heat; pour in peanuts or broken nuts.

Any child can make hot dogs and beans. Why not scrambled eggs? Meat loaf is easy too. They can certainly fry minute steaks or hamburgers, bake a potato and slice a tomato for salad. Macaroni and cheese can be made with a packaged mix.

If the child wishes, teach him how to make a simple white sauce, adding cheese to put onto the macaroni.

Easy Italian Pasta Cook spaghetti or any other pasta according to package directions. Melt butter but do not brown. Pour over cooked pasta. Add grated Italian cheese (Parmesan or Romano). Toss well. Add salt and pepper if desired. This is best when used with the extra meat.

For an extra-special dish, add cream. Now you are serving lettuce Alfredo. That's all there is to it and it's usually an extra price at a restaurant menu.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice about telling later-comers to come an hour ahead of the time you really want them will not work. I know. I used to be anywhere from 30 minutes to an hour late every time, and no amount of kidding or criticism would change me.

One Christmas Eve some close friends (I'll call them the "Greens") invited me to drive with them to their parents' lovely country home. I was to be at the Greens' at 6 p.m.

"Please, this time, don't be late," they pleaded. "It's a long drive, and we want to leave at 5 p.m. sharp."

Of course I was late, but as I walked up their front stairs, I looked at my watch and saw it was only 5:15—which was "early" for me. But the house was dark and there was a note on their front door: "Sorry, Pal. We waited for you until 6:05."

I was furious. But I will say that I am grateful to the Greens for teaching me a lesson I will never forget. That was the last time I was ever late.

FROM YOUR NEIGHBOR'S KITCHEN

By VIVIAN FERGUSON

Give the children a treat. Let them lend a helping hand in the kitchen decorating party fare.

You can make cookies out of candy. These are fun for young people. So often, instead of cooking begins with the baking of sweets. Don't discourage it even if it is just using a boxed mix.

One of the most frequent questions I receive is whether I approve of convenience or boxed foods. A true gourmet would probably turn up the nose. While I prefer homemade items, it would be foolish for any food writer to say they do not have their place in modern living.

The convenience foods, such as canned soups, tomato sauce, etc., can be incorporated in other recipes. Convenience foods are just what the name implies. They are convenient when you're in a hurry.

Everyone, boys as well as girls, should be encouraged to cook. By the age of 10, the child should be able to prepare a simple meal. If they want to select packaged foods, let them try it. They'll learn something and they will notice the difference when they compare the taste with their own cooking.

So often, the boxed cake mix will satisfy the interest and the time of a youngster. They can start at a young age standing on a chair with mother observing. Teach them how to use the electric beater, how to scrape the sides of the bowl as it goes around, let them grease the cake pans.

My two daughters, now 21 and 18, both began their first cooking efforts on their own. They made a pineapple upside down cake which was one of the first desserts I made.

A carrot tomato soup or mayonnaise cake can be fun. Having started with something simple, most individuals will eventually have the desire to make a complete meal. Even a toddler can empty the canned soup into a pan.

Bolton Presented with Bicentennial Flag

Holding the Bicentennial Flag which was presented to Bolton are George Cyr, program coordinator for the Bicentennial Commission. (Photo by Holland)

Donna Holland, selectman, he said you do not just receive the flag, you have to earn it.

He said the town is fortunate in having an active committee led by Mrs. Cannon.

Morra said, "Some of us have lived half a century, but to youngsters the program will bring attention to the fact our country is a free country."

The invocation was delivered by the Rev. John Flora of St. George's Episcopal Church.

Cyr said he was pleased to see the commemorative stones on the green, one with a plaque and one swilling a plaque.

He said New England leads the nation in having the most towns being designated bicentennial towns.

The benediction was given by the Rev. Stanton Conover, pastor of Bolton Congregational Church.

The ceremony ended with the QAFDC playing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

More Try Pot Than Tobacco

ROANOKE, Va. (UPI) — More young women at Hollins College have tried marijuana than cigarettes, according to a survey by psychology Professor Paul Woods.

Woods said his survey of 15 per cent of the student body showed that 70 per cent of the students had smoked marijuana and 54 per cent had smoked cigarettes.

GOP Claims It Provides Leadership

Donna Holland, Correspondent 646-0375

In a joint statement supporting the GOP platform, Dave Dressedly and Ray Soma said it is the Republicans who are the backbone of most town organizations.

They said Bolton Republicans are the people who get things done whether or not they seek and hold elective offices.

Dressedly is the Republican candidate for first selectman. Soma is a former selectman and present chairman of the fire commissioners.

Their statement continued, "Much of the progress seen in Bolton in recent years has resulted from the hard work of volunteers, but most of these volunteers have been Republicans and their work was often coordinated by Republican office holders."

The joint statement came largely in response to criticism of the GOP platform by a recent Democrat release. The release said the Republican party claimed credit for work of many volunteers.

In a separate statement, Richard Morra, Republican first selectman, seeking election to the town planning commission, said that Larry Shaw is, "new to the town and he doesn't understand the importance of volunteers to town progress."

Morra said that Shaw, "also doesn't understand that volunteers, regardless of political affiliation, need guidance in their work."

Shaw is the Democratic candidate for first selectman.

Morra, who has served the town as an elected official for nearly 25 years said, "It's great to have volunteers; volunteer work is essential for the town to progress."

"But it doesn't matter how many volunteers we have if there is no leadership."

"That leadership in Bolton has been traditionally Republican."

Tax Rate

In another campaign development, Dressedly predicted the town will be able to hold the line on the town government taxes this year despite tremendous increases in costs of all town services.

Dressedly said, "It's going to be a rough year though, and we'll only be able to do it with careful budgeting."

He said an important factor would be the 3 1/2 per cent increase in the Grand List.

Dressedly, responding to critics of the one-time tax payment schedule in Bolton, said advantages of such a system far outweigh the burdens on taxpayers.

Dressedly and Mrs. Peterson agreed that without a one-payment system Bolton's tax rate could increase by as much as five mills.

They said the reason it would happen is because there would be additional administrative costs and the town wouldn't realize as great a return on investments.

Mrs. Peterson said it's taking more letters and phone calls than ever before. She said revenues resulting from interest charges have been much higher than usual in the last year.

Catherine Peterson, incumbent treasurer, said town revenues have been effectively reinvested and have brought in a substantial amount of money to help the town meet its obligations.

Mrs. Peterson admitted return on investments has started to show a decline in the last month, resulting from the lowering of the prime lending rate.

She said lately investments haven't proved as lucrative as they had been.

Dressedly, responding to critics of the one-time tax payment schedule in Bolton, said advantages of such a system far outweigh the burdens on taxpayers.

They said the reason it would happen is because there would be additional administrative costs and the town wouldn't realize as great a return on investments.

All three hopefuls said Bolton's town budgeting has come very close to actual expenditures. Dressedly said, "The general operation of the town is pretty efficiently budgeted and we all strive to live within the budgets."

Dump Situation

Speaking on Bolton's refuse disposal problems, Dressedly said, "The last thing Bolton needs is another study committee."

He said everyone in town knows Andover will not allow Bolton to use its dump after July 1976.

He said he and Richard Morra have been working long and hard for many months to find an acceptable solution as they recognize it is part of their job.

They have requested all concerned citizens make their thoughts and recommendations concerning the dump known to them.

Dressedly said townspeople will have an opportunity to express their ideas at Planning Commission and Zoning Commission meetings and at two Town Meetings.

The Republican candidate said he knows a dump study committee would only delay action on the problem unnecessarily.

Dressedly said when Leon Rivers (present Democratic candidate selectman and candidate for first selectman) suggested a committee he told him it was the farthest thing from his mind.

He said the Board of Selectmen are and have been a study committee for the dump situation for some time and two dump study committees researching the same problem concurrently would be a waste of effort.

Dressedly said the selectmen have located four possible dump sites and presented to them to the Department of Environmental Protection for approval.

He said two other sites are under consideration.

Dressedly said, "If the sites are found acceptable by the DEP townspeople will be consulted at hearings and their approval will be required at two town meetings before final action is taken."

Drain Cost $950 At Tennis Courts

BOLTON — Donna Holland

An estimated $950 will be needed for perimeter drains for the tennis courts Robert Knop, representative of Robison, Inc., contractor said at a recent Public Building Commission meeting.

Knop said the contractor would guarantee the courts for the one-year guarantee period but, because of the conditions of the site, would not say how much longer the courts would last.

Robison does not want the town to waste the amount of money being put into the courts so is recommending the perimeter drains.

The Public Building Commission moved to have Robison permit an actual proposal showing necessary materials, cost of materials and labor.

The PBC officially extended the completion date for the courts to July 31.

No payments has yet been made to Robison. Robison said it is more important to get the extension date and get the courts completed than to get paid right now.

Others at the meeting were Richard Morra, first selectman, Raymond Allen, superintendent of schools, William Vogel and Andrew Managga, Board of Education members.

The school board has requested an estimated $500 in its 1975-1976 budget to relocate the softball backstop and do minor grading at the high school because of the new tennis courts.

Townspeople approved $40,000 for the tennis courts, half of which is reimbursable from the state.

The contract signed with Robison for the courts was for $27,584. It included construction of four tennis courts including fencing, lighting and a parking lot for eight cars.

The equipment contract was signed with Tennis Diversified in the amount of $792.

Did Donkeys Win?

Democratic party candidates and officeholders defeated Republicans in the first half of the weekend donkey basketball game by a score of 6 to 4.

Points were scored by Jack Carey, Hank Ryba and Leon Rivers for the Democrats and Gary Motenson for the Republicans.

The second half of the game saw Bolton High School students defeat the candidates 26 to 20.

By the laughter, even when those playing were being tossed out of the donkeys, it was apparent everyone was having a good time.

Maybe the real winner in the game was the donkeys, as they seemed no less for the wear while many of the men the next day admitted to being sore.

The bake, book and tag sale sponsored by the Democratic party over the weekend netted the party about $80.

As many usable items remained at the end of the sale, Margaret Hoot, Democratic Town Committee chairman, approved having many books donated to New Hope Manor, games and utensils donated to Herrick Memorial Park and clothing to a charity.

Digging Dogs Find Trouble

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Two small dogs digging for buried bones found $30,000 in counterfeit money instead, leading to more trouble for Robert Schwing.

The Secret Service said the two dogs dug up a plastic garbage bag filled with 1,500 counterfeit $20 bills in the yard of a neighbor of Schwing's. The dogs had dragged it for 25 feet when a teen-age boy discovered it.

Secret Service agents arrested Schwing when he returned from Florida, where he had been saying goodbye to relatives and returning here to begin a one year term for counterfeiting. Another counterfeiting charge was brought against him Monday.

Cornwallis stopped at Yorktown because he ran out of clean socks. Nor is there any word as to whether it includes the captured diary indicating that the U.S. invasion of Nazi Germany was accelerated when Hitler became preoccupied with the logistics of keeping a change of underwear in his underground bunker.

Tax Relief Deadline Nears

SOUTH WINDSOR
Judy Kuehnel
Correspondent
644-1364

South Windsor Assessor Bert L. McNamara reminds homeowners that May 15 is the deadline for filing for the elderly tax relief program.

Qualifications are age 65, an income of not more than $6,000, and applicants must be residents of Connecticut for at least five years.

The income maximum of $6,000 represents combined income for both husband and wife and does not include Social Security.

These homeowners who applied for the elderly tax relief in previous years do not need to apply again now.

Elderly renters with the same qualifications may file anytime before Dec. 31, 1975. Any questions will be answered at the assessor's office, 944-5211.

FISH
Friends in Service Here (FISH) will hold a salad luncheon at the home of Mrs. Edward Curtis, 311 Abby Rd. Ext. Wednesday, May 28 at 12:30 p.m.

All members, and any South Windsor resident interested in the operation of FISH, is invited to attend. Everyone attending is asked to bring a salad. FISH has been in existence since June, 1970. The organization, provides temporary transportation, provides meals and companionship, in emergency situation to South Windsor residents.

Volunteers are needed to take telephone messages from an answering service and to transport residents when needed.

Anyone willing to donate one day a month or wanting further information please phone Mrs. Robert Cooney, 56 Clinton Dr. or Mrs. Edward Curtis, 311 Abby Rd. Ext.

Anyone needing the services of FISH may call 643-1055.

Selectmen Question School Budget Items

TOLLAND
VIVIAN KENNESON
 Correspondent

Board of Selectmen Chairman John Burokas, Vice Chairman Kevin Cavanaugh and Ed Moskey appeared at the Board of Education meeting Wednesday to ask for some last-minute clarification on budget items before the selectmen set the 1975-76 budget Friday night.

The education budget request of $3,232,866, labeled a "bare bones" budget by the school board, suffered a $62,544 cut by Town Manager John Harkins in his recommendation to the selectmen.

Specific questions on salary increases could not be answered Wednesday as teacher salary negotiations still are not completed. The only set salary increase is for administrators, which is in the second year of a two-year contract. Last year administrators received a 6.5 per cent increase, 2 per cent below the rate for teachers, and this year are slated for a 9.4 per cent increase.

Dr. Kenneth MacKenzie, superintendent of schools, explained the high substitute budget to Burokas.

Telling the Land Trust Story

School Board Admits It Seeks More Funds

did not know how much of the request would be reimbursed by the state.

Burokas noted that the present budget does not predict any surplus, contrary to the auditors' report which predicted an approximate $20,000 surplus. At the time the auditors' report was released, however, it was noted that this was "paper surplus," money that was anticipated from the state for reimbursement but that had not actually been received.

The education board had been told by the selectmen at the May 1974 annual budget meeting that if any surplus was found it could be used. At the time of the meeting, the education board said it did not intend to ask for the surplus because it had come too late to plan programs.

The request has not been submitted to the selectmen yet, and Dean apologized to Burokas that a letter had not yet gone out.

Adult School Offers Courses for Diploma

VERNON
 Starting April 28, the Vernon Adult School will offer free daytime high school diploma equivalency preparation courses in the school administration building, Park and School Sts., Rockville.

Classes will be conducted Monday through Thursday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Those wishing to register should call the Office of Continuing Education, 878-8471 or 872-9405.

Monday classes will feature a rapid review of English grammar and composition. This will cover such areas as punctuation, correct usage and sentence structure.

Interpretations of literary materials will be taught Tuesdays with selected passages and poems from famous American and British authors to be employed to heighten the student's ability to identify and appreciate literary works and techniques.

History and social studies skills will be offered on Wednesdays. In this portion of the program, the adult will study selected areas in U.S. and European history as well as government and geography.

Thursday classes will include a rapid review of mathematics, starting with fractions and concluding with basic algebra and geometry.

Faculty Winners

Fire Chief Urges Caution

BOLTON
Donna Holland
 Correspondent

Donato (Danny) Peterson, chief of the Bolton Volunteer Fire Department, asks all residents to use extreme caution with anything that could cause a fire, especially at this time.

Rattazzi said the department has responded to 23 calls in the last two weeks.

He said there has been a lot of grass and woods fires. Rattazzi said some seem to be more than carelessness as fires do not start by themselves.

The calls responded to include: April 2, accident, Bolton Center Rd.; April 4, false alarm, Carpenter Rd.; April 10, woods fire, Wall St.; April 10, grass fire, Iroquois Trail at Bolton Center Rd.; April 11, grass fire, 194; April 11, stand-by at North Coventry; April 12, woods fire, Bolton Notch State Park; April 12, brush fire, Rt. 6 and 44A; April 14, stand-by North Coventry; April 14, motorcycle accident, Camp Meeting Rd. at French Rd.; April 16, house fire, Bailey Rd.; April 17, woods fire, Gay City off French Rd. Ext.; April 17, grass fire, Camp Meeting Rd.; April 18, mutual aid, North Coventry; April 19, grass fire, 144; April 21, barn fire, Vernon; April 21, mutual aid, North Coventry; April 21, woods fire behind Press' store on Rt. 44A; April 21, grass fire, Bolton Center Rd.

Attendants Off
 The executive board of the Women's Auxiliary of the Bolton Volunteer Fire Department says attendance at the regular meetings has been lacking.

The board said the purpose of the auxiliary is to raise money for the volunteer fire department for its needs. It said it can't be done without the full support of all members.

The WABVFD meets the third Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the firehouse.

Included on the next agenda will be a discussion of a monthly bingo game, a Sunday breakfast for the public, and Cemetery actually means a sleeping place, from the Greek "ktemeterion" or dormitory. The Persians called their cemeteries "the Cities of the Silent."

Safety Town Takes Registrations

VERNON
 Registration for "Safety Town," a program for pre-kindergarten children, will start April 28 and continue through May 9 at all schools in the Vernon system.

Tables at the elementary schools, set up for pre-screening for kindergarten will also take the "Safety Town" registrations. Starting April 28 phone registrations will also be accepted. Children will be taken on a first come, first serve basis.

The program, sponsored by the Vernon Junior Women's Club, has grown from a two-week program to a six-week program and serves about 300 children each summer.

Children attend a one-week session, each either morning or afternoon, and are taught through films and activities how to apply safety rules while walking to school, riding a school bus, or playing in their neighborhoods.

During each week-long session, an ambulance crew, firemen, and police officers will be there one of the days to explain their safety rules to the children.

Art Association
 Mrs. Lynn Peters has been chosen artist of the month by the Tolland County Art Association and Laurie King has had one of her acrylic paintings chosen as the picture of the month.

The works of both artists are on display at the Rockville Public Library.

Other association members having their art work on display in the three town areas are: Esther Lubinski, People's Savings Bank, Rockville; Winifred Rogers, Savings Bank of Rockville; Patricia Kelly, Hall Memorial Library, Ellington; Patricia Kent, Vernon National Bank, Lafayette Plaza; Peg Wintner, First Federal Savings, Rockville. Also: Patricia Hoffman, Savings Bank of Tolland; Patricia Cook, Tolland Public Library; Sherwood Smith, People's Savings Bank, Vernon Circle; Charlotte Emry, Society for Savings, Ellington; Mary Wolf, New England Bank & Trust, Ellington; and Patricia Kelly, the offices of Dr. Daniel Woolwich and Dr. Harold Hutensky, Rockville.

Prize Winners
 The four grand prize winners in the Rid Litter Day poster contest, sponsored by the Rockville Area Chamber of Commerce, were: Chuck Colliton, Sykes School, Rockville; Patricia Kelly, Rockville; Neal Parrow, Hicks School, Tolland;

Valley Y Lists Spring Programs

The Indian Valley YMCA has scheduled several new programs to signal the start of its spring season.

Starting April 28, and running for five consecutive Monday nights, Elmer Martin of Vernon will teach a class in string art at the YMCA office, Vernon Circle.

These classes will be for 10- to 15-year-olds from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and for 16-year-olds and older from 7:45 to 9:15 p.m.

Class enrollment will be limited to 15. A fee of $6 will be charged for "Y" members and $9 for non-members plus $2.50 for materials, payable with the registration fee. Registrations by mail or phone should be made at the "Y" office.

There will be two music courses for young children, pre-school through second grade.

Solar Energy Gets Tax Break
 Persons who install solar or wind energy systems to heat cool or power buildings in Rhode Island would get substantial tax breaks under a bill which has passed the senate.

It went to the house Wednesday after a 44-0 senate roll call.

The bill would allow sales tax exemption for all equipment purchased for use in converting real residential property or in new construction to solar or wind energy systems.

It also provides the tangible property or installation costs of the systems in new buildings would not be included in the local property valuation.

"What we're doing is giving an incentive for the use of solar energy and wind energy," said Sen. Richard A. Licht, D-Providence. "To my knowledge the sales tax exemption is not done anywhere else in the nation."

Black Island, 15 miles off the Rhode Island mainland, hopes to use windmills to harness energy from the strong, steady winds that blow over its surface.

Louis Haddad Jr., a teacher at Middle School, will conduct the course which will deal with operation and care of cameras, experimenting with outdoor and indoor nature photography and putting a story sequence on film. Students must supply their own camera and film.

Registrations will be accepted at the "Y" office. The class fee is $6 for members, and $9 for non-members.

Hi Neighbor!

The other day a huge trailer truck drove up to unload and I was naturally curious to know what was in it. So my line was 11 and a stock and find out what I won when the load arrives. I was so anxious I was biting my nails while urging my crew down to the platform with all the unloading equipment (a square-wheeled hand truck and two pairs of torn gloves). Then I promptly left for the golf course so I wouldn't have a childish accident. Our crew came up with some real goodies for this weekend, and I'll try to list a few:

Hi Neighbor!

The other day a huge trailer truck drove up to unload and I was naturally curious to know what was in it. So my line was 11 and a stock and find out what I won when the load arrives. I was so anxious I was biting my nails while urging my crew down to the platform with all the unloading equipment (a square-wheeled hand truck and two pairs of torn gloves). Then I promptly left for the golf course so I wouldn't have a childish accident. Our crew came up with some real goodies for this weekend, and I'll try to list a few:

Ms. Tobias Will Be Speaker At MCC Commencement

Manchester Community College Commencement exercises are set for June 4 with Sheila Tobias, associate provost of Wesleyan University, as the keynote speaker. Associate in arts and associate in science degrees will be presented to approximately 650 students.

Prior to joining the Wesleyan staff in 1970, Ms. Tobias was a lecturer in history at City College of New York and assistant to the vice president for academic affairs at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. She had also worked as a publicist, reporter and free lance journalist in Europe, England and the U.S.

In her present position at Wesleyan, she is concerned with developing women's studies and designing the college's affirmative action program for women and minorities.

Ms. Tobias received her B.A. degree from Radcliffe College, which is a women's legislative review. She is also publisher of a statewide newspaper, "Alert," which is a women's legislative review.

American League Roundup

Oakland Winning Without Hunter NEW YORK (UPI) — Nothing personal, of course, but the Oakland A's can argue that they are better off without Jim Hunter than they would be if they still had the man with the $3 million arm.

Without their 25-game winner of 1974, the A's have won 10 of their first 15 games and are in a virtual tie for first place in the American League's Western Division race. A year ago after 15 games, they had an 8-7 record including a 3-0 game by Hunter.

Hunter, signed by the New York Yankees as a free agent New Year's Eve, has an 0-3 mark and Wednesday blew a 7-3 lead in the seventh inning although reliever Sparky Lyle was the eventual losing pitcher. Hunter has yet to pitch effectively in his four starts with the club which gave him the biggest contract in the history of baseball.

Vida Blue, taking over as the ace of the Oakland staff in Hunter's absence, went 2-3 in three starts to receive credit for his fourth victory in five decisions, as the A's beat the Kansas City Royals, 3-2, for their fifth win in their last six games.

Rollie Fingers, Paul Lindblad and Jim Todd finished up for Blue with Todd receiving credit for the save. California defeated Texas, 4-1, Boston rallied for an 11-7 triumph over the Yankees, Cleveland beat Detroit, 4-3, and Milwaukee topped Baltimore, 8-5, in other American League games.

Billy Williams singled home the A's' first run in the first inning and they added single runs in the sixth and seventh to hand Steve Busby his first defeat. Hal McRae drove in both Royal runs in the fifth with a double after a double by Jim Wolford and a walk to John Mayberry.

Angels 4, Rangers 1 Bill Singer allowed a first-inning homer by Mike Hargrove but pitched a six-hitter for California. Tommy Harper had three singles and Tom Egan added a double and a single as Singer fanned five and didn't walk a batter in winning his second game. Clyde Wright was the loser for Texas.

Indians 4, Tigers 3 Jack Brohamer and George Hendrick each drove in two runs for Cleveland as Jim Perry won his first game and Joe Coleman suffered his third straight defeat for Detroit. Gary Sutherland and Bill Freehan also homered for the Tigers.

Brewers 8, Orioles 5 Bobby Mitchell, replacing Hank Aaron as Milwaukee's designated hitter, hit two doubles and scored the winning run in the Brewers' victory over Baltimore. Ed Rodriguez received credit for the win while Bob Reynolds was the loser.

Manuel Called Up LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers have called up outfielder Charlie Manuel from their Albuquerque, N.M. farm club.

Sewer Rates Hearing Set

A proposal for a 25 per cent hike in sewer rates charged general customers (homeowners) by the Town of Manchester is scheduled for May 6 by the Board of Directors. It will be at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Building Hearing Room.

Sewer rates presently are computed at 100 per cent of water-use fees. The town is proposing a 25 per cent increase in the sewerage fee paid to the town by the large users — including the Eight Utilities District, which taxes district users and then pays one lump sum to the town.

In the proposal to be heard and considered May 6 is a clause concerning commercial and industrial customers that don't buy water from the town, to include the Manchester Water Co., which is being acquired by the town.

Under the proposed new rule, those customers would be required to meter their private water sources or install sewage-flow metering devices.

WALTER COMP CROWLEY the tennis team, returned and in the first meet broke her own barrier in the shot put. Since then, Comp has raised the standard to 32-foot, 9-inches. She has consistently been over the 31-foot mark all season. And as Bernstein notes, "The year layoff didn't hurt Wendy one bit. She should do well in the regionals and possibly in the State Open."

High Jump Record Senior Tri-Captain Cathy Maher tied the school mark in the long jump with a 15-foot leap while sophomore Teri Arendt established a new record in the high jump clearing the bar at 4-foot, 10 1/2-inches, snapping senior Jackie Goss' old record by a half-inch.

Barbara Crowley, besides being on the record-setting home relay team, hasn't broken the standards in the 440 and 880-yard runs, which she already owns, but has been a top point-maker in 1975. In the meet against Windham, she won the 440 and minutes later came back to place second behind senior Cini Shanley in the 100. Because top quarter-milers Brown and junior Sue Wojnarowski were out due to illness Tuesday, Cini Shanley had to run the anchor leg on both the 880-yard relay and mile relay and came home a winner in both.

Only late in the 1974 season did senior Darcy Waller begin competing in the javelin. It turned out to be a wise move as she is proud possessor of the school record in the event with a toss of 109 feet. Waller is also a top 80-yard hurdler, undefeated in four meets this season. Adding depth in the field events is junior Dorrie Wilk, who has taken a number of seconds and thirds in the shot put, javelin and discus.

In the 220-yard dash, junior Mary Foran has won three races this year along with a second and third. Sophomore Nancy Downing is a top sprinter in the 220 and 100, the latter event where Yvonne Kearney is threatening to break the school record. Sophomores Linda Maher and Liz Barrett are solid performers in running events. In the mile, record-holder senior Val Poulin is the Indians' premier competitor.

Coventry Victors Of Third Straight

Stretching its winning streak to three straight yesterday was Coventry High with a 7-5 verdict over Bolton High in Charter Oak Conference baseball action at the Bulldogs' field.

The Patriots, now 4-3 for the season, were paced by Al Dionne's two hits and two RBIs. Billy Goodale and Bob Weber, 3-0 to had two safeties for Coventry. Phil Lovett yesterday. He turned the trick with a four iron and Dick Tarka, Rich Iordan and Jim Moriarty witnessed the feat.

Manning and Paul Groves each collected three hits for Bolton, now 2-5 for the season. Groves belted a two-run homer in the third and with his output is now hitting .500 for the season.

Blue Grass Stakes For Derby Hopefuls

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — Robert E. Lehmann had a twofold dream — owning and breeding a Kentucky Derby winner.

Lehmann, who owned Golden Chance Farm near Paris, Ky., realized the first part of that dream in 1970, when Dust Commander surprised the racing world with victories in the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland and the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs.

But Lehmann died in 1972 before the second part of the dream had a chance for completion. Today, Master Derby, an offspring of Dust Commander, could take a big step toward completing the dream as he takes on a field of eight in the 51st Blue Grass Stakes.

Master Derby, owned by Lehmann's widow, will share top weight of 123 pounds with two other prime Derby contenders — Prince Thous Art and Run Run, who had two safeties for Coventry. Phil Lovett yesterday. He turned the trick with a four iron and Dick Tarka, Rich Iordan and Jim Moriarty witnessed the feat.

Elsewhere in the National League, Atlanta edged Cincinnati, 5-4, the New York Yankees won a sixth victory, and the Chicago Cubs drubbed Philadelphia, 9-3. San Diego ripped Los Angeles, 7-1, and San Francisco blanketed Houston, 3-0, in today's running of the Bullpen field.

Change Sought In Elections To School Board

BOLTON
Donna Holland
Correspondent
646-0375
H. Virginia Butterfield has asked the Board of Selectmen to discuss the number of candidates on the ballot for the Board of Education.

Presently the candidates are chosen at the party caucus and the voter has no choice. Mrs. Butterfield suggested changing the number of candidates by a town ordinance. Catherine Leiner, town clerk, said the number could be changed either by charter or by referendum (voting machine) at any regular election. She said the next election it could be voted upon would be November 1976. Mrs. Butterfield suggested the referendum in case the town doesn't get a charter. The first proposed charter for the town was defeated. Charter Service Declined Helen Bevin, a member of the original charter commission, said she does not want to serve on the next charter commission when it is appointed. She said she hopes the town does have a charter in the future. Meeting Canceled For the second time in a row the Vocational Advisory Board has had to cancel its meeting due to a number of members being unable to attend. Douglas Ramsdell, chairman of the board, said the board will attempt a meeting on May 6 in the hopes all parties will be able to make it. Ramsdell said in the meantime he will send a reports to all members over vacation as to what the board has accomplished. He said career education grants from the state have been frozen at minimal amounts, $10,000 for the first year, $7,500 for the second year, $5,000 for the third year and equipment grants for the fourth and fifth years. Ramsdell said it is in the best interest of Bolton to progress as best it can at the kindergarten through Grade 8 level and try to formulate a coordinated program without too much expenditure.

Craftsmen from the Vernon and Manchester area and some from farther away will be part of the eighth annual Mayfair Crafts Show to be sponsored Sunday by the Sisterhood B'nai Israel of Rockville. The hours will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Henry Nowgrat, left, arranges some of the free-form jewelry he will be demonstrating at the show. Ronnie Filkoff, center, will give a demonstration of macrame and Stuart Jones holds one of the charcoal portraits he will have at the show. The craftsmen will be demonstrating the techniques of their craft and items will also be on sale. (Herald photo by Richmond)

A Time for Angels, by Elmer Bendiner. (Doubt, $22.95) Like many popular histories, this account of the founding of the League of Nations carries the high drama that goes with a massive undertaking involving the world's political leaders. Lloyd George of Great Britain and Clemenceau of France argue and manipulate while, on a different plane, Woodrow Wilson struggles with his impossible dream. A highly readable tale that is shattering in its impact.
Another Part of the World, by Kenneth Clark. (Harper & Row, $11) This self portrait by the British scholar who achieved fame in this country through the television series and book, Civilization, has an occasionally pompous air that annoys but mainly is a satisfying study of a remarkably successful life in the arts. Clark's uncommon ability to recognize and interpret art now him many honors, an impressive collection of acquaintances and a charming, charming career.
The Mask of Memory, by Victor Canning. (Doubt, $22.95) Canning blends violence and human frailty in such an expert mixture that at times he seems more an 18th century novelist than one of today's most skilled mystery writers. When a government espionage agent is killed in a fall from a cliff, his colleagues are forced to uncover the circumstances of his death and the whereabouts of a packet of valuable papers he had secured.

Faceless Coins Cause Problems

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea (UPI) — Some Papua natives shun New Guinea's new money because there are no human faces on any of the coins and notes.

According to native tradition, money which does not carry the face of a leader or ancestor has no "power."

Although Papua-New Guinea is almost certain to seek membership of the British Commonwealth, the new coins show the country's national crest instead of a portrait of Queen Elizabeth. The reverse side shows fish and birds.

Black Students Seize Building On Brown Campus

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — Members of the Organization of United African Peoples on the campus of Brown University staged a takeover of the main administrative building early today.

Between 400-500 black students rallied on by the cheers of about 100 white sympathizers surrounded the four-story brick building on the college Green at about 8:10 a.m.

The black students, clapping their hands and some yelling "Down with the university," formed a moving circle around the building as several of them began to enter the doors.

Students at the UPI Boston bureau. "The students are acting because of seven years of inaction and lack of commitment to minority students and the severe hardship to minorities which President (Donald) Harniss's present budget and administrative policies will cause."

The black students were upset with the Board of Trustees cuts in the school budget for next year. The cuts, they claim, affect scholarships for the needy and the admission to the college of minorities.

Students at the UPI League college boycott classes last week in support of alternative budget demands. The trustees ignored most of the demands at a meeting last Saturday and voted to pass the administration's budget intact.

"We've been expecting this, in fact we thought it was going to happen earlier this week," said a Brown security officer who hours before the takeover and heard rumors of such a move and security division personnel entering the brick building and were being geared for it.

Unlucky expert does it again
By Oswald & James Jacoby

The unlucky expert had cornered us here. He started out with "Team of four has to be my most unlucky game. I know three partners to toss me around there. Look at this hand that cost us a match.

"I sat West. I considered a seven-heart bid for some time, but finally gave up the idea. I was afraid that if my partner did not hold the ace of diamonds the opponents would bid and make seven spades. Obviously North was void of hearts."

"Good reasoning," we replied. "What diamond did you lead?"

IOH Seeking Members

The Instructors of the Handicapped (IOH) will have a membership drive Sunday. Students who will be in Grades 9 through 12 next school year are eligible to participate in IOH and may report to the pool at Manchester High School at 12:45 p.m.

Celebration of July 4 is Independence Day has always been controversial. John Adams, one of the Declaration's signers and the second President, thought Americans should celebrate on July 2, when the Continental Congress approved the document. John Hancock, president of the Congress, signed it on July 4, but the World Almanac notes the Declaration was not revealed to the public until July 8.

Non-Drivers Campaign To End Discrimination

CANTON, Mass. (UPI) — Barbara Donches, a 52-year-old free lance writer and suburban homemaker, has mounted a one-woman campaign to end discrimination against non-drivers.

French Club Will Install New Officers

The French Club will conduct installation ceremonies May 18 during the club's banquet at the Orange Hall in Manchester.

Making a Comeback

Not since the pre-World War I days of cobblestone streets in London have the horse-drawn double decker carriages been seen. But London transportation authorities found this specimen in an abandoned chicken shack outside the city and refurbished her to original grandeur. (NEA photo)

Building Program

In case you haven't had occasion to drive by Iling lately, you might be interested to know that the Iling addition is progressing at an increasingly rapid rate.

Guidance Testing

Recently, all of the seventh grade students at Iling were administered the math segment of the Stanford Achievement Test. The scores obtained on these tests are used by the guidance department in preparing programs and scheduling students.

Viet Assembly Convenes

SAIGON (UPI) — The South Vietnamese National Assembly today was called into special session Saturday to urge appointment of Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh as premier to negotiate a cease-fire with the Communists.

Minh is a proponent of peace, neutrality and cooperation with the Communists and the Communists have indicated he would be acceptable.

Ford Asks Rev-Sharing Extension

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Ford asked Congress today to extend the popular General Revenue Sharing Program through 1981, saying it has recycled about $19 billion in federal taxes for state and local use and proved to be "a resounding success."

But Ford said "there appears to be no need for substantial changes" because all but "a minuscule fraction of governments" have used their federal aid well.

Grasso To Confer on State Layoffs

HARTFORD (UPI) — Gov. Ella T. Grasso said today she plans to meet with legislative leaders and union representatives about possible pay cuts or layoffs of state employees.

The $20 million would be in addition to a similar figure tentatively proposed by the Appropriations Committee to make up for an anticipated $40 million decline in tax revenues and higher welfare expenses.

Terrorists Captured After Killing Attache

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — West German Ambassador Dietrich Stoeker said today the six leftist terrorists who seized the West German Embassy Thursday executed Commercial Attache Heinz W. Hilderbrandt when they learned the Bonn government had rejected all of their demands.

The terrorists executed the West German military attache, Lt. Col. Andreas von Mirbach, shortly after they shot their way into the yellow brick building with sub-machine guns. Hilderbrandt's body was found today in the rubble.

'Minnesota Fats' Sucker for Strays

DOWELL, Ill. (UPI) — Rudolf Walter "Minnesota Fats" Wanderone may have the compassion of Attila the Hun in a pool hall, but he's a pushover for a homeless pooch.

New York-born Fats, the most famous citizen among the 400 residents of this Southern Illinois town and perhaps the best known pool shark in the country, has cornered the local dog market.

Iling Addition Begins to Take Form

One can begin to see what the overall appearance of the new addition at Iling Junior High School will be like when finished, hopefully for the beginning of the school year in September. The addition will house gymnasium and arts areas and general classrooms as well as a media center and cafeteria. (Herald photo by Dunn)
