The district subsidy

The letters I have seen in the Herald, with respect to the proposed consolidation of the Eighth District into the town have been full of emotion, with few figures, except for glowing on the part of some Eighth District residents, with respect to the low tax rate they enjoy.

In 1943 I moved to the south side of West Middle Turnpike and discovered I was to pay the Eighth District sewer service. I thought nothing of the amount charged until a couple of years later I discovered a friend living north of West Middle Turnpike, with a similar house, was paying much less than I was. I called officials of the District to find out why and ran into a massive stone wall.

Not only did they refuse to tell me why, but I was informed that they set the rates and that I had no right to question them. They said for me to pay and keep quiet. (Some of the words were not quite so polite.) And as the amount was small, I paid, but was not happy about it.

In 1972, when the town's sewage treatment plant took over the processing of all sewage, I received a bill of $36.36 for sewer service. The town's charge for sewer service would have been $21.06. And if my house were on the north side of West Middle Turnpike, the charge would have been $10.58. (The house is on an Eighth District sewer line but is not in the district.)

After trying for six months to breach the Eighth District stone wall, I wrote a letter, dated Dec. 31, 1972, to the president of the district, stating the facts and advising that the matter would be taken to state authorities, or if the Eighth District paid less than $6 back to the town, the law, possibly pressure could be brought through the press or the state to correct the inequity of this discriminatory charge.

I also requested a refund for overcharges in previous years.

I received a letter dated Jan. 31, 1973, from the attorney for the Eighth District, reducing the charge to $21.50 which was the amount they computed I would have paid the town had I been on a town sewer. They refused to refund overcharges. (Amounts which I believe were legally charged in prior years. They said they had already spent the money.)

In view of the above figures I believe that "STETAL," chosen by those who wish to perpetuate the anachronism of the Eighth District, is the proper acronym for the district, which paid more than $30.69 (two mills on approximately $15,000 assessment) in sewer tax in 1977, could have paid no such amount, anybody who paid a sewer tax on a motor vehicle paid too much and probably most commercial establishments paid too much.

By too much, I mean they could have actually paid more for sewer service directly by the town.

Before a vote is scheduled, I would like to see accurate figures which could be attested to by a public accounting firm, from both the district and the town.

I believe these would show a most inequitable distribution of charges between taxpayers of the Eighth District and in the allocation of costs of the town's sewer department between the town and the district. Needless to say, I am in favor of the district reports in The Herald.

I believe with respect to the Eighth District Fire Department it has very excellent personnel. However, equipment appears to be inadequate, from factors reported in The Herald, or even a medium-sized fire. Surrounding towns are called on for assistance or standby.

If sufficient equipment were purchased and properly dispersed to stations within the geographical confines of the District, the district fire service would undoubtedly approximate that of the town.

I believe if the New England Fire Rating Bureau were to rate property within the Eighth District on the basis of protection available within the district, the insurance rates would be considerably higher than the town rates. If it is not higher, it must be due to the quality of equipment, or that of neighboring towns, is considered.

Thoughts

A prayer of grace
Lord God, help me always to search for truth with all my heart, in Jesus name, Amen.

The will governs the mind. Think about St. John 7:37. In the last days, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried saying, "If any man thirst let him come unto me and drink."

What Jesus meant by "thirst" — it's any way we feel a need for more meaning in life, or a greater sense of fulfillment, or a better knowledge of God.

Some people have no sense of need at all. We know of some that were like that in Verse 45 and we also are like that. We might read also in Verse 47 and Verse 52, but many of us feel frustrated by the "I am" words which help us to our existence, longing for a deeper meaning, and unable to find God. Any feeling that life is empty, or that we are in a rut, or that the walls have no reality, is a form of thirst and Christ understands it all.

What Jesus meant by "drink" — changing one's job is not the answer. Nor is trying to get something over a new leaf, nor joining a recreation club. It's simply coming and keeping on coming to Christ for the gift promised in Verse 36.

"But this snake he of the spirit, which they that believe on him should receive." It's getting a new spirit, a heart continually refreshed, and only he can do it.

Then Verse 38 will come true in you. "He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water."

The same spirit who has transformed you, will flow out of you to others, even when you're not conscious of it happening in your life.

On the day the Steelers clinched their second straight Super Bowl appearance, the streets of Pittsburgh were suddenly thronged with people jabbing their forefingers at a wintry sky and screaming, "We're number one, we're number one!"

It didn't seem to matter that day that the teachers were still on strike in Pittsburgh, that there had been no public education in the city for weeks, that millions of lives were feeling dislocation and damage; the Steelers — hyped as a mythic extension of the city — had won so close to the heart of the people that they were "number one," and deserved to be plugged into the national happy news network. For the moment, at least, it was a hero city of super people.

Those cries of "We're number one!" from major league cities and from high school gyms, have been described lately by social scientists as symptoms of the growing need of Americans to identify with tangible and respected organizations; the increasing fragmentation of American life has made sports fandom a hook to hang onto.

Opiate of the people

More and more commentators have begun describing spectator sports "the opiate of the people," as the "modern bread and circuses" and as the nation's "real religion"

There are dissenters, of course, more and more these days, ranging from parents trying to defuse the tense competitiveness of Little League programs to sports radicals as Dave Meggzyes, the apostate all-pro linebacker, who said, "Football is an attempt to sell a blow out from the smothered, fighting inflation, the exploitation of their work of their earth, that our society is still socially, economically and politically viable."

Impact of sports

Heretic or defender of the faith, or nonparticipant, there is no escape from the impact of sports. Traditionally, sports has acted as the first separator of the sexes; sometime soon after kindergarten, half the population — the girls — were cut from the team, literally or symbolically banded the majorette's baton and told to prepare for their careers as encouragers of men.

In recent years, the resurgence of the women's movement has significantly increased the number of females who participate in sports, but equally on the playing fields is nowhere near as prevalent as one might guess from the current hype of female sports stars.

From the middle grades on, boys are divided into athletes and failed athletes, worthy and unworthy, just at a time when they are most confused about their bodies and their relationships with the opposite sex.

Most Americans, early winnowed from organized sports, either turn away from sports entirely, or become avid fans, a pastime encouraged by daily newspapers (which typically fill 25 percent of their newshole with sports results in gossip), by television (for whom sports is a major revenue source), and by the ritual man-something from the athlete. "Thousands of people who don't know me," says Bill Bradley, the Rhodes Scholar who played 10 years in the National Basketball Association, "use my participation as an excuse for nonaction, as a fix to help them escape their everyday problems."

If the pro athlete sometimes seems "ungrateful" for this ephemeral and hypocritical celebrity status, small wonder that the black athlete, who has been most cruelly used by the sports industry, has led the way in demanding more concrete rewards in the form of super salaries. Spencer Haywood, the 19-year-old hero of the 1983 Olympic basketball team, set some sort of record by jumping from one college to another, then suddenly turning pro, then jumping to another league. It was very hard to argue with his credo: "If you're from the ghetto, it doesn't matter what you do or how you get it, only if you get it. What you'll do is you go to your family. To your (black) brothers and sisters. But to basketball? To some team? Forget it."

Sports is a socializer for work or for depression. Listen to the historian, John A. Kroul, prepare us in 1929 for tough times: "Diving for starters," wrote the distance runner, Bruce Kidd, "we should stop preaching about sport's moral values. Sport, after all, isn't Lent. It's a pleasure of the flesh."

Wings of morning

Triumphal entries — A contrast

Tomorrow is Palm Sunday. We call the coming of Jesus into Jerusalem the Triumphal Entry. It was triumphant one sense but in another. As a prelude to the crucifixion it could hardly be a triumph but as a prophesy and promise of Easter it is surely so. When we recall the waving of palms by a comparatively small crowd of Jesus' followers it seems a small celebration compared with the triumphant entries of other famous figures.

Professor Isaac Hall gives us these examples:

"David was welcomed with singing and dancing women out of all cities of Israel as he came back from the slaughter of the Philistines. Herodotus records that when Xerxes was crossing over the bridge of the Hellespont the way before him was greeted with shouts of praise and the burning perfume filled the air. Quintus Curtius tells of the scattering of flowers in the way of Alexander the Great when he entered Babylon. Monier saw the way of a Persian ruler strewn with roses for three miles, while glass vessels filled with sugar were broken under his horse's feet — the sugar being symbolic of prosperity." — from Hallock: Illustrations.

These entries were more spectacular than that described in the Gospels but for us the important fact is that it was Jesus Christ who was entering the Holy City. Both Matthew and Mark have the followers shouting, "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." In John 12:13 we read, "The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, 'Behold, how ye prevail nothing! Lo, the world is gone after him.'" In Luke 19:38-40 we get the feel of something coming in process for when the Pharisees say to Jesus, "Hebuke thy disciples," Jesus answers them by saying, "If these hold their peace, the very stone will cry out."

This entry is important because it was Jesus. Different evaluations are given to Jesus even in the New Testament. Here are four in ascending order:

1) Many of them said, "He hath a demon." (John 10:20)

2) Some said, "He is a good man." (John 7:12)

3) Simon Peter said, "Thou art the Christ." (Matthew 16:16)

4) Thomas said, "My Lord and my God." (John 20:28)

The Triumphal Entry is "triumphant" because it was Jesus Christ whom we as Christians claim to be the Incarnate God.

Salvation is free

Frequently I hear the phrase that "salvation is free" or "Jesus paid it all." Let me immediately concur and assert that it is, but I want to add a word of warning that "because salvation is free, it does not mean that it is cheap." God's love is for all — sinner and saint. God declared that "love" in Christ's death on the cross. It is well for us to recall that when God created the world it was easy. He spoke the word and it was done. Not only was it done but it was good. Later, when God wanted to save that world, it was only through the death of his only begotten son that it was accomplished. Free? Yes, indeed! Cheap? No, indeed!

A bargain?

Sometimes it is odd to come across items filed away years before. The other day I found a clipping from the Boston Herald that appeared in April 1938. It was an ad which said "Come down into our bargain basement and get your crosses for only 40 cents." It went on to say that it was gold-plated, it was made popular by movie stars and society leaders, and it was the style sensation of the year. Good Friday is almost here with the reminder of what the Cross of Christ meant in terms of blood, pain and anguish. How sacrilegious to represent the cross on Calvary with a cheap cross in a bargain basement!

Do you take it?

No doubt you have heard reference made to someone who has had an accident and has a "cross" to carry as a result of injury. It is my understanding from reading the Bible that to be a "cross" in the Christian sense, it must be "taken." It is something I choose to carry; not that which has happened to me by accident. Ponder the words of Jesus, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24)

The bridge builder

An old man going a lone highway
Came in the evening cold and gray
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The sullen stream had no fears for him.
But he stopped when safe on the other side
And to built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your strength with building here;
Your journey will end with the bridge you build."
You never again will pass this way.
You've crossed the chasm deep at evening tide?
The builder lifted his old gray head,
"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm which has been as naught to me,
To that fair-haired youth might a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim.
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him."

Good Friday service

The annual Good Friday Service, sponsored by the Greater Rockville Area Clergy Council will be in St. John's Episcopal Church, Route 30 from noon to 3 p.m.

The crucifixion of Jesus Christ is recalled through hymns, prayers, and meditations on each of the seven words spoken from the cross.

The public is invited to attend all of the public hours of the service, those leaving during the service are asked to do so during the singing of the hymns.

The Episcopal tradition is to have the church bare of all adornment with the cross veiled in black as a reminder of the stark nature of the tragedy of Good Friday.

The introductory meditation, at noon, will be given by the Rev. Donald McLean of Trinity Lutheran Church.

The meditations on the seven words will be given starting at 12:30, 1:30, 2:15, 3:15, 4:15, and 7:30.

The first will be on "Father and Son," by the Rev. Robert Talley, First Baptist Church of Tolland.

The second, "Today thou shalt be with me in Paradise," by the Rev. Sheldon Smith, Ellington Congregational Church.

The third, "Woman, behold thy Son," by Rev. John Mortimer, Rockville United Methodist Church.

The fourth, "My God, My God, Why has Thou forsaken Me," by the Rev. Eugene Mitchell, First Evangelical Lutheran Church of Vernon.

The Rev. Paul Bowman, Union Congregational Church.

The seventh, "Father, Into Thy Hands I commend my Spirit," by the Rev. Douglas Maclean, Union Congregational Church of Tolland.

No offering will be received during the service. Alms baskets have been placed near the entrance to receive offerings which will be used for the church's work within the community.

Union Congregational Church has a number of events planned for Easter Week. On Palm Sunday, March 19, there will be a potluck supper at 5:30 p.m., followed by a Vesper service at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary. THE BIBLE SPEAKS
By Eugene Brewer

Sports was a city-state in ancient Greece. Its leader, Lycurgus, when asked how to prevent an invasion, replied: "Remain poor and do not desire to be greater than the other." Gold and silver were withdrawn from circulation, leaving only iron money, with a low value for its weight. According to Plutarch, wealth became "an object of no desire." Robbery, bribery, corruption, and spoliation became impracticable.

What evils would be eliminated by riding men? Paul wrote: "For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. . . (1 Tim. 6:10) And "Put to death covetousness, which is idolatry. (Col. 3:5) Fifteen centuries before Paul, Moses included in the Ten Commandments the injunction: "You shall not covet . . . anything that is your neighbor's." (Ex. 20:17)

Reviews will reduce Grand List by $1 million

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter

Ed Belleville, Manchester's tax assessor, said Friday that the town's Grand List will drop by well over $1 million once changes are made in assessments.

The exact amount of the reduction is hard to judge at this time, but Belleville said that it will be less than he expected originally.

"I figured before the hearings got under way that I wouldn't be surprised if the list dropped six or seven million. I don't think it's going to be anything like that," he said.

He estimated that the reduction will be "well over $1 million."

The net taxable Grand List now is $53,834,235, but that figure is subject to changes that have to be made in some assessments.

The town is completing the reevaluation process that started about four years ago.

Belleville and employees in his office spent more than three weeks conducting hearings to meet with property owners who had questions or complaints about their new assessments.

Belleville said that his office met with about 1,100 property owners, some of whom owned more than one parcel in town. A total of about 1,600 properties were reviewed in the hearings, and changes were made on the assessments of about 400 of those, he said.

Now, the Board of Tax Review is meeting with property owners who might require changes in the assessments set by the assessor's office, Belleville said.

He is hopeful of making these changes by the end of next week. He expects that there will be less than 100 changes made for commercial properties. The amount of these changes combined with changes for single-family homes and other personal properties will result in the reduction to the Grand List.

"There are a lot of changes that need to be made. There are going to be some big reductions," Belleville said.

Still, the final total of those reductions will be well below the original figures he had anticipated.

Arthur Green appointed to police advisory unit

Arthur L. Green

Arthur L. Green of Manchester Friday was appointed to the State Police Advisory Committee by Gov. Ella Grasso.

Green is executive director of the state Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities.

Also appointed Friday was Charles Sturdivant of Hartford, counsel to the New Haven Board of Police Commissioners.

Their names came from a list submitted by the Connecticut Civil Liberties Union, which had criticized the composition of the original 15-member board named by Mrs. Grasso. The appointments bring to 15 the size of the committee.

The panel is an outgrowth of the Peter A. Rilly case in which state police were criticized.

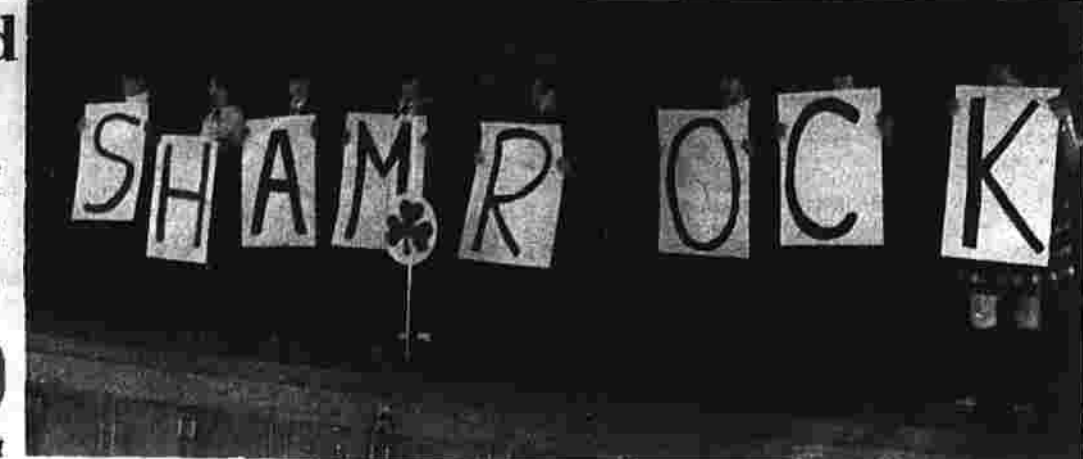

State Police Commissioner

Edward P. Leonard has said he doesn't think citizen advisory commissions work. He said he will not let the new panel delve into the state police's handling of criminal cases. Mrs. Grasso has backed Leonard up on that point.

Windsor Street to close

The Manchester Police Department has announced that Windsor Street from Tolland Turnpike to Burnham Street will be closed starting Monday to permit construction of the J.C. Penney Co. catalog distribution center.

Work on the project is scheduled to begin Monday, and the town also will open bids then for construction of a temporary road to replace the closed section of Windsor Street. Town Manager Robert Weiss said.

Vehicles traveling south on Windsor

Street from South Windsor shall be detoured to Burdick Road when they approach Burnham Street. Vehicles traveling north on Windsor Street from Tolland Turnpike shall only be allowed as far as the entrance to Exit 93 of Interstate 86 and the adjacent service station.

The section of the road that will be closed is within the area that will be developed by J.C. Penney. The town plans a temporary road from the area of Exit 93 to Burnham Street that will alleviate this closing of the road.

East Hartford

Statement is clarified

Some questions have developed about a statement by Vivian Ferguson, a member of the Manchester Board of Directors who is one of the sponsors of a proposal to permit liquor sales in Manchester on Sundays at restaurants and private clubs.

Some of those who spoke at the public hearing on the subject questioned if Mrs. Ferguson or the other sponsor, William Diana, might be receiving some personal gain from the proposed change.

Mrs. Ferguson's response according to the transcript was as follows: "If I were self-serving I wouldn't ask for an ordinance in the Town of Manchester. My husband is a stockholder — not myself but my husband is a stockholder — and director of the Steak Clubs Inc., and we love having people go into Vernon and spend their money there, so, it is not a personal thing, for, if it were, I wouldn't be backing the ordinance."

Sunday liquor sales are permitted in Vernon.

The winning number drawn Friday in the Connecticut daily lottery was 778.

Easter Triumph

Dress your Easter table in the triumphant finery of the season to set the mood for a festive holiday meal. To enjoy a traditional dinner with ease, highlight the menu with a boneless fully-cooked ham, elegant with a colorful creamy cherry topping made easy with the new convenient liquid brown sugar. Then choose flavorful meal companions that are in the "do-ahead" category.

Twenty-four Hour Iceberg Salad offers bright and crunchy contrast to the juicy, tender ham. Since Western iceberg lettuce holds its crispness well it is ideal for prepared-in-advance salads.

For a spectacular dessert serve cream-filled Wheat Germ Cake Roll. The beautifully textured cake is easily made with vacuum packed wheat germ.

If Easter entertaining includes a festive brunch, look again to pork to display your Easter best. Serve a magnificent platter of Butterfly Pork Chops easily broiled to tender perfection. A complimentary sauce of rhubarb and strawberries adds a bright spring accent.

In planning your brunch take advantage again of iceberg lettuce and its crispness, retention, and accompany the butterfly chops with lettuce wedges. The wedges can be cut ahead and dressed just before serving. A special Oriental Dressing featuring liquid brown sugar simplifies preparation, since it pours from the bottle for easy blending.

Wheat Germ Almond Ring is an outstanding breakfast bread to complete the menu. Use either regular or wheat germ with sugar & honey in both the dough and filling.

Festive Baked Smoked Ham

5 to 7-pound smoked half ham
Creamy Cherry Topping
Flaked Coconut

Place ham, fat side up, on rack in an open roasting pan. Insert roast meat thermometer so the bulb is centered in the thickest part. Be careful that bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (325°F) until the meat thermometer registers 130°F to 140°F for "fully-cooked" half ham (18 to 24 minutes per pound); 140°F for a "cook-before-eating" half ham (22 to 25 minutes per pound). Brush ham with Creamy Cherry Topping for last 20 minutes of baking time. Immediately upon removing from oven, sprinkle flaked coconut over ham.

24-Hour Iceberg Salad

1 large head Western Iceberg lettuce
1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup dairy sour cream
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas
1/4 teaspoon dill weed
1 cup shredded raw carrots

3 hard cooked eggs, sliced
1 cup thinly sliced red onion
2 medium tomatoes, sliced
1 cup thinly sliced cucumbers
1 cup (4 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese
5 to 7 radishes, cut to form tulips

Core lettuce, rinse, drain and refrigerate in plastic bag. Combine mayonnaise, sour cream, mustard and sugar; cover and chill. Cook peas according to package directions, drain and reserve for garnish. Cut remaining lettuce into chunks to yield 1 1/2 quarts and place 1/2 of chunks in bottom of a 12-cup glass bowl. Sprinkle with 1/4 of dill weed. Sprinkle carrot over lettuce and press lightly to even layer. Press egg slices around side of bowl above carrots. Place peas and onion slices in layers over carrots and sprinkle with half remaining dill weed. Cut tomato slices in half and press around side of bowl over eggs. Place cucumber slices and cheese in layers over peas; sprinkle with remaining dill.

Creamy Cherry Topping

1/2 cup Domino Liquid Brown Sugar
1/4 cup cream
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons water
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1/4 cup chopped maraschino cherries

Combine liquid brown sugar, cream and butter in small saucepan. Blend water with cornstarch and stir into sugar mixture. Add maraschino cherries and bring to boil. Reduce heat and cook, stirring constantly until thickened; continue cooking 2 minutes.

Wheat Germ Cake Roll

5 eggs, separated
3/4 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup fine graham cracker crumbs
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/8 teaspoon salt

1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup Kestelman wheat germ, regular or sugar & honey
1 cup whipping cream
Confectioner's sugar
Whipped Cream
Wheat Germ

Butter a 10x15-inch jelly roll pan. Line bottom with waxed paper and butter again. Beat egg yolks until light and lemon colored. Gradually add 1/2 cup granulated sugar and beat until thick. Mix in graham cracker crumbs, baking powder and vanilla. Beat egg whites until foamy. Add salt and cream of tartar. Add remaining 1/4 cup sugar gradually, beating until stiff. Fold egg whites into yolk mixture. Fold in wheat germ. Pour batter into prepared pan, smoothing evenly. Bake in moderate oven (350°F) 20 to 22 minutes or until top springs back when touched lightly. Let stand 5

Your neighbor's kitchen

By Betty Ryder

The women of the Home League of the Salvation Army in Manchester are great cooks. But when St. Patrick's Day rolls around, they add that something extra — bread.

Annie Russell, of 30 Foster St., makes a Bran and Molasses Bread which is popular with her two children and four grandchildren.

Annie has been busy making pies for the Salvation Army's annual Irish Tea to be held today from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Citadel, 661 Main St.

"I usually make about six lemon meringue pies the day before and it takes nearly all day. We also serve sandwiches, beverage and, of course, dessert."

"The tea is the Home League's biggest fund-raising event and we've had a lot of success with it. There are also handmade items such as knitted goods, tatted handkerchiefs, and crocheted pieces, and so forth, for sale."

Leaves of Irish Soda Bread are also for sale, but Annie says these usually disappear fast.

Annie has found membership in the Home League rewarding and has served as its treasurer for 20 years.

"When I was younger, I always wanted to work in a bank; being a treasurer is the closest I've come," she said.

Annie did work for Cheney Mills for 20 years, before and during her marriage.

Her daughter and son-in-law, the James Watsons, are both majors in the Salvation Army currently serving as directors of the Home for Retired Officers at Asbury Park, N.J.

"Presently, they are at Columbia University attending classes," Annie said.

There are four basic parts to the Home League, Annie explained.

"Worship, education, service and fellowship. We meet every Tuesday in the afternoon and each time we do, the meeting is devoted to one of the four concepts."

There are some 22 members, not all members of the Salvation Army, but are churchwomen," Annie said.

Here is her recipe for Bran and Molasses Bread:

Bran and Molasses Bread
3 1/2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
Sift together above ingredients. Set aside.
1 cup bran
1/2 cup molasses
2 cups buttermilk
1 cup raisins
Soak for 10 minutes then sift other ingredients into bran mixture. Turn out on floured board, knead for 1 minute. Bake in deep pan for 1 hour at 350 degrees.
Annie usually likes a very deep pan, but if one is not available a pie pan may be used.

Another busy Home Leaguer is Ethel Duncan of Manchester.

Ethel makes a white Irish Soda Bread, which she said is an Annie Russell recipe, but she does it just a little bit differently.

Irish Soda Bread
3 1/2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/4 cup sugar (scant)
Sift together above ingredients and set aside.
In hot put the following:
1 cup raisins
2 cups liquid — (omit 1 tablespoon butter add to cup, add 1 egg, fill to 2-cup mark with buttermilk)
Pour liquid over raisins. Sift in other ingredients and mix.
Ethel doesn't knead her bread, but pats flour around the outside of the dough. Place in cast iron frying pan which has been greased and floured. Cook for 45 minutes to 1 hour in 350 degree oven.
Proceeds from the Irish Tea today will help the Home League purchase rugs for the officers' home. In the past, they have provided utensils, sheets and pillow cases, and have also donated funds to equip the gymnasium at the Citadel.
So give your family a treat. Stop in and join the ladies (and gentlemen) at the Irish Tea today.

Pioneer International Corp. of Manchester has announced that it is in the final stages of negotiations to sell the company to a group of investors.

The prospective purchaser would be a corporation to be organized and controlled by Pioneer International's chief executive officer, David N. Abrams, who is also an officer and director of Pioneer Systems Inc., which is an 80 percent shareholder of Pioneer International.

If such a transaction is consummated, it is contemplated that the net assets of Pioneer International would be distributed to its shareholders (including Pioneer Systems Inc.) in liquidation of Pioneer International.

It is anticipated that the proposed terms under negotiation would result in the distribution of approximately $4.50 per share to Pioneer International's shareholders, which may be paid partly in cash and partly in notes.

The company noted that there can be no assurance that such negotiations will in fact result in an agreement or eventual sale.

R Sox Tiant dislocates finger on right hand

Team physician Dr. Arthur Pappas said "it will be weeks" before the burly Cuban right-hander will be able to even pitch in practice again.

"Of all the locations for a pitcher to get hit, he picked the worst," Pappas said.

Tiant, whose age is listed as 37, was taken to Winter Haven Hospital for X-rays.

"It will be weeks before he pitches again," Pappas said. "It depends on when the swelling goes down, the amount of swelling, the stiffness and the flexibility."

Pappas said Tiant must also wait for the tendons to heal and that he will need therapy on the tendons in the forearm which control the movement of the finger.

This was just Tiant's third start of the exhibition season.

He has not been very sharp since the opening of camp and was hoping to have a year better than last season when he completed just three games in 32 starts.

In two starts this exhibition season Tiant had pitched in 6.1 innings, allowed six hits, six runs, and one home run for an earned run average of 4.26.

Tiant was 12-8 last season with a 4.53 ERA. In comparison he averaged 21 wins for the four preceding seasons, including three 20 game seasons.

Last man on the bus for baseball trip south

Kicking up a (snow) storm Thursday afternoon just as the mini-bus was leaving the Manchester Community College campus was this unidentified baseball player. The team took off for a 10-game southern trip in three vehicles with the destination North and South Carolina. (Herald photo by Pinto)

The Tigers' Steve Kemp hit a line drive back to the mound. Tiant flung his right hand in the air to stop it, and the ball struck him on the tip of the finger bending it back.

Nicklaus annexes share of lead

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus overcame a double bogey with birdies on two of his last four holes Friday to battle back into a tie with Ben Crenshaw and Lou Graham for the lead in the second round of the world's richest golf event, the $342,000 Tournament Players Championship.

Nicklaus, who has played the 5-year-old TPC twice before, held the lead alone before going into a bunker and then three-putting on the 12th hole, a 193-yard par 3, a bogey 5 at his 11-hole dropped the tournament favorite two strokes back, but he then birdied the next two holes to wind up tied for the lead for the second day in a row.

Whalers 6 Stingers 2

However, the "Golden Bear" appeared to be in a better position Friday — on Thursday he was tied with six others. The 36-hole tri-headers hold a two stroke lead over their closest contender, Larry Nelson, while four other golfers were within one stroke of the lead at the end of the first round.

Nicklaus, who had a 71 Friday, Crenshaw (71), Graham (70) and Nelson (72-143) were the only golfers out of a starting field of 144 who were able to hole out par for 36 holes over the wind-swept Sawgrass course just off the Atlantic Ocean.

Surprise quintets to clash in West

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI) — Arkansas Coach Eddie Sutton says raw talent is an overrated part of college basketball, and that's a big reason his Razorbacks and no longer in-conspicuous California State-Fullerton are in the finals of the NCAA's Far West Regional.

Arkansas, whose best finish in the NCAA has been a pair of third places — the last one coming 30 years ago — scored its 20th triumph of the season and the school's biggest ever in Thursday's semifinals with a 74-70 victory over UCLA.

California State-Fullerton, in only its fourth year as a Division I school, came up with a lifting encore by upsetting San Francisco 75-72. The two meet Saturday at 4:15 EST, with the winner going on to the finals at St. Louis.

"Raw talent is the most overrated quality in college basketball," said Sutton, whose team used its quickness and scoring punch to offset UCLA's physical front line led by all-America forward David Greenwood.

While Arkansas' 6-4 trio of Marvin Dolph, Sidney Moncrief and Ron Brewer riddled the Bruins' defense for 62 points, 6-7 forward Jim Cooney and 6-11 center Steve Schell were keeping Greenwood off the boards and closing off UCLA's inside game.

Cooney, who missed the only shot he took against UCLA, screened Greenwood off so effectively inside that the 6-4 All-America could manage only four rebounds, eight below his average.

Neither the Razorbacks or California State-Fullerton were expected to reach Saturday's regional championship game and Sutton and Titans' coach Bob Dye spent Friday evening at each other's teams.

"Believe me, that team is for real," said Sutton. "They are a lot like us. They thrive on team play, run the passing game well and are as well coached as anyone we've played this year."

"California State doesn't impress you with its size but their players all know their roles and that's why they've come this far."

Sutton also said he was not concerned the Razorbacks might suffer a letdown after the win over the Bruins.

"That was a very prestigious win for our school and conference, but our team has played all season with the idea of getting out of the first round playoffs, says confidence, poise and concentration have carried the Titans this far."

Dye, whose teams was given little chance of getting out of the first round playoffs, says confidence, poise and concentration have carried the Titans this far.

"They also have an ingredient you can't teach them — a lot of heart," said Dye. "They're just a gutsy bunch who like to play basketball and have fun."

Red Sox dumped

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (UPI) — Charlie Spikes belted a three-run homer Friday to lead the Detroit Tigers to a 12-9 win over the Boston Red Sox in exhibition play.

Spikes' fourth inning blast was one of 10 Detroit runs off losing Red Sox pitcher Reggie Cleveland. Cleveland, who came on in the second after Luis Tiant was hit by a line drive, also gave up a two-run homer to Tim Corcoran in the third. It was one of seven Detroit runs in the third.

Corcoran's homer put the Tigers ahead, 11-3, and Boston was unable to catch up.

The Red Sox were unable to muster a run. Rick Burleson had three hits, and three RBI for Boston, and Carl Yastrzemski had two hits, including two RBI.

The Red Sox, now 5-4 in exhibition play, met the Minnesota Twins Saturday, Detroit, 6-3, was to face the Chicago White Sox.

White Sox cop two

SARASOTA, Fla. (UPI) — Steve Stone and Francisco Barrios, winners of 29 games between them last season, helped pitch the Chicago White Sox to a doubleheader victory over the Kansas City Royals Friday, 7-3 and 5-2.

Stone, Eddie Bane and Steve Luebber pitched the first game, yielding only four hits. They were supported by home runs by Reggie Sanders and Junior Moore and a three-run double by Larry Doby Johnson.

Sanders' blast went about 450 feet and broke a 3-3 tie in the fourth inning. Moore's homer was off Steve Busby, attempting a comeback from 1976 shoulder surgery.

Barrios, Quincy Hill and Mike Pank pitched the second game. Chet Lemon drove in three runs with a double and single. The Sox scored all their runs off rookie Rich Gale.

Green Reds win

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Bill Bonham pitched shutout ball for five innings and Danny Driessen and Don Werner hit homers as the Cincinnati Reds, dressed for St. Patrick's Day in green and white uniforms, defeated the world champion New York Yankees 9-2 Friday before a standing room crowd of 7,043.

Driessen's homer, with Ken Griffey on base, off Catfish Hunter in the fourth inning gave the Reds a 2-0 lead.

Werner's homer was one of five hits the Reds collected as they sent 11 batters to the plate during a six-run fifth inning which came at the expense of Yankee relief ace Rich Gossage.

A sixth-inning double by Pete Rose and a single by Junior Kennedy gave the Reds their final runs in the sixth inning.

Pirates on top

DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI) — Omar Moreno's solo home run in the 10th inning Friday gave the Pittsburgh Pirates their first exhibition victory of the spring after eight successive losses, a 3-2 triumph over the Toronto Blue Jays.

Moreno's homer came off Mike Willis with two out and the score tied 2-2, but in the last of the 10th, Blue Jays blew an opportunity to tie the score when right fielder Dave Parker threw out Gary Woods at the plate.

With one out in the last of the 10th, Woods beat out a bunt and stole second. The next batter, Willie Upshaw, bonced a chopper toward second base that hit a rock and bounded into right field. Parker took the ball on a hop and fired home to nail Woods who missed the plate as he collided with catcher Ed Ott.

Four of five starters lost with Tech squad

By LEN AUSTER Herald Sports Editor

"If we could only play them (Canton) another minute-and-a-half," Tech Coach's recently retired basketball coach Gerry Blanchard keeps repeating, reminiscing on the narrow tournament loss.

Blanchard's 1977-78 campaign was ended by a 60-56 loss to the Warriors, with Canton having since moved into the Class 5 finals — a place Blanchard wholeheartedly believes his Beavers could have attained.

The Techmen wound up 10-12 overall and in sole possession of first place in the Charter Oak Conference. In the broadest terms, Blanchard calls it "a very good year because we were winners in the league. The big thing (being over the hump) is that we have to stay there."

"How well they do next year depends on what they do this summer. Individually and as a team they'll have to work this summer," the outgoing mentor surmised.

"It was coaching next year, I'd be excited by what I'd find."

Club second in council race

Despite first and third place individual finishes, Manchester's Ski Club relinquished its interclub championship to New Britain in the annual Connecticut Ski Council race competition recently at Berkshire East.

"It was a bright spot until he missed a few too many practices," Blanchard states. "Potentially he can be an excellent player."

No matter how you look, graduation will have a devastating effect on the coaching staff.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I'm ashamed of you. I thought you were a liberated woman, but you are still clinging to sexist stereotypes... I refer to a recent column in which you advised a love-starved woman to talk to her clergyman...

DEAR ABBY: I attended a fine Methodist Church in Sioux City, Iowa - Moringside. I report to MS. Magazine if you wish, but I'm not ready for "dear PERSON" yet... Mea culpa, mea maxima culpa. If I learned that when I took Catholic instruction in Eau Claire, Wis.?

DEAR ABBY: You suggest that when personal belongings and articles of clothing keep disappearing from a nursing home, one should check the roommates... And guess what! Many senile residents have been known to send their bed linen and clothing home with their spouses, relatives and visiting friends...

DEAR ABBY: Here is some help for HELPLESS, whose partially senile mother is in a nursing home. Her mother's clothes keep disappearing, and HELPLESS says, "Either the patients or the help are stealing..." HELPLESS's mother became completely senile, as my mother is now, she will find her mother's closet starting to fill with strange items as her own disappear...

DEAR ABBY: I realize that the staff cannot possibly keep everyone's belongings straight, short of hourly inspections... Now I realize that the staff cannot possibly keep everyone's belongings straight, short of hourly inspections. Last week one of my sons was trying desperately to locate the owner of a set of dentures left under a postcard palm!

Ask Kleiner

By Dick Kleiner

DEAR DICK: I was in a store the other day and picked up some movie magazines. I read that (1) Kate Jackson was going to marry Nick Nolte; (2) she was dating David Cole, and (3) she liked Henry Winkler. If any, which one of these stories is true? PAM FETTERMAN, Indiana, Pa.

None. Kate's pals say that (1) she has dated Nolte and still sees him, but no marriage plans; (2) you probably mean Dennis Cole, who is Jaclyn Smith's boy friend; and (3) they don't think she even knows Winkler. The truth is that Warren Beatty is still Kate's favorite.

DEAR DICK: I love the Lowenbrauer commercial, and what a wonderful, sexy voice the singer of the background has. Oh, my! Can you tell me who he is? MRS. IDA LUCAS, Santa Ana, Calif.

Oh, my, indeed! That silky smooth baritone voice belongs to the great Arthur Prysock.

DEAR DICK: Is it true that John Banner (Sgt. Schultz of Hogan's Heroes) is dead, and also that he played for an N.F.L. football team when he wasn't filming? BRENT WINTER, Port Coquitlam, B.C., Can.

Yes, he's dead (he died in 1973) but, no, he was never a pro football player.

DEAR DICK: When was the song, "Open the Door, Richard," popular? JAMES LAUERMICK, Sandusky, Ohio

You have opened up an old wound. As a person with the name Richard, I suffered in those days when that song was a hit. Dusty Fletcher recorded it originally in 1946, but it was Slim Gaillard's record a year later that really caught on. I'd say 1947 was the song's high point — and my low point.

DEAR DICK: Is it true that Shaun Cassidy is going to marry Marie Osmond or is she going to marry Henry Winkler? DAWN FORSTER, Augusta, Mich.

Winkler? It's a good thing he's going to press. No, Dawn, the odds are about a million to one that Marie becomes neither Mrs. Cassidy nor Mrs. Winkler.

DEAR DICK: We recently saw "The Four Feathers" on TV, with Beau Bridges and Jane Seymour. Jane Seymour played a piece on the piano, which became the theme for the movie. What was that piece, who wrote it and is it available in sheet music? Also, who wrote the film? It seems reminiscent of Rudyard Kipling's work. MRS. H. LARSEN, Richmond, B.C., Can.

The theme was an original piece of music, written for the film by Allyn Ferguson. He is publishing it himself, and you can obtain the music by contacting him at 4217 Coldwater Canyon, Studio City, Ca. 91602. No, it wasn't Kipling, although it certainly had a Kiplingesque flavor. It was written by Gerald DiPego, based on a novel by A.E.W. Mason that had been made into films twice before.

DEAR DICK: Could you please tell me the name of the theme song of Upstairs, Downstairs, and has it been published? MRS. LEIS HALEZ, Ogden, Utah

"The Edwardians" is its name, and it was written by Alexander Faris. It is available by itself on London Records and it's also included in a record called "A Palm Court Concert" on Angel.

An unusual series of free public lectures on Shakerism, utopian communities, and their decorative arts will be presented by the University of Connecticut's William Benton Museum of Art, Storrs, beginning Tuesday. The series of Tuesday evening events will begin at 8:30 each week in UConn's Von der Mehden Recital Hall through April 25. There will also be a Sunday afternoon lecture April 30 at 3 p.m.

Tonight marks the opening of the 15th annual art exhibition and sale sponsored by the Sisterhood of Temple Beth El, West Hartford. The five-day event will include works by two Manchester artists, Helen Carroll Heard of 281 Henry St. and Kathy Hitt of 179 Green Road. Local galleries participating in the show are the James Bacon Gallery and the Gail Hinchon Gallery. The show will be open to the public Sunday, Monday and Tuesday from noon to 9 p.m., and Wednesday from noon to 5 p.m.

Good news for hearing aid wearers.

Activair™ lasts twice as long as the battery you're using.

New Activair hearing aid batteries operate on a new principle. The air around us activates the battery and starts it producing electric current.

But the air doesn't get into the battery until you peel it off the protective seal in the battery pack.

That's when it starts working. So it starts fresh, and lasts longer. Twice as long as the conventional batteries you're using now. Buy Activair next time you need batteries.

The arrival of a new Harris catalog is always an exciting event for people who collect stamps of the United States, United Nations or British North America. The Spring/Summer 1978 edition is ready at either the Su-Deb Coin Co. or the Manchester Pet Center — both are on Main Street.

The price is now $2.25, up from $1.95, but a wild guess would have it that the average value of the stamps priced therein has gone up at least that much. The increases are spotty. The Bicentennial Souvenir Sheets are still $27.50 and the 50-Flag Sheet $24.95, but the rich are getting richer with the top five Columbians up 42 percent in six months. Also the Graf Zeppelins are still being rolled over by the auction crowds. They want from $1,625 to $2,350 — up nearly 45 percent in the same period.

The real sleepers, though, as pointed out by some H.E. Harris & Co. inspirational literature, were the U.S. Coast Guard Federal Boating stamps of 1960 — Scott RVB1 and RVB2. (They are to be found in catalogs just ahead of the Firearms and the Ducks.) This latest Harris has them in mint condition at $85 and $95 — previously $28.50 and $35. And just a year ago, in the 1977 Spring/Summer edition, they were only $4.95 and $9.75. The "explanation" given by Harris is that they "...have sailed out of oblivion with the realization of their genuine scarcity."

The United Nations souvenir sheet No. 38 went from $295 to $330 and the No. 85 sheet from $5.50 to $8.50.

The Canadian stamp values are described as still increasing but at a slower pace, with the more pronounced upswings in the higher priced items.

The 30-cent hike shouldn't keep anyone from picking up the new Harris. It has become almost indispensable as a market guide — the Scott's Specialized for 1978 has those Boating stamps listed at $8 and $15.

CB Convac

During the past three months, this column has been receiving a lot of mail. Frankly, much of it has gone unanswered. But it has been so darn interesting to hear from people who have ideas, who love CBing and want to speak their minds, that this column might be the best place to answer some of them.

Do you remember our column about Lep Wenzler, in Decatur, Ala., who had created a "Yellow Code" utilizing all channels for various businesses and professions? Very similar to the yellow page section of your telephone book. Well, he called the other day.

"I'm getting requests for the yellow code from all over the country," he explained excitedly. "I'm going to have to get more printed. I've run out of my original batch. This is great!"

When we discovered the Fort Worth, Texas "Bear on the Air," we did two columns about the effect the police force was having there by using 24-hour daily monitors. The monitors are all volunteers.

Ms. Kattie White, who assists Tom Atterbury there, wrote: "I get the column from a newspaper outside Fort Worth, but the column on our monitoring program was really great. I got started in it after I had recovered from a serious illness that forced me to retire. My husband bought me a base unit, and that hooked me on CB."

"When the CB monitor program began, it was the answer to my life — it got me busy and it had me CBing. I think this program could work in most any medium-to-small-size city. There are thousands of people who would like to participate. The first member of our volunteer group to receive the 1,000-hour pen (for hours monitoring) was a freight company dispatcher who had retired. His wife has now become interested and will soon earn her pen."

As a result of the exposure given in this column to the Fort Worth monitor program, several cities across the country have written asking us to advise them how they can get a similar project going in their town. One of these came from Louis Glomb, chairman of the El Paso, Texas, Community Development Corporation.

"As a member of the El Paso Citizens Committee for the Prevention of Crime, as well as the Patrol Association, we would like to start a comparable program here," he wrote. "I've contacted Officer Tom Atterbury there for details. Any suggestions you can give on how CB operators can help their local police force would be appreciated."

Col. Ronald Martin (retired) and several other CBers from Napa, Calif., have written.

Jim Beam ("Napa Drifter") of Napa wrote that "while it may be true that the channels are cluttered, the saving of a life is worth all the cluttered noise in the world."

"Tell your readers about the CBers who lost their lives in Rapid City, N.D., while they worked to save others during that terrible flood there. Tell them about the CB clubs that came to the aid of the Yuba City bus crash victims."

Europa program

The Franklin Philatelic Society has announced a first-day cover program for a year of Europa issues. There will be about 60 stamps from 30 centuries. They will release three covers at a time for $14.25 plus Connecticut sales tax (another dollar).

Each cover will come with a commentary discussing the stamp, the cachet design, and the country of issue. The collection will eventually be housed in a hard-cover album.

Subscriptions should be addressed to the Franklin Mint, Franklin Center, PA 19101, and postmarked no later than March 25th.

There's still time

There is still time to take in the most of the STAMPILEX in New York City. It started yesterday and will run from 10 to 8 today and 11 to 6 on Sunday. Another name for it is the Stamp Show International and it is sponsored by D.R.S. Productions, Inc. of Radio City. They will have the services of the USPS and 62 dealers; the Society of Philatelic Americans will provide a lounge for lounging.

This affair is not to be confused with the much larger one slated for March 31 to April 2 at the Hilton. That will be INTERPEX '78, with 121 ASDA dealers, and will include the attendance of 17 societies and nine governments. The Canada Post Office will release the new Commonwealth Games issue on the first day of the show.

The best of all, of course, will be our own MANPEX '78 at the high school on April 22 and 23.
