Clinic Opinion

MANCHESTER — Attorney Malcolm Barlow has been asked to give a legal opinion on a low-cost dental clinic proposed within a private dental facility. Town Attorney David Barry assigned the decision to Barlow after he decided that he could not make the decision himself because his brother, Dr. John F. Barry, is one of the dentists who signed a petition questioning the propriety of the proposed clinic. The petition implied that the program for a clinic to be held at the offices at 452 Tolland Turnpike which are occupied by Drs. Michael Goodman, Winfield Danielson Jr., Richard Freiheit, Joseph Shinn and Kathleen Kowalski, may be improper or illegal.

Satellite Falls

OTTAWA (UPI) — A Soviet satellite fell from orbit and soared through the Earth's atmosphere Sunday, leaving a fiery trail over five western states and the Canadian Northwest territories.

A spokesman for the North American Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs, Colo., said it was believed the satellite, an early non-nuclear model launched in 1969, disintegrated before reaching the ground.

In January 1978, a nuclear powered Soviet satellite crashed into Canada's Northwest territory, spreading debris, including radioactive fuel, for hundreds of miles and the cleanup operation cost the government almost $14 million.

Canadian authorities said they would not search for the debris this time.

IRS Incredible

Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton, D-Mo., says he finds it "just absolutely incredible" that Internal Revenue Service employees provide information about federal income tax returns over the telephone.

Wilson Fadely, public affairs officer for the IRS in Washington, told UPI Sunday a caller can get data from a return by giving only a name, an address and Social Security number.

Eagleton and his Missouri colleague, Republican Sen. John Danforth, said they want to investigate the situation.

Oil Prices

GENEVA, Switzerland (UPI) — Ministers of the OPEC oil cartel today attempt to halt a spiraling price free-for-all brought on by the cutback in Iran's oil production.

Only about 55 percent of the oil from the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries is being sold at the agreed prices and, in some cases, a barrel of oil costs as much as $19.50 rather than the "official" OPEC price of $13.34.

The price fluctuations stem from the cutback in Iranian oil supplies.

Iran Trials

TEHRAN, Iran (UPI) — Nine of the shah's top generals and 27 other supporters of his government will stand trial in the first judicial court proceedings since Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's revolutionaries seized power in January.

The government pledged Sunday to grant autonomy to west Iran's Kurdish region in exchange for an end to the bloody fighting between Kurdish rebels and Iranian army troops in Sanandaj, 318 miles west of Tehran.

Chamber Award Goes To William Thornton

MANCHESTER — The Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce has announced that the 1979 "M" Award will be presented to William B. Thornton.

Thornton will be officially recognized on April 4 when the Chamber holds its 78th annual banquet. Being honored along with Thornton in the Chamber's annual celebration of local achievement are previously announced 1979 Community Service Award recipients Robert J. Digan, Dr. Douglas H. Smith and Monsignor Edward J. Reardon.

A Manchester native and the President of Manchester Sand & Gravel Company, Thornton is a graduate of Dartmouth College and also attended Amos Tuck School of Business.

Married to the former Lois E. Smith, Mr. & Mrs. Thornton are the parents of three children, Sandra Lee, a student at Kingswood-Oxford School; Steven, a graduate of the University of Maine now associated with Manchester Sand and Gravel Co.; and William, a graduate of Gettysburg College living in Union Bridge, Md.

In selecting the recipient of the 22nd "M" Award, the Chamber's selection committee adhered to the same set of criteria used since 1957. "The 'M' Award recipient must be a stable, well respected member of the community. He or she must have a time proven history of involvement in several community oriented projects which have benefited the welfare of the town as a whole. Qualities such as leadership, ambition, determination, and achievement are important. Wealth and social status are not. Finally, the single most important consideration takes into account the efforts of the individual to make Manchester a better place in which to live and earn a living in understanding and harmony," said the chamber announcement.

Thornton's contributions to Manchester have been many and varied, but have almost always been carried out with a minimum of fanfare and public recognition, the chamber noted.

A member of South Methodist

William B. Thornton

Church, he is a 32nd Degree Mason and a Shriner. He is a former director of the Manchester Water Co., a member and past director of the Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Manchester Kiwanis Club and an advisor to the Instructors of the Handicapped.

Thornton's efforts on behalf of Manchester have also included involvement with the Republican Town Committee, membership on the Redevelopment Commission, CDAP, the town Economic Development Commission and various advisory panels.

An area in which Thornton has had a major impact is the growth and progress of Manchester Memorial Hospital. He has been an incorporator since 1957 and was elected to the Board of Trustees in 1961. He is a member of the hospital board's executive committee and has been chairman of the MMH Long Range Planning Committee for ten years.

Thornton is also active within the Manchester business community, having been elected as corporator of the Savings Bank of Manchester in 1958 and a director in 1966. He is also a member of the SBM Executive Committee and Audit & Examination Committee. In addition, he is a past ten-year member of the Manchester Advisory Board for the Hartford National Bank & Trust Co.

An added area in which Bill Thornton's impact has been felt is the One Hundred Club of Connecticut. A charter member, he is presently a vice president of the organization after terms on several boards and committees.

He is also a member of the Associate Board of the University of Hartford, is a director of the U of H Construction Institute and a director of the Hartford Chapter National Football Foundation.

Within the construction business, Thornton is a founder and former officer of both the Connecticut Ready-Mix Concrete Association and the Connecticut Construction Industries Association. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Sand and Gravel Association and the National Ready-Mix Concrete Association.

He has also sponsored and furnished contributions to a wide range of local youth athletic groups, the Band Shell and NETS Tennis Tournament.

"In spite of all that can be researched and documented about Bill's background and involvement, the fact remains that few people in the community will ever realize the full impact of all he has done. His desire to work quietly and behind the scenes has hidden many of his accomplishments, and has served to make the Chamber of Commerce even more pleased to be able to present him the 1979 'M' Award. Bill Thornton typifies community concern, and is an example to all who would work for their town," said James Breitenfeld president of the chamber.

The April 4 Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet will serve as a festive conclusion to the Chamber's 1979 celebration of local achievement. Ticket information can be obtained by contacting the Chamber of Commerce at 257 East Center Street.

Egypt-Israel Treaty Being Signed Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — On the night of Sept. 17, 1978, the beaming leaders of Israel and Egypt shook hands at the White House over the framework for the first peace treaty between Arab nation and the Jewish state.

Today, six months, eight days and 16 hours later, Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin and Egyptian President Anwar Sadat return to the White House to turn their fragile framework into diplomatic reality.

With President Carter looking on, the two Middle East leaders and hundreds of top-level U.S. and foreign officials, members of Congress and important guests, were to gather on the front lawn of the White House today for the signing of a historic peace treaty ending three decades of war. Sadat, who began the 1973 Yom Kippur War, and Begin, the old Irgun gunman, will put their names to a pact of peace that Carter cajoled, begged and arm-twisted them into accepting during six months of tortuous talks.

Begin hailed the event as "the great turning point in the Middle East." Sadat saw it as "the holy pursuit of peace" and Carter predicted "this peace will be permanent."

But the euphoria was tempered by warnings that the tough treaty talks would seem like child's play compared to the next stage in the peace process — negotiations for an overall Mideast settlement.

Begin and Sadat, who go to Capitol Hill Tuesday morning to explain the treaty to members of Congress, worked until late Sunday night to settle the final issues in dispute.

The road to today's signing was cleared after 11th hour discussions led to settlement of the final outstanding issue — Israel's surrender of Sinai oil fields and Egypt's sale of petroleum to the Jewish state.

Carter, Begin and Sadat — aware of the difficult days ahead — issued a joint plea for "a day of prayer around the world," offering thanksgiving for the Israeli-Egyptian treaty and asking help in reaching overall peace agreement.

The stage for today's Middle East drama was a 19th century mahogany pedestal desk on the front lawn of the White House — a far cry from the Sinai sands where the armies of Israel and Egypt did battle four times in three decades.

But the unprecedented security as the three leaders gathered under the garbled, leafless trees on Pennsylvania Avenue was a grim reminder of the Arab rejectionist rhetoric that threatens the precarious peace put together by tireless negotiations and Carter's determination. The first test of the treaty came at today's meeting of the international petroleum cartel's oil ministers in Geneva, Switzerland. Next will be an Arab League meeting in Bagdad, Iraq, Tuesday to discuss sanctions against Egypt.

Carter said history may view the treaty signing as the "most significant occurrence" of his presidency. But he warned of a brief period of "threats, posturing and possibly some acts of terrorism" before actual peace is achieved.

As if to punctuate his warning, Damascus Radio said an explosion shook the U.S. Embassy in the Syrian capital Sunday, causing damage but no casualties.

Begin and Sadat also decided to sign all three versions of the treaty — English, Hebrew and Arabic — in Washington, scrapping initial plans for additional ceremonies in Cairo and Jerusalem.

The completed peace package includes the treaty's preamble and nine articles plus three annexes, three letters of intent, two memorandums of agreement and the agreed minutes.

The preamble calls for an end to the state of war between Israel and Egypt as part of "a just, comprehensive and lasting peace in the Middle East."

The articles provide general guidelines for an Israeli withdrawal from the Sinai, a U.N. peace force in the area and normal relations between the two countries.

One annex gives the details of future "good neighborly relations" between the two nations, such as establishment of air, postal, telephone and diplomatic ties.

Another provides details of Israel's three-year, step-by-step withdrawal from the Sinai, replacement of Israeli troops with U.N. forces and the entry of Egyptian civilian police into demilitarized areas.

A third consists of maps of the region, showing each stage of Israel's withdrawal from the Sinai as well as the final boundaries between the two countries.

One letter calls for talks with a month toward the election of a "self-governing authority" on the West Bank and Gaza Strip. The talks were to be completed within a year.

Two other letters outline the details for Israel and Egypt to exchange ambassadors within a month of the first stage of the Jewish state's Sinai pullout.

Amin's Report Labeled Trick

NAIROBI, Kenya (UPI) — Uganda radio reported today that President Idi Amin was cut off from his army and surrounded by Tanzanian troops at the town of Entebbe. Tanzanian military sources scoffed at the report.

The radio reported that a 20,000-strong Tanzanian invasion force, supported by tanks, had cut the main highway connecting the capital of Kampala and Entebbe International Airport here Amin was trapped with 20 aides.

The radio said Amin vowed, "with the blessing of God," to fight his way through the surrounding force and rejoin his army and family and to "reunite Kampala and Entebbe."

Amin was quoted as saying he would "show how only 20 men can fight against 20,000 enemy troops who are attacking Uganda."

Tanzanian military sources in Nairobi immediately dismissed the report as "another figment of Amin's imagination" and said the military situation had not changed since a Tanzanian force captured the key town of Mpigi Thursday. They said the announcement was probably another of Amin's "tricks" and they expected him to announce a major victory over the Tanzanians later in the day.

The sources said their troops had not cut the main highway linking Kampala with Entebbe airport 25 miles away. Such a situation, if true, would signal an almost certain end to Amin's eight years as Uganda's unquestioned dictator.

The announcement of Amin's plight followed new military restrictions issued Sunday by the defense council, Uganda's highest policy-making body.

The council clamped a dusk-to-dawn curfew and closed Entebbe airport "until further notice." The council orders included a threat to shoot down without warning any aircraft violating Uganda's airspace.

Despite today's radio reports, telephone reports from both Kampala and Entebbe reported all was calm.

Guru Takes To the Road

For Sri Chinmoy, 300 books, 130,000 paintings and 3,100 songs are 1 enough. Now the Indian spiritual master is off to the United States, having been bitten by the running bug. Chinmoy wrapped up his second official 26-mile marathon of the year Sunday - the "Heartwatchers" run in Toledo, Ohio - crossing the finish line in 3 hours and 55 minutes. That shaves 35 minutes off the 4 hours and 30 minutes he posted March 3 in Chicago, Calif.

Says the 47-year-old guru, "Running is an aid to spiritual life since it offers individuals an opportunity to go beyond their physical limits." Ommmmmm!

New Career
Last year, Diana Foss shattered all box office records at New York's Radio City Music Hall with her personal extravaganza "I am Diana" when herself the chance to go literary.

She's taking her show on the road now - and that means packing up a 50-piece orchestra, 12 back-up singers and nine dancers for the 22-city gig - but when it's over she's tentatively in line to do a beauty book for Doubleday, all because the prospective editor liked what she saw on the Radio City stage.

The editor - Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis.

Fiddler Forever
Neither brain surgery for 84 years of living can dim the fervor of Arthur Fiedler's baton. The maestro was back on the podium Sunday night, conducting the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and though he staged for only one song - "Stars and Stripes Forever" - the performance earned him a standing ovation.

Fiedler, who was led the world-famed Boston Pops for half a century, still is recuperating from surgery designed to correct difficulty in walking. For a while doctors were unsure if he'd ever conduct again, but they now say his recovery apparently is complete.

Racket Racket
Larceny lurking in the heart of a New York cabbie nearly handicapped Marina Navratilova in the $275,000 Women's Tennis Championship Sunday in Philadelphia.

He swiped both her tennis rackets. She says she left them in the cab while she made a quick stop at a grocery store, but when she got back, cabbie and rackets had vanished.

A quick call to her home in Dallas got two more expressed to her in time for her to use the top trophy. Says she of the sticky-fingered cab driver, "I guess he thought the three dollars he'd get wasn't worth as much as the rackets."

Lauding Lunet
Sidney Lunet will be the man of the hour Friday in Dallas when the Ninth Annual U.S.A. Film Festival gets under way.

Larnet - director of such box office blockbusters as "Twelve Angry Men" and "Network" - receives the tribute at the city's Bob Hope Theater where he'll introduce screenings of six of his works.

Neither director Stanley Kramer, Michael Ritchie and possibly Robert Altman will be on hand, as will Glendon Jackson, Anthony Perkins, Monica Vitti, Martin Balsam and Sean Connery.

The festival, sponsored by Southern Methodist University, runs for 10 days.

Insurance Rip-Offs Tax the Imagination

WESTPORT (UPI) - When the editor of the Insurance Crime Prevention Institute's newsletter sat down to compile a list of last year's most unbelievable insurance rip-offs, he found quite a choice.

There were stories of phony accidents, phony thefts and even a phony death. The top dozen cases of fraud were pulled off by ministers, a former airline executive, a farmer and even a fortuneteller.

"These things tax the human imagination," says Rufus Jarman, the institute's public relations director and newsletter editor. "People are trying to gyp the insurance companies who wouldn't have dreamed of 30 years ago."

Institute investigators, who look into suspected frauds for about 70 percent of the nation's insurance industry, handled 1,350 cases that led to arrests last year. Many of them, though, didn't involve repeat offenders or the types normally associated with other crimes.

"I think that any study will show that the morals of the average person as far as white collar crime is concerned have gone down in the last 25 years," Jarman said.

The case of the Chicago preacher who seemed to walk into bad luck just about everywhere he went was an example, he said.

He said it's too early to tell how many convictions will result from the arrests in 1978, but added the institute investigators have a 90 percent to 95 percent record of convictions on and his side twice, "the report says of the case."

Asked if it's easier to spot fraud in cases as unusual as those that made the year's most ingenious, he merely replied, "Well, some of those are kind of obvious."

Teacher Meetings Set with Parents
MANCHESTER - Parent-teacher conferences for the public elementary schools will be held four afternoons this week and next week.

The conferences will be Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and next Monday and Wednesday. Those days will be four-hour school days. The students will be dismissed early.

All parents have received or will receive notices from teachers to attend the parent-teacher conferences for the second marking period.

Young Couples Pleased By Rehab Loan Program

By GREG PEARSON
Herald Reporter
MANCHESTER - One couple already had started making needed renovations to their home when they discovered the program.

"This house was pretty shabby looking when we moved in," he said. In fact, a nephew had stayed with them last summer before the repairs were done. He returned recently for a visit and drove right past the newly sided home.

And a third couple, whose home already had been renovated, said some people no longer recognize it because of the improvements.

All three young couples have participated in the town's housing rehabilitation loan program. The program provides low-interest home improvement loans to low- and moderate-income residents in town.

It is funded with Community Development money, which is used to subsidize the interest rate of the loan. Residents who qualify must meet certain financial and geographic requirements.

Continued Community Development funding is in doubt because of a proposed ban that would prohibit town participation in the program for two years.

Supporters of continuing in Community Development have pointed to the rehabilitation loan program as an example of how the money has benefited Manchester.

The participants in the program agree. "It's excellent. We're just thrilled," Janet Cooney said. She and her husband, John, of 73 Oakwood St. had vinyl siding and insulation installed. A roof resingled and storm windows replaced with the low-interest loan of the program.

She said the money they saved by participating in the program also helped them have enough funds of their own to build a recreation room in the basement, he said. Like the Meltons and the Cooneys, the Charlers said they would not have been able to do all the work without the help of the program.

TOWN OF MANCHESTER, CONNECTICUT

March 23, 1979

TO: BOARD OF DIRECTORS
FROM: R. B. WEISS, GENERAL MANAGER

SUBJECT: Recommended Budget Fiscal Year Beginning July 1, 1979

In conjunction with the preparation of the budget for this year, the Board of Directors changed their normal practice of entering the process after the presentation by the Manager of his recommendation by stipulating that the Manager should come forth with a maximum expenditure increase of 6% overall. This goal setting approach, while very helpful in some ways, was difficult to achieve due to the uneven effect of inflation and fixed costs on various portions of the budget. This is indicated in the General Fund Summary below.

Table with columns: ADOPTED 1978-79, RECOMMENDED 1979-80, INCREASE, DECREASE. Rows include Board of Education, Insurance & Debt Serv., and Balance of General Fd.

As you review this budget you will note some reductions in most departments - some of which represent lowered levels of service. I am particularly concerned with the reduced level of Capital Improvements which in the long run can prove costly. Due to extremely tight control of expenditures in the present year by management and the cooperative efforts of operating departments, most of the salary adjustments anticipated to be funded from the Contingency Account have been absorbed within departmental budgets. I am therefore recommending that $100,000 from Contingency be transferred in the current year to Capital Reserve to help ease this problem.

On the reverse side of the budget - the overall amount to be raised by taxation shows an increase of approximately 6%. Fortunately, we have had a healthy increase in the Grand List, as well as a substantial surplus from prior years available for appropriation. While the phase-in makes comparisons on a year-to-year basis difficult, without phase-in considerations - we would probably have required no tax rate increase to meet this budget. The phase-in does of course represent a significant savings to most residential taxpayers over the five-year period.

The General Fund Budget as recommended will require a tax rate of 46.41 mills - subject to any adjustments by the Board of Tax Review.

The Fire District recommended budget anticipates a 3.6% increase in expenditures and a rate of 20%. Unfortunately the loss of the Buckland area has decreased the Fire District Grand List and thus increased the tax rate. Funds are also in this budget pending a possible legal surplus from prior years available for appropriation. While the phase-in makes comparisons on a year-to-year basis difficult, without phase-in considerations - we would probably have required no tax rate increase to meet this budget. The phase-in does of course represent a significant savings to most residential taxpayers over the five-year period.

Environment Blamed For Document Destruction

HARTFORD (UPI) — The shaft of sunlight that illuminates a cherished family portrait from time to time could also be destroying it, two paper conservators from the Library of Congress said this weekend.

Marian Peck Dirida and colleague, Merrily Smith, said the home environment can permanently ruin artifacts such as family documents, pen and ink drawings and even old furniture and clothing that may have financial or sentimental value.

Ms. Dirida and Ms. Smith were in Hartford at a weekend convention of professional picture framers.

One of their exhibits at a day-long workshop was what used to be a drawing by the artist Paul Klee. The print was beautifully mounted, but only the signature remained because the drawing had been placed in the frame over a heating vent.

Ms. Dirida aided in the restoration and preservation of a deed of land belonging to a man in her hometown that was signed by George Washington. In their jobs at the Library of Congress, the two women are permanent in preserving and displaying papers of value.

The first mistake the owner of a valuable item makes is to leave the artifact unprotected, or unhoisted, Ms. Dirida said. The old photographs lying in a corner of the attic or mother's antique shawl that isn't packed away properly are open prey to insects, extreme heat and cold and moisture.

"People often store items in very bad locations," Ms. Dirida said.

"They love to hang things over the fireplace, or in the path of light or over a heating vent."

Extreme heat will bake paper, while dampness will cause mold, she said. Another mistake fatal to the artifact is a makeshift repair job done with pressure sensitive adhesive tapes or masking tape. The tape eventually deteriorates and falls off, leaving a yellow stain.

Anyone searching for a professional picture framer should ask that the work be done to "conservation or museum standards," Ms. Smith said.

"If you get a puzzled look, you should be another framer," she said. The mat on which the print is to be mounted should be of 100 percent cotton fibers, Ms. Dirida said.

Area Police Report

Vernon
William M. Barasso, 32, of Hartford, was charged early this morning with third-degree burglary, possession of burglar's tools, possession of a stolen car, and second and third-degree larceny.

The arrest was made in connection with the investigation of a break into Vernon Cine 1 and 2. Police said Barasso was in possession of a car reportedly stolen out of New Haven, Sunday. They said he had in his possession an undetermined amount of money and goods allegedly taken from the theater.

He was held at the police station in lieu of posting a $3,000 bond and was to be presented in court in Rockville today.

Malcolm Owens, 20, of 13 Laurel St., Rockville, was charged Sunday with evading responsibility in connection with the investigation of an accident at the K-Mart Plaza, Vernon Circle. He is scheduled to appear in court on April 3.

Guillermo Martinez, 42, of 76 Village St., Rockville, was charged Sunday with attempt to commit burglary, possession of a weapon (knife), and disorderly conduct.

Police said the arrest was the result of a complaint from the Village Street area. He was held in lieu of posting a $2,500 bond and is to appear in court today.

Stanley Morikovic, 62, of 970 Avery St., South Windsor, was charged Saturday with evading responsibility. Police said he collided with a utility pole and left the scene.

He is scheduled to appear in court April 3.

Phillip C. Warner, 13, of 67 Wilson Lane, Vernon, was taken to Rockville General Hospital Saturday with injuries suffered in an accident on Route 83.

Police said Warner was riding his bicycle and collided with a car driven by Marc Kneef of Andover. Police said the car was stopped by the driveway of Scranton Motors. No police action was taken.

Richard A. Branford Jr., 27, of Stafford Springs, was arrested Saturday on a warrant charging him with second-degree larceny in connection with the passing of alleged bad checks at a local bank.

He was released on a $500 nonreturn bond for court appearance April 3.

Sтивен H. Provencer, 41, of Somers, was charged Friday with two counts of risk of injury to or impairing the morals of children and one count of second-degree sexual assault.

He was released on a $10,000 bond and was to be presented in court today.

Helbron
Alfred L. Folino, 53, of Stafford Springs, was charged Sunday with failure to drive right in connection with an early-morning accident on Route 66.

Police said Folino was traveling east, crossed the center line and struck two cars traveling west, driven by William F. Prussia of Amston and Charles Duffy of Portland.

The cars were towed and the occupants were taken to Windham Community Memorial Hospital for treatment of lacerations, police said. Folino is to appear in court in Rockville on April 6.

Singles Group Planned

MANCHESTER — The YWCA of Manchester will sponsor a Thursday evening, 8-week "Newly Single Group" for men and women adjusting to living single in a couple's world. Also offered will be a Monday morning 8-week "Women in Transition Group" for women contemplating or adjusting to job, lifestyle, and family-status changes.

Each series will start the week of April 16.

There is a fee.

Facilitator will be Barbara Sherman, M.S.W., of the Human Service Department, Rockville General Hospital, who has conducted singles' and women's groups in the Manchester area.

For further information, call the Manchester YWCA, 647-1437, or Barbara Sherman, 644-8664, evenings.

A Bushel For A Barrel

WASHINGTON - In 1970, a bushel of wheat and a barrel of oil sold on the world market for about $2 each. Today, oil's price has skyrocketed to $14 a barrel and more while wheat hovers at $3 a bushel.

Bullets on Target As Repeat Champs

NEW YORK (UPI) - The Washington Bullets may lack some of their firepower, but they're right on target in their quest to repeat as NBA champions.

The Bullets, playing without injured starters Kevin Grevey and Tom Henderson as well as sixth man Mitch Kupchak, still defeated the Detroit Pistons 116-107 Sunday to clinch the Atlantic Division crown. Elvin Hayes scored 25 points, Bobby Danridge added 22 and Wes Unseld chipped in with 21 to lead the Bullets' surge.

"We're not fighting anyone but ourselves now," said Bullets' Coach Dick Motta. "We can't get overly confident, and as long as we're down in manpower, we shouldn't be."

Motta praised his team's business-like attitude. "These guys are really pros," he said. "They just go about their jobs."

NBA

Day in, day out, we just do our jobs. Now the team can concentrate on chalking up the best record, without the pressure or worrying about how the other teams are doing.

Detroit, playing without injured center Bob Lanier, trailed by only 93-84 late in the third quarter, but baskets by Phil Chenier and Hayes got the Bullets a commanding 97-84 lead at the end of the quarter.

"Playing without Bob is like having $1 million and not being able to use it," said Pistons Coach Dick Vitale. "It's tough to go to work without a full deck of cards."

Vitale had other things on his mind, too. The Pistons got off to a horrendous start, and have played 500 ball over their last 34 games.

"We're going to be good, it's just a matter of time," he said. "We've gotten rid of the dissenation and our younger guys are getting better."

Martina Wants Status As Best Woman Player

NEW YORK (UPI) - For Martina Navratilova, there are always two wars to win. Obviously, there is the daily battle to win each match, culminating in another championship. This she has been quite successful at ever since her victory Wimbledon last summer, and she wound up the winter circuit with a 38-3 match record and five tournament titles.

Another such was the case Sunday after she had polished off Tracy Austin, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2, to win the $100,000 jackpot in a women's tennis tournament. Not only was Navratilova magnificent in winning four matches with the loss of only one set, but Chris Evert, whose reputation remains Martina's only barrier to recognition as No. 1, was beaten twice on consecutive days.

"I'm tired of talking about No. 1 because no one seems to care," Navratilova said after she had been asked about it for the third time in five minutes. "It seems I would be No. 1 now since I've won five tournaments and more than twice as much money as anyone else."

The 22-year-old Czech expatriate overwhelmed Austin to start the match, sweeping the first two games at love and racing off to a 5-1 lead. But in an indication of what was to come, Austin won the next two games before dropping the set.

Cheered on by a crowd of 13,762, the largest ever for a women's tennis tournament, the 18-year-old Austin hitting deep and to her opponent's backhand, took control in the second set to race to a 4-1 lead.

With Austin giving her the opportunity by hitting shorter, Navratilova got back on her game and took charge again. Oddly, she made her move after dropping a marathon second game when the score went to deuce eight times.

"The third game was a big one after that," Navratilova said. "I wanted to win it bad. I felt the tide would turn with that one. I was lucky to get all my first serves in. I knew I would break her again because I was getting close, and when I did break her that boosted my confidence."

In the consolation match, Sue Barker easily beat Dianne Fromholtz, 6-2, 6-2, to earn $30,000. Fromholtz won $22,000.

Navratilova said she was surprised to win the match. "I don't know how I did it," she said. "I just played very well today."

Tanner said, "In all the matches I've played against Jimmy (Connors) and Bjerg Borg, McEnroe was better against me today."

McEnroe was exhausted from a three-hour marathon semifinal match he played late Saturday night against Borg. The 5-7, 6-1, 7-6 victory was the highlight of a week-long tournament that began with one of the strongest fields of the WCT season.

McEnroe came into the tournament seeded No. 3, behind Borg and Connors, but became the dominant player after Connors was upset in the second round by Tom Gullikson.

Connors maintained the lead on the WCT tour with $92 Grand Prix points. Tanner is second with 782, while McEnroe - who picked up $34,750 for his singles and doubles championships - moved to 10th on the Grand Prix list with 315 points.

Tanner 'Off' Game Losing to McEnroe

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) - Things were going so badly for Roscoe Tanner that he turned to a ballboy and handed him his racket.

"Here, you want to play?" Tanner asked with a smile. "You can do as well as I can."

Tanner may not have been wrong. He had trouble with the simplest shots Sunday in losing the finals of the $175,000 New Orleans Tennis Festival in straight sets to John McEnroe, 6-4, 6-2.

McEnroe seemed invincible, rolling to his win in just 57 minutes and then returning to the court a half-hour later to team with Peter Fleming for the doubles championship.

"John just played too well today," Tanner said. "In all the matches I've played against Jimmy (Connors) and Bjerg Borg, McEnroe was better against me today."

McEnroe was exhausted from a three-hour marathon semifinal match he played late Saturday night against Borg. The 5-7, 6-1, 7-6 victory was the highlight of a week-long tournament that began with one of the strongest fields of the WCT season.

Huskies Runner-ups In Hockey Playoffs

Second best was the final achievement for the Manchester Midget Huskie hockey team in Northern Connecticut League playoffs last weekend.

The locals edged South Windsor, 3-2, Friday night in the semifinals but bowed to powerful Enfield in the championship test Saturday, 5-1.

Friday night's game started at 11 and didn't end until 12:35. Less than 11 hours later, at 11:30 a.m., the Huskies had to take to the ice again for the finale.

Dean Tully accounted for two Huskies goals against South Windsor as Karl Fiorentino notched the third. All were won scored unassisted as the locals held a 3-27 shut-out goal margin.

In the finale, Enfield struck early and tallied three times in the first 2 1/2 minutes and was never headed.

The lone Manchester tally, was recorded by Willie Simon with Leon Botteron assisting. Enfield outshot the losers, 28-16.

Mike Keeler was a defensive standout for the losers.

Boxer Injured LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) - Ringo Garth, an Arizona entrant in the Nevada Regional Golden Gloves tournament, remained in guarded condition in the Intense Care Unit of Sunrise Hospital Sunday, following surgery for a head injury sustained last Saturday night.

Garth was injured in the opening 26 seconds of the first round of a 230-pound novice division fight from several blows landed by Las Vegas boxer Paul McCormick.

The boxer hit his head when he slumped to the canvas.

Petraglia Pin Winner

MILWAUKEE (UPI) - All Johnny Petraglia needed was one little opening.

Bill Coleman gave it to him, missing a four pin in the 10th frame, and Joe Petraglia tossed four clutch finishing strikes for a 6-2-2-2-10 victory in the $100,000 Milwaukee open bowling tournament.

Petraglia, 32, of Staten Island, N.Y., earned $15,000 for his 12th PBA tour championship. The left-hander was trailing until Coleman missed on that 10th-frame shot.

If the pin had fallen, Coleman would have clinched his second championship and regained his eligibility in the tournament of champions.

Petraglia packed his 10th-frame shots squarely in the pocket, clearing the pin in the last 40 seconds.

Coleman, from Springfield, Ore., earlier had defeated Art Michael in a semifinal match, 236-205. Anthony, needing a pair of strikes to win the game, was stopped by a seven pin.

Anthony started the day with a 106-103 decision over Dave Frame of Baldwin Park, Calif. and a 248-209 victory over Nelson Burton Jr.

Coleman earned $8,000 for second. Anthony, of Kent, Wash., $6,000 for third. Burton of St. Louis, $5,000 for fourth and Frame $4,000 for fifth in the 14th annual event.

Blissoms - Sonja Henry 179-482, Marty Bradshaw 178-512, Rita Collins 189-458, Barbara Sullivan 458, Carole Conner 467, Lorraine Baker 478.

F.W.I.L.F.E. - Sue Stegman 199-451, Lynne Topping 200-504, Rosemarie Lovett 472, Gerry Tracy 463, Jim Schultz 452, Dottie Whitehead 467.

Hitters' Slumps Hurt Mariners

TEMPE, Ariz. (UPI) - Darrell Johnson is not your basic bubbling manager.

If anything, he is low key, so, when he gushes a bit about his Seattle Mariners for 1979, it's worth listening.

"We weren't as bad a team as our record last year," he says of a club which won only 54 games, down 10 from the expansion year of 1977. "Our problem was all of our best hitters went into slumps at the same time and how often does that happen."

"I expect them to bounce back this year, and if they do, we can be an improved team."

The players who slumped last year were first baseman Danny Meyer and outfielders Ruppert Jones and Lee Stanton. Between them they hit only 19 homers in 1978. The previous year Stanton had 27, Jones 24 and Meyer 22. You don't lose that kind of firepower and not suffer.

"They all set their sights too high off the year before," says Johnson. "They couldn't do it and as a result they tried too hard. You can't play like that."

The bright spot last year was Leon Roberts, picked up from Houston Astros, during the winter of 1977. Roberts, almost unnoticed, hit 22 homers, drove in 91 runs and batted .301.

"What a player he turned out to be," said Johnson. "And I don't forget Julio Cruz at second base. He stole 59 bases and could develop into one of the most exciting players in baseball. And he's only 23."

Shortstop Mario Mendoza; designated hitter Willie Horton and pitchers Floyd Bannister, Modell Jones, and Paul Lindblad are Seattle's key off-season acquisitions. All will be counted on to help improve the team in 1979, especially Horton whom Johnson speaks of in respectful tones.

Horton was switched to three different clubs last year," says Johnson. "and still he drove 62 runs. You have to admire a man like that not only for what he can do on the field but for the inspiration he can give younger players."

Strengths - The infield with Meyer and Tom House look like the 10 who will make up the staff.

Attorney Gives Ruling On Land Ownership

VERNON — The 20 acres (off Route 30) included in the site plan for the Middle School built in the 1960s comes under the jurisdiction of the Board of Education and the rest of the property belongs to the town, William Breslau, town attorney said in an opinion given to Mayor Frank McCoy.

Controversy between Mayor McCoy and Dr. Bernard Sidman, superintendent of schools, arose when it was announced the town, Rockville General Hospital and the Rockville Baptist Church were considering a three-way land exchange and school jurisdiction.

Plans were to sell or give the land to the Rockville Baptist Church in exchange for 13 acres in Henry Park which was willed to the hospital many years ago and the hospital would acquire the church site adjacent to the hospital campus.

Breslau said the decision of the former Town of Vernon, at a meeting on May 23, 1961, were authorized to acquire the Ecker property in the name of the town and the town accepted the deed on June 27, 1961. Later the town built the Middle School on the southern portion of the site using about 20 acres for the site plan.

"It is my opinion that the plan referred to is presently and actively devoted to school purposes, but it has been used for management and control of the local Board of Education pursuant to state statute," Breslau said.

He said the property beyond the boundaries of the site plan, which is not devoted to school purposes, has not been entrusted to the local Board of Education and remains within the exclusive jurisdiction and control of the governing body of the town, its owner.

He said it is his understanding that the larger portion of the Ecker property has never been used for school purposes but it has been used for gardening, recreation and such.

"I would suggest that the plan referred to provides very weighty evidence towards establishing the area devoted to school purposes, and may be used for management and control of the local Board of Education pursuant to state statute," Breslau said.

Jeff Ball, an employee at House and Hale, Main St., Manchester, took advantage of spring weather and the old advertising technique of a "sandwich board" to advertise a sale at the downtown store. Ball walked up and down Main Street with the sign proclaiming the sale. (Herald photo by Strempfer)

Forum Slated Tonight On CD Funding Issue

MANCHESTER — The Democratic Town Committee will sponsor its second forum on the Community Development issue tonight.

The session will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Washington School, 94 Cedar St.

The public is invited to attend the session and ask questions and listen to the discussion about the Community Development issue.

A similar session was held last month at Nathan Hale School.

Town voters will decide April 17 whether or not to approve an ordinance that would establish a two-year ban on town participation in the federal Community Development program.

The program provides annual funding—usually about $50,000 a year—to the community. The funding is used to assist for projects primarily aimed at housing low- and moderate-income residents.

Designated uses of the money have included site improvements at a housing for the elderly project, conversion of the Green School for a senior citizens center, improvements to Charter Oak Park and the Nathan Hale School playground, a legal aid program and a day care center.

Opponents of the program have said, however, that the federal government establishes too many requirements for the town before it releases the money to the community. They have proposed the ordinance that would establish the two-year ban.

Democratic members of the Town Board of Directors are expected to be tonight's session to answer questions. Five of the six directors—Mayor Stephen Penny, Stephen Cassano, Betty Inghilata, John FitzPatrick and Thomas Connors—support continuation in the program.

Only one of the Democratic directors—Joseph Sweeney—is in favor of the proposed ban.

Vernon Hearing Tonight

VERNON — The Town Council and the Water Pollution Control Authority will conduct a public hearing tonight at 7:30 in the auditorium of the Skyles School, Park Street.

The hearing will be on proposed assessments for sewer installations for Contracts 14A, 14B, and 15.

A list of charges has been compiled and property owners have been informed what their assessments will be.

Following the public hearing the council will meet in regular session.

Items on the agenda include the budget report for February, a schedule of transfers and additional appropriations, a report from the town planner on the Small Cities Grant, requests for tax refunds, and appointment of a town auditor.

The council will also be asked to set a public hearing date on the Small Cities Grant, discuss a legal opinion on ownership of the former Ecker property, discuss problems with trespassers and vandalism at the Ecker site.

Vernon To Receive Half Of Expected HUD Grant

VERNON — The Town of Vernon has been informed of another $40,000 original award at the Fitton Firehouse in the Rockville section will be getting only half of the expected grant of $80,000 under the Small Cities Grant program.

The town, after holding public hearings, decided how it would allocate the expected $80,000 and now has been told the grant will be cut to $38,230 and that the original request will have to be cut by the $20,770 amount.

George H. Russell, town planner, will ask the council, at its meeting tonight, to set a date for another public hearing on the reduced grant.

He has prepared the same list of projects, but has cut the amounts to be allowed to each and said the proposed cuts would leave all programs intact at reduced funding levels.

A $70,000 reduction in the owner occupied rehab program, from $150,000 to $80,000 will be offset by the recently approved Community Development grant bonus funding, Russell said.

Dear Abby
By Abigail Van Buren

He Wants To Be A Coddled Yegg

DEAR ABBY: TV reporters recently visited a federal prison in Allenwood, Pa., where there are no bars, fences or cells. The inmates - including some Water-gate-ers - enjoy their dormitory-styled rooms and tennis and handball courts in a country club setting.

They even have low-calorie meals for those who want to lose weight.

I'm a psychology professor, and aside from a few minor traffic violations, I've had no experience with crime.

My question, Dear Abby: How can I get from six months to a year in Allenwood?

NEEDS A VACATION

DEAR NEEDS: I can't tell you how to get into Allenwood, but I can tell you that if you're looking for a lot of personal freedom, you wouldn't wish prison (even Allenwood) on your worst enemy.

After checking it out, I learned that most inmates of Allenwood had been transferred there as a reward for good behavior after having served part of their sentence in other federal prisons. Their crimes are usually non-violent, such as fraud, tax evasion, embezzlement, forgery, etc.

Prisoners must work in food services, laundry or in the prison's 2,000-acre farm. Exercise facilities are available after work to encourage physical fitness.

It's true that there are no bars or fences, but very few inmates attempt escape. If they do, their sentences are extended, and they're learned that the loss of one's personal freedom is one of the most devastating experiences a free man can endure. Ask anyone who's ever served time.

DEAR ABBY: I enjoyed the exchange in your column in which women were compared with cars and models via the antics.

My 1 submit that an older woman is like a treasured volume filled with shared history, rich with human experience, overflowing with responsiveness and understanding, abundant with wisdom and a sag of suffering unthought. It is a story which grows deeper with every reading, to which equally loved pages are added every day. If a man is lucky enough to possess such a masterpiece, who would trade it for a pretty cover and a bunch of blank pages?

CONSTANCE IN SAN DIEGO

DEAR CONSTANCE: Possibly a man who doesn't want to read about history, but prefers to write his own.

DEAR ABBY: My friend and I are having an argument. It started when a mutual friend had a baby boy and suddenly she is white and the father is black. The baby's skin is as light as the mother's.

My wife says if he grows up and marries a white girl, because of his black genes they could have a black baby. Also, she says that in generations to come, even if they all make white, a black baby could suddenly appear.

Can you straighten me out on this?

PROVING A POINT

DEAR PROVING: A child can be no darker than the darker parent.

DEAR PROVING: If you need help in writing letters of sympathy, congratulations or thank-you letters, get Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Booklet #100, $2.95. Stamped $2 cents, self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212

He Wants To Be A Coddled Yegg

DEAR ABBY: TV reporters recently visited a federal prison in Allenwood, Pa., where there are no bars, fences or cells. The inmates - including some Water-gate-ers - enjoy their dormitory-styled rooms and tennis and handball courts in a country club setting.

They even have low-calorie meals for those who want to lose weight.

I'm a psychology professor, and aside from a few minor traffic violations, I've had no experience with crime.

My question, Dear Abby: How can I get from six months to a year in Allenwood?

NEEDS A VACATION

DEAR NEEDS: I can't tell you how to get into Allenwood, but I can tell you that if you're looking for a lot of personal freedom, you wouldn't wish prison (even Allenwood) on your worst enemy.

After checking it out, I learned that most inmates of Allenwood had been transferred there as a reward for good behavior after having served part of their sentence in other federal prisons. Their crimes are usually non-violent, such as fraud, tax evasion, embezzlement, forgery, etc.

Prisoners must work in food services, laundry or in the prison's 2,000-acre farm. Exercise facilities are available after work to encourage physical fitness.

It's true that there are no bars or fences, but very few inmates attempt escape. If they do, their sentences are extended, and they're learned that the loss of one's personal freedom is one of the most devastating experiences a free man can endure. Ask anyone who's ever served time.

DEAR ABBY: I enjoyed the exchange in your column in which women were compared with cars and models via the antics.

My 1 submit that an older woman is like a treasured volume filled with shared history, rich with human experience, overflowing with responsiveness and understanding, abundant with wisdom and a sag of suffering unthought. It is a story which grows deeper with every reading, to which equally loved pages are added every day. If a man is lucky enough to possess such a masterpiece, who would trade it for a pretty cover and a bunch of blank pages?

CONSTANCE IN SAN DIEGO

DEAR CONSTANCE: Possibly a man who doesn't want to read about history, but prefers to write his own.

DEAR ABBY: My friend and I are having an argument. It started when a mutual friend had a baby boy and suddenly she is white and the father is black. The baby's skin is as light as the mother's.

My wife says if he grows up and marries a white girl, because of his black genes they could have a black baby. Also, she says that in generations to come, even if they all make white, a black baby could suddenly appear.

Can you straighten me out on this?

PROVING A POINT

DEAR PROVING: A child can be no darker than the darker parent.

DEAR PROVING: If you need help in writing letters of sympathy, congratulations or thank-you letters, get Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Booklet #100, $2.95. Stamped $2 cents, self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212
