Fairbanks told U.S. District Court Judge A. David Mazzone he worked from Dec. 13 to Jan. 3 interviewing up to 50 prospective candidates for assistant coaches and that he talked to various players recruited for the college Fairbanks also admitted he told Colorado officials it was his "intention and desire to accept the coaching Fairbanks, who coached the Patriots for six years and rebuilt the program from top to bottom, told Patriots owner Billy Sullivan last Dec. 18 that he intended to take the college job. Sullivan immediately suspended Fairbanks, but the coach was reinstated two days later with the understanding he would concentrate on the playoffs and not the Colorado job. The Patriots have filed suit against the University of Colorado and five other defendants charging them with conspiring to lure Fairbanks into a breach of contract situaton with the Patriots. Colorado officials this week responed with a countersuit saying Fairbanks should be allowed to leave pro football whenever he wants.

The Patriots lost a 31-14 American Football Conferen playoff game against the Houston Oilers on New Year's Eve – dashing their hopes to become the first Patriots team to make the Super Bowl. Fairbanks also testified he met in mid-December with Colorado booster Jack Vickers. He said the two discussed a salary range of up to $45,000; an expense account of up to $10,000, and up to $90,000 in fees for television, radio and football clinic appearances.

Edwardian Miniseries All About Edward

Mobile Showcase, the Wednesday night series of quality TV, has an Edwardian drama to beat "Up-stairs Downstairs" and "The Duchess of Duke Street.

After all, "Edward the King," which premieres on Jan. 17, is a life-long ac-count of the monarch for whom the age was named. The 13-part series has been syndicated nationally. Be sure to check your local listings for broadcast time and station.

"Edward the King" is based on the widely-acclaimed biography by Sir Philip Magnus. A full year in the making, this British import won seven awards when it aired on the BBC in England.

The lush costumes and gorgeous sets are no shock. The series was made with total cooperation from the British government - including access to the royal palaces and residents, which were previously off-limits to actors and camer-

Buckingham Palace at Windsor, Osborne House, Sandringham and historic sites such as St. George's Chapel, Windsor, and St. Paul's Cathedral are the backdrops for Timothy West, who plays King Ed-ward and Annette Crosbie, who plays his mother. Queen Victoria. Both West and Crosbie won the British equiva-lents of Academy Awards for their performances.

The series opens with Queen Victoria learning that she is pregnant with the child who will eventu-ally succeed her. From Edward's birth in 1841, through his death in 1910, the childhood, romances, achievements and frustrations of England's "play-boy king" are historically documented.

Edward's harsh, rigid discipline as a child is put into perspective. His train-

Edward's frequently scandalous lifestyle and extramarital affairs jeop-ardize the monarchy, but his basic humanity and his basic humanity and high spirits endear him to the people he was finally to reign over after waiting 40 Vears

Victoria's death made Edward king, but he reigned for less than a decade before his death put an end to a richly colorful life.

Through the 13 hour-long episodes pass internation-ally-known figures who played vital roles in world history, including Disraeli (Sir John Gielgud), Gladstone, Palmerston, Kaiser Wilhelm II, Winston Churchill, and such immortal theatrical stars as Marie Lloyd and Lillie Langtry.

Timothy West faces the challenge of portraying Edward from the age of 22 to almost 70. Obviously, babies and children had to be cast for the role at varying times duing his younger years, and Ed-ward from his late teens to his early 20s is played by a completely unknown actor named Charles Sturridge.

Similarly, two actresses portray Alexandra, the Danish princess who was chosen as Edward's bride Deborah Grant is seen as Alexandra from the age of 17, and Helen Ryan takes over from age 22 for the remainder of the series. FCC readies new 900 MHz public band

FILMETER is compiled by Dick Kleiner in Hollywood and the N.E.A. staff in both Hollywood and New York.

OLIVER'S STORY (PG) — Ryan O'Neal, Candice Bergen, Ray Milland. Romantic drama. This glibly written sequel to "Love Story" has a warm performance by Candice Bergen. But the plight of two rich young lovers does not tend to conjure up depth of feeling. A film with not much on its mind. GRADE: C. (Miller)

BRINK'S JOB, THE (PG) — Peter Falk, Peter Boyle, Gena lowlands, Warren Ontes. Crime. This is the recreation of the amous Boston armored car robbery, but if you want a rip-'em-up, ops-and-robbers film, stay home. Director William Friedkin lays this more for gentle humor and compassion. It works if you rant that, but if you like action, this will bore you. GRADE: B. cops-and plays this CALIFORNIA SUITE (PG) — Jane Fonda, Alan Alda, Maggie Smith, Michael Caine, Walter Matthau. Comedy and drama. Neil Simon's play, like his "Plaza Suite," is a group of stories united only by the fact that they all take place in one hotel — this time, The Beverly Hills Hotel. Director Herb Ross is much more successful with the dramatic stories than with the comedies, which become embarrassing. Fonda and Smith are superb. GRADE: A (for the dramas), C (for the comedies) and, thus, B (overall).

DEER HUNTER (R) — Robert DeNiro, John Cazale, John Savage, Meryl Streep, Christopher Walkea. Drama. This is a powerful, memorable look at three Penusylvania steel workers who go off to fight in Vietnam. Director Michael Cimino has created images you may never forget. It is too long and some of it eated images you may never forget. It is too long forced, but it remains a classic film. GRADE: A

KING OF THE GYPSIES (R) — Sterling Hayden, Susan Sarandon, Shelley Winters, Judd Hirsch, Brooke Shields, Eric Roberts. Drama. Slick attempt to raid the gypsy underworld for "Godfather" material falls victim to a dull, predictable story and a messy stew of ethnic cliches. No feeling for the milieu or the people. Casting and acting are strikingly poor. GRADE: C-minus (Handler)

LORD OF THE RINGS (PG) — Animated fantasy. J.R.R. Tolkien's works come to the screen, animated by Ralph Bakshi of "Fritz the Cat" fame. If you are familiar with Tolkien's creations — hobbits, black horsemen and the rest — this could be exciting. But if you're not, it's gibberish. The art work is beautiful, but the story is impossible for aliens to follow. And Caution — animated or not, it is so violent that it's not for kids. GRADE: B for Tolkien fans; D for the rest of us.

MOMENT BY MOMENT (R) — Lily Tomlin, John Travolta. Romance. "Hour By Hour" would be a better title, because this seems endless. It is the old cliche of the rich lady and the young, brash kid. It proceeds at a snail's pace and even the snail is bored. Poorly acted (except by Travolta) and directed. GRADE: C-

MOVIE, MOVIE (G) — George C. Scott, Trish VanDevere, Red Buttons. Comedy, musical. Double-bill salute-curn-spoof of '30s and '40s fight films and musicals that has it all down pat, right down to the last cliche. You can still get the real thing on the late show, but this is worth a few chuckles and a tap dance down memory lane. GRADE: B. (O'Brien)

SUPERMAN (PG) — Christopher Reeve, Geue Hackman, Ned Beatty, Jackie Cooper, Margot Kidder, Valerie Perriae, Marion Brando. Adventure. Big, lavish, expensive — and designed just for fun and frolie. This story of Superman's arrival on Earth and his first anti-crime campaigns starts slowly but closes with a rush. And it is all done tongue-in-cape, so that the whole family can find something to enjoy in it. Jt/s not art, but it sure is entertainment. GRADE: B-plus. (Film grading: A - superb; B - good; C - average; D - poor; F - awful)

The Federal Communica-tions Commission has told the Bureau of Safety and Special Radio Services to prepare a Notice of Inquiry — an early step toward opening the extra broadcast frequencies for individuals in the early 1980s. For some time, this co-lumn has proposed that all citizen's band radio could be moved to the 900 MHz range.
