Yemen Clash

BEIRUT (UPI) - Marxist South Yemen today said it cap-tured a North Yemeni town and that North Yemeni troops in the area defected with their arms in the unabated border clashes between the two strategic Arabian peninsula states.

The state-run Radio Aden said South Yemeni forces captured the North Yemeni town of Harib, in the eastern sector of the 400-mile border between the two countries. On Sunday the pro-Western North had requested an emergency meeting of the Arab League Council to mediate an end to the fighting, to which South Yemen reportedly agreed.

Workers Vanish In Iran Desert

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI) — An American and three Britons working in an Iranian desert gas plant have vanished after a revolutionary radio announcement that 'four Americans' had been arrested 'while trying to escape," a company spokesman said today.

A spokesman for the Iranian subsidiary of Fluor Corp. of California said the American and three Britons were the only non-Iranians among the 200 workers at the gasification plant near Aghajari, southeast of Ahvaz, one of the main oil cities in southwestern Iran.

"They were due to travel to Tehran today for repatriation," said spokesman Kayvan Shambayati. When we heard the radio announcement we tried to contact the men by radio from Ahvaz but were told they had already left."

The radio said that "last night four Americans working for a foreign company in Aghajari were arrested while trying to escape. They were handed over to (Ayatollah Ruhollah) Khomeini's staff by Islamic revolu-

By GREG PEARSON Herald Reporter

MANCHESTER - Anticipating what the town's audit for 1977-78 will say, town officials this morning predicted some changes will be made in bookkeeping methods. These changes would help the auditor prepare the annual report and also would make records more easily understood by anyone.

The audit for the fiscal year 1977-78 has been delayed but is expected to be received today. The auditor, Jerome Baskin & Co., received extensions from the state because of the delays that developed in the auditing process.

Town officials said some changes in bookkeeping would help eliminate some of this delay.

"I'm not saying our bookkeeping procedures are sloppy," James Turek, collector of revenue, said. But, he expects some recommendations from the auditors about changes that would make preparation of the audit easier.

bookkeeping. They're hired to audit," Turek said.

"The activity involved in doing the audit is more laborious than it ought to be," he said.

The changes would make the gathering of audit information faster and easier. Turek mentioned one possible example of a change the town probably will make.

All records of tax collection before 1972 are not computerized. Thus, gathering this past information has to be done manually by having

"They're not hired to do employees go through the records. If all this information were placed in computer records, it would speed up the process, he said.

Unhappy Hooker Hooked on Love

Priscilla's Pop — Ed Sullivan DEAR ABBY: I just lost the only man I ever loved. When I came home last evening I found a note from Jimmy saying. "Goodbye" - after we lived together for a year. In his note he said that my job was changing me into a hard person, and he couldn't ask me to quit because he thought it was what I really wanted to do. (It's not true. I hate my work, but the money is too good to pass up.)

Abby, I am a prostitute. The money helped pay our bills.

Jimmy's job didn't pay much, and we needed the bread. Jimmy. He loved the real me—not just my body.

Should I quit my profession and go after him? I know he minister and my folks don't know what I do for a living.

WORKING GIRL DEAR GIRL: Quit your job and go after him. Jesus forgave a woman in your profession. Could Jimmy do less? Captain Easy — Crooks & Lawrence DEAR ABBY: Your advice to SPARKLING, who feels that her engagement ring is "on loan," disturbed me. (The ring was purchased by her fiance's mother and given to her

Please don't say where this letter is from. My father is a e understanding that in the event of a divorce, it would be returned.) Abby, a marriage that begins by working out a possible divorce settlement doesn't sound like it has too much going for it. And returning Mama's ring-as you suggest-just might speed up a split.

The first year of marriage is hard enough without playing hot potato with an engagement ring.

I say SPARKLING should keep the ring. It, like her husband, now belongs to her - not Mama.

DEAR LAURIE: A marriage with the divorce settle worked out in advance is sometimes preferable to one without, should the couple split. (And today, one in three do.) I still think since SPARKLING feels that her engagenent ring is "on loan" she should return it and do withou

They were taken home and kept in the family. DEAR DISGUSTED: If you are absolutely sure of your lacts, the person responsible for delivering those free samples should be reported.

DEAR ABBY: Do you happen to know what the Alcoholics nonymous credo is? It starts, "Oh, God, grant me the ability to accept the things I cannot change ..."
