Vol. XCVIII, No. 133 - Manchester, Conn., Thursday, March 8, 1979 Not only are people the worl over being deprived of oil as result of the revolution in Iran those souls who include Persian beluga caviar and pistachio nut in their diet are feeling the pinch

In New York, for instance, the price of the highly prized caviar is $86 to $95 for 4 ounces, and pistachio nuts are selling for th unbelievable price of $21 per 5 pound bag, when they ar available. In reference to the pistachio shortage, one saleslad at Abraham and Strauss' depart ment store, when asked customers complain about the lack of the exotic nuts, said, "Yo bet they do. Lots of people are real pistachio nut nuts.

Directors Eye Sewer Budget

MANCHESTER - The Town Board of Directors wil neet tonight to review the Sewer Department budge which includes sizable rate increases for such large users is the Eighth Utilities District and Lydall Inc Last year, the town instituted a new form of sew rates that eliminates discounts for larger users. Sewer rates are based on the amount of water consumption, and, previously, larger users had received a discount in their sewer rates as their consumption in

The town, however, in conformance with new federal standards, agreed to eliminate such a discount. The elimination, which will boost rates for larger users, is being phased in over two years, and the 1979-80 budget year will see the full impact of the change go into effect. The Eighth District and Lydall Inc. will have the largest increases in 1979-80 according to a sewer budget report prepared for the board.

The district charge for the year would increase from $115.192 to $183.505, and the charge for Lydall Inc. would increase from $96,100 to $152,375, the budget report says. The district's rate for 1979-80 includes no credit for sewage collection operations. District officials have argued in the past they should receive credit because hey maintain their own sewage collection system. Other possible increases for large users are: Cheney Brothers, $58,548 to $81,026; Manchester Memorial Hospital, $27,971 to $30,416; and Pratt & Whitney, $12,743

One large user expects to have a decrease in its rate, apparently because of a conservation program to cut water use.

The report says Multi-Circuits rate is expected to drop from $17.981 to $15,668. The directors will begin review of the entire sewer budget at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Building's Hearing

Meeting Planned On Consolidation

MANCHESTER - Monday, March 26 is being targeted as the date for a meeting to appoint a consolidation com-Stephen Penny, chairman of the Town Board of Directors, has been instructed to reconvene a meeting to appoint the commission within 20 days. That order was part of Judge Norris O'Neill's decision, which said the Eighth Utilities District violated the state's Home Rule Act when it failed to appoint members to such a commission at a similar meeting last March. The consolidation commission would plan and oversee consolidation of the Eighth District and town, which now have separate fire departments and sewer authorities. At the March 20, 1978 meeting, voters from the Eighth Utilities District voted against all motions that they appoint members to such a commission. After their failure o make the appointments, the Committee For One Manchester filed suit. The result of that suit was Judge O'Neill's decision, in which he ordered the district to make the appointments.

Penny said he plans to schedule the meeting Monday. March 26 at Manchester High School's auditorium. Attorney John LaBelle Jr., district counsel, said Wednesday he plans to appeal the decision. That appeal could include a request to stay, or delay, the meeting for the appointment of the consolidation commission.

Default Rate High

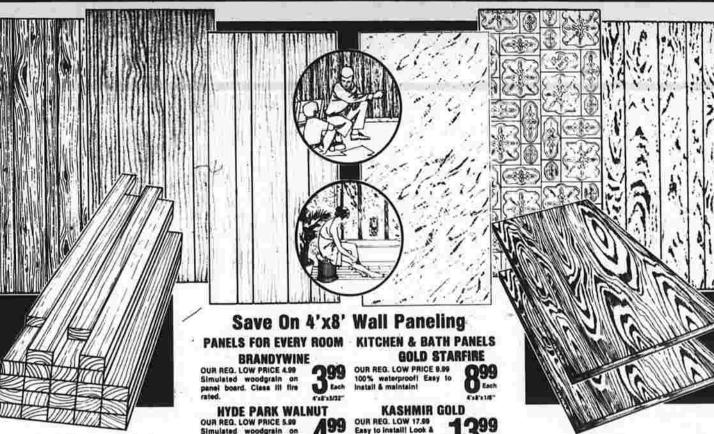

HARTFORD (UPI) - Four Connecticut schools have default rates of more than 50 percent on federally subsidized students loans, the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare said Wednesday HEW said about 17 percent of the Connecticut students who participate in the program are in default. Students at the Computer Processing Institute in East Hartford opped the list with 62 percent not paying back loans. An HEW spokesman said the school owed $31,000 on defaulted loan

Other schools with rates of more than 50 percent were Middlesex Community College, 53 percent; South Central Community College, 52 percent; and Mohegan Community College, 51 percent

Three Arrested In Gun Probe

EAST HARTFORD (UPI) - Federal authorities have arrested three men allegedly involved in a conspiracy to smuggle about 2,000 handguns into the Middle East. Raad Nasser and Jehod Shuja, who carried Iraqi passports, were taken into custody Wednesday after a federal undercover investigation that began in August. Authorities said the ages and U.S. addresses of the two were not available.

A third suspect, Jawad Hawa, was arrested in Charlotte, N.C., late Wednesday afternoon, authorities said. His nationality was not available. All three were charged with conspiracy and illegal possession of firearms and silencers.

U.S. Magistrate F. Owen Eagan set bond for the two Connecticut suspects at $100,000. U.S. Attorney Richard Blumenthal said Shuja and Nasser allegedly gave $500 to Richard Weronik, an undercover agent for the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Bureau, in exchange for three handguns and two silencers Blumenthal said the North Carolina suspect had told the agent previously he would come to the Hartford area this Sunday to receive 50 more handguns as the first major installment of an order

School-Rec Job Considered Substantially Complete

There are a few items, such as platform draperies and window guards which have not been installed, according to Richard Lawrence, architect. Workers were expected to install the six basketball backboards this week. Town Building Inspector Francis Conti must now issue a certificate of occupancy before the new section of the building can be used by the school and Recreation Department.

Other parts of the new addition and the renovated school have been in use for several weeks. However, Lawrence noted that furniture for the media center has not yet arrived. Town Students in Pilot State Nutrition Program Lifestyle Editor Manchester has been selected to participate in a pilot program, the Connecticut Nutritional Education and Training Program (NETP), according to Dr. Janina Czajkowski, the University of Connecticut.

"The NETP uses the cross-age approach to nutrition and under the program, junior high and senior high school students, as well as sixth graders are trained as team teachers. After a two-week orientation session, they will then teach Grades 1 through 3 in the Manchester Public School system during the month-long program." Dr.

Czajkowski said. all superintendents of private and public schools in the state had been notified of the availability of NETP. Dr. Czajkowski said, and Manchester ndicated interest. "When federal funding for the program came through. Manchester was able to get it all together by arranging schedules within the schools, and was able to move right into the project."

This week and next, student orientation is under way, and beginning on March 19 and continuing through April 20, the team teaching approach schools. There will be six lessons as part of a mini course.

"For example, Dr. Czajkowski said, "at Highland Park School, Grade 6 there will teach Grades 1 through 3 at the school. The Board of and arranged the schedules for as lit-during the program will correlate the various schools.

JUDICIAL DISTRICT

HARTFORD-NEW BRITAIN

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION AND ORDERS

Plaintiffs are all citizens of the town of Manchester.

Connecticut, voters and electors of said town, and taxpayers

Some of the plaintiffs reside within the Eighth Utility

District in , said town and some live outside of that district

The district is a specially chartered municipal corporation ind is a district within the town. Sec. 299 Sp. Laws 1915; Sec.

37 Sp. Laws 1923; Sec. 230 Sp. Laws 1939; Sec. 200 Sp. Laws

Plaintiffs have brought suit against the legislative body of the district; the mayor of the town; the officers and directors of the district: and certain individuals who are residents and voters of the district and who, with others too numerous

Beginning on or before February 11, 1978 a group of plaintiffs organized as "The Committee for One Manchester began circulating a petition proposing consolidation of the town and the district under Conn. General Statutes Sec. 7-195 et seq. Before getting any signatures on their petition forms, plaintiffs filed a copy with the town clerk on January 27, less than ten percent of the electors of each subdivision in-percent of the electors of the town ... residing outside the he ten percent requirement was met in regard to the petiion. He certified only one petition. In accordance with the statute a meeting of the joint legislative bodies was duly called for March 20, 1978.

Plaintiffs claim that they had then done all that i necessary to call for a town vote on the question of consolida tion of the district with the town. They complain that at the joint meeting of the legislative bodies of the town and dis calling for a consolidation commission of 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 members were introduced. They also complain that all of those resultions were adopted by the town egislative body and rejected by the district legislative body each and every one of said resolutions is a violation of Conn. General Statutes Sec. 7-197 and "constitute a refusal by

Two Petitions Question

used two types of forms to circulate their petition, that it

The plaintiffs did in fact use two different forms. They circulated one form only within the Eighth Utilities District, and the other form only within the town but outside of the district. The first form said that the signers were electors of the "town, city, borough or unit of local government of the Eighth Utilities District" and the second form said that its signers were "electors of the town, city, borough or unit of local government of the Town of Manchester residing at the addresses set opposite our names and outside the boundaries

The use of two kinds of forms does not make two petitions

The court finds that the use of two forms was a proper and reasonable interpretation of the statute and that only one

CHARTER AS EXCLUSIVE CONSOLIDATION

METHOD

The defendants claim that the sole method for securing consolidation in the town of Manchester is that permitted by the town charter. Section 10-10, which provides that the town may by ordinance assume within its jurisdiction all of the powers, duties, assets, liabilities and obligations of the "Eighth School and Utilities District of Manchester" relating to fire protection provided that such an ordinance shall not become effective until the district shall vote to accept it. That section is entitled "Provisions for Con-solidation." It is followed by Sec. 19-11 entitled "Other Functions of the Eighth School and Utilities District of Manchester." That latter section provides that the town by ordinance may assume "all of the jurisdiction, powers, > which do not relate to fire protection, with the same proviso in regard to district acceptance. That charter was adopted in The so-called Home Rule Act was adopted in 1957. Conn. Gen. Stats. Secs. 7-187 thru 7-201. The question defendant raises is do the general consolidation provisions of Conn. General Statutes Sec. 7-195 et seq. bow to the combination of Secs. 10-10 and 10-11 of the town

In considering all this we must look not just at one charter out at two. The district's charter, although amended after the Home Rule Act was adopted and after the town charter provisions in regard to consolidation were adopted, says

If the town were to amend its charter and eliminate all eference to consolidation, how could the district people alone ever force consolidation, if that were their desire? The legislature has provided the method through the general the state statute is an umbrella providing consolidation procedures for those municipalities with and without charter provisions in regard to consolidation. The legislature is deemed to know of the existence of the district's charter and its lack of a consolidation provision and have it in mind when passing the later general statute. Blanco v. Ganghoff, 28 Conn. Sup. 403, 407. For that reason the assembly passed a comprehensive consolidation statute to take care of this district and all other municipalities vithout consolidation provision. Thereafter, the plaintiffs obtained the signatures of "not The provision in the town charter is an alternative method. It is obviously not the exclusive method. When the cluded in the proposed consolidation and" "not less than ten legislature passed Sec. 7-195 et seq. both of these charters existed. This court must attempt to construe possibly conlicting statutes whether special or general so that both are Plaintiffs delivered the last pages of their petition to the town clerk on February 23, 1978. The town clerk verified that operative. Sloane v. Waterbury, 150 Conn. 24. Even if there were an irreconcible difference the Home Rule Act takes precedence over any inconsistent provision in a prior special act. Sloane v. Waterbury, ibid at 31; State ex rel. Sloane v.

Reidy, 152 Conn. 419. Furthermore, Conn. General Statutes Sec. 7-324 specifically says that a district like the eighth "may be dissolved or didated with the government of any town, city or borough of which it is a part in accordance with the provisions of the general statutes." (See Watertown v Watertown Fire District, 28 Conn. Sup. 413, 421.)

This court finds that the petitions were properly circulated; that the meeting to appoint a consolidation commission was properly noticed and held and that the failure of the egislative body to adopt one of the eleven alternative resolutions proposed was a violation of Conn. General Statutes Sec. 7-197 and as such an arbitrary and improper failure to act in the performance of its clear statutory duty. The court finds the defendant, the Eighth Utilities District, is a "political subdivision" within the meaning of ec. 7-195 et seq. of the Connecticut General Statutes and Neither Sec. 10-10 nor Sec. 10-11 of the charter of the town of Manchester constitutes any impediment to said procedure. It is Ordered: 1. The defendant, Stephen T. Penny, is ordered to reconvene the joint meeting of March 20, 1978 of the egislative body of the town of Manchester and the gislative body of the Eighth Utilities District in accordance with the procedure set forth in Sec. 7-197 of the Connecticut General Statutes. Said reconvened meeting is to be held within twenty (20) days of publication of notice of this order pursuant to paragraph 4 hereof. 2. The legislative body of the town of Manchester and each of its members and the legislative body of the Eighth Utilities District and each of its members are ordered to appoint at the said reconvened joint meeting of said legislative bodies, a consolidation commission of not fewer than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) members in accordance with the provision of Sec. 7-197 of the Connecticut General Statutes and to proceed with the further orderly consolidation area set forth in the Connecticut General Statutes Sec. 7-197 et seq.

enjoined from interfering with the orderly conduct of the further consolidation procedures herein ordered.

4. The plaintiffs are ordered to forthwith, and within twenty (20) days of the date hereof, given police of this judgment and these orders to all members of the legislative body of the Eighth Utilities District by publishing once in the Manchester Evening Herald a copy hereof, and proof of said publication is to be filed with the clerk of the court.
