BRIDGEPORT—A leopard at the Beardsley Park Zoo clawed 2-year-old Matthew Blanchard of Fairfield on the face and forehead Sunday. The boy suffered severe gashes when he wandered from his parents and apparently climbed under or through a fence around the leopard cage.

CANTON—Rep. Russell L. Post, R-Canton, wants Gov. Ella T. Grasso to turn over to a grand jury whatever information she has about the Bridgeport jai alai controversy. A grand jury investigation should begin so "the people of Connecticut will know for sure whether or not our state government is up for sale," he said Sunday.

Regional

AUGUSTA, Maine—Gov. James B. Longley will direct the Maine Board of Arbitration and Conciliation to conduct an inquiry into grievances by woodsmen against the major paper companies. The decision came Sunday night after he persuaded 17 representatives of the paper companies to listen to specific complaints by the woodsmen. Some mills have been shut down by the woodsmen who started picketing last week.

PITTSFIELD, Mass.—A media blitz similar in style to advertising used to sell commercial products is being used by the First Methodist Church to convince parishioners to return to the fold. Using catchy newspaper ads and radio spots, the church is offering free babysitting, transportation and fellowship at Sunday morning services. After a week attendance average 369 compared to 253 last year.

National

NEW YORK—Curtains will be raised on a Broadway musical tonight for the first time in nearly a month with the ratification Sunday of an agreement between striking musicians and the League of New York Theaters and Producers.

WASHINGTON—Former Treasury Secretary John Connally says he expects a "horse race" between President Ford and Ronald Reagan for the Republican nomination next year and that Reagan might win the New Hampshire primary.

SAN FRANCISCO—Jailed newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst is receiving up to 50 letters a day—many regarded as hate mail—but she is not even bothering to answer them. Her attorney claims her mind is so fogged from her 19-month ordeal that she is showing very little interest in following her case.

WASHINGTON—The United States is not ready to make specific commitments of military aid to Egypt, says Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. He said President Ford, when he meets with Egyptian President Anwar Sadat in Washington later this month, will discuss military aid only "in general terms."

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—An Indonesian crewman has told a shipping agent for the sunken freighter "Mimi" that he stabbed to death the ship's four German officers in a mutiny aimed at changing the ship's course to Cuba.

International

MONTREAL—Eleven pulp and paper mills in Quebec and New Brunswick were shut down today by 7,000 striking workers whose weekend walkouts slashed Canadian newsprint production to 55 per cent of capacity. Seventy per cent of the newsprint is exported to the United States.

LISBON, Portugal—The radical left's campaign to destroy the unity of Portugal's armed forces gathered momentum today as three well-known pro-Communist officers openly defied the government.

Playing games at IOH session

IOH begins 19th year

The Instructors of the Handicapped, Inc. (IOH) began its 19th year Sunday at Manchester High School pool.

The IOH limits its endeavors to a single purpose—teaching mentally and physically handicapped people to swim and not to fear the water. The program is held every Sunday afternoon during the school year with instructors and students participating from surrounding towns.

Any person of high school age interested in becoming an instructor, or any handicapped person wishing to take advantage of the services of the organization may call Janet Nesteruk, president, 289-6157, or Sue Tucker, vice-president, 643-1426, for further information.

IOH has prepared a slide presentation illustrating its work which is available for any person or group who may be interested.

For further information, contact Alice Ann Belfiore, public relations officer, 649-4672.

Jai alai promoter's meetings with John Bailey disclosed

NEW BRITAIN (UPI)—David Friend, the Bridgeport jai alai promoter accused of paying $200,000 cash to a "political official" for his gaming permit, met at least twice with John M. Bailey, the late Democratic state chairman, shortly before the permit was issued in March of 1974.

The meetings were set up by John L. Sullivan of New Britain, former Democratic state tax commissioner, who told United Press International a union official asked him to arrange for Friend to meet Bailey, the aging party leader who died a year after the reported meetings.

Sullivan told UPI that Friend showed his appreciation by donating a $1,000 check to Sullivan's favorite charity, a mental health organization in New Britain.

The former tax commissioner said he was asked to arrange the initial meeting by Quentin Hinton of New Britain, business agent for the International Union of Operating Engineers, headquartered in Hamden.

Hinton, through his lawyer, confirmed

Sullivan's story. Both the lawyer and Sullivan said Hinton had also introduced Friend to J. Brian Gaffney, then Republican state chairman.

Gaffney, a New Britain lawyer, has said he was not the political official, as yet unidentified, who allegedly received $200,000 from Friend. "I wouldn't know $200,000 if I saw it," Gaffney was quoted as saying.

The union's leader, Elwood "Sonny" Metz, said he and the Teamsters Union are organizing workers at the installation, scheduled to open next month as the world's largest jai alai fronton. The Teamsters' main pension fund is financing the $14 million betting place.

Sullivan said Hinton, a political lobbyist for the engineers union, asked him to a morning meeting at the Hawthorne Inn in Berlin, "two, three or four weeks" before the state gaming commission issued the permit on March 29, 1974.

Sullivan said Hinton was at the table with Friend and L.V. Renzulli of Fairfield, director of the jai alai installation. He said Hinton wanted Friend to meet Bailey for a

Optimism noted in talks

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Talks resume today amid hopes of further progress to settle the 15-week old strike against the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics in Groton, Conn.

The optimism was expressed by a spokesman for the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service who announced that the major stumbling block in the strike had been overcome.

A key work practices provision in the corporation's contract with the 10,000-member Metal Trades Council was resolved late Saturday night after the two sides had negotiated for four days on the provision.

Details of the final agreement were sketchy, but are believed to involve the creation of joint periodic panels to review each management assignment of a member of one union to do the work of an employee in another union.

Chief Federal Mediator William J. Usery was active in the bargaining involved in protecting craft lines while reducing idle time.

Usery said he was determined to have both sides continue the marathon weekend talks today in a drive for a settlement.

Israeli use of Suez to begin on Oct. 22

By United Press International
Israel said through its government-run radio today that Egypt has agreed to permit a cargo vessel sailing from an Israeli port to transit the Suez Canal Oct. 22.

The date coincides with the first scheduled meeting in Sinai between high ranking Israeli and Egyptian military officers who will work out details of Israel's withdrawal from 2,000 square miles of the desert under its interim peace pact with Egypt.

Government sources pinpointed the same target date for transiting the canal Thursday.

The radio said agreement on the date of the historic sailing through the waterway had been reached by both sides, with Washington acting as an intermediary. The name of Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, who engineered the interim pact, was not mentioned.

The vessel will carry cargo to the Far East, the report said.

The interim accord stipulates that Israel can ship nonmilitary cargo both ways through the canal on vessels not flying the Israeli flag. By sending a ship from Israel instead of to it, the radio said, Egypt could be more assured that it would not have to check for military cargo.

There was no immediate indication of which ship will undertake the mission, what its cargo will be or what will be its final destination.

The trip will be a first. Following the 100-hour Sinai campaign in 1956, Egypt halted an Israeli ship, the Bat Galil, as it tried to sail through the canal, seized its cargo and arrested the crew for a year.

Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin said Sunday the Soviet Union, Syria and the Palestine Liberation Organization were trying to sabotage the Israeli-Egyptian interim pact.

"Until today, judging from the public statements of Syria and what we know from diplomatic channels, Syria does not want agreement with Israel," Rabin told a United Jewish Appeal dinner audience Sunday in Jerusalem.

He said Egypt "seems serious" in its intention to implement the Sinai peace pact.

"but on the other hand we see attempts by Syria, the Soviet Union and the so-called Palestine Liberation Organization to interfere with the process that was started by the interim agreement," he said.

Syria and the PLO have accused Egypt of selling out the Arab cause in the Middle East by signing their own pact with Jerusalem. The Soviet Union advocates a resumption of multilateral talks in Geneva to seek an over-all solution in the region.

Rabin said there was a "struggle among extremist Arab states and the Egyptians over their attitude toward Israel."

He said he did not think there was "any possibility of a real movement to peace before the Arabs will overcome a red line—reconciliation with Israel—because the essence of peace is reconciliation and recognition and all the beautiful diplomatic words."

He said the tension between Cairo and Moscow apparently was resulted in a slowdown in shipment of Soviet arms to Egypt, "which as an Israeli I view favorably."

Police intensify search for four prison escapees

SALEM, Ill. (UPI)—A bloodhound operating with a fresh scent joined police searching a heavily wooded area today for four escaped convicts — one believed wounded — who used a homemade electronic device to escape from the nation's top security federal prison.

Following a high speed auto chase Sunday, police captured one of the five inmates who escaped from the Marion federal penitentiary at Marion, Ill., Friday night. The other four fled the auto into a densely forested area in southern Illinois some 60 miles due east of St. Louis.

Two of the four men were believed to have climbed on the porch of the residence of a farmer, Larry Stormont, about 1:30 a.m. CDT today but were scared off by barking dogs.

"I'm convinced that the two on the porch were two of the four that we're looking for," said Sheriff Charles Sanders.

A bloodhound was taken to the farm early today in an effort to pick up the scent. At least 75 policemen, two German shepherds, a helicopter and a fixed wing plane also were taking part in the search of an area about 3 miles wide and 7 miles long.

The Stormont tip was one of 20 which authorities received from worried residents during the night at their police car command post set up in the driveway of Rev. Stephen Buck separating his home from the New Bethel Presbyterian Church.

Larry and Peggy Stormont said they were waiting inside with shotguns and had lights on when the men approached. They then went to the adjoining farm of Stormont's mother where Mrs. Birdie Stormont said, "I really haven't slept much since 4:30 a.m. Sunday." Mrs. Stormont, who had four grandchildren for company, said she was keeping a shotgun and a Colt automatic by her bed.

"I won't believe that they're out of there until we find some way that they got out," said Charles Wood, an FBI agent.

"We're relying on the dogs," he said. "The fact that we just found some blood stains gives us pretty good indications that we're close."

The five men escaped from the prison by using an electronic device — apparently fashioned in the prison electric shop — that transmitted a signal which enabled them to open jail doors.

The four convicts still on the loose were Ed Roche, 39, Katonah, N.Y.; Henry M. Gargano, 43, Chicago; Dennis D. Hunter, 26, Salem, Ohio; and Maurice J. Phillon, 40, Oakland Calif.

Tight security imposed for President's visit

By SOL R. COHEN
Herald Reporter

President Gerald Ford's visit to Hartford Tuesday will be marked by the tightest security in recent Connecticut newspaper history, as emphasized in a press advisory to the news media.

No press will attend the $125 per plate dinner for about 1,000 persons in the Assembly Room of the Civic Center, nor the proceedings in the adjoining Exhibition Hall, where an additional 1,000 persons will pay $15 apiece for the privilege of buying refreshments and being seated for the President's address. Folding doors will be opened at that time so people in both areas will be able to see and hear the President.

A specially marked press room has been set aside for the media during the dinner and during the reception preceding it (for those paying an additional $125 per person).

During the program and the President's speech (but only for that part of the evening) the press will be allowed in a special area of the dining room — cordoned off for press use only.

No press without proper credentials will be allowed on a bus to and from the airport (the bus will be marked "Connecticut Press" and will be in the presidential caravan) or in the Civic Center. Credentials will be issued to those cleared for security. Applications for clearance and credentials were submitted last week.

Television cameramen and still photographers will work from a scaffolding erected for that purpose in the dining area. Pictures and interviews won't be permitted during the dinner. Pictures and interviews with state and local personalities must be before the dinner and program and only outside the area reserved for dinner guests.

discussion of "union organizing matters."

Sullivan, 76, former New Britain mayor, said he accompanied Friend, a Hollywood, Fla., Democrat, to Bailey's Hartford law firm but did not know what was discussed because he stayed outside Bailey's office while the two spoke.

Sometime later, Sullivan said, Friend went to Bailey's office a second time, shortly before the permit was issued.

UPI reported Saturday that former Deputy State Environmental Commissioner Eckhardt C. Beck and former Bridgeport municipal building official John D. Greggos were under state police investigation in connection with the granting of an exemption to a Connecticut anti-pollution law for the jai alai backers.

State police organized crime investigators said Friend "admitted" to them he paid $200,000 cash to a "political official" for help in obtaining the gaming permit.

Friend, meantime, has denied "bribing or paying-off" anyone but, in a Sunday telephone interview from his Florida home, would not deny giving the cash for help in obtaining the gaming permit. Legal sources told UPI there is no state law prohibiting "political officials," such as state party chairmen, party central committee members or town chairmen, from accepting money under such circumstances.

Democrats lead in voters

Democrats outnumbered Republicans by a better than 3 to 1 ratio Saturday in an 11-hour voter-making session in the Manchester town clerk's office.

Of a total of 64 new voters signed up, 33 are Democrats, 10 are Republicans and 21 unaffiliated.

Preliminary voting lists totals (to be amended to a permanent list Oct. 24) show 25,606 voters, with 10,613 of them Democrats, 8,340 Republicans and 7,650 unaffiliated.

The permanent list is expected to be several hundred less, when the names of deceased and persons moved from Manchester are removed.

Whatever the final total, it will be far below the 27,174 who were eligible to vote in the November 1974 election.

Except for those who will be signed up in a limited 9 a.m. to noon voter-making session Nov. 3, no new voters will be signed up before the Nov. 4 election. The exception is for those whose eligibility rights will mature between Oct. 12 and Nov. 3, including those who will become 18 years of age Nov. 4.

Splashing in the pool is fun

With obvious delight, a student of the Instructors of the Handicapped, Inc. (IOH) is splashing away on a water board with the assistance of Anita Love, left, and Ann Cook, both instructors, in the Manchester High School pool. POLICE REPORT

Arrests
 • David J. Bartlett, 31, of East Hartford, interfering with an officer and intoxication Saturday at 2 a.m. on Main St. by the Marlow's Department Store on Main St.
 • Bartlett allegedly interfered with police investigating an accident there. A scuffle with police caused the breaking of a front window of the store, police said.
 • He was released on $100 surety bond for appearance in Common Pleas Court 12 in East Hartford Oct. 20.

• Richard Lavasser, 44, of East Hartford, operating under the influence in connection with a two-car collision Saturday at 3:15 p.m. at the exit from the Caldor store's parking lot onto Tolland Tpk.
 • The car driven by Lavasser struck the side of the car driven by Leontyna Kuczyk, 26, of 31 Lyndale St. The Lavasser car was towed away.
 • Court is Oct. 28.

Accidents
 • Catherine I. Tracy, 61, of 468 Parker St. was walking across Farnell Place at Main St. Friday at 2:35 p.m. when she was struck by the car driven by Grace L. Holman, 59, of 143 Highland St.
 • Mrs. Holman's foot had slipped onto the gas pedal as she was waiting in her car for Mrs. Tracy to cross the street, police said.
 • Mrs. Tracy was given first aid by Patrolmen Albert Scabias and John Melis and taken to Manchester Memorial Hospital. She was treated for a fractured finger and released.

Incident
 • Sandra M. DeVeau, 17, and Regina DeVeau, 11, both of 322 Oakland St., were injured in a two-car collision Saturday at 4 p.m. at Tolland Tpk. and Parker St.
 • The car driven by Sandra DeVeau struck the rear of the car driven by Priscilla H. Brown, 48, of 71 Seneca Dr., Vernon.
 • The DeVeaus were taken to MMH where Sandra was treated for injuries to her right knee and Regina for a sprained right wrist. They were both released.
 • The cars driven by Paul L. Bienkowski, 16, of Ellington Rd., South Windsor and Daniel A. Socha, 17, of 12 Moore St., Colville head-on at Center St. and Love Lane Saturday at 10:12 p.m.
 • Both cars were towed away. No injuries were reported.
 • Bienkowski received a written warning for failure to grant the right of way.
 • Stephen M. Banis, 33, of 310 Main St. drove a car into a utility pole on Backland Rd. south of Burnham St. Sunday in the rain at 12:57 a.m.
 • The car was towed away. There were no injuries or arrests.
 • Rodney M. Duff, 18, of Enfield drove a car off Mather St. into a utility pole just short of Woodbridge St. in the rain Sunday at 7:38 p.m.
 • The car was towed. There were no reported injuries or arrests.
 • The Hartford Electric Light Co. reported the accident knocked out the power to 139 HEICO customers in the area for 47 minutes.

Valente heading Zinsser campaign

Donald C. Valente of 94 Pond Lane has been named campaign manager for the Zinsser campaign. Republican candidate for re-election to the Manchester Board of Directors, Valente is a sales engineer with a Connecticut medical electronics firm.

In accepting appointment, Valente said, "I'm pleased to aid in Carl's re-election campaign. He is a dedicated public servant in the true sense of the word. Time and again, I have witnessed the unselfish effort exhibited by him for the betterment of the town and the needs of all the people."

Hillery J. Gallagher is Zinsser's campaign treasurer. He is a practicing attorney in Manchester and, until he resigned Sept. 1, was a town director.

Donald Lappen is deputy campaign treasurer, Arthur Pyka is publicity coordinator and Mrs. John Higley is telephone chairman.

Donald C. Valente and Mrs. John Higley is telephone chairman.

Foe of big technology to be speaker at MCC

E.F. Schumacher, maverick humanist economist and author of "Small is Beautiful: Economics as if People Mattered" will speak at Manchester Community College Thursday at 9 p.m. in the auditorium on the main campus.

Admission is free and the public is invited.

Schumacher's message is that science and technology, in their present uses, have ravaged nature, degraded man, and impoverished civilization.

According to Schumacher, it is more important that something (via many small local workplaces, utilizing local materials and basic skills) than that a few people should produce a great deal (via large industrial centers in a few cities with fragmented job duties).

Schumacher has founded his own consulting company which helps countries develop these small scale alternatives to the technologies offered by the industrialized nations of the world.

Schumacher was a Rhodes Scholar in economics and served for 20 years as advisor to the National Coal Board in Great Britain. He has also been an economic editorial writer for the Times of London. In 1968 he predicted the present energy crisis, with its resultant European dependence on Middle East oil.

Caron heads DeLeo campaign

Gert DeLeo, Republican candidate for the Board of Education, has announced the appointment of David L. Caron as campaign manager. Caron and his family live at 64 Bolton St. He is a claims supervisor in the West Hartford Regional office of the Aetna Insurance Co.

"I have known Gert DeLeo for many years. She is abundantly suited by her background, knowledge and temperament for the Board of Education. I am very proud to be associated with her in this endeavor. Gert will be a strong asset to our Board of Education. She brings with her many years of experience and understanding in the field of education. She is a tireless worker and will spend long hours on behalf of our town and improving our system of schools," Caron said.

Zinsser again presses for Druckman foreclosure

In a letter to Mayor John Thompson dated Oct. 10 and received today Republican Director Carl Zinsser again recommended "immediate action to foreclose on the (Druckman) property."

He noted that, as far back as Aug. 21 he asked the town manager for information concerning town action to collect back taxes in excess of $50,000 on the property at 811-821 Main St., owned by Abraham Druckman of New York, that he was led to believe that a foreclosure action had been filed and that he learned to his surprise in September that it had not.

"It is now Oct. 10, 1975," he states in his letter to Thompson, "and I would suggest very strongly that, since Mr. Druckman has not paid his taxes, that the town take immediate action to foreclose on the property."

Town Counsel William Broneill said today the machinery has been set in motion for the foreclosure.

He explained that, under state law, the procedure for filing a lawsuit against an out-of-state defendant starts with an application for a first order of notice by the Court of Common Pleas.

He said the application was sent him and he will file it this week. He said he anticipates the order of notice will be issued this week also and that foreclosure papers will be served on Druckman as soon as possible.

In his letter to Thompson, Zinsser recommending that the town board up the second floor of the 811-821 Main St. building, as suggested in a Sept. 9 report by Town Fire Chief John Rivosa.

"Failure to act decisively on this," said Zinsser, "will only compound and increase the problems which have arisen from this prolonged period of neglect."

The candidates say

Republican Directors Vivian Ferguson, Carl Zinsser and Paul Willibe, say that if the people of Manchester look around at the leaves at their feet, they see visible evidence of the lack of concern of the Democratic directors.

Last May, when the town budget was adopted, the Democrats ignored the people and discontinued the leaf pickup program; Republicans voted to continue it, the three candidates for re-election say.

Now, in a statement the three candidates say a few weeks before the election, the Democrats are taking a grandstand credit for correcting a situation which they themselves created earlier in the year. This is typical of the Thompson-Democrat administration...another example of government by crisis.

"The badly needed leaf pickup service was inaugurated under a Republican administration. The Democrats took it away from the people. When it became apparent that the public was upset and when it

Court clearing backlog

The backlog of civil cases pending in the Common Pleas Court in Manchester is being cleaned up due to the state court merger engineered in December, 1974, a state judge said last week.

Chief Judge Roman J. Lexton said the merger of the Common Pleas Court and former Circuit Court systems is a success.

Backlogs of civil cases around the state are steadily dropping, he said.

CPC 12 serves Manchester, South Windsor, East Hartford, Glastonbury, and Marlborough. There were 1,875 civil cases pending here on Dec. 31, 1974. Of these, 249 were claimed for trial.

At the end of August, these figures had been cut to 725 and pending here on Dec. 31, 1974.

CPC 12 progress has exceeded the state's good progress, Judge Lexton said.

Chief cause of the statewide improvement is the use of teams of judges. The teams went to the areas of worst backlog.

A computer system of tracking cases will further speed handling of civil cases, he said.

Opinion
Farm export ban
harvests problems?

Picture the Soviet Union sending buyers to the United States with firm orders, and hard money to back them up, for a billion dollars worth of automobiles.
Now extend this impossible dream by imagining certain politicians and labor leaders demanding that the government scotch the deal because additional sales abroad might cause car prices to go up at home.

Ridiculous? But just substitute grain for automobiles and you have today's "insane demand" by some to shut off further grain shipments to foreign customers.
That is the analogy drawn by Keith C. Barrons, an agricultural scientist and author of a just-published book, "The Food in Your Future."
For years the American farmer has been raising grain for export just as much as for domestic consumption, says Barrons. Currently he is harvesting more than two billion bushels of wheat, knowing that all the bread, crackers, pasta and pastry we eat in the U.S.A. during the coming year, plus a reasonable addition to our reserves, will require less than half that amount.

They're not listening

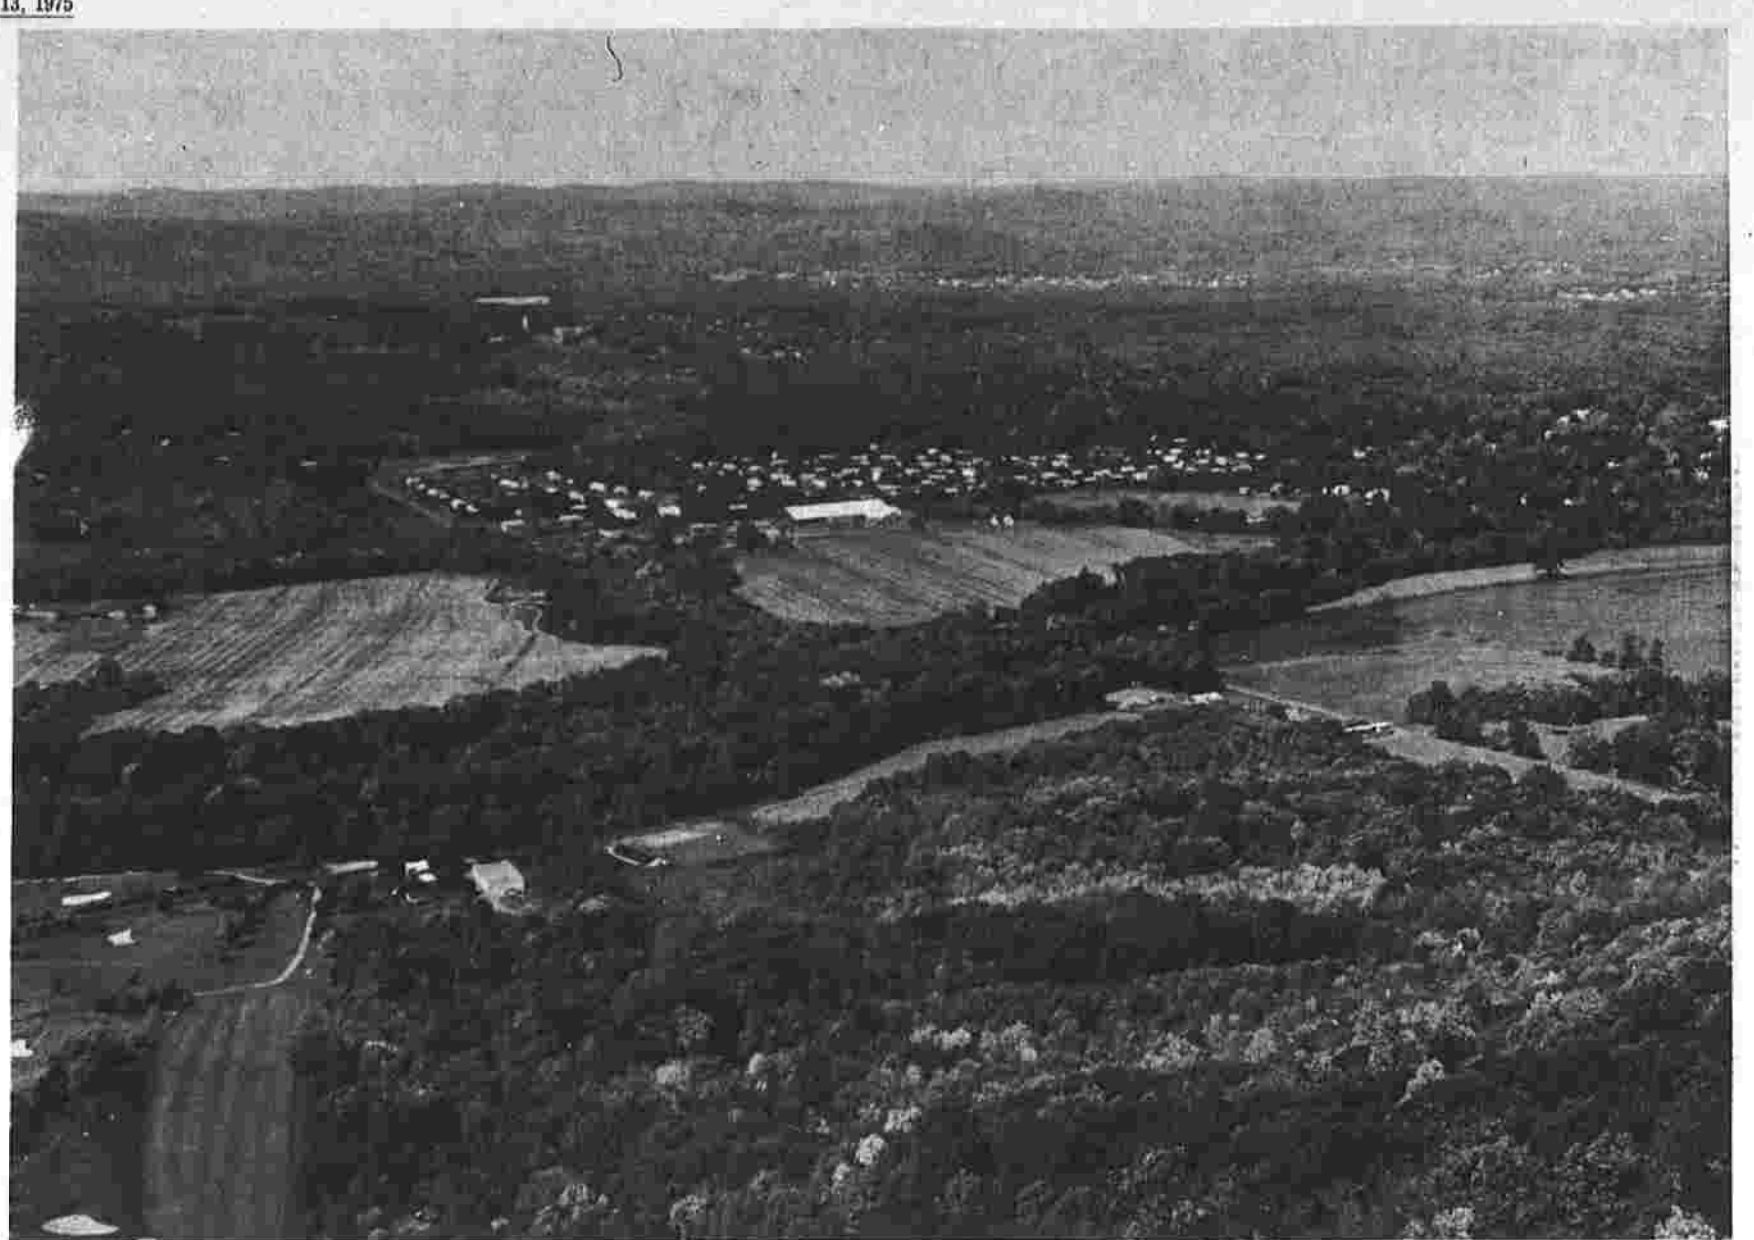

We have long suspected that many members of Congress are great in the oratory department but just aren't listening.
The other day the President offered a tax cut plan and linked it to a ceiling on government spending which by some estimates would mean trimming about $28 billion from the current recession-inflated budget in the next fiscal year.
Right away there was a chorus of solons singing out that the spending cut proposal was irresponsible and preposterous.

THOUGHT FOR DAY

Recently Pope Paul VI declared that an American woman, Elizabeth Bayley Seton, was holy enough to be called a saint. Perhaps many of us have wondered just what holiness is all about, just what it takes to become a saint. In the Bible we read: "Be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy." (Lev. 19:2) And again: "You must be perfect just as your heavenly Father is perfect." (Matt. 5:48)
Is not this an impossible command? Not at all! Once we recognize that all our abilities and talents come to us from God

The violence syndrome in America

MAX LERNER

Returning to the United States after a five-week absence, the first thing that hits you is the preoccupation with political violence. Some of it, like the CIA staff, is governmental. Most of the rest is urban guerrilla action (as with the cases of Patricia Hearst and the HARRISes) or attempts at presidential assassination (as with Lynette Fromme and Sara Jane Moore).

and surveillance in the corridors of power, but more than a few have gone over the line. For those the picture is utterly rational, at least within their distorted perspectives: If you are convinced you are being stalked, then the logical thing is to become the stalker; if you feel the "system" is using violence against you, then you decide to get there first and use violence against the "system."
This is obviously too simple a formula to explain the twisted, labyrinthine thinking among the members of the Manson "family," to which Lynette Fromme belonged, or the "Symbionese Army" whose stalwarts the HARRISes have been and with which Patricia Hearst has had so complex a relationship. It is also too simple to sum up the shadowy, confused mind of Sara Jane Moore, and of others in the little groups on whose fringes she moved.

OPEN FORUM

Thank you

We would like to have the opportunity to thank you for the many people that patronize our American Field Service spaghetti supper at the South Windsor High School Friday, Sept. 26.
Despite the pouring rain we were fortunate to have many people turn out for our benefit supper. The crowd far exceeded our expectations and we are sincerely grateful for their patience and understanding of the delays and substitutions.

It started with a skid on wet road

Lying almost under the utility pole it severed Sunday at 1:27 p.m. is the "totalled" auto of Julius Shortridge, 35, of 52 Ellington Ave., Ellington. Shortridge was driving north on Rt. 83 in Ellington when the car skidded on the wet pavement. It went off the left side of the road, struck three highway posts, and then hit the pole, said state police. Shortridge got out of the car and was taken by Ellington

Ambulance with minor injuries to Rockville General Hospital where he was treated and released. A spokesman for the Connecticut Light and Power Co. said about 200 customers lost power for about 30 minutes along Rt. 83. Police are still investigating. (Photo by Kenneth Ostrinsky)

AREA POLICE REPORT

Arrests
Hebron
James A. Pierce, 21, of East Hartford was arrested by state police after a truck theft and two accidents were reported in quick succession Saturday after 10 p.m.
Pierce allegedly stole the pickup truck of Albert S. Taylor of Rt. 66, Hebron, police said. He was rolling it out of Taylor's driveway onto Rt. 66 when the car driven by Phillip Baribault of Marlborough swerved to avoid the truck.
Then the truck struck the Baribault car in the rear end and was driven off, police said.

Moynihan seeks meeting over false tax charge

SOUTH WINDSOR
Judy Kuehnel
644-1364
Democratic Town Committee Chairman Dennis Moynihan said this weekend that he hopes to meet with Jean Gezelman, GOP chairman, on Thursday regarding the erroneous charge that council candidate David Cohen had not paid his property taxes this year.
The call for a meeting between GOP and Democratic party heads came following the "checking of everyone's tax records...not just the Democrats," according to a spokesman for the Republican party.

Cohen, Democratic council candidate, had said his taxes, however a computer error had listed him as delinquent. Public works already been made known by the GOP before the error was discovered.

Mayor breaks leg at fire

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Mayor Frank Rizzo's right leg was broken Sunday night by a panicky crowd rushing from an explosion at an oil refinery fire.
The nine-alarm fire at the 800-acre Atlantic Richfield Co. refinery in south Philadelphia had started earlier in the evening about a mile from where a similar refinery blaze killed eight firemen two months ago.

Bristol, Cromwell school strikes remain unsettled

United Press International Teacher strikes affect two Connecticut communities, a third is threatened with a job action and another remains closed because of racial fighting. Classes will be canceled Tuesday at Ansonia High School, as school officials probe into incidents of racial fighting among 25 youths that caused injuries to 11 persons. Meanwhile, teacher strikes in Bristol and Cromwell remained unsettled and educators in West Hartford planned to begin a job action Tuesday to protest stalled contract talks.

The Ansonia disturbances Friday caused an early closing of the school of about 1,000 students. School Supt. Richard Nicolari said. Ten students were arrested Saturday, five of them minors, on charges including assault, reckless endangerment and inciting a riot, police said. They were released pending an Oct. 27 court appearance.

The teachers voted early Friday 88-2 to strike, and then met with school board officials in talks that ended five hours later with no agreement. The Cromwell Education Association wants a 7.5 per cent wage hike while the school board has offered a 6.5 per cent increase. Members of the Bristol Federation of Teachers defied a temporary injunction issued after they resumed their strike last Wednesday. Schools were opened Friday but about 87 per cent of the more than 500 teachers remained on the picket lines.

West Hartford teachers said they would begin a slowdown to protest stalled contract talks. They planned to report to work just 10 minutes before classes and leave 10 minutes after classes have ended, forcing a reduction in many activities. The teachers voted early Friday 88-2 to strike, and then met with school board officials in talks that ended five hours later with no agreement.

Highway accidents kill two persons

United Press International At least two persons died in weekend Connecticut highway accidents and one Long Island man drowned and his companion rescued after more than 12 hours in the waters of Long Island Sound. The Coast Guard said the two East Hampton, L.I., men were in the water for more than 12 hours when they were finally discovered early Sunday after their 24-foot cabin cruiser sank in heavy seas.

Former convict accused of murder

TORRINGTON (UPI) — A hearing was scheduled today for a former convict charged with murder in the work of a Torrington man. Police said Robert Nelson, 57, was found shot to death inside his home by his wife as she returned from a Torrington man. Police on Sunday picked up Robert A. Gunning, 49, of no certain address, on a charge of violation of parole. He was later charged with murder and held without bond for a Court of Common Pleas hearing. Police provided no other details in the case.

Federal grant use summary released

HARTFORD (UPI) — More than 63 per cent of the $491.2 million in federal grants to Connecticut went to help pay for welfare and transportation programs in fiscal year 1975, it was announced today. The welfare department, now known as the Department of Social Services, received the biggest total of grants, $186 million, followed by $125.4 million for the Department of Transportation. The report by the state's Office of Intergovernmental Programs listed the labor department third with $75.4 million, followed by the Education Department at $54.8 million.

Reds are home cocky and care-free after 25th ninth-inning rally to win

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Reds, fresh from a dramatic 3-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox in game two of the World Series, came home cocky and care-free to the friendly grass of Riverfront Stadium today after proving for the 25th time this year a baseball game is never over until the final out.

Up until two outs in the ninth inning Sunday, it looked as if the Red Sox formula of cutting the Reds' running game down with good pitching and heads-up defense would prove to be a winning one. But the Reds, who won 23 regular season games and also the final game of the National League playoffs on their last at-bats, were saving one more of their patented comeback for the Red Sox.

Johnny Bench's leadoff double had started everything, knocking out Red Sox starter Bill Lee, who prior to that had yielded four just hits as the prime force in Boston's 2-1 lead. But reliever Dick Drago quickly eased the partisan crowd's initial fears by retiring Tony Perez on a grounder and George Foster on a soft flyout.

That brought on Dave Concepcion, an earlier inning "goat" because of a costly error that led to the go-ahead Boston run, to be the last Cincinnati out.

"I was the last out on Saturday's game and there was no way I was going to be the last out again today," Concepcion said. "Somehow I was going to hit the ball and get on base."

He did — just enough. A soft grounder up the middle which Red Sox second baseman Denny Doyle had no play on, brought Bench home from third to tie the game. But as history now tells us, the Reds weren't through. It was time to get that running attack going once more.

Checked in their only two steal attempts of the series by the accurate throwing arm of Red Sox catcher Carlton Fisk, the Reds nevertheless flashed the "go" sign to Concepcion and the speedy Venezuelan shortstop responded by pilfering second, setting up the winning run which was produced by Ken Griffey's double off Drago deep into the left-center field gap.

"I was just concentrating on Drago," said Griffey. "I'm looking forward to Terry Crowley had told me he was a fastball pitcher and that's what I was looking for. When it came, it just seemed to get bigger and bigger."

Indeed, Griffey couldn't remember getting a bigger hit in his career either. "No question, that was the biggest hit I ever got," the 25-year-old right fielder said. "The only thing that comes close was a three-run homer I hit for Three Rivers in Double A ball that beat Sherbrooke for a championship. That one came on a 3-2 pitch and broke up a 0-0 tie."

Although it was Bench's double that ignited the winning Reds' rally, Concepcion's steal seemed to be the catalyst to what now must be considered a renewed cocky optimism.

"Fisk is gonna have to throw me out a lot more if they're gonna beat us," said Joe Morgan who was caught stealing for one of the rare times this year by the Boston catcher in the sixth inning had already been killed.

"Cecil should have been breaking on the play and it was a mistake on his part," said Boston manager Darrell Johnson.

Then in the second, the Quotes from Fenway Park "Running through the mud made me feel like I had on tennis shoes." — Joe Morgan, Cincinnati second baseman, and he was cut down trying to steal second. "We won't have that problem in Cincinnati where when it rains there, the field dries and the footing is not bad."

"A good throw would have nailed him." — Carlton Fisk, Boston catcher, on Dave Concepcion's steal in the ninth which led to the winning run. "The footing was a little tough. I slipped when I threw it (ball) but Rick (Burlinson) made a good play and I thought if he lagged him he was out." — Burlinson argued the call but it appeared the runner was a safe.

"I'm not angry with myself at all." — Dick Drago, Red Sox reliever, said after giving up two hits in the ninth. "I did what I could and felt I did the job I wanted to do."

"It was just the law of averages evening out." — Bill Lee on Johnny Bench's double to right to open the bottom of the ninth which resulted in Lee being lifted for Drago. "That Concepcion hit the ball just like the one Yaz (Yastrzemski) hit in the first inning but it was a case of different bounces." Yaz's first inning ball was fielded by Red pitcher Jack Billingham and turned into a double-play, pitcher to second to home.

"They're a tremendous ball club, but what the hell, we knew we had to play good baseball to beat them and we feel that we did and lost." — Rico Petrocelli.

"Have I seen two straight games here without the ball being hit off the wall? I can't say for sure but it is unusual." — Red Sox Manager Darrell Johnson.

"We have never been an up and down club over the course of the season. You won't see a better club than the Cincinnati Reds." — Manager Sparky Anderson. "We'll play the same way in the series as we did all season. I'm looking forward to a return trip to Boston. (Which means a sixth and possible seventh game at Fenway). I've never seen any better fans on the road than in Boston."

"I've never seen our clubhouse so quiet during the rain delay. We didn't have too much to cheer about. The breaks weren't going our way." — Pete Rose.

I knew Drago was a fastball pitcher and I was just looking for a fastball and that's what I hit." — Ken Griffey, whose double drove home the winning run. "It was the biggest hit of my career."

"They had the breaks today and we had them yesterday. It's going to be that way all series." — Dewey Evans.

"When we play at home, we'll have every part of our game back. I think we're in the driver's seat because we've got three games in a row and we feel we can beat anyone three times in our park."

Boston pitcher Bill Lee, who pitched eight strong innings Sunday and escaped without a decision, said his team is better on artificial surfaces than most people think.

"We'll get them, we're a great Astroturf team. Just ask Kansas City (where Boston was a 4-2 team) as good as Astroturf team as they are."

"I think we can take two out of three there, that would be a big deal." Cincinnati catcher Johnny Bench felt the Reds could out of the series in Cincinnati on the more familiar synthetic surface.

"We can beat them three straight at home but the Red Sox have a good ballclub and the Astroturf out there won't hurt them. They play good on Astroturf too."

It's possible the artificial surface will have as little effect on the outcome as the leftfield wall did in the first two games at Fenway Park. The 37-foot high "Green Monster" that looms in the left field was unscathed in 18 innings of play. The Red Sox won Saturday's game, 6-0, by slicing the ball to right and bouncing the ball down the third base line. The Reds won Sunday by hitting the gaps and outrunning infielders.

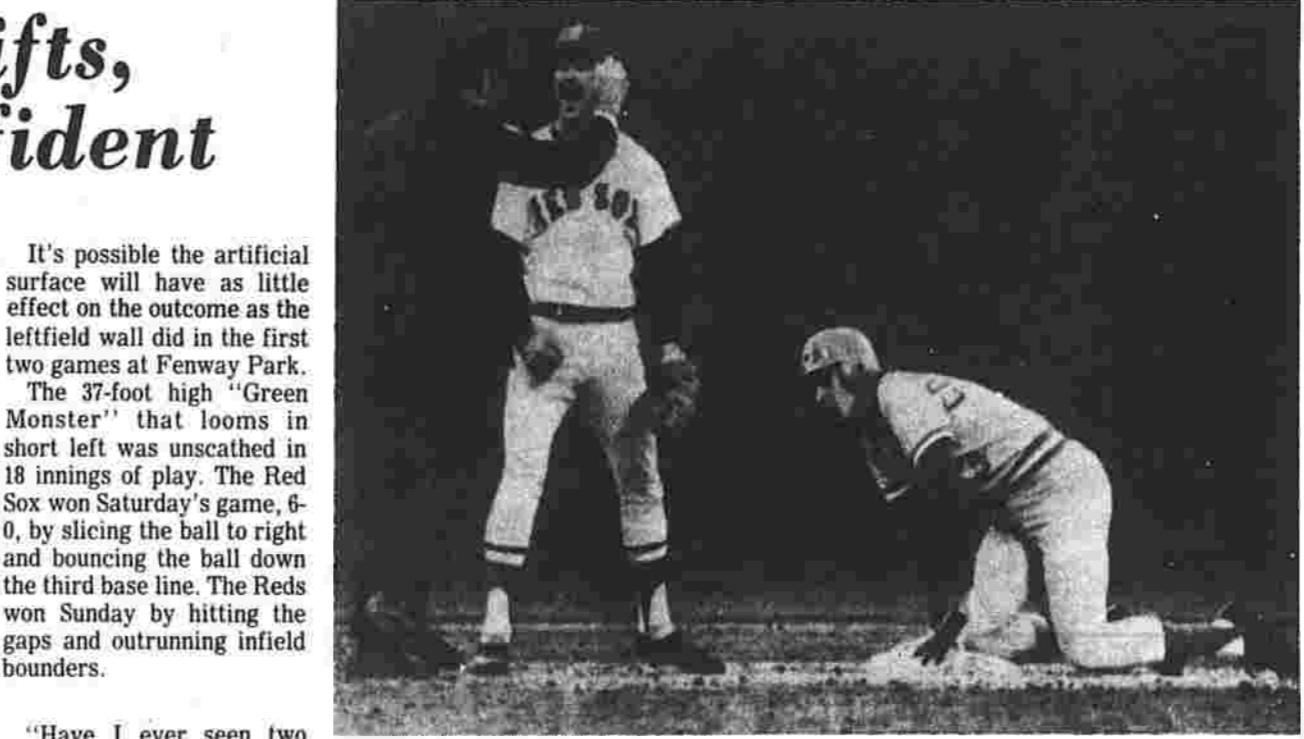

"Have I ever seen two straight games here without the ball being hit off the wall? I can't say for sure but it is unusual," said Boston Manager Darrell Johnson.

Bench, one of the men expected to rattle the wall and hit over it, instead adapted his swing to aim at rightfield in the first two games. "I was just trying to make contact instead of overpowering the ball," said Bench who could a double to right in the ninth that ignited the Reds' winning rally.

Repeat win

Gaining its second consecutive Connecticut Community College Athletic Association tennis championship Saturday was Manchester Community College's finest hour. The Cougars' spunk was ignited by team captain Tim McConville who scored the first three goals. At 8:20 of the first half Thames Valley was called for a hand violation in the penalty area and McConville booted home the penalty kick.

Victorious 1-0 last Friday was the Illing Junior High Jaycee soccer team over cross-town Bennet at Charter Oak Field.

The only score was drilled home by Sue Brown off an assist by Terry McConville. The Illing offense of Jamie Gallagher, John Kelly and Tom Hennings spent most of the contest in the Bennet goal mouth but couldn't produce a score.

The defense bolstered by goalie Chuck Costello, Mike Fraser, Dan Ruff, Marty Simon and Lynn Bono also played well. Illing's record is now 3-1.

back, Kenny just kept on throwing darts."

Brown referred to Ken Anderson, the NFL's leading passer who hit 16-of-31 for 265 yards, including a beautiful 57-yard TD pass to Charlie Joiner late in the third period that clinched the win.

New England quarterback Jim Plunkett, playing just his second game after being out a month with a separated shoulder, hit only 6-of-20 passes for 59 yards.

"It still hurts when I get hit," said Plunkett, "but I'm definitely coming back."

Undeclared Bengals top winless Patriots

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The Cincinnati Bengals' 4-0 record is the best start in the eight-year history of the franchise but the team isn't jumping to any quick conclusions.

"Right now, being 4-0 and 50 cents — I take note of inflation — will get us a cup of coffee," said coach Paul Brown after his team picked up No. 4 with a 27-10 victory over the winless New England Patriots Sunday.

"New England was their first five last season and they ended up 7-7."

"I really don't know how good we are," added Brown, who has seen all kinds of starts in his 41 seasons of coaching. "It's too early to tell."

The layers aren't making much of the 4-0 either because, somewhat surprisingly, they said they need to improve.

"We're just average," said linebacker Al Beauchamp, whose fumble recovery set up a touchdown. "You can't say we're super because if we were, there'd be nowhere to go."

The Bengals won Sunday by breaking a 10-10 tie with 17 points late in the game. Brown remembers when his expansion club couldn't do things like that.

Worst beating in 11 seasons suffered by Oakland Raiders

NEW YORK (UPI) — Don't go measuring the Oakland Raiders for Super Bowl rings just yet. They may be some surprises in store.

The Raiders, heavy favorites to win the American Conference title and pre-season picks to win the Super Bowl, took their worst beating in 11 years Sunday from a Kansas City team that had not won in three previous games.

The reigning Chiefs' offense and harassed quarterback Ken Stabler to the bench and took a 21-3 lead after only one quarter en route to a 42-10 rout.

Mike Livingston, returning after sitting out two weeks with a shoulder injury, threw three touchdown passes and ran for a score as Kansas City took a 42-3 lead before finally allowing Oakland to score a TD with just 48 seconds left.

It was Oakland's worst loss since a 42-7 rout by Kansas City in 1964.

Kansas City took advantage of six turnovers. The Chiefs intercepted Stabler three times and recovered three fumbles. Interceptions by Kerry Readon and Emmitt Thomas spurred them to a 3-7 TD burst within a three-minute span late in the first quarter.

Livingston threw TD passes of 48 yards to rookie Walter White, seven to Ed Podolac and five to Billy Masters and ran a yard for another score.

David Humm threw a nine-yard pass to Cliff Branch for the Raiders' only TD.

Oakland's loss leaves only four unbeaten teams after three games. Buffalo outlasted Baltimore 38-31, Minnesota overtook the New York Jets 29-21, Cincinnati downed New England 27-10 and Dallas edged the New York Giants 13-7 to remain undefeated. In other games, Houston crushed Cleveland 40-10, Pittsburgh downed Denver 49-9, Los Angeles shredded San Diego 33-10 in overtime, Detroit dumped Chicago 27-7, Miami whipped Philadelphia 24-6, Atlanta surprised San Francisco 17-3 and New Orleans nipped Green Bay 20-19. St. Louis is at Washington tonight.

Jim Braxton scored three TDs and O.J. Simpson rushed for 159 yards as Buffalo overcame a four-touchdown performance by Lydell Mitchell to defeat Baltimore. Braxton scored

Steelers 20, Browns 9

Terry Bradshaw threw TD passes of 43 and nine yards to Lynn Swann and Pittsburgh's defense held Denver to only three field goals as the Steelers won for the third time in four games. It was Pittsburgh's first victory over Denver in five tries.

Falcons 17, 49ers 3

Former California All-American Steve Bartkowski, returning to the scene of his college triumphs, threw nine yards to Jim Mitchell for one TD and set Haskell Stambaugh's 26-yard TD run to lead Atlanta over San Francisco. The Falcons, now 2-2, intercepted Los Angeles' first victory over Denver in five tries.

Rams 13, Chargers 10 (ot)

Tom Dempsey's 22-yard field goal with 5:33 left in a sudden death overtime lifted Los Angeles past winless San Diego. The Chargers led 10-3 on Don Woods' seven-yard run and Ray Werschling's 36-yard field goal before the Rams tied the game on a two-yard run by James Harris. Los Angeles is now 3-1.

Lions 21, Bears 7

Bill Munson, making his first start of the season, threw three TD passes to lead Detroit over Chicago. Munson threw 11 yards to Charlie Sanders, 14 to Roy Jarvis and 12 to Jon Stagers to lift the Lions to 3-1. Chicago is 1-3.

Gregory big man leading Cowboys

NEW YORK (UPI) — When Bill Gregory gets a chance to play the defensive line for the Dallas Cowboys, he has to make an impression.

If he doesn't, it's back on the bench where he can pursue his study of regulars Larry Cole, Jethro Pugh, Ed Jones and Harvey Martin—guys who know how to play the pit and excel doing it.

Sunday, with Cole still favoring a twisted ankle, Gregory was given a rare starting assignment—and he made an impression.

Gregory intercepted a pass, recovered a fumble and got to New York quarterback Craig Morton for one of the three Dallas sacks to help the Cowboys remain undefeated with a come-from-behind 13-7 triumph over the Giants.

Gregory led the defensive assault on former Cowboy Morton, who fumbled twice and threw three interceptions, the third leading to the winning touchdown.

"I just seemed to be in the right place at the right time all day," said Gregory, whose fumble recovery led to the second of two field goals by Tom Fritsch. "We knew we had to stop them. Neither offense was doing much and we had to hold them out until our offense could get untracked."

"I don't get to start that often but when I do I want to make the most of it. I don't particularly like sitting on the bench but there really isn't much I can do about it. When I get in, though, I've got to do the job. Someday, somewhere, there will be no doubt about my ability."

The Giants took a 7-3 lead just minutes into the second half when they stopped the Cowboys on downs and Danny Buzig electrified the home crowd—the first New York City crowd the Giants have played since 1973—with a 34-yard punt return to give New York possession at the Dallas 34.

The Giants were chased out of the city by the renovation of Yankee Stadium two years ago and after a stay in New Haven, Conn., returned this season to share Shea Stadium with the New York Jets.

Morton hit Joe Dawkins with a third down pass and Dawkins followed a wave of blockers 24 yards to the Dallas seven. Two plays later, Doug Kolar swept left end for the score.

Dallas pulled to within one on Fritsch's field goal with 3:09 left in the quarter and put the game away when Mark Washington picked off a Morton pass at the New York 40 and returned it to the 17 midway through the final quarter. Four plays later, Staubach found Jean Fugett alone in the end zone for a four-yard TD pass.

"This loss really hurt," said Greg Gant's punt of the end zone for a safety in the final quarter to give Minnesota a 22-21 lead.

Smallest Minnesotan made biggest play

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (UPI) — Joe Blahak, the smallest player on the Minnesota roster, came up with the biggest play of his three-year pro career Sunday in rallying the unbeaten Vikings to a 29-21 victory over the New York Jets.

Blahak, nicknamed "GI Joe" by his teammates because of his ferocity on the special teams, blocked Greg Gant's punt of the end zone for a safety in the final quarter to give Minnesota a 22-21 lead.

Following New York's free kick from its own 20-yard line, Chuck Foreman capped a 57-yard drive with a five-yard scoring run, his third touchdown, to seal the win.

"No. 43 (Jazz Jackson) was supposed to block me on the punt," said Blahak, a 5-foot-10, 188-pound reserve cornerback. "I was lined up outside. I made a little move further out, then cut back and got there in time to block it. The ball hit me on my right forearm."

"I looked up and somebody was lying on top of me. My first thought was to get after the ball and then I saw there was no time since it was already rolling out of the end zone. It was my first blocked punt as a pro."

Foreman, who gained 201 total yards, 96 rushing and 105 receiving, said, "The big play was definitely Joe's blocked punt. It gave us the momentum and we were able to take the free kick and go in to score."

Fran Tarkenton, who hit 18-of-28 passes for 244 yards, threw three TD passes in the third period. TD passes of 15 and nine yards to Foreman to give Minnesota, now 4-0, a 20-7 lead.

"Foreman created a heckuva lot of yardage for me. My first New York Coach Charley Winner. They've got so many formations designed to get the ball to him all over the field. He's a great asset to them and a great headache to everyone else."

Despite the heroics of Foreman and Blahak, the St. Louis Cardinals will be playing a grim game of catchup in tonight's nationally televised contest between the two division rivals.

The two teams, both Super Bowl playoff contenders last season, both have 21 records thus far. The winner would remain on the heels of undefeated Dallas in the NFC's Eastern Division but the loser would fall two games behind the 4-0 Cowboys.

UConn remains winless, Yale anxious to rebound

HARTFORD (UPI) — Winless Connecticut, burdened with four losses this year and seven straight over two seasons, will try to avert its worst record since 1963 in a Yankee Conference meeting Saturday at Maine. Meanwhile, Yale, 2-1, aims to rebound from its first loss of the year in a visit to Columbia while the only other state school with a winning record to see action this week, Southern Connecticut, hosts Albany State.

Delaware's tough defense and quarterback Bill Zwaan, who passed for 117 yards including one touchdown. The Huskies, limited to a total of 56 offensive yards, came no closer than the Delaware 41 yard line in suffering the most losses at the outset of a season since 1963 when they lost five.

The Bruins have won seven straight games over two seasons, the best showing by a Brown squad in 43 years. Freshman Tom MacKenzie's 36-yard field goal in the closing seconds lifted the Coast Guard Academy to a 10-7 win over Wesleyan. RPI capitalized on two Trinity fumbles to defeat the Bantams 13-9. It was Trinity's first loss in nine games since last season with only a 3-3 tie handed them by Williams in this year's opener.

Competition high in Big Ten race

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Big Ten this year will be billed alternately as "The Big Two and the Little Eight" and a much more competitive conference. It seems that the first billing applies. Top-ranked Ohio State defeated Iowa 49-0, a not unexpected result; No. 8 Michigan, which was just favored in its battle with Michigan State, decisively beat the 16th-ranked Spartans 16-6 on national television. The Spartans had been expected to compete for the title but have now lost to "the Big Two."

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I'm nobody's fool, but this is going to sound like a foolish letter. I'm 31, have two sons and have been divorced twice. I am a beautiful woman with a home in the country and many friends, and everybody thinks I've got the world by the tail. They should only know how miserable I am.

DEAR NAMELESS: If he wanted you so much as you say him, he'd do something about it. He's married and strictly off limits. With all you have going for you, you should be able to rope a nice single man.

DEAR ABBY: Something that happened last Mother's Day is still on my mind, and I want to know if you're justified in feeling hurt. My husband and I took a lovely voyage to his mother on Mother's Day. She thanked us for it and immediately put it in her refrigerator. She never wore the corsage once during the whole day!

DEAR HURT: If this is your biggest problem, dear, you are indeed a very lucky lady. Some women (including myself) love flowers but do not enjoy wearing them. In any case, I think you have a way out of a few blooms way out of proportion. Please forget it.

Bugs Bunny - Heimdahl and Stoffel
