baked goods for the food sale. We'll need lots of goodies in order to last So all you Gold Card holders, here's your chance to help us out a little bit by bringing in articles and food goodies for us to sell and also to come and buy some of the articles for gifts. Here at the center the joint is really jumping, with everyone working real hard to make this our best fair yet. We might add that with so many nice articles we wil not be cutting the price as the day wears on, because they are just too nice to give away. We'll keep them for a later sale. You can start bringing in things now and we are also accepting small plants as Some of you folks remember that last year Phyllis Saich of the Manchester Public Health Nurses Association started an exercise class and it turned out to be quite popular with both men and women. Well, we're happy to report that Phyllis has come up with a teacher, Ms Laura Dunfield, a member of the Manchester Recreation Department, to lead you folks in modern exercise. The exercise will be given in a series of six weeks and will be held on Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 2 p.m. and Friday mornings from 10:15 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. here at our center. There is no change for this program and you are welcome to come both days or either one. The exercises are geared for seniors and are not of the strenuous type. We start this week and all you need to do is show up with a pair sneakers.

Here's another date to put on your calendar. We are invited to a Christmas party again this year at the ROTC building. Our good friend, Norm Fendell has invited us to a really fancy buffet dinner and ther some super entertainment will follow the meal. We'll be telling you more about it later, but meanwhile joi down Tuesday, Dec. 5 at 6 o'clock. Price for this affair is $3 per person and when you see the menu, I'm sure you'll know it is well worth it.

Acting here at the center starts with this past Tuesday bowling league at the Parkade Lanes with the following results: Class A high triple, Florence Doutt, 435; Len Bjorkman, 586; high single, Florence Doutt, 166; Len Bjorkman, 231; Class B high triple. Polly Kenneway, 308: Cliff Hammond, 412; high single, Polly Kenneway, 109; Tom Close, 157. By the way, this coming because the schools are closed for the day, we will not be serving a noon meal. We will be open for our square dance lessons and il painting class. This is a good time to remind you folks that you have always been the leader for getting out to vote and we hope you'll take charge again this year. Check the papers and you find that both parties have telephone numbers for rides and either party will gladly take Independents as well. here's really no excuse for not voting and I'm telling everybody that once again you folks will lead the way to the polls. This past Tuesday I ran into a couple of our nember friends who I ound out celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary on Oct. 30. So we extend congratulations, best wishes and good health to Mr. and Mrs. William Boardman, who reside at 35 Whitney Road.

There may be discoloration of water and reduced pressure during the flushing. If water appears discolored, the homeowner should try to avoid using it until it clears. This will prevent rust and sediment from being brought into the home's system.

If sediment does get into a home's hot water tank, the life with the Liquor Control Commission for a RESTAURANT LIQUOR for If sediment does get into a home's hot water tank, the homeowner should wait until the water clears and then open the faucet at the bottom of the tank to drain the collected material, which will settle at the bottom.

Also, if a load of wash is done during the period of discolored water, the load should be done again after the water clears. Four ounces of cream of tartar should be added to help clean any discoloration of the clothing. It normally takes a couple of hours for the water to clear in a home. If water appears discolored for an extended period, the homeowner should call the Water Department at 647-3115.

TAKE THAT STUFF BACK, MOM! I HATE IT!

DEAR ABBY: I am 29, college educated, single by choice and considered a very attractive woman. My problem? I am became a blonde a year ago, I never realized how much blondes were discriminated against. Especially good-looking blondes. If a woman happens to be blonde and good-looking, she is immediately labeled as dumb. And if she's blonde, good-looking and has a great figure, she is automatically written off as stupid. Abby, I am the same person I was when I had brown hair, but people (women as well as men) react totally differently to me since I became a blonde

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

I am tired of fighting the "dumb blonde" image, and have considered going back to my natural color, but I like my hair this color. Please print this with some suggestions on how to NO DUMB BLONDE

DEAR ABBY: About 15 years ago you ran a most inspira-tional poem titled "Slow Me Down, Lord". I read it often as a constant reminder to slow down to more fully enjoy life's simple pleasures. Today, when people seem to be rushing around more frantically than ever, that poem is even more timely. Will you please run it again? ANNA IN MONTANA

DEAR ANNA: With pleasure. I agree, it deserves a r

Slow me down, Lord! Ease the pounding of my heart By the quieting of my mind. Steady my harried pace With a vision of the eternal reach of time idst the confusion of my day,

The calmness of the overlasting hills. Break the tensions of my nerves With the seething music of the singing streams That live in my memory. lelp me to know The magical restoring power of sleep. Teach me the art

Of taking minute vacations of slowing down to chat with an old friend or make a new one to pat a stray dog; to watch a spider build a web; to smile at a child; or to read a few lines from a good book.

That the race is not always to the swift; That there is more to life than increasing its speed Let me look upward Into the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew great and strong lecause it grew slowly and well. Slow me down, Lord And inspire me to send my roots deep That I may grow toward the stars Of my greater destiny."

SOLUTION

We get letters ...

The news isn't always good

Letters from as far away as Guam, and as close as Ohio and Indiana have been roaring in to call attention to a mistake we made in a recent story on single side-band. We said single sideband is FM. This is incor-rect. It's AM, or amplitude modulation.

"An SSB signal gets its name from the fact the transmitted signal does not contain all three signals which make up the AM waveform: upper sideband, carrier, and lower sideband," writes Howard Grim of Polk, Ohio. "Single sideband is derived from the AM by simply eliminating the carrier and one sideband at the output of the mixer.'

Alan Davis, of Guam, writes "I do agree with your stand for the need for a few channels being reserved for SSB use. But I must ask the question: how can it be enforced when the FCC cannot enforce its present rules?"

Davis has obviously experienced some conversations that are "off-island" as well as "dirty linears" that ruin wide segments of the band. He feels a cleanup campaign would help all CBers.

Richard Lieber, Carmel,
Ind., felt we may have given the wrong impression about SSB offering less interfer-ence. "It is less, but the reason is not due to sunspots," Liber writes. "It is due, rather, to the lesser number of SSB stations on the air."

He also points out that in Indiana they may use either upper or lower sideband for their conversations and not just upper as we suggested. Thirdly, he adds his vote to the column's presentation that all CB should be moved to the 900 megaherz area, using only FM.

The technical advice that emanated from readers has been overwhelming. We thank you for it. The mail made it obvious that the interest in SSB and a possi-ble move to FM is quite significant.

We owe an apology to the Missouri State Highway patrol. In a recent column on the radar gun/Fuzzbuster controversy we said that three of Missouri's state highway troopers had issued $280,000 in tickets, only to find their radar was miscali-brated by 15 miles.

Col. Al Lubker, superin-tendant of the Missouri State Highway patrol, called in and said that this episode never happened in his state. We re-checked our notes and found he's right. The miscal-ibration took place several years ago in another state.

We're very sorry for any agitation we might have caused in Missouri. It was an honest human mistake.

FILMETER

A capsule look at cinema

FILMETER is compiled by Dick Kleiner in Hollywood and the N.E.A. staff in both Hollywood and New York.

NEW RELEASES

DEATH ON THE NILE (PG) — Peter Ustinov, David Nives, Bette Davis, Mia Farrow, etc. Mystery. Agatha Christie's dandy puzzler turned into a classy murder mystery. A much-hated heiress is done in aboard a Nile cruise ship and Hercule Poirot tries to find whodunit. More red herrings than you'll find at a Moscow amorgasbord, and an all-star cast to bring them to life. GRADE: A-minus.

WEDDING, A (PG) — Carol Burnett, Geraldine Chaplin, Desi Arnaz Jr., Mia Farrow, etc., etc. Comedy-drama. Robert Altman's long-awaited analysis of a wedding proves to be just that — he dissects the bridal party brutally. Some of it is devastating but it all lacks a focus and, unfortunately, starts nowhere and leads to nothing. GRADE: C-plus.

GENERAL RELEASE

ALMOST SUMMER (PG) — Bruno Kirby, Lee Purcell, Didi Conn. Light romance. Back in high school again for this one, which should have been released for summer drive-in audiences. A trifle, it deals with school politics, school romances and all the rest of it. Inoffensive and pleasant, but hardly memorable. GRADE: B-

BLOODBROTHERS (R) — Paul Sorvino, Tony Lo Bianco, Richard Gere. Drama. Confused Bronx youth squares off against his Italian family-manhood code. Decent, sensitive story and fine performances are marred by a heavy touch and immature resolution. Should have had the once over from a pair of shears. But well worth a look. Caution: strong language, some violence. GRADE: B. (Handler)

THE BOYS FROM BRAZIL (R) — Gregory Peck, Laurence Olivier, Thriller, From Ira Levin's gripping novel, this deals with some scientific dirty work the left-over Nazis are up to in South America — including murders all over the world. It works out to be a very nasty plot, but scary. The cast all use different accents, which is disconcerting, but it will keep you watching. Caution: It gets pretty bloody at the end. GRADE: B-plus.

DAYS OF HEAVEN (R) — Richard Gere, Brooke Adams, Sam Shepard and Linda Manz. Drama. Terrence ('Badlands') Malick's stark, impressionistic story of the relationship between a trio of itinerants and a prosperous but doomed Texas panhandle wheat farmer, circa 1916. Lovely to look at, difficult to become involved with. Not at all the usual fare, which makes it worth a look for buffs, even if it isn't wholly successful. GRADE: B-plus. (Handler)

INTERIORS (PG) — E.G. Marshall, Geraldine Page, Maureen Stapleton, Diane Keaton. Drama. Woody Allen wrote and directed this, but don't expect humor. It's very serious — and very good, if you can take the heaviness. It's the story of a family full of hidden (and not-so-hidden) problems and emotional traumas. Beautifully photographed and acted, but dark and somber. GRADE: A-minus.

WHO'LL STOP THE RAIN (R) — Nick Nolte, Tuesday Weld, Michael Moriarty. Melodrama. National Book Award winner stripped hare for the screen. Much of the soul is gone, but the stripped hare for the screen. Much of the soul is gone, but the muscle's been tightened into a moody and effective action tale of the Vietnam era's putrefication of the American Psyche. Note delivers a stunningly understated performance and capably carries the film. Caution: some strong language and violence. GRADE: B-plus. (O'Brien)
