trip to the Mexican Caribbean to a new sofa, from adver tising space for your business to a new wardrobe for

It's that once a year television extravaganza, a bonanza of bargains in nine days of gavel-crashing excitement called The Great CPTV Auction. Broadcast live today through April 28 on Connecticut Public Television, The Great CPTV Auction offers viewers a unique buying experience while raising money to keep public TV in the state going and growing. One of the most spectacular donations to this year's auction is a 1979 Dodge St. Regis automobile, valued at $9,290 and donated by the 23 participating members of the Connecticut Dodge Dealers Association. About $3,500 worth of merchandise will be sold every hour, raising $58 each minute to reach the $250,000 goal. There is a reconditioned pinball machine worth $600; a $1,000 shopping spree of G.Fox & Co.; a Thayer Coggins ontemporary sofa, a solar water heating system; and a 90-minute concert offered by the New England String Qurtet for private, club or commercial promotion, valued

There are ten $60 dinners to be ordered up at major restaurants throughout the state and there's a Sunfish sailboat. Hartford's Hotel Sonesta has offered dinner for four with Brad Davis as waiter! Also on the list is a food processor and a parachute and harness from Pioneer International Corp. of Manchester.

The Gordie Howe family has donated a doll, a gift from the touring Russian hockey team. Ownership of a vacation home for one week every year; electical appliances, sports equipment; a weekend stay at a condominium at Lakeridge in Torrington: computer time and a day in Washington with Congressman Toby Moffet are other hargains logged into the warehouse. All are donated by businesses and individuals who are solicited by a dedicated network of CPTV volunteers across the state. The auction action begins at 6 p.m. and doesn't slow down until sign off at 1 a.m. Except for Sunday, April 22, when the CPTV Auction art and antiques collection is presented for hids between 1 p.m. and 1 a.m. An abstract silk screen by Robert Motherwell is among the more than 200 paintings, prints sculptures and antiques donated by artists, art owners and dealers. The CPTV cameras will also follow two Connecticut artists as they create works in the TV studio. At the end of the broadcast day, the works will be auctioned off to the highest bidders.

American Cancer Society

YOU DO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

There are the RESEARCHERS. Because of you, they can continue their work to find the causes, preventions and cures

And the PATIENTS. Because of you, they will have the care and support they need in order to fight for their lives. Then, the PHYSICIANS. Because of you, they will have up to-date information on how best to treat their patients

And the EDUCATORS. Because of you, they will be able to spread the word on how people can guard their own liveigainst cancer.

And to us - the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY, Because without you we would not be able to continue working towards our goal — the saving of lives.

YOU DO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The money you raise this year in the Connecticut Crusade Against Cancer will do so many things for so many people Thank you sincerely — from all of us.
