DEAR ABBY: Help! I am suffering from acute and Tomorrow morning I will place an ad in our local newspaper to sell my lovely guest-room furniture. It's only one year old, looks like new, but I have aged a lot since I've had wave after wave of houseguests for the past seven weeks-all either uninvited or self-invited-and the end isn't in sight. My nerves are shot, my cuticles are bleeding, my purse and gas tank are empty, my yard, house, children and pets are somewhat neglected, and I'm exhausted. One more call from friends asking me to please pick them up at the airport (85 miles round trip) will send me to the Most of my friends in this area have the same problem.

Our husbands escape to their offices and try to ignore the I wish that people could understand that a casual, "We'd like to see you if you visit in this area," is not an invitation to move in with us. So, tomorrow, the furniture goes on sale and the hotel

> DEAR ABBY: Is there a polite way to tell people that you don't want their old hand-me-down clothes? I am three months pregnant, and no sooner did I announce it at the office when almost every old lady present volunteered to lend me her old maternity clothes! Abby, some of those clothes are five and six years old! Also, don't they realize that maybe I would like the pleasure of selecting the styles and colors that look best on me? Please print this as I know there are other young pregnant girls who have been stuck in this situation. NO HAND-ME-DOWNS

DEAR NO: All you need do is say, "No, thank you," when you're offered something you don't want. Some pregnant girls appreciate hand-me-downs.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is undoubtedly shared by many other senior citizens. I have arthritis in my hands, and many of my friends insist on shaking hands with me every time we meet. These thoughtless handshakers grab my hand and squeeze my poor aching fingers, which is very How can I avoid this painful experience? Maybe if you print this letter it will help.
