Storm Larry

...In Conn.

HARTFORD (UPI) — Connecticut was blitzed by a February storm in 1969 and its men moved 600 million tons of snow. They outdid themselves this week. By how much, Anthony Palmese, Connecticut's man in charge of snow removal, was unable to say, with 10,000 lane-miles clear and traffic moving. The sun and federal troops helped, too. HARTFORD (UPI) — Connecticut newspapers are suggesting this week's snowstorm will be recalled with the same gusto as the Blizzard of 1888 when it snowed for three days and hardy souls dug tunnels to get to their front doors. Some newspapers are working on it now, collecting anecdotes.

...In Mass.

BOSTON (UPI) — President Carter Friday declared a federal disaster area in the eight Massachusetts counties hardest hit by this week's ferocious blizzard. Carter's announcement came moments before Gov. Michael S. Dukakis lifted a three-day-old emergency declaration in all but 43 metropolitan Boston communities, effective midnight Friday. Dukakis refused to predict when the ban would be lifted in those 43 municipalities, but he indicated it probably would continue through the weekend. Carter's move allows federal funds to be made available for use in the relief and recovery efforts. The assistance includes temporary housing, disaster unemployment assistance payments, debris removal and repairs for streets, bridges, and public utilities. The storm drove more than 15,000 residents out of their homes and caused damages estimated far in excess of $200 million.

...In R. I.

PROVIDENCE (UPI) — A slow but methodical blitz by an army of thousands Friday continued to strip a paralyzing blanket of snow from Rhode Island's highways. Gov. J. Joseph Garrahy met with Army engineers, took a helicopter tour of the state and said he might lift the travel ban Saturday afternoon for sections of Rhode Island. He authorized banks to open Saturday and Sunday if local public officials allow it. Rhode Island officials just are not prepared to place a price tag on damages. "It's incalculable at this time. It's just enormous. There are some companies that cannot recapture the lost days of business," said Paul Choquette Jr., president of the Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce.

...In N. H.

CONCORD (UPI) — Damage reports from New Hampshire's bruised and battered seacoast were to be forwarded to Gov. Meldrim Thomson for final approval before a request is sent to the White House for federal assistance. "There is no question in my mind the damages to homes and businesses qualifies as a true disaster," Sen. Thomas McIntyre, D-N.H., said following a helicopter tour of the seacoast. The seacoast bore the brunt of this week's storm, with the town of Hampton apparently the hardest hit. Town officials have estimated damages to be more than $4 million.

Police stage large drug raid

Manchester Police made the largest drug raid in its history Friday night at the Pinball Wizard, a popular youth hang-out at 541 Main St., near the center. Fourteen youths had been arrested who were inside the hang-out and three others were arrested on the street, all for possession of drugs and some for disorderly conduct as of 10 p.m. About 15 more were waiting to be searched. Complete body searches were being done by two policemen and two policewomen in the restrooms of the establishment. Those who were arrested were loaded on a bus waiting outside. The establishment, which has been a favorite hang-out of youths for about six months since it opened, was served a search and seizure warrant about 7:30 p.m., signed by Judge Nicholas Armaniano of the Common Pleas Court 12 Friday. The raid was the result of many on-going complaints in recent months by businesses, parents and citizens and an on-going investigation by the Police Department. Police Chief Robert Lannan, who was on the scene all night, said. All key police personnel were involved in the raid, including 10 detectives and about 10 more patrolmen as well as Lannan, Deputy Chief Richard Sartor, Patrol Captain Henry Minor and acting Detective Captain John Krizjak.

This was the scene at the "Pinball Wizard" amusement center on Main Street Friday night. These youths were being searched by police officers as a result of a massive drug raid by Manchester Police. Officer Gary Benson is watching over the youths which numbered over 30 when police made the raid about 7:30. (Herald photo by Dunn)

Some of the youths who were in the building at the time of the raid were as young as 11 years old. One 11-year-old boy and one 12-year-old girl, after being searched, were taken to the custody of their parents. The boy said it was only the second time he had been in the amusement center, but the girl said she goes there all the time because she likes to use the pinball machines. Some of the other youths arrested were believed to be under 16, but none of them had been processed as of 10 p.m. The process would probably take all night, Lannan said. After the arrested persons were taken up to the Police Department for processing, the state police were to enter the establishment with a police dog which had been specially trained to sniff for drugs. The entire building was also to be searched for drugs by the police, Lannan said. The fire marshal was also going to be called in for "obvious violations," Lannan said. The owner of the business, Julian Scrusse of Wells Street, Manchester, had not yet been arrested, but was expected to be. Police found mostly marijuana-like substances, drug paraphernalia and liquor on the youths, Deputy Chief Sartor said. The entire raid procedure went very smoothly, "exactly as planned," Lannan said. Several police cars were lined up in front of the establishment, drawing scores of onlookers, some of whom lined up in the library windows across the street. Several youths stopped by the door of the business which was guarded by several policemen and walked in, obviously not aware what was going on. At least one of them was found to be in possession of drugs, Sartor said. Others stopped to ask about their friends who might be inside, or if the place was going to be closed down. Some well-known Manchester citizens stopped by and commended the police on the action. One of them said, "It's about time something was done about this place." Lannan said the raid was the largest of its kind that he could remember by the Manchester Police Department.

Moses rules for town in rev share use

Attorney Victor Moses, former Manchester town counsel, has ruled that the town does have the right to appropriate $65,000 in federal revenue sharing funds to the Town Fire Department. Representatives of the Eighth Utilities District had questioned the proposed appropriation because the Town Fire Department does not service all residents of Manchester but only those who live outside the district. "When municipal authorities are acting within limits of the formal power conferred upon them, its legislative actions, made prudently and properly under due form of law, cannot be prohibited unless there can be shown gross abuse of power, fraud, corruption or improper motives," he said. He said that the district has not shown that the town is abusing its power or has improper motives in its appropriation to the fire department. "Certainly there will be decisions by the town's Board of Directors which may not directly benefit all residents of the town but this, without more, cannot prohibit programs which are so vital to the town as a whole," Moses said. Thus, he ruled that the proposed $65,000 allocation of revenue sharing funds is legal and proper.

One killed in plane crash

DANBURY (UPI) — At least one person was killed and seven others injured Friday night when a private plane crashed into a residential home and burst into flames, police said. Police Captain James Ginty confirmed the one death that occurred after the four-seater airplane plunged into the single home on Hayestown Road at about 5:40 p.m. A spokeswoman at Danbury Hospital said seven persons involved in the accident were taken to the hospital. Two were reported in serious condition. Their identities were withheld until families could be located. Police said four persons were aboard the plane that left Nashua, N.H., headed for LaGuardia Airport in New York City. Firemen were able to put out the blaze but not before heavy damage to the plane and the home.

Budget pleases town legislators

BY GREG PEARSON
 Herald Reporter

Local legislators generally were pleased with Gov. Ella Grasso's budget message and its increased funding for a variety of town and state causes.
 Mrs. Grasso formally detailed her record $2.086 billion budget Friday before the State Legislature.
 "I don't think anyone was left out. She's made it so that everyone will go along with the budget," Rep. Francis Mahoney of Manchester said.
 "I liked what I heard," he said. Mahoney was particularly in favor of a one-half of one percent cut in the state sales tax.
 "I hope that remains in the budget. It's always easy to add on a penny (of tax), and there's never an effort to remove it," he said. Mahoney previously has proposed reductions in the state sales tax because of surpluses in the budget.

 Rep. Abraham Glassman, who represents part of Manchester and all of South Windsor, disagreed.
 "The impact's not there," he said of the proposed sales cut. He said that he would prefer an elimination of the major part for clothing rather than the small cut for all purchases.
 The budget proposal, however, generally pleased Glassman.
 "It's perhaps the most positive budget message in the four years that I've been here. That's a good sign," he said. "There's money in there for good things — specifically in social services."
 He said that he would have preferred more state funding for education, particularly vocational education.
 Sen. David Barry called Grasso's proposed package "a positive blueprint from which to work."
 Barry praised the inclusion of a $1 million grant-in-aid program to assist funding of youth services bureaus in the state, an idea that Barry had previously proposed.
 The increase in funding of the major grant programs to cities and towns will boost state aid to all of the towns in Barry's fourth senatorial district.
 He listed the increases as follows: Manchester, $309,047; Bolton, $35,103; Coventry, $72,441; Andover, $15,424; Glastonbury, $40,336; Hebron, $18,438; South Windsor, $9,772 and East Windsor, $38,313.
 He also praised the cost-of-living

Area police report

East Hartford
 East Hartford Police Friday arrested David A. Rednarz, 25, of 44 Church St. and charged him with four counts in connection with an alleged disturbance reported Jan. 28 in the Church Street area.
 Rednarz was charged with second-degree assault, second-degree reckless endangerment, threatening, and criminal mischief, police said.
 He was presented in court Friday and was released on a $250 bond. A court date has not been set.
 Police started Friday to serve summons on people who have not yet cleared their sidewalks of snow.
Tolland
 As the result of an ongoing investigation at Tolland High School, James R. Caron, 18, of Crystal Lake Road, Tolland, was charged with the sale and possession of a controlled substance (marijuana), and Rodney Jones, 18, of Tary Road, Tolland, was charged with possession of a controlled substance.
 The three men were presented in Tolland County Superior Court Friday and their cases were continued to March 7.
 Lawrence Ziembra posted a $3,500 bond and Thomas Ziembra a $5,000 bond. Daniel Ziembra was held at the Hartford Correctional Center in lieu of a $30,000 bond.
Vernon
 Three Rockville men were arrested Friday on a Tolland County Superior Court bench warrant.
 Daniel Ziembra, 22, of 47 Village St. was charged with first-degree assault and first-degree burglary. Lawrence Ziembra, 27, also of 47 Village St., was charged with tampering with a witness. Thomas Ziembra, 25, of 33 Brooklyn St. was also charged with tampering with a witness.
 The three men were presented in Tolland County Superior Court Friday and their cases were continued to March 7.
 Lawrence Ziembra posted a $3,500 bond and Thomas Ziembra a $5,000 bond. Daniel Ziembra was held at the Hartford Correctional Center in lieu of a $30,000 bond.

Republicans take shots at budget

HARTFORD (UPI) — Republicans lined up Friday to take shots at Gov. Ella T. Grasso's record $2.08 billion state budget.
 The reaction of Democrats — even that of Lt. Gov. Robert K. Killian who is campaigning against Mrs. Grasso — was mild by comparison.
 House Minority Leader Gerald Stevens, R-Bristol, said, "I don't for one minute believe that this is an honest budget."
 "This is an election year and Governor Grasso has given us an election year budget with something for everyone: more spending and lower taxes," said Stevens, campaigning for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.
 "It's a great budget if you can believe it, but I don't believe it," he said.
 Another Republican candidate, Senate Minority Leader Lewis E. Rome of Bloomfield, "I'm concerned she's making the full cupboard go bare quickly."
 "It's a budget that tries to be all things for all people," he said.
 A third Republican candidate, Sen. George Gunther of Stratford, said Mrs. Grasso is playing politics with the budget.
 "To take and cut the sales tax by a half-percent is like spitting in the ocean," he said. "We should put the money where it will do some good."

Gibbs hired

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — The Tampa Bay Buccaneers, who suffered a lack of offense while recording a 2-2 record last season, have hired Joe Gibbs away from the St. Louis Cardinals as offensive coordinator.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Friday decided unanimously to move its Panama Canal treaty debate into secret session Feb. 21 to discuss allegations Gen. Omar Torrijos may have been involved in smuggling drugs into the United States.
 Shifting the debate toward mysterious, sensitive issues at the demand of Republican treaty critics, the Senate also was expected to review the issue of U.S. electronic eavesdropping on Panamanian officials during treaty negotiations.
 Bipartisan Senate leaders at first seemed reluctant to cloud treaty debate with formal discussion of the so-called "Panama Connection" drug charges.
 But, they shifted at persistent urging of Sen. Robert Dole, R-Kan., and got unanimous consent to hold the rare secret session.
 "I would just say, this is not a 'red herring,' Dole said in pressing his demand for closed-door airing of the drug allegations. "This is not an effort to sidetrack the debate on the treaty... (or) some way to defeat the treaties. I would just ask that we have that session early."

Unconfirmed newspaper reports have suggested U.S. drug enforcement and intelligence officials have information that Torrijos, some of his relatives and other Panamanian officials have participated in lucrative rackets that funnel illegal narcotics into the United States by way of Central America.
 Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee that investigated both the drug charges and the electronic eavesdropping, said of the narcotics allegations: "You read the stuff in the newspapers — some of it is true and some of it is false."

About town

The Confirmation Class of South United Methodist Church will meet Monday from 3 to 4 p.m. in the education wing of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elam of 190 Bush Hill Road will be host and hostess at the Lutz Junior Museum, 126 Cedar St., Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. Admission is free. The public is welcome.

Two rob Pero's

Police reported an armed robbery at Pero's Market on Oakland Street about 6:55 p.m. Friday. Two males of Spanish descent, both armed with handguns, entered the market and demanded money be turned over from the cash register, police said. A customer in the store was also robbed of some money.
 A few minutes after the robbery a stolen car, believed to have been used by the robbers, was found on North School Street, not far from the market. The car was registered in Waterbury.
 An estimated $300 or $400 was stolen.
 A 17-year-old male and a juvenile were also arrested late Friday afternoon in connection with a robbery in an apartment on Downey Drive.
 Charles Burdick of 399 Foster St., South Windsor, was charged with second-degree robbery, fourth-degree larceny and third-degree burglary in connection with that incident. Police said he and a juvenile companion walked into an apartment and robbed the residents who were home of an undetermined amount of cash.
 Burdick was released Friday night on a $500 bond.

Remember February is Cherry Month

The beautiful red cherry with its tart sweet flavor reigns as we celebrate the three famous birthdays that fall in February. It's definitely the fruit-of-the-month.

American Heritage defines the cherry as a "small, fleshy heart-shaped fruit," so not only its color but its very shape makes it the perfect emblem for lovers as they fete their patron, St. Valentine.

The cherry jubilee continues with the birthday celebrations for Washington and Lincoln. In 1800, "Parson" Weems published his biography of George Washington that gave us the myth of young George chopping down a cherry tree. We're all willing to recognize honesty in the father of our country, so we welcome and perpetrate the story. No proper dinner on Washington's birthday is without cherries!

Lincoln's childhood was much more austere than that of Washington. When young Abe felled a tree, it was for pay — not play, and his goal was to get the job done. Carl Sandburg quotes an employer of the youthful Lincoln as having said, "... his father taught him to work, but he never taught him to love it." He would have been the first to take advantage of the convenience offered by the red tart cherry pie filling that is so work-saving and can be as near as the pantry shelf.

Canned red tart cherry pie filling (aglorious in a regal pie, or as the colorful, tempting fruit in do-ahead or refrigerated desserts, and it's perfectly suited to accompany party-pretty pork chops for a man-size entree. This year, celebrate Washington or Lincoln's birthday lavishly and easily, and another time invite the loves of your life, young and old, to share a sweet and sentimental party of multiple desserts in honor of St. Valentine.

By BETTY RYDER

The Jerusalem Hilton, Israel's newest and Jerusalem's most modern luxury hotel, is just at the western entrance to the city. Inset is its executive chef, Jean-Claude Bergert.

Top chefs participated in the Hilton Hotel Culinary Competition in the First International Conference and Exhibition of Jewish Culinary Art in Jerusalem on Jan. 24.
 The elusive goal of every gourmet chef is to become Escoffier. While many famous chefs have followed in the footsteps of the Master, no one has yet surpassed him.
 The Hilton Food Gazette published for both the Tel Aviv and Jerusalem Hiltons reports "that if Escoffier were to rise from the grave today, to demonstrate his genius at one of the Israel Hiltons, he would run into quite a few problems."
 "Food habits have changed in the past three-quarters of a century. So have methods of preparation. Essential ingredients which contributed to the flavor of an Escoffier creation are no longer available."
 "Butter and cream, which he relied upon so heavily in the preparation of sauces and soups, would be taboo in the meat section of the kosher kitchen. So would frog legs, shrimps, rabbit, pork, and a wide range of other culinary delights which come within the category of forbidden fruits in the context of Jewish dietary laws."
 "It would be a terribly frustrating experience for Escoffier, as it has been for many of the chefs who came to the Israel Hiltons without prior experience in kosher cuisine."
 At the Jerusalem Hilton, where I stayed three days during my recent visit to Israel, Jean-Claude Bergert is the executive chef.
 As a small child, Jean-Claude already showed a keen inclination toward gastronomy. Born into a family of eight children, he began helping his mother prepare meals for her brood when he was only nine. He describes her as "cordon-bleu chef" and says that till today, she is his professional inspiration.
 He completed his apprenticeship with the Savoy Hotel in his native France, then did one year of military school and a further eight months apprenticeship in the French Navy.  The following are his recipes for fruits used in soups and salad:

Orange-Olive Salad
 4 oranges, skinned and thinly sliced

 Black olives
 Olive oil
 Lemon Juice
 Mix olive oil and lemon juice to taste, add olives and toss salad.

Chilled Fruit Soup

 8 cups water
 3 tsp. cornflour
 Honey or sugar to taste
 3 cups orange juice
 Lemon juice to taste
 Chilled or heated dry wine
 There are many additional recipes for Veal Feet in Jelly, Cotelettes De Ris, Mock Vealton, Stuffed Pigeons (or Cornish Game Hens), but all must be converted from metric to English measurements.
 I'll try to do that soon so I can pass them on.

Bolton board renews first formal fire pact

The proposed contract between the Bolton Volunteer Fire Department and the fire commissioners was discussed at a recent Board of Selectmen's meeting.

Under the town charter, the Board of Fire Commissioners has the authority to enter into an agreement with the fire department. Such an agreement has been in the works for some time now. It must be approved by the selectmen.

The agreement appeared acceptable to everyone, but several areas needed clarification. The selectmen voted to have all parties concerned review it one more time.

This will be the first formal contract between the two groups.

An $8,500 request from the fire commissioners was approved by the selectmen. Of the total amount, $5,500 will be for paving the driveway at the fire house.

John Whitman, acting fire commissioner chairman, said it will be one more step in making the firehouse livable.

For about three years the fire commissioners researched the idea of having a new firehouse or a satellite station. Neither idea appeared feasible. But stricter safety laws from the federal government made it mandatory to do certain repairs to the public facility.

And, according to Whitman, the firehouse is a structurally sound building and should be maintained regardless of its future use.

The appropriation will need Board of Finance and Town Meeting approval.

The selectmen accepted the resignation of Edward Pospisil as a commissioner.

Road workers weary but some still unhappy

arteries Monday afternoon, even before heavy snow drifts started piling up.

Other residents charged that the police were helping towing companies to profit from the storm by allowing wreckers to tow cars off town roads instead of notifying the owners that their cars had been freed by plows.

William Ziegler of Riley Mountain Road said his wife had to leave her car at the bottom of a hill because she could not make it up. Although she pulled far to the side of the road, Ziegler claimed, her car was towed at a cost of $35.

Connolly retorted that police tried to notify people about their cars but that the tow trucks were just too heavy. He said an ordinance passed several years ago allows the manager to declare a parking ban so that the plows can clear the roads and that he had decided to enforce the ban.

Jack Holly, president of the Waterford Park Association, said that he had some of his neighbors had called the town hall to volunteer their assistance but were told they were not needed. "Now you tell residents you did not notify them about their cars because you were short-handed," he chided the manager. But he also thanked Connolly for hiring private contractors in addition to the town road crew to speed cleanup operations.

Connolly reported to the council that he did not extend the governor's ban on traffic so that citizens could shop and get to work. He approved overtime for personnel hired through the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) to aid town workers.

The manager said that five of the town's seven dump trucks, which are combination plows and sanders, were working but that the large payloaders was broken and had been replaced by two small backhoes. In addition, one driver was out sick.

The crew worked 39 hours straight, Connolly said, "with two men always on standby for emergency duty." A mechanic was on hand on a 24-hour basis, and an assistant was on hand to help with equipment and personnel.

In addition, the state supplied vehicles and workers. The lake area was one of the last cleared, Connolly said, because of steep slopes, narrow roads, and stranded autos in the way. Plows escorted fire equipment to a blaze in Waterfront Park, at which the home of Daniel Cahill was destroyed. No one was injured in the ordeal.

Council Chairman Jack Myles concluded that the town road crew worked under very adverse conditions. "You can't ask anyone from them," he added. Connolly said he had not yet totaled the cost of the snow-clearing operations but that the state and federal government would share in the payment.

Eagles repeat success against Xavier, 71-57

By LEN AUSTER
Herald Sports Editor

Enhancing its chances of qualifying for the Hartford County Conference playoffs and the State Tournament last night was East Catholic as it made it two wins in two nights over Xavier, 71-57, last night at the Eagles' Nest.

The victory improved East's conference mark to 3-5 which solidifies the Eagles' hold on fourth place. East now stands 9-7 overall while Xavier, one club it has beat out now stands 1-7 in the HCC and 6-10 overall.

It was tight most of the way until the fourth quarter when playing the night before started to take its toll. The question was which club would run down first and it eventually turned out to be Xavier.

Normally fine shooting Mike Papale missed more than half his field goal tries, his shooting percentage for the year around the 55 percent mark. Papale totaled a game-high 25 points for the Falcons but had to work hard for each and every free throw as East Coach Jim Penders effectively stuffed a number of defenders on the Xavier stand-out.

The clubs were deadlocked at 13-13

all after one quarter, but the shooting percentage Thursday night were far off. East with Mark Murphy and Pete Kiro each hitting for two second-quarter points took a 33-29 halftime edge. East was 6 for 11 from the floor the second canto again for 11 for Xavier with the difference at the foul stripe. The Falcons were whistled for 17 first half fouls compared to 6 for East.

The margin was 48-41 after three periods. East outscored the Falcons, 13-4, in the first five minutes of the final canto to put it out of reach. Penders cleared his bench with just over a minute left with the starters getting a nice hand from the crowd of about 500.

Coryell 10th NFL coach to be fired

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Don Coryell, who took his frustration out on management publicly after his team faltered and missed the playoffs last season, was let go Friday as head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Owner Bill Bidwill, who hired Coryell from San Diego State five years ago, announced a settlement of the last three years of Coryell's contract.

The settlement included salary benefits and some restrictions, including possible compensation, on Coryell's taking a job in the National Football League through 1980.

"If I coach with a team that pays me more than the Cards, I will be satisfied. I must win if I am to be satisfied with my achievements," Coryell said.

The Dec. 10 loss to Washington that eliminated St. Louis from the playoffs triggered a published outburst from Coryell. He criticized the team's drafting policies, the fans' abusive treatment of his family, even the cold St. Louis winters.

The Cardinals became the 10th NFL team to switch coaches since the end of the season. The other teams which have made head coaching changes so far have been Buffalo, Cleveland, Kansas City, Washington, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco and New Orleans. A spokesman for the NFL said he couldn't recall a greater turnover in head coaching positions in a single year.

Speculation on a replacement for the most successful coach in Cardinals' history has included former NFL head coaches John Ralston, Forrest Gregg and Rick Forzano; St. Louis assistant coach Jim Hanifan; Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson, now a member of the Cardinals' front office; and Michigan State Coach Darryl Rogers.

Coryell and Bidwill parted amiably, both going to great lengths to praise each other. Under Coryell the team won two NFC East championships and compiled a record of 42-27.

"He's a great football coach," Bidwill said, "and great football coaches are hard to come by."

Indians trim Fermi, Hyde hoops 19 points

Unlike many barn burners earlier this season, Coach Doug Pearson of Manchester High's basketball team was able to sit back and relax last night as the Indians buried visiting Enfield High under a barrage of point, 90-64, at Clarke Arena.

All 15 Red and White squad members got into the CCL meeting and all scored as the winners maintained their slim hopes of gaining post-season tournament action.

Scott Hyde pumped in 19 points with Ron Apter adding 15 more. The most pleasant surprise was Rich Koepsel's 13 markers. The fine looking sophomore who has been a standout with the jayvees all season made the most of the playing time allotted.

Tall Apter, improving with leaps and bounds after a slow start, not only did offensive damage but led the way by grabbing nine rebounds.

The Tribe, winning for the sixth time in 15 loop starts and 6-11 overall.

Jumped into a 22-14 first period edge and upped the margin to 40-25 at halftime and it was 67-42 after three stand-outs.

Enfield, winless in 17 starts, received fine offensive performances from Courtney McLaughlin with 27 points, 9 baskets and as many free throws and Dan Keegan who dropped in 14 points.

Manchester (90) Hyde 9-19. Apter 7-15, Adams 2-4-4, McKenzie 0-0-0, Finnegan 1-0-2, Beaupre 1-0-2, Marshall 1-2-4, Haslett 2-2-4, Reiser 0-2-2, Crispino 1-0-2, Koepsel 6-11-13, Keniston 2-0-4, Wyman 3-1-7, Kelly 1-4-6, Shelton 1-0-2 Totals 38-14-90

Only two points separated swimming teams from Manchester High and Wethersfield High yesterday afternoon with the locals coming out on the long end of the score, 87-85.

Bob Michael notched a double for the Indians, winning the 200 freestyle and 500 freestyle events.

Bill Leahy, former East Catholic High grider and starting offensive center with the University of Connecticut football team last fall has been named to the 1977 College Division football academic All-America second team for the second straight year.

Leahy lettered three years in both football and wrestling at East and was a member of the National Honor Society. An accounting major, Leahy has a 3.77 career grade point average at UConn.

Enfield tops Tribe girls

Going down to defeat for the fourth straight time and the 11th in 17 meetings last night was Manchester High's girls' varsity squad. Enfield walked home with an easy 55-32 decision.

In winning its 11th game in 16 outings, Enfield roared out of the starting gate and led at the first period, 14-8, holding Manchester to two field goals and a foul.

Enfield upped the edge to 29-14 at halftime and 44-21 after three periods.

Elaine LaVigne led the winners with 12 points and teammate Cindy Turcotte hooped 10 more.

Best in defeat was Lise Neubelt with 10 points.

The local jayvees dropped an overtime thriller to Enfield, 29-28. Melissa Geagan tallied five points in defeat.

Enfield (55) Larochelle 2-0-4, Kindrew 4-0-4, Kula 2-0-4, Coughlin 1-2-4, St. Sauver 0-0-0, Giocchello 1-0-0, Veina 0-0-2, Keyes 0-0-0, Lavigne 5-12-12, Turcotte 2-10-10, Reynolds 0-0-0, Daniels 1-0-2. Totals 23-5-55

Manchester (32) Tilden 2-2-4, Mills 2-0-4, L. Neubelt 3-4-10, M. Neubelt 0-0-0, Geagan 0-0-0, Brown 1-0-2, Downham 1-1-3, Turkington 0-0-0, Connors 0-1-7. Totals 12-8-32

Smith added

DENVER (UPI) — The Denver Nuggets, down to a 10-man roster since guard Brian Taylor bolted the team in mid-January, were granted hardship relief from the NBA and allowed to restore rookie Robert Smith to the roster.

Smith was placed on waivers last month, when the Nuggets completed a trade with New Jersey that brought forward Darnell Hillman to Denver, but has not been picked up by another team.

Two-sport star

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Buffalo Braves guard Randy Smith, who was a soccer and track star at Buffalo State College, may be playing soccer for the Memphis Rogues of the North American Soccer League when the Braves regular season ends in April.

Gain tourney

Getting double figure scoring from four players, led by Roxanne Heinemann's 12, East Hartford High girls' basketball team got past Fermi High of Enfield yesterday and into the State Class A Tournament by a 61-21 count.

Amy Ranney, Sharon Rival and Joann Bemer each tossed in 10 points in the well-balanced winning offense.

Heinemann also was a tower of strength under the boards grabbing 20 rebounds as East was winning for the 10th time in 15 meetings.

A week of inactivity, including no practice, didn't hurt the winners.

Fermi's Richer brothers pace ice win over Tribe

Playing before no paying customers in a makeup game, Fermi High's hockey team had little trouble whitewashing Manchester High yesterday afternoon at the Bolton Ice Palace, 9-0.

It was just too much Richer brothers for the Indians. Ken tallied three-goal hat trick while brother Steve countered twice.

The locals had the game's first two shots on goal but could not tie the red laces.

Ken Richer and Jim Kraucunas gave the visitors a 2-0 first period edge. Twenty six seconds into the second stanza, Richer tallied again and the rout was on. Steve Richer assisted on the score.

Todd Sawamura got Steve Richer scored 33 seconds apart and it was 5-0 after two periods.

Ken Richer got his third score 45 seconds into the final canto, with Rob Hayden assisting and the latter made it 7-0. Steve Richer and Fran Bourque accounted for the other scores.

The winners had a wide shooting margin, 35 to 10, the locals getting off just two in the middle period.

Despite the one-sidedness of the final score the locals never stopped trying with Tommy Roach, Danny White and Kelly McSwainey playing their usual fine games. Bob Garnells, Howard Cohen and Jack Getting also turned in top efforts in a losing cause.

OSTRINSKY PAPER & IRON

Before You Throw It Away, Check With Ostrinsky First

For over seventy-five years, the Ostrinsky family has been involved in the business of recycling in the Town of Manchester. As a past president of the Eastern Paper Mill Suppliers Association, Mr. Abraham L. Ostrinsky has kept abreast of standards and procedures for packaging and presenting to various mills a product for recycling that has continually met the demand for other than natural resources. Ostrinsky has a constant market for his product, (salvageable material) and has paid his customers higher prices because he has insisted on handling only that type of material which is free of contamination. Environmental Control, pollution, resource recovery, and ecology are familiar topics discussed and acted upon by the various mill and secondary handlers associations. It is for the best interest of the public to be concerned with our future for as we come into those years that our natural resources dry up it will become mandatory to save as much as possible those resources which can be recycled. You can start now by selling your paper-metal-and iron to Ostrinsky at 731 Parker Street, Manchester, Connecticut, Telephone 643-5877.

Ask Kleiner

By Dick Kleiner

DEAR DICK: What's been happening with Tony Orlando and Dawn lately? Last I heard, Tony Orlando was quitting show business. If that's true, what are his future plans? Also will Dawn be making a comeback? JOEY KORT, Oak Park, Mich.

Tony was recovering from "mental and physical exhaustion," which is a euphemism for a breakdown. He is now planning a comeback, and by the time this prints may have made his first public appearance, set for San Carlos, Calif. Meanwhile, Dawn, loyal ladies that they are, are waiting to see how Tony comes along before deciding on their own future plans.

DEAR DICK: Just a short note. Could you please tell us the name of Hopalong Cassidy's horse? THERESA WALKER, Stockton, Calif.

Sure. Topper.

DEAR DICK: Will you tell me if the Lisa Todd who is on the Eco-Haw show is Elizabeth Taylor's daughter? MARY PFISTERER, Pheasants, Wyo.

No.

DEAR DICK: My friend and I have a bet going on whether or not Dana Andrews and Steve Forrest (of S.W.A.T.) are brothers. I say they are and he says no. He says Steve Forrest is from England and Dana Andrews is from Italy. No way can they be brothers. Who was? A.L.D., Michigan City, Ind.

You do, Steve — who is really William Forrest Andrews — and Dana are brothers, and they are neither English nor Italian, but American. Your friend is a mine of misinformation.

DEAR DICK: How much did the National Enquirer pay the man that took the last picture of Elvis? I mean the one in his casket. I.H., Springfield, Mo.

That's a big secret, but the best estimate is that the fee was "upwards of $5,000." All the Enquirer will say is that that shot boosted the paper's circulation to an all-time high — 6.7 million — and that they went to "great lengths" to arrange it. A friend of the man who is generally credited with being the photographer thinks he got $10,000.

DEAR DICK: I saw John Cassavetes in a movie recently. Is he related to Tony Orlando? Also, of Bing Crosby's four sons by his first wife, Dixie, which two (Philip, Dennis, Lindsay or Garry) are the twins? MRS. D.C. FRANCIS, Ponca City, Okla.

No, Cassavetes and Orlando are not related. Philip and Dennis are the Crosby twins.

DEAR DICK: In a recent ABC Family episode, there was a young lady who played a case worker for an abused child. Please let me know who this young lady is. I'm dying of curiosity — I always felt as if I had a twin! MRS. DORIS ROLLINS, Duarte, Calif.

The actress who played that part is Beverly Todd. Does that ring a twin-like bell?

DEAR DICK: Would you please tell me — what ever happened to Patty Roberts, Orsi Roberts' wife, on The Orsi Roberts Show on Sunday mornings? She hasn't been on lately. MRS. WILLIAMS, Columbus, Ohio

Several readers have missed Mrs. Roberts, but there is, apparently, nothing mysterious to her absence. In fact, she is now back on the show from time to time. I am told that she decided, after considerable soul-searching, to stop being a regular on the show, so she could stay home (in Tulsa, Okla.) and be with their young daughter more. She will appear on the show, henceforth, more as a guest than a regular.

DEAR DICK: In the credits of a recent TV movie, the names M.L. Frankovitch and William J. Sell appeared. Are these anonymous producers or directors? At the most, all I've ever heard are references to these people, but, in my limited reading available, nothing of them. B.V., Tombstone, Ariz.

They're both very real people, very active in motion picture and television production. Mike Frankovitch, a former USC football star, and Bill Sell are two of Hollywood's most active film makers.

DEAR DICK: My cousin told me that Jerry Mathers of Leave It To Beaver is really Alice Cooper. Is this true? C.G. AND R.M., Madison, B.C., Can.

No. It's one of the most oft-repeated rumors around these days, but untrue.

Collectors' Corner

By RUSS MacKENDRICK
Grenada will come out with a set of seven multicolor bird stamps and a souvenir sheet this month. They will show gulls, petrel, killdeer, a hummingbird, booby, hawk and scarlet ibis. Each stamp will have the Panda Bear Wildlife symbol.

Although now the proprietor of a feeding station for the resident finches, cardinals and bluejays, this writer was never a bird nut until adopted by a pair of killdeer during our first summer in this town. These birds are apparently designed to live along the seashore like any plover, but they don't seem to know it. One book speaks of their liking for plowed fields and pastures; and another calls them "a friend to mankind."

At any rate, a killdeer couple in 1955 found the terrain of the developing Jarvis acres to be just right for them. We could hear their "kill-dee, kill-dee" most any time of day. We never discovered their nest — although they must have had it on the ground near our house — but one day across the street (such as it was then) there was a procession of a grown-up killdeer followed by four speckled chicks running along on their little stilts. When I went over for a closer look, the parent put also produce bananas and cocoa beans. And, on a higher plane of thought, there was Jennifer Hosten, Miss World of 1970-71. She is pictured on a set of 6 stamps, plus a souvenir sheet showing a full-length photo printed on silk.

Grenada, for the size of it, (133 square miles and 105,000 people) has been generous with its stamps. Scott's Catalogue for 1978 gives 839 issues and they are still coming apace — always in sets with souvenir sheets.

It is an island at the extreme lower end of the West Indies chain, next to Venezuela. It is called Spice Island because it is an important source of nutmeg, mace, cloves and vanilla. They

Stamps aplenty
The French Post Office has been doing just fine — the total of releases for the two years, 1976 and '77, was 123!

Another stamp source that is not quite ready is a new United Nations office in Austria. It is due to open in 1979, just 10 years after the first stamps from Geneva; and there are rumors of still more UN places in the future.

Something to do
Tomorrow, Feb. 12, The Second Sunday Stamp Show at Meriden Holiday Inn, 10 to 4:30. This is just off the East Main Street exit of Interstate 91 and the Wilbur Cross Parkway. Free parking, admission, door prizes and philatelic literature. Many dealers will be present.

Photo publicity

Gerard Caron of South Windsor is the chairman. Exhibits are solicited — a prospectus may be obtained from MANPEX '78, Box 31, South Windsor, CT 06074.

CB Convac

If you ask anyone connected with CB what draws more negative attention to the medium than any other, they'll tell you it's interference with television sets. The complaint level to the FCC on this subject is enormous. And even this daily blast from the mails in the form of letters and cards is only the tip of the iceberg.

Attempting to deal with it is one of the prime targets of PURAC (Personal Use Radio Advisory Committee). The task group nominated to make specific recommendations to John Johnston, director of the FCC's personal radio division, is still grappling with ways and means by which it can be handled.

The FCC has been aware for some time of the magnitude of TVI, as it is called. Over the years they've taken several steps aimed at reducing it. But, one of the hardest things about the problem is that most television viewers don't know when it is CB that is messing up their picture. They know it's TVI when they hear extraneous voices drifting into their sound system because this is easily identifiable. But they don't realize that sound also makes its presence recognizable when it becomes lines and distortions on the picture tube. Toward this end the FCC has made available to anyone a booklet entitled "How To Identify Radio-Television Problems" which well expresses this aspect of interference.

Additionally, their awareness was shown in the specifications they required of CB manufacturers last year in all future units, which have some built-in protections. Further, television set manufacturers are being required to make some simple corrections in their specifications as new sets start rolling off the lines this year.

However, there are millions of television sets and almost as many CB units out there in this big country of ours that won't be replaced for years to come. What do we do about them?

A consensus of people in the business would seem to say that a simple low-high filter generally does the trick. The cost? That's what is amazing: from $4 or $5 to $10, at the most. It's installed in the back of your television set. It is not really complicated, nor is it difficult to do. There are directions with the filter for installation. If you want to be sure and not mess around with all that, do as I did. Take your set to your serviceman. He'll probably sell you the filter and install it for you right then at no cost to you other than the price of the filter. That's what I did. R.J. Drake and J.W. Miller are reputed to make the best filters. There are a lot on the market but these are two very reputable manufacturers.

This solution is compounded somewhat by the fact that many television servicemen, when called about a bad picture, don't recognize that it is CB interference. Moreover, if you tell them in advance that you're suffering from a bad case of CB interference, they may not know this simple solution. And, if they do, since there isn't much profit in applying a little old filter that sells for $5, they may not want to mess with it. That was my experience. So, you'll probably have to take the bull by the horns.

The PURAC group on TVI is considering ways of getting information to the public about this problem and ways of correcting it. The Ink Dipper thinks that stations across the country on Channels 4 and 5 would be delighted to help because they are the ones most affected by the problem. Its those old harmonics and these stations would love a solution that would keep their viewers tuned in to a clean and constant picture on their channels.

The point to all this is that you don't have to live with a cluttered and offensive picture on your television set as a result of CB while you're waiting for the technical changes in the new generation of sets to be effective. You can do something about it yourself.

'Pops' at Fronton

With the cooperation of the Hartford Jai-Alai Corporation, the Hartford Symphony Orchestra is preparing to launch its 1978 series of "Pops" concerts at the fronton. The agreement allows the orchestra to use the fronton, rent-free, as the site of its annual "Pops" series.

The Hartford "Pops" series opens Saturday, Feb. 25, at 8:15 p.m. when the orchestra will present an all-Gershwin program. The other concerts are as follows: March 18, "The Great Dance Bands Revisited"; April 8, "An Evening of Bacharach, Bernstein and the Beatles"; April 29, "The Music of Rodgers and Hammerstein."

The concerts are being presented by WTIC-AM Radio and the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, and will be conducted by Richard Hayman. A composer, conductor, and harmonica soloist. Hayman is best known for his work with the Boston Pops Orchestra. Subscriptions and single tickets are available. (278-1450)

Parham directs LTM play

Sarah A. Parham will direct the Little Theatre of Manchester's presentation of "The Little Foxes" at East Catholic High School Feb. 24, 25, March 3 and 4 at 8:30 p.m.

Ms. Parham has worked for Little Theatre previously on "The Subject Was Roses" and "Rashomon."

A resident of Bloomfield, she graduated from Yale Drama School with a master's degree in drama.

She has also directed for the Windsor Jesters, the Mark Twain Masquers, the New Britain Repertory, the Wethersfield Players and Myth Farmington, in addition for Oval in the Grove and the Triangle Theatre, both Farmington summer theaters.

First produced in 1939, Lillian Hellman's "The Little Foxes" is a play set in the South in 1900. It is about a group of sharply drawn individual portraits, which results in a strong drama of conflict among brothers and sisters. The family is used as a background against which Miss Hellman expresses a theme of the useless destruction of good by an almost unexplainable evil. The evil, in the case of the Hubbard family, comes from their desire to dominate one another.

Tickets are available by calling Vincent Liscomb on Henry Street. Manchester area residents may still purchase season subscriptions for 1978 season by contacting Mrs. Robert Hjalmeier, 271 Hillstown Road.

The other two plays to be presented are "Blithe Spirit" and the musical, "Company."

At the Bushnell

The Civic Music Association of Greater Hartford presents Les Ballets Jazz Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Bushnell Memorial Hall. The company combines the elements of jazz and classical dance. Admission is by membership only.

Wednesday at 8 p.m., Lorin Maazel conducts the Cleveland Orchestra in a program of selections by Handel, Beethoven, Scriabin and Rachmaninoff.

Feb. 23 at 8 p.m., the Connecticut Opera Association presents "La Boheme" by Giacomo Puccini, featuring Montserrat Caballe. (246-6807)

Theater events

The Tri-Town Players are in rehearsal William Inge's comedy, "Bus Stop," to be presented March 17, 18, 24 and 25 at Vernon Center Middle School. The set is designed by Lee Hay, former president and director for the Players.

Anyone interested in serving on any committee or on any aspect of production of "Bus Stop" may call Harriet Dewey at 872-4279, or attend the Players' meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the group's rooms at 32 Park Place, Rockville (second floor).

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — A terrorist bomb exploded outside a downtown Sydney where 12 Asian Commonwealth heads of state were meeting, killing at least two persons and injuring seven others. None of the visiting dignitaries was hurt in the explosion, but hours later an army explosive harmlessly detonated a second bomb that was set to go off 300 yards from the site of the blast.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration efforts to enforce civil rights laws have been significant, but high unemployment, poverty still cripple progress for women and minorities, the Commission on Civil Rights said today. The commission said community acceptance of school desegregation appears to be growing. But it said this may be due at least in part to the limited scope of desegregation plans into effect last year.

And it said little progress was made in assuring the rights of women. It singled out failure to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment and restrictions on the use of Medicaid funds for abortion.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A strike by miners that defied any presidential order to end, UMW chief Arnold Miller today attacked the union bargaining council's rejection of a proposed contract Sunday.

Had the United Mine Workers Council submitted the soft contract to rank-and-file miners they would have strongly voted to end the record 70-day strike, said.

Meanwhile, declining supplies are near the crisis point in Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky and several other states.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Lebanese cabinet today adopted a proposed law establishing a Lebanese-Syrian tribunal to investigate and punish those responsible for four days of war between Syrian peacekeepers and Lebanese rightists.

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Incompetence of many lawyers greatly contributes to a national backlog of court cases, Chief Justice Warren Burger says.

Burger told the American Bar Association Sunday the problem can be resolved only by increasing training and a new set of standards for trial lawyers.

His contentions have sparked debate within the ABA, with Illinois State Bar Association asking the lawyers' governing board to seek either a retrial by Burger or documentation charges.

ATLANTA (UPI) — Based on the Soviet Union's experience, federal health officials say a fast-moving Russian flu virus may reach epidemic proportions in this country in a few weeks.

"We can only judge by what happened in the Soviet Union," Dr. Walter Dowdle, an influenza virology researcher at the national Center for Disease Control, said.

The first known cases of Russian flu in the United States were reported out Jan. 19 among high school students in Cheyenne, Wyo. The CDC reported a week later last week, the flu had surfaced in at least 10 other places across the country.
